

COOPERS COMMENTS

By Albert Cooper

A clean-up, fix-up, paint-up campaign always does a lot of good. Jerry Loper and Rupert Jackson joined forces and made quite a difference in the alley behind the Masonic Hall, Theatre and down past the drug store. Looks good, doesn't it? Makes an impression on visitors.

Speaking of visitors, we will have four men in our town next week. Bryan Halliburton, pastor of Clyde First Baptist Church, will be preaching at the First Baptist Church here, with Charles Tolison directing the music. Rev. Clifford Trotter, pastor of First United Methodist of Hereford, will be preaching at First Methodist here, with Robert Wert directing the music. They will be engaged in a Clean-Up, Spruce-Up campaign, helping us to clean out the murky spots in our lives. This is even more essential, if we are to impress our visitors and make ourselves worthy of our friends.

And that leads to this thought: Madison Montgomery lost a sister, Mrs. J. L. Owens, of Macon, Georgia, some days ago. Two weeks before she passed away, she sent her sister, Mrs. Ineda Constantine these lines:

If I could have but just one plea;
I think that that one prayer
would be:
Lord, make me worthy of my friends.

Give me the courage under stress
That they expect me to possess.

And when they smile and look at me,
Oh, let me be, Lord, what they see.

And if, sometimes, I may have erred
In any thought, or deed, or word,

Then help me, Lord, to make amends.
Let me be worthy of my friends.

Too often we just drift along,
taking things for granted, yet
all the while trying to be nice.
But sometimes we are like the little boy who came in one day out of the rain, with his feet shedding mud all over the carpet, saying to his mother, "Did you notice, Mom, I didn't slam the door." When our little personal world, or the world about us seems to be clogged up, or murky, we should remember what we once had, think more deeply of what we will have, and the flow of thanksgiving will grow into a stream that will cleanse, purify, and gladden the hearts of all of us.

(If that Methodist Preacher would mow his own back yard and alley, it would look a lot better).

DAMP WEATHER KEEPS UNION FARMERS OUT OF FIELDS

Hi neighbor! Well, the weather is cloudy, rainy, misty, wet and damp looks like. The farmers won't work in the fields too much this week. I think Mr. Bud Booth has started pulling cotton.

Johnnie May Ramsey spent the weekend in Rankin with Mike and Stella Hughes and family. Stella is not any better but she is still able to get around. The doctors say she has crippling arthritis, which is very bad. We hope she gets better soon.

Visiting with John and Roma McIntyre were Mr. and Mrs. Youngblood of Saint Jo, Mo.

Spending Saturday night with Ollie Burnam were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Everett of Midland, their daughter Alice and husband and little son of Alpine. I don't know their name. The little son is Ollie's great-grandson.

Emmett and Fay Wood and Lucille Kelly of Cisco had supper with me Wednesday evening. Ollie Burnam visited with us too. Burette and Johnny May Ramsey same up and we had a good time playing 84.

Thursday evening the regular 84 party met with Mr. and Mrs. Bill English. Everyone had a good time.

Sunday afternoon, Burette Ramsey and I attended singing at Scranton Baptist Church. We enjoyed it very much. Not too many attended as Mrs. Mary Ray Anderson had passed away at Port Arthur, and her body was in Rust Funeral Home. Mrs. Mary was a native of Scranton and has one brother and four sisters who still live there. Our deepest sympathy to all of her family. I have known them all my life, in fact I was born on the Ray farm.

Saturday evening, Faye and Emmett Wood and I attended the musical at Scranton. There was a big crowd and lots of good music and good food.

We hope to see you at church next Sunday. We have a new pastor at the Putnam Baptist Church - Bro. David Claxton and family are with us now, although they live in Abilene as Bro. David is a student at H-SU. They have two very sweet children, Jeffrey 9, and Julia Ann 6. They had Sunday dinner with Mrs. Neta Gunn.

I hope to see you in church next Sunday.

Impala's hidden persuaders:

- ① 350-cu.-in. engine
 A new more powerful standard 250-hp V8 makes the 1970 Impala move with all the more assurance. On good ol' regular gas.
- ② Anti-theft column lock
 A locking system is built right into the steering column. When you take your key with you, you lock not only your ignition but your steering wheel as well.
- ③ Aluminized exhaust system
 It simply means that your original muffler, tailpipe and exhaust are going to last longer than you'd probably expect them to. Fair enough?
- ④ Side guard beams
 They look like highway guard rails, and they're built into both sides of the car for extra protection in case of impact. Not too many cars have them.
- ⑤ Inner fenders
 Up inside every fender is another fender to protect against slush and mud and help keep your Impala looking young.
- ⑥ Flush and dry
 We build the car so that rain and wash water can run down through the inside of the rocker panels, then out. Air follows to do the drying.
- ⑦ Full Coil suspension Huge coil springs at all four wheels are four big reasons why a Chevrolet Impala rides smoother and quieter than a low-priced car has any right to.

TRUE OR FALSE?

Does it make any difference what we believe? What does the Bible teach in regard to this matter?

If it doesn't make any difference what we believe, we should quit trying to change anyone's belief about anything.
On the other hand, if it does make a difference, we should be trying to get people to believe what is right.

Jesus said, "Except ye believe that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." John 8:24. Well, certainly, everyone agrees that we must believe in Jesus as the Son of God! Then it does make a difference WHAT we believe.

Let us then read another scripture. "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." Rom. 10:17. Suppose what I believe is not taught in the word of God.
Then, does it make any difference what I believe? "Without faith it is impossible to please him." Heb. 11:6. Does it matter to God WHAT I believe? Is He pleased just so I believe something? God expects man to believe what He says.

Is what I believe what God teaches. The only way I can know is to read and study His word 2 Tim. 3:16-17.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

This year is the 50th Anniversary of the Intelligence Division of the Internal Revenue Service. Six Post Office Inspectors became the first special agents under ex-Post Office Inspector Elmer L. Irely in 1919. Even though the six men have grown to a force of approximately 1900 highly qualified and trained special agents, they still represent a very small part of the 65,000 total tax people in IRS.

During 1968 there were 9739 tax fraud investigations. Subjects of tax fraud investigations included a cross section of taxpayers in all strata of society and all walks of life. Types of violations successfully prosecuted included income tax evasion, willful failure to file a return, false claim for refund, and other tax law violations. During 1968 the special agents secured 1,026 indictments, and 638 taxpayers pled guilty or nolo contendere during the year. There were also 118 taxpayers convicted after trial, and 39 were acquitted.

The good tax folks would be the first to admit that this is a very small part of the taxpayers who signed 72 million tax returns. IRS is proud of the voluntary compliance by most taxpayers, but they are also proud of the fine work done by the special agents during the past 50 years. Their fine work may have helped encourage voluntary compliance.
