The attorney general holds that the law strictly prohibits the state treasurer from accepting from any individual such securities and while the law may not in express terms include corporations, the attorney general holds that it is the spirit and purpose of the law. ## CAUCASUS IS IN A FERMENT

ASKING HIS REMOVAL

Grave Fears That Armenian Butcheries May Break

Out Again

By Associated Press. TIFLIS, Caucasia, Jan. 31.-The assassination of General Griaznoff on Jan. 29 by a man disguised as a painter, brought to a head the discontent among the faction of the military, which regards with disfavor the policy of the viceroy of Caucasus, Count Von Verontzoff-Koff, between the Tartars and Armenians. The two races, it is said, will appeal directly to St. Petersburg for removal of the viceroy and they are secretly supported by the high officials of the viceroyalty. It is established that the murderer of General Griaznoff, who has not recovered consciousness from the terrible beating he received from the soldiers who arrested him, is a student of Imeritia (government of Kutasi), named Dioyashvili, a member of the fighting organization of the socialist revolutionists. He was selected to carry out the sentence of death imposed on Griaznoff, in retaliation for the latter's ruthless repression of the revolutionists of Kutais.

Ruthless Peacemaker General Alikhanoff, who was dispatched there by Griaznoff to "pacify" the province, spared neither life nor property in the war he is waging against the revolutionists. He reopened the railroad to the Black Sea, which had long been in the hands of the revolutionists, and in the first time for months the entire Trans-Caucasian line was in operation. The whole revolutionary movement in the Caucasus was an echo of the movement in Russia proper. It was conducted by working men of various nationalities, under the leadership of the Russian social democratic agitators, and is being gradually stamped out in Kutais, Mingrelia and the Black

MAN TO CREATE NEW LIFE FORMS

German Says New Humanity May Be Evolved

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 31,-A dispatch to the Inter Ocean from New York

Man, through his advanced science, may develop into a creator himself, is the opinion of Dr. William O. Stewald of the University of Leipsic in a lecture at Columbia University last night on the results of the attempt to create life through chemical processes.

Professor Stewald has given careful attention to the experiments of Professor Jacques Loeb of the University of California and announces with confidence his belief that by slow development science may even create a type of life as high as that of our domestic animals. The steps will be slow, one form of life will be produced after another and eventually the professor expects something almost akin to man in its physical being may be produced. "There is practically no limit to what man can do in this direction," he said. "Of course, at first he would be able to produce only a piece of protoplasm, something like the water hydra or the resemblance of the sea urchin that Professor Loeb has evolved, but it will be instinct with real life and will be a step in the new evolution. This evolution can only result in the creation of something the equal of higher animals, but what it will be who shall say?

"It seems to me that the scientist who does this will be able to determine the physical form of his creation after development has started, and he will have created a new order of life, for this being will multiply indefinitely just the same as all our modern

"I cannot say whether this creation of man will be crustacean, amphibian, mammalian or whether biped, quadruped, fish, fowl or reptile. I can only say that after careful study of what has been accomplished, I am overwhelmed at the inevitable probabilities, Who knows but a new order of humanity may be created."

tion for its severe policy in the constant discovery of bombs, bomb factories and depots of arms and munitions in all parts of the empire, which are now so commonplace that such matters scarcely obtain individual mention in the papers. The Novoe Vremya today, however, prints a half column of statistics of last week's captures, showing the seizure of bombs in a score of cities and discoveries of the regular bomb factories, explosives and filled and unfilled bombs at Ekaterinburg, Samaria, Riga, Vikutsk, Suwalki and Ekaternoslav. Terrorists having in their possession from two to twenty bombe have been arrested at Warsaw, Minsk, Vitebak, Lodz, Odessa, Gomel and Tiflis. There have been attempts made to kill the police, military or civil officers at Warsaw, Pinks, Riga, Gomel, Tiflis, Minks and other cities, though not included in Novoe Vremya's list, The bomb factories have also been discovered here and in Moscow. DALLAS, Texas, Jan. 31.-Counsel for George Warren, charged with robbery by force of arms, secured a continuance in the district criminal court this morning from Judge E. B. The case was continued until the first Monday in March. It was announced in open court and placed in the court records that Ed Truelove, one of the parties arrested in connection with Warren, charged with having robbed C. H. Lokey of Holly Springs, Miss., by force of arms, will be used by the state as a witness for the prosecution of the cases. The others under arrest on the same charge are: Bob Wyatt, a white man;

Clint Lee, a negro, and Letitia Hamilton, a white woman. Lokey alleged that he was drugged, beaten and robbed the night of Jan. 17 in the saloon of Truelove. The cases came up in the criminal district court at 10 o'clock this morn-

Has Sprung Into Prominence Within Past Five Years

PRICE OF LANDS HIGH

Soil Is Sandy, With Inexhaustible Supply of Water Beneath

CLYDE, Texas, Jan. 31.—The Clyde country can be cited as an example to prove that a man is not always wise to let go of a good thing just because it satisfies nim to do so.

Probably few, outside the immediate vicinity of Callahan county, know that Clyde was originally a Portuguese settlement. Many of the Portuguese came directly to Texas from Europe, and they settled on the sandy soil near where the Clyde townsite now stands in the hope of being able to raise grapes and make wine as famous as that of .... own native country. They purchased the land cheaply, as no one in those days thoughmuch of sandy soil covered with a growth of scrubby oak and bushes, and patiently they began the work of clearing it off to prepare for their vineyards. The average purchase price the Portuguese paid is said to have been $2 to $3 an acre. They stayed in the Clyde country several years and were fairly successful, but they did not succeed in raising wine grapes. Other varieties of grapes flourished, but the kind most desired did not produce the yield

Gave Up a Good Thing

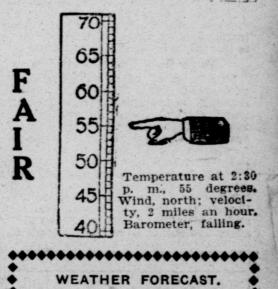

Four or five years ago the Portuguese had a chance to dispose of their lands at a big advance over the original price. They sold out, the majority receiving $8 an acre, and believing they had made a profitable sale in getting from three to four times what ther had paid for the land, they emigrated in a body to California.

L. L. Welch is credited with being the real fruit-raising pioneer of that Clyde country. He settled there about fiftéen years ago on a 160-acre tract which he purchased at about the same price the Portuguese colony had received in closing out its holdings. Mr. Welch worked hard clearing up the scrub oak and brush and gradually increasing the size of his orchard. planted apple, peach, pear, plum and apricot trees, and the young orchard thrived well in the deep sand. Last year the orchard brought re-turns that justified the long efforts spent upon it. Welch's profits for the year on his fruit is said to have been nealy $2,500. In addition to this, he closed out his farm at $75 an acre, a then fabulous price for west Texas Now $75, $80 and even $100 an ach are not regarded as unusual prices for land in the fruit belt of the Clyde country, depending on their nearness to Clyde and the Texas and Pack railroad. Welch, himself, after selling his 160-acre farm, purchased another tract nearer Clyde and paid $100 an acre for it.

Turning Into Orchards Now the whole country in the vicin-ity of Clyde is being cleared of brush and trees and orchards are being set out on every farm. The settlers ex-pect to make the region the greatest fruit producing section of west Texas. The Clyde country, as it is called has many peculiarities. It is situated on a high table land in the western part of Callahan county. Accounts as to just how much land is contained in the tract vary, some estimates placing the amount as low as 3,000 acres. This is probably incorrect, as table lands of similar appearance and covered with a similar growth of scrub oak and brush are found to the north in Shackelford county. In Callahan county the table land has an eleva-tion of about 2,000 feet and is about 200 feet higher than the valley in which Baird, the county seat, is 10cated. Although a table land, the country is not flat and for the most part is slightly rolling. The soil is a deep grayish sand. Beneath it at a depth of from 18 to 20 feet is a clay deposit which holds water like a tank. The result is that all rain which falls on the Clyde country sinks through the

On account of the sandy character of the upper soil, irrigation would be Impracticable, but it is not needed. The roots of the fruit trees easily penetrate through the soft sand until they reach water and rapid growth is

The climate of the Clyde country is mild and the natural growth of trees also probably acts as a protection in winter. At any rate the fruit farmers have yet to complain of any losses from frosts. The high altitude frees the orchards from insect pests and all kinds of fruit mature perfectly.

While the Clyde country is apparently best suited for fruit raising, other farm products are raised in abundance. The French farm, which is a frequent and successful competitor at Texas fairs, with all kinds of farm products, is located between Baird and Clyde.

Fown Only Three Years Old The town of Clyde is about three years old. The Texas and Pacific railroad owned the 160-acre townsite which now furnishes homes for from 850 to 900 people. The town has two banks, two cotton gins which are expected to handle from 1,200 to 1,300 bales of cotton this year, a cold storage house which takes care of fruit during the shipping season, two lumber yards and a weekly newspaper. Although the town in young, churches and a school have been built, the yards about the homes have been fenced, and there are abundant evidences of taste in home building. The demand for lumber is active and much new buildings are delayed by inability to secure material. Just now land in the Clyde country s in active demand. Most of the new settlers are making cash payments. Ten per cent is the common rate of interest on deferred payments.

SANTA FE NOW RECEIVING CARS

R. A. Anderson, Druggist.

New Rolling Stock Being Now Placed in Service

J. S. Hershey, general freight agent of the Santa Fe, with headquarters at Galveston, is in Fort Worth looking after freight traffic interests. Mr. Hershey says that the Santa Fe, like other roads in Texas, is having heavy freight traffic, and he also announces that the Santa Fe has ordered 6,500 new freight cars to take care of the growing business. This order was quietly placed some time ago, on representations from the freight department that a heavy traffic was to be expected, and the cars are now being delivered at the rate of fifty a week. "Grain and grain products are the chief commodies being shipped south," said Mr. Hershey, "and the heaviest shipments northbound are lumber. in addition to these, however, there is a large movement of general merchandise of every character. I do not think there is any probability of a lull in the rush for the next sixty or ninety days at least. Advices from producing sections indicate that the export movement of corn through the port of Galveston during the month of February will be very heavy, and the new steamship services out of Galveston are bringing a great deal of freight New Steamer Service

"A new steamship service will be established within the next few days between Galveston and the southern ports of Cuba, which will place Texas ousiness men in closer touch with the Cuban markets and will doubtless cause a great deal of traffic. The schedule for this service has not yet been announced, but it will be in the near future. It will be operated by the Galveston Steamship Company and there will be facilities for handling a large traffic.

"The steamship service which was established by the Commercial Union Navigation Company of Havana, between Galveston and Havana, which provides for sailings from Galveston every twelve days, has been very liberally patronized, and it has been the means of bringing a great deal of business to Texas which formerly went elsewhere. The principal shipments to Cuba are corn and food stuffs, and the grain producers of Texas have been nabled to get in closer touch with the Cuban markets by means of this service. They have not been slow to avail themselves of the new field and the result is that there is a rapidly growing commerce being built up between Cuba and Texas markets. The new line to the southern ports of Cuba will afford an opportunity for a further en-largement of this business."

Industrial Outlook H. E. Hershey, industrial agent of the Santa Fe, is also in Fort Worth, he having come here to meet his brother. The department of which H. E. Hershey is in charge was established last September for the purpose of encouraging the location of new industries along the line of the Santa Fe, and doing anything possible to assist in the development of the country through which the road passes. A great deal of work is now being done by this department, and the country is growing in population very rapidly. The San Angelo division of the Santa Fe has recently been the part of the system toward which the time of immigration seems to have been chiefly directed. During a period of two months recently there was an average of 300 immigrant outfits per month handled over this division, or an average of

New York Papers Announce Nuptials-Authentic Statement Is Refused

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Jan. 31,-Several New York newspapers announce today the marriage of Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes, widow of the traction capitalist, to Wilson Missner of San Francisco. No confirmation of the marriage or marriage announcement is obtainable from Mrs. Yerkes or Mr. Missner, but when Mr. Missner was asked if he would deny that the marriage had taken place, he replied that he would not. He added that he had no statement to make on the subject. Witnesses to the ceremony, it was reported, had been J. L. Eastlake and Emil Bourges of San Francisco.

"And I do not care to discuss it," he said, "but I know that it is absolutely untrue. If anything had happened I would have been one of the first to hear about it."

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.-Settlement of the $15,000,000 Charles T. Yerkes estate will be held up. Miss Emile Griggsby, who was the traction magnate's protege, is about to bring suit against the executors for a $5,000,000 trust fund, which, she alleges, was decided upon by Mr. Yerkes, but the details of which were left in a somewhat embarrassing state because of his sudden death. Mrs. Griggsby, who is living in her town house, at 660 Park avenue, it is known, from a thoroughly trustworthy source, is in possession o letters, rough drafts of an agreement relative to the establishment of a trust fund, and other documents which she believes will give her suit legal standing in the courts. Already persons who are familiar with the situation that was attendant upon the Yerkes deathbed at the Waldorf-Astoria have volunteered to give evidence in court. There are some who believe that the heirs under the will which was filed recently in Chicago will try to arrange a settlement with Miss Griggsby, fearing that, a law suit of that character might result in upsetting the present docile arrangement that C. S. Knight, the Chicago lawyer, and Mrs. Yerkes, the widow, so adroitly brought about.

Wool Examiner Made Reductions for His Own Family's Benefit. Bu Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.-Robert M Kitching, a wool examiner employed in the commissioners' stores at the custom house, was yesterday ordered removed by Secretary Shaw because of the measuring department's dissatisfaction with his official conduct. Wool merchants last month charged that in his examination of wool imports he favored consignments to members of his family, who are customs brokers and wool sellers.

Mr. Kitching had opportunity to make a defense, but failed to satisfy Secretary Shaw. The position is under the civil service and will be filled by appointment. Mr. Kitching, who is 76 years of age, was appointed in 1889. Last year he passed upon $40,000,000 worth of wool, yarns, goat and sheepskins. His salary was $2,500 a year.

Having armed myself with a revolver,

I employed a cab and drove straight point of hope untried, and my next visit was to the Kingsmere hospital

AMUSEMENTS

"The Fortune Teller"

Grace Orr Myers did not appear in "The Fortune Teller" at Greenwall's opera house Tuesday night. Irene Langford, who is understudy to the star and who appears in the role of Mile. Pompon on ordinary nights, took the leading lady's part at the Tuesday night performance and held up the part as well as she could. The fact that she was suffering with a broken arm entitles her to the sympathy of her audiences. But that misfortune will hardly justify a statement that she can sing or act. At least she did neither during the engagement here. Some of those who have seen Miss Myers act here double role as Musette and Irma have even hinted that the words of the "Count" in the opera, "may become popular in time," might apply to her. The difficulties under which Miss Langford labored entitle her to the mantle of charity.

Milton Dawson took the part of the "Count" in "The Fortune Teller." He hails from Bryan, Texas, originally, and delivers the theatrical goods in a manner satisfactory to the audience. James McElhern, in the main comedy part, did his work well, as did also Herman Hirsbberg in the role of Musette's father. His laughing stunt in the second act brought a round of hearty, well deserved applause. The hardest worker on the stage at any time was Miss Ivy Davis in the role of Vaninka. If the management of "The (Mis) Fortune Teller" will keep that little bunch of a chorus girl who was . brought into Mile. Pompon's place while Miss Langford went into the leading role, in that place and give Miss Davis a show at the Musette part, there will be some better work all around. Henry Turpin alone saved the situation insofar as the solo work went. He certainly has a magnificent voice and the audience gave its approval. The chorus gave evidence of careful training and is entitled to praise. The scenery and costumes could not have looked or been shab-

Wills Musical Comedy Co. The Wills Musical Comedy Company comes to Greenwall's opera house tonight for three nights and two matinees, giving a change of bill each day. Opening bill tonight, "In Atlantic City." Night prices 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c. Matinee, adults, 25c, children 15c.

The Lynchburg News said: The John B. Wills Company presented "A Trip to Atlantic City," a threeact musical comedy, at the Rivermont Casino last night that was greeted with enthusiastic approval by the tremendous crowd that packed the house from the ticket office to the footlights. The presence of ten lively girls and several first class comedians gave the performance energy and sparkle that did not abate for a single moment during the entire evening. Walter S. Wills, as Hinky Dee, and James Leslie, as the retired brewer, presented some of the most laughable and ludicrous comedy that has ever appeared at the Casino. Both of these comedians introduced several entirely new features along with innumerable jokes and eccentric comicalities that kept the crowd in an almost continuous laugh.

The musical numbers were excellent, but at times in the chorus the tenor was a little too pronounced, but this deficiency emphasized the excellence of the company in general rather than detracted from it.

The now famous coaxing song was sung by Miss Helston and chorus with great success. The unique fishing accompaniment produced much laughter. The performance as a whole is one that pleases, and the unusual spirit and dash that characterizes the company will doubtless attract large crowds throughout the week.

Mildred Holland

Mildred Holland, who will be seen at Greenwall's opera house Saturday matinee and night, Feb. 3, in Carina Jordan's romantic drama, "The Lily and the Prince" possesses that peculiar as well as pleasing temperamental makeup with which few women are endowed. The spectator, in watching her work upon the stage, feels intuitively that within her burns the fire of a true dramatic genius. There is about her a magnetism that attracts the most There can be no higher testimony of dramatic merit than such an effect. "The Lily and the Prince" gives Miss Holland every opportunity to display her talents, and she is nightly being greeted by enthusiastic audiolled away. Ross is one of the cast of "A Fisherman's Luck" which is being given at the Majestic this week by Jane Courthope and company. "Jane Courthope" is the stage name of Mrs. Charles Forrester, and she has the distinction of being Master Ross' mother. Ross plays the part of the messenger boy who. after all the troubles of the Benedict family have been smoothed out, breaks things up again by bringing in a basket of canned fish to prove that Mr Benedict-who, in reality is Charles Forrester and the father of Master Ross-has actually been fishing. Ross gets his full share of the enthusiastic applause that always greets the clever

Big Rush in Tax Receipts Expected During Closing Hours

At the close of business Tuesday, County Tax Collector John W. Walker reported that 10,792 voters had paid their county and state poll tax, 622 of that number having been paid during

Today, Wednesday, is the last day in which to pay poll tax and there has been a rush of those who have put off this important duty until the last hours allowed by law; but the real rush will be after 6 o'clock this afternoon when places of business have been closed for the day, and working men have completed their day's labor. It is estimated that there will be from 700 to 900 poll tax paid today, which will keep the force of deputy collectors busy until late tonight. The office will be kept open beyond the usual hours in order to give as many as will come an opportunity to pay their poll tax, and not be disfran-

Should 750 poll taxes be paid today, and fully that number is counted on, it will put the voting population in the next election at 11,545, but is probable that the number who pay today will be greater than 750.

There are a number of young men who will reach 21 years of age between now and the coming election, and they should get their exemption certificates from the tax collector today or they will not be permitted to vote in the elections. This is not generally known, and unless steps are taken to get these certificates today many votes will be lost. This applies only to those living in Fort Worth. no exemption certificates being required for the young man in the country who reaches his majority between now and the date of the general elec-

DAMAGE SUIT IN ENVELOPE CASE

Hotel Proprietor Wants $10,075 From M. C. McGraw

W. H. Land has filed suit against M. C. McGraw, seeking to recover damages in the sum of $10,075. This suit is a sequel to the envelope case in which McGraw caused the arrest of hotel, and W. H. Land, proprietor. The charge against Jackson was theft by bailee of $18,000 bonds and cash.

The petition in the damage suit filed Tuesday alleges that on Jan. 13 Mc-Graw filed a complaint in Justice Terrell's court, charging the plaintiff with theft of property of the value of over $50, and that after being arrested the plaintiff in this case was discharged by the court and the case against him dismissed. The plaintiff further alleges that the charge against him, made by McGraw was malicious and false and that because of them he has suffered to the extent of the damages sued for. The criminal prosecution on which this damage suit is based created no little interest at the time it was in court, there being sensational features connected with it. The charges against both Jackson and Land were dismissed, and immediately afterward McGraw, the complaining witness, was arrested on charges of perjury and forgery, the forgery charge being based on a purported receipt for the money and bonds charged to have been stolen. The bonds were all recovered from Ed M. Jackson, who never denied having recelved them for safe keeping from Mc-Graw, but denied that he ever received any money or gave a receipt of any

CITIZENS WANT SHADE Many Fine Trees Now Being Planted in

Fort Worth-More shade trees are being planted in Fort Worth this winter than during any previous tree planting season. The elm and hackberry varieties have the run, but quite a good number of sycamores are being planted. One firm that makes shade tree planting a business has planted 500 elm and hackberry trees during January, fully threefourth of them going to the South

These trees are taken from the river bottom and are generally contracted for before they are taken out of the ground. Prices range from 50c to $5. according to the size of the tree, the growth being guaranteed in case the tree is planted by the men who sell them; but if the purchaser plants them he buys the tree at his own risk. The men engaged in this business have tools with which they can take from the ground and transplant without breaking the soil from the roots a tree as much as six inches in diameter, and will guarantee it to live in its new home. A great many nursery-grown sycamores are sold, but the preference here is the elm and hackberry.

SCHOOL HOUSE ROBBED

Supply of Lead Pencils Taken From

Building Superintendent Hogg of the public schools called at the police station Tuesday afternoon and reported that there had been a theft of lead pencils and school books at the Fourth Ward school. The articles taken were not of very great value, but the loss occasioned very much annoyance and inconvenience, as the children could not get along very well even for a day without pencils. It is believed that entrance to the building was effected through a window. No arrests had been made in the case Wednesday morning.

H. A. Parker Denies Reports Regarding Visit to Texas

H. A. Parker, formerly vice president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad, with headquarters in Chicago, is in the city en route home from the Brownsville country. Mr. Parker called upon Vice President Hovey of the Rock Island, General Freight Agent McCabe and a number of other old friends here. Mr. Parker states that he is in Texas because he likes the state and likes it especially at this time of the year.

Owing to the fact that he has a wide reputation as a railroad builder, together with the further known fact that there is a great deal of railway agent of the New York Central lines, construction to be put through in Texas this year, the reporters throughout south Texas, where Mr. Parker has been, have been endeavoring to connect his visit with some new construction, but thus far they have not succeeded. One of the reports stated that Mr. Parker was to be elected president of the San Antonio and Aransas Pass railroad, but Mr. Parker immediately denied this report. Mr. Parker is known as one of the best railroad construction men in the United States. He was superintendent of the Rock Island in charge of construction when the road was built through Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico and through several other states east of the Mississippi river, and he has therefore had wide experience in this line. He denies emphatically that his present visit has to do with any construction in this vicinity. Mr. Parker still makes his home in Chicago, but at present he is not en-

THE FORT WORTH MARKET

The packers of Fort Worth are calling for more hogs. They want 5,000 hogs a day for a year if they can get them, and promise at all times to furnish a good market .- Cisco Roundup.

The big packing concerns located in this city are doing all in their power to build up and develop the hog market. Illustrative of this fact, it is only necessary to mention the prices paid here for hogs during the past week, which have been considerably in excess of that paid on any other market in the United States. Hogs during that period of time have brought more money right here on the Fort Worth market than the same class of animals brought in Chicago, Kansas City or any other Eastern market. The men who have brought hogs here have been able to almost get their own price for the animals, and it has been a great boon to the

When it is borne in mind that the packers are doing | lican and a gentleman. so much to stimulate and encourage the production of hogs in Texas, it is surprising that farmers all over the state have been so slow to awaken to the great opportunities for easy money that lie immediately within their grasp. There is a steady market right here in Fort Worth for every hog that can be produced in Texas and the money is always ready. The prices paid ara of sufficient magnitude to justify the Texas farmer in turning his attention largely toward the production of hogs, and hog production is not a very difficult problem. They can be produced very cheaply in Texas. Men are finding out that alfalfa can be grown in many portions of Texas where it was formerly believed to be impossible, and alfalfa furnishes ideal grazing for the festive porker, which can be carried on that product until the proper time and then hardened with the necessary corn. In portions of the state where corn is an uncertain quantity, farmers have found that hogs can be successfully grown on mile maize and kaffir corn. and in fact it has been demonstrated that there is no portion of Texas that cannot turn its attention to hog production without becoming more prosperous for such

When hogs are selling for such high prices and the big packers are continually begging for a greater supply, it is surprising that the hog industry has not enjoyed a greater boom. But it will come in time. Texas will rival Illinois and Iowa in the production of hogs before many years, and the great Fort Worth packing houses will prove the instrument that will bring this about. The Fort Worth market leads all others in the matter of prices and the day is not far distant when it will lead in the number of hogs annually handled. The Fort Worth market is a live and constantly growing proposition.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

There are three constitutional amendments to be voted upon at the November election. The first of these proposes to exempt from taxation endowment funds used exclusively for school purposes, and should be adopted. The second provides for the levying of a tax not to exceed 15 cents on the $100 valuation, to pay jurors, and as it is intended to provide properly for the men who have to sit on juries, it is also quite proper. The third one provides for the increase of salary of members of the state legislature, and is as follows:

Section 24. The members of the legislature shall receive from the public treasury such compensation for their services as may from time to time be provided by law, not exceeding $1,000 for the year succeeding their election, payable in equal installment, on the first days of January, February, March and April of the year succeeding their election, and $5 per day for each day of every special session held during the second year of the erms for which said members shall be elected. In adtion to said compensation the members of each house be entitled to mileage going to and returning from

APPRECIATE THE TELEGRAM'S EFFORTS

The special correspondent of the Fort Worth Daily Telegram, Mr. Grant, who was here last week, has been filling each issue of that excellent paper full of choice reading about Colorado ♦ and other West Texas towns this week. Mr. ♦ ◆ Grant is an excellent writer and being an ex- ◆ perienced newspaper man, knew just how to do the thing up brown. The people of Colorado • appreciate The Telegram's efforts in bringing nearest and most direct route of travel by land, regardless of railways and water routes; and the comptroller of the state shall prepare and preserve a table of distances to each county seat, now or hereafter to be established, and by said table the mileage of each member shall be paid; but no member shall be entitled to mileage for any extra session that may be called within one day after the adjournment of any regular or called session. It shall be unlawful for any member of the legislature during his term of office to accept any free transportation over any railway line or lines in this state, and any member violating the provisions of this act prohibiting the acceptance of free transportation shall forfeit the office to which he has been elected. And it shall be unlawful for any of such members to accept, receive, have, use or enjoy, directly or indirectly, for themselves or for any other person, any free pass, frank, rebate, privilege or advantage not accorded to the general public from any railroad company, telegraph company, telephone company, sleeping car company, or other corporation, or any persons, firm or corporation acting as a common carrier in this state. Any member of the legislature violating this provision shall forfeit his office. And the necessary laws shall be enacted to carry out the provisions of this article.

This is the celebrated proposition formulated by the last state legislature in answer to the popular demand for the abrogation of free passes. It is in effect notice to vox populi that members of the state legislature regard free passes as a portion of the legislative perquisites, and they only propose to surrender the use of these blandishments in return for an increase in salary. In other words, the people must agree to pay their pub-He servants for being good before they will agree to walk in the straight and narrow way and The Telegram believes there are few voters outside of the members of the state legislature who will vote for this proposition. The people of Texas have declared against free passes. The last Democratic state convention spoke in no uncertain terms on this matter, but its mandate received no consideration at the hands of the lawmakers. The formulation of this proposition to increase legislative salaries under the circumstances was but little short of an outrage, and the people will show their disapproval of it in the proper manner at the November election.

It is a genuine pleasure to note the evidences of improvement that are to be seen on every side in Fort Worth. In no other city in Texas are there so many substantial buildings in process of construction, and out in the residence districts new houses are continually springing up as if by magic.

Of course, the next annual meeting of the cattlemen of Texas will come to Fort Worth. But we should not be so sure of that as to believe that no effort will be necessary. A delegation must be sent to Dallas in March prepared to bring the next meeting home with

Andrew Jackson Houston, who is contesting the election of Congressman Broocks at Washington, will find the mere fact that he is the son of his illustrious father will not be sufficient to overcome that brutal Democratic majority piled up against him in the last election. In other words and to the point, Colonel Andrew Jackson Houston is expending his time and ammunition on a very cold trail, Practically all the larger cities and towns in Texas are engaged in a campaign for better streets and sidewalks. When Fort Worth started out on this same errand the first of the year, she set a pace for the others which they were not slow to emulate. And now we must continue to lead the procession. This city cannot afford to be a laggard in the work she has cause others to emulate. Better streets and sidewalks must be the local cry until they are accomplished realities.

Dallas is making elaborate preparation to entertain the cattlemen in March, but Fort Worth with her Fat Stock Show will give them the kind of entertainment they hunger for. Governor Lanham is clearly determined to divide no honors in the matter of that proposed extra session of the state legislature. From the secrecy he is maintaining it is believed he is now hardly prepared to concede that the holding of a special session has ever been suggested to him.

PUBLICOPINION

The Kansas City Journal faces the statehood propo-

Many persons are puzzled to know why President Roosevelt is so bent on forcing Arizona and New Mexico into joint statehood. The proposition is so extraordinary-in fact, unprecedented-that it would seem that it could be justified only by an extraordinary emergency in the life of the nation, or some other equally grave reason. No territory has ever been forced into statehood against its will, and there are many reasons, stronger than precedent, why two territories should not be forced into joint statehood against their will. The constitution of the United States prohibits congress from making one state out of two, or parts of two, without the consent of the people of both states, expressed by their respective legislatures. This prohibition is based primarily upon the great principle laid down in the declaration of independence, that "all governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed." In equity and good morals this principle should apply to the people of the territories as well as to those of the states-they are all American citizens. President Roosevelt has not given any reason publicly for his extraordinary course, but he is credited with saying privately that this statehood question is always bobbing up in congress to the hindrance and delay of more important matters, and it must be got out of the way. It is also stated that the railway and mining lobby are using money to prevent the passage of the omnibus statehood bill, and, therefore, it must be passed. Neither of these reasons, assuming them to be true, is sufficient to justify a bill which violates a fundamental principle of the government and disposes of the people of these territories as though they were cattle. . . . .

The Chicago Chronicle takes an optimistic view view of current tendencies. It says that what statute laws seem insufficient to cope with ills or are important

In either case we may be reassured by the knowledge that law is, after all, merely the expression of the popular will, and that if the expression be stifled or misinterpreted for the moment the people can and will reassert their commands so unmistakably that no one shall misunderstand them. No man nor combination of men, can deliberately thwart the will of the American people for any considerable length of time: that is a proposition which is a self-evident fact in the science of government. When there is talk about dominant corruption and insolent oligarchy it is only necessary to recall that the people have at any time the power to end corruption and to overthrow oligarchy. The expression of their will may be through statute law or it may be unformulated entirely, but in either case it is supreme, all-powerful and irresistible. It is the might of the republic.

OH. WHAT A DIFFERENCE!

THE DRIFT OF POLITICS

Pennsylvania will command the attention of the country, so far as politics is concerned, from this time henceforward until about June, 1907. The legislature will begin its special session tomorrow, to run for about fifty days. The subjects for consideration vitally concern the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburg and the rest of the state generally. The ripper, personal registration and primary election bills are of home interest. Pittsburg wants a "Greater Pittsburg" bill, and all the people of the state want a law to safeguard the money in the state treasury. The conditions at this time will make the legislature a great policy checkerboard. Every move will be in the interest of reform, or at least is supposed to be.

PENROSE WILL SEEK TO SAVE ORGANIZATION Senator Penrose, with a share of federal and state patronage in his grasp, is making the fight of his life. He does not propose to allow his men to lie down and be trampled on by the reformers. The men who are seeking to wrest the control of the state machine from Penrose will make Harrisburg their headquarters. Under the guise of pushing reform measures through the legistature, this combine will confer with men from all over the state, and plan to capture the next Republican or Organization state convention, so as to nominate John Weaver for governor. Penrose knows this and resents the action of these men. Deserted by Durham in Philadelphia, McNichol giving half-hearted support and Martin powerless, Penrose must turn to the country. Here is where his strength lies. . . . . HEAVY TASK FOR PENROSE As the leader of the Organization, Penrose must needs control this legislature and make such a record as will help him in his fight for a candidate for governor, and also to elect the nominee. He must also elect a majority of the next legislature to be chosen next November. He must also elect a delegation to the next congress. The Sixtieth congress will be a most important body. It will meet December 1, 1907, one year previous to the presidential election. It is expected to take action on the tariff, currency and other opics that will then come before the country and enter into the presidential campaign. The Pennsylvania delegation now comprises thirty-one Republicans and one Democrat, Kline, of the Lehigh-Berks district. In the fall fight for congress all over the country the Republicans will lose many districts they now hold, hence the importance of electing every man possible. The President looks to Penrose to help him in this matter. Today Senator Penrose holds the congressional delegation in his iron grip, and none has dared dispute his leadership. There is a strong reason for this. The President has informed the congressman that under no circumstances will he appoint a man to office unless he shall be recommended by both senators. The representative can have a voice in the matter, but the senators must agree. In the case of Penman, appointed collector of internal revenue last week for the Scranton district, the President was compelled to recognize merit in an old official. He did not desire to incur the displeasure of the anthracite miners in rejecting Hammerling, who was distasteful to the senators, so he reappointed the man who had held the office for eight years. Being in control of the party machinery, Penrose can defeat for renomination any of the present congressmen. But can he elect their successors? After the election in the fall comes the new legislature, and a new governor in 1907. Penrose's term does not expire until 1909.

MERELY A MATTER OF PAINT

Marie Booth Russell, Robert B. Mantell's leading woman, tells a story on that famous maker of malapropisms, the late John Stetson, which she had at first hand. As a child she was engaged in a Christmastime spectacle for which Stetson had given his corps carte-blanche. An artist was brought from London to paint the scenery, which, in the course of things, was duly "rehearsed" before an audience consisting of the actors, the author and composer, and Stetson, himself. Set after set was put up, lighted, displayed, and "struck" to an accompaniment of expressed delight and admiration from all present save Stetson. When, at length, the "grand transformation and final apotheosis" had been shown, the artist stepped to the footlights and

"Very nice, as far as it goes," answered the manager: "but you ought to have a snow scene. What's a Christmas spectacle without one?"

asked Stetson how he liked it.

"But, Mr. Stetson," protested the artist, "the libretto doesn't permit of a snow scene. The action is all under the equator. The locale is entirely tropical." "What's the difference?" asked Stetson. "Just you go ahead and get up a first class tropical snow scene!"

HUNGARIAN PAYS VISIT TO TEXAS

Secretary of Agriculture Getting Data in State

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 31.-Joseph Nelmeth de Kanyar, secretary of the De Kanyar visited the capitol yesterday, met the governor and other state officials and expressed himself as being well pleased with Texas and its people. The mission of Mr. De Kanyar in Texas is to procure copies of the laws, especially the homestead exemption law, for his government. He also wants statistics concerning the area, population, number of farmers and other data which will be of benefit to his government to aid in a reform movement which has been fnau-

When seen Mr. De Kanyar dectared that the government which he represents is determined in some way to stop the steady flow of immigration from Hungary into the United States, and with that end in view the conditions of the farmers and working element will have to be bettered. He said that annually thousands of the people of his country come to the United States and many of them to Texas on account of the excellent climatic conditions and the liberal laws which prevail here. His government ping, in a measure at least, the great number of immigrants which are leaving that country for this one.

FIGHT NOW ON IN SENATE

Beveridge Has Something Up His Sleeve

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 31.-The scene of the statehood battle has been transferred to the senate, where another battle royal is expected. The senate committee on territories has already been authorized to report the bill, and it was reported by Chairman Beveridge on Monday. A few but immaterial amendments were added to the bill in committee. The Indian Territory prohibition clause remains in-

The promptness with which the senate committee has disposed of the measure has aroused much speculation as to the intentions of Mr. Beveridge and the champions of the measure. There is some talk that the young chairman has a surprise up his sleeve and intends to spring it when least expected, but stories to this effect are not generally accepted here. As a matter of fact, the United States senate is too dignified a body to stoop to such tactics, and the man who would try to work a game on the unsuspecting senate might as well leave Washington the same day, because his usefulness would have come to a sudden

The logical conclusion of the committee's action is that Senator Beveridge is aware of the fact that Senator Foraker and his republican supporters, as well as the solid democratic strength, do not propose to permit the measure to become a law without some opportunity to amend it. The Ohio semator wants a referendum vote for Arizona and New Mexico on the subject of jointure and will not consent that the measure shall pass without amending the bill to that effect. Once open to amendment, of course, there is no telling what wil happen, but it is altogether reasonably certain that Senator Beverldge must consent to amendments before he can hope for the senate to pass his bill. Perhaps he knows this and is approaching the crisis reluctantly; determined to fight for the measure as it stands and only surrender at the last moment and when there is no longer hope for the bill becoming a law intact. While that may be the situation, the Hoosler statesman has always made it point to deny any change of front in his position. One thing is absolutely certain. Beveridge has it in his power to defeat as well as pass the bill. If he will consent to amendments the bill will pass; if not, the measure is doomed. Foraker will not surrender.

"I think it would be suicidal to change the foul strike rule," says President Pulliam of the National League. President Pulliam voices the timent of all the magnates of the National, while in the American League there is a division of opinions on the rule. A marked difference between the two leagues is the unanimity of the National on questions that might create dissensions in less well poised baseball associations.

Penitentlary Agent Luther reached Fort Worth Monday, intending to take all the convicts here to the state prison, but County Physician R. B. Dr. West said that Johnson is suffering from heart disease and is in no condition to be changed from his present quarters to the penitentiary. Upon this statement Johnson was left in jail by Captain Luther when he left Monday evening with the following convicts: George Francis, forgery, two years; Dow Crossland, forgery, two years; Fred Hartmen, theft of wagon and two horses, two years; W. T. Broxson, theft of horse and buggy, two years. The friends of Johnson will now make another effort to secure his pardon, and believe that they will succeed when the board of pardons is in possession of the full facts as to his physical condition.

Reports of Inspectors Show Fine Conditions

The reports of fifteen inspectors of the Cattle Raisers' association of Texas received at the office of the secretary, Captain John T. Lytle, show that for the last week everything relating to cattle and range has been remarkably good as a general thing everywhere despite the bad cold weather the first of the week that cattlemen so much feared from Kansas through the territory to the coast country, everything is as good if not better than at the same time every past year. Mr. White the inspector stationed at Purcell, I. ## STANDPIPE COMPLETED

Texas and Pacific Water Supply Is Greatly Benefited

The Texas and Pacific standpipe at the Adams street crossing was completed Monday afternoon and engines are now taking water from it instead of having to go to the Hill street tank

The completion of this standpipe not only saves time in engines taking water, but an annoyance caused by the whistling of engines, of which Hill street residents have complained is done away with. Already one damage suit has been brought against the railroad company on account of this alleged annoyance, but in all probability the new arrangement will end the damage suits. The standpipe is fed with water from the Hill street tank through a six-inch pipe.

"BROKEN FAITH" SAY INDIANS

Territory Leaders Charge Dirty Politics Against Republicans

WASHINGTON, Jan. 81 .- "Indian Territory feels aggrieved," said Robert L. Owen of Muskogee, I. T., "in this, that it was refused a hearing by the house committee on territories. With nearly a million people; having pledges of the United States in five different treaties against union with Oklahoma or any other state without the consent of the Five Civilized Nations, with each of these nations vigorously protesting against the union; with recent pledges made to these people by the act of 1893 appointing the Dawes commission, and five different proposals of the Dawes commission thereunder, with the understanding set forth in the Choctaw-Chickasaw agreement ratified June 28, that Indian Territory should have a separate state; and the people having adopted a constitution for Indian Territory by a larger vote probably than any state ever admitted into the union, nevertheless, a hearing was refused by the house committee on Territories."

Accuses Republicans This statement was made by Colonel Owen immediately after the house passed its statehood bill last week. Continuing, he said: "The debate on the Hamilton bill demonstrates two things: First, that the republican organization, controlled by votes in the northeast, has been used to promote what is believed to be the sectional interest of the northeast by depriving federal senate. Mr. Dalzell emphasized the unfairness of allowing small com-munities the same apportionment of power in the federal senate as that of his own state with its great population. If this argument were sound it would be sufficient to justify the passage of the Hamilton bill. It is not sound because Pennsylvania and New York have the associated votes of a number of small states, which can always be relied on in any matter affecting the welfare of Pennsylvania and New York, such as Delaware, New Jersey, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, etc. The six states of the southwest-Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Sequoyah, Oklahoma and Texas have already over ten millions, with its vast productive area occupied, while New England can not in the nature of things greatly increase in the same length of time. West of the Mississippi river is an area more than twice as great as that which lies east of the Mississippi. It is a section more suited to the habitation of men than that which lies east. It is a health giving country in which even the invalids of New England having tuberculosis find renewed health. Its mining wealth is of stupendous proportions. The center of of the Mississippi river and on a basis of population in the immediate future, the west will be entitled, upon a basis of population, to the votes in the senate which ought to be now accorded to the west. The four communities involved independently of such considerations, should be admitted under all of the precedents which have heretofore governed the admission of

The oil and gas field in Indian Territory is two hundred miles long. Its productions are increased by gigantic strides. Dear Sirs:- "I have suffered more than twenty years from Indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. My heart would beat so fast I could not sleep, at times I would almost draw double with pain in the pit of my stomach. I lost twenty-five pounds; in fact, I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I consented to try it to please him and I was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity will be benefited." Yours very truly,

IS ON THE BOOM

Armstrong County Lands Selling for Big Prices

J. T. Price, who has been a resident of Armstrong county with his mail facilities at Claude, was in the city Tuesday and expressed himself relative to the Panhandle country as follows:

"The Panhandle is all right and at present is on a boom. The range is good and stock are holding flesh, aithough they got thin during the wet weather in the fall; they have more than regained what they lost since the first of the year. I have four sections and 300 acres of this in cultivation, and I raise feed and roughness for my stock. There is no use telling you of the good qualities of the Panhandle for I see you know about as much as I do, but I wish to say that it is as good now as it ever was. The oats crop was fine this year and those who planted red oats had a yield of nearly 100 bushels to the acre. I have never failed to raise plenty of stuff for my stock, although there have been a couple of pretty bad years during the seven years I have been up there. Lots of people are coming in and purchasing homes and many of the other settlers are selling and moving out, like my-No, I am not getting out because I am disgusted, for I am perfectly satisfied as to the capabilities of Armstrong county, but you know it is said everyone has his price, so when I was offered $12 an acre for my place, which cost me only $2,50 per acre four years ago, I thought that the man and price had come, so I sold out, 'lock, stock and barrel.' "Most of the large ranches have been cut up and are being disposed of to farmers, who are coming in from Iowa, Illinois and Indiana, and of course many from Texas. Lands under cultivation are being readily disposed of at from $8 to $15 per acre and raw ands at from $6 to $7 per acre. The JA ranch, however, is still doing business at the old stand and refuses all inducements to turn it into an agricultural paradise.

"Around Claude the settlements are very thick, the population being more dense than it is around Amarillo, but we have no such boom with us as prefer a steady growth that keeps us no mistake in going to the Panhandle. ability to perform the feats it is credited with in the way of yielding tonnage, but this may come in time. The best that has been done yet is one ton per acre and only one cutting."

WORK OF PURIFICATION

Chemists Here and Coming to Take Up Important Work

The purifying of the refuse from the packing houses and stock yar soon be an accomplished fact, if the plans of the interested concerns under the management of John W. Maxey, a civil engineer of repute, prove as etficacious as it is hoped and believed they will. Colonel Maxey of Houston is in the city, and is located at the Hotel Worth. Nothing will be given out at present as to proposed methods, and it will only be when the present plans prove a success that the public. through the newspapers, will be taken into the confidence of those in authority and a story given out. Colonel Maxey and the packers' chemists are now only awaiting the arrival of a prominent chemist from Chicago, who is familiar with this class of work, when operations will begin, and as he is expected to arrive at almost any time, it can safely be said that the experiment is on, and will be pushed to a finality as rapidly as money and science can do it. This will be good news to those owners of residences and property abut-ting upon the river below the packing houses, who have been so long inconvenienced by the polluted waters of the river and no doubt the packers will be equally as well pleased to be relieved of the annoyance of the numer. ous complaints against them that have been placed upon the dockets of the

Richard Carrow, a Clay county stockman, who resides, when at home, in Henrietta, is in the city today, and said that cattle had and were continuing to winter well up to the present time, and there is no reason to fear a very decided change now. "Cattle are not thin," Mr. Carrow said, "and even with bad weather in Feb-

The heavy oil sells at 50c per barrel, while the light grade has sold as high as $1.10.

PLAN NEW HOME LEPERS IN CHINA

Father Conrady, Companion of Damien, at New York

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.-Father L. L. Conrady, who was the companion of Father Damien in his last days at the Hawaifan leper colony of Molokai, and who succeeded him in his work there, has just arrived in this city to complete his plans for establishing lepercolonies in China. Father Conrady was born in Belgium and began his labors as a priest in India. He first came to the United States early in the '70s and for fourteen years labored in Eastern Oregon among the Umatila Indians and the few scattered white Catholics of that district. He said last night:

"There are thousands of abandoned victims of this dread disease in the vicinity of Canton. -I saw many wretched cases in Molokai, but the condition of the Chinese lepers is much worse-nothing short of appalling. When one learns that a leper can be housed, fed and given medical attention at a cost of 21/2 cents a day it seems too bad that something has not already been done for them. I have secured the services of several sisters, members of a religious community which is conducting two leper settlements in Japan, one in Birmatel and one in Madagascar, the last having 800 nmates. It does not seem to me that in any other part of the world can the work of alleviating human suffering be carried on to greater advantage."

ENVELOPE MAN OPERATING HERE

Complaint Made to Police of Old Swindle

The envelope man is operating in Fort Worth. The game is an old one and there is a smooth individual in the city on the look out for victims.

The victim related that a man had ome to him asking for a $5 bill for $5 in silver. He wanted to accommodate him and handed him the bill which the stranger quickly placed in an envelope, he having previously stated that he wanted the bill to send away. He at once put the envelope to his mouth as though to moisten it for sealing, while the victim counted his money and found that he only had $4.75 instead of $5 in silver. He called the stranger's attention to the shortage and the latter agreed to get the other 25 cents, bending the victim the envelope to hold and taking the $4.75 across the street where he said that he would secure the other 25 cents

The victim waited for some time for the stranger but he did not return and when the envelope was opened, it was found that there was no $5 bill in it. As the game used to be worked, the smooth artist puts the $5 bill in his mouth instead of the envelope. The police are searching for the envelope operator but he has not yet been lo-

NO ADMISSION TO BE CHARGED

Action of Last October Is Now Rescinded

The Fat Stock Show this year will not charge admission to the exhibits. Such was the decision reached at the meeting of the Board of Trade late Tuesday afternoon. There has never been an admission charged for the show here, but at a meeting in October it was decided that thereafter admission should be charged. Marion Sansom spoke against the admission fee plan and stated that there was no building in which the show could be held, and that the larger part of the show could be seen without going where the admission charge was held. Added to this there will be no Cattle Raisers' convention this year for an extra attraction. Stuart Harrison stated that he was in favor of an admission and has always been so, but in view of the circumstances this year he thought that it would be better to omit the charge.

To Charge No Admission Upon motion of Sam Davidson the order of last October was reconsidered, and upon a second motion it was deided that there shall be no admission charge this year. Upon motion the chairman was authorized to appoint a finance committee of seven, which shall also have the power to appoint other members. The following men were appointed by Dr. Cooper on the committee, with J. W. Spencer, chairman: Otho S. Houston, J. F. Ellis, E. W. Tempel, George Stillman, O. P. Haney and Stuart Harri-This committee will have charge of raising the funds for the show. Mr. Is Out of Room Spencer has consented to his appointment as chairman of the committee. The premium list of the Fat Stock Show amounted to about $10,000, of which $5,100 has been contributed by the national organizations, leaving about $5,000 which will have to be raised in Fort Worth.

The matter of badges for the convention was taken up and, after some discussion, in which all were agreed that if badges were ordered they should be fine ones, the matter wasleft to the executive committee. Next Year's Convention

Sam Davidson brought up the mat-. ter of a committee to go to Dallas at the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association convention and look after Fort Worth's interests. The committee will also be expected to bring back the convention to this city next year. The appointent of the committee was left by Dr. Cooper until later. The attendance of the meeting Tuesday was very good. Dr. J. L. Cooper presided and Captain Paddock acted as secretary. Those present were Witliam Monnig, J. B. Burnside, Marion Sansom, Sam Davidson, John King, O W. Matthews, S. F. Carter, W. B. King, G. C. Mountcastle, L. P. Robertson, Stuart Harrison, Frank Hovenkamp, Jacob Washer, Sterling P. Clark and E. CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 31.-The wheat market was dull and weaker today, the May option at one time selling %c to 1c under yesterday's final prices. The closing price was at a net loss of %c to %c. Cables reported a decline in the foreign market where they should have shown an advance. The local opening reflected the disappointment engendered by the cables, prices being %c to %c lower. In the initial trading the market displayed some firmness on short covering and prices recovered the loss, only to ease off again on renewed selling for short account. The low point was reached in the last hour of trading, with May selling at 84%c.

Corn displayed firmness throughout the early session, but weakened later in response to the decline in wheat. and closing prices were at a net loss

Oats was affected by the lower prices for wheat and corn and further liquidation by the long interests. Closing prices were at a net loss of 1/2c.

Provisions Provisions were only moderately active. The demand was good during the initial trading and the market exhibited a firm undertone for a time, but liquidation later in the session had a depressing effect and final prices were 41/2 to 7c lower than yesterday's closing figures.

Wheat Prices Down-Corn and Oats | Prices Slump Another $1 Per Bale. Bears Are Still Aggressive. Close Steady

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Jan. 31 .- The course of the market during the early trading was the opposite of that which has been followed for the past few days. The early Liverpool cables were of a disappointing character and the local market responded to the foreign weakness, opening prices being 4 to 5 points lower for the near positions. There was some good buying immediately following the call and also scattered profit taking by shorts. Prices worked up during the first hour to a net gain of 1 to 2 points.

The advance was not allowed to reach any further proportions, as every attempt to put prices higher met with renewed selling on the part of the local bear crowd. Before mid-day the market grew quiet and easy and shortly after the noon hour near positions established a new low record since the beginning of the present bear campaign. March sold 26 points under yesterday's finals. Although there was no support from the bulls, covering in the last hour

Wednesday's Review and Sales Receipts of cattle on the early market were very liberal, 3,700 head, including calves, The steer end of the trade was well represented in numbers, but nothing of a toppy nature showed in the pens. Grass steers were numerous and a plenty, of short fed stuff. A load of the latter sold at $3.60, and the seller agreed that the price was strong. Considerable delay was encountered in selling the grasser contingent. Cows and Heifers

Cows were represented in goodly numbers, with South Texas grassers in the ead, Two loads of these, averaging 870 pounds, sold at $3.10, and this was called a long price by an outside buyer. Medium cows sold stronger, while canners were only steady. Sales of cows: No. Ave. Price. No. Ave Price

The short-bodied, "beefy" looking ewe is rarely a great breeder. Keep a breed of sheep that is adapted to your farm and market. When crowding the hogs with a heavy corn ration, be sure that they have a full and free supply of charcoal,

It is not hard for one to remember when sheep were in some instances selling at something like 25 cents a head. 'Twas in 1903 when free wool was promised in a new tariff.

The difference between a scrub bred and a well bred animal is that, from the one you have no hopes of being able to produce a good beef and get a good price, while with the other you know you have a good foundation to work on and the possibilities of producing high priced beef.

BIRTHS EXCEED DEATHS

County Records Show 129 Against 51 for January Tarrant county's natural increase of population during the month of January as shown by the records in the county clerk's office, is 78, the births during the months being 129 against fifty-one deaths. Of course this does not represent the actual increase, for the immigration to Fort Worth and the county outside Fort Worth will more than double the difference between the number of births and the number of deaths. It is estimated that with the births and the immigration to the county during January the increase of population has been 300 at least. This rate kept up for the rest of the year would give an increase of 3,600 for 1906, but it is believed the

SENATOR BEVERIDGE says

"The Deluge, David Graham Phillips's new novel, must be dramatized, for it is life; life brimming to the cup's edge, quaffed to the cup's dregs-the power of human power and emotion at white heat, the thrill of battle at its fierce climax of bayonet thrust and throat clutch; the love of woman and woman's inexplicable caprice—all this and more like it make The Deluge mesmeric in its fascination."

Fort Worth Now Sure of Addition Costing $325,000

The bill authorizing the expenditure of $325,000 by the United States government for the enlarging of the Fort Worth Federal building was passed by bill was reported to the senate by the committee about a month ago, as was first announced in The Telegram. Senator Charles A. Culberson has been an ardent worker for the bill and it is largely due to him that it passed.

For some time the Federal building here has been too small for the present needs of the offices here, and still more demands will be made in the next few years. The government offices located in Fort Worth are the most important in any of the interior office, which has also outgrown its present quarters and which is, on that account, cramped in the space that it uses, the rooms of the Federal court of appeals, which meets here, are to be located in the new building. So far the court has been meeting in the court room of the district court of the Northern district of Texas, causing the district court to be crowded out. The new addition will provide ample room for the circuit court of appeals besides the district court, which now meets here twice a year.

The quarters of the railway mail service for the Eleventh district, now located in the Federal building, are also cramped and need more room. There is also the probability that with the increased size of the Federal building in this city that the state climate and crop center will be established here in connection with the weather bureau, as Fort Worth is the natural railroad center for that service, and with the new building, there will be room for the additional force that will be re-

New Field Finished and Daily Workouts in Progress

GETTING BUSY

Polytechnic College athletics are booming. The new athletic field has just been completed, and was dedicated Tuesday. Track, baseball and basketball teams are practicing daily. The new field is oval-shaped with a running track at the outer edge, which is about five laps to the mile. The baseball team is out for daily practice, and there are at least twentyfive candidates. Some of the material is new but most of it is experienced. So far three pitchers have shown up and are being tried out daily. No selections for places have yet been made, the work so far being general all-around work to get the men stars of last year's team trying out this year. There is an easy feeling with the college people regarding their team, which is certain to be a good one. The schedule of games has not been comppleted, but it is thought that at least two college games will be played every week. Games are also being arranged with Fort Worth University, Daniel Baker of Brownwood, John Tarleton of Stephenville, Granbury College, Jarvis College, Decatur Baptist College, and others. This will make a very heavy schedule of games, but there are plenty of players and none will need to play in near all the games.

Ned Snyder, manager of the baseball team, when seen Tuesday, said: "The team will be fitted out in due time. There is plenty of backing, and we expect to play many out-of-town games." The track team is being worked out daily, and many of the candidates have Following are some of the men who are showing up best: H. P. Young in long run, C. C. McKinney, sprints; P.

CROSSINGS COST

Mr. Hawley Gives Figures to Sidewalk Committee

A meeting of the joint committee of the Factory Club and the Board of Trade was held Tuesday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms to take up the sidewalk and paving questions. City Engineer Hawley stated that the city, by appropriating $2,500 per year, could raise enough money in four years to pay for stepping stones on every crossing in the city. He stated that there are 770 crossings in the entire city, even when going into the additions which were almost as yet unoccupied. If stepping stones, eighteen inches wide and four feet long, per crossing would be $7.

Mr. Hawley stated that two sets of stepping stones on each crossing would be sufficient, though he failed to state just how these could be laid to provide for all corners. If both are laid in the same direction, footmen going the other way will still have the mud to encounter. In case they are laid in at right angles to each other there will be one corner which cannot be Brann, it was decided that the Board of Trade and the Factory Club should be asked to request the members of both organizations to go ahead themselves and provide sidewalks in front of their own residences. He stated that if all members of both bodies would take pride in this matter that a large number of sidewalks would be put down and these would undoubtedly influence others to put down sidewalks also.

WILL REMAIN AT DALLAS Cotton Seed Crushers' Atlanta Proposition Falls Through

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 31.-The In terstate Cotton Seed Crushers' Association movement to "split" the association in twain and have two sets of headquarters, one at Dallas, Texas, and another in Atlanta, fell through late yesterday afternoon. The two Carolinas were foremost in the movement, but the delegates and those from Georgia were finally persuaded to let the association stand as one body, and Dallas will retain the permanent headquarters for the present at least. Mississippi, Louisna and Texas demanded that there be no break in the association ranks, and the Texas crowd was too strong for the more northern representatives.

WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU

Few People Realize the Importance of Good Digestion Until It Is Lost Many people suffer from dyspepsia and do not know it. They feel mean, out of sorts, peevish, do not sleep well, do not have a good keen appetite, do not have the inclination and energy for physical or mental work they once had, but at the same time do not feel any particular pain or distress in the mach. Yet all this is the result of or digestion, an insidious form of Dyspepsia which can only be cured by a remedy specially intended to cure it and make the digestive organs act naturally, and properly digest the food eaten. Bitters, after dinner pills and nerve tonics will never help the trouble; they don't reach it. The new medical discovery does. It is called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and is a specific for dyspepsia and indigestion. It cures because it thoroughly digests all wholesome food taken into the stomach, whether the stomach is in good working order or not. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, by digesting the food, instead of making the worn-out stomach do all the work gives it a much-needed rest and a cure of dyspepsia is the natural result.

When you are nervous, run down and sleepless, don't make the common mistake of supposing your nervous system needs treatment and fill your stomach with powerful nerve tonics which make you feel good for a little while only to fall back farther than Your nerves are all right, but they are starved, they want food. Nourish them with wholesome everyday food and plenty of it, well digested, and you can laugh at nerve tonics and medicine. But the nerves wil lnot be nourished from a weak, abused stomach but when the digestion has been made perfect by the use of this remedy all nervous symptoms disappear. Who ever heard of a man or woman blessed with a vigorous digestion and good appetite being troubled with their nerves? Good digestion means a strong nervous system, abundance of energy, and capacity to enjoy the good things Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will certainly set your stomach and digestive organs right; they can't help but do it because they nourish the body by digesting the food eaten, and rest the stomach. You get nourishment and rest at one and the same time, and that is all
