Another important clause is the definition of the words "railroad" and "transportation" in a manner to include all auxiliary instrumentalities of a common carrier, and to bring them within control of the commission. This power to name a reasonable rate and the inclusion of auxiliaries within the jurisdiction of the commission are said to be new features. All other provisions are modifications of the existing law. They include pubicity of railroad methods, which is to be aided by a system of bookkeeping and enlarging the commission to seven members and increasing the salaries of the members to 10,000 a year. To Cut Mail Train Cost

JORDAN PREDICTS 15 CENT COTTON

Present Break Declared to Be Unwarranted

Harvie Jordan, president of the Southern Cotton Association, has issued the following cotton statement: "Spinners of yarns and print cloths openly admit that present prices of their finished output authorize a price of 14 cents for the raw cotton. This fact is well known to every person who has investigated the high prices of cotton goods in all lines. It is also well question of actual supplies of spot cotton and the enormous demands of legitimate consumption before another crop can be planted, cultivated and harvested. The present price of spot cotton is, therefore, not based upon the intrinsic value of the staple. No cotton this season has been sold on the basis of its intrinsic value. 'Bearish' speculation is now running riot with the cotton market. The present 'bear' raid has been caused by a combination of spinners, exporters and bearish speculators, organized a few weeks since in New York to drive the market down for the distanct purpose of breaking the backbone of the present holding movement among the farmers of the south and to destroy the effectiveness of the Southern Cotton Association as a factor in the future marketing of the south's great staple crop. Nearly 9,000,000 bales of the present crop have already passed out of the hands of the producers, furnishing temporary needs of spinners and placing them in an advantageous position, as they have the ammunition. But this condition cannot last long. This crop is 2,500,000 bales short of the crop

"Six million new spindles were added to the world's manufactures in 1905. The demand for cotton goods is unprecedented. We sold a 14,000.000-bale crop for 10 cents. There is only a remnant of 1,000,000 bales left from the present short crop of 10,250,000 bales, and those who have the nerve to hold their cotton in the face of present unwarranted depression will yet sell it for 15 cents."

AN IMPORTANT DECISION

Release for Injuries Is an Impediment to Recovery

Special to The Telegram AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 8 .- An important opinion was handed down yesterday by the court of civil appeals in reversing and remanding the case of the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone company against Jasper Gordon James, appeal from Travis county, wherein it is held that a contract with an employe disbars such employe to recover damages. The appellee sued the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone company for damages resulting from a telephone pole falling on the appellee, which injured him, and was caused by the negligence of the appellant. Among other defenses pleaded, the appellant set up a release signed by appellee as a satisfaction in full of all claims for damages he had sustained. The appellee by supplemental petition, attacked this release on several grounds. A verdict and judgment were rendered in appellee's favor for $267.50 in the trial court. The court of civil appeals held that the release or contract executed by the appellee is an impediment in the way of recovery, unless some legal or equitable grounds are alleged and proven that would void its operation and effect. Continuing the court says: "We have read the record closely and have not been able to discover any fact that would justify the conclusion that the appellant has not at all times been ready and willing to keep and observe the promise. And so far as it is shown by the vidence, it cannot be ascertained but what at the trial of the case in the court below the appellee was still !: the service and employ of the appellant. AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 8 .- The court of civil appeals yesterday reversed and remanded the case of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railway company against John H. McClerran from Milam county. The case was tried before a jury and resulted in a verdict and judgment in avor of the appellee, McClerran, for

The railroad company in appealing the case object to the remarks made in the closing argument by Hon. M. J. Moore, attorney for McClerran, to the jury in discussing the future conditions of plaintiff's land and to comment on the prospective damages which may occur in the future to appellee's land: appellant also contended as that was not in the record, such argument would prejudice the jury. The court sustained the objection.

AMUSEMENTS

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." not a very imposing name for a visiting card, or a place on the list of patronesses for a horse show, or 'among those present" at an afternoon reception, but nobody who got a glimpse of the owner's quaint personality, or heard, as a standing room audience at Greenwall's last night did, ber happy system of worry-erasing philosophy, would hesitate long about trying to get better acquainted.

The stage version of "Mrs. Wiggs" serves as an admirable introduction, more intimate than the book could be, more satisfactory than even a single character impersonation would yield. The audience at Greenwall's Wednesday night liked Mrs. Wiggs. It happened to be one of those generously-disposed audiences which went expecting to get something good. It applauded the first of even Asia, Australia and Europena, determined to get its money's worth of enjoyment from the start. Later, as the delicious humor of the play bubbled and seethed under the influence of this warmth from the auditors out in front, it became hard to tell which was the more interesting, to see clever play remarkably well acted by a company of unusual merit, or a big audience wholly yielding itself to unrestrained enjoyment. There was no artificiality about Mrs. Wiggs, and the genuineness of the characterizations got an honest response from pit to gal-

"Best play I ever 'saw in Fort Worth," could be heard from half a dozen different directions, as the people filed out of Greenwall's after the last curtain fell. Sober second-judgment might qualify this declaration, but it is doubtful, for while there have been better examples of dramatic construction, more absorbing stories of heart interest, more brilliantly written dialogues, and more effective examples of stage craft, it is only once in a generation or so that a play can be found which grips its audience so tightly from beginning to end and in which the glimmering line of footlights is so nearly wholly wiped out by the symsides, in a bond that lasts unbroken es across from both throughout the entire duration of the

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" is a play in which the characters have been made alive by the skill of the actors to whom the parts were given, as much as by the original conceptions of the author. Madge Carr Cook, as Mrs. Wiggs has a naturalness of manner which conceals the art by which she acquired it.

It would be hard to conceive a more effective picture than she makes, with a score of little mannerisms apparently so real the onlooker forgets they are clever stage tricks interjected to preserve the illusion. Her manner is somewhat quiet and the tones of her voice, especially through the first act, remain low, yet probably more effective than if pitched in a key one would more naturally expect from a dweller in the Cabbage Patch neighborhood.

As a living humorist with long legs, Charles Carter, who does the trying role of Mr. Stubbins, is a delight. It would be slander to call Carter a mere comedian-his work is too delicious. His sense of pure humor is as delicate as his part is difficult. He shows how a man of happy disposition can become joyously drunk without being maudlin; how the gentle art of being artless can become a science; in short, he does a baker's dozen of delightful things which provoke peals of laughter and shouts of Helen Lowell as Mis' Hazy, pessimist and bride, is as much of a laugh provoker as Carter. Her declaration "I wouldn't have married him if Mrs. Wiggs hadn't sic'd me on," seemed to strike Wednesday night's audience as the funniest thing in the play.

Anna Fields as Mrs. Schultz and Helen Raymond as Mrs. Eichorn, long, lean but anything but languorous, introduce two female comedy roles that probably will furnish material for imitators during the remainder of the resent generation.

Bessie Barriscale as Lovey Mary gets the audience's sympathy and, what in harder, holds it uninterruptedly. There are more than a dozen other characters, all good in their particular places, but those mentioned will suf-

Florence Davis will appear in "The Player Maid" at Greenwall's opera house Saturday matinee and night, Feb. 10. The press agent says: "The Player Maid" was first produced at the Academy of Music in Baltimore last February, and was proclaimed successful from the start. It is a comedy of the higher order, in four acts, written by Louise Malloy, and is magnificently costumed and equipped with elaborate scenic effects. It is said to be a laugh producer of the first degree, combining as it does a plausible story told in the funniest manner imaginable, replete with wit, comical situations and interpreted by Miss Davis and her excellent company, making in all a wholesome entertainment designed for intellectual

SIXTY MILES AN HOUR FOR CATTLE

Cuban Railroad Schedule Faster Than U. S. Mail Average

Joe Davis, an extensive cattleman and exporter of Texas stock to the island of Cuba, whose home is in the city of Houston, was on the market Wednesday buying for export, and has made extensive purchases this week. "Speaking of shipments to Cuba," said "calls to mind the great difference there is between the methods in use in Cuba and the United States when it comes to handling stock, and the taste of the people in selecting beef for edible purposes. In shipping stock the ratiroads required 25 per cent of the freight to be paid in advance. Stockmen do their own bedding. The stock cars have no tops, and are anywhere from twenty to sixty feet in length. The stock trains make sixty miles an hour over roadbeds well ballasted with stone. Range or stock cattle arriving in Cuba must be branded by custom house officials, bearing date of arrival. Cattle for slaughter are killed at once upon arrival. The customs charges on stock or range cattle are very exorbitant, but the butcher stuff are entered the custom houses free of duty. Among other things, no cow under 12 years old are allowed to be butchered. Venezuela bulls are first choice. Mexican steers sell second, and Texans third. The Texas complement represents about 15 per cent of the Cuban imports. Good heavy steers sell well this year, and stock cattle feeding on guinea grass have done well. "he valleys are lovely and the country being mountainous, the atmosphere is extremely clear, so clear, in fact, that the eye covers many miles." South Texas Rains

T. B. Jones, a well known cow man from San Antonio, who has ranch interests in La Salle county, on the Nueces river, and in various parts of south Texas, was a morning visitor at the stock yards Wednesday. Mr. Jones expressed himself as satisfied with the conditions in that section, but said that while rain was needed, it was not dry. Very good rains had recently fallen in Webb, McMullen, Duval, Live Oak and the lower part of La Salle countles which had done much good. Only a light rain had fallen at Cotulla. Mr. Jones is one of the largest dealers in south Texas, and ships many cattle to market. Oklahoma Feeder

R. M. Bourland, a native Texas cowman, who was born in Lamar county, but who now hails from Montague county, has his ranch interests in Oklahoma Territory, on the line of Wash-Ita and Custer countles, his lands being leased from the Cheyenne Indians. His shipping point is Clinton, but he makes his headquarters in Chickasha. He is feeding cattle now, some 275, and these, he said, were about all the cattle being fed there. Pasture lands are getting so scarce that they are coming a curiosity. There are very few cattle outside of the farmers' hands, the 700 head that Mr. Bourland has in pasture being about all there is. He is feeding corn chops and thinks the feed give the best results.

The Spring Movement J. H. Gage has recently returned from the San Saba country and said: "There are quite a lot of cattle to come out of that section in the spring, say in Llano, San Saba, Menard and McCulloch, and generally of a good class, and ranches there are more numerous than elsewhere, because the country has more broken territory that is not suited for agricultural purposes. There is plenty of feed in the mountains, and as there is very fine water to be had in the numerous running creeks, cattle do not suffer much in the winter. While the country is needing rain, there is a feeling among stockmen that it will come in time, and they are not losing any sleep over it. Cattle are doing well and it does no good to borrow trouble. Reports Short Grass B. R. Cobb, a territory man, who resides nine miles east of Ryan, and who is engaged in ranching and stock farming, came in Wednesday and said that grass was not at all good up his way, and that all stock had to be fed. as there was nothing on the range for them to eat. Weather has been fine and no snow has fallen. In fact, the winter has been a very open one and no losses of account have occurred.

Plenty of Cattle "I live in the territory," said J. D. Martin, "and Loco is my postoffice B. R. Cobb and I are partners in 5,000 acres of leased land and have a 300 acre farm. Grass is better up with as than it is down near Ryan, but still it might be better. There are plenty of cattle in our section, and there will be a lot of shippers, but hardly so many as there were last year. This could hardly be expected after the way cattle were shipped to market. Everything is moving along quietly and nicely, and as the weather this winter has been more than usually open and pleasant, nothing has suffered"

RELIANCE TO BE USED

Yatch Club Proposes to Defend Cup With Famous Boat By Associated Press

NEW YORK, Feb. 8,-In discussing the possibilities of a challenge for the America's cup from Sir Thomas Lipton or another foreign source, the probable course of the New York Yacht on receipt of special challenge, says today's Times, the astonishing statement is made by a prominert member of the New York Yacht Club that the Reliance would be used in all probability as the defender of the cup, even though the challenge called for a race with schooners, as has been suggested, and that to meet these conditions she would be converted.

It is a perfectly practical suggestion and meets Sir Thomas and any other challenger at every point.

If a seventy-foot sloop, as suggested by Sir Thomas, is named as a challenger, the arrangements will be completed and the Reliance used against the challenging boat, in spite of the big allowance she would have to give. If a 110-foot schooner is named, Reliance will be converted and will still be the defender. If a ninety-foot sloop is named it will, of course, be Reliance which will cross the line as the defender of America's priceless trophy. Under old rules, the Reliance is looked upon as capable of successfully defending the cup, and will certainly be the club's reliance.

DEATHS LIST IN BIG MILLS

Hundreds Killed or Injured Yearly in Pittsburg District

WORSE THAN A WAR RECORD

Reckless Rush for Wealth and Insufficient Precautions Are to Blame

 Record for One Year ★ In iron and steel mills..... 9,000 ★ ★ In factories 4,000 ★ On railroads 4,300 * ★ In mines 400 ★ *******

Special to The Telegram. PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 8.-The mills, factories and railroads of this industrial center kill and maim in a year more than twice as many men as lost their lives at Gettysburg, where 7,500 brave men in blue and gray fell in Statistics just compiled indicate that 17,700 men are either killed or injured annually in the peaceful pursuits of this great workshop. It is simply what this district pays for the ceaseless rush and reckless abandon in the piling up of dollars. Human life is reckoned more cheaply-than machinery, for a life snuffed out can be replaced without cost, but machinery cannot.

Of course, another element that enters into this tragic grind is the carelessness of employes. They take great risks, knowing how dangerous is their work around flying wheels and belts. traveling at express train speed, or in close proximity to moving knives, trip hammers, molten steel, acids and other death-dealing agencies.

Fatal Defects Many mills and factories of the city are deficient in providing guard rails for pits, for revolving cranks and for projecting rods on shafts. There is also gross violation of the law in crowding workmen together until work cannot be performed with safety. Bells or other signals are lacking on electric cranes, and travelers and chains, and rods are not inspected, with the result that many break under heavy

Gigantic flywheels in the immense fron and steel mills give way, with appalling loss of life and destruction of Mill authorities are very much op-posed to giving out information about accidents. At the coroner's office only 250 fatalities were reported from the mills during the year, while it is known that many injuries resulting in death never reach that office. Foreigners are advised by their friends not to work in the mills and around furnaces. The alarming frequency of accidents due to furnace "hang," blowing off of furnace tops and escape of deadly fumes and flame acts as a deterrent to the men. Many of them come from the slow, lethargic countries of Southern Europe, where modern mills are unknown, and when they get into a big mill or factory they are apt to get confused and be hurt. Harvest of Hurts

Deputy Factory Inspector Hugh O'Donnell estimates that 6,000 men are killed or injured each year in four of the mills of the Carnegie Steel Company. In one mill where 12,000 men are employed it is said that rarely a day elapses that two or three men are not hurt. The Carnegie Steel Company employs something like 50,000 men, and it is estimated that fully 10 per cent of them are killed or injured each year. So far as fatalities alone are concerned, the railroads lead. Last year they snuffed out a life for every day of the year. Besides this they injured nearly four thousand people. Last October they killed no less than thirty-five persons in Allegheny county. Next to the mills and railroads the mines cause the most outright deaths, but here again the figures tell only a portion of the tale. According to the coroner's report, 140 persons were killed in mines last year, and this, with those injured, brings the total of casualties up to 400.

Work Day's Toil It must be remembered that there have been no great disasters in the mills, factories or on the railroads in Allegheny county during the last year. These victims to the Moloch of progress and rush are just the ordinary casualties in the industrial battle. The compilation of these statistics, however, has opened the eyes of the state factory inspectors, and Chief Factory Inspector J. C. Delaney has innounced that an investigation of the furnaces, mills and factories of the Pittsburg district will be made early this year, with a view of enforcing the laws more stringently. The movement for this inspection was started by the United Labor League.

UNION RIVALRY CAUSING FIGHT

Big Strike Likely in New York This Week

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Skyscrapers and other large buildings in Chicago may be involved in a series of strikes before the end of this week. The action of the Associated Building Trades Yesterday in ordering warfare against an independent union of stone cutters, hundreds of whose members are employed on building construction, makes a number of walkouts practically certain. The excuse for the threatened strike is unusual. Its basis is the rivalry between the two unions of stone cutters. For several months forts have been made by the International Stone Cutters' Union to swallow its rival. Failing to accomplish this, building mechanics of ten or nore allied unions have been brought into the fight. Sir Oliver Lodge, whose name is famous in connection with psychical re-search, was put into business at the

to Congress The Fort Worth Live Stock Exchange has adopted the following resolutions, a copy of which has been forwarded to James W. Information to this effect has just reached Denver. Second Vice President A. D. The survey will begin at Salt Creek, Wyo., north of Orin, the northern terminus of the Wyoming branch of the Colorado and Southern, and extend in a northwesterly direction through Wyoming and towards the Big Horn basin for 300 miles. As soon as this link has been surveyed other surveying corps will continue to and through Montana to the Canadian line, to connect with the Canadian Pacific. Practically the Colorado and Southern has secured all the lines needed in Texas to complete the system from Galveston to Dallas and Fort Worth where connection will be had with the main line to Denver. Every insurance official in the United States will remember McNall., When the companies wiggled about paying losses or refused McNall information, he sent examiners after them. FORT WORTH SCORES AGAIN

The congressman from Fort Worth has sprung into considerable prominence lately and many nice things are being said about him in the papers all over the country. The introduction of that famous resolution, which caught the entire Republican contingent napping, was a master stroke, and has elicited general commendation from the Democratic press of the country. But Congressman Gillespie has not attained fame on that ground alone. The Denton Record and Chronicle says:

Congressman Gillespie of Fort Worth is the only member of congress from Texas, or anywhere else, for that matter, that has reported that he never rode on a railroad pass. It is now up to the rest of the boys to tell how much they make on their mileage that they are allowed for going and coming to and from congress.

It is evident from this fact that the Fort Worth congressman does not belong to that select little coterie of national lawmakers who are seeking to cut down railway mail contract compensation on account of the offending railways having discontinued their annual passes. He does not belong in that larger list of congressmen who travel to and from Washington on free passes and at the same time draw mileage from the government for every mile they travel. Gillespie is too honest to do that, and his honesty affords a pleasing contrast with the action of others of his confreres.

The Telegram has vigorously condemned the custom of traveling on free passes and drawing mileage as practiced by members of the state legislature, and the custom is just as reprehensible on the part of a national lawmaker as in the case of the state solon. It is just as dishonest to take unearned money out of the national treasury as it is to filch, it from the state treasury, and the time will come when the member of congress will be called to a strict account for his

Congressman Gillespie's admission that he never uses a railroad pass serves to again restore the proper equilibrium between Fort Worth and Dallas. When Curtis Hancock, member of the state legislature from Dallas, announced himself immune against the blandishments of the seductive railroad pass, it made Fort Worth feel that Dallas had scored again and we were left in a state of extreme loneliness. But now that we can produce a real live congressman who is proof the pole in this case is the time required to cover the against the same temptation, we are thrilled with the joy that will not dissipate, for this time we know we have Dallas completely bested.

TWIN CITIES OF NORTH TEAXS

Dailas and Fort Worth, the North Texas cities, landed the goods. And yet Dallas should have listed 20,000 qualified voters instead of 15,000. And now build sidewalks.-Times Herald. Fort Worth and Dallas, the twin sisters of North Texas, can always be depended upon to land the goods. They are setting a hot pace for all Texas. And Fort Worth is building sidewalks.-Fort Worth Daily Telegram. Yes; the Times Herald extends congratulations to the citizens of Tarrant county. In the way of poll tax pay- velt's answer in the matter of that alleged railway ments they have made a record that astonished the state. It is a good sign and shows Panthervillians to be patriots as well as hustlers. And, say, Dallas is building sidewalks, too. "Out of the mud" is the war cry of the Progressives .- Dallas Times-Herald.

Congratulations received and appreciated. And Fort Worth takes advantage of the opportunity to assure Dallas over again that there is a general desire here that our twin sister shall continue to grow and flourish. There is noming but good will in Fort Worth for Dallas, and a realization that North Texas is big enough for two hig cities, even though they are but a fraction | more money for the men who already feel opulent from more than thirty miles apart. But while we are pro- their sales of the fleecy staple.

fuse in our admiration of our twin sister, we want it distinctly understood that we are strictly business. We are here to make Fort Worth the leading city of the Southwest, and we are going to do it. If Dallas can strike the same kind of a gait, then the twin sisters will go down into history on the basis of an even and symmetrical development, otherwise Fort Worth | Fat Stock show a cordial welcome. The hospitality of is going under the wire a real winner. And the matter of poll tax payments is not the only thing in which Fort Worth has astonished the state, There are many other things about Fort Worth that are truly astonishing. It will be remembered that the esteemed Times-Herald was itself astonished when ft had to pull Harris county from the top of the list in the matter of the greatest increase of taxable values of any county in the state and place Tarran county on the eminence. It astonished the state to find that Fort Worth's population had increased more than 5,000 during the past year, and there is much more of an astonishing nature that will develop during the present

All Fort Worth citizens are patriots and hustlers. Patriotism and get up and get abound in the very Fort Worth atmosphere, and is highly contagious. Men who come here from slow communities soon shed their moss and get in the midst of the hustle." It is not given to men to live in this progressive city and lead the life of a drone. All must be up and doing. That is the spirit that has already made Fort Worth great and will eventually make it the greatest city in the entire

There is no mud on Fort Worth heels, even with bad sidewalks. The Fort Worth spirit prevents its accumulation.

GOOD REASON FOR THE CHANGE

The report is out that the Texas & Pacific railway will build large shops at Fort Worth just west of the stove foundry. It is also stated that the railroad will move the shops from Marshall to the new location, but this we doubt. More shops are certainly needed by the company but there is no apparent reason for abandoning the old ones .- Mineral Wells Index.

Fort Worth is the great Texas center for the Gould system in the Southwest. It has about 600 miles of the Texas & Pacific lying both east and west of it. It is the end of the transcontinental division, extending to Texarkana. It is the terminus of the Cotton Belt. It is the terminus of the International & Great Northern. It is the possessor of the finest passenger station owned by the Gould system. It is the location of large and important shops that should be made large enough to answer the demands of the entire system.

The Texas & Pacific Railway company owns much valuable property in this city, and has lately ac-141 North Lamar street; J. Day, 104 North Ervay | quired more. Whether the latest acquisition is to be utilized for shop purposes or not, it is certain that it means something good for Fort Worth, even if nothing more than enlargement of yard facilities. The Texas & Pacific, the pioneer road of Fort Worth, has been greatly hampered during the past year from the lack of foresight displayed in preparing for the city's rapid | velt. growth and development. It may be that the purchase existing situation. But the fact remains that Fort Worth affords the logical location for the big shops now at Marshall, and there are many strong reasons existing why they should be brought to this city.

> The Telegram congratulates those enterprising citizens of Fort Worth who have just organized a strong fire insurance company here. It is a step in the right direction, and in line with the policy that has been so | tion. long advocated by this paper. As Glen Walker, manager of the new company, says, $28,000,000 has been paid out to foreign companies for fire protection in Texas during the past five years, while only half that sum has been returned to the state in the payment of losses. In other words, Texas has contributed the sum of $14,000,000 during the past five years to the building up of the wealth of other communities, every dollar of which might have easily been retained in the

The Telegram has forwarded petitions for the pardon of Mrs. Tolia, the unfortunate Italian woman under sentence to be hung in New Jersey, signed by nearly 2,000 representative citizens. And The Telegram joins every signer of that petition in the hope that the board of pardons in the state named may be moved to exercise the proper clemency. Every state in this union should immediately follow the example of Kentucky and declare that no woman shall ever be hanged by the neck until she is dead.

The proposition of the Fort Worth Market House company to furnish a location for the new market house under certain conditions, has been accepted by the city council and the conditions will be complied This insures the building of a market house, and provides a nucleus for the proposed and badly needed auditorium. These are matters that have been hanging fire for some time, and it is gratifying to note that success now seems assured.

Texas congressmen are not prepared to surrender one iota of the old principle of state's rights. It is for this reason alone that the delegation; voted solidly against the proposition of federal control of all quarantine matters. And incidentally it may be remarked that this idea of federal control is one day going to cause a whole lot of trouble in this presumably free

The fast mail races to Texas from St. Louis between the Gould lines and the Frisco-Katy combination are attracting a great deal of attention, and both combinations have many friends and well wishers. It is a case of the shortest pole getting the persimmon, and intervening distance. The race will continue daily during the month of February, and a very fat mail contract

The Texas & Pacific railway may not be able to entirely double track its road between this city and Dallas, on account of the lack of authority in its federal charter, but the manner in which those long switches are constantly growing would seem to indicate that a method will be found for obviating the dif-

Congressman Gillespie says that President Roosecombination resolution was an open insult, and it is evident from these vigorous remarks that the Big Stick has no terrors for the Fort Worth congressman.

The Telegram is setting a very warm pace for Texas afternoon journalism these cool February days, but that is a way The Telegram has, and it will always be found at the front of the procession.

Machine politics got a solar plexus blow when the Terrell election law was passed. The next election will produce some startling surprises in state and county. Owing to the large crowds expected in Denver at the meeting of the grand lodge of the Elks in July, the railroads are considering the advisability of putting on unusually low round trip rates between Denver, Colo., and California and north Pacific coast points. The tickets will have a return limit of thir. ty days and it is believed that many who attend the Denver meeting will enlarge their tour to the Pacific coast.

It is presumed that the property is to be use! for terminal purposes, and in view of the large sum expended for the site, it is expected that the terminals will be among the most expensive in Texas.

FIRE THREATENS

Firemen Check Main Street Blaze Promptly

Total damage of about $6,000, covered by insurance, was inflicted to the Dunn building, in Main, between Sixth and Seventh street, by fire about 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The building is a two-story brick with a basement, the latter being used for a billiard hall. The Denver Cafe, property of J. F. Dunn, occupies the entire ground floor. Upstairs there are offices and the printing establishment of Paxton & Evans. It was in their stock room that the fire was dis-

By the time the alarm was turned in the fire had eaten its way up the wall and between the ceiling and the roof. The fire is supposed to have originated from a flue which passed through the stock room. During the progress of the fire, a ladder on which two firemen were working slipped and began sliding across the face of the wall against which it was leaning. The firemen holding it below clung to it desperately and the men on the ladder were saved from a bad fall. Mrs. Ed Nicholas a waitress in the cafe, was slightly injured by the falling of part of the Damage to the printing establishment was about $1,000, covered by insurance, the remainder of the loss being divided among the proprietors of the restaurant, billiard hall and offices. The fire is the third in the building within the past few months.

CROWN THEATER SALE OPPOSED

Damage Suit Filed Against Phil Eppstein

CONTRACT IS ALLEGED

H. Salsberg Says He Had Made Prior Bargain for the Property in Question

In the Seventeenth district court | for alleged damages to cattle in shipthis morning H. Salsberg filed an action for damages against Philip Eppstein in the sum of $1,250, cause for the action being the alleged sale of the property including the Crown theater to another after making an alleged bargain with Salsberg, in consequence of which agreement, Salsberg sets forth in his petition, the plaintiff in this action deposited with the defendant the sum of $50. The petition is lengthy, setting forth that on or about Feb. 1 the defendant, by contract, agreed to sell the property described as lot 2, block E-5 Daggett's addition, for $1,000 cash, two notes of $250 each, and the assumption of a vendor's lien owned by the Farmers and Mechanics' National bank for the sum of $1,250. The allegation is made that the plaintiff was anxious to secure the property, which is the Crown theater, at the corner of Twelfth and Calhoun streets, but the defendant sold to another.

The plaintiff asks the court for damages in the sum of $1,250; says that the defendant still has the keys and the $50 put up by plaintiff to bind the trade for the property; asks the court to make such order regarding this sum of money as will protect the rights of the plaintiff in the premises, and prays for general relief. The Crown theater, the sale of which is the evident cause of this litigation, was sold by Phil Eppstein Saturday, Feb. 3, to J. N. Brooker, the consideration being $2.750, as was reported exclusively in The Telegram Sunday

BUTTERMILK

A Surer Way Out

The "buttermilk fad," which its followers insisted was the cure for all the ills that human flesh is heir to, has pretty well had its day. Buttermilk is a pleasant and healthy his left leg was badly crushed and | drink, but there are a whole lot of desirable things that it cannot do. A Nebraska woman found something much more worth while. She says: "Three years ago my stomach was in such a frightful condition that I could scarcely bear to take any food at all. Indeed there was once when I went for fourteen days without a morsel of nourishment, preferring starvation to the acute agony that I suffered when I ate anything. And all this entailed upon me almost constant headaches and nervousness. My condition was truly pitiable.

"The doctor warned me that the coffee I drank was chiefly responsible for this condition, and ordered me to drink buttermilk instead. But I despised buttermilk and could not bring myself to use it. "Then I was advised to try Postum Food Coffee. It has completely renovated and made over my whole system. The salutary effect on my poor stomach was simply marvelous, and that straightened out, the headaches, nervousness and other troubles soon vanished. For more than a year I have not felt any distress or pain, such as I once thought would kill me. "I can truthfully say that Postum has brought me the blessing of the perfect health I enjoy, for I gave up medicines when I began its use." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

It s graceful, very generally becoming and allows of variations almost without number. This one is arranged to give a triple box plaited effect with ircular portions between that ripple gracefully and becomingly as they apbroach the floor. In the illustration he skirt is made in what is known as the round length, but it can be cut off o clear the ground if desired for street wear. The applied folds that give a tuck effect are among the favorite by no means obligatory, as any bandng that may be liked can be used, or the skirt can be left quite plain, finshed simply with stitching in belding ilk. The material for the model is ilmond colored broadcloth, but all suitng and skirting materials are equally appropriate, as the design can be

OUR DAILY SHORT STORY

HOW LAURA KEPT THE ROBBERS DOWN

Showing What a Brave Girl Can Do an Emergency

As soon as the frost was out of the ground and there was no danger of being storm-bound, Louis Stacy left his little home in Arkansas to go down to the river with a boat load of furs He left his wife and niece without from the nearest town and remote from the road taken by travelers and tramps, they had few visitors, and selm saw a strange face; and then, both women were accustomed to the use of firearms, and Louis knew that they would not hesitate to employ them if necessary. Just at this time a stranger was lying ill at the cabina young man who had accidentally shot himself while hunting in the woods, and to whom Louis had willingly given shelter and attention. Fever and delirium had followed Arthur Morris' accident and he had been confined in the cabin six weeks, being now in a convalescent state. He said he was well off in this world's goods and told Laura Stacy when he first met her

The cabin consisted of three rooms on the ground floor-a main room used for cooking, eating and general purposes, a bedroom and a small room used for a pantry. Beneath was a deep cellar, where provisions were kept in the summer and even in the winter, for frost never entered the deep hole Louis Stacy had dug. Abov was a loft, reached by a ladder from the pantry, and here the two women slept, giving their guest the pleasant room on the first floor.

that he wore a money belt around his waist and begged that it remain there

o matter how ill he became.

It was nearly midnight of the fifth day of Louis' absence when Laura was aroused by hearing a noise at the door of the cabin. Not disturbing her aunt, who was sleeping heavily, worn out by watching the invalid the previous night, the brave girl hastily dressed and descended the ladder just as the door of the main room opened and two men in bare feet entered, carrying a lantern. They started a little at see-ing Laura standing silent and motionless with a lighted candle in her hand. One of them, a tall, burly fellow, with an evil eye, advanced foward her and ook his fist in her face.

"Speak one word above a whisper and I put a bullet through your brain.' Laura knew that if she disobeyed the command the threat would be carried into execution, and recovering from her tefror she asked the man in an unfaltering voice what they wanted. "We want that money belt on the stranger you have here."

"Surely you would not rob a sick man?" said Laura, trying to gain time and think what was best to do. "It would certainly kill him to be roused in such a brutal manner." "We won't give him any chance to speak," growled the man who held the lantern. "He'll never know what hurt him. Hurry up, girl, we're wastin' time. Is he up loft?" Laura turned deadly pale. In that moment she realized how dear to her Arthur Morris had become, and she resolved to save his life, even if she had to sacrifice her own.

"This way," she said, softly, and she turned toward a door situated midway between the bedroom of the invalid and the pantry. She opened it a little way. "Do you hear him breathe?" she said. "Yes, yes," answered the ruffians; but it was the heavy breathing of Mrs. Stacy in the loft above that they had

Laura threw the door wide open; it opened inward. Then the men saw a dark void and pressed eagerly forward, not even stopping to throw the light of their lantern on the place. At this instant Laura sprang back and threw herself with all her force upon the rear man, and the next instant there was a heavy fall, the crash of a broken lantern, and a volley of oaths, for both men lay at the bottom of the cellar. But the danger was not over by any means. Laura knew that the. men would mount the ladder at once. and there was no way of fastening the door, and so Laura sprang for the fireplace and caught Louis' revolver from the rude mantel, while she offered a prayer for courage and strength. She heard the deep curses as they searched for the ladder, and the next instant a head appeared above the threshold. The candel threw a faint light enough to enable Laura to see. "Back!" she cried; but the order was not obeyed. The robber raised his pistol, and DANGER AVERTED.

If a man should cross a deadly snake in his pathway, he would quickly crush it beneath his heel before it could sink its poisonous fangs into his flesh. He would not step out of the way and temporize with the danger-ous reptile. And yet how many people are there who temporize

consumption, Like a silent serpent, it glides along almost unnoticed. First a cold, or sore throat, then a slight cough, then catarrh, then bronchitis, then bleeding from the lungs and finally death. The way to crush out the threatening evil is to fortify the system and purify the blood with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. ery weakness and abnormal condition that precedes consumption is cured by this non-alcoholic remedy. At the first sign of derangement of stomach, liver and blood, look out! It is only a question of time until the lungs will be attacked through the impure blood, and then the danger will be most deadly.

It should be known to every sick person that Dr. R. V. Pierce will give carefully considered, fatherly, professional advice by mail to all who write him at Buffalo, N. Y. No charge or fee of any nature is asked.

Mr. Moses Horner, of Stahlstown, Penn'a, writee: "Last fall I took a severe cold (the result of wet feet) and this brought on catarrh and bronchitis which lasted all winter, I used three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and two or three vials of the "Pieasant Peilets," also one package of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. I am now cured. Many thanks to you."

An honest dealer will not try to persuade you to take a worthless substi-tute in place of the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the sake of a little added

Laura knew that unless she fired at once she was lost-Arthur, too. With these thoughts flashing through her mind she leveled the deadly weapon at the man, and a sharp report went ringing through the cabin, as a deep groan and the sound of a heavy fall came from the cellar. But the creaking of the ladder showed that the other robber was about to try his fate, and he appeared above the threshold, pistol in hand. But Laura was too quick for him. A second report, and again came a groan and the even the shadow of a forethought of sound of a heavy fall. The brave girl, overcome at last, sank to the floor just harm coming to them during his abas her aunt came rushing into the sence, for, living as he did twelve miles room, frightened almost out of her

Perhaps in that moment of terror Arthur Morris' heart was revealed to him, and he knew he loved the niece of this Arkansas hunter. "No, no," faltered the girl, rousing herself. "I am not hurt. But I shot two men-lying in the cellar-and-" But she could go no further for her eyes closed and she lost consciousness. Perhaps Arthur's kisses were more efficacious in restoring her than her aunt's dippers of cold water. But the faint was not a very long one and she was soon able to tell the whole story of the assault.

So there was a quiet wedding in the cabin one day in the early summer, and the girl, who had truly earned the right to her husband, set out with him on a journey to a comfortable home within the borders of civilization, where there was no danger of being murdered by desperadoes.

Her Use of the Directory A stylishly dressed and altogether good-looking woman was turning over the leaves of the directory in a leisurely manner when an irascible old gentleman, known to his many acquaintances as a man with a very small stock of patience, entered. He wished to use the directory, too, possibly to look up the address of a man who owed him money. He stood about, now and then casting heavy looks in the direction of the directory, and coughing suggestively.

A business man in a hurry followed. He wanted to know where Walter Jones lived. It is a block or two away, but he has forgotten the number. He fell into line.

Then a man who sought some city official, but knew nothing of his of-fice, except that it closed in a few minutes, joined the ranks of waiters. Still the woman placidly turned over leaf after leaf, without any apparent intention to decide whether the name she was seeking was Brown, Smith or

Finally, when matters were beginning to grow very tense, a young man rushed in. His mission would positivey admit of no delay so he politely offered to assist the woman, suggesting that his experience might tend to save time and lessen her labor. Plans for Golf Championship Now Complete

The plans of the Dallas Golf Club for the coming state championship golf tournament, which will be held in Dailas Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 19, 20 and 21, have been received by the secretary of the local club. On the morning of the first day there will be eighteen holes medal play, the first sixteen scores to qualify for the state championship cup and the second sixteen for the second cup. In the afternoon of the same day the match play rounds will begin and play will be at eighteen holes for both cups. There will be eight contestants left for each cup at the end of the day. On the morning of the second day the second round for both cups will be played and another match will be started for the eight players who qual. ify for the championship, but who lose on the first round. The semi-finals for all three cups will be played in the afternoon. On the third and last day the fina's for the cups will be played, thirtysix holes, eighteen in the morning and eighteen in the afternoon. There wil! also be a handicap tournament at thirty-six holes for all entries, the finalists in the cup matches to count their scores for the handicap cup, re-

RIGHT NOURISHMENT.

We think of nourishment as food-meats, soups, vegetables, etc., but that's only half. It's not the food alone that counts but the good that we get from food that furnishes nourishment. A pound of steak is of less value to a weak stomach than a crust of bread is to a strong digestion. But weak stomachs can be made strong. Begin by eating less; have regular hours for meals; avoid fancy things and about a half hour after eating take a tablespoonful of Scott's Emulsion. It's a fact of medical history that people have lived on not much else but Scott's Emulsion for a long time—not only lived but gained flesh and recovered their strength and health. From the pure Norwegian cod liver oil to the last drop of glycerine, Scott's Emulsion contains just the strengthgiving and health-building elements needed for low vitality, weak digestion and poorly nourished bodies.

Meeting of Association Stockholders Held

A meeting of the stockholders of the Confederate Park Association was held at the rooms of R. E. Lee Camp, United Confederate Veterans, Wednesday afternoon and directors were elected for the coming year.

The following are the directors elected: R. E. Beckham, E. W. Yeates, K. M. Van Zandt, O. W. Gillespie, R. R. Keith, C. C. Cummings and W. H. Sprinkle, C. C. Cummings presided at the meeting. A meeting of the directors was held after the meeting of the stockholders, and the following officers of the organization were elected: K. M. Van Zandt, president; R. R. Keith, vice president and manager; R. E. Beckham, secretary and treasurer.

Early Camp Planned In speaking of the plans for the coming summer, K. M. Van Zandt stated that the meeting would prob-ably be held earlier this year than last in order that the time might suit a larger number of those likely to be present. The meeting in 1905 was held the first week in September and was a great success. Major Van Zandt stated that there were citizens of five play the game as a part of the athcounties present at the last gathering and that he had heard from a large number of them and they were all coming back for the meeting this year. Prospects now are for a much larger meeting than any of the past years. The date of the meeting this summer

Worry

Hurry, like a cyclone, whirls you along at a rate that quickly exhausts your energy, and leaves you a nerveless, wretched, broken-down physical wreck.

Worry accomplishes the same results in another way. It drags you through the dark, gloomy tunnel of forbodings, wrecks your nerves and breaks down the constitution.

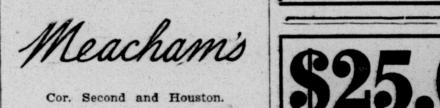

Then don't hurry; don't worry. But you will; and your nerveless, exhausted condition brings headaches, neuralgia, heart, stomach, liver and kidney troubles. The thing to do is: Strengthen the nerves with Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"Six months I was bedfast with nervous prostration. I had sinking spells, a cold, clamy feeling, couldn't stand the slightest noise. At times I would almost fly to pieces; stomach very weak. My husband insisted on my taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, and I began to improve before I had finished the first bottle, and to-day I am entirely cured."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it falls, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind

Sentiment Wholly Bearish-Dearth of Activity-Operations Principally Among Professionals pecial to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 .- Stocks were again in the hands of a few local professional operators, and today's session was practically a repetition of that of the preceding day, with the volume of business very light. Sales to noon were 463,700 shares. The operators who have been so aggressively bullish for some time past evinced but little interest in today's proceedings and a majority of the trade was inclined to believe that the holdings had been disposed of. There was little commission house business and transactions for London account were small. The talk on the floor was almost wholly bearish. Traders had been led to believe that the Union Pacific directors would meet today and take action on the dividend. When it became known that only the executive committee would meet and that the general board would not assemble until the 14th inst. considerable selling of Union Pacific ensued. The labor situation in the coal fields was another topic of discussion and there were also rumors of hostile action at Washington. The heavy losses in cash by the banks was a bearish factor and it was stated that a bill would be introduced into the assembly and would be passed compelling the trust companies to keep a 15 per cent reserve. Should this prove to be true it is estimated that the available supply of money in New York state would be decreased by at least $2,000,000. Both trust companies and banks are strongly averse to loaning money on time, believing that with the passage of such a bill call money will emand much higher rates. A. C. P., below 114, and Union Pacific, below 154, received good support. The early selling of Union Pacific was by people who had expected an immediate dividend declaration, and mostly through commission houses. Suspense on that point would not have been considered a bear argument when the market was advancing, but the temper of the street has changed and the unfavorable tone of most of the news was the only side taken into consideration. After midday a fair rally was developed under the leadership of Reading, but this did not indicate much beyond a change in professional position. On the rally in Reading most of the selling came from A. Mestre, the specialist in that stock. The movement was plainly the result of the oversold condition of the market and originated on the floor, forcing a number of shorts to cover. There was selling of A. C. P. and Steel common for foreign account. The passage of

Wheat Market Scalping Affair-Corn and Oats Weak-Provisions Active. Prices Steady

Special to The Telegram. CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 8.—The wheat market was fairly active today, but the trading was principally for local scalpers. The foreign news was indifferent, but the local market showed firmness during the initial trading, opening prices being 4c to %c above yesterday's finals. The advance brought on a renewal-of selling pressure and prices eased off to a slight net loss. At the decline a leading operator was a good purchaser, taking half a million May. The market steadied on this and worked back to the opening figures. Here scalpers on the long side took profits and there was another recession. Closing figures were near the lowest, showing a net loss of %c. Local receipts 16 cars, one of which was contract grade; 13 cars were received this day last year.

Corn Corn was quiet, and after early promise of strength, prices weakened, closing 4c net lower. Local receipts 281 cars 14 of which were contract grade: 199 cars were received this day

Oats were fairly active and weaker. Closing prices showed a net loss of 4c. Local receipts 109 cars, 24 of which were contract grade: 75 cars were received this day last year.

Provisions Provisions were active. Prices continued to advance, being affected by liberal buying of the May products. One operator purchased 1,000,000 May ribs before midday. At the close pork prices were 28c to 30c net higher. Lard was up 10c. Ribs was 101/2c higher.

Some of the lodges of secret orders n this city are of tremendous size, the Lone Star camp No. 2, Woodmen of the World surpassing all others in this respect. The last statement that has been made shows that the membership in the lodge was 1,060 according to the

FORT WORTH MEN ON GOLD TRAIL

Oregon Holdings to Be Fully Developed

Oregon mines in which a number of Fort Worth men are interested are to be pushed to a rapid development with good prospects, according to the Oregon Mining Journal. The issue of this magazine for Feb-

"J. L. Pennington of Fort Worth, Texas, who, in company with D. T. Evans of the same city, were in this section last fall, returned to Grants Pass this week. Mr. Pennington is one of the capitalists who is back of the Gold King mine, located on Josephine creek, near Kerby. Previous to his departure for Kerby he made our office a visit and talked optimistically of the prospects at the mine where several men have been at work for the past thirty days, making preparations for both placer and quartz development. "The property consists of three claims, on which there is said to be a ledge of free milling ore running from six to ten feet in width. Development work has not progressed sufficiently as yet to show what the extent and values of the mine really are, but Mr. Pennington expects to make demonstrations in the next few months, as he has a fund of $10,000 at his command with which to push the work.

"He is more sanguine than ever since learning of the recent strike of tellurium and free gold which was made by parties at work only a mile and a half up the creek from the Gold King. Specimens of ore taken from this prospect were shown at the mineral exhibit rooms, and which it was estimated would be worth $50 to the pound. Mr. Pennington and his associates believe there is a bright future for this section, both as a gold and a copper country, and he believes the latter metal will soon be a close rival of gold as a product of Southern Ore-

ADVERTISING FT. WORTH W. C. Stripling Is Quoted by the Wash ington Post

The Washington Post has this item of interest on Fort Worth: W. C. Stripling, a prominent merchant of Fort Worth, Texas, is at the Arlington, accompanied by his wife. "In my country," said Mr. Stripling. "everybody is busy and exulting in the good times. The crops were not very heavy, but the farmers got such big prices for their products last year that they are enjoying an unprecedented era of prosperity. The North Texas cities, seventy-five. FREIGHT BUREAU COSTS $7,500

Memphis, Tenn. Sends Figures Asked For

COST HERE IS LOWER

Board of Trade Secures Information Regarding Operation of System in Response to Inquiry

In regard to the freight bureau which has been discussed by the Board of Trade for this city, Captain Paddock this morning received a letter from the commissioner of the bureau at Memphis, where the system has been in operation for over eleven years and has proved of great benefit to the city and is $7,500 per year, which is raised by popular subscription. The purpose the organization there as stated in the accompanying circular is to secur freight rates to and from Memphis which do not discriminate against Memphis; to render service to all branches of trade in matters pertaining to transportation; to extend the trade of Memphis and assist in the adjustment and collection of just claims against carriers.

To carry out this purpose the services of James S. Davant have been had since 1896. The letter of Mr. Davant, which was received by Captain Paddock, is in part as follows:

"This bureau is duly chartered and all citizens and shippers of the city are eligible as members. The annual expenses, about $7,500, are borne by voluntary subscribers, varying according to the strength of subscribing individuals, firms or corporations. These amounts are pledged for three years payable annually. This is the twelfth year of the bureau's operation." In view of the greater size of Memphis, it is estimated the cost to Fort Worth would not be nearly so great.

HOPE EXPRESSED FOR MRS. TOLLA

Reprieve Expected to Lead to Final Release

Many expressions of satisfaction were heard in the city Wednesday night at the granting of a reprieve for Mrs. Antoinette Tolla, as had been exclusively announced in The Telegram.

The great interest taken in the case by residents of Fort Worth, who voiced their appeals for the woman through the columns of The Telegram, made the announcement one pleasurably received in practically every home in the city. Particularly among the railroad men, whose chivalrous natures had led them to send a direct appeal to Governor Stokes, were expressions of satisfaction heard, hope being expressed that the reprieve was but the first step to ultimate freedom for the woman. Perhaps no case in the history of the country has awakened such wide discussion, the story of Mrs. Tolla as told in her own simple words when printed in The Telegram making north Texas one of the leading centers from which floods of protests have poured into the hands of New Jersey officials. Announcement that a new trial will be sought during the time granted is taken to mean that evidence tending to clear her has been secured and will ultimately result in her freedom.

GILLESPIE AT CAPITOL

The Post Says Answer to Resolution Must Be Honest

The Washington Post, in an article last Monday on the rate legislation matter, among other things said: "It is not expected that Mr. Gillespie, a Texas democrat of very short experience in congress, will again be permitted to carry the house with him in another assault on the alleged merger, should the report be incomplete or otherwise unsatisfactory; but if this shall turn out to the case, the matter quite probably will not be allowed to end with the house's futile efforts to develop all there is in it. The Pennsylvania railroad has lost its popularity in the senate, as well as in the house, largely because of President Cassatt's desertion of those members of the senate who have been fighting bravely and openly the administration's rate-regulation program. For weeks the senate has been quietly threatening to start a rigid investigation of the relations between the Pennsylvania and the other three railroads named. and it may be that these threats will take on a dangerous form should the response to the Gillespie resolution not be plain, frank and complete."
