Gov. Lanham Calls Legislature in Special Session

FOR ELECTION BILL

Purpose Is to Determine Votes to Make Candidate Party Nominee of Primary

Special to The Telegram. AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 26.—As indicated in Saturday's dispatches would be done, Governor Lanham this morning issued his proclamation convening the Twenty-ninth legislature in special session on March 26, 1906.

Some surprise was manifested that the governor did not submit any other measures for consideration except the general election bill, but he may do so later. Following is the full text of the proclamation: "I, S. W. T. Lanham, governor of the state of Texas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the constitution, do hereby call a special session of the Twenty-ninth legislature to convene at the city of Austin, Texas, beginning at 12 o'clock meridian, Monday, March 26, A. D. 1906, for the following purpose, to-wit: "To provide for definitely determining the votes which candidates for party nominations for state and district offices shall receive in legislative and district political conventions, based upon the results of the primary elections held in the district counties of the state or of the district, as the case may be.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state to be affixed at Austin, Texas, this 26th day of February, A. D. 1906. "S. W. T. LANHAM, Governor of Texas.

"By the governor. "O. K. SHANNON, Secretary of State."

HELD WITHOUT BAIL

Union Worker Charged With Having Caused Man's Death

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Peter Cooper, an iron worker, was held without bail yesterday in the Lee avenue court, Williamsburg, on a charge of homicide. He was accused of having caused the death of Charles Jahnke, a non-union worker, who died Saturday night in the Bethany Deaconess' home of injuries inflicted with a slingshot. Jahnke was employed on the new power house of the Brooklyn Edison Trust Company at Kent avenue and Rusk streets, which was under the ban of the United Workers' union. He was followed on the night of Feb. 7, and at Harrison avenue and Bart street, two men rudely assaulted him with black jacks. Cooper and another man were arrested and identified as the assailants. They were charged with slaying Jahnke on the night of Feb. 7, and were sent out to search for the two men. Only Cooper was found.

TO CITE ALABAMA

President Castro Will Ask U. S. to Arbitrate Damages

Special to The Telegram. WILLEMSTADT, Feb. 26.—It is learned from official sources at Caracas, Venezuela, today that President Castro's next move in the French question will be to call on the United States to arbitrate the question of the amount of damages done by France in permitting the fitting out of the filibustering steamer San Rich at Fort de France, Island of Martinique, to prey on Venezuelan commerce and transport troops during the Matos revolution. The United States' claim against Great Britain in the case of the Alabama will be cited as a precedent.

Castro Unnerved

Special to The Telegram. WILLEMSTADT, Feb. 26.—Advices received here from Caracas say that President Castro is greatly unnerved as a result of the unsuccessful attempt by an unknown person to poison the Most Rev. Dr. Juan Baptista Castro, archbishop of Venezuela, by putting nitrate of silver in the communion wine on Sunday, Feb. 19, which caused a great sensation. The archbishop some time ago issued an encyclical re-claiming the Venezuelan clergy for immorality. The attempt on the bishop's life is generally attributed to a priest.

WOULD PROMOTE THE PHILIPPINES

Insular Secretary to Interest American Capital There

Special to The Telegram. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25.—Fred A. Thompson, treasurer of the province of Moro, in the Island of Mindanao, is here in the interest of that territory. His mission is to inform capitalists that the province of Moro has been granted a land law by the insular government under which it is permitted to sell or lease to any corporation which applies, 2,500 acres of land for the cultivation of hemp, rubber, sugar and other plants and grain, which may be raised in the island with profit. Thompson leaves in a few days for Kansas City, New York and Washington and hopes to interest many American capitalists in the resources and opportunities to be found in his island home.

TO EXTEND PRACTICE

Rifle Shoots of Guard Likely to Finally Include Men

Special to The Telegram. AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 26.—The periodical rifle practice of the officers of the Texas National Guard at Camp Mabry is fast becoming quite popular among the officers of this organization, and if the suggestion made by Captain E. E. Walker of Austin, adjutant of the First Texas infantry is taken, this excellent practice may at some future day extend to the men in the guard. At the last shoot, held on Washington's birthday, quite a number of the officers of the guard participated. On this occasion Captain Walker won the gold medal offered by Harrel & Klein of this city for the best score. The percentage of Captain Walker was 69.5, he having scored 278 out of a possible 400. This medal was then in the possession of Major Mike Bloom. It is the intention of the officers to have another shoot at Camp Mabry March 2, and they will invite out-of-town officers of the guard to come to Austin on that date and participate in the event.

CROSSED LEGS RESPONSIBLE

Japanese Are Small in Stature for Reason

FASHION CHANGED

Limbs Now Crowded Beneath

Body on Mat—Change Would Make Taller

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Custom is responsible for the comparatively small stature of the Japanese race, in the opinion of Sadunshi Uchida, Japanese consul in New York. Fashion ruled about 200 years ago that in sitting upon a mat one's feet must be crossed beneath and behind the body instead of being crossed in front of the body, as had been the custom for untold generations. "Pictures of our forefathers of four or five hundred years ago," said Mr. Uchida last night, "showed that they were considerably taller than my people are now and invariably they are pictured with their legs crossed in front of them. This custom of crowding the legs beneath the body, I think is more responsible for the smaller stature of the race, than lack of sufficient nourishment or of food of a poor quality, as Baron Takaki said in Philadelphia. "Proof of the correctness of this theory is found in the remarkable increase in stature of our young men since we began to use seats in the schools instead of matting. It is not at all unusual nowadays to see men 20 or 25 years of age more than six feet tall, and the next generation will doubtless see the height greatly increased. "But I cannot see," he added, "where any great advantage is to be gained by having a race of six-footers. It is the brain that counts. A man six feet tall cannot aim a gun any better than one of four feet, for instance, and now that the art of fighting at close range is practically past, I cannot see where any advantage is to be gained in military strength, at any rate. "That there is a strong determination on the part of the Japanese to increase their stature is beyond question. By returning to the use of chairs, which were common a few hundred years ago, and even by reverting to the old custom of sitting with the legs crossed in front, the Japanese are consciously making every possible effort in that direction. Various departments of government, especially the department of education, are working together to this end, and within a comparatively few years there is hardly a doubt that several inches will be added to the average heights of the Japanese."

KILLED AT TYLER

Green Norwood's Body Found and Murder is Charged

Special to The Telegram. TYLER, Texas, Feb. 24.—Green Norwood is dead and Early Sharp is in jail, charged with murder. Norwood was shot and killed in a Cotton Belt boarding car here early last night, but when he was shot he jumped out of the car and the dead body was not found until this morning. The two had been quarrelling for some time, it is said.

EARTHQUAKE AND TIDAL WAVE FATAL

South America Experiences Shock Felt to Interior

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—A cable dispatch from the Herald dated Buena Ventura, Colombia, says: "An earthquake occurred at twenty-five minutes to 11 o'clock on the morning of the 21st, lasting about seven minutes, the movement being from the north to the south. "The town was considerably shaken up. The damage, however, was small, but the people were thrown into a panic, kneeling weeping and praying in the streets. At the clocks in the town were stopped, while the cables were broken in many places. "Following the earthquake, there was a tidal wave, which was of no consequence here, but the reports from the coast including an area of fifty leagues to the south, state that 2,000 were killed by falling houses or drowned by the waves, whole families having been lost. "Sailing vessels report having encountered hundreds of corpses and quantities of dead fish and many small settlements were completely swept away. "The damage done by the earthquake and tidal wave at Tumaco was greater than here, a few lives were lost. The shock was felt in the interior, and five people were killed at Tumacaco. The people resorted to tents and thanksgiving services were held Feb. 21 and 22. Twelve distinct shocks were felt, but it is believed that all danger is over now."

SOME LEADING FIGURES IN IDAHO'S SENSATIONAL DYNAMITING MYSTERY

Here are the latest photographs of Harry Orchard, self-confessed assassin of former Governor Frank Steiengberg of Idaho, and the two men most implicated in his confession; President Charles H. Moyer and Secretary William D. Hayward of the Western Federation of Miners. Orchard's disclosure of a wholesale plot to murder by dynamite "high officials" opposed to the federal government's plans and the virtual kidnaping of Moyer and Hayward by the Idaho authorities has created one of the greatest sensations of recent years and stirred up a sizzling volcano which may manifest itself in a desperate clash between the miners and officials of the U. S.

HAS INCOME TAX. South Australian Statutes Received at Austin by State Department. AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 26.—The secretary of state's department has just received a copy of the acts of parliament of South Australia which country is under the dominion of Great Britain. The acts are for 1905, and show some excellent laws were passed by the people of that country. In some places an improvement is shown over the way in which the laws are enacted in Texas. Among the acts passed is an income tax.

SAYS ORCHARD HAS CONFESSED. Gov. Gooding of Idaho Issues Statement.

Special to The Telegram. BOISE, Idaho, Feb. 26.—Governor Gooding last night issued the following statement with respect to the Steiengberg assassination case: "I want to state that Harry Orchard has made a full confession as to the manner and motive of the assassination of former Governor Steiengberg, telling of the plans made and giving the names of those making them. The assassination of Steiengberg on Dec. 29, 1905, was the third attempt that Orchard made against his life. That confession was made to James McParland.

"It included a history of his life from his early boyhood up to the time of his arrest. In that confession Orchard implicated all those now under arrest and others. He told the story of twenty-six murders, the result of conspiracies in which all the accused parties were interested. When the story is given to the public, I believe it will be the greatest narrative of crime which the world knows. "There has never been any doubt as to the truth of Orchard's confession among those who are familiar with the crimes committed in Idaho and Colorado and charged to the inner circle of the Western Federation of Miners. I have seen Orchard myself since that no promises of clemency or reward had been held out to him by McParland or anyone else. Mr. McParland was aided in his work by Orchard's early training. The impression of the early days came up and smote his conscience when he was brought face to face with his God. He told me that he believed in a supreme being and a hereafter and that now his only thought was to make his peace with his Maker.

"The state desires to secure justice. There is no thought of punishing the murderers of Governor Steiengberg, or of waging war on any labor organization. I wish to announce that I have withdrawn the offer of $5,000 reward by the state for the punishment of the guilty parties and have advised that the parties who had offered rewards to do so and to today there is not a single dollar in reward offered for the conviction of the murderers of Governor Steiengberg. A reward of $1,000 is now offered by us for information leading to the arrest of J. L. Simpkins, and this is the only reward now offered in connection with the Steiengberg assassination."

TO GIVE PREMIUMS. Waco Floral Society Arranging For Fall Meeting. WACO, Texas, Feb. 26.—At a meeting of the Floral Society just held it was decided to appoint premium list committees and get to work on securing the premiums for the next exhibition which will be held in the fall, and this committee was appointed. The affairs of the society are in the best condition ever known. A president will be chosen soon to succeed Mrs. P. R. Heigert, who was too busy to serve. Storm at Sea Described. In one letter written by Dr. Tabor just after his arrival at Bremen, Prussia, he graphically describes a severe storm which he probably encountered on the voyage over. In this letter he says that the storm was something terrific and at times the water dashed up to the smoke stacks of the vessel. They also rescued a crew from a wrecked English tramp steamer consisting of about twenty-eight persons.

Describes Sights at Bremen. In another letter, dated Jan. 31, which is the last letter received by Captain Walker, Dr. and Mrs. Tabor were still at Bremen. He tells of the many wonderful sights of that great Prussian city. In this letter he furnishes Captain Walker with his itinerary for the remainder of his tour of the continent, and also his voyage back and the time of his probable arrival in the United States. According to this itinerary, from Bremen he goes to Munich, thence to Verona and from there to Venice, thence to Florence and then to the immortal city of Rome. He will spend considerable time at the last named place, and a few days in the other cities. He will then proceed to Genoa and then to Nice, and from there he goes to Paris, where he writes he will remain for two weeks. He goes then to London and will spend one week there; thence to Southampton, where, on March 14, he will sail for New York on the Kaiser Wilhelm II, which is said to be the fastest steamer magnificently appointed steamer in the world.

To Arrive April 1. It will take only six days in which to make the trip across the Atlantic. He will spend a few days in New York, and then proceed to Washington, where he will remain a short time, and then return to his home on about April 1.

D. B. HENDERSON DEAD AT DUBUQUE. Former Speaker of House Succumbs to Paresis.

Special to The Telegram. DUBUQUE, Iowa, Feb. 26.—Former Speaker David B. Henderson of the national house of representatives died at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Mercy Hospital of paresis, which attacked him nine months ago. He began to sink Friday afternoon, called Saturday morning. In the afternoon lapsed into unconsciousness and fell rapidly until the end came. All of his family except a son in California were at the bedside, but Colonel Henderson had been unable to recognize anyone but his wife since a week ago, and was brought to America by his regained his mental faculties. The funeral will be held next Thursday. Former Congressman George D. Perkins of Sioux City will deliver a eulogy. The body is to lie in state on Thursday at the church. David Brenner Henderson was born at Old Deer, Scotland, March 14, 1840, and was brought to America by his parents, who located on a farm in Winnebago county, Illinois, in 1848. They removed in 1849 to Fayette county, Iowa, where the son was educated, first attending the district schools and later the Upper Iowa University. He served as chairman of the Iowa

Texas State Health Officer Tells of Experiences of Voyage and Tour

Special to The Telegram. AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 26.—According to letters received from State Health Officer George R. Tabor, he and Mrs. Tabor are having a most pleasant time touring Europe. Captain E. E. Walker, chief clerk in the state health department, has received several letters from the doctor since his absence abroad. Immediately upon his return it is the intention of Dr. Tabor to at once call a conference of the health officers and authorities of several of the southern states to meet at Austin, Texas, for the purpose of adopting some uniform rules of quarantine which will govern in the future. Dr. Tabor will have some valuable suggestions to offer along these lines, gathered while in Europe.

THREE FATALLY HURT. Tennessee Feud Cause of Desperate Fight in Cannon County.

Special to The Telegram. WOODBURY, Tenn., Feb. 26.—The Johnson Motley feud in this (Cannon) county broke out afresh and as a result the following are fatally wounded: Sam Blair, shot four times in the arm; Bob Motley, shot twice in the groin; Richard Johnson, throat cut. The trouble between the Motleys and the Johnsons, two large families of Pea Ridge neighborhood, near the DeKalb county line, originated ten years ago over the operation of an illicit distillery, when blood was shed, and has broken out intermittently since. Sunday night renewal came at a young people's candy-pulling, where it is said some liquor had been drunk. Both Motley and Blair were shot by Johnson, but who cut the latter's throat is unknown. The sheriff has gone to the scene, which is in a wooded area in Cannon district, and hopes to prevent any further trouble, although it is said considerable excitement prevails.

STATE WINS CONTRACT CASE

Railroad-Express Agreement Decided Illegal

IN SUPREME COURT

State to Get $600,000 and Moore $150,000—Companies to Carry Case Higher

Special to The Telegram. AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 26.—The supreme court this morning hit the railroad and express companies doing business in the state a severe and crushing blow. The court holds that exclusive contracts made between railroad and express companies are in violation of the anti-trust act of 1903 and the state will recover penalties amounting to about $600,000. From Travis County.

The suits were filed in Travis county in the Twenty-sixth district court against the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway and the American Express Company, a joint stock company doing business in Texas. This was suit on which the test case was made. About thirty suits were filed altogether, including every railroad in the state and all four of the express companies operating over them. District Attorney Warren Moore instituted the suits with the consent of Judge C. K. Bell, who was attorney general at that time. The state alleged that the contract was made and entered into exclusive and in restraint of trade, as no other express company could enter Texas and do business over the lines of railway in the state. The state sued for penalties provided for under the act of 1903, which is $50 per day from the date the law becomes effective (April 1, 1903), amounting, in all, to $20,000 in this one suit.

State Appealed. The trial court sustained the demurrer to the state's petition (that these contracts were not exclusive as they did not come within the provisions of the anti-trust statute) and the state appealed to the Third court of civil appeals and it certified to the supreme court the question as to whether or not the contracts violated that portion of the law declaring all combinations of capital, skill or acts to be a trust and operated in the restraint of trade.

The court says that the fact that the contract was made and entered into prior to the passage of the anti-trust act of 1903 is without weight, for, as soon as the act became effective, existing trusts come under its provisions, and again, that the contract was made in the face of the existing statute contrary to its enactment. Moore to Get $150,000. This is a most complete victory for the state and especially for the district attorney.

Of the amount of penalties to be paid the state under this decision, he will receive something like $150,000, getting one-fourth of all that is recovered. It can be stated with authority that the roads and express companies will take the case to the United States supreme court.

SHOW FOLK ARRESTED

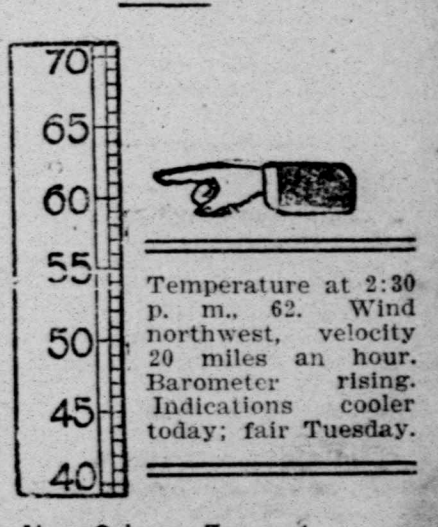

Louisville Police Make Friendly Raids to Test Sunday Law

Special to The Telegram. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 26.—Pursuant to a Sunday closing order issued by the board of safety last Tuesday and directed at places of amusement, the police made wholesale arrests of managers and actors at three of Louisville's principal theaters this afternoon. At the Hopkins Vaudeville theater and the Buckingham, a burlesque house and member of the Empire circuit, all the actors, the managers of the houses and the companies, the ticket sellers and the doorkeepers were arrested, the actresses not being molested. At the Metropolitan theater the scenery of the company billed for the coming week failed to arrive, but an extemporized turn was put on in order that this theater might test the law also.

On no instance were the performers arrested, officers standing by the wings and quietly serving their warrants when the actors came off after having filled their part.

TRADE EXCURSION BRINGS BUYERS

Many Visitors Attracted to Fort Worth Sample Rooms

BUYING GOODS FREELY
Outside Traveling Men Also Take Advantage of Opportunity to Do Business in This City

The efforts of the Fort Worth Sample Room Company and combined with those exerted by the several wholesale houses of the city, resulted in the making of a rate for trade excursionists of a fare and a fifth for the round trip. The rate became effective Monday and will continue in force until the 8th day of March. The tickets are sold on the certificate plan, and it is absolutely necessary for the holders of the tickets to go to the sample rooms and there have their tickets authenticated for the return trip. An additional advantage of this plan is the fact that the sample room people can get a register of the names of those who come to the city, taking the advantage of the reduced rates offered. Dallas has for several years enjoyed this advantage, and the result has been a large increase in the business of that city.

R. A. Love, vice president and general manager of the Sample Room Company, felt much encouraged this morning by the number of people who had come to the city to buy goods. Another thing, he noted, was the quickness of the drummer to take advantage of the conditions. He pointed out that in addition to the stocks shown by the wholesale merchants, and the Sample Room Company, there were four drummers' sample rooms opened Monday morning, and Mr. Love would, he would, be surprised if there were twenty by the middle of the week. It was the best possible evidence, he thought, that traveling men appreciated the advantage that would come from the low rates offered the retailers of Texas.

Mr. Love said that they are sending out from 1,200 to 2,500 personal letters each week; they have a list of 4,000 names, and the letters do not go to the same person each week, but are distributed down the list, in rotation, so that each one gets a letter about every one on that list gets a letter calling his attention to the advantages Fort Worth offers in this respect. Opportunity, to get low rates and buy goods as cheaply here as they could if they went to the expense and trouble of a trip to Chicago.

In addition to the wholesale stocks of dry goods, groceries, etc., there can be found a full line of samples of clothing, millinery, hats, shoes, ladies' suits and skirts, petticoats and men's furnishings.

Mr. Love stated his confident belief that the ultimate outcome of the trade excursion move would be the location of a number of wholesale houses in Fort Worth, covering all the lines of business for which there is a demand in the Fort Worth territory.

The finance committee, A. P. Fouts, S. M. Rogers and George Stillman, have done their duty and the committee on the entertainment contributed to the entertainment fund. William Henry & R. E. Bell Hardware Company, Nash Hardware Company, H. W. Williams & Co., Wadsworth-Cameron Company, H. Brann & Co., Moming Dry Goods Company, E. Van Horn & Co., Texas Brewing Company, Casey-Sweeney Company, King Candy Company, Southern Cold Storage and Produce Company, Texas Printing Company, Texas Bottling and Candy Company, Coleman-Lambert Company, W. C. Stripling, Burrus Mill and Elevator Company, Martin Casey, Turner & Dinges, Delaware Hotel, Worth Hotel, D. L. Creamery, Virginia Hotel, Fort Worth Furniture Company, Ellison Furniture and Carpet Company, L. Epstein & Son, Texas Ice and Cold Storage Company, R. F. Miller Manufacturing Company, Armour & Co., Swift & Co., National Coffee Company.

Will Refund Fares
Another favor of the liberality of the Fort Worth merchants grant to those who use the low rates on trade excursion make purchases here, is the refunding of the fare where the purchaser amounts to $250 or more. Purchasers are requested to take duplicate receipts and submit them to Mr. Love at the sample rooms. It is not necessary that all of the buying should be done at the sample rooms to get the benefit of the promise to refund railway fares to those who buy to the amount of $250. So the aggregate reaches those figures and the fare is refunded.

Great good is confidently expected from this enterprise on the part of the jobbers and wholesalers of Fort Worth.

MAN ABOUT TOWN
"The commission has worked well in Galveston," said Henry Calvert of this city, to Man About Town, "and the property owners and business men would not entertain a proposition to return to the old system. Galveston commission has served to take city affairs out of politics and the result is satisfactory to every one except the professional politician, who finds that his occupation has gone slithering."

"The idea of a commission form of government for cities is to take the government and business of the city out of politics, which will not be attained if the members of the commission are elected. That would be no improvement on the old system, because the ward politicians and manipulators would control the commissioners they elected just as they now in the city control the council. The commission under an apportionment system puts the affairs of a city on a strictly business basis."

DEATHS

EXPECTS COMMISSION
Lon Barkley Looking for Letter from Washington

Lon Barkley stated Monday that he had received a message from a friend in Washington, and that his commission would undoubtedly arrive in Fort Worth Monday or Tuesday, and that he would be able to take charge of the Fort Worth office on March 1, as expected.

LIGHT COMPANY LAYING MAINS

North Fort Worth Expects to Be Supplied Soon

North Fort Worth and Rosen Heights office of the Light and Power Company is located at 117 Exchange avenue, old phone 393, where news items, subscriptions, dividends and complaints of delivery should be left.

North Fort Worth will soon have gas to burn. Monday morning the Fort Worth Light and Power Company began laying gas mains in accordance with the franchise granted to it last April. The work was begun on Main street at Twelfth, and will extend north across Central avenue. The main north-south line will be finished as quickly as possible and be in shape for use in a few months.

Pressure will be required to furnish the gas to the consumers in North Fort Worth and for this reason the eight-inch line will connect directly with the plant in Fort Worth. A holder or tank will be erected south of the business part of North Fort Worth and a pumping station installed.

All the work just now is being done in Main street, in order to get the mains laid before the macadamizing is done. From Main street a four-inch main will be laid east and west on Central avenue. Besides these there will be other extensions made immediately.

The rate, according to the franchise, is set to exceed that charged in Fort Worth. All public buildings are to be lighted free by the company.

Business College Wins
The baseball game Sunday afternoon between the Rosen Heights team and Draughon's Practical Business College team resulted in a score of 12 to 11 in favor of the business college boys. The wind prevented the best exhibition of football in spite of it the game was interesting and close throughout, being won near the end by the business college.

Godsell and P. Robinson did the battery work for the Rosen team and J. D. Thompson and John Little for the business college. L. T. Elderson was the umpire. At least four hundred spectators witnessed the game.

Thrown from Buggy
Frank Williams and a friend were thrown from a buggy Saturday night at a point about four miles north of Fort Worth. Both received injuries. Mr. Williams sustained a dislocated ankle and other injuries and his friend, named Hearn, was cut about the neck by a barbed wire.

The accident happened near the home of Harry Strohl and Williams was taken there and medical attention given him. He remained at the Strohl home until Sunday afternoon, when he returned to North Fort Worth.

Mission Services
During the Lenten season Rev. Bartow B. Ramage, rector of St. Andrew's parish, will have his mission services at St. Michael's and All Angels mission, Fourteenth and the Boulevard, North Fort Worth, every Wednesday during Lent and give a course of instruction on the prayer book. This mission in North Fort Worth is fostered by St. Andrew's parish and since it was established it has been well patronized by the people of the northern part of the city.

Notes and Personal
Monday morning J. B. Collier purchased two lots in North Fort Worth. One of them is a corner lot at Central and Laconia avenues. The lot is 50x100 feet. The other lot was purchased from J. E. Daniel for $400 and is at the corner of Lincoln avenue and Fourteenth street.

Dr. A. Cleveland and family have arrived in North Fort Worth, where they will make their home. They are to reside at 1407 Boulevard.

encouraging and that the entry list will probably be far larger than it has ever been before. Entries are coming in rapidly, and the list so far is a heavy one. It is impossible to make a comparison with the list of 1925 on account of the fact that the entry date closed earlier this year than last. In comparing the entries of individuals with their lists of last year it is found, however, that nearly all of them are sending in from 10 to 25 per cent larger lists than they ever have before, and some of the lists are even larger than 25 per cent increase.

The necessity of early entries has been emphasized by the committee in charge on account of the fact that the best places will be given to the early comers. The last one coming in necessarily having to be satisfied with whatever they get.

SUMMER THEATER FOR THE HEIGHTS

Interstate Amusement Co. Negotiating for Circuit
Negotiations are now going on between the Interstate Amusement Company and the Arlington Heights companies for the opening of a summer circuit theater at Arlington Heights about May 1. The Interstate Amusement Company will institute a circuit of open air theaters through the state, with about the same towns as compose the present circuit. If it is possible to get the theaters in all the towns. An option has already been secured at Dallas and plans are being made at the other places.

If possible for enough options to be secured the circuit will be started and Fort Worth will be among the number. The fact that enough houses for a circuit may not be obtained may prevent the event, but Manager Fisher of the Majestic states today that he thought that the plans would be made as suggested.

If the circuit is opened the Interstate Amusement Company will be a year around circuit, going from the

HONEST, ENERGETIC WORKERS IN DEMAND

"What employers need today is not more ability. There is enough of that—in fact, perhaps, there is too much."

In these words H. J. Hagood, president of Hagoods, in an address before the business economy class of the West Side Young Men's Christian association, New York, Thursday evening, summed up the requirements of American employers.

"It is work that makes a good salesman, not a natural ability, appearance or personality. One of the best salesmen in the United States today is one of the poorest imaginable specimens of mankind."

"The managing director of one of the largest British banking institutions having over 100 branches throughout the world, attributes the failure of many men to not realizing the necessity for persistent effort."

ROBERTSON FOR PRESIDENT

Friends of A. B. Robertson, of Colorado City, one of the best known cattlemen and bankers in the state, predict that he will be the next president of the Cattle Raisers' association of Texas, and a large sized Robertson boom has been launched, which promises to assume the most formidable proportions.

This helping of others is a very strong characteristic of Sug Robertson. He is a man who has fought his way from the very bottom of the ladder, and his sympathies are always with the fellow who is trying to climb."

The first real cow work done by young Robertson was on the Wylie ranch in Runnels county, and Uncle Eob Wylie gave the young man his first chance to get a little start in the world.

with the live-stock industry of Texas for the past quarter of a century, and has always given freely of his time and means to the advancement of the interests of the great association with which he has so long been connected.

From a modest beginning, Sug Robertson has prospered until he has become one of the leading cattlemen of the Southwest. He has large ranch and cattle interests both in West Texas and Montana, and is president of the Colorado National bank, one of the strongest financial institutions in West Texas.

The stockmen are going to win in their fight for a 24-hour law, and the humane people might as well begin to prepare for the inevitable. Their efforts seem to have been a very clear case of mistaken identity.

While the Republicans are quarreling among themselves over railroad rate legislation, the matter has been shifted to the Democrats and they will dominate the legislature. Tillman is in charge of the bill, and will push it through with the aid of his pitchfork.

enterprising cattlemen who have located here have faith in the home of their adoption. And Fort Worth business property beats cattle badly under existing conditions when it comes to a matter of investment.

That big wheat crop that is now promised to North Texas and the Panhandle will bring much additional prosperity into Fort Worth trade territory.

Fort Worth business property continues to move at a stiffening figure, and it is a sure indication that confidence in the future of this city is firmly established.

More packing houses must be encouraged to come to Fort Worth. The export business of the country must be done ultimately through Texas ports, with Fort Worth the center of operations.

The Board of Trade is showing its ability and willingness to do some things in the matter of landing manufacturing enterprises in this city, and it is worth that counts. The more manufacturing enterprises we can obtain the faster we will grow.

The supply does not equal the demand owing to the fact that the people do not cater to the demand. When a Texas town or city desires more manufacturing enterprises the proper method is to go out after them and wage a campaign that will know no ending until the desired result has been achieved.

AMONG THE EXCHANGES

It is talked at Austin that the next legislature will probably abolish the office of county treasurer. It is said that the county depository law passed by the last legislature has demonstrated the fact that the county can receive compensation for the handling of its funds instead of being at an expense as at present.—Granbury News.

The last legislature virtually abolished the office of county treasurer when it passed the depository law. As matters now stand there is little real need for a treasurer.

More spookstacks in Fort Worth will bring more business to every line represented in the city. Let's have the spookstacks.—Fort Worth Telegram.

In a recent address before the state horticultural association at Palestine, President Harrington of the Texas A. & M. college, declared himself to be in favor of introducing the teaching of agriculture into the public schools.

Fort Worth has a very stringent anti-scalpers' ordinance and the gentlemen who sing the siren song of cheap tickets to the unwary sucker who expects to get permission to ride over the roads for less than is legal have raised a howl that it is not "constitutional."

After a careful canvass of the situation, Farmer Shaw, who gives his time exclusively to cultivating politics, has reached the conclusion that the race for the Democratic nomination for governor has narrowed down to Judge Bell of Fort Worth and Colonel Tom Campbell of Palestine.

Judge Bell has a greater record as a trust buster than any man who ever occupied the office of attorney general. That fact seems to be lost on the Journal man, who seeks to place him on the side of the interests he never granted any form of quarter.

SIMPLE LIFE IN SCHOOL

If there is one American institution which, more than another, was designed to be, and should be, thoroughly democratic in every respect, it is the common school. The taxes of the people, without distinction of wealth or social position, support the common school, and the children of the poor and the well-to-do are supposed to stand on precisely the same footing while they are pupils of the common school.

WASHINGTON'S LIGHTER SIDE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Prime Riggs of Sodas has a job. The news circulated around the capitol this afternoon and created an interest disproportionate to its importance, because of Prime Riggs' remarkable display of originality in the choice of names.

An auctioneer here has advertised a sale of Harriet Lane Johnson's stock of whisky. Mrs. Johnson, as the beautiful Harriet Lane, was the mistress of the White House in the administration of President Buchanan.

Senator Foraker, debating on the pure food bill, was getting very warm on the subject of fusel oil in whisky. He had an amendment, with which he aimed to annihilate fusel oil, and he did not want to be interrupted.

"I surely want to interrupt the senator," he announced. "I was head barkeeper down in South Carolina when the dispensary system was inaugurated, and I know what I am talking about."

"I am not much of a sharp on the taste of whisky, but I know all about the making of it," he ended triumphantly, and no one could say him nay.

THE DRIFT OF POLITICS

ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATORS

The question of the election of United States senators by the people direct is being agitated all over the country. The attitude of the United States senate regarding the matters in which the people are greatly concerned, such as discrimination in freight rates by railroads in the interest of favored shippers, the known obedience of senators to the demands of the trusts and other giant corporations, as against the people, have fanned the flame and helped the agitation.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE HEARD IN THE SOUTH

At the Democratic primaries last fall in Virginia Senator Thomas S. Martin received the highest vote for senator, his opponent being the magnetic Montague, then governor. It was a hot fight, and the state was canvassed by the rivals from end to end. Everybody who had anything to say said it, and there was no one muzzled. In obedience to the will of the majority of the Democrats as expressed at the primary the legislature recently elected Mr. Martin as senator for six years from March 4, 1907.

PANTHERS TAKE 1 FROM DALLAS

First Pre-Season Ball Game Won by Fort Worth

The selection of ball players who went over to Dallas Sunday, for the first exhibition game of the season of 1906, was out by the close score of 3 to 2, and that result, it is not an exaggeration to say, was due to superior playing and the fact that the Fort Worth players had the chance to limber up a little more than had the Dallas players.

Center to home was a special feature of the game. Bates won praise for his base running, in one inning stealing all of the way around. Cavender made the only error made by the Fort Worth mixed team, a miff of a fly hit to him by Maloney.

The Dallas players were very well satisfied with the showing made by their home team, for they fully appreciated the fact that the men had had but little practice and could not get into form in two games of practice baseball playing.

Fort Worth made a run off of each of the Dallas pitchers, and that was in part by bunting the hits and in part by the errors of the Dallas players.

It was a game that was honestly won by the Fort Worth team and no one is inclined to dispute that proposition.

Meyers and Tate of the Dallas team were given much praise for the work they did and a throw of Tate from

NEW ORCHESTRA ASSURED SUCCESS

First Rehearsal of Fort Worth Symphony Club Held

A good many Fort Worth music lovers would have been surprised had they been present at the first rehearsal of the Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra, held Sunday afternoon in the music store of Ross & Heyer, in Houston street. The occasion was an interesting one, aside from being the first rehearsal of the Fort Worth orchestra.

Over twenty musicians, as many as Theodore Thomas had when he started transplanting an orchestra for classical music among the packing houses and western atmosphere of Chicago, not so many years ago, were present at the rehearsal, and the interest they took in the work spoke well for the success of the organization.

As told exclusively in last Monday's Telegram, the orchestra was organized only a week ago, when Phil Epstein was elected president and Jacob Schreiner permanent conductor. Illness and lack of rehearsal, however, kept a few of the musicians away from the first rehearsal, and it is expected next Sunday to have all the members who compose the orchestra present.

The purpose of the orchestra's organization is to establish in Fort Worth a group of musicians who can play symphonic music and give this city, first in Texas, an organization similar to those which have made Chicago, Pittsburgh, New York, Boston and Cincinnati famous as music centers. The growth and developments of a symphony orchestra has usually been a slow process from the fact that it requires long and patient effort.

It is a notable fact, however, that in Chicago, where Theodore Thomas first started giving classical concerts, the first lack of appreciation for the work was soon succeeded by enthusiastic support until before the eyes of the death of the Thomas orchestra auditions were probably the leading events of the entire musical season.

Mr. Beresford is now a comedian of worth and merit, whose eccentricities and quaint manner of speech have given amusing surprises to all who have seen this delightful comedy. His style of humor is rich and distinctly original, and the rollicking fun that he injects in Lloyd's unquestionable triumph is of the past.

At the Majestic. Monday ushers in a new bill, says the press agent. On it are features in keeping with the policy of the company—are new and novel. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hughes, refined delineators of wholesome comedy, will introduce to Majestic audiences "The Matrimonial Substitute."

Values Advanced Substantially—Union Pacific and Reading Market Leaders—Close Steady
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Although there were no developments over the holiday conducive to higher values and early London cables reported a weak market for Americans, the trend of the local market was generally toward a higher level. However, the outside public took but little interest in the proceedings and the trading was again confined to the professional crowd. In the trading Union Pacific was the favorite and exhibited considerable strength, reaching an advance of 2 1/2 points during the session. Reading was also active and strong, being bought rather liberally during the day and advancing over 2 points. A. C. P. was next in importance, and like the above mentioned issues, received good support and exhibited strength. Almost the entire list was marked up substantially during the day. The following are the closing prices of the principal stocks:

Wheat Prices Break Sharply in Last Hour—Corn and Oats Lower—Provisions Weak
CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Wheat prices slumped sharply in the last hour of trading. The principal characteristics of the market up to that time was the extreme dullness which prevailed, the volume of trading being unusually light for a Monday session. During the early trading the market derived strength from the firmness of the foreign market, the price advanced 3/8c, but around the top scalping on the long side took profits, causing a recession to Saturday's final figure. Prices hung around that level until the last half hour, when a heavy volume of selling which was occasioned by bearish weekly statistics, resulted in a rapid marking down of values, and the close was weak, with prices at a net decline of 1/2c.

March Situation Dominates the Market—40,000 Notices Issued—Stopped by Spot Houses
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—This was first notice day for March contracts, and that fact was the dominating influence of the market. Trading was active and both sides attained temporary victories during the day, but the final outcome favored the bears. All the opening prices were 1 to 2 points below Saturday's final, the decline being in response to the rather disappointing character of the weekly statistics. There was quite a volume of notices issued in the first hour, but they were taken care of by spot houses and the market firming up under heavy buying of the March option by prominent operators, supposedly for covering purposes, and prices touched a net gain of 1/2 point. But later in the day there was some heavy selling by wire houses and for New Orleans, the market again weakened, and prices reached the lowest in the last hour of trading at a decline of 11 to 13 points from the best of the day.

REX ENTERS HIS OWN NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 26.—With the formal entry of Rex, the carnival is in its full blast here today. The day opened threateningly with predictions of rain, but with the promise of clear and colder weather tomorrow, only a slight shower fell. All previous records in the matter of attendance promises to be broken. All trains now arriving here are being broken up into sections and are filled to their utmost capacity. It is estimated that 10,000 people were hauled into the city yesterday and that the number will probably be duplicated today, with the great excursions from all the surrounding country. Hotel capacity has been tested throughout the city, and the result is that during the past two weeks had to find accommodations in boarding houses.
