The election of these officers was held at the meeting, as follows: Chairman, S. J. Brient, Beaumont; vice chairman, A. W. Fisher, Galveston; secretary and treasurer, M. H. Sellers, Temple.

Following the election of officers, the ammer camp school matter was taken up and a discussion of a location for the camp and the financial outlook was participated in by every one present, being evident that the reorganization of this camp school as recommended by the state committee was an important part of the association work. BORDER CITIES

in Celebration

TO ERECT STATUE

Mexican People to Perpetuate Memory of Man Who Drove Emperor From Country

Special to The Telegram. EL PASO, Texas, March 21 .- Three thousand school children, the El Paso school board and the city council today paid tribute to Benito Juarez, the Mexican patriot-president, who drove Maximillan from that country and restored its republican form of government. It was not only a tribute to a patriot. but it was an evidence of the cordial relations between two border cities, an international gateway.

The tribute and the ceremony attending it was one of the most unique that has ever taken place. The American school children and city officials, led by the Mexican consul to El Paso, Hon. Francisco Mallen, marched over the boundary line, carrying the flags of the two countries and alternating in singing the national airs of the two

Children Carry Flags

Down the main thoroughfare of the foreign city the Americans marched, waving their flags, singing their songs and carrying wreaths as tributes to the departed dead. Today was the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of the patriot who they were honoring, and it was to the place where he made his headquarters when driven to the border, that they went to pay their tribute. General Juarez made his headquarters in a building now used as the Juarez postoffice, and it was while there, surrounded by his little army of faithful followers, that he appealed to the American people for aid, an appeal that would have no doubt been answered at the conclusion of our great American civil war had not General Juarez and his followers been abie to turn the tide when they did. To the postoffice the throngs marched, and there, in front of the building, at the spot where an admiring nation is to erect a costly shaft of marble to commemorate the memory of their patriot, the children from the United States paused and deposited their wreaths. The Mexican consul addressed them and some of their own: people also made remarks, including Mayor Charles Davis of El Paso and President T. J. Beall of the El Paso school board, the tenor of all remarks being the friendly relations existing between the two countries represented at the ceremony.

Greetings to Diaz From the monument site the procession moved to the federal telegraph office where "the school children of America" sent their greetings by wire to President Diaz.

From the telegraph station the school children marched to the site of the magnificent new girls' high school of Juarez, which was formally dedi-They then returned in the same manner as they had crossed to Mexico, still singing their patriotic songs and waving their flags.

Monument to Cost $125,000 Today's ceremony by the Americans was but the beginning of a celebration by the Mexican people which will last for several days. The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of their patriot-president has been made a gala event for the Mexican people and in all parts of the republic, ceremonies are held in his honor. In almost every city in the republic, some public building is dedicated in his honor, or statue of some sort is unveiled. In Ciudad Juarez, where the American school children gathered today, the corner stone was laid for a $125,000 monument, a national tribute, and the new girls' high school, the finest in the state of Chihuahua, was dedicated: also the agricultural and mechanical college, a few miles south of Juarez, the second institution of this kind in

Everywhere throughout the republic, ceremonies in honor of General Juarez were held, and everywhere patriotism ran as high as in the city across the

GRABBED GUN; GETS GRABBED

Plain Clothes on Officer Causes Mixup

A lively scrimmage took place on a street car Monday afternoon near the southern end of Main street, in which the figures were S. S. McGlothlin, mounted police officer; Tom Wren, deputy sheriff; a passenger, and U. G. Decker, a ticket broker. The trouble was precipitated by an attempt to arrest the passenger, who is alleged to have been drunk on the car. Officer McGlothlin, who was in citizen's clothes, and also a passenger on the car, attempted to arrest him and finally drew his pistol. Decker seeing the gun and believing it to be a private difficulty took a hand and grabbed McGlothlin's gun. Deputy Sheriff Wren was also a passenger on the car and he then took a hand in the scuffle and finally the two officers managed to arrest both men. A charge of interfering with an oficer was placed against Decker, but he was subsequently released when he gave the explanation that as the officer was in citizen's clothes, he did not know that he was an officer and that he did not know what the scuffle was about, simply having interfered to prevent what he took to be use of gun by a citizen. The passenger was charged with being drunk and paid a fine and was released. Windows were knocked out of the car during the scrimmage and the crowd which gathered was so dense as to practically blockade the street.

DALLAS, Texas, March 21 .- Prayer by Rev. Dr. W. H. Greenburg of Dallas, opened the third and last day's session of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association this morning. The attendance at opening hour was the smallest yet present at any session. Evidently the ball at the Majestic Tuesday night was responsible for many late naps.

The family had had breakfast at the usual time and, following the meal, Mr. Allen went up stairs to his room. Shortly afterward Mrs. Allen and her mother-in-law heard a shot and ran hurriedly up stairs to find him dead. He had been in ill health for several weeks and was known to be very Marion Allen was well known in Fort Worth, as he shipped his cattle to this market. He was more of a speculator in cattle than an actual raiser, as he bought cattle and shipped them here for sale.

He has been sick for some time, and it was ascertained this afternoon that in cases where shipments had been made to this market lately by Allen that his wife had had to answer the phone when called up on long distance from here.

He was comparatively a young man and was well liked here.

BANK DECLINES $35,000 LOAN

Difficulty Placed in Way of Market House

When the city council meets in special session next Monday night to take up the market house proposition, it and damages. will find that the situation has become more complicated since the last meeting. This is due to the fact that while the council has authorized the securing of a loan of $35,000 from the State National Bank for the purpose of erecting a market house, upon the representation of Alderman Waggoman that the loan could be obtained from the State National Bank for ten years at 6 per cent, the account of the city to be kept at the bank in the meantime, the bank now refuses the loan. J. C. Harrison, cashier of the State National Bank, stated Wednesday that he had notified the finance committee that the bank would not make the loan of $35,000 to the city as indicated by Alderman Waggoman that it would do. Now it will therefore be necessary to arrange for securing the money in some other way, and it remains to be seen whether the finance committee cap devise ways and means of securing the loan upon such terms as will be acceptable to the council. Mr. Harrison declined to state anything further about the matter than the arnouncement above that the bank had declined to make the loan. The city is now overdrawn $55,000 at the State National Bank, and it is believed will find it necessary to make further overdrafts before the taxes are again collected.

some surprise at the announcement

WASHINGTON, March 21 .- The fact that there is to be no rivers and harbors bill and that nobody is making a serious effort to get an appropriation for any new work at this session of congress does not appear to be generally known in Texas, judging from the letters and newspaper clippings that are reaching Texas congressmen asking what has become of the interoceanic canal project. It is true that Representative Burleson has a bill before the committee asking for an expenditure of money, looking to the future steamboat navigation of the Colorado river as far inland as Austin, but there is no grave danger that this project for the present will cost the government any greater outlay than what was expended for printing the bill. The rivers and harbors committee will entertain no new projects for fresh appropriations at this time, and the only appropriations that can be looked for will be the items carried in the sundry civil appropriations bill and already appropriated by a former congress. Thus the intercoastal canal will not figure in the present session

"We have a fine country and cattle have done well this winter, but they are not fat at present, and it will take some weeks to put them in butcher shape. I do not raise any feed myself, but buy it from my farmer friends, and I believe that this is the best plan, for it helps them out, and at the same time puts money into circulation, and this causes good times for all.

"Our market is Kansas City, and the Santa Fe encourages the belief that this is right and gives that city a little advantage over Fort Worth. I, however, brought along a lot of fat hogs and sold them at very satisfactory prices here.

"I was born in Atlanta, Ga., but have been away from the old state for a number of years. I lived in Texas nearly twenty years before I went to New Mexico, and it is my intention to come back to this state at some future time, as there is no place like it in my opinion. This looks like it was going to be a success as a Fat Stock Show, judging from the looks of the stock. You say there is another Atlanta man in with fat stock for exhibition? AN EVERY-DAY STRUGGLE

RANCHMAN NOW IRRIGATES LAND

Benefits of Better Grade Cattle Discussed

Strolling through the quarters of the fat cattle that will be on exhibition at the fat stock show, the reporter met W. Davis Jones, who is on the ground with a very fine string of registered Herefords, and whose ranch is six miles south of San Angelo, on the Concho, near where the various branches of the river form a junction. Said Mr. Jones: "I have 2,500 acres of land and five miles front on the river. I have 700 acres in cultivation and it is all under irrigation, the water used being drawn from the clear and pure waters of the Concho, which are the very best waters for irrigation purposes. With these facilities there is no end to the amount of stuff in the shape of feed that can be raised on the place and in consequence my cattle are always full of good water and first class feed. There is no healthier part of the world for cattle than the San Angelo country, as everybody knows, and with the means that we have on the ranch for giving them of the best, of course our cattle are good. I have 140 head of strictly first class registered Hereford cattle and to show the demand for my increase, I will say that I never have any left overs any year."

Mr. Jones has at the head of his herd Ikard 137209, and Warrior 119096. The latter bull took the second place at this fat stock show last year, and is now a five-year-old, and is entered again in the aged bull class. He weighs something above 2,000 pounds, and is a gentle and well conditioned beast. The others in his string are  all fine cattle. He is exclusively a need at any time. "Alfalfa is an extraordinary crop and there is nothing that beats it for feed for all kinds of stock. I get five cuttings a year sure and from each acre our average yield for the five cuttings is from five to seven tons. I could tell you some yarns about yields that are astonishing, but I will confine myself to the statement that if we had desired to sell our alfalfa hay it would have realized us $50 clear of expenses an acre. Passing of Range Beneficial

"The revolution that is going on ir the cattle business, that is in the methods of raising them, will be beneficial in the end and will add many thousands of head of cattle to the number Texas now has and as the stock will be much superior to the general run of cattle now, the proceeds of the marketing for each individual will be something astonishing in its great increase. Stock farming is rapidly taking the place of range methods and as the conditions change owners of cattle will use their intelligence and begin to study more and more the best methods of producing the best at least expense, with a certainty that their reward in dollars will be in proportion to the care and attention they give the business.

Will Raise Hogs "I am preparing to go into the hog raising business in addition to cattle, and with my alfalfa am sure to make good thing of it. We have a market here now, and although we sometimes find fault with prices, still the fact remains that without it to depend upon we would be unable to risk undertaking many things that now we inhesitatingly go into. "We have had rain down our way and have a season in the ground and grass for stock. The winter has been an astonishingly open one and though neys well is half the task of keeping | it has been dry at times, still we have never suffered to any great extent. 1 learned that they had recently had rains down in Crockett, Irlon, Schleicher and Sutton counties, and of course I suppose the rest of the west came in for its share of the blessing. The last cold spells have drawn the cattle some, necessarily, but not much, and they will soon recover under the genial west Texas weather."

The residences visited were those of Mrs. Anna L. Taylor, 119 St. Louis avenue, Mrs. A. A. O'Neil, 103 St. Louis avenue, and Mrs. S. L. Hartsfield, 109 St. Louis avenue. The number of chickens secured was small, but the loss is very keenly felt by the owners. One of them reported that she had six old hens which she had owned for about four years, but that every one of them were stolen.

The Fat Stock Show is attracting a great deal of attention among North Fort Worth People. Wednesday morning fully 300 of the citizens of North Fort Worth saw the stock that has arrived. All are regretting that the weather has been so bad that it prevented more and extensive decorating and arranging for the reception of the many visitors who are arriving to see

The vicinity of Exchange avenue has taken on a gala appearance; there are tents for various purposes, each representing a separate attraction. Nearly every business house has made preparations to handle all the business possible during the show. Already most of the available room has been secured by those who expect to attend.

A crowd is expected to attend the meeting of the Cooperation Society at the Rosen Heights school house Wednesday night. The capital stock is to be marketed in 300 shares and for this reason it is thought that there will be several hundred citizens interested in the proposition.

The Rosen Heights baseball team has again begun practice after the forced abandonment of play for about a week on account of the weather. Although the game has not yet been scheduled, it is quite likely that a game will be played at the White City park Sunday between the Rosen team and one of the other City league teams.

The women of the Methodist church have arranged a place at the corner of Exchange avenue and Main street to serve meals during the Fat Stock show. They are prepared to handle quite a crowd, but it is expected that they will have more than they can

The Rathbone Sisters held a meeting Tuesday afternoon and a very pleasant time was reported by them. After a business and social meeting refreshments were served. Alderman Joe Mulholland has been

BRAVE TEACHER PREVENTS FIRE

Boys Also Come to Rescue of Girls

A fire was prevented Tuesday night at the girls' dormitory of Fort Worth University by quick action on the part of the teachers and the girls. A lamp was burning badly and the oil caught below the wick and began burning, threatening to explode. With rare presence of mind and pluck, Miss Jeanette Lewis, one of the teachers. seized the lamp and threw it out the window. The lamp struck the cornice and exploded, setting fire to the roof.

The university boys had by this time been aroused and they hurried to the assistance of the women. W. A Scarborough of last year's football squad climbed to the roof and succeeded in extinguishing the fire with water that was handed out to him through the window.

ALWAYS CALL FOR Drichenors ANTISEPTIC Since 1878 Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic has lead all preparations of its kind. Its success has produced many worthless imitations. Don't accept one! Don't tolerate substitutions, for they are dangerous, just when you need the best! It has been used by the legitimate medical profession for 28 years, and you are safe in calling only for Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic. 25c, 50c and $1 bottles at all druggists.

"ASK ANY ONE WHO HAS EVER USED IT."

CAUTION Imitations and worthess nostrums are being offered, and some dealers claim them to be "just as good" as our Tablets.

The reason they offer imitations is that they can make more money on a substitute because it does not contain the expensive, genuine imported Rue Galega and our own essential ingredient.

Our Tablets will make good, healthy flesh, create a natural appetite, develop the Bust, restore wasted breasts lost through nursing or sickness. Makes the cheeks plump and rosy, fills out the hollows of a scrawny neck and clears the complexion. Vaucaire Galega Tablets nourish the fat-producing cells, which is necessary to give the roundness of contour which is so desired and coveted by every lady of refinement. If you are careworn, nervous, or run down, take a box of Vaucaire Galega Tablets and note their wonderful effect. Contains no injurious drugs. One pretty hat of white Irish crochet lace, with low round crown and moderately wide brim, had an inch wide binding of cloth of gold around the edge of the brim and was trimmed very simply with a soft chiffon scarf, embroidered in gold thread and sequins, draped about the crown of the haot, with the fullness falling over the brim on the left side, where it partly concealed a mass of pale pink rosebuds placed under the brim (see figure 1.) Another hat of violet maline,

Twenty-Five Years

On March 20, 1881, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Newlin were married in Fort Worth and yesterday the silver wedding anniversary was made a happy reunion of friends. Many of them had been present at their wedding, others were friends that the passing years have added to the friendship's beautiful chain.

The celebration was a surprise planned by D. C. Bennett and Miss Mildred Bennett, Mrs. Newlin's father and sister. Friends were invited and the plannings were made with the lovingest secrecy.

The Bennett home was all gay with bells, some white, with silver clappers, others of gorgeous red. There were vases of flowers and ferns and smilax in silver candlesticks and cheerful joy of living rather than any suggestion of silvering was the theme sung in the hearts of hundreds of friends, as well as suggested by the decorations. Punch was served in the library and ices and cake in the dining room.

STREET COSTUMES

A stunning street costume is in nana cloth. The skirt is short, three inches from the ground, and the front panel is continued over the hips, giving the necessary fullness. The coat is close fitting, and a slight belt defines the waist line. This garment is collarless; the throat is outlined with a narrow black braid, and the straps on the shoulders are similarly trimmed. Double cuffs have the braid and medium buttons of dull metal fasten the coat and decorate the sleeves. A stiff low crown straw hat is worn with this costume. The hat is of leg-horn, trimmed with ruching of dull pink ribbon, and a black algrette is at the left side.

5312 Girl's Cape with Hood, 4 to 12 years.

The little cape made in Red Riding Hood style is always a pretty, attractive and useful garment for young girls. This one is absolutely simple while it is cut with graceful and abundant fullness and includes a hood that can be drawn up over the head, providing genuine warmth and comfort whenever desirable. As shown it is made of dark red broadcloth stitched with belding silk and is lined with soft white silk, and is designed for party wear, but cloth of many sorts, drap d'ete and the like are all appropriate with the lining chosen to suit the color and the use to which the cape is to be put. If designed for school wear cheviot, homespun and the like are always desirable and many of these cloths do not require lining as the inner side is finished and the warmth is quite sufficient without. The cape is made with the cape and the hood. The cape is fitted by means of darts at the shoulders and the hood requires to be lined with some soft silk and stitched to form a casing in which elastic is inserted, which serves to draw it up about the face.

About New Braids Quantities of braid are used on all the dresses this season, and costumes of deep purple cloth, fashioned with cape boleros and adorned with black and silver or black and gold Russian braid, will represent another very important feature of spring wear. Smart black and white checked cloth costumes, which are equally popular, are trimmed with guards' red cloth and broad black silk fancy braid. A noticeable point about the new trimmings is that the wide plain braids are usually overlaid with narrow braid with a thread of gold or silver running through it, this being maneuvered into circular motifs or into a variety of different designs.

French Actress to Visit Fort Worth

DATE SET FOR APRIL 3

Play Not Announced - Performance Will Likely Be Given at Prospect Park-Itinerary of Trip

It was announced here definitely Wednesday morning that Sarah Bernhardt will play in Fort Worth and will use her tent to give her production while here. The date of the performance in this city is set for April 3. For some time after the announcement that she would tour the state, it was said that she would only play in three or four cities, all at some distance from each other, and that Fort Worth people who wished to see the show would have to go to Dallas. The demand for a performance in this city and other cities in Texas was so strong however, that quite a complete itinerary was added and she will now visit a larger number of places.

The play that will be presented here has not been decided upon as yet, al-though it is probably that it will not be "Camille," as those who wish to see this play will be enabled to see it in Dallas, where it will be presented.

The tent for the show will probably e pitched on the circus grounds at Prospect Park race track. The big tent for the series of perfermances of Madame Bernhardt has already arrived in Dallas, and is being put up there now. The big canvas auditorium is practically new, having been used but one week by the Twin City horse show organization of St. Paul and Minneapolis. Mr. Morris states that the conditions in his section of the country are excellent, and that there is a great deal of land changing hands at constantly enhancing values. The cold weather, he states, will do no damage in his section, except to the fruit, of which there is very little.

R. C. Sanderson of Big Springs, Texas, a well known cattleman, is here to attend the Fat Stock Show. Mr. Sanderson has been attending the cattlemen's convention at Dallas, and he has come over to Fort Worth to spend the remainder of the week looking at fine stock and meeting the cattlemen from all sections of the country. Mr. Sanderson states that conditions around Big Springs were never better, and that the grade of cattle raised in that section of the country is being steadily improved.

Former United States Senator Harris of Kansas spent the greater part of Tuesday in Fort Worth with his son, Page Harris, superintendent of the eastern division of the Texas and Pacliis railroad, leaving for the east Tuesday night.

Senator Harris has the distinction of being the only Confederate soldier ever honored by Kansas by an election to an important office. He commanded a brigade in the Confederate army, serving until the end of the war, and after hostilities ceased he moved with his family to Kansas, where he practice i law. When populism was strong enough Kansas to carry the state General Harris was one of the leaders of the party and when the election of a United States senator was held by the legislature, he was elected by a big majority. He only served one term of six years, being succeeded by a republican, that party having wrested the state from the populists. General Harris succeeded John J. Ingalls in

STRANGE FACTS

It seems strange that sometimes your stomach or bowels won't digest your food, no matter what you eat. It may be the weather, or it may be just the state of your general health, but in any case, there is only one certain, safe and positive method of cure, and that is the proper use of that universal remedy for all forms of dyspeptic trouble or digestive weakness, whether in stomach, liver, kidneys or bowels-Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Strange, it is, that in such little tablets to be taken a few times a day, may lie such wondrous potential possibilities, that by their use the course of a man's whole life-yes, of the world-may be changed! Yet, who would not appreciate the fact that if Napoleon had not been suffering from Cancer of the Stomach he would have won instead of lost-at Waterloo? And Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets would have cured his Stomach Trouble had they then been invented, as they have cured thousands of others in the past ten years, who have suffered just as Napoleon did.

So you can readily appreciate that today, by curing all these people, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is helping to get the world's work done, by people who would do worse work if they were sick, so they must be having a great influence, in a quiet way, on the world's progress. They may, therefore, be classed as one of the triumphs of science, amongst other discoveries in medicine, mechanics, transportation, etc. Let this, then, remain in your memory, a fact upon which to act when occasion requires:-When any organ in your vast digestive machinery gets out of order. you have at your command one of the greatest inventions of the age, in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, to put your machinery in order again. By so doing you will save much useless friction, add to the energy and working possibilities of your bodily machine, and relieve yourself from suffering, disease, weakness, premature old age and death. All this is strictly in accordance with the most modern teachings of the best scientific schools of health, hygiene and medicine, and it will be to your advantage to lay these facts to heart.

Don't hesitate. Try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets today.

Delegates Leave to Practice Ideas Advanced

The state convention of the Y. M. C. A. of Texas has completed its labors and nearly all of the delegates have left the city for their homes to take up the work that was outlined in the state committee's report that was discussed and adopted at the session Tuesday morning. The final meeting in connection of the convention was that of the general secretaries and physical department directors, held at he Broadway Presbyterian church parlors Wednesday morning, when matters pertaining to the physical culture department were discussed in view of an extension of that branch of the association work.

The meeting at the Cumberland Presbyterian church was of college association delegates, presided over by T. S. Clyde of Austin College. The meeting at the Tabernacle was of city and railroad association delegates, presided over by C. K. Ober of New York city.

Closing Session The closing session of the regular convention was held at Christian Tabernacle Tuesday night and the attendance of people not delegates, but who take much interest in the work of the Y. M. C. A. was the largest since the convention opened. The meeting was presided over by President Bleim of San Antonio, a engthy song service by the quartet from the Austin Institute for the Blind being conducted preliminary to the regular program. Reports from departmental conferences made by delegates were filed and read, showing work don and plans for the future, embracing man important suggestions as to improvement in the work of the association. Following the reading of the reports from conferences Bruno Hobbs of Kansas City addressed the convention. his topic being, "The Principles for Which the Young Men's Christian Association Stands."

Mr. Hobbs delivered his address in a conversational style that commanded the strict attention of his hearers, and handled his subject in a manner evidencing great familiarity with the association work. In demonstrating the good results the association had secured he was so clear that those who heard him were more than ever impressed with the power of the Y. M. C. A. as a factor for good among the young men of the country.

Following the talk of Mr. Hobbs there occurred one of the most pleasant incidents of the convention. Mr. W. M. Lewis, the retiring state secretary, whose services the Y. M. C. A. regret to lose, was presented with a purse well filled with gold as a token of the high esteem in which Mr. Lewis

There were a few short farewell talks by delegates who, in them, expressed their appreciation of their reception and entertainment in Fort Worth, a selection by the blind quartet and the work of the convention was at an end. While Hunting C. P. Callaghan, the designer of the three big engines now in service on the Texas and Pacific, and one of the most valued employes of the company in the shops at Marshall, died in that city Tuesday night from the effect of a gunshot wound received Sunday. The news of his death was received in Fort Worth Wednesday morning.

Callaghan and a friend were out hunting in a buggy Sunday, not far from Marshall, and Callaghan in attempting to pull his gun to him from the bed of the vehicle where it rested, struck the hammer against the seat, causing the weapon to be discharged, a full load of small shot entering his body near the arm pit, almost tearing the arm from the body. He lingered until Tuesday night, when he succumbed to his injuries.

Washington Railroad Commissioner Studying Texas Methods Special to The Tetegram

AUSTIN, Texas, March 21 .- John C. Lawrence of Olympia, Wash., a member of the railroad commission of that state, arrived here yesterday afternoon and was a caller at the offices of the railroad commission. Mr. Lawrence is here on his way to the annual meeting of the national railway commissioners which convenes shortly at Washington. The mission of Mr. Lawrence here is to get some information regarding the workings of the Texas commission, as the commission of the state of Washington is only about nine months old. Mr. Lawrence spent the day conferring with the experts of the commission regarding rate making, and the manner and methods of the Texas Mr. Lawrence said that he has al-

He expressed himself as being pleased with the Texas commission law as far as he had carried his investigations. He will remain here until the members of the commission return to the city.

HOG RAISING STILL NEEDED

Growth of Packeries Require More of Them

W. E. Skinner, general manager of the Live Stock Exposition at Chicago, and one of the organizers of the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show, is here to attend the show. Mr. Skinner now resides at Chicago, but he is still interested in Texas. "What the papers of your city and state should do," said Mr. Skinner, "is to urge the farmers to raise hogs. I know that they have been doing this intermittently, but it should be done constantly and systematically. It would prove profitable to the farmers and cities as well. "As soon as Fort Worth can promise the packers a sufficient supply of hogs there will be more packeries here. Now it is necessary to ship hogs from other states to the Texas packeries to be butchered, and there is no reason in the world why Texas farmers, who can raise hogs, and feed them, too, should not keep this money in the state. Hogs have been commanding a high price, owing to the heavy demand, and the indications are that there will be a continuance of this de-

Now, the farmers who used to laugh at the college farmers are sending their boys to the Agricultural and Mechanical College, and are having them taught the best methods of cultivating the soil and raising

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I was afflicted with proriasis for thirty-five years. It was in patches all over my body. I used three cakes of Soap, six boxes Cuticura Ointment, and two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent.

bathed with the Soap, applied the Ointment once a day, and took the Resolvent as directed. In thirty days I was completely cured, and I think permanently, as it was about five ars ago.

"The psoriasis first made its appearance in red spots, generally forming a circle, leaving in the center aspot about the size of a silver dollar of sound flesh. In a short time the affected circle would form a heavy dry scale of a white silvery appearance and would gradually drop off. To remove the entire scales by bathing or using oil to soften them the flesh would be perfectly raw, and a light discharge of bloody substance would coze out. That scaly crust would form again in twenty-four hours. It was worse on my arms and limbs, although it was in spots all over my body, also on my scalp. If I let the scales remain too long without removing by bath or otherwise, the skin would crack and bleed. I suffered intense itching, worse at nights after getting warm in bed, or blood warm by exercise, when it would be almost unbearable.

"To sum it all up, I would not go through such another ordeal of affliction for thirty-five years for the State of Kansas. (signed) W M. Chidester, Hutchinson, Kan., April 20, 1905."

THE ANNUAL FAT STOCK SHOW

One of the biggest things ever witnessed in Fort Worth is the annual Fat Stock Show, which will throw its gates open to the public Thursday morning. It has been announced for some time that the great annual event this year would prove a record breaker in more respects than one, and it is already clearly apparent that such will be the case.

Never before in the history of the great southwest has there been brought together such a splendid aggregation of fine stock as can be found out at the grounds in North Fort Worth devoted to the exhibition, and it within itself affords a liberal education as to what the enterprising stockmen of Texas are doing and capable of doing in the matter of improving all kinds of live stock. There are a sufficient number of exhibitors to attest the general and growing interest in this great enterprise, which from a most humble beginning has with little effort comparatively sprung into national importance.

The Fort Worth Fat Stock Show has this year brought to this city such a gathering of fine stock and of leading stockmen as was never seen in the state before. It is of sufficient importance to bring to this city meetings of national breeders' associations such as were never held in the south before, and leading stockmen are here from every section of the country. Men are here from the range country, from the corn belt, from the great northwest and even from the other side of the Rio Grande. They are here in response to the belief that Fort Worth would present for their inspection something worthy their most serious consideration, and not one of them will be disappointed. The Fat Stock Show is all that has been claimed for it and more. It is an exposition of what Texas is doing that must redound to the good of the entire state.

Fort Worth is pleased to welcome to her hospitality the throngs of good people now within her borders. As the great packing house center, the great live stock market center and the greatest distributing center of the southwest, she proposes to arrogate to herself the further distinction of being the great fine stock center, and as a timely move in that direction, the Fat Stock Show has been inaugurated to stimulate and encourage the production of a better class of live stock all around.

Fort Worth has undertaken the great work of providing the live stock interests of the southwest with a home market for all the good stuff that can be produced in the Fort Worth territory. And while as yet two of the great packing systems are represented here, It will be but a short time until she will have all of these there is going. The export meat business of this country must eventually find its way to a Texas gulf port outlet, and with the number of trunk lines the Fort Worth market will soon have reaching deep water at Galveston, it is certain this city must be the leader in that class of business. Fort Worth is going at no distant day to practically monopolize this export | state of Texas this year invested in cotton mills would meat business, and the production of a better class | add materially to the number now operating in this of live stock in all Fort Worth territory will but have the effect of hastening this particular line of develop-

These are some of the reasons why Fort Worth feels such a deep and abiding interest in the Fat Stock Show, and why the Fort Worth hand is today extended in glad hospitality. Our visitors are all welcome. May they find much here to entertain and instruct them, and may they go home thoroughly impressed with the two facts that Texas is making giant strides in the matter of live stock development, and Fort Worth is life.

keeping a merry step to the march of that progress

PRYOR IS PRESIDENT

Colonel Ike T. Pryor of San Antonio is the new president of the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas, and the association is to be congratulated upon the wisdom of its selection. Colonel Pryor has served the organization for several terms in the capacity of first vice president, and in that position has rendered valuable service to the great live stock industry of the country. His election is in reality but a deserved promotion and it can safely be asserted that the presidency has been committed to capable hands,

There was a fight made on Colonel Pryor for the presidency, which was futile on account of its injustice. It was waged by well meaning members of the organization on account of a misconception of facts and not on account of any personality. As is well known to the public, one of the greatest fights the organization now feels it has on its hands is the matter of advanced commission charges-a proposition promul-Business Department—Phones 177 gated by the live stock exchanges of all the Missouri Editorial Rooms-Phones 676 river markets and announced to go into effect April 1. The cattlemen of the southwest are vigorously combatting this proposed advance, feeling that in numerous other ways the commission men have recently made relations sufficiently irksome. They are even going so far as to threaten the organization of independent commission houses, and have intimated something of a at the office, Eighth and Throckmorton streets, Fort | determination to ascertain whether or not the commission firms constituting the various live stock exchanges have the right under the law to combine in such manner.

> These are the conditions which led to the opposition to Colonel Pryor for the presidency of the association. It was urged that it would be the height of inconsistency to elect a man president of the association engaged in this fight who was actively interested in the commission business. But sight was lost of the fact that the new president was not a commission man to hurt. As he so happily expressed it in accepting the honor conferred upon him, he was only one-twentieth commission man as against nineteen-twentieths cattleman. His commission investments represent an cutlay of about $25,000, while his investments in the ranch and cattle business will approximate about $400,-000. These facts were understood clearly by the great majority of the members, and for that reason the Pryor election was practically unanimous.

> It is gratifying to note that this election will leave no scars in the great organization. It was feared for a time that feeling would run so high that friction would result, but that danger has been happily averted and the association will settle down to business without the least jar or unpleasantness. No man in Texas has been more closely identified with the great live stock industry than the very excellent gentleman who now stands at its head. He has proven his devotion in so many ways that it cannot in any manner be questioned, and it can be safely asserted that in the person of Ike T. Pryor of San Antonio President W. W. Turney has a most worthy and competent successor.

It is freely predicted that the Pryor administration will be one of the most brilliant and successful in the history of the association.

BOOMING ROOSEVELT AGAIN

There is a well defined movement on foot to overcome the announced determination of President Roosevelt not to seek further political preferment at the hands of his party. It is being urged by prominent republican party leaders that while the President was doubtless sincere in the tip he gave the country on the eve of his election that he would not again be a candidate, conditions have changed and the President must change with them.

It is being urged that so many reforms in which he is interested are falling short of actual accomplishment that the President will be compelled to forego his announced policy of retirement and stand forth as the one man in all this country who can lead the reform forces to a glorious victory.

In the new arrangement of affairs sight appears to be lost of one very important factor in the general situation by the third term boosters who are seeking to have the executive of this great nation proceed to publicly stultify himself. The failure that is being experienced in the effort to bring about the Roosevelt ideas of reform is occasioned by opposition to the Roosevelt policies within the sacred precincts of his own party. It must be clear to them, that if the republican party cannot reconcile itself to Roosevelt policies, then it must prove a very difficult matter for the party to accept the continued leadership of the man it so openly and brazenly defies.

It is certain that if the leading elements within the republican party can prevent the renomination of President Roosevelt it will be done in short order, and in that event the President will again have to turn to the democratic party for the support denied him so continually in the other quarter. Unfortunately for this phase of the situation, the democratic organization is too completely in the hands of William J. Bryan to permit such a contingency. The Roosevelt idea will come too suddenly to receive careful consideration at the hands of democracy, especially when its affections are so clearly planted elsewhere.

It is not believed the President can be persuaded to recede from his announced determination. He is a man who generally means just exactly what he says.

Many sections of the country are already experiencing much inconvenience in the matter of a coal shortage on the bare prospect of a strike. It is a matter of general congratulation that the uncertainty of the situation has progressed no further, and the early advent of warm weather will relieve the situation to a considerable extent so far as the question of fuel is

"State Topics" tells us that there is now being sent out from Brooks headquarters at Dallas, and used as campaign literature, one of the judge's opinions. This enforces the Times-Herald's suggestion that Judge Brooks and Commissioner Colquitt should resign their respective places ere entering upon the race for governor. It is hard to admit that the theatrical trust is bigger than Texas," but that is a fact. The Bernhardt tent is to be set up within the shadow of the state house in order that the legislators may have an object lesson. It had better be placed under the windows of some of the officers sworn to enforce the anti-trust laws. The legislators have done their part. It is up to the officers to enforce the law.—Austin Tribune.

The statement that the Bernhardt aggregation was denied admittance into the Texas theatrical circuit has been official denied. But the anti-trust feeling is very strong in Texas, and that fact seems to be clearly apparent to Mme. Bernhardt's manager. The idea of appearing in a tent as a rebuke to an alleged trust constitutes an advertising feature not to be sneezed at.

The President says it will be in October before Chief Justice Brown's place is to be filled and therefore Colonel Taft will have plenty of time in which to study over the situation and convince himself as to whether he should accept or reject the plum. Taft is a man it will be difficult to shelve, from the fact he is so hefty. The President found his avoirdupols handy at one time for use in keeping the lid on, and in remembrance of that fact is now willing to make ample provision for his future. Secretary Taft should not sigh for the unattainable, but rather content himself with that which is a reasonable reward of merit.

We are afraid the Courier has its estimate a little bit high. It is hardly probable the extra session of the state legislature will cost several hundred thousand dollars. The governor simply called the legislature together to do what a quorum agreed to do without any expense to the state.

THE SLOWEST EVER

The Fort Worth Telegram notes that "the people of San Antonio are so strongly in favor of the new commission form of government, or rather the censession of the state legislature, which convenes March 26, will be asked to give the city a new charter similar to that which has given such universal satisfaction in Houston." The Telegram adds:

"This new form of municipal government is attracting a great deal of attention, and the two South Texas cities that have already instituted it are loud in its praise. It was first tried in Galveston after the terrible flood has brought about conditions which necessitated a change, and it worked so well in the Oleander City that Houston, long crying under heavy municipal burdens, reached out and appropriated it. The results claimed for it in Houston by San Antonio papers should be sufficient to at least cause every other Texas city to investigate the matter and determine whether it is the thing it is represented to be, Fort Worth has been getting along in municipal matters perhaps just a little better than any of her sister Texas cities. But even in Fort Worth there is room for improvement. Our people should investigate the situation for themselves and be in position to arrive at an intelligent decision when the matter is up for final determination. Fort Worth wants her share in all the good things going."

Of course the professional jobber, the spoilsman, the grafter and a few honest, well-meaning citizens who have not observed the difference will oppose the scheme to cut down the number of offices, to do away with the old method of grabbing at the public treasury, to exchange politics for business in the public service; but, with the tests that have been made, it is quite safe to assume that the intelligent, patriotic citizen with no ax to grind will stand up and vote for the change. One thing is quite certain. He must resort to the improved means of municipal management if he would have the city in which he resides keep pace with its rivals who have seized the benefits and advantages. The News does not believe that progressive Texans in any community are going to await any such necessity. They will adopt the better plan of evidence which is sufficient to convince them. The evidence afforded by Galveston and Houston would appear to be quite conclusive.

Of course this turn from rotten political mismanagement to sound business management is a change for which the News has contended from the first. It has contended against a partisan public service, against a municipal system based largely upon jobbery and graft, upon a scheme that has given to the public service so many weak men and so few able men, upon a plan that has produced so many unsatisfactory results; in favor of a system based upon honesty, common sense and sound business principles. The News has said what it could to bring the people around to the better method and to more satisfactory results, and it is highly gratifying to find contemporaries published in the progressive little cities of the state almost unanimous in their demands for a change which has been found necessary and proven good.—Dallas News.

SHAVE FOR PRIZE AT FIRST SHOW

Founder of Big Cattle Event Is in the City

RECALLS ORGANIZATION

W. E. Skinner Tells of First Meeting and Aid Given by Merchants

of Fort Worth

W. E. Skinner, former manager of the Fort Worth stock yards and prime mover in bringing about the organization of the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show, is here to attend the show this week. Naturally Mr. Skinner is proud of the organization which he was instrumental in founding.

"Our first meeting was held in the parlors of the Worth hotel," said Mr. Skinner in speaking of the origin of the institution. "This was at a time when the big cattlemen of Texas were beginning to realize that it paid better to raise a steer which would weigh 1,200 pounds and required only the same amount of grass as one weighing 700 pounds. They were then facing a competition with cattle raisers who were producing steers which weighed from 1,000 to 1,100 pounds when two years old, while their steers weighed less than that when four or five years

"It was decided therefore to organize an exhibit, bringing cattle from the northern states down here and showing them to the Texas raisers and also getting the Texas cattlemen to bring their best cattle here for comparison.

Merchants Liberal

"The merchants of Fort Worth were liberal in offering money for the new enterprise and this spirit of liberality has been largely instrumental in making this the great cattle center which is is. Naturally there was considera-ble expense involved in getting the cattle here and when these were defrayed the amount left for premiums was rather small. Some of the premiums offered were shaves, hats, shirts and various other articles or attentions. The worth of the premiums, however, did not prevent the exhibitors from feeling a pride in the fact that their stock secured premiums and the recognition they secured encouraged them to bring more stock and better stock to the next exhibition.

Started Chicago Movement "The National Live Stock exhibition held at Chicago is really an outgrowth of the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show. The last show held here under my management attracted the attention of Chicago cattle interests and they recognized the possibilities in making the affair a national institution embracing exhibits from all parts of the country. I was made general manager of the exposition, which, as you know, is now one of the greatest exhibits in the country of the kind. Object Accomplished "The Fort Worth Fat Stock Show was organized with a view of improving the grade of Texas cattle and the success achieved is very clearly shown in the grade of cattle now here to be exhibited this week. There has been such an improvement in the grades of Texas cattle that they do not look as though they were from the same part of the country as those to be found in Texas a few years ago." Mr. Skinner hesitated a little in mentioning the names of those to whom the most credit was due in the organization of the Fat Stock Show for fear that he might forget the names of some of the old guard who had rendered assistance. It has been some years since he resided here and naturally some of their names have escaped his memory. Among those, however, whose

JOINT SESSION HELD

Citizens and Farmers' Union Reach Agreement at Marlow Special to The Telegram,

MARLOW, I. T., March 21 .- The citizens of Marlow and the Farmers' Union met in joint session here last night. The meeting was called at the suggestion of Chairman Tims of the farmers, who wished to have a better understanding between the farmers and business men regarding the intentions and purposes of the union here; also to bring before the Commercial Club the proposition of the union to build a third cotton gin here and desired the good will and co-operation of the citizens in their undertaking. A committee of business men was appointed by the club to confer with the union as to location and probable cost of the gin, etc.

A resolution was passed strongly condemning the arbitrary ruling of the third assistant postmaster general of he United States for his ruling against admission to mail as second-class matter the Union Signal of Shawnee, Okla., the official paper of the union n this territory. The union has a store here under the name of the Farmers' Exchange. This is maintained as a necessity to legitimate business standing as dealers. They are contemplating the erection of a grain elevator in the near future.

It is easy to leave off the old fash. ioned coffee by adopting Postum Food Coffee, for in it one finds a pleasing not breakfast or dinner beverage that has the deep seal brown color, changing to a rich golden brown when good cream is added. When boiled long enough (15 minutes) the flavor is not that of rank Rio coffee, but very like the milder, smooth and high grade Java, but entirely lacking the drug effect of ordinary coffee.

Anyone suffering from disorders set up by coffee drinking (and there is an extensive variety) can absolutely depend upon some measure of relief by quitting coffee and using Postum Food Coffee.

If the disease has not become too strongly rooted, one can with good reason expect it to disappear entirely in a reasonable time after the active cause of the trouble is removed and the cellular tissue has time to naturally rebuild with the elements furnished by Postum and good food.

FIRED OLD "JAYBIRD"

Familiar Texas and Pacific Employe a Staunch Supporter of This City From Its Start

John Jones, colored, the oldest train porter in years and in point of service in the employ of the Texas and Pacific railroad, is dangerously ill at his home in this city and fears are entertained that he will not recover. He is not only the oldest train porter in point of service and years in the employment of the company, but he has been in the company's employment longer than any other man now on the John entered the service of the Texas and Pacific in the late '60s and was fireman on the well known locomotive engine "Jaybird" that pulled passenger trains when Longview was the western terminus of the Texas and Pacific. When the road was built west, John was made train porter and was with the first passenger train that entered Mineola and was porter on the first passenger train that rolled into Dallas and Fort Worth.

John Jones is well and favorably known to the traveling public and has always been a staunch friend of Fort Worth, which he has loyally maintain as the best city in Texas.

During the days when there was so much rivalry between Dallas and Fort Worth and before Fort Worth had grown to its present magnificent proportions, John never let go by unimproved an opportunity to advertise his favorite city. Thousands of people remember how he would in those days announce the arrival of his train at the Fort Worth depot. Walking through the coaches he would cry out in a fog-horn voice:

"Fort Worth! Fort Worth! Fort Worth, Texas! Everybody change cars for everywhere else in the world. Fort Worth! Fort Worth! Fort Worth, Texas, the best town in the state!'

A leading physician sent him word that he had had several cases recover under a preparation made in California called Fulton's Compound. Maneeley sent for it. Well Known Cattleman Declares Fortunes May Be Made by Adapting Interests to New Conditions

Representative stockmen from every Show a fine lot of animals of the vaamong the breeders. Up to noon Monday there had arrived from outside points something over 670 head of stock, and this was only a beginning. Among the stockmen arriving was that old and well known breeder of Clay county, W. S. Ikard of Henrietta. "I brought in," said he, "two cars of fine fat stock, registered Herefords, which will be placed on exhibition here luring the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show, thirty head in all. Half of these will be sold during the show and the others will be carried back to the ranch. These cattle are not mine, but belong to my children, Willie S. and J. B. Ikard, who make the raising of registered stock their business.

Advantage of Show "I was here last year, and my chilfren, acting on my advice, will always have something to show each year at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show. Whether expenses are paid or not is not the main question with an honest exhibitor, but he should always look to the contributory benefits that are to be obtained from the demand that will be created for fine stock by such an exhibit. No one can understand the increased value that will be added to the Texas stock interests as the result of educating the people up to a thorough understanding of the difference relatively between the ordinary Texas cow and the improved breeds that one will see here until they come and look into the matter themselves. "I believe, however, that the interest n this matter has been increasing all the time, and it will not be long before this show will be the equal in numbers of stock on exhibition as it is in the quality, of any show in the country, and then the people of Texas who have followed the stock business as I have, for many years, will have reason to be prouder of their stock than they have ever been. Texas people are an intelligent people, and rapidly assimilate new ideas when they are predicated ipon reason and good sense.

"My children's place is six miles from Henrietta and consists of three sections of land, which is quite enough brothers of us when my father settled in Clay county in 1872 and we all started in life with a couple of ponies. Our parents came from Mississippi and first tried life in Louisiana, then in Lamar county, finally landing in Clay county and that has been our home ever since. At the time we settled there the county contained but few inhabitants and it was solely a cow country and a good one, to be sure. We have the best beef county in the state, we think, and are not unwilling to have a show down with any of them. Our grasses are mesquite and sage, about equally divided and with the old salvation weed to come along in dry times, who can beat us?

Drouth of 1881

"In 1881 my brother and I had a big ranch in Clay and Archer counties well stocked with cattle. That year was so dry that there was nothing for the stock to eat when summer was about over and things looked blue for the stockmen. It began to rain in the fall and we had a very mild open winter and the salvation weed came up early in the fall after the rains and remained with us all the winter and into the spring and the cattle got fat and the losses were very slight. That weed is a salvation sure and well deserves its name, and the cattle just love it. It is good to see them devour the dry sprigs of grass that have no sustenance in them and in fact make the cattle poorer by the eating. No man in the stock business who has not gone through an old-time drouth with grass and water all gone and his cattle walking themselves to death in search of these two natural elements that go to keep up life, can realize the feelings of the stockman when rain comes and the blessed weeds, which mean the salvation of his financial interests through the fat cattle. "Since the methods of obtaining water that have become common, wells and windmills, one evil has been removed and by the introduction of agriculture that has come into voque among stockmen for raising sufficient feedstuff to carry stock through the winter the terrors of a drouth have been somewhat stayed, but still no one wants to see one as it is. The year of which I speak cattle never got so fat so early and never brought so much in the market. "Grass is coming along fast now and the weeds also and in ten days, if no frost comes or freezing weather, we will have fine grazing.

Hoben Stock Here

T. H. Hoben, a breeder from Montague county, came in Monday with his quota of fat stock for the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show. He had with him sixty-two head, part of which will be sold. Of this number he will exhibit nineteen head of registered stuff. "I am living on the same ranch with my mother that we settled on thirtyfour years ago," he said, "and the longer I live there the better I like it. As I am fond of the stock business do not feel any inclination to sell out, even for the high prices that prevail at this time for ranch lands. I am sure that while lands that are used solely for grazing cattle cannot be profitably retained as such, still there are methods at this day of attaining better results by improving the breeds and at the same time adopting feeding methods that will make the business pay even with land as high as it is. to stock farm on. "No, I am not ready yet to dispossess myself of the valuable property we own, which is good for the purposes to which it is put, even if prices are high, and I believe that the wise man who now holds on to what he has will be the gainer in the end. Lands up our way are going from $25 to $45 an acre, and are being taken up fast at those prices. The farmers will no doubt make it pay with these lands and will soon raise so much feed that the stockman can get all he desires at reasonable figures. Cotton grows well Speaking of the price of land, Mrs. Jordan sold 320 acres of raw land at $25 an acre not long ago. We have in our holdings some 6,000 acres.

Land is being cut up and sold fast and at wonderful prices, from $15 to $50 an acre. The H. Body place, near town, containing 18,000 acres, is being cut up now and will be sold to farmers. Our red sandy land can't be beat for farming purposes, and much cotton has been planted and much more will be this year. Kaffir and milo maize grows well with us, and usually makes good crops, but last year for some reason it blighted, and the grain crop was not up to the standard."

LAWYER TALKS

Counsel for Negro Who Was Lynched Had Advised Against Appeal

NEW YORK, March 21 .- W. G. M. Thomas of Chattanooga, Tenn., who was of counsel assigned by the court to defend Ed Johnson, lynched in Chattanooga Monday night, said last

"The crime was a most atroclous one, and there was great indignation over tt. The prisoner was convicted by one of the most intelligent juries I have ever known.

"At my suggestion the judge appointed three additional lawyers to go over the evidence for the purpose of determining whether an appeal should be taken. We six spent an entire afternoon and until 12 o'clock at night going over the evidence. It was our unanimous opinion that no error had been committed upon which we might hope to get a reversal or a new trial. We thought also that a delay might result in another assault upon the jail, with chances of possible injury to other prisoners confined in it. For these reasons we advised against an appeal. That ended my active participation in the case. There were times when I had doubts of the prisoner's guilt. The evidence, however, was strong against The young woman, when the prisoner was taken before her, would not positively swear that he was the man, but she said she believed he was the man."

CATTLE TRADE DULL

Luzon Country Feels Effect of Continued Cold Weather

Special to The Telegram LUZON, Texas, March 21 .- The cattle trade in this part of the country is very dull now. Some calves have been sold during the last week at $13 been made in stock cattle at about $16. The past week has been very cold and damp, and there is no indication of improvement. Yesterday a freezing fog came on from the east and is still with us. Cattle look considerally drawn, and young grass will be spoiled unless there is an early change. Land of all kinds is on a very substantial boom in this country. Recently an eighteen-section ranch in the southeastern part of Kent county sold to speculators, who will cut it up into small blocks and sell to farmers. Several large ranchers are figures on the ing this, one of the most important being the probability of several railroads cutting through the region soon.

Filigree "Over Heels"

Parisiennes who like something exclusive in the matter of evening shoes are wearing the gold and silver filigree "over heels," which are made to slip on over the ordinary heels, and are the latest novelty, while some of the hand-painted velvet shoes have heels of satin exquisitely painted. These are to be preferred to the filigree heels, which are likely to catch in one's filmy underskirt. Bronze and colored supple leather court shoes are super-seding those of satin for ballroom

DISGRACED WIFE NOW HAS DIVORCE

Mrs. Harle Has Maiden Name Restored at El Paso

EL PASO, Texas, March 21 .- On the grounds that her husband's confession Harle, who with C. F. Richardson and William Mason, the insurance swindlers, are now under death sentence in

Mrs. Harle filed a suit for divorce in the district court of this county several months ago, but, taking up her residence in Roswell, N. M., shortly tested. When the suit was originally filed Dr. Harle secured the services of an attorney and filed an answer, but his attorneys later withdrew from the case and at the trial he was not represented.

Mrs. Harle set up her complaint that she was married to Charles S. Harle in El Paso on Aug. 3, 1899, and that they lived together as husband and wife until Dec. 3, 1902, when the latter was arrested as a fugitive from justice in Mexico, where he stood charged

M. Mitchell and James Devers. Loath to believe that her husband had been kuilty of a crime so heinous as that charged Mrs. Harle endeavored to render him assistance in his trouble until he confessed that he had administered poison to Mitchell and Devers with the purpose of killing them that he and his two accomplices, Richardson and Mason, might collect life insurance that the two men carried, when her efforts in his behalf ceased.

She alleged in her complaint that the confession of her husband to complicity in the murder of the two men brought disgrace and odium upon the name she bore and rendered her station repugnant to her. She also alleged that the disgrace and worry wrought injury to her health and rendered her life miserable. She accordingly asked the court to grant her an absolute divorce from Dr. Harle and to restore to her her maiden name, Nora Wiggins. Judge Harper took the case up in his office and the only persons present were Mrs. Harle, a couple of witnesses and her attorney, W. W. Bridgers. Upon hearing formal proof of the allegations of her complaint, Judge Harper entered upon a decree of divorce and an order restoring to her her form-

INHERITED BLOOD TROUBLES

A THOROUGH CLEANSING OF THE BLOOD THE ONLY CURE

It is necessary for the proper growth and development of the body to be born with a pure, healthy blood supply, because every part of the system is dependent on this vital fluid for nourishment and strength. Children not only inherit the features, tastes and dispositions of their parents but their mental qualities, infirmities and diseases as well, for we all know that "What is Bred in the Bone will out in the Flesh," and any taint in the blood is sure to be handed down to offspring to disorder and disease the system.

Children born with an hereditary taint in the blood do not have the energy and strength nor even the inclination to enjoy the sports and pleasures of happy childhood, and their frail, poorly nourished bodies are not able to resist diseases and disorders like their companions who have inherited a pure, untainted blood and a strong, robust constitution. The blood being impure from birth, the very

My child was always sickly; in fact, our family physician did not think that he could live. When he was a little boy he broke out with a terrible eruption on his face, head, hands and feet. He did not get better, so after trying many other things we began the use of S. S. S. with him and continued it for some time with the result that the eruption entirely disappeared. Now, thanks to S. S. S., my boy is strong and healthy. Husband and I have recommended S. S. S. to others with the same good results, so it is easy to understand why it is that we think MRS. J. J. KENDALL. 1387 Wesley Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

foundation of health is affected and weakened and we see the hereditary weaknesses manifested in many ways. They are usually pale and anaemic, their growth is stunted, and their systems failing to receive the proper nourishment allows disease germs to collect and their little bodies are afflicted with skin diseases, weak eyes, catarrh of the head and scrofulous affections of various kinds. What is commonly known as "growing pains" with children is often the inherited taint of Rheumatism, and the little innocents are allowed to suffer because the parents do not realize that the seeds of this powerful disease are being manifested in early chidhood. No parent wishes to see his child otherwise than healthy, and these evidences of impure blood are a source of constant remorse and grief. Sometimes because of prudent living and favorable surroundings inherited blood troubles lie dormant in the system during young, vigorous life, but when middle age is reached or passed and the machinery of life has begun to wear out, the trouble asserts itself and declining years are made miserable because of disease. There is but one cure for inherited blood troubles, and that is a thorough cleansing of the blood, and no medicine equals S. S. S. for this purpose. It goes down to the very root of the trouble and removes every trace of the impurity or pollution, and cures blood diseases of every character. S. S. S. not only cleanses and purifies the blood but sup-PURELY VEGETABLE

plies it with the rich, healthful properties it needs, and by its fine tonic effects builds up the entire system. S. S. S. is the only blood medicine on the market that does not contain a mineral ingredient in some form. It is made of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks and is the one medicine that can be given to children with absolute safety. Those who have inherited blood taints can rely on S. S. S., and so thoroughly does it remove the cause that no signs of it are ever seen in later life, and future offspring are protected and blessed with a clean, rich blood. The circulation is renewed and the entire body feels the good results of a course of S. S. S. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired furnished without charge to all who write.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21, 1908

Business on Small Scale-Principal Activity in A. C. P .- New York Central Breaks Sharply

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, March 21 .- Stock exchange transactions were again on a small scale and active speculation was principally confined to a few of the important issues, which exhibited strength, but as a rule the price movement was irregular. Sales to noon, 240,400. Although there have been no definite developments in the coal situation, the day's news was more cheerful and this was also the case regarding the Moroccan affairs.

Announcement that an additional $1,250,000 of gold had been secured in Germany for import to this country was received with favor.

In the trading the market opened active, with prices rather irregular, the strength being in the specialties, such as Lead, Smelter, Colorado Fuel and Iron, etc., while a majority of the standard rails exhibited a weak undertone and sold off sharply during the first hour. Amalgamated Copper was the center of activity, and a hard fight for supremacy was waged among the longs and the shorts in this stock. The opening price was %c above yesterday's finals, and on the next sale the stock touched 106. At this figure there was seemingly as much selling as there was buying on Tuesday at 103, but the support was also excellent, several operators taking large blocks, and for a time the price tended toward further improvement, but the shorts later gained the mastery and the stock sold down to 104, almost 3 points below the early high mark. The movement of this stock was about the only feature of interest.

There were rumors in circulation to the effect that the New York Central would soon issue 1,000,000 more stocks and this had a weakening effect on the price today, causing a decline of several points.

Investigation of this rumor dislosed the fact that the stock holders of the company will be asked to authorize this new issue for the purpose of putting the board of directors in position to use the stock as the development of the system require, but o immediate issue is contemplated. Nevertheless, the rumor was the basis of heavy selling by the Gates contingent and the majority of professional traders, affecting the entire list and resulting in sharp declines. There was a substantial rally, however, in the final trading, occasioned by covering of shorts and the close

Wheat Prices Suffer Further Loss-Corn a Shade Higher-Oats Are Lower-Provisions Strong

Special to The Telegram. CHICAGO, March 21 .- Wheat traders were, as a rule, bearish today and the movement of prices reflects this fact. Owing to cables reporting a firm market in Liverpool, the opening here was firm with price 1/4c to 1/4c higher. but this gain was only temporary, as after some little hesitation prices were started downward under a heavy volume of liquidation, and with little interruption, pursued this course throughout the session, the May option eventually selling at a net loss of 1c, while the low point for distant options was %c below yesterday's finals. The inevitable scalper was again prominent in the proceedings and was satisfied to take profits at the level, consequently the market derived some strength from this source and in the last hour a partial reaction was effected, but it was soon dissipated and the close was weak with prices near the lowest. Local receipts 5 cars vs. 10 cars the same day last year. Primary receipts 176,000 bushels. Shipments 281,000 bushels. The northwest reports 306 cars vs. 144 cars this day last year.

Corn was firm at the start under a moderate trade, influenced by favorable foreign advices. Prices worked up 1/4 c during the early trading, but eased off later in sympathy with the decline in wheat prices and final figures were only a shade higher. Private cables state that the stock of contract grade corn in Liverpool is very small. Local receipts 116 cars vs. 245 cars this day last year. Primary receipts 374,000 bushels. Shipments 269,000 bushels.

Oats Oats were moderately active, with prices holding steady and closing %c net lower, Local receipts 75 cars vs. 137 cars this day last year.

Provisions Provisions enjoyed a liberal trade at the start, prices were irregular. Pork was lower under heavy realizing, while lard and ribs were firm and higher, under a good buying demand. After breaking 10c pork prices started upward and at the close all products were firm, with prices 3c to 13c higher for pork, 10c up for lard and 8c to 10c higher for ribs.

Estimated Receipts Estimated receipts for tomorrow are as follows: Wheat 1 car, corn 158 cars, oats 132 cars.

Prices Advance 39 Points-Bulls Boom Market-Liverpool Action Responsible for Enthusiasm

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, March 21.-The volume of business on the Cotton Exchange today was by far the largest experienced for many weeks, and the trading was principally for the large interests. Although overnight consideration had convinced a majority of the trade that there was no grounds for any bearish enthusiasm over the census bureau figures published yesterday, they were totally unprepared for Liverpool's action in completely ignoring our slump and opening with prices 1 to 2 points higher, when legitimately they should have, been 9 to 10 points down. Notwithstanding the fact that the foreign strength was attributed to manipulation by American operators, the trade as a whole considered it due to a bullish construction of the bureau figures and consequently there was a large volume of short covering on the opening. Innitial prices were 17 to 23 points above yesterday's finals for the near positions. July sold off about a points from the opening figures, but the May position never weakened and shorts in that option were very nervous, owing to many rumors of a Small traders were somewhat nonplussed over the turn of affairs, but the prominent operators headed by the former bear leader were fully prepared and boomed the market successfully from the start, with the result that the demand was heavy and about the only offerings came from recent purchasers, who were satisfied with their accrued profits.

The high point for May was at a net gain of 39 points, while July sold 33 points above yesterday's finals. The market closed steady, with prices at a net gain of 31 to 36 points. Spots were quiet at an advance of $2 a bale, on a basis of 11.55c for middling. Sales, 52 bales.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 21 .-Liverpool sent over the most bullish reports ever received in the history of the local cotton exchange with contract prices 1 to 2 points higher, against a decline of 9 to 10 points as expected, and spots up 2 points against a decline of 25 points in New York yesterday. It took the local trade only a few moments to grasp the full significance of this fact and arrive at the conclusion that the foreigners had interpreted the census report as bullish. This met with the approval of the local bulls, who have suffered severely in the past under the yoke of bearish oppression

On the first call prices were 12 to 14 points higher and there was no lack of business, the covering of short commitments being the most prominent feature. The opening prices were practically the highest of the day, for the covering continued almost without abatement throughout the day, while there was an eager buying demand which could not be entirely satisfied owing to the scarcity of offerings. There was no attempt to bring about a reaction and prices reached the highest in the late trading with near positions selling 28 to 31 points above yesterday's finals.

The market closed steady and near the day's best level. The spot market was firm, under an excellent demand and a scarcity of offerings. Prices advanced 1-16c to 10 1-3-16c for middling. Sales 1,300 bales, with 150 bales

ALPINE, Texas, March 21.-The people of Brewster county and more especially those in Alpine, are begining to realize the importance of plant- of the railroads against the operation ing trees. Many hundreds of trees have been planted this year, and in a few years it is presumed that plenty of fruit will be raised for home consumption and some to ship. Water can be obtained anywhere from fifteen to thirty feet in town, so there is no reason why there should not be more orchards planted. Apples and grapes do especially well in this climate, as they blocm too late for the frost to injure son and a few from other parties. They are mostly black maleys and will be delivered in June and August. George C. Miller has purchased from N. T. Wilson 18,440 acres of land at $1 per acre. The land is situated in Pecos and Brewster counties.

F. Buttrill, sixty from W. T. Hender-

It is feared that the recent freeze and frost has badly damaged the fruit crop, which would have been unusually heavy this year but for that. A'pine now has quite a colony of Oklatioma people who have arrived sluce the first of the year. GETS BLACK EYE

Gross Receipts Law

Special to The Telegram-AUSTIN, Texas, March 21.-The court of civil appeals this morning handed down its decision in the suits of the Love gross receipts tax law. The decision knocks out the law from the caption to the emergency clause, and, after tearing the law into tatters, the court reverses and renders the case in favor of the railroads. This includes six injunction suits against the state by the Santa Fe, the Cotton Belt, the G, H. and S. A., the I. and G. N., the Texas and Pacific and the Katy, also the suits to collect the taxes and penalties under the Love law. The decision is by Chief Justice Fisher and covers fifty-two typewritten pages, in which he holds that the act is not an occupation tax, as contended by the state, as it is a tax on the gross receipts of both state and interstate, which is contrary to the commerce clause of the constitution of the United States, and that the tax is not devisible and therefore unconstitutional, besides the tax is unequal.

Associate Justice Key handed down a separate opinion, in which he holds the act to be unconstitutional and being repugnant to the state constitution in that it is unequal in its provisions. but that the opinion of Chief Justice Fisher is the opinion of the court. As to the state's contention as to the kind of a tax imposed under the law. said to be an occupation tax, the court

"Suppose the act had read that any railroad corporation, receiver, manager, ctc., cwning or operating any railroad should pay tax on the property of the railroad of 1 per cent of its value, or that said railroad corporation should pay tax on its income, could it be contended that by merely naming a corporation as the person who should pay the tax in these instances was conclusive of the fact that the tax was not on the property of income, but upon occupation or business." In naming the tax a gross receipt tax the court says: "It is mere difference in verblage without distinction in fact." The court says that it is apparent that in passing so many tax measures and reaching out after subjects upon which to impose them, there was some exhibitions of distress because they had exhausted the subject and reached

The court concludes its opinion by enjoining and restraining the state from collection of the taxes in accordance with the prayers contained in the railroads' petition.

BAILEY MAKES SPEECH

Texas Senator Informed of Father's Death Following Address

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21 .-In the senate today Mr. Culberson introduced an amendment to the railroad rate bill prohibiting railroads from subscribing to political campaign funds and imposing a fine and imprisonment for its violation. Mr. Bailey took the floor to present his amendment to the railroad rate bill, but before introducing, said he had not hoped that the resolution would be accepted without change. He also said the provision had been circulated among the friends of the rate regulation on both sides of the chamber. He had, he said, not given the amendment to the public and would not now do so, but for the fact that Mr. Doliver discussed the provision in a published interview. He relieved the Iowa senator from the imputation of intentional divulgence of another's private papers, but said he was confident that criticism had been made without due consideration. Mr. Bailey said he had prepared two amendments. One authorizes parties aggrieved by orders of inter-courts, but prohibits suspension of the commission orders by interlocutory Replying to Mr. Bailey, Mr. Doliver disavowed any intention to reveal the secrets of the senator, saying that the Texas senator's amendment had been so much talked about in and out of their cases into the United States the senate he did not know it was a confidential matter. Following Senator Bailey's speech he was called to the cloak room and informed of his father's death, and hur-

Attorney of Packers Makes Speech to Offset Moody's Effort by Associated Press. CHICAGO, March 21.-Attorney Miller for the packers replied today to the argument made yesterday by Attorney General Moody. He spoke at first of the reference made by the attorney general to the two provisions of the interstate commerce law in which he declared that the sections of the act relating to the testimony under oath and to the reports from common carriers not under oath were distinct and the wording of the law proved that they were regarded as entirely different

Mr. Miller declared that the distinctions drawn by the attorney general were so artificial that the most casual inspection of the law would scatter

Playing 300 points to his opponent's 200, Hoppe, who is practicing for his championship match next week with George Slosson, yesterday defeated Thomas Gallagher 375 to 200, in an exhibition match. The youthful champion filled his string in seven innings, making an average of 57 4-5. They played 18-inch balk line, one shot in. At night Hoppe won from Gallagher match, as the winner will not have a clear title to the world's champion-

WILLIE HOPPE.

William Hoppe, the world's champion billiardist, is 18 years old, and his claim to the title was won in a signal victory over Maurice Vignaux, the veteran Frenchman, in a decisive fashior in Paris. Hoppe tried to get a match with Slosson before he invaded the foreign field, but Slosson declined to meet him, saying that Hoppe had not yet showed the true caliber of a champion. The coming international match in New York, in which Hoppe, Vignaux, Cure. Slosson, Schaefer and the other experts will participate, should prove ofe of the greatest events in the history of the game.

Hoppe played his first billiards when only 10 years of age. After beating all the amateurs that were willing to tackle him, Hoppe entered a handicap tournament in New York with the best shortstop professionals. He was then 14 years of age.

The high school and Draughon's Business College played an interesting, game of baseball at Prospect Park Tuesday afternoon, the game being won by the high school by a score of 10 to 3. Although the day was too cold for the best exhibition of baseball, there were many good plays and few errors considering the condition of the ground and the coolness of the day. The high school made eleven hits and ten runs. The business college boys

GOSS P OF THE FIGHTERS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.-The Nelson-McGovern fight at Philadelphia is now a part of pugilistic history, but the real merits of the mill. or rather of the fighters themselves, have not yet been satisfactorily explained. Reports from the east are so conflicting that it is impossible to tell whether Terrible Terry is far from the Terry of old, as one account says, or has come into his own again, as an- smilax and roses, and in the windows "If the insurance company officials other claims, and for this very reason | and embrasures and suspended from it is impossible to tell whether Nelson has improved or has lost some ground. It is safe, however, to assume that the Terry McGovern before Nelson was not the same boy who beat Palmer, Dixon, White, Richie and other top-notchers four or five years ago. Had he been there would have been another story to tell. In his palmy days McGovern had it on Nelson in every department of the game except stamina and Terry wasn't such a bad hand at taking punishment at that. Never was there a featherweight with a greater punch or with more speed than the Brooklyn Terror and if there are two things that Nelson cannot show in a short fight they are speed and a punch.

Sporting writers as a rule are prone to let their enthusiasm get away with them when lauding a champion and invariably they point to him as the greatest man of his weight the world ever saw. It was so of Sullivan, of Corbett, of Jeffries, of Dixon, Fitzsimmons, McAuliffe, Dempsey and of other fighters who have reached the top of their respective classes. So it was when Nelson beat Britt. The Dane is the greatest lightweight the world ever saw, was the almost universal cry. But is he? - Is he as great a little man as McGovern was when Terry mowed down everything anywhere near his weight? There are many who will contend that he is not, despite the wonderful fights he has put up since he sprung into the limelight by beating Spider Welch at Salt Lake two years ago. Nelson is not now and can never hope to be the finished fighter that Mc-Auliffe was, nor is it likely that he would have stood much of a chance with "Kid" Lavigne when the letter was in his prime.

It is not the intention of the writer to deny Nelson one bit of the credit he is entitled to, which cannot be said to have been increased very much by his victory over McGovern, but it is downright foolishness to call him the greatest lightweight that ever lived.

Sporting men are beginning to speculate on the outcome of the Britt-Herman fight, which takes place in Los Angeles in May. In the southern city Herman is well thought of because of the clever battles he put up against Hanlon and Herrera and the Chicago lad will not lack supporters when the betting begins. That it will be a good fight to look at from a scientific standpoint there can be no doubt, but if the Los Angeles sports expect to witness a slugfest they will be disappointed Both boys are clever, with Britt having the shade, but neither can be said to be fighters of the knockout order. Britt's long layoff has not done him any good, but if he can work himself into fairly good shape he should have little difficulty in walking away with the decision.

Joe Thomas, the San Francisco welterweight, will soon invade the east in | five years. search of trouble.

The death of Harry Tenny continues to be felt in boxing circles. The crowds at the weekly amateur fights have fallen off and none of the good fighters in the east are trying to get a match

SPRING TRANSFER CARS ORDERED

Cattle Movement Equal to That of Last Year

The general freight office of the Frisco is preparing for the spring cattle movement shortly to begin from points along its line. There have been 1,463 cars ordered for the movement thus far, and it is the opinion of H. C. Brashears, chief clerk in the general freight office, that the movement this year will be about the same as that of the preceding year, which required 1.850 cars.

As the bids for pasturage were only opened on March 15, and the awards have not yet been made upon these bids, the destinations of the shipments are not definitely known.

J. C. McCabe, general freight agent of the Rock Island, states that there will be practically no cattle movement at all upon the Rock Island this spring by reason of the fact that the pasturage lands formerly adjacent to the Rock Island have been turned into farms, and that there will be but litle pasturage available.

FRISCO TO IMPROVE

Official Announcement Follows Trip to Brady

W. B. Drake, the new vice president and general superintendent of the Frisco announced Wednesday morning that the Frisco would shortly spent about $70,000 in improving the tracks between Bluffdale and Brady. Mr. Drake returned Tuesday night from Bluffdale and Brady, and he states that he has located a ballast bed near Bluffdale. The proposed improvements will consist of ballasting the tracks from Bluffdale to Brady, a distance of fifty-nine miles, and of putting in new ties all along this route.

The work on the proposed improvements is to begin at once, and if the ballast bed located at Bluffdale will furnish the necessary amount of ballast the supply will be obtained from there. If this is not sufficient it will be necessary to locate other beds.

While the land most desired is such as can be sold on comparatively easy terms, it is stated that there are a large number of home-seekers who are coming prepared to The matter of providing land for the mmigrants expected through the port of Galveston has also been called to the attention of the immigration agents and it is expected that the immigration through that port and New Orleans will be unusually heavy. Mr. Groesbeeck has just returned from Quanah, where he located a colony of homeseekers from Ohio. There will be about twenty-five families in the colony when they all arrive there.

The chase started in the vicinity of Conzales, where nightly raids on the poultry and young sheep had aroused the farmers. Robertson brought his six wolf hounds, and at the end of the next day the kill was accomplished a little more than thirty miles from the starting place in the hills, where there is no doubt the wolves would have found safety had they been able to run half an hour longer.

There are a great many wolves and coyotes in south Texas at this time, and there is a systematic effort on the part of the farmers in this section to have the coming session of the legislature enact a law awarding a large bounty for wolf and coyote scalps with the hope of ridding the state of these
