

CITY BUSINESS

Carson Property Is Officially Annexed

We've been thinking for some time that our country had more to fear from the ecologists than it did from pollution, and this is getting more true all the time.

You undoubtedly saw a story or heard on the news during the past week about the closing of the zinc smelter in Dumas. But did you realize that this came as a result of the pollution furor? This is what we understand.

And as a result, this particular industry has chosen to close down, and the net result is some 300 families to be lost by the city of Dumas.

This, we maintain, is carrying the pollution mess a little far.

Naturally, we don't believe that industries should ruin our natural resources. But on the other hand, we don't think the answer is to close down all the industries in America.

We'd caution the ecologists to slow down a little, before they find they have put all the industries out of business whose tax dollars were paying their salaries. Also, at that point, these do-gooders will have worked themselves right out of a job.

Mrs. Virginia H. Knauer, President Nixon's consumer advisor, is quoted in a news dispatch as telling the advertising industry it will either have to reform itself or be reformed by the government. She says, "As I travel around the country, one question keeps recurring from the housewives I meet. They want to know why so many ads treat women like children, like third graders. Should the American housewife be treated like a moron? Is the best selling appeal one which insults a person's intelligence? ... "Unfortunately, in advertising as in any other human undertaking, there are those that Mrs. Knauer terms '... not so decent, not so honorable. There are those who believe integrity is something one can sell or buy for a few dollars.'"

While paying due heed to the words of the President's consumer advisor, one should not lose sight of the fact that advertising is an indispensable feature of the free market. Millions of reputable firms present through advertising the goods and services which make life not only pleasant but livable. Informative advertising saves consumers' money and promotes high-volume distribution of luxuries, as well as necessities. It tells the consumer what is available in the marketplace and where.

Mrs. Knauer might have added that those guilty of shoddy, misleading advertising are fooling no one in the long run for the simple reason consumers are far from morons and through the exercise of free choice can reject products that are accompanied by objectionable promotion.

In a world geared to accelerated communication, why do so many children fall at the most basic task—reading? A tutor and remedial reading teacher, Jeraldine Stoute of Lubbock, Texas, analyzes the slow reader's background. "Let us look at the child of today. Soon after birth he is placed in a crib with an anticolic nurse while a mobile of colorful birds or objects hovers above to entertain him. . . From here he is moved to a playpen furnished with 'educational toys'. . . He cannot ask a question and receive an answer. . . His next move is to an area about 36 inches from the TV set which also feeds him information of questionable value. Still, he cannot question or voice an idea, or receive a response. . ."

It's a grim picture for the observer and a grimmer life ahead for the child. But there is a solution—and you're part of it! Teacher Stoute continues, "I am convinced that if young parents would read to their children for just 20 minutes a day, there would be virtually no need for remedial reading classes."

It takes all kinds to make a world, including those who think they're doing it all by themselves.

The Friona City Council gave the final approval Monday to the annexation of the Carson Addition to the city.

The annexation of the 3,03-acre addition to the city has been pending for some months, and has been held up by various details. One property owner in the area refused to join in the annexation, causing some of the delay.

The property involved is most of the block between 14th and 15th Streets and Euclid and Cleveland avenues, and includes lots in the Turner Addition.

In other action, the council approved the appointment of Dr. Lee Spring as City Health Officer for a two-year period. Dr. Spring replaces Dr. Robert Alexander, who relinquished the post upon being selected to the city council last month.

The council passed a motion authorizing the city to furnish water and electricity to the two city baseball parks for the summer.

Also approved was a resolution supporting Amendment 4 in the May 18 election, the "Clean Water Act."

The board approved the annual report from Friona Public Library, and deferred until a later date a request from developer Ed Hicks for a pro-rata refund on cost of installing utilities in the Hicks Addition.

City Manager Jake Outland discussed the progress of the right-of-way situation on the Highway 214 overpass. He stated that the court-appointed appraiser had done all of the field work, and still lacked personal interviews with individual property owners. The appraiser told Outland he would attempt to get his reports finished by the end of May. The appraising portion of the project has been holding up the road development.

Other matters discussed were the swimming pool, which the city will operate for three months beginning May 15.

Announce Plans For Hospital Lobby Work

The Hospital Auxiliary of Parmer County Community Hospital used the occasion of National Hospital Week to announce its plans for redecoration of the hospital lobby in the very near future.

The Auxiliary has embarked on the $7,796 project hopeful of financing the entire project, and not wanting to accomplish their plans in a "piece meal" manner.

Included in the refurbishing project will be carpet for the waiting room; new modernistic seating; new drapes; some wood panelling and wall cloth, a decorative screen and lamps.

The Auxiliary has just over half the amount of money it needs to finance the long-range redecoration scheme. The organization has on hand a total of $4375.00, and with this plans to purchase 42 new seats, nine new tables and drapery. The seats will increase the lobby's seating capacity by 20 per cent.

The Auxiliary had a balance of $3775.00 from its projects, including rummage sales, television rentals and donations. In addition, the hospital board designated $600.00 from the Memorial Fund to go toward the refurbishing project.

The Auxiliary officials point out that the old furniture will be used in other waiting room areas to replace "odds and ends."

Earl Herring of Herring Furniture Company, Amarillo, is the planning consultant on the project. The Auxiliary has chosen a pleasing color scheme for the furniture, drapery and carpeting.

In order to complete its project, the Auxiliary needs a total of $3421.00. The furniture and drapery will be here by early summer.

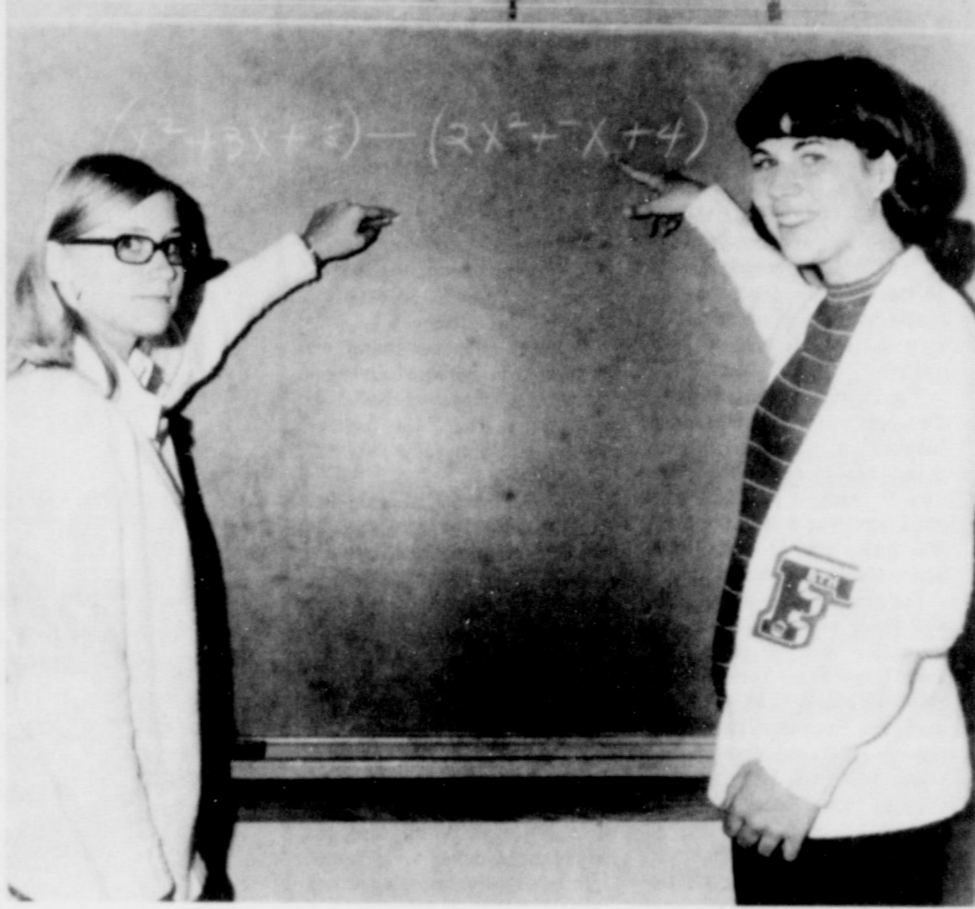

Other achievements by the organization includes delivery room lights, landscaping, new drapes in one wing of the hospital, and the maintenance of a TV rental service to patients. Mrs. J.T. Gee is chairman of the redecoration committee. Other members are Mrs. James Boyle, Mrs. Claude Osborn and Mrs. Dan Ethridge.

Election Set Next Tuesday

Four proposed constitutional amendments will be voted upon by Texas voters next Tuesday, May 18.

The election in Friona will be held at the old City Council Meeting Room (Law Enforcement Center) between the hours of 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. Mrs. Ray Landrum will be the local election judge.

The amendments are discussed inside this issue.

The high esteem in which Congressman Price's colleagues hold him is shown by the fact that he has been appointed to two major committees: the Committee on Agriculture, and the Committee on Science and Astronautics.

SEPTEMBER 13-18

Chamber Announces Maize Days Dates

The dates for the city's 1971 Maize Days celebration were announced this week as September 13-18 by the Friona Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber discussed getting the framework for the celebration established, such as the general chairman and committee heads. The need for a slogan also was brought out.

In other business at the regular meeting of Chamber directors this week, manager Billy Jones was authorized to order new brochures for the Chamber of Commerce, updating the information from the previous brochures.

The Chamber's program to purchase calves and get area feedlots to feed them out for the Maize Days barbecue and donate the feeding expense has been set up. Area feedlots cooperating with the Chamber in the project are Hi-Plains Feed Yard, Bovina Feeders and Friona Feed Yards.

H.K. Kendrick, committee member who was slated to attend the National Apparel Convention in Dallas next month, said he doubted the trip would be worth the expense to the Chamber, especially in light of the fact that Chamber officials currently have some good contacts in the apparel manufacturing field.

The Chamber also voted to donate $100 to the Friona chapter of Opportunity Plan, Inc., to assist that group in making loans to those needing money to attend college or trade school.

Also discussed was the July 4th observance. Bill Ellis reported on a possible speaker. Steve Messenger reported that the school board had approved the use of Chieftain Field for the fireworks display once again.

President Ralph Shirley, Messenger and Wendell Gresham are to confer this month on the final draft of the 1971 budget, determine how much money the Chamber will need to finish the year, and decide steps to take on securing additional memberships to finance the Chamber's program of work.

RATES DISCUSSED

Postage Rate Hike Begins On Sunday

Residents of the area are reminded that on Sunday, May 16, the new postal rates go into effect. First class increases from six to eight cents, and air mail from 10 cents to 11 cents. Post cards will cost six cents to mail, and airmail cards nine cents.

However, postmaster Wright Williams pointed out that the new rates are still cheaper than postage rates were 125 years ago.

According to Postmaster Williams, the first general issuance of postage stamps by the Post Office Department was authorized by Congress in March of 1847. He described the step as "one of the most important single improvements in the history of the American postal system."

The series consisted of a five-cent and a ten-cent denomination. At that time, the regular non-local postage rate was 5 cents a half ounce for mail traveling a distance under 300 miles and 10 cents a half ounce if over 300 miles.

During this period, an average letter weighing one-half of an ounce cost 10 cents to be sent from New York City to San Francisco. In comparison, the imminent first-class postage increase from 6 to 8 cents will still be 20 percent cheaper than before the Civil War.

"The comparison has more significance when consideration is given to the cost of living patterns, transportation modes, communications systems, and other factors which have changed during this 125-year period," Postmaster Williams said.

"Nevertheless," he added, "when one turns to more recent history, first-class postage has always been one of the best buys for the money."

"For example," he said: "The cost of mailing a first-class letter in 1932 was only 3 cents. When the new rate is effective, it will mean that first-class postage has increased 166 percent."

"Yet," Postmaster Williams continued, "if postal prices had risen at the same rate as retail prices since 1932, it would cost about 9 cents today--not 8 cents--to send a first-class letter."

During the same 39-year-period, wholesale prices have increased by 230 percent and the average pay of manufacturing workers has gone up by 6 percent.

"Despite the great distances many letters must travel in the United States," Postmaster Williams said, "our postal rates are still lower than in most other major countries, particularly when based on ability to pay."

When the proposed stamp rate is related to average hourly earnings, the impact of the 2-cent increase in first-class postage on the family or individual will be minimal.

The increase will only add $1.04 annually to the household which mails only one letter a week. To the family mailing five letters a week, the increase will amount to $5.20 each year.

Labor statistics reflect that the average American worker earns the price of an 8-cent stamp in only 1.4 minutes. It takes the average West German worker 3.1 minutes to earn letter postage while it takes the British worker 3.7 minutes, and the French worker 6.4 minutes.

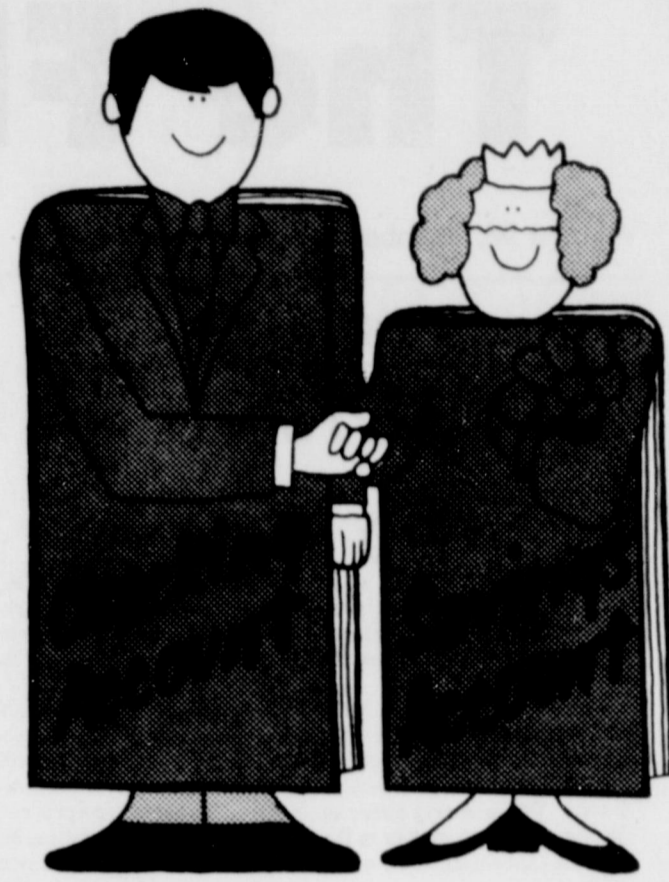

In addition to being informed about the history of postal rates, Postmaster Williams is convinced that, "considering all factors, first-class postage continues to be one of the best and most economical products in America today."

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

There is no doubt it made news to have 700 ex-servicemen demonstrating in Washington against the defense of South Vietnam. But did it really call for such massive exposure in the media? Most of them had never fought in Southeast Asia. Even if they had, there were two million U.S. servicemen there in the past six or seven years. How do they feel about it? The vast majority of them are hawks who wanted to end the war years ago by winning instead of losing.

There has always been disagreement among soldiers in wartime, but it has never before been against the official position of our government. We should remember one thing: the Joint Chiefs of Staff have insisted unanimously for the past six years that if they wanted to end the war we had to close Halphong harbor. That is what we did in World War II, when Japan held it. It will still have to be done to get peace over there, this time by South Vietnam. General Westmoreland admitted two years ago that Saigon could easily close it. All they need is tacit approval from Washington.

Cordially,

Other guests included Mrs. James Petty, Mrs. Larry Taylor, Mrs. Jimmy Bynum and Mrs. Jackie Walker.

Refreshments were served to the guests and ten members by Mrs. Jimmy Maynard.

Sincerely Yours

BY REV. ALBERT LINDLEY

Have you ever seen anything like a "nothing box?"

I have noticed some advertised and I have seen some other things that closely resembled what I think actually were "nothings" . . .

A "nothing box" is a box with no real purpose. (Except it makes some money for the guy that sells them and I suppose that really does give it a purpose.)

But the one I'm thinking about is one that has a lot of different colored lights that flash off and on and the whole thing operates off a non-replaceable battery. It won't whizz--hum--bark or belch--it is a real gone thing--I suppose the modern generation would call it "cool"--but it won't do "nothing."

That reminds me of the electric hammer that was only good for driving a peculiar nail into a stone wall--the peculiar nail being good only for the purpose of hanging the peculiar gadget on it which drove it into the wall--Did you ever purchase anything like that with about as much purpose as that? Then, Fren, you have had a "nothing box."

We can even step outside of the purchasing market to make reference to the same idea.

I knew some people who were--for all practical purposes--living a "nothing" existence.

Did you ever see anybody like that? It might even surprise us to see how many people really live in that kind of existence.

I'm not just talking about the guy who is living a "front porch existence"--who doesn't do much more than sit on the front porch--I'm also talking about the Guy (or Guylene, if there are women reading this, too) who seems to be involved in life but is actually wasting most of his talent--he is doing "nothing" about what he could be doing. . .

That classifies him--for me--as a "nothing box". . . You want to know a personal secret? There are times when I am a "nothing box". . . when I really don't do much about something. . . (There are those misguided persons who think I am a "nothing box" most of the time. . .)

Then there is the incident when a guy really is a "whing-ding," which means he is a "go-getter," a real "mixer," a "man on the throne," a person that is really involved in life--until it runs counter to a prejudice that he harbors and whom-o, he becomes a "nothing box". . . Just like that.

It might be one of several different reasons, but it is not his idea or it may block his direction or something like that and he "turns off" for the time being.

Now it is possible that this thing that turns him off is a "nothing" itself and his refusal to accept it really is an "okey" thing. . . But if the idea is an alright idea, and he blocks it with his "nothing" approach, then for me--he becomes a "nothing box". . .

And again, I have traveled that road before. Now, you may not know it but this really is a pep-up talk. . . It's just that I'm putting all of us in a "nothing box" so we can really appreciate it when we are released. . .

You see, my real concern is that we be as much as we can be at all times and not a "nothing". . . Did you know I was going to say that?

Read and reread and you will not find where it will read, "Blessed are the 'nothings' for they are honored above all else" . . . I do find some evidence that we can find ideas that will point indirectly to an idea like this. . . "The only blessing of the 'nothings' is that they are 'nothing' ". . . But I don't like that--because if there is a single solitary fact about you--and you--and you--it is that God does not count you as a "nothing". . . After all, he gave his only son for you--Can you really think that your repayment is to be nothing?

God thinks you are of worth--and so do I. . .

Local MS Campaign Underway This Week

Mrs. Ralph Shelton has been named chairman, in Friona, of the 1971 MS Hope Chest Campaign of the Panhandle Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. The Society's stepped-up research program gives renewed hope for the conquest of MS, said Mrs. Shelton. "A hope made possible by Americans through their past support of the Society's annual MS Hope Chest appeals."

"Without this support, the Society would not be at this moment in time when prospects for preventing MS and developing more effective methods of treating it have improved so dramatically. To pursue recently uncovered research leads as quickly as possible, the Society is in the midst of an accelerated $10 million dollar research development plan." The Friona drive will be the week of May 17.

Scheduled to open on Mother's Day, the appeal will seek funds to support needed services for MS patients and their families in the Panhandle area and professional and public education. On the national level, funds will enable the Society to support promising medical research to find the cause and prevention, and cure of MS.

Multiple Sclerosis is a disabling disease of the central nervous system—the brain and spinal cord. It results when the tissue that protects nerve fibers deteriorates and is replaced by scars. It is estimated that 500,000 Americans are afflicted with MS and related neurological diseases.

This was possible only because 112 people were willing to call on their neighbors to ask for donations. On behalf of the American Cancer Society, we would like to thank all of you—the volunteer workers and donors.

SET FOR JUNE

Clovis To Re-Instate Pioneer Days Rodeo

Following a thirteen-year absence from the big league rodeo trail, Clovis is set to return June 11, 12 and 13 to prominence in the cowboy sport, according to Curry County Mounted Patrol Captain Bill Bomar.

Bomar said rodeo producer Lynn Beutler, Elk City, Okla., announced by telephone that dates and prize list for the revived Pioneer Days Rodeo had been formally approved during a recent meeting of the Rodeo Cowboys Association Board of Directors.

The move returns Clovis to the calendar of more than 500 such events held annually under the Association's banner. The Association last year sanctioned 547 rodeos in 42 states and four Canadian provinces, at which $4.1 million was paid to winning contestants. An estimated 11 million spectators witnessed the action.

Rodeo's five standard contests are scheduled, along with team roping and the cowgirls' barrel race. The event is to be the first of national stature staged in the new, $160,000 Mounted Patrol facility.

In making the announcement, Beutler, a producer of the Pioneer Days Rodeo in previous years, said "Clovis has as great a rodeo potential as any city I've seen! It's unfortunate the event was ever discontinued."

The Beutler Bros., Linger and Cervi rodeo ranches, now headquartered in Sterling, Colo., sent fifteen of their outlaw broncs and bulls to the National Finals Rodeo in Oklahoma City last year.

Other NFR veterans will also be on hand. Announcer Pete Logan, Medford, Ore., and rodeo clowns Chuck Henson, Tucson, Ariz., and Wiley McCray, Briscoe, Tex., all have to their credit appearances at rodeo's "World Series."

Earl Wharton, San Saba, Tex., will present trained Border Collies which have won 24 National Field Trials for sheep dogs.

The Clovis Chamber of Commerce and Bi-State Livestock Association will co-sponsor a downtown parade in conjunction with the rodeo, and rodeo dances June 11 and 12 with music provided by a nationally-known country-western personality - have been arranged by the Clovis ABC Club.

Rodeo performance times are set for 7:30 p.m. June 11 and 12, and 2:30 p.m. June 13. Tickets - priced at $2.00, $3.00 and $3.50 - go on general public sale May 20.

SCS Prepares Booklet On Soil Conservation

Conservation education is the subject of a new leaflet prepared by the U.S. Soil Conservation Service, SCS State Conservationist Clyde W. Graham of Temple announced this week.

Entitled "SCS and Conservation Education," the leaflet explains the importance of teaching conservation to students and tells how Soil Conservation Service employees can help. "We believe that everyone needs to be informed about the true meaning and importance of conservation," Graham said. "And a good place to start is in school. Students need to learn that conservation means more than merely saving or setting something aside. It means intelligent use, development, restoration, and conservation of natural resources. We, of course, are especially interested in land, water, plant and wildlife resources but oil, gas, and other resources are important too."

The leaflet tells how SCS conservationists can help teachers plan outdoor classrooms or obtain films, publications or other teaching aids. It also suggests how conservation might be taught outdoors if the school does not have an outdoor classroom.

Graham pointed out that the pamphlet also suggests ways the teaching of soil, water and wildlife conservation might be tied in with such subjects as biology, chemistry, math, social science, art and other regular courses.

Copies of the leaflet are free and can be obtained from any SCS office or by writing the Soil Conservation Service, Box 648, Temple, Texas 76501.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT ROMO

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Rachel Morales, Robert Romo

In a candlelight ceremony at St. Theresa's Catholic Church Saturday, May 1, Rachel Morales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Morales, became the bride of Robert Romo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gonzales.

The double ring vows were read by Father Norman Boyd before an arch of greenery tied with orchid satin bows and flanked by arrangements of palms. A white satin covered kneeling bench centered the arrangement.

As the bride was escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by her father, she wore a formal length wedding gown of peau de soie and slencon lace. It was designed with a full skirt, high neckline, natural waist line and long Camelot sleeves. The fitted bodice and cuffs of the sleeves were decorated with bands of Alencon lace. Tiers of ruffles on the skirt fell in waterfall fashion. A detachable Watteau train of peau de soie and lace complemented the gown. Her veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a coil. She carried a white prayer and rosary topped with a cascade bouquet of white roses. She wore a pearl pin, which she borrowed from the groom's mother, a penny minted in the year of her birth in her shoe and a blue garter.

The maid of honor was Terry Morales, sister of the bride. Mrs. Albert Morales, Roscoe, aunt of the bride was the matron of honor. Albert Morales, Roscoe, uncle of the bride, was the best man.

Bridesmaids were Janie Romo, Betty Ann Torres, Yolanda Castaneda, Elva Castaneda, Bertha Torres, Lupe Antillon, Rosa Measa, Rosa Romo, Gloria Brailiff and Ina Guentona. Flower girls were Becke Martinez and Sally Castaneda. Train bearers were Larry Rossles and Rachel Flores.

Feminine bridal attendants wore identically designed formal of deep purple lace over purple satin.

Groomsmen and ushers were Josie Gonzales, Ramiro Castaneda, Anacio Cruz, Jesse Morales, Pete Rando, Fermin Reyes, Luiso Mata and Ambrosio

Rios Jr.

Sponsors were Joe and Helen Pena, Sam and Susie Perez, Juan and Easter De la Cruz and Pete and Ofelia Diaz.

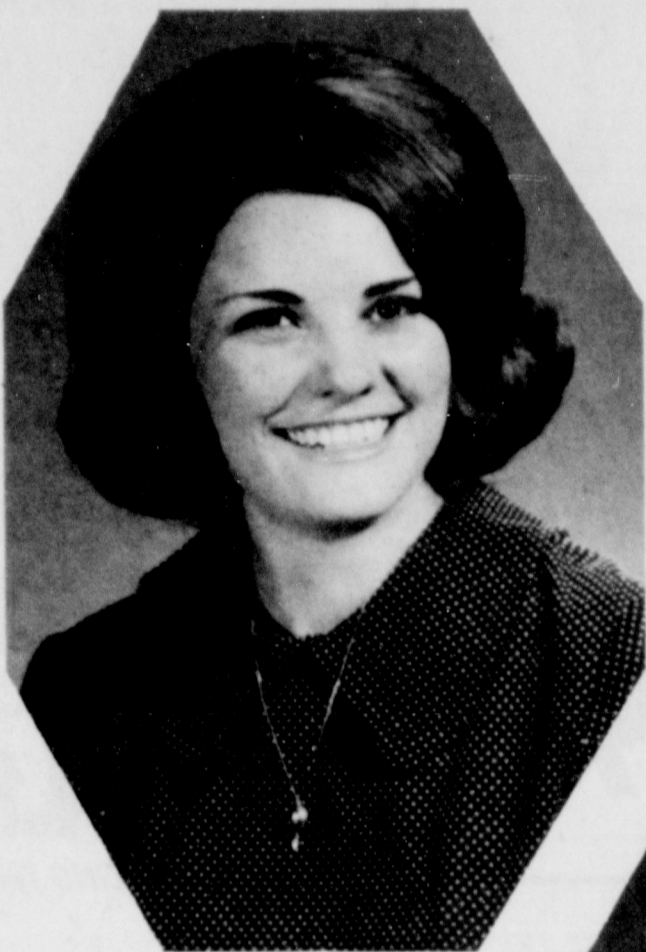

A reception in Parish Hall followed the ceremony.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Concho Morales, Roscoe, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. Adilon Ramirez, Friona, grandparents of the bride.

Santa Fe Representative Is Lions Club Speaker

A.P. Burk, district sales manager of the Santa Fe Railway at Amarillo, will discuss the rail industry's ASTRO program at the Friona Lions Club meeting Thursday night, May 13.

Calling for a national policy that treats all forms of transportation equally, the program was developed as America's Sound Transportation Review Organization by the Association of American railroads in Washington, D.C.

ASTRO recommends updated laws and regulatory procedures that would free railroads from past restraints: financial help on rights-of-way and equipment, recognition that railroads can no longer perform their essential role without support received by their competitors and expanded federal research.

Equality sought by the hard-pressed industry is expected to come through specific legislation in the 92nd Congress. However, prior to submission of such legislation, the industry has embarked upon a massive grass-roots communications program to generate public and organizational support of the ASTRO recommendations.

On The Farm In Parmer County MACK HEALD County Agent

In driving over the county, I find it taking on a green, spring-time appearance in spite of all the wind and dust we have had lately. Corn, sugarbeets and potatoes are making a good stand. With continuing warm weather everything will certainly take off in the next few days. A large part of the cotton and grain sorghum is in the ground. Some of the early planted cotton is beginning to come through and make a stand.

Before we know it, wheat harvest will be here. Most of the wheat throughout the county is looking real good. Many fields will range up in the 70 bu. area if all things go as planned. Two popular varieties, Sturdy and Caprock, semi-dwarf or "shorty" hard red winter wheats released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in 1967, have already established themselves as leaders in both production and quality.

The plant breeders noted that commercial yields of 100 bushels or more per acre were produced in Texas during the 1969 and 1970 seasons. The new type can be heavily fertilized and irrigated to produce high yields without lodging. The 100 plus bushels per acre came from commercial plantings, grown under irrigation and with heavy fertilization; however, dryland yields in the High and Rolling Plains during 1970 approached the 70 bushel per acre level. A yield of 43 bushels an acre was posted as far south as San Antonio.

Wheat growers have been quick to accept Sturdy. From the 3,000 acres grown in 1967 when it was first released, the acreage in Texas jumped to 651,000 acres in 1971. Growers in Oklahoma planted 220,000 acres of Sturdy in 1970 and an estimated 6,000 acres were planted in Kansas last year.

Sturdy and Caprock grows 6 to 10 inches shorter than the older varieties such as Caddo, Crockett, Scout and others. On fertile soil or where fertilized and irrigated, the new wheats will stand for combining even with their very heavy loads of grain. All commercial agencies have approved Sturdy and Caprock as high quality, strong gluten hard wheats suitable for pan bread production.

Sturdy for the last two years has been grown in the International Winter Wheat Performance Nursery which is conducted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in 15 countries around the world. It ranked third in yield and above all other varieties in resistance to lodging.

New high yielding wheat varieties have since 1940 provided Texas growers with high quality, well adapted varieties and their use is reflected in the increased per acre yields. Better cultural practices and the use of fertilizers and irrigation had also contributed from 12 bushels an acre in 1940 to 26 bushels in 1970. Grain yields of 100 bushels per acre were achieved with corn soon after the release of hybrids and the same was true with grain sorghum. Hybrids in wheat are not yet available, but breeders and growers have been able to achieve this high level of production with pure-line varieties developed over the past 30 years when used in combination with improved production practices.

Darrell Patterson Named Man Of Year

Mr. and Mrs. Army Armstrong recently received word that their son-in-law Darrell W. Patterson, who is serving in the United States Navy and currently stationed at Naval Air Station, North Island, San Diego, California, was named Man of the Quarter for the first quarter of 1971.

BMI Patterson assisted in the docking and undocking of all ships assigned berths at NAS North Island. He supervised all the arrangements for the handling of these ships by assigning his crew various tasks pertinent to the docking and undocking of ships.

He was cited for his exceptional professional knowledge, thorough and tactful manner of handling every assignment and untiring devotion to duty which provided for the outstanding effectiveness of the docking crew.

As the Man of the Quarter, First Quarter 1971, Patterson received a 50 dollar savings bond, a three-month theater pass for himself and his family, and an all day excursion and fishing trip on board the sport fishing boat Miss Norris for himself and his family and two books of Disneyland tickets.

Patterson, who is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jake Patterson, attended Friona schools and is married to the former Susie Armstrong.

Golden Years Mothers Honored With Tea

To honor the Golden Years Mothers of Sixth Street Church of Christ, a tea was held in the home of Mrs. Raymond Fleming Thursday afternoon, May 6.

A sing-song of old ballads touched off the entertainment, followed by a written Bible Quiz.

A surprise feature of the occasion was the showing of photographs of each guest, taken in their earlier years, which had been secretly obtained in advance of the party.

As these individual pictures were flashed on the screen, a "guess who" session was highlighted by the relating of an amusing incident which had occurred in the early days of her life.

An arrangement of yellow daisies centered the lace covered table. Spiced tea, coffee and cookies were served from a silver and crystal service to the following guests: Mrs. Ethel Adams, Mrs. Aubrey Baize, Mrs. Pearl Brannon, Mrs. Ed Boggess, Mrs. W.O. Brown, Mrs. Elwyn Hartman, Mrs. Robbia Hughes, Mrs. Newman Jarrell, Mrs. Ray Scott, Mrs. Carrie Shirley, Mrs. Hattie Sneed, Mrs. Lessie Watson and Mrs. Lucy Welch.

Special guests were Mrs. Ludia Quaid from Duncan, Oklahoma and Mrs. Bill Gipson.
