THE SPANISH PEANUT

How to Plant It and What It Will Do Generally

As there has been some inquiry as to Spanish peanuts, I will give my experience in growing and harvesting the past year. I plowed ground deep in the early spring, then just before planting plowed again with a shovel plow. The ground should be in fine shape before planting, free from clods and weeds and grass. I tried planting in rows two and a half feet apart and drilled a part from twelve to fifteen inches and part six to eight inches apart. The best results were obtained with the six to eight inch spacing.

The Texas common point rate question has gone before the interstate commerce commission on the request of Senator J. W. Bailey of Abilene. The committee reported an interview with Manager Edgar of the Northern Texas Traction Company regarding the school bus route.

The Texas railroad commission has previously prepared the way for the beginning of an investigation by that commission by asking the railroads if there was any apparent reason for a review of the rates and to that effect the railroads have replied that they stand by the rates made; that they are equitable, and made necessary by the conditions of the territory.

DUMPING GROUNDS TO BE INSPECTED

Council Committee Will Visit North Fort Worth

Arrangements have been made for the committee having in charge the matter of a new dumping ground for the city to go to North Fort Worth Thursday afternoon and examine the tract of land tendered to the city for use as a dumping ground. It will be recalled that the piece of land offered to use-half of the North Fort Worth dumping grounds. As the city has now in force the best contract it ever had for the removal of the carcasses of dead animals, the disposition of the rest of the city refuse and garbage is being amplified.

The contract under which the dead animals are removed from the city provides for such removal without expense to the city, and a contract of this character is only made possible by the fact that there is a way now of disposing of the carcasses. The hides of these animals, with hides that have been taken off and sold and the rest of the carcass can be converted into fertilizer. There are so many advantages over the old method of burying the dead animals that they need not be pointed out to any one.

This market value for the dead animals is something out of the ordinary. He is, because it has a business side to it, better fitted to handle the business. He can afford to have the best of the city refuse and garbage, as intended and, as it is a business proposition, promptness of attention is assured. The contract specifies that the dead animals shall be removed in a way kind of wagons and under cover. The rule is to use a canvas cover, but that is sufficient to insure there will be no offensive sights incident to the removal.

Offered for $1,000. The proposition of the North Fort Worth council for North Fort Worth, would be sold to the city for $1,000. The tract is said to be sufficiently large and the committee will assure themselves of that fact and settle the question of accessibility during the next examination and inspection on Thursday afternoon.

On the authority of Chairman M. M. Johnson it can be said that the general feeling of the city council members is in this matter is favorable to the purchase, as offering a happy solution of a difficulty which has faced the city for several years, and which has been the cause of several burnings and some vexatious suits.

While a favorable impression exists among the members of the North Fort Worth city council, nothing definite until they have examined the grounds and thoroughly considered all the phases of the question.

The committee expect to be able to report at the council meeting to be held next Saturday evening and recommending a recommendation that if adopted it will most likely be within the dumping ground question for a long time, if not for all time. It is hoped and in a manner that shall be agreeable to all.

TRAINS KILL TWO NEGROES

One Loses Life Near Union Station Sheds

Henry Jackson, a negro boy, aged 15 years, was killed by a northbound Chicago and Rock Island freight train at 6 o'clock Thursday morning between a bridge that crosses the Trinity and the Rock Island depot in North Fort Worth. The negro lived in Fort Worth and worked at the Swift & Co. packing house, and the supposition is that he was going to his work from his home when he met his death.

J. S. Webb was an eyewitness to the accident and testified before Justice Charles T. Rowland, who held the inquest. In substance he said: "I was walking along the railroad and as the train approached me, going from Fort Worth, I stepped aside and watched it pass me. I saw four negroes on the train, and as their actions seemed to believe they were going to jump off I watched them. I saw the one that was killed swing from the trolley, and as his feet struck the ground he seemed to be thrown under the wheels and was killed. The other three negroes did not jump from the train, so far as I could see, and the train did not stop at the depot in North Fort Worth."

The body of the negro was fearfully mangled, his body being nearly in twain and his legs cut nearly off. Justice Rowland rendered a verdict that death was the result of the negro being run over by a moving train on the Chicago and Rock Island road.

NEGRO KILLED BY TRAIN

Passengers Shout at Him, but He Fails to Hear

Wednesday about 8:40 o'clock the Rock Island passenger train killed a negro while backing into the Union station at the foot of the sheds. The negro was endeavoring to cross the track and was looking over his shoulder when struck. Several parties standing on the rear end of the Pullman warned the negro by yelling, but to no avail. The body was dragged about ten or fifteen feet.

There was nothing on the person to identify the dead man. It was stated by several negroes around the station that the dead man was employed at the International and Great Northern railroad roundhouse and was crossing the track to get on the International and Great Northern train that lays over at this point. He was about five feet nine inches tall and slender built. Justice of the Peace John L. Terrell held the inquest.

NO RUSH WITH 7TH STREET TRACK

Proposition Still Pending With Rock Island

Much has been written and much more said about the intention of the Rock Island to build a railway track up Seventh street. Most that has been written and said is without substantial foundation, and the intention of saying something of the real facts may be taken.

About a year ago the property holders on Seventh street, between the Rock Island and the east end, and those who owned property so near that trackage facilities would benefit them, approached the Rock Island people to learn if there was a possibility of inducing that company to build from its yards east of Jones street, up Seventh to Rusk. At that time the project was not viewed with great favor, and the whole matter was quietly dropped until such time as the business growth of the city, which was then plainly foreseen, should make the trackage desirable.

Lately the project has been revived and now the railroad company is in what might be called a receptive mood. A petition has been filed and has been submitted tentatively to the railroad company and finds a measure of approval.

As the ordinance has been drawn providing for the use of the street by the railroad, and it is to be submitted to a vote of the people of the city. The property owners are to get the franchise through the present the question of building the tracks to the Rock Island, with the implied understanding that the railway company will look after the project.

A bad grade would have to be used, but not an insurmountable one. There is already business for such a track in existing conditions, and the building of the track would insure the location of other until there is no longer a question on that point.

As the matter of the railway company is waiting for action to be taken by those directly interested, as property owners or otherwise, in the face of the fact that the street, and then, when the proposition is submitted the company will be prepared to act. The desirability of that property for wholesale uses is plain.

BELL GAINS IN HARRIS COUNTY

Voters Leaving Other Candidates to Follow Him

Special to The Telegram. HOUSTON, Texas, July 19.—The fact that Judge C. K. Bell is fast gaining ground throughout Harris county can no longer be questioned by any disinterested observer of the gubernatorial contest. Citizens in all sections of the county who have up to the present time formed any choice between the candidates, after carefully investigating their records, are now enrolling themselves under the Bell colors.

Belong to these there are many representative voters in the different counties, heretofore supporting some of the other aspirants, who have now decided to withdraw support from their original choice and vote for Judge Bell. In fact, the disposition on the part of the voters to be engaged in the race of all the other candidates and rally around the Bell standard may be easily discerned by any one, and it is this very apparent condition that has caused the people generally to begin to predict that Judge Bell will carry Harris county by a splendid plurality.

In connection with the defection that is taking place in the ranks of some of the other candidates for governor a letter received from Charles Klein, of Klein, Texas, will prove interesting. Mr. Klein now, and has been for a long time, deputy sheriff of Harris county, and is a prominent and popular citizen of his locality, and around Klein, where he is engaged in the general merchandise business. For these reasons the letter from him, given below, is peculiarly significant of the situation in his precinct. In view of the fact that Mr. Klein was placed on the reception committee for Mr. Colquitt, and has been counted on heretofore by the Colquitt forces as one of their leading supporters, this letter will be considered a distinct disappointment to the Colquitt men, who by this time are beginning to realize the serious breaks in their ranks.

Will Support Bell. Harris County Bell Club, Houston, Texas. Dear Sir: Up to about a week ago I was supporting Mr. Colquitt for governor, but upon learning of his record on the tax upon beer, in which he advocates the same high tax upon all sales regardless of their location and the amount of business they may do, and after hearing and reading of his position on taxes, I determined to quit the Colquitt ranks, as many others in this section have done, and we have decided to support Judge Bell for governor.

Judge Bell is gaining every day in this section of the county. Yours truly, CHARLES H. KLEIN, Klein, Texas, July 11, 1934.

BRITAIN'S DANGER IN EGYPT

Fanaticism of the Natives is on the Increase

LONDON, July 19.—The Cairo correspondent of the Express says that in view of the rapidly increasing fanaticism of the natives Lord Cromer, the British agent in Egypt, and his advisers have prepared elaborate plans for strengthening the British army in that country for increasing the garrisons at Cairo and Khartoum and for establishing various military posts in the Sudan. It is also intended to restrict the native press.

Just an Every Day Police Court Matter at the Bottom, He Explains

Special to The Telegram. ATLANTA, July 19.—When William Travers Jerome, district attorney of Chicago, is to compare the prosecution in the trial of Harry Thaw and who is visiting Atlanta, was asked if he regarded the case as an important one. He replied: "It is just the every day police court story."

"What is there new or singular," he continued, "in one man killing another because of jealousy? The same thing happens nearly every week. In the eyes of the law the defendant's money adds no luster to his situation. Most of the apparent romance is a newspaper product."

LIPTON TO BE MEAT PACKER

Report That Sir Thomas Will Open Plant at Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Man., July 19.—This city is to benefit materially from the exposures affecting the Chicago meat packing industries. Definite announcement is expected within a few days that a company backed by Sir Thomas Lipton will establish an immense packing plant here in an effort to capture the trade with Great Britain, which the American scandals have killed. Sir Thomas had planned to start a plant in Chicago or some other American center. Now, it is announced here, he has altered his plans and decided to locate in Winnipeg, keeping this industry under the British flag.

Eighteen Well to Do North Carolina Citizens Face Serious Charge

Special to The Telegram. CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 19.—The eighteen well to do citizens of Anson county charged with lynching J. V. Johnston, a white man, two months ago, were put on trial at Monroe today.

Judge Shaw's charge was a bold and uncompromising utterance. "There is no reason why we should deal with this matter with gloved hands," he said. Four true bills were found.

PANTHERS LOSE IN CLOSE GAME

Defeat Comes in Tenth After Hard Struggle

Special to The Telegram. DALLAS, Texas, July 19.—The Panthers tasted the cup of defeat at the hands of the Giants here yesterday afternoon for the first game in a round dozen, but it took ten innings for Maloney's men to wrest a game from Ward's winners, the hit having been on since the fifth inning. The final score was 2 to 1.

For seven straight games the Maloneyites had suffered defeat and their supporters had begun to clamor for better representation. Wednesday it required ten innings for them to turn the tables on the visitors, but it was a pretty contest and well worth seeing.

Jack Jarvis, the veteran pitcher of the Texas League, and one of the principal factors in enabling Fort Worth to nose Dallas out of victory in the first half of the present race, was on the slab for the Panthers, and he made Rodebaugh use his entire repertoire of curves to win. Jarvis was hit often, but the hits were not scattered and his support was good.

For the first three or four innings Rodebaugh had been in command, but the Panthers managed to get three hits off him. In the second two doubles came together and produced the lone run. After the fourth Rodebaugh got to going well and from then on he had the Indian sign on the Panthers. In the ninth and tenth innings he struck out six men in succession.

PLANS MADE FOR BELL RALLY

Rousing Meeting Will Be Held in City Hall

Candidates for County Attorney Expected to Be Heard on Program—Ayres to Speak

(Tube: "Sailing, Sailing, Over the Bounding Main.") Ringing, ringing, over the Lone Star state.

Everybody votes for Bell because his record's straight. Ringing, ringing, for July 28. Everybody votes for Bell—the people's candidate.

City hall auditorium will be packed with the supporters of Judge Charles K. Bell for the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas tonight, and the meeting will be one of continued enthusiasm from start to finish.

Paul Waples will preside and additional chairs have been secured with which to fill every available space in the large auditorium. Among the prominent speakers who will make talks to the assembly are: Mayor W. D. Harris, Major J. J. Jarvis, Judge F. E. Dycus, Louis J. Wortham, Captain B. B. Paddock, B. P. Ayres, Clarence Ousley and Lee Stevens, a member of the Electrical Workers' union. Mr. Ayres says he will throw some light upon the record of Colonel Thomas Campbell of Palestine, Texas, who is running for the Democratic nomination for the office of governor of Texas against Judge Bell.

This meeting is only the starter for the rushing whirl of the close of the state campaign that is to follow in the short time between now and Saturday, July 28.

GUNS SHIPPED TO MEXICO

Greene Mines at Cananea Prepare for Further Riots

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 19.—Sixteen large cases containing rifles and machine guns en route to Cananea to be used by Colonel W. C. Greene's forces in event of another miners' outbreak there, passed through San Antonio from New York.

To insure the safe delivery of these guns, Oscar Halamuda, Leonard Garcia and Joe Garcia of this city went along as an armed guard. Their services will not be required until the guns cross the Mexican border, but after that time Colonel Greene is taking no chances.

These men have been recruited here to join the Greene guards, who are commanded by Frank Matthews, formerly a policeman of this city and who also served as a peace officer at Austin for a time.

In case of the anticipated outbreak on Mexican independence day, Matthews will have command of all the forces for the protection of the immense mining properties of Greene. He went from this city with Captain Lee Hall's company for the protection of the armored auto but was soon given a better position with Colonel Greene.

In the shipment was also a number of powerful electric search lights which will be used in case of night attack on the mines.

BREACH BECOMES WIDER

Mrs. Thaw and Son Disagree Over Counsel for Defense

NEW YORK, July 19.—The chaotic conditions surrounding the preparation of a defense for Harry K. Thaw, accused of the murder of Stanford White were accentuated yesterday and apparently the breach between the prisoner and his mother, Mrs. William Thaw, of Pittsburgh, as to the character of defense is wider than ever.

Following quickly upon a conference of two hours with Thaw in the Tombs, after the mother had twice during the day endeavored to gain the boy's consent to the re-employment of the law firm of Black, Ockert, Gruber & Boyning and to consent to a plea of insanity, Clifford W. Partridge, Thaw's personal counsel, obtained from Justice Blount, in special term of the supreme court, an order directing Judge Olcott's firm to show cause next Friday why they should not turn over to Partridge all the papers in Thaw's case.

The Santa Fe could neither dive nor fly, so there was a wreck, and a sore lot of calves and a broken neck.

There has been plenty of rain down the Angelo country and stockmen feel good, but a wreck which makes even a stockman shrink, not mentioning his stock, will cast a little gloom over the most optimistic, especially if he were on the train as Max Mayer was.

Wheeler defeated Jones in the pool tournament at the B. & P. Palace last night by a score of 45 to 30 points. The game being a handicap, in which Jones was to play 50 to Wheeler's 20.

In the event it is decided to play it over the game will be called at 11 o'clock this morning.

FACTS THE VOTERS OUGHT TO CONSIDER

How Commission Men Were Dealt With in Trust Suits

In the last issue we promised to make known to you some facts leading up to the institution of the suits against the live stock commission men at Fort Worth.

Chartered in 1902 men who perform a service in the sale of live stock consisted of them took out a charter for a corporation called the "Fort Worth Live Stock Exchange."

At that time they consulted lawyers of high standing and were advised that they had the right to do so.

Section 1 of that act is as follows: "Be it enacted by the legislature of the state of Texas, that from and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for any and all persons engaged in any kind of labor, manual or mental, or both, to associate themselves together and form trades unions and other organizations for the purpose of protecting themselves in their personal service."

Charter Pronounced Lawful Their proposed charter was submitted to the state authorities and was by them pronounced lawful.

No Indictment Returned The Tarrant county grand jury was then in session, and Mr. McNatt requested that a bill and indictment be returned against the defendants.

TOWN WRECKED BY EARTHQUAKE

Buildings Are Destroyed and People Take Flight

Special to The Telegram. KANSAS CITY, July 19.—A special to the Times from El Paso, Texas, says:

Socorro, N. M., south of Santa Fe, has been badly damaged by an earthquake. Fifty-two shocks have been felt since Sunday morning.

The town, which is largely of adobe and brick, is almost shaken to pieces. The people are fleeing, but no one is killed.

The Santa Fe railway has sent box cars to Socorro to take the people and many have already fled to other towns.

The water in the hot springs near Socorro have increased several degrees in temperature, and the inhabitants fear that the ancient extinct volcano ten miles from the town will break out and begin spouting lava again.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Dull Day in Wall Street—Traders Boreish But Afraid to Risk Judgment. NEW YORK, July 19.—The beginning of the day in Wall Street found the crowd as a whole rather inclined to look with favor upon the short side of the stock market, but as the day's developments were expected to exert considerable influence on speculative sentiment, the trade held off and during the early hours little animation was visible.

The situation hinged to an appreciable extent on the action of the directors of Amalgamated Copper and Union Pacific, although the recent developments in the wheat crop outlook and prospects for a favorable bank statement, also received consideration. The disappointing feature of the foreign news was the failure of the bank of England to reduce the discount rate, as owing to the improved monetary conditions a reduction had been anticipated.

The market opened steady with prices fractionally below yesterday's closing level, the decline being at first chiefly in the selling of Amalgamated Copper and Union Pacific by traders, who were inclined to believe that there would be no favorable dividend action taken by directors of the respective companies at their meeting in the afternoon. Copper news was again rather bearish, but call money was easy, the rate ranging from 2 to 2 1/2 per cent.

There was no increase in the dividend of Union Pacific or Amalgamated Copper, the same rate of 4 per cent annually being declared on Union Pacific and 1 1/2 per cent extra on Amalgamated Copper. About the only feature of the afternoon was the good demand for the stock of St. Paul, which led to a rise of over a point from the early low price of that stock. The stocks directly concerned in the dividend announcement were not affected and both closed about yesterday's final, the advance on Union Pacific being a point, while on Copper it was only fractional. The market generally speaking closed firm.

NEW YORK COTTON

Leading Operators Force Prices Up. Poor Response to Foreign Strength Soon Augmented. NEW YORK, July 19.—Cotton longs should have been encouraged by the weather news and the course of the foreign market which opened at a higher level than expected, and developed strength soon after the call, nevertheless, the local market hesitated about following the advance in prices at the start showing only a partial response, being only 2 to 3 points above yesterday's final.

Leading operators, however, nondescriptly the indifference by jumping in and buying large lots, principally for distant delivery, and before the second call prices had attained the level to which they were entitled. The advance continued slowly, increasing the gain before mid-day to a total of 7 to 8 points.

Around the high point the crowd turned sellers and found that there was no demand at those prices. A reaction followed and all of the gain was lost during the afternoon, the close being barely steady with prices 3 points lower to a point higher for new crop options and 6 points lower for summer months.

Spot cotton ruled quiet, prices being unchanged at 11c for middling. Sales, 100 bales. NEW YORK COTTON Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, July 19.—The cotton market ruled quiet today.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Wheat Shorts Panio-Stricken at Start, But Advance in Price Not Maintained. CHICAGO, Ill., July 19.—The black rust scare and the Russian political situation in the wheat pit and both contributed to the strength of the market. Early news included further confirmation of the reports regarding the prevalence of rust in South Dakota and this in connection with a strong northwestern market created a panic among the shorts, causing a strong opening here, prices on the first call being 3/4 to 3/8 higher than the previous day's final.

The Chicago market also helped to stimulate the local market, opening prices being 3/4 higher, and final figures at a net gain of 1/2. Cashers were in some haste to reach a crisis today. Large operators were active on the long side and before the close had managed to reach a level 1/2 to 1 1/4 above yesterday's final.

Reports from the districts supposed to be infected with rust stated that while there was some rust in evidence the prospect for material damage was slight and this allayed the uneasy feeling to some extent, as a consequence of rust in the wheat crop, higher levels and a reaction was soon under way. On the retrograde movement prices touched yesterday's final, and the market followed the steady advance, a gain of only 1/4 to 3/8 being recorded.

Country acceptances were light, only one house had a liberal total and the aggregate was less than 700,000 bushels. Local receipts for the week ending 11:30 a. m. were 22 cars. CORN Corn market showed firmness early in the day and prices advanced 3/4 in sympathy with the strength in wheat, but encouraging news of the Russian selling, which weakened the market and prices eventually slumped 1/4 to 1 1/4 from the best, the close being weak with prices 1/4 to 3/8 lower.

CATTLE AND HOGS

Dull and Lower Steer Market—Cows Steady—Calves Easy—Hogs Weak to So Lower. Receipts of cattle on the first day of the second half of the week were around 3,700 head, with calves making up about one-third of the total. Steers Beef steers were in such the same state as on Wednesday, the bulk of the run being of a medium class. A few loads of good steers were in sight that ought to have been around $4.25, but the bulk of the run, however, were of a $3.30 to $3.50 class. Trade dragged from the start, buyers appearing in a perfunctory manner, such early sales as were accomplished were made at figures steady to 25c lower than the prevailing market yesterday.

Butcher Commission Company. The weather map reported heavy rainfall east of the Mississippi, and along the Gulf coast of Texas and Louisiana; but little rain fell west of the Mississippi. The forecast calls for scattered showers in the western belt and continued rains in the eastern half. Only one week remains until the government will have collected final data for the August condition report, and should rains continue a few more days, and even should fair weather prevail, it seems reasonable to expect some deterioration for the month. Press accounts today were bad regarding the crop in the eastern belt and Alabama. Liverpool sent favorable news, contrasting with the forecast as to expected and closing at a net gain of 3 to 5 points, while spot prices advanced a point, middling being quoted at 6 1/2 and the turn over amounted to 6,000 bales.

Commercial journals say Chinese trade is increasing, and also that southern mills are bidding liberally, but experiencing difficulty in obtaining the grades wanted. The New York market hesitated at about 8 points, but after the foreign advance, opening only 2 to 3 points higher, but good buying power soon entered the market and sent prices up about 8 points. A reaction ensued, however, and final were around yesterday's figures. Spot cotton market ruled quiet, prices being unchanged at 11c for middling. Sales amounted to 100 bales. New Orleans cleared today 560 bales for Great Britain and 4,233 bales for the continent. C. T. VIVION.

MARKETS

THE BACON HOG An Animal That Will Grow Fat in the Southwest. At the present time there is a good demand for the bacon hog in the export trade. Packers are taking the matter up and are pushing the matter with the producers.

This is a great thing for certain sections of the country, especially where conditions are such that the type of pork can be produced economically. The conditions for such demand a good supply of foods such as alfalfa, barley, oats, etc. In Arizona we have a good supply of such feeds and with the open winter allows the pig to run on alfalfa for some time until the animal is ready for finishing.

The common practice is to allow the pig to pick up the grain left in the field. This will give a source of revenue that would be otherwise lost. It has been shown by several experiments that the pig will consume a large quantity of the grain which he is produced to a great extent that the hog is the most profitable animal for a scavenger of fields.

The leading breed of bacon hogs are the Yorkshires, a white hog which is a prolific breeder, producing from 10 to 20 pigs at a litter. It is claimed by friends of the breed that the sows are excellent mothers and will raise 90 per cent of the pigs in the litter.

These hogs look well and sell well on the market. The Tamworth is another of the bacon type and are excellent producers, being fully as prolific as the Yorkshire, and are large boned. The Yorkies are long and slender, but the Tamworths are 160 to 225 pounds. This breed is considered as a better breed for warm climates as the red hogs of that kind heat better than the white. The great demand for bacon comes from Denmark and Holland, and a great many hogs are used each year to supply this demand.

In such conditions as we have in Arizona we are able to produce such a type at a much less cost than under more favorable conditions. The Tamworth is a good breeder and is well adapted to the northwest and southwest, as conditions demand such animals.

KAFFIR CORN FOR DRY REGIONS Thrives Where Indian Corn Would Dry Up by July 1. The experience gained from recent trials in different portions of the west has proved that kaffir corn is the most reliable crop to grow where there is usually a dearth of rainfall. I have seen this crop grown in Texas in the dry years when Indian corn would dry up before July and be unfit for fodder, while the kaffir corn would remain green and continue to grow when there was apparently no moisture in the soil. After a time it became too dry for even kaffir corn and then it took a rest—just stopped growing for a while till the fall rains started it again.

This plant, along with the other members of the sorghum family possesses the wonderful faculty of adjusting its growth to suit the season. Like the cocklebur it never gets fooled. It will mature some seed even under the most adverse conditions of soil and season. I raised some last year on land that would hardly sprout corn, yet made a good crop of both fodder and seed of the kaffir corn. I consider the grain of equal value with corn for feed and even better for poultry, as it is more easily digested than corn. I do not wish to be understood as favoring the growing of kaffir corn to take the place of corn, says a writer in O. J. Farmer. But where the land is too poor to raise corn at all, it will always make something. During dry seasons it is often of great value, both as a forage and grain crop, when other crops fail. It will not plant it extensively in the state of Missouri, or as far east as eastern Kansas, but I would always raise a small patch for the chickens.

Kaffir corn will not mature as quickly as sorghum. In fact, it requires as much time as does Indian corn, so it should be planted not later than the middle of June. It is a plant with the corn planter, using brown corn plates, leaving the rows about the same as for corn. However, the rows may be closer by six inches or more if one cares to go to the trouble of changing the planter wheels. Three plowings is all the cultivation I gave it, and it yielded late two will suffice. Journal of Agriculture.

RAIN IN WEST TEXAS
Moisture Reported All the Way from Abilene

J. F. Graham came in from Abilene Monday and he says brought the rain. "I left Abilene," said he, "Sunday night, and it was raining when I left, and it rained all the way down to Fort Worth. The country out there is in good condition and people are in fine spirits, and well they may be, for crops could not be better and all kinds of stock are good and feed plentiful. There seems to be only one spot out there that has refused to get wet and that is out on Dead Man, but there is not enough of it to make much of a show. Yes, things are certainly in good fix and an immigrant coming in at this time would be a hard proposition. If he did not immediately negotiate for some portion of Taylor or Jones counties. The election does not seem to create any particular emotion in the bosoms of the voters and they don't seem to care who is elected so they make good kaffir corn."
