DEFIES PURSUERS

People Give Chase, Threatening to Lynch Assailant, But He Escapes

By Associated Press NEW YORK, Aug. 13 .- While Oceanic Walk, in the Bowery at Coney Island was still crowded early today, an unidentified man pulled a revolver, fired two shots into the back of a waiter at Stauch's restaurant, and then turned the weapon into the crowd and fired four times as quickly as he could pull the trigger. Four person were writhing in agony on the board walk when the man fled toward the ocean, threatening any person who would pur-

George A. White, 26 years old; Twenty-second street and Railroad avenue, Coney Island; shot in the back; may die.

At the time of the shooting, a crowd was pouring from the restaurant. In the throng were many women. At the sounds of the shooting and the screams of a woman who witnessed the shoot### ing, the crowd broke in all directions.

Fires Into Crowd

As they fled, the man deliberately turned the weapon toward them and as fast as he could pull the trigger fired the leaden messengers into their backs. As shot after shot rang out, and the men and women fell to the walk, screaming, a panic broke out. Women were thrown to the walk as men ran over them in an effort to reach a place of safety. The stranger defied anyone to follow him. He had the revolver in his right hand and laughingly shout-"The man who follows me, I Faced 10,000 People

No one ventured to approach him. He jumped over a railing and vanished in the direction of the ocean. Fully 10,000 persons stood at the entrance to the Bowery and from them a cry swelled that the murderer must be lynched. They broke down all police barriers and forced their way to the Bowery, overruning the physicians whom the police had summoned. Planned to Lynch Him

Then down on the sands in the direction which the assassin took the crowd poured. Every avenue of escape was closed. It was generally understood, through the voice of a ringleader, self elected, that the man who fired the shots would be hanged from a pole in Surf avenue. The already excited crowd accepted the idea with satisfaction and led by the police, every nook and corner of the place was searched.

Evades Capture Captain Harkins, in charge of the Coney Island police station, quickly strung out a long line of men along the ocean front. He had the exits guarded as far as Brighton Beach, and at every terminal of the island, men searched for a man dressed in a dark suit of clothes and wearing a fedora shaped straw hat. He was described as being short and smooth faced. Two big search lights were playing on the beach early today to assist the police and thousands were aiding the Thousands Witness Accident and Unable to Aid Victims.

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Aug. 13.-Wilson Ellinquist, 38 years of age, of Brooklyn and Joseph Moss, 24 years of age, of Williamsburg, professional aeronauts, were severely injured by burns and contusions from falling from a burning balloon at Flatbush last night. For several weeks they have been making ascensions and doing parachute feats for an amusement concern at Bergen Beach. Seeking to vary the attraction, it had been advertised that the men would make an ascension last night from Flatbush and try to land near the show grounds at Bergen Beach. They used a large hot-air balloon and a great crowd assembled to witness the start into the clouds.

Balloon Bursts The big bag shot into the air with the two performers waving their hats from the basket. When it reached an altitude of about two hundred feet, there was a muffled report, a sudden erching of the balloon sidewise and a shout of terror from the aeronauts.

Burning it Collapses A small flame was seen to curl out on one side of the bag. Puffs of smoke began to envelop it and then the bulky thing commenced to settle rapidly. Three thousand throats on the ground uttered exclamations of horror as the balloon gained momentum in its descent. The flames grew brighter, the bag began to waver, and it seemed to collapse when about fifty feet from the ground and settle down, a mass of smoke and fire. Both men clung to the burning basket until they were near the ground. Moss had climbed on the outside and hung by his hands, but Ellinquist remained in the basket with his head bent forward, trying to escape the fiery draughts.

Men Badly Burned

When the flaming mass of cotton and rope struck the ground fifty men sprang forward and dragged the men from their perilous position. Both were unconscious. Moss had dropped about twenty feet, but the other man held on and fell with the basket. An ambulance was summoned and it was found that Moss had suffered severe injuries internally and both were critically burned.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Both Wm. J. Bryan and Grover Cleveland will be called upon by the democratic congressional committee to contribute $1 apiece to the campaign.

Chairman Griggs thinks their contributions will set as good an example to the democrats as Roosevelt's contributions to the republican campaign fund and will be valuable as indicating returning democratic harmony. He is not speculating on what the effect will be if Cleveland should refuse to contribute. As fast as the mails can carry them, letters are going out to 30,000 democrats, whose addresses are known, asking $1 contributions.

GOVERNMENT NOW FAVORED

Constitutional Democrats Are Doomed to Defeat

PARTIES SPLIT UP

Elections Show Revolutionary Movement Has Received Severe Check

T. PETERSBURG, August 13.— The government attaches much importance to the defeat of the constitutional democrats in the Zemstvo elections now under way. For years the provincial Zemst. vos have been centers of a liberal movement, and practically all constitutional democrat leaders who have been prominent in the Zemstvo work, now as candidates for re-election, will go down in defeat. M. Kakoshkeno next to M. Raditcheff the most brilliant constitutional democratic orator in the outlawed parliament, has been defeated by Count Sheremtieff, the notorious reactionary, and yesterday two constitutional democrats were defeated at Samara. While these results certainly indicate a reaction of sentiment against the advanced program of constitutional democrats it should also be pointed out that the nobility and landed proprietors have dominant candidates in the Zemstvo elections and the defeat of the constitutional democrats probably represents more of their hostility to the principle of enforced expropriation land to which the constitutional democrats are committed than enmity toward the purely political part of their

Favor Government.

Nevertheless important landed interests, reactionary or liberal, are uniting and lining up in favor of the government as against parliament's radical agrarian program. There are very strong reasons to be believed that 'the intention of the Stolypin ministry if things move normally is to support the regenerationists, who are expected to amalgamate with the octoberists whether the co-operation of the right wing of the constitutional democrats

Radical Changes A significant sample of the radical change in the situation produced by the miserable failure of the general strike is the fact the majority of the social democrat leaders, who a fortnight ago were its most active promoters, are now in favor of turning attention to the coming elections and have already begun to canvass the sitvation for candidates.

FOLK REFUSES TO PARDON WOMAN

Aggie Meyers Must Pay Penalty on Gallows

Special to The Telegram. ST. LOUIS, Aug. 13.—Governor Folk has made up his mind not to pardon or commute the sentence of Mrs. Aggie Myers, the woman convicted of assisting her suitor, Frank Hottman, in the murder of her husband, and now under sentence of death.

The governor granted the woman a respite and so much pressure was brought to bear upon him to commute the sentence, on account of the prejudice in this state against hanging a woman, that it was predicted that she never would be executed.

Will Follow Statute

But it was said today by one of the governor's closest personal and political friends that he will not interfere to save the woman's life, holding, as he does, that if the people of the state do not want capital punishment they shou'd repeal the statute calling for such and that so long as that punishment is prescribed for malicious murders, such as was, the one Hottman and the Myers woman committed, they both deserve that fate.

TERRELL LAW TO BE CHANGED

Blanket Primary Aimed at by State Legislature

CONVENTION

Passing of Amendment Dooms Present System of Electing Governor

AUSTIN, Texas, August 13-It is now almost a settled fact that a strenuous effort will be made by the lawmakers in the Thirtieth legislature to amend the Terrell election law so as to provide for a blanket primary system of election. Expressions have already been made by some of the newly nominated members of the next legislature, who declare that the first thing they will do when they get to Austin next January will be to amend the present election law so as to provide for a blanket primary.

Boasts Popular Vote. According to the present program is to provide a blanket primary jority of the popular votes cast then by virtue of that fact he will be the nominee for governor. Unless he receives such a clear majority then he and the candidate receiving the next highest number of popular votes will try conclusions at a second primary. This will in nearly all cases necessitate a second primary, if there are more than two candidates in the field for the honor.

governor of Texas is doomed. This was demonstrated at the last special session of the legislature when the lawmakers were called by the governor to cure the defect in section 120 of the election law. Many of the legislators then declared that while they were in favor of a blanket primary, they had pledged themselves to come to Austin for the specific purpose of correcting the error in the law and consequently it would be improper and bad faith to pass a blanket primary amendment to the present law under these circum-

The convention system of electing a

Lower House Favored Blanket.

Notwithstanding this fact it was not until a hard struggle that a blanket primary was not adopted. Indeed it would have been adopted as the lower house was greatly in favor of the blanket primary, but a bare majority in the senate whipped the house into line and the law was only corrected, as was the original intention of the governor as embraced in his call for the special session.

Had the blanket primary system prevailed Colonel Campbell and the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes would now have the field clear to themselves and the resuit would not have to be determine! in the state convention, which meets at Dallas Tuesday.

It will be remembered that the Campbell and Colquitt adherents in the last legislature were decidedly in favor of a blanket primary system.

Trippet was rescued by a party of men headed by Police Chief Maddox, who hurried to the scene of the wreck, arriving with a squad of officers almost immediately. Mr. Trippet was in the west end of the coach in a corner and it was necessary to remove a seat which was over him. After ascertaining that none had been killed outright, Conductor Goodman of the outbound train notified the local general offices of the company. Surgeons were hurried from the city to the scene of the wreck and carriages, ambulances, wagons, the police patrol and buggies were pressed into service to remove passengers from the bridge. Conductor Goodman worked for more than an hour, securing the names of all persons who declared they were injured and sending passengers uninjuded into the city in whatever conveyance was available at the time.

J. M. Mitchum of Park Springs, Texas, a delegate to the state democratic convention at Dallas, was a passenger on the train. He says he was in the rear coach of the inbound train. According to the statement of Mr. Mitchum, the train he was on was proceeding at a slow rate of speed, as is usual within the city limits. There was no warning of a collision. The crash came unexpectedly and threw the people in the car about in confusion. "I was thrown over one seat and my head struck the front end of the chair car of the incoming train," said Mr. Mitchum, "but I guess I am not seriously hurt. I am glad to have gotten off so easily. I never saw such a scene in my life. Women were screaming and I had the impression, with two score uninjured persons on my train, that a dozen people must have been killed. That rear car which was struck by the engine of our train was a horrible sight. I can't realize that none was ground into little pieces. The seats were smashed like straws. I went with everybody else who was on the train, and, following the direction of the conductors, we investigated as to how many people were in a serious condition. I think I talked to about a half dozen who seemed to be really hurt. The minister from Boyd, I think (Rev. A. P. Hightower), seemed in great pain. We

ELECTION BILL BLOW TO POOR

Only Rich Can Aspire to Texas Governorship

Special to The Telegram.

AUSTIN, Texas, August 13.-The recent primaries held in the state of Texas demonstrate the fact, which is already apparent to many, that in the future a poor or even a man of moderate means can never aspire to the honor of being governor of Texas unless of course he does not mind ruining himself financially

Under the Terrell election law the candidates for all offices in the state are required to file an itemized account f their campaign expenses, and those filed by the four candidates for the office of governor show plainly that not one of the four candidates will get back what they expended on the campaign.

The lucky candidate in the state convention this week will get at the outside $8,000 out of the office for the two terms and this will leave him from nearly $2,000 to $7,000 in the hole at the end of his term or two

TO HIRE COOLIES

Two Thousand Five Hundred Chinamen Will Help Dig Panama Canal Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13.-

Care will be taken by the United States government to prevent contractors from doing injustice to the Chinese laborers employed for work on the Panama canal. The specifications in advertising for proposals to supply 2,500 Chinese to the canal commission will stipulate that the secretary of war shall have the privilege of passing on contracts which labor agents make with Chinese who are to be sent to the isthmus. The provision will make it possible for Secretary Taft to prevent discrimination against the coolies by unscrupulous contractors. Under this agreement the United States will know exactly what is paid to the Chinese by the labor agents, and the Chinese government will be able to afford its subjects protection on the isthmus because of the ease with which this government will be able to regulate the relations between the Chinese laborers and the contractors.

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.-After an unexplained absence of thirty-one years, Professor Charles H. Frye, a former superintendent of the Chicago normal school, of this city, returned home. One of his first acts upon arrival at home was to hand a roll of crisp $100 bills, totalling $5,000, over to his wife with the remark, "Ask me no questions." Frye was 31 years old when he disappeared. Since that day no word has been received from him by his wife. He was recognized immediately in spite of the years and altered appearances. He is said to have made his money in the Philippines, where he resided for several years. His wish that no questions be asked him regading his wonderings has been respected and he has settled down at home as though nothing happened.

streets by the thousands. The company did this with the aid of 250 special policemen and a corps of inspectors. A similar number of regular policemen were on hand to preserve order, but failed to do so. Men, women and children were forcibly elected from the cars. From 50,000 to 75,000 were compelled to walk for distances of one to three miles. The first steps were taken in scores of damage suits and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit's representatives defied the deputy police commissioner, O'Keefe of Brooklyn, lawyers and lawyers' clerks who swarmed about points where passen-

Among those put off the troiley cars was President Bird S. Coler of Brooklyn borough. Mr. Coler-went peaceably enough after the "bouncer," who technically assaulted his wife by taking hold of her arm. Mr. Coler then addressed the crowd and told them not to pay a second fare. It was after that the real trouble started, but what Mr. Coler said by no means caused the disturbance that followed, for he addressed but few people comparatively.

so far as Fort Worth is concerned, with the packing houses. That is the plant of the Iola Portland cement works. The decision to start that industry here was only made after : most careful examination, by the one in the company. He is also the largest stockholder in the company, or one of the largest, if not the largest, "His examination extended over period of several months and all of the test holes, on which he relies, were dug

"After that critical examination the conclusion was reached that here was the place for one of the greatest ement plants in the world and hence the company has gone to work, prepared to spend from $1,000,000 to $1,-500,000 in the development of the property they have acquired. They have asked no bonus from anybody; they have heretofore made a success of their business; they have all of the capital in reason they may want; and as one of those interested said 'if we were not absolutely sure of the outcome, does stand to reason that we would put 1,000,000 or more of our money in the plant? We know what we want to do and will do it.' "Now to come back to my statement; we have, on the North side, the packing houses and all that that means for the benefit of the city and state, and on the South side an industry which may not be so far-reaching in its state benefits, but is of vast importance to the city, for it will be, when the plant is in actual operation one of the most important industries of the kind in the country and by long odds the greatest

tion Next Year Special to The Telegram.

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 13.-George B. Mathews, the noted painter of large decorative studies, is engaged on a nammoth canvas which is to be exhibited at the Jamestown Exposition in 1907. The picture, which will represent General Robert E. Lee surrounded by the members of his staff, is to be eighteen feet in length and nine feet high. The stretcher for this enormous canvas has been specially constructed for Mr. Mathews, so that it can be taken apart and the picture shipped without danger of injury. The portrait of General Lee and his staff will be exhibited in the department of fine arts, which will embrace the exhibits of paintings, drawings, engravings, sculpture, architecture, landscape design and photography. In crder that only the very best works of art may be placed in this department a jury will be appointed to pass upon the admission of each exhibit.

Mr. Mathews has quite a reputation for portrait painting, as well as for larger decorative work. For some time he has been connected with the Corcoran Art Gallery, in Washington, D. C. ty a day of rest.

WOMAN CREATES SCENE IN CHURCH

Fights With Detectives to See President Roosevelt

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., August 12 .-Miss Asa G. Esac, who is summering in Oyster Bay for the purpose of interviewing the President or Mrs Roosevelt on what she declares is "a matter of life and death," created a scene during the service in Christ's Episcopal church today. Miss Esac, or Miss Case, as her name is supposed to be, has attended every church service the President has attended since his arrival here in July. She has climbed Sagamore Hill on foot several times only to be turned away by the secret service men. She presented herself early at the church today and took a seat directly behind the pew usually occupied by the Roosevelts. When Usher James Duffy requested her to relinguish this seat she refused. Duffy forcibly removed her to the rear of the church and Miss Esac says he tore her gown in so doing. For this act she later applied for a warrant for Duffy's arrest, but was refused. In the rear of the church Miss Esac refused to sit down. A secret service agent stood beside her and during the service she made no fewer than a dozen attempts to get by him. As the President was leaving the church three secret service men surrounded Miss Esac, but she shouted: "Mr. President, Mr. President, President Roosevelt, won't you speak to The President turned his head as he passed, but did not pause. Miss Esac says her watch chain was broken in this scrimmage with the secret service men and her watch fell to the tances she has made while here that she was to have been married in the White House at the time Miss Alice Roosevelt became Mrs. Longworth: that she was to have married a high government official and that it was this wrong she seeks to redress. When the President's carriage had departed Miss Esac was allowed to go. She says she will stay in Oyster Bay until she accomplishes her purpose. Representative and Mrs. Longworth expect to leave for Washington and Sunset Road Suffers Damage Between Osman and Dryden Special to The Telegram.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Aug. 13 .-There was a second washout of the Sunset between Osman and Dryden Sunday, as a result of which about eight miles of track, a half dozen bridges and telegraph wires are either washed away or are under water. All communication to El Paso by the Southern Pacific is cut off and it is with some difficulty that the dispatcher's office here can get connection with Osman, the nearest station to the serious damage.

The dispatcher's office here is having difficulty in ascertaining the extent of the damage to the track, but it is known that at least eight miles of track is almost destroyed, putting the road in a position that will take several days at least to repair them to the extent of getting through. Osman is eleven miles from Langtry, where the track was washed away Saturday.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 13.-Homer Bassford, staff correspondent of the St. Louis Republic, writing from Zurich, Switzerland, gives the first definite statement of William J. Bryan's program for turning the railroads of the country over to the Federal and state governments. The plan is new and has been carefully worked out. Mr. Bassford writes as follows: "Zurich, Aug. 2.-Mr. Bryan will attack the trusts in his New York speech, and it is possible that he will go ar-ther and give his views on certain forms of public ownership of the utilities, with especial reference to railroads, both interstate and wastates. It is also quite likely that was the support of the original Bryan perty wing and the aid of such eastern conservatives as Alvan A. Clark of New Jersey, he will come out boldly for a constitutional amendment that will make an income tax one of the certainties of the next half dozen years. If Mr. Bryan enters upon the mode. question it is quite likely that he wil repeat his assertions of recent years that conditions have eliminated money as an issue. These conclusions are the results of several conversations with Mr. Bryan in London, at which time I saw him nearly every day in a fort-

Ownership of Railroads

"One of the striking impressions that have come to Mr. Bryan on this tour has to do with the ownership of the great public utilities by the state, with special reference to the railroads. Mr. Bryan has been in Europe on other occasions. He has been careful to examine the conditions surrounding the government management of the larger arteries of travel. In one very important particular he would apply the theory differently in the United States. His plan would admit of the ownership of certain trunk lines by the general government, in order that the famously efficient through service should not in any way suffer impairment, but he would insist that the local lines in every state be owned by the separate states thus preserving more effectually the idea of state individuality, which in Mr. Bryan's opinion, would be wiped out if all lines passed into Federal con-The enormous patronage that would be the result of such a railroad management in America would, of course, tend to intrench the party in power and would in time accomplish what Mr. Bryan fears and would contend against—the abolition of state

KILLS WIFE AND SELF

Crime Was Witnessed By Little Children of Couple

Special to The Telegram. TOM BEAN, Texas, Aug. 13.-About 2:30 o'clock this afternoon J. C. Wilder who lives about one-half mile east of Tom Bean, killed his wife by braining her with a smoothing iron and immediately afterward walked out on the perch of his house and shot himself with a shotgun, inflicting a fatal wound. The charge of shot entered his left side, midway between the lower rib and the top of the hipbone and a little to the front and ranged upward, disemboweling him.

The tragedy was witnessed by small hildren. The room where it took lace was spattered with blood and presented evidence of a struggle. The remains were gashed apparently with

The spectacle of the three small children was indeed pitiful. The eldest of the children, a boy bout 7 years of age, with his younger brothers made their way to the house of a married sister, who lives in Tom Bean and gave the alarm.

ASSASSINS FOILED

Alleged Plot Discovered to Kill President Amador PANAMA, Aug. 13.—An alleged plot to assassinate President Amador has resulted in the arrest of a number of men said to be in sympathy with Colombia. The movement is said to have originated at the Rio Janeiro congress for the non-recognition of Panama as Considerable excitement prevails, but there is no prospect of any revolutionary movement. Members of the liberal party are not charged with complicity in the plot, but it is attributed to malcontents who want Panama to go back to Colombia. The plot is not regarded as serious. The Colombians who were arrested last night will be deported as pernicious foreigners. Friends of the prisoners vigorously deny the existence of a plot but the police claim they have absolute proof. A deputation of city functionaries went from York, England, to Hull the other day to see about the proper painting of a boundary post connected with the navigation of the River Ouse. The post was duly painted, and the bill for $530, which the corporation of York is expected to pay for the work, in-cludes such items as cases of champagne, two dozen bottles of Scotch whisky, liquors, salmon, ice, chickens, ducklings, melons, pineapples, grapes, oranges, breakfast and tea.

The Chew that's Sweet and Clean

No wonder SCHNAPPS is popular—it's the chewing tobacco that suits the man who chews to get enjoyment from the tobacco, instead of the mere habit of chewing and expectorating

SCHNAPPS is made from choice selections of the well matured, thoroughly cured Piedmont leaf, with an aroma so delightful and appetizing that it popularized the chewing of tobacco. There's no other tobacco in the world that requires and takes so little Schnappe

sweetening.

That's what makes the difference between SCHNAPPS and the many excessively sweetened imitations—and it's such a difference that once a chewer chews SCHNAPPS, he is never deceived with any imitation.

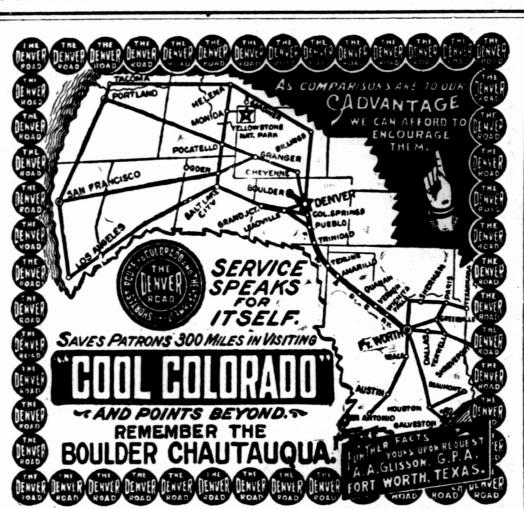

The sweet, tasty and exhilarating quality of SCHNAPPS tobacco has made the Reynolds factory famous as the manufacturers of the best and most popular brands of chewing tobacco, and as the largest and best equipped flat plug factories in the world. They contain every modern appliance for producing the best chewing tobacco, by clean, sanitary and healthful processes. The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company is under the direction of the same men who have managed it since 1875, and who have made the chewing tobacco business a life-study. -

THE WORLD'S HEROES

"The average man would rather face the fire of hostile armies and battle side by side with death, fighting for his country, than dig in the city's streets or cart the city's garbage, or push a broom on the boulevard. Yet it is the men who do this work-work which is commonly despised and looked down upon-who are the real heroes of Chicago. These are the men whose hard, honest, faithful labor has placed this city among the most economical in the world."

Controller Lawrence E. McGann, of Chicago, is the author of the above statement. It is an unusual view of heroism.

But no right-regulated mind can think twice on the subject without realizing that it is the right one.

Heroism is commonly supposed to be born in a blaze of glory.

We seldom think of it as dull.

patient daily sacrifice and toil. Yet common labor faithfully performed has done more for the advancement of mankind than have all the battles ever fought. The man in the sewer is called down under the streets, into foul air and ever-imminent danger. His is a life of constant discomfort and denial; yet he toils on and seldom complains.

The ditch digger at his work and in his humble living offers as high an example of honest, earnest performance of his duty as is to be found in any military camp or field of battle. All day long he is busy, apparently tireless, his broad back and brawny arms carrying the heaviest part of the burden of civilization, and for small

It is harder to stand up under daily toil and nightly discomfort than under the fire of a battle line.

There is no drumbeat to thrill one. no bright waving flag to follow, no hope of glory, in the everyday devotion to duty.

Hard toil and poor pay are more difficult to face than bullets.

But millions of men do face the unhappy condition all their lives. And we cannot overestimate their heroism, or * * * Wonder what is really going to happen up at that Dallas convention? It pretty safe to say that most of the candidates know exactly what they want to happen, but the question of moment is, will it really happen?-Austin Statesman.

There is no doubt about what is going to happen at the Dallas convention. Judge Charles K. Bell of Fort Worth is going to be nominated for governor on about the third ballot.

4. 4. 4 The Fort Worth Telegram gleefully shakes itself by the hand and announces: "The name of the next govfrom the government. The reasoning ernor of Texas will not be Campbell or Colquitt." Probably The Telegram has a dark horse hid away somewhere in the jungles of Fort Worth .-Austin Tribune.

The Telegram's horse is that wheel horse of Texas democracy and true and ried public servant, Charles K. Bell. He it is who should and will be the next governor of Texas.

The Fort Worth Telegram refuses to eat a dish of crow on the proposition that Judge Bell is defeated. It looks like a man who receives less votes than any of three men in a race with him, would admit that he was surely not the choice of the party for governor. The Telegram may as well sprinkle the salt and pepper, and if necessary plenty of tobasco to conceal the taste of the bird, and proceed with its dish of crow.—Sherman Register.

The Telegram is not prepared to accept the verdict of the papers that have persistently opposed Judge Bell. When the state democratic convention speaks at Dallas, The Telegram, like all other good democrats, will be prepared to accept its verdict.  $\cdots$

Some of the papers are still fighting over who is to be the next governor of Texas. Some say Colquitt because he is an anti: some say Brooks because he is a pro, and many say ampbell because he came out ahead. The convention will settle this. If Judge Bell gets it we'll shout just the same.-Cleburne Review.

RECTOR OF TRINITY DEFENDS SELF ON CHARGE OF HERESY

Rev. Robert Hammond Cotton Tells His Beliefs and Why They Have Been Questioned—Declares He Adheres to Old Forms, Believing They Can Always Be Understood

"Life is too short to make a new law and new prophets, new creeds and new formularies. The eternal truth is unutterable in mortal language anyway; so that with new outward and visible signs made today we should be no better off and their meaning will have changed tomorrow."

"It seems unfortunate for the cause of religion that it has seemed • to perpetuate itself by means of the policy of exclusion, and that the heretic and the schismatic have ever seemed to be generated in proportion to the necessary progress and entargement of the church." "We must not fossilize the truth of God. The doctrine of the church is not and cannot be, as one has foolishly said, a dead crystal, but a germ of life, as St. Vincent stoutly maintained it to be, a growing, living thing, expanding and enlarging forever and ever."

Defending himself of the charge of ! heresy, which he declared had been made against him, Rev. Robert Hammond Cotton, rector of Trinity Episcopal church discussed the charge at the morning service in his church Sunday, in a sermon remarkable for its lucidity of thought and directness of Statements of faith by ministers have not been uncommon in Texas during the past year, in which period Methodist, Christian and Presbyterian organizations all have had to deal with members of their ministry, whose doctrinal positions were questioned. Few such statements have equalled in clearness and definiteness of position the sermon by Dr. Cotton, whose text

Acts xxiv. 14-16: "But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets; and have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. And herein do I exercise myself to have always a conscience void of offense toward God and toward

"It seems most unfortunate for the cause of religion that it has seemed to perpetuate itself by means of the policy of exclusion, and that the heretic and the schismatic have ever seemed to be generated in proportion to the necessary progress and enlargement of the church. So it is, however, and the ministers of religion have often been to blame; although it would not be right to lay the blame exclusively upon them. "The fact is that religion, the tie which binds us to God and to our neighbor—consists of two parts—the tie of doctrine and the tie of practice: and it is natural to believe that if either of these parts is weakened the whole tie seems to be in danger of breaking. Hence the solicitude of the representatives of religion that both parts of the tie remain intact. The breaking of the tie of doctrine-denial of the church's faith-is called heresy. The breaking of the tie of practice-actual separation from her communion, whether voluntary or involuntary—is called schism.

One Point of View. "In one point of view heresy may be regarded as treating a separated and isolated portion of the truth as if it were the whole; cutting oneself away from the faith which was once delivered to the saints. Now did St. Paul do that? No. He worshipped the God of his fathers. So does your rector. He believed all things which are written in the law and 'in the prophets.' Your rector claims that he does the same. He never even substitutes his own prayers for those of the prayer book. He always sees that in the worship he and his people recite the creed at the proper time and place. He reads the lessons of holy scripture as appointed and you may all witness that he renders the service of the church with all the exactitude and reverence in his power. Paul had hope toward God that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the 'fust and the unjust.' So has your rector. He exercised himself to have a conscience void of offense toward God and toward men. So does your rector, though he has to acknowledge with shame that he has fallen very short

Prickly Heat

How it stings and itches - makes the best of us cross and irritable. Every member of the family is a sufferer-baby most of all. You've tried all the known remedies-You're at your wits end to know what to try next. Mother is worn out - still baby suffers.

There's just one thing more worth trying - Littell's Liquid Sulpbur. Get a 50 cent bottle of the druggist, follow the directions and note the result. It stops the itching instantly, baby falls into a restful slumber - peace reigns. Worth 50 cents? Yes, and more! Think of the peace of mind, not to mention the freedom from actual suffering. Buy a bottle and have it in the house handy.

* in regard to this part of the apostle's ideal. "Well, then, where comes in the way which they call heresy? Why just here. St. Paul and (in an infinitely humble and more inefficient way, of course), your rector both claim what

Jeremy Taylor aptly called the liberty of interpretation. The things which are written in the law and in the prophets are for all time, not for the particular age in which they were written, and if they be so they must change their meaning with the advance of humanity in thought and civilization. Duty of Preacher.

"The duty of the preacher, as distinguished from that of the priest, is to be quick to discern the necessary change of meaning which the external finite form of the truth must bear, with the advance of science, in order to become applicable to the needs of successive ages. We must not fossilize the truth of God. The doctrine of the church is not and cannot be, as one has foolishly said, a dead crystal, but a germ of life, as St. Vincent stoutly maintained it to be, a growing, living thing, expanding and enlarging forever and ever. If this liberty of prophesying, which is contended for, be not allowed, then it is easy to see that the church will have to give up the ghost and religion perish from the face of the earth. "Let me conclude with an illustration from physics-we say "The sun rises and stts.' Well now, Gallileo and his contemporaries showed that in the literal sense of the words, this is not true. Speaking according to our present knowledge of the universe, the sun is not a ball of fire about a foot in diameter coming up from the horizon in the east, ascending to the zenith, and descending into the sea or into the land on the west side of the horizon. But the real meaning of these words. "The sun rises and sets' is that the earth rotates on its axis from west to east once in every twenty-four hours. And when I say 'I believe that the sun rises and sets' this latter scientific explanation or interpretation of the matter is what I really intend to say and what I rely upon in my conduct and in my statement: also it is now universally understood to mean.

Scientific Heretic. "Am I to be branded as a scientific heretic, either because I use the old phraseology or because I use the phraseology in 'a non-natural sense' as the heresy-hunters say? On the ground of common sense I object and so I say the old prayers and the old creeds, and read the old scriptures and sometimes even preach the old sermons, believing that with a true conscientious use of the 'liberty of prophecy' the people will always understand what I mean. If not they can always inquire, and earnest inquiry has been by God's own ordination made a means of attaining to the grace of truth. Thus beloved, 'after the way which they call heresy, I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets.' The things so written were intended to stand for the eternal truth and they stand for it now, even though the former face meaning of the interpret those writings that they may express the eternal truth to me and to my generation. Life is too short to make a new law and new prophetsnew creeds and new formularies. Besides the eternal truth is unutterable in mortal language anyway; so that with new outward and visible signs hanged tomorrow."

None Injured

The northbound Denver train, which left Fort Worth Sunday at 9:45 a. m., was delayed at Quanah nearly twelve hours. The engine left the rails at that station, but no one was injured nor was any damage done. Monday morning early the train proceeded northward with the same engine and cars that made up the train originally.

With a crippled bunch of sluggers to work against-themselves in fine shape, however, the Railroaders managed to capture one game from the Panthers Sunday afternoon, scores of the games being, No. 1-Cleburne, 1; Fort Worth, 2; No. 2-Cleburne, 3; Fort Worth, 0 .

It was the second game's score that proved a hard pill for the Panthers to gulp, while the fans burned with heat inwardly. This was ill-concealed, when, in the last half of the second, Wilson rammed a long drive against the right field fence, instead of over the fence. Quick work by his teammates pleased Rick Adams, Wilson being caught at second. Like all ambitious pitchers. Adams is jealous of the record kept by the official scorer and likes to see certain entry places in the blanks left blank.

Dickson felt the same ambitious jealousy, doubtless in the first game. but there was the Idol of the Idlers, Boles, who caused to be written in the record of that first game the fact that he struck a baseball and that the toy floated beyond any of his opponents long enough to allow Boles to plant his pedal extremites on the nose of the second sack. Others also did their duty. Erwin, bandaged and battered, held down first; Rodgers wore the protector; Jarvis bunted in a "23" style and proved as quick on his feet as ever; others also ran. The scores:

DALLAS, Aug. 13.- Mackey, the umpire, lost popularity with the crowd when he changed a decision in the second game between the locals and Waco Sunday. Bigbie was at the bat and a pitched ball caromed off him or the bat. Bigbie claimed he was hit, but the umpire said he was not. The player apparently showed Mackey the marks, and he changed the decision. In the first game slow work by Kitchen in right field presented Waco with her only score. This came in the first inning, after two were out. Wallace walked and stole and Jackson hit to right. Kitchen held the ball, making a feint to throw it while Wallace scored from second. The second game was a very amateurish exhibition. New men were in the points for Waco, Morris, a lefthanded pitcher, and Fisher, a catcher, relieving Doyle and Jehl. For a few innings Morris promised to be a wonder. He had a quick throw to first, which caught many base runners napping, and for several innings he had the runners going back to the base every time he started to pitch the ball. Maloney, Louden, Maag and McAlester were caught by this trick, but the youngster wore it out and his persistence in it cost him his game, for once he threw the ball wild and then went up in the air.

Cooper, who seems to have all kinds of speed and curves, was given his There were two home runs off him and it looked as if he had settled down too late to save a shutout. The scores-first game:

Prices Rise on Dull Market-London Strength Stimulates the List. Southern Pacific Favorite

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Aug. 13 .- With few exceptions the Wall street list was firm during the early hours of trading. Dullness, however, was the principal characteristic of the session up to nidday. Sales to that hour aggregated but 312,000 shares. Stimulated by a rising London market, as reflected by the 12:30 o'clock cables, which showed prices well above Saturday's parity for the leading American securities, and the expectation of gold to be received today, prices on the first call were fractionally above Saturday's finals and continued to rise gradually during the next hour, ignoring entirely the decline in English consols. Pennsylvania and Reading, however, were under considerable pressure and pursued a dilatory course, although eventually before noon the last named sold more than a point above Saturday's finals. Southern Pacific was the real leader of the rise, as the anticipation of favorable action by the directors at this meeting this afternoon caused some more good buying of that issue, under which the price crossed 79. There was no definite announcement regarding the directors' action before the close and after touching 791/2 some stock was encountered which caused the loss of % from the best. No activity developed during the afternoon and the market remained extremely quiet, although prices advanced steadily, the close being quiet and firm, with prices for the general list near the best of the day at gains of a point or more for the leading issues. It was announced that $600,000 in gold had been engaged on the open market in London for shipment to New York. Call money was high at 4 per cent, low at 3 per cent and closed at 3 per cent. Bears Raid Liverpool Market and Local Prices Slump Sharply in Sympathy

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Aug. 13.-With less avorable press summaries of crop conditions furnishing a legitimate incentive for a reaction, cotton prices continued on the down grade today, and before the second call had again established new low levels for the present bear movement. A sharp decline in prices on the foreign market, which, private cables stated, was the result of unloading by Saturday's buyers in response to a private estimate of 13,-000,000 bales for the crop, furnished the cue for local operators to follow, and the initial drop of 5 to 7 points was but the forerunner of a 15-point siump, which heavy selling by Peru brokers and leading operators brought about before the second call.

Around 9.48c for October, shorts were good purchasers, while the local crowd also took on some with the expectation of a reaction. The market steadied and a gradual recovery to the opening figures was effected.

Short covering and buying for a reaction furnished the bulk of the trade during the afternoon and the market closed very steady with prices at a net loss of 2 to 4 points. The spot market ruled quiet, prices being unchanged at 10.60c for middling. Sales 900 bales.

New Orleans Cotton

Special to The Telegram. NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 13.-The cotton market upon the whole had a very good tone today and after a break of 10 to 12 points, more than half of which was on the call, in response to Liverpool's extremely disappointing course and some heavy selling for New York interests, prices recovered the greater portion of the loss before midday. Crop news was not of a character to encourage further selling operations, press summaries being a great deal less favorable than recently while heavy rains fell in Texas over Sunday and also in the eastern section of the belt. The demand from shorts seemed to be on the increase throughout the session.

The market closed steady with the prices at a net loss of 3 to 5 points. Spot cotton market ruled quiet the prices being unchanged at 10 5-16c for middling. Sales 500 bales spot.

Elverpool Cotton Cable Special to The Telegram. LIVERPOOL, Aug 13.-The cotton market experienced a sharp turn for the worse today. Although opening figures were about as due, being 3 points below Saturday's finals, poor reports from New York and Carpenter's estimate of a 13,000,000 bale crop started the crowd to selling, and most of Saturday's buyers unloaded while Alexandrian interest were also aggressive on the short side. Prices slumped with celerity and the market closed weak, finals being at a net loss of 9 to 12 points. The spot cotton market ruled easy, prices being 8 points lower at 5.68d for American middling. Sales 5.000 bales, including 4,200 American.

Southern Pacific Trains Sent Over Texas and Pacific

On account of the washout of six miles of track and several bridges on the Southern Pacific near Langtry, on the Rio Grande in Valverde county, traffic between San Antonio and the west has been greatly interfered with. Trains from San Antonio were run from there to Fort Worth over the Missouri, Kansas & Texas, thence west over the Texas & Pacific or they were sent over the Houston & Texas Central to Waco, thence over the Texas Central to Cisco and from there west on the Texas & Pacific. Several passenger trains from El Paso passed over this latter route bound for San Antonio and South Texas points. In order to handle the passengers, which should have gone west over the Southern Pacific, a special train was run from Houston Monday morning to Fort Worth to make connection with the west-bound train on the Texas & Pacific. The San Antonio delegation to the state Republican convention was compelled to travel several hundred miles out of their way on account off the washouts. They came to Fort Worth Sunday over the Missouri, Kansas & Texas and went west via the Texas & Pacific. In order to avoid the congestion of freight which would surely follow a blockade of two days, some of the freight traffic of the

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.-Wheat traders seemed rather inclined to follow the long side today, principally out of respect for the belief that prices were low enough. Nevertheless, there was not enough buying to create any commotion in the pit, while on the other hand bears did not display an aggressive spirit, the result being a market conspicuous chiefly for its dullness, with prices never more than 1/2 away from Saturday's finals. Cables reporting a firmer Liverpool market with prices half a penny higher, caused a slight advance around the opening, but King's estimate of a 35,830,000 bushel crop for Missouri, as compared with the government figures of 31,243,000 bushels offset this. From all sources came complaints of the poor export demand and local flour men stated that they were unable to place anything

Visible figures were very bearish. an increase of 2,009,000 bushels being reported for the week, but the market was not affected, closing steady with prices unchanged to %c lower. Local receipts 460 cars, as compared with 166 this day last year. Estimated for tomorrow, 499 cars. Primary receipts 1,196,000 bushels as compared with 1,413,000 this day last year. Shipments, 118,000 busnels vs. 457,000 this day last year. World's shipments for past week, 7,568,000 bushels, including 1.120,000 Russian and 1.376,000 from the Argentine, as compared with a total of 8,640,000 last week. Corn with 214 this day last year. Estimated for tomorrow 150 cars. Primary receipts, 313,000 vs. 590,000 this day last year. Shipments 438,000 as compared with 789,000 this day last year. World's shipments 4,551,000 bushels as compared with 4.641,000 bushels for the same period last year. Oats

Oats were bought by commission houses early in the day and for a time the market presented a firm aspect, but toward the close scattered selling dissipated the early gain and finals were unchanged to 1/3c higher. The visible supply increased $70,000 bushels in the past week. Primary receipts 549,000. Snipments 359,000. Local receipts 213 cars, as compared with 422 this day last year. Estimated for tomorrow, 334 cars.

Provisions Provisions ruled firm, a lighter run of hogs than anticipated being the stimulating influence. Final figures showed gains of 8c to 25c for the list, the extreme advance being in September pork.

CANAL LABORERS CHARGE PEONAGE

Troops May Be Sent to Scene of Trouble

Special to The Telegram. LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 13.-Twentyseven laborers in the employ of a Black Hills contracting firm on a government irrigating canal in western Nebraska have forwarded an appeal to Governor Mickey complaining that they are oppressed and kept in bondage as if they were peons. The workmen were imported from Oklahoma.

Held Back Pay In their appeal to the governor they charge that if any of their number are discharged, the transportation is subtracted from their pay, whereas the contract provided for free transportation. Others aver they have not been paid wages for sixty days. They are kept under constant surveillance and are not even permitted to quit work, even if they so desired.

May Send Troops Governor Mickey is consulting with Attorney General Brown in regard to the appeal and if the county authorities do not grant relief he may send an officer of the National Guard to take a squad of militiamen to escort the men to a place of safety.

The Discriminating Musician's Ideal

The Soulful Sohmer

The fact that the Sohmer is constructed on perfect principles and only the choicest materials and most skillful labor are employed, the tone of the Sohmer is the most beautiful, and its lasting qualities are unapproached. Sohmer & Co.'s new model upright, at $500, and the Bijou Grand, at $715, have brought the "Soulful Sohmer" within easy reach of thousands of families to whom price has heretofore been the only obstacle. A critical examination of these new styles respectfully invited.

We do not pay teachers or putside solicitors commissions. We make our prices in plain figures on each piano, with one price to all.

SULTAN FEARS DEATH

Turkish Ruler Keeps 10,000 Soldiers as Body Guard

Special to The Telegram. CONSTANTINOPLE, Atg. 13.-Abdul Hamid II., a puny speciment of humanity, who wears shoes with French neels and as many coats as he can get on to make him appear bigger than he is, has long been known as "Europe's sick man.'

He is the thirty-fourth sultan of the Ottoman empire. As commander of the faithful, Padisha, king of kings, sultan of sultans, the shadow of God upon earth, emperor of the two seas and of Rumelia, Anatolia, Kurdistan, Egypt, Mecca, Medina, Jerusalem and of all the confines of Arabia and Yemen, this serious little man of 64 years possesses more power than any of the monarchs, yet he has lived for years, and guarded by 10,000 soldiers, in momentary fear of violent death.

DAMP PROVES FATAL

Mexican Lowered in Well Killed by Poisonous Gases Special to The Telegram.

FLATONIA, Texas, Aug. 13.—A Mexcan who has been yardman at the Southern Pacific section house for a number of years, met a horrible death by drowning in a well. The buckets became entangled so he undertook to let himself down by fastening a rope to a nearby tree. He had gone a very little distance when he struck the polsonous gas. After a few screams, which were only heard by a few women around, he fell to the bottom and was drowned.

CHILDREN IN PAIN

never cry as do children who are suffering from hunger. Such is the cause of all babies who cry and are treated for sickness, when they really are suffering from hunger. This is caused from their food not being assimilated out devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once. Give it a trial. #### MAIL SERVICE BETTER

North Fort Worth to Get More Car riers and Deliveries

Postoffice Inspector Rolfe was North Fort Worth last Friday and after making a general inspection of the postal service, stated that would at once make a recommendation asking for two additional route carriers for North Fort Worth. His idea to extend the free delivery service ver the entire city and west on Rosen Heights, covering the second filing. At present Denver avenue is the west coundary of the free delivery service and this new order will greatly please residents throughout the outlying districts, who heretofore have had no mail

Mr. Rolfe also stated that hereafter hree deliveries will be made to the cusiness houses instead of two, as in he past, and that an evening collection from the Main street mail boxes will be made along with other changes, in order that North Fort Worth mail may be taken to the postoffice and then forwarded on the outgoing night trains. The collection will probably be made between 5 and 6 o'clock. It is now extected that these changes will be effected about September 1.

CITIZENS TO MEET

Rosen Heights Bond Issue Will Be Dis cussed.

Another meeting of the citizens of Rosen Heights will be held next Tuesday night at the schoolhouse to further discuss the question of an issue of school bonds for the erection of another school building. This call was urday night, when a very enthusiastic number voted .almost unanimously against further consideration of annexation to North Fort Worth city corporation. A petition was signed petitioning for an election which would decide the position held by the qualifled voters as a whole

A meeting will be held next Wednesday night in schoolhouse No. 3, at which time citizens of the second filing will have an opportunity to sign the petition. George Fox will be a speaker at this meeting. Many citizens on the Heights are strongly urging the organization of a citizens' league and action in this direction is expected Tuesday night.

BLOCK FACTORY GROWING

Rosen Heights Industry Now Rapidly Spreading.

The Rosen Heights concrete building block factory has now passed the experimental stage and has launched out into the manufacturing business as a permanent institution. Some few changes with material enlargement of the plant building and other improvements to better facilitate the manufacture of building material on a arger scale have recently been made by Dr. Sloan, the proprietor.

This is the first manufacturing industry to locate in Rosen Heights and a great deal of interest is being taken n its development and success. The factory has operated nearly every day since its start and much of the output is being used by builders on the

HER STORY IS WEIRD

Negro Woman's Story Sounds Like Lobster Salad Dream

Charged with lunacy, a negro woman giving the name of Hattie Bell Gould, who says she married a descendant o Jay Gould at Colorado, Texas, six weeks ago, was separated from her husband; cheated of her inheritance consisting, sne said, of a half interest in the Texas and Pacific railway company; widowed by seeing her husband sent to the penitentiary and who says he died there, told a reporter for The Telegram last night that she had received a petition signed by hundreds of employes of the railroad beseeching her not to marry some white trash, who would squander the funds of the company. Hattie Bell, as she is docketed, is emarkable woman and says that her skin became black from exposure to the sun and wind in automobile trips hrough western Texas. She avers that her mother's name was Georgia Mulkee, a daughter of the great Indian heap big Chief Baininnimulkee, and that her father was a scion of Scotch royalty, who came from a castle grand in the fastnesses of the bonny hills way o the north of Glasgow. His name she says, was McGinty, and he was drowned while on a trip to the "auld countrie," whither he had gone in search of a long lost daughter, Annie Laurie. Her stepfather, she said, was a wnite man and had deserted her mother. Her family physician, she declared, had been jealous and was the villain in the plot which sent her loving and devoted spouse behind prison bars and which ended in an untimely death in state's prison.

She requested a reporter for The Telegram to wire the entire Gould family instanter, saying that they would charter a special train to come and force the sleuths of the Fort Worth police department to release her from durance vile. When the Gould contingent arrived, she said, all would be well and she would shine under a halo of glory.
