Judge Harper, who presides over the Pecos district court, is disqualified from hearing the cases owing to the fact that he was district attorney when the cases were filed. The cases were once taken to Sweetwater on a change of venue, and the indictments quashed. The next grand jury found new indictments against all the cases that will now be tried at Pecos.

TO CLEAN KITCHENS

Movement Started by Citizens of Galveston. GALVESTON, Texas, Oct. 11.—This city is preparing to inaugurate a crusade in the interest of clean and sanitary restaurants. The health department has been appealed to in the interest of the work. Recent inspection of the many restaurants in Galveston has revealed a shocking condition of affairs as regards the cleanliness of these establishments. Few were in any kind of decent shape, and three of the dozens were presided over by Chinese. The kitchens in some of the largest restaurants were found to be entirely too small for the amount of work done and the number of men employed. Dirt and filth abounded and many of them are just simply overrun with rats and mice.

HILL PUSHING NORTHWEST LINES

Road to Portland to Compete With Harriman

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The first formal statement of the plans of the Portland and Seattle railway, which is being built down the north bank of the Columbia river in Washington by James J. Hill, is contained in the annual report of the Northern Pacific railway, issued yesterday. The new line will give the Hill roads a new and greatly improved line into Portland, Ore. In the building of this new road, which will be 423 miles long, the Northwest Lines are jointly interested with the Great Northern. The details of this new line show that the new road will run from Portland to Spokane and Texas Ferry, Wash., connecting at Spokane with the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern and at Texas Ferry with the joint line, owned by Northern Pacific and the Union Pacific. Valuable terminal property has been purchased in Portland and Vancouver. The report says that the project of the line from Portland to Pasco and Texas Ferry will be completed by the autumn of 1907, and the line from Pasco to Spokane early in 1908.

Ceballos & Co. bankers and merchants, with liabilities of between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000, was announced yesterday. He was arrested here on Oct. 2, ostensibly to consult here with the members of J. M. Ceballos & Co., but has not reached this city. Mays, which will occur Friday, has been tremendous, Sheriff Tobin has limited them to a number that can be easily accommodated in the hall. He will not issue enough passes to make a big crowd. FIGHT OVER POPE'S POWER

Spanish Factions Will Battle for Supremacy

CLASH IS FEARED

Church Issue Is Made Pretext For Trying to Overthrow Liberal Cabinet

MADRID, Oct. 11.—Upon the reassembly of the cortes, Oct. 20, the Vatican and liberal government of Marshal Lopez Dominguez will cross swords over the church issue. While the actual question of the separation of church and state in Spain, the struggle between the associations immediately raised as in France, the democratic program of the liberals is distinctly anti-clerical and if it progresses successfully it is sure ultimately to lead to an open fight for the severance of the ties which bind the Vatican and the Bourbon dynasty. Meaning while the political world is much interested as to whether the Vatican merely wishes to fight for the reestablishment of its prerogatives, which it has allowed to fall more or less into abeyance, or if it has a deeper plan to precipitate the downfall of the liberal cabinet and the return of the reactionary party.

DATE RAISED IN TEXAS

Thirty-Year-Old Tree Made to Produce Fruit. BEEVILLE, Texas, Oct. 11.—An important discovery has been made by Stiles, the pomologist, that dates can be successfully produced on southwest Texas farms. A thirty-year-old date tree in Corpus Christi fertilized by pollen from a date tree in Mexico, has been made to produce perfect fruit. Dates have long been raised in Texas for ornamental purposes, but not until lately has it been known that they belong to a class of trees not self-pollinated, but which require male and female trees to produce fruit. This fact now being known a new and valuable industry will be added to southwest Texas.

SAVED BY STRANGER

Quannah Children Freed From Burning Barn. QUANAH, Texas, Oct. 11.—A stranger walking up the street yesterday saw a thick smoke coming out of the barn on the Blankenship place. He ran toward the barn and soon plainly heard the cries of children within the structure. The door was fastened, but he soon broke it open and dragged the children out, who were in the back part of the building and almost overcame by the smoke. Within a few minutes the barn was a mass of flames, and it was the action of this unknown man that saved the children, both small tots, would have perished in the fire.

FAVOR MISS DAFFAN

Sherman Citizens Urge Her for Home Superintendent. SHERMAN, Texas, Oct. 11.—While Sherman cannot perhaps lay claim to the initiative credit for launching the movement to have Miss Kate Daffan of Ennis made superintendent of the Texas confederate team and racing club at Aledo, she received a very substantial impetus at the banquet given here to the survivors of the Eleventh George Reeves, who commanded the regiment. Many of the people of Ennis, her home city, as well as of other cities in the state, and hope to have Miss Daffan appointed.

BUILD BIG RACE COURSE

GIRL AT SCHOOL SKULL BROKEN

Child Seemingly Unhurt By Serious Fracture. YOKAUM, Texas, Oct. 11.—Friday evening the little daughter of Tom Wilson, a machinist in the San Antonio and Aransas Pass shops, was kicked by a horse just over the eye and her skull broken. Doctors were called in and at the time they thought the child could not live, as pieces of the skull were taken out and some pieces were taken from the brain. The most remarkable thing about the whole accident is that the little girl got up and walked a few steps toward the stable, where she was broken, and never lost consciousness and does not complain of any pain. She insists on being allowed to go to school and the physicians say it is an unaccountable case.

KICK MAY BE FATAL

DICKENS, Texas, Oct. 11.—John Counts, who lives near this place, is lying at the point of death and is not expected to recover from the effects of a kick received from a horse. His brother, H. A. Counts of Portales, N. M., is visiting him and had turned his horse in to the pasture and was passing him when he was kicked. He was standing in Cuba. The firm is one of "merchant-bankers," the business consisting of handling merchandise of various kinds, instead of securities, like American banking houses. The firm is the largest importer of cattle into Cuba, bringing in cattle from Venezuela, Texas and Colombia, and it was on one of his cattle boats that he has taken flight. The suggestion is that very largely, if not wholly, he has taken flight. Mr. Sankey might have lost a lot of money in promoting the recent revolution.

THE QUESTION OF CORPORATIONS. The relation that should exist between the national government and the corporations is a question that is of vital moment to the people of this nation, and the President of the United States, William J. Bryan and John D. Rockefeller have expressed themselves on this great question. Here are their views in a nutshell. President Roosevelt says: Government ownership of railroads would be evil in its results from every standpoint. To exercise a constantly increasing and more efficient control over common carriers prevents all necessity for government ownership.

Our civilization shall not be the civilization of a mere plutocracy, a banking house Wall street syndicate civilization; nor yet can there be submission to class hatred. An extension of the national power to oversee and secure correct behavior in the management of all great corporations engaged in interstate business will render more stable the present system by doing away with grave abuses.

But a dangerous centralization is something that cannot be brushed aside, and because I believe the ownership of all the railroads by the Federal government would so centralize power as to virtually obliterate state lines, I favor the Federal ownership of trunk lines only and the state ownership of all the rest of the railroads.

TILLMAN ON THE RACE ISSUE. Senator Benjamin F. Tillman, the picturesque statesman from South Carolina, is to speak at the opening of the Dallas fair Saturday. Senator Tillman is now making some speeches in the south, which are being delivered in his characteristic vein. At Augusta, Ga., a few days ago he delivered an address in which his celebrated pitchfork was very much in evidence. We quote the following, which may be typical of what is coming at Dallas:

There are some people who say that a race problem settles itself, he said, but I make the prediction that in less than ten years, I fear less than five, there will be an immense number of bloody race riots, north and south, beside which the Atlanta riot will pale into insignificance.

Second-The negroes were never more intent on contesting in every way that they dare this position of the whites, the republican national government siding and abetting this idea. Third-Race hatred in every form is growing in intensity with both races. Fourth-Lynching for criminal assault will continue as long as the crime is committed. The escape of guilty men inflames the whites, precipitates riots and causes innocent negroes to suffer.

THE ANNEXATION OF CUBA. Advice from Washington indicate that the Cuban situation is engrossing a great deal of attention at this time. The course of the President in intervening to put an end to the interneine strife that has been prevailing on the island meets with quite generous and general approval.

PREPARING TO GET BUSINESS. Members of the state legislature are preparing to get busy at Austin in the matter of revenue measures and some more drastic measures are contemplated in dealing with the trust question. Captain T. D. Cobb, of San Antonio, who will be re-elected to the state legislature in November, says the financial question will be an important one for the next legislature in view of the deficit in the state treasury, which is now increasing daily and the action of the higher courts on some of the revenue laws enacted by the last legislature will have to be awaited before there can be any intelligent action.

REAL LIFE. An English cricket player has been ridiculing young men who spend their leisure time in learning instead of playing games. He wonders whether a man can get as much real life out of acquiring knowledge as he himself gets out of "one stroke properly placed past cover-point."

THE TEXAS GAME LAWS. As the Texas game season is now open in some respects and closed in others, a few explanations of the game laws prevailing in the state will not be out of place. Following are extracts from the new law:

CROWDS AT GAME IN SPITE OF COLD

Third Game on For World's Championship

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—With the National League and the American League teams each a winner of one game in the world's championship series, the interest in the post-season games today is as high as ever, and with prospects of slightly better weather than in the past, it is expected that the National League grounds, where the third game will be played today, will be packed to its capacity.

The weather is still cold, but the wind today is not as high as either yesterday or Tuesday and, with some prospect of a spectator sitting out today's game without being chilled to the marrow.

Weather Disappoints Players
Heavy overcasts, however, are still necessary. A rising temperature is promised for today, but it will not come in sufficient time to make much difference with the ball game. The cold weather has proved a great disadvantage to the players on both teams, as it has cut down the attendance so materially that it makes a big difference in their share of the receipts.

In today's game it is likely that Walsh will pitch for the American team. Lundgren will probably occupy

BULL MOVEMENT IN COTTON MARKET

Frosts Over South Affect the Prices

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 21 to 23 points, which carried all months thru the 11c mark to a new high level for the season. Covering by recent sellers and aggressive bull support on the report of more or less general frosts over the eastern and central belts were bullish factors in connection with higher Liverpool cables and reports that spinners had been free buyers of spot cotton late yesterday. Realizing was very heavy immediately following the call and prices broke about 10 points from the top.

Governor to Open Fair
Special to The Telegram. AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 11.—Governor Lanham leaves tomorrow night for Dallas to open the state fair. A number of state officials will also leave at the same time to witness the opening.

Fire Chief's Wife Dies
Special to The Telegram. DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 11.—A damper was thrown over the delegates to the meeting of fire chiefs gathering today by the sudden death of Mrs. John Stage, wife of the president, who resides at Patterson, N. J. The body will be shipped to Patterson for interment.

FIRST FROST IN CENTRAL TEXAS

Nipping Temperature Reported from Waco

Light frost occurred Thursday morning at Waco, Texas, the first of the season in the southern half of the state. Abilene reports no frost but a minimum temperature of 46 degrees at 7 a. m. High barometric conditions are prevailing throughout the southwest portion of the country Thursday, causing clear, cool weather generally over the state. No rain is reported from any portion of Texas. The cotton belt is clear with temperatures about 12 degrees lower than is usual at this season of the year. The extreme northwest portion of the country is experiencing warm, cloudy weather, resulting from a low barometer.

The southeast portion is clear with about normal temperatures. The extreme northeast portion is suffering under low pressure. Light showers are reported at Boston. Some temperatures reported at the local office are: Amarillo 70 and 48, Spokane 76 and 54, Chicago 38 and 25, New York 54 and 40, Atlanta 54 and 30, San Francisco 60 and 52 and Fort Worth 66 and 48.

Along the Denver
Report on the condition of the weather on the line of the Fort Worth and Denver City railway, made to general headquarters at Fort Worth at 7 a. m. Thursday:
The weather is generally clear and calm. Temperatures—Texline 40, Amarillo 44, Childress 42, Wichita Falls 50, Fort Worth 53 degree.

Forecast until 7 p. m. Friday for Fort Worth and vicinity:
Tonight and Friday generally fair weather.

CIRCUS PARADE

The Ringling circus parade that traversed Houston and Main streets Thursday morning was viewed by fully 25,000 people. Both thoroughfares were crowded to overflowing from one end to the other and windows along the route of the parade held hundreds of persons anxious to get a glimpse. The great crowds waited patiently for the parade and when finally it came in sight they were repaid for their patience. It was the most spectacular circus cavalcade ever seen in Fort Worth, and the longest. Fifty-five animal wagons, seven tableaux wagons, twenty camels, five bands, mounted women performers, thirty-one elephants and scores of smaller vehicles made up the parade.

Possibly the feature of the cavalcade was the mounted band of sixteen German draft horses, all white, and made excellent music.

The circus management was liberal in having twenty cages open in order that the crowds might see a sample of what they had in the wild animal line. One cage being opened attracted much attention as also did a wagon load of bearded leopards. In the herd of elephants were two of the biggest animals ever fully seen in this country, being fully thirty-six hands high.

There is one act at the majestic this week which, also it gets plentiful applause from the audience, is of the variety which baffles stage managers when they come to placing it on the bill. That is the sketch of James Callahan and Jenny St. George. It is because of its combined music, humor and pathos that it is difficult to place. The sketch is too delicate in its shadings for opening a bill, because late arrivals coming into the theater would make the majority of the audience unable to enjoy its finer bits. To put it in the middle of a bill, say between a farcical music specialty and a juggler, would kill all three acts on effects of both the preceding and succeeding skits, because it is so remarkably different from anything usually seen on any stage, vaudeville or legitimate.

Because of its pathetic ending, to put the sketch at the end of the bill is never do. The audience would go out feeling depressed, which every theatrical manager knows is a fatal condition for receipts and receipts.

There is no question that the sketch makes a hit. No one who has any kindly feeling for Ireland or its people could help falling in love with James Callahan's exquisite impersonation. Miss St. George is a skillful harpist and sings refreshingly well. But for all that it is one of those acts which require the creation of a "sympathetic psychological condition" in order to make good with an audience, and what stage manager ought to be asked to produce anything like that?

FORTY BUILDINGS BURN

Gale Sweeps Thru Edwards Island Town

By Associated Press. CHARLOTTETOWN, Prince Edwards Island, Oct. 11.—The fire which started early today in the railway station, Summerdale, which spread so rapidly that it was unsummoned from this city, destroyed forty-two buildings, including the postoffice, English and Baptist churches and four hotels. A gale was blowing and the flames swept thru the town with terrific speed. The loss is not estimated.

TO CERTIFY ACHESON

Name is Received by the Secretary of State

Special to The Telegram. AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 11.—Secretary of State Shannon today received the certificate of nomination of Dr. A. W. Acheson as nominee of the reorganized Republicans for governor. The certificate was from the executive committee of that party. Secretary Shannon will at once certify the name of Acheson to the county clerks over the state to be placed on the official ballot, there being time yet.

LOOSE TEETH

Made Sound by Eating Grape-Nuts

Proper food nourishes every part of the body, because Nature selects the different materials from the food we eat to build bone, nerve, brain, muscle, teeth, etc.

All we need is to eat the right kind of food slowly and chew it well—our digestive organs take it up into the blood and the blood carries it all through the body, to every little nook and corner.

If someone would ask you, "Is Grape-Nuts good for loose teeth?" you'd probably say, "No, I don't see how it could be." But the woman in this picture says, "For the last two years I have used Grape-Nuts Food with most excellent results. It seems to take the place of medicine in many ways, builds up the nerves and restores the health generally."

"A little Grape-Nuts taken before retiring soothes my nerves and gives sound sleep." (Because it relieves irritability of the stomach nerves, being a predigesting food.)

"Before I used Grape-Nuts my teeth were loose in the gums. They were so bad I was afraid they would some day fall all out. Since I have used Grape-Nuts I have not been bothered any more with loose teeth."

"All desire for pastry has disappeared and I have gained in health, weight and happiness since I began to use Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co. Battle Creek, Mich. Get the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. There's a real treat.

"I'm certainly glad I'm not dead," declared my grandfather, starting at Bates. "Life is more fun than I ever thought possible. Bless my soul!" he said. "It isn't a shame that Bates can never cook another omelette for me!"

We sent Bates back with my grandfather from the boathouse and Stoddard, Larry and I started across the ice; the light coating of snow made walking comparatively easy. We strode on silently, Stoddard leading. Their plan was to take an accommodation train at the first station beyond Amarillo, leave it at a town forty miles away, and then hurry east to an obscure place in the mountains of Virginia, where a religious order maintained a house. There Stoddard promised Larry asylum and no questions asked.

We left the lake and struck inland over a rough country road to the station, where Stoddard purchased tickets only a few minutes before the train whistled.

We stood on the lonely platform, hands joined to hands, and I know not what thoughts in our minds and hearts.

"We've met and we've said goodbye in many odd corners of this strange old world," said Larry, "and God knows when we shall meet again."

"But you must stay in America—there must be no sea between us!" I declared.

"Donovan's sins don't seem heinous to me. It's simply that they've got to find a scapegoat"—and Stoddard's voice was all sympathy and kindness. "It will blow over in time, and Donovan will become an enlightened and peaceable American citizen."

There was a constraint upon us all at this moment of parting—so many things had happened that day—and when men have shared danger together they are bound by ties that death only can break. The world struck at chest struck a little hollowly upon us.

"Beware, lad, of women!" he imported to me.

"Humph!" you still despise the sex on account of that affair with the colleen of the short upper lip.

"Verily, and the women that little lady, who guided your grandfather back from the other world reminded me strongly of her! Bah, these women!"

"Precious little you know about women!" I retorted.

"The devil I don't!"

"Atas, as my grandfather," "Invoke the angels, not the devil!"

"Hear him! Hear him! A priest with no knowledge of the world."

"Alas, as my grandfather, I would fling it at me after I have gone thru battle, murder and sudden death with your gentlemen!"

"Thank you, sir, for that last remark," said Larry mockingly. "I am reminded of the late Lord Alfred:

"I waited for the train at Coventry; I hung with grooms and porters on the bridge. To watch the three tall spires—" ter smote harshly upon me. It seemed to shut me out—to lift a barrier against me. The world lay there in the radius of that swaying light, and I hung aloof, hearing her voice and jealous of the very companionship and sympathy between them.

But the light led me. I remembered with bitterness that I had always followed her—whether as Olivia, trailing in her gait race across the snow, or as the girl in gray, whom I had followed, wondering, on that night journey at Christmas eve; and I followed now. The distrust, my shattered faith, my utter loneliness, could not weigh against the joy of hearing that laugh of hers breaking mellowly on the night.

I paused to allow the two figures to widen the distance between us as they traversed the path that curved away toward the chapel. I could still hear their voices, and see the lantern flash and disappear. I felt an impulse to turn back, or plunge into the woodlands; but I was carried on uncontrollably. The light glistened, and the voice still floated back to me. It stole thru my brain winter dark like a memory of spring; and so her voice and the light led me.

Then I heard an exclamation of dismay followed by laughter, in which my grandfather joined merrily.

"Oh, never mind; we're not afraid," she exclaimed.

I had rounded the curve in the path where I should have seen the light; but the darkness was unbroken. There was silence for a moment, in which I grew quite near to them.

Then my grandfather's voice broke out cheerily.

"Now I must go back with you! A fine person you are to guide an old man! A foolish virgin, indeed, with no oil in her lamp!"

"Please do not! Of course I'm glad to see you quite to your own door! I don't intend to put my hand to the lantern and then turn back!"

"This walk isn't what it should be," said my grandfather "let me have to provide something better in the spring."

They were still silent and I heard him furtively striking a match. Then the lantern fell, its wires rattling as it struck the ground, and the two exclaimed with renewed merriment upon their misfortune.

"If you will allow me!" I called out, my hand fumbling in my pocket for my own match box.

I have sometimes thought that there is really some sort of decent courtesy in me. An old man caught in a rough path that was too good at best! And a girl, even the my enemy! These were, I fancy, the thoughts that crossed my mind.

"Ah, it's Jack!" exclaimed my grandfather. "Marian was showing me the way to the gate and our light went out."

"Miss Devereux," I murmured. I have, I hope, an icy tone for persons who have incurred my displeasure, and I employed it then and there, with no doubt, its fullest value.

She and my grandfather were groping in the dark for the lost lantern, and I, putting out my hand, touched her fingers.

"I beg your pardon," she murmured frostily.

Then I found and grasped the lantern.

"One moment," I said, "and I'll see what's the trouble."

I thought my grandfather took it, but the flame of my wax match showed her fingers clasping the wires of the lantern. The cloak slipped away, showing her arms' soft curve, the blue and white of her bodice, the purple blue of violets; and for a second I saw her face, with a smile quivering about her lips. My grandfather was hearing intently with his stick, urging us to leave the lantern and go on.

"Let it alone," he said. "I'll go down thru the chapel; there's a lantern in there somewhere."

"I'm awfully sorry," she remarked; "but I recently lost my best lantern!"

"To be sure she hasn't," my grandfather said sternly. "That's a pretty good lie, but she should so brazenly recall the night I found her looking for Packer's notes in the passage at the Door of Bewilderment!"

She had lifted the lantern now, and I was striving to touch the wax taper to the wick, with imminent danger to my bare fingers.

"They don't really light well when the oil's a low," she observed with an expiring air of wisdom.

I took it from her hand and shook it close to my ear.

"Yes, of course, it's empty," I muttered disdainfully.

"Oh, Mr. Gienarm!" she cried, turning away toward my grandfather.

I heard his stick beating the rough path several yards away. He was hastening toward the West House.

"I think Mr. Gienarm has gone home."

"Oh, that is too bad!" she exclaimed.

"Thank you. He's probably in the chapel at this time. If you will permit me—"

PASSENGER MEN MEET THURSDAY

Officials of the Southwestern Lines Discuss Excursions

Passenger traffic officials of the southwestern lines will meet on Thursday next at Eureka Springs, Ark., to take up an important docket of subjects to be submitted by Chairman Hannegan of the southwestern excursion bureau. The following matters will be considered: Status of arrangements on theatrical traffic; holiday excursion rates from the southwest to the southeast and to the territory of Western passenger association, 1908-07; Christmas and New Year holiday excursion rates, season 1908-07—for the general public; students and teachers; application from Mexico of same basis of fares as authorized from California common points to points east and north; conference with Mexican lines; home-seekers' excursion rates and arrangements; recommendation relative to uniform ticket contracts; I had rounded the curve in the path where I should have seen the light; but the darkness was unbroken. There was silence for a moment, in which I grew quite near to them.

Railroad Notes and Personal

There are rumors current in railway circles that the Rock Island combination of interests and the Union Pacific have united to secure control of the Colorado Southern on about the same basis as the Rock Island controls the Chicago and Alton, but when Colonel E. F. Yeakum was asked for a confirmation of the report he switched off to a panegyric of the southwest, from which he has recently returned, saying, "There is no adversity to be met with there, not even in spots!"

W. P. Polnad, a former official of the Alaska Central railway, has been appointed vice president and chief engineer of the Philippine Railway Company and will leave for his new post about Nov. 1. A comprehensive system of railroads has been planned for the islands of Ibo, Negros and Panay in addition to the way now being laid on the way to the island by way of the Suez canal. The entire cost of the Philippine system will approximate $30,000,000.

Notwithstanding incredulity expressed on the part of the interstate commerce commission and fierce opposition on the part of the railroads generally, the Federal government has a plan of compiling tariffs, A. B. Sticker, president of the Chicago Great Western, has issued advance proofs of a complete Minnesota schedule of all class and commodity rates now on the way to the island by way of the Suez canal. This has an especial interest at this time in view of the fact that the Interstate commission has given a new hearing to the question of time for the preparation of the schedules and the subject matter of them and that hearing is now on in Washington, D. C.

One change has been made in party railway tickets by a new ruling of the Interstate commerce commission that is of general interest. Formerly party tickets must be regularly filed and published. The privilege so extended must not be limited to any particular class or classes of persons, but must be open to all. Regulations regarding the issuance and use of party rate tickets must not be such as will operate to evade or nullify any provisions of the law. The Interstate commission will regulate the governing the issue of party rate tickets, together with rules relating to the allowance of free baggage to persons using such tickets, must be regularly filed and published. WHITE SOX LOSE SECOND GAME Nationals Win by Score of Seven to One

Special to The Telegram. CHICAGO, Oct. 11.-In the second game of the world's championship series yesterday the Chicago National League team took revenge for yesterday's defeat when they vanquished the American League champions on the latter's grounds-7 to 1.

White and Owen, who were replaced in the fourth inning, were batted freely and errors also helped the Nationals score. Reubach was in fine form and allowed the opposing batsmen only two hits.

The weather was bitterly cold, the mercury hovering at or about the freezing point all the afternoon. As was the case yesterday, a few flakes of snow fell, but they were not needed to add to the general discomfort.

Between 9,000 and 10,000 spectators braved the weather, but they by no means filled all seats. With frost-bitten fingers and toes, the perfect ball was impossible.

The Nationals started the second inning with one out. Tinker laid down a perfect bunt and beat it to first. Steinfield, reaching second, Evers rolled an easy one to Isbell, who is his haste to make a double play tossed the ball into left field. Steinfield scored, Tinker took third and Evers perched on second.

Fans Laud Nationals Killing was out at the plate. The half closed with three runs over the plate and the enthusiasm of the National supporters, somewhat modest after yesterday's defeat, broke loose.

The White Sox never even threatened again, except when Jones reached second on his own hit and went to third on an out. Donohue flew to left and Jones was caught yards from the plate by Shreckard's perfect throw.

In the sixth inning, Evers reached second by Tinker and Evers and Sullivan's wild throw to third left Tinker across the plate. In the eighth two more tallies resulted from Chance's single. Steinfield's third and Tinker's single.

Tinker stole second, went to third on Evers out and came home on a wild pitch. At 2 o'clock the crowds at the main entrance were simply a fighting mob. It seemed as if everybody with resources was in the park.

When the game was called at 2:30 o'clock the big crowd, which many estimated as greater than that of yesterday, was still in the park.

White and Sullivan were the American battery, Reubach and Kling acting for the Nationals. Umpires-O'Loughlin and Johnstone.

Brigadier General McCaskey Makes Complaint Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.-Strong complaint against the absence from their commands of company officers is being made by Brigadier General W. S. McCaskey, commanding the department of Texas, in his annual report.

He says the situation in that respect is getting worse and he believes that if no officers of the grade of captain were present with their companies contentment among enlisted men would exist and fewer desertions would occur.

Because 20 per cent of the desertions in the department were men in their first year of enlistment Major Filley recommended that the first enlistments be made for one year only the second for two years and all succeeding enlistments for three years.

RACES HOLD THEIR OWN

Circus Does Not Lessen Attendance at Park

WEATHER IDEAL

Dan Patch, Fastest Harness Horse in World Arrives for Trial against Time

In spite of the presence in town of the Ringling Brothers' circus on Thursday afternoon the attendance at the races was just as large as on the previous days, when the race track had no competition in the amusement line. The ideal weather which has favored the fair association since the opening day continued Thursday. The sky was just fleecy enough to prevent the sun's rays being too glaring, and the air was just cool enough to give the race spectators the delightful tang and zest of autumn. It was a good racing day and a good circus day and the coincidence of the two big attractions, both of which had good attendance, proved at least that Fort Worth is big enough to support two shows at the same time.

The arrival of Dan Patch, 1:55, on Wednesday night aroused new interest in the race track and early Thursday morning admiring of the noted horse straggled out to the track to see him. He is in the finest kind of shape and it is freely predicted among some horsemen that the great pacer will lower his record here in the race against time Friday. Dan's driver, Harry Hersey, looked the track over on Thursday morning and declared it to be one of the best half mile tracks he had ever seen.

Jam-up, eighteen karat, dyed-in-the-wool racing sport was the kind furnished at the track of the Fort Worth Fair Association Wednesday afternoon before a crowd of 6,000 people. It was Fort Worth day and the town responded accordingly to the call of the thoroughbred. The big grandstand was two-thirds full, the betting ring was crowded almost to suffocation, the lodge boxes were filled with exquisitely gowned women and fashionably dressed men, while in the infield the occupants of 180 buggies and five automobiles helped things along by joining in the yell of those in the grandstand. Incidental to the day's sports two horses made faster time than has ever been recorded before on a half mile track.

Pride of Woodstock made six furlongs in 1:15 1/4 and Dr. Mack made the five furlongs race in 1:01 3/4.

The crowd was good humored and invigorated by the crisp wind that rumbled in from the north country, it enjoyed the sport offered in the dandiest way possible. Each and every one brought forth a multitude of yells, screams and shouts and when Dr. Mack broke the record for five furlongs the most earnest and loudest gathering that Fort Worth has ever known.

Men did not do all the shouting by any means. Females yelled and clapped their hands in hurly-burly fashion, feminine eyes burned with delight and more than one dollar saved for pin money found its way into the strong box of the crowd dragged terribly, itself for the owner many times over.

Hand books were operated in the grandstand by official messengers to advance many bets being taken from both male and female. Twenty betting stalls made up the betting ring.

But to the races. There were six of them and each was worth while many times over. There was not a dull one in the number.

Starter Newton had the horses in the first event on the track shortly after 2 o'clock and at 2:20 they broke away for the first heat. In the second race there was quite a delay and for a while things dragged terribly, and had it not been for Professor Cox and his hand the crowd would have lost itself in impatience. However, it waited in the best kind of humor.

First Event

This was a 2:25 trot for a purse of $400, with Captain Strong, Ollie Miller, Great Southern, Billy Button, Miss Lottie, Mr. Dooley, Great Monical and General Brightheart entered. Great Southern and Great Monical were scratched before the going, leaving six in the field.

The first heat went to Mr. Dooley, who opened a favorite for the betting at 2 to 1, but giving away to 3 to 2. Ollie Miller was chalked at 10 to 1, while Es was General Brighthearts and Captain Strong was steady at 7 1/2, the field ruling at long odds.

Mr. Dooley was in the lead when the horses left the wire and stayed there, making the mile in 2:35 1/4, with Ollie Miller a close second and General Brightheart third.

The second heat also went to Mr. Dooley, who was supported in the betting by the excellent showing she made in the first heat. The books offered 6 to 5, while Mr. Dooley was fancied at 2 1/2 and Captain Strong at 7 1/2. The heat was made by Mr. Dooley in 2:25. This horse was hard pushed by Ollie Miller and General Brightheart also in the heat and had the former led her head in the wire in a short distance of the wire the race would have been hers. The little black mare struggled bravely for victory and trotted in regular cyclone fashion.

Betting remained about the same for the third heat, which offered a great surplus in Captain Strong, who started off badly, but righted and won the heat, pounding the mile in 2:25 1/2. Following came Mr. Dooley, panting hard and groggy, with Miss Lottie third. Ollie Miller went to pieces in the first quarter and loped until the third was entered, before she could regain her gait. It was then too late and she was left by the swift field. In this heat General Brightheart also broke badly and ran fourth.

With two heats to the credit of Mr. Dooley and one to Captain Strong, another was necessary. This went to Ollie Miller, who romped it in 2:21 1/4, the fastest time made during the entire race. She was crowded by Miss Lottie, who developed wonderful speed.

and flying came Captain Strong, badly in need of wind.

In the last quarter of this heat Captain Strong was leading. Turning into the home stretch the horse broke and Ollie Miller flashed by, with Miss Lottie following, both Miss Lottie and Ollie Miller flew under the wire by a hard drive and the crowd yelled itself hoarse.

Second Event

The second race was a 2:25 pace, for a purse of $300. The entry card showed General Adelle, Vola, Sunshine, Laura's Last, Lucile Hal, Billy Mc, Albert G, Cotton, Prince, Miss A. Z. and Todd Allerton ready for the start. At the last moment Vola and Albert G. were withdrawn, leaving a heavy field of nine. This race was the feature of the day, and created great enthusiasm.

Lucile Hal, a dainty black mare, not bigger than a short minute, but with wonderfully supple legs, was supported in the betting to win the first heat at even money, with Billy Mc second choice at 2. General Adelle was neglected in the betting at 15 to 1, the others being chalked at long prices.

The first heat was simply great. A prettier race was never witnessed by any one. In the getaway General Adelle, pushed by Lucile Hal. In the second quarter the General broke and Lucile Hal shot forward. But not for long. While the crowd of 6,000 people cheered for General Adelle the gallant horse again gained his footing and with froth flying from his mouth he dashed to first place. Lucile Hal was pacing as she headed the race before her driver was plying the whip and using every tactic known to the racing game to urge his horse forward, but to no avail. The big General Adelle, here with the winning stroke and hurried under the wire amid deafening yells. Lucile Hal second, Tod Allerton third. Time of mile, 2:16 1/4.

General Adelle had at even money for the second heat, but lost it to Lucile Hal, who traveled the mile in 2:16 1/4. This heat ended beautifully in a high finish between Lucile Hal and Todd Allerton. The Allerton horse making the little mare get up and hum. Billy Mc showed speed in this heat and ran third, while General Adelle broke in the third quarter and was dwarfed by the onrushing field.

However, in the third heat the General did splendidly, winning easily. He made the mile in 2:14 1/4, with Lucile Hal and Todd Allerton rushing close behind. In the getaway Lucile Hal was first, but inch by inch, yard by yard General Adelle crept up and when the first round was made fell a few feet behind Lucile Hal at the wire. He raced well, tho, and when the home stretch was entered he raced to victory, and in an exciting finish won the third heat of the race.

Third Event

The third event was for seven furlongs, selling. Check Morgan was the good thing from the start, opening at 3 to 5 and was soon backed to 2 to 1. In as-you-please style he won, with Keogh and Cadillac pushing. The race belonged to Check from the start, 1:30 he did not lead off. Time, 1:30.

Fourth Event

This was for six furlongs, selling, with Anadaco, M. Patterson, Muffins, Dr. Tom, Chickora, Maid and Prof. Woodstock entered. Pride of Woodstock ruled as favorite with the betting, even money being offered. There was a heavy play on him; Anadaco being fancied at 2 to 1, with a small following for Billy Patterson at 4s. To a good start Billy Patterson led the way, closely followed by Anadaco, with the Pride of Woodstock trailing the field. But in the last quarter the Pride of Woodstock forged ahead in sensational fashion and won by a nose with his jockey using the whip at every stride. Time of this race—1:15 4/5, which is the best ever made on half-mile track.

Fifth Event

This was for four furlongs, selling. Mary Ellen and Hot Cakes were equal favorites at even money for the colt spring with Joe Stokes quoted at 6s. Mary Ellen won by a short neck, while Hot Cakes raced well the entire distance. Time—1:50 1/2.

Sixth Event

Sixth race was for five furlongs. Dr. Mack was supported at the short price of 2 to 1. Those who backed him had good reason for rejoicing, as he beat his field easily. Jimalong proved a good one in this race, as did Tangara and Tabby Foss, the popular gray of captain Burnett's stable. This horse got third money. In this race Dr. Mack broke the world's record for half-mile tracks by running the distance in 1:03 1/2.

The Fort Worth Fair Association is expecting the largest crowd of the meet Friday and is making preparations to care for it. For many around people will be on hand to see the great horse battle against time, and almost every box in the grandstand has already been engaged for the occasion. However, there will be plenty of seats for all, as the grandstand can accommodate 7,000 people comfortably. Friday closes the meet, and besides Dan Patch a great card has been prepared and even better racing than given Wednesday is looked for.

Chat of the Course

The twenty books that operated on the track Wednesday had fine business. The play was fast and furious and but one long shot was in the going.

Every box in the grandstand was taken and the big grandstand was crowded with people.

The infield was lined with buggies, wagons, carriages and automobiles to the number of 180.

A high tide of people in front of the grandstand a few moments before the first race was called. Two rubbers had an argument and mixed things, but did no damage.

In the second heat of the third race an accident occurred that came near being a serious affair. Just as the horses were getting to the wire a wheel from one of the sulkeys came off, causing the driver to be thrown several feet and stampeding the horses. Quite a delay was occasioned as a result.

The Chief of Detectives Al Ray ran two crooks off the grounds with orders to leave town by the next train.

The police have kept the best of order at the track and there has been no trouble of any kind.

LETTER TO STANLEY TOMLINSON

Dear Sir: Some people get disappointed in painting; it doesn't come out as they thought it would.

C. B. Edwards, of Edwards & Broughton, painters, Raleigh, N. C., painted his house Devos three years ago; he had used 30 gallons paste paint before and bought 30 gallons Devos. Had 16 left. Paste paint is extra-thick—with whitewash.

Mayor W. W. Carroll, Monticello, Florida, says: My painter said it would take 35 gallons to paint my house; it took 20 gallons Devos. His house is the best paint job in town; and he says Devos is the whitest white of all white paints.

Jones & Rodgers bought 5 gallons Devos to prime Mr. Pratt's house at Merkel, Texas. It painted two coats.

The reason for nobody guessing little-enough Devos is; they learned in a bad school; other paints are; in town; Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOS & CO.
