ESTIMATES VARY

Both Republicans and Democrats Claim Illinois

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 .- Since the closing of the campaign on Saturday night both Boedschenstein of the democratic state central committee, and Chairman West of the republican committee busied themselves with what they term accurate forecast of Tuesday's elections.

Estimates of results vary widely. Chairman Boedschenstein claims the democrats will carry Cook county by 10,000 votes and they will certainly get in six to eight congressmen. Chairman West asserts that republicans have a plurality of at least 35,000 in Cook county, and allows the democrats one congressman in addition to the one they already have in the Twentieth district. It is admitted generally that the legislature will elect a republican successor to Sena-

The independent league claims 115,-000 votes in Cook county, while the democratic estimate allows them 15,-000 and republicans give them 22,000.

SUNDAY'S TELEGRAM

Appreciative advertising merchants made it possible yesterday for The TELE-GRAM to issue a paper that contained 115 columns of advertising. This speaks well for enterprising Fort Worth, and her confidence in The Telegram as the paper to bring returns for advertising. Yesterday's issue contained seven full page ads-a distinction enjoyed by no other Texas Sunday paper yesterday, and for a regular issue for a long while.

The growth in advertising is due to the merchants, who know the subscribers' confidence in The Telegram makes it possible for them to get results from their advertising. Advertising without results is costly at any price.

The increase in circulation is caused by a bigger, better and improving paper at a popular price. Sworn net paid daily circulation last month

DOUBLE TROUBLE IN REAL LIFE

This Man Suggests Telegram Serial Story

Special to The Telegram. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 5.-A remarkable instance of a man endowed with a dual personality, living the life of another person for many years. even marrying a young woman while under that hallucination and giving her the name of a supposed dead friend, whose life he was unconsciously living, has been made public here by physicians who treated the case. The young man is Horace Robbins, ago from England. Two years later he became subject to nervousness. Scientists declare the story of his life to be like a modern collection of Canterbury tales; for when under the consciousness of his other self, which would last for months at a time, Robbins has experienced the emotions that were common in the personalty of the other, and even lost his money fighting for the estate of the dead father of a dead friend, Horace Morrins, in whose spirit his consciousness was merged.

who came to this country ten years

While in one of these spells Robbins married a young woman whose home is in Rochester. The wedding ceremony took place in her grandfather's house at Sodus last Christmas day. The next day Robbins became ill and had a doctor attend him. Ten days later he vanished.

Under the impression he was crossng the Atlantic to adjust his father's affairs, he wandered over the courtry One man subsequently testified hat he thought him drunk, but it since has been proved that Robbins never tasted intoxicating liquors. On Jan. 19 a letter came to his wife, in which he said he had been in a hospital at Sayre, Pa. Dectors went to Sayre, but there is no hospital there. Robbins was found in a neighboring town.

He was placed under special medical treatment, the doctors being J. H. Vary, a general practitioner, and Edward E. Angell, a specialist in neurology. Dr. Vary and his wife took him home and nursed him for a fortnight. He was like a day dreamer, a man hypnotized, occasionally writing business letters and then having spells of delusions, but by Feb. 4 he appeared normal and Then he gave the first story of his life—the first of a contradictory series. His home is in Musselburgh, Scotland, he said; his father is an army officer, who shot himself thru grief, and he himself, the sole survivor of his family, emigrated to Canada and enlisted in a Canadian contingent for the Boer war, afterward returning by way of England to the dominion. Subsequently going back to England, he said, he awoke one morning in an Edinburgh hospital, and when cured, went to New York for his wedding, but lost all his wedding presents. This tale held good till his aunt,

Miss C., arrived from England and gave glimpses of his real history. His name was not Robbins, but Horace Rawlins, she said. He left England in 1894, and wrote regularly home to his friends until last summer, since which time all letters have been returned unopened.

Thus confronted, his true story was a puzzle to him, but later he admitted his real name and gave out a second extraordinary narrative to explain having taken the name of Robbins. He and Horace Robbins, he said now, graduated from McGill university, Montreal, in engineering, went to Manitoba, where both were ill, Robbins dying, and leaving him his property. Then he assumed the name of Robbins and henceforth lived Robbins' life, with different adventures. But this story, on inquiry, turned out to be a flight of fancy, his friend Robbins being a myth, but he mixed the fiction up with several true incidents such as his wedding.

As time wore on medical attention improved his health physically and restored his normal mentality. Then he committed to writing his final tale, a long narrative with the proviso, "I cannot vouch for all the statements, so I write them, knowing they may be either fact or fancy."

His name, he says, is Horace Rawlins, born on March 25, 1879, at Finchingfield, Essex, and his mother, sisters and brothers reside at Cedar Road Hampton Wick, Middlesex. Neurologist Dr. Angell, who narrates the case, says: "Dr. Vary and myself are satisfied his tales are but creations of an unstable imagination. I am of the opinion that his consciousness when in this state is so akin to hysteria he registers fact and fiction alike. Our belief is absolute in his honesty of purpose and frankness of mind. There is no trace of guile in word or act."

278 CONGRESSMEN TO BE ELECTED

Democratic Nominations in All But Thirteen Districts

Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, Nov. 5 .- Whatever may be the result of the congressional elections Tuesday the republicans have already the start of eight memberstwo in Oregon, two in Vermont and four in Maine having already been elected. All of these were re-elections. Elections, therefore, to complete the choice of 386 districts are to be held in 278 districts.

The lists of nominations given out by the congressional campaign committees of the two parties show the republicans have made nominations in 332 districts, while the democrats have made nominations in 365 districts. This excess in the number of districts in which the democrats made nominations is accounted for by the fact that in only fifty-nine of 109 districts in ten southern states have the republicans made nominations.

Many Republicans Renominated In only thirteen districts, and they in northern states, have the democrats failed to make nominations. The renominations number 304-197 republicans and 107 democrats. The present complexion of the house is 249 republicans and 137 democrats; 52 republicans and 30 democrats have not been renominated. This year the soctalist and prohibition parties made in an unusually large number of districts, the former having to its credit 183 and the latter 160. Other parties or ideas represented by candidates with the number of nominations made, are as follows: Other Political Parties

Policyholders' Association Secretary Declares Peabody's Methods Unwarranted

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Nov. 5 .- The following statement was given out last evening by Russell W. Fish, secretary of the Mutual Life Policyholders' Associa-

"The unwarranted methods adopted by President Peabody and other officers of the Mutual Life in electioneering have not only aroused the indignation and protest of policyholders thruout the country, but have also stirred up the insurance departments of a number of states, notably Kentucky, Michigan, Tennessee, Minnesota and Missouri. At the request of the Mutual Life Policyholders' Association a number of state insurance commissioners will soon meet in New York to make a thoro investigation of these matters. The charges against the present management of the Mutual by Calvin Tompkins, vice president of the Mutual Life Policyholders' Association, and filed with the Mutual Oct. 10, 1906, which charges President Peabody has declined to investigate, will probably form the basis for this investigation." In a letter addressed to the members of the executive committee. the county commissioner's court. The judges are evenly divided between the ocratic and republican parties. election is to be held under the provisions of the Terrell election law, and for the benefit of those who are unacquainted with the provision of this law and the method of voting now in vogue in Texas the following expla-

The official ballot this year will be sixteen inches wide by twenty-two inches long; it contains seven tickets and will be designated as the "blanket ballot;" that is, the candidates of all political parties will be upon the same ballot, but in different columns and in addition to the names of the several thereof, there will be a blank column in which parties may write the name of any person whom they desire to vote for for office, if the person is not already on the ballot as the nominee of some political party. For instance, if a voter desires to vote for all the nominees of the Democratic party except | Nov. 1. those for governor, member of congress, county attorney and county judge, and desires to vote for the nominee of the Republican party for governor, and for the nominee of the Prohibition party for congress and for the independent candidate for county attorney, and desires to vote against all the nominees of the people's party, and for some person for county judge whose name is not on the official ballot, he will proceed to vote as follows: He will run a line entirely thru the ticket of the people's party. On the ticket of the Democratic party he will run a line thru the nominees for governor, congress, county attorney and county judge.

He will run a line thru each of the nominees of the Republican party except that for governor. He will run a line thru the name of each of the nominees of the Prohibition party except that for congress. He will run a line thru the name of each of the independent candidates except that for county attorney.

He will write the name of the party for whom he desires to vote for county judge in the blank column under the title of that office.

In no event must a voter write upon the ticket of any political party the name of any person for whom he desires to vote. If the name does not appear upon the official ballot, write it in the blank column under the title of the office to which you desire him If the voter desires to vote the straight ticket of any political party, run a line thru all other tickets.

SUNDAY RAIDERS INVADE SALOONS

The county attorney's office was given a tip Sunday afternoon that a number of saloons in the lower part of the city were doing business thru side doors and a raiding party was speedtorney Roy and Deputy Sheriff Tom When to assist him, and a round Warren to assist him, and a round of the downtown district was made. A large number of locations were visited but there was nothing doing there and the raid was extended further with better results. Several places were found open on the side and the fruits of the raid were: Gabe Shegog, Bob Davis, Dan Ryan, Charles Goldstein, Jim Liston and W. M. Robinson against all of whom charges of having their places of business open on Sunday were filed.

The monotony of the raid was broken when the raiders went to Bob Davis' place. Deputy Sheriff Wren entered the saloon before he was observed, and as soon as his presence was discovered, it is alleged, Davis drew a gun, but before he had an opportunity to use it he was struck on the head with a gun by Wren, and being commanded to put up his weapon, he did so, claiming that he did not know at the time he made his gun play who Wren was. In addition to the charge of having his place open on Sunday a charge of assault to murder was filed against Davis in Justice Rowland's court. He waived an examining trial and his bond was fixed at $750. Later, however, this charge was dismissed and information was filed instead charging Davis with aggravated assault.

COUNTY NOW HAS FUND OF $107,479

County Treasurer W. H. Hart has completed his financial report for the quarter ending Oct. 31, which will be submitted to the commissioners' court at the opening of the November term next Monday morning. The treasurer's report shows that Tarrant county has cash now on hand to the amount of $107,479.35, which is about $24,000 less than the balance brought forward at the beginning of the quarter. The total receipts during the three months amounted to $15,661.61 and the total disbursements $39,565.15.

The receipts and disbursements as divided into the various classes or sources of income and expense are shown in the report as follows: In the jury fund the balance brought forward at the beginning of the quarter was $17.904.72. The receipts during the quarter were $8,095.67, and the disbursements $2.497.20, leaving a balance of $22,503,19.

Road and bridge fund last balance, $25,681.99; receipts, $4.393.23; dis-bursements, $21,152.51, leaving balance now $8,922,71. General county fund-Balance, $40 .-

$12,400.60. Court house fund-Balance, $36,-437.96; receipts, $723.76; no disbursements, leaving a balance now of $37,-

The greatest drain on the county treasury during the quarter was in the road and bridge department, over $21,000 being expended in this way and the least expense to the county is credited to the refunding bond department with disbursements of only

The largest cash balance is held by the court house fund and the lowest balance is in the road and bridge fund. The county has done more in the way of new bridges this quarter than perhaps ever before in one period of three months and this, together with the new county road work, has brought down the balance considerably for the new quarter to work on, beginning

ELECTION EVE IN NEW YORK

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Nov. 5 .- Today witnesses the closing scenes in one of the most remarkable political campaigns in the history of the Empire

By midnight last night public word had been spoken and nothing remains but the story to be told by the ballots themselves. Who the hero of the tale will be cannot be forecast with any certainty.

The old-time methods of anticipating results of an election have been rendered almost useless. Party lines in many sections of the state almost, if not quite, obliterated. Political affiliations of a life time have been thrown aside and thousands of voters will tomorrow follow their chosen leader rather than any party. As an illustration of the conditions which exist in the respective leaders the great parties are basing estimates on what they claim a careful canvass are widely different in conclusions as to what the result will tell. Managers of the republican and democratic and Independence league campaigns each announced himself convinced that his candidate would have a plurality of at least 200,000 votes.

Charles E. Hughes, republican candilate for governor, will address seven meetings this afternoon and evening in various sections in New York.

Mr. Hearst, democratic and Independence league candidate, will address three and possibly four meetings tonight.

Fears are entertained that the ballots for use in great New York in tomorrow's election might not be printed in time for distribution as a result from a delay arising from the nomination contests in New York county, which were only ended today. Early today the last two million ballots required for the election came from the press and the work of distribution to the various polling places begun. A little over seventy-two hours were consumed in printing the ballots.

Roosevelt Interested By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5,-Official Washington is looking forward to the results of the election in forty-two states tomorrow with many evidences of anxious interest. The President is most largely concerned in the outcome in New York state, where thru Secretary Root he has made known his attitude regarding the situation.

The President is particularly anxious that the next house shall be of his political faith. With a hostile political body in the lower branch of congress the President may be frequently ham-

I am informed that some of the documents, copies of which I do not have, tend to show that several bills affecting the interest of the said tobacco trust were defeated at the capitol of this commonwealth at the last session of our general court (Massachusetts legislature) by practices which are a part of this systematic scheme. I am informed that the proprietors of said Collier's Weekly have purchased the evidence for a large sum of money under a contract to publish the same not later than ten weeks after the first day of August; that the last day for publication has expired and that said Collier's Weekly has refused to publish the same according to contract.

"I am further informed that Collier's Weekly is delaying publication of this evidence in violation of its contract until after election, lest it should have an injurious effect on republican candidates on election day. Therefore I respectfully request you to obtain the same evidence and transmit forthwith in order that I may begin an immediate inquiry into such acts occurring in my jurisdiction as may be disclosed by an investigation of said acts." In making public the letter Mr.

Moran also gave to the press copies of many letters, telegrams and codes, one letter being from Hughes. Hughes asserts that he bought a second-hand desk in Marion, Ind., last April. Mr. Hughes said the desk was full of correspondence and documents revealing certain transactions with the so-called tobacco trust endeavored to interest President Roosevelt and Governor Hanley of Indiana, but was unsuccessful. He then sold the documents to Collier's under contract to be published Oct. 9 last.

Davidson, attorney general of the Lone Star stae, before Notary Robert Funkhouser in room No. 705, Carleton building, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Doyle and Watson, process servers, have served subpenas on a number of prominent St. Louis men during the last week. H. Clay Pierce, whose testimony and arrest will be remembered in connection with the proceedings against the Waters-Pierce Oil company, brought by Attorney General Hadley of Missouri will be one of the conspicuous persons called upon to give vidence against the Waters-Pierce

Mr. Pierce will be requested to tell what agreement officials of the Waters-Pierce Oil company of Texas made with the Standard Oil company. It is believed that his testimony given before Notary Funkhouser next Wednesday will be as sensational as his efforts to keep away from Attorney General Hadley of Missouri. The name of United States Senator Joseph Bailey of Texas is likely to be. linked with the alleged deal between the two great oil combines, it is said. Senator Bailey recently came into prominence in connection with the case, and it was stated that some sensational testimony along that line would be divulged when the taking of depositions begins. The Waters-Pierce Oil company of Texas is operating under the laws of Texas as an independent company, but evidence now in possession of Attorney General Davidson, it is said, shows that the Texas company has been absorbed by the Standard Oil company. Several prominent attorneys from Texas will appear in St. Louis in defense of the Waters-Pierce Oil com-

Working Up Interest

Special to The Telegram. TEMPLE Texas, Nov. 5.-W. W. Hair, chairman of the Beli county democratic executive committee, is endeavoring to stir up interest among the voters in order that a respectable vote be cast at the general election to be held Tuesday. He is sending out literature concerning the proposed amendments to the constitution in order that the voters may study same and vote intelligently thereon. If Bell county polls less than 3,000 of her 10,000 votes at the election the county will not be subject to the provisions of the fee bill, which would mean greatly increased compensation for certain county officers.

Heat on Tobacco Improves It Like Reasting Improves Green Coffee, Heat Bevelops the Stimulating Aroma and Taste found in Schnapps Tobacco and Coffee

Three ways are used by farmers for curing and preparing their tobacco for the market; namely sun cured, air cured and flue cured. The old and cheap way is called air cured; the later discovery and improved way is called flue cured.

In flue curing the tobacco is taken from the fields and racked in barns especially built to retain heat and there subjected to a continuous high temperature, produced by the direct heat of flame heated flues, which brings out in the tobacco that stimulating taste and aroma that expert roasting develops in green coffee. These similar processes give to both tobacco and coffee the cheering and stimulating quality that popularizes their use.

The quality of tobacco depends much on the curing process and the kind of soil that produces it, as expert tests prove that this flue cured tobacco, grown in the famous Piedmont region, requires and takes less sweetening than tobacco grown in any other section of the United States and has a wholesome, stimulating, juicy, full tobacco taste that satisfies tobacco hunger. That's why chewers prefer Schnapps, because Schnapps cheers more than any other chewing tobacco, and that's why chewers of Schnapps pass the good thing along —one chewer makes other chewers. until the fact is established that there are more chewers and more pounds of tobacco chewed to the population in states where Schnapps tobacco is sold than there are in those states where Schnapps has not yet been offered to the trade.

A 10c. plug of Schnapps is more economical than a much larger 10c. plug of cheap tobacco. Sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts. Strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.

PLAN TO INCORPORATE

Hebrew Relief Society to Make Application at Once

After several weeks of consideration it was finally decided at a meeting of the members Sunday night to incorporate the Hebrew Relief Society, there being considerable prestige gained thereby. The meeting was held in the new synagogue in Taylor street and the following committees were appointed to arrange and make application for the charter at once: On charter, Sam Gilbert and I. N. Mehl; on by-laws, L. F. Shanblum, J. Goldstein, B. Z. Friedman, Dr. Joseph Jasin and Mr Mehl of the charter committee said Monday morning that application would be made to the state department at Austin this week, as the society is anxious to incorporate without delay. He also said that it was only after considerable discussion of the matter of consolidating all the city Jewish societies in one corporate body, it was decided to incorporate the Hebrew Relief Society separately. This society is a charity organization and is accomplishing much among the needy Jews of the city.

THOSE CONSTITUTIONAL

familiar with the constitutional amendments to be voted upon Tuesday, Nov. 6, as they should be. These amendments are of considerable importance and should be considered with due and proper consideration by every intelligent voter. They were submitted to the people by the Twenty-ninth legislature and are three in number. One relates to certain exemptions from taxation, another provides for the levying of a special tax for the payment of juries, and the third involves an increase in the legislative salary. The full text of the three proposed amendments is as follows:

the state of Texas: Sec. 1. That Sec. 2 of Art. VIII. of the constitution of the state of Texas be so amended that the same shall read as follows, to wit:

and uniform upon the same class of subjects within the limits of the authority levying the tax; but the legislature may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes; actual places of religious (worship; places of burial not held for private or corporate profit; all buildings used exclusively and owned by persons or associations of persons for school purposes and the necessary furniture of all schools, also the endowment funds of such institutions of learning and religion not used with a view to profit and when the same are invested in bonds or mortgages, or in land or other property which has been and shall nereafter be brought in by such institutions under foreclosure sales made to satisfy or protect such bonds or mortgages; that such exemption of such land and property shall continue only for two years after the purchase of the same at such sale by such institutions and no longer, and institutions of purely public charity: and all laws exempting property from taxation other than the property above mentioned shall be null and war is a story of a dinner party given by Americans reading in Paris at which were propounded sundry toasts concerning not so much the past and present as the expected glories of the great American nation.

In the general character of these toasts geographical considerations were very prominent, and the principal fact which seemed to occupy the minds of the speakers was the unprecedented bigness of our country. "Here's to the United States," said the first speaker, Bounded on the north by British America, on the south by the Gulf of Mexico, on the east by the Atlantic and on the west by the Pacific ocean." "But," said the second speaker, "this future which is prescribed for us by the manifest destiny of the Anglo-Saxon race. "Here's to the United States. "If we are going," said this truly patriot American, "to leave the historic past and present and take our manifest destiny into account, why restrict ourselves within the narrow limits assigned by our fellow countryman who has just sat down. I give you the United States. Bounded on the north by the Aurora Borealis, on the south by the precession of the equinoxes, on the east by the primeval chaos and on the west by the Day of Judgment."

Meteor Comes Near Sinking Vessel at Cape Race

RED HAT STORY

Epecial to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Nov. 5 .- When the Phenix liner St. Andrew, from Antwerp, tied up alongside her pier in Hoboken Sunday the sole topic of conversation was the narrow escape of the freighter from being melted and sunk by a red-hot sagment of a star that fell alongside last Tuesday afternoon, when the vessel was sixty miles to the eastward of Cape Race.

First Officer V. Spencer, who was on the bridge at the time, told how the meteor with a flaming tail "a mile long" came zigzagging out of the southern sky a half hour before sunset and disappeared in the sea with a roar and sizzle that terrified the crew, who saw the awesome spectacle.

That the ship passed thru a large shower of meteors there is no doubt, for just before the big one dropped, ess than a mile away there were three smaller ones ahead that could be plainly seen in the twilight.

er—purely as a fighter—of the Alvord stripe. He was so occupied with plans for the next day's battle that the dubious features of the contest were already clearing up in his mind with the forming of plans for attacking the situation. A few hours of sleep, and he was up and at them. His telephone called up the editors of the town with the morning star. Long before the enemy could have known of the breach in his works, his trusty troops were busy dilling it up. He was almost happy again, when Edgington rushed into his presence with a newspaper crushed in his clenched fist and all sorts of disaster depicted in his expression. "Jim," he cried, "have you seen this?"

"No," answered Alvord. "It ain't that Scarlett business? I thought I'd got Nearly all of the jockeys have arrived and the owners are either represented or here in person, while such famous plungers and bookies as 'Frisco" Gardner, Captain Williamson, Wiliam Newmann and others have already taken up their winter quarters. A reliable report has it that Judge Francis Trevelyan will not be associated with the City Park track this winter, and, altho Judge Trevelyan has not concurred in the rumor himself, his friends think that his retirement is probable. Judge Joseph Murphy, who was Trevelyan's associate at City Park last year, will resume his duties when the track opens.

I am, your commander, camp and the committee discharged with a vote of thanks for their good work. A check for $500 was made out payable to Mrs. Baugh of San Antonio treasurer of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and mailed to her address. On motion of Historian Cummings, it was ordered that the $8.65 over and above the $500 raised by the committee be turned over to Julia Jackson camp, Daughters of the Confederacy. Commander John A. Kee of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, reported that the Halloween entertainment given by the Sons and Daughters had netted $25.80, half of which was due the Daughters, which he turned ever to Mrs. F. L. Jordan. This money will also go to the woman's home fund. W. H. Mack was made chairman of the committee appointed to raise and

That long looked for and widely heralded musical satire, "The Sultan of Sulu," will play an engagement at Greenwall's opera house Tuesday matinee and night, Nov. 6. The words and lyrics are by George Ade, the famous Indiana humorist, and the music is provided by Alfred G. Walthall. Full election returns read from stage during night performance.

Field's Minstrels The scenic artist and costumer have worked in harmony in outlining the stage effects introduced in "The Gridiron Club," the burlesque feature in the first part of the performance of the Al G. Field Greater Minstrels, to be seen at Greenwall's opera house Wednesday and Thursday nights and matinee Taursday, Nov. 7-8. The scene is enacted in the lobby of the Arlington notel, in Washington, with a banquet in progress.

"The Toast of the Town"

Jane Kennark is announced to appear in Viola Allen's last season's success, "The Toast of the Town," by Clyde Fitch at Greenwall's opera house Friday matinee and night, Nov. 9. She will be surrounded by an able company. The equipment carried in the original company will be used.

"In Old Kentucky" Jacob Litt's big organization presenting "In Old Kentucky" will soon visit this city again. Now in the fourteenth season of its unparalleled career it still maintains the lead in the list of popular stage offerings. Bert Clarke will play "The Colonel," the role originated by him, and Cffarles K. French will be seen as "Uncle Neb," also his original characterization. Geo. Mitchell, Frank Dayton, J. J. Sullivan and Miss Julia Morton are other well known people in the company. The leading role of "Madge" will be played by a young and charming actress, still in her teens-Miss Marie Quinn, who is said to compare most favorably with other prominent actresses who have been identified with the role, "In Old Kentucky" at Greenwall's opera house Saturday matinee and night, Nov. 10.

Wells, who has captured an immense clientele of admirers. Wells is an artist, not a mere performer. He is original and not an imitator. He is Lew Wells, and that means that he is inimitable, as he has been pronounced everywhere in the United States where he has appeared Mr. Wells' humor is infectious and makes mighty good with any audience, but on the saxophone he is as the urchins say "all there." Saxophones are queer instruments, but they have been heard here often. Until Lew Wells wrapped himself around a saxophone over at the Majestic, no one ever guessed just what a mighty instrument it was. J. T. Coppage James F. Prosser, one of the most efficient subordinate officials in Tarrant county, or the state for that matter, and who has served as a deputy in the county cterk's office for the past fifteen years, has resigned his position as clerk for the county commissioners and J. T. Coppage has been appointed to succeed him for the remainder of Clerk Rogers' term. Mr. Prosser has been at Mineral Wells for a couple of weeks for a rest up. It is reported about the court house that Mr. Prosser will accept a position in the collector's office under Collector Bob Davis, and that Mr. Coppage will retain his position under John A. Kee, the new county clerk, but there is no official confirmation of the reports. MAKE FURTHER DEMAND

Switchmen Not Satisfied with 2-Cent Advance

In the hope of inducing further concessions in advanced wages than the 2 cents an hour offered by the managers of the railways, a further conference is to be held in Chicago Monday afternoon between the officials of the union and the railway officials. The eight-hour day demand is to be reiterated, without the determination to insist on that, but an insistence will be made for a better rate of pay than the 2-cent advance. Railway Notes and Personals Effective Nov. 1, the Philadelphia and Reading announces an advance of ployes whose monthly pay is less than $200 per month. The increase will better the financial condition of fully 25,000 men in the employ of the com-

The real cause for Eczema is the presence of humors and sour acids in the blood. These impurities get into the circulation because of imperfect action of those members of the system whose duty it is to collect and carry off the refuse and waste of the body. As this effete matter lies in the system it ferments and generates acrid humors which are absorbed into the blood, overcharging this vital fluid with acid. In its effort to keep the system healthy the blood throws off the humors through the pores and glands of the skin, causing this tormenting skin disease. The escape of acids and humors through the pores and glands irritates and burns the skin, producing pustules filled with a clear, sticky fluid, which dries in crusts and patches causing the most intense itching, and often pain. The trouble is in the blood, and S. S. S. is the remedy for Eczema, because it is a real blood purifier. It goes down into the circulation, removes all acids and humors and makes the blood rich, pure and healthy. When S. S. S. has done this the symptoms pass away, the blood is cooled and the disease cured permanently. Nothing acts so promptly or pleasantly in all skin diseases as S. S., and it is at the same time a fine tonic to the entire system. Book on Skin Diseases and medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

All Lines of Stocks Advance, with Reading Leader-Money Rate

Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Nov. 5 .- The opening of the stock market was quite strong, reflecting the renewed strength shown in Saturday's close. The values thru the entire list on the boards at the stock exchange showed an advance. The further retirement of short contracts on the part of the bear interests and the nervousness felt by being without cover over election caused some further improvement in the market The liquidation toward the last of the week is expected to be heavy, and if the ballot tomorrow is favorable, considerable buying from London is expected, which will add further strength to the market. More than ordinary interest was shown in the developments in London, and it is regarded that no reasons to fear that this side will be able to retain all the gold on hand and which has been received from abroad. while the liquidation of American stocks from that quarters has practically run its course.

Steels are receiving the best kind of support, as also is Pennsylvania and Reading. Northwestern, New York Central and Copper stocks were also among the leaders in today's transactions. Reading made almost a sensational advance, and all the other stocks felt the influence. Money was quoted at noon at 7 to 6% per cent. Quotations

NEW YORK COTTON

Further Losses From Saturday's Close Sustained-Nervous Market Expected Till Ginners' Report

Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5 .- The opening of the cotton market was very disappointing. It was expected to have opened about 7 points up, but heavy pressure from several quarters caused prices to be offered down below Saturday's closing prices. There was scarcely any buying power, and the market showed a heavy bearish tendency, making a steady decline from the opening till the day's operations were well advanced, and was discouraging to any one on the bull side of the account. The weather map shows seasonable weather, tho the market is expected to be very nervous until Thursday, when the report of the amount of cotton ginned to Nov. 1 will be made. The sentiment is bearish. The heavy crop estimates, as well as other contingencies, is having its effect. The harvest season is now in full swing, and the interest, so far as the weather is concerned, has narrowed down to its effect on picking operations. Dry, clear weather will permit the labor in the fields to continue, and the free use of the country roads for hauling to market. There is said to be much cotton yet to be marketed, but the good weather will enable the bales to be hauled to the inland shipping points, which is very much desired. As far as the crop is concerned, it is about made, and all energies are now bent on picking and housing it. In many portions of the cotton belt killing frosts have been experienced, and even where the temperature has not been low empugh to stop all further growth, it has been gathering the crop every day. The fine weather of the past few weeks, which has prevailed over the greater portion of the belt has permitted great progress to be made in the picking operations, and the movement has been on an enormous scale, the amount into sight having broken all previous records. This movement is attributed mainly to good weather and the heavy export demands which has

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Further Declines Under Bearish Pressure-Futures in Great Contrast With Spots Special to The Telegram

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5 .- The market opened at a further loss, with the sentiment decidedly bearish. Futures were in a great contrast to the spot market. In many cases exporters positively refused new business because they were unable to get the cotton to cover with except at big losses. The fact that tomorrow is a holiday in both American markets lead the trade to try to discount the forthcoming census report, which is to be issued Thursday. This report covers the number of bales ginned to Nov. 1, and will compare with 6.483,-646 bales last year. A marked tendency to increase the estimate has been in evidence lately. On the other side of the ocean the estimate of thirteen million bales is a favorite figure but in this country the general average of opinions places it at twelve million. Notwithstanding there is a growing disposition to export a large crop than was expected earlier in the season. While the weather from now on will have little effect on the further development of the plant, it wil surely have a great deal to do with the size of the crop. Good weather will help to save that which is now made, whereas bad weather would cause the loss of a great deal of cotton in the fields by stopping work

Opening in Wheat Market Steady. May Good Seller-Oats Strong. Pork Products Off

Special to The Telegram. CHICAGO, Nov. 5,-Wheat opened steady, with the bull and bear sentiment about evenly divided. The demand seemed to be for May wheat, and much of it changed hands, commission houses being fair sellers, and many locals were unloading. Corn strong. Two hundred and seventy - three cars of corn were on the market and were sold for No. 3 and No. 2. The elevator people and receiving interests shipped large quanitles of corn, offered by country shippers and farmers. There was no pressure of old corn, however, and the track bidders say they are buying comparatively little. Cash business in wheat was about 45,000 bushels in mixed lots to millers. Corn sales were about 65,000 bushels and oats 25,000. The sales of Monitoba wheat made at the seaboard for export were large. The stock yards people do not expect a big run of hogs before January, at which time the movement is expected to be heavy. The short interesct in provisions has been largely residered the market long. Cash wheat in Minneapolis was strong, while No. 1 northern was 4c over December, Shipments of contract wheat from public elevators for the week were 824,000, including 72,000

duced, and the professionals were such heavy buyers that the older heads con-

A TEXAS LEAGUE

Meeting Is to Be Held in San Antonio Saturday

A meeting of the magnates of the Texas League was held in Fort Worth Sunday afternoon and a decision was reached in favor of an all-Texas league for the coming season. The meeting was to have been held Monday, but as Roberts of Corsicana telegraphed that he could not get here then, the meeting was changed to Sunday.

W. H. Ward, owner of the Fort Worth franchise, Gardner of Dallas, Roberts of Corsicana and Davidson of Waco were present at the meeting, which discussed merely the one question. Manager Ward was told by the South Texas League management when the question of a consolidation was broached, that if the Texas league was in favor of one league he should call a joint meeting of the two, so after the meeting Sunday Manager Ward set the meeting for San Antonio on Saturday, Nov. 10.

The circuit as now planned calls for four cities in each section of the state. In North Texas the cities sure to go in are Fort Worth and Dallas, with Waco a probability and a fourth city to be ermined. The chances are in favor of Temple, providing that the franchise there goes to Roberts. In the southern half of the state there will be Galveston, Houston, San Antonio and

Manager Ward stated Monday morning that the all-state league was a sure thing, even if the only cities in northern half of the state were Worth and Dallas, and that there would be four other cities in South

The market house proposition, which has been the subject of so much discussion recently, will be submitted to the city council Monday night.

New Orleans Picayune. Yesterday was quite an event in the history of the steamer F. Weyerhaeuser, of the Rock Island Steamship Company. She started on her annual voyage up the Mississippi to Rock Island, Ill., to lay up in winter quarters, and as passengers she carried Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Reimers of Worth, who were married on Tuesday in that city, and are taking a part of their honeymoon trip on the nandsome and comfortable steamer. Captain W. Reed, master of the steamer, has the vessel decorated in keeping with the happy occasion. Tall, rare trees stood in pots at the lower step of the gangway, while on the forward upper deck there were a score of magnificent ferns and potted plants. The long capin with its handsome furnishings, was literally filled with ferns and potted hothouse plants, with a great supply of cut flowers everywhere. The scene was one which would have appealed to any one at any time, but especially to a young couple who had just begun to realize the happiness of married life. Charles D. Reimers is a native of Rock Island and a relative of one of the leading members of the company which owns the steamer. Some years ago he went to Fort Worth and became the owner of The Telegram. one of the bright, hustling afternoon papers of that city. His bride was Miss Linda Ray Saunders, the charming daughter of Dr. Bacon Saunders, one of the most prominent physicians of Fort Worth. They were married on Tuesday and yesterday noon arrived over the Southern Pacific, several hours late. Everything was in readiness aboard the Weverhaeuser by morning, and in the afternoon the steamer got under way for her long trip up the Mississippi, which becomes one of the most picturesque streams of the country when it leaves the flat cotton and sugar districts. There have been all kinds of honeymoon trips in the course of time, but one up the Mississippi aboard a magnificent steamer which the couple has entirely to itself is one of the ideal wedding cruises of modern times. It is really the first one recorded in many years from this port.

Banquet for W. B. King Jr.

W. B. King Jr. was the guest of honor at an elaborate banquet Saturday evening, the hosts being several of his men friends who are wishing him the greatest happiness for his marriage to Miss Mary Dingee, which takes place Wednesday evening. There were as many and beautiful flowers as if the charming bride herself was expected, and the toasts were eloquent indeed. Wright Gaines acted as toastmaster. Klein Ault responded on behalf of the "Bridegroom," Gentry Browne for the "Bride." Mr. King also had a few happy remarks and the evening was a cheerful preparation toward matrimony's fourney. The hosts were Messrs. Klein Ault James Liston, Sam Smith, Ed Caldwell, Gentry Browne, Simpson Carter.

Rain at Abilene. Fair Thruout Cotton

Indian summer weather prevails almost entirely thruout the country with fair prospects for a continuance. Texas temperatures for the past 24 hours have been particularly delight-The minimum in Fort Worth Sunday night was 55 degrees. Everywhere thruout the cotton region the weather is fair, and in Texas the temperatures are several degrees higher than they were the day before. The forecast for Fort Worth and vicinity gives fair and warmer conditions Monday night and partly cloudy weather Tuesday, with about stationary temperature. Texas temperatures as given on the Monday map are as follows: Abilene 62 to 54 degrees, with .01 inch rainfall: Amarillo 64 to 46, Corpus Christi 74 to 62. El Paso 64 to 48, Fort Worth 73 to 55. Galveston 70 to 60, Palestine 74 to 52. San Antonio 78 to 52. Temperatures from various sections of the United States range as follows: Atlanta 68 to 52 degrees, Chicago 56 to 48, Memphis 66 to 42, New Orleans 72 to 60, New York 54 to 36. San Francisco 60 to 52.

ADJOURNS TO DEC. 3

Judge Meek Will Sit With Alabama Court

The United States circuit and district court of the Northern district of Texas met Monday in the court room of the federal building at 10 o'clock and adjourned immediately to Dec. 3 when the term of court will begin here. The first Monday in November is the regular meeting day here, but as Judge Meek was invited to sit on the United States circuit court of appeals in Alabama, the terms of the circuit and district court in Abilene, San Angelo and Fort Worth were postponed four weeks.

The postponement of the term of the lower court has cleared up matters in the federal court room here, as both the circuit and district court of the Northern district of Texas and the circuit court of appeals were scheduled to meet in the same room at the same time.

EXPECT IMPROVEMENTS Ballot Boxes and Supplies Sent to Pre-

Special Election Deputy E. B. Randle finished up his work Monday of distributing the election paraphernalia among the different precincts in the county. Fifty precincts had to be supplied with ballot boxes, tally sheets, stamps, ballots and other stationery, and the work of getting all this stuff in shape and getting it to the different presiding officers has been no insignificant job. It is anticipated on account of the number of tickets on the ballot that the work of getting full returns from the entire county will be slow, but steps have been taken to get enough Monday night to give a good idea of how the vote will stand. The fact that this is a busy season with the farmers, who are rushing to save their cotton, and that there is no opposition to the county ticket except for two offices leads to the belief that the vote will be smaller than it was at the pri-

TICKETS ARE LOST AND CHILDREN PAY

All Children Under Twelve Get Reduced Rates

Somewhere between Chicago and Fort Worth there is a package of half fare street car tickets for school children and while it is being searched for the children pay full fare. The Northern Texas Traction Company has been announcing for two months that they expected the early arrival of the tickets and they are still busy tracing them. The half fare rate will apply to all school children under seventeen years of age and to all children under twelve, whether in school or not. They will be sold in strips of ten tickets for 25 cents. The high school pupils have suffered most because of the failure of the tickets to arrive for the ward schools are centrally located and few children use the cars except in bad weather. It is estimated that there are 2,500 pupils under twelve years of age in the various public schools. A state law requires half fare rates for school children in all cities of forty thousand or more.

Fight for Control of the Illinois Cen-

President Stuyvesant Fish says that he is uninformed as to the outcome of the meeting Wednesday, but that in the event of his defeat there he will carry the fight into the stockholders' meeting next October, when he is confident there will be enough stockholders' votes with him to spoil the Harriman plan. Four of the newly-elected board of directors are favorable to Mr. Fish,

DISCREET NIMRODS

Never Kill More Than 25, Even Self-Defense

Late returns from the fields and forests indicate that there was a wholesale slaughter of quail Saturday that is, if all the reports are true. No hunter who went out Saturday who has been called on for a statement has reported less than twenty-five quail (the limit allowed by law) killed by him, and if every hunter went to the limit the quail crop was materially reduced by the hunters Saturday. Captain Brack Carter made a belated report Monday morning and reported the statutory twenty-five birds killed on the wing, but supplemented it with a statement that his buggy run over and killed a half dozen as he was returning to the city. "And I didn't have the heart to leave them in the middle of the road, and just gathered them up," he said He also said that he met another party of four hunters who had an even 100 quail in their bags.
