

ANDIT BALKED BY CONDUCTOR

Lone Highwayman Captured by Nervy Ticket Taker. GAGGED $2,000.00. But Lost it all and His Revolver, When He Went up Against Car Employee.

This is the tale of a bandit bold, who is wiser now by far than when in his search for gems and gold he tackled a Pullman car. For the con was wise to hold-up games—All Pullman tricks he knew. And the bandit barely saved his clothes. Do you blame him for feeling blue?

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 26.—A lone bandit held up and robbed the passengers on the smoker of a chair car on the Chicago and Alton train which left here at 9 o'clock this morning while the train was running between Slater and Armstrong, Mo. At Glasgow he left the train, climbed on the rear sleeper and as about to rob the sleeper passengers when Conductor E. B. Heywood overpowered him and took away his revolver.

With the passengers' assistance the man was bound and taken from the train at Armstrong and placed in the Glasgow jail. He gave the name of Claude Rondal, but is believed to be Clyde Truehart. He says his brother recently robbed the Golden State Liner at Slater. It is reported he secured $2,000 in money and jewelry, which the conductor took from him. While robbing the passengers he said he wouldn't take money from a laboring man or woman.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 26.—A lone robber, masked and armed, robbed fifteen and Alton passenger train No. 3, Glasgow, Mo., after midnight. He was arrested before he could leave the train as it was taken down and placed in jail. The robbery is known as the "Bird". It left Kansas City at 11 o'clock Sunday night and was due at Slater at 12:22 o'clock Monday morning. At Slater, the robber, wearing a mask over his eyes, boarded the train as it was pulling out. The train had gained speed the man, revolver in hand, entered the cars and began his systematic robbery of the passengers. Fifteen of them were made to disgorge.

As the train passed thru Glasgow, at which point it does not stop, the man was seen at work by the station agent, who wired the chief dispatcher of the Missouri Pacific, the station east of Glasgow, was notified and officers were at the station there to meet the train when it pulled in. No stop was made, ordinarily at Armstrong, and the robber, evidently satisfied in the belief that he was secure, for this reason suspected no harm when that point was reached. When the train stopped at Armstrong, on orders, and the officers boarded it, they caught the robber red-handed.

The officers believe that the man who committed the robbery is the same man who was thru the Rock Island train earlier in the month. When tonight's robbery was arrested by the Armstrong officers he had gone thru three other trains. After the robbery was held at Armstrong until the next train was due, when he was taken to Glasgow for safe keeping. He refused to give his name and denied he had anything to do with the robbery.

The train robbed is a combination Chicago and Alton and Chicago, Burlington and Quincy passenger. From Kansas City to Mexico, Mo. It is run over the Alton tracks. At Mexico the train cut in two, the Alton portion continuing on to Chicago and the Burlington portion going to St. Louis.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 26.—The robber who held up a Chicago and Alton train near Glasgow, Mo., this morning says that his name is Truehart and that his home is in California. He refused to tell what town he came. He secured $2,000 in money besides several watches, all of which were recovered and returned to the passengers.

The engineer of the train identified the robber as the same man who held up the Rock Island train near Glasgow early this month.

ROBBERS KILL HOTEL KEEPER

Fatal Revolver Fight Occurs at Kansas City. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 26.—In an attempt to hold up and rob J. Frank Emory, proprietor of the Kentucky house, a second-rate hotel at 905 North Sixth street in Kansas City, Kan., Sunday evening, Emory was shot and killed and Lee Simmons, a negro porter, was shot in the shoulder and slightly wounded. Charles Rumble, aged 32, an iron molder from Independence, Mo., one of the would-be robbers, was shot in the cheek by officers who pursued him. Rumble and a man named Hutton were intoxicated. They entered the hotel, and walking to the desk, told Emory to hand over his money. Two guests were in the lobby at the time. Emory told them to get out, that he had no money. The men staggered from the desk apparently to make their departure. When they reached a door, however, Rumble braced himself against it and with a shaky hand fired two shots at Emory. Guests rushed into the lobby and found the hotel proprietor dead, lying across the hotel register. One bullet from Rumble's revolver went through the second-hand Rumble's chest just below the heart, causing almost instant death.

Rumble and Hutton fled down the stairway. They were encountered by Simmons, the porter, who had been attracted by the shooting and was just ascending the steps. Rumble fired a shot at the porter which struck him in the shoulder, and the robbers pushed him and bolted for the street. Rumble and Hutton were seen by officers on Minnesota avenue, a block from the hotel, and the officers gave chase, firing as they ran. A bullet struck Rumble a glancing blow on the cheek, and caused him, because of his drunken condition, to stagger and fall. Hutton stopped, running, when he saw that Rumble had been shot, and the pair were soon landed in jail.

GRIM REAPER FOLLOWS SEASON

Of Football—Eleven Dead Many Injured. CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—Eleven dead and 104 severely injured is the record in this country for the football season of 1906, according to the resume of the season in the Tribune Sunday. The figures are compared with the figures of 1905 when eighteen players were killed and 149 severely injured and according to the Tribune shows that "debrutalized" football has accomplished in a large degree the object aimed at in rendering the game less dangerous to life and limb.

The decrease in casualties is marked in school games. In 1904 eleven school players were killed and forty injured. In the season just closed seven were killed and seventy were hurt. All the college and high school games this year were played under the new rules drawn up at the close of last season. The value of the new rules is shown in the new record of the big college games. This year not one fatal injury has occurred in the games played by the larger American colleges.

MRS. EDDY OUT IN STATEMENT

Writes Letter to Editor of New York Independent. NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—In the last issue of the Independent appears an original article by Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, in answer to recent criticisms. It is introduced by the following statement of the editor:

In response to a request by the Independent, following the unfounded statements as to her illness, Mrs. Eddy has been good enough to send us this article, which we have received in her own handwriting, and which shows none of that tremulous unevenness which often appears in the graphology of a person of her age, she being in her 86th year. This is the first statement which Mrs. Eddy has made as to recent events, and it is probably the only one she will make. Let error arise in the sickle, and He is separating the tares from the wheat. This hour is molten in the furnace of Soul's harvest, a world-wide, world known, world great. The vine is bringing forth its fruit; the beams of right have healing in their light. The lie and the liar are self-destroyed. Truth is immortal. "Rejoice and be exceedingly glad; for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you." The cycle of good obliterates the evils of evil. Let error arise and imagine a vain thing. Mary Baker Eddy is not dead, and the words of those who say that she is are the fabric of their wish. Her life is proven under trial, and evidences, "As thy day is, so shall thy strength be." Those words of our dear, departed Saviour, breathing love for his enemies, fill my heart: "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." My writings heal the sick, and I thank God that for the past forty years I have returned good for evil. I can appeal to Him as my witness to the truth of this statement.

What we love determines what we are. I love the prospect of Zion, be it promoted by Catholic, by Protestant or by Christian Science, which anoints with truth, opening the eyes of the blind and healing the sick. I would no more quarrel with a man because of his religion than I would because of his color. When I wrote "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," I little understood all that I indited. I practiced its precepts, healing the sick and reforming the sinner, then I learned the truth of what I had written.

It is of comparatively little importance what a man thinks or believes he knows; the good that a man does, and one thing needful and the sole proof of righteousness. Concord, N. H., Nov. 12, 1906.

The fourth anniversary celebration of the incorporation of North Fort Worth will begin at 7:30 tonight. The trains bringing the carnival attractions of the Metropolitan Amusement Company arrived Monday in two sections from Lawton, O. T., and an army of people were immediately set to work placing the shows, and getting ready for the performances to be given on time tonight. The attractions are being placed on Main street, from Twelfth to Fourteenth streets, and on Central avenue. All the local arrangements are also complete in every detail, and nothing but the worst kind of bad weather can prevent the celebration being a big success.

Even at an early hour in the afternoon the crowds began to gather and the streets of North Fort Worth were thronged with people, trying to get a peep into the animal cages and taking a look at the big elephant, which was

COWAN OPENS FOR THE STATE

Suit Against Railroad Commission at Austin

IN FEDERAL COURT

H. & T. C. and Other Roads Ask Injunction as Result of 2-1-2 Cent Fare Ruling

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 24.—The Federal court presented an array of legal talent this morning when Judge Maxey asked the gentlemen if they were ready to proceed with the injunction suits on behalf of the railroads against the railroad commission. The original case is that of the Houston and Texas Central enjoining the 2½-cent passenger rate put in by the commission. This was followed on the part of the road by a general attack on the commission, including all of its rules and regulations. The state is represented by Attorney General Davidson, Judge Cowan of Fort Worth and J. C. Chamell of Houston. All of the railway's general attorneys were present. Judge Davidson announced that the complainants desired to amend their bills, saying it was the desire of the state to read an adjudication of this matter as soon as possible. Judge Stedman announced that it was the desire to amend the bills so as to improve the allegations, and it was no desire to delay the hearing of demurrers.

BANK CLEARINGS PASS $2,000,000

Usual Monday Record—Smashing Stunt Repeated

Bank clearings have at last reached the two million mark for one day. The new single day's record was made today when the clearings reached $2,137,151.50, an increase in the record of over $200,000 at one time. If it were not for the bank holiday Thursday the total clearings for the week would probably go way over the $10,000,000 mark for the first time in history. The new mark reached this morning kept the clerks of the clearing house busy for some time and shows up in the work of the individual bookkeepers of the banks, who will probably remain on duty later than usual tonight, checking up.

ONE WOMAN'S ACCOMPLISHMENT

Ida Tarbell is vindicated. The government has finally attacked the very citadel of the Standard Oil Company. The attorney general, by his suit instituted in the federal court at St. Louis, charges the rebate-fostering, competition-crushing outlaw with conspiracy in restraint of trade. Every essential charge made by Miss Tarbell in her exposure is repeated and put in the form of legal allegation. Miss Tarbell told of the illegal crushing and unfair manipulation of the price of oil. She told of the organization of bogus independent companies made in order to drive out the real independent companies. She told of the division of the country into districts, each district carrying out the general trade plot. She told of the secret arrangement with the railroads, by which the Standard product was carried at from one-half to one-sixth the rate paid by competitors. She told how the pipe lines, chartered as common carriers, were monopolized by the Standard. She told how the railroad companies were controlled and dominated by the purchase of stock and the election of Standard directors. All these things were carefully deduced from the records by Miss Tarbell and made common knowledge. But that the government should actually move in a determined effort to kill this gigantic trust was scarcely believable. The person who more than any other started the reform of the insurance companies was Thomas Lawson. The person who more than any other started the government attack on the biggest trust in the world was Ida Tarbell.

A MILLIONAIRE BASS DRUMMER

Simon Bernheimer of New York, aged 50, who has made $15,000,000 in the brewing business, beats the bass drum in a brass band. His greatest longing when a boy was to be permitted to pound a big drum as long and loudly as he wished. About five years ago, after he had made his millions, the boss in banking came back and he joined a band. He held the post of bass drummer with great satisfaction to himself until the band broke up and threw him upon the cold mercies of a drumless world. It was suggested to Bernheimer that he was able to own a whole band. He took the hint and now has a fine organization of sixty pieces. It costs him $20,000 a year, but that is not much for him. The millionaire, it is said, takes great delight in calling on his band members for prizes in which the bass drummer does a specialty. His performance is good, but if he misses a note

Among the Exchanges

Judge Henry S. Priest of St. Louis of counsel for the Waters-Pierce Company admitted yesterday that the Standard Oil Company owns a controlling interest in the Waters-Pierce Company, and then he asked: "What are you going to do about it?" Give it up.—Dallas Times-Herald.

The Houston Chronicle complains that the carnival was made the occasion for much rowdiness and that there were many drunks followed by some remorse; that helpless women were in some cases insulted; that even in one instance the audience had to be called in; that the ambulance was in frequent demand; that gambling houses were openly run, and that in conditions of affairs existed.—Brownwood Bulletin.

WHOSE PROSPERITY?

The present prosperity of the American people says President Roosevelt in his Thanksgiving proclamation, has never been equaled in any country in the history of the world. Even as strong language as this does not sufficiently convey to the mind a full realization of the truth. Our industrial prosperity is measured in figures so vast that it is difficult to grasp their whole meaning. In a recent census bulletin we are told that in 1905 the total value of the product of American factories reached the enormous sum of $18,866,706,393. This total showed an increase in five years almost as great as the increase during the ten years preceding.

In five years we had added 755,298 wage earners to our pay rolls, increased the amount of wages paid by $601,804,732, and the amount of output by $3,391,925,965.

These are fine figures. They are enough to make even a man with empty pockets burrah for this glorious period. But of special significance to the thoughtful are the figures showing the concentration of manufactures in large establishments, which has become one of the conspicuous developments of our economic life.

Altogether, individuals own 52.7 per cent of the manufacturing establishments in the country, and firms 23.2 per cent more, incorporated companies owning but 23.6 per cent of the establishments, produce 73.7 per cent of the total value of all goods manufactured. More than 37 per cent of all capital employed in the manufacturing industry is invested in establishments having a capital of $100,000 or over, and more than 81 per cent in establishments having capital in excess of $100,000.

It is fine to see the big figures of prosperity. But it is no narrow pestilism which looks beyond them and feels concerned that great aggregations of capital should take so large a share of the prosperity to themselves. If our marvelous industrial progress is not enriching the millions, it is at least making innumerable millionaires.

Possibly prosperity for the great trusts is better than no prosperity at all—possibly none. But the ideal prosperity which is country of boundless natural resources ought to have, not only for short periods but for all time, is that which would bring better conditions of labor and life to the masses.

IGNORANCE OF THE BIBLE

Prof. William Lyon Phelps of Yale says "the ignorance of college students in biblical literature is universal, profound and complete." He gives two amusing incidents: He asked one student what Shakespeare meant by the phrase, "Here feel we not the penalty of Adam," and the student replied: "It was the work upon Adam for having slain his brother."

He asked another the meaning of "Golgotha." After pondering awhile the reply was made: "It means Goliath."

Prof. Phelps says he has made careful investigation and finds that such incidents as these are common in American colleges. He says if he were appointed examiner for admission to college he would cut out every list of books and confine the examination to the authorized version of the Bible.

And if what he says is true the professor is not so far out of the way as to his requirement for admission to college. Ignorance of the Bible is crass ignorance. The men of a former generation were not so. The public men especially knew their Bibles thoroughly and that knowledge was a source of great power. The scriptures were largely drawn upon by speakers and writers for purposes of illustration and enforcement.

Apart from their sacred character the Old and New Testament Scriptures form a body of the best English composition known to men. The noblest prose and the highest poetry are contained in the purest and simplest diction extant.

When a man in the old days received a liberal education from the Bible alone. ALWAYS WAS SICK. When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say—he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Such cases exist.

Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and had not a sick day since. The whole lot I did for me," said by Covey & Martin. It rarely fails to cure rheumatism because it supplies the blood with the necessary substance to absorb the poison of rheumatism-uric acid. This is what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. UNUSUAL MARRIAGE

MOUNT PLEASANT, Texas, Nov. 24. There has just been consummated a marriage in this city that was considerably out of the ordinary. This marriage took place behind prison bars in the county jail and the groom has sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of years for a crime committed before the marriage.

The bride was Miss Pama Phylaw of Collin county, and was the second time the couple went thru with the marriage ceremony. Two years ago Sam Townsend and Miss Rosa Steadman were married in this county and Townsend was later indicted for forging an order for $150 to get his license. He was arrested and Miss Rosa Steadman had him in charge and disappeared, only being located in Collin county recently. When the sheriff went after him he found Townsend had married again without being divorced from his first wife, and was then indicted for bigamy in this county. He was convicted in McKinney on this charge and given two years in the penitentiary and brought here and tried on the forgery charge, getting a two-year term. While he was confined in jail here his first wife sued for divorce and obtained a decree from the court in Dallas. She came down from Collin county and the couple were again married, the nuptials being witnessed by the other prisoners in the county jail. And this ends a romance which began two years ago and resulted disastrously because of a man who did not have the coin of the realm necessary to purchase his marriage license.

Will Man

PARIS, Texas, Nov. 21.—Uncle Bob Patton, who has been visiting in Red River county, reports there was a great deal of excitement yesterday in the Veasoy neighborhood. About 20 miles northeast of Clarksville, over the antics of an alleged wild man who was running a large chicken house, the men were away and made threats of killing the women and children. While some of the children were taken back of the house on one form he started toward them with an open pocketknife, not knowing there were any grown persons around, and when the other ran out of the house in response to their screams, he took to the woods. Uncle Bob says that country with a traveling thru that country with a horse in his buggy the wild man tried to take it away from him. After he gassed him he met about fifteen farmers looking for the wild man and they finally caught him and jailed him on a charge of lunacy.

Some More Ticks

GEORGETOWN, TEXAS, Nov. 21.—R. P. Zoyd of Weir was here today with four very queer specimens of the tick family. The ticks were belonging to Mr. Boyd was noticed standing around with her ears drooped and head lowered as if in pain. Mr. Boyd at once went to the animal and made a careful examination, finding these ticks in her ears. They have long legs with claws at the ends of them, and stockmen say they never saw anything in the tick line before just like these. Several kinds of men were called in to see them, and each declared he never saw anything like them before. They have been turned over to Professor W. H. Hensley, who will make an exhaustive examination and report the result of his findings. There are many kinds of ticks that prey upon animals, but this seems to be something that is entirely new in this section.

MEETING OF ZIONISTS

State Association Will Meet Here Next Month

Preparations for the convention of the Texas Zionistic Society, which meets in Fort Worth Dec. 29, 31 and Jan. 1, are now making by the committee in charge. The Zionistic movement is attracting attention all over the world and in Texas several kinds of people are taking up the movement with great fervor as elsewhere. The Texas Zionistic Association is the grand central office of the Zionistic Societies, with headquarters in San Antonio. The convention which will be held here the last week of the year is the first of the new year will be the second annual convention. A. N. Mehl is vice president of the association. Other officers are Rabbi Friedlander, Waco, president; Dr. Berg, San Antonio, secretary; N. Goldstein, Dallas, treasurer.

QUEER CASE

STRIKLING, Texas, Nov. 21.—One of the queerest cases perhaps that has ever on the docket of a civil tribunal has just been settled here in Justice Square in Dallas. About a year ago Mrs. E. F. Holcomb, who with her husband, resided on R. W. Foster's place, found a beautiful and costly diamond in her gizzard. Not knowing what it was, she had it examined by a jeweler, who pronounced it a very fine diamond. Several years ago C. P. Kendall, while punching cattle in this vicinity, lost a fine diamond from his belt and after a long and fruitless search, he gave it up as lost. On hearing of Mrs. Holcomb's find, Mr. Kendall went to her and asked her to sell him the diamond for $500. She refused to do so, and he brought suit against her and Mrs. Holcomb for the recovery of the diamond. The first trial resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff and defendants appealed to the county court, when Kendall was again successful in obtaining a verdict and carried the stone away in triumph to his present home in Ennis. The costs in the suits amounted to considerable more than the value of the diamond and had to be borne also by the parties who lost and found the stone.

NEW RABBIT

QUAH, Texas, Nov. 21.—A new species of rabbit has just been discovered in this portion of Texas. G. L. Cleveland, a sportsman and sportsman, yesterday what he thought was a common cottontail rabbit, but which turned out to be a new species. The animal was about an inch and a half long and very pointed. This is the second horned rabbit captured in this section. The first was captured by a sportsman a few years ago that had three well developed horns. The animal in question has a triangular great deal of antlers and many theories are advanced as to its origin.

LOST FAMILY

ABELINE, Texas, Nov. 21.—L. C. Martin, from Quilinan, in Hunt county, has lost his family and will appreciate any information leading to their recovery. The separation of Mr. Martin from his family is either the result of an error in getting a car to move his household goods or some misunderstanding. The family came to Abilene two weeks ago and Mr. Martin remarked to come with the stock and household goods. He arrived three days ago and in the stock yards has seven head of cattle, mules and chickens, and on the track is the car of household goods and all but his family. Mr. Martin was delayed on account of being unable to get a car and it is his belief that his family has gone to some farm in the country and he has failed to get information as to their whereabouts.

STRANGE DOINGS

COLORADO, Texas, Nov. 21.—Some months ago Mr. Griffin from Rogers, Texas, came to Colorado prospecting, and bought J. W. Smith's home place, putting up a forfeit of $1,000, and was to make the first payment of $2,000 within thirty days. Within the time specified Mr. Griffin paid another $1,000 and asked for more time, which was granted, and the time of the agreed forfeit expired about thirteen days ago. His agents here have made several efforts to communicate with him, but without success. A wire addition to him at Rogers yesterday was answered that Mr. Griffin was not known there, and this sudden turn in affairs is so mysterious that it is causing a whole lot of speculation as to what is involved in the situation. It does not look reasonable that a man would deliberately forfeit $2,000 and then disappear entirely from his home, leaving no trace as to his whereabouts.

VERSES THAT RING

A WOMAN'S QUESTION

Before I trust my fate to thee, Or place my hand in thine, Before I let thy future give Command and form to mine, Before I perill all for thee, Question thy soul tonight for me.

I break all astringent bonds, nor feel A shadow of regret; Is there one link which the Past That holds thy spirit yet? Or is thy Faith as clear and free As that which I can pledge to thee?

Does there within thy dimmed dreams A possible future shine, Wherein thy life could henceforth Untouched, unsharred by mine? If so, at any pain or cost; Oh, tell me before all is lost.

Look deeper still. If thou canst feel Within thy inmost soul, That thou hast kept a portion back, While I have staked the whole; Let no false pity spare the blow, But in true mercy tell me so.

Is there within thy heart a need That mine cannot fulfill? One chord that any other hand Could better wake or still? Speak now, lest at some future day My whole life wither and decay.

Lives there within thy nature hid The demon-spitting child, Shedding a passing glory still, On all that comes new and strange? It may not be thy fault alone, But shield my heart against thine own.

Couldst thou withdraw thy hand one day And answer to my claim, The next and that today's mistake— Not thou—had been to blame? Some soothing conscience thus, Some truth that will be true, Will surely warn and save me now.

Nay, answer not—I dare not hear, The words would come too late; Yet I would snare thee all remorse, So comfort thee, my fate— Whatever on my part may fall, Remember, should I risk it all, —Adelaide Anna Proctor.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

A crafty man isn't necessarily a sailor. Humility is a virtue that hobbles about on crutches. In football it's a touchdown; in matrimony it's a shakedown. Life is not worth living unless you live for the good you can do. The less husbands and wives have to say about jealousy the better. Never judge a man by the way he carries the arms of a woman, he carries. Perhaps you may have noticed that rich relatives usually live to a ripe old age. Did you ever see a fellow walking around on his uppers while waiting for a dead man's shoes? When his patients die a doctor excuses himself on the ground that they failed to follow his advice.—Chicago News.

If You Are Sick

It is because some of the organs of the body are not doing their work well. There is a lack of that nervous energy that gives them motion. Consequently you are weak, worn-out, nervous, irritable, cannot sleep; have headache, indigestion, etc. because there is not sufficient nerve force to keep the organs active and allow them to perform their natural functions. Dr. Miles' Nerve Restorer restores health because it restores this nervous energy.

"I have been sick for a year, and did not know what was the matter with me. I tried many remedies and none of them proved of any value. I heard of Dr. Miles' Nerve Restorer, procured a bottle, and before I had taken half of it I was better. I would have had nervous prostration if I had not got this medicine when I did. I continued to take it until I was entirely well. I have since recommended it to five of my friends, and they have all thanked me for doing so, for it benefited them all."

SMALLPOX AT ITALY

Texas Town is Stricken with the Awful Disease
Special to The Telegram.
ITALY, Texas, Nov. 20.—It was not known until the past week that there were a number of smallpox cases in this city.

Dr. J. B. J. Gilliam visited a negro family in the residence section of Freedtown the past week and found a well developed case of the disease. The negroes kept the matter a secret. The three houses where the cases are confined are isolated and quarantined and a watchman has been employed by the county to prevent any further spread of the disease.

VETERANS WOULD RETAIN SPONSORS

Local Camp Will Aid Poor of the City

R. E. Lee camp, U. C. V., at its regular meeting Sunday passed a resolution as opposing the action of the Mississippi Daughters of the Confederacy, who adopted a resolution favoring the retirement of sponsors and maids of honor at reunions for the reason that they made the veterans play better than on those occasions. The resolution adopted by Lee camp was introduced by Adjutant W. M. McConnell and was the occasion of considerable debate. It was adopted by a rising vote, the majority favoring it being large. Following is the resolution in full:

Whereas, we learn thru the newspapers that the Daughters of the Confederacy of Mississippi at a recent meeting passed resolutions condemning the custom of Sons of Veterans and other organizations of honor being in attendance upon their general and state reunions, and whereas, we are of the opinion that the functions should be given up to the Veterans alone, and whereas, we are of the opinion that the presence of our Daughters, sponsors and maids of honor, constitutes the inspiration that keeps alive much of the vital interest in such reunions, and whereas, when we, the Veterans, have passed over the river beyond, the young will fill the manies of their fathers, and thru them will be kept alive the principles for which we fought, now, therefore, be it Resolved, By Robert E. Lee Camp, No. 158, United Confederate Veterans, That we encourage the custom, so earnestly advocated by the lamented John B. Gordon, our former commander, of having our Sons and Daughters, sponsors and maids of honor, attend these reunions and other meetings with us, that thru us they may become the better instructed in the history of our cause and imbued with higher and nobler patriotism and love for the right; be it further Resolved, That we encourage, as far as possible, the Sons and Daughters in the perpetuation of their organizations and in bringing into membership all who are justly entitled to the same.

The soliciting committee appointed at a former meeting to raise funds to aid in the construction of the monument to General Tom Green reported an additional collection of $270, which makes the total collected $177. The matter of providing a Christmas contribution for the poor of Fort Worth was taken up and on motion the following committee was appointed: Dr. A. P. Brown, B. B.addock, R. E. Keith, Mrs. Hayden and Mrs. Lane. In his concluding address, Adjutant W. M. McConnell made the announcement that since its organization the camp had raised and expended the sum of $18,000 for the poor within its jurisdiction, and had been a potent factor in inducing the legislature originally to make a pension appropriation of $250,000, which was later increased to $500,000, for aged veterans of the Confederate army in Texas.

It was announced that Friday night following Thanksgiving the Daughters of the Confederacy, in conjunction with the Sons, would give a "Turkey" party at R. E. Lee headquarters, to be followed by a supper, to which all veterans were invited, the veterans to be furnished free tickets at the door. On motion Misses Coma Russell and Caroline Rice were elected honorary members of the camp.

General Gibson of Mexia was present at the meeting and occupied the guest's seat of honor on the platform by the side of Commander Taylor. General Gibson made a brief talk complementing the camp on the much needed work it had done and also paying a neat and deserved tribute to women of the south of the war period. The following entertainment program was rendered, which closed the meeting: Duet, violin and piano, Clarence and Virgil Parker; vocal solo, Miss Helen Mardock; solo, E. Abel; recitations, Mascot Star Redford.

The postoffice is located in a jewelry store and it is the custom for the jeweler to place his stock in the post-office safe for protection at night. Most of the stock of goods at the store and the report was made to the Fort Worth police that they might look for the watches, bracelets and rings in the Fort Worth pawn shops.

The place is a coal mine near Strawn, west of Texas and Pacific. The federal postoffice inspector is at work on the case and the Palo Pinto civil authorities are using every effort to get clear of the burglar's hastily estimate of the value of the goods stolen, first sent to this city, makes the total from four to five hundred dollars.

EGGS ARE EXPENSIVE

Two Eggs at City Restaurants Cost Ten Cents

With eggs selling at $8 a case the restaurant man doesn't make any money on egg orders. At this price per case the eggs cost about two and one-half cents each. An order of two eggs cooked in any style cost at most city restaurants, 10 cents. That leaves the restaurant man five cents for the bread and butter and service, and he only sold enough of the egg orders he would go bankrupt.

"Of course we don't make any money on the eggs now," said a restaurant man the other day. "But what can we do? If we put the price up our customers will call us robbers and leave us. So we will just have to stand the high prices and hope to make it back when eggs cost but eight cents a dozen, a price they may reach at some time during the year."

AMUSEMENT'S ANNIE RUSSELL TRIUMPHS ON TOUR

The southern tour of Annie Russell, as "Pack in a Midsummer Night's Dream," has proved so far an uninterrupted series of ovations. It is the first time that a theatrical troupe has appeared in this section, and results go to show, eloquently enough, that her fame has preceded her. Not even exceptional Richard Mansfield has any star in recent years played to such enormous business. In nearly every instance all seats having been sold before the company's arrival in town. The press comments everywhere have been in keeping with the box office receipts, editorial reviews repeated, emphasizing the opinion that this interest in Shakespeare will be perennial, so long as there are artists like Miss Russell to perpetuate his characters, and such exquisite stage settings as are provided in this instance by her managers, the Wagners. In the case of the "Pack in a Midsummer Night's Dream" will be seen here Saturday night.

"My Wife's Family"
One of the cleverest musical farces comedies ever seen on a local stage will furnish the entertainment at the Greenwall opera house Tuesday matinee and night, Nov. 27, when Stephens and Linton's merry melange of fun, music and dialogue, "My Wife's Family," will be the attraction. It is a play that affords unlimited amusement from the opening act to the final laughable situation.

"Zaza"
That rare, eccentric comedian, Chas. M. Sway, Manager George B. Hunt has engaged to play a new musical comedy, "Zaza" in the play of that name, with Mabel Montgomery in the title role. It will come to Greenwall's opera house Wednesday matinee and night, Nov. 28, in all the scenic and costume glory of its long (over 600 lines) New English production. Mr. Sway is the peer of any English speaking comedian, and in England would rank with the late John E. Toole or the lamented Blakely. He is every moment an artist, in love with his art, and justly so. He is 33 years old. He is every moment an artist, in love with his art, and justly so. He is 33 years old. He will go very high in this profession.

Charles B. Hanford
The performance of "Cymbeline," which will be seen at Greenwall's opera house Tuesday matinee and night, Nov. 29, with Charles B. Hanford as "Iachimo" and Miss Marie Drouph as "Imogen," will constitute one of the most noteworthy offerings of the theatrical season in this city. "Cymbeline" is one of the most charming and beautiful plays in Shakespeare's repertoire. It is a play of delicate and intense of Shakespearean plays. On Thanksgiving night Julius Caesar will be presented.

"Parfal"
A great of no small importance is promised our theater goers of the better class in the announced presentation of Wagner's magnificent spectacle of "Parfal." The requirements of such a production being of so high a standard, as Judge Hanford, the artistic and ethical point of view, are of so varied and exacting a nature as to require the most careful consideration on the part of all concerned in its promotion and interpretation. The classic and delicate draperies used in ornamentation and costuming are of the highest quality and appointments, and the peculiar form of ancient architecture necessary to the production is carefully and correctly reproduced, or the exquisite harmony of the entire spectacle is sadly marred.—"Parfal" at Greenwall's opera house Friday night, Nov. 30.

At the Majestic
Manager Harris of the Majestic says the new array of attractions will begin their engagement today, at the Majestic, will maintain the policy of the Majestic, to give the public the great vaudeville following in this city. The bill is headed by Cuning, "The Jail Breaker," who possesses the secret word of breaking the captivity any steel bracelet, leg iron or lock that may be placed upon his person. This strange power, which Cuning naturally keeps to himself, has started the servitors of the law in many cities and states of the union where he has appeared. It is a secret most dangerous of Cuning were in league with the criminal element, but the private record of his character disposes any such fear. This is of his wonderful tests have been made before police officials and to many of them Cuning has imparted valuable information concerning the security of handcuffs and shackles.

Bimmi-Bommi-Nvrr is an imported musical novelty which the Interstate Amusement Company engaged when it was at the height of its immense success at the Grand Palace and Casino. It remains the equal sensation of the season. Not only is the act far above any other in its class, but it is never presented at the Majestic, but it is the most handsomely appointed on the stage.

Penon will offer another novelty in their daring series of Japanese manipulations and hair-breath barrel jumping and these adjective terms are used advisedly.

Harry Antrim and Yetta Peters bring forward still another novelty in a musical and clever thing, provided by their respective talents. They are fine vocal mimics, trick bone players and whistlers. Harry Antrim's whistling and Yetta Peters' bone playing is anything of this kind witnessed at the Majestic. Good dancing is always acceptable.

Lester and Quinn, the wooden shoe experts, come direct from the Keith circuit of eastern theaters to the present engagement.

The roller skating devotees of the city may expect to see a startling example of dancing on roller skates, as it is presented by Dale and Davis. Jeanne Brooks, "the girl with the smile," is not the least important feature on a bill crowded with good things.

At the Fort Worth Rink
Considering the bad weather the attendance at the rink last week was unusually good, was the statement of Mr. Ball this morning in conversation with a reporter. "The Fort Worth rink has a third more skating surface than any rink in the city; it is the second largest rink in Texas. The ways among the people, and think a vast deal of the agitation against the railways of the country would be incongruous, impracticable and utterly impossible," said Mr. Harriman.

Government Ownership
E. H. Harriman at Elkhart, Ind., made an address Saturday, in which he stated that the "boogie man" of Wall Street was not government ownership of railroads or other transportation lines of the country. "Government ownership of the departments of the country would be incongruous, impracticable and utterly impossible," said Mr. Harriman. He is a strong advocate of the idea that there should be a more general distribution of the stock of the railways among the people, and think a vast deal of the agitation against the railways of the country, too often demagogic, would end if the people more generally owned the stock and thus entered on a more intimate relationship with those vested with the control and management of the railways of the country. Consolidation, he held, was absolutely necessary for the reason that economies, almost undreamed of, were forced on the management of the railroads, and those economies were greatly assisted by the consolidation. Many of the expenses of management were cut off by consolidation. Where several lines make up a system, if all had to be officered and managed separately it meant a multiplication of expenses of administration, which was saved by consolidation.

Would Enforce Residence
The mayor and some of the other citizens of Tyler have gone to Austin to appear before the state railroad commission to try to secure an order from the commission to force all of the heads of the departments of the Cotton Belt Railway Company to locate residences in Tyler. This is more particularly directed at John F. Lehane, the general freight and passenger agent of the company, whose family lives in Fort Worth. Court decisions have settled the fact that the general offices of the Cotton Belt remain in Tyler for a time at least, and now the contention of the Tylerites is that the families of the employees of the railway should also live at Tyler.

Roads Pay the Fines
The attention of the Interstate commerce commission has been called to the fact that the Burlington has paid the fines recently assessed against the officers of the line for rebating, out of the funds of the company, the total of the fines, $60,000, being paid in three checks. Commissioner Lane of the Interstate commerce commission says there is, under the law as it stands, no way to make the liability for rebating personal and that if the railway companies see fit to use the funds of the road to pay fines thus imposed they can do so and be entirely within their legal rights.

Will Shorten Time
During the recent visit of George Gould at Denver, arrangements were made for shortening the run of the Denver and Rio Grande between Denver and Salt Lake City by using the Moffat lines, thus avoiding the round about run via Pueblo. A saving of several hours is thus made in the time. Orders were also given for the shortening of the narrow gauge Rio Grande track thru or over Marshall Pass. The construction work involved in that is something enormous for much of the track is on terraces or ledge cut from solid rock.

General Terrazas, Worth Millions, Celebrates Birthday
Special to The Telegram.
CHIHUAHUA, Mexico, Nov. 26.—Gen. Luis Terrazas, the wealthiest man in Mexico, and one of the wealthiest men in the world, is today celebrating the 75th anniversary of his birth at his palatial residence in this city. He was governor of the state of Chihuahua for many years, and is the father-in-law of Enrique Creel, the present governor.

He and his brother-in-law, Enrique Creel, control the banking business of a large portion of Mexico. His total wealth is estimated to be $25,000,000. His life has been darkened by the fact that he has no son to inherit this vast fortune. One of Governor Creel's sons, who is a lawyer, has recently assumed his full name and set the bulk of his estate. The boy is 19 years old and is therefore heir to the richest property in the world.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY
Policeman Accused Chief of Galveston Force
Special to The Telegram.
HOUSTON, Texas, Nov. 26.—Six affidavits were made out yesterday by Chief Detective Kessler against William Bird, who was formerly on the police force of the city of Galveston, and who was brought to Houston last night by Chief of Police George Ellis, who went to Taylor, where Bird had been arrested. Three of the affidavits were for checks alleged to have been drawn in the name of Lovejoy and Parker and three were for checks purporting to have been issued by M. G. Forgyery. It is the charge against him.

Some time ago when Bird was in Houston he is alleged to have perpetrated a fraud in which he stands charged. A preliminary hearing will be had Monday. All the checks were said to be paid by a dangerous forger named Bird, who was in the majority of them being for $5.

GOAT BREEDERS LOSE
Recent Blizzards Devastate New Mexico Herds
Special to The Telegram.
ALAMOGORDO, N. M., Nov. 26.—A party just returned from an extensive mountain trip fifty miles from Alamogordo, reports heavy losses among the goat breeders on account of the recent blizzards. Numbers of the breeders will lose 50 to 80 per cent of their herds. One dealer lost 2,000 head of a herd of 2,400; other owning several thousand head losing 50 per cent. This is the heaviest loss to Sacramento mountain goat men in the history of their business.

Women in Our Hospitals
Appalling Increases in the Number of Operations Performed Each Year—How Women May Avoid Them.
Miss Ruby Mushrush
Mrs. Alice Berryhill

Going through the hospitals in our large cities one is surprised to find such a large proportion of the patients lying in hospital beds who are women and girls, who are either awaiting or recovering from serious operations. Why should this be the case? Simply because they have neglected themselves. Female troubles are certainly on the increase among the women of this country—they creep upon them unawares, but every one of those patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in that bearing-down feeling, pain at left or right of the abdomen, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, dizziness, flatulency, displacement of the organs or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female organs, and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation; but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved thousands of women from surgical operations.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of the organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating, constipation, general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, they should remember there is one relief and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

The following letters cannot fail to bring hope to despairing women.
Miss Ruby Mushrush, of East Chicago, Ind., writes:
"I have been a great sufferer with irregular periods and female trouble, and about three months ago the doctor, after using the X-Ray on me, said I had an abscess and would have to have an operation. My mother wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and it not only cured me from an operation but made me entirely well."

Mrs. Alice Berryhill, of 313 Boyce Street, Chattanooga, Tenn., writes:
"Three years ago I looked dark to me. I had ulceration and inflammation of the female organs and was in a serious condition. My health was completely broken down and the doctor told me that if I was not operated upon I would die within six months. I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to use it faithfully. Within ten days I felt relief but was not entirely cured until I used it for some time."

Your medicine is certainly fine. I have induced several friends and neighbors to take it and I know more than a dozen who had female troubles and who today are as well as strong as I am from using your Vegetable Compound.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.
Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice and medicine have restored thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

COTTONS HIGHER; STOCKS SPOT DEMAND ACTIVE

WHEAT MARKET STRONG; CORN AND OATS BETTER

New York Cotton
Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Futures opened at quotations 3 points lower to 5 points higher, and steadily advanced, with offerings very moderate. The market looked somewhat congested and buyers experienced difficulty except when locals pointed it.

At 1 o'clock December and January options were quoted at 10.39 and 10.60 respectively, or a gain of 20 points over Saturday's quotations. The corresponding gains for the same options at New Orleans were 25 and 25 points. The gain in March contracts at the southern market was 25 points and at the northern exchange 20 points. And, by the way, spot prices at New York were at 10.70 when they were at 11.05 at New Orleans, a difference of 35 cents.

Aside, then, from the recent bullish grade revision by the New York Cotton Exchange, attention is directed to the stronger bullish inclinations of the southern rings, which no casher in better position to understand the actual cotton situation than others.

Indeed, the factor that has held and is holding cotton to its present level is the exceedingly strong spot demand.

And while the prophets and students are busy at every turn estimating the yield and comparing it with the yields of other years, probably with the promise of the problem that has not as yet been as forcibly used as it could be in the rapid increase in consumption.

It is a point enthusiastically to the gilt of the recent good boost to the case, which was the consequence of overstimulated spot demand, was disrupted by the covering of Breckinridge and Havre merchants against their early commitments to spinners when cotton was selling at a lower level. And they argue that this part of the demand must soon rapidly decrease. But while they thus argue, they are disheartened at the confirmed reports of losses in many parts of the cotton belt and have willingly accepted more moderate crop views.

Thus it would seem that since the last census figures were flashed, the friends of the staple have had both the major and minor premises of the problem in their favor. Yet, after all, the bull-headed determination of the bear at this market, as signified by their reluctance to follow such sky-rocket advances as have lately taken place, means something, and furnishes food for thought.

Certainly the relation between the supply and the demand for cotton is the ultimate adjustment; just as certainly as the bulls are in possession now of stronger weapons; but there must be kept in mind, the premiums now being paid for cotton over and above its cost of production plus good profits; the weight of a lot of low grade stuff on the market and substitutes.

Throughout the cotton markets of the world, sentiment was more bullish to-day than bearish. Outside interest is at a low ebb and the market is a complex and dangerously susceptible to the pranks of the leaders.

The government census spinners will be flashed Dec. 8, and the bureau's estimate of total crop will be issued Dec. 10.

"We look for a good traders' market from now on and think if the bull side is adhered to and purchases made on sharp declines it will prove the most profitable."

"The week end figures were not bullish and whether the congestion in the south will be broken is a question, but in any event avoid the short side for the present."

"Sentiment is getting more bullish on the belief that the crop has been over-estimated."

"Liquidation of the December option will test the local market this week on notice day, which is Friday, and pending this development we see no immediate reason for a substantial advance."

"There will be little disposition to oppose the bull movement since sentiment has been steadily veering to the bull side for some time and the public awaits only the signal to jump in and buy with confidence."

December options were the strongest at New Orleans.

"Few notes are cut," wired a New Orleans broker.

The agricultural department wired the New Orleans Cotton Exchange this morning that the government crop estimate will be issued Monday, Dec. 10, at 11 o'clock, New Orleans time.

New Orleans, Nov. 26.—The next spinners report is due Saturday, Dec. 8.

"Cotton's bulling itself," said a New Yorker this morning.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 26.—Increasing arrivals of cotton on the other side seem to reduce confidence in selling abroad and the initiative of our markets is requisite for further advance. While Liverpool for the greater part of the day was indifferent, futures 4 to 5 below expectations, later on that market conformed readily to the rise here.

A sequence of occurrences on this side has for some time been at work toward a change in opinion regarding the speculative prospects in cotton.

To begin with, the revision of the crop caused disturbance and uneasiness in consuming circles abroad, then the discovery of a reliable inflection of the government estimate in the concentrated demand against forward commitments, which advanced the movement. Then the last census report generated serious doubts as to the correctness of private estimates of a bumper yield.

As a result, the people constantly in touch with the interior agree that the out-turn is not what was expected and parties returning from trips to the eastern belt say that fields are largely cleaned out and that the statement made earlier in the season of only one picking was about correct. Speculators say that forward needs in desirable grades are such as to assure the maintenance of spot support for the next two months. This condition is being fully appreciated by the large professional short interests which set to cover today causing nearly 20 points advance.

The spot market is stiff, demand good 1-16 to 1/4 advance paid.

Washington announces that the next census will be published Dec. 8 and that the bureau report giving estimate of crop will appear on Dec. 10.

The western part of the belt had excellent rains during the past forty-eight hours while generally fair weather prevailed in the eastern half. Indications are for clearing and much colder in the west, showers in the central and eastern portions.

CATTLE MARKET STEADY; HOGS GENERALLY LOWER

Receipts Liberal to Moderate—General Tone of Cattle Market Steady.

The receipts at the stockyards were liberal to moderate, and the general quality was fair. The prices ranged about steady with Saturday's sales for the same quality of stuff, except hogs, which opened strong and closed weaker, at a loss of 2 1/2 to 50. The northern markets reported very heavy receipts, with lower prices in all departments. While as a general rule the local markets are generally affected by the tone of the northern markets, the prices today showed little effect of the influence of the decline in the northern markets. The local markets have been generally steady for some time, and while there have been some fluctuations in the prices, this was caused more by the quality than an irregular market. The prevailing prices on cattle are now about 10 to 15 cents higher than more than at this time last year. This is due partly to the offerings being grade heavy, 150 to 180 lbs., and to the killing period. However, this is not altogether the cause of the better prices. The markets have gradually improved since the middle of the year, taking care of all consignments has added to the better conditions. The receipts today were as follows:

Hogs	2,500
Horses and mules	1,100

PRICES

Steers	3.50	3.30
Cows	2.75	2.20 to 2.40
Heifers	3.00	2.00 to 2.50
Hogs	4.75	4.75
Hogs	6.25	6.10 to 6.20
Pigs	5.65	5.50 to 5.60

Butcher Stock

The bulk of the cattle offerings today was of a quality of cows and steers, of medium finish. There were several loads of steers, some of which were of good quality, and soon sold at about 100 cents. There were also cows of good quality, but with the exception of a few loads the quality was about average. The hogs were cleared generally at steady prices.

MEXICAN SENATOR TALKS OF COUNTRY

Jose Castellot of Mexico City, federal senator of the Mexican senate, arrived in Fort Worth Sunday night from New York and Chicago and leaves Monday night for Mexico over the Texas and Pacific. Senator Castellot was the organizer and is now the general manager of the Association Financiera Internacional, which was organized over a year ago by the Mexican government as an association, where foreign investors could apply and get information about business in Mexico where they might have an idea of investing. This association was formed with the purpose of preventing those who might apply from investing their money with swindlers. Under Senator Castellot in this association are about thirty experts in all lines of business so that all information can be given in all lines.
In speaking of the investment of American capital in Mexico, Senator Castellot said that the total amount there now was about $600,000,000 American money and that there was the most friendly feeling expressed by the Mexicans toward the investors of money in the country, and that all that could be done for intending investors was being done by the government. The association is one of these great aids.
Senator Castellot is a prominent mine and railroad man of Mexico and has been in this country for about three months looking after his own business. He came up with the Stillwell party some time ago and left them to go on to New York and Chicago. On his return he was extended the courtesies of the Rock Island road by President Robert Mather and traveled with him in his private car for some distance.
In speaking of the Villareal case Senator Castellot said that the Mexican government had been particularly grieved by the action of Villareal in St. Louis and felt that as he was injuring the good feeling between the two countries, he should be compelled to press the old charges against him which had been dropped after he left the country. Senator Castellot said that he knew little of the case, as he had been away from the country since the case was brought up again.
The new Mexican packing house which was erected in Mexico City a year ago has been getting along finely and is doing a large business and benefiting the country greatly. It does not conflict with the Fort Worth and other packing houses of this country, according to Senator Castellot, as there is a heavy import duty on American canned meats which prevents competition in this line. The Mexican packing house is supplying the Mexican mining and farming interests with canned meats which formerly they could not get.

CONCERT BY ARIONS

Soloist Oscar Seagle is on the Program
The concert tonight at Greenwall's opera house, given by the Arions, inaugurates that club's seventh year as a chorus. The concert hitherto have presented excellent artists for the solo attractions and for this first concert this year Oscar Seagle, the distinguished baritone, will appear.
The Arions will present a varied program, all new songs that they have practiced with diligence under Claude A. Rossignol, their new director. Mr. Seagle's numbers will present him in a more varied list of songs than any he has yet given in Fort Worth. Altogether the program is of such unusual merit as to call for much preliminary interest.

Five Pullman Coaches Pass Thru Fort Worth
An Orient paid special train of five Pullman coaches and a baggage car passed thru Fort Worth, going west, Monday morning, having on board a party of northern capitalists, who are on a prospecting tour of the country thru the completed portion of the Orient road passes. Very little could be learned of the party as only a brief stop was made at Fort Worth, and while the train was at the depot none of the party allowed us to speak to them. It is understood, however, that the train will go direct to Sweetwater, at which point it will be transferred to the Orient line, make the tour of both north and south, and returning will go over the Texas & Pacific to El Paso, where it will be turned over to this party of tourists are paying their own way and are from a half dozen of the leading cities of the north and east.

NO COFFEE

The Doctor Said.
Coffee slavery is not much different from alcohol or any other drug. But many people don't realize that coffee contains a poisonous, habit-forming drug—caffeine.
They get into the habit of using coffee, and no wonder, when some writers for respectable magazines and papers praise coffee as "harmless."
Of course it doesn't paralyze one in a short time like alcohol, or put one to sleep like morphine, but it slowly acts on the heart, kidneys and nerves, and soon forms a drug-habit, just the same, and one that is the cause of many overlooked ailments.
"I wish to state for the benefit of other coffee slaves," writes a Vermont young lady, "that Postum Food Coffee has done for me."
"Up to a year ago I thought I could not eat my breakfast if I did not have at least two cups of coffee, and many times during the day, if very tired, I would have another cup."
"It was annoyed with indigestion, heart trouble, bad feeling in my head, and sleeplessness. Our family doctor, whom I consulted, asked me if I drank coffee. I said I did, and could not get along without it."
"He told me it was the direct cause of my ailments, and advised me to drink Postum. I had no faith in it, but finally tried it. The first cup was not boiled long enough and was distasteful. I vowed I would not drink any more."
"But after a neighbor told me to cook it longer I found Postum was much superior in flavor to my coffee. I am no longer nervous, my stomach troubles have ceased, my heart action is fine, and from a healthy baby should be when I was Postum, now weigh 138 pounds. I give all the credit to Postum as I did not change my other habits. In my own town, near Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich., read the little book, 'The Road to Well-being,' in pkgs. 'There's a reason.'"
