MRS. ADAMS THE CAUSE

Actress Involved in Shooting of Mr. Brown

WOMAN JEALOUS

Says She Can Explain Satisfactorily the Letter From Her to Senator Brown

Special to The Telegram.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—It is said the attorneys for Mrs. Bradley, held for the killing of former Senator Brown of Utah will use in her defense a pocket of letters signed "Annie," which were found among the effects of the dead senator. The letters, it is said, were written by Mrs. Adams, another of Maude Adams, the actress. She is the woman Mrs. Bradley believed Senator Brown was going to meet in New York and it is against her that Mrs. Bradley's jealousy was directed.

It is true that I was to have met Senator Adams today. "The meeting was not of a business nature. We and the meeting was to be held. When he left Salt Lake City he took with him a letter to me to be read before the United States supreme court, and that as soon as that court, which he thought would meet today at the latest, he would meet me in New York.

Will Issue Statement

I shall issue a statement which will explain the contents of the letter from me to Senator Brown. I can fully explain every passage and will show that nothing more than a close and warm personal friendship existed between the senator and myself.

"I could undoubtedly have prevented the shooting had I had the chance. If Mrs. Bradley had come to me and asked for my services I would have been able to make Senator Brown do what she wished. I could have made him marry her and give to her and his children his name.

Mrs. Bradley's grievances were not imaginary. They were real and had grown to such a point that she was determined that such a stage in their life as settling up the affairs of my father's estate. We became good friends and had met occasionally and corresponded irregularly ever since.

Met Him Long Ago I first met Mr. Brown twenty-five years ago in Salt Lake City, when he was settling up the affairs of my father's estate. We became good friends and had met occasionally and corresponded irregularly ever since.

He later told me of the affair with Mrs. Bradley and it seemed to worry me greatly. He spoke to me frequently of it and I know that he was a regretful mood.

During the summer and fall I saw Senator very often. Mrs. Adams visited, and when I started out on a road again late in the fall, we had to meet in New York this time.

I am convinced that I am the cause of the shooting, but innocently so. Mrs. Bradley evidently knew of the friendship of the senator for me and became jealous. I only wish I could have seen Mrs. Bradley before she went to the senator's rooms to shoot him."

126 LIVES WERE LOST

Loss of Life on Lakes Smaller Than

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—One hundred and twenty-six lives were lost in navigating the great lakes during the season just closing. Compared with the loss of 215 lives in 1905, the season's death list appears small and yet with two exceptions, it was the largest ever recorded.

During the year thirty-eight people were lost overboard, fifteen fell into the holds of vessels and were killed, twenty met their death by machinery accidents and three died from natural causes aboard vessels. Fifty-two were lost when their ships foundered and were drowned as the result of collisions.

STRYCHNINE FOUND IN CAKE SENT BY A FRIEND

Special to The Telegram.

GLASGOW, Dec. 14.—A mysterious case of poisoning is reported today from Glenochy, Ayrshire. The family of a retired farmer named William Knox Woodside, received a parcel post which contained a cake and card with these words: "With happy wishes from an old friend."

Lennox showed the same symptoms but he and the other woman were saved. The balance of the cake was found to contain strychnine.

AN INCENDIARY FIRE

Flames Spread Rapidly to Water Soaked Lumber Piles

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—Fire, probably of incendiary origin, destroyed the Charles H. Mears & Company lumber yard last night, drove several families from their homes and caused $50,000 damage.

The blaze originated in the rear of the yard, far from any stoves, electric wires or other agencies that might have caused accidental fire. It spread rapidly to adjoining piles of lumber and water soaked condition of the lumber, leading the police to believe the lumber was soaked with kerosene or other combustible oil.

END OF PATRICK CASE IN COURTS

Wife and Sister Ask Governor for Clemency

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—With the withdrawing of the application for a writ of error in the United States supreme court yesterday, the legal fight to save Albert T. Patrick came to an end after the hardest fought battle in the criminal records of the country.

It now remains to apply to Governor Higgins for a commutation of sentence to life imprisonment. In spite of the determination of Patrick himself to accept nothing save pardon, announced only a few days ago, by himself, from his cell in Sing Sing prison, such an application designed merely to save his life, it is stated, will be made within a few days.

Mrs. Patrick and Patrick's sister, Mrs. Milliker, of St. Louis, will be the petitioners, as the nearest relatives of the condemned man. Governor Higgins has not publicly indicated that he will accept anything but the electric chair, but such is the expectation of Patrick's wife and of his attorneys.

Patrick was sentenced to die in the electric chair several years ago, following his conviction on the charge of murdering William Marsh Rice, a Texas capitalist. Rice, who was charged, was chloroformed to death for the purpose, it was alleged, of allowing Patrick to gain control of his wealth.

SEPARATE COMPANIES

Railroads Prepare to Divorce Coal Business Under Provisions of Law

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Formal announcement was made yesterday of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Railroad Company of its coal company stock to the Mahoning Investment Company, a new corporation, the stock of which will be distributed pro rata to the stockholders of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railroad. Importance was attached to the announcement as the first of what is likely to be a series of similar movements by the railroads looking to the separation of their coal companies from the railroads, under the provisions of the new rate law.

The Mahoning Investment Company is capitalized at $2,000,000 and all of this stock, with the exception of $75,000 has been issued to the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railroad. The Mahoning Investment Company will receive 25 per cent of the stock of the Mahoning Investment Company.

SUGGESTS AN ISSUE

Democratic Party Should Fight Idea of Centralization

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Edward H. Shepley, at a meeting of the Brooklyn Democratic Club last night, declared that the democratic party should accept the issue of centralization of power in the federal government made by Secretary Root in his address on Wednesday night.

"I think the existence of the democratic party is more necessary day after day," Mr. Shepley said, "and especially do I think so after considering the speech of a man who may truthfully be called a trained statesman, and who has shown that our government should be as abhorrent to me."

"He proposes as a policy what we may call the destruction of the state, and the complete and final subordination of the state power to the federal power in Washington. The fight of the democratic party against this idea goes to the heart of the republic, and the adoption of the federal constitution, and that we owe the fact that the federal and consolidated republic was established."

HIS PRESS AGENT Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Moses Ellis Wooster of Town Topics and Smart Set notoriously, in a suit brought by creditors before Referee Nathaniel S. Smith, was not paid him more than $500 for a copy of Smart Set.

"Yes," replied Wooster, "but not for the book alone. She wanted press notices in newspapers, which I got her. For this I received a part of $1,000 which she paid for the book."

"THE YELLOW PERIL"

BAILEY TEXT FOR PHILIPPIC

Cullen Thomas Bitterly Arraigns Senator

600 WERE PRESENT

Dallas City Hall Crowded at Anti-Bailey Meeting—Waco Man Recalls Old History

Special to The Telegram.

DALLAS, Texas, Dec. 14.—Senator J. W. Bailey was the text Thursday night for one of the most bitter Philippic ever heard by a Dallas audience. The speaker was Cullen T. Thomas of Waco, and his audience of 600 or 700 persons who filled the city hall sat and stood until he finished. M. M. Crane, former attorney general, followed Mr. Thomas, and at the end of his address a large majority of the crowd present, with forward and signed petitions asking the legislature to vote against the re-election of Senator Bailey.

The opening part of Mr. Thomas' speech dealt in personalities much of the sort Senator Bailey has used in addresses made by him in the state. After this somewhat abusive introduction, Mr. Thomas said:

"I arraign Senator Bailey because in the hour of need a great people showed him with their love and a great party surrounded him with its leadership, yet he turned his back on the people to become the tool of an outlawed corporation. The reintroduction of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company into the state of Texas was the greatest scandal committed in fifty years of Texas statehood. The people were engaged in a war with a gigantic trust. The Standard Oil Company had left a slimy trail on many of the states of this Union; it was swollen with wealth and impudent in its powers. It had destroyed competition and driven its competitors into bankruptcy and fixed the prices at no limit save its corporate greed. It had subsidized the press, debauched the people's representatives, dared to drag down the bench, entered the national councils, and if reports be true, had sought in vain to pass the very portals of the White House."

"The sovereign state of Texas determined to oust this monopoly that had stretched its tentacles to the four quarters of the republic. For four long years against terrific odds it had fought to maintain the supremacy of our laws and the dignity of a sovereign commonwealth. And I want to say in passing that for the fruits of that victory the people of this great state owe an unbounded debt of gratitude to M. M. Crane, who cheerfully sacrificed for Crane, and he by his brilliant talents and lofty ideals the logic elements might well decree to be the worthy successor of an unworthy predecessor."

"In the very hour of the state's great victory, when every resource of human ingenuity had been exhausted, when the courts had entered a decree against the trust marauder of perpetual exile, when there was no power in the government, executive, legislative or judicial, to extend clemency or pardon, the outlaw appealed for aid to one who but a few days before a great people on his brow had placed the laurel wreath of approval and confidence. The trust ap-

Resistance Will Be Purely Passive Against Law

Violent Social Organ Makes Accusations Against Catholic Gym Societies

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Dec. 14.—The first day of the regime of separation of the church and state having passed without any grave disorders, public interest in the details of the continuation of the struggle is already visibly flagging. It is now apparent that resistance of the clergy will be purely passive and there is no prospect of the religious passions being aroused unless the churches are closed, and the government is therefore resting on its oars and will continue to do so until parliament authorizes some drastic measures which the cabinet is preparing.

In the meantime in this city, except the churches where legal applications are filed, the police again took notes of the infractions of the law at the morning masses. Cardinal Richard is awaiting expulsion from the episcopal mansion. The government, however, desires to avoid even the appearance of force in the case of the aged prelate, who is in bad health, postponing the action in the hope that he will depart in a few days of his own volition.

The Action, a violent socialist organ, today made an attack on the government, calling attention to the alleged fact that the Catholic gymnastic societies have a number of rifles. There are filed the police again took notes, that armed resistance is contemplated.

Case of Herman Radtke Presented and Laid on the Table

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Herman Radtke, the jockey, who was suspended last fall after an alleged bad ride of the horse Tommy Waddell, will probably not be able to ride in California this winter, as he had planned. As the regular monthly meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club yesterday his case was presented, but was laid on the table for future action.

FT. WORTH PAYS FOR TARRANT COUNTY ROADS

PRESIDENT FAVORS CENTRALIZATION

Sovereignty of States Declared in Danger

SENDS SPECIAL MESSAGE

Japanese Subject to Many Indignities in California, and Do Not Enjoy Rights Guaranteed by Treaty

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—A dispatch to the Record Herald from Washington says: A special message on the Japanese-California school problems supplementary to the treatment of these same subjects by President Roosevelt in his regular message last week, will be sent to congress from the White House next Tuesday. It is stated authoritatively that this special message will be more vigorous in tone than the former communication and will not be calculated to cool the indignation of Californians previously aroused.

The special message, moreover, aside from its local application, will be one of the most notable and important those sent to congress by the present executive. It will bring to a direct issue the centralization scheme of government which is likely to form the climax of endeavor on the part of the Roosevelt administration.

The administration is about to take advanced ground regarding the doctrine of federal supremacy over state sovereignty. The Japanese question raised in connection with the public school system of California, has supplied the opportunity to give forcible expression to the mighty scheme of centralization that is to be perfected if possible.

Centralized Government

It is not possible at this writing to forecast in detail what the President will say in his second message on the Japanese question. Accompanying his message, which is understood to be a full explanation of the administration's projected policy as to the supremacy of federal state power, will be the report of the special investigation of the San Francisco school situation made by Secretary Metcalf. Regardless of the contents of this report, the President will adhere vigorously to the position taken by him in his regular message, which was written before he left Washington to visit the canal zone and before he had anything at all from Secretary Metcalf.

But as to the Metcalf report, it has been learned that its author found much to condemn in the matter of the treatment of Japanese outside of the school question. His report in fact will furnish a new sensation. It will show, it is understood, labor union tyranny over Japanese which affects the rights of the latter, and which is in even more pronounced manner than anything connected with the school problem.

Matters of this nature embraced in Secretary Metcalf's report will furnish the key for many arguments to be advanced by the President in his message.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL

Boy in New Jersey is a Protege of Cunning

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Reginald Haskbrook, a Trenton, N. J., boy, had run away from home and was arrested, escaped from cells in the central police station in that city yesterday. He was locked up for safekeeping, pending a disposition of his case by a court, but he quickly got out of one cell and then another by undressing himself, greasing his body with butter which had been given him at breakfast and wriggling thru a small opening in the cell door. He was not discovered until he had almost crested a bar from a window leading to the open. The court afterward decided to release him today on the request of his father, who explained that he ran away because he had been threatened with punishment because of some boyish prank.

$73,800 Out of $90,000 for Fund Comes From City

GOES TO COUNTRY

Precinct No. 1 Gets Back Less Than Half Taxes for Improvement of Highways

Here is a story, Mr. Taxpayer, discovered by a Telegram reporter in his regular tour, which ought to interest you. If you live in Fort Worth and pay, out of your total taxes, only $10 toward the road and bridge fund, did you know that only $4 of that sum goes toward improving the roads? Not a cent more than $4. It goes toward improving the roads in other sections of the county? This is not a muck-raking story, nor is it an attempt to arraign the town against the country, but it was written just to give you a little enlightenment as to how your money is spent.

PRECINCT No. 1, Tarrant

city of Fort Worth, pays 82 per cent of all the taxes, state and county, collected in the county.

Of the taxes collected in precinct No. 1 for road and bridge purposes, which amount to $90,000 annually, precinct No. 1 pays $73,800, five times as much as all the rest of the county.

Up to this time out of the $90,000 of the road and bridge fund less than 40 per cent has been expended annually on the roads and bridges within the precinct, 60 per cent of that, or $54,000, is being used on the roads and bridges in those precincts that pay the entire part of the taxes, county and state taxes, when area is considered. A Telegram reporter talked to County Commissioner Purvis on county road matters and the amount of taxes paid and the amount of money expended on public thoroughfares in precinct No. 1. He said:

"Precinct No. 1 pays, as near as I can remember, 82 per cent of all the state and county taxes paid by Tarrant county, somewhere in the neighborhood of $73,800, or 82 per cent of the rest of the county. The total road and bridge fund of the county is approximately $90,000, and of this precinct No. 1 pays 82 per cent, or $73,800, or 82 per cent of the county 18 per cent. In appropriations for road and bridge purposes precinct No. 1 has been getting about 40 per cent of the $90,000, or $36,000, while the other portions of the county that pay only 18 per cent of the tax get $54,000 annually, or $18,000 more than the precinct No. 1. This is preventing all the money paid in taxes for road and bridge purposes by precinct No. 1 being expended on the thoroughfares of the precinct. When told that there was a strong sentiment favoring the expenditure of taxes paid by the precinct in improving the roads within the precinct he said:

Roads Might Be Better

"I am not surprised that there is, and the sentiment is reasonable. I know the roads in the precinct are not so good as they could be made by expending the taxes paid by taxpayers of the precinct on their roads, but it is often the case that there is a big fresh, washing out one or more bridges, that have to be replaced, and the money has to be taken from the road and bridge fund regardless of what precinct paid the biggest part of the fund. This certainly looks like a little unfair. If the road and bridge taxes paid by precinct No. 1 are to be expended only in precinct No. 1, other parts of the county will suffer unless they are permitted to increase their tax rate for road and bridge purposes."

Eleven Thousand Are Using Simplified Spelling

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Professor Brander Matthews of Columbia University, chairman of the executive committee of the simplified spelling board, declined last night to comment on President Roosevelt's action yesterday with relation to the house of representatives and the new spelling. Professor Matthews said simply that he refused to be interviewed when President Roosevelt came out in favor of the new system and that it would be highly improper for him to criticize the President's action now.

MOUNT GILBERT, Ohio, Dec. 14.—After marrying five sisters, all of whom died, James Craven of this city has wedded the sixth and remaining sister of the Lamproct family. Craven met the family when he went to Montana thirty years ago and established a trading post and married Nora Lamproct. Three of his wives were killed by Indians.

IS THIS THE 20TH CENTURY?

(From the Overland Monthly Magazine.)

Is this the enlightened 20th Century or is it A. D. 1700? We have been watching a contest that is suggestive of the Middle Ages.

A telegram to the San Francisco "Bulletin" from the "Kansas City Journal" says that prominent people in that city are recovering from Bright's Disease and Diabetes under a specific discovered in this city, and asks if the same thing is occurring here and if the results are permanent.

The "Bulletin's" reply was "Yes" to both questions. Consider what this means! Nothing less than that Bright's Disease and Diabetes, two of the greatest scourges known, are curable. This is a profound moment to the whole world. And yet, because the formula belongs to individuals, it has been considered non-ethical and but little known to the medical profession, and this notwithstanding the fact that prominent people in this city, including professional and business men, have been cured to so great a number as to exclude doubt.

The editor of the "Overland Monthly" personally knows a number who have recovered. Among them is an editor. He was very low and his death was expected upon the receipt of a letter from a brother physician for using a non-ethical preparation.

We recall that Paracelsus' discovery of the use of mercury was decreed for forty years, and vaccination was fought nearly as long. And yet, what physician does not know it. Editors, lawyers, manufacturers and business men have discussed it openly, but physicians have breathed but softly of it, although scores have seen patients that demanded the new specific recovery.

And what is it that is holding all this back? Ethics! At the rate the deaths from Bright's Disease are increasing under the most radical orthodox treatment, according to government and municipal reports, if Paracelsus' forty years' experience is to be repeated, somebody is shouldering a awful responsibility. It is happening to the patients in these long internments while the antagonisms of the medical schools are adjusting themselves to new conditions?

Multiplying monuments will mutely answer. It must be that in this age of books and newspapers the people will willingly continue to die of Bright's Disease and Diabetes because it is orthodox rather than recover and face the charge that they are not ethical. But we doubt it. We can as easily believe in the sanity of the prospector dying of thirst in the desert rather than accept water from a newly discovered spring because not on his chart.

Future history will record this decade as marking the first definite control of chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes by the use of the new specific, but lamented Fulton will be as indissolubly connected with it as is Harvey with the circulation of the blood. That is clear enough, but for millions of thousands will be sacrificed to an antiquated orthodoxy before the Fulton Compromise. We cannot have been melted by the march of progress, the sum of tolerance and the needs of humanity?—Overland Monthly.

The above article refers to the astounding recoveries now being made by the Fulton Compromise. We cannot have the treatment for urgent cases here. We will see that people with Bright's Disease, Diabetes or serious kidney disease are sent literature on this important discovery.

"REAL FARMERS" TO TRY AGAIN

Organization Not Effected at Meeting

For some time a feeling has been growing in the minds of the actual farmers who live and work the soil, that the limitations as to who could become members of the Farmers' Union had been stretched so as to admit those who of right could not be called actual farmers at all. One case particularly struck them, and that was that of some newspapers, who as one farmer expressed it, "joined the union and then proceeded to work it entirely in the interest of the papers, and were endeavoring to control the institution in their own interests."

Recently a call was published in the Telegram signed by a number of members of the Farmers' Union, in Scurry county, and others, a copy of which was sent to the Farmers' Union, at a time for the actual farmers to meet in Abilene, Texas, for the purpose of organizing an actual farmers' union, and inviting all who desired to join such an organization to come. The meeting was held on that day, and a representative of the Telegram was in Abilene taking notes. Owing to the weather having cleared up and thus giving the farmers a chance to pick cotton after a spell of two weeks bad weather, the attendance was not nearly so large as it would have been.

Among the members of the farmers' co-operative union who were in attendance were a number of prominent men who hold office positions, such as Mr. Chapman, secretary of the state union; Captain Neal, state lecturer; O. P. Dornblaser, an organizer for the state; J. D. Montgomery, formerly the state organizer; Captain Colwick, representing the Mercury Pass Wood, the National Co-Operator, also of Dallas, was represented by Captain Dornblaser. There were also other prominent persons, members of the order present, and a number of these gentlemen are said to have arrived on Tuesday, the 11th, and had been in consultation with members of the order who resided in the city of Abilene and who would be retired from membership should the new organization succeed.

The meeting was called to order promptly at 10 o'clock, the hour named in the call, and John W. Baker of Scurry county read the call for the meeting. Mr. Baker was then selected as chairman of the meeting and T. J. Montgomery of Montgomery county, secretary. Upon taking charge of the meeting Mr. Baker announced that as the call was for the organization of a city of actual farmers, composed of farmers who resided on the farm, it would be in order for all present to state whether they favored the organization, and were they actual farmers according to the terms set forth in the call, and if there were any who did not come up to the requirements they would please retire.

Few Farmers Left This opened the ball and showed the hands of those present. J. D. Montgomery said he favored such an organization, but was not prepared to join himself with it at this time. He therefore bowed and retired. There was much talk and contention, the majority of the farmers favoring a very prominent part in opposing the move. The organizers of the movement, however, held out at once, and the meeting was adjourned over to a future day. The others were very eager to organize but at the meeting they passed a resolution authorizing the chairman, whom they made permanent chairman, to call a meeting in a similar manner to the one called the present meeting, but instructing him to make use of what language he pleased in the circular. The meeting then adjourned over to the day that should be appointed by the chairman.

While the speaker was attended to behind closed doors, the public was not aware of what had taken place, neither had the gentlemen from the headquarters of the union at that time, who had opposed the organization any notion of what had been done after they left the meeting. These gentlemen were certain that they had suppressed and killed the movement, or rather some of them so remarked on the streets.

At a meeting that night in the fire hall, and while they talked union economy to the audience composed of mostly resident non-farmers, a number of the city of Abilene, they took a few sly digs at the enemy, whom they supposed they had suppressed. There changed character, at any time during the day. That the officials of the union came up during the meeting with the purpose of defeating the organization they did not deny.

The call will be issued at the proper time and the Telegram representative learned that Colorado had been talked of as the place for the meeting. While the state officers of the union did not find out what was done after they left the hall, this reporter did, and can assert with certainty that what has been given above is the exact truth as it occurred.

KING'S SERVANT FIRED

Senator Morgan Discharged His Private Secretary Special to The Telegram. WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Senator Morgan of Alabama has discharged T. W. Garrett, his private secretary, because of Garrett's connection with the lobby which King Leopold of Belgium has maintained in this country for two years.

Senator Morgan used great diplomacy in discharging Garrett. He told Garrett he would have to apply to the sergeant-at-arms for further employment.

When spoken to on the matter Senator Morgan said: "Mr. Garrett was assigned to me by the sergeant-at-arms. Upon the publication of the evidence that Garrett has been acting in connection with the Belgian lobby in the Congo affair, I told Garrett this morning that I did not want him around me any more, nor in any position where he could claim to represent me. I told him to go to the sergeant-at-arms and ask to be assigned to some other place."

RIGHTS IN CONGO GIVEN SYNDICATE

Americans Hold Half Shares in Company

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—According to the official bulletin of the Congo Free State, it is learned here, the rights conferred upon the Ryan-Guggenheim-Rockefeller syndicate by royal decree dated Nov. 9 last, give it the right to prospect for metal over the whole of the unassigned public domain in the Congo Free State for a period of five years. Whatever mines are established by this exploration may be worked for ninety-nine years, but one out of every three is to become the property of the state at once.

A company called the International Congo Lumber and Mining Company has been organized to finance the concession. It has a capital of 3,500 shares, half of which have been taken by the American syndicate.

The other half stays in the hands of Belgian capitalists, who have already begun developing the country. The American syndicate paid $150,000 down and is pledged to bring the total payment for its half of the concession up to $1,500,000. The grant covers an area of about 2,500,000 acres. Besides mining rights the syndicate has a grant of about 74,000 acres of forest land and the right to harvest a rubber tree on every acre of the grant.

Senator Morgan used great diplomacy in discharging Garrett. He told Garrett he would have to apply to the sergeant-at-arms for further employment.

When spoken to on the matter Senator Morgan said: "Mr. Garrett was assigned to me by the sergeant-at-arms. Upon the publication of the evidence that Garrett has been acting in connection with the Belgian lobby in the Congo affair, I told Garrett this morning that I did not want him around me any more, nor in any position where he could claim to represent me. I told him to go to the sergeant-at-arms and ask to be assigned to some other place."

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Following its annual custom, the Santa Claus Club will gladly undertake the work of forwarding letters from little folks to Santa Claus at his home in the North Pole. Santa Claus will close promptly at noon, Dec. 22. All letters must bear the correct address of the writer for the reason that Santa Claus will be extremely busy the night of Dec. 24 and will have no time to run down incorrect addresses or hunt up little folks who forget to send him their street number.

Just now there is much talk among the people of the state of Texas concerning a successor to Joseph Weldon Bailey, for it seems to be a well established fact that there is to be a contest over the senatorial top, notwithstanding the fact that Senator Bailey claims to be the democratic nominee for the position. It is evident even at this stage of the game that the situation is wrapped in grave doubt. At the beginning of Senator Bailey's troubles it was asserted by his friends that not exceeding four votes would be cast against him, but since the latest phase of the situation has developed they are willing to concede perhaps as many as a dozen adverse votes.

To those who are cognizant of the true state of affairs politically in this state it is clearly apparent that Senator Bailey has the fight of his life on his hands, and the disposition to belittle the opposition is only adding to the strength of that opposition. Certain it is that more than a dozen members of the legislature have placed themselves on record as opposed to Senator Bailey's re-election. And to these must be added a considerable number who have refrained from rushing into print, together with another large number that will be instructed by their constituency to vote against Bailey before the legislature assembles. As matters now stand it appears very much as if honors are about even, but the indications are that sufficient numbers may be instructed against Bailey prior to the assembling of the legislature body to insure his defeat.

One of the weaknesses of the opposition to Senator Bailey has been its lack of organization. While there are perhaps an even half dozen senatorial lightning rods extended skyward, the men who have run these rods aloft have not come boldly out into the open. Each seems to be inspired by the single hope that when the final roll is called his name will be written there as the successor to the brilliant but erratic Bailey. Had these several aspirants come boldly out into the open much additional zest would have been added to an already interesting situation. But they have not seen fit to do so, and their candidacy has not yet reached beyond the point of mere suggestion.

General M. M. Crane, Yancey Lewis and Horace Chilton of Dallas, Joseph D. Sayers and Attorney General Davidson of Austin, Judge Charles K. Bell of Fort Worth and Governor-elect Campbell of Palestine are among the number suggested, with Crane perhaps the greatest favorite. But the choice of General Crane, Lewis and Chilton is greatly hampered by the fact they reside in Dallas, which already has the honor of furnishing the senior United States senator. It is reasonably certain that the people of the great state of Texas will not be willing for Dallas to furnish both the United States senators, and for that reason if a choice is to be made of a successor to Senator Bailey it must fall elsewhere.

In the city of Corsicana there resides a man whose voice has already been heard in the senatorial end of the national capital. A man who long ago made a reputation as one of the brainy men of this nation, and whose name for long years was almost a household word from one end of the country to the other. It is true that he was called from his high station and reduced to the ranks, even as Senator Bailey seems about to pass under the chastening rod. But in the years of his enforced retirement that brilliant intellect has lost none of its force or potency. Roger Q. Mills—"the lion of the tribe of Judah," is today possessed of the same strong mentality he evidenced upon the floor of the senate, and there is no alderman in all this American nation. He has learned his lesson as it was administered at the hands of those who loved him, and from Bailey to Mills would bring no disrepute upon the choice of the people. The real friends of Roger Q. Mills now have their opportunity, and it is believed it will be utilized. There is a strong sentiment in the state that he has been dealt with too harshly, and the people owe him another opportunity to make good.

Should the friends of Senator Mills decide that now is the opportune time to bring forward the claims of that gentleman for recognition he would at once become a powerful factor in the situation. And certain it is that Senator Bailey could not have a more worthy successor. If Roger Q. Mills were to follow the bent of his own mind he would certainly refuse to be put forward in the political limelight. But Roger Q. Mills is both a patriot and a statesman.

The election of Colonel Thomas M. Campbell as governor of Texas is going to seriously interfere with railway building in the state, according to the public statement of Colonel B. F. Yoakum, the head of the great Rock Island and Frisco lines. In his campaign of the state Colonel Campbell gave expression to some very radical utterances toward corporations, and expressed himself as unalterably opposed to any more railway consolidation in Texas, such as had been effected during the two previous state administrations. He received the democratic nomination and was triumphantly elected, and railway managers believe him to be a man of his word and are preparing for a state of passive inactivity during the Campbell administration.

According to Colonel Yoakum, the contemplated building of the Brady-San Antonio extension has been indefinitely postponed. Not only has the management decided not to build that line, but all construction will be stopped. Adverse legislation in the past and believed to be contemplated in the future and the alleged intention of Governor Campbell to block the consolidation of railroads, is given as the cause. Colonel Yoakum declares he has no intention of applying to the next legislature for permission to consolidate any of the Rock Island-Frisco lines. While consolidation from a business standpoint is very desirable, the new governor having declared in his political speeches his unalterable opposition to such procedure, the Rock Island-Frisco interests will take no steps to antagonize his administration. Application will ultimately be made for permission to consolidate these properties, but not until there has been a change of political sentiment in Texas. Colonel Yoakum says:

"I do not know and I shall not undertake to predict or express an opinion as to what will be the future policy of the owners of the railroads with which I am connected, but until we have a more settled policy with reference to transportation companies I shall not recommend further construction except some short branches to serve the lines which we are now completing. For a good many years I have directed my attention toward the upbuilding of the southwest against heavy odds, and have been connected with some building which has materially aided the development of Oklahoma, the Indian Territory, Texas and Louisiana. Three years ago I said to some of my associates that I considered it well to undertake construction in Texas that would cost from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000. Since that time we have built and are now constructing lines which will cost approximately $30,000,000. These new lines cover practically all the new lines under construction in the state at this time.

"It was our intention to extend our Fort Worth-Draly line to San Antonio, and we also had the line reconnoitered from Corsicana both thru Huntsville and Palestine, to connect the central part of the state with the Houston-New Orleans line, and when we purchased the Orange and Northwestern and extended it to Newton it was the intention to extend thru to Paris, so as to give us a connection from southeast Texas. All these lines would traverse a country that needs railway facilities, but they have all been abandoned or at least postponed until some time in the future, when we can know better what the policy of the state is going to be.

"We do not want to be understood by this as fault-finding, and I feel sure that when the thinking, well-meaning people of Texas pass their final judgment that they will be fair and impartial to all investments and industries that are now here or can be induced to enter our state, as they are upon all important matters of general interest."

Down in this portion of the state there is but a faint conception of the truly magnificent progress and development of the great Panhandle section of Texas. Occasionally we get a little information that causes the great heart of Fort Worth to rejoice over what is being accomplished by her ally, but actual figures showing what is really being accomplished have not been available. As a matter of fact, the figures show that during two months of the present year the gain in immigration to the Panhandle country is just 300 per cent over last year. The following statement from D. L. Myers, traffic manager of the Pecos Valley Lines of the Santa Fe, at Amarillo, tells the wonderful story of Panhandle progress.

For the twelve months ending July 31, 1906, there were received at stations on the Southern Kansas Railway Company of Texas and the Pecos & Northern Texas railway, 356 carloads of household goods, showing that the actual settler has been bringing his personal effects to this country at a pretty rapid rate. The movement of emigrant outfits is one of the best indications I know of as tending to show the extent to which our line is being settled up. I regret that I have no statistics for the corresponding period of the previous year for the purpose of comparison. I have, however, some figures showing that for the period from August to October, 1905, inclusive, there were unloaded at our stations in Texas fifty-one cars of emigrant outfits while for the same period this year there were unloaded 120 carloads, showing a big increase. We are, as you know, doing everything possible to encourage immigration toward the Panhandle as well as to make the people feel satisfied after they have cast their anchor in our midst.

It is no wonder that under such circumstances the people of the Panhandle are fairly reveling in prosperity. It is no wonder that Panhandle cities and towns are growing as they never grew before in all their past history, and that the great plains country is being dotted from one end to the other with new and happy homes. Panhandle soil is as fertile as any God ever created, and the variety of crops that can be produced in that section is remarkable. Wheat grows to perfection, oats rarely fail to make a prodigious yield, and corn is grown in many localities as good as that produced in Kansas, Missouri or Nebraska. Cotton is coming to the front as a great staple crop, and the forage crops produce so abundantly that storage is often a matter of great concern to the producer. Fruit and vegetables produce abundantly, and with the favorable seasons that section is now enjoying continued development will be rapid.

It may be true that good seasons cannot be expected every year in the Panhandle country, and the same remark applies with almost equal force to every other country. But it is a noticeable fact that the men who have planned their faith to the Panhandle country and remained with it during all the years it has been coming to the front, are growing rich and prosperous and do not care to change their habitation. The Panhandle country appears to be one section of Texas any progressive citizen may safely tie to.

"Our holiday business this year is at least 20 per cent greater than last year," says one of the leading wholesale grocery establishments of this city, and the remark is but a fair indication of what Fort Worth is now doing. There is prosperity to be seen on every side and the marts of trade are so crowded it is almost impossible to make purchases.

The business men of this city report the holiday trade unusually good this season, and this is but an indication of the abundant prosperity that exists among the Fort Worth people.

Fort Worth should celebrate the holidays this year with the true Christmas spirit and with the true Fort Worth spirit. There should be no homes in this fair and prosperous city without the joys of the season.

Congress does not take kindly to the Roosevelt method of spelling, and gave it a very black eye the first opportunity that presented itself. It is probable, however, that Teddy will persist in his official method.

And we are to have no more railway building during the Campbell administration. It will be noticed the biennial bugaboo is now making its appearance a little bit earlier than usual.

The farmers of Texas are duly grateful that the final slump in cotton came after they had provided themselves with Christmas money.

The people of west Texas and the Panhandle should not permit the speculators to get land values too high. The reaction from such things never fails to hurt.

The Fort Worth Telegram has been known as an anti-Bailey paper, and at one time was his most notorious critic, but since the Davidson open letters to Mr. Bailey and his replies thereto The Telegram shows itself the most reasonable and conservative of all the papers against the junior senator. The contention of The Telegram that an officeholder should not represent corporations seems to be its ground of opposition to Bailey, and this it may do without joining in the cry that would have it that he has disgraced himself. The Telegram of Saturday, after reviewing the charges since August, says: "Now The Telegram respectfully insists the matter should rest until the legislature has acted. The Telegram does not go so far as the hit-or-miss conservative Dallas News and declare developments are such there is no necessity for Bailey's name going before the legislature. Bailey is tactful, too not legally, the nominee of the last democratic convention. The Telegram does not go so far as the Houston Chronicle and declare there is nothing for the next legislature to do but to seek another person for senatorial honors. Bailey had the benefit of a legislative investigation once. It is no more than right that for his distinguished services in the past the people of Texas should allow him another. There is no more occasion for jumping at conclusions now than there was last August. The Telegram believes that its uniform course has been vindicated in its original contention that Bailey's interpretation of democratic doctrine is not in accord with the standards of that peerless leader of democracy, William J. Bryan: 'No man who is financially connected with a corporation that is seeking privileges ought to act as a member of a political organization,' etc. An investigation by the legislature can do Mr. Bailey no harm, and since the suits against the oil company into which the attorney general has lugged the so-called Bailey vouchers, his friends have every reason to hail such an investigation with pleasure. The whole fight is founded on political and personal hostility to the senator, and while the agitation has resulted in confusing some good men, the end will be the complete vindication of Mr. Bailey and his election to the United States senate in accordance with the instructions of the democratic primaries of July.—Abilene Reporter.

That spirit of thrift popularly supposed to pervade New England is amusingly illustrated by the observation of a Connecticut farmer.

The good man had been seriously ill in midsummer, but by reason of his strong constitution he quickly rallied. On being asked in the autumn how he was feeling he replied in a cheerful tone:

"Pretty fair, now, thanks. Anyway, it don't make much difference, seeing that the farm's well fixed up. If I'd died in hayin' or harvestin' time, I calculate it'd been $50 damage to me." Then, after a pause, he added:

"Come to think of it, that's too low a figure—$55 would be nearer."

An elderly dandy in Georgia was charged with the theft of some chickens. The negro had the misfortune to be defended by a young and inexperienced attorney, also it is doubtful whether any one could have secured his acquittal, the commission of the crime having been proved beyond all doubt.

The prisoner received a pretty severe sentence. "Thank you, sah," said he cheerfully, addressing the judge when the sentence had been announced. "Dat's mighty hard, sah, but it ain't nowhere near what I expected. I thought, sah, dat between mah character and dat speech of mah lawyer dat you'd hang me shore!"

The six rural routes out of Greenville have been discontinued because of the bad roads of that county. The discontinuance of the rural routes in this state would be a calamity that would move the people almost to desperation.—Athens Review.

Good roads are a necessity in the matter of rural delivery, and if the farmers want the service they must furnish the roads. The federal government will not stand for any temporizing in this direction.

Why should not the application of those innocent members of the disheveled Twenty-fifth to be reinstated be granted? Is there any good reason that can be adduced?—San Antonio Light.

Certainly, there is a good reason why these men should not be reinstated in the army. Were they not told by the President if they did not point out the guilty ones that all would be compelled to suffer disgrace together? They chose for themselves and should be compelled to pay the penalty. And has the Light any reliable testimony to the effect that these three are innocent?

Galveston, the stricken city, is now second in exports in the United States, with gratifying prospects of becoming first in a few more years. Wonder what has become of the croakers who predicted a brief while since that the seaway city was crippled forever?—Austin Tribune.

Galveston is rapidly coming to the front in the matter of export trade, but the railroads are complaining that business is growing faster than Galveston facilities for handling it. If this is true Galveston should go to work to promptly remedy the situation and prepare to handle all business with promptness and dispatch.

If you have 100 pounds of pecans you have $28. That's the price offered for this year's nuts.—Sherman Democrat.

A fruit stand man in Fort Worth was questioned as to the price of pecans a few days ago, and pointing to some small ones in a vessel, he said they were 40 cents per pound, while the choice ones adjoining were worth 60 cents per pound. "Only fools and millionaires are eating pecans this year," he suggested.

Cotton picking is about wound up in this section. Christmas will find bare fields in Collin county, the products having been converted into cash.—McKinney Courier-Gazette.

Cash in the pocket beats cotton in the fields at any season of the year, and the amount of cash that has been realized in Texas from the cotton crop this year will enable all the farmers to properly celebrate the holiday season.

There is a decided demand for mules thruout the whole country. Extra good mules are selling anywhere in Texas for $400 a pair. The present good prices ought to be sufficient to encourage farmers here in eastern Texas to engage in raising mules for the market. There is always a good demand for mules, and farmers in every portion of Texas would find it to their advantage to raise a few mules for market.

JUST ONCE IN A WHILE

Just once in a while if we'd link to convey To those who walk with us life's devious ways, In glances or words, half the it is that abide In our hearts because loved one are close by our side; If we'd think but to garb in our tenderest dress A phrase that were sweet as a mother's caress, Care's road would be shortened by many a mile; If we'd think to be thankful just once in a while.

Just once in a while if we'd lay down our load Of worry and work by the side of the road, And a bit of the love that we're feeling expand On sister or brother, on parent or friend, In words that would tell them their nearer makes light The path which alone we would grope thru the night; How oft we'd be blessed with an answering smile, If we'd think to be thoughtful just once in a while.

Just once in a while if a hand were but pressed, A shoulder but patted, a word but addressed That would thankfulness speak to the ones by our side, Would not joy spur the feet to a magical stride As they wended their way down life's main-traveled road? Would not griefs slip away and thus lighten the load? For ourselves and for others we'd shorten each mile, If we'd think to be thankful just once in a while. —Roy Farrell Green in Leslie's Weekly.

DRIFT OF POLITICS

Some of the new men who have taken seats as representatives in the house from other states are notable. Frank O. Iowden, of Illinois, who succeeds R. R. Hitt, for many years chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, is a notable man. He is a man of affairs and wealth himself, and married Florence, the daughter of the founder of the Pullman Car Company. Lowden was a prominent candidate for governor of Illinois against Deenew. He is a lawyer, banker and farmer, and has himself registered as a "farmer." But he does not look it. Judge Saunders, of Virginia, is also in the house to fill a vacancy. He is the author of the Virginia law which compels a railroad to pay for every horse, cow, hog, chicken or other domestic animal killed on its line, entirely regardless of whether the animal committed suicide or the railroad murdered it. Judge Saunders is also credited with having more than any other man in the Virginia legislature to place the employers' liability law on the state statutes, and with having led the fight which resulted in the enactment of the corporation commission bill. People from the Old Dominion describe Judge Saunders as a forceful and finished orator. By the election of W. F. Englebright, representative of the First district of California, succeeding Mr. Gillett, who was elected governor of the state, there has been added to the Republican majority a man whose services will doubtless prove valuable to the nation, as well as to his own state and district. Mr. Englebright is a successful mining and irrigation engineer, who is needed now that the subject is before congress. Among the new figures at the capitol who attract great attention is the first delegate from Alaska. Frank H. Waskey, who enjoys the distinction of bearing this title, is an energetic, hard working citizen of Nome, who was elected by the miners of the territory to come to Washington to press their interests.

LAST DAY OF CONVENTION

Delegates Are Earnest in Work to Be Done

Friday is the last day of the Tarrant county Sunday school convention and institute, the meetings closing with the services and talks this evening. The number of teachers and officers present at the meeting has not been as large as was first expected, but those who have attended have made up the lack of numbers by their earnestness in work. Three sessions were held Thursday and three more were on the program for Friday.

The principal address of the night session Thursday was delivered by C. D. Meigs, secretary of the State Sunday School Association, on "How to Fish for Men and Women." At the afternoon meeting Dr. J. H. Horn, Jerry Reeves and J. Shepherd were appointed as a committee to nominate officers for the coming year. The election takes place Friday afternoon.

The program for Friday morning included four addresses followed by discussions on the topics. These addresses were delivered by Mrs. E. F. Purinton on "The Home Department," Rev. H. S. Anderson, "The Best Way for a Sunday School to Observe Christmas," W. H. Johnson, "How to Make the Teachers' Meeting a Success," and C. D. Meigs, "The Organized Class." The program for the afternoon and evening Friday is as follows:

- 2 p. m.—Devotional exercises. 2:15 p. m.—"The Fire Chief"—Rev. J. F. Boyce. 4 p. m.—"Chalk Pencil and Object Lessons in the Sunday School"—C. D. Meigs. 2:55 p. m.—Special music. 4 p. m.—"The Graded School; How to Grade It and Keep It Graded"—Rev. A. E. Dubber. 3:15 p. m.—Discussion of the above topic. 3:30 p. m.—Reports of committees and election of officers. Friday Evening 7:30 p. m.—Song services by united choirs; Rowland D. Williams, director. 8 p. m.—Devotional exercises. 8:10 p. m.—Vocal solo—Miss Freida Downing. 8:15 p. m.—Offering for state work. 8:30 p. m.—"The New Movement"—C. D. Meigs. 9 p. m.—Adjournment.

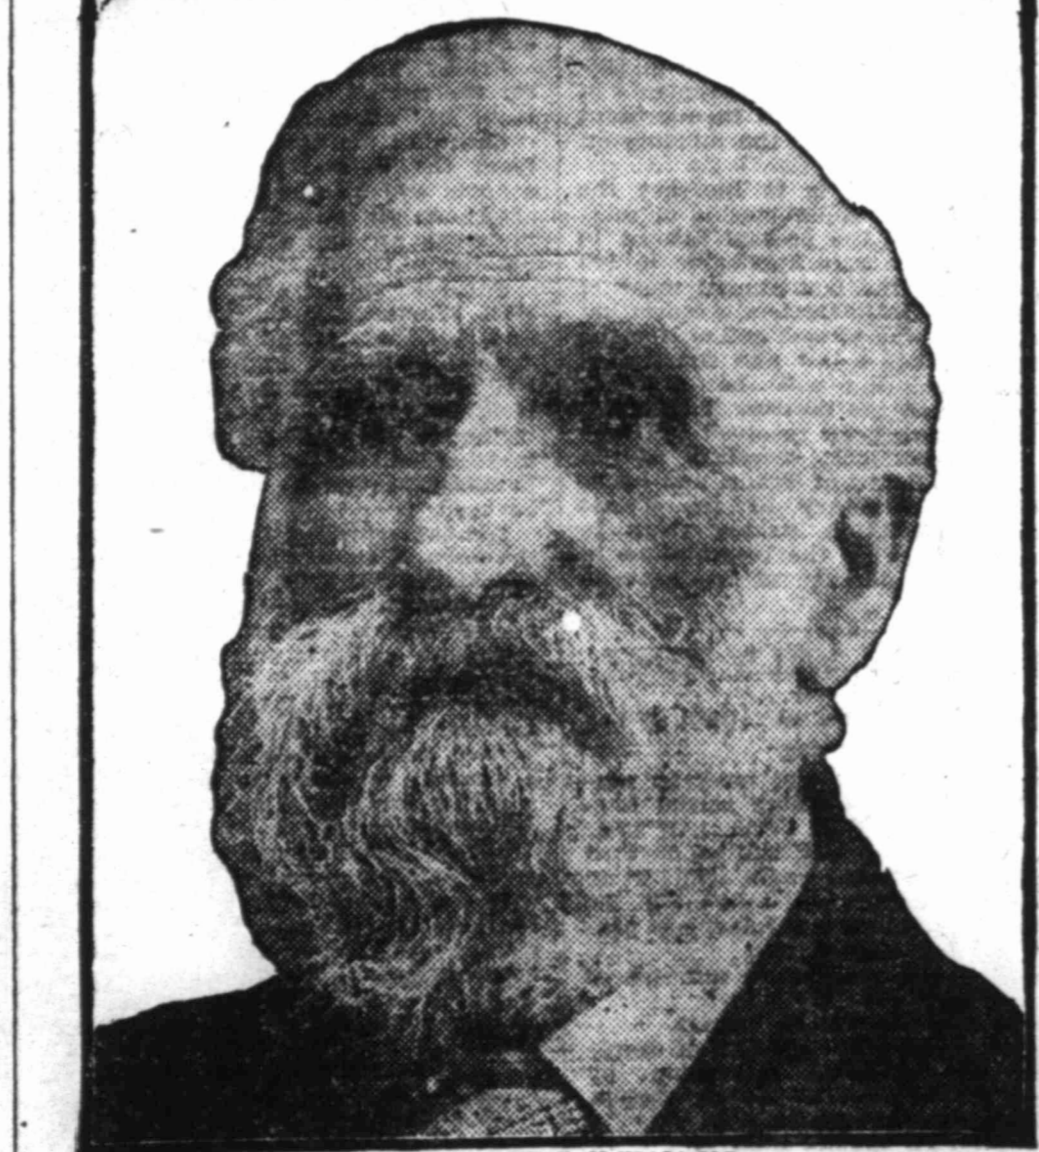

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Jay Button, one of the old time conductors on the Cotton Belt, formerly on the Waco run, but for years past on the Fort Worth and Mount Pleasant run, has had for years a habit of taking his annual vacation in the form of camp hunt with several genial companions. Often the party has gone to the country in below Brady and on the Colorado or the Conchos. This year the direction of the hunt was varied and to the disgust of the hunters. The party went up in the Choctaw nation near the junction of the Big and Little Glocks in the Seven Devils mountain region and there camped for two weeks or more, forty-five miles from a railway, and in an ideal hunting country, so far as the appearances went, and in a hunting region of great repute for the abundance of game. But this year it is different. There is practically no game. Three or four turkeys, scarcely a larger number of squirrels, one or two ducks and some smaller birds with about the same paucity as to numbers, comprised all of the game found and killed by the party of ten or twelve hunters. The location was formerly ideal for turkey hunting, but in the big freeze of two years ago the turkeys perished by the thousands. There was at the time of that cold spell a sleet storm and for about two weeks the turkeys were kept from food and water to a great extent and it was literally a survival of the fittest. Many were found dead just after the freeze ended. This year the relatively few survivors have been ruthlessly slaughtered by the hunters who have gone into that part of the nation, by the hundreds, the dead turkeys and other game being sent to market.

DYSENTERY CURED AT 88

Mr. Silas Dunton, who celebrated his 88th birthday on April 9th, last, and who has been one of the most highly respected and best known merchants for the past 60 years in Millbury, Mass., thanks Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for his youth and vigor.

A friend of Mr. Dunton's says he looks so well that he is easily good for twenty years more. Mr. Dunton visits his store almost every day. Last summer he had a severe attack of dysentery which was completely cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

"I am using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and think it very valuable as a medicine. Last July I was taken sick with dysentery, and the doctor thought my case was almost hopeless. A good doctor and a very good nurse worked over me night and day for four or five months, giving me all sorts of medicines. Finally I insisted on two or three spoonfuls of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey a day, and I do believe it was the medicine that cured me. For a man of 88 years I am very well."—Silas Dunton, Millbury, Mass. May 18th, '06.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces, it makes digestion perfect and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, the perfect and sickly children. It strengthens the system, is a promoter of good health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young young. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey contains no harmful oil and is the only whiskey that is recognized as a medicine. Sold by all druggists and grocers. Or direct, in sealed bottles only, never in bulk. Price $1. Insist on the genuine, see that the "Old Chisel" trade-mark is on the label. Beware of diluted bottles and spurious imitations. Write for a free sample bottle. LABOR TEMPLE IS TO COST $40,000

Member of Each Trade on the Committee

A $40,000 labor temple is the latest building which Fort Worth is to have, a meeting of the Trades Assembly having been held Thursday night for the purpose of discussing plans for the temple. The move for the building has been started and a member was appointed from each of the trades to be on a committee to have charge of the raising of funds for the building. The new structure which was planned to cost $100,000, it is expected that the union workers of the city will take enough of this stock to insure the structure to be built on the building in the near future.

A meeting of the committee in charge of the matter will be held either Friday or Saturday night and plans for the formation of the stock company will be made.

The meeting on Thursday night discussed the matter of a new temple from all viewpoints and plans for the best means of building the structure were considered. After the matter had been fully gone over the stock company idea was voted to be the best. C. W. Woodman was added as a member of the committee, the other members being: Barbers, McKee; bartenders, Brooks; brewery workers, Van Vliet; brogue workers, 182, Walker; clerks, Ingram; cooper, Aldridge; carpenters, Lightfoot; cigar makers, Lee; electricians, Stevens; garment workers, Miss Little; iron molders, J. E. Shanahan; plumbers, Ballinger; firemen, Harris; machinists, Hart; typographical, Markwell; laborers, Hogan; team drivers, Thompson; tinners, Harrison; leather workers, Hildebrand; stage employes, Josephberger; tailors, Goodman; musicians, Parker. A. E. Markwell was elected chairman.

SOLD TWO HOUSES

John F. Tedlie Has No Trouble Finding Buyers

The activity of Fort Worth real estate is illustrated by the case of John F. Tedlie, who a few months ago bought two lots on the corner of Grainger street and Cannon avenue on which to build a home. He built a pretty five-room cottage, bungalow style, and moved into it. He was just getting in shape to live comfortably when three days after he moved into his new home a man came along and made an offer for the house and lot and Tedlie sold it to him, and had to move out and rent a home. Tedlie then built another house on the other lot he bought from Zurn, completing it about ten days ago and moved into it. He had not been in his second new home a week before M. E. Trogdon came along and made an offer for this place and Tedlie sold it to him. Tedlie is now hunting another site on which to build his home.

EASTERN CAPITALISTS

Party from Virginia Was Here Thursday. A large party of Virginia and West Virginia capitalists was in Fort Worth Thursday, leaving again Thursday night for west Texas, where they intend to purchase about 20,000 acres of land for colonization purposes. There were about thirty men in the party and during the day the Northern Texas Trust company advanced them the use of a special car in order that they might see Fort Worth. The party will probably return again and the air city of Texas, and under west Texas was not divulged while they were here.

WASHINGTON DIED 107 YEARS AGO

Anniversary of Death December 14

Dec. 14, 1799, one hundred and seven years ago, occurred the death of George Washington. While that melancholy event, which cast a gloom of sorrow over the entire nation, and extended into many foreign lands, has long since become an epoch in history, the memory of Washington still lives in the hearts of the American people, and is perpetuated from generation to generation. The works of Washington are known to every school child, and his memory is revered. The hero, the sage, patriot of America, the man on whom, in time of danger, every eye was turned for advice and counsel, and in whose ability the hopes of a great nation were placed, lives now only in his own greatness, and in the hearts of the American people.

More than any other individual, and as much as to one individual as was possible, has contributed to found the greatest country on earth, and give to the world its independence and its freedom. Having effected the great objects for which he was placed at the head of the army and navy of the colonies, he put aside his sword and retired to his home at Mount Vernon, to enjoy his peaceful and quiet life of a farmer. But when the contest was dissolving, Washington was chief among the patriots who formed the constitution, and the first to preside over the people of the multitude of persons from all over the country.

Thus the birthday of that illustrious statesman is celebrated as a national holiday, while the date the remains were consigned to the tomb is remembered with sorrow by all the nation.

TALKS OF DALHAM

Farm Lands and City Lots Are Advancing in Price

W. D. Louthean, for many years a citizen of Tarrant county, but now engaged in the lumber business at Dalhart, Dalham county, was in Fort Worth Thursday afternoon, and was enthusiastic in his talk about conditions in the Panhandle country. He said: "Dalhart now has over 4,000 population and it is increasing so rapidly that the lumber firms there find it difficult to supply lumber as fast as needed for new buildings. The building boom at Dalhart is fully as acute as it is here in Fort Worth in proportion to the size of the towns. Substantial brick business blocks are being erected and scores of comfortable homes are being built all over the town. "Comparatively, lots are cheap at Dalhart, but they are rapidly advancing. Farm lands are on a boom and lands that could have been bought a few years ago for from $3 to $8 an acre are now selling for from $15 to $25 an acre. These lands at the advanced price are selling readily to new comers from northern states, who are flocking into Texas. The population of the county is now over 6,000; two years ago it was not half that."

After the election of the school trustees, as provided for, they are to draw for the terms, and the trustees who draw Nov. 1, 2, 3 and 4 are to serve for one year each and the others are to serve for two years each, and then alternately in May of each year. The four or three trustees are to be elected. The trustees have control of the elections, appointing presiding officers, etc. The elections must be under the general state election laws as to methods.

Radical Provisions

The parts of the charter relating to streets contain some radical provisions. The board of commissioners has absolute control over the streets and sidewalks and the ground under them, and the city engineer, and under these general powers may impose charges for the use of the streets under ground, surface or over-ground, which takes in the right to charge for the use of the streets by street or steam cars, by electric lighting and power companies, telegraph and telephone companies, and so on thru a list which aims at and as far as can be seen takes in every possible use of the streets that an ingenious mind could think of. Where there is a demand for the joint use of a track laid on a city street, the city engineer has the power to force that joint use of the tracks and provision is made for proper compensation of the company which laid and owns the tracks. All of those companies using the tracks are required to sprinkle that part of the streets over which they run. There was a long contention over a question of dictation in the matter of the repair or replacing of torn-up streets. The original draft specified that the work should be done in a manner prescribed by the commission and under the supervision of the city engineer. After nearly an hour's discussion was changed to read that the work should be done under the supervision of the city engineer to the satisfaction of the commission.

Own Public Utilities

There is a general provision looking to the acquisition of all public utilities by the city. Commercial lighting by the city is specifically provided for. The system of universal transfers is also provided for. The commission is to have the power to require any railway using the streets to pave the entire width of the street from curb to curb and to make crossings, surface or overhead, to the satisfaction of the commission. And, generally and finally, if there is any possible reserved right or power which may go to more thoroughly establish the control of the city over the streets, that power is expressly retained by the commissioners. The committee after much discussion refused to change the poll tax rate from $1.

The members of the legislature are charged with the duty of "editing the copy" which goes to the city, and they will do that as quickly as possible. The promise is made that the act will be promptly introduced in the legislature and the hope is that the new charter will become effective within sixty days after the meeting of the legislature. This great labor falls upon Mr. Baskin and Mr. Lane.

CHARTER OF CITY IS NOW COMPLETE

Will Be Edited by Baskin and Lane

The work of the general charter committee was ended at Thursday's meeting, which was held in the mayor's office and attended by Mayor Harris, B. B. Paddock, M. B. Harris, J. C. Scott, W. L. Wise, J. E. Shanahan, C. W. Woodman, Lee Stephens and the two representatives in the legislature, A. J. Baskin and W. P. Lane.

The sections discussed at the meeting were those relating to police and fire departments, streets and schools. There is but little change from the present regulations with reference to the police and fire departments. The chiefs of those departments are to be appointees of the commission and the men under them are to be the nominees of the chiefs, with the confirmation right reserved to the commission. An assistant in either department may be appointed if the commission deems it necessary.

Salaries of Chiefs

The salary of the chief of police was advanced from $1,500 to $2,000. The fire chief is to receive the same pay as now, $1,500 per year. The pay of the subordinates is under the control of the commissioners and the right to employ and discharge the men is reserved by the commission. The chief commissioner can remove the men, but only a majority vote of the commission can remove the chiefs. The chiefs have the power to temporarily suspend the men for cause in either department.

Management of Schools

The schools are placed under the almost absolute control of the board of seven trustees and the first Saturday in May next an election is to be held for the election of the seven trustees at large, that election to be ordered by the city council if it is still in existence, or by the commission, if the latter body has assumed the direction of city affairs.

A reference back to the general taxing clause was made necessary by the fact that the school trustees are to be vested with power to fix the amount of the tax rate for schools, provided the total of 50 cents on the $100 of valuation is not exceeded. The present city tax rate had been heretofore fixed at $1.75 on the $100 and the amendment to that part of the charter made last night would have increased explicitly that the total named should be inclusive of the one-half of 1 per cent which might be levied by the school board. The present rate for schools is one-fourth of 1 per cent, or 25 cents on the $100 of valuation. The school trustees are to be debited from income taxes in excess of the estimated revenues from the school tax or in excess for school buildings and grounds of the amount which may accrue to its uses from the sale of bonds elsewhere authorized. The commission can appoint its own president, vice president and secretary and these officers and the trustees are to serve without pay, except that the secretary may be paid a sum not exceeding $25 per month. The treasurer of the school fund is to be the same as the general city treasurer. No one connected with the school board in any capacity is to be employed in any other way, can be interested in any kind of school books or supplies, and the establishment of the fact there is an interest in the kind vacates, per se, the position held.

After the election of the school trustees, as provided for, they are to draw for the terms, and the trustees who draw Nov. 1, 2, 3 and 4 are to serve for one year each and the others are to serve for two years each, and then alternately in May of each year. CARRIERS' ELECTION

Local Mail Men Choose Officers for 1907. The Letters Carriers' Association of Fort Worth had an enthusiastic meeting Wednesday, Dec. 12, in the club room of the federal building, at which about forty members were present. The following officers were elected for the coming year: H. L. Small, president; W. W. McClelland, vice president; Sulby Brown, recording secretary; C. F. Moore, financial secretary; L. L. Lindas, treasurer; H. C. Schlinker, sergeant-at-arms. There were several candidates for each office, and several ballots had to be cast before the final results. The association is on a good working basis. The carriers hope are running high in expectation of the present congress raising the carriers' salary.

ADVERTISING RESULTS

The Want Ad Was in the Telegram of Course. An advertisement that was ordered out the same day on account of results, was placed in The Telegram Monday by W. W. Sloan Jr., proprietor of the Touraine hotel, advertising for a waitress. The want ad was placed to run indefinitely and was ordered out the same night, after running once, as five applicants had applied for the position the day of issue. Of these one was selected for the position in time to go to work for dinner that night. Other applicants who applied for the position the next day were compelled to go away disappointed.

FANCY BLOUSE WAIST FOR EMBROIDERY OR BORDERED MATERIAL 5451

To Be Made with or Without the Fitted Lining

There are so many pretty bordered materials and flouncings that the waist that can be made therefrom is sure to find a hearty welcome. Here is a model designed especially for that use, but which is not confined to such fabrics only, as it can be made from any plain material that is trimmed at the edges. In the illustration, however, batiste flouncing is combined with all-over lace and with frills of Valenciennes lace, making an exceedingly dainty and attractive whole. The chemise effect obtained is both novel and charming and can be varied again and again. All-over lace can be used through, plain material can be trimmed or any inserted lingerie material can be utilized. Again, the sleeves can be made as illustrated with the bordered material meeting over strips of the trimming or can be cut from a plain fabric and simply finished at their lower edges.

The waist is made with the fitted lining, which can be used or omitted as desired. The fronts, backs and center front. The center front is arranged under the fronts and stitched to position. The waist is tucked at the shoulders to provide becoming fullness below and the closing is made invisibly at the back. The sleeves are the favorite ones that extend just below the elbows, where they can be finished as illustrated or in any way that may be liked.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 1/4 yards of em-looked down upon the ocean and gazed himself on the grass. The girl remained standing, her white sunshade poised above her head, dividing her glances between the emerald lake in front, the azure sea and the forlorn looking boy at her feet.

"Paul," she said finally, "I'm taxing your patience heartily. I am I hope." "No, Edith, you've been a most gracious, benevolent angel to me," Gerson replied, gushing. "It is mine no great liberty to be allowed to see you. You have shared your joys with me—you have allowed me to serve you—the best I can. What more could a foolow want?"

They were both silent again. Then the man, his lips trembling, turned to the girl.

"Edith," he began, "let's put everything else aside for the time and have a complete understanding. Let's know ourselves and each other. You care a little for me, don't you?"

"I can't say that there are any secrets," the girl answered. "I believe your danger is past."

"I know the habit you mean," Gerson answered. His eyes shone with a great light. "I have filled me with the fire of love, with fearlessness, with manhood."

"I have suspected that it was this that has kept us from each other," Gerson went on. "But, Edith, dear, the old serpent is quite dead. I have taken him by the throat and strangled him. It has been a mighty fight for me, but I am on top and the serpent is dead. Edith, will you have me now?"

The girl's eyes were bright and shining and her lips were quivering, but she shook her head—but ever so gently.

"I know," Gerson breathed softly. "I know what you mean. I'll be patient, but something seems to tell me that it will all be revealed to you and you will know the truth."

Miss Graham's eyes suddenly became filled with a great sorrow. Her little body trembled and her cheeks turned ashen.

"Paul," she gasped faintly. "I feel—I feel that something terrible is about to happen. It's—it's you!"

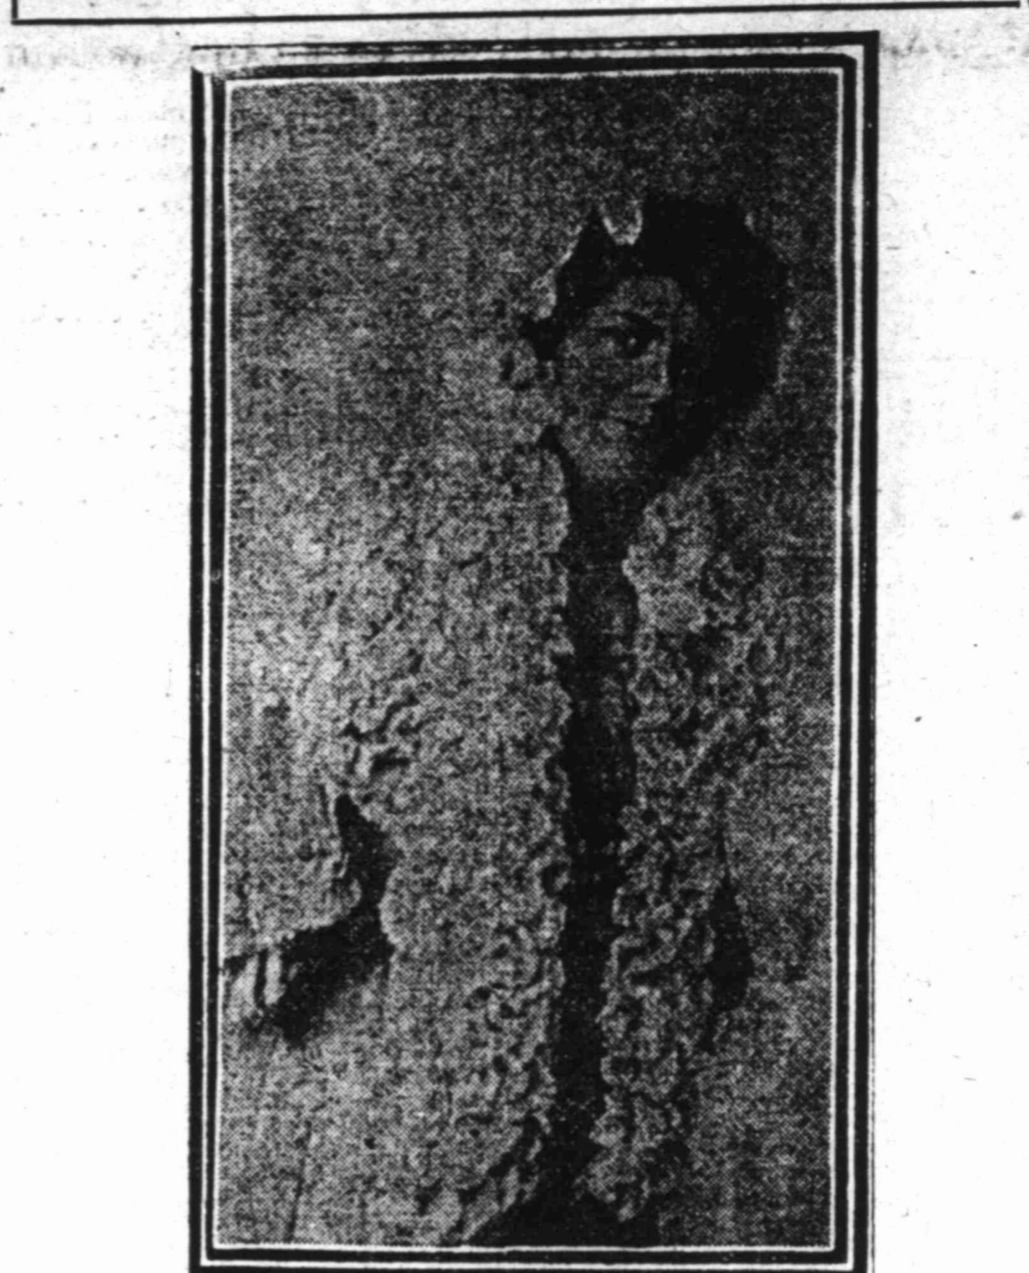

"Swaying back and forth, his eyes glittering and an odd smile on his lips, the man gazed steadfastly at something in the grass, just at his feet. The girl, too, watched in fascinated horror the thing in the grass. Suddenly the man, with a tremendous effort, shook his shoulders and in a paroxysm of rage flung himself into the glittering, writhing serpent. Like a flash he had the thing wriggling and squirming around his right arm, and his hand locked like steel beneath the reptile's fangs. With one mighty fling, the wriggling ceased and Gerson let fall the insubstantial body and pressed his heel upon it.

A moment later the girl, sobbing passionately, lay limp on her man's arms, her head on his breast.

"Is it proven, dear?" he asked. And she answered—"Yes."

DAILY KNITTING CHITS

RUFFLED EVENING HOOD.

Don't you think the ruffled hood and cape shown in our picture is just the thing for winter evening wear? And it is suited for evening and autoing. I also want to tell grandma right now that she couldn't have anything like this hood better than this hood. Make it of black, or a gray, and leave off the stole ends in front. Ordinary crocheting would not produce the really smart effect, also ordinary crocheting stitches are the only ones used and that is the simplest way. First the lining of zephyr Germantown—is made firm and close. Upon the lining is made the loose foundation of Shell-lend firm, then upon it is worked shells. The hood is begun at the top, right straight back from the forehead to the crown. It is worked back and forth around the head, from one side to the face to the other, until it is long enough to reach to the neck. Then it spreads out, each row more and more in a genuine circular way, until the lower edge is reached. After that the straight stole ends fronts, and the shaping is finished.

Some letters to grandma or auntie, to some "in" friend or old nurse. Music is always a delight on Sunday for the ladies of the program—Ladies' Home Journal.

ST. ELMO HOTEL SOLD THURSDAY

Mrs. Larimer Makes Profitable Deals

Mrs. Sarah L. Larimer bought the St. Elmo Hotel on the corner of Second and Rusk streets Thursday for $26,000 from O. B. Holt and George Simson, who have owned the property about a year. It is a three-story brick hotel with sixty-five rooms and fronts ninety feet on Second street and 100 feet on Rusk street.

This sale is considered by men interested in real estate in the city to be one of the cheapest that have been sold in this city for some time. Mrs. Larimer sold a fifty-foot lot in Main street, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, for $50,000 last week, since which time she has secured a 90x100 quarter-acre brick building on the corner of Fifteenth and Rusk streets for $26,000, and then this other property, getting both the properties for only $2,000 more than she sold the one other, which is smaller than either of the two she purchased. The deal for the St. Elmo hotel is well known throughout the entire country as the Holmes castle, having been at one time owned by H. H. Holmes. It was afterward the LaCade hotel and is now the St. Elmo.

INCREASE PENALTIES Letter Sent to Members of Grain Dealers' Association

A circular letter has been issued by H. B. Dorsey, secretary of the Texas Grain Dealers' Association, to the members, asking them to communicate a resolution in regard to the proposed change which will come before the railroad commission Tuesday, Dec. 18, in regard to increasing the penalty for freight. Mr. Dorsey will then present the communications to the meeting on that date.

The proposition is to increase the penalty for such undercharging or mis-describing from the present rate of 100 per cent of the rate applicable to 100 per cent. At the last annual meeting of the Texas Grain Dealers' Association a resolution was passed calling for the passage of such a law and consequently the association will be strongly represented at the meeting Tuesday.

Monday morning, Dec. 21, will be held at 4 p. m. in the building, at which a stereopticon will be used.

Monday morning, Dec. 31, will be for the boys of the Sixth and Ninth ward schools and Monday afternoon the reception will be for high school students. Monday night the members of all secret societies are invited.

Tuesday morning, Jan. 1, will complete the reception of the ward schools, the Seventh and Fourth being invited, and on New Year's afternoon a general reception to men only. The program for New Year's night will be announced later.

Special gymnasium work will be given at each reception and also work with the stereopticon. The directors of the association desire that every man, woman and boy in the city visit and inspect the building during the opening week. It is expected that by the close of this week the membership in each class will have reached its limit.

STEAMER STRANDED Live Staving Station Goes to the Rescue

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 14.—The Austrian steamer Clara, from Trieste, bound for New York, went ashore near Montokong life saving station, twenty-six miles south of Sandhook. The life savers have gone to the rescue.

The Clara went on the beach at 5 a. m. and soon turned broadside to the beach. The captain came ashore in a breeches buoy sent off by the Montokong life saving crew.

The wrecking tug J. J. Morret was sent from this city to pull the stranded steamer off the beach.

HOUSEHOLD

AUNT JUDY'S BEST Take cod fish of any kind that is left over, remove all skin, bones, etc., and break the meat into small pieces. Pour over a dressing made thus: Mix one egg, one tablespoonful prepared mustard, three tablespoonfuls vinegar, one tablespoon butter, salt and pepper to taste. Put over the fire and let boil to a cream, stirring all the time. When cold, pour over the fish and let stand a few minutes. Serve on lettuce leaves.

Rhubarb Pudding Roll bread or cracker crumbs and cut up rhubarb. Put a layer of crumbs in a pudding dish, bits of butter here and there and sprinkle with sugar. Then put a layer of rhubarb, well sugared. Fill the dish with alternate layers of crumbs and rhubarb. Bake half an hour and serve with lemon sauce.

Maine Butter Pie Cover a pie plate with crust as for custard pie, a piece of butter the size of an egg, two-thirds of a cup of sugar, one cup of sweet cream—or rich milk will do with a little more sugar—and one teaspoonful flour. Stir butter, flour and sugar together, then stir in cream, pour in the plate and bake till brown.

TO WASH CROCHETED GOODS When washing knitted or crocheted articles, such as shawls, hosiery and saques, the great point to bear in mind is that they must not be stretched out of shape, and for this reason they must never be rubbed hard or twisted. Wash in warm, soft water, and all the changes of water should be of the same temperature.

If white woolen articles have turned yellow, they may sometimes be whitened by letting them stand covered with soapuds in the sun, and then a survey of the pale tenderfoot's slender form and strode over to him.

"You fool!" he said, "the Mexican says that this girl is for him, and if you do that again he'll fill you with lead. He'll do it, too, you mind that."

Blodgett laughingly strode over toward the girl and was about to throw his arms about her when there was a crash of a pistol.

Thru the smoke a man reeled and fell to the floor.

"Friend," the young northerner gasped, "it's all day with me. I'm dying. But I deserved it. Fool! Fool! Fool!"

"Friend—friend," he went on, slowly. "In my inside pocket here, right above this—this hurt, is her picture. I want to see it—I want to see the picture of the sweetest girl in the world. She's back in Boston waiting for me. We were going to be married next month."

The cowboy had already pulled out the picture. A bullet had penetrated it, and it was stained with blood. He stared at the picture fully a minute, his hands trembling and his breast heaving heavily.

"Have you ever heard of Jimmie Ralston?" he asked.

"Yes, yes," Blodgett answered, "many times. He was her brother. He's dead now. He ran away when a boy. Edith—she loved him."

"You—you—"

"Jim," he said, "you must go back home. They want you—they need you. I'm dying. Jim—it's best. You'll go back to her and take care of that dear mother and sister of yours. You could do it better than I can. You know that, Jim. Jim—promise—quick!"

But before he could answer the great Arizona desert grew black under a passing cloud and thru the blackness a young spirit went into the night.

SHORT STORY

BLODGETT'S FOLLY

BY ARCH McMAKIN.

"Now, my girl, you come and have one. Come on, fellows; we're all going to drink a rousing big health to the prettiest girl in Arizona."

The bartender, a swarthy Mexican, reached for the earthen jug in front of the cracked, dirty mirror and all of the cowboys—all but one—again lugged up to the bar. The one, a tall fellow, browned and rough-looking, but whose face still bore the print of culture, strode to the doorway, disgusted, and looked out on the exquisite Arizona moonlight.

In broken, halting Castilian, Blodgett, the northerner, and the girl conversed together, she praising the excellent flavor of his cigarettes, he watching her with delight as she blew the fragrant smoke thru her pearl teeth.

"Come, Inez Marie," said Blodgett, "come, we are drinking your health." The girl's eyes stole swiftly to the Mexican behind the bar. The Mexican flashed back a look of anger and warning.

"No, no. I—me no like."

The liquor began to work. Blodgett flashed a hand full of yellow bills in the Mexican's face and ordered more drink. All the time his eyes shot burning, amorous darts at the Mexican girl.

"Inez Marie," he said, approaching her, "my beauty, my wild bird, I'm going to kiss you—yes, kiss you."

The girl drew back in alarm, but he pushed down her arms and pressed a kiss upon her forehead. The Mexican, his teeth set, his eyes glaring, was growling like an angry dog. The Mexican flashed back a look of anger and warning.

"Will he? Will he?"

"Friend—friend," he went on, slowly. "In my inside pocket here, right above this—this hurt, is her picture. I want to see it—I want to see the picture of the sweetest girl in the world. She's back in Boston waiting for me. We were going to be married next month."

The cowboy had already pulled out the picture. A bullet had penetrated it, and it was stained with blood. He stared at the picture fully a minute, his hands trembling and his breast heaving heavily.

HOUSEHOLD

MILLIONS OF CRATES There are more than 10,000 establishments in the country for raising early vegetable plants under glass. Nothing but the radius of fifteen miles of Boston there are nearly 2,000,000 square feet of glass used in forcing vegetables.

The suburbs of New York, Chicago, and other big cities use nearly 5,000,000 square feet of glass, mostly in forcing vegetables and early fruit culture, and the glass alone used in this forcing nature is worth millions of dollars.

Our fruit, vegetable, and nut crop of 1905 required the service of over 100,000,000 crates. Laid end to end, each touching its neighbor, these crates would encircle the earth at the equator three and one-half times; they would easily hold the entire population of the world; they would make a pile with a base the size of a big office building, higher than the world's most lofty mountain. Texas alone uses enough crates to reach across the United States five times, and Georgia is not far behind.—E. C. Rowe, in Leslie's Weekly.

MOISTURE FOR QUINCE TREES In spite of the great success attained by many in fruiting, it is a sad thing to have others say they have no success with them. A great deal of success or non-success depends on the situation the trees occupy. It is useless to plant them on shallow, light soil. What the quince requires is a deep, moist situation, especially a place where the ground is cold. Where quinces flourish and bear fruit every year, the soil is deep and moist. In many yards of farm houses quinces may be met with, and when these are in a position for receiving occasional supplies of liquid manure or dish water, how they do thrive! If it could be arranged in regard to the bushes could receive a supply of liquid manure once a month, there would be no question of their doing well. The best position for the liquid manure is the keeping away of borers. These pests are most numerous in the autumn, and a few ashes are placed around the bushes to become saturated with the liquid manure.—Practical Farmer.

TRIMMING BERRY BUSHES When I began raising blackberries I cut the old brush as soon as the crop was all picked. But I found this was not the best way, as the wind often breaks down the young plants and the brush is left to rot. And there is much work at that time, and the weather is hot, and the work is disagreeable, as the wind gives thin cuttings and gets badly scratched.

I now avoid all these difficulties by waiting until winter. The new plants are so hard that the wind will not destroy them. I have plenty of time and can put on my heavy coat and gloves and remove the old brush without being scratched. I select a time when the temperature is rising and the ground frozen. I use a short iron hook with a handle about four feet long. Place the hook back of an old stalk about a foot above the ground, then shove it forward and it breaks close to the frozen soil.—W. L. Anderson in Farm and Home.

EARLY TO BED and early to rise, makes one healthy, happy and wise—especially if you take Herbine before retiring. A positive cure for Constipation, Dyspepsia and all liver complaints. Mrs. E. C. Sold by Covey & Martin.

A YOUNG LADY'S GOOD FORTUNE Miss Grace Gladden of Mount Pleasant has just accepted a position as telegraph operator for the Western Union Telegraph Company in this city. Miss Gladden came here to Tandy's College only five months ago, and she then knew absolutely nothing of telegraphy. She went directly from school into the telegraph office at Tandy's college, and highly elated over her success. The special holiday rates are now on at Tandy's Depot College. Phone office 3595; residence 3553.

CHILDREN ON SUNDAY Children cannot keep still long at a time, and a quiet drive in the country, a walk thru fields or woods, a stroll thru orchard or garden, are all in harmony with the spirit of the day.

There is no better day than Sunday in which to think kind thoughts of others. Let the children gather flowers for some old lady, autumn leaves for a sick friend, a basket of all liver complaints. Mrs. E. C. Lumb, Tenn., writes: "I always keep a supply of your Herbine on hand. Am so pleased with the relief it gives in constipation and all liver complaints, that words can't express my appreciation." Sold by Covey & Martin.

GERSON VICTORY

BY ARCH McMAKIN.

As the two slowly climbed the hill Gerson drew nearer to Miss Graham's side. Their shoulders touched, the man's breath warmed the girl's cheek and again he asked her the question.

"No," was the reply—the one he expected.

Gerson stopped, turned about and

COME TONIGHT—STORE OPEN TILL 10—404 HOUSTON

Four pianos were sold yesterday up to 3 o'clock, leaving a good assortment of fine pianos left.

We have no choice in the matter; the pianos must be sold and it's up to those needing pianos. No reasonable offer will be refused for any piano left.

Prices have been cut away below wholesale cost to sell these pianos, as we are forced to sell, and forced to sell quickly.

If you want one of the celebrated Kimball pianos, now is your chance. We still have a good assortment of the finest styles left. They are going at $150 to $200 below the regular prices.

Ten dollars sends one home for Christmas; $7 to $10 a month pays for it. We have seven other makes of new and used pianos in this stock. Included are such makes as Chickering, Ivers & Pond, Strother, Hobart M. Cable, Dunbar & Co., Hoffman and Haddorf.

Every one must be sold, no matter how great the loss. Come and see these great bargains. One Ivers & Pond upright, used but in fine condition, for $100.

Think of buying a large-size used upright Chickering, in the playing condition, for $85; or a brand new piano for $125. You never hear of one like this before and you never will again when this sale is over.

One Strother, a good new piano, regular $250 value, sale price $195. Cash or easy payments.

One $400 Hobart M. Cable upright, one of the finest of the kind, made by the Hobart M. Cable Co., in rich mahogany case, plain colonial style, goes for $200; $10 cash, $10 monthly.

One Kimball Baby Grand $400. One Kimball small baby grand, fine quarter-sawn oak case, solid copper-receptions to be given by the Y. M. C. A. at the opening of the new building will begin on the night of Dec. 25 with a reception to members and those desiring to become members, contributors and business men. Ladies are also invited.

Thursday morning, Dec. 27, the boys members will be given a chance to see the completed building. Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock a reception will be tendered to the students in Fort Worth University, Polytechnic, the medical school and the business colleges.

Friday morning, Dec. 28, the boys of the First, Third and Fifth ward schools will be invited and in the afternoon a special reception will be given to the members of the ladies' clubs of the city.

Friday night the reception will be for the clerks, office men and railway train and office men.

Saturday morning, Dec. 29, the boys of the Second and Eighth ward schools will be received and Saturday afternoon all the ladies in the city will be given an invitation to inspect the building.

Saturday night will be for North Fort Worth, including Armour & Co. and Swift & Co., and also the exchange employes, and also Glenwood, Polytechnic Heights and Arlington Heights.

Sunday, Dec. 30, the first men's meeting will be held at 4 p. m. in the building, at which a stereopticon will be used.

Monday morning, Dec. 31, will be for the boys of the Sixth and Ninth ward schools and Monday afternoon the reception will be for high school students. Monday night the members of all secret societies are invited.

Tuesday morning, Jan. 1, will complete the reception of the ward schools, the Seventh and Fourth being invited, and on New Year's afternoon a general reception to men only. The program for New Year's night will be announced later.

Special gymnasium work will be given at each reception and also work with the stereopticon.  WACO, Texas, Dec. 14.—A State
 Good Roads Association meeting
 will probably be held here Jan. 2 and 3,
 under the auspices of the National Good Roads Association, of which Colonel W. H. Moore is president. Arrangements looking to closing up the plans for holding the meeting are making and there is general interest
 in the demonstration work which will be presented. President Moore has just left here, and the matter will be definitely determined as to the meeting
 in a very short time.

An Old and Well-tried Remedy

ARGUE APPEAL FOR ENRICO CARUSO
 Accuse Commissioner of Sharp Practices

Special to The Telegram.
 NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Before an audience composed of one woman and
 as many men as the room would hold,
 former Judge Dittenhofer argued En-
 rico Caruso's appeal from the condemnation for disorderly conduct in the monkey house in Central Park, and the imposing of a $10 fine upon him by Magistrate Baker.

Recorder Goff heard the appeal. Caruso was not present.

Mr. Dittenhofer said that Deputy Police Commissioner Mathod had been guilty of sharp practices and inexcusable conduct in his prosecution of the tenor in the magistrate's court. He complained that the conviction was illegal, for the reason that Caruso had been prosecuted under the consolidation act instead of the penal code,
 which Mr. Dittenhofer said should have been done.

He argued that altho the defense
 had proved that Caruso was in the monkey house only ten or twelve minutes, Policeaman Cane accused him of conduct which it would have required
 much longer than that period to perform. Stress was laid by the lawyer upon the failure of Mrs. Anna Graham to appear. The recorder reserved his opinion.

BEGIN WORK ON ROAD
 Will Build Road South to Dallas and
 Fort Worth

Special to The Telegram.
 MUSKOGEE, I. T., Dec. 14.—The Missouri, Oklahoma and Gulf railroad has again resumed the building of their road from Dustin to Denison. A trainload of teams and scrapers arrived in this city today en route to Dustin to be put into commission.

This road has now about seventy-
 five miles of constructed line in operation from Wagoner to Dustin. It is the intention of the company to build north to Joplin and south to Dallas and Fort Worth, thus giving them a shorter line from southwest Missouri points to north and central Texas. At Dallas or Fort Worth closer connections will be made with other lines to the gulf
 points.

There is much speculation as to what road will take over this railroad
 when completed. Many declare it is a Missouri Pacific proposition, but
 the officers of the company stoutly deny this and declare it will be supported road from Missouri to the Gulf.

ABOLISH THE HOLIDAYS
 131 of the 365 Days of the Year Are Holidays

Special to The Telegram.
 CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 14.—It is probable that a law will be passed
 abolishing many of the religious holidays now observed regularly in Mexico. Such a movement has been put on foot in industrial and business circles. In Mexico, where all the religious and traditional holidays are observed, and the custom is followed
 by more than half of the population,
 there are 131 holidays out of the 365.
 On these days the Mexican laborer refuses to work and all industry must also cease. With the existing scarcity of labor this seriously affects progress
 of all kinds. A bill has been introduced to act in the matter is now being prepared. The 131 holidays are made up
 as follows: Sundays, 52; saint days, 53; solemn feasts, 15; holy days, 15;
 national feast days, 3; family feast
 days, 8.

HOME FOR TEACHERS
 Mineral Wells Will Raise the Bonus of $25,000

Special to The Telegram.
 MINERAL WELLS, Texas, Dec. 14.—
 The Commercial Club is entertaining favorably a proposition from the promoters to establish here a teachers' Association of America and Teachers' Home. A bonus of $25,000 is asked. The building proposed is to be five stories high, 26x150 feet, containing 200 rooms 14x16 feet. It is to be modern in every respect and to cost $200,000. Mineral Wells has been selected over several other health resorts in Arkansas, Missouri and Tex-
 as. A telegram was sent President Sutherland, requesting him to come here at once to look over the ground.
 The Commercial Club is sure of no trouble in raising the bonus. Only health resorts have been asked to bid
 for the location.

COMES TO SAN ANTONIO
 Many Texas Physicians Will Visit Tuberculosis Exhibit

Special to The Telegram.
 SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Dec. 14.—
 The exhibit for tuberculosis, prevention and cure of tuberculosis, which is now in Mexico City, will be brought to San Antonio in January for a week. The exhibit consists of the latest and the most sanitary devices to prevent the spread of the great white plague. It has been gathered together especially for the benefit of the physicians and people of the Bexar County Medical Association
 and will be free. The entire floor of a large building is required for the exhibit. Physicians from all parts of Texas are expected to come here to examine it.

MYSTERIOUS LETTER
 Mineral Wells Chief of Police Follows
 Instructions

Special to The Telegram.
 MINERAL WELLS, Dec. 14.—Chief of Police Will is in receipt of an unsigned letter, mailed at Abilene, notifying him that a horse was stolen here
 in July, 1905, and describing where the horse could be found and also stating that the thief would be arrested if all
 the instructions for the horse were followed. The instructions, the officers have located the horse, but up to date have not located the physician. Whether this is a case of "stricken conscience" or not the chief is unable to say.

MEAT WAS CONDEMNED
 San Antonio People Warned About Ta-
 males and Chili

Special to The Telegram.
 SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Dec. 14.—
 The meat inspectors of the board of health have arrested a number of Mexicans and condemned a great quantity
 of inferior meat which was being used in making chili and tamales, which are sold by the street vendors. The people have been warned to exercise
 care in what they purchase.

Str Humphrey Davy said it was reasonable to talk of ventilating London with windmills as to light the big city with gas.

WILL BUY LARGE MEXICAN RANCH
 Cattle Business in Texas Is Doomed

Special to The Telegram.
 MONTEREY, Mexico, Dec. 14.—Major
 John B. Armstrong and J. G. Kennedy,
 two of the wealthiest and most noted
 ranchmen of Southwest Texas, are here en route to Tampaulipas, where they will close a deal for a big ranch
 of about 1,000,000 acres of the best grazing land. They propose to enter into cattle raising in Mexico on a large scale and will ship thousands of head
 of cattle from their Texas ranches to Mexico.

Both Mr. Kennedy and Major Armstrong say that the cattle business is doomed in Texas and they are looking for other fields where they can pursue cattle raising at a profit. Both have been offered very high prices for their Texas ranches and say that the inducements are such that they will have to open them up to settlers.

They admit that a syndicate at the head of which is H. H. Rogers of the Standard Oil Company and James
 Stillman of the City National Bank,
 New York, are figuring on the purchase of the ranches of Major Armstrong and Dr. H. H. Rogers of the Driscoll and King ranches for the establishment of a big colony, but say
 that no definite terms have been made.
 The ranch to be purchased by the gentlemen in Mexico will probably be the biggest in the world, as ranches of large dimensions in both the United States and Australia are rapidly disappearing.

CLEARED OF CHARGE
 Another Negro Was Beaten to Death
 With Picket

Special to The Telegram.
 PALESTINE, Texas, Dec. 14.—Tom Simpson, colored, charged with the murder of Chris Williams, was cleared
 by the jury in his case at the dis-
 cretary of the state, who is also colored, was beaten to death with a heavy picket, crushing his skull.

The jury in the case of the state
 against Simpson, colored, returned
 in a verdict of guilty, and assessed
 his punishment at twenty years in the penitentiary. He was charged with killing another negro, named Large Christian at Frankston, this county,
 in 1901.

ENGINES FOR MEXICO
 One Shipment Arrives in San Antonio

Special to The Telegram.
 SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Dec. 14.—A portion of the million dollars worth of equipment of the National Lines of Mexico have arrived in this city en route to Mexico City. The shipment consisted of six new engines and nine new coaches. The engines are the latest ever seen in Texas and the coaches are of the latest pattern. A total of thirty-five engines and ten trains of coaches have been ordered
 and all will be delivered to the com-
 any line during the next thirty days.

PARTY OF MACEDONIANS
 Thirty Were at Palestine With an Immigration Agent

Special to The Telegram.
 PALESTINE, Texas, Dec. 14.—Mr. J.
 E. Schelling, immigration agent of the International and Great Northern railroad, was in the city with a party of Macedonians, thirty in number, who are en route to Texas on Tuesday
 their far away country. Fifteen went north and fifteen went west. They were nearly all young men.

Strength Comes
 Not From What You Eat, But From
 What You Digest

Most people eat most foods without discrimination—it matters little what.
 Few stop to think what that food does
 for them. This is the first turn on the road to dyspepsia. Reckless disregard of the proper choice of foods, rapid eating and improper mastication, are
 the chief causes of the most distressing
 disorders from the slight ache to the malignant cancer.

There is nothing more revolting than a weak stomach. It is a very exputrefaction, sending forth its poison
 throughout the entire system, depressing the brain, befouling the breath,
 sending the unknown interior of the muscles, incapacitating the liver and kidneys for their work, debilitating the heart, choking the lungs and clogging
 the bowels.

All of these disagreeable and dangerous conditions are due to the improper digestion of food, and the consequent assimilation of poison. What else can be expected? If the food lies in the stomach, if the system is constipated,
 fermentation is the natural outcome,
 and it shows itself in sour watery ris-
 ings, belchings, heartburn and painful
 breathing.

There is only one way to relieve this condition. If the stomach refuses to digest your food, put something into it
 that will, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets
 at once begin to digest. They are not a medicine. They work when the stomach will not.

Each tablet contains enough pepsin,
 diastase, golden seal and other digestive elements to reduce 3,000 grains
 of ordinary food to the proper consistency for assimilation into the blood.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are absolutely pure. There is nothing harmful
 in them as shown in their endorsement
 by 40,000 physicians in the United States and Canada.

Ask your family physician his opinion of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and if he is honest toward you he will state
 positively that they will cure your stomach trouble whatever it may be,
 unless you have a fixed, long, or
 have allowed your disorder to develop into cancer.

Act today and begin to end your suffering. Free trial packages will be sent to your address upon request. The 50-cent size packages are for sale at your druggist's. F. A. Stuart Co., 67

LONDON TO SAIL AROUND WORLD
 Novelist Starts Unique Tour
 From San Francisco

Special to The Telegram.
 SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 14.—In a little forty-five foot boat, with a crew consisting of a sailor, a cabin boy and a cook, Jack London, the famous novelist, and his wife will sail tomorrow for a trip around the world. Final preparations are being made today for the long voyage, one of the most dangerous and foolhardy ever attempted.
 Searfaring men are divided in opinion
 as to the probability of the novelist
 and his party completing the circuit
 of the world in safety, some declaring that disaster is almost certain, while others believe that the snug little vessel will be able to weather any ordinary storm.

Mr. London is an able seaman and will act as captain of the "Snark" while an uncle of Mrs. London will be first mate and crew. Mrs. London is enrolled on the passenger list. Martin Johnson, a young man whose home
 is in Independence, Kan., has been engaged as cook, and in addition to his culinary duties will be the official photographer of the party. A Japanese cabin boy completes the crew.

The "Snark" is a trim and seaworthy
 little craft and was built especially for
 Mr. London, to be used in the present expedition. It is equipped with a powerful gasoline engine, which will be used only in navigating rivers, the sails furnishing motive power on the open sea. The cabins are neat and comfortable, if small, and will be lighted by electricity.

No definite schedule for the voyage
 has been made and none will be observed. Honolulu is the first objective point, where a short stop will be made. Then the little craft will set sail for the southern seas, and it is likely that many weeks will be spent
 in drifting aimlessly about in this region. Scores of the little islands that dot the South Pacific will be visited
 and the gifted novelist will likely obtain much material for some of his
 more distant and little known people.

Japan is expected to furnish a wealth of stories for the writer and a considerable stay will be made in the flowery kingdom. Braving the "yellow peril" the expedition will seek to penetrate the unknown interior of China by means of the long rivers that wind tortuously thru the land of the dragon. From India the "Snark" will proceed thru the Red sea and the Suez canal to Syria and Turkey. All the important seas and rivers of Europe
 will be invaded by the little boat before it attempts the passage of the

MASKED ROBBERS
LOOT ASHER BANK
 Escaped on Hand Car With Four Thousand Dollars

Special to The Telegram.
 SHAWNEE, Okla., Dec. 14.—Five
 masked men blew the safe in the State Bank at Asher, a town of 500 people,
 twenty miles south of here, on a Rock Island branch line, and escaped on a handcar with $4,000 yesterday morning.
 A lad named Lehman, running for a doctor for his mother, was caught by the bandits to prevent his giving an alarm. He was held until the robbery was committed. Locked in a box car by the men he heard them depart northward and managing to get out of the car he gave an alarm.
 From his description the men are
 the same who have committed other robberies in Oklahoma recently. One robber was injured by the explosion,
 leaving a pool of blood on the floor
 and a trail to the railroad. After getting out of Asher they deserted the railroad, taking to the timber. The bank's loss is insured.

FOR FARMERS ONLY
 No Corporate Interests Wanted in the Organization

Special to The Telegram.
 ABILENE, Texas, Dec. 14.—In answer to a call a number of farmers
 met at the fire station in Abilene yesterday for the purpose of perfecting
 a new organization for farmers, but
 for the most of the day was consumed
 in discussion of the advisability of such an organization. According to the call published the new union will be composed of only actual farmers, till-
 ers of the soil, and the following constitutional qualification for membership will make it impossible for others
 to join:
 "No person shall be admitted as a member unless of sound mind, over the age of 18 years, a white person, of industrious habits, believes in a Supreme Being, is of good moral character and who is an actual farmer living on the farm; and not then if he holds any interest in any corporation
 or combine that is inimical to the interests of farmers, and any occupation that would before initiation render him ineligible, said member shall at once be dismissed from the order."

MANY EXTRA DEPUTIES
 Officers Expected Shipments of Whiskey for Christmas

Special to The Telegram.
 MUSKOGEE, I. T., Dec. 14.—Anticipating a large shipment of whisky by bootleggers in the Indian Territory
 for the holidays, Special Officer William E. Johnson has appointed twenty extra deputies, who will be placed at various points throughout the Indian Territory. The most of these men are Indian policemen and have the authority to arrest and bring in any bootlegger bringing whisky into the territory.

THE STORE THAT MAKES GOOD

It was that was working hand in glove with our senator in the consummation of this scheme? In substance Pierce swore that many times in the spring of 1900 the advice to dissolve and reincorporate had been discussed and decided upon in the executive councils of the Standard Oil. Did Bailey borrow the idea from Standard Oil or did Standard Oil borrow it from Bailey?

And how did they dissolve? Five directors met in a little room in the city of St. Louis. One introduced a resolution, "Be it resolved, That the old Waters-Pierce Oil Company be dissolved," and one seconded it and the chairman put it and the resolution was adopted, and then they copied in substance the old charter, filed it at Jefferson City, came on a Katy flyer to Austin and filed the new charter with the secretary of state and the perfidy was complete. "The senator has said he was not present when the proceedings took place. Why the necessity for his presence at such a simple proceeding? What changes were made by the dissolution? Practically the same old stock, practically the same old officers and actually the same old name.

"So I say by this circumlocution, by this sleight of hand work, by this legal legerdemain was accomplished this fraud in law and in fact and a great state was cheated of its victory. And yet in spite of all this our matchless senator states before the assembled democracy, 'I am proud of my part in bringing back this great trading corporation.'

Schley and Sampson "When Schley and Sampson contested for honors of Santiago the real hero said there is glory enough for us all. Imitating him, Bailey arrogates all honor and all praise in that battle where a state was defeated and a trust triumphant. Instead of bowing his head and professing penitence he

"The Land of Nod" is a musical play which admits of some very good work on the part of the cast, which has it in hand, but for the most part the cast which presented it at Greenwall's Thursday night were not capable of performing their duty.

Those who are responsible for making the show acceptable are Knox Wilton as "April Fool" and a very excellent chorus. Mr. Wilton is a musician as well as a comedian and he is very funny. The chorus is working all the time during the performance and they sing the tuneful musical in a way that pleases.

"The other characters are weak. "The Man in the Moon" and "Bonnie" could be made very attractive, the songs and libretto are there and if certain people whom we have seen in Fort Worth lately could get hold of such parts, "The Land of Nod" would be materially improved. However, there was much to be commended as presented here to keep the audience (especially those upstairs) laughing and applauding most of the time. The performance was one which disappointed most of those who had seen the play before, but the majority of the audience, as they sat at home at night enjoyed themselves immensely.

"East Lynne" The hardest thing which a playwright has to contend with when trying to get away from the beaten paths of melodramatic mediocrity, is the tendency to drift unconsciously into the verbiage to have his characters say too much and do too little. In "East Lynne," which will be seen at Greenwall's opera house Saturday matinee and night, Dec. 15, this fault has been happily avoided. Prolix details give way to terse explanations and there is not a moment when there is not something doing.

"The Prince of Pilsen" "The Prince of Pilsen," the most popular and successful musical comedy of recent years, is scheduled for an engagement at Greenwall's opera house Monday night, Dec. 17, and a high degree of interest is certain to be shown in the coming of this attraction. It is now in its fifth season of presentation, and Manager Henry W. Savage is making its present tour a notable one by reason of the unusual strength of the company, its magnitude in numbers and the elaborate character of its scenic and costume equipment. Jess Dandy is at the head of the organization and his performance of Hans Wagner, the German barber from "Zizinnati," has been made generally famous. Mr. Dandy has played this part more than a thousand times.

Marrie Welsh, Albertina Benson, Eleanor Belmont, George Lydecker, William C. Woodon, J. Hayden-Clarendon and Robert O'Conner are others who will be prominent in the performance.

At the Majestic "The Cowboy and the Indian" is the title of a sketch given by Shields and his company at the Majestic theater which depicts life on the plains and the stirring incidents of lassoing. This is an original act by these young men and in one of the successes of the week's entertainment. They accomplish some wonderful achievements with their dexterous fingers. While this team are performing feats with their hands, Larkin and Burns are demonstrating to the audience what can be done with the feet and they certainly know how to work their "trillies" in executing dance movements. Then the Bedouin Arabs demonstrate the wonderful power of man. Miss Dacre is making a great hit in relating stories and singing up to the hilt. Miss Dacre's wonderful delights the audience with his negro dialect and trained dog. Miss Elting and Henry Earle are quite popular in their comedy, "Kicking the Winner."

At the Fort Worth Rink The management says: "Good crowds both afternoon and evening are enjoying skating at the big Fort Worth rink. The rink is doing well and is none in the south. Cox celebrated band is playing some new pieces that are simply top to skate by and a rare treat to hear.

"The Fort Worth people may not realize that they have one of the very best skating rinks in the country skating at the big Fort Worth rink; in fact, there are none better, and it is kept in Fort Worth by a big outlay of money, but the owners want to give the patrons of the big rink the best that can be had, and will not spare expense to do so. They are always on the lookout for attractions that will please the people, but will not take up the skaters' time for poor ones. The management realizes that the majority likes to skate, therefore nothing but the best attractions will be engaged. Saturday afternoon is always given up to the school children, when something is always doing to please them.

Hubner Land and Floor Manager William Eaton give their special attention to seeing that the children are well taken care of and the parents need not have any fear but that they will get the best attention and have a good time.

REVIVAL MEETING

Noted Baptist Evangelists Coming. All Baptists to Co-Operate For some months efforts have been making to bring to this city the eminent evangelists, Hamilton and Wakefield of Atlanta, Ga. Dr. P. E. Burdette of Jacksonville, Fla. and Dr. W. W. Hamilton, as official head of the evangelistic work among the Baptists of the south, occupies a commanding position. Coming to this work from a leading Louisville pastorate he has achieved signal success. Recent meetings in San Antonio, Texas, Wilmington, N. C., Henderson, Ky., and Pensacola, Fla., have borne large fruits.

Dr. Hamilton is accompanied by singer-evangelist W. D. Wakefield of Louisville, Ky. Mr. Wakefield, while yet a young man, has made for himself an enviable name as a soloist and choir leader. He will organize a chorus of some fifty and will be singing the entire feature of the meetings. He will also organize a large chorus among the children and give special attention to training these young men and women. They will arrive in the city about the first of the month in order to get the musical work in a recent meeting of the Baptist pastors' conference the various Baptist pastors of the city expressed themselves as willing to assist to enter into the meetings and to co-operate so far as possible.

All evangelical churches, especially those in the South city, will be invited to come into the meetings and aid in every possible way.

MAKE Your SH... LISTS NO... 10 DAYS UNTI... CAUSES... Activity of Churo... of Coum... LOSES FRAN... State Will Save... Millions a Year i... of Clergy A... Special to The Telegram. NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Cause of the warfare between the French government and the Catholic church was activity of the church in the United States. A less obvious cause of the warfare was the remarkable hold of socialism on the minds of the people, which gradually awoke to the liberty they so longed for. It is not to be found in the ranks of government, but in the last quarter of a century has become acute. The towns of the Vatican of France and not only for the ratification of the law, but also for its enforcement. This act means practically the disestablishment of France to the church. Spain, France has for centuries the most obedient and loyal of Rome, so that this curricular blow to the state of things. It also means that the property to the value of $1,000,000,000 is turned over to the state. The Roman Catholic church is disestablished and that endowed church will be grown in strength and power. It is in fact, it is a complete divorce of state and church, the most rapid separation for. The chamber of deputies act of disestablishment, is known, on July 3, 1905, passed it on Dec. 11, 1905, was ratified on Dec. 11, 1905, given that a year's time given to the church in which to transfer its property to the state and continue its order, as conceived and French statesmen, request churches to be conducted worship associations or income reduced to establish unions. By so doing it will be admitting defeat and evincing piety with the most honest means it had ever been forced to face. It so happened, then, the churches in France are so many ships that see that what port to steer to. Belongs to State All the church property in France is now in the hands of the government. According to there is still one more year to transfer its property to the state and continue its order, as conceived and French statesmen, request churches to be conducted worship associations or income reduced to establish unions. By so doing it will be admitting defeat and evincing piety with the most honest means it had ever been forced to face.
