Mike Montgomery, 11 Local Club Boy Wins Pig Litter Contest

By BENNY GLOVER

Mike Montgomery, 11-year-old son of John D. Montgomery, who resides six miles west of town, won first place in the Sears-Roebuck Foundation's Heavy Pig Litter contest with his entry litter.

Mike's registered Duroc Jersey litter of 11 eight-week-old pigs weighed 528 pounds, heavy enough to take first place in the four-county contest. Mike, a Cross Plains 4-H Club member, won a blue ribbon plus a cash first prize of $25, for his efforts in the contest. He is to use this prize money to further improve his livestock or equipment.

According to Glen Green, Callahan County Agent, the Montgomery litter is the heaviest ever weighed since he has been in Callahan County. The pigs ranged in weight from 40 to 56 pounds, with an average of 48 pounds per pig.

The Sears Foundation Heavy Litter contest for the Abilene area, gives a gift to several boys in each of the four counties, Callahan, Haskell, Jones and Taylor, in this division. The boys receiving the animals raise a litter for entry in the contest.

Each boy returns one pig to the Foundation which, in turn, is given another 4-H Club member, and will sell retail to the public. (Continued on back page)

GOPHER FAVORS PART-TIME FARMING DECIDED THAT NO OTHER JOB IS INVOLVED

Note: The Bayou farmer on his Johnson farm on the Bayou has another one of his dreams. In his letter this week in- he probably has plenty of experts who don't know farm problem is sort of like problem - you can solve it today, but there'll be tomorrow - have now with another solution.

There's nothing wrong with part-time farming, but the time to do it is not after you get off work from a job in town.

I know a lot of farmers are doing this, and some of them seem to be making out all right, but the solution just doesn't appeal to me.

What I want the experts to do is tackle the farm problem from within the boundaries of the farm. It doesn't take an expert to tell me if I don't make enough farming, get a job in town. Where do you think half the barbers in this country came from? They fled the farm.

I don't know about the rest of the farmers, but what I want is part-time farming with a full-time living. Farming ought to be like a business tycoon going into government service. No conflict of interest. He ought to give up one or the other, according to Congress, and that's the principle I want to approach the farm problem on.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

WHAT TO DO WHEN BREATHING STOPS

These five figures illustrate, from top to bottom, the steps in mouth-to-mouth resuscitation now being taught in Red Cross First Aid courses.

(1) Mother, using middle finger of one hand, clears child's mouth of any foreign matter. With same finger, she holds the tongue forward.

(2) Mother places child in a face-down, head-down, position, and pats him firmly on the back with the free hand, to help dislodge any foreign object in the air passage.

(3) The child is placed on his back, and the mother, using middle fingers of both hands, lifts the lower jaw from beneath and behind so that it "juts out."

(4) With one hand only, the jaw is held in this jutting-out position.

(5) The mother, covering the child's mouth and nose with her mouth, breathes into the child with a smooth, steady action. The free hand applies continuous moderate pressure to the child's abdomen, between navel and ribs, to prevent the stomach from being filled with air.

SEASONS FOR MIGRATORY BIRDS ARE SET BY THE TEXAS GAME AND FISH COMMISSION

Austin.—Open season and bag limits in Texas for the 1957 hunting season now have been pretty well established, according to the Executive Secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission. At a meeting in Austin, last week, the Commission set down the seasons for migratory birds. These will need final approval of the Fish and Wildlife Service, which will be forthcoming soon.

The deer season generally begins November 16, and extends through December 31. This is for white-tailed deer, especially in the Hill Country. Turkey season, for the most part, is open at the same time, with one gobler permitted.

Antlerless deer permits will be available from landowners in certain areas where too many deer are present.

Drawings for permits on the Management Area hunts will be held in October.

The mule deer season West of the Pecos has been set for November 20-27 inclusive.

There will be open dates on antelope in the Trans-Pecos country October 1-3 and October 5-7. This hunting will be by permit. The Panhandle antelope season will be Oct. 14-16 and 17-19. ## Soil Conservation District News

What to do with stubble and weeds is an important question with many farmers now. It is the most residue we have had in quite some time.

Stubble-mulching or proper crop residue management has been the answer for many farmers in handling this residue.

Some of the reasons for stubble-mulching are:

Stubble adds organic matter to the soil.

Increases rate of infiltration of rainfall and increase water holding capacity of the soil.

Stubble left on or near surface helps protect against wind and water erosion.

Stubble on or near surface decreases rate of evaporation and lessens crusting of surface soil.

Increases air space in the soil. Adds fertility and life to the soil. Shredders belonging to the Central Colorado Soil Conservation District have been used by many farmers in cutting weeds and stubble in a residue management program. Chisel plows, sweep cultivators and sub-surface tillers have been used to keep the residue of stubble on or near the surface.

NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

bor's Civil Rights Committee, condemned the 56th Legislature for passing "immoral and undemocratic" laws concerning school segregation. Gulf Coast delegates balked. Finally, the convention compromised by adopting the national AFL-CIO civil rights plank, worded in a more general language.

Delegates also criticized Texas' daily newspapers; the Texas Tech Board of Directors; the Republican Party, and highway contractors.

Endorsed were a state income tax on corporations; an increase in individual income tax exemptions; federal aid for school construction; higher pay for teachers, and honesty among union officials.

Jerry Holleman, AFL, was elected president, and Fred Schmidt, CIO, was chosen as secretary-treasurer.

Lobby Curb Proposed.—With legislative opposition to the special session weakening under Gov. Price Daniel's determined stand, attention now turns toward what the lawmakers might enact.

Sen. Henry B. Gonzalez of San Antonio has drafted a strict lobby control measure. It is patterned after the Federal Law. It would require registration of all persons seeking to influence legislation, for pay. Also it calls for a detailed accounting of money used to influence legislation . . . where it comes from and how it is spent.

It would hang a heavy sword over the head of any lawmaker or lobbyist found guilty of a bribe arrangement. Penalty up to a $25,000 fine and 10 years imprisonment. Corporations involved would lose the right to do business in Texas.

Sales Surge Seen.—Experts foresee a "slow but strong upturn" of production and marketing in Texas for the last quarter of the year.

It might even break last year's record, despite the restrictions on credit. So states the UT Bureau of Business Research.

June retail sales dropped five per cent from May. But totals for January-June, 1957 were two per cent above 1956.

Home modernization has done "surprisingly well." But completion of new homes in 1957 is expected to fall some 10 to 20 per cent below last year.

Employment to Climb.—More jobs and better pay is the outlook for Texas workers.

Texas Employment Commission forecasts a small rise in job-holders during August, followed by the usual steep jump from increased activities in September.

Early summer brought the customary glut of workers as schools poured out thousands of graduates and vacation job-seekers. In addition, factory jobs dropped somewhat as automobile assembly plants and aircraft companies cut back.

However, the same period brought good news to factory workers as average weekly wages jumped some $2. In the higher brackets workers in coal and petroleum products, up $4.76 to $113.16 per week, and those in chemicals, up $2.49 to $103.34 per week. Less fortunate were those in apparel and fabric products, up 37 to $43.92.

No Magic Expected.—Rebuilding public confidence in Texas insurance cannot be done "by any magic touch or wave of a wand, not overnight nor within a few months."

It will take "painstaking planning, organized effort and competent performance," said Joe P. Gibbs, member of the newly reorganized Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Board members are reconciled to operating in a "show window," said Gibbs, recalling the recurrent troubles that resulted in a wholesale legislative overhaul of the department.

"We recognize that the public has a right to look in on us to see what we are doing to remove the clouds of doubt," Gibbs stated.

Construction Up.—Construction authorized in Texas for the first half of 1957 is five per cent higher for 1956, according to the UT Bu-

Foremost among the cities making gains were Midland, Houston, Amarillo, Lubbock, Fort Worth El Paso and Odessa.

Dallas, San Antonio and Austin showed declines.

Farm Outlook.—Where rain has not fallen recently, outlook for grass and feed crops is poor, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Time's showers helped pasturage and late crops in some areas. But were too late for corn and feed.

Dry Loss.—Anti-prohibitionists still are riding high in local option elections. So reports the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Orange and Culberson Counties favored continued sale of alcoholic beverages by one-sided margins.

Voluntary Cuts.—Texans seem to have adopted a dubious "wait and see" attitude toward President Dwight D. Eisenhower's request for a voluntary 10 per cent cut in oil imports.

For months Texas officials and industry leaders have sought White House help to restrict the flow of foreign oil into the country. They blamed "excessive imports" for the dwindling demand for Texas oil.

State oil allowances slipped month by month to an all-time low. State revenue estimates heavily dependent on oil taxes, were dragged down correspondingly.

After study by a Cabinet committee, the President's advisory asked importing companies east of the Rockies to reduce crude oil imports to 10 per cent below the 1954-56 average. Implied was the suggestion that mandatory quotas would be imposed if the voluntary program doesn't work out.

Gov. Price Daniel called it "a step in the right direction." But, he said, the step "does not go as far as is necessary to meet the present emergency." He suggested there should be no waiting period before applying positive government controls and that 10 per cent was not a "realistic reduction."

Charles Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hadden Payne of West of Cross Plains, received the pig from Montgomery's litter. County Agent Green stated that the swine program for this division has been in operation since about 1940.

Two other Callahan County boys placed with their entries in the contest. Elmer L. Duncan of Cottonwood placed sixth and Tommy Gary of Admiral placed tenth.

Claude Champion of Cottonwood took second place in the Foundation's Boar Demonstration contest.

Mike's sow raised 11 of the 12 pigs in her litter for a total weight, at eight-weeks-old, of 528 pounds, compared to the second place winner's litter weight of 456 pounds, also an 11-pig litter.
