FIRE SIREN REMINDS OF PRAYER SERVICE

The fire siren will sound one long blast at noon Friday to remind of a World Prayer observance scheduled at 2 p.m. at the First Methodist Church.

Fire Chief Travis Foster explains that should there actually be a fire at that time two blasts will be heard. So long as there is only one, firemen are cautioned to remember that it is only intended to call attention to the forthcoming religious service.

Day of Prayer will be observed in Cross Platas Priday afternoon at two o'clock with an interdenominational service at the First Methodist Church.

The United States is but one of the 150 nations around the world participating in the Christian observance.

Theme of the 1963 service was arranged by Christian women of Korea and is entitled 'More Than Conquerors.'

Mrs. Doyle Burchfield, chairman of the observance in Cross Plains explains the primary purpose of World Day of Prayer is "to lead participants into active experience of prayer for the needs of the world.

"Knowing the power of prayer to draw the hearts of believers nearer to each other and nearer to the Lord, all people of God in every country, are With deadline for filing as called to intercession on this candidates in the forthcoming World Day of Prayer, strong in city council and school board the assurance that if we ask it elections falling Saturday and will be given unto us; if we Wednesday, March 2 and 6, indi- seek we shall find; if we knock cations yesterday were that it will be opened unto us," she

Fire Destroys Shed On Farm Of Dayton Sessions At Atwell

Tatom.

By Mrs. Alton Tatom

The Dayton Sessions place suffered another loss from fire Sunday about 6:30 p.m. It was a goat barn that belonged to Dayton and D. A. Abernathy. It is not known how many goats were burned. It was reported that possibly three goats were lost in the blaze.

Mrs. Lota Tunstill and two daughters from Oklahoma City, Okla., visited her sister, Mrs. Metta Sessions, and Dayton over the week end.

visited Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carter in Dallas Saturday and Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Foster, Stevie and Randy, were in Slaton Sunday to see their grandson and nephew, Timothy, born to Mr. and Mrs. James Irwin Foster. Grandpa Nathan and grandma Louise stayed for a few days to help.

Rev. and Mrs. Arlis Williams and Don visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hewes Sunday.

Miss Barbara Black was home for a long week end from Austin where she is employed by the Texas Educational Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hutchins and Mary from Lamesa spent the week end visiting in Cross Plains and Atwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Kirby and daughter from Abilene attended church services Sunday morning at the Missionary Baptist Church.

Admiral Locality Gets Shallow Try

Lilly & Waltman, et al, of Fort Worth have staked a shallow oil test one mile south of Rowden. It will be the No. 1-A H. L. Walker, located 2,070 feet from the north and 1,880 feet from the east lines of Section 48. Deaf and Dumb Asylum Proposed depth is 820 feet and the well is to be a twin of the No. 1, drilled by the same operators and abandoned as a junked hele.
