Icy Roads Blamed As Car Overturns

Icy pavement was blamed in a one-car accident on Highway 36, six miles east of Cross Plains Thursday.

A 1960 Chevrolet, driven by Mrs. Nell Davis Catching of Lorenzo, overturned. Mrs. Catching, 68, who was alone in the vehicle, sustained minor injuries and was taken to Rising Star Hospital in a Higginbotham ambulance. Damage to the car was estimated at $1,000. The accident was investigated by Highway Patrolman Bill Vineard of Cross Plains.
