(Eddie) Heard has Marshal, a position he has held Cross Plains City for the past two and one-half years. His resignation became effective Monday. Mayor Doyle Burchfield said Monday afternoon that the council had a list of names which was to be considered for the vacant post at a meeting which was to have been held at City Hall Tuesday night. "I can't say if the council will hire anyone or not," Burchfield explained. Homer Simons had been serving during the interim.

Heard said that he had accepted a position on the police department at Cisco. "I will continue to make my home in Cross Plains, and will commute to duty in Cisco," he said.

The former City Marshal was nominated as candidate for Justice of the Peace Precinct 6 in the Democratic Primary last May. He commented concerning his candidacy, "If elected in the general election in November, I will return here to fill the Justice office on a full time basis.

Local Sergeant Back From Viet Nam Duty

S-Sgt. V. A. Montgomery flew into Abilene airport Saturday morning, where he was met by his wife and sons and rushed to Brownwood to be at the bedside of his father, who has been dangerously ill several weeks.

Sgt. Montgomery has been in Viet Nam the past seven months, where he is assigned to Siagon National Airport. His current tour of overseas duty will be completed in December.

Old Settlers To Hear Outstanding Speaker

District Judge Water Ely, of Los Angeles, a native of Baird and descendant of one of the early-settling families in this section of Texas, will be principal speaker at the 28th annual reunion of Callahan County pioneers to be held in the City Park at Cross Plains Aug. 12. He is the son of W. R. Ely of Abilene, widely-known West Texas attorney and former chairman of Texas Highway Commission.

The speaker serves as judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit, which embraces Washington, Oregon, Arizona, Nevada, Montana, Idaho, Alaska, Hiwaii and Guam.

He was born at Baird, June 24, 1913, graduated from Abilene High School, took his law degree from the University of and intrepidity in action" at Texas in 1935 and his LL.M. Guadalcanal. Star for "conspicious gallantry in 1936.

E. V. Wilder Laid To Rest On Friday

Graveside rites for E. V. Wild. er, 72, of DeQueen, Ark., who died Wednesday of last week, were held Friday at 2 p.m. in Adams Cemetery, north of Burkett. Funeral was conducted the day before in DeQueen, where he and his wife, the former Ada Colvin of Burkett, made their home and owned a tourist

Mr. Wilder was born March 21, 1894, at New Carlisle, Ind., but spent most of his early life in Duluth, Minn., where he first married and his children were born. He came to Texas in 1927 and was employed by Central Texas Power and Light Company at Victoria until 1938, when he became associated with Lower Colorado River Authority. While with LCRA, Buchanan and Roy Inks Dams were placed in operation and the transmission lines to Marshall Ford and the sub-station at that plant were put into service under his supervision. He became connected with REA in early days of that program, first as resident engineer at Wharton County Electric Cooperative, Inc., which was the first light loading job built by

Cottonmouth Moccasin Killed In City Monday

Another type of poisonous snake has invaded Cross Plains. It is the Cottonmouth Water Moccasin. Carroll Falkner, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Falkner, and Oliver Robertson, Jr. and Gary Robertson, 12 and 11-year old sons of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Robertson, Sr., killed the reptile in in a small stock tank just south of Falkner's Garage on east Highway 36 Monday

The snake measured 38 inches long and five inches in circumference. Oliver speared the moccasin in the water with a home-made gig, a 12-foot cane pole with two steel prongs, Gary stunned it with a stick and Carroll finished the kill with a rock.

It is not uncommon for city residents to slay Rattlesnakes and Copperheads, but local observers say that Cottonmouth Moccasins are not found in large numbers in this country.

WARNING ISSUED GARDEN ROBBERS

A warning was issued Monday morning by Berry Bell, who lives in the northeast part of town, that garden robbing may become a dangerous business.

"Someone has been picking the vegetables that my wife and a neighbor lady planted and tend and we've had enough of it," he said. Mr. Bell, one of Cross Plains well-known senior citizens, said that if he caught someone in the garden, he planned to greet the invasion with a "hip pocker full of buckshot."

Fire Strikes Again At Bobby Golsons

Fire struck another destructive blow at the Bobby Golson family late Friday afternoon.

The blaze, which was reported about 7:30 p.m., razed the garage and its stored contents at the family's home about two miles west of Cross Plains. Several months ago the Golsons lost several possessions in another fire which detroyed a storage shed. In both instances, until 6:30 p.m. Sept. 8, a Thurs however, the home was spared day. Housing Chiefs Here Asking Project Bids

Housing Authority of the City of Cross Plains began advertising for construction bids on a 20-unit low rent housing project here this week.

A public notice on page six of today's issue of the Review gives details of how the bidding will be handled.

According to the bid adver- yet alive. tisement, "... that preference, insofar as practicabe, should be given by the contractor in hiring of workers for the project to qualified local labor." It also requires that "not less than the minimum salaries and wages as set forth in the specifications" will have to be paid workmen.

Bidders may obtain plans ject by depositing $50 with the architects and engineers, Fitch and Holdredge of Houston. The deposit will be returned if all documents are mailed back in good condition within 10 days after bids are opened.

Sealed bids will be accepted by the local housing authority that time.
