FRESHMAN EDITION

Jack Aldridge, Editor
Examinations
The time is rapidly approaching when many of the students will be weighed in the balance of mid-term examinations and will be found wanting in knowledge. To be more exact, mid-term examinations are rapidly approaching and the results of this grave period of tearing hair, gnashing teeth, wails of self reproach and chewing pencil tips or looking at the ceiling for inspiration are going to be very important. It will determine for some whether or not they will graduate, and for others the loss or gain of a credit. Now is the time to pass those coming examinations easily and simply by good daily recitation and preparation. Examinations are not passed or failed in a single day or week, but in the accumulated results of those days of neglect.

The post-holiday and the pre-holiday slumps are combining to defeat the unwary students—as a hint, don't be careless enough to let them overtake you.
Report Cards
Report cards for the second six weeks of the first semester were handed out to the students Tuesday, Dec. 3. The cards of the high ranking students were particularly interesting. Those ranking highest being: Geraldine Robins, A plus; Lora Liston A; Marie Finley A. The following had A- averages: Malda Chandler, Eunice Griffiths, Ira Muriel Hollis, Jean Willman, Irma Willis, Florence Stone, S. L. Rollins, Lela Mae Lovelady, Harvey Lee Bass, and Horace McAdams.
In regard to this item and the above one on examinations—a hint to the wise is sufficient.

Old Grad:
The Muleshoe High school students and faculty were particularly delighted to see some of the old graduates back home from college during the holidays.

Alyne Evans, Ruth Eckler, Melzine Rockey, Dora Nell McCarty and Vir-Rockey, Dora Nell Robertson brightened up the "Main Drag" with some of the luster acquired at Tech.

Walter Moeller, Lester Garth, and Francis Gillsbreath city-slicked one or two of the old timers—but oh Boy! can they really take it!

Hazel Nelson, Sibyl Coker, Christine Dennis, and Anna Margaret Hart stayed close to home; and we did not see much of them, however, some of their more unusual and humorous experiences are making the rounds.

There was a pang of disappointment experienced in our not seeing the smiling faces of Ferel Little, Eva Harper and R. E. Willis. We'll be seeing you Christmas.

Senior Rings

A more than usual ruffle of excitement marked the arrival of the Senior rings, Tuesday Dec. 3. A flashing of fingers is fast making them a very familiar sight. These rings are significant because they represent four years of hard work.

Temporary President

Reports were made that Kenneth Briscoe, Senior class president might not attend school the balance of the year so a temporary president was elected. Ben D. Beaty was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy. Ben is very capable for the position and we feel sure he can handle the Seniors. So lots of luck Ben.

Lecture

The students of the Muleshoe High school were entertained by Joseph R. Scherer and his lecture "Intimate Home Life of the Orient," given in the auditorium, Wednesday, Dec. 4. He related his interesting experiences as a guest in marble palaces, in native huts in sleeping on a different bed every night for 18 months, and in having an international stomach derived from eating such delicacies as snakes, pie-gons' eggs, birds' nests, raw fish and sharks' fins.

Senior Pictures

The Seniors showing their customary thoughtfulness, are going to spare us the anguish of forgetting their beaming faces by having individual pictures taken Tuesday, Dec. 3, and by having the pictures of the entire group collected and mounted as one unit. Thus a group picture is to be presented to the school and is to be hung in the office.

Just wait Seniors! the ninety mugs of us, the freshmen, will flood the picture gallery to!

What Nots

The Freshmen to the Seniors: "Phooey to you from us."

We wonder if Harvey Lee Bass has found him "a certain one yet. Many of the girls would like to know.

From the latest reports, it seems Horace McAdams left his fast-beating heart in Grade school this year.

It is reported Bety Ruth Moeller is having the time of her life this year?

We wonder who Mr. V. Goins had her hair all curled up for. This must be getting serious!

Girls have you noticed the sparkle in Bobby Jones' eye lately. What's up?

We wonder what is the matter with Henry Carpenter lately, he is behaving himself.

We wonder if Wanda Farrell has recaptured her own heart yet. We think not after what we saw at the Style show last week.

Wonder why Duckie Beller was looking so wistful the second period, Tuesday.

Is it true Mozella Barnett is giving some of the other Freshman girls competition?

We wonder how many hearts Jack Aldridge has caused to flutter this past week.

It seems many of the Freshman are trying to act smart but the Seniors say "Watch us and you will learn how." Then the Juniors put in a word, "That's what you think." The Sophomores are only turning up their noses like they think they are somebody important, so the Freshman calmly continue their own method to the disgust of the dignified Seniors. Here we may say that many of the Freshmen can beat the Seniors at acting smart. We wonder who we hit that time?

Few Materials for Basket-Making
Commercial basket makers use few materials aside from willow, wood splints and rattan, but primitive people make baskets of many kinds of fibers.

I filled 450 containers which I value at $55.25, dried beans, value $9.40, which makes a total of $85.65, leaving me a profit of $24.05. Mrs. Frank Daricek was claimed by death last Friday at 6:00 p. m. Acute sinus trouble and heart failure was the immediate cause of death, although she had been in failing health for sometime. Funeral services were held at the church, Rev. Pat Jordan officiating, at four o'clock Saturday afternoon. Interment was in Maple cemetery. She was the mother of 12 children ranging in age from 6 months to 18 years, all of whom survive except one. She is also survived by her husband and one step-son, Robert. The bereaved family have the sympathies of the community in their sorrow.

There was no Sunday school at the Methodist church Sunday as most members went to Bula to quarterly conference. Those who did not were visitors at the Baptist church.

Miss Frances Cunningham and Marvin Warton surprised their friends Saturday night by motoring to New Mexico and getting married. We join the community in wishing them many happy, successful years together.

There will be a meeting at the school house Thursday night to discuss ways and means of raising money to fence the cemetery and otherwise caring for it.

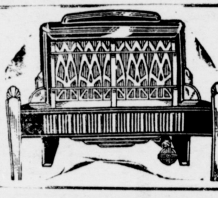

The W. M. U. met Monday at the home of Mrs. A. E. Robinson. The main topic of the day was collecting funds to send foreign missionaries to aid in their work.

"Burk" says he is getting along O. K. with his master memory and in-flu-entia course, and in another month or two will be ready to accept a position with The International Chemical Association, or as special advisor to President Roosevelt in the matter of dispensing lady nicotine. dairy judging demonstration was at the Methodist Sunday school on Monday Dec. 2. Kenneth M. Ter, head of the Dairy department, at Tech, had charge of the demonstration. American New Process and age cheese were made. Milk, but and cream were judged. A demonstration on butter making also was given.

Those present for the demonstration Mesdames N. Arnold, Lonnie Ar. and Edd Hulst, Baileyboro; Wal. Easton, Wm. G. Kennedy and J. G. Gray, Progress; Lee Simms, B. O. R. S. Watkins and J. J. Lawler, of Muleshoe; R. L. Patterson, Nellie Jones and H. H. Snow, of Enoch; J. Kennedy, Progress.

Builds Pantry
My pantry is 7 feet high, 5 1/2 feet long, and 1 1/2 feet deep with 38 feet of living. It has 386 containers in it, one for dried vegetables, cooker and fer, preserving kettle and plenty of space for other vegetables. I have sent it to everyone who has come to me and my husband is just as proud of it as I am. It ranks up next to my husband and children.

THE DOCTORS ARE RIGHT

Women should take only liquid laxatives
Many believe any laxative they might take only makes constipation worse. And that isn't true. Do what doctors do to relieve constipation. They use a liquid laxative.

Three steps to relieving constipation: I. Cleansing the bowels. II. Softening the stool. III. Stimulating the bowels.

Cleansing those bowels, a smaller quantity tomorrow; less each time until bowels need no help at all. Give, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help. Educated dosage is the secret of Nature in restoring regularity. Must use a little less laxative time, and that's why your laxative should be in liquid form. A liquid can be regulated to the drop. A liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara—both mild laxatives that form no habit with children. Syrup Pepsin is the best tasting, nicest acting laxative ever tried.

Will Live at Home
"We plan to live at home in 1936," said Mrs. O. N. Robison, cooperator of the Muleshoe home demonstration club. "I have canned 327 containers of food which are valued at $70.00. I have a bushel of turnips to bank and a bushel of apples to be canned. On 150 feet of tomatoes I made four bushels, on 50 feet of beets we made six we could eat and can and gave some to the neighbors. I planted 70 feet of long green cucumbers and canned over 600 quarts and ate all we wanted," added Mrs. Robison.

Sub-Irrigation Produces More and Better Fruit
"I find that tomato plants that were watered from the tile produced more and larger fruit than those surface irrigated. We have had fresh tomatoes from the time they began ripening until now," said Mrs. E. N. McCall, farm food supply demonstrator of the Enoch club. "The total value of my canned products is $120.41 and I sold $146.98 worth of milk, butter, eggs and cream during the year. I bought my canning supplies and added more sheaving in my cellar."

Builds Pantry
"My pantry has three shelves, one foot deep, 14 feet long. It is electrically lighted. The cost of it was $17.50 but I sold cream and eggs to pay for it. I have a complete recipe file, pressure cooker and sealer and all containers are properly labeled," said Mrs. Walter Dammron, farm food supply demonstrator of Circle Back club. "I have canned 541 containers for myself and 169 for others. I had 199 containers left from last year. I have 20 quarts of brined pickles and have cured 50 lbs. each of peas and beans. Since fish is required at least once per week in the family menu, I arranged with my grocer for 3 dozen cans for which I traded eggs. I estimate the value of my pantry at $236.60."

Sharpening the Old Machete

by A. B. Chapin

When the doctor says you're dead, When the final prayers are said, You pay a tax.

It is doubtful if sadder or truer words were ever penned. Taxes begin with the cradle and end only in the grave.

Work is now being done on the North and South road out of Muleshoe toward the southern Bailey county line, and it is greatly appreciated by the people living in that direction who haven't had good road accommodations at all.

When the doctor says you're dead, When the final prayers are said, You pay a tax.

There are approximately 100,000 members of the Quaker faith in this country, scattered throughout many states.

There is a remarkable record. It speaks very highly of a people who so bravely and so unflinchingly face the ready to meet any emergency.

Here is "rugged individualism" carried to the point where it shames the rest of us. Industry, frugality and thrift still remain cardinal virtues.

But the fact remains, nevertheless, that all of us would be far better off today if we had been content, as our forefathers were, with the old honest-and-buggy rate of progress in our financial affairs.

Life around Muleshoe usually gets harder for the farmers in winter; but so does the grape juice and apple cider—if they happen to have any.

A Muleshoe girl who marries a widower is sure to be disappointed, because she loses all the fun of taming him.

Don't blame Muleshoe youngsters, you also, would feel big if some one else paid your bills, petted you and never dared to cross you.

There are two things hard to remove from the average Muleshoe man's eye. One is a cinder and the other is a pretty girl.

Those Muleshoe folks who get ahead are generally those who, if they cannot take the bull by the horns will grab him by the tail.

One of the easiest things for the average Muleshoe man to do is to think of the right excuse at the wrong time.

If a Muleshoe boy is industrious, studies hard and leads a clean life, he has a chance to be elected president of the U. S., if he doesn't wind up in Congress.

One reason so many people around Muleshoe are lacking in "it" and don't have natural charm is because they are too darned lazy to do the necessary practicing.

The cigarette used to be called a "boys' smoke, because a man couldn't take chances on getting fire that close to his whiskers; but that's not worrying Muleshoe men any more.

With men winning first prizes at knitting bees, diaper contests and jam-making, about the only thing a woman can excel at any more is singing baritone over the radio, and we don't know of any of them around Muleshoe who are doing such.

It is generally agreed by most Muleshoe citizens that the post office ruling that "Merry Christmas" may be written on holiday postcards without requiring first-class postage, is a considerable concession on the part of Uncle Sam and manifestation of real holiday spirit.

Nearly all Americans are now worrying more or less over the question of whether or not America may be able to keep out of the big war which seems to be looming up on the horizon; but C. F. Moeller, local diplomat, says such might be accomplished by loaning several million dollars to both Italy and Ethiopia.

Henry Ford has been suggested as a candidate for president of the United States, and Neil Rockey, local Ford dealer, says there wouldn't be any need for a vice-president if Henry had the principal job, and a nice thing about it is if he wears out Congress can go to any garage and get repair parts very cheaply to keep the chief executive going.

Thursday night of last week a charming maiden lady of not too immature age, residing a short distance in the country, is said to have had a horrible dream, awakening the rest of the family about midnight with her piercing screams. When asked the difficulty (probably caused by too much turkey) she said she dreamed she was being chased by a man; he kept on chasing and chasing her, but the fool wouldn't catch her.

World's Biggest Glass Eye Is Now Cooling Surface

Successful completion of the 200-inch glass eye for the world's largest telescope, announced last week at the Corning Glass Works, means that in about five years man will see four times farther into space than ever before.

Astronomers will see what may exist in regions about one billion two hundred million light years away—areas of the sky so remote their light takes that long to reach earth. In other words, these areas may be seen five years hence, as they looked more than a billion years ago, or long before any known life existed on earth.

This event finishes the most critical and difficult step in making this telescope, which will be twice the size of any now in existence. Five years is a conservative estimate of the time needed to grind and polish the big glass into a mirror and to set it up in a telescope in the observatory yet to be built on Palomar Mountain, about 75 miles south of Los Angeles.

The huge glass disc 17 feet in diameter and more than two feet thick was poured last December 2, molten glass about a third the temperature of the sun's surface. It has been cooling ever since in an iron annealing oven.

Those who witnessed the ceremony were the brides' four sisters, her mother, Mrs. Harvey Bolin, one brother, Miss Alma Stewart, Muleshoe, Mople Ingram, Otton, and Gene Blue, Plainview.

Mrs. Waide has been employed at Farwell for the past few years in Attorney J. D. Thomas' office. Several years ago she lived in Muleshoe and was employed in the county judge's office.

Immediately after the wedding ceremony the newly weds left on a short honeymoon trip to Fort Worth and Dallas.

They are making their home in Muleshoe, residing in one of the new triplex apartments recently built in the west part of town by Clarence Goins.

The Bush gardens, Pasadena, a part of the estate belonging to the late Adolphus Bush and wife, German citizens, and confiscated by the U. S. government during the World War, but later returned to the estate, has recently re-opened to the public. It is said to be one of the world's most beautiful gardens.

BOLIN-WAIDE

Wednesday evening of last week at 5:45 o'clock, Miss Nell Bolin, of Farwell and J. B. Waide, Jr., county farm agent of Bailey county, were married in Plainview at the home of her mother, Mrs. Harvey S. Bolin, by Rev. J. P. Horton, pastor of the Plainview Baptist church.

The bride wore an attractive rust-colored tulle suit, blue fox fur and brown accessories. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

The wedding march was played by a Plainview girl friend.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold! First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators; thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)
