Local WOW Camp Hangs Plaque Honoring Bond

Memory of S. F. (Fes) Bond, late 101-year-old prominent Cross Plains citizen, was honored last Thursday by the Woodmen of the World Camp 4242. The local fraternal organization unveiled a plaque which covers highlights of the 90 years in which Mr. Bond spent as a leader in this community. The memorial will hang in the local WOW Hall.

Included in the display is an insurance policy Mr. Bond had with the WOW, issued in 1920, along with newspaper articles and other data concerning Mr. Bond. The policy was secured from the WOW home office by Mr. Bond's daughter, Miss Paula Bond, of this city.

When Fos, as he was lovingly known by a legion of friends, expired on April 27, 1974, he was the second oldest member of the WOW on record, exceeded only by J. C. Penny. Mr. Bond joined the insurance society in 1899, when he was 26. The WOW was organized on June 6, 1890, in Omaha, Neb. The plaque unveiling was in conjunction with a salad supper last Thursday. Among those attending other than local WOW members and officials, were Miss Bond and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott of this city, Bill Sloan and Red McIntyre, both Woodmen representatives of Abilene.

Re-Districting Of County Delayed Pending Survey

Commissioners of Callahan County have delayed final decisions on re-districting the county precincts pending a surveyor's report from the Texas Highway Department, it has been learned.

Callahan County has been ordered to re-district the four commissioner precincts in equal population, estimated to be 2,000 to 2,500 persons. It was opined earlier that the re-districting according to population or voter strength, which would put about 1,300 eligible voters in each sub-division, would make lines fall in about the same place.

Commissioners and a four-member advisory citizens committee would meet again. Memo final action pending the survey report. It was reported that the survey should be completed within a few days, and commissioners and the committee would meet gain. Members of the committee are Jack Scott of Cross Plains, Weldon Edwards of Clyde, Frank Chrane of Oplin and John D. Isenhower of Putnam.

A proposed re-districting set-up was released first of the month. Biggest change would be in the Baird-Clyde areas. Precinct 4 would not change much, however, it would be extended westward taking in the entire Rowden community.

Under the proposed re-districting plan commissioner precincts would be generally as follows:

Clyde and Hamby Precinct 1; Baird, Putnam and portions of Admiral, Precinct 2; Cross Plains, Rowden, Cottonwood, Atwell and part of Admiral, Precinct 4; and Oplin, Eula, Denton Valley and Dudley, Precinct 3.

More Rain

Rain keeps falling in the Cross Plains area. Light rain fell intermittently Monday afternoon and through the night with heavier rainfall being received Tuesday afternoon.

At 3:15 p.m. Tuesday Cross Plains had received 68 of an inch Monday and Tuesday. Tuesday and Wednesday of last week 2.60 inches were recorded here and Friday and Saturday rains measured .34 and .66 of an inch respectively. Combined with Monday and Tuesday's moisture 4.27 inches had been gauged here in a week. It was still raining at the time of the measurement Tuesday.

For the month, since Wednesday, Sept. 11, Cross Plains has officially received 6.29 inches to mid-afternoon Tuesday. Considerably more rain was received in some surrounding areas last week end.

That brings the rain aggregate to 20.76 inches for 1974. Most streams in this section of Texas have been running for some time with virtually all stock tanks being brim full. Pastures and small grain crops continue to benefit, but some concern is being expressed by peanut producers at crops being damaged somewhat by the continued wet weather.

2 Local Men 'Canoe' Rising Pecan Bayou

Editor's Note: Following an account of two local men's trip last Saturday down the rain-swollen Pecan Bayou.

"Did you ever wonder what it would be like to get in a little river boat and push off into a rain-swollen river, just a couple of guys and a couple of paddles? Just go wherever the river took you?"

"This was a longtime dream for Homer and DeWitt Simons of Cross Plains. So on Saturday afternoon they took the 12-foot river boat to the Cisco Crossing a few miles upstream from Burkett.

"With life jackets, rain gear and paddles, they pushed off into the still rising, rushing Pecan Bayou.

"Everything was beautiful until we came to the first narrow place in the river. Boulders were sitting immovable in the middle of the stream. Several willow trees were bent over by the rushing water. Paddling fast to keep the little boat running straight and away from the large rocks, we ran up over a little willow tree. Our boat dipped half full of water. A handy coffee can bailed us out of trouble as we rushed on.

"Everything was pretty good for another resting spell as we got into a wide place in the stream. The real excitement came as we discovered the falls. Shooting the rapids at a couple of places really tossed us around. We had to lean far to one side and then the other to keep afloat.

"After 2 hours and 15 minutes we pulled out high and dry just below Burkett, about a mile or so, at a crossing.

It may not have been shooting the rapids on the Rio Grande, but it sure made our Saturday one to remember."

Local Lady To Be Coleman Club Guest

Mrs. Sterling Odom of Rowden, member of the Cross Plains Garden Club, will be guest speaker and will demonstrate the art of "tin craft" at the Town and Country Garden Club of Coleman on Tuesday, October 1, at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Odom is experienced in tin art, having done it for a number of years, and she has shown her work at club meetings over the area.

Mrs. T. B. Hoyt of Brownwood visited relatives and friends here last Monday afternoon.

Bishop Chevrolet Will Show '75 Cars Friday

Bishop Chevrolet Co. of Cross Plains will unveil the 1975 model Chevrolet cars and light trucks in a showing Friday, September 27.

Dale Bishop, owner and operator of the local automobile agency, has invited the public to come in and view the new models. His company notes in a display ad on page two of this week's Review that there will be free coffee and doughnuts and gifts for the ladies while viewing the new line of 1975 Chevrolets. On display here will be several car models and pickups including Impala, Caprice, Nova and Chevelle.

Bishop explained that there will be 46 models in eight passenger car lines available to buyers this year. He pointed out that gasoline economy is reported to be increased about 20 per cent this year according to information he has received from Chevrolet.

He also noted that most of the engines in the 1975 Chevrolets are designed to run on low lead fuel, and another requirement of the federal government will be the inclusion of catalytic converters, designed to cut exhaust emissions into the air for environmental improvement.

The local business man also noted that the boost in 1975 price of cars is also due to such additions as steel radial tires in most all 1975 model vehicles.

Bears Beat Bisons 14-7

Baird Bears rallied from a 7-0 deficit to hand Cross Plains Buffaloes first defeat of the year 14-7 last Saturday night.

Cross Plains scored its lone touchdown in the first quarter on the Herd's second series of downs. The scoring play was a 68-yard romp up the middle by speedy Halfback Randy Hunter. He sped untouched through a big hole opened by Center Lynn Tatom. Right Guard Bill Nickerson and Left Guard Tony Dimitri. Tim Bishop added the extra point from placement. That seven points stood good until the final quarter.

The Herd's most serious threat in the second period, mostly a see-saw canto, saw the Buffaloes move to the Bear 15 before losing the ball on downs. Numerous turnovers by both sides were caused in part by an extremely wet field, waterlogged from days of rain.

Bisons effectively stopped the Baird running attack, and the hosts relied heavily on passing to move the oval.

Bears cut the deficit to 7-6 in the third quarter when Quarterback Jay Ringhoffer heaved an aerial, a 14-yarder, to End Manuel Aguirre. In flight the ball was tipped by Buff defender Jimmy Bates, and it fell into the hands of Aguirre in the corner of the end zone. A two-point conversion attempt failed.

Baird claimed the lead in the final canto after a pass interference call against the Herd gave the Bears the ball on the one-yard line. Halfback Mike Doty cracked over for Baird. The pass infraction was on a pass from Doty to Aguirre. A successful two-point conversion made the final score 14-7.

Cross Plains retaliated late in the game, but an intercepted pass by Bear Ringhoffer inside the Baird 10 stopped the drive. Baird then ran out the clock.

Cross Plains moved the ball well, but turnovers or other bobbles stopped the serious threats.

Buffalo leading rusher was Hunter with 130 yards. Randy Pancake netted 67 yards on the ground followed by Jimmy Bates with 37, Rex Beggs 20, and Turner 26.

By Mrs. N. V. Gibbs

Rain, and more rain has been falling in the area through the past week. Two inches Friday night did its part in filling all the stock tanks. Pastures are growing more good grazing for the livestock.

Even the earth worms were seeking dry places. This writer found one, "fishing bait size," on her back porch Saturday morning.

We are thankful for the moisture and trying not to grumble because the sun doesn't shine. Our community supper was put off until this Saturday night. Be there at 7 p.m. for the meal and visiting.

Janet Reynolds spent Thursday night with Janna Higginbottom in Cross Plains.

Mrs. Ruth Boen attended the birthday party in the Baird nursing home last Tuesday and also visited Mrs. Mattie Gibbs there and with Mrs. Mattie Asherbranner in the Baird hospital.

Mrs. Leila Gibbs accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Truitt Hollingshead and Mrs. Elveda Sikes of Abilene to Cross Plains where they spent the day in the Walter Rose home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lawrence visited Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Elliott in Kingsland Sunday and en route home visited Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Elliott at the Brownwood lake.

Mrs. Ruth Boen made visits with Mrs. Bill Lawrence and Mrs. N. V. Gibbs Friday afternoon and on Thursday was in Cross Plains visiting Mrs. Alton Hornsby.

Those visiting in the Roy Thornton home during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thornton and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harrison and John of Abilene and Mrs. Ruth Boen.

Henry McDonald of Baird visited Jerry McDonald one day last week. James Reynolds also stopped to chat with him.

This writer was not aware that Jim Reynolds was also a winner at the West Texas Fair. Jim won 2nd place on his Cad do wheat entry along with other Cross Plains students. Congratulations Jim!

This community wishes to express appreciation and thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Blain Odom for their donation of twenty dollars to the community center repair program. This work has gone rather slowly, due to a lot of help can only work on Saturdays.

The Robert Watson family was busy moving their household furniture over the week end. They completed the sale of their place at Montague last week. The Jim Needham family of Coleman helped with the moving. Also the G. W. Loyd family were there.

We have had sickness in the community. Tony and Judy Steele had colds last week. Mrs. Bill Lawrence has been suffering with her leg, but is better. Bob Dye was taking Julie to the Doctor Monday with sore throat.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy West stopped for a chat with Raymond Gibbs during the week.

Little Blandye Harris of Abilene spent Sunday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Harris.

Ellen Reynolds accompanied Kim Strahan and her parents to Abilene one night last week. The occasion being Kim's birthday treat at the movies.

The telephones went out in the north part of the community Monday before this writer contacted all the families for news.

Without advertising, you can wave goodbye to the comic strips, the sports page, and the front page of your newspaper.

And maybe your own job.

Think about it. Advertising pays for the features and the news that your newspaper brings to you so economically. Companies that want to tell you about their products, their sales, and their unique services pay for the space to advertise and that pays for most of the newspaper.

If these companies were suddenly deprived of their right to advertise — to communicate with their customers — you can be sure sales would drop. If sales drop, production slows and ultimately people lose jobs. And if certain Texas companies could possibly be ordered not to advertise, who would be next? Maybe your company?

The next time you think about advertising, think about free speech and the right of one person to communicate with another. It's all the same thing.

Write Governor Dolph Briscoe, State Capitol, Austin, Texas 78711 and your legislators to tell them how you feel. Then sit back and enjoy your newspaper.

Advertising is everybody's business.

Postal Service Starts Safety Hazard Drive

Cross Plains Postmaster Joe E. Hanke, Jr., has called for a community-wide drive to eliminate dangers at rural intersections and other safety hazards in the area.

The postmaster is making his appeal as part of a national safety drive now underway by the U. S. Postal Service.

A common problem for rural carriers, as well as other motorists, the postmaster noted, are long-standing "blind corners" and other driving hazards which can be corrected through community efforts, such as removal of obstructions at intersections to create a clear view of the highways. "Such a simple step as cutting down overgrown foliage at driveways and alleys can save lives and prevent painful injuries," he said.

The Postal Service has one of the largest vehicle operations in the world, with more than 40,000 facilities conducting postal business.

"In line with this campaign," Hanke said, "rural carriers would be stepping up their efforts to get residents to adhere to proper standards for mailboxes."

"This is not so much a matter of appearance," he said, "as a crucial safety matter. If, for example a carrier must leave his car to place mail in a 'drooping' mailbox, both he and oncoming motorists face an unnecessary hazard."

He said he would also be increasing his discussions with local, county and state officials regarding persistent road hazards.

Callahan Car Owners Pay $7,645,000 For Operation

The uneasiness that Callahan County residents felt last summer about going on automobile trips for their vacations has all but disappeared.

Their concern at that time was whether they could become stranded some place for lack of gasoline. This year that concern has been supplanted by a new one—how expensive the trip will be.

Local families who are now traveling in various parts of the country are finding that prices have gone up all over.

That is borne out in a special report made by the American Automobile Association, which states that travel costs are some 10.6 per cent higher than they were a year ago. The chief culprits are food and gasoline.

As a result, the new figures indicate, Callahan County couples are now having to spend approximately $57.50 a day, traveling modestly. That is about $5.50 more than in 1973.

A two-week trip for two local people, at that rate, adds up to $805. And that takes care of the necessities but not the frills.

Included in the $57.50 daily budget is $20 for food another $20 for overnight lodgings, $12.50 for oil and gas and $5 for miscellaneous expenses.

That is based upon their covering 300 miles a day, on average, and getting 13 miles to the gallon of gas.

In addition to the cost of a vacation being greater, the annual expense involved in the ownership and operation of a car has mounted considerably, as Callahan County residents are discovering.

For a standard-size car in the popular-price range, driven 10,000 miles a year, it is now $1,662, or 16.6 cents per mile, according to the AAA.

Of this, $1,092 is for fixed costs, such as depreciation, insurance and license fees. The variable costs, for oil, gas, tires and maintenance, amount to $570 for 10,000-mile operation, or 5.7 cents a mile. The cost is 25 cents a day additional for cars with air conditioning.

Applying this average locally Callahan County residents are spending some $7,645,000 a year to own and operate the 4,600 cars that are in use.

CHEVROLET FOR 1975. CARS THAT MAKE SENSE FOR TODAY.

MONZA 2+2 The small car of tomorrow will probably be a little more powerful, handy and comfortable than ever. The 1975 Monza 2+2, shown above, offers this today. It has advanced, like rectangular headlights set in a soft front end, fold-down rear seat, and a new 4.3-litre V8 engine available.

NOVA In the background above, our new Nova LN Sedan. A luxurious Nova with thick carpeting and wide-back reclining front seats. For 1975, all Novas have been emphatically refined along the lines of elegant European sedans. Nova's always been good. Now it's beautiful.

CAMARO Our sensibly sporty compact. It looks like a million and drives like it looks.

CHEVROLET'S NEW EFFICIENCY SYSTEM FOR 1975 It's the key part of a program aimed at helping our new cars run leaner (more economically), run cleaner—and save you money every mile.

The Efficiency System is standard on all 1975 Chevrolets with V8 or 6-cylinder engines. It's a series of significant engineering improvements working together for the very first time.

Components include High Energy Ignition, catalytic converter, Early Fuel Evaporation and steel-belted radial ply tires. In sum, the System is designed to heighten the pleasure and lower the cost of driving a 1975 Chevrolet—to bring you a better running car in many ways, along with improved fuel economy, more miles between recommended maintenance and an engine that stays cleaner internally because of no-lead fuel.

Your Chevrolet dealer will gladly give you the details and answer your questions. See him and the sensible 1975 Chevrolets starting September 27.

IMPALA America's favorite car continues to provide the room many families need plus plenty of quiet and comfort. Still the great American value.

WAGONS Big ones, small ones, in-between ones. Practical wagons that make sense for America. And you.

CHEVROLET MAKES SENSE FOR AMERICA

Chevrolet

CHEVELLE Mid-size, easy to drive, room for six, mid-priced, strong reputation for value. America's most popular intermediate.

CONSERVE AND SAVE ON ELECTRIC COOKING

Today's modern electric range offers you a host of special features which assure uniform cooking results each time. You'll find that cooking electrically is clean, cool and economical.

For best results, use flat bottom utensils with fitting covers. Utensils of medium or heavy weight aluminum conduct heat faster, transfer heat evenly and respond quickly to temperature changes.

Match the utensil to the size of the unit. Use 6 inch units for large utensils. Use 6 inch units for small to average sized pans.

Use high setting for a quick start for any surface cooking, or to boil water quickly. When cooking temperature is reached, switch to a low setting.

Do not pre-heat the oven for roasting or broiling, but do pre-heat the oven to the temperature given in the recipe for baking.

Select correct, measured heat. The accurate heat selector switch or oven thermostat enables you to select, exactly, the same correct temperature each time you use it.

For good heat distribution around the pans, when baking, they should not touch the sides of the oven or each other. Allow one inch clearance. Check for doneness at minimum baking time on recipe, don't keep opening oven door to peek.

SSI Could Benefit Disabled Children

"Children, under age 18, who are totally and permanently disabled may be qualified for the Supplemental Income program which went into effect in January 1974, without regard to their parents' entitlement," according to Glyn Hammons, district manager for the Social Security Administration in Abilene. "The disability must be of such a severe nature that it would prevent him from being able to work," Hammons said.

Several things are considered when an application is taken. Among these is the severity of the disability, the entire regular cash income of the family, and the value of the family's property and other things that can be turned into cash, such as stocks, bonds, etc. Also considered is the number of children in the household.

This part of the Supplemental Security Income program is designed to aid families with little or no cash income and who do not own much in the way of cash assets with the extra expense involved with raising a severely handicapped child.

The Supplemental Security Income program is run by the Social Security Administration, but it is not the same as social security. The money for these monthly payments comes from the general funds of the U.S. Treasury and not from the social security money collected from salary checks and self-employed people.

For more information concerning the SSI program for severely disabled children, contact the Abilene social security office at 142 South Pioneer or telephone 698-1360. Or, if you live outside Abilene, consult the Visit Schedule for social security representatives—one may be coming to a place near where you live. The day, place and time of the visits are all shown on the schedules. They are posted at local post offices.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

AS HEARD BY HEARD

Progress?

The announced intention of President Ford to cut Federal spending is welcome news to the hard pressed independent business people.

For some time, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, they have supported such action with the view excessive government spending is the major cause of inflation.

But President Ford has also taken a hard position that there must be adequate spending for defense.

It is difficult to see how anyone can argue with this point of view. But there are also pertinent questions to be raised on the benefits derived from some defense spending.

A case in point brought together in an unusual alliance two senators, William Proxmire of Wisconsin and Barry Goldwater of Arizona when they collaborated to end a loan to a major aircraft supplier of $100 million dollars.

This was an advance loan on aircraft the firm is building for the Navy, and the Pentagon position was that the firm could not secure bank loans to carry out the contract.

But it then developed that the contractor had loaned out part of this advance payment at the prevailing high interest rates to earn a substantial profit.

multi-million dollar profit.

Now, as everyone knows, the loan to the contractor was made with money the government had to borrow, so that the actual cost to the taxpayer was far more than the $100 million involved.

This one item, naturally results in a higher cost for defense without one plane, one rifle, or one bullet produced.

It is quite strange that anyone with government contract in hand cannot secure financing. Any competent independent builder of homes, or business property is able to get money on such a firm A-1 contract.

Independents in other lines of business, when pinched for cash, often factor, or get loans, on their accounts receivable.

The Bard of Avon once wrote about a battle and a kingdom being lost because of the lack of a horseshoe nail, and no thinking American wants to see the nation get into this position.

But on the other hand, it is hard to see how the national defense is strengthened by loaning money to defense contractors who in turn make a tidy profit by loaning some or all of these funds out at current high interest rates. Hardly anyone could do badly if the government will loan them tax money to invest in high yield government securities.

Man Known Locally Is New C.J.C. Dean

Clois Purvis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Purvis of Stephenville and grandson of J. P. (Perry) Purvis of Cross Plains, has accepted the position of Dean of Men at Cisco Junior College.

The following article was taken from The Brandin Iron, CPC student publication.

A seven year veteran teacher of C.J.C., Purvis, is optimistic towards the coming school year. He stated, "I am truly looking for a fine school year." He also commented, "I am very optimistic."

"Reasons for such optimism are not hard to realize," Purvis said, "with the new administrative interest attitude toward the students." He went on to state, "The new slogan, Students Come First at C.J.C., reflect this new attitude."

His face missing from the scene the past academic year, Purvis is back on the hill after eight months of graduate study at Texas A&M. His major concern upon his arrival back is to have discipline in the school. He said, "I feel my ultimate duty and concern is to keep discipline on the campus."

Asked how he could achieve this discipline, Purvis stated, "By having an open door policy, whereby students can come by and reflect their opinions." He went on to say, "As being Dean of Men, I have a personal duty to counsel any and all students and to help them with their problems." Purvis also stated that he wanted all students to feel free to come by his office at anytime to visit.

Along with his presidential appointment as Dean of Men, Purvis will also co-sponsor the Student Council Organization.

Purvis graduated from Howard Payne, with a B.S., received his M.S. from Stephen F. Austin and has done doctorate work at Rutgers University, and Texas A&M.

Mr. Purvis and his wife Harryette have one daughter, Christy age 4. The Purvis' reside in Cisco.
