Carolyn's Corner

By Carolyn Glover

Following is a note to the editor from Vanna Dains of Ranger commenting on what she saw as she drove through out town on Friday, Sept. 20, homecoming weekend.

Dear Editor,

I had the occasion to be driving through Cross Plains on Friday, Sept. 20. The things I saw reminded me of my school days in Andrews, Texas. Your townspeople were painting windows, wrapping poles and hanging streamers of the school colors. It was quite a wonderful sight to see.

If more towns followed that example of showing support for their children and the spirit Cross Plains displayed as I drove through, all towns and their citizens would benefit greatly.

Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,
Vanna Dains,
Ranger, Texas

Long ago the Chinese discovered that a thing, wet layer of tiny interlocking fibers becomes paper when it dries. It was an ingenious idea. The new material gave them a cheap and handy writing surface, and its use spread rapidly.

Olney Savings To Host Chili Supper Noting Grand Opening

Olney Savings Association will host a chili supper on Thursday, October 3, 1985, in celebration of their grand opening. The public is invited and encouraged to drop by between 5:30 and 8 p.m. at 200 W. Highway 36.

The festivities include your fill of Tom Enloe's famous Cowboy Chili and Olney Savings spokesperson, Ed Bernet, and his Levee Singers. At the end of the performance, Olney Savings will be giving away a color television as the exciting grand prize.

Alan D. Myers, Jr., chairman of the chief executive officer of Olney Savings, will be on hand and commented, "We are so excited and proud to be a part of the Cross Plains community. We want everyone to come have supper with us and have some fun."

Olney Savings, a 58-year-old association with $930 million in assets, has offices in Olney, Seymour, Jacksboro, Bridgeport, Nocona, Ranger, Eastland, Electra, Vernon, Wichita Falls, Coleman, Cisco, Weatherford, Azle, Archer City, Graham, Boyd, Albany, Anson, Brownwood, Bowie, Throckmorton, Crowell, Decatur, Gainesville, Holliday, Comanche, Cross Plains and DeLeon.

Today, paper is made from wood in huge paper mills under the most modern methods. An ingenious idea to make these modern mills even more productive occurred when Combustion Engineering of the United States and Nokia Corporation of Finland formed a pulp and paper joint venture. The new joint venture expects to develop systems that will provide integrated control of an entire mill.

The new joint venture, called Nokia/Taylor, incorporates the skills of the company that implemented the world's first pulp mill system capable of continuously determining the most efficient operating condition for a mill, the first control system for an entire paper mill, and the first energy management system for a pulp and paper plant.

1985 United Fund Drive Scheduled Here On Fri. Oct. 4

The Cross Plains Area United Fund drive for 1985 will be kicked off from Odom's Restaurant at 8:30 a.m. Friday, Oct. 4.

The goal for this year is $4,600, the same amount as was sought last year, according to campaign co-chairmen Helen Freeman and Clara Nell Spencer.

Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Spencer explained that the many volunteer workers will gather at Odom's Restaurant on West Highway 36 prior to starting the door-to-door canvass of Cross Plains businesses, residences, communities surrounding the township and most of the country between those communities.

Jimmielee Payne, president of the United Fund, has asked that business proprietors and citizens of the city and rural areas involved to please be ready to welcome the volunteer worker with a generous gift. "It will again take a special effort to reach the $4,600 budgeted goal," he said. "You were great last year, and the goal was reached in record time," he reminded, adding, "it is hoped that will be the case again this year."

The drive co-chairman said that a brief meeting at Odom's Restaurant Friday morning will be for workers to pick up required materials, and get assigned work areas. "They are good enough to donate time and energy to help make this charitable drive, and we hope their efforts will be rewarded with cheerful greetings generous gifts from donors." They continue to ask that if a donor is not going to be home on Friday morning to please make arrangements with a neighbor, relative or friend to turn in that contribution. It will save coming back later for the volunteers or others involved in the drive, and it will truly be appreciated, according to the drive co-chairmen.

Following is a list of workers expected to be able to help and other volunteers will be greatly appreciated.

Workers are needed and will be welcomed. It was pointed out if any listed is unable to work, they should please call Helen Freeman at 725-6324 or Clara Nell Spencer at 725-6165.

Funeral Held Friday For John L. (Pokey) Bonner

John L. (Pokey) Bonner, 69, prominent Callahan County rancher and land owner, died shortly after noon Wednesday, Sept. 25, at Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene, where he had been a patient four weeks. Death was attributed to complications which arose from septic shock, known commonly as blood poisoning. The infection originated at an injury to the second finger of his right hand.

Funeral was held at 2 p.m. Friday in Higginbotham Chapel in Cross Plains. The Rev. Jasper Cook, pastor of the local First Methodist Church, officiated. Burial was in the family plot at Ross Cemetery in Baird.

Bisons Claim First Win With 18-14 Over Blanket Sponsor Blood Bank

Cross Plains Buffaloes grabbed victory number one of the 1985 football season last Friday by shading host Blanket Tigers 18-14 in the District 8-A East Zone opener for both schools.

It was the first win in four tries for the Herd this season while Blanket's mark leveled at 2-2. The Thundering Herd joined Goldthwaite, Gorman and Lometa in registering triumphs opening league play.

Buffaloes started fast and held on for the victory. Cross Plains scored twice in the first quarter and once in the second stanza, and took an 18-6 advantage to dressing room at halftime. That edge stood as Buff defenders limited the hosts to 8 points in the second half. Buffalo offense did not produce points in the second 24 minutes of play.

The Herd jumped ahead in the first quarter when Halfback Darin Apple skipped across the goal line on a 57-yard run. An attempted placement conversion failed. A few minutes later Buff Fullback Alan Fleming cracked over from one yard out for the second six-point, but an attempted two-point conversion failed. The short drive was set in motion when Buffalo Devin Koenig recovered a Tiger fumble at the Blanket 22.

The 12-point lead quickly melted by to six as the Tigers' John Storey raced the kickoff following the TD back 65 yards for the home tea's first tally. A two-point conversion try failed leaving the count at 12-6, Bisons.

Cross Plains rounded out its scoring in the second quarter when Quarterback

The Cross Plains Kiwanis Club has announced it is sponsoring a Blood-Bank Day in Cross Plains on Thursday, Oct. 17. This community effort will be held with the cooperation of the local AARP and Beta Sigma Phi.

Plans are being made to use the new Community Center located immediately north of the Multi-Purpose Center, where local residents may go and donate blood to the bank.

This will be only a one-day affair, and all persons of this area, who can possibly do so, are urged to donate blood to this worthy cause.

A spokesman for the Kiwanis Club pointed out that by building up a Cross Plains Blood Bank, any person from our area can then draw on this bank in the event they ever needed to do so. He also stated that this would be a good time to find out what a person's blood type is, just in case someone didn't already know.

School Pictures Thursday

Picture Day for Cross Plains Schools is Thursday, Oct. 3.

Photos will be taken starting at 8:45 a.m. at the Cross Plains School Auditorium, according to Jo Rhodes, faculty adviser for the Bison, school's yearbook.

This undertaking is sponsored by the Cross Plains Annual Staff.

It was emphasized that the public is invited.

Prevent winter and early spring weeds by applying betasan or balan pre-emergent weedkiller now. Both act to kill germinating seeds, thereby preventing winter ryegrass, rescuegrass, annual bluegrass and other annual weeds from emerging.

Keep watering and mowing your lawngrass normally right up to the first frost. By keeping it vigorous as long as it's growing you'll greatly improve winter hardiness and rate of greening up next spring.

Help your turfgrass by controlling pest problems. Grub worms devour millions of dollars worth of Texas turf every year. Prevent that by applying diazinon, dursban or oftanol granules and following the application with a heavy watering. WEEKLY HEALTH TIP
OSTEOPOROSIS
 Many middle aged and elderly persons suffer from softening of the bones called Osteoporosis, due to a gradual loss of calcium in the bones. They become brittle, deformed, and easily fractured. Studies over several years show that nearly all osteoporosis patients had a low calcium level in their diet, and that by drinking more milk, the calcium level in the body improved. To prevent bone softening, a daily intake of at least one gram of calcium (3 glasses of milk) plus adequate protein, vitamins D and C, is recommended.

Historic Overview Of Olney Savings Association's Development

As provided the Review Olney Building and Loan Association originated in July 1927, the outgrowth of a golf course conversation among Olney businessmen and L.C. Boyd, then manager of a savings and loan in Decatur, Texas. Boyd led the association as president from its inception until his retirement in 1963; he was managing officer from 1927 until 1961.

Olney Building and Loan Association operated under a state charter until 1935, when it became a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank System and the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. At that time, it secured a federal charter and the name was changed to Olney Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Although times were hard in the early 1930's, Olney Federal fared well. Only four distressed mortgages were transferred to the Home Owners Loan Corporation, and minimal losses of $1,108 dividends during the depression. Startin with assets of $25,622, $102,257 and $166,271 for the years 1927, 1928 and 1929, respectively, the association had grown to over $8.25 million at the time of Boyd's retirement in early 1963. Boyd had also served two terms as a director of the Texas Savings and Loan League. He was succeeded by D.D. McClatchy, who had joined the association in 1950.

The association was headquartered in leased premises until 1936, when a new building was constructed. In 1953, a larger building was purchased and remodeled to provide new office facilities. Under McClatchy's leadership, that building was expanded and remodeled in 1963.

The association's first branch office was opened in Seymour in 1964.

After converting from a federal charter to a State charter in 1968, the corporate name was changed to Olney Savings Association. Branches were added at Jacksboro in 1970, Bridgeport in 1973, and Nocona in 1975. Also in 1975 came OSA's first merger, that being with First Federal Savings and Loan of Ranger, and in 1976 the construction of an ultra-modern, solar heated branch office in Eastland. These two branches are known respectively as Ranger Savings and Eastland Savings, divisions of Olney Savings Association. Assets at this time were approximately $72 million.

In 1976 a $1.25 million, 22,000 square foot home office was built to house the ever-increasing needs of a growing staff. Electra Federal Savings and Loan Association were merged with Olney Savings in 1978. Assets in 1978 total $110 million.

Three new branch offices were opened; and two mergers and one branch purchase took effect in 1981. New branches were opened in Graham, Archer City, and Wichita Falls. Provident Savings and Loan Association of Brownwood and First Federal Savings and Loan of Vernon were merged into Olney Savings Association, and the Bowie branch was purchased from First Texas Savings Association of Dallas.

Also, in 1981, came the death of Don McClatchy, President and Chief Executive Officer of Olney Savings since 1963. In addition to the dynamic leadership he gave Olney Savings, McClatchy was active in civic, educational, youth and business-related organizations. Among the offices and directorships he had held were the following: President, Texas Savings and Loan League and National Savings and Loan League; Director, Savings Systems Corporation, Tior Mortgage Insurance Company, First National Bank of Bridgeport, Hankamar School of Business of Baylor University, and two-time Director and Vice-Chairman, Federal Home Loan Bank of Little Rock.

Alan D. Myers, Jr., became President and Chief Executive Officer of Olney Savings in August 1981. He is currently Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. He also has served as Executive Vice-President and Chief Operations Officer. In 1965, Myers was appointed as Director of Olney Savings. Having been with the association for 22 years, Myers has held other various positions, and he is continuing the tradition of excellent leadership of Olney Savings.

Myers currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Federal Home Loan Bank. In this capacity, he is responsible for the financial operation and setting the direction and policies of the bank to serve the savings institutions in Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico and Texas. He also serves as Director for the Texas Savings and Loan League.

A native of Olney, Myers is a graduate of Baylor University and also a graduate of the Graduate School for Savings and Loan Executives, the School Executive Development and the Financial Management Program.

Through the years, Myers has been an active civic leader. He has served as Mayor of Olney, President of the Olney Library Board and President of the Olney Board of Education. He also is past President of the Rotary Club Community Chest and the Olney Little League. In 1980, he was the recipient of the prestigious John T. Mahone award for outstanding civic contributions by an industry official. This award is presented by the Texas Savings and Loan League.

Other affiliations for Myers include the Baylor Alumni Association, SALPAC, and a member of the Baylor University Council for Institutional Development.

Under Myers' direction and leadership, the association has grown from $276 million in 1981, to over $900 million as of September, 1985.

In December 1981, the home office building was destroyed by fire. The building was completely renovated, and a nearby building was remodeled to provide 7,000 square feet of office space for the accounting department. Although employees were displaced for periods ranging from 12 to 15 months because of the fire, not one day of business was lost.

During 1982, Decatur Savings, including its branches in Boyd and Bridgeport, was merged into Olney Savings Association; a branch office in Throckmorton was purchased from First Security Savings of Abilene; and branches in Albany, Anson, Cisco, and Coleman were purchased from United Savings of Texas. Branch locations were approved for Gainesville and Crowell. Crowell opened their doors in September, 1983, and Olney Savings began serving the community of Gainesville March 12, 1984.

A branch location for Saginaw was approved March 28, 1983, and the Holliday Branch of United Savings of Texas was purchased effective April 1, 1983. Application to convert from a mutual to a stock association was filed with the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on April 28, 1983. The conversion was complete in November of 1983.

In May, 1985, Olney Savings announced the acquisition of five offices of Southern Savings and Loan Association headquartered in Brownwood. The five offices included were Comanche, Cross Plains, DeLeon, Stephenville and Coleman. Also in May 1985, Olney Savings announced that it would acquire Nowlin Savings of Stephenville. This acquisition was completed in September, 1985.

An agreement to purchase First Federal Savings of Breckenridge was signed by Olney Savings in July, 1985. Approval is expected within three to six months.

As a result of these branch acquisitions Olney Savings is now one of the largest and most profitable savings and loan associations in Texas.

Primarily serving communities in small to medium size towns, Olney Savings' steady growth is due to targeting its operation to the special needs of rural Texas.

A full service family financial center, Olney Savings offers a wide range of checking and savings accounts, consumer loans, mortgage loans, retirement plans and commercial services. Special services that are available include night depository, drive-in windows, direct deposit of government checks, traveler's checks, money orders, notary service and loan payment drafts.

Olney Savings is a $930 million savings and loan with 30 branches offices located in Albany, Anson, Archer City, Azle, Bowie, Boyd, Bridgeport, Brownwood, Cisco, Coleman, Comanche, Cross Plains, Crowell, Decatur, DeLeon, Eastland, Electra, Gainesville, Graham, Holliday, Jacksboro, Nocona, Olney, Ranger, Seymour, Stephenville, Throckmorton, Weatherford, Wichita Falls and Vernon.

Cull Open, Late Calving Cows

Now To Avoid Winter Feeding

Farmers and ranchers who haven't already culled open, late-calving and poor performing cows should do so soon.

There's no need to put expensive winter feed into cows that are unproductive and inefficient, points out Greg Gerngross, Callahan County Extension Agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. Culling the cow herd now will also help you more effectively plan on feed supplies for the winter months.

The culling process should also "weed out" cows with bad eyes, udders or feet and legs.

Also, pregnancy testing cows this fall may be more profitable management tool than ever before.

Since it's difficult for a cow to produce a calf large enough to pay her annual maintenance bill and leave some profit for the producer, an open cow is surely losing money. In addition, cows calving late and during the summer months wean calves 30-90 pounds lighter than their herd mates which calves at earlier times. For this reason it's advisable to cull cows which will calve late next year and buy a replacement which will calve early.

Whoever does the pregnancy diagnosis (usually your veterinarian) will be able to estimate the calving date on each animal and make it easy to identify next year's late-calving cows. Work toward a 60-day calving season or one that's certainly no longer than 90 days.

Removing barren and late-calving cows from the herd will increase both the herd's reproductive potential and pounds of calf weaned.

Vets In School On G.I. Bill Must

Advise VA Of Status

According to Putt Brandon, Veterans Service Officer for Callahan County, veterans often create problems with overpayments in GI Bill school benefits because they fail to keep the Veterans Administration informed of their classroom status.

Veterans attending school under the GI Bill are awarded monthly payments from the VA based upon their course load. A veteran who is enrolled in a college degree program and is carrying 12 semester hours or more is considered a full time student and is paid the full time rate by the VA. If, during an enrollment period, the veteran for any reason drops a course or courses, he must be sure the VA is notified. The school he is attending is supposed to inform the VA, but the veteran should also advise the VA of the change in course load.

Under current law and regulations, when a veteran drops or otherwise loses a course, and the change will affect his VA benefits payments, the reduction or termination of such payments will be effective back to the state the semester or other enrollment period began. The longer the veteran waits to notify the VA, the larger the overpayment will become.

The federal government is presently pursuing for collection all persons who have overpayments and debts. When a veteran owes the VA a debt, he is not allowed to receive further benefits until his records have been cleared. The eligibility for veterans going to school under the GI Bill is rapidly being terminated as time goes by. Eligibility ends when he has used all of his entitlement or when he has been out of service ten years, whichever first occurs.

We've sent the 790 family histories to Dallas and are now collecting and processing general history information. Book sales have reached 716, and we're pleased and honored with your response. But, we need more book orders so that the size of our book will be large enough to hold all the historical information we think should be included. The more books sold, the more pages it will contain. It would be a shame to have to eliminate articles of interest due to a lack of space.

If you would like to give the book as a gift to someone, we can help. The book will not be out until Spring '86, but we're having gift certificates printed to take their place, temporarily, until the "real thing" is available. Just attach a note to the book order below, giving the name of the person to receive the book, maybe for Christmas or a birthday.

We'll fill the gift certificate out and mail it back to you, upon receipt of the information and payment.

Remember, November 1 is the last date that the book can be purchased at the $45 price. Call Hicks Turner, or editor, if you have any questions at 529-3579.

Firemen will sponsor refreshments at the shoot. Proceeds will go toward the water truck to help fight rural fires, according to Alvin Hutchins, secretary of the local volunteer fire fighter company. Additional details of the upcoming turkey shoot will be published in next week's Review.

In addition to winning turkeys during the shoot, the victors in each local event will be entered in a sweepstakes funded by "Field & Stream". Crossman Firearms has set up a junior shooters event, for marksmen under 18. Along with offerings of the local fire department, Campbell Chunky Soup will have a soup station to warm shooters with nutritious chunky soup.

Rowden Sector News

By Mrs. N.V. Gibbs

Officially, fall arrived on September 22nd, and the cool days this week made it seem like frost was around the corner. More cove had to be added on the beds and doors and windows closed. By Saturday, warmer dry weather returned.

Grain sowing is still going on, even if the ground has dried out. We can sympathize with the people in earthquakes and the hurricane disasters that damaged property and took lives, even though they are far from this area. Here, is mainly the area for tornadoes and floods. The farmer has to know that disaster affect them as much as anyone.

This community extends sympathy to Roselea Bonner and her family in their loss of husband, father and grandfather. Among the Rowden people attending his funeral were, Robert Burks, Blain and Jessie Odum, Tommie and Lora Fay Harris, Don and Pam Harris, Nicky and Evelyn Harris, Voncille and Clairbell Gibbs and James and Dorothy Reynolds. Dorothy sang one of the songs during the service.

Mrs. N.V. Gibbs visited Mrs. Lelia Gibbs in the Baird rest home and also made a short visit with Mrs. Barney Gibbs.

Gene and Vernie Belle Mauldin visited in the Roland Mauldin home during the week.

Robert and Dorothy Watsn have been in Haskell the last week where he has added more kitchen space to the rest home there. Dorothy drew up the blueprints for the addition and has helped with the work. She said meals had gone smoothly with the work going on.

MaryAna Harrell reports that she and little daughter Leigh had been on the sick list this week, finally going to the doctor in Abilene for medication. This is a good time of year for hayfever sufferers to have problems. Mrs. Harrell and daughter ate lunch with Mrs. Frank Harrell in Abilene.

Dale Gibbs of Abilene was out in the community Friday, where he visited N.V. Gibbs and Warren Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Harris attended the christening of baby Chris Harris, son of Nicky and Evelyn Harris, and brother of T.J. Harris, at the Catholic church in Coleman Saturday night.

Letters from the C.H. Gundersons of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived at the N.V. Gibbs and Sterling Odum places Friday. The first paragraph was about their weather, last week there was three days of steady rain followed by sleet and snow.

They plan to come back to South Texas for the winter. They spent last winter in McAllen, Texas. Also, Lee and Jean Jernigan of Lake Proctor are spending the weekend in the Tony Steele home. The men are busy sowing grain.

Word was received last night of the death of Linnie Bains, of Cross Plains. She had suffered a massive stroke while in the Cross Plain nursing home and had been a patient at Humana Hospital before her death.

She and her family Claude Stephens and sons, Weldon, Jerald and Donald owned and operated the Rowden store during the 40's. He became ill and passed away then Linnie was married to Oran Bains of near Oplin and they made their home in Cross Plains. The Stephens family meant so much to this community during their time of business here. Oran Bains and family were also well known people of the community and attended church here at Rowden. Our sympathy is extended to this family in their sorrow.

Workers for the United Fund will be visiting with families in the community to give each an opportunity to share in this worthy cause. October 4th is the date set for the drive.

Children of James and Dorothy Reynolds attending church with them in Cross Plains Sunday were Janet and Tan Flippin of Stephenville and Ellen Reynolds of Denton.

Sunday morning rain was gauged at the Gibbs place at one and one third inches of much needed moisture.

STATE CAPITAL

HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—With increased utility rates poised to become one of the figuring issues for the '86 elections, the Public Utilities Commission is drawing more and more scrutiny.

Last week, it was reported that top PUC officials and staff were taking expensive trips using state money and not documented with receipts.

Only a couple of days after the story broke, a Texas House subcommittee was formed to explore whether PUC commissioners should be elected instead of appointed by the governor.

Although the Legislature voted down such a proposal in '84, new pressures make the issue more attractive. A coalition of consumer groups want Gov. Mark White to appoint a consumer advocate as new PUC chairman.

The present chairman's term expired Sept. 1, and he is staying in office until White names a successor.

Costly Trips

In the past year, PUC personnel traveled to more than 50 conferences, going out-of-state to both coasts.

Many of the hotel and meal expenditures were higher than the normal rate allowed for staff on state business. In several cases, some $100 a day for taxis and meals were claimed with no receipts.

Knuckles Rapped

What has particularly ruffled some is that recently the same PUC staff rapped the knuckles of the utility companies for charging ratepayers for similar expenses.

The commissioners tried to justify the numerous trips, but not necessarily the expenses, by saying they want the Texas PUC to build some "national visibility." One observer remarked, "they've sure got visibility now, at home anyway."

College Reforms

Last week Gov. White announced the members of the new select panel to recommend major changes in state colleges.

Named as chairman was Larry Temple, head of the college and university coordinating board, who said the panel is not designed to be a carbon copy of a similar committee which recently overhauled public schools.

But Temple said there will be "no sacred cows" and that everything is fair game, which means some wonder if that included dividing the Permanent University fund.

Other well-knowns placed on the powerful panel are former CIA deputy Bobby Ray Inman, developer and oilman George Mitchell, and Arthur Temple of the East Texas lumber fortune.

More than $3,000 was spent by two staffers to attend a one-day seminar at a Palm Springs resort and country club.

Day Late

When PUC commissioners were asked why these practices were allowed to go on, each admitted they did not scrutinize the travel vouchers for the staff.

Commissioner Peggy Rossen said that when commissioners finally decided to ask the executive director to curtail his travel, he resigned a day early to take a job in San Francisco.

In all, the executive director spent some $10,000 in travel in 11 months.

Two Pells

Two recent statewide polls reported 1) the number of self-styled Republicans in Texas is about the same as the Democrats, and 2) Texans don't trust government, particularly the feds.

One survey found the GOP in Texas to be 91 percent white, while the Democrats are 55 percent white, 24 percent Hispanic and 20 percent black.

Only 38 percent of citizens would say they trust government most of the time. Blacks were the least trustful, with only 17 percent approving most of the time.

Short Takes

State Treasurer Ann Richards says she will definitely seek reelection. A fundraiser is in the planning stages, with the first priority being to pay off her remaining $140,000 campaign debt from 1982.

Gov. Bill Hobby announced during a Sherman visit that he will seek a fifth term.

State Republican Party Chairman George Strake blasted the Texas Department of Community Affairs for shutting down phone service and sending employees home while the agency was moving.

Economist Discusses Farm Survival

COLLEGE STATION -- What must a farmer do to survive financially into the 1990s?

Dr. Bill Black, an economist in marketing and policy with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, outlines a few key points for economic survival in farming as he views changes in the coming years.

"First, become part of an integrated system—the most common way to forward contract," Black advises farmers. "Find a home for what you produce before you plant. Make your products more consumer-ready. And let the buyer finance part of your production."

"Learn to manage a business, not just a farm," Black emphasizes. "You can't rely on land appreciation for equity accumulation."

The economist also advises farmers to "be on top of technological changes in biotechnology and management and economic developments. Be an early adopter."

Good Ideas from the Past • by Donald J. Berg

A Simple Smoke House

From the book BARN PLANS AND OUTBUILDINGS, 1884

It sometimes happens that one needs to smoke some hams or other meat, and no smoke house is at hand. In such a case a large cask or barrel, as shown may prove a very good substitute. To make this effective, a small pit should be dug, and a flat stone or a brick placed across it, upon which the edge of the cask will rest. Half of the pit is beneath the barrel, and half of it outside. The head and bottom may be removed, or a hole can be cut in the bottom a little larger than the portion of the pit beneath the cask. The head is removed while the hams are hung upon cross stocks. These rest upon two cross-bars, made to pass through holes bored in the sides of the cask, near the top. The head is then laid upon the cask, and covered with sacks to confine the smoke. Some coals are put into the pit outside of the cask, and the fire is fed with damp corn cobs, hardwood chips, or fine brush. The pit is covered with a flat stone, by which the fire may be regulated, and it is removed when necessary to add more fuel.

State ASC Committee Cites Need

For Sound 1985 Farm Bill

"We need sound farm policy that helps Texas farmers, but also has fiscal restraint," according to Harold Thomas, Chairman of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. Thomas reiterated the Reagan Administration's farm bill goal at the close of the committee meeting here today.

New legislation is needed to replace the four-year law which expires at the end of this month.

Thomas's comments on behalf of the state ASC Committee closely followed the resumption of the far bill debate by the Congress in Washington this week, and the committee's 'conference' with Secretary of Agriculture John Block today. "We just 'met' with Secretary Block by telephone, and as his representatives on Federal farm policy here in the State the committee wanted to pass on some of what was discussed," Thomas said. "Our major objectives are the same as when the legislative process began earlier this year," Thomas said. "Three objectives are central to the Administration philosophy."

"First, we must become more competitive in world markets. Reducing price and income support levels is essential, so that we send a clear signal to our competitors that we are serious about regaining lost export markets. We must no longer hold the price umbrella for the world," Thomas said.

"Second, we are committed to a policy of compassion for farmers. That means we want to spend enough money to carry our producers through a transition period as we work toward a reduction in farmer dependence on government."

"And, third, we recognize the need to reduce the Federal deficit."

Koenig ran 18 yards for the Buffs' third touchdown, climaxing a 65-yard drive. A run failed to score a two-point bonus, leaving the score 18-6 at intermission."

Blanket Fullback Shorty Lobstein scored in the third quarter on a one-yard run, but attempted run failed on the conversion try, which changed the tally to 18-12 favoring visiting Cross Plains.

Buffaloes' Devin Koenig intentionally gave up a two-point safety with 1:37 left in the game. Blanket got the ball on the Herd's 45, but the Bisons held for downs, running the clock out after regaining possession of the ball with final score 18-14.

Head Coach Mark Davidson said of the Herd, "We had a real good offensive night. We moved the ball well when we could hold on to it, we kept stopping ourselves." He praised the following as doing a real good job in the offensive line, Lee Meador, Casey Williams, Shane Bubenik, Bill Johnson, David Grider, Tommy Ames and Troy Harris at right end.

Koenig was the leading rusher with a net gain of 92 yards on 17 carries. Runner-up was Apple who gained 75 yards on 12 totes. Fleming also carried 17 times and collected 59 yards. Each of the three scored a touchdown. Leading pass receiver was Ricky White who nabbed three aeriels for 35 yards.

Blanket's top ground gainer was Dennis Ryan who made 46 yards on 12 rushes.

Coach Davidson also credited Cross Plains' defense with "playing a real good ball game". He said that Tommy Ames played an outstanding game making 15 tackles from his middle linebacker position. The coach added, "We're (the coaches) are happy with the improved play; the whole defense played better".

Other Bisons noted for defensive effort included Williams, Bubenik, Gregg Weiss and Meador.

Buffaloes will host Lometa in the second 8-A East contest for both schools Friday. Kickoff is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in Buffalo Stadium. The Hornets are a highly respected team, and Davidson said, "Will be a real challenge." He added, "If we (the Buffaloes) are to contend in district, we are going to have to play hard this week." The coach continued, "We expect a real tough ball game with Lometa." Friday's visitors bring a 3-1 season record into the contest, and blanked Rochelle 27-0 in the conference opener last Friday.

DON'T SHOOT AT POWER LINES!

NEVER SHOOT AT POWER LINES

or the insulators that hold them, because the result could be a dangerous downed electric line. A severed line could cause a serious electrical outage, and the downed line itself could be extremely hazardous.

ADDITIONAL SAFETY TIPS:

• Use Power Tools Wisely
Be sure wiring is in good condition and all circuits are grounded. Never use electric tools in the rain or on wet surfaces. Also, when buying new equipment, look for the "UL" seal of approval from Underwriters Laboratories.

• Keep Children Away from Electrical Outlets

Don't let small children play near electrical outlets. A child could put some object in an outlet when you're looking away. A wise safety precaution would be to put safety caps in all wall outlets.

• Always Disconnect Cords by Pulling on the plug

When disconnecting electrical items, be sure to pull on the plug — not the cord! If you pull on the cord, you'll eventually wear it out and expose hazardous wires. Also, don't overload extension cords or outlets.

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy — but only YOU can use it safely!
