MULESHOE SCHOOLS OPEN WITH PROGRAM

Inspirational Music and Addresses Feature Beginning of Term; Pastors of Local Churches To Take Part.

Muleshoe public schools will open formally next Monday, September 6, at which time there will be a program to which all parents, patrons and friends are invited attendance to enjoy the exercises and to get better acquainted with teachers for the coming year, according to Superintendent W. C. Cox.

Registration of pupils for the first term will begin immediately following the program. Pupils are asked to bring their lunches as it may be necessary for them to remain at the school buildings after the noon hour, Prof. Cox said.

Aggi Committee To Hold Meetings For Planned Legislation

Group meetings of farmers and officials of farmer organizations will be held during the summer months, meeting with the 25 members of the Congressional House Committee on Agriculture, according to advice received this week by the Journal from Congressman Marvin Jones, Amarillo, chairman of this important committee. The purpose of these meetings are to obtain a consensus of opinion from farmers as to various ideas they desire included in the proposed agriculture control legislation which will come up for discussion and passage at the special session of Congress beginning sometime in November, Jones said.

Specific calls and dates of meetings will be announced later. In the meantime interested farmers who are interested in such proposed legislation or who may wish to attend one of these conferences, should contact Congressman George Mahon, this district, at Colorado or Marvin Jones at Amarillo.

Question of Special Session of U. S. Congress Discussed By Members Pro And Con; Important Bills Need Acts Split in Democratic Party, Has The President Reached Cross Roads; Future Politics All Interesting The Nation.

Since adjournment of Congress, discussion of whether there will be a special session this fall and whether or not President Roosevelt has reached the crossroads of his political career, apparently are two questions seriously agitating the minds of national statesmen and occupying much thought among leading citizens of various classifications.

Texas Old Age Pension Conditions

State Now Paying Out Average of $20,000,000 Monthly to 117,000 Pensioners; Three Million Increase Needed.

Notwithstanding there has been a cut of approximately 10,000 pensioners in Texas during the past 90 days, the State is paying out approximately $20,000,000 to 117,000 persons still on the rolls drawing their monthly stipend, and this sum is due for an increase of between three and four million dollars more when the recently passed amendments to the state constitution become effective this fall. However, continued investigation of the really needy may eventually result in the cutting off of around 30,000 who are now receiving this gratuitous benefit from the state and nation.

Federal Government men have emphatically informed Texas officials that this State has gone too strong on pensions, and that a weeding out was necessary. They have constantly paraded the fact that while the State of New York has twice the population of Texas, there were but 90,000 on the pension rolls of that State compared to 122,000 on the Texas rolls at the time the complaint was made. The investigations and eliminations will continue for some time in order to put this State on a par with others.

Shortly after the old age pension act was passed, more than 300,000 persons in Texas above 65 years old applied for assistance. It was impossible to accommodate this number, so at a special session of the Forty-fourth Legislature the so-called deliberalization bill was passed, directing the investigations and checkup, and providing that pensions should be based upon need only.

For the first 10 months of the fiscal year the State collected in taxes for pensions alone close to $8,000,000, and the Federal Government contributed a similar amount. It is estimated that about $20,000,000 was distributed, although detailed figures for two months were not available in the Comptroller's Department.

Under the law, three-fourths of the levies on liquor, beer and wine apply on pensions. Bert Ford, state director of liquor control, estimates the liquor tax will yield $8,000,000 the coming fiscal year, and if so, pensions will receive $6,000,000 from this alone.

The cigarette tax is a close second, as two-thirds of this revenue goes to the pension. In the 10-month period, pensioners received $2,304,000 from cigarette sales. Occupation taxes netted for pensions $27,000; horse-racing $257,000; sale of bonds, $317,000; cigarette permits, $84,000; cigarette penalties, $8,430, and interest on bonds, $11,266. All of these figures are for the 10 months only.

The administrative costs of the old age assistance board for the same period was $553,000, or 5 per cent of the tax collections, but half of this is paid by the Federal Government.

If additional taxes must be raised for pensions, there are men legislators who insist that the present levies can not be increased, and become a mere governmental habit, but that some form of sales tax is necessary. There are others who are willing to put through a sales tax, but want pensions to be paid to every one over 65. There is a growing number who insist that reduction of government costs, and not increased taxation, is the only solution to the middle.

At any rate, the coming special session this Fall, and perhaps the next regular session will argue over old age assistance and the proper way of financing it. Because of improved conditions pension funds are increasing, and at the same time there is deposited in one of the Dallas banks $1,900,000 available to the fund, the remainder of a loan, so there is no imminent danger of running out of money.

Giles L. Avritt, old age pension auditor, has estimated that $3,500,000 additional funds will be needed to support the old age pensions fund for next fiscal year beginning Sept. 1, with the probability there will be over 120,000 on the list.

On the present basis of $14 state and federal money per person, $340,000 per month, plus $42,000 administrative expenses, will be needed, and the average may be raised above $14.

Oh "Yew" Teddy Bears!

TREE clipping has been developed as a fine art in Victoria, the beautiful capital city of British Columbia. There, the holly bushes and yew trees of the city's gardens and parks, are shaped by clever shears into unique, symmetrical forms. Among the outstanding examples wrought by the gardeners of Victoria, are the two teddy bears pictured here. Both have been shaped from yew trees. The big one is a tree that is forty years old and the little one just five years old.
