BURIAL SERVICES HELD HERE FOR MRS. GOODRICH

A pall of sadness fell over the Fairy community when word was received of the passing of a friend and former resident, Mrs. Sybil Goodrich, 58, of Fort Worth. Sybil was born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Janice. Walter Blakley of Fairy on Aug. 14, 1905. She spent her girlhood days here, and was loved for her sympathetic understanding and consideration of others. She was a friend to all and always ready to lend a helpful hand in time of need, as was her dear old mother whose good deeds will never be forgotten.

Pallbearers were Eugene Blaklev. Wichita Falls. Billy Jack Blakley and Louis Walton Blakley of Fort Worth, Wauwic and Robert Ogle of Hico, Bernard Ogle of Dublin, Johnnie White of Ennis and Frank Bonner of Fairy. The floral offering was beautiful. Burial was in Fairy Cemetery by her parents.

Mrs. Goodrich was a niece o W. E. Goyne of Fairy and Mrs. Thoma Ogle and Mrs. O. E. Whitson of Hico and cousin of Mrs Frank Bonner. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the husband and children and other relatives in the untimely passing of Mrs. Goodrich. A large crowd attended

Friends and former acquaintances were sorry to learn of the passing of Charles Cleburne Basham of Gatesville who died suddenly in a Temple rursing home last Tuesday, June 9 at 11:30 p.m. He was born to the late Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Basham Aug. 3, 1886 in Clarksville, Tenn. They resided in the Fairy and Lanham communities prior to moving to Turnersville. He was 77. Funeral services were held at 3 o'clock Thursday, June 11 in Gatesville, with his pastor of the Church of Christ in Gatesville officiating. Burial was in Turnersville Cemetery. He was preceded in death by his wife, the former Miss Eula Baker of Fairy and one son, Charles Ray who died in World War II in 1944. Mr. Basham had resided in Turnersville from 1913 to 1957 where he operated a drug store. He lived in Gatesville since 1957 with the exception of the past few months in the rest home. Survivors are three daughters; nine grandchildren; 5 great-grandchildren; three sisters. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the family

The writer and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goyne attended funeral services for Mr. Basham.

We have overlooked making mention of the death of Mrs. Roy Humes, 66, who died suddenly of a heart attack May 27. She was the mother of Mrs. J. R. Latham of Lanham. Our sympathy is extended to her and others who mourn her passing. She and her husband resided 7 miles north of Turnersville.

We are very sorry to learn that Mrs. Lilla Byrd of Carlton is hospitalized in a San Angelo hospital and is very ill at this time. Her address is room 308, c-o Shannon Memorial Hospital. We feel sure she would be glad to hear from her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abel and Bill, and James Abel visited her Thursday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abel and family of Dallas visited last Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Abel and Bill.

'Daddy, you forgot ... every litter bit hurts!"

It happens in the best of families! Mom and Dad heading up a family day can forget that every litter bit hurts . . . in more ways than one.

Every litter bit thoughtlessly dropped blemishes the beauty of a picnic spot that belongs to every American family . . . contradicts the early citizenship training you want your children to have in the home, as well as in school, camp, and scouting. . Kids are realists, right? If you're a litterbug, even unknowingly, why shouldn't they be? So, Dad, please -lead the way to the litter basket. Use a car litterbag. Carry litter out of camping areas. Make it a family project to Keep America Beautiful!
