Hico Seeks Win No. 2 This Week

Hico Tigers, fresh from their first victory of the season, will take on Godley's Wildcats Friday night at the local stadium in a game beginning at 8 p.m.

Godley is not a new foe, with the two teams meeting the past four years. The Tigers hold a slight edge in the four-game series played to date, winning 26-0 in 1962, again in 1963 by a 24-22 margin, and tying the Wildcats 14-14 in 1964. Last year Godley got a measure of revenge by stopping the Tigers 13-6 in the season opener.

Scouting reports indicate that the two teams are about even in strength and experience, and another close game is expected.

All of Hico's team members came out of the Stephenville game last week in good condition, and the team as a whole should be in good shape for the contest.

Kickoff is at 8 p.m. in the local stadium, and a good crowd is expected for the game.

Tigers Floor Stephenville Bees 42-20 In Rain-Delayed Contest

With Dwain Gray scoring five touchdowns and passing for another, the Hico Tigers hit the victory trail last Saturday night with a convincing 42-20 win over one of the best Stephenville B teams seen in recent years.

Gray started his onslaught by taking the opening kickoff and racing 90 yards for the touchdown. The score was the only marker for the Tigers in the first period, and the Bees jumped into an 8-6 lead during the first 12 minutes. However, the lead was short-lived as the Tigers scored twice in the second quarter, twice in the third, and a lone marker in the final quarter.

Stephenville scored once each in the first, second and fourth periods.

Gray, who was switched to the quarterback post at the start of practice last week, received good support from backs Barry Polk, Howard Strader, Joe Tooley, and Gary White, and also from the offensive line. The battering running of Polk from his fullback slot kept the defense honest enough, and Gray turned on the steam to gouge out great hunks of yardage around the ends. Besides the 90-yard kickoff return, Gray scored on runs of 10, 73, 45 and two yards, and passed 35 yards to Gary White for the other Tiger tally.

Stephenville wasn't the "patsie" that the score might indicate, and the Bees consistently came up with big plays to keep drives going. Their downfall was a couple of pass interceptions and a fumble or two.

Following the opening kickoff runback by Gray, who received a tremendous wave of clearing blocks, Stephenville used only five plays to move 69 yards for the go-ahead points.

With the score at 8-6, Hico started drive late in the first period that carried 78 yards for the second Tiger TD, scored by Gray on a 10-yard run at the beginning of the second period. The senior speedster also got the two-point conversion to put Hico ahead 14-8.

The next Tiger marker came only minutes later when Barry Polk swiped a Bee pass and ran it back to the 28. A series of penalties put the ball back to the 35, from where Gray hit White at the five for the third marker. Polk rammed home for the two-points and Hico owned a 22-8 lead.

Stephenville's bounced right back to take the kickoff and marched 75 yards for the final points in the first half, making the score 22-14 at intermission.

A big third quarter iced the game for the locals. Gray scooted 73 and 45 yards which put the score up to 35-14.

The Bees put together a 75-yard drive midway of the final quarter for their last touchdown, and Hico came back with a 54-yard march to make the final score 42-20.

Local Methodist Minister Will Pastor Carlton Church

Rev. T. E. Blancett, who was pastor of Carlton and Lamkin Methodist churches, has accepted the position as Youth Director at Brownwood First Methodist Church.

Services at Carlton will be held on the second and fourth Sunday morning at 9:45, and first and third Sunday evenings at 7:30. Sunday evening services at Hico will be changed to 6 p.m. according to Rev. Hubert Taylor, pastor.

Look In the Mirror

(What the Girls are Wearing)

At the first sign of autumn, nearly every teenage girl in the country will be dashing to her closet to find a disappointing array of last year's left-overs. They will be wondering what's new for fall and how they can warm up a few of those "cold dishes."

According to fashion experts, the biggest trend for the girls is "The 1966 Coat." This year girls should collect them like sweaters and make them match some of last year's clothes along with their new duds. You can use coats with plain dresses that coordinate in color and style, and you'll have a snazzy ensemble. If you have a suit with a fairly long jacket, why not try to find some pants that match it and that suit will get surprisingly more miles to the gallon. The newest look is with a longish jacket and turtle-neck sweater—looks neat from head to toe with a twist of scarf, neat ankle bone boots with stockings that have personality, and little hoop earrings.

Accessories will play an important role in making "The 1966 Coat" have personality. The small purse is good this year and you'll probably see them "hanging around" many girls' shoulders from gold chains. Also the small briefcase, newest version of the tote, will be good in deep tones of patent. The knuckle glove and the patent glove will be very good this year, as will be the hacking hat, which is a deep brimmed roller.

At foot level, the court pump with oval toes and buckles, the T-straps, and the shoe boot that comes only ankle high will give fashion a "kick."

How about taking another look at last year's left-overs. Chances are you can probably cook up some pretty saucy dishes.

James Randals Speaks In Guidance Program

The first of a series of guidance programs that are designed to help students chose colleges was presented last week. These programs will consist of speeches given by college students telling what his college has to offer and will help the high school students become better acquainted with different colleges.

James Randals, who graduated from Hico High School in 1965 and will be a sophomore at the University of Texas this fall, was the guest speaker. He told of the two areas in which a student was directly involved at college. The first area reflected the togetherness and association with groups such as political parties, fraternities and sororities. He also told about cultural activities that are provided to all students at a small charge.

The other area is the "study and learn" aspect of college. He warns that some of your professors are weird and don't care about you as a person. Yet most of the subjects you will be taking will arouse your interest and make you want to learn.

Another of the subjects he spoke about was what to expect. He said "No matter how hard you believe a college is going to be—it's going to be somewhat harder than you first expected."

A question and answer session followed.

Fairy Community News

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

We had an electrical storm here Saturday night and early Sunday, receiving 1.5 inches of rain. We also had received the same amount early Friday morning, making a total of 3.8 inches since our last writing. Seems the sowing of grain is going to be late as the fields are so wet.

Mr. L. V. Houser underwent major surgery at Scott & White Hospital last Friday. He was said to have had a pretty rough day Saturday but seemed to be resting much better Sunday. His room number is 734 and we feel sure he and Mrs. Houser would appreciate hearing from friends and relatives. We sincerely hope the operation will be a success and that he will soon be fully recovered.

The writer and Mrs. C. W. Brunson of Hico attended the 100th birthday open house for Aunt Nancy Fine last Sunday afternoon at the home of her son, Sid Fine near Carlton. The serving table was laid with a white linen cloth. A potted plant with deep red bell shaped blooms decorated one end of the table. The large oblong tiered cake was iced in white with rose red decoration. Cake and rose red fruit punch was served. No one would take Mrs. Fine to be more than 80 years of age and actually she has the appearance of being in much better physical condition than most 75 to 80 year olds. She is able to be up and about her room and still possesses an active mind seemingly her hearing and eyesight is also good yet. She talked with us, telling us that it was the late Rev. Gibson of Carlton who performed the marriage ceremony of she and Mr. Fine. That she once lived at a small place called Midway where there was a church and a cemetery and probably a store or two. We first met the Fines in the mid-thirties when we went to their farm home west of Carlton and bought a trailer load of petrified rock. These were gathered up over the Fine's pasture and our teenage children got quiet a thrill helping to find them. The Fine family resided in the Carlton community for many years. Since the death of Mr. Fine, she has made her home with her son, Sid and wife, and they are to be commended for the excellent care given her. She received many nice and useful gifts. May she have more happy birthdays.

While in Carlton Sunday we visited a short while in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Proffitt and Mrs. Marie Turner and Sam.

Mrs. Dellis Seago and her mother, Mrs. E. C. Allison of Waco and Mr. and Mrs. Texie Allison and sons of near Dublin visited Sunday afternoon at the Allison home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bolstad, D'Ann and Glenn of Houston spent the weekend here visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover.

While at Carlton Sunday, Mrs. Brunson and this scribe visited at the cemetery. We visited the graves of the late Mr. and Mrs. Andy Brown, the W. D. Elder family, Dr. and Mrs. Agee, Mr. and Mrs. Bell (she was Maud Burnett who at one time lived at Olin). We visited many other graves of those we had known, including Ernie Burnett, Hallick Hoover and Albert, Modie Finley and many others. The Carlton Cemetery caretaker and those who support the work are to be commended on the care. It shows they have cooperation in the work.

Mr. Jim H. Davis celebrated his 80th birthday Sept. 18 with open house for his children and grandchildren and friends. Those who were present were Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Cowan, Ricky, Donna and Jan of Killeen, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Graves, Keith, Jeff, Kirk and Jill of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Reeves and Mrs. Dimple Gordon of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Davis and Jimmy of Iredell, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis, Myrtle, Billy, Gene and Mrs. Sue Prater of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Laymon Newton, Mike, Phillip and Stanley of Rochester. The Bill Davis' of Lubbock brought the large birthday cake and all brought well-filled baskets of food. We wish for him many more happy birthdays.

Sammy Guinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Guinn of near Fairy and Miss Sheila Anne Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harrison of Hamilton were united in marriage last Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Jimmie Don Sellers of Arlington was best man, her sister, Miss Pam Harrison was maid of honor, and Mrs. Barbara Brumalaw was bridesmaid. Rev. Bobby Jack Parker of Fairfield officiated. Miss Harrison was a junior student in Hamilton High School. Sammy graduated from Hamilton High in 1965 and has been employed at Arlington for a year or more. He had been in Maryland taking a course for the company and he and his wife will go there following his vacation where he will resume his studies. Sammy is one of our most promising young men and his many friends wish for them much happiness and prosperity along life's way.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Willeford and Della spent the weekend in Abilene in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Britton Willeford and family. They attended the ball game between Hamilton and Cross Plains Friday night. They reported that during the electrical storm Saturday night that a tree was uprooted in the Willeford yard. We learned that a shed was blown down at the Howard place a few miles northwest of Fairy. Mrs. Ruth Cunningham had her refrigerator knocked out. As the inside light was still burning she didn't notice that it was out until the freezer portion began to defrost. She took the contents of her freezer over to the Howards to put in their freezer and expects to get it in running shape Tuesday. All phones on the electrically operated lines were out and those who had electric cook stoves were out of luck Sunday morning for an early breakfast. One phone line was repaired Sunday since we had sick folks who could need a phone most anytime. Our line wasn't back in order until around noon Monday. Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers had told her son, Jimmie of Arlington, who spent the weekend here, to call home as soon as he reached his apartment. She said not once did she think that her phone was out. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner and Keith of Killeen spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Janice and Jimmie.

Miss Bernice Turner of Killeen and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner took a vacation trip to Tahoka where they visited his sister and husband. All went to New Mexico while there. They visited other relatives and points of interest before returning home the last of the week.

Part of our news was left out last week and we guess readers could tell there was some missing lines. Other blood donors for our daughter was C. A. Bullard of Fairy. Again we wish to thank them. Also Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mason had attended singing at Lund Valley the previous Sunday. The E. M. Hoovers stopped in Post enroute to Lubbock recently and talked with Mrs. Bowers Harmon, the former Frieda Clayton. She stated her mother, Mrs. Frank Clayton is a patient in a Post nursing home, due to a stroke suffered recently. She stated that she was still unable to use one of her arms but was able to be up and about. We were sorry to hear of her misfortune and hope she continues to improve. The Clayton family are former residents of Fairy when Mr. Clayton served as a barber. We finished cleaning all lots under care at the cemetery Thursday of last week and this week we are mowing. This time we had some grass burrs to dig prior to mowing. Mrs. Willie Turner and Mrs. Edward Guinn have been helping us. Recent donations are: Mrs. J. D. Seago handed us $10 while at Fairy Sunday, and Witt Lacey of Olton stopped at the cemetery Monday and handed us $10. Lawton Cunningham and P. L. Cox each paid in $1 to have their lots worked. Our sincere thanks to all for your thoughtfulness. Jerry Richardson of Ft. Worth spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parks and daughters of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Pack and sons of Stephenville were weekend sitters with Mrs. M. E. Parks and Audie. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson visited Tuesday at Scott and White Hospital with Mr. and Mrs. L. Houser. Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Clark spent the weekend in Amarillo visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Barnett and family.

BOWLING ALONG . . .

By RUTH SALMON
League Secretary

The Rebels are taking each team they play for a quick ride, winning three points each week and holding onto the number one spot. The ladies of the team kinda showed the men partners up as Allene Cook rolled a 158 game and Alta Mae Hamilton a 165 game, while Avo Rutledge, on the opposing team, counted out a 152 game and David Anderson a 165.

The Shoppers had a lucky streak and won three points from Gemini 4. Bowling went pretty well as Morse Ross chalked up a 206-549, Ruth Salmon a 174 game and Shirley Ross a 167-447. The Gemini was strong with Pat Ross rolling a 179-480 and Glenn Ross a 506 series.

F-W Ranch had the only landslide as they plowed right through the Has Been for four points. June Roberson rolled a 175 game.

The mystery team of the Four K's split 2-2 with the Tellers. We found J.K. bubbling over with a 179, and P.K. a big 549 series. Jack Goodman kept the Tellers alive as he counted up a 192-524 and Mary had a 170-476.

On the Home Range

By SONDRA CRAIG
Home Demonstration Agent

The Hamilton County Home Demonstration Council met Sept. 12 at 2 p.m. in Hamilton. Three of the 3 clubs were represented with 9 members present.

Plans for the annual Achievement Day were discussed. The following officers were elected for 1967:

Chairman, Mrs. C. H. King; vice-chairman, Mrs. K. Coats; secretary, Mrs. W. L. Gardner; treasurer, Mrs. Phil Gardner; THDA Chairman, Mrs. Kermit Renken.

Mrs. R. B. Richmond and Mrs. K. Coats will be representing the county at the State THDA meeting in Corpus Christi Sept. 20-22. They will obtain some good ideas for programs for 1967.

A two-session leadership workshop will be held in the District Courtroom Sept. 26 and 27 at 7:30 p.m. to train officers and members of all organizations in the county. Sponsor of the workshop is the County Program Building Committee.

Such subjects as "Practical Parliamentary Procedure," "Getting Maximum Participation from Committees," "Getting Participation in Meetings," and "Finding, Hosting and Introducing Speakers" will be discussed by Extension personnel.

Leaders of all organizations in the county, and other interested citizens are urged to attend.

Are you a slow starter in the mornings? If you find it difficult to prepare more than the simplest breakfast, and meet your deadlines for getting your family off to work or school, then try a new approach. Give yourself a head start by preparing some of the morning meals the night before.

Wise planning will save a lot of extra time to sleep, allow you to use convenience foods, at your own time-saving practices.

Canned, frozen or fresh meats can be prepared the night before and refrigerated. Quick cooking cereals can be used; pre-cooked meats and leftovers need only a few minutes to be heated through and partially baked hot breads and canned oven-ready biscuits are handy.

If you have a few more minutes the prepared mixes for muffins, biscuits, cornbread and pancakes can be used to add variety. The best to plan to have one-fourth to one-third of the day's food prepared at breakfast. Start the right each morning for your family by providing them with a good breakfast. Although September is designated as "Breakfast Month," it's wise to keep up the practice all through the year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bramblett of Plainview visited from Saturday until Monday in the homes of the mothers, Mrs. W. L. Malone and Mrs. O. M. Bramblett.

Miss Pam Ross accompanied by grandmother, Mrs. Conda Stone to Cherokee where they visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dove last Friday and Saturday.

The four tier wedding cake was frosted in white, decorated with yellow roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Miss Pam Harrison, sister of the bride poured punch, and Mrs. Durwood Brooks of Arlington, sister of the groom, served cake.

For traveling the bride chose a yellow three-piece wool suit, white accessories and the rose corsage from her bridal bouquet. The couple will make their home in Paxton River, Maryland for six months where he is employed with Ling-Temco-Vaugh of Dallas.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seal over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Van Sampson and Lonnie, and Dan and Don Seal of Houston. All were in Fort Worth Sunday for the McCook and Curry family reunion.

Ready for the Unexpected...

The average person can't plan for sudden illness. But the Pharmacist must. It's one of the most important parts of your pharmacist's job to keep informed of all the new products in the vast and complex drug prescription field.

And behind your pharmacist's ability to serve you is the nation's pharmaceutical industry, which each year places several hundred new drug products in the service of better health. Just one of them, recently developed, required millions of dollars. It was studied by more than 200 physicians in 4500 patients. The report on its safety and effectiveness filled 27 volumes with 14000 pages of facts.

Dear Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for assisting the Vocational Agriculture organizations, FFA and Young Farmers throughout this past year. Without your publishing articles for them their outstanding work in their locality would not be known to the general public.

As the past district public relations chairman, I certainly appreciated you sending me a complimentary copy of your paper during the past year. With your outstanding cooperation I was fortunate to win second in the state, in having the best compiled scrapbook of FFA and Young Farmer activities.

Without your assistance, this honor could not have been presented to me. Thanks again and I know your local FFA organization certainly appreciate your support.

Star-Spangled nest egg

If you're like most Americans, you probably intend to use your Savings Bonds as a down payment on a house, to help send a child to college or otherwise upgrade your standard of living.

You don't need to feel one whit less patriotic because of this.

The fact that you and tens of millions of other Americans buy and hold U.S. Savings Bonds helps Uncle Sam manage his financial affairs better and puts him in a position to be a stronger voice and a stronger power in the free world.

And the fact that you and these other millions of Americans have accumulated the savings you have—47 billions in E and H Savings Bonds alone—is one of the reasons why Americans are financially strong and reliant. And their individual strength is the strength of the nation.

When the communists make one of their favorite statements—that they're going to "bury us" economically—your savings and your support of your country are mighty powerful answers. Keep building both with U.S. Savings Bonds.

Quick facts about U.S. Savings Bonds

- You get $4 for every $3 at maturity
- You can get your money when you need it
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed, or stolen
- You can buy Bonds where you work or bank

WASHINGTON—
As It Looks
From Here

By OMAR BURLESON, M.C.
17th District, Texas

Washington, D.C.—The concentration of great power and authority in the Federal Government is an accomplished fact. For the past several years, the issue of Federal controls, particularly as it applies to our schools, has been an issue, but this is no longer the paramount question.

The question now is how much control is to be applied in the administration of the many Federal programs. The one single legislative enactment which has granted the most power to Washington is not contained in any of the grant-in-aid programs and, in fact, in the case of Federal Aid to Education, certain sections of the law disclaim the intent to control.

The key to the power of control is contained in Title VI of the 1964 Civil Rights Act. This section authorizes the withholding of funds under all programs if the local authorities fail to comply with conditions laid down by the Federal Government. This section of the law becomes the silent partner to Federal grant-in-aid programs but has only been applied thus far to any considerable degree, to public education.

Title VI of the 1964 Act gives broad powers to any Agency of the Federal Government which approves funds in support of state and local programs. Local Administrators who fail to comply with directives called "guidelines" in the administration of such programs can have funds withheld or withdrawn. The authority is in the Law for Agency officials to actually exercise dictatorial powers not envisioned by many when the law was passed.

Direction and "guidelines" are issued from Washington purportedly for the purpose of assisting local officials in the drawing up of plans for compliance. It is a simple matter of saying to officials that they will follow directives issued by Washington officials as if they had the force and effect of law. The directives are not, in fact, spelled out in the law, but are derived from such phrases as "under such rules and regulations as may be formulated." This simply means that local officials must follow the rules and regulations to be able to secure Federal funds.

Guidelines have been issued to school officials as to what they must do if they are to receive funds, and unless they can comply, funds will be cut off.

There are signs that more stringent and exacting directives will be forthcoming in the not too distant future.

The education and labor committee of the House of Representatives recently held a series of hearings which point to greater demands from Washington that certain things be changed to conform to the Federal view and contrary to local custom and state law.

The hearings before the committee were presumably to investigate the extent to which textbooks and library materials used in public schools failed to accord proper reflection for minority groups. It is plain that the hearings began under the assumption that not enough emphasis and credit has been placed upon the contribution of various minority groups to our society. The real purpose was to conclude that ways should be devised to re-write textbooks for public schools in such a way as to change meaning and impressions from those now being used.

This would seem to be a sort of reverse book-burning proposition. Apparently there is no real difference between burning books for what they contain and burning books for what they do not contain.

There have been those in the past who have made great issues of eliminating books and literature because of their content, but nothing has yet been heard from these same people on eliminating texts which do not express a certain viewpoint.

If books can be banned for these reasons, they can be banned for other reasons. Textbooks can be changed because of the interpretation of history or because they teach an "outmoded" variety of economics, or because of the treatment of alien philosophy, such as Communism. Some in our intellectual community have been saying that we dwell too much on the bad aspects of these alien ideas and do not present a "balanced" picture for students.

Now that we have the many and varied programs of Federal Aid, we can only hope and insist that the planners here in Washington will apply reason, respect, and moderation to control of local affairs.

COUNTY AGENT

By BILL McCUTCHEON

Hamilton County cotton farmers are having their problems once again. If it isn't insects or drought but it's too much rain at the wrong time. Recent heavy rains have been welcomed by almost everyone with the exceptions of the cotton farmers and the football enthusiasts.

With farm labor becoming more difficult to find every year, the farmer is turning more and more to mechanical harvesting. This mechanization does not solve all of the farmers' harvesting problems, in fact it creates new ones. Practically all mechanical harvesting in this area is done with a cotton stripper. To use this machine the cotton stalks must be defoliated and this is one of the problems now, with other problems being wet fields and lower cotton grades due to recent rains.

The way things look now, quite a lot of cotton may stay in the fields until after frost. With the abundant moisture we have in most sections of the county contributing to a renewed growth of the cotton stalks it is going to be difficult to get a good leaf kill, and even if this is possible the green bolls produced by the "top crop" may present a problem.

What to do? There are several choices—hand pulling if labor is available, wait until after frost and machine harvest, or if rains hold for a while use a defoliant or dessicant and hope to get through before it rains again, or regrowth occurs. The answer to these problems will not be the same for every farmer.

Farmers in this area are using fertilizer as never before. Much is being used on small grains this fall and it is the planning for next year's crop as well.

The kinds and amounts of fertilizer used should be based on the fertility level of the soil and its production potential. The best method for determining the soil fertility is a soil test. Test results provide an index of the nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium in the soil and this in turn is the basis for nutrients to be added.

Unless you have your soil tested you may not be getting maximum returns for your fertilizer dollar. Start planning now for next year by getting your soil analyzed. I have a good supply of soil testing cartons in my office and I will be glad to discuss the procedure with you.

The recent increase in wheat allotments means more Hamilton County farmers will be planting wheat this fall. According to the local ASCS office the 1967 allotment for Hamilton County is 8,237 acres, a gain of 2,000 over the 6,235 acres last year.

Not only will farmers be planting it for grain purposes—but in many cases for a winter temporary pasture. Wheat makes excellent winter pasture when grazed while it's still young. Wheat ranks second only to oats in palatability, and it is more drought resistant and cold hardy than oats. Some of the locally adapted wheat varieties are Caddo, Crockett and Quana.

When should you apply fertilizer to wheat? There are three main choices: (1) applying all fertilizer before planting, (2) applying half before planting and the other half top dressed in the early spring, or (3) all top dressed in early spring.

If you plan to graze the wheat, it's a good plan to apply all or at least a good part of the nitrogen before planting. But note: excessive fall applications of nitrogen can stimulate early growth in some seasons and increase winter injury, particularly if the plants are not grazed. Also some nitrogen may leach out during heavy rains—particularly in sandy soils.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lane and children of Houston were Saturday night visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tolliver and Lynette. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Don Burgan, Mark and Charles and Mr. and Mrs. Darel Simons and Darla.
