CLARA GIBSON HAS HER DAY—Clara Gibson, a former teacher for years, was honored at the annual Carlton Homecoming held on the 4th of July at Carlton School. She is shown here with Woodrow Brimer of Long Beach, Calif., program chairman for the homecoming, at left, and Raymond Geyer, right, of Gatesville, who was her escort for the day.

Clara Gibson Day' Attended by More Than 300 at Carlton

By J. T. BUTLER

An estimated attendance of between 300 and 400 people were present at the annual Carlton Homecoming held on the 4th of July at Carlton School. The homecoming year honored Mrs. Clara Gibson, a former teacher for years at Carlton. Mrs. Gibson retired from the teaching profession in May, 1965, after completing 31 years of teaching.

The 11 a.m. program was opened by Tyrus King of Hico as master of ceremonies. The welcoming address was given by Rev. Melvin Hefner, pastor of Carlton Baptist Church. Rev. W. T. Reynolds, pastor of Hico, Carlton and Fairy Baptist churches, rendered the invocation.

Mr. King introduced Woodrow Brimer of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Eula Brimer of Hico, who was program chairman of this year's event.

Brimer called his 5th and 6th grade class, Mrs. Clara Gibson, to the stage, and she was escorted by Raymond Geyer of Gatesville, another former student.

After a brief introduction, Mrs. Gibson was seated at the table of honor, and presented a box wrapped in gold. The box contained a large red apple cookie jar, which contained a gold medallion watch appropriately inscribed. Also inside the apple was a list of names of all contributors for the gift.

The inscription read "Clara D. Gibson, teacher 51 years, appreciation from Carlton School."

Mr. King spoke of memorable incidents that Mrs. Gibson recalled happening while she was teaching at Carlton, and introduced several students involved.

Four former Carlton teachers attended the celebration, including H. C. (Chesley) Kennedy from Longview, son of the late Dr. Kennedy, a former Carlton physician; Mrs. Gertrude Sowell Miller of Stephenville; Mr. and Mrs. Horace G. Murry of Willis Point (Mrs. Murry was known as Mable Gibson while teaching at Carlton); and Mrs. Wayne Jordan, present high school principal.

As a climatic gesture to the honoree, all former students of Mrs. Gibson were asked to stand. Mrs. Gibson acted very surprised when over 100 ex-students stood.

The hour-long program was concluded with instructions concerning the barbecue dinner to follow. Tyrus King led the closing prayer.

Those coming the farthest distance to attend the reunion were Dick Beadles of Yucca Valley, Calif., Roland Beadles and Woody Brimer of Long Beach, Calif. All flew in for the event, and all three flew back home Saturday.

The barbecue and cold drinks were furnished by an anonymous person that didn't want his name mentioned. (He sure was a good program chairman!) Others attending brought vegetables, salads, bread, paper plates and cups, and dessert.

Around 2 p.m. a short business meeting was presided over by the homecoming president, Houston Davis, and was adjourned. Many lingered on to visit after the dismissal. This was the largest attendance at the homecoming that can be recalled.

About the Honoree.

The honoree, Mrs. Gibson, was born near Fairy, the next to eldest of seven children born to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. De Volin. The family moved to Hico when she was 12.

She attended summer Normal School, and then received a teaching certificate at the age of 16.

Mrs. Gibson's first teaching assignment was at Live Oak, near Hamilton, with an enrollment of about 50 students.

Her next job was at Sunshine, southeast of Carlton, where her salary was $40 per month. She boarded with the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sharp, parents of Mrs. Elmer Chick of Carlton.

It was in the Sunshine community that she met and married Audie Lee Gibson, and she recalls his rubber-tired buggy and a horse named "Rob."

Her next two years were spent at Greyville, followed by two years more at Sunshine and three years at Honey Grove. One year spent at Ireland accounted for her first nine years of teaching.

Mrs. Gibson was elected to teach at Carlton in 1923, and stayed there for 22 years, before moving to Fort Davis in 1945 to be near her two brothers. She taught in Fort Davis schools for the next 20 years, until retirement in May 1965.

Hico FFA'ers to Receive Lone Star Farmer Degree

Four outstanding members of Hico FFA Chapter will receive their Lone Star Farmer Degrees at the State FFA Convention in Lubbock next week. They join 19 other former Hico chapter members who have won the coveted award, the highest given by the State Association.

The late Dan Holladay was the first Hico winner, receiving the degree in 1938.

H. L. Hill, Mike Robinson, William Stearman III, and Jim Wolfe are the newest recipients. Requirements are very stiff for the degree, and only two percent of the total state membership may be so honored. Each of the members have net figures running into thousands of dollars, and a large portion has been derived from their project programs.

H. L. Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill, had beef cattle, cotton, hay, milo, and bees for projects. He earned $1586.35 labor income his first two years in vocational agriculture. He served as Chapter President in 1966-67, and as secretary during the current year. He participated in Chapter Conducting, Land Judging, Dairy Judging, and Pasture and Range Judging on the State level. He received the Chapter Star Greenhand award, two Crop Farming awards, and the Farm Mechanics award. He was runner-up for Star Lone Star Farmer of the Cross Timbers District.

Mike Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Robinson, started out with 13 head of goats and two beef calves. He increased the scope of his project program to include 34 head of goats, 14 sows, 30 acres of hay, 25 acres of cotton, 13 head of sheep, and several head of stocker cattle. He had a labor income of $1919.78.

Robinson was vice-president of the chapter in 1965-66, and is the current vice-president. He participated in Chapter Conducting, Grass, Land, Range and Pasture, and Livestock Judging. He was on the recent state teams for Land, Range and Pasture. The land judging team won first place in Area IV. Mike won the County Hereford judging sponsored by the American Hereford Association. He has received the Chapter Leadership Award, Star Chapter Farmer and Public Speaking awards. He recently won first place in the Area IV Farm Electrification competition, and the $50.00 cash prize. Mike was honored as the first DeKalb Award winner as the outstanding Senior Student in Vocational Agriculture in the local school.

Jim Wolfe, son of Mrs. Woodrow Wolfe, began his first year with 4 head of cattle, and has increased his program to where he has a number of registered dairy animals in the family milk herd. He had a labor income of $1465.27 his first two years. He has acquired a reputation as an outstanding showman, winning trophies at a number of livestock shows, and placing second in the large Houston show. Jim has served the Chapter as Green Hand Reporter, as vice-president, and is current president. He participated in Chapter Conducting, Dairy Judging, and Range and Pasture Judging. He was awarded foundation awards in Farm Mechanics, Home Improvement, Farm Safety and Dairy Farming.

William C. Stearman III, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stearman II, developed an outstanding program with registered Herefords, Angora goats, hay and bees. He had a labor income of $1027.81 in his first two years in agriculture. He received a lot of recognition as a showman winning the coveted Herdsman Award at the Heart of Texas Fair in Waco last fall. He had the Reserve Champion Hereford at the show. His projects placed well at Fort Worth and Houston, where he had the 2nd place Hereford Scramble heifer, and also won 2nd in the class of the Junior Show.

Stearman has held a number of offices, serving as Green Hand vice president, chapter secretary, and as Cross Timbers District Sentinel. He served as delegate to District, Area and State Conventions the past three years. He received the Chapter Leadership Award the past three years; the Soil and Water Award; two Livestock Farming Awards; two Public Speaking Awards, winning first place in the Cross Timbers District the last two years, and placing 2nd and 3rd in the Area IV contests each year. He received the Chapter Star Farmer award the last two years, and the Scholarship Award this year. He also was awarded the Faculty Award in Vocational Agriculture. Stearman was president of the Chapter Conducting Team, a member of the Quiz team, Livestock Judging Team, Land Judging and Range and Pasture teams, placing in the State competition in Livestock, Land and Range and Pasture.

We have received 4.2 inches of rain up to Tuesday morning. It will be very beneficial to growing crops and pasture land and gardens, as the ground was getting dry again. Some rain gauges showed 5 to 5 1/2 inches.

We received a letter from Mrs. Ruth Cunningham, who is on a vacation trip with her daughter, the Glenn Arrants of Fort Worth, stating they were at Yellowstone National Park. She stated they had fine weather for the trip and the children had played in snow July 4. They hoped to be back in Fort Worth by Thursday or Friday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Thompson of Hamilton visited last Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lemmie Trantham. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harris of Hamilton visited with the Tranthams Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Gardner and Randy visited in Arlington and Dallas during the weekend with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gardner and family, and with Vicki Gardner at Children's Hospital in Dallas. She is still doing fairly well and is up and about, but her heart-beat has not improved as much as was hoped for. We do hope she improves and gains that expectancy of heart-beat and will not have to undergo further surgery.

Mrs. Eddie Sherrard of Hico is visiting a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Vance Wadlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Hill and children of Fort Worth were visiting during the weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Wad-lington. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield and Billy of Bangs were visiting at their home here Monday and with her parents and sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Edwards and family of Agee. They were given a week's vacation from his duties with the Church of Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mason have been ill of colds, but glad to report them much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Streater of Lanham had most of their children and families with them for the July 4th holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison of Stephenville stopped at our home Sunday enroute to Waco to visit his mother, Mrs. Esther Allison, and his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dellis Seago. They stopped at the Carl Ray Sellers home on their return and reported Mr. Seago to be doing fairly well, but that his mother was still very poorly.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Murry of Wills Point visited last Thursday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Arrant. They were down to attend the Carlton Homecoming. Mr. Murry was a former teacher at Mt. Pleasant and boarded with the Arrants. It had been a long time since they had met.

There were four family reunions at the Hico Park Sunday. We would have liked to have been up there and visited with all, since three of the families were Fairy folks, and the other, the Proffitts of Falls Creek, and we knew this family also. But our going there would have meant disappointment to some dear old ladies we take to singing, although only one was able to go Sunday.

The Blakley children met July 4 at their parent's home, the late J. E. Blakleys. We didn't learn how many of them were there.

With an electric range, cooking has its bright side

Flameless electric cooking doesn't leave fuel smudge. So cooking utensils stay brighter and cleaner, require less scouring. Your kitchen will be brighter, too. Walls, ceilings and woodwork keep their fresh look longer because the flameless oven in an electric range requires no in-and-out circulation of hot, grease-laden air. And, electric ranges offer features to brighten any homemaker's smile. Like self-cleaning ovens, automatic controls and beautiful styling. VIRGINIA RESIDENTS VISIT IN CARLTON

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Charles L. Smith and children, Michael, Gary, Shirley, Larry and Susan from Newport News, Virginia, were visitors in Carlton recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Proffitt, and the Colonel's sister, Mrs. M. K. Taylor. During their stay in Texas they also visited relatives in Hico, Comanche, Hamilton, Fort Worth, Dallas and Lake Jackson. They also visited HemisFair in San Antonio, which brought back memories of their extensive travels in Europe and Asia.

Colonel Smith graduated from Pottsville High School in 1947, attended Tarleton State College and the University of Texas, and entered the Army in 1951. He has been stationed at posts throughout the Eastern portion of the U.S., and has had tours in Korea, Japan, Germany and Vietnam. He is Senior Army Aviator and is presently Chief of Operational Research and Systems Analysis at the U.S. Army Combat Development Command Transportation Agency at Ft. Eustis, Virginia.

Mrs. Smith, the former Melba Jean Proffitt, attended Carlton High School, and was married to the Colonel in 1950. She accompanied him on the tour to Japan where their second son, Gary was born, and to Germany where another son, Larry was born. The oldest son, Michael, was born in Hico, with their oldest daughter, Shirley, being born in Georgia and their youngest in Kansas.

While in Texas, their son, Michael, who just completed his junior year in high school, visited the Tarleton State College and Texas A&M campuses to decide which school he will attend upon graduation from high school.

The entire family still likes Texas, and intends to return to their home state when the Colonel completes his Army career.

A large crowd of former schoolmates and friends attended the Carlton Homecoming July 4, honoring Mrs. Clara Gibson of Ft. Davis, former teacher here. She was presented a gold watch by

Carlton Homecoming—

Life was somewhat unusual in that she taught all five of her grandchildren, saw them graduate from high school and college, saw them all united with the church, and attended each of their weddings.

Memories Recalled

Mrs. Gibson was asked to relate some of the humorous, or otherwise, events that she recalled from her days at Carlton.

Following are some of the most memorable events, as written by Mrs. Gibson:

"Martha Jordan, now Mrs. Hico Smith of Waco, sent me a copy of her yearbook when she graduated from high school. She made an 'X' under our room on the picture of the building and wrote, 'This is where you made our school work fun.' I love that tribute."

"Novice Dyer, now Mrs. Novice Littleton of San Angelo, was very gifted in public speaking. She won several awards in declamation."

"Waynez Dyer, now Mrs. J. W. Jordan Jr., teacher at Carlton now, said 'I wish I was public like Novice.' She meant popular."

"I remember what a wonderful sport Raymond Gey was. He was a leader on the playground and was always in a good humor."

"One freezing winter day, temperature about zero, Reginald Thetford, now a principal in Fort Worth, opened the door to our room about 9:30 a.m. He had faced the north wind all the way to school, and was almost frozen. He came in smiling with the tears running down his cheeks. We brought in snow and rubbed his face and hands. It was some time before he could talk. But he kept smiling."

"I shall never forget one warm afternoon and Toby Byrd, killed in WWII, and Leo Chambers of Carlton asked permission to speak to the ag teacher. When questioned further, they said they wanted to ask him about some agriculture 'bullingtons.' That was their excuse to get out of study hall. I gave them permission, however I told them the word was bulletins."

"Waldene Sowell, now Mrs. Jess Reeves of Carlton, and Virginia Wallace were my champion spellers at the Interscholastic League meet. They won the trophy three years in succession, and it became permanent property of our school. I have a picture of them holding the cup."

"Lila McKenzie Coffman and husband, Avery, visited me awhile back. I was overjoyed to see them. 'Do you remember?' was heard again and again!"

"Woodrow Brimer of Long Beach, Calif. should have been an artist. When we had our school pictures made one year, he asked me if he could 'touch my picture up' with water colors. The result was amazing. Best picture I ever had made. I still have it."

"Sarah Jane Adams Massey of Fort Worth, Nevelyn Gey Warren, now deceased, Ruth Gey's self of Stephenville, Marie Walton, now Mrs. Sam Sharp, and Thelma Briley were good friends and were also rivals in report card grades—friendly rivals of course. Thelma, now Mrs. Dale Garner of Stephenville, was the envy of all girls, because her mother owned a dress shop. She wore the new styles first."

"Nona Turney, now Mrs. Hob Thompson, and Dama Turney, now Mrs. Leo Finley of Walnut Springs, were sisters I'll always remember. Nona was my helper in so many ways. She was peace-maker in many a playground dispute."

"My team of intermediate boys won the playground ball banner several years in succession as the best team in Hamilton County. I have several pictures of my winning teams."

"I wish I could recall interesting incidents about all of my pupils, but I would have to write a book. Twenty-two years is a long time—to be exact, I have to recall events of over 40 years."

"In closing my autobiography I will relate this incident. Several years ago a businessman from Alpine came to Fort Davis to speak to our Study Club on investments, stocks and bonds. When he asked about my investments, I told him I was investing in the lives of children."

"Teaching was my life. I have many precious memories of the children whose lives I have touched in 51 years of teaching."
