

Icy Glaze Spreads Across Texas

Mishaps Galore In Midland Area Leave Few Hurt

Six vehicles were involved in four separate accidents Saturday on an ice-covered Interstate 20 overpass six and a half miles east of Midland.

The only serious injury to come out of all the twisted metal was a broken wrist suffered by Department of Public Safety officer Wade Turner who slipped on the ice and fell while investigating one of the accidents.

The overpass iced over from a day-long drizzle and temperatures that stayed near the freezing mark most of the day. A DPS spokesman said IS 20 was relatively free of ice throughout the daylight hours except for its overpasses.

More Freezing Rain

The ice storm that invaded most of the northern part of the state Saturday was expected to produce freezing rain, mixed with light snow, today in the Permian Basin driving area.

The four accidents involving the six vehicles began happening about 5:30 p.m. It was over less than 30 minutes later, according to DPS patrolman David Hancock, after officers arrived to slow traffic as it headed for the overpass.

Westbound traffic was routed to U.S. 80 before it reached the overpass. One lane of the eastbound traffic was closed.

The pileup of automobiles caused traffic to be backed up more than a mile before it was cleared.

School Bells Ring Monday

All Midland County schools will resume their regular class schedules Monday, ending a more than two-week Christmas vacation for approximately 18,000 students.

Officials said all schools in the Midland Independent School District, Greenwood School, Trinity, St. Ann's, Midland Christian School, the Hillender School and other private schools are slated to reopen Monday.

Monday Ceremonies To Launch Basin Law Enforcement School

Several area officials will participate in opening ceremonies at 8 a.m. Monday for the Permian Basin Law Enforcement Academy, which is setting up a first-of-its-kind shop in remodeled facilities at 310 N. Colorado St.

Sponsored by the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission and financed through a $35,733 Criminal Justice Council grant for 1973, the new regional academy is an expanded version of the Midland Police Department Academy.

With Midland police training specialist Mickey Browne acting as regional training coordinator through contracts between the City of Midland, the PBRPC and law enforcement agencies throughout West Texas, the new regional academy will stage two 480-hour, 12-week basic law enforcement certification courses each year, plus 12 40-hour in-service training programs.

One-Week Opener

The first of these will be a one-week school on burglary investigation and crime prevention to begin Monday morning for 25 officers from police and sheriff's departments throughout the PBRPC area, according to Bill Corbett, Criminal Justice coordinator for the PBRPC.

Officials expected to be on hand for the informal opening ceremony include Midland County Judge and PBRPC chairman Barbara Cuijver, Midland Mayor Ernest Angelo Jr., Midland Police Chief Harold Wallace, Odessa Police Chief Jack Tomlin, and Charles Mahaney of Austin, representing the state Criminal Justice Council.

Cautious Optimism

CAMP DAVID, Md. (AP) — Amid an atmosphere of cautious optimism, President Nixon gave Henry Kissinger his final negotiating instructions Saturday for the private Vietnam peace talks which resume Monday in Paris.

The President's assistant for national security affairs came to this wintry mountaintop retreat by helicopter for the two-hour strategy session with Nixon.

Kissinger leaves Andrews Air Force Base, Md., this morning for the French capital, where he is to meet with North Vietnam's top negotiators, Le Duc Tho and Xuan Thuy.

Details of the Camp David conference were not disclosed, with a White House spokesman saying only that "final instructions" were discussed. But indications were that they focused on how to get North Vietnam to agree, at least indirectly, that it will not attempt to impose its rule on South Vietnam by force.

This point apparently remains as a major stumbling block in the road to a Vietnam settlement, Nixon said Friday he wants an agreement to include three ingredients—the return of American prisoners of war, a cease-fire in Vietnam, and an agreement to allow all parties in South Vietnam to determine their future.

Administration officials repeated on Saturday that they expect Hanoi to negotiate seriously. But, following Nixon's (See NIXON Page 4A)

THREE FIREMEN AMONG VICTIMS—

14 Persons Die In Fires

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Three firemen were killed in a house fire in Baltimore when a beamed ceiling in a burning Chicago restaurant collapsed Saturday, at least seven firemen died in a hotel fire in upstate New York and four children died in a house fire in they died from smoke inhalation. Firemen started the fire apparently on the ground floor beneath where the children slept. The victims were identified by a spokesman at Provident hospital as Patricia Shaw, 5, her brothers, Freddie, 6, and Horatio, 8, and their cousin, Steven Lamont Shaw, 18 months.

Premature Descent Said Alaska Air Crash Cause

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Transportation Safety Board Saturday said the crash of a 727 jetliner near Juneau in September 1971—the nation's worst single aircraft disaster—probably was caused by a premature descent through the area's rugged terrain.

The crash killed 111 persons. The report added crew failure to perform navigation checks on the approach to Juneau also was a probable factor in the crash of the Alaska Airlines 727 Sept. 4, 1971. The report said the crash occurred before the plane reached the first of three navigational checkpoints used for descents in the rugged mountain area.

The report said the approach area to Juneau is considered "one of the most hazardous with regard to terrain." The last communication from the plane, the report said, came when it was about 10 miles from the airport.

Wreckage Found Late

"No further communication was heard from the flight," several hours later the wreckage of the 727 was located at a 2,500-foot level in the Chilkat Mountain Range about 18 nautical miles west of the airport, the report said.

"A display of misleading navigational information concerning the flight's progress resulted in a premature descent below obstacle clearance altitude. The origin or nature of the misleading navigational information could not be determined.

"The board further concludes that the crew did not use all the available navigational aids to check the flight's progress," the report added.

At Least Nine Persons Killed On Slick Roads

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Snow increased late Saturday night over the Texas Panhandle and freezing rain crept deep into the state's midlands as winter took a deadly, icy hold.

At least nine persons died in weather-related accidents with some of the season's coldest, most miserable weather still on the way.

Ice storm warnings went up for most of North-Central Texas and Northeast Texas for Saturday night and today with the populous Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex included.

Freezing rain spread slowly eastward late Saturday night from a line stretching from just west of Paris to Waco. Bridges and overpasses, and many streets iced over in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Ice Crops South, East

Hazardous driving conditions increased as the ice crept southward and eastward after 8 p.m.

Snow that increased steadily across the Texas Panhandle joined with increasing freezing rain and drizzle in West Texas and drizzle over most of the rest of the state for a night of frigid, uncomfortable weather.

The Texas Department of Public Safety and the National Weather Service combined in issuing warnings of bad driving conditions.

Four persons were killed when two huge trucks slithered together on U.S. 54 about 27 miles southwest of Dalhart. As the crash ripped the trucks open, they scattered their contents—tools and luncheon meats—along the highway before crashing to a stop. One of them in flames. About 100 other trucks were stalled for hours until a path through the wreckage could be cleared.

Fatalities Near Carlisbad

At least two persons were killed when two cars crashed and both burst into flames near the small town of Carlisbad on U.S. 87 north of San Angelo.

One of the victims was identified as William Thomas, 66, a former justice of the peace in nearby Carlisbad. He was an employee of the San Angelo Rehabilitation Center. The other was a 24-year-old soldier from Ft. Hood whose name was not known at once.

A young man, a teen-aged girl and a one-year-old baby met their death when a car skidded on ice and crashed on a bridge on Texas 103 west of San Augustine in Southeast Texas. Three other persons were injured.

The National Guard armory at Shamrock in the eastern Panhandle became a haven for 48 people, stranded after seven cars smashed up 12 miles west of town on ice-glazed Interstate 40 Friday night. Shamrock's hotels already were filled by other stranded motorists, so city officials set up cots in the armory to house the overflow.

People in other sections of Texas were faring little better. The city of Junction in the Hill Country was without gas for almost five hours in the freezing pre-dawn period. Officials said someone had turned off the main valve of the distributing system and offered (See ICY Page 4A)

The Adventures Of Lum Medlin

The first man to settle here, even before it was called Midland, was Lum Medlin. He came here barefoot in the early 1870s to send antelope jerky and buffalo bones to Chicago.

He had spirit, Texas spirit. The Midland Industrial Foundation and the Chamber of Commerce are telling the business community outside Midland about the progressive people and spirit of this city. And they are telling it through the story of Lum Medlin.

This is the first in a series of stories entitled "The Adventures of Lum-Medlin."

There. And he could still remember making a life for themselves. When independence came in 1846, this proud land, this Republic, became a state in the Union. And even though it had been cut down in size it was still by far the biggest of Texas. Such a large, proud, gest and would remain that for untamed area it was then. For more than a century. There were mixed feelings Lum remembered. Some of the men grumbled, but Lum knew his mother was quite proud. And the first time the flag went up the old wooden flagpole, the young Lum felt a pride swell up that he would never lose all his life. He was a Texan. And the very word made him stand taller.

Time passed and Lum helped with the chores. He didn't get much schooling. The land was a hard partner for his folks and there were such changes. Long dry spells when his mother wrung her hands, but somehow they hung on. That was Lum's father's way of life - to hang on. And that became ingrained in Lum, too, along with his mother's great courage.

Lum learned to draw water when there was water in the wells. He learned to chink the cracks in the cabin and repair the roof. He learned to make (See MEDLIN Page 4A)

Midlander Charged In Auto Burglary

Wilbord Lee Burns, 17, of 800 E. Washington St. was arrested Saturday morning and charged with burglary of an auto.

He is accused of breaking into a car on the Midland High School campus on Dec. 4. A tape deck was reported missing from the vehicle, Det. George Capehart said.

Capehart arrested Burns on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace Robert Pine.

Montoya Says Bridge Funds Impounded

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Joseph Montoya, D-N.M., says $13 million could be used to replace some 130 dangerously deficient bridges in New Mexico, "but the money has been impounded by the President."

In a statement released by his office Saturday, the senator said he is trying to get the Federal Highway Commission to help replace the bridges "in order to prevent other tragedies such as the recent bridge collision near Fort Sumner."

That Dec. 26 crash of a church bus and a cattle truck claimed 19 lives, most of them teenagers and young adults.

Montoya said, "There is already $13 million in highway funds which could come into New Mexico to help solve this problem, but the money has been impounded by the President who is refusing to spend funds that Congress has appropriated."

And he said he would seek early passage of the 1973 Highway Act, which would include funds for New Mexico highway construction, as one avenue of attacking the problem.

He said previous highway acts might provide another means of replacing the bridges. He said they provide for a special bridge replacement program in which the federal government provides matching funds on a 75-25 basis.

Montoya said $150 million was authorized under a prior program and much remains unspent. "There is a chance that some of it can be channeled into New Mexico," he said.

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The most experienced spaceman in the world, astronaut James A. Lovell Jr., announced he is retiring March 1 from the space agency and from the Navy to become an executive with a Houston corporation.

Lovell, 44-year-old veteran of America's longest space flight, of mankind's first voyage around the moon and of the only deep-space emergency, will become senior executive vice president of Bay Houston

Towing Co., a diversified firm with interests in water transportation, harbor towing, shipping, agriculture, mining, ranching and petroleum.

Lovell flew into space four times and spent more time in space than any other human—a total of 715 hours, nearly 30 days.

Lovell was named an astronaut in 1962, a member of the second group of U.S. spacemen selected.

His first mission in space was on Gemini 7, a 14-day earth-orbit mission which still holds the U.S. record for time in space. The mission included the first rendezvous of two manned spacecraft when Gemini 7 was joined in orbit by Gemini 6.

In 1966, Lovell commanded the Gemini 12 mission which concluded the gemini program. Two years later, in December, 1968, Lovell and astronaut Frank Borman and William Anders became the first humans to circle the moon. The Apollo 8 mission was the first manned lunar mission. The Apollo 8 crew, including Lovell, was the first to see the earth from space.

Utility Poles Prove Dangerous

Two vehicles struck utility poles in separate accidents occurring 20 minutes apart here early Saturday morning.

The first occurred about 1:20 a.m. on Weatherford Street near its intersection with Cuthbert Street, Patrolman Jesse Robbins reported.

Driver of the car was identified by police as Joe Angel Mendoza, 18, of 419 E. Spruce St.

The vehicle was headed south on Weatherford when it went out of control and hit the wooden pole, Mendoza told police.

The car received minor damage and the pole was splintered and knocked into the street, Robbins said.

The second accident occurred about 1:40 a.m. on Wall Street near its intersection with Williams Street, Patrolman B. W. Morgan reported.

He said the driver of the car was Donald Royce Collyer, 33, of 3712 Cedar, Spring St.

The car was headed west on Wall when it hit a metal utility pole.

Police said Collyer received a minor injury but did not go to a hospital for treatment.

The car had minor damage and the pole was knocked loose in the ground, Morgan reported.

Barge Loses Diesel Fuel In Mississippi

HELENA, Ark. (AP) - A runaway fuel barge battered away at a bridge over the Mississippi River Saturday afternoon as state and federal agencies worked to plug a leak that has already dumped some 500,000 gallons of diesel fuel into the river.

The Arkansas Highway Department said it fears the bridge, the only highway link across the Mississippi between Memphis and Greenville, Miss., may be damaged by the battering of the rogue barge. Thousands of gallons of fuel continued to spew from the ruptured barge Saturday afternoon.

Water supplies to areas downstream, meanwhile, were threatened by a growing petroleum slick and two riverboat crews remained missing and adrift.

Three persons convicted in Ector County and two convicted in Howard County were among 19 West Texans whose paroles have been approved by Gov. Preston Smith.

Those from Ector County are: Sammy Estrada Ramirez, sentenced in 1970 to six years for burglary; George Darwin Denning, sentenced in 1971 to four years for passing a forged instrument; Lindy Q. Mixon, sentenced in 1962 to life in prison for burglary of a private residence at nighttime under the habitual criminal statute; H. W. Snider, sentenced in 1971 to three years for defraud by worthless check of over $50; E. L. "Sonny" Lewis, sentenced in 1964 to 25 years for armed robbery.

Narcotics Arrests Climb During 1972

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Justice Department claimed successes against organized crime and illegal narcotics operations in 1972 in a year-end report released Saturday by Attorney Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst.

"During 1972, the Department of Justice mounted its most intensive campaign to date against illegal narcotics traffickers while stepping up its attack on organized crime," according to the report, Kleindienst said in a statement.

1971 convictions totaled more than 1,800 - more than twice the number of convictions for the previous year, it said.

Kleindienst also said the department's improved detection programs at the nation's airports and its swift prosecution of hijacking cases "caused a sharp fall-off in hijacking in the first half of the year."

The report says 638 hijacking cases involving 2,668 defendants were returned during the first half of the year and 943 hijacking cases involving 2,787 defendants were returned during the last half of the year.

The report says the number of hijacking cases returned during the last five months of the year.

As the icy weather enveloped North Texas and Oklahoma, the National Weather Service warned that hazardous driving conditions will continue through today.

Freezing drizzle kept roads slick in the Panhandle and over the High Plains, where snow was expected. Light rain and drizzle covered the southeastern quarter of the state from Laredo to Longview. Showers were moving northeastward over the area to the west of the Pecos River.

Forecasters said the freezing rain and snow will continue in Northwest Texas and was likely to move eastward across North Central Texas during Saturday night. Southeast Texas will continue under showers and drizzle, they said.

Rainfall amounts for the past 24 hours were only light to moderate in Northwest and East Texas, but up to 1.50 inches fell near Houston in the southeast.

Beaumont-Port Arthur was the warmest area Friday with 74 degree readings, but Wichita Falls never got above 31 and Abilene logged a chilly 33. Saturday's temperatures at midday ranged from the 20s in the Panhandle to the 50s in far South Texas.

lead, they refused to voice either optimism or pessimism about prospects for progress toward a settlement.

This wary approach contrasted sharply with the "peace is at hand" optimism of late October - an optimism which collapsed when the talks stalled.

After "extended exchanges" between Kissinger and the North Vietnamese, agreement to resume the negotiation was announced a week ago at the same time the White House disclosed that Nixon had halted the intensive bombing of North Vietnam above the 20th parallel.

Lower-level technical talks resumed on Tuesday, and the semi-public Paris peace talks resumed another session on Thursday. These sets of talks supplement the more important negotiating sessions between Kissinger and Le Duc Tho.

Both Midland and Odessa police reported several minor accidents within the two cities late Saturday. No injuries were reported.

According to the National Weather Service at Midland Airport, the hazardous driving conditions are expected to continue today. An ice storm warning was in effect early today with motorists likely to find ice-covered roads throughout the Permian Basin area.

Temperatures for today and Monday will be in the middle 30s and continued cold. The low tonight will be in the mid-20s with light easterly winds.

The high temperature recorded Saturday at the airport was 35 early in the morning hours with the low for the day 28 degrees at midnight Saturday.

Hitler Car Brings $153,000 At Sale

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) - "It was more than I planned to pay for it," said Earl Clark after purchasing Adolf Hitler's private car for $153,000 Saturday. "but I never doubted that I would get it."

Clark, operator of the Dutch Wonderland Museum in Lancaster, Pa., had to set a record for auto bids however, before being able to claim the 11,000-pound Mercedes Benz as his own.

Auctioneer Dean Kruse said the previous record payment for the car was $90,000, paid for by Greta Garbo's Dusenbury last year.

Atlantic Richfield, OCAW Reach New Contract Accord

DENVER (AP) - The Oil Chemical and Atomic Workers International union has reached a contract agreement with Atlantic Richfield Co. calling for an immediate 6 per cent pay hike for some 5,500 refinery workers nationwide, union president A. F. Grosprion said Saturday.

Grosprion said Atlantic Richfield was the second oil company to come to contract terms with the union, which represents about 60,000 workers nationally. Earlier, American Oil Co. agreed to a new contract, he said.

The terms of the new pact to be approved by the 10,200 workers for the two companies, according to Grosprion, are an immediate 6 per cent pay raise and a 27 cents per hour hike beginning next Jan. 1 with some immediate improvements in pensions, in company payments toward the cost of hospitalization and increased premiums for night work.

Tho In Paris For Meeting

He described the U.S. air attacks against Hanoi and Hai Phong as "the most barbarous and inhuman one" in the history of war.

"With these demented war acts, the U.S. administration thought that it might make the Vietnamese people kneel and accept the conditions posed by the United States in negotiations. But apart from killing thousands of innocent persons, the U.S. administration has recorded nothing," he said.

"Our people have never been frightened by American bombs and shells," he continued.

Tho said the war and negotiations drag on because "the U.S. administration still obstinately pursues the policy of 'Vietnamization' of the war with a view to turning South Vietnam into a new colony of the United States."

Two incidents of vandalism to automobiles were reported to police Saturday.

A car owned by C. Webb Parish, 2406 Dartmouth St., was heavily damaged Friday night in the Lee High School parking lot during the Lee High-San Angelo basketball game.

Liquor Store Hit By Robber

A robber hit Burt's Liquor Store, 1510 Cloverdale Road, late Friday and escaped with from $650 to $800. It was the third robbery in Midland County within a week.

Sheriff's deputies said late Saturday they had no leads in the case. Burt's is outside the Midland city limits.

The Hilo Corp. Service Station, 801 E. Florida St., was robbed Wednesday of $468, and the E-Z Way Grocery Store, 1101 E. Scharbauer Drive, was hit for $2,800 Monday. No arrests had been made by late Saturday in either case, police said.

Burton F. Cain, 3706 W. Louisiana St., owner of the liquor store, said the robber Friday was a Negro in his early 30s, about 5 feet 7, weighed approximately 135 pounds and had short hair.

Cain told Deputy Bill Cornell the man entered the store and asked to use the restroom. He showed him where it was and returned to the front of the store.

A few minutes later the Negro returned to the front and twice told the owner to "hit the floor." Cain told Cornell. He then asked for money from the cash register.

After giving the bandit the money, Cain said he was forced to go into the restroom and wait until the robber left. It is unknown whether he left on foot or in a car.

Cain told Cornell he never saw a weapon but said the robber kept his hand inside his shirt and it appeared he was holding something.

A lone bandit also held up the Hilo station, and two men hit the grocery store.

Santa Fe Opera Now Takes Applications

SANTA FE, N.M. — The Santa Fe Opera is still receiving late applications for the 1973 Santa Fe Opera apprentice program for young singers, according to Richard Gaddes, SFO opera company under regular artistic administrator. This program, established by John Crosby during the first year of the opera back in 1957, is for young singers between the approximate ages of 20 and 30 who are making the transition from student life to professional careers. Each apprentice, aside from regular assignments during the opera season, which include chorus, small roles and understudy roles, receives instruction in diction, body movement, makeup, language, voice and stage deportment.

During the 1972 season, five former Santa Fe apprentices returned here in lead roles with the company, and others have gone on to major work with the Santa Fe Opera, the Lyric Opera of Chicago and the Metropolitan, as well as to opera houses in Holland, England and Germany.

The Santa Fe apprentice program operates in agreement with the American Guild of Musical Artists (AGMA), which presently limits the eligibility of candidates for the program to persons who have not performed a total of six different roles with another professional opera company under regular AGMA artist contract, and those who have not been engaged by during the first year of the apprentice artist status under AGMA contract with another professional opera company. John Crosby, founder and general director of the Santa Fe Opera, and Gaddes will hold auditions for the 1973 apprentice program at the following cities late this month and in February: Chicago, Kansas City, Tulsa, Baton Rouge, San Antonio, Los Angeles and Albuquerque.

Requests for applications should be sent immediately to Gaddes, at 48 East 63 St., New York, N.Y. 10021, or to the Santa Fe Opera, P.O. Box 2408, Santa Fe, N.M., 87501.

Unique Choir Sets Concert In Midland

A unique choir from a unique college will present a concert in Midland this month.

Singing of their mountain heritage in hymns and folksongs of Kentucky will be the "Voices From Appalachia," a 41-member cappella choir which is scheduled to sing here Jan. 30. The concert will be in First Presbyterian Church.

The "Voices" are students at Alice Lloyd College, in mountain-locked eastern Kentucky. This small two-year liberal arts college offers young men and women of that isolated region the leadership education needed for future service in Appalachia.

Sponsors of the upcoming concert here are Midland's two music clubs, the Musicians Club and the Midland Music Club.

The ensemble's current tour to the West and Southwest has been highlighted by the first plane flight for 35 of the 41 singers, most of whom have never been out of the eastern Kentucky mountains or to a metropolitan area. During a California visit, the choir sang at Disneyland and was received at the state house in Sacramento. Members of the ensemble have been designated "official ambassadors of goodwill" by the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

On the current month-long tour to California, Arizona and Texas, they are singing in churches, retirement homes and before civic and service organizations in many cities. Previous tours have taken the choir to Florida and New England.

In addition to some favorite choral numbers, the "Voices" perform many lesser-known ballads to help preserve the Appalachian region's musical heritage. The music has a familiar sound — some songs are based on the five tones of the pentatonic scale; other music is modal, related in sound to ancient Gregorian chant. How the latter music came to the Kentucky mountains remains a mystery.

The choir also presents ballads and folksongs written by Abner Grender, assistant professor of music at Alice Lloyd College and director of the "Voices."

Fort Concho Art Festival Slated

SAN ANGELO — Planning is now well advanced for the annual Fort Concho Arts Festival scheduled here in the spring.

Theme for the festival will be "Arts For All Ages," and planners say every effort is being made to make the event just that — a fair for everyone. Dates for the area-wide fair are April 28-29.

There will be food concessions, music, square dance performances, old fiddlers' contests, plus demonstrations of such skills as weaving, whittling, quilting and blacksmithing.

Participants in music, crafts, painting, sculpture and other creative endeavors are being sought from throughout West and Central Texas. Booths will be available for rent by area artists and craftsmen.

Additional information on the festival is available from the San Angelo Board of City Development, San Angelo 76901.

Fred Waring Sets Dallas Appearance

DALLAS — Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians, an enduring team in the American entertainment field, will come to the newly-remodeled Music Hall in Fair Park here for a performance Feb. 28.

The upcoming concert will be the first Dallas appearance by the Waring group in several seasons. In earlier years, Waring brought his orchestra and choral ensemble to Fair Park Music Hall every two years.

Although Dallas has not been on his tour itinerary recently, Waring has seldom missed performing with his ensembles for the last 55 years.

Wyeth Paintings Will Go On View

Thirty-five paintings bearing the name of Wyeth, 11 by Andrew, and 11 by Henriette.

The Wyeth signature on such a large group of paintings would alone guarantee an exhibit of major interest, but when it includes the work of not just one Wyeth but three of them, as in the case of the upcoming exhibition, then the show takes on even greater interest and importance.

The show, which will open to the public Thursday morning, is one of the major exhibitions scheduled for the Museum of the Southwest during the current year. It is one of the several exhibitions planned this year which guided tours will be provided by the Junior League of Midland, Inc.

Represented with works in the show are Newell Conyers Wyeth, the late patriarch of America's foremost painting family, one of his sons, Andrew, and daughter Henriette, who is Mrs. Peter Hurd. The exhibition includes 13 paintings by N. C. Wyeth.

Massage Parlors Have Problem

By LYNNE OLSON Associated Press Writer Gertrude Fuller receives ob-

An official of the American Massage and Therapy Association says some massage practitioners have been forced out of business because of a loss of clients due to bad publicity given by the state-licensed masseuse.

"I never call myself a masseuse," says Miss Skaar, who works in New York City. "When you mention that name, you're automatically considered a prostitute. You're connected with sex for sale."

"We try to ignore them," she says. "I just hang up on them when they call. But they do say some very dirty things. These men are really sick."

Miss Skaar says she's an insurance secretary. She returned to her native Norway because of the stigma and Therapy Association.

Watergate Affair Heads For Court

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
WASHINGTON (AP) — A real-life spy story, the Watergate Affair, moves from newspaper pages into a federal courtroom Monday with a cast of characters stretching from Miami's Cuban community into the White House.

Seven men will go on trial charged with breaking into the offices of the Democratic National Committee to eavesdrop on conversations and steal documents.

Depending on how deeply opposing lawyers probe, the testimony may go much deeper than the circumstances of a simple burglary.

The witnesses could include some men near the top in the administration and in the Republican party.

"This jury is going to want to know what did these men go into that headquarters for," said chief U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica at a pre-trial conference. "Was their sole purpose political espionage? Were they paid? Was there financial gain? Who hired them? Who started this?"

Those questions of political intrigue spiced the 1972 presidential campaign. To get at least some of the answers may take anywhere from three weeks to three months of trial before a jury that will be sequestered each night.

Until now, much of what is known about the motive and intent of the pre-dawn break-in June 17 in the Watergate Office Building has come through investigations by the news media. Administration sources have either denied allegations or refused comment.

The Watergate Seven are charged variously in eight counts with conspiracy, interception of oral and wire communications, burglary and unlawful possession of intercepting devices.

Former White House Aide
They are:
—George Gordon Liddy, a former White House and Treasury aide who has also gone by the name of George F. Leonard. He was counsel for the Finance Committee to Re-elect the President but was fired when he refused to answer some questions from the FBI.

—Everett Howard Hunt Jr., also known as Edward L. Warren and Edward J. Hamilton. He had been a White House consultant working under top Nixon aide Charles Colson. Hunt, author of more than 40 spy and adventure novels, had worked in the Central Intelligence Agency with some of the others at the time of the 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion.

CRP Security Coordinator
—James W. McCord Jr., who the indictment said, also used the names Edward J. Warren and Edward J. Martin. He was security coordinator for the Committee for the Re-election of the President, had at one time been an FBI radio specialist and was CIA security chief until he retired in 1970.

—Bernard L. Barker, also known as Frank and Fran Carter. The president of Barker Associates, a real estate corporation in Miami. An American born in Cuba, Barker was a World War II bombardier. He has already been convicted of unlawfully notarizing a $25,000 Republican campaign contribution check and given a suspended 60-day term. He is a former CIA operative.

Anti-Castroite
—Eugenio R. Martinez, also known as Gene or Jene Valdes, an employee of Barker Associates. He had been active in the anti-Castro movement in Miami.

—Frank A. Sturgis, also known as Frank Angelo Fiorini, Edward J. Hamilton and Joseph D'Alberto and DiAlberto. A self-described soldier of fortune and a Barker Associate.

Dallas Man Charged In Wife's Death

DALLAS (AP) — After learning he was beneficiary to $70,000 in insurance on his wife's life and saying that he was involved with "another woman," police have charged with murder a 22-year-old widower who remained in jail Saturday in lieu of $100,000 bond.

The death of Elaine V. Rhodes, 20, took a sudden twist Friday when police charged her husband, William Lamar Rhodes, with shooting the young woman five times.

Rhodes was a patient at Methodist Hospital Dec. 26, recovering from an auto accident, when his wife called him to say she was en route to the hospital to visit him, police said.

About 30 minutes after Mrs. Rhodes was due to arrive at the hospital police said Rhodes became distraught because she had failed to arrive.

Detective Rus Rose said friends of the couple were unable to locate the young woman so Rhodes checked out of the hospital to look for her.

Rose said the husband found his wife the next afternoon parked in her car a block from the hospital, shot five times.

Police said they learned Rhodes had taken out four insurance policies on his wife, the last one issued less than two weeks before she was killed.

Police said they took a statement from another 20-year-old woman who told them she had a secret relationship with Rhodes and had in fact visited him at the hospital an hour before his wife was due there to visit him.

Historical Groups Cancel Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Midland County Historical Society and the Midland County Historical Survey Committee, usually held the first Sunday of each month, will not be held today.

Mrs. John P. McKinley, president of the historical society and chairman of the survey committee, said the session has been postponed until later in the month due to the fact that this is the year for appointment of survey committee members by the county judge, with approval of Commissioners Court.

The appointments are expected to be considered at the court's regular meeting Monday.

Judge Barbara Culver will announce the date for the next meeting of the historical groups, possibly next Sunday, Mrs. McKinley said.

Smith Appoints New UT Regents

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Gov. Preston Smith made three of his last major appointments Friday, naming former Gov. Allan Shivers, former ambassador to Australia Edward Clark, and San Antonio dentist James E. Bauerle to the University of Texas System Board of Regents.

The new appointees replace former U.S. Rep. Joe Kilgore, former U.S. Rep. Frank Beard, and the current chairman of the board, John Peace of San Antonio. All three were appointed by former Gov. John Connally.

Midlander Gets Minor Knife Wound

A 27-year-old man received a minor knife wound Friday night and was told to see the county attorney about filing a complaint.

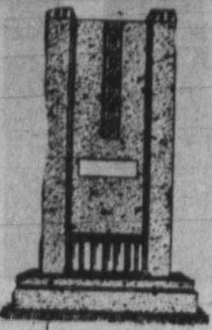

He is Raymond Bowers III of 407 S. Terrell St., who received a small wound on his left shoulder blade.

He was treated at Midland Memorial Hospital and released.

The incident occurred about 11:30 p.m., according to Det. Sgt. Les Fine and Fred Penix, but no other details were released.

Two-Vietnams Issue Key Point

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Should there be two separate and sovereign Vietnams, North and South, or one unified nation?

Can Vietnam be pacified? Has it ever been? Questions of sovereignty and unity, the core of the long war, are also keys to the possibilities of peace.

Vietnam has been divided more than it has been unified in its long history. As for pacification, a word that became all too familiar to Americans, it has been a problem in Vietnam off and on for 2,000 years. In fact, the ancient Chinese named central Vietnam "An Nam," meaning "pacified south." Annam wasn't. It still isn't.

The other day Dao Hoan Ngu, a Saigon grandfather, remarked that the Communists would be defeated in South Vietnam in the long run. He told an AP correspondent: "This is the third time in our history that the country has been divided in two parts. Each time it was the North who victimized the South. Each time the South fought back and won. So I believe in our final victory."

It's not that simple, or just a matter of counting the times the nation has been divided and unified.

The number of years Vietnamese have been ruled by foreign monarchs is greater than the number they have been independent, and the years they have been unified have been relatively few. When Vietnam was all one, it was by a good deal less than unanimous choice.

There are a lot of different peoples involved and different cultures, north and south. Viet-nam's geography made it inevitable that the area would be crossed and recrossed by traders and invaders, conquered and reconquered, divided and reunified.

The northerners had a heritage of drive and know-how from the Chinese. This tended to make them the more dominant of Vietnam's people. The southerners derived much of their culture from India.

As in ancient times, rebellions were frequent and pacification unattainable.

World War II interrupted the story. When the Japanese were defeated and France tried to re-establish authority, Ho Chi Minh reverted to the strategy of his ancestors: guerrilla war—with an overlay of modern embellishments. Like the occupiers of the past, the French were worn down, exhausted, defeated.

Now the problem words confront the Americans: pacification and reunification. The answers seem as bafflingly elusive as ever.

Washington (AP) — The House and Senate met in joint session Saturday to count the electoral votes and make official the re-election of President Nixon and Vice President Spiro T. Agnew.

Agnew, in his capacity as president of the Senate, presided over the session, opening the ballots so that two House and two Senate members could count the votes cast by the 538 electors picked in the Nov. 7 presidential election.

The result wasn't a ny surprise: 520 for Nixon and Agnew, 17 for Democratic nominees George McGovern and Sargent Shriver and 1 for Libertarian party candidates John Hospers and Theodora Nathan.

The vote for the Libertarians was cast by elector Roger L. MacBride of Charlottesville, Va., a Republican who said he wanted to protest the growing power of the federal government over the lives of individuals.

MacBride's vice presidential vote is the first electoral ballot ever cast for a woman.

MIAMI (AP) — A second multi-million dollar suit has been filed in Dade County Circuit Court charging Eastern Airlines with negligence in the crash of a TriStar jet in the Everglades last weekend which killed 99 persons.

Bonnie Silverman, 26, of New York charged in a complaint filed on her behalf Friday that she sustained severe and permanent injuries in the Lockheed 1011 crash and suffered "extreme mental anguish, humiliation and embarrassment."

Miss Silverman, who is in an intensive care unit at Miami's Mercy Hospital, has asked for $2 million compensatory damages and $10 million punitive damages.

On Thursday the family of a New York man, Braulio Corretjer, who died in the crash, claimed negligence and sued Eastern for $10 million.

NEW YORK (AP) — Seven ships carrying Australian goods have been reported tied up in six U.S. ports from Boston to Tampa, Fla., as American longshoremen retaliate for an Australian boycott of American shipping.

The Australian boycott, called primarily by left-wing unions, is in protest of recent American bombing of the Hanoi-Haiphong area of North Vietnam.

Texan Dies After Heart Transplants

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — A 29-year-old Corpus Christi resident, Jose Angel Ramirez, died last week in Palo Alto, Calif., after apparently undergoing his second heart transplant.

He underwent a heart transplant on May 22 at the Stanford Medical Center in Palo Alto and at that time was believed to be the youngest person to have had such an operation at Stanford.

Ramirez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolfo Ramirez, reportedly had a second transplant operation on Dec. 19 at Palo Alto. He died about 12:30 p.m. Jan. 1.

After the May operation, Palo Alto hospital officials said Ramirez was doing "very, very well."

When I received my divorce, the children's father was to pay $75 monthly to help with their support. To this date, we have received nothing from him. Is this child support routine just a farce of the law?—A. Y.

A father who fails to pay child support is subject to being found in contempt of court and may be fined up to $500 and/or jailed for six months.

A father who does not live in the same county as the children may be contacted through efforts of the county attorney. A hearing is set with the appropriate court and papers are served if the father can be located.

He must then appear in court and the judge determines if or how much should be paid. The money is sent back through the courts to the mother and children.

If these procedures fail, the recourse is rather expensive. The mother can hire an attorney in the city in which the father lives and pursue the correct course of action.

I would like to know why boys (elementary and junior high) have to have a YMCA membership before they can play basketball when the parents volunteer as coaches, scorekeepers, etc., and the schools furnish the gyms, utilities, buses, etc. It seems the taxpayers bear more expense than the YMCA.—P. B.

Chris Olin, YMCA community services executive, states that the YMCA is a membership organization providing services for those who wish to join. Professional staff at the "Y" organizes and supervises programs and activities for all members, and fees are used to defray support services for all programs. Support services would include for basketball, among others, all equipment used in the program, salaries of school personnel used to supervise gyms and fees for sixth grade basketball officials. Volunteer parents are used when possible in all programs because of their interest in young people and willingness to give of their time in these activities. Payment for additional personnel would raise program fees beyond reasonable levels, Olin said.

At one time I received my home mail around 12:30 p.m. Since the opening of the Wadley Street post office to improve services, I can start looking for my mail about 2:30. Isn't progress wonderful?—W. S.

Buddy Evans, assistant superintendent of the Graves Station on Wadley, states that the reason your mail is being delivered at a later time is a re-routing of deliveries and your section of Illinois Street is the last to be serviced.

DESPITE CONFUSION— Alcoholic Beverages Among Sales Tax Items

By LARRY HOWELL

A member of the Sales Tax Division of the State Comptroller's office said Friday afternoon that under most circumstances the sale of alcoholic beverages is affected by the one per cent city sales tax which went into effect in Midland on Jan. 1.

Roger W. Murphee of the comptroller's Austin office explained that the one per cent city sales tax must be paid on all alcoholic beverages sold in super markets, convenience and retail liquor stores and any type of tavern or bar which does not have a mixed beverage permit.

Since the city sales tax election was approved on Aug. 29 by Midland voters, there has appeared to be considerable confusion about exactly what items are covered by the tax and Alcoholic Beverage Commission which items would be exempt.

The initial list of exemptions furnished to Midland's city staff prior to the August election included information that had not been revised following adoption by the state legislature of a 1969 amendment on the sales tax.

The previous list of exempt items include alcoholic beverages because they were subject to an excise tax under another statute. The law was changed to cover almost all alcoholic beverage sales under the sales tax.

Law Is Changed
City Atty. Joe Nuessle said that the conflicting information may have confused some people but that the problem of understanding what was affected by the sales tax would have been minimal "if people would have just listened to the first thing we said time and again about the tax."

Nuessle said that his office repeatedly stressed that "the city sales tax is applicable to exactly the same items as are covered by the state sales tax — no more, no less.

"If people have been paying the state sales tax in the past, they're going to be paying the city sales tax in the future," Nuessle said. "It's as simple as that — regardless of whether or not a part of the information we received contained some inconsistencies.

"The initial information we received," Nuessle said, "was not revised before we caught it."

The city attorney added that "perhaps the best way to think of the city sales tax is as simply an increase of one per cent in to serve mixed drinks.

Nixon Takes Steps To Reorganize Executive Branch

WASHINGTON (AP) — After waiting two years for Congress to act on his proposals for reorganizing the executive branch, President Nixon has taken the first steps himself.

The President announced Friday that five key aides will oversee all policy making for the executive branch.

Nixon announced also that three of his second-term Cabinet members have been given dual roles as presidential counselors to coordinate all aspects in the fields of natural resources, human resources and government development.

Nixon promised as well a staff reduction that will cut in half the 4,216 employees of the Executive Office of the President by the end of the fiscal year in June.

He presented his executive reorganization plan at a breakfast meeting with congressional leaders but told them it was no substitute for legislation he has proposed. The new laws would consolidate seven current cabinet departments into four streamlined agencies. The legislation is expected to be reintroduced within a few weeks.

Under his new executive reorganization, Nixon is putting

Orange Lunar Soil May Be Just 10 Million Years Old

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — The men who found it say an orange soil discovered on the moon may be only about 10 million years old, the youngest lunar material ever brought to earth.

Apollo 17 astronauts Eugene A. Cernan, Harrison H. Schmitt and Ronald E. Evans said in a news conference Friday that the soil, which Schmitt and Cernan discovered while exploring the moon's surface, may fill in later chapters of the moon's history.

"It has to be very young," said Schmitt, a geologist and the first American scientist to fly into space. "My guess would be about 10 million years."

If true, the Apollo 17 material will post-date all other moon material brought to earth. The youngest found on previous Apollo missions was about one billion years old.

Schmitt said the discovery "means that the moon is still active enough to produce volcanic rock."

NASA Cutback May Postpone Space Shuttle

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A new cutback in National Aeronautics and Space Administration operations may delay the space shuttle project up to one year but will have little immediate impact here, NASA officials say.

"It will not have a major effect on employment at the Cape," a NASA spokesman said. "But it could delay the shuttle project about a year."

The delay of 9 to 12 months will be in the buildup of personnel for the space shuttle, the reusable rocket plane which was to have begun orbital test flights here in 1978. The first flight now is set for 1979.

The space agency announced the shuttle stretchout and other cutbacks Friday in Washington, saying they will trim $200 million from the agency's $3.4 billion budget for fiscal 1973.

Relief Supplies To Leave Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — An American Airlines jet freighter carrying food, clothing and medicines for earthquake victims in Nicaragua is to leave here at 10 a.m. today.

The relief supplies were donated to the Friends of Nicaragua committee by the people of North Texas after an appeal for help by Dallas Mayor Wes Wise.

The supplies on the freighter, capable of carrying 90,000 pounds, will be turned over to Mrs. Hope Somoza, wife of Gen. Anastasio Somoza, head of the Nicaraguan Armed Forces.

Under the new arrangement, the President said "individual department heads and counselors will routinely report to me via the appropriate assistants to the President, but will continue to work directly with me on important policy matters."

Asked if the new arrangement limited direct access to the President by Cabinet officers, Ehrlichman said the Cabinet as a whole will continue to function as it did before. However, in the domestic area, he conceded that the attorney general is the only Cabinet official who will have a direct line to the President.

Varied Activities Planned For City's Newcomers

SEWING SESSION — The Newcomers Club of Midland was organized in 1964 and is sponsored by the Newcomer Greeting Service of Midland. The object of the organization is to welcome new residents to Midland, help them make new friends and provide varied interests. The needle workshop provides opportunities for talented women to do various types of needlework, while enjoying companionship with each other. Pictured at a regular monthly sewing session are, from the left, Mrs. L. B. Hotchkiss, vice president of the club; Mrs. Jerry McNeil, newcomers' representative; Mrs. Charles Preston, president of the club, and Mrs. John Campbell, chairman of the needle workshop.

BRIDGE GROUP—Officers of the Newcomers Club serve six-month terms, beginning each February and August. Both executive boards maintain an active year-round program, including luncheons, style shows, family picnics, dances, book reviews, card parties, art shows and speakers. Three types of bridge-conversation, beginners and dubs—will be played at the next regular meeting Jan. 18. Making plans for the event are, from the left, Mrs. Ron Purtell; Mrs. James Connell, historian; Mrs. Ben Green, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Dennis Clem. Not pictured is Mrs. James Ingram, secretary. Both day and evening bridge groups are scheduled weekly.

ARTS AND CRAFTS — Looking over some of the arts and crafts displayed at a program in November, always held on the third Thursday of the month, are, from the left, Mrs. Red Lyle, Mrs. Edward Walger, chairman of the crafts group, and Mrs. J. F. Turpen, treasurer of the club. Mrs. Lyle was chairman of an art program in which many other talented members of the club participated. Not shown is Mrs. Jim Acree, parliamentarian. Regular meetings of the crafts group are held the second and fourth Thursday of each month.

MEMBERSHIP COFFEE — Residents of Midland two years or less are eligible to become members of the Newcomers Club. Mrs. Glen Sturgis, second from right, welcoming chairman, contacts new Midland residents, explains the club activities and invites them to attend meetings. Pictured with Mrs. Sturgis at a coffee are, from the left, Mrs. Kenneth Tomlinson, Mrs. Richard Frazier, Mrs. Peter Varney and Mrs. Gary Cowan. Not shown is Mrs. Ray Blaylock, membership chairman.

BOWLING — For athletic members of the club, a winter bowling league begins in January. One of the three-person teams ready to bowl is, from the left, Mrs. Tom Dawson, publicity chairman; Mrs. Johnny R. Chase, activities co-ordinator, and Mrs. John P. Kirk. Other members interested in bowling may contact Mrs. Chase. The club sponsors weekly bowling sessions for members.

Church Women Set Observance

The United Methodist Women of the First United Methodist Church will have an annual observance this week. "The Call to Prayer and Self-Denial."

More than 1.5 million women in 34,000 local units in all 50 states will join in the observance.

The call, inspired by special mission needs and by the opportunities to be made possible, focuses on prayer, a deepened spiritual life and a guided mission study. Major events of the observance include the Quiet Day and an interpretation of the mission projects in the United States and abroad, for which a special offering will be made.

Each woman who takes part is asked to give for others by denying herself, and to cultivate through prayer a spiritual oneness with planners, mission workers and those served in church-related ministries.

"The Call to Prayer and Self-Denial" for women of the Wesleyan Circle of the First United Methodist Church will be held at 7 p.m. Monday in the Buddy Woods Classroom of the church.

The Women's Division of the United Methodist Board of Global Ministries sponsors the observance and has designated two aspects of the large United Methodist mission program to benefit from this year's special offering. In the United States, the offering will be used to repair and improve mission properties and to renew programs of Christian mission, and, overseas, the offering will be used for leadership training for women.

The hostesses were Mrs. Lobato, Mrs. Bill Baute, Mrs. Gerald Nalewaik, Mrs. Dick Savoie, Mrs. Leonard Willman, Mrs. Peter Baer, Mrs. Bill Jones, Mrs. Gerald Galbreath, Mrs. Bob Gray, Mrs. Robert Hogue, Mrs. Bill Daily, Mrs. Pat Ryan and Mrs. Jerry Dawson.

Susan Jan Howard, Tomlinson Married

Susan Jan Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Howard of Corpus Christi, formerly of Midland, was married to Danny Boyce Tomlinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tomlinson, 4304 Tanner Drive, at 7 p.m. Saturday in the North A and Tennessee Streets Church of Christ.

Bert Mercer of the Golf Course Road Church of Christ was the officiating minister for the double ring service.

The church chorus provided the wedding music.

Mr. Howard presented his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white silk organza over peau de soie. The bodice was fashioned of Venice lace with a high neckline. Venice lace was featured at the tops of the full sheer Juliet sleeves and deep cuffs. The skirt was fully gathered at the sides and back and flowed into a sweep train. Falling from the Empire waistline was a chapel train. A Venice lace half hat accented with pearls held her three-tiered elbow-length veil of English nylon illusion. She carried a bouquet of white miniature carnations and camellia foliage centered with two Japhette orchids.

Anne Howard of Corpus Christi was her sister's maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Rita Black, sister of the bridegroom; Pam Hodges of San Antonio, cousin of the bride, and Cathy Miller.

They wore dresses of baby blue crepe with softly gathered skirts to Empire waistlines. The waists were accented with blue velvet bows. They carried colonial nosegays of mixed flowers.

Art Mueller was the best man. The groomsmen were Jerry Tomlinson of Odessa and Larry Tomlinson of Lamesa, brothers of the bridegroom, and Kenneth Machacek, Richard and Ronnie Foster of Midland and Scott Pittman of Fort Worth were the ushers.

Cathedral candelabra with greenery and holding chase candles, flanked by pedestal arrangements of white gladiolus and pompons, decorated the church.

The reception was held in Ranchland Hills Country Club. The bride's table had a white cloth and was centered with a four-branched silver candlepiece arrangement of mixed flowers. A brass candlepiece arrangement of yellow and gold flowers was on the bridegroom's table. A single candlepiece arrangement of mixed flowers decorated the registry table.

Members of the house party were Debbie Williams; Mrs. Jim Hodges of San Antonio, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Curtis Howard of Sweetwater, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Larry Tomlinson of Lamesa, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Mrs. Jerry Tomlinson of Odessa, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Carolyn Hodges of San Antonio, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Wayne Potter and Mrs. Ben Sides.

Following the reception, the couple left on a trip to Ruidoso, N.M. They will reside at Village Manor Apartments after Jan. 14.

The bride attended Midland College and Del Mar College.

The bridegroom attended Odessa College and is employed by Odessa Meat Co.

The bridegroom's parents entertained with the rehearsal dinner in Furr's Cafeteria.

Bonny Jane Hale Becomes Bride Of Jimmy Trolinder

Mrs. Jimmy Odell Trolinder

Bonny Jane Hale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hale, 1004 W. Kansas St., and Jimmy Odell Trolinder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis O. Trolinder, North Midland Drive, were married at 7 p.m. Saturday in Asbury United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Timothy Guthrie officiated for the double ring ceremony. Sarah Hale, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Leasa Hale, also a sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid.

David Trolinder was his brother's best man. The groomsmen were Richard Pitts of Big Spring, Delbert Trolinder and Robert Simpson, uncles of the bridegroom, were the ushers.

Seven-branched candelabra with tapers, and baskets of white gladiolus decorated the church. On the communion table was an arrangement of purple and white carnations. A kneeling bench also was used. Ray Waite was the organist and John Paul Grady was soloist.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of silk peau de soie. The Victorian bodice and stand-up collar were overlaid with re-embroidered Alencon lace. A wide band of lace trimmed the skirt front and edged her flowing cathedral train. A band of lace was on the center back of the train. A Juliet bonnet enhanced by lace and frosting of seed pearls held her tiered silk illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white Butterfly roses with white streamers.

The maid of honor and bridesmaid wore gowns of chiffon and crushed velvet. Variegated velvet created the fitted bodices. The sleeves and skirts were fashioned of deep purple chiffon. They carried colonial bouquets of purple and white carnations.

The reception was held in the church, before the couple left on a trip to Cloudford, N.M. They will reside at 504 N. Carrizo St., Apartment 14. Linda Winberley registered the guests, and Katie Luchine distributed the rice bags. Other house party members were Mrs. Max Pitts of Big Spring, Mrs. Marvin Trolinder, Mrs. Delbert Trolinder and Mrs. Robert Simpson.

The bride's table was covered with a floor-length cloth of white satin and was centered with an arrangement of purple and white carnations. The registry table also had a floor-length white satin cloth and a bud vase holding two carnations.

The bride, a 1972 graduate of Midland High School, is the granddaughter of Mrs. Ola Belle Hankla, longtime Midlander, and the late W. E. Hankla and the late Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hale. Grandparents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Trolinder of Midland and Mrs. W. M. Myers of Big Spring.

The bride is employed by The Midland National Bank and the bridegroom is employed by Commercial Bank & Trust Co.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts to the rehearsal dinner in the Ramada Inn.

Organic Gardening Program Subject

Mrs. Marshall W. Keathley presented a program of "Organic Gardening" for the Yucca Garden Club during a meeting Thursday in the Midland Woman's Club.

Mrs. Keathley, a geologist, told how healthy plants are much more immune to insects than unhealthy ones, which attract insects. She discussed the preparation of a compost, what foods to use to feed plants and building up of soil.

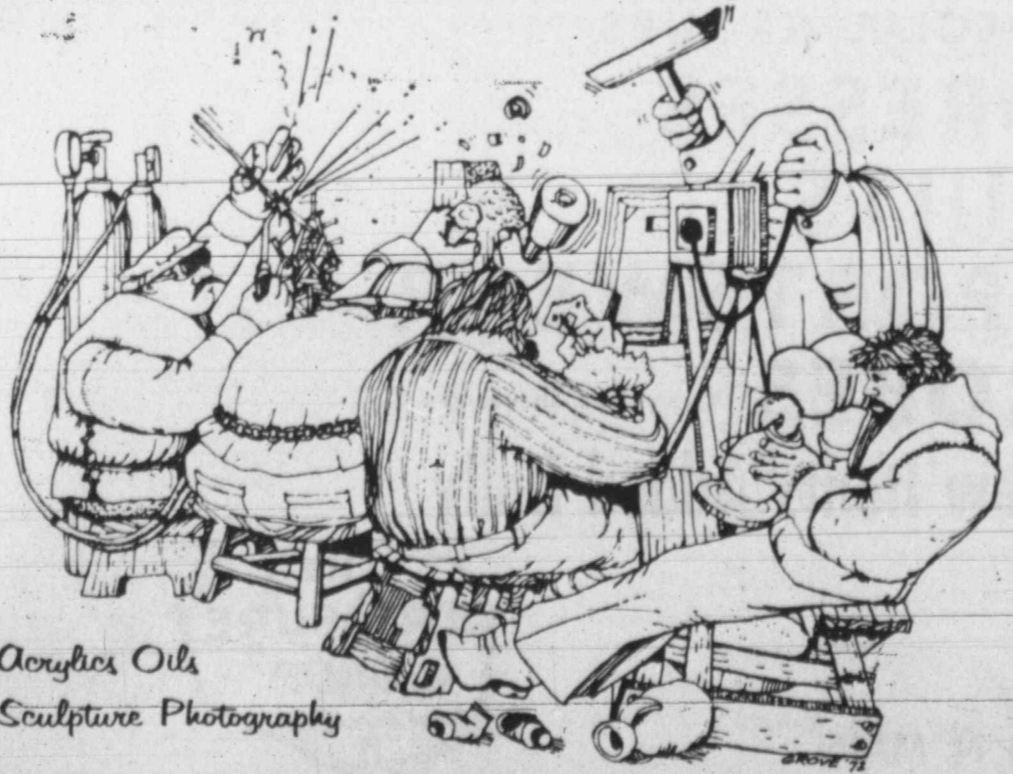

The speaker said humus is one of the best additions to the soil in West Texas. She also said plants react to emotions as people do and they should be communicated with. She also said to help eliminate some insects, herbs may be planted around shrubs. She concluded by saying that some insects, such as ladybugs, earthworms and praying mantis, can be assets to gardens.

Mrs. Ernest Neill, president, presided and told members the Feb. 15 meeting will be in the Midland Woman's Club. New York City's 1970 census recorded 7,895,563 people.

William Brewer Chapter Names Mrs. John Cross Regent

The La. William Brewer Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, elected Mrs. John E. Cross regent during a recent meeting in the Midland Woman's Club.

Other officers named were Mrs. George Staley, vice regent; Mrs. Richard F. Peters, chaplain; Mrs. Homer T. Fort Jr., treasurer; Mrs. E. H. Judson, recording secretary; Mrs. Lee B. Park, registrar; Mrs. C. E. Pritchard, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Donald A. Ross, librarian; and Mrs. Charles R. McKinney, historian.

Mrs. F. Hastings Pannill was elected official delegate to the DAR Continental Congress to be held the week of April 15 in Washington, D.C. Alternate delegates named were Mrs. John F. Younger, Mrs. Cross and Mrs. Laura Smith Self.

Official delegates elected to the DAR state conference to be held March 19-21 in Houston were Mrs. Pannill, Mrs. Younger, Mrs. Pritchard, Mrs. Park and Mrs. Cross. Alternates named were Mrs. Staley, Dr. Dorothy Wyvell, Mrs. Jack Wilkinson, Mrs. Fort, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Hanley, Mrs. Self, Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. Richard L. Denham and Mrs. Warren L. Fuller.

Hostesses to the meeting attended by 23 members and guests, including Mrs. Homer T. Fort of Liberty, were Mrs. R.

D. Hanley, Mrs. Clifford Ashton and Mrs. Mark Hobbs.

Special guests were Debbie Coleman and Ellen Beach, who received the DAR Good Citizen awards announced at the December meeting. They were introduced by Mrs. Robert R. Truitt, who praised the accomplishments of both girls in civic, as well as scholastic fields, adding the contributing credit due their mothers, Mrs. Jesse L. Coleman and Mrs. William N. Beach.

Introduced by Mrs. J. H. Steedman, Dr. Wyvell presented a program on national defense. Citing totalitarianism as the common enemy of America, as well as of the DAR, Dr. Wyvell included therein any attempt to undermine and destroy the American concept of life and freedom and to make Americans into slaves, no matter how subtle nor on what level.

Not only on the battlefields of the two Vietnams, but also in the two Germanys, the dividing line between Red China and Russia, literally throughout the whole world the struggle takes place on every side and in every way to further the idea of totalitarianism, Dr. Wyvell said. She quoted Lenin's plan of "first, Russia; then, eastern Europe; then, the masses of Asia; and finally, surrounding the United States, infiltrating it from within, so that it will eventually fall like a piece of rotten fruit."

Elaborating on many instances in which today's happenings seemingly fit into the totalitarian plan, Dr. Wyvell mentioned dissension in the public schools, dissatisfaction on the part of the consumer with what is offered by production and groups being pitted against one another.

In closing, Dr. Wyvell offered the admonition that American citizens be alert to recognize and oppose any attempt to deny the freedoms which were presented to them at such great cost to the forefathers of America.

Luncheon Held By RHCC Women

The Ranchland Hills Country Club Ladies' Association met Friday in the clubhouse for a luncheon and bridge games.

Dear Abby

You Can't Be A Doormat Unless You Lie Down First

—By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have a daughter who is 28 years old and she never lifts a finger in the house to help me. I have had gall bladder surgery and trouble with my nerves due to "The change" and I can't stand the aggravation this girl gives me. She throws her clothes around and I am always picking up after her. She never finishes anything she starts. She started to sew a dress and left the hem and zipper for me. You should see her room! I have to keep her door locked so no one will see it. She used to give me $10 a week room and board, but I haven't seen a penny for a year as she is saving to get married. Meanwhile, she doesn't have anybody steady, but she invites a different fellow over here for supper nearly every night and I do the cooking and wait on them like I'm the maid, and she leaves the mess for me to clean up. Even my husband doesn't help me. He's too lazy to wash the car so I have to do it. I could write a book. Please, help me.

DOORMAT

DEAR DOORMAT: You can't be a doormat unless you lie down first. Refuse to pick up after your daughter and don't let her make a servant of you. Same goes for your husband. If you don't put your foot down, they will. On you!

DEAR ABBY: My husband has a 26-year-old daughter by his first wife. Sally is being married soon. She has already had two weddings and two divorces, but she wants a lovely big wedding so her father can "give her away" — again. I think this is ridiculous, especially since the man Sally is marrying has also been married twice, besides which he and Sally have been living together for a year. I say Sally and her fiance ought to go away and quietly get married and forget the wedding. Her father says whatever she wants to do is all right with him. I'd like your opinion.

UP TO HERE IN GEORGIA

DEAR UP: Under the circumstances, the less conspicuous the wedding, the better. (P.S. One thing is certain, these two won't need a rehearsal.)

DEAR ABBY: I am a married woman, happily married with two children. My parents divorced when I was 12. That was 15 years ago, but to hear my mother talk, you would think it happened only yesterday. She is so bitter and full of resentment, all she ever talks about is how much she hates my father.

I don't happen to see him the way she does. Fortunately, Mother lives out of town, but she telephones me often to give her long, miserable monologues leaving me drained, depressed, and angry. I am sending my parents the following letter. I should have written it years ago:

Dear Divorced Parents: I love you both for different reasons, so please don't feel that because I love one of you I cannot love the other. Try to understand that even though you no longer love each other, I still love both of you.

I cannot be expected to know what went wrong with your marriage, nor do I want to know the details of who did what to whom, so please don't try to tell me your side of it. Don't ask me to judge either one of you, just help me to accept your parting so that I can build a life of my own though my parents live apart.

I still need to be loved by both of you, so please don't allow your resentment, however justified, to destroy my relationships with my grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins on both sides.

I know that you both love me, so please let me love you both.

YOUR CHILD

DEAR ABBY: I think your answer, "If a 17-year-old girl asks her mother for the pill, she should have it," is a disgrace. Your "better-safe-than-sorry" attitude will give teen-agers the idea that premarital sex is all right.

I say if people sin, let them pay the price.

Boys Dominate A Family Tree

NORTH CANTON, Ohio (AP) — When Shari and Robert Morris had their first child a few years ago, Shari chose birth announcements long before the child was born. They said, "It's a Boy." And it was.

Long before the second child was born recently, the couple was calling "him" Matthew. Right again. According to the Morris family tree, there hasn't been a girl in the family (Robert's parental side) for at least 200 years. That's as far back as the tree goes.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Karen Shivers celebrated her 16th birthday recently by flying solo for the first time in the family plane.

Miss Shivers has been practicing flying since she was 12, but the 16th birthday is the earliest legal time for a solo flight. The plane was built by her father, police patrolman Charles Shivers. Nicknamed Breezy, it is an open experimental type plane which cruises at a speed of 70 miles an hour.

Fort Worth Paper, Radio, Tv Stations Sold For $115 Million

FORT WORTH (AP) — They said in a statement that WBAP AM-FM will continue to be operated by the present management," Carter said. "Both will have editorial independence and will continue to function for the best interests of our community and our employees."

An "agreement in principle" was announced Friday where by Capital Cities Broadcasting Corp. of New York will buy the Star-Telegram and WBAP AM-FM for $80 million.

It was announced also that LIN Broadcasting, also with corporate offices in New York, would acquire WBAP-TV for a "total consideration of $35 million."

One of the principals said he believes this to be the largest sales price for communications properties in history.

The sale, subject to approval by the federal communications commission, includes the entire communications empire built by the late Amon G. Carter.

The announcement came jointly from Amon G. Carter Jr., president and publisher, and Bert N. Honea, chairman of the board of Carter Publications; Thomas S. Murphy, chairman of the board of Capital Cities; and Donald A. Pels, chairman and president of LIN Broadcasting.

The islands of the Caribbean West Indies will be the destination of Melissa Hirsch. John Bruce Holland and Carter Muire will spend January in Mexico studying Pre-Columbian art.

Five students will spend at least a portion of January participating in domestic off-campus programs. David T. Hamilton will visit museums and art galleries in New York City as he participates in an art course dealing with contemporary American painting and sculpture. Jeron Edward Hocker will travel to Washington, D.C., to study controlling the arms race.

Byron Battles will make a study of the desert area around Phoenix, Ariz. Rita Michel Wheeler will work at the Terrell State Hospital as a part of a course in abnormal psychology. Harry Nutter will be a teacher aide in the sixth grade at Barren Elementary School in Plano.

Group To Screen Outstanding Young Man Nominees

A selection committee is ready to screen the nominees for Midland's Outstanding Young Man of 1972. The young man it chooses will receive the Midland Jaycees' Distinguished Service Award at a banquet Jan. 18 in Ranchland Hills Country Club.

Dist. Atty. James Mashburn, last year's Outstanding Young Man, will head the committee. Also on the panel are Judge Joseph H. Mims of the Domestic Relations Court; R. L. Pendleton, president of Commercial Bank and Trust Co.; George H. O'Brien Jr., independent oil operator; Audrey L. Gill, principal of Midland High School; the Rev. Ronald Marlow, pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, and Frank Nail, representing the Jaycees.

Nominations for the DSA now are being accepted. A form may be obtained by calling the Jaycee office at 682-9952. The deadline for nominations is midnight Jan. 15.

All young men residing in Midland who are between the ages of 21 and 35 are eligible for the award. Judging will be on the basis of the nominee's service to community, profession, church and family.

Lamesa Grant Okayed By Smith

AUSTIN — Gov. Preston Smith approved a $33,765 grant Friday to the Lamesa-Dawson County Community Action Council.

The grant was one of six totaling $1,030,065 in federal anti-poverty funds for Texas cities.

Calvert Proposes Judicial Reforms

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas' top voters prior to the 1974 constitutional convention. The first amendment would rewrite the judiciary article of the constitution, shortening it from 5,000 to 1,000 words. Among other things, it would: Merge the Texas Supreme Court and the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, making the total number of judges on the high court 14, but the number would be allowed to drop to nine as judges retire or die. —Require all judges to be lawyers, except justice of the peace, whose offices would be abolished when they quit or die. The effect of this "grandfather clause" would be to allow current JPs to remain in office for the life without facing another election, but it also removes their opposition to the amendment, Calvert said. JP functions would be taken over by county courts. A second amendment provides for appointment of judges rather than their election. It is separate from the other amendment, Calvert said, because more opposition is expected to it, and the task force did not want to jeopardize the first one. The governor would appoint all appellate judges—and trial judges, too, if the legislature chooses—from a list submitted by a Judicial Nominating Commission. They would be subject to approval by the voters every six years.

Funseth's 65 Keeps Snead Out Of Lead

By BOB GREEN
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Tour regular Ron Funseth had to fire a course record 65 to keep 60-year-old Sam Snead out of the lead Saturday in the third round of the $135,000 Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament.

Snead, the balding relic from an earlier era of golfing greatness, fashioned a solid three-under-par 68 in the bright sunshine that bathed the 7,028-yard Riviera Country Club course, and surged to within a single stroke of the lead with one round left in this inaugural event on the 1973 tour.

Funseth, with one victory in his 13 years on the circuit, took full control of the lead at 207 six under par, but most of the gallery of about 15,000 was buzzing over the play of the remarkable Snead, just one back with a 208 total.

Snead, winner of a record 84 official tour titles in a career dating back to the Depression days of the 1930s, missed only two greens and didn't make a bogey in his bid for his first crown since the 1965 Greensboro Open.

He shared second place with wily Australian David Graham, who had a 70 for 208.

Bruce Devlin, another Australian and winner of two crowns last season, was alone with a 70-209. Jack Nicklaus, the 1972 player of the year and the pre-tour favorite here, was one of more than a half dozen at 210, just three strokes back.

Nicklaus had a 71 that he called "just a kind of nothing round."

He was tied with former Masters champion Gay Brewer, Tom Kite, Tom Weiskopf, Dave Hill, 52-year-old Julius Boros and Don Bies. Brewer had another 65. Kite was at 66, Hill and Weiskopf matched 70's, Bies had a 72 and Boros a 73.

Dave Stockton, the second-round leader, blew to a fat 78 when his putting touch deserted him and was well back in the pack at 214. Arnold Palmer could do no better than 71-217. Lee Trevino, the British Open champion, failed on Friday to qualify for the final two rounds.

The 39-year-old Funseth, whose only triumph came in the 1965 Dallas open, needed only 27 putts as he came out of the pack with his course record effort.

Battle Scene

By Ted Battles

The Wrong Question

It started out as a press conference with Dave Smith, SMU's new head football coach, but with only four writers present, it wound up more like a bull session with Orville Henry, the sage of the Ozarks, throwing most of the bull.

Perhaps "bull" is inappropriate. Henry writes for the Little Rock Gazette and is known far and wide as the Oracle of the Ozarks. If there's anyone more concerned with the fortunes of the Arkansas Razorbacks than Orville, it could only be Frank Broyles.

Anyway, somewhere along the line, someone made the mistake of asking Orville what happened to the Razorbacks and all at once it wasn't Dave Smith's press conference any longer.

The Hogs were billed as the coming national champions back in the spring and summer months and the SWC title and Heisman Trophy were expected to fall to the Razorbacks as an incidental along the way to the pinnacle of collegiate football.

Henry revealed, despite the hoopla, it never could have been. "And no one knew it better than Frank. He couldn't hide the complete voids at certain positions, such as safety and fullback."

Henry pointed out that Heisman candidate Joe Ferguson spent the season trying to pass to his wide receivers, despite double and triple teaming. "Joe's type game simply had gone out of style. I drew a lot of letters from Louisiana folks for saying it, but it was true. That North-South game in Miami was just a replay of Joe's college career." Ferguson that night was intercepted six times.

Ferguson, Henry said, needed the running game to make his passing effective, and without a fullback, there was none.

Dave Seeks Quarterback

Before Orville got wound up, Smith, who succeeds Hayden Fry, did manage to get in a few words.

Much like Grant Teaff at Baylor, Smith plans to go the junior college route for immediate help for the Mustangs, but his big problem will be finding a quarterback to run his Wishbone offense. He doesn't expect to be able to find one in the junior colleges, however.

"There are none from Arizona to Mississippi in the junior colleges," says the Oklahoma State wonder-worker of 1972. "We haven't checked out California yet."

Perhaps the best possibility on campus is Don Jarma, recruited by Smith during a previous stint as an assistant at SMU, and redshirted last season.

Smith is sold on the Wishbone. "If a college quarterback can't run, it's difficult to be consistent. We proved this with Chuck Hixson. Against Ohio State in 1968 we gained 400 yards passing, never punted and got beat."

Smith still is bewildered by his sudden popularity as a coach. He became a hot property after a somewhat modest 6-5 record, but that's something that doesn't happen often at Stillwater, not with the time schedule the Cowboys play and the material on hand to play it.

WHA ALL-STARS — East Beats West, 6-2

QUEBEC (AP) — John McKenzie, Larry Pleau and Jim Dorey scored second period goals, helping the East Division to a 6-2 victory over the West in the World Hockey Association's first All-Star game Saturday.

McKenzie, of the Philadelphia Blazers, broke a 1-1 tie and put the East ahead for good with his goal at 3:37 of the second period.

Pleau, of the New England Whalers, made it 3-1 at 12:47 after taking passes from his teammates Terry Caffery and Tom Webster.

Dorey, a defenseman with the New England, boosted the East's advantage to 4-1, scoring with only 17 seconds left in the second period.

Bobby Hull, the player-coach of the Winnipeg Jets, got the West's second goal, early in the third period, but goals 31 seconds apart by Danny Lawson of Philadelphia and Wayne Carleton of the Ottawa Nationals clinched the victory for the East.

The West's Gerry Odrowski of the Los Angeles Sharks opened the scoring at 10:39 of the first period, but Garry Jarrett of the Cleveland Crusaders scored the score for the East 12 seconds later.

'Skins Rule 2-Point Pick

Unbeaten Dolphins' Shula Seeks 1st Super Win Next Sunday

By HUBERT MIZELL
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Don Shula's icy professionals from Miami and George Allen's traveling gridiron revival from Washington arrive here Sunday for the grandiose countdown to Super Bowl VII.

The Redskins, 13-3, are two-point favorites over the 16-0 Dolphins for the National Football League extravaganza scheduled Jan. 14 in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

The tickets are sold, all 90,182 of them.

Television forecasters predict that one American in three will watch this brassiest of one-day sports events on the tube, generating a total audience of over 75 million.

It's a homecoming of sorts for Allen, the controversial coach of the Redskins, who leads his team in everything from dressing room prayers to victory dances. Allen and several of his players were once with the Los Angeles Rams.

The late Dan Reeves, former owner of the Rams, got rid of Allen when the nation's most famous ice cream eater failed to win the big ones. George went to Washington and then reached back to Los Angeles to grab several Rams in trades.

"The future is now," Allen maintained while dealing off No. 1 draft picks for aging but proven veterans.

Shula, coach of the year in the NFL, built the Dolphins more along youthful lines after giving up a winning situation with the Baltimore Colts to become part owner and head coach of the Dolphins in 1970.

His scheme, like that of Allen, produced quick results. Miami went from a 3-10-1 team in 1969 to a playoff club in Shula's first year. Last season, the Dolphins made it all the way to the Super Bowl before bowing to Dallas 24-3.

Not even an unprecedented 16-0 season satisfies Shula's thirst. The 43-year-old former defensive back will consider the campaign more of a disaster unless Miami wins the Super Bowl.

Shula is personally 0-2 in the big one, losing a 16-7 decision to the New York Jets in 1969 while still operating at Baltimore.

When all the Super Bowl tickets were sold, the Los Angeles area's stay-at-home fans were assured that the game would be shown on local television. Bob Cochran, the NFL's television specialist, said the move should add about 3 million viewers to the total Super Bowl audience.

Super Bowl VII stacks up as a $42 million happening with $1.4 million coming from ticket sales, $2.75 million from the National Broadcasting Co. for television rights and the remaining dollars from various other enterprises under Commissioner Pete Rozelle's umbrella.

Winning players will bag about $25,000 with the losers getting $17,500 in post-season money.

Joe Paterno Nixes Pats' Pot O' Gold To Stay At Penn State ... See Page 3C

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association will charge the University of Southwestern Louisiana with basketball recruiting violations this week, two Louisiana newspapers reported Saturday.

The New Orleans Times-Picayune, in a copyrighted story, and the Alexandria Town Talk, said the state attorney general has stepped in to defend the university, which gained national prominence in college basketball—first as a college division power and for the last two seasons as a major school.

Southwestern Louisiana ranks eighth in the current Associated Press rankings. The basketball team lost its first game on Saturday, bowing 120-78 to Jacksonville.

The NCAA plans to charge USL with "124 or 126" violations, the Times-Picayune reported.

The New Orleans newspaper reported a source as saying the charges were "the worst in the history of the National Collegiate Athletic Association."

The Town Talk had a similar report, and both newspapers quoted State Atty. Gen. William Guste as saying he is entering the case.

Guste could not be reached for comment.

East Texas Gains Eisenhower Award

NEW YORK (AP) — East Texas State — 21-18 winner over Carson Newman in the NAIA championship football game this year — was chosen unanimously Saturday as the first recipient of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame's Dwight D. Eisenhower award.

East Texas State won 10 of 12 games during the 1972 season.

Miami Star Sparks South Senior Win

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Chuck Foreman of Miami, Fla., scored one touchdown and gained more than 150 yards rushing Saturday as the South All-Stars whipped the North 33-20 in the nationally televised Senior Bowl football game.

Foreman, named the game's most valuable player, scored on a 10-yard run in the second period, putting the South into the lead for good at 14-7. He also caught three passes for 59 yards.

Barry Smith, Florida State's talented receiver, caught two third period touchdown passes as the South broke from a 17-13 halftime lead into a 30-13 advantage five minutes into the third quarter.

Smith's first touchdown came on a 27-yard pass from Louisiana State's Bert Jones and the other on a 33-yard toss from his FSU teammate, Gary Huff.

The South, now leading this series 14-8-2, gained a 7-7 deadlock in the opening period when Danny Sanspre of Auburn intercepted a screen pass from Utah State's Tony Adams and returned it 21 yards for a touchdown.

The South's other scoring came on field goals of 36 and 20 yards by Scott Marcus of Louisville.

The North opened the scoring on a 75-yard touchdown run by Cissell.

IN HULA BOWL — South Wiggles By North, 17-3

HONOLULU (AP) — Stanford's Jim Merlo ran eight yards for a touchdown with an intercepted pass and his defensive mates set up 10 more points as the South sank the North 17-3 in a muddy 27th annual Hula Bowl football game.

Merlo, voted the game's outstanding defensive player, picked off a short pass by Penn State's John Hufnagel and darted into the end zone for the only score of the second half.

Cornerback John Stearns of Colorado set up the first South score by recovering a fumble by Wisconsin's Rufus "Roadrunner" Ferguson at the North 24.

The South offense, stymied by dreching rains and deepening mud in the middle of the field, settled for a 40-yard field goal by Mark Williams of Rice. That field goal, coming midway in the second quarter, canceled out a 23-yard field goal for the North by Robert Macoritti of Wooster.

Defensive lineman Bob Crum of Arizona set up the go-ahead touchdown with about three minutes left in the first half by recovering an errant pitchout by Hufnagel at the North 18.

Oklahoma speedster Greg Pruitt, the game's outstanding offensive player, picked his way through the right side to the North's three-yard line. Sam "Bam" Cunningham of Southern Cal diving over the left side for the score on the next play to make it 10-3 at the half.

Middle linebacker Steve Brown of Oregon State had three of the North's five interceptions. The South picked off three passes and recovered three fumbles by the North. The North also recovered one South fumble.

Dolphins Drown SW La., 120-78

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Jacksonville University piled up a whopping 67-36 halftime lead Saturday and coasted to a 120-78 basketball victory over eighth-ranked and previously undefeated Southwestern Louisiana.

Unranked Jacksonville jumped to a quick lead and never trailed throughout the game. The Dolphins outrebounded the Ragin' Cajuns 60 to 34.

The Dolphin's attack was sparked by sophomore Henry Williams with 29 points.

Dwight Lamar, the nation's leading scorer last year and fourth in the standings this year, scored 31 points for Southwestern to lead both teams.

Paterno Turns Down Patriots And Million $$$ Offer

More To Life Than Just Winning

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) — Penn State football coach Joe Paterno, explaining that he wanted to be a little more than just a football coach whose life depended on winning and losing, turned down a million dollar-plus offer to become general manager and coach of the National Football League's New England Patriots.

Paterno told an early morning news conference here Saturday that the Patriots' offer "was as good as anyone" was able to get out of professional football. "A source close to the university said it fell just short of $1.25 million over five years. The 46-year-old Paterno dis-

I realized that I wouldn't be happy just being a football coach in which winning and losing was everything." Paterno said. "When I analyzed the situation here at Penn State, I realized that I've always hoped that I can work in an atmosphere on a campus where the approach by the administration toward athletics was such that I could be a little more than just a football coach. And that's what Penn State has allowed me to be."

MIDLAND HAS BEST IN STATE— Old Coach Hatfield High On Youth Sports

By BOB DILLON

Jesse Hatfield has a keen interest in the youth in Midland and does something about it by coaching the younger boys in the Tail City. Hatfield, former Midland High and Sul Ross standout on the gridiron, loves sports and loves kids and instead of taking up all of his time on the golf course, works with young men and loves every minute of it.

Jesse Hatfield
... busy in all sports

Hatfield points with pride to the programs that Midland has not only in the Little League program, but at the YMCA too where basketball and football programs are going strong.

"Midland has the finest set-up of any city in the state in these programs. The YMCA football and basketball setup is the best around and the most important phase of those two programs is the fact that every boy gets a chance to play and to enjoy it. It's fun for them, and that's the way it ought to be," commented Hatfield enthusiastically.

Hatfield graduated from Midland High School in 1954 and went to Texas Tech one year where he hurt a knee. He transferred to Sul Ross in Alpine and played two years, went into the service for two years and came back to play two more years for the Lobos. Jesse played tailback for Tugboat Jones at MHS, but in college, played quarterback. He tipped the scales at 130 pounds when he graduated from high school and never got over 150 in college, which should give some smaller youngsters heart in knowing they're to have a shot at playing in college someday.

Hatfield and Marshall McCrea coached the Central League Drisco Rebels to the City American Little League championship last summer.

Hatfield has a good background of coaching, having been at McCamey High School five years, three years as a head coach, but decided he wanted out and works for Stadium Sports and Taylor Sporting Goods.

"The pressure isn't there like it is in high school and besides, I like working with youngsters," added Hatfield. Hatfield not only played football at Midland High as well as Tech and Sul Ross, but also quarterbacked a 9-1 outfit at Fort Campbell, Ky.

"Although I enjoyed coaching in high school, I get a bigger kick with the younger boys in Midland," quipped Hatfield.

Jesse keeps on top of everything at the public schools and feels that the overall sports programs in the city are going to pay great dividends in the very near future.

Hatfield is just one of many men in the community that have a strong feeling for the youth and is proud to be a part of it. "I have an edge because I have coached in the past, but there are numerous men that work well with the kids and enjoy it as much as I do and do a better job."

Crop harvest came to a complete standstill again in the Midland area last week as ice, rain and cold prevailed during the first week of the new year. Midland County cotton producers are estimated as about two-thirds complete with their harvest, according to Charles Green, Midland County agent. Ginning has been slow also due to the weather.

Cotton in uncovered trailers was wet by the snow and rain and ginyards are still covered by backlogs of unginned cotton.

With the increased incidence of colder weather, proper feeding of cows and calves takes on more importance, reminds Green. The production efficiency and comfort of a mature cow is not reduced by cold weather, provided she is full of good forage, has a dry coat and is exposed to dry, still air, points out the county agent.

These are conditions which are often hard to come by in inclement weather in this part of the state, he notes. The temperature at a given level of feed intake where no additional feed is necessary to maintain body temperature is called the critical temperature.

It is slightly above the temperature at which cattle begin to shiver. A cow on a fasting diet or without any feed will reach the critical temperature at about 55 degrees Fahrenheit.

A maintenance ration will lower the critical temperature to about 23 degrees F. Cattle can keep warm and survive cold weather in good shape if they consume sufficient forage.

Low-quality roughages high in fiber serve as effective feeds during storms because of the high heat production that results from the digestion process.

Therefore, notes Green, the stockman who makes every possible effort to keep his cattle comfortable during periods of cold weather can expect them to work just a bit harder for him.

In view of the scarcity and high prices for protein supplements, livestockmen might consider the use of whole cottonseed for feeding livestock. Whole cottonseed may be used as a source of protein and energy when the price of a pound of cottonseed does not exceed the cost of two-fifths of a pound of cottonseed meal and three-fifths of a pound of ground grain sorghum, says Green. He said the question of feeding cottonseed has come up frequently in the last few weeks. Cottonseed, he added, is a 20 per cent crude protein feed. Four pounds of seed will furnish as much protein and more than twice as much energy as two pounds of 41 per cent cottonseed meal.

But no more than four to five pounds of cottonseed should be fed daily per head to mature cattle. If cattle are fed too much cottonseed, they may scour badly due to the high oil content of the seed. There is no advantage in grinding cottonseed when feeding it to cattle, advises the county agent.

Yards and gardens are all too often neglected during the winter months. Long dry periods without supplemental irrigation may cause severe drying back on the growing tips. Drying is especially serious on evergreens and late winter or early spring flowering plants, since they have rapidly developing flower buds and require a steady supply of moisture.

It's a good idea to water thoroughly at four to six week intervals throughout the dormant period. Shallow rooted plants in containers are especially vulnerable to moisture stress during the winter.

Such plants exposed to prevailing winter wind will require close attention to assure they have adequate moisture to prevent winter injury. Plants located beneath the roof overhang are often damaged by lack of moisture during cold weather.

During cold weather water early in the day so that foliage will dry before nightfall. The most efficient time to apply irrigation water is when the air is calm.

There is less loss by evaporation under these conditions. Much plant damage, including lawn failure, blamed on insects and disease, or on cold injury is often due to excessively dry soil during the winter months. Just because the grass is brown and the trees have shed their leaves, it doesn't mean that the plants don't need moisture. The water hose is still an important tool during winter months.

Quebec, with 594,860 square miles, is the largest province in Canada.

Ringling The Bell

With BOB TIEUEL

Afro-American History Notes: In 1972, the number of blacks holding seats in state legislatures rose by 21 with the election of 178 black candidates in the Nov. 7 election, a survey by the joint Center for Political Studies. The number includes 15 in Missouri and 5 in Kansas. There are now 227 black state legislators in 38 states, compared to 206 in 37 states before the 1972 elections. Elections involving black candidates were held in November in 31 states; black legislators also hold seats in an additional seven states in which no legislative election was held November 7.

Bob Tieuel, 49, are incumbents who hold seats which were not up for contest in this election, and the remaining 75 are blacks who were not in the previous legislatures.

The number of black state senators rose from 37 to 43, an increase of six, or 16 per cent. In the lower houses, the number of black representatives increased by 15, or ten per cent from 169 to 184. All but five of the black legislators elected in November are Democrats. There were 51 Republican legislative candidates, 247 Democrats and 13 Independents or members of other parties on the November 1972 ballot.

Amtrak officials told the press in Dallas recently that they are encouraged by the interest in its fast East Coast trains and that they will begin running four high-speed passenger trains in the Midwest by the coming summer. The new trains are powered by airplane-type, gas turbine engines and have a low center of gravity which can operate faster than conventional trains on existing tracks with speeds up to 100 miles per hour. Bellringers who live in the Southwest with our "wintry blasts" and bad travel time are reported heartened by the news.

For whom the bells toll: An ardent bellringer and friend of this column for many years: Mrs. Rose Davis of Midland and Colorado City was buried the day after Christmas in the report we received while visiting in Dallas during the holidays. For her bereaved husband, Lester, it must have been a lonely Christmas but it need not be that way forever. For those of us who have loved ones and friends who have gone to the other shore, we realize even more than ever, that we now have an interest on "the other side." Sister Rose was just that. Her name characterized her life for many years, at home, at church, at play and now she has joined the great Garden above.

Bellringers especially in the West Texas and eastern New Mexico area will remember Elbis Wamsley, who was an outstanding teacher and civic worker as well as an accomplished musician. He lived and worked for a number of years in the above areas and was in his early forties when he died recently in Dallas. We traveled together in these parts once bringing gospel and spiritual music to always an appreciative audience and we shall miss the Prof.

"Black Separatism?" "Separatism leads people to becoming self-aware and recognizing their own individual strength and developing a kind of consciousness." (Dr. D. P. Wolfe, a black professor of education at Queens College.)

"On separatism, a distinction has to be drawn between boundaries and barriers. Boundaries can be maintained without necessary erecting barriers" (Davis Lieber of the Jewish Theological Seminary.) Rabbi Lieber thinks that to the extent the Jews have been successful, it is because they've learned the distinction. Jews have learned that on one hand they must look to their own inner resources to build their people but on the other hand to not erect barriers so that they can reach across these boundaries to work with other groups, the Rabbi states.

Roy Wilkins, head of the NAACP, says: "More crimes are committed against black people and in the black community than against white people. Many people have caused crime in the streets, many junkies, many drug addicts... white and black and brown and they don't care anything about your color. They are looking for the money in your wallet."

1972 Construction Best In Decade

The 1972 construction total ended up at $16,531,480, the largest figure for City of Midland building permits in any year since the $17,320,949 of 1962.

It is up from the $13,319,766 of 1971, and the $5,090,703 of 1970.

Only three permits were issued at City Hall during the first week of 1973, as the holiday season construction lull continued.

One was for a $30,000 residence by Grafa Construction Co. at 3209 Reo Dr.

The Federal Housing Administration received authorization for repair of a residence at 1003 Mogford St. for $2,400, and Billye Sinclair of 1931 Morgan Way drew a $650 permit for a carport.

Before you invest hundreds of dollars in any encyclopedia, invest 49¢ in a New Funk & Wagnalls.

Before you buy anything as important as an encyclopedia, you should take it home and live with it for a while.

But the only way you can do that with most encyclopedias is by buying the entire set. Not with the Funk & Wagnalls New Encyclopedia.

Come in and buy the first volume for only 49¢. If you like it, you can buy the remaining 26 volumes (including index and bibliography), a volume or two a week. For only $1.99 each.

Naturally, this makes buying an encyclopedia easier. It also makes not buying it easier. When you sell an encyclopedia this way, it has to be good enough to keep people coming back for more.

It is.

The Funk & Wagnalls New Encyclopedia is the work of over 500 scholars, including many Pulitzer and Nobel Prize winners.

It has over 7,000 illustrations—including a full-color World Atlas.

It's bound in sturdy, elegant covers to resist the ravages of time and children.

It's not only thoroughly up-to-date, but provisions have been made for you to keep it that way. Funk & Wagnalls publishes annual yearbooks which you can buy to keep your set as new as it is now.

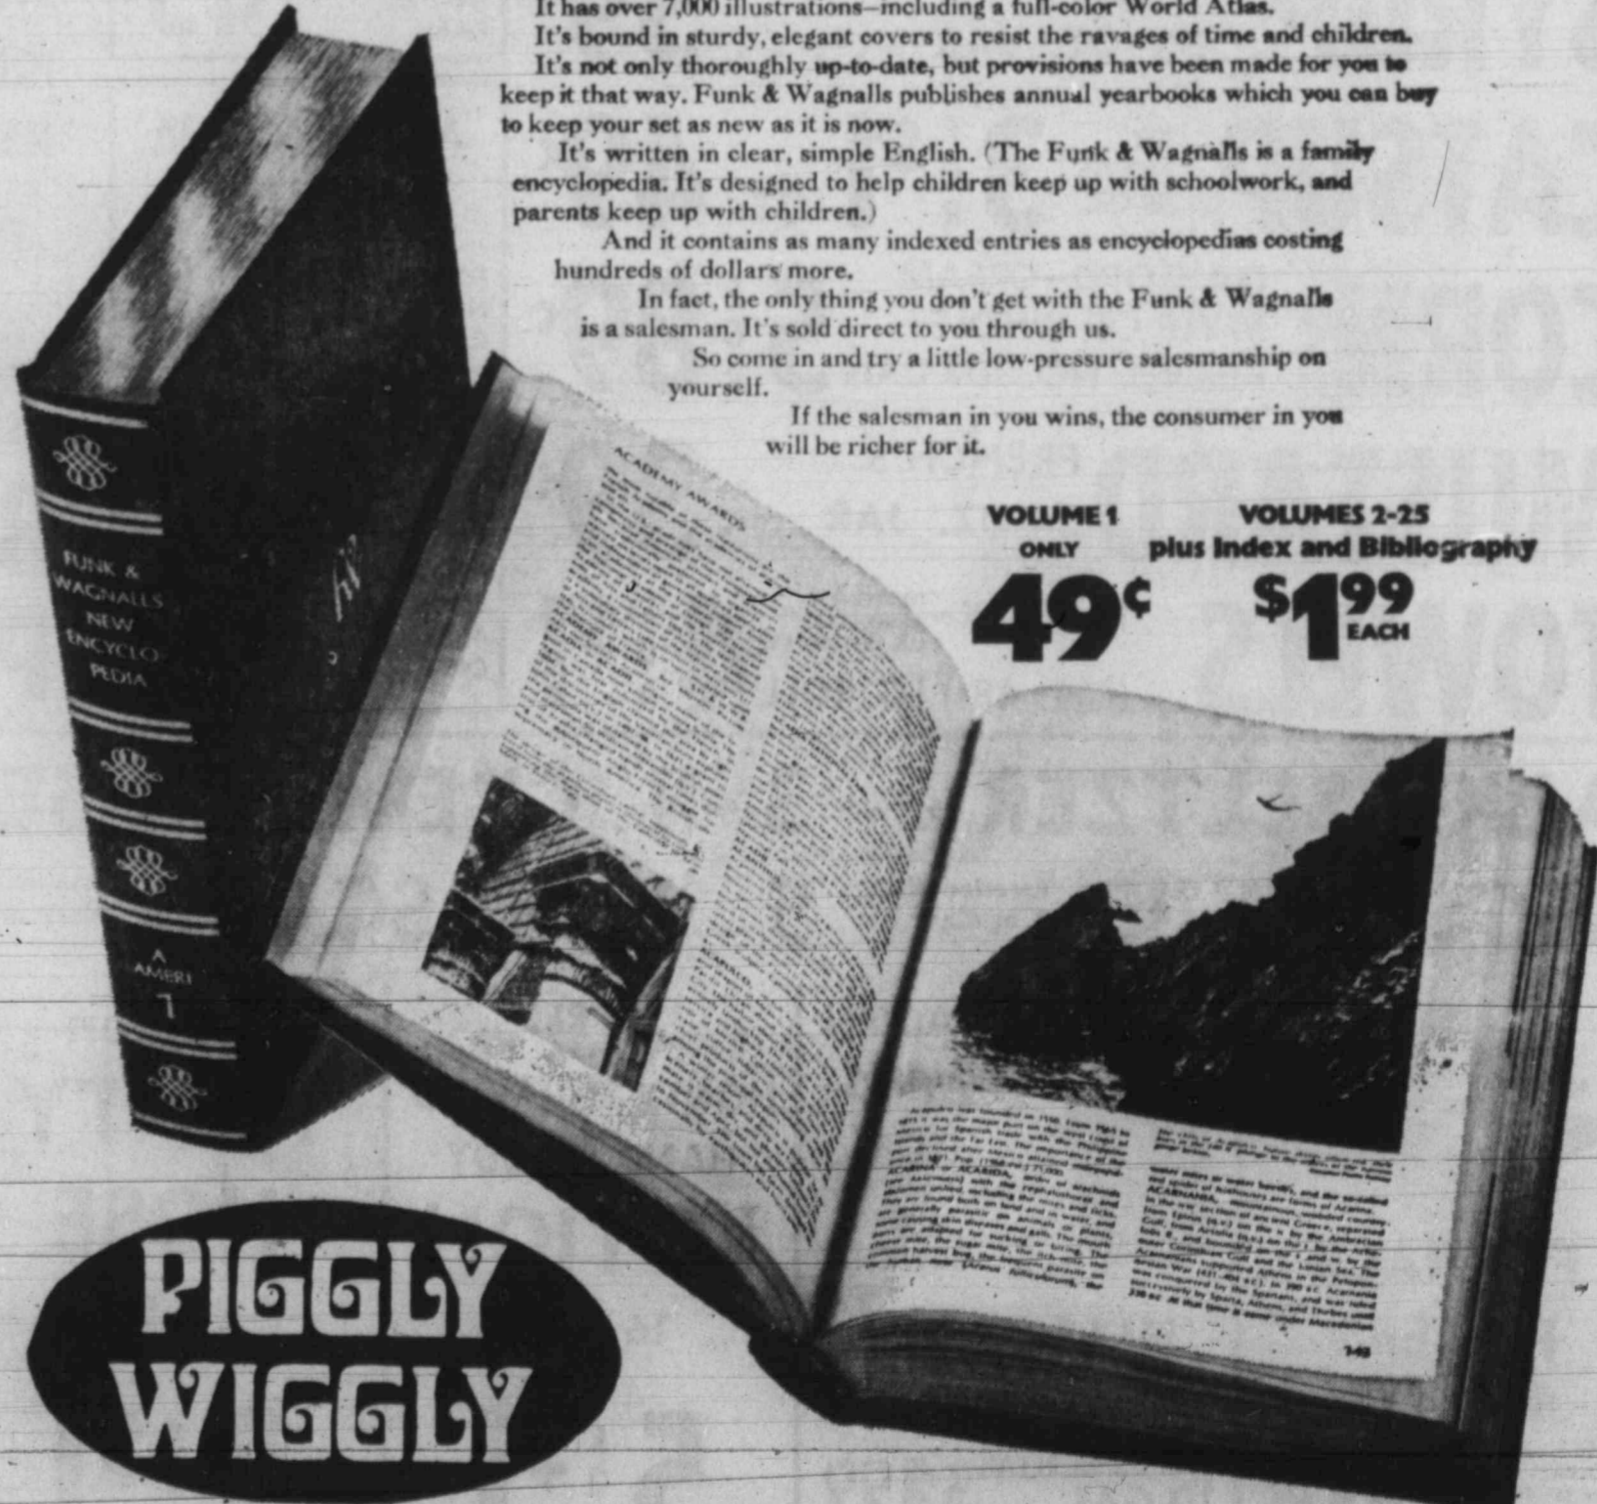

It's written in clear, simple English. (The Funk & Wagnalls is a family encyclopedia. It's designed to help children keep up with schoolwork, and parents keep up with children.)

And it contains as many indexed entries as encyclopedias costing hundreds of dollars more.

In fact, the only thing you don't get with the Funk & Wagnalls is a salesman. It's sold direct to you through us.

So come in and try a little low-pressure salesmanship on yourself.

If the salesman in you wins, the consumer in you will be richer for it.

BRINGING HIS DEMOCRATS FOR NIXON WITH HIM—

Strauss Invites Connally's 'Return To This Party'

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic National Chairman Robert S. Strauss extended an open invitation Saturday to fellow Texan John Connally "to return to this party and bring with him his constituency." Strauss said he hopes that Connally, who headed Democrats for Nixon in the 1972 campaign, can play "a leading role" in Democratic activities over the next four years.

Strauss, 52, a Dallas lawyer, assumed the post four weeks ago with support of organized labor and regular party leaders who had been cool to presidential nominee Sen. George McGovern.

The tone of Strauss' comments, in his first extended interview since his election, contrasted somewhat with statements he made at that time.

No Office For Connally
He said then he didn't think "any man who supported a candidate other than the Democratic candidate should hold a titular office in our party ... John Connally included."

Connally, former governor of Texas, was responsible for administering much of President Nixon's economic program while Treasury secretary.

Ahders To Attend Judges Seminar

Midland Municipal Court Judge Bill Ahders is planning to attend a seminar in San Antonio Friday and Saturday.

It is a meeting of the Municipal Judges Section of the State Bar of Texas, of which Ahders is a director.

The seminar will deal with Texas law regarding municipal courts and proposed changes of that law.

Since taking his new post, Strauss said he had not had a serious talk with Connally, whom he described as "my political mentor," responsible for his election in 1968 as Democratic national committeeman. Strauss declined to speculate about whether Connally would remain a Democrat or switch to the Republicans, a decision which could depend on his chances of capturing one of the parties' presidential nominations in 1976.

Strauss acknowledged that his remarks were designed in part to counter his statements about whether Connally would remain a Democrat or switch to the Republicans, a decision which could depend on his chances of capturing one of the parties' presidential nominations in 1976.

Strauss noted that 15 million Democrats followed Connally in voting for the Republican presidential ticket in 1972.

"Instead of censuring those who voted for Nixon, we ought to find out why they did it," he said.

"What I intend to do is to ask John Connally to return to this party and bring with him his constituency," Strauss said.

"I think this party needs John Connally and I think this party needs (Chicago) Mayor (Richard J.) Daley and I think this party needs (former Minnesota Sen.) Eugene McCarthy and I think this party needs the 15 million who voted for Nixon," he added. "I don't want this to be a minority party." Connally was not available for comment.

Strauss, who kept the party in the black during more than two years as party treasurer, also disclosed that the $9.3 million debt created in 1968 and 1969 has been cut to about $4.5 million.

District Juries To Be Selected

Juries for trials scheduled for next week in Midland's 142nd District Court are expected to be chosen Monday.

Six cases were set during docket call Wednesday but usually only two — sometimes three — trials can be held in one week.

One of the cases set was that of Bill Gregg, charged with theft by bailee. But he pleaded guilty to that charge last week and received a two-year probation sentence.

The first trial to be heard is that of Danny Charles Peterson, accused of shooting Midland Patrolman Jesse Robbins last spring while Robbins was trying to make an arrest.

He is charged with assault with intent to murder a police officer.

Other cases set are those of William Moore of Lubbock, charged with burglary; Alfonso Gutierrez of Sweetwater, charged with driving while intoxicated, second offense; Rodney Nash of Midland, charged with possession of marijuana (an earlier hearing ended in mistrial after the court discovered evidence of jury misconduct); and Clinton Lindberg of Midland, charged with indecent exposure.

TUESDAY NIGHT— MC Spring Term Registration Slated

Midland College will conduct official registration between 8 and 9 p.m. Tuesday at Lee High School for spring term credit classes beginning Jan. 15.

Dean of Student Affairs C. C. Dakil said that all students who have not paid tuition and other fees by mail by then should register, pay fees and purchase books Tuesday.

Persons wishing to apply for advanced placement tests or financial aids should do so between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday and Tuesday at the college administrative office, 1801 W. Wall St., Dakil continued.

Concerning the Tuesday night registration, Dakil emphasized: "Even if a person has never contacted Midland College before, he or she can complete the entire registration process at Lee High School on Tuesday night."

"Counselors will be available for consultation and students may complete applications for admission and can fill out forms allowing the college to write for their transcript from the last school they attended. This will allow a student to begin classes on time."

"College board examinations also may be taken later," Dakil said.

"Students interested in applying for scholarships, loans, grants or college work-study employment should telephone the college office at 683-3321 for an appointment with financial aids director Dale Stuckey Monday or Tuesday.

"We still have several work-study positions and scholarships, grants and loans available to qualifying students," Dakil said.

Students wishing to take the advanced placement examinations should contact testing director Dee Windsor.

"A student who successfully completes an advanced placement test within three weeks from the start of a class may skip the class, receive credit for it and be transferred to a subsequent course," Dakil noted.

Students whose last name begins with a letter between "A" and "L" should register between 6 and 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at LHS, while the "M" through "Z" students sign up between 7:30 and 9.

Dakil noted that about half the 520 students are registered for spring classes have taken advantage of a new program allowing them to pay fees by mail and skip the Tuesday night registration.

"Those who mail in their fees by Tuesday also may skip registration," Dakil said.

"But anyone who has not yet paid fees, whether pre-registered or not should register Tuesday to save the late registration penalty," the student affairs dean reminded.

The 520 pre-registration total is a spring record for the college, up from 469 a year ago. Officials are expecting final enrollment to top the spring record of 1,062 set last spring. There were 1,135 students in the 1972 fall term classes.

Midland College To Ask Law Change On Fees Of Attending Two Schools

Midland College president Dr. Al G. Langford said Friday that changes in state law regarding college enrollment fees will be sought to allow students to enroll simultaneously in more than one institution without being required to pay double sets of minimum fees.

The need for the law change, he said, is being pointed up both by plans for a Lamesa Community College Center and by the opening of The University of Texas of the Permian Basin.

He said he expects the Texas Junior College Association to seek changes in law to allow exceptions for minimum fees for students enrolling in more than one institution at the same time.

Existing law providing no such exception put a snag Thursday in plans for Midland College and Howard County Junior College to offer jointly courses in Lamesa public school facilities at the request of the Lamesa public schools and the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce. Officials of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, advised against the joint operation at Lamesa until the law can be changed. Dr. Langford said.

Meanwhile, however, "Howard County Junior College will go ahead with plans for courses at Lamesa this spring and Midland College, hopefully, can join the program next fall." Lamesans will pay all the cost of the extension center operations, and students there could receive credit toward degrees at either MC or HCJC under the joint operation plan.

The prospect for students needing to finish up some junior college work while also entering an upper level institution such as UTPB also is being considered, Dr. Langford continued.

Present law requires 60 hours of college credit before a student can be admitted to UTPB and the seven other upper level institutions being established in Texas.

"A provisional admittance procedure is needed which would allow, for example, a student with 66 hours credit to take the final course or two he needs at a junior college and at the same time begin courses at the upper level institution," Dr. Langford said.

Bulls Stampede

By DAVID BURKE

The bulls went on a minor stampede during the first week of the new year, as stock market prices soared to new highs. Virtually all of the buying was focused on the blue chips.

Except for a brief pause on Thursday, prices rose sharply throughout the holiday-abbreviated week. At Friday's close, the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials stood at a new all-time high of 1047.49, up 27.47 points from a week earlier. The previous Dow record had come two days earlier, when the average closed at 1043.80.

Market averages indicated that the gains did not sweep through the breadth of the market. The New York Stock Exchange index of more than 1,400 common stocks, for example, was up only 0.89 on the week to 85.37. However, of the 1,965 issues traded on the Big Board, 1,239 advanced and 545 declined.

On the American Stock Exchange, the price change index rose 0.32 to 26.68, with advances topping declines by 89: to 302 of the 1,358 issues traded. The five most-active were: Champion Home Builders, down 1 1/2%; Teleprompter, down 2 1/2%; Great Basin Petroleum up 3/4 to 3 1/2%; SynTex, up 1/2 to 2; and Kingsford, up 2 to 19 1/2.

In over-the-counter trading the NASDAQ composite index closed at 135.91 for a gain of 1.68, versus 57.78 million shares.

Market Trends

Big Board volume for the four-day week was 77.28 million, versus 57.78 million shares. The Associated Press 60-stock average was up 4.6 to 346.0 while Standard & Poor's 500-stock index gained 1.82 to 210.19.

'Perfume' May Lick Bollworm

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — A chemical "perfume" that sexually excites and then confuses pink bollworm moths could signal doom for the pest that has scourged the cotton industry, says a researcher.

"The idea is that the male smells females everywhere, and the poor guy moth is lost," Dr. Harry Shorey, a University of California at Riverside insect expert, said Friday. "The 'perfume,' called hexalure, affects male moths much the same way as an yet un- identified chemical secreted by the females, Shoey said. The entomologist said the odor is the only way a bollworm moth can identify a female and know she's ready to mate. To humans the chemical has only a faint odor, he said. Males Become Confused

When hexalure was placed in test fields last year, the males became confused and were unable to conceive and produce the three- to four- inch worms that eat away at the cotton bolls, Shoey said. The worms mature into moths. The moths, which gradually spread across the west from Texas, caused an estimated $1 million damage last year to California's cotton crop, the nation's second largest behind Texas.

Shorey explained his re- search to the California Cotton Pest Control Board meeting here. Seven members, most of them cotton farmers, authorized about $50,000 to help Shorey continue his research. Technique Not Perfected Shorey said the money is a little less than half of the total he expects to spend on the project this year. Shorey said he hopes to apply the hexalure to stakes placed around cotton fields in the Coachella Valley. In experiments last year, he said the moth population was "drastically reduced."

"It is not a finished technique, it's still a system being researched," Shorey said. Among other problems, he said, is the high cost of hexalure. At $40 an ounce, it is more ex- pensive than most perfumes used by humans. However, Shorey said the price could drop about 10 times if a demand existed for hexalure, which reportedly has no use other than cotton pest research.

THIS TIME, HE MISSED — The mounted deer's head in Katherine Brewer's Estate House in Dallas continues to stare out the window with its customary glassy-eyed aplomb despite being the target of a potshot by a stray hunter. AS RESULT OF BOMBING— State Of Emergency Called Throughout North Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — A state of emergency has been declared in North Vietnam as a result of massive American bombing last month of the nation's industrial and governmental centers of Hanoi and Haiphong. Radio Hanoi, in a broadcast Saturday, suggested that the devastation wrought by the bombs had forced Premier Pham Van Dong to decree the emergency program. The purpose of the emergency, the broadcast said, is to stabilize "production activities and the people's living conditions in areas hit by U.S. bombs."

San Angelo Doctor Found Shot Fatally

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — Prominent physician Dr. Aubrey L. Lewis, 75, was found shot to death Friday night behind Emergency Hospital here. Justice of the Peace O. W. Evans said Lewis had been shot once in the head, and ordered an autopsy. Police said the doctor had been robbed but a money belt on his body had not been dis- turbed.

USSR Flight Tests Giant New Missile

By FRED S. HOFFMAN WASHINGTON (AP) — The Russians have conducted what some U.S. intelligence experts believe was the first successful flight test of a big and improved new missile with inter- continental range. Military sources said the new missile is about as big as the giant Soviet SS9 and probably incorporates advances over that weapon. The SS9 already is regarded as a possible threat to knock out U.S. land-based Minutemen missiles in a sur- prise attack. The SS9 is Russia's most ac- curate missile, but U.S. experts said the Soviets have been working to improve both the ac- curacy and reliability of their long-range weapons. More definite conclusions

Grand Jury To Hear 30 Cases

The Midland County Grand Jury may consider three murder cases when it convenes Tuesday. About 30 cases are expected to be presented. Among others, cases include four robberies, five burglaries, five of possession of marijuana and one of statutory rape. The murder cases expected to come up are those of Jasper McKee, Julius Jones and Sar- my Rodriguez. McKee is charged in the Oct. 21 shooting death of Laura Ann Moore, killed at the tavern she owned.

Texans Donate Redwood Grove

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The California Department of Parks and Recreation announced Saturday that Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hardberger of San Antonio, Tex., are donating a redwood grove to the state of California. The gift was set up through the Save-the-Redwoods League and the trees are in Humboldt County. They will be added to the Humboldt Redwoods State Park, the announcement said.

Alabama Pays Bet In Broken Wishbones

CULLMAN, Ala. (AP) — The Alabama Poultry and Egg Association said Saturday it "regretfully" paid off a wager by Gov. Wallace by sending 50 wishbones to Texas Gov. Preston Smith.

Wallace bet Smith 50 wishbones Alabama would beat Texas in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1. Texas won 20-17.

Joe Jones, president of the poultry group, said all 50 wishbones were broken because "broken seems to be the current status of the Alabama wishbone attack."

Jones, an Auburn University alumnus, recommended that Wallace give greater consideration to his alma mater in the future. Auburn beat Colorado 24-3 Dec. 30 in the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla.

"It certainly would have been much more enjoyable to receive some Colorado buffalo steaks than to give up 50 delicious-succulent Alabama 'chicken wishbones,'" Jones said.

Irish Peace Bid Fizzles

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — An olive branch sprouted briefly between Northern Ireland's Protestants and Roman Catholics Saturday, but it swiftly withered away. The Provisional wing of the Irish Republican Army issued a statement welcoming the Ulster Defense Association's declaration of war on sectarian killers and offering to talk with lead- ers of the Protestant organ- ization. But a UDA spokesman quickly rejected the IRA's sugges- tion for "joint patrols" to pro-

Euromarket Panel Gives Major Office To Briton

BRUSSELS (AP) — The ex- panded Common Market's executive commission met offi- cially for the first time Satur- day and gave its key foreign af- fairs post to a man from Brit- ain, one of the three new mem- ber nations. Sir Christopher Soames was appointed commissioner of ex- ternal affairs for the nine- country trading bloc. He will be responsible for dealings with the world's industrialized countries and Latin America, and for ne- gotiations in the General Agree- ment on Tariffs and Trade. GATT.

German Gets Post Another key job went to Wil- helm Haferkamp of West Ger- many. He was appointed com- missioner of economic and monetary affairs. Other com- missions were distributed among the member nations during the six-hour meeting.

Soames is a member of Brit- ain's ruling Conservative party. George Thompson, a British Laborite also on the commis- sion, will be in charge of re- gional policy for increasing the prosperity of poorer areas with- in the Common Market. The commission president, Francois Xavier Ortoli of France, will be in charge of se- curity, legal matters and the commission's general secretar- iat. "We will insist on team- work," Ortoli told news- men. "There will be no game preserves." Some officials say there has been too little cooperation among the department in the past—with agriculture, for ex- ample, constituting special, un- touchable areas within the or- ganization.

Two Potential Jurors Disqualified For Talking

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A man and a woman will not serve on the Pentagon Papers trial jury because a young defense team volunteer talked to them about the case outside of court.

The male panelist admitted in court that he started the conversation by inviting the defense worker, a young girl, to have coffee with him.

The government called the incident deliberate "jury tampering." The defense said it was an "innocent" blunder by a girl who had volunteered to help them only two days before.

U.S. District Court Judge Matt Byrne said he would continue investigating the matter on Monday when he plans to question the girl in open court. She has been advised to retain a lawyer to represent her.

The girl's identity was not disclosed. The defense would say only that she is probably a minor.

The incident came to light Friday during the third day of jury selection in the trial of Daniel Ellsberg and Anthony Russo.

During routine questioning, panelist Phyllis Hilts revealed she had been approached by the girl volunteer while eating lunch at the cafeteria in a county building.

Ellsberg, 41, and Russo, 35, former researchers on government projects, are charged with espionage, conspiracy and theft in connection with the leak to news media of top secret documents detailing U.S. involvement in the Vietnam war.

Constitutional Revision Big Issue

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Constitutional revision is one of the big issues facing the 63rd Texas Legislature, which convenes Tuesday. This is the final article in an 11-part series based on an AP survey.)

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Constitutional Convention is still a year away, but the legislature must concern itself with it immediately if it wants to do a decent job.

The voters said on Nov. 7 that the legislature should sit as a constitutional convention beginning Jan. 8, 1974. Before it does that however, it must create a constitutional revision commission to make recommendations to the convention.

Already, several bills have been filed that spell out how large the commission should be, how it should be appointed and how it should be paid.

Obviously, the commission needs as much lead time as possible for a job this big, and there will be pressure to accelerate the legislative process on all proposals for the commission's creation.

There seems to be considerable sentiment for a complete rewrite of the 1876 Texas Constitution, which creeps under the weight of 55,000 words and more than 200 amendments.

Nearly 60 per cent of the lawmakers who answered an Associated Press questionnaire said they favored a complete rewrite of the constitution. Others supported limited revision.

Many want it to include a pay raise for legislators and annual sessions of the legislature.

Rep.-elect Paul Ragsdale of Dallas suggested an annual salary of $15,000 for representatives and senators.

Others think legislative pay should be left up to the legislature and not written into the constitution.

The lieutenant governor, the speaker of the House and all senators and representatives make $4,800 a year.

Sen.-elect John Traeger of Sequin called this a disgrace.

And Rep. E. L. Short of Tahoka said a pay increase "would do more for Texas than all the ethics" legislation proposals.

Several legislators said annual sessions should be divided between budget matters one year and general legislative work in alternate years.

Actually, a complete rewrite of the constitution is impossible. The amendment approved last November provides that the Bill of Rights in the present constitution shall be preserved intact.

In addition to that some legislators expressed a go-slow attitude.

"Any steps to revise our constitution must fully insure that those intrinsic values now incorporated therein will remain," said Rep. William Blythe Jr. of Houston.

War May Cost Extra $2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — An additional $2 billion may be needed this fiscal year to pay for the air war over Indochina, the Pentagon says.

This would bring the total cost of the war for fiscal 1973 to about $8 billion, well below the peak annual cost of about $20 billion in the late 1960s.

Defense Department officials said Friday that at least $250 million of the extra money is attributable to aircraft lost over North Vietnam during recent stepped-up air raids.
