

Article On Voting Approved

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Constitution Convention took only one day to approve an article on voter qualifications and elections that includes controversial language on ex-prisoners and on a property ownership requirement in tax bond elections.

Debate started today on the article on the executive. The convention argued over an article on education for two and a half weeks before agreeing on the final version. With Surprising Ease.

The voter qualifications and elections article sailed through with surprising ease.

After a convicted felon has served his time and is no longer on probation or parole, he would be eligible to vote.

This was an amendment to the article as proposed by the Rights and Suffrage Committee, which recommended that ex-felons be denied the right to vote, just as they are under the present constitution. The amendment passed, 94-77. Property Requirement.

The convention voted 128-37 to allow the legislature to require voters to own property before they could vote in tax bond elections.

Rural delegates persuaded the convention to change its mind about allowing the legislature to require voter-signed stubs on paper ballots.

Rep. R. C. Nichols, D-Houston, said approximately 71,000 persons would be affected by the provision on ex-prisoners.

Rep. John Hoestebach, D-Odessa, opposed the provision, asking, "Why should we reward a criminal who has broken the laws of our society?"

Austin Witness Against Parr Says He Has Sought Federal Protection; May Be Held In Contempt

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge Owen D. Cox threatened today to hold a witness at the income tax evasion trial of George B. Parr in contempt of court after the man blurted out that he had asked federal protection.

The witness, Carl H. Stautz, owner of Triangle Construction Co. of Austin, had been warned earlier by the judge not to make any remarks about threats.

Stautz was called as a witness against Parr, 73, charged with evading more than $129,000 in federal income taxes between 1966 and 1969.

Stautz was being questioned by Asst. U.S. Atty. Ed McDonough of Houston when he unexpectedly said, "I asked for protection."

Judge Cox then interrupted, he repeatedly invoked the Fifth Amendment against self-incrimination when he was first called before the grand jury to testify about his financial dealings with Parr.

Defense lawyer Douglas Tinker spent four hours Thursday cross-examining Stautz.

Tinker wasn't finished with the cross-examination at 6:30 p.m. Thursday when U.S. Dist. Court Judge Owen D. Cox sent the sequestered jury to its motel for the night.

Stautz, a slight, balding man, apparently began to tire late Thursday as he appeared more impatient with questions.

The Austin man said he declined to answer on constitutional grounds May 9, 1972 each time the grand jury questioned him about his financial dealings with Parr and a number of other South Texans.

The list of those Stautz said he refused to discuss included former Hidalgo County Judge Milton Richardson, Duval County Judge Archer Parr, Dist. Court Judge O.P. Carrillo of Duval County and G. Baker, former mayor of Hidalgo in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

Stautz said he took the Fifth Amendment because he was "hedging" and wanted immunity from prosecution. Stautz, whose income taxes were being investigated by the government at the time, was eventually given immunity. He said that in 1966 he paid Parr $60,000 because he didn't want $3.9 million in construction jobs in Duval County shut down.

Stautz said the first payment of $20,000 was made May 6, 1966, in the backyard of Parr's palatial home just outside San Diego, Tex.

Briscoe's Campaign Chief Tries To Block Depositions

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe's campaign manager asked a district court judge today to block the taking of depositions from 34 persons who contributed to an October fundraising dinner for the governor.

Joe Kilgore, the campaign manager, asked to stop the action planned by lawyers for Frances Farenthold, the governor's chief opponent for reelection. Kilgore asked for a hearing on his motion Monday.

Mrs. Farenthold has filed a $3.5 million civil suit alleging Briscoe received donations for this year's campaign prior to the legally required appointment of a campaign manager.

Kilgore told District Court Judge Herman Jones that Mrs. Farenthold's lawyers had served notice to take depositions from 28 persons in Dallas March 15 and 26 persons in Houston March 18.

He said a comparison of the 54 names with the list of contributors to Briscoe's Oct. 30 appreciation dinner showed that Mrs. Farenthold was "attempting to use the deposition processes of this court to conduct a systematic program of harassment of supporters of Gov. Briscoe for political purposes in violation of their rights of free speech and of association under the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution."

He said if a court found such action was justified, he would voluntarily make such records available.

Attached to Kilgore's motion was a copy of a letter from Raymond Needham, Mrs. Farenthold's lawyer, listing the depositions to be taken in Houston.

These included Herbert Frenshley, a top executive of the Brown and Root Construction Co., Hall Timanus, a George Wallace campaign manager in 1972, and Jill Devott, a frequent contributor to political races.

Needham's letter said each was being subpoenaed to produce any correspondence or records related to solicitation of campaign funds on Briscoe's behalf.

Spain, Bishop Compromise Sought

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Spain's government and the country's Roman Catholic bishops were meeting separately today to weigh the case of Bishop Antonio Anoveros amid reports the government has come up with a proposal to cool down the church-state confrontation.

Catholic sources indicated the government of Premier Carlos Arias Navarro put the proposal together Thursday after marathon sessions with church leaders. The sources gave no details and no indication of the likely reaction from the congress of bishops.

Most of the bishops were reported solidly behind their colleague.

The government kept Bishop Anoveros under house arrest for a week and threatened to indict or exile him because of a homily he distributed in his Basque diocese Feb. 24 calling for more freedom for the Basques.

Get Off Hook To Feel Better

DEAR ABBY: I was really surprised when Joyce asked me to be maid of honor for her wedding. We've been classmates for years, but go with different kids. I can't understand why she chose me. She has many much closer friends. I accepted because I didn't know how to refuse, but now I'm sorry, and I'd like to get out of it.

I've already paid Joyce's mom for the dress, but it hasn't been altered. My mom and I gave a shower for Joyce. We invited her mom, sisters, aunts and friends, and they all acted like they were slumming. They openly snubbed my mom. I had a lump in my throat the whole time.

My family says if I am in the wedding party they will go to the church only to see me, but not to the reception. My dad says he won't go at all. They didn't invite my steady boyfriend to be my escort, so I won't have anybody to talk to at the reception. At the last minute, should I say I have an illness in the family, and can't go? Or just tell them the truth?

DILEMMA D.

DEAR DILEMMA: Don't lie. Tell your friend that you have reconsidered and would like out. From what you say, she'll be as glad to get off the hook as you will.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow in my 70s and I need some advice. I have four daughters, and if I asked them, I'd get four different answers.

A few months ago I saw in the obituary column where the wife of an old boyfriend of mine died, so I waited for what I thought was a reasonable length of time and then I wrote him a note and gave him my phone number and said it would be nice to talk to him some time.

He called me up and we talked for a long time. In the conversation he said he'd like to see me again, but he hoped I wouldn't expect any "kid stuff" in the love-making department. I rather got the idea that he was trying to tell me that he was too old for that sort of thing. Well, I'm not, and if that is what he meant I don't want to waste my time with him as I don't have a whole lot of time left. How can I find out without being too blunt?

OLD BUT NOT TOO OLD

DEAR OLD: I think he was trying to tell you that as far as he was concerned, his love-making days were behind him. Whether they are is anybody's guess, but if he thinks they are, they are.

DEAR ABBY: With regard to your reference to the "law" requiring the presence of a nurse during a gynecological examination: An Irish doctor attributed it to the conceit of American women. I am a gynecologist who has practiced for 40 years, and I have always had a nurse present during examinations, but to my knowledge no law exists which requires it.

Physicians in other countries, not being fair game for any and all "suit happy" patients, may have a hard time understanding this necessary precaution. My colleagues in the U.S.A. do. And they had better! H.H.S. (M.D.)

DEAR M.D.: As I understand it, there is no such "law" — it's just a common practice among physicians. And a wise one, for obvious reasons.

Mrs. Solon Crain Presents DAR Chapter's Program

Mrs. Solon P. Crain, fifth generation Texan and member of the Col. Theunis Dey Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, presented a patriotic program, "Hero of Two Republics," for the L. William Brewer Chapter, DAR, Tuesday in the Midland Woman's Club.

Mrs. Warren L. Paller, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Crain, who spoke on her ancestor, Alexander Hodge, his family and associates. Hodge served in the Revolutionary War and later immigrated to Texas with Stephen F. Austin's Old 300 Colony, settling at Hodges Bend. The book, "Hero of Two Republics," is based on actual recorded experiences of Mrs. Crain's great-great-grandmother. She told of incidents surrounding the fall of the Alamo and Goliad from the standpoint of a 13-year-old girl.

Mrs. Charles R. McKenney, membership chairman, announced Mrs. Dean E. Wolf as a new member. The conservation chairman, Mrs. J. C. Ward, reported the chapter received a blue ribbon award for outstanding achievement in conservation.

Mrs. Ben Golladay reported the Howard County Junior College Fine Arts Department will present the program at the Midland Woman's Club luncheon March 28.

The librarian, Mrs. Donald A. Ross, reported Mrs. C. T. Gray of Austin, and her daughter, Mrs. Jack M. Shepherd, member of the chapter, have presented Mrs. Gray's book, "Partial Genealogy of the Stretcher and Mock Families," to the National Society DAR Library in Washington, D.C.

In presenting her national defense report, Dr. Dorothy Wyvell paid tribute to the vigilance of the DAR in bringing pending contentious legislation to the public's attention. She cited the Panama Canal's remaining in U.S. hands and cancellation of the Genocide Treaty. The DAR also is actively promoting repeal of the law establishing Professional Standards Review Organization, Dr. Wyvell said.

Dr. Wyvell quoted Gordon Sinclair's recent and now famous defense of the U.S. on the Canadian Broadcasting Co. as an example of an individual assuming responsibility. Guests attending were Mrs.

Who Needs A Stubborn Door?

By POLLY CRAMER
Housewife Magazine Association

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY — I would like to know what to do with a door that is hard to close during rainy weather and tends to warp. Is there something I could use to prevent this?

Also, I have a wall space that needs cleaning more often than the rest of the wall so the paint wears off quicker and the spot stands out. Tiling or other material put there would not look right. I hope someone has some ideas for me about cleaning it.—A.L.R.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with those pharmacists and/or legal drug distributors who dispense liquid medicine in containers that waste a full teaspoon while you are trying to get a teaspoonful to show down an unwilling child. At today's prices I feel that not a drop should be wasted.—MAB.

DEAR POLLY — Please tell Joyce that she will eventually ruin her chest-type freezer if she continues to pour hot water down the sides when she defrosts. This may cause the need for new rubber gaskets on the door or top and even then air gets in and defrosting is necessary more often. I have

Designer Creates Magic Carpet On Auto-Train

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some people call it a magic carpet on wheels; others refer to it as a land showboat.

The colorful, comfortable, two-year-old auto-train which carries cars as well as their passengers from this city to Florida some 900 miles away is so enjoyable many people hate to disembark.

Designed by youthful Carolyn Settles, 29, the train interior fulfills what she says was her intention: to find something in the color palette with punch that "would make them say, 'Wow!'"

Although demand for passage has accelerated during the gas shortage, the train has been a sell-out since it appeared two years ago in railroad yards 15 miles out of the nation's capital.

An expansion program is under way but Mrs. Settles points out, "It isn't easy to find old cars, and new ones are very expensive."

One train is likely to consist of a dozen coaches in addition to all the auto carriers.

Many veteran designers would have been stymied by the time element — dirty old cars had to be rejuvenated in six months — and by decisions the petite designer felt she had to make — painting the understructure purple, the train white and red and purple stripes. Interiors come in an assortment of bright colors. The buffet is yellow; coaches, red and purple; nightclub, mid-night blue, and men's lavatories, red.

Teddy Bear Has Quite A Time

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A teddy bear Walter Crumb bought in 1906 for his baby sister, Leah, is still in good health at age 67, and is enjoying its life with its fourth owner.

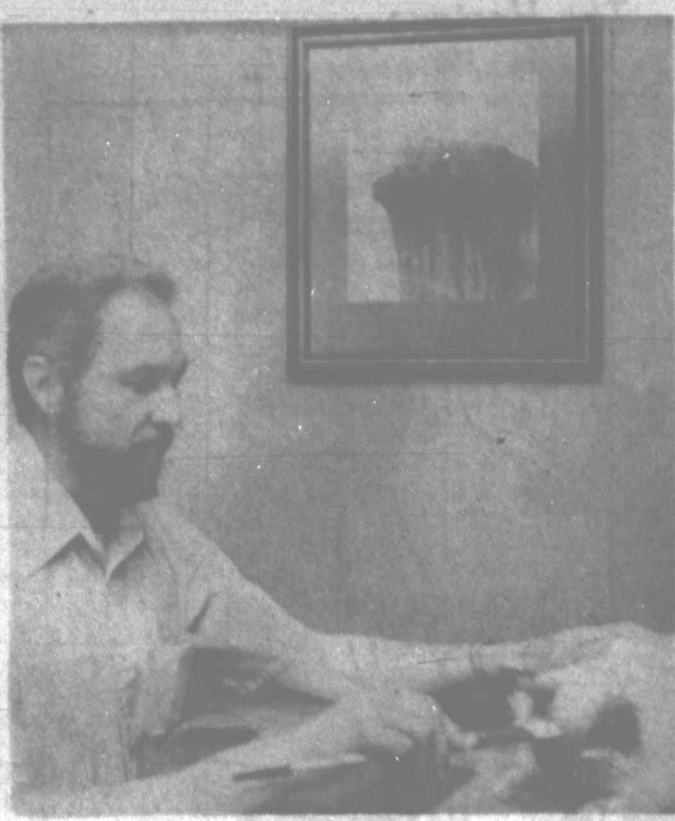

"I remember it was the biggest one the store had and cost $5. That was big money in those days," said Crumb, who is now 69 and lives in Brookings, Ore.

"She really loved that bear and took good care of it. She gave it to her daughter, Mary Lee, and she kept it and gave it to her daughter, Lynda Lee. Now Lynda has a daughter, Marilea Jean, who plays with the same teddy bear."

"The bear has new bottoms on its feet," he added. "Otherwise it's the same bear I bought that day in 1906."

The sister lives in Fond du Lac, Wis.

Cost Per Serving
To figure costs, compare cost per serving rather than cost per pound. Sometimes a boneless cut of meat that costs more per pound is a better buy than a cut that costs less per pound but has a large amount of bone and fat.

College Graduate Climbing Ladder

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — In less than a year and a half after she graduated from the Southwest University, Susan Smith became the university's business manager.

The 23-year-old graduated in June, 1972 with a B.A. in economics and business administration. In February 1973, she joined the Southwest staff as assistant business manager. Following the resignation of her male predecessor, she was named business manager in October.

"One of my biggest concerns when I first started was that some of my friends were still students here. They are my peers, my former classmates, and suddenly our relationship was different," Miss Smith said. She is former Miss Southwestern, a member of Mortar Board, Phi Beta Kappa, Hall of Fame and Chi Omega sorority. Miss Smith is also listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Fishy Excuse Given By Coed

FARGO, N.D. (AP) — Margo Raymond, a fifth-year student at the College of Pharmacy of North Dakota State University, had a novel excuse for missing classes recently. She told Dean Philip Haskenson that she couldn't make it back to school in time after a term break because she was stranded on a shrimp trowler.

The coed was working on the trowler as a member of the crew when it developed engine trouble in a storm 100 miles off Florida. So she put in a ship-to-shore radio call to Meakenson, informing him of her predicament.

Paul Hanssen Exhibit Planned In Woman's Club

Paul F. Hanssen, Midland artist, will have an exhibit of paintings and drawings in the Midland Woman's Club during March.

The public is invited to an opening tea from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Sunday in the Woman's Club.

Subject matter of the work shown is largely taken from the Permian Basin area. A variety of seldom seen techniques has been used by the artist to achieve intended effects. These include a wax resist watercolor process and a combination of watercolor and permanent inks on varnished paper. Water-based media, including acrylics, have been employed in these works, with emphasis on carefully detailed drawing and textures.

Woman Treats Ailing Crows

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — If a crow is sick or injured, chances are good it will be helped by a self-appointed "crow veterinarian" Naomi Kipp.

"I don't know why people started bringing hurt crows to me," Mrs. Kipp said. "I suppose because I've been available when hurt crows have been found."

In one case, Mrs. Kipp spent a year getting a crow's damaged foot repaired. In another, she and her husband kept a crow several months before an injured wing was ready for flying.

Once well, crows usually fly off, but the crow they now have probably will remain with them, she says. The bird has a tendency to land in the middle of busy traffic, and Mrs. Kipp keeps the bird's wings clipped.

FBI Confirms Use Of Disruptive Tactics Against Radical Groups

WASHINGTON (AP) — For nearly four years the FBI employed secret disruptive tactics against black militants and other radical groups. The purpose was to destroy organizations the FBI considered violence-prone and to topple their leaders from whatever power and influence they had amassed in the black and white communities, according to secret FBI memos made public Thursday.

The sheaf of documents, reluctantly released by the FBI on orders from Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, also disclosed details of similar counter-intelligence operations against the Socialist Workers party and the Ku Klux Klan.

The campaign against the Socialists began with a memo dated Oct. 12, 1961, and against the Klan with a memo dated Sept. 2, 1964. All three operations were officially terminated by a previously-released memo dated April 28, 1971.

The document instructed field agents to report counter-intelligence activities regularly, to obtain FBI headquarters approval for each operation, and to make sure "that there is no possibility of embarrassment to the bureau."

Library Chief Says LBJ Claimed Tax Deduction Only On 200,000 Papers

By PEGGY SIMPSON
WASHINGTON (AP) — The late Lyndon B. Johnson claimed income tax deductions for no more than 200,000 of some 31 million documents he donated to the government, the chief of the LBJ Library says. Library Administrator Harry Middleton denied a report that the former President probably took $29 million in tax deductions for gifts of predominantly official documents.

"total in excess of 30 million different pages."

The congressional committee is studying Nixon's tax returns, and one of the questions involved is whether the deed to his vice presidential papers was properly conveyed before repeal of the law authorizing tax deductions for such gifts.

The panel is expected to rule on that and other points in about two weeks, and Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., the chairman, has said he expects the committee will conclude that Nixon owes back taxes.

Historian and author M. B. Schnapper has said he has circumstantial evidence and confidential information indicating that Johnson took such deductions between 1965 and 1968. But Middleton said Johnson deduced 200,000 papers to the General Services Administration in 1967 and 1968, but retained title to the bulk of his papers until his death in 1973. His will bequeathed those papers, including those reflecting his service in the Senate and as

WANTS ASSETS LISTED—

Sissy Says Briscoe Should Make Income Tax Return Public

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe should make public his income tax return and also list his assets and liabilities, says Frances Farenthold. Mrs. Farenthold told a news conference Thursday the governor, her opponent in the Democratic primary, should go beyond the financial disclosure law, as she will do when her 1973 income tax return is completed.

Briscoe is more active now than she is opposing him, Mrs. Farenthold said. This is true of his making appointments and seeking federal grants, she said.

"It seems to me his whole philosophy is 'As little as possible as late as possible,'" she said. "He responds rather than directs."

She cited as an example the Navy's Project Sanguine, a proposed underground antenna in the Hill Country. A file on Sanguine was sent to the governor before it became a hot issue, but "there was no response from the governor's office," she said.

"I understand now that it's over, he has come out against Sanguine. Now that it's over"

Candace Sues Third Hubby For Divorce

HOUSTON (AP) — Candace Mossler Garrison, Houston socialite, has filed a divorce suit against her third husband, Barnett Garrison.

Mrs. Garrison cited a conflict of personalities in the suit filed Thursday. She requested that her last name of Mossler be restored.

Mrs. Garrison, 53, said in the suit she and Garrison, who were married June 14, 1971, have been separated since last April 16.

Garrison, an electrical contractor, was seriously injured in a fall from the roof of their home in August 1972. The suit said he has substantially recovered and no longer needs regular medical care.

Mrs. Garrison and her nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, were acquitted of murder charges in 1966 in Miami in the death of her second husband, Jacques Mossler.

Prophecy Major Gift Of God 'Ring Around The Family' Counseling Service Play

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of feature articles appearing in The Reporter-Telegram each week through Easter Sunday.

By DAVID POLING
NEA Religion Editor

William Stringfellow is right about prophecy. It is one of the major gifts that God has given to the Christian community and probably, today, one of the most neglected. The role of prophet was one of the distinctive qualities of the Hebrew faith. It was the first designation given to Jesus by his generation. A prophet spoke for God to the people of the day. Events were also foretold, anticipated by true prophets. In the fullest sense, it is the application of Divine Truth to the human situation.

When St. Paul draws his list of leadership for the Christian Church in his letter to the Corinthians, he says, first apostles, then prophets. After the word of God has been brought to people it requires interpretation and application. Through the centuries the Christian community has had prophets discerning the signs of the times. And wherever Christians have gathered, when true to the Gospel and desirous of its application to life, prophets have appeared.

It was true in the 16th century, in Scotland, Jasper Ridley once wrote that for the average European, "Scotland was a weird, barbaric land, inhabited in the north by wild Scots and savages, and ending in a great field of stone and ice, where nothing grew." In this unlikely, and to some, unlovely, setting, John Knox ignited the flame of Protestant worship and Presbyterian belief. He blended a dangerous mixture, religion and politics and for a time served as a galley slave under French imprisonment.

As pastor, preacher and prophet, Knox believed himself called of God to proclaim the independence of church against state, if the ruler or government sought to subvert the teachings of Christ. It was a daring, risky concept. Calvin taught but it was for Knox to reap the harvest — one later to be fully planted in America.

Knox shook kingdoms and empires when he said: "Now the common song of all men is, 'We must obey our kings, be that good or be they bad; for God hath so commanded.'"

"But horrible shall the vengeance be that shall be poured forth upon such blasphemers of God's holy name and ordinance. For it is no less blasphemy to say that God hath commanded kings to be obeyed when they command impiety, than to say that God by His precept is author and maintainer of all iniquity."

True it is, God hath commanded kings to be obeyed, but like true it is, that in things which they commit against His glory, or when cruelly without cause rage against their brethren, the members of Christ's body, He hath commanded no obedience, but rather He hath approved, yea, and greatly rewarded such as have opposed themselves to their ungodly commandments and blind rage."

Knox stood in the great line of Christian prophets, following the apostles in service.

"Ring Around The Family" is the title of the 1974 "Play for Living" sponsored by the Midland Family Counseling Service.

The production, fourth in the "Plays for Living" series to be presented here, is having performances before church and civic groups and other organizations during the current year. The production features Midland Community Theatre actors.

The 1974 play deals with relationships within the family and the problems that arise from them. Following performances, audiences are encouraged to participate in open discussions on the subject of the play.

The production is directed by Mary Anne Gardiner, who also directed the two previous "Plays for Living" here. Cast members include Becky Huff, Kimberly Floyd, Biff Taylor, Dan Macklem and Jim Walker.

"Ring Around The Family" had a recent presentation for members of the board of the Family Counseling Service. Mrs. James Purvis is the new president of the board, and other 1974 officers include Tony Hall, vice president; Mrs. Robert Mann, secretary, and Robert Myers, treasurer. James Alsop is a new board member. Anthony Rao is the executive director of the Family Counseling Service.

Clubs and organizations interested in booking a performance of "Ring Around The Family" are invited to contact the Counseling Service office at 683-4241, to make arrangements.

The Rev. Forrest K. Whitworth has announced his resignation as associate minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Midland to accept a call issued by the First Presbyterian Church of Bryan to become its pastor.

He will conclude his ministry here the last of this month, and he and Mrs. Whitworth will move to Bryan the first of April.

A congregational meeting of the church here will be held following the Sunday morning worship service, to act on the resignation.

During his Tall City residence Mr. Whitworth has served as president of the Midland Ministerial Association, Midland Council of Churches, and the Midland Presbyterian Corporate Ministry. He also has served as moderator of the former Presbytery of the Southwest, now Tres Rios Presbytery.

Mr. Whitworth was the coordinator of the Christmas International House, which he helped establish here. He also served on the boards of the Family Counseling Service, Midland Council on Alcoholism, Tape Lending Library, and other church-related organizations.

Mrs. Whitworth is a well-known portrait artist.

The Hard Travelers, a vocal group at Lubbock Christian College, will be heard in a musical program tonight in Golf Course Road Church of Christ here.

The ensemble is sponsored by the LCC admissions office, and is made up of three students at the college, one of whom, David Branson, is from Midland. The others are Mark Davies of Houston and Tommy Spoons of Austin.

The Hard Travelers, originally organized in 1966, serves as a student recruiting aid at LCC. The trio performs at youth rallies, summer camps and similar gatherings. In their appearance here, they will provide entertainment at an annual teacher appreciation banquet at the Golf Course Road Church. The ensemble's programs range from contemporary popular numbers to inspirational hymns.

Lubbock Christian College is a fully-accredited senior college offering liberal arts as well as pre-professional study programs.

Senate Sends Minimum Wage Hike Measure To House For Second Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate for the second time in this Congress has passed a bill raising the minimum wage from $1.60 to $2.20 an hour for 56 million U.S. workers.

Sponsors said this time, however, they believed there was a fair chance either President Nixon would sign the legislation or that his veto could be overridden.

Nixon vetoed the 1973 bill, almost identical to the one passed Thursday, and was sustained in the House by a comfortable 23-vote margin.

Some Republican Shifts — But a number of Republicans who voted to uphold him last year reportedly have changed their minds.

The 69-to-22 vote sent the legislation to the House, where a Labor subcommittee already has approved a similar measure.

Its version would fix an eventual $2.30 minimum but its steps would be more gradual than under the Senate bill.

SDEC Approval To Be Asked On Ethics Commission Poll

AUSTIN (AP) — The State Democratic Executive Committee will be asked Monday to approve a statewide poll on creation of a state ethics commission composed entirely of private citizens.

Joe Batson of Amarillo and C. J. Carl of Austin, both members of the state Democratic committee, said Thursday they will offer the resolution when the SDEC meets March 11 in Dallas.

The committee is scheduled to take up certification of Democratic candidates for the May 4 primary, determine the site of the Sept. 17 state party convention and consider requests for referendums for the May 4 primary ballot. Backers of horse race betting have already announced they will present a petition containing almost 200,000 signatures for a ballot on that issue.

Batson and Carl said their resolution will ask that the following proposition be placed on the ballot:

(For or against) "The creation of an independent State Ethics Commission, composed of citizen members, to administer and enforce the ethics campaign finance disclosure and lobby control statutes enacted by the regular session of the 63rd Legislature (1973)."

Family Weekly Article Features 'Age Of Shortages'

"America in the 'Age of Shortages'" is the title of a feature article appearing in the current issue of Family Weekly, the magazine section included each Sunday with The Reporter-Telegram.

The author, a Britisher, explains why America still is better off than Europe when it comes to shortages.

Other features include: "Burt Bacharach Talks About Music, Racehorses and (First, Last and Always) Angles"; "Why Some People Say 'Ouch' and Others Don't" (a quiz), and "What in the World!"

"Make These One-Dish Dinners in Less Than 45 Minutes!" is the subject of the Foodshelf Cookbook.

State Department Chimes — The Department of State was presented several years ago with a six-foot clock made in 1776 at Norwich, Conn., that chimes six different tunes.

The tunes, in vogue at the time of the American Revolution, range from such titles as "Shady Bowers" and "Lass of Patty's Mill" to a minuet by Handel.

Energy Officials Still Think Daylight Savings Is Helping

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal energy officials say they think year-around Daylight Saving Time is helping to save some fuel in the energy crisis, but the final verdict is not yet in.

Energy chief William E. Simon estimated last January that the nation would save some 150,000 barrels of oil daily during the winter months because of the resumption of Daylight Saving Time Jan. 6.

No Reliable Measurement — Simon's experts still have no reliable measurement of the fuel-saving effects of daylight saving time but they say it does help. They also say it does not appear to have caused any increase in pre-dawn traffic fatalities.

Douglas C. Bauer, deputy assistant director of energy conservation in the Federal Energy Office, said in an interview that electric power generation appeared to be, on average, about 3 per cent lower than usual during the last two weeks, but it was not clear how much of that saving was due to light saving time during the winter was to spread demand for electricity more evenly throughout the day.

Bauer said some peak-shifting has been reported since daylight saving returned by the Potomac Electric Power Co., Florida Power and Light, Consolidated Edison Co., Wisconsin Power and Light, and Southern California Edison Co.

Few Morning Fatalities — Meanwhile, the National Safety Council has reported that the change back to DST "has had little or no effect on the number of early morning fatalities among school-age children."

A few morning traffic deaths were publicized after DST took effect, but the council said it had surveyed all 50 states and the District of Columbia last January and found no significant increase compared with January 1973.

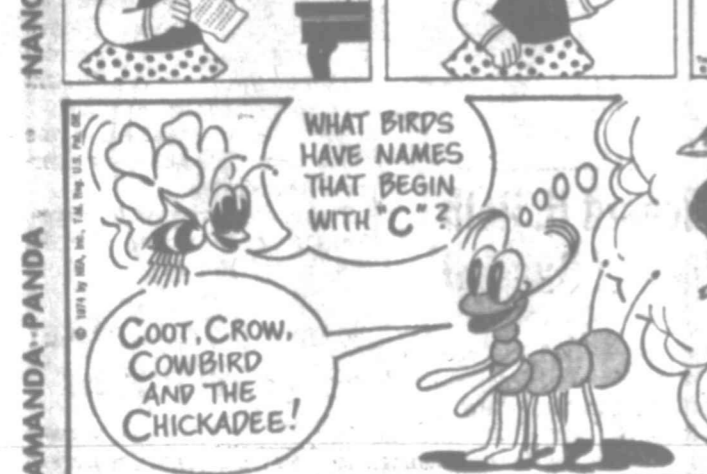

The Transportation Department, reporting on total traffic deaths among pedestrians and bicycle riders, actually found a decrease last January from January 1973.

Texans To Get More Gasoline

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — Texas will be getting a good deal more gasoline than before but Gov. Dolph Briscoe says the situation will remain tight.

The Federal Energy Office announced Thursday that Texas supplies of gasoline will increase 119.7 million gallons this month above the February allocation of 538.1 million gallons.

This will make the March allocation for the state 657.8 million gallons but, according to Briscoe, there will be "a continuing tight situation and a short supply."

John Denver Very Calm About Fate Of Tv Show Pilot

By JERRY BUCK
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Television is an exciting opportunity, but not something I need to do. I need to try it. But if I can't do it I have other things."

So said singer John Denver, who may be one of the calmest persons around during this uneasy time of pilots and next fall's schedules.

His pilot, "The John Denver Show," airs Monday night on ABC and comes at a time when variety shows are at their low ebb. ABC doesn't have a single variety show on the air at this time and hasn't since the Julie Andrews shot last year and the Burns and Schrier show last summer.

Variety is in such a low state now that only four regular shows are on the air — Sonny and Cher, Carol Burnett, Dean Martin and "Music Country USA." At this time it is uncertain whether Sonny and Cher will return; Cher Bono and her husband and singing partner, Sonny Bono, are having marital problems.

Denver could bring a breath of mountain air if his show is selected. Denver, 30, lives in Aspen, Colo., with his wife, Annie, and commutes to his appearances. He said he plans to continue living in the mountains even if he does a weekly show.

"Anytime I'm not working I want to be in the mountains," he said. "I don't like the city. I'm lucky that my work is all over the country and I can live where I choose. It helps with my songs. So many of the songs I've written come from my feelings about the mountains."

He's also made dramatic appearances on "Owen Marshall" and "McCloud."

Songs like "Rocky Mountain High," "Take Me Home, Country Roads," "Sunshine on My Shoulder" and "Eagle and the Hawk" will be on the special.

Denver was born Henry John Deuschendorf in Roswell, N.M., but he lived in many places as his Air Force father was transferred around the world.

"In junior high school my grandmother gave me a guitar and a natural extension of that is you begin writing songs."

He's been at it since.

Bell, Museum Cooperating To Make Barricade Pretty

The Museum of the Southwest is coordinating a project which will result in a colorful and interesting transformation of the wooden barricade around its new building site.

Museum director Ron Deane announced that 24 sections of the construction barricade will be made available for art groups to paint a scene on the theme "Midland: Past, Present or Future."

Awards of $50 each will be made to the murals judged best in the following divisions: elementary schools, junior high, senior high, colleges and other.

In addition, an award of $50 will be made to the best overall mural.

Each section of the construction barricade is eight feet high and about 16 feet long. Paint will be supplied by the sponsors in the colors designated by the entrants and brushes also will be provided. Holes for viewing the construction may be bored or cut to specification, provided no safety hazard is created.

Deane noted that he felt the barricade art project is worthwhile and of community interest because the barricade will be in place for up to two years and the project will turn an unattractive object into an item of interest for Midlanders.

Construction site of the new $17 million Southwestern Bell Telephone building is at Big Spring and Missouri streets. Interested persons or groups may contact Deane at 683-2882. Entry deadline is March 22 and murals should be completed by April 22.

Nordeman Elected Symphony President

Kenneth W. Nordeman, Midland attorney, was elected president of the Midland Symphony Association Thursday.

He will take office May 1 along with these other officers: Mrs. Lloyd Innerarity, first vice president; James P. Boldrick, second vice president; Mrs. George Houston, secretary, and Wayne E. Ulrich, treasurer.

Nordeman is vice president of the association this year. Mrs. Houston is filling out an unexpired term as secretary and Ulrich is re-elected as treasurer. Mrs. Innerarity currently is president of the Midland Symphony Guild.

The outgoing president, who has served two terms, is Harry W. Clark. Clark on May 1 will become co-chairman of Midland-Odessa Symphony and Choral Inc., the governing body for the two musical aggregations. Clark succeeds LaDoyce Lambert in this post which is co-chaired with a representative from the Odessa Symphony Association.

New directors of the Midland Symphony Association will be elected at the organization's annual meeting in April.

Arabs Still Undecided On Oil Meeting

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — The Arab oil countries still have not agreed where and when their oil ministers will meet to take up Egypt's proposal that they lift their embargo on shipments to the United States, an official of the Egyptian oil ministry said Thursday night.

The official said the Arab governments were holding last-minute consultations to set a time and place for the meeting. The meeting was originally scheduled for Feb. 14 in Tripoli, Libya. But Egyptian President Anwar Sadat obtained a postponement so he could do more lobbying for his proposal to end the restrictions against the United States.

Egypt said this week that the meeting would be held Sunday and had been shifted to Cairo because an industrial fair in Tripoli made hotel accommodations scarce in the Libyan capital.

Then Algeria, whose President Houari Boumediene is the current chairman of the Arab League, announced Thursday that it would not move the meeting from Tripoli. It added that the meeting might be postponed until next Wednesday, March 13.

Arab conferences often reflect the views of host countries, and since Libyan President Moammar Khadafi is strongly opposed to any easing of the embargo, observers speculated that Sadat's proposal would have less chance of success at a meeting in Tripoli. The Egyptian oil ministry official said such speculation was "premature and untrue."

Algeria also opposes resumption of oil shipments to the United States. Sources close to Algerian Energy Minister Be-laid Abdesslem said he vetoed Egypt's invitation to hold the meeting in Cairo because he was angered by Sadat's promises to Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger to try to end the ban.

Sadat has been urging the Arab oil producers to lift the embargo in appreciation for Kissinger's work in getting Israeli troops to withdraw from the Suez Canal and his efforts toward a troop disengagement pact between Syria and Israel.

There have been reports that Kuwait, Saudi Arabia and the Persian Gulf sheikdoms might side with Sadat. But the chief Arab supplier of oil to the United States, King Faisal of Saudi Arabia, has made no public retreat from his stand that he will not start shipping to America until Israel agrees to give up all occupied Arab territory, and particularly Old Jerusalem, with its Moslem holy places.

Wild Weather Hits Parts Of Nation's Interior

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunderstorms, high winds and hail hit parts of the nation's interior today, and a late winter storm bombarded Southern California.

Although springlike temperatures prevailed through the night from the middle Mississippi Valley to the Atlantic Coast, thunderstorm activity extended from Northwest Texas into the central Plains and Mississippi Valley to the Ohio Valley and the Appalachians.

Hail the size of golf balls pelted Limpscomb, Tex., Thursday night.

During the early morning hours, a tornado was sighted south of Topeka, Kan., and winds of 70 miles per hour swept an area north of Kansas City.

The West Coast storm, moving eastward slowly, was expected to dump as much as five inches of snow in the mountains of Southern California. Travel advisories were issued in the mountain areas, and gale warnings were posted along the coast.

Snow also fell in Montana and North Dakota, where Williston received an inch of new snow overnight.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 10 at Cut Bank, Mont., to 76 at Miami.

Atty. Gen. Hill Lists Net Worth Near $3 Million

AUSTIN (AP) — Atty. Gen. John Hill says that in addition to his $33,000 state salary he has income from oil and gas properties, ranching operations and from stocks and bonds.

Hill, who filed his financial statement Thursday, listed his net worth as $2,966,319.

The attorney general said his wife had independent and separate sources of income from oil properties in Young and Archer counties and from cattle operations.

Hill said that his stocks included 3,095 shares worth $108,325 in American Bank & Trust, 4,229 shares valued at $114,200 in Allied Bancshares, Houston, plus smaller holdings in American Can Co., Bache and Co., Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp., Memorial Bank, Houston; Sherwin Williams, and Town & Country Bank, Houston.

Hill listed $425,000 in certificates of deposits in Houston banks.

His real estate holdings included one-sixth interest in Fort Crockett apartments, Galveston, valued at $250,000; five per cent interest in One Shell Square, New Orleans; $600,000; and oil and gas leases in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana worth $125,000.

Barclay, Brookmole Added To J.A. Board Of Directors

C. Winston Barclay and Royce Brookmole are new additions to the board of directors of Junior Achievement of Midland Inc. Barclay, Western Division manager of Texas Electric Service Co., has been active in civic affairs here for a number of years. He is a past president of the Midland Chamber of Commerce and the Industrial Foundation of Midland Inc. Brookmole, district manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., has been in Midland less than a year, but he already is active in numerous civic endeavors.

Robert H. Meyers, J. A. president, said the additions bring the number of board members to 29.

Pasadena Youngster Will Try For Reinstatement To Kindergarten Monday

PASADENA, Tex. (AP) — a birth defect causing his head to be unusually elongated and his ears to lie at an angle about an inch lower than normal. "I am shocked that educators couldn't bend a little bit for a child," Mrs. Epperson said. School officials say they have to apply the same rules to everybody.

The Epperson had filed suit in district court in an effort to have Billy reinstated. However, District Court Judge William N. Blanton said he could not rule because the Eppersons had not appealed their case to the school board before filing suit.

He then suggested they have a professional stylist trim the boy's hair "in a way that will enhance his appearance, yet will come as close to the code as possible" as a compromise attempt with Harvey before appealing to the board.

After Harvey refused to reinstate Billy even after the hair trim, the Eppersons appealed to Richard Moore, assistant superintendent in charge of elementary schools. Moore upheld Harvey's decision.

"The principal and I cannot make exceptions to board policy," Moore said.

Mrs. Epperson said Billy has

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS — An 8-year-old Long Island boy kidnaped as he walked home from school Wednesday was released unharmed early today after a ransom was paid, authorities said.

Officials refused to reveal the amount of the ransom, but there were reports it amounted to $50,000.

John Calzadilla of Dix Hills, N.Y., walked into a Holiday House restaurant on the New Jersey Turnpike near Secaucus about 1:10 a.m. after being released from a black sedan, authorities said.

"The boy is fine. I thank the FBI for a fine job," said Michael Calzadilla, the youth's father, in a brief statement. Calzadilla is a tire salesman.

The boy, appearing in good spirits, was cradled in his father's arms in the back seat of a car. "I feel fine," John told newsmen.

The boy said he thought he had been held captive in a hotel or motel but did not know the locality.

The boy also said there were three people in the black sedan that let him off in front of the restaurant — two men and a red-headed woman, Cox said.

In developments on other recent kidnappings: —Another massive distribution of free food to San Francisco Bay area poor takes place today, the fourth financed by newspaper executive Randolph A. Hearst in an effort to free his daughter, Patricia, from kidnapers. The 20-year-old coed was kidnaped by the Symbionese Liberation Army Feb. 4, and there has been no word from the kidnapers since Feb. 21.

A Ludlow Kramer, executive director of People in Need, which is handling the food distribution, said Thursday "as of today, more than 20,000 food packets costing $416,000 have been distributed."

Kramer estimated the original $2 million commitment from Hearst and the William Randolph Hearst Foundation probably would enable the handout program to continue "for another four weeks."

—A Lilburn, Ga., couple faces arraignment today on a total of nine charges stemming from the abduction of Atlanta newspaper editor Reg Murphy. A federal grand jury handed down indictments Thursday charging William A. H. Williams, 33, with extortion and six related counts. His wife, Betty Ruth, 26, was charged with aiding and abetting extortion and failing to report a crime.

Murphy, editor of The Atlanta Constitution, was released unharmed Feb. 23 after being held captive for 49 hours. The newspaper's owners paid a $700,000 ransom.

—In Roanoke, Va., Betty Ann Van Balen, kidnaped Wednesday and released Thursday after payment of a $25,000 ransom, says one of her abductors formerly worked for her husband. Mrs. Balen's sister reported. The FBI today refused comment on the report. The kidnapers remained at large. The FBI said Thursday night that they were looking for a man and a woman. Mrs. Van Balen was released in West Virginia, and local authorities were checking motels and hotels in the Fayetteville and Charleston areas for the two suspects.

Hanoi To Release Last Of POWs' Bodies

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnam will turn over to the United States next Wednesday the remains of the last 11 American prisoners who died in captivity during the war, the United States Embassy announced.

This will account for the remains of all 23 prisoners whom Hanoi says died in captivity. Two days ago, North Vietnam turned over the remains of 12

Americans. But the United States says North Vietnam still holds the body of one B52 crewman reported to have died in the crash of his plane.

A spokesman for the U.S. Embassy said Wednesday's schedule would be similar to that carried out two days ago. Twelve silver-colored metal caskets draped with new American flags were flown from Hanoi on a U.S. C130 transport to U Tapao Air Base in southern Thailand and taken to the Army's central identification laboratory for positive identification.

Military officials declined to estimate how long it would take before the studies are completed, families and the public are notified and the remains are sent to the United States for burial.

Made Wrong Choice? In 1920, both political parties were seeking Herbert Hoover as their presidential candidate, but he couldn't decide which of the parties to join. He made his decision to join the Republican party in late March, but was defeated in his bid for the nomination by Warren Harding.

Terps, Tar Heels Cruise Into Semis

By HOWARD SMITH AP Sports Writer

Maryland cruised into the semifinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference basketball tournament Thursday night and Terps Coach Lefty Driesell liked what he saw.

"Our players think they can beat anyone in this tournament," declared Driesell after his team's 85-66 rout of Duke. "We're ready for anyone."

The Terps, ranked fourth nationally, meet North Carolina, ranked sixth, tonight in one ACC semi. North Carolina State, ranked No. 1, goes against Virginia in the other semi. North Carolina eliminated Wake Forest 76-62 and Virginia got by Clemson 68-63 in other first-round games.

North Carolina State drew a bye.

John Lucas, Tom McMillen and Len Elmore were the main ingredients in the Maryland victory. Lucas had 20 points, McMillen 19 points and 13 rebounds, and Elmore 16 points and 17 rebounds. The Terps raced to a 42-26 halftime lead and coasted to their 22nd win against four losses.

North Carolina Coach Dean Smith was pleased with his club's effort but wary of Maryland.

The Tarheels, also 22-4, were led by Darrell Elston with 21 points and Bobby Jones with 15 points and 12 rebounds.

Gus Gerard scored 30 points and Wally Walker 22 to help Virginia past Clemson.

The ACC finals will be played Saturday night with the winner getting an NCAA Tournament bid.

The NCAA regionals also get underway Saturday. Penn meets Providence, St. Joseph's, Pa., faces Pittsburgh and Furman plays South Carolina in the East; Notre Dame goes against Austin Peay and Ohio University plays Marquette in the Midwest; Oral Roberts meets Syracuse and Texas faces Creighton in the Midwest; and Los Angeles State takes on Dayton and Idaho State meets New Mexico in the West.

Also, the Pacific Eight championship will be decided Saturday night when UCLA visits Southern California.

No. 18 Louisville was the only other top 20 team in action, the Cardinals dumping Detroit 89-74. Junior Bridgeman scored 22 points for the NCAA-bound winners who are 21-5.

Lionel Billingsy collected 19 points and 13 rebounds to lead Duquesne past Xavier of Ohio 73-40. It was the final game for Duke Coach Red Manning who has been named athletic director. He retires after 16 years with a 247-138 record.

Also, Houston crushed Rice 107-62, and, in a double header at Madison Square Garden, Manhattan beat Fordham 81-76 and Seton Hall outlasted St. Peter's, N.J., 94-90 in double overtime to earn a bid to the National Invitation Tournament.

USC Vs. UCLA

Trojans Out To End Long Pac-8, NCAA Rule Of Bruins

By RON ROACH

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Coach Bob Boyd of Southern California says his Trojans are overshadowed by the success of crosstown rival UCLA. But John Wooden casts a spotlight on the Trojans and sees no real weakness.

"Their talent has been overlooked a little bit," UCLA Coach Wooden said of the Trojans, who stand in the way of the Bruins' bid for an unprecedented eighth consecutive national basketball championship.

(10:30 p.m. Channel 2)

Third-ranked UCLA and seventh-ranked USC collide Saturday night at the Sports Arena to decide the Pacific-8 Conference title and who advances to NCAA playoffs. Both are 22-3 for the season, 11-2 in the Pac 8.

"I've been quite high on Danny Anderson all along," Wooden said of USC's senior guard. "They have other players we tried to recruit. People think maybe they're at USC because we didn't want them. That's not true."

What impresses Wooden most about USC, a team the Bruins beat 66-54 with a second-half rally, Feb. 2?

"They have great balance," said Wooden. "Of course, I'm a nut on balance; I'm always looking for balance — balance and quickness. They are very strong inside and outside, with their quick guards. They are strong offensively and defensively."

"I don't really believe there's a real weakness in their team. Certainly there's no weakness in talent."

Wooden and Boyd agree that the difference in the two teams is 6-foot-11 All-American center Bill Walton of UCLA. "Outside of Walton, I understand Boyd has said he wouldn't trade teams with us. We think we have the outstanding big man."

The Bruins are seven-point favorites to defeat the Trojans for the 14th time in 16 meetings since Boyd came to USC eight years ago. The Bruins are 7-0 at the Sports Arena during that period.

Huskier Hoopster Seizure Victim

SEATTLE (AP) — A University of Washington freshman has collapsed and died while competing in the Northwest AAU basketball championship game.

Roosevelt Belcher, 19, of Grand Rapids, Mich., collapsed in the title game Thursday and was dead on arrival at a local hospital, a hospital spokesman said.

Belcher, who was being red-shirted by the Huskies, was expected to join the UW varsity next year. He had had an outstanding season in the Northwest AAU Open League.

The hospital said Belcher apparently suffered a heart seizure.

What Are They Doin' In NCAA?

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — You look at the season record of the Southwest Conference champion Texas Longhorns and wonder: "What are those guys doing in the NCAA basketball playoffs?"

But the worst thing in the world the Creighton Blue Jays could do would be to take

Texas Coach Leon Black's crew as less than the imposing threat they can be when Larry Robinson and Harry Larrabee are cooking.

Independent Creighton, standing 21-6 for the season, and the Longhorns (12-14) tangle Saturday night at Denton in the second game of the NCAA first round playoffs. Oral Roberts (20-5) and Syracuse (18-6) joust in the opener at 8:10 p.m. The winners advance to the Midwestern Regional finals in Tulsa March 14 and 16.

Creighton Coach Eddie Sutton is well aware of the perils of playing a sleeping giant like Texas.

"We're certainly not taking Texas lightly even though they don't have an impressive season record," said Sutton. "They have some fine shooters in Robinson and Larrabee. It's a new ball game once you get into the playoffs. You can never tell how a team will react under tournament circumstances."

Black said everyone has been talking about how far Texas has come but added "We weren't that far away from being a solid team when we were losing, and when we were losing it wasn't by much."

Texas played a rugged non-conference schedule and posted an inglorious 1-11 ledger. The Longhorns won an independent claim to the SWC crown with an 11-3 record.

Among Creighton's victories was a 73-69 upset of tough Marquette in the Warriors' home court in Milwaukee—only Marquette's second home loss in 101 games.

Syracuse, energy crisis withstanding, travels 3,000 miles to tackle the Oral Roberts Titans in the opening game of the doubleheader at the North Texas State gymnasium.

Oral Roberts Coach Ken Truckey has hinted this might be his last year with the Titans—one of the stronger independents in the Midwest. The Midwest Regional will be played on the home floor of the Titans.

"That would be nice but we've got to beat Syracuse first and they have a fine team," Truckey said.

Bulldogs Nip Ector

Pack Nabs 3rd Win, 6-5, On Run In Seventh

Midland High got back on the winning track after two straight losses, beating Odessa Ector 6-5 at Memorial Stadium Field Tuesday, and Coach Arlen Dickson looked in the mirror after it was over and, sure enough, there were a couple of gray hairs.

The Bulldogs pulled this one out in the last in the seventh after losing a 5-0 lead and Bruce Smith, the hero of a 9-7 eight-inning win over Lubbock Coronado in the season's opening game, once again played the John Wayne role only it looked briefly like it might turn out, Don Knotts.

With one out, Smith doubled to the fence in right center, but was caught in a rundown past second and looked like a sure out. Then an errant throw went into the dugout and Bruce was waved in with the winning run.

"That's the lowest (5 runs) we've held anybody this year," Dickson, whose Bulldogs are now 3-2, said after it was over. "We just can't seem to escape the big inning."

This time it came in the fifth with Alan Buonasera coasting along on a 5-0 lead. A walk, stolen base and single by Larry Molnar produced one run, then Arnold James dumped one over the left field fence. Before the inning was over, Alfonso Mata holsted a homer over the fence in center to narrow it to 5-4.

Jeff Cole, who came on in the sixth and picked up his first win of the season, was touched for the tying run on a couple of walks. Andy Busto's single to center and a wild pitch, but mowed down the Eagles, now 2-2, in order in the seventh.

Midland jumped in front 2-0 off starter Larry Smith in the second when Buonasera singled to left, moved to second on Brandon Battles' bunt when the throw to second was late and when the ball got through to the outfield, Buonasera took third.

Cole's fly to center scored Buonasera and moved Battles to third and Battles scored on an error.

Steve Widner's pop fly double to left, a wild pitch compounded by catcher Mata's errant throw to third produced a third inning run.

Kenny Krawietz launched a two-run rally in the fourth with his second single to center. Ron Helm beat out a bad-hopper to third and Widner and Terry Copeland walked to force in one run. Sherstop Busto made a head-long dive to spear Buonasera's liner, but his throw to second was too late to double off Widner. However, Helm was already on two walks and two hits, still the Bulldogs got out of it when catcher Copeland and second baseman Cole to cut down runners attempting to advance on pitches that got away momentarily.

Again Copeland also caught the ahead run trying to reach third to retire the side in the sixth.

BULLDOG BITES — The Bulldogs go to Pecos for a 4:15 p.m. game today and then catch the 2-AA Eagles in a pair here Saturday . . . Buonasera, who reported late from basketball, is having control problems high and Dickson feels it's a case of Alan's not closing his hips sufficiently during his delivery . . . A missed bunt on a squeeze play in the sixth proved costly to Ector when Copeland was waiting at the plate for Humberto Sanchez.

Black said everyone has been talking about how far Texas has come but added "We weren't that far away from being a solid team when we were losing, and when we were losing it wasn't by much."

Hearne Mayor Apologizes For $12,000 Check Snafu

HEARNE, Tex. (AP) — Hearne Mayor Jake Abrams has apologized by telegram to U.S. Rep. Bob Poage, D-Tex., for what Abrams said was a misstatement linking a $12,000 check to Poage's 1972 campaign.

Abrams admitted giving an interview to a Houston television station, saying his remarks at that time were "untrue and imprudent" and they had "no basis for any allegations to be directed to you."

On Thursday, two Hearne city councilmen denied claims of a third councilman that the check, drawn on the city's account, went to congressional campaign coffers in an effort to speed up action on an urban renewal grant.

Earlier this past week, Mae Beth Bishop, a city secretary, said the check, apparently deposited with the account of a non-existent engineering company, was meant for Poage's campaign.

Poage immediately denied the claim and said he would call for a federal investigation.

In a statement Thursday, Councilman Tommy Mayfield said the check was to help get a $2 million grant for urban renewal. "Our urban renewal project was stuck on high center so we (the council and mayor) met in City Manager E. C. Suggs' office in 1971 and decided to allocate $12,000 to get it moving. It must have done some good because 30 days later the $2 million project was funded," he said.

But two of the five men who were on the council at that time said Thursday they could recall no such meeting.

"I don't remember ever having attended that meeting... No, I was not in any such meeting," Councilman Julian Kwame told Chuck McCullough, a reporter for The Eagle of Bryan.

John Miles Jr., the mayor pro tem, said, "I never heard about the $12,000 check until the stories broke last week."

Another councilman, Grady Griffin, was unavailable for comment. The fifth councilman is deceased.

Conflict On Dates
Another contradiction to Mayfield's statement was contained in letters from Hearne Urban renewal director Dan McGrew, according to the Eagle.

The paper said McGrew has a letter dated May 16, 1971, approving the project. A copy of the contract was dated May 25, which is one month before the check was signed in June.

Mayfield's statement indicated the approval came one month after the check signing. Mayfield would not say where the money went.

"I'm not at liberty to divulge that information, but I don't think any of it went to Congressman Poage," he said.

Union Contract Acceptance Ends Farah Strike, Boycott

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Union clothing workers have agreed to end a bitter strike and companion boycott against Farah Manufacturing Co. which started in 1972 and caused the company to close several plants.

Members of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America (ACWA) voted Thursday night to accept a contract in which a no-strike-no-lockout provision is a key feature.

Spokesmen for Farah, which makes men's slacks and other garments, and the union joined in making details of a three-year contract public. It provides also for higher wages and fringe benefits.

Workers whose previous pay ranged from $1.70 to $2.40 per hour will earn up to 80 cents more per hour, a joint statement advised, but both sides refused to give wage details. They did say the hourly rate for some skill classifications will go up to $4.75.

Farah's personnel director, Charles Miller, told reporters that the pay scale was based on production standards and incentives and described it as unique in the company's plants.

With about 1,200 eligible to vote including 800 laid off in December, union members in San Antonio voted 375-8 to accept the contract.

A union spokesman said members in El Paso voted by a show of hands and 85 per cent approved the pact. There are 5,500 Farah employees in El Paso, making it that city's biggest employer.
