Amoco Gets Glasscock Discovery

Amoco Production Co. has completed No. 1-B E. L. Powell (originally filed as No. 1-P E. L. Powell), as a Wolfcamp discovery in Glasscock County.

It pumped 45.2 barrels of 45.2-gravity oil per day, plus 246 barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio measuring 952-1.

Production was through perforations at 8,228-8,246 feet, which had been acidized with 500 gallons.

The following tops have been picked: upper Spraberry, 6,402 feet; lower Spraberry, 6,826 feet; and Wolfcamp, 8,213 feet.

Drilled to 8,400 feet, where 5 1/2-inch casing was seated, it was plugged back to 8,350 feet.

Discovery site is 1,320 feet from south and west lines of section 16, block 35, T-3-S, T&P survey, abstract 935, 12 miles northwest of Garden City.

Operator has suggested Blacklock Lake, South (Wolfcamp) as the field designation.

Probe Slated In Tom Green

Tom Green County gained a wildcat site, with the application filed by Amoco Production Co. to drill No. 1 C. G. Munn, 1/4 mile northwest of Tucker Drilling Co., Inc. No. 1 Munn, a 7,300-foot failure.

It is also 4 1/2 miles southwest of the one-well Kennemer, West (Ellenburger) oil field.

Drill site is 660 feet from north and east lines of Stanley Turner survey 1126, abstract 7455, 18 miles northwest of San Angelo. Contract depth is 7,500 feet.

Stepout Planned In Howard County

MGF Oil Corp., Midland, has staked No. 1-A Armstrong, one location south of the opener and lone producer in the Modesta, North (Pennsylvanian reef) field of Howard County.

Scheduled to 9,100 feet, it spots 990 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 30, block 33, T-3-N, T&P survey, 20 miles northwest of Big Spring.

The opener, The Desana Corp. No. 1 Armstrong, was completed July 31, 1972 flowing 207 barrels of 42-gravity oil per day, through perforations at 9,044-9,068 feet.

Confirmer Seen For Eddy County

Coquina Oil Corp., Midland, No. 1 J. M. State, assured second Wolfcamp gas producer and 3/4-mile south extension to that pay in the Burton Flat multipay field of Eddy County, N.M., flowed gas at the maximum rate of 1.85 million cubic feet per day.

It is an indicated Morrow producer and sixth Strawn producer.

The test was taken through a 14-64-inch choke and perforations at 9,648-9,704 feet.

The project has been shut in (Continued On Page 8B)

John Hill

TEXAS ATTY. GEN. JOHN HILL TO BE SPEAKER First MC Commencement Slated

Texas Atty. Gen. John Hill will be the speaker at the first Midland College commencement exercise at 8 p.m. Saturday in Lee High School Auditorium. "I am extremely pleased to have Attorney General Hill to speak to our first graduating class," said Dr. Al G. Langford, Midland College president, who pointed out that, although the college is in its fifth year, previous graduations have been in connection with the Permian Junior College System. Midland College split away from the system effective last year.

Twenty-six students are candidates for associate degrees. Their fields of study range from law enforcement to data processing. Larry G. Lovelace, a member of the news staff at The Reporter-Telegram, will graduate with highest honor in the class with a 4.0 grade-point average. Graduating with high honor with a 3.94 average is Capt. Joe Mladenka of the Texas Department of Public Safety. In addition to Mladenka, 11 other members of the graduating class are law enforcement officers. The program Saturday night begins with a prelude and procession by organist Mrs. Gary Hall. The invocation will be by the Rev. Horace F. Doyle, vice president of the Midland College board of trustees. Following the address by Hill, awards will be presented by Dean Marshall Box, presentations of degree candidates will be by Dean Don Hunt, Dr. Langford will confer degrees and presentation of diplomas will be by Reagan H. Legg, president of the MC board of trustees. Following the commencement ceremony, the Dean's Committee, Midland College's student government, will sponsor a reception for graduates and their guests in the Lee High cafeteria. "This first commencement will indeed be an historic occasion," said Legg. "It is a great milestone toward our goal of becoming the best community college in Texas."

Flooding Forces Evacuation

Heavy rains and tornadoes lashed South Central Texas late Thursday and early today, forcing some 90 persons to evacuate their homes near Austin.

The rains were blamed for five deaths, four of them in traffic.

Two men were killed near Alice, one near San Antonio, another at Wells, all on rain-whipped highways, and a boy drowned near Bandera when his father's car was shoved off a bridge by flood waters.

The Department of Public Safety reported flood water up to two feet deep in Garfield at the Colorado River Ranchette development that consists mainly of mobile homes 13 miles east of Austin near Texas 71.

Richard Grimmitt, DPS spokesman, said DPS helicopters and private boats rescued the Garfield evacuees.

Twisters Spotted Tornadoes were reported in South Texas at Garfield, Kyle, Lake Thomas and just south of Bandera, all in South Central Texas.

The Midland area was under a tornado watch Thursday afternoon but no violent weather developed. Although dark clouds built up in the west, only the western portion of the county received any measurable moisture.

The National Weather Service at Midland Air Terminal recorded .06 inch of rain and a small amount of hail. The weather observers said the dark clouds apparently produced no significant rain in the area before dissipating later in the day. Most of the city received no rain at all, but western parts of Midland reported sprinkles.

Summer-like weather returned today with a high temperature expected to be in the lower 90s. Skies will be clear to partly cloudy through Saturday. The overnight low will be in the lower 60s and the high Saturday will be in the upper 80s.

The high in Midland Thursday was a relatively cool 81 degrees and the low this morning was (See WEATHER Page 12A)

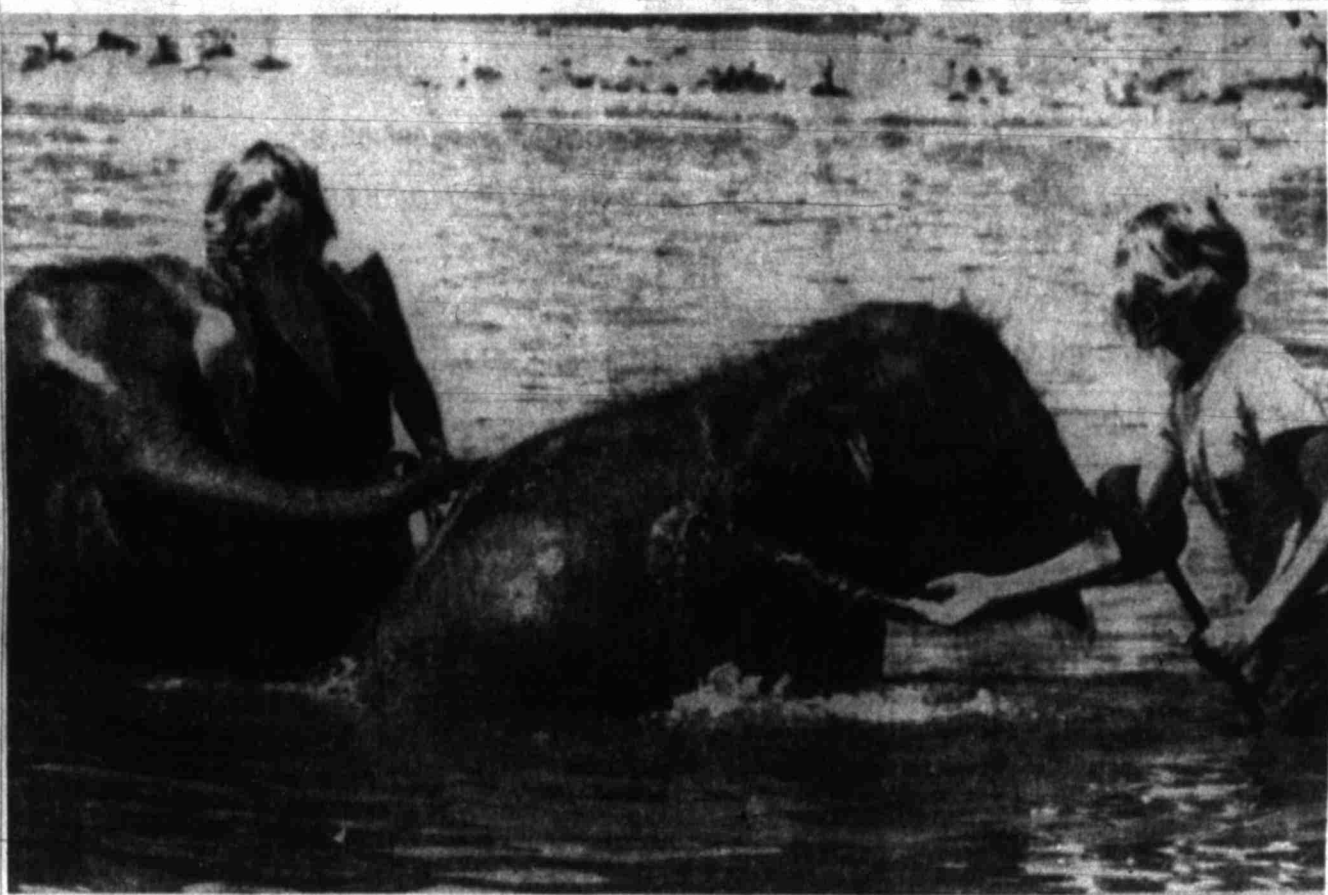

President, Ford Meet Privately

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Nixon and Vice President Gerald R. Ford met for an hour today and the White House said it was quite possible they discussed the mood of the country.

in the wake of Nixon's release of edited Watergate transcripts, Gerald L. Warren, White House deputy press secretary, ticked off items which he said Ford and Nixon discussed, including foreign and domestic concerns and the state of the economy, but said nothing about any Watergate-related conversation.

Asked if Nixon might have sought from Ford a report on his grass-roots findings during extensive recent speaking trips outside Washington, Warren acknowledged, "it's quite possible they discussed the mood of the country."

However, Warren said flatly there was no talk of a possible Nixon resignation. "It was a good talk," he said.

COOLING OFF - One of the two small Asian elephants at Lion Country Safari in Grand Prairie sprays water on the back of its mate as Sue Overman, of the nursery staff, splashes water on the side. Linda Brockhoeft, also of the nursery staff, gets ready to apply the scrub brush. The girls take the pachyderms to the pond daily for a cool-off and a clean-up. (AP Wirephoto.)

The White House spokesman also was asked if he felt Ford was doing all he could to aid the President in combatting possible impeachment and talk among Republicans of a possible resignation. He said he did not think it would be "proper or fair" to get into that.

The White House would not say who initiated the session. Warren said simply both Nixon and Ford have reported "they want to talk regularly, and they do."

There was no explanation for the change of locale. However, news photographs frequently are made of Nixon and Oval Office visitors whereas meetings in the EOB are rarely recorded on film.

White House Deputy Press Secretary Gerald L. Warren said the two men met for about an hour. Asked what was discussed, Warren said "we have always said they would meet frequently" but declined to elaborate on the topics covered.

Ford told an audience at Eastern Illinois University in Charleston, Ill., Thursday morning that disclosures have "created a diminished confidence in our public officials, basic distrust of their motives."

County Political Conventions Planned Saturday

By LARRY LOVELACE Midland County Democratic, Republican and American party county conventions get underway at 10 a.m. Saturday. One of the main orders of business will be to choose delegates to state conventions.

American party delegates also will select Mrs. Ada Spivey as their Precinct 2 county commissioner candidate, according to county chairman W. A. Skees. She will be the party's only local candidate.

The Democrats will meet in Midland High School auditorium, with 242 delegates and a number of alternates eligible to attend. They will select 28 delegates and 28 alternates to the state convention to be held Sept. 17 at Austin.

Nixon and proposing solutions to the energy crisis will be cleared by the Resolutions Committee for a vote by the full convention. The Democrats will meet in Midland High School auditorium, with 242 delegates and a number of alternates eligible to attend. They will select 28 delegates and 28 alternates to the state convention to be held Sept. 17 at Austin.

Very little is known about resolutions passed at the precinct conventions, but Culp said at least one precinct passed a resolution urging President Nixon to turn over all subpoenaed tapes and "get Watergate over with."

Skees expects approximately 150 delegates at the convention in the Sam Houston Elementary School cafeteria. Under the law, all persons who attended precinct conventions may be delegates to the county convention.

The same rule holds for selecting delegates to the state convention at Fort Worth June 8. At the state convention, the delegates will select candidates for statewide office.

The American party is required by law to select its candidates at conventions because its membership does not equal at least 20 per cent of the total vote in the last governor's race.

Skees urged all delegates to attend Saturday's convention and the same invitation was extended by Vann Culp and Robert Monaghan, Democratic and Republican county chairmen, respectively.

State Rep. Tom Craddick of Midland will be the keynote speaker at the Republican convention to be held in the San Jacinto Junior High School auditorium. Registration begins at 9 a.m.

Attending will be 378 delegates and 94 alternates. The convention will select 47 delegates and 47 alternates to the state convention at Houston Sept. 17.

In line with action taken at last Saturday's GOP precinct conventions, Monaghan expects resolutions supporting President Nixon's proposal to delegates to the county convention are not committed to any particular candidate or any particular issue. While noting he expected a traditionally boisterous meeting, Culp was cautiously optimistic the convention would avoid the divisiveness that has often characterized party conventions in the past. In particular, he said he foresaw little probability of a "rump convention" this year.

GUERRILLA SANCTUARIES HIT - Israeli Planes Attack Sites In Lebanon

By The Associated Press Israeli planes attacked guerrilla sanctuaries inside Lebanon today, Syrian jets raided Israeli positions on the Golan Heights, and tank and artillery duels erupted along the 40-mile front. The Tel Aviv command said its fighter-bombers hit "terrorist concentrations" in the south-east pocket of Lebanon near Mt. Hermon. The planes rocketed and strafed the positions, witnesses said. The witnesses said hills and woods neighboring nine Lebanese villages took "scores of direct hits" during the 25-minute

Israeli raid, but casualties were not immediately known. The witnesses said the raid followed an exchange of mortar fire between Lebanese and Israeli border positions.

Israel said four Syrian planes were involved in the raid in the 300-square mile bulge captured from Syria in the October war, but said there were no Israeli casualties.

Nixon Pumping In $10.3 Billion More To Bolster Sagging Housing Industry

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Nixon announced today he is pumping in an additional $10.3 billion to bolster the nation's sagging housing market. The President said the money will be used to subsidize interest rates on conventional government-insured mortgages and to provide additional cash for the nation's savings and loan institutions.

The savings and loans are the biggest contributors to the housing mortgage market. They have been plagued by declining money to lend as investors seek out more lucrative investments with interest rates soaring. President Nixon said the money the government is committing should help finance over 200,000 additional homes. The housing industry has been in a steady decline since 1973, with housing starts of 318,000 for the first three months of this year compared to 488,000 for the same period last year.

The President's action expands a program initiated last January, when the Department of Housing and Urban Development committed over $6 billion to mortgage subsidies in an effort to spur construction of 200,000 new homes.

The money was applied to Veterans Administration and Federal Housing Administration mortgages to cut the interest homeowners pay from the current FHA-VA maximum of 8 1/2 per cent, to 7 1/2 per cent. The effect is to trim the monthly payments on a $30,000 mortgage over 30 years by just over $15.30 per month.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON (AP) - The tape of a White House conversation two months before the June 1972 Watergate burglary emerged today as a key piece of evidence missing in the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment probe.

WASHINGTON (AP) - G. Gordon Liddy was found guilty on two counts of contempt of Congress today despite a plea that "his lips were sealed."

AUSTIN (AP) - Col. Wilson Speir, head of the Texas Department of Public Safety, suggested today that federal investigation of DPS recruiting practices may be more "harassment" than "fair inquiry."

Mexico Reports Sizable Border Gas Discoveries

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexican oil officials say recent large gas discoveries in Coahuila State that borders Texas may solve the gas shortage in the northern border area.

"We are very enthusiastic about the structures of great magnitude in the State of Coahuila but we still consider it a little premature to reveal the results of the exploration," Francisco Inguanzo, assistant director of primary production for Petroleos Mexicanos, S.A. (Pemex), the government owned oil monopoly, said.

"However, we are confident that the demand for gas in that zone will be resolved in the near future," Inguanzo said.

In 1973 Mexico imported 385.71 million cubic meters of natural gas. Of the total, 255.06 million was imported by three of the border states—Coahuila, Chihuahua and Tamaulipas.

Mexico's northern border zone traditionally depends more on natural gas for fuel than the rest of the country.

Pemex officials also said gas fields have been found recently in the area southeast of Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, on the border with Texas, but that they are "small" and will be developed to supply only the immediate area.

Officials would not reveal estimates of the probable reserves or production of the Coahuila and Nuevo Laredo fields.

"They are small fields," a company spokesman said of the Nuevo Laredo fields. "Some are in production but it is very small."

He said about 10 to 12 development wells had been drilled in the Nuevo Laredo area since last year. He said not all were producing.

The Pemex annual report said five new fields were discovered in a 90-mile-long belt from Nuevo Laredo to the area of the Marte R. Gomez Dam.

Officials said neither Coahuila nor Nuevo Laredo discoveries compare to the country's promising recent explorations in Chiapas State on the Guatemalan border.

A new structure was discovered in Chiapas in April, Inguanzo said.

Three More Papers Seek Nixon's Ouster

By The Associated Press
Three newspapers that supported President Nixon in 1968 and 1972 have editorials in today's issues calling for his resignation or impeachment.

The positions taken by the Los Angeles Times, Cleveland Plain Dealer and the Kansas City Times follow by one day a similar call by the Chicago Tribune, which also had been a Nixon supporter.

Also, the Nashville-Tennessean said in its Friday edition that Nixon should resign from office.

The Tennessean, which supported the 1972 presidential bid of Sen. George McGovern, D.S.D., said, "President Nixon must be painfully aware that he has lost the most desperate and dangerous gamble of his political career."

The Tennessean referred to Nixon's decision "to defy subpoenas for tape recordings and to submit edited transcripts of some tapes instead, in hopes that this move would establish his innocence in the public mind."

"Resignation would be the honorable course for President Richard Nixon," the Tennessean editorial concluded.

The Los Angeles Times said the transcripts "contain presumptive evidence of at least one impeachable offense—the obstruction of justice. The newspaper said nothing less than impeachment by the House and trial by the Senate could determine the President's fitness to continue in office."

"Standing alone, the transcript of March 21, 1973, would appear to justify Mr. Nixon's removal from office under even the narrowest definition of an impeachable offense—the commission of an indictable crime," the California newspaper said.

The Plain Dealer said, "The President has gone too far. The transcripts of White House conversations clearly involve him in a cover-up, to say the least. That and his refusal to comply with the subpoenas of the Watergate special prosecutor and the House Judiciary Committee have virtually assured that impeachment of President Nixon will become reality."

"The facts of the matter now show that no other course is possible," the Ohio newspaper said.

The Kansas City Times said, "The American Constitution is reflective of the hopes and ideals of mankind for justice and truth and a good life."

"Can such values really be reconciled with the sleazy dialogues now emerging in the White House transcripts? Can the end product of the men who gathered nearly two centuries ago to frame the Constitution be a bank of knaves who talk of advantage, revenge and adroit maneuver and never of what is right or wrong, or what is good for the country?"

The Kansas City Times said Nixon scored successes in foreign policy but "now must ask himself whether his continued presence in office might not destroy these great achievements."

Cattle Spokesman Forecasts Beef Consumption Rise

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — A cattle industry spokesman has forecast that beef consumption will increase in 1974 over the 1973 level.

Prior to speaking at the Texas Beef Conference, Bill McMillan, executive vice president of Washington affairs for the American National Cattleman's Association, said Thursday the increase will be greater than last year's level of 110 pounds but will not reach the 1972 level of 116 pounds.

In noting the recent decline of retail beef prices, he said the drop in price of the expensive cuts has been proportionately greater than the cheaper cuts. He attributed this to a cost-conscious public.

Of special concern to the cattle industry at the moment, he said, is the proposed national strike by the independent truckers set for Monday.

He said the already chaotic cattle market cannot withstand the effects of further disruption.

Committee Honors Tennessee Mother

NEW YORK (AP) — Kay Fields of Dyersburg, Tenn., a 29-year-old mother of three, has been named national Young Mother of the Year.

The American Mothers Committee Inc. announced the selection Thursday, citing her leadership in civic and church activities from among outstanding mothers 34 years old and under.

Runners up in the eastern and western divisions, respectively, were Mrs. Kenneth Hillsten of Acton, Mass., and Mrs. Donald Witt of Platte City, Mo.

Mrs. Fields and her husband Paul, personnel director of Dyersburg Fabrics Inc., are the parents of Paul Jr., 7; Elizabeth, 5, and Merri Catherine, 17 months.

ONE-DAY SESSION— Hospital-Clergy Workshop Set Saturday In Tall City

Dr. Joseph E. Gross, director of the Department of Pastoral Care at Baylor University Medical Center, Dallas, will be the keynote speaker at the Hospital-Clergy Workshop Saturday.

The one-day session begins with registration at 8:45 a.m. in the Medical Staff Conference Room at Midland Memorial Hospital. Co-sponsoring the event with the hospital is the Department of Pastoral Care, Memorial Hospital System, Houston.

A graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University where he earned a BS degree, Dr. Gross holds a B.D. degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He also holds Th.M. and Th.D. degrees from Southwestern.

He has taken advanced clinical pastoral training at the Arkansas State Hospital and the Institute of Religion and Human Development in Houston. A certified chaplain, he is a fellow in the College of Chaplains, American Protestant Hospital Association.

An ordained minister, Dr. Gross has held pastorates at Daisy and Atoka, Okla., and served as interim pastor at the First Christian Church of Lake Jackson, Tex. Prior to accepting his present position at Baylor, he was assistant director of the Death Sentence Imposed In Deputy Garza Slaying

JOURDANTON, Tex. (AP) — A state district court judge has imposed the death sentence on Leonard Wilson Freeman, 28, convicted for the killing of Atascosa County deputy Luis Garza.

A jury returned a guilty verdict against Freeman Wednesday.

Texas law requires an automatic appeal of the death sentence handed down Thursday by Judge John May.

Freeman was charged with slaying Garza and his wife in July 1973 after Garza stopped Freeman for speeding in Charlotte, Tex.

Freeman testified during the trial that he had planned with two other men to rob a bank in Cotulla.

Judge May dealt Freeman the death sentence after the jury found Thursday that Freeman killed Garza deliberately, that the killing was an unreasonable response to any provocation by Garza and that Freeman would continue committing acts of violence if released.

These criteria are required for assessment of the death penalty under new Texas law.

Freeman, a Pearsall native, said he believed he would gain a reversal on appeal and would get a life sentence next time.

When asked if he felt remorse for the slaying of Garza, Freeman said, "I had remorse when I did it and I've had remorse ever since."

The forests throughout Ontario include about 90 species of trees.

BOOK REVIEW UNIT — Mrs. W. Martin Neill, left, president, and Mrs. B. J. Tharp, vice president, were installed Monday by the Book Review Unit of the Midland Woman's Club at a luncheon in the clubhouse.

Book Review Unit Officers Installed

The Book Review Unit of the Midland Woman's Club met Monday in the clubhouse for installation of officers, a luncheon and book review.

"Everything's Coming Up Roses, Roses" was the theme of the decorations. Each table was decorated in butterflies, birds and roses.

The hostesses were Mrs. H. F. Ellis, Mrs. B. J. Tharp and Mrs. J. T. Baker.

Receiving guests were Mrs. E. V. Mitchell and Mrs. E. J. Flannery. Alice Mattix and Mrs. Jennye Lee Guthrie were at the guest registry.

Serving at the refreshment table was Mrs. Brutus Hanks.

Mrs. O. F. Hedrick gave the invocation. Mrs. August Wenck installed the following officers, using a patriotic theme: Mrs. W. Martin Neill, president; Mrs. B. J. Tharp, first vice president; Mrs. G. N. Donovan, second vice president; Mrs. J. S. Knauer, secretary; Mrs. Billie Gilbert, treasurer; Mrs. J. Wayne Campbell, historian; Mrs. Taylor E. Bowers, parliamentarian; Mrs. Jess Williamson, director to Woman's Club, and Mrs. R. H. Wilson, alternate director.

Chairmen for the coming year include Mrs. I. W. Hynd, hostesses and decorations; Mrs. James Henry, telephone; Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Flannery, name tags; Mrs. Lewis Davis, chairman, Mrs. Joe V. Birdwell and Mrs. Phil Adams, revisions. Mrs. Ellison Tom introduced Mrs. Ken D. Clark, Mrs. Robert M. Turner and Mrs. John C. Dunagan, new members, and announced the current membership is 137.

Mrs. Donovan presented the outgoing president, Mrs. Robert B. Bechtel, with a gift of appreciation from the unit.

The reviewer, Mrs. Roscoe B. G. Cowper of Big Spring, was introduced by Mrs. Bechtel. A well-known reviewer, world traveler, civic and church worker, Mrs. Cowper, attired in an African safari suit, reviewed "Pygmy Kitabu" by Jean Pierre Hallet and Alex Pelle.

Guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Joe B. Hilliard, Mrs. Hollis Wright, Mrs. Elma Cowden, Mrs. P. H. Lavery, Mrs. H. M. Newham, Mrs. H. C. Jones, Mrs. A. A. Jones, Mrs. James H. Chapple, Nell Shaw, Mrs. W. E. Williams, Mrs. Don Allred, Col. Water B. Smith, J. Wayne Campbell and Jack Samples.

Brown Better

Salt steaks and chops after they have browned. This is recommended because it has been found that meats brown better if allowed to do so before salting.

POLLY'S POINTERS

What Does One Do With 50 Spools?

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Association

Polly's Problem they should show some green. When they do plant in empty two-pound coffee cans with good black dirt. Water well and keep damp. By Memorial Day or when the danger of frost is passed they should be rooted enough to plant out doors. Good luck! — MARY B.

DEAR POLLY — My Pet Peeve is with companies and organizations who send letters and packages addressed with just the first initial and the last name. Even the U.S. government is guilty of this. In our small town where we have no street addresses there are four families with the same last name who are not even related. There are five of us with the same first initial. Just imagine the mess at the post office when they have to just say "Eenie, meenie, miney, mo — who gets this?" Sign me R. Larson and no one will know who wrote this. — R.L.

DEAR POLLY — and Mrs. H.S. who wanted to keep geranium plants over the winter — I hope my way will help her next fall. Dig up the plants before frost to get all the roots. Lay them out to dry. When dry and brown-looking put in large brown grocery bags — not plastic ones — and tie closed. I keep the dry plants over the winter upstairs in a cool closet as old cellars have now become warm basements and are not good for storing plants.

In March or early April open the bags and if plants look OK take them out and put to soak in water that covers the roots well and be sure they are kept under water. In a few weeks

Lisa Bedford Complimented Mrs. J. K. Somerville and daughter, Bea Lea, entertained Tuesday with a party for Lisa Bedford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bedford, at the Somerville residence at 1713 Douglas St.

Miss Bedford is a senior at Midland High School. She plans to attend Texas Christian University.

Purple and white flowers were used in the decorations.

Dear Abby
Widowed Mother Sets Bad Example?
—By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My mother is 58. Six months ago, Dad died after a short illness and she was so despondent she said she didn't want to go on living. Well, somehow she got the strength to live because suddenly she tells us that she met a man and he asked her to go to Hawaii with him! I should have said something then, but I was glad she wasn't despondent anymore. She said this man asked to marry her, but she refused because she didn't know him well enough. Can you beat that!

The whole family is divided over this. I disapprove, but haven't the courage to say so. I think she's setting a bad example for the younger people in the family. My brother tells me not to be such a prude. He says we should thank the good Lord she isn't crying all over us and wanting to move in.

How do you feel about it, Abby? Does age make any difference? I wouldn't want my 23-year-old daughter going to Hawaii with a man and no wedding ring. Why should I feel any different about my mother?

DEAR UNPAID: Quit "hinting around," and come right out and tell her that you think you are entitled to a sitter's pay. And don't be bashful. You're entitled.

DEAR ABBY: What do you call a person who counts and measures everything? He counts the number of steps as he goes upstairs, and the number of steps he takes to go to the garage. His shoes must be lined up perfectly in his closet and all his suits have to be hung a certain way, precisely. He places everything in his drawers in a certain order and he keeps them that way. He even keeps the money in his wallet in a special order, with the pictures facing the same direction and the same denominations together.

DEAR UNPAID: Every adult has the right to pursue his (or her) own lifestyle. You may disapprove if you wish, but you haven't the right to impose your values on either your adult daughter or your mother.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old girl who lives next door to a lady who has two little kids. One is a year old and the other is three. On Saturdays, this lady comes over here and asks me if I will watch her kids while she goes to the shopping center. I always say yes, and she leaves me with the kids for sometimes three or four hours. When she

I have searched the libraries and cannot for the life of me come up with the special name. Other than a "nut," what is he called?

W. R. A.
DEAR W. R. A.: Compulsive?

CONFIDENTIAL TO JUNIOR CITIZENS: This Sunday is Mother's Day. You didn't realize it was so soon? You're broke? Don't sweat it. Sit down and write her a letter, telling her how much you appreciate her, and don't worry about getting too sentimental. I promise you she will appreciate it more than a $100 gift. (And I'll bet she saves it.)

Texaco Wives Install Officers

New officers were installed at a dinner meeting Tuesday in Ranchland Hill Country Club of the Texaco Wives Bridge and Canasta Club. Spring flowers were used in decorations. The new officers are Mrs. Warren Berry, president; Mrs. W. C. Burkett, vice president; Mrs. Jimmy Brunson, secretary, and Mrs. J. C. Osburg, treasurer. An engraved silver dish was presented to Mrs. Berry for her past term as president. Mrs. Burkett scored high in canasta and Mrs. Cy Gallick received the special prize. In bridge, Mrs. Bud Flaten was high scorer and Mrs. Robert Klenz received the special award. Guests were Mrs. David McFadden and Mrs. Dan Tappmeyer.

Founders' Day Observance Held By Teachers' Groups

The Epsilon Eta and Zeta Zeta chapters of Delta Kappa Gamma, teachers' society, had an annual joint Founder's Day dinner Monday in Furr's Cafeteria.

Mrs. Bob Mayberry, president of Zeta Zeta, presided. The meditation and invocation were given by Mrs. John Walker.

Mrs. Ruth Newton, assisted by Carolyn Sowell, president of Epsilon Eta, was narrator of the tribute to the founders.

The hostesses were Mrs. E. D. Hankins, Mrs. Cecil Mills, Mrs. Grady Davis, Mrs. C. T. Jones and Mrs. Rufus Williams, members of Zeta Zeta Chapter.

Delta Kappa Gamma, founded May 11, 1929, in Austin is designed to promote professional spirit among women in education, support desirable legislation in the interests of education, stimulate professional growth and to endow scholarships to aid outstanding women educators in pursuing graduate study.

The society has 120,000 members in more than 2,340 state organizations in 50 states, the District of Columbia, Canadian provinces of Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Ontario and Quebec, and in Norway, Sweden and Mexico.

Special guests were Mrs. C. B. Lowrance, Alpha State president, and Mrs. A. R. Garcia, Alpha State corresponding secretary, both of El Paso. Other guests were Mrs. Harry Douthitt, Mrs. Paul Russell and Mrs. Russell Smith of Siloam Spring, Ark., Susan Chapman and Mrs. Art Carmichael of Abilene.

Miss Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Chapman, was presented a $150 Grant-In-Aid by Mrs. Paul Taylor on behalf of Zeta Zeta Chapter.

Mrs. Lowrance and Mrs. Garcia were assisted in installing officers of the chapters by Miss Sowell and Mrs. Wilburn Buttery, state chairman of the committee on personal growth and services.

New officers of Epsilon Eta Chapter are: Mrs. J. B. Bain, president; Martha Preston, first vice president; Mrs. M. M. Sell, second vice president; Mrs. L. E. Gnagy, recording secretary; Diana Dougherty, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. A. Brown, treasurer, and Miss Sowell, parliamentarian.

The Zeta Zeta incoming officers are: Mrs. John Moreland, president; Mrs. Hankins, first vice president; Mrs. R. C. Dawkins, second vice president; Mrs. Manuel G. Carrasco, recording secretary; Mrs. Williams, corresponding secretary; Mrs. S.

Senior Party
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. "Pete" Snelson and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rea entertained Kathy Allday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Allday; Cathy Culp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vann Culp; and Robin Yeager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Yeager Jr., with a dinner party at La Bodega Restaurant recently.

The honorees, graduating seniors, were presented corsages and gifts.

Miss Allday and Miss Culp plan to attend The University of Texas-Austin and Miss Yeager will attend Southern Methodist University.

Hospital Volunteers Plan Picnic

Mrs. Dave Tidmore, new chairman of the Midland Hospital, presided when the group met Thursday in Christ Presbyterian Church. Hostesses were Mrs. Theo Ferguson and Mrs. John Caldwell.

Mrs. Alta Henderson, secretary, and Mrs. Polly Turpin, treasurer, reported.

A rummage sale in Big Spring attended by five of the volunteers was reported by Mrs. Tidmore.

A picnic for some of the hospital patients is being planned for June. Mrs. Caldwell and Mrs. E. M. Braselton were named to the telephone committee.

McCamey Club Installs Officers

McCAMEY — The McCamey Garden Club met recently in the Garden Center Cottage for installation of officers.

Mrs. Lovie Burnett installed Mrs. A. S. Andrew, president; Mrs. Tim Martin, first vice president; Mrs. Gary Jones, second vice president; Mrs. J. B. Henderson, secretary; Mrs. Max Anderson, treasurer; Mrs. Wilbur M. Harris, reporter.

Mrs. Andrew announced the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Martin, yearbook; Mrs. George W. Ramer, program; Mrs. Aubrey Carroll, social; Mrs. A. E. Bradshaw, ways and means; Mrs. Burnett, landscape and horticulture; Mrs. J. R. Sumrall, civic; Mrs. Anderson, nominating; Mrs. Frank Matthews, telephone; Mrs. Harris, sunshine; Mrs. W. B. Report Urges Action To Recover Improper Expenditures On Nixon Homes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The final draft of a House report concluding that $17.1 million in federal funds has been spent in connection with President Nixon's homes says action should be taken to recover any "improper expenditures."

The report also recommends that future security spending be limited to only one of a president's private homes.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler strongly attacked the $17.1-million figure, saying it includes all security, communications and personnel costs and not just work on the homes at Key Biscayne and San Clemente.

"An honest report would show that out of the $17.1 million referred to, only approximately $205,482 was spent on the President's homes," Ziegler said Thursday night.

The report is to be considered by the House Government Operations Committee on Tuesday.

It reportedly had broad support of committee Republicans at a caucus Thursday. They had won some 150 changes from Rep. Jack Brooks, D-Tex., chairman of the subcommittee that drafted the report, generally softening the tone but not the conclusions.

Copies sent to committee members were numbered to prevent leaks. However, The Associated Press was permitted to take extensive notes from a copy.

The draft report says the $17.1 million includes $9 million spent at San Clemente, $8 million at Key Biscayne and $176,000 at the Grand Cay retreat in the Bahamas.

It says $7.6 million was for military and federal personnel assigned to the homes, $5.6 million for communications, $2.2 million for administrative support and $1.7 million for protection.

ments," the draft says.

It says a $389 fireplace exhaust fan, and $4,815 in surveys were secured at the direction of people under Herbert W. Kalmbach, the President's private lawyer, and paid for later by the government.

Examples of "excessive expenditures," the report says, are a $13,500 heating system at San Clemente and a more than $40,000 aluminum spike fence at Key Biscayne, whose function the report says could have been served by a $5,000 or $10,000 cyclone fence.

Congress has imposed few restraints on security spending, the draft report says. It says the evidence is that the Secret Service and other agencies "have abused the discretion given them."

And it said: "As a result, government expenditures for all purposes at privately owned property have risen from practically nothing during the Roosevelt-Truman era to over $5 million in the Johnson administration and over $17 million during the first five years of the Nixon administration."

It says $5.9 million was spent in connection with former President Lyndon B. Johnson's property, including $2.5 million for communications, $904,000 for security agents, $328,000 in security costs at the LBJ Ranch and Haywood Ranch in Texas and office in Austin, and $253,000 for air traffic control at the LBJ Ranch airstrip.

The draft report recommends tightening of control of all federal security expenditures directly under the Secret Service for protecting presidents and vice presidents' homes.

It recommends reporting of such expenditures to Congress be required every six months.

It also recommends the government take back any equipment and material it can when its protection of a president ends and that the government be reimbursed for any unrecoverable items that enhance the value of his property.

Corporate Executives Say Transcripts Release Setback To President

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — There is agreement among some of the nation's top corporate executives that President Nixon's chances of remaining in office received a major setback because he released the Watergate tape transcripts.

But only a few of the executives questioned felt Nixon should resign. Most said they thought he would be impeached and should see the impeachment trial through to the end.

A dozen top corporate officials were questioned at an off-the-record discussion for newsmen at the regular biennial meeting here of the Business Council, a group of some 80 business leaders who advise the government on economic matters.

Only two of the dozen executives questioned refused to comment on the President's problems resulting from release of the transcripts; the other 10 all said they believed the tapes had hurt his chances in one degree or another.

An executive of a Midwestern-based corporation said he thought people in his home city were shocked by what the transcripts revealed about the President's character.

"In my city, people believe that a man speaks directly and means what he says. The deviousness revealed by the President in these transcripts has done him a lot of harm," he said.

Another executive, however, said that while the White House conversations were not flattering to the President, they did not prove a crime. "We still believe in this country that a man is innocent until proven guilty, and that will only be decided at a trial," he added.

A third executive, who said he voted for Nixon, wondered aloud when the Watergate revelations would end. "There's just one thing after another, and there always seems to be something else," he said.

Although most of the executives felt that the House would impeach the President, the majority declined to predict the outcome of a Senate trial. They seemed unsure whether an impeachable crime could be proven.

Only one of the dozen executives said he had read most of the transcripts. The others said they were too busy or insufficiently interested to spend the time, although all said they had read excerpts.

The executives were about evenly divided as to whether Nixon could continue to govern effectively. Two said the administration has demonstrated effective leadership, despite the Watergate problems.

Among executives attending the two-day meeting are Richard C. Gerstenberg, chairman of General Motors Corp.; Edgar F. Kaiser, chairman of Kaiser Industries Corp.; G. William Miller, president of Textron Inc.; Donald M. Kendall, chairman of PepsiCo Inc.; and David Packard, chairman of Hewlett-Packard Co.

Neil Cuthbert Certified Playwright At Age Of 22

WASHINGTON (AP) — A certified playwright at age 22, Neil Cuthbert believes he may make it as a successful comedy writer because "everything I do is funny in one way or another."

"I'd like to make it my profession," he said in an interview. "I think I'll make it as long as I don't need much money. I think I'm pretty well set for the next year."

Cuthbert is a certified playwright by virtue of having won membership in the Dramatists Guild as part of the first prize in the William Morris Agency contest for the best campus play, held in conjunction with the sixth American College Theater Festival at the John F. Kennedy Center recently.

Another part of the prize was a management contract with the Morris talent agency, which may well lead to a professional engagement for Cuthbert's "The Soft Touch," a farce about a young man who wants only peace and quiet but is subjected to a series of interruptions in his cold-water flat by neighbors, burglars, pan-handlers and the like.

'Mice, Men' Ending Soon

Final performances of Midland Community Theatre's "Of Mice and Men," the stage version of John Steinbeck's powerful novel of the depression years, will be presented at 8:30 p.m. today and Saturday.

Seat reservations for the two concluding performances may be made through the Theatre Centre box office, 682-2544. The box office will be open until curtain time.

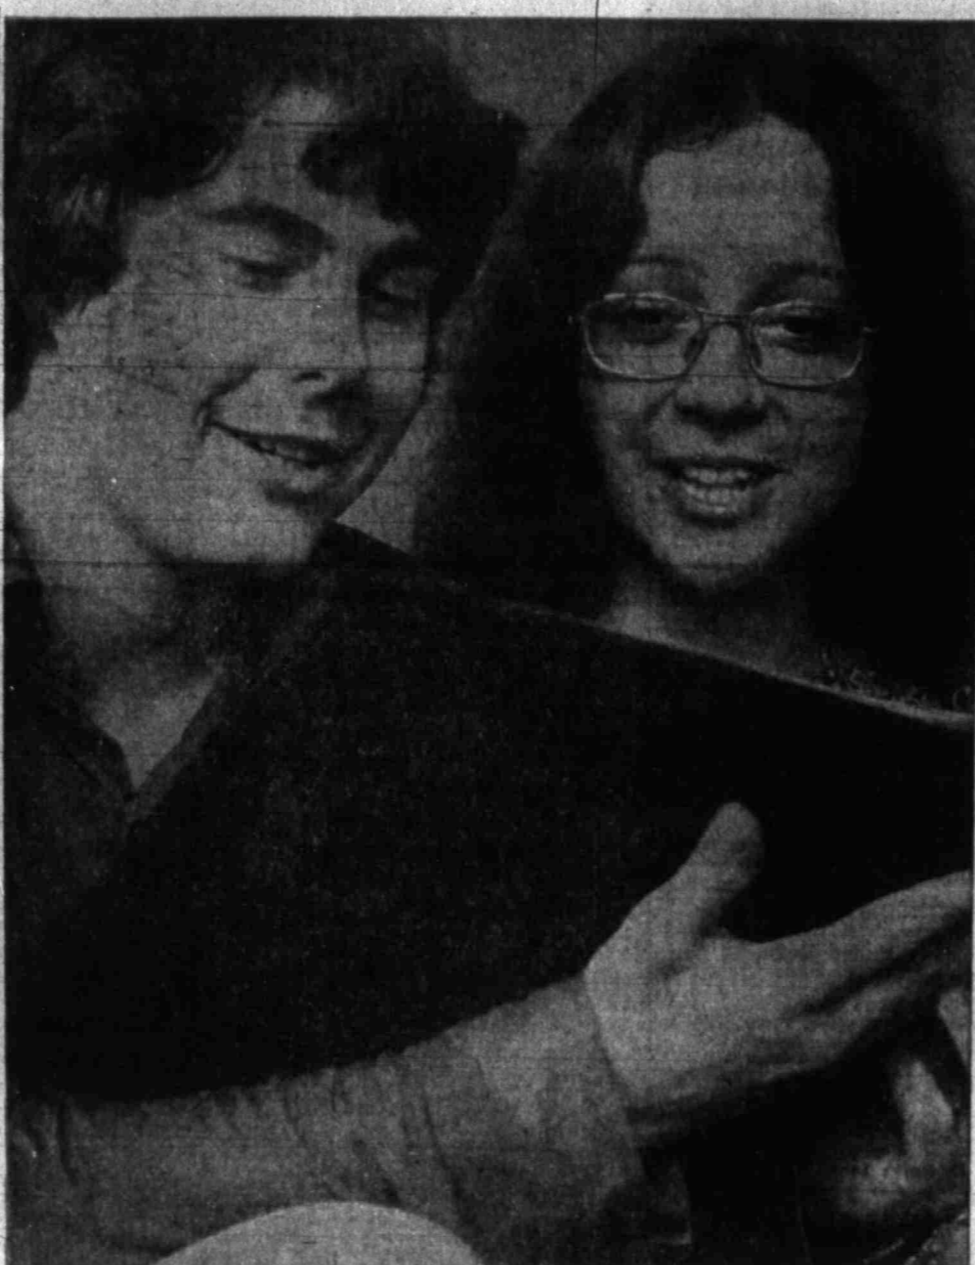

"Of Mice and Men," staged and directed by MCT's Art Cole, stars Glen Thomason as George and Russell Buonasera as Lennie. Other cast members are Bob Cooke, Susan West, Bob Mayberry, Dan Macklem, Rick Etheredge, Bill Seward and Larry Wilson.

Special Program Set At Museum

Instrumental works by Bach, Couperin and Morley, and readings from Shakespeare, Racine and Moliere, will be highlights of a special program Sunday afternoon in the Museum of the Southwest, 1705 W. Missouri St.

The Baroque entertainment is presented by the Midland Music Club of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, in cooperation with Las Manos — "The Hands" — volunteer service organization of the museum.

The 3 p.m. event will be open to the public.

UIL WINNERS — Bill Thomas, left, of Midland High School won the state boys poetry interpretation competition at Austin. Julia Kinsey placed third in girls persuasive speaking at the event.

From Roaches To Nasty Ants, Movie World Embraces Disaster

By BOB THOMAS
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The movie world is becoming a disaster area — literally — since producers have realized that millions can be mined from sagas of man vs. atoms, insects, earthquake, fire and other disasters.

"We've got to give the public something they can't get on television," argues Jennings Lang, executive of MCA-Universal and a leader in the disaster industry.

He is the one who induced Mario Puzo to write an original story for "Earthquake," in which a large part of Los Angeles is destroyed. The movie is now being filmed.

Operetta Slated Tonight At Trinity

A second performance of the popular Gilbert and Sullivan musical, "Pirates of Penzance," will be presented at 7:30 p.m. today at the Trinity School of Midland, 3500 W. Wadley St.

The operetta is presented by Trinity students as their contribution to the annual Independent Schools Arts Festival which took place at Trinity School today. Joining Trinity in the arts emphasis were Midland Christian and St. Ann's schools.

The "Pirates of Penzance" presentation tonight, open to the public subject to available seating in the St. Francis Commons at Trinity, will be the concluding event in the arts festival.

Another Universal project is "Hindenberg," in which Robert Wise will reproduce the destruction of the German dirigible. Because it is impractical to build a new one, Wise plans to photograph a 60-foot model of the ill-fated dirigible. George C. Scott will star in the film.

Charlton Heston is starring not only in "Earthquake," but also in Universal's "Airport 1975." It has a Boeing 747 which is disabled in a collision with another plane. Pilot Heston comes to the rescue by being lowered from a helicopter.

The same studio is offering "Jaws," which has started shooting on Martha's Vineyard, Mass. It is based on the Peter Benchley best seller about a white shark that devours swimmers.

The king of the disaster epics is Irwin Allen, the man who gave you "The Poseidon Adventure," which started the whole trend. He is now burning the world's tallest building in "The Towering Inferno."

One wall of Allen's office at 20th Century-Fox is devoted to artists' depictions of his future projects. They include "Beyond the Poseidon Adventure," "The Day the World Ended," "The Golden Gate" and "The Swarm," the latter based on a new book about an insect invasion.

Insects are big in film planning this year.

Paramount will release "Phase IV," a science fiction movie about ants that threaten to take over the earth. It was made in Arizona by Saul Bass, long-time designer of opening titles for movies.

Veteran thrill maker William Castle is preparing "The Hephæstus Plague," which will depict an invasion of giant cockroaches.

Castle plans to guarantee an audience reaction. He is developing a device which will brush the legs of theater patrons and make them think the cockroaches are coming.

Universal's Lang is also developing a new system to supply added dimension to "Earthquake." The system will use sound speakers and smoke machines to simulate the effects of a tremor.

MAA To Elect Officers Tonight

New officers of Midland Arts Association, to serve the organization during the 1974-75 season, will be elected tonight at the annual meeting of the MAA.

The meeting in the Lancaster House of the Museum of the Southwest, 1705 W. Indiana St., will begin at 8 p.m. Other items of business scheduled include annual reports and selection of a new nominating committee.

Tonight's meeting, to be followed by a social hour, also will mark the opening of another of the MAA's membership exhibits in the upstairs gallery of Lancaster House. Art works by MAA members Tommye McClatchy, Eleanor Robertson, Elicia Squires and Dora Jean Wohlfield will be included in the exhibit, to be on view through May 31.

Globe Performances Set This Weekend

ODESSA — The Globe of the Great Southwest will take its current production, a double-bill of short plays, into a second weekend with a performance at 8:30 p.m. today. Another performance will be at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

The double bill consists of Edward Albee's "The Sandbox" and Eugene Ionesco's "The Bald Soprano," two plays of the so-called "Theater of the Absurd." Globe managing director Charles D. McCally has staged and directed the production, which will close May 18.

Single tickets for the presentations are $3 for adults and $1.50 for students.

Harvard Lampoon Lambastes 'Gatsby,' Gaggle Of Others

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The Harvard Lampoon has cited "The Great Gatsby" as the year's worst film in the magazine's 34th annual Movie Worst Awards.

Editors said the film was honored for "making the Jazz Age look like the Muzak Era, cynically strip-mining another vein in the nostalgia market and having the acquisitive gall to market lines of Gatsby products, of which 'Gatsby-powers' tools" and "Gatsby-burgers" can't be far off."

Other movies selected by the Lampoon in its worst awards were "Day of the Dolphin," "Jonathan Livingston Seagull," "A Touch of Class," "Blume in Love," "The Way We Were," "Save the Tiger," "The Exorcist," "American Graffiti" and "The Seven-Ups." Penelope Gilliant of "The New Yorker" was presented "The Bosley," awarded annually to the movie critic "whose writing consistently explores the furthest limits of bad taste."

Other awards and their recipients announced Thursday:

— "The Kirk Douglas Award for the Worst Actor of the Year" to Jack Lemmon for "Save the Tiger."

— "The Natalie Wood Award for the Worst Actress of the Year" to Barbra Streisand for "The Way We Were."

— Worst supporting actor to Dustin Hoffman for "Papillon."

— Worst supporting actress to Dyan Cannon for "Shamus" and "The Last of Sheila." — "The Wilde Oscar," conferred upon the performer "who has been willing to flout convention and risk worldly damnation in the pursuit of artistic fulfillment" to John Wayne for "McQ."

Does GOD see the gap?

Whenever you hear about a generation gap, you can be sure you're getting a human, biased point of view. Each generation is sure!

Yet there is a divine view. It concentrates on the oneness of all generations... on all the blessings and opportunities that God continues to bestow. "His truth endureth to all generations," said the Psalmist.

When Great-Grandma holds little Linda in her arms next Sunday, she'll be thinking gratefully of all the gifts they have in common — from the Lord. And she'll be praying that Linda will be brought up to cherish those gifts.

The generation gap—like all differences—disappears when human intelligence grasps God's point of view.

This Exorcist Has Office Hours

By JOHN VINOCCO
PARIS (AP) — The exorcist has office hours. And a beige waiting room, and a carpeted consultation nook, and a pretty good working relationship with the devil. Encased in glass and steel and two floors down from the headquarters of the archbishop of Paris, Francois Cardinal

Marty is a once-a-week world of talk of spells and demons. The "possessed" begin lining up at 8 a.m. on Wednesdays waiting for the Rev. Henri Gesland, 66, to arrive for work at the antiseptically modern building of the Paris Roman Catholic archdiocese.

Youths To Lead Service Sunday

A special worship service will be held at 8:30 a.m. Sunday in the chapel of the First Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Robert Boynton Smith, minister, said the service will be conducted by young people of the church, with the congregation participating. Mr. Smith also will have a part in the service, to which the public is invited.

A special number from the rock musical, "Lightshine," will be sung by the Youth Choir, under the direction of Robert Poyer, the church's music director.

Mr. Smith said the regular Sunday worship service will be held at 10:55 a.m. in the sanctuary.

Revival Services Slated Next Week

Antioch Baptist Church, 1400 E. Golf Course Road, will hold revival services Monday through Friday next week.

The Rev. C. H. Gerald will be the evangelist for the revival, which will have services at 8 p.m. daily. Mr. Gerald is pastor of the Community First Baptist Church at Dallas.

Special music will be presented by the Antioch choir at each of the revival services, said the Rev. G. T. Curry, host pastor. All services will be open to the public.

A special pre-revival service will be held at the church at 8 p.m. today with Mr. Curry to be in the pulpit.

Retired Colonel To Speak Here

A retired Marine Corps officer, Col. H. Speed Wilson will be guest speaker Tuesday night at a meeting of the Midland chapter, Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International.

Wilson, born in Andrews County and educated in the Andrews public schools, joined the Marine Corps in 1942 and received numerous awards and decorations for service as a fighter pilot during World War II. He is senior warden and a lay reader at St. James Episcopal Church in Potomac, Md., Washington, D.C. suburb where he and his family now reside.

The FGBMI meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Rodeway Inn, IS 20 at the Rankin Highway. The meeting will be open to the public.

Painters End 10-Day Strike

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Striking painters from nine Southeast Texas counties have voted to end a 10-day strike against the Associated Painting Contractors.

The strike began April 30 and affected about a dozen industrial construction sites.

child who had been rolling on the floor of the church appeared to calm down. But there was a terrible battle after a while. When I showed my pectoral cross, she hurled against the floor and kicked me. But finally the devil did depart.

"Later when her parents were leaving the church, the child opened her mouth and a miraculous medal fell out. We had been with her every second. She could not have placed it in her mouth. Now, a year later, she is much better."

The other 13-year-old spoke Italian and German when she was possessed even though she did not know either language, Father Gesland said. He said that she, too, was freed of demons through exorcism.

"These are very special, unusual cases," he said. "Most people who come to see me, I try to talk to, give them 15 minutes of my time and see if I can't calm them down. It's quite sad when you have a person who insists on a solemn exorcism and you tell them that's not possible.

"I know that they're not possessed by any devils, but they are sure that's the reason life isn't going their way. I tell them take a walk, improve your diet, get along better with your family. The devil is not hiding behind every rose bush, you know."

'Archaeology, Bible' Study Series Set

Dr. John Worrell, archaeologist and educator, will present a series of studies on "Archaeology and the Bible" next week in First Christian Church here.

Dr. Worrell is associate professor of religion and archaeology at Holy Cross College in Connecticut, and has served as director of the Joint Archaeological Expedition to Tell el-Hesi, Israel. He is an ordained minister in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and in the past has held positions as minister of education, social action and youth in Christian churches.

The study sessions which Dr. Worrell will conduct here are planned for 6 p.m. Sunday ("New Directions in Israel"), 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Monday ("History of the Holy Land"), and 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Tuesday ("Archaeology and the New Testament").

The Sunday evening session will be in the First Christian fellowship hall. All other sessions will be in the church parlor.

The study series is sponsored by the education department of First Christian Church.

Dr. Worrell, a native of Indianapolis, Ind., holds a B.A. degree from Milligan College and then earned a bachelor of divinity degree from Christian Theological Seminary, with majors in history and New Testament studies. He received a master's degree from Butler University, and the Ph.D. from the Claremont Graduate School, with his major concentration being Old Testament studies. He has been a lecturer in Hebrew at Claremont School of Theology, and a faculty member of Phillips University, the Hartford Seminary, Greater Hartford Community High School and the University of Connecticut.

He joined the faculty of Holy Cross College last year. He also served for several years as curator of the Hartford Seminary Foundation Museum, and has been director or supervisor of several archaeological field schools in the U.S. and in Israel. He has done considerable research into Near Eastern archaeology, and is the author of numerous articles on archaeology as well as on religion.

The upcoming archaeological and Biblical study series will be open to the public. Additional information is available from the First Christian Church office.

Methodist Bishops Seek Disaster Relief Funds

DALLAS — The four United Methodist bishops of Texas and New Mexico have called their 2,500 local congregations to join in the denomination's Bishop's Appeal to raise $2.5 million Sunday for tornado relief in the U.S. and famine relief in Africa.

Midland area churches of the denomination will participate in the appeal.

"Within hours of the tornadoes that hit 11 states on April 3, our church's National Disaster Fund moved emergency funds and materials into the tornado-affected areas," said Bishop W. McFerrin Stowe of Dallas.

"This Sunday, United Methodists across the nation are expected to raise $1,500,000 to help rebuild church property not covered by insurance and respond to human need," said Bishop Stowe.

Another $1 million of the Bishop's Appeal is earmarked for food and medicine in Ethiopia, the Sudan and West Africa. "This is the worst famine in Africa's history according to our information," said Bishop Paul V. Galkoway of Houston. "Hundreds of thousands of persons in six countries of what is called the 'haze', in the Sudan and Ethiopia, are suffering from severe famine," he added.

Bishop Albie H. Carleton of Albuquerque, N.M., said the denomination's committee on overseas relief has been a part of the international Christian community's response in Africa. "We've jointly airlifted food and medical supplies, provided mobile medical teams to fight disease, supplied water resource surveys, and have been at work combatting date palm infestation, pointed out Bishop Carleton, who heads the Northwest Texas-New Mexico Area conferences of the UMC.

Festival Of Faith Under Way Here

A spring Festival of Faith under way this week at First Baptist Church will continue through Sunday.

Evangelist Vincent Cervera of Greenville, S.C., is in the pulpit for the revival emphasis. Mr. Cervera conducts several dozen revivals each year, from the Carolinas to California.

Concluding services in the Festival of Faith will be at 10:55 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sunday. They will be open to the public.

Midland area churches are within Bishop Carleton's jurisdiction.

Bishop O. Eugene Slater, San Antonio, the former president of the denomination's Council of Bishops, said the council has authorized the special $2.5 million Bishop's Appeal for May 12. "We expect a good response Sunday in our churches to the Bishop's Appeal," he added.

Bishop Slater said churches in the region could be expected to raise their proportionate share of the $2.5 million in the 10.5 million member denomination—about $200,000.

Early Services Due This Summer

Christ Presbyterian Church, 2801 N. Garfield St., will hold an early morning worship service each Sunday during the summer months. The first such service is scheduled for 7 a.m. this Sunday.

The services are being offered for those who plan Sunday outings and activities which will conflict with regular worship services. The early gatherings, open to persons of all denominational affiliations, will be informal. Persons are invited to come dressed for their day's activity if they choose.

Special Service Slated May 19

The Rev. L. H. Degrate will be in the pulpit for a special service on Sunday night, May 19, at Goodwill Baptist Church here.

Mr. Degrate, who resides at Odessa and is pastor of a church at McCamey, is chairman of the educational board of the West Texas District Baptist Association. During the coming week, he will be visiting in the Midland area on behalf of scholarships awards for students to attend Bishop College at Dallas. Mr. Degrate's work as educational chairman extends to points throughout Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico and Kansas.

Julie Elected Curtis Director

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Julie Nixon Eisenhower is one of the new directors of Curtis Publishing Co. Mrs. Eisenhower, daughter of President Nixon and the wife of David Eisenhower, was elected to the board at a stockholders' meeting here Thursday.

Dr. Robert Culp

Midland Lutheran To Host Dr. Culp

Midland Lutheran Church, 2705 W. Michigan St., will be host to Dr. Robert Culp, executive director of Lutheran Welfare and Social Service of Texas Inc., at its Sunday morning worship services.

Dr. Culp, of Austin, will be participating in the 8:30 and 11 a.m. worship services of the Midland congregation along with the host pastor, the Rev. David Herman.

During his visit to the Permian Basin, Dr. Culp expects to visit various social agencies and institutions in the Midland-Odessa area, and is scheduled to meet with Lutheran ministers of Odessa on Monday.

Dr. Culp, who holds both master's and doctoral degrees from the University of Illinois at Urbana, served as dean of students and assistant professor of psychology at Austin College, Sherman, from 1963 to 1965. He then was a member of the faculty of the University of Oklahoma until 1973, when he became executive director of Lutheran social and welfare work in Texas.

At the Sunday services here, the visitor will speak on the work in Texas by three major Lutheran synods in such areas as homes for the aged; chaplains for hospitals, prisons and other institutions; assistance to unwed mothers, and foster homes for children. The public is invited to hear him.

Parr, Guilty Of Perjury, Spends Night In Jail Cell

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Duval County Judge Archer Parr, convicted of perjury, exchanged his dark business suit for white jail coveralls and spent Thursday night in a cell. He becomes the second South Texas political figure to fall this year in the federal government's assault on the Democratic machine which has controlled Parr's area for five decades.

George B. Parr, 73, the aging "Duke of Duval" and uncle to Archer Parr, plans to appeal a March conviction in Corpus Christi on income tax evasion charges. George Parr was sentenced to five years in prison, five years' probation and a $14,000 fine.

R. O. Smith, club secretary, who earlier this year was named a Paul Harris Fellow, also is pictured. Snyder is a past president of the club.

Eulesse Carpet Layer Charged With 1970 Slaying At Kermit

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A carpet layer from the Fort Worth suburb of Eulesse was charged Thursday with the slayings of three persons and a dog in Kermit, Texas, in 1970.

Change Machines Would Cash Rationing Coupons

WASHINGTON (AP) — If they are ever issued, some of the government's 4.8 billion gasoline rationing coupons could find their way into dollar-changing machines as bogus bills, a congressman says.

Officers said Kneeland, who had been a neighbor of the Mitchells, gave them a one-page statement about her death. Investigators said she was smothered. Her green dress and underclothing were scattered along Texas 302. The garments had been slashed.

But the Federal Energy Office says such use of the coupons would be a money-losing proposition for the user, since the certificates probably would be worth more than $1 on the open market for their intended purpose.

Nine months later, officers found her skeleton on an oil lease operated by Kneeland's father. Officers said a wild animal had pulled her body from a shallow grave.

Strauss Declares Nixon Credibility 'Gone For All Time'

NEW YORK (AP) — President Nixon's credibility is "gone for all time" with the American people, says Democratic national party Chairman Robert Strauss.

Fort Worth homicide detectives also named Kneeland as a "good suspect" in another unsolved murder, that of Carla Walker, who was abducted and killed after a Valentine's Day dance in Fort Worth.

"The American public has been pushed too far," Strauss told newsmen Thursday before a party fund-raising dinner here. "They are slow to condemn and quick to forgive, but they have been pushed to the extent they can never believe the President."

Kneeland was arrested Tuesday on a charge of aggravated kidnapping of a 16-year-old girl. The two Oklahoma victims had attended a party in Oklahoma City last June 30 and their bodies were found side by side the next day near Greater Southwest International Airport here.

Investigators say a mother and two of her daughters were bludgeoned to death some six hours before an explosion and fire that struck their home here.

Xavier Assessed Shoplifting Fine

VANCOUVER (AP) — Xavier Hollander, the "Happy Hooker," has been fined $100 for shoplifting.

Killed were Patricia Ann Hawley, 31, and daughters Linda, 4, and Jennifer, 17 months. Essex County Medical Examiner Edward Murray said autopsies indicated all three died from deep skull fractures before the explosion.

Three minor figures in Duval County politics await trial on charges emerging from the investigation.

"The energy crisis places extra responsibilities on the Society of Exploration Geophysicists, but also brings extra responsibilities," according to Harold Kidder of Dallas, president of the SEG.

Other centers are in Miles City, Mont., and Colby, Kan. States benefiting from the program are Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, Kansas, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Kidder told the audience the crisis will tell geophysicists "show their value to the world." He added, "What we do will affect the social and economic structure of every country in the world."

The program will be carried out during the next seven summers. Termed the High Plains Cooperative Program, it is designed to clear mysteries concerning summer cumulus clouds, which are a prime source of moisture.

NEW YORK (AP) — Pollster Louis Harris says a nationwide survey indicates that for the first time a majority of Americans believe violations of the law will be proven against President Nixon.

Panhandle Road Crash Kills Five

FLOYDADA, Tex. (AP) — Five persons were killed Thursday night in a head-on collision 20 miles east of here on Farm Road 97 in the Texas Panhandle, the Texas Department of Public Safety said.

However, the poll of 1,503 adults in April indicated a decline in the number of Americans who think Nixon should resign or be impeached, according to the figures released Thursday. The poll was taken before the President released his Watergate transcripts.

DPS spokesman Richard Grimm identified the dead in one car as Robert Cole, 24; his wife, Sandra Hankins Cole, 23, and their son Robert Cole Jr., 7 months, all of Brownsville.

In the new poll, 56 per cent of those queried believed Nixon is using "executive privilege" as an excuse to shield incriminating evidence from Congress. Only 30 per cent felt that Nixon was using the issue to protect future presidents and 14 per cent were not sure.

NEW YORK (AP) — The Royal Dutch Shell Group says its first quarter after-tax profits this year climbed to $728 million, an increase of 162 percent over the $278 million for last year's first quarter.

Clear to partly cloudy weather prevailed in the Panhandle and far West Texas early today. Temperatures dropped abruptly by 10 degrees or more over most sections of South Central and Southeast Texas after the thunderstorms. Early morning readings generally were in the 60s except for the lower Rio Grande Valley and far West Texas where the thermometer was in the 70s, according to the Associated Press.

It Looks A Lot Like Christmas

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas at the phone company.

Southwestern-Bell operators haven't braced for so many long distance calls since last Dec. 25.

"This Sunday being Mother's Day, we're expecting 4,650 calls to be placed over the long distance network from the Midland area," said Royce Brookmole, district manager.

The manager said 48 operators will be on duty Sunday to assist as needed. "The best way to assure that your calls go through," he said, "is to dial direct anytime Sunday before 5 p.m. Rates are lowest then, and customers will avoid the massive calling crunch that we expect will occur between 5 p.m. and 9 p.m."

This year Southwestern Bell expects 1,145,000 long distance calls to be placed on Mother's Day statewide, compared to 1,067,000 calls made in Texas last Christmas Day.

$20.4-Million Hospital Bond Vote Set In Ector

ODESSA — Ector County voters will go to the polls May 29 to vote on a proposed $20.4 million addition and renovation to Medical Center Hospital.

Ector County commissioners called the election Wednesday after a petition bearing 5,500 names was presented by R. F. "Rudy" Juedeman, chairman of a citizens hospital advisory committee. Only 4,100 signatures, or 10 per cent of the county's registered voters, were required.

The election would be to sell $20.4 million in general obligation bonds, to be paid back over a 20-year period. No tax increase is expected.

Principal on the tax will be paid by the county, with interest charges, which are expected to increase $10 to $12 from the current $73 per day average.

The bond election is the largest one called in Ector County history. The last bond election, for $5 million, in 1971 was defeated.

Two town hall meetings were held to acquaint the public with the hospital plans. At Tuesday's meeting, a majority of the 250 residents in attendance favored the election.

Angelo Hospitals Raise Room Rates

SAN ANGELO — Two of the three hospitals here are increasing daily room rates and employ salaries.

The third hospital raised its rates in October and will make no change at the present time.

The cost of a private room in St. John's Hospital and Clinic-Hospital Foundation will be raised about $3 per day.

A private room at St. John's will cost about $40 per day and range from $40-47 at Clinic.

Both hospitals also will raise minimum wages for employees — to $1.93 per hour at St. John's and $1.95 at Clinic.

Shannon Hospital raised its rates 2 1/2 per cent in October. Rates for most private rooms there range from $33-43.50 per day. In February the hospital raised the minimum wage to $2 per hour.

Dr. Green To Head OC Trustee Board

ODESSA — Dr. Wilbur Green, an Odessa physician, was elected president of the Odessa College board of trustees in a special meeting Wednesday night.

He will replace O. R. Clements, who has headed the board the last 13 months.

Other new officers are Ronny Sewell, vice president; Mike Furman, secretary, and Karl Richey, assistant secretary.

Reidy Services Set At Big Spring

Services for the Portland, Ore., man also were held Thursday in Portland.

Other survivors include the widow, two brothers and another sister.

House Panel Considers Impeachment Inquiry Evidence

By JOHN BECKLER WASHINGTON (AP) —

Stocked with facts and sworn to secrecy, members of the House Judiciary Committee have begun to consider evidence in its historic inquiry into possible impeachment of President Nixon.

During a long, closed briefing Thursday, the committee received a detailed account of events leading up to the Watergate break-in of June 17, 1972, and a thick pile of supporting acts.

Members said the staff presentation reached no conclusions and did not relate directly to any presidential conduct.

"It was strictly background," said Rep. John Conyers, D-

Mich. "It was all familiar, nothing new," added Rep. Don Edwards, D-Calif.

Both acknowledged, however, that the information presented Thursday links up with facts brought out in later sessions to form a pattern that would make it pertinent to the impeachment inquiry.

The committee is scheduled to hold three more closed sessions next week, all devoted to Watergate and the ensuing efforts to cover it up. Five other areas of presidential activity involved in the inquiry will be dealt with in following weeks.

In his opening statement,

Committee Chairman Peter J. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., said the committee was acting under a resolution passed by the House "by a vote of 410 to 4" authorizing and directing it "to investigate fully and completely whether sufficient grounds exist" to impeach President Nixon.

"We are proceeding under the mandate of that resolution. I don't need to stress again the importance of our undertaking and the wisdom, decency and principle which we must bring to it.

"We understand our high constitutional responsibility. We will faithfully live up to it," Rodino said.

In his opening remarks, Rep. Edward Hutchinson, ranking Republican on the committee, said:

"The power of impeachment is one of those great checks and balances written in our Constitution to ameliorate the stark doctrine of the separation of powers. But the impeachment of a president is more drastic, for it can bring down an administration of the government. The Constitution itself limits the scope of impeachment of a president to treason, bribery or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

He cited a law dictionary published in London in 1776 defining impeachment as "the accusation and prosecution of a person for treason or other crimes and misdemeanors."

And it is observed that the same evidence is required in an impeachment in Parliament as in the ordinary courts of justice."

He added, "The standard it imposes is a finding of criminal culpability on the part of the President himself, measured according to criminal law. I trust that the members of this committee embark upon their awesome task each in his own resolve to lay aside ordinary political considerations and to weigh the evidence according to the law. I trust that each of us is resolved during this inquiry, schooled, skilled and practiced in the law as each of us is, to perform as a lawyer in the finest traditions of the profession. . . ."

Houston Obstetrician Commends Legalized Abortion

By PAUL RECER
 HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Only about half of the patients at the clinic here, he said, are from Houston. The rest come from rural Texas counties and from Oklahoma and Louisiana, states where abortion is generally not permitted. Thirty per cent of the abortions are performed on girls under 18 years of age. Sixty per cent are unmarried. Dr. Lawrence E. Lundgren, a Houston obstetrician-gynecologist, said the clinic has performed more than 4,000 abortions since April 1973 and that the number is growing every month. "If they are under 18, they have to have permission of their parents," he said. "Many of them are brought here by a great deal of opposition to their parents." The doctor said he has aborted one 11-year-old, several 12-year-olds and "many 13- to 18-year-olds."

The younger patients, he said, usually are the ones who have been pregnant longest before they seek an abortion. Younger patients, Lundgren said, often don't recognize the signs of pregnancy, or are afraid to tell their parents, or are refused referral by the family doctor after requesting abortions. "There is a lack of feeling, it seems to me, on the part of the doctor who won't refer these girls," said the doctor. Still Some Stigma
 In some small towns, there is still a stigma attached to abortions and the patients often must travel long distances to receive them, said Lundgren. "Doctors are being derelict in their duty by making these women travel long distances," he said. "They sometimes end up having to travel here, undergo the procedure and then return home in one day," a process that could result in complications. Legal abortions, he said, have ended the very serious medical problems once caused by "back street abortionists." "Formerly almost every major hospital in the country had a septic abortion ward," he said. "Girls would come in with an infection after undergoing one of these back street abortions where they might have used a coat hanger or a stick. Many of these patients became obstetric cripples with chronic ailments caused by the infection." Little Medical Danger
 Now, says Lundgren, these abortion septic wards have been closed because "there's no need for them." Abortions performed under hospital conditions and within the first 20 weeks of pregnancy carry little medical danger, he said. The clinic provides total medical care, including counseling before and after the abortions. The cost is $165 for early pregnancy; $250 for a 12 to 14-week pregnancy and $425 for one lasting up to 20 weeks. None is performed here after 20 weeks, although they are legal up to 24 weeks. Patients paid much more, he said, for the illegal and hazardous abortions, with prices ranging from $300 to $3,000. Lundgren said that after a year of first-hand experience with abortions he believes they are morally justified. "I consider it a part of worldwide population control that without it could lead to worldwide starvation," he said. Population pressures in some underdeveloped countries, he said, are even now causing starvation, particularly among young children.

"Which is murder" he asked, "an abortion or letting a three- or four-year-old starve to death?" Lundgren is scheduled to present a paper on the abortion clinic during the annual convention of the Texas Medical Association which opened here Thursday.

Pilot, Hijacker Victim, May Fly Airliners Again

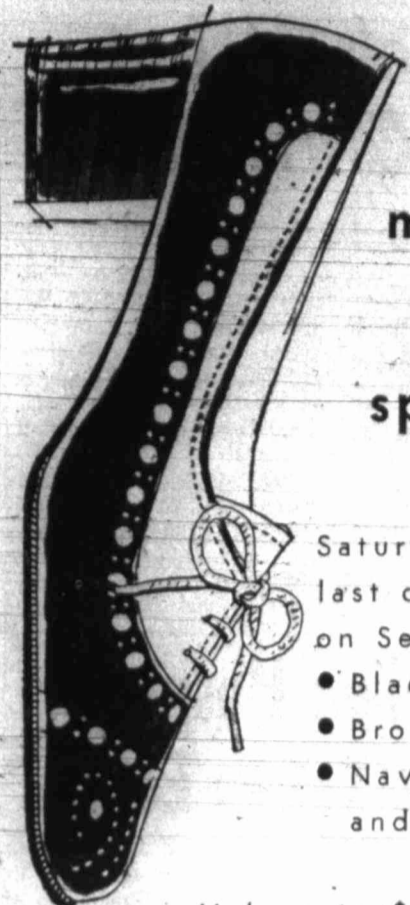

BALTIMORE (AP) — When a bomb-carrying gunman burst into the cabin of his Delta airliner more than two months ago, Reese D. Lofton thought he was a dead man. Thursday the 39-year-old pilot walked out of the Deaton Medical Center, 50 pounds lighter than his usual 225 and looking pale and drawn in his jeans and sweater, but declared fit by his doctors. Speaking to reporters before he took a flight to Dallas en route to Waco, he said, "There was no chance to even talk to Dr. Howard Cham with the gentleman. I knew that my co-pilot was dead. I didn't see any way of saving myself at all. He said, 'You're going to fly me to Washington, but I never had any intention of moving the aircraft.'" Columnist Jack Anderson said the hijacker, Philadelphia salesman Joseph Byck, 44, sent him a tape that he made up his mind to crash an airliner into the White House. Byck fatally shot a security guard and said, the co-pilot and wounded Lofton before killing himself after Lofton's abdomen was torn apart by three hollow-nose bullets, and he was rushed to the Maryland Institute for Emergency Medicine at University Hospital. He went through several operations and numerous blood transfusions. "They took me completely apart and put me back together," he said. Lofton may be back in the pilot's seat in about a year, according to Dr. Howard Cham. Lofton's physician said that his wife, Joyce, is rebuilding his health. He has to go to Washington in a month for a checkup and later for another operation. He said he has bought a contire man tape that he made up his mind to crash an airliner into the White House. Byck fatally shot a security guard and said,

Kite, Armstrong In Houston Lead

By BOB GREEN
HOUSTON (AP) — Tom Kite parlayed a new putter, a new grip and some new-found confidence into a share of the lead in the Houston Open Golf Tournament.

"I'm hitting it so well, I'm so confident about my game, I wouldn't be surprised if I shoot three more rounds just as good as this one," Kite said Thursday after his 67 had tied rookie Wally Armstrong for the first round lead in this $150,000 event.

Armstrong, such a newcomer to the tour that he hasn't learned about making hotel reservations and had to spend one night this week sleeping in his car, made use of 12 one-putt greens and "my faith in our Lord Jesus," in putting together his five-under-par effort.

"I couldn't have done it without my faith," the 28-year-old Armstrong said. "Please mention that I give Him all credit for any success I have."

They shared a one-stroke lead over a pair of non-winning tour regulars, Paul Moran and Bob Zender. Moran and Zender each had a 68 in the hot, windy, muggy weather.

Tommy Aaron, Rod Curl, Dwight Nevil, Ed Sneed and Terry Ferraro were at 69 with defending champion Bryce Crampton of Australia in a large group at 70.

Most of the game's glamour names are skipping this event for one reason or another.

Kite, a consistent money-winner in his brief career but still seeking his first victory, has threatened several times this year and has finished in the top 10 three times.

"I'm not scared of playing well now," said Kite, a 24-year-old tour sophomore who has won some $28,000 this season. "I once was."

Part of his new-found confidence, he said, stems from a new putter. He threw away the old one after a final round 80 ruined a good tournament for him in last week's Byron Nelson Classic.

And, using the new one, a slightly more upright stance and a new grip, he needed only 28 strokes on the greens.

Armstrong, 28, has had little but struggle and disappointment since joining the tour this season. He's earned a check in only three major tour events, hasn't made expenses and came to this tournament lacking a hotel reservation.

When he got here, he found there was a 25,000-man convention in town and all hotels were jammed. He couldn't find a room and he and his wife, Debbie, spent the night sleeping in their car parked at the golf course.

Boston's Celtics Eye Title Tonight

By DAVE O'HARA
BOSTON (AP) — Just five years ago, one of the greatest dynasties in sports history crumbled when Bill Russell quit as player-coach of the Boston Celtics.

Now, with Coach Tommy Heinsohn calling the shots and Dave Cowens at Russell's old center position, the Celtics are back—just one victory from being all the way back.

With a 3-2 lead over the Milwaukee Bucks, the Celtics seek their first National Basketball Association championship since 1969 and their 12th in history tonight in the sixth game of the best-of-seven series at Boston Garden.

"We're going to win it," Heinsohn said confidently. "On any given night either team can win, but we've beaten them twice at their court and now we're back in Boston."

The Midland Reporter-Telegram

SPORTS

28-FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1974

"We've put a lot of pressure on ourselves, but it's not over yet," countered Milwaukee Coach Larry Costello. "We had the same pressure here (fourth game) last Sunday and we won. However, we've got our work cut out."

There's a great difference in the Celtics' style from the Russell era. With Russell revolutionizing the game with his defensive genius, the Celtics won 11 NBA titles in 13 years on the shooting of such greats as Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman, Sam Jones and Heinsohn.

Now, as Cowens says, "this is a different ball game." The Celtics have shocked the mighty Bucks with a press all over the court. Don Chaney and Jo Jo White, the regular back-court partners, lead the harassment which has slowed Milwaukee in all but one of the first five games.

"We've never pressed like this, it's phenomenal," Cowens said. "During the regular season we play a looser press, but this is a different ball game now."

The Bucks know what to expect—the press, Cowens shooting from outside to draw tall Kareem Abdul-Jabbar from under the basket. However, they have been frustrated, particularly so in a pivotal fifth game loss, 96-87, in Milwaukee Tuesday night.

"We can do better," Heinsohn said. "The adjustment period is over for both teams. Now it's execution. We've just got to have everyone play to his ability."

"We have to keep playing hard," Boston team captain John Havlicek said. "If we do, we can take all summer to relax."

Havlicek, who helped the Celtics to championships in the 1960s before becoming the undisputed team leader, has lived up to the superstar role in the series. Although 34, he has played 231 of the 245 minutes.

His play in the fifth game was typical 47 minutes, 28 points, nine rebounds and all-around court general.

AT REBEL SPRING SPORTS BANQUET—Clingman, Kubik Named As Lee's Top Athletes

By BOB DILLON
Trisha Kubik and David Clingman were named top athletes at Midland Lee High School for the 1973-74 sports year during the 13th annual Spring Sports Awards in the Lee Cafeteria Thursday night.

Miss Kubik, a three-year letter winner and all-state volleyball player, was named along with Clingman, winner of four letters, two each in basketball and baseball.

Clingman also was awarded the Winner Award by basketball Coach Paul Stueckler and Ceremonies and after introducing the special guests, handed out 15 letters to his basketball squad. Lana Russell gave the invocation.

Lee has racked up a 57-9 mark in two seasons with most of this year's team making up the squad both seasons. Seniors like Melvin Jackson, Sammy Cox, Steve Hankinson, Mike Hill and Willard Floyd were part of the 1972-73 team which had a 29-4 mark as juniors and then this past season, compiled a 28-5 mark including the District 5-4A crown.

Baseball Coach Ernie Johnson, whose team had an 18-8 record, handed out letter awards to 20 members of the team which included 10 juniors and one sophomore, giving the Rebels another strong outfit in 1975.

Steve Hankinson and Phil Anderson received their third varsity letter from Johnson.

Randy Lewis and Bruce Faulk headed the track letter winners, receiving their third letter by assistant coach George Patchell, who filled in for Sam Volpe. A total of 15 letters were given to track team members by Patchell. Milton Jones, junior shot putter and dash man, was given special attention for his third place finish in the recent Class AAAA state track meet in the shot.

Coach Dale Biggs gave letters to 10 boys and Coach Stephenson to 10 boys and Coach Shirley Stephenson to 10 girls on the Rebel golf teams with Pam Barb receiving her third letter. Miss Barb was one of the key players on the 1973 Lee golf team which won state. Liz Norton, runner-up medalist in the recent regional golf tourney, was given recognition along with Miss Barb.

In swimming, Coach Dennis Brittain gave a total of 24 letters—15 to the boys and Coach Naomi Malson nine to the girls with Mike Butler and Kerry Freedman getting special notice for their performances in regional and state.

Mrs. Malson cited the girls 440-free relay team made up of Susan Bateman, Janie Tope, Dru Shaw and June Scobey for setting a state record with a clocking of 3:46.9 in Austin.

Bobby Connell, tennis coach for both the boys and girls, honored seven boys and six girls with letters while Coach Mary Lance had high praise for her girls gymnastic team which left for the state meet in Austin after the banquet. She handed out letters to three boys and six girls.

Coach Linda Weikel announced that Miss Kubik and Willie Lane were recently named all-state with Miss Lane also chosen to play for the West All-Stars in the annual all-star game in Brownwood in June.

man's teammates voted on the Winner Award.

Assistant Principal Glenn Woods made the presentations to Miss Kubik and Clingman, who received standing ovations by the large gathering.

A total of 137 letters were handed out to athletes in basketball, baseball, track, boys and girls golf, boys and girls swimming along with boys and girls tennis, boys and girls gymnastics and volleyball.

Stueckler, Athletic Chairman at Lee, was Master of Ceremonies and after introducing the special guests, handed out 15 letters to his basketball squad. Lana Russell

Flyers Break Boston Jinx With 3-2 NHL Playoff Win

BOSTON (AP) — The Philadelphia Flyers, a comparative National Hockey League infant, have come of age in seven short years, confident of knocking off the Boston Bruins for the coveted Stanley Cup.

The Flyers broke an old Boston jinx and defeated the Bruins 3-2 Thursday night on Bobby Clarke's hard-earned goal at 12:01 of sudden death overtime, squaring the best-of-seven series at one game apiece.

"Now that we've won here, I surely believe we're going to do it," Philadelphia Coach Fred Shero said before leading the Flyers back home for Games No. 3 and 4 Sunday afternoon and Tuesday night.

"This team has so much courage it's unbelievable," Shero said. "I've never had one like it and I'll never have one like it again. This is a once in a lifetime."

After dropping a 3-2 decision on Bobby Orr's last minute goal in the series opener, Shero impressed upon the Flyers that they had to believe they could win in Boston. They were 0-17-2 in the Garden since winning on their first visit as an expansion team in November 1967.

The Bruins had another stalling going for them: They had never lost a playoff game to a post-1967 team. However, the Flyers apparently got Shero's "you gotta believe" message.

"Now we've got to go into their building and win a hockey game," Boston Coach Bep Guidolin said. "Sooner or later they were going to win here in the Garden. They won it tonight, and that's what I was scared of."

The Bruins, as in the first game, jumped to a 2-0 first period lead on goals by Wayne Cashman and Phil Esposito. Clarke, the Flyers' team captain, narrowed the count to 2-1 by deflecting home a shot by Bill Flett early in the second period.

Boston, the Stanley Cup champion in 1970 and '72, appeared to have victory clinched, even though Philadel-

Hollis Claims Hogan Match

Mrs. Jack Hollis took first place in the Hogan Park Women's Golf Tournament Thursday, scoring a net 204.

There was a five-way tie for second place and it was settled by a sudden death playoff with Mrs. Lawrence Smith taking second, followed by Mrs. W. C. Kimball, Mrs. Coughran Ketner, Mrs. Jim Coulter and Mrs. Cullen Heath.

In the nine-hole flight, Mrs. Ralph McCleskey won first with Mrs. George Barry second, and Mrs. Evelyn Ballard third.

Mrs. Heath won the long-driving contest, while Mrs. Ben Adams won the putting competition and Mrs. Kimball took the chipping test.

Salary Raise Causes Decrease

TORONTO (AP) — Harold Ballard, president of Maple Leaf Gardens Ltd., said Thursday that increased player salaries caused Gardens earnings to decrease by half during the last half-year.

STILL AN INDIVIDUAL— Goolagong Dislikes World Team Tennis

By KAROL STONGER
 AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Evonne Goolagong, star of the Pittsburgh Triangles, has trouble identifying with the concept of World Team Tennis.

She refers to championship competition as "real tennis," says it's still an individual sport and prefers the old hospital corridor hush to the hood-and-howl game of the new WTT.

"Naturally, I'd rather play under conditions I'm used to," the 21-year-old Australian ace said Thursday. "But you can't do anything about it. You can't stand up and say 'Everyone keep quiet, I'm going to serve.' You just have to realize that your opponent has to put up with the same thing."

"I still think tennis is an individual sport," she said when asked about WTT. "You still have to concentrate on yourself. But at the same time, you feel part of a team when you're watching the others play."

"And if you make a mistake in 'real tennis,' you have only yourself to blame. But in team tennis, if you make a mistake, you're hurting your team. It's like doubles. If you let your partner down you feel terrible... I do."

Despite the fact that she plays only one set at a time before resting and plays two sets a night at the most, Miss Goolagong says it won't hurt her endurance for the big tests such as the Australian, French and U.S. Opens, and Wimbledon.

"If anything, it'll help my concentration," she said. "In WTT you have to win every game, not just the set, so you have to start concentrating from the beginning. You can't let up."

Miss Goolagong already has won the Australian Open this season and plans to take time off from WTT to play in the other events that make up the Big Four of tennis. The only title that has eluded her is the U.S. Open. She won the French Open and Wimbledon in 1971.

But she must put them all together in one year for the Grand Slam and the $125,000 bonus announced at the luncheon Thursday. Her coach and guardian, Vic Edwards, thinks she can do it.

Edwards discovered Miss Goolagong when she was 10 years old and started coaching her. By the time she was 14, he decided she needed more concentrated training. With the blessing of her father, a sheep-shearer, she went to live with the Edwards family, and from then on, her tennis career really blossomed.

Burns Leads Golf Event

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP) — George Burns, a red-haired 215-pounder who stands 6-2, turned to golf when a knee injury ended his football career while a freshman guard at the University of Maryland.

In only his third year against top-flight competition he has reached the semifinals of the North and South Amateur tournament. His philosophy is simple. He says, "You've got to really dislike a guy to play well in match play."

The Canadian Amateur champion from Port Washington, N.Y., was hoping to psyche himself into disliking a lanky, likeable East Tennessee State freshman, Skeeter Heath of Hampton, Va., his opponent in today's 18-hole semifinals.

The winner will play 36 holes for the title Saturday against the survivor of the match between mortgage banker Marty West of Bethesda, Md., and Danny Yates, Atlanta insurance man.

Heath is 19; the others are all in the 24-25 age bracket.

Heath and Burns scored notable victories in Thursday's quarter-finals, delayed three hours by morning thundershowers.

Burns, sales representative for a chocolate drink company, swept three holes starting at the 10th on the 7,000-yard No. 2 course of the Pinehurst Country Club and went on to win 2 and 1 over Dick Siderow of Westport, Conn., British Amateur champion and Walker Cup player last year.

Jim Rooker Picks Up 4-1 Victory For Pirates

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ HOUSTON (AP) — Houston's Dave Roberts was a loser and Pittsburgh's Jim Rooker was a winner Thursday night but they both felt lucky. "I really didn't have my best stuff tonight but we had some lucky breaks," Rooker said after holding the Astros to four hits over seven innings in a 4-1 Pittsburgh victory. "I just kept them off balance and we made some key plays," the Pirates hurler said after evening his record at 2-4.

"Against a good hitting team like Pittsburgh, I felt lucky," said Roberts, who yielded 11 hits over seven innings. "I felt good. I had my good slider and curve and I felt strong on my fast ball."

TEXAS LOSES, 6-1— Cinderella Loses Golden Slippers

By Denne H. Freeman ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Kansas City's Marty Pattin awoke from a nightmare Thursday night and in the process temporarily shattered the first place dreams of the Cinderella Texas Rangers.

Pattin, obtained from the Boston Red Sox in the off-season, retired 19 consecutive Rangers en route to a four-hit 6-1 victory which dropped Texas into a second-place tie with California in the American League West.

Chicago moved into the lead in the AL West by .003 percentage points. Texas' fifth consecutive loss dropped the Rangers from first place for the first time since April 24.

Pattin said of his first victory in a Royal uniform: "I didn't think it would ever come. I got the feeling I wasn't helping the team. I was pressing a little, you know, coming from a new team and everything. "I wanted to do well. I've pitched well this year—once I was ahead 6-1 and got rained out. I had three no decisions. My only loss was by one run. It was frustrating. For a change, I should have a good night's sleep."

Kansas City catcher Fran Healy said Pattin's control was excellent. "He didn't walk a man—this is what he really needed, a complete game," Healy said. "His confidence should soar." Martin was full of praise for Pattin. "I've been in this league 24 years but it's the first time I ever saw a pitcher go four innings without throwing a ball being broken. Warren Shanklin of Northeast Louisiana, has cleared 7-0 three times this year and also leaped 7-1. Owusu, a native of Ghana, set a Lone Star Conference record of 51-74 in the LSC triple jump, well over the M of C record of 51 1/4. Owusu also won the long jump, 440-yard dash and was second in the high jump at the LSC meet.

The Pirates, who lost to the Astros in 12 innings Wednesday, scored in the second when Rooker belted a single to score Richie Hebner. Back-to-back singles by Manny Sanguillen and Hebner in the third inning scored two more runs and the Pirates added their fourth run in the eighth when Rooker doubled and scored on a single by Rennie Stennett off Houston reliever Fred Scherman. Houston's lone run came in the fourth inning when first baseman Lee May blasted his

Chicago, Aeros Seek WHA Title

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cougars, happy underdogs throughout postseason competition, face the powerful Houston Aeros Sunday in the opener for the World Hockey Association championship.

The Cougars, playing better than anyone ever hoped, nipped the defending champion New England Whalers in a seven-game division title face-off. They fell behind in the playoffs against Toronto, but battled back Monday for a 5-2 victory in the series final.

Now they face the Aeros, led by Gordie Howe and sons Mark and Marty. The Aeros eliminated Winnipeg in four straight, then downed the Minnesota Fighting Saints in six games.

The best-of-seven series will open Sunday afternoon in the 3,000-seat Randhurst Twin Ice Arena in suburban Mount Prospect. The Cougars got ousted from the International Amphitheatre for the division series in favor of a Peter Pan production, and then the ice was removed for the season. To compensate for the tiny arena, games will be shown on local television, live when possible.

Amarillo Gets El Paso Again

By The Associated Press ARCADIA, Calif. (AP) — Amarillo's Mike Minster continued his mastery over El Paso pitchers Thursday night with a two-run homer in the seventh to lead a 9-1 Texas League attack over the Diablos.

The seventh inning homer was Minster's third over-the-wall shot in as many nights, against El Paso including Wednesday's grand slam. In other league games, Alexandria beat Shreveport 5-4 and Victoria edged Arkansas 8-7. Midland at San Antonio was rained out.

Gary Walls smacked a three-run homer in the seventh inning to lift Alexandria to his victory over Shreveport. The Captains came back with two runs in the eighth, but then Alexandria hurler Cliff Butcher put the fire out and held on to the game.

Sutton Fires One Hitter As Bums Continue Pace

By FRED ROTHENBERG AP Sports Writer The difference between a ONE-hitter and a NO-hitter is a lot more than the letter E.

With one out in the second inning, John Grubb bounced a ground ball up the middle that just tipped off the glove of Los Angeles shortstop Bill Russell for a single. It wasn't a big hit. But to Don Sutton, it must have seemed like a 600-foot home run.

"I really wanted to pitch a no-hitter," said Sutton, who pitched the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 6-0 victory over the San Diego Padres Thursday night. "But I can't complain about the hit Grubb got tonight. I threw him a change-up and he did what a good hitter should do—he hit it up the middle."

Elsewhere in the major leagues, the Kansas City Royals downed the Texas Rangers 6-1; the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Houston Astros 4-1; the Chicago Cubs trimmed the Atlanta Braves 3-1, and the Boston Red Sox blanked the New York Yankees 2-0.

Sutton, who owns two other one-hit efforts, struck out five and walked two. Cubs 3, Braves 1 Shortstop Craig Robinson's throwing error on a seventh-inning double play enabled the Chicago Cubs to score a pair of runs and defeat Atlanta. Rick Reuschel pitched a four-hitter.

Until the seventh, the game's only run was set up by home run king Hank Aaron's first stolen base of the season. Aaron, who had a season-high of 31 bases in 1963, totaled only six in the past three years.

Lockman said he wouldn't have been embarrassed if the final score were 1-0, "but I'd have been damned angry. Sure I know he's 40 but he's still a great ballplayer." Red Sox 2, Yankees 0 Bernie Carbo broke up a scoreless pitching duel between Boston's Luis Tiant and New York's Pat Dobson with a seventh-inning homer.

ABA Championship Series Enters Game Five Tonight

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — The New York Nets are only one victory away from their first American Basketball Association championship, but Coach Kevin Loughery says his young club hasn't been aggressive enough. "We'll have to pick up some hustle," said Loughery as the Nets prepared to play the Utah Stars tonight at the Nassau Coliseum in game No. 5 of their best-of-seven title series. "We can't win playing the way we did in Salt Lake City."

The Nets lead the series 3-1 on the strength of two victories at home and one in Utah. The Stars avoided elimination Wednesday night with a 97-89 victory. Loughery, possibly trying to arouse his troops, says the Nets have been lucky so far. "We are fortunate to have a 3-1 lead in games," he said. "We lucked out in the third one and made too many mistakes in the fourth." The Nets have won 11 of 13

Howdy, Geophysicists!

A conference of special significance is under way in the Tall City today.

It is the 19th annual Exploration Meeting of the Permian Basin Geophysical Society, which convened here Thursday.

"The Challenge of the Energy Crisis" is the theme of the session, and this is what emphasizes the significance of this particular Exploration Meeting.

The nation's energy crisis definitely is a challenge to the petroleum industry as a whole, but particularly to those branches having to do with exploration leading to the discovery of new oil reserves.

And the important thing is that oil industry personnel are doing their deadlevel best to meet the challenge. The latest, best and most successful means of going about it from the geophysical viewpoint will be the major topic of discussion at the Midland conference.

Harold Kidder, president of the National Society of Exploration Geophysicists, delivered the keynote address to open today's sessions, urging his listeners on to even greater achievements in their profession and in the great industry which they represent.

Nine technical papers prepared by highly respected experts in their particular fields, were scheduled for delivery during the day.

Midland is glad to be the host city for the important session, and Midlanders are delighted to have the distinguished geophysicists from a wide area as special guests on this particular occasion. Oilmen always are welcome in this Headquarters City.

It is hoped that the conference will be the best and most rewarding ever and that the delegates will enjoy themselves to the fullest while here.

It is hoped that the visitors from out of city will come back to see us soon and often.

County Conventions

Attendance and participation of delegates to the county conventions of the major political parties scheduled Saturday are most important.

This is the next step, following the precinct conventions, in the nation's democratic process and the actions taken at the conventions will have much to do with future actions taken at state and national levels. Increased interest noted in last Saturday's precinct meetings was most encouraging. But the interest mustn't stop there.

Hopefully, the delegates to the county conventions will consider and adopt resolutions seeking an improved climate politically for the petroleum industry, among other matters.

The grassroots level is the place to get the ball rolling.

'See How This Cleans Him Up?'

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Jack Anderson Says: The Hunt bribe back in the news.

WASHINGTON — The most serious question raised by the White House transcripts is whether President Nixon authorized a bribe payment to Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt.

As the reporter who covered the hush-money scandals, I have been questioned about the circumstances by both the Watergate prosecutors and Senate investigators. Here are the sordid details:

Scarcely a month after the Watergate burglars were arrested, Hunt wrote a threatening, three-page letter demanding "to contact someone in the White House."

His attorney, William O. Bittman, read the letter to the Nixon campaign committee's attorney, Kenneth W. Parkinson. "Give us a week," requested Parkinson.

Hunt told Bittman to reply: "No, you get two days." "Okay," promised Parkinson. "Something will be worked out in a couple of days."

He spoke to John Mitchell, then the campaign chief, who told White House counsel John Dean about Hunt's demand for money. Dean summoned the President's personal attorney, Herbert Kalmbach, to Washington. They held a whispered, sidewalk conference in front of the Hay-Adams Hotel and asked him to raise money for the Watergate defendants.

Stressing the necessity for secrecy, Dean suggested the hush money should be channeled through Anthony Ulasewicz, an ex-New York cop straight out of Damon Runyon.

Kalmbach collected between $210,000 and $230,000, which he delivered in secret packets to Ulasewicz. They kept in touch with one another through pay phones, using code names to identify the people involved in the pay-off.

Hunt was referred to as "the writer," because of his sideline as a novelist. His wife Dorothy, using pay phones and answering to the code name "Chris," passed out hush money in sealed envelopes to other Watergate defendants.

As their trial date approached, Mrs. Hunt met on Nov. 30, 1972, with Waterbugger James McCord. She warned that the payments would be cut off "unless you fellows agree to plead guilty... and keep your mouths shut."

Four weeks later, we broke the story that the White House wanted the Watergate burglars to enter guilty pleas. "By pleading guilty, the defendants could avoid a public spectacle," we wrote, "and save the White House embarrassment."

But we still couldn't find out who was paying their legal bills. "Who is paying for these high-powered, high-priced attorneys?" we asked in our Dec. 26, 1972, column. By this time, we had succeeded in winning the confidence of some of the Cubans on the Watergate burglary crew. But all they would admit to us was: "We were told when we took the job that we would be taken care of."

They refused, however to plead guilty. They thought they would get a better break by having their day in court, since they merely had carried out what they had thought to be

Yet we had reported the story in 950 newspapers more than two months earlier.

The White House transcripts show that John Dean told the President on March 21 that Hunt was demanding an additional $120,000.

"You have no choice but to come up with the $120,000 or whatever it is. Right?" asked the President after much discussion.

"That's right," agreed Dean. "Would you agree that that's the prime thing that you damn well better get that done?"

"Obviously," said Dean, "he (Hunt) ought to be given some signal anyway."

"Explicative deleted," get it," directed the President.

A discussion followed about who should arrange the money. White House staff chief H. R. Haldeman mentioned John Mitchell's name.

Immediately following the meeting, Haldeman telephoned Mitchell, who allegedly asked aide Fred LaRue to deliver $75,000 in campaign cash to Hunt. The FBI has established that the money was delivered about 10 o'clock that night to Hunt's attorney.

Mitchell reported back to the White House next day that Hunt was no longer a problem.

BRUCE BLOSSAT Is There A Ford In Gov. Reagan's Future?

WASHINGTON (NEA) — New survey of GOP leaders in a dozen states shows California's Gov. Ronald Reagan, symbol to many of the pure church of conservative Republicanism, is a very live 1976 presidential prospect. Yet he is seriously menaced by Vice President Ford's mere presence in the picture.

No one could be surprised that any run-through on Reagan finds him easily the sentimental favorite of the Old South, and of sizable parts of the Midwest, Plains and Mountain states. In these areas and other presumably less hospitable sectors, like the Northeast, he has been busy in recent months pleasing audiences with his old platform flair.

Most Republican politicians I tapped at their recent party gathering here were going on the basis of their own soundings. They tend to dismiss as unrepresentative a formal poll of GOP county chairmen giving Reagan a substantial lead over Ford and still bigger margins over such other assumed 1976 contenders as Nelson Rockefeller and Sen. Charles Percy.

Nevertheless, from every region party spokesmen quickly indicated that Ford's entry into the 1976 contest (if it be first postulated that he is not already president as a consequence of President Nixon's impeachment), either neutralizes Reagan or nearly wipes him out in his strongest ballparks.

Southerners, for instance, tell me without hesitation that Ford, barring some damaging stumble in the meantime, would automatically have commanding acceptability in their states. An Alabama leader indicated the vice president likely would shove Reagan right out of the ballpark — where he is cheered today.

Speak of Reagan as an individual political entity to politicians from Wisconsin, Indiana and even Ford's own Michigan (mindful always of its heavy mix of Wallace-type voters), and you get an upbeat reading. But add Ford's name to the developing 1976 broth and expressions and utterances change instantly.

It's no news, of course, that you don't get accolades for Reagan when you talk to leaders in places like Maine, Massachusetts, New York and New Jersey.

What does strike you with force is how comfortably the pro-Reagan elements suggest they could and very likely would turn their full allegiance to Gerald Ford if he became the avowed candidate he still insists right now that he won't be.

Why this is so may be a fairly complex question.

Ford is of course widely perceived as a clean man and thus appeals broadly to conservatives accustomed to charging — the Democrats with shenanigans and shocked to the hair follicles at having a Watergate in their own midst.

And, while Reagan is considered untarnished by Watergate or anything else, his sentimental backers — especially the southerners — suspect he might not do too well running the gamut of 1976 primaries in such states as New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York and Oregon.

These conservative leaders hear from their liberal counterparts that Ford, notwithstanding his own evident conservatism, is today held in reasonably high regard in northern industrial bastions. Therefore, they can conjecture fairly painless agreement within the party on the Vice President.

Finding that kind of agreement, I gather from a host of leader interviews, is judged critical today for the GOP. On both sides, party men are not only weary of the old ideological struggles, but in many cases see them as a luxury a Watergate-beleaguered party cannot indulge.

So, gauged as a man apart from tangled context, Reagan is doing pretty well out there these days. But put Ford in his future and he could fade swiftly into the mists.

Which thought supports my cynic neighbor's contention that anybody wise enough to do a good job in the House or Senate is either too smart to want the job or couldn't get elected.

DON OAKLEY More Men, Not Money, Is Answer To Problem

NEW YORK (NEA) — Just on the face of it, there would seem to be all kinds of room for economizing in the Defense Department's record $85.8 billion request for the coming fiscal year.

This is a monstrous sum of money, even though it represents a small fraction of America's total economic output. Americans, harried by inflation, perceiving no immediate threat to the nation's security and still looking for the Vietnam peace "dividend" that never has materialized, inevitably question whether such an outlay is necessary.

This kind of grass-roots thinking perhaps is exemplified by one Florida newspaper editor, who points out that our only two possible adversaries are Russia and China. "The idea that one or both of these powers would launch an unprovoked war on America is completely absurd," says Robert K. Pepper.

Why should the Soviet Union, which occupies a third of the land mass of the globe, seek to seize the Dakota wheat fields when they can buy all the grain they want on credit, he asks? China does not have, and probably never will have, the long-range offensive capability to threaten us.

The problem is not grave enough to warrant a large standing army, he concludes.

Yet one thing critics tend to slight when they question the defense budget is the fact that fully 55 to 60 per cent of this $85.8 billion will go not for missiles or ships or sophisticated weaponry but simply to meet the payrolls of the armed services — which at 2.2 million men are already half a million below the level of pre-Vietnam 1964 and 1.2 million less than that maintained by the Soviet Union.

"Military critics scream about the high cost of defense," says Rep. F. Edward Hebert (D-La.), chairman of the House Armed Services Committee.

"But the cost of trying to do without the draft is high and will continue to increase." The Army especially, which has discharged all but a tiny percentage of its draftees and has no prospects for any more, is discovering that it costs more and more to come up with less and less.

Despite a quadrupling of military pay in the last 10 years, $2,500 bonuses for four-year enlistments and a lowering of educational requirements, the Army fell almost 15 per cent below its 1973 recruitment target and is currently 13 per cent under authorized strength in its combat arms. It is becoming top-heavy with officers.

Hebert predicts that in three years we will return to the draft because the effort to establish an all-volunteer force will have failed and our defense structure will be weakened.

Whether this will happen in the absence of some new international crisis or a reversal of the trend toward "détente" is something that only the next few years can tell.

In the meantime, however, the time rapidly is approaching when the nation will have to make some realistic decisions about the kind of defense structure it wants or needs.

If recruitment targets have fallen short, have the targets themselves been set too high? Should we be willing to spend even more for an even smaller force of better trained and better equipped professionals? Or is a highly paid, elite military force itself "undemocratic" and a potential danger? Should a period of some kind of public service be required of all young people, with military duty considered as one way of several of discharging that obligation?

The answers are not easy, nor will any of them come cheaply.

Dear Editor: It is said that many peoplomasters in the congress racket can't understand why the polls show that a big majority of us commanalty don't think they are doing a good job.

And one certified wise man says the law wranglers' being puzzled by their low rating is due to their having to use the same mental short-circuitry with which they do their work.

Which thought supports my cynic neighbor's contention that anybody wise enough to do a good job in the House or Senate is either too smart to want the job or couldn't get elected.

Senate Abandons Try To Provide Wage, Price Monitoring

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate, after a partisan squabble, has abandoned attempts to provide any government monitoring of wage and price increases.

Democrats, who started a week ago to try to keep some standby wage-price controls on the books, killed the entire legislation Thursday after charging the Republicans wanted only a sham monitoring agency.

The Senate vote came a day after Ford Motor Co. announced price increases averaging $163 for 1974 automobiles. That action was criticized immediately by John T. Dunlop, director of the Cost of Living Council, who called it an unwarranted violation of Ford's commitment to the Council not to increase prices on 1974 models.

One council source had suggested Wednesday that Ford had blundered in its timing and that the announcement could affect the Senate vote. Ford's decision was raised on the Senate floor Thursday by Louisiana Democrat J. Bennett Johnston. He said Ford's announcement illustrated the need for strong powers to enforce decontrol agreements, and that without new legislation the government would be powerless to do anything about such increases.

A motion by Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, to table and thus kill the entire legislation was adopted 65 to 18 despite some indication the Nixon administration favored retention of monetary machinery.

President Nixon said Thursday he is ready to try responsible labor-management negotiations as a substitute for federal anti-inflation controls, but he added that controls might have to be reimposed if those efforts fail.

The free market cannot be relied upon to determine costs and prices "unless there is a sense of responsibility," Nixon commented as he received a report from the National Commission for Industrial Peace. He added that labor-management performance during the recent inflationary period "has been very responsible" and that the number of strikes has been "perhaps lower than we had any right to expect."

The Democratic proposal to retain controls on a standby basis was soundly defeated when the Senate opened debate on the legislation.

However, it did adopt a Muskie plan to have the government monitor wage and price hikes with strong authority to get relevant information from businesses and unions.

The proposal would have given the President power to enforce price commitments made by industries when they were decontrolled.

But, as the debate resumed Thursday, the Senate changed its mind and tentatively adopted instead an amendment of Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., which did not include subpoena authority to get information and would have allowed the monitoring agency only 28 professional employees.

which did not include subpoena authority to get information and would have allowed the monitoring agency only 28 professional employees.

Muskie declared the Republicans were offering "only a shadow agency which could not begin to do the monitoring job. There is no use for us to pass a sham."

Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III, D-Ill., said adoption of the Tower proposal would "deceive the American people that we are doing something about inflation."

Tower contended that the Democrats wanted to keep such an elaborate agency that it Penney Gets Degree In ACC Ceremonies

Psychiatrist Says Telling Some Terminally Ill Patients Of Fate May Be As Cruel As Death Row

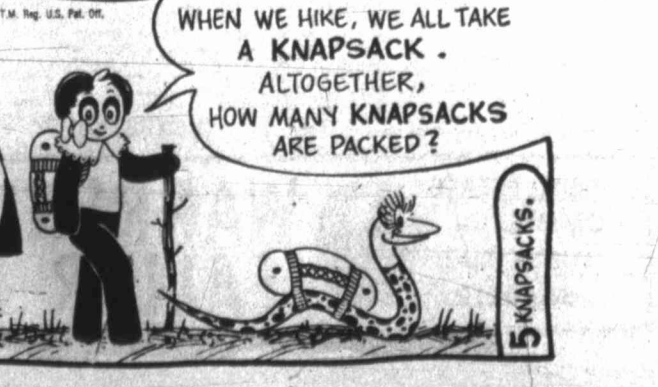

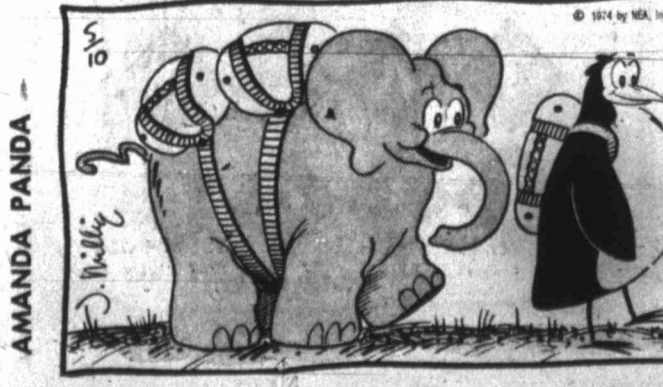

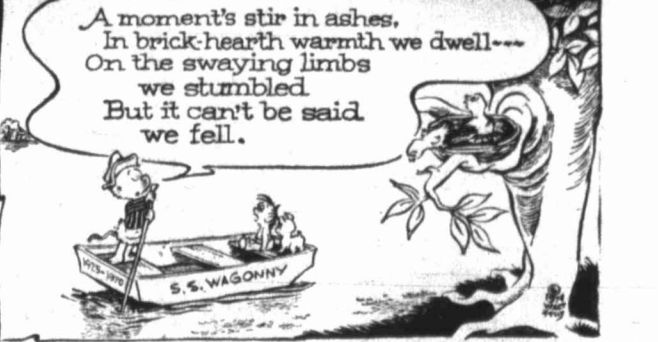

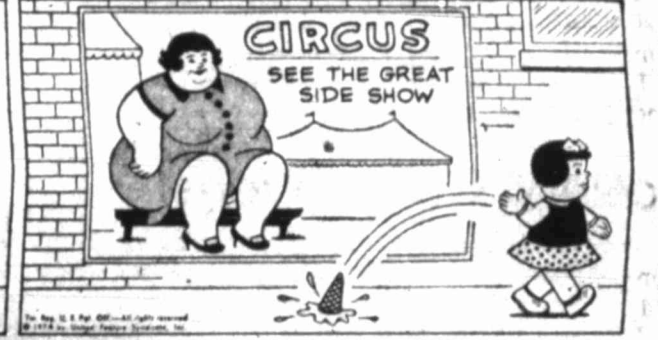

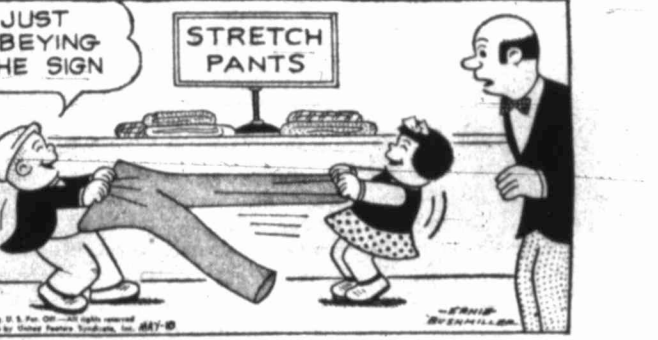

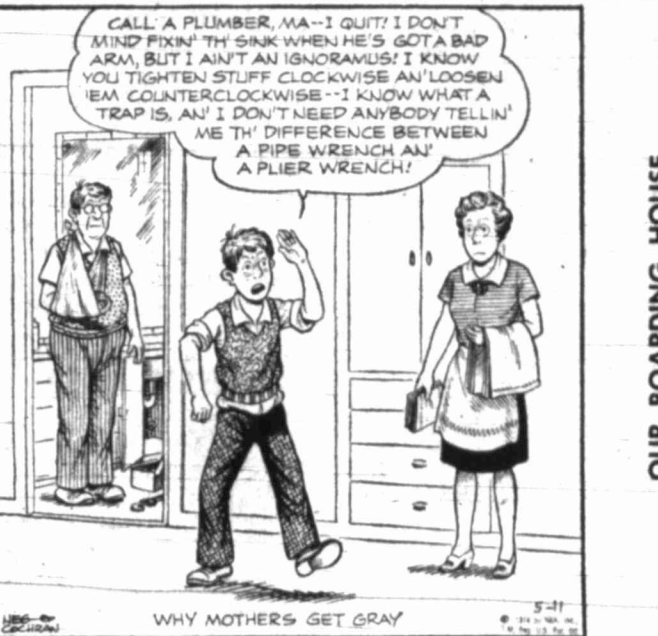

DETROIT (AP) — Telling some terminally ill patients of their fate may be as cruel as keeping a prisoner on death row before his execution, a Philadelphia psychiatrist says.

Dr. Edward Gotthel made the statement Thursday in proposing a study of one of the medical world's most important questions: Should a terminally ill patient be told he or she is dying?

hope is a strong ally in the patient's will to fight. "We have all observed patients who, notwithstanding their medical condition, have given up and died, or fought and lived," he said.

The Philadelphia team included Wealtha C. McCurn, a registered nurse, and Dr. Otto Pollak, a University of Pennsylvania sociologist, Gotthel said. He suggested research to develop guidelines and principles which could be judiciously applied to specific cases to promote less depression, more communication and increased survival time.

Receiving his B.S. degree in biology was David Allen Penney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyce Penney of 4507 Storey St., Midland.

EXCLUSIVE PROFITABLE BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

For aggressive men to join successful company and own your own business. We have over 75 dealerships in operation in well established service field that is growing faster than national average. We are interested in men that are willing to do light manual labor during first six months when starting their business. We have successful proven business that has been developed over past 18 years. No previous business experience required as we train you and continuously assist you in your area. We have started men from all walks of life in this low overhead-high profit business, who net profit can climb over 30% of sales. G. H. of Gainesville, Fla., grossed over $25,000.00 in his tenth month of business. P. E. of Lawrence, Kansas, did $72,000.00 his second year. B. R. in Charlotte, N.C. grossed $9750.00 in ten days on one job. Expansion program by our company creates unlimited opportunities for aggressive, energetic, honest and reliable men who are not afraid of work and who reserve the right to grant franchises to the best qualified individual in each area. Do not reply unless you are interested in above average income. No obligation on your part or ours as we reserve the right to grant franchises to the best qualified individual in each area.

FINANCIAL

Money wanted by prominent, professional businessman for expansion purposes. Up to $25,000, with a minimum of $2,000. I will pay 12% interest with 1st lien real estate security. Savings and loan associations pay an estimated 9% interest, while inflation of 9% annually causes you grief of a 4% total net loss. Not an especially bright savings plan, is it? My business is a 25-year old real estate enterprise with a favorable impact on Midland's economy, social euphoria and aesthetics. Dr. A. Henry Sara-sec, 684-8222, please. Thank you.

HOROSCOPE
 by Carroll Righter
 (May 11)
GENERAL TENDENCIES: A strange Saturday, planetary-wise. Upsets and changes you aren't apt to like are in the making. But do not be worried by them for those new beginnings which hold the seeds to your future progress. They should be carefully examined to extract possible benefits.
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) For greater success, get into activities to improve your career. Listen to changes others suggest, but use only the best. Help a friend.
Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) You have many new ideas today, but they need further study to get them working properly. New contacts can give you needed information.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Find a better system for keeping promises you have made, business or personal. Go to a lawyer for the assistance needed. Even what will be changed in your behavior.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Changing role with associates can bring about a far better arrangement now for the future. Listen to partners. Take more time for personal things you like.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You do not do much of a worthwhile nature, so do not spend time only on recreation, since you can handle duties hard to attend to on weekdays.

WHERE HAVE ALL THE CADDIES GONE?

 Country club members and others used to a high standard of luxury are discovering a more efficient way to carry around their golf clubs. The Volvo 164.
 Naturally, you sit on leather. Air conditioning envelops you. Legroom, front and rear, is more than generous. However, the 164 is a miser on fuel. It gets about 50% better gas mileage than most comparably priced domestic sedans. Come in and inspect the Volvo 164. It's the luxury sedan for people who don't have gas to burn.

Chilean Junta Speeding Judgment Of Allende Activists

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — After eight months in power, Chile's military junta is speeding the final judgment of activists in the government of Marxist President Salvador Allende.

More than 100 persons are now on trial or awaiting sentencing by military tribunals throughout the country. At least 6,000 persons arrested after the Sept. 11 coup still are imprisoned.

The air force member of the junta, Gen. Gustavo Leigh, said two weeks ago that proceedings for all those held would be started quickly to determine who should stand trial and who should be released. He said orders had been issued to accelerate trial of those accused.

Charges range from possession of Marxist literature to treason and espionage. Dozens face death sentences although no one has been executed in four months.

Gen. Oscar Bonilla, the interior minister, said this week the four-man junta would review all death sentences. Authority to confirm or commute such sentences had been "temporarily delegated" to local garrison commanders earlier because of emergency conditions, Bonilla said.

Summary military courts sent at least 96 men to the firing squads shortly after the coup. But the junta ended these drumhead executions in mid-January.

Death sentences imposed on five men in San Fernando last month were commuted Monday by the province's military governor to long prison terms. The only persons now known to be sentenced to death are two former directors of the Socialist party convicted in Valdivia of plotting to assassinate local military commanders.

An air force "council of war" is trying 67 men in Santiago, and death sentences are asked for six of the defendants.

There are reports—not yet confirmed by the government—that 25 army officers will go to trial soon on charges of betraying the armed services, Santiago and Valparaiso to stand trial. The defendants include 12 former cabinet ministers, 10 former congressmen and Luis Corvalan, head of the Communist party.

In the past week: —A military court in Rancagua sentenced 33 persons to prison terms ranging from 18 months to 16 years.

—A university student in Valparaiso was sentenced to life for organizing a guerrilla training camp.

—Seventeen defendants in Talca province were given sentences ranging from 70 days to 10 years.

Grand Jury Calls Winery Figure

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — One of the principal owners of the Bronco Wine Co. of Modesto, Calif., Joseph S. Franzia, has been ordered to appear before a federal grand jury here.

The grand jury investigation apparently involves antitrust action against liquor wholesalers. It has been under way 16 months.

Franzia is the former national sales manager of Franzia Brothers Winery, of Ripon, Calif., a family owned business. It was bought out recently by Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

Surgeon Urges Study Of Combating Cancer With Drug Used In Alcoholism

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — A Johns Hopkins surgeon says scientists should explore the possibilities of fighting cancer with a drug widely used against alcoholism.

But under Dr. Edward F. Lewison's concept, the drug would be mixed with alcohol—the very thing it is intended to make compulsive drinkers abhor.

He said extensive studies involving use of the mixture in animals would be needed before there could be any human experiments. And he said that very small doses always would be mandatory.

The drug is disulfiram, trade-named Antabuse. As a treatment for alcoholism it is taken daily. If an alcoholic takes a single drink while using Antabuse he suffers violent nausea, a pulsating headache, palpitations and other intense discomfort.

Lewison told a scientific meeting here Thursday his idea stems from the "remarkable" experience of one of his breast cancer patients, a woman who also was an alcoholic.

He said the woman had been plagued by extensive recurrence of malignancy elsewhere in her body after having had a cancerous breast removed. But he said she enjoyed complete freedom from cancer symptoms for 10 years after starting to take Antabuse. At the same time she was continuing to drink, presumably despite the intense discomfort.

She was not given any standard cancer treatment during this time.

Lewison described the case in a report to the world's first symposium on "spontaneous regression of cancer." The meeting is sponsored by Johns Hopkins Medical Institutions and the American Cancer Society.
