

Positive Thinking

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Enthusiasm Has Amazing Power

Was he enthusiastic? The fact was he was running over with enthusiasm, and then some. I usually have dinner after the talks I give on speaking engagements in various cities across America.

On one such occasion I stopped in at a lunch counter near my hotel determined to go easy on food for the hour was late. It was a small place and behind the counter there he was: a big, husky fellow who looked as though he enjoyed his own wares. His sleeves were rolled up to display his tanned and brawny arms and his head was covered by a tall chef's cap, set at a rakish angle.

"Hello, brother," he said jovially as I sat down. "How are you?" I responded. "What'll you have?" he asked.

I ordered a hamburger and a cup of black coffee. When that was finished off the man said, "Boy have I got something for you! What you need to complete your meal is this." He reached to a shelf and brought out an uncut apple pie which he proudly showed to me. "Our pies are really something," he exclaimed. "That crust is made with real butter and melts in your mouth. And the apples are the best New York State has to offer. Which means super. And just smelt that cinnamon!" And he held the pie right under my nose. It surely smelled good.

"O. K. dish it out," I said, rising to his enthusiasm. He cut me a generous piece and laid a piece of cheddar cheese alongside.

Then he drew more steaming coffee from a bright shiny urn. He put the cup down before me, he said: "You know, my friend, there's coffee and then again there's coffee. Get the smell and taste of that coffee I've put by your elbow. Bet you've never had anything so good."

Well, I ate the pie and drank the coffee. I'm sure I've had pie and coffee just as good if perhaps not better elsewhere, but the enthusiasm of that man behind the counter made it taste just as wonderful as he said it was. That lunch counter operator was a SALESMAN — how different from so many dull people who stand behind counters and actually repel business. He put his stuff forward with irresistible enthusiasm.

I've written about enthusiasm often for I think it is one of the most important qualities anyone can possess. It transforms people into extra, extra personalities. It makes ordinary persons into extraordinary individuals.

Indeed enthusiasm can even stimulate better health. I was talking about this subject to a physician recently and he told me something very interesting. He said that he had actually seen people die, not due to organic reasons, but basically because they had lost their enthusiasm.

In a sense, then, enthusiasm is an elixir of life. It is of the life force.

Israel, Syria Welcome First Exchanged Prisoners Of War

By The Associated Press
 Israel and Syria began exchanging war prisoners Saturday, and delirious crowds in Damascus and Tel Aviv welcomed their men with joy, tears, kisses and flowers.

In Washington, U.N. Secretary General Kurt Waldheim met with President Nixon and Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger to discuss the Syrian-Israeli disengagement accord which called for the POW swap. The U.N. chief was to fly to Geneva later and make a two-week tour of the Middle East.

Shouts of Joy
 In the Swiss city, Syrian and Israeli generals went over details of the agreement. In Cairo, Palestinian guerrilla leaders discussed future relations with Israel and Arab oil ministers reviewed their decision to lift the oil embargo against the United States.

The returning POWs exchanged shouts and signs of joy with hundreds of persons on hand to greet them.

In Damascus, military police held back surging crowds as the 26 returning Arab POWs were escorted from the Red Cross plane.

The crowd gave a sudden gasp as the first man off the plane sat upright on a stretcher on the stumps of his amputated legs, his right hand saluting stiffly as he gazed straight ahead with blazing eyes.

"Legs are nothing. We are ready to give our souls ...," he shouted. He then insisted on being lifted from his stretcher and placed on the ground so he

20,000 Persons Forced To Flee By Dense Fumes

FLIXBOROUGH, England (AP) — A chemical plant exploded in a huge ball of flame Saturday, killing a number of workers and sending a blanket of poisonous fumes into the surrounding countryside, police said.

Official estimates of the death toll ranged between 20 and 55, but a firm count still was not available. Police said early today that 30 and perhaps 40 persons still were unaccounted for.

The force of the 5 p.m. blast demolished or damaged homes for miles around this Lincolnshire industrial area 150 miles north of London.

Police said that because of the fumes, an estimated 20,000 persons were being evacuated from 10 nearby villages.

94 Treated At Hospitals
 They reported that 94 persons were treated at local hospitals — 30 from the factory — Nypro-U.K. Ltd. — and the rest from surrounding villages. Many of the injured were cut by flying glass.

The blast occurred when only a skeleton crew was on duty at the plant. The normal work force numbers about 500.

Hundreds of firemen, policemen and ambulance workers, aided by searchlights and breathing apparatus, combed through the rubble of the plant and the demolished houses late into the night.

Explosion Topped Accidental
 The explosion appeared to be accidental, police said, adding there was no indication that guerrillas were involved.

Late Saturday night, several hours after the late afternoon explosion, flames still licked 300 feet into the sky above the charred and mangled ruins of the chemical works. Belching clouds of smoke were visible 25 miles away.

The control room area of the plant was still surrounded by a wall of flames and acrid fumes, and by Saturday midnight only two bodies had been recovered.

With the danger of new blasts and deadly poisonous fumes, fire fighters played their hoses (See EXPLOSION Page 12A)

FOR MAJOR SHOPPING CENTER— Third Developer To Ask City Annexation Permit

By GEORGE MASSEY
 Midland Mayor Ernest Angelo said last week he would like to see some competition among developers interested in building a regional shopping center here.

That competition seemed assured Saturday when it was learned a third major developer is in the process of petitioning the city for application to annex land for a proposed shopping center.

Mayor Angelo said the new developer's land proposal lies between the two sections of property now under consideration by the council. He noted, however, that the petition is "in the mail" and no other information is available.

The Midland City Council last Tuesday conducted public hearings on requests by Midland

Impeachment Inquiry May Remain Closed

By JOHN BECKLER
 WASHINGTON (AP) — It now looks as if the public will have scant opportunity — and perhaps none whatever — to witness any part of the impeachment proceedings of the House Judiciary Committee.

The prospect of live television coverage is especially diminished, both by the trend of the panel's thinking and the sheer crush of time. And it could be that the doors will be opened to no outsiders at all.

A number of votes and comments by committee members in recent days all went in the direction of keeping the inquiry closed, contrary to a plea from President Nixon's attorneys and previous assurances from panel leaders that the secrecy would soon be lifted.

The privacy to date was designed to expedite the initial presentation of evidence and also to protect some particularly sensitive items, such as the special report from the Watergate grand jury, heard in the early phase.

With two previous target dates having slipped by already, time is an even more urgent consideration — and Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., is determined to hold to a revised schedule that would wind up the investigative part of the proceedings in three more weeks.

Allowing another week for the examination of any witnesses and for the President's chief lawyer, James D. St. Clair, to present his arguments, the committee should be able to begin drawing up its recommendations by July 1.

And, if the committee concludes that it has a case against Nixon, it is not likely to linger at any great length before making its decision official.

The committee took another long stride toward meeting Rodino's timetable when it also refused, on a vote of 23 to 15, to open the hearings immediately to television inclusion.

The evidence is being presented in a manner that requires the members to sit

Krueger Defeats Wolff In Runoff For House Seat

By JOHN HOTARD
 Associated Press Writer
 Political newcomer Robert Krueger won the Democratic nomination to the U.S. House, District 21, Saturday, defeating State Sen. Nelson Wolff in a runoff which saw a light voter turnout.

With all 32 counties complete, Krueger, of New Braunfels, had 29,284, or 51.55 per cent, of Wolff's 27,506, or 48.45 per cent, according to Texas Election Bureau figures. The total vote was 56,810.

Krueger jumped out front and slowly pulled away as the rural returns came in.

Wolff, of San Antonio, gained as the Bexar County vote was reported but could not catch Krueger. Wolff beat Krueger 16,014 to 12,286 in Bexar County.

TO START WITHIN 30 DAYS— Citizens Savings & Loan Awards Building Contract

Citizens Savings & Loan Association Friday afternoon awarded a contract to Area Builders Inc. of Odessa for construction of its new main office building at the northwest corner of the intersection of Whitney Street and Andrews Highway.

Cost of the building, according to L. Roy Prescott, president and board chairman of Citizens Savings, will be in excess of $300,000, in addition to land cost. The building will have approximately 10,000 square feet of floor space, with 3,500 feet on the second floor, which will cover about half of the structure.

Pre-cast concrete panels will be used in the construction, with the exterior walls to be of crushed aggregate finish.

Construction will be started within 30 days, with completion scheduled in an estimated 200 days.

David G. Makar of San Antonio holds the architectural contract. Bill Babb of Midland will be the resident supervising architect.

Ray Moody, executive vice president of the savings and loan firm, said the space use layout and interior design and decorating was done by Brock, Mabry & Partners of Corpus Christi.

A public meeting room capable of seating up to 75 persons is planned in the new building, Prescott said. A spacious lobby area and additional offices also are planned. (See CITIZENS Page 12A)

Texas Storms, Showers Move East To Louisiana

Today will be clear to partly cloudy and warm, the National Weather Service said Saturday after showers containing some turbulence moved into Louisiana and the Gulf of Mexico.

The weak, diffused cold front of the last two days brought heavy rains to many places. Light rain fell in Midland late Friday and the National Weather Service at Midland Air Terminal said 0.1 inch of moisture fell there. The Crane County sheriff said a heavy shower hit Crane about 6 p.m. Friday. San Angelo also had heavy rain and turbulence.

A five-inch downpour hit Turkey in the Panhandle Friday, causing flooding in some stores.

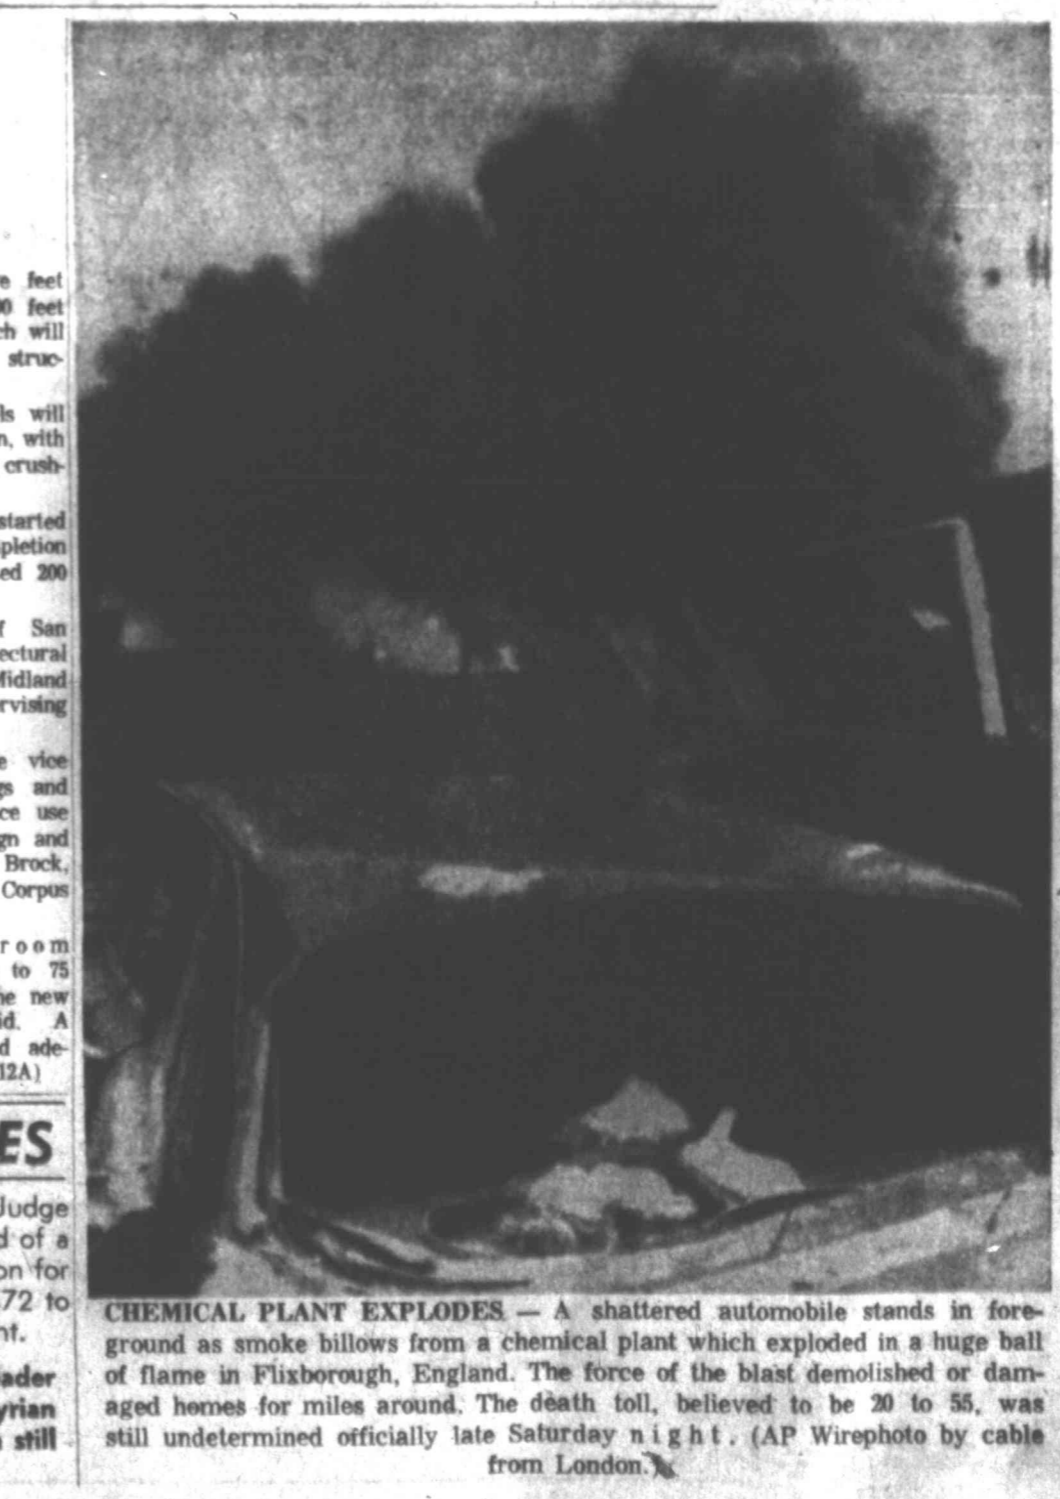

The maximum temperature Saturday in the Tall City was 90 and the low for the day was 64. The mercury is expected to climb to the upper 80s today, with tonight's low to be in the middle 60s. A high in the low 90s is expected Monday.

The weatherman said Midland has a 20 per cent chance of precipitation tonight.

The downpours Saturday were spotty, occurring in parts of the Panhandle, a place or two in Southwest Texas, around Austin, in the Fort Worth-Dallas region and in far Southeast Texas.

A tornado made a brief appearance north of Austin at 1 a.m. Saturday.

Temperatures mostly were in the 80s Saturday afternoon but climbed into the 90s in parts of Southwest Texas, The Associated Press reported.

Construction Permits Fall Over Holiday

Building permits for Midland took a drop from last week's high, but still managed to top out at $223,275 for the period including May 27-31. The Memorial Day weekend and Monday holiday were indicators for the decline in permits issued, as new commercial applications were nil.

Highest construction costs listed by the inspection department included two permits amounting to a combined figure of $125,000 by Martin & Capadonna builders. Their permits were for two duplex apartments at 401 and 403 Hillbille. Each duplex apartment will be made up of two buildings containing four units. The apartments bring Midland's yearly total for new construction in that category to $415,000.

Permits for two new residences were issued at a combined cost of $71,000 bringing the yearly total to $2,540,200. First of the permits was issued to Hays Construction for a residence at 2204 W. Golf Course Road amounting to a $45,000 construction cost. A new residence at 3603 W. Kansas will be built by B&R Builders Inc. at a cost of $26,000.

Private residential repair and alteration hit $19,475 for the holiday week, bringing the yearly total to $364,323 while commercial alteration and repair permits were issued amounting to $7,800 upping that yearly total to $146,250.

Other permits issued included Commercial Oil Co. 410 W. Wall. Addition of 10,000 gallon storage tank to a service station. $3,500. Loyd W. Bodine. 6028 Thomason. Addition of patio cover to residence. $200. John W. Wood. 1407 W. Kansas. Alter patio at residence. $1,075. Baldwin Place Co. 406 Andrews Hwy. Addition of 15 foot pole sign. $1,000. ## 'M' System Stores Celebrate 50th Anniversary This Month

SAN ANGELO — Considering the depressions, recessions, inflations, wars, droughts, floods and fires that have left their mark on West Texas in the past half century, a company's 50th anniversary is quite a milestone.

It was 50 years ago this month that Arch Lewis opened the first

"M" System store in San Angelo with two employees. Today the chain has more than 500 employees serving customers from Keroville to Mineral Wells, and from Monahans to Abilene, including San Angelo, Midland, Odessa and Sweetwater.

Lewis made the decision to move to San Angelo after being advised by his brother that a grocery store was for sale in San Angelo. Previously the grocer had worked as a real estate agent and in a battery factory in Cleveland, Ohio, after getting out of the Navy Reserve in World War I.

Lewis migrated to Texas and worked as a salesman, grocer, and even held a country school for awhile.

In 1925, Dick Henson, vice president and stockholder in the chain, joined the firm.

Henson took over the produce department as his specialty. He was one of the first area grocers to contract for whole crops and bring them into local stores.

Still active in the business today, 49 years later, it is not uncommon to see Henson sorting merchandise in one of the chain's fruit and vegetable departments, according to "M" System employees.

In 1945, Arch Lewis Jr., an electrical engineer by profession, joined his father's company. The junior Lewis was in charge of the firm's health and beauty department. He also served as secretary-treasurer for the corporation prior to leaving the company in 1965.

A second son, Baugh Lewis, decided to join the "M" System chain after a stint in the Navy and graduating from the University of Texas. He managed an "M" System store from 1950-52 and was promoted to store supervisor for the chain in 1953. In 1956 Baugh Lewis assumed charge of company operations as general manager, a title he still holds in addition to being president of the corporation.

Vets Benefit Law Signed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Compensation for 2.2 million disabled veterans and dependents of those who died of service-connected disabilities will rise by 15 to 18 per cent under a new law retroactive to May 1.

President Nixon signed the legislation Friday in one of three actions on veterans programs.

He also signed a stop-gap bill to prevent 350,000 veterans from losing their education benefits while attending summer school. And he announced a new Veterans Administration program to hire and assign veterans to colleges across the country where they will attempt to prevent difficulties that have plagued the delivery of education benefit checks.

Nixon said the compensation for anatomical losses will get children of veterans and to some parents will be increased. Thus, 10 per cent disability by 17 per cent. The stop-gap bill extends for 30 days education benefits for four million veterans who served the military between 1955 and 1966, including 250,000 going to summer school.

Veterans rated 10 to 50 per cent disabled will get a 15 per cent increase in benefits. And more for dependents also are those with ratings of 60 to 100 per cent and statutory awards. The payment to widows and

Another Mass Murder Victim Identified

HOUSTON (AP) — John Manning Sellars, 17, of Orange, Tex. has been identified as one of the 27 Houston mass murder victims.

Dr. Joseph A. Jachimczyk, Harris County medical examiner identified Sellars' body Friday. It was one of six uncovered in Jefferson County on the High Island.

The latest identity leaves only six of the victims, found in three locations last summer, still unidentified.

Jachimczyk said Sellars' body was lying on its back and clothed in blue jeans and shirt. He had been shot four times with a large caliber gun, the medical examiner said.

The youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manning R. Sellars of Orange, disappeared July 12. His car was found July 13 near Starks, La.

Solzhenitsyn Gets Journalist Award

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — Italian journalists have presented exiled Soviet author Alexander Solzhenitsyn with the "Golden Printing Plate" award for his services as a "defender of the free world."

The Nobel laureate received the award Friday from Flaminio Piccoli, president of the Christian Democratic group in the Italian National Assembly, on behalf of three Italian journalists' associations.

Jachimczyk said the youth was identified by dental X-rays, by hair matched with a lock he had enclosed in a home made mother's day card some years ago and by clothing.

Elmer Wayne Henley, 18, and David Owen Brooks, 18, have been charged in the slayings. Henley has been indicted on six counts in the case and Brooks is charged in four counts.

The case broke last August when Henley telephoned police he had shot to death Dean Arnold Corll, 33. Police named Corll as the mastermind of a homosexual ring which raped, tortured and murdered its victims. The shooting of Corll was ruled self defense.

Police contend Henley and Brooks procured youths for Corll, joined him in the slayings and helped bury the victims.

"Miracle Cure"

5,000 Year Old Chinese Health Remedy Found

PEKING (Special) — Health researchers in China have uncovered an amazing rare old Chinese herb remedy that possesses spectacular healing qualities and reportedly has been used for 5,000 years to cure or give relief to a host of the most common illnesses suffered by mankind. Dramatic claims are being made that this "miracle herb" called ginseng, may actually hold the key to a longer healthier life. Indeed, there is one historical case of a user living to be 266 years old.

Helps Many Illnesses — Like acupuncture, the many healing properties of this remarkable herb were once considered "folklore and superstition" but modern researchers around the world are suggesting that it may actually regulate many of the body's processes to increase SEXUAL potency, help heal ULCERS, relieve ARTERITIS, check graying or loss of HAIR, improve DIGESTION, slow down ARTERIOSCLEROSIS, relieve ASTHMA overcome FATIGUE, improve DIABETIC conditions, relieve inflammation of the URINARY TRACT, help chronic INSOMNIA, relieve BACK-ACHES and PAINS, and generally improve your health by increasing your body's potential to heal itself.

Safe, No Side Effects — Ginseng is not a drug, but an herb or vegetable that is extremely rich in vitamins and minerals. What's more, this amazing natural remedy is completely safe and non-toxic with no side effects. Unfortunately, high-grade ginseng is in short supply, and brokers and processors around the world are bracing themselves for a "run" on the market as the herb's purported "miraculous" healing properties become more widely known to the general public.

Court Verdict Ties Howard County Race

BIG SPRING, Tex. (AP) — The voting for Democratic nomination for Howard County district clerk was all knotted and tangled again Saturday.

This occurred after state District Court Judge Weldon Kirk ordered Friday afternoon that an apparently misplaced ballot be counted, tying the race.

M. Fern Cox, the incumbent who lost by one vote according to both the canvass and the recount, and Mrs. Peggy Cripptenden now are knotted at 2,426 ballots each.

The canvass by the Democratic Executive Committee named Mrs. Cripptenden the winner 2,420 to 2,419. Cox petitioned for a recount and each candidate gained six votes, leaving the margin of victory unchanged.

Then on May 17, Mrs. Margaret Ray, chief deputy county clerk, said she found a ballot marked for Cox among the applications for absentee ballots.

Cox contested the election through 118th District Court and Judge Kirk Friday found in the stub box a stub with the same number as the discovered ballot.

Kirk, who presided because Judge Ralph W. Caton disqualified himself, ordered the discovered ballot counted.

Notice Of Appeal

William L. Kerr Sr., a Midland lawyer representing Mrs. Cripptenden, gave notice of appeal to the 11th Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland.

Kerr claimed the Texas Election Code required the election contest petition to be filed 10 days after the canvass.

Guilford Jones, an attorney for Cox, presented an opinion from the Texas secretary of state's office. This opinion would set the deadline 10 days after the recount. Jones noted the lack of precedent in the case.

Kirk took under advisement when and how a runoff would be held pending an appeals court decision.

GI Shot, Killed In Scuffle For Gun At Army Hospital

FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP) — An Arkansas soldier was fatally shot while military police wrestled him for a pistol, authorities at this Central Texas Army post reported Saturday.

The spokesman said Keppler, who had suffered a cut on a hand, appeared at the base's Darnell Army Hospital and asked for medical attention.

Keppler became angry at a delay, the spokesman said, and pulled a pistol and placed the muzzle against the head of an attendant.

Military policemen said they tried to talk the soldier into surrendering the weapon and the fatal shooting occurred as they scuffled for the pistol.

More Tests Due For Gen. Abrams

WASHINGTON (AP) — Further tests are to be performed on Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, Army chief of staff and former U.S. commander in Vietnam, to determine the extent of the lung cancer with which he is afflicted.

The Pentagon announced Friday that doctors at the Army's Walter Reed Medical Center found a malignancy in Abrams' left lung within the past three days.

The Army earlier had announced that Abrams shortened a European visit because of "a mild case of pneumonia." He entered the hospital May 23.

SIX KILLED WITHIN 48 HOURS— Chicano Leaders Rap Police Theory On Colorado Deaths

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — A lawyer killed in the first blast, issued a plea in Alamosa Friday for Chicanos to work together to protect Mexican Americans from violence.

And Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales, leader of the Chicano activist group Crusade for Justice, vowed in Denver that crusade lawyers would seek access to evidence to try to find out who caused the explosions.

The three victims of the first blast, which occurred late Monday, were identified as Martinez, 26; Una Jaakala, 23, of Rochester, Minn.; and Neva Romero, 20, of Ignacio. Miss Jaakala reportedly was Martinez' girlfriend, and Miss Romero was the daughter of the mayor of Ignacio.

Wednesday Victims

The Wednesday night victims were identified as Florencio "Freddy" Granada, 32; Heriberto Teran, 24, both of whom moved to Denver recently from Laredo, Tex.; and tentatively, Francisco Dougherty, 20, also of Laredo.

A fourth man, Antonio Alcantar, 23, of Adams County, was critically injured in the Wednesday night explosion.

Police reportedly found pieces of paraphernalia used in the manufacture of homemade bombs in homes of several persons supposedly connected with the blast.

Contemplates Charges

Boulder Dist. Atty. Alex Hunter said his office was "contemplating the possibility of criminal charges" against Alcantar, who is under guard at a Boulder hospital.

No charges have been filed in connection with the case.

Gonzales, the Crusade for Justice leader, told a news conference in Denver Friday that the six persons were victims of a conspiracy.

He said there is no reason to suppose either of the bombings resulted from a factional fight within the Chicano community.

"There are plenty of elements for the basis of a right wing movement" in Denver, he added.

Media Criticized

Gonzales also criticized the news media for printing speculation that the three persons killed Monday were assembling a bomb when it went off. He termed printing of the story "indicting the dead."

In Alamosa Friday, friends of the Martinez family gathered to present their views of the bombings.

Mrs. Jose H. Martinez, mother of both Reyes Martinez and Franke Martinez, another Chicano activist lawyer who is being sought in connection with the mailing of several bombs in

VETERAN BENEFITS EXTENDED— Midland College Summer Registration Set Monday

Midland College's regular summer registration is scheduled from 9 a.m. until noon Monday at the college offices, 4807 Andrews Highway. Classes will begin Tuesday and run through July 12.

Three hundred ninety-six persons had enrolled for classes by the end of the pre-registration period Friday. The college expects another 50-100 persons to sign up Monday.

Dee Windsor, Midland College registrar, urges all area veterans to take advantage of their educational benefits during the summer term. Veterans whose benefits were to expire Saturday won a reprieve when President Nixon signed into law a bill extending the eligibility period for 30 days.

Bills pending in both the House and Senate — with action expected this month — would increase from eight years to 10 years the period of eligibility for veterans. (See Related Story, Page 3A.)

During the summer session, both day and night instruction will be offered, with classes to be held Monday through Thursday.

Students will enroll, pay tuition fees and purchase textbooks at the college. Students in need of financial assistance are urged to contact Bill Burns, financial officer, at 694-1686 or 563-0043.

C. C. Dakil, dean of students, said students without high school transcripts or proof of immunization still will be allowed to enroll but would have to fulfill the entrance requirements at a later date.

Dakil said anyone over 21 years old who wishes to enroll but doesn't have a high school diploma should contact him for further information.

High school seniors desiring to register will be eligible for admission if they secure an early admission agreement at their schools. Signatures of the student's parents and principal are required on the form.

The early admission students will be allowed to enroll in any course in which they have completed the high school equivalent.

Dakil said that students taking courses "just for the enjoyment" will not have to bring their transcripts.

No student will be allowed to enroll in more than seven hours of classwork without the dean's permission. Dakil said most of the fall curriculum will be offered this summer, including such special interest courses as astronomy, automobile mechanics, welding, data processing and speed reading.

Two Men Rob Bank Teller

HOUSTON (AP) — Police continued to search Saturday for two gunmen who robbed a bank security guard and a teller in a bank parking lot and escaped with between $15,000 and $20,000.

Sgt. Richard M. Wilson, working his off-duty hours at the Meyerland State Bank in southwest Houston, said he was escorting Gretchen Brogan, a teller, from the bank to a nearby drive-in booth Friday.

He said a car approached and a passenger jumped out with a gun in his hand.

"He said, 'Give me the money' eight or ten times," Wilson recalled. Wilson said the driver of the car also had a pistol.

Wilson said the teller surrendered a metal box with bills inside and a white cloth bag containing coins.

The security man said one of the gunmen took Wilson's automatic pistol from its holster.

PRICING FOR BEST PROFIT

Without any doubt, the most important element of selling a home is placing the right value on it. When you get right down to it, it's the price, more than anything else, which will dictate how fast (or slow) how profitably (or unprofitably) it will sell.

What is the best selling price? National experience has proven conclusively that if your property is priced at inception within 5% above fair market value range, the chance of making a clean, top dollar sale during the early stages is TEN TIMES greater than otherwise.

Buyers buy by comparison. Properties not competing favorably do not sell. Overpricing at inception causes properties to become shopworn, valuable time and buyers are lost forever. Ultimately, all properties sell for their true value by comparison—or less if exposed initially at an inflated price. How do you arrive at this "5% plus" key value? Drop into our office if you're thinking of selling your home and we'll show you.

If you have any questions on this subject or any other aspect of real estate, feel free to phone or drop in at DON JOHNSON REALTORS, 2311 W. Ohio St. Phone: 683-3333. We're here to help! (Come in for your free copy of "Homes For Living" magazine).

Good Nutrition Crusader Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Adelle Davis, a leading crusader for good nutrition has died of bone cancer at the age of 70.

Miss Davis, who gained fame advocating better nutrition, knew of her illness since early last year, her agent said, but insisted it had nothing to do with her prescriptions for better health. She died Friday.

She wrote four best-selling books praising natural health foods and criticizing the typical diet of Americans, which she said contained too much salt and sugar, too little nutritional value and too much artificial flavoring.

Woman Tells SLA Shootout Story

REPORTER'S NOTE: — About 45 minutes into the three gun battle between police and six Symbionese Liberation Army members, Christine Johnson staggered from her home, where the SLA was making its stand. For the first time Miss Johnson tells what happened inside the besieged house in an exclusive interview with The Associated Press.

By STEPHEN FOX
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Christine Johnson, who fled to safety from her burning home during a gun battle in which six members of the Symbionese Liberation Army were killed, says that SLA leader Donald "Cinque" DeFreeze could have killed her.

She previously had refused to talk about what happened inside the besieged house May 17, but finally agreed to tell her story.

Miss Johnson said she woke from a drugged sleep about 40 minutes after the shooting began late in the afternoon. Bullets thudded into her bedroom walls. Flames were spreading through the wooden house.

"I could see a reflection of fire and hear bullets," she said. "There was a scream of some kind."

"I passed right by him. He could have killed me if he wanted to," Miss Johnson said. She crawled to the front of the house. DeFreeze, who called himself "General Field Marshal Cinque" in SLA communications, was laying down withering fire at police outside.

She reached the front door after crawling past DeFreeze and burning her left arm severely on a flaming chair in the living room.

Someone shouted, "Don't open that door! Don't open that door!"

She remembered, "I was so frightened, I don't know who was saying it. I still heard shots ... I just went on ... then the police grabbed me ... they were dragging me."

Later she found that a bullet, apparently from police, had pierced her right thigh. She also had a puncture wound in her back but doesn't know the cause.

None of the six SLA members in the house made any move to follow her.

"Maybe they all wanted to die there together," she said. Miss Johnson, 32, is still shaky over the shootout two weeks ago and talked in the back room of a friend's home, where she is now staying. She refused to be photographed and said she had trouble remembering all the details of what happened. Chain-smoking cigarettes, she continued her story.

The SLA members were there when she first woke up the morning of May 17, a Friday. They had arrived about 1 a.m. DeFreeze was standing in the hallway, wearing a hunting jacket and carrying what looked like a machine gun. Miss Johnson said she did not know how they got into the house. From FBI photographs Miss Johnson identified four other SLA members as being in the house — Patricia "Mimoon" Soltysik, Camilla Hall and William and Emily Harris. The Harris couple and Patricia Hearst are being sought on state and federal charges and are considered by the FBI to be "armed and extremely dangerous fugitives."

Miss Johnson never saw Miss Hearst in the house.

Miss Johnson was positive on the identification of the Harris — noting they were "smiling all the time." The FBI said it did not know whether the Harris and Miss Hearst linked up at any time with the SLA group at the house but were definitely not in the house during the shootout. In the end, SLA members DeFreeze, Miss Hall, Miss Soltysik, Nancy Ling Perry, Angela Atwood and William Wolfe were killed.

Miss Hall scared her the most, Miss Johnson said.

"She had two bottles in her hands. Seems like something white was around the bottles.

She was walking around with the bottles, following me.

The SLA members had five or six violin cases and two or three leather knapsacks containing guns and parts of guns. They began to assemble guns from the parts shortly after arriving at the house.

Miss Johnson said two friends, who she wouldn't identify, came to the house and, seeing the guns, tried to get her to leave.

"One of the (SLA) girls pushed one of my friends and told her to leave me alone, to let me be," Miss Johnson said. She began to get frightened.

"Everyone had seen those guns," she said. "I took those nerve pills. Seeing all those guns made me nervous."

How did she feel when she knew she was safely out?

The slight, nervous woman looked upward and said, "I felt very lucky. I still feel lucky. I could have died in there, too."

After escaping, Miss Johnson was taken into custody by police, who questioned her about harboring fugitives. She was released the next day.

LONG WALK FOR LONGEST STRIKE—Donald Misenti, center, a high school English teacher, joins the march from Plaistow, N.H., to Chicago to dramatize a teachers' strike. The Timberlane Regional School District has the longest teachers strike in history, now 62 days old. (AP Wirephoto.)

Teacher Now On Protest Hike

PLAISTOW, N.H. (AP) — While striking teachers and the school board here mark time in a stalemate, English instructor Donald Misenti is marching forward for his cause: He's making a 1,000-mile protest hike to Chicago.

The 30-year-old Misenti began the trek Wednesday and hopes to arrive in Chicago in time for the National Education Association Convention June 30. Other teachers striking the Timberlane Regional School District here plan to walk with him along parts of the route.

Among them: Misenti's wife Kathy.

"The more people who hear our story the more positive the response is," Mrs. Misenti said. Misenti and 103 other teachers in the school district in southeastern New Hampshire have been on strike since Feb. 26, the longest teachers strike in the nation's history.

The teachers have been unable to close the schools and they may find themselves replaced when schools reopen in September.

The 49 teachers who did not strike, along with supervisors and substitutes, have kept the schools open. They are being paid $40 a day instead of the usual $20 rate.

But to the strikers, money is not the issue. Their key demand is a contract. Although negotiations had been carried on for four years, no master contract has ever been agreed upon.

The school board gave up on negotiations in mid-April and decided to hire new teachers for September.

At a special meeting on May 4, voters in the four district towns of Plaistow, Sandown, Danville, and Atkinson supported the school board's hard line by a 1,780-589 margin.

Unemployment Up Slightly In Texas

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Unemployment in Texas rose slightly during March, from 3.7 to 3.8 per cent of the labor force, the Texas Employment Commission reported Saturday. Some 189,100 persons were seeking work in March, compared with 181,900 in February, the TEC said.

Honeymoon Case Hinges On Comparison Of Hairs

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The strange case of Patricia Albinowski Giesick, killed by a car on her honeymoon almost five months ago, centered Saturday on comparison of hairs.

The case has become a major one in Texas, where the surviving principals reside.

Only Thursday, Mrs. Giesick's body was removed from its New Jersey grave long enough for officers to remove a sample of her hair.

This was sent to FBI laboratories in Washington for comparison with hair officers said was found on one of two cars her husband, Claudius James Giesick Jr. of San Antonio, rented under a fake name during the New Orleans honeymoon.

Giesick told officers that his bride suggested a race to their car across a street in a lonely part of New Orleans.

He said she was hit by a dark-colored car running with-out lights and that the car did not stop.

The Jan. 16 death was written off as a hit and run case until more facts came to light recently, starting a new investigation.

It was discovered that the couple had been married by a man calling himself the Right Rev. Samuel C. Corey. Turned out it was Sam Corey, owner of Irving and San Antonio massage parlors who has been charged with promoting prostitution. He surrendered in San Antonio last week.

The Sunday Times-Advertiser of Trenton, N.J., quoted Giesick as saying Patricia was a prostitute in an Irving massage parlor.

Meanwhile, Giesick was found living with his third wife, Kathy, in Dallas and was accused of bigamy.

Officers said they further found that Giesick had insured Patricia's life for $200,000 or perhaps $300,000 shortly before her death.

New Orleans officers during the week removed the hit-and-run label on Patricia's death and said it now is unclassified.

Regional Model Airplane Contests Set Next Weekend

The Midland Flying Chaparrals Model Airplane Club will sponsor the West Texas Regional Model Airplane Championship contest next Saturday and Sunday at Hogan Park's Simon Field.

Competition will begin at 10 a.m. each day and conclude at 5 p.m.

The championships are for U-Control planes only. Events will be in two classes of combat in two age brackets, races with two-to-three planes flown from the same circle completing a prescribed number of laps in the fastest time, the Saturday Rat Race, Sunday Goodyear (Scale Racers) race, and the Slow Rat race.

Precision aerobatics will be flown Saturday. Nationally known stunt flyers and plane designers from both age classes are expected to compete and will fly the AMA stunt pattern.

Flying scale models will also be judged and flown on Saturday.

Balloon Burst will be flown on both days. Forty-two trophies will be awarded at the close of the two-day event. Admission is free.

Water Quality Board To Hold 12 Hearings Throughout State

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Twelve public hearings will be held throughout the state to air the growing controversy over industrial solid wastes disposal sites, the Texas Water Quality Board said Saturday.

Public opinion and recommendations gathered at the hearings will be used in final establishment of statewide policy on the subject, a board spokesman said.

The 12 special hearings, to begin July 11 in Fort Worth, have no connection with three hearings already set on three specific proposed disposal sites. A June 11 hearing is scheduled in Groesbeck on a Limestone County proposal, a June 21 hearing will be held in Corpus Christi on the Three Rivers site, and a late June hearing is set for a Cleburne disposal site.

The 12 hearings concern statewide policy, a board spokesman said. "The other three hearings are on specific projects."

The statewide series of hearings was suggested by Hugh C. Yantis, Jr., executive director of the board, "for the purpose of setting forth short-range and long-range plans to improve the state's industrial solid waste disposal picture by going to the origin of those wastes and trying to reduce their creation or increase the amount of salvage or disposal that can be done at the point of creation."

Yantis told the board that the solution to disposal wastes was, "as far as possible, not to have them."

After the Fort Worth hearing the others will be: Dallas, July 12; Port Arthur, July 25; Beaumont, July 26; Houston, Aug. 6 and 7; Corpus Christi, Aug. 22 and 23; Brownsville, Aug. 30; El Paso, Sept. 20; Midland, Sept. 26; Amarillo, Sept. 27; Longview, Oct. 2, and Austin, Oct. 24.

The hearings will be conducted by Bill Philbin of the Water Quality Board legal staff, assisted by Bill Taylor, a professional engineer on the staff.

Philbin will make a final report to the board in its November meeting.

Midland School Graduates 14

Fourteen ninth grade students of Midland Christian School received graduation diplomas last week at commencement exercises at the school.

The president of the student council, Karla Stump, spoke on "What Midland Christian School Means to Me."

The graduation address was made by Bill Roach, and the diplomas were presented by Wiley Brown, Bill Chrane and Gordon Awtry.

Following the commencement, the graduates had an all-night party. Activities included miniature golf, bowling, skating, a movie and breakfast prepared by the school's board members.

FBI Studying SLA Letter Claiming Credit For Causing Copter To Crash

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The FBI is studying the contents of a letter bearing the seven-headed cobra insignia of the Symbionese Liberation Army, in which the terrorist group claimed it used an antiaircraft missile to send a police helicopter crashing in a ball of flames.

The letter, slipped late Friday night under a door of television station KNXT, said the jet-powered helicopter was shot down "in retribution for the 17 May elimination of six of our beloved comrades by members of the Los Angeles Police Department SWAT Teams."

A senior officer, Cmdr. Paul J. Gillen, who headed the Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) section of the Los Angeles Police Department, was killed in the helicopter crash Wednesday. Three other officers aboard the aircraft, which was reportedly on a SWAT training exercise, suffered serious injuries.

Heavily armed SWAT members stormed a South Los Angeles home May 17 in which six SLA members, including the group's leader, Donald "Cinque" DeFreeze, were hiding. All six terrorists were killed in the hour-long shootout and fire that followed.

Meanwhile, William A. Sullivan, FBI agent-in-charge here, said Friday that missing newspaper heiress Patricia Hearst is not a "special case" and will be treated like any other fugitive if she and the SLA couple with whom she is thought to be hiding elect to shoot it out with officers.

Sullivan said "We will not change our normal procedures" in trying to apprehend the 20-year-old Miss Hearst, William Harris and his wife, Emily.

Miss Hearst, kidnaped from her Berkeley, Calif., apartment Feb. 4, has said in taped messages that she has since joined the SLA.

She is currently being sought on a number of warrants, including kidnaping and assault, stemming from a sporting goods store robbery here more than two weeks ago.

Ringling The Bell

with BOB TIEUJEL

A Black Man's View of Jehovah Witnesses: Black Catholics and Protestants can learn something from Jehovah's Witnesses. Since 1931 this aggressive sect has been reporting impressive gains in membership while other churches have been losing members. Just before World War II, the Witnesses counted a mere 43,143 baptized members around the world, according to William J. Whalen, editor of Catholic Digest and author of a number of books on the religious scene in America. Only recently the world total passed two million. Even more people read or subscribe to The Watchtower, whose present semimonthly circulation is 7.9 million copies in mid-73, and perhaps numbers more than 8 million as of this date.

A great number of blacks occupy various positions of importance at all levels of the sect from local Kingdom Halls to the national headquarters of the society in Brooklyn, N.Y. If there is invisible or visible segregation or discrimination, blacks have not discovered it in the organization.

No Inactive Members

The Witnesses want no inactive members. Everyone is expected to join in the door-to-door preaching work; the average work schedule recorded by baptized members exceeds ten hours a month. Each Kingdom Hall has at least five meetings a week, lasting an hour or more. A Witness is supposed to attend several if not all. Most Witnesses conduct home Bible studies for potential converts and this could fill another two or three evenings a week.

Every Jehovah's Witness is asked to cut all possible ties with the world. The baptized Witness drops active membership in such organizations as labor unions, lodges, civic organizations and clubs. He stops observing Christmas, Easter and birthdays, all considered pagan festivals. He stops voting, refuses to serve in the armed forces, and declines to salute the flag or stand for the national anthem, according to Whalen.

Special Stamina

To go against the mainstream of American society in so many ways takes special stamina. In the U.S. the Witnesses are outnumbered 500 to one. One device used to bolster morale and encourage a greater sense of solidarity is the sect's regional rally. The Watchtower Society believes that Jesus died on a torture stake instead of a cross. Leaders in the society often lambaste clergymen "who seem to endorse or sanction fornication, war, homosexuality, adultery, divorce and other sins." They call for Jehovah's Witnesses to redouble their efforts to win converts and an invitation to visitors to come out of Satan's system and join Jehovah's anointed remnant.

To my Oklahoma Bellringers and to Mayor Theodore McCormick: I take this means to thank all of you for the wonderful short visit that I had in Boley, during the Memorial Day weekend. I did not think that I would have the opportunity to join the thousands of you this year as in previous ones but God opened the way.

Thanks too, for the keys to the city. I promise you that I shall use them as often as possible. I have a white friend in West Texas who told me once (he is an investor) that he would be willing to bank a few thousands in Boley if he could be fairly assured of a return on same.

This was several years ago and I do not know whether or not he has changed his mind but I do know that the thousands of young blacks I saw in Boley last weekend are apparently looking for a few pleasurable moments over the weekend from "the struggle of living in a white man's world." But seriously speaking, Boley ought to be and should be the largest black-oriented resort spot in Oklahoma or for that matter in the nation. Somebody is sleeping through this most challenging time in our history. Entertainment is the name of the game with youth today, whether it be black, white, brown or red. What about a James Brown shopping Center, Mr. Brown?

(Signed)—Bob Tieuel Jr
Honorary Mayor,

P.S. Mr. Mayor— Will see that you get that machine (office) you spoke of. Look for it in the mails real soon. It's a gift from my friend, who is an Anglo investor and somewhat of a philanthropist, too.

Rat race, anyone?

The rat race. When some people think about the rat race, they think of panicky scurrying about. Of a maze from which there is no escape and no end. Of ulcers. Nervous breakdowns.

And, a lot of people just think of business.

In most cases they are wrong. As generalities usually are.

There are jobs that try men's souls and stomach linings. Where the responsibility is big and the tensions high. But, there are many others, too.

There are satisfying and rewarding jobs on all levels of business. Positions where conscientiousness, thoroughness and punctuality are needed and appreciated.

These offer an interesting and secure career in the business world. And, the people who hold these jobs are as vital to the success of the business as top management.

So, when you are thinking about business, don't pay too much attention to all the talk about the rat race.

Two Teen-Agers Surrender After Holding 25 Hostages In Bank For Seven Hours

RANCHO CORDOVA, Calif. (AP) — Two teen-aged gunmen walked calmly out of a Sacramento area bank and surrendered after holding 25 hostages, some for more than seven hours.

They left behind 17 uninjured captives and $1 million in ransom, the money stacked neatly in six-inch high bundles along one wall of the bank.

The drama began shortly before noon Friday and ended after bank officials collected the massive ransom and dropped it through the bank's night collection chute in 91 brown paper bags.

At different times during the ordeal, the gunmen forced two women hostages into the bank vault and taped a shotgun to their necks, said Bill Miller of the Sacramento County sheriff's office.

He identified the youths as Michael Madigan, 19, and Brian Young, 18, both of Rancho Cordova. Both were booked initially for investigation of armed robbery.

Authorities said a third youth, who was not identified, was taken into custody and was being questioned as a possible participant in the planning of the holdup.

Miller said the teen-age bandits burst into a shopping center bank and herded 24 customers and employes into a corner.

About 100 policemen circled the bank and cordoned off surrounding streets and parking lots.

The youths demanded the $1 million ransom and an assurance of free passage out of town in exchange for their prisoners.

The youths agreed to release eight of the hostages in exchange for a sheriff's corporal.

Officer Robert Ruh stripped to the waist, walked into the bank and over the next five hours talked the youths into surrendering.

"After I talked to both of them I figured it was just a matter of time," he said.

used every means I could to appeal to their logic."

In a televised interview during the ordeal, both gunmen said they desperately needed the money.

"I can't get a job. I can't do nothing. I have no money. I've gone hungry. My dad's been sick. My old man almost died," Madigan said.

"I'm going to blow my brains out. I wouldn't be doing this except I just need the money. I can't stand living like I am."

Young said he participated in the robbery because of personal problems — "There was no food, I didn't have a job, I have no transportation."

"I was crazy to do this and I regret doing it in a sense," Madigan said. "But as long as I did it, I got what I want. I got to talk to people how this establishment gets stuff out of you."

The two youths lived next door to each other. Neighbors said both families were financially hard-pressed and that Madigan's father was an invalid.

FARM, DAIRY AND RANCH NEWS

Dir, Squirt & Quirt

Environmental conditions have been especially harsh on plant life in the area during the last weeks of May. Unusually high temperatures, coupled with low humidity and drying winds are causing problems to farmers in establishing stands of cotton and to home gardens and landscape systems.

Transpiration rates are greatly accelerated during weather conditions such as these, explains Charles Green, Midland County extension agent. This places great stress on plants, even under optimum soil and water management. Cotton growth has further been hindered by moderate to heavy infestations of thrip.

Now is the opportune time to treat cattle for cattle grub control. The adult heel flies have laid their eggs and the young cattle grub larvae are in the animals.

The cattle grub larvae are more effectively controlled with a grubicide treatment when they are small. Therefore, good control should be the result of immediate treatment.

Cattle grubs damage cattle in a variety of ways. Cattle infested with grubs can have a reduction in milk production that can cause a reduction of weight gain in calves.

Cattle infested with grubs are more restless and excitable than other cattle. As the grubs emerge in the back of cattle in late fall and penetrate the hide, the value of the hide for leather is depreciated.

There are several cattle grubicides and methods of application that can be used with good success for cattle grub control. Grubicides may be administered to animals as dips, sprays, pour-on materials, mineral formulations or feed mixes.

The grubicides suggested for cattle grub control are coumaphos (Co-Ral), crufomate (Rueiene), prolate, trichloror (Nuguvon), famphur (Warbez), Penithion (Tiguvon) and ronnel. All of these grubicides are animal systemics.

Treatments for grub control and drenching the animals should not be done on the same day. Do not treat sick animals or animals under stress. Before treating the cattle check the label on the grubicide container for any cautions on treatment of various cattle brands.

Many home gardens in the area are in the proper stage to consider additional fertilizer application. Most vegetable crops will respond to additional fertilizer. Soil type, type of fertilizer, row spacing and the particular crop will determine the amount of fertilizer used.

Sandy soils will respond to light, frequent applications of side-dressed fertilizer. Additional fertilizer applied as a side-dress application should be of a form that is readily available to growing crops. The most common forms are ammonium sulfate (21-0-0) and ammonium nitrate (33-0-0).

Most home grown vegetables will respond to light applications of nitrogen but show little benefit from applications of complete fertilizers containing nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium. However, the shortage of straight nitrogen materials may require the use of mixed goods for side-dressing. Apply fertilizer between the garden rows and work it in the soil if possible.

Be careful to avoid root damage and do not place the fertilizer too close to the growing plant. Also be most careful to use the proper rates.

For most fruiting crops such as beans, tomatoes, peppers, eggplant, okra and vine crops, apply five teaspoons of ammonium sulfate or two to three teaspoons of ammonium nitrate for each 10 feet of garden row.

Begin applications when the fruit of the tomato, pepper and eggplant are about one inch in diameter and repeat at two-to-three-week intervals.

For beans, okra and the vining crops begin side-dressing after the first harvest. Leafy crops such as lettuce, cabbage and greens can be fertilized at about twice the rate used for fruiting crops, since more foliage growth is needed.

Root crops such as onions, beets and turnips will often make satisfactory growth without additional fertilizer. If growth is poor, light applications of a nitrogen fertilizer should help.

Sweet corn responds to liberal amounts of nitrogen. Fertilize with four tablespoons of ammonium nitrate or eight tablespoons of ammonium sulfate per 10 feet of row when the corn is 12 to 16 inches tall.

Stores To Get Permission To Hand Out Paper Scrip Instead Of Pennies Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Stores soon will receive official Treasury Department permission to hand out paper scrip instead of pennies as change because of the shortage of the copper coins, department sources say.

Some retail businesses already have begun issuing scrip for lack of pennies, while others have held off to await a Treasury ruling on the practice.

Sources said Friday that Treasury attorneys have concluded that use of the paper pennies within one store would be legal but are still trying to determine what defines a store.

The problem is whether the scrip should be honored only in the store where it was issued or in any store of a particular chain.

Mint Director Mary Brooks said in an interview that the paper scrip probably would not be popular with consumers because they could not spend it as regular currency and some might object to scrip in principle.

Mrs. Brooks said she was hopeful that the need for scrip would be over by the end of the summer, as more persons return their copper pennies to circulation.

The Treasury has designed a June as get-out-the-penny month and will issue special certificates to persons turning in $5 or more in pennies to banks or other commercial outlets.

The rose is rich in vitamin C.

'Miss Softball America'

This is "Miss Softball America Week" in Midland, as proclaimed by Mayor Ernest Angelo Jr.

And many persons, in noting the announcement, perhaps will stare off into space with a "Miss What Week?" expression on their faces.

Well, they just haven't kept up with developments in the sports world. They don't realize that Miss Softball America is a going, growing national softball program for girls between the ages of nine and 18 years.

This lack of knowledge isn't quite as prevalent in Midland as in many communities, yet many Midlanders perhaps do not realize that 356 girls enrolled in 24 teams are participating in the Miss Softball America program here this season.

Games scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m. Monday at Goddard Junior High School will launch the observance of Miss Softball America Week here.

The Tall City actually is the hub of girls softball in West Texas. Midland having been one of the region's first cities to adopt the program. Big Spring, Snyder and Odessa also have scores of young ladies involved in the program, and San Angelo is in the organization stage. The 1974 Miss Softball America national tournament will be held at Odessa late this summer.

The program here started in 1972 with 105 girls enrolled. The number of participants increased to 334 in 1973 and 356 this year. Midland presently has 11 Minor League (ages 9-12) teams; 10 Major League (13-15 years) teams, and three Senior League (15-18 years) teams. Midland teams have competed for five state championship titles in two years, winning four of them. Teams also have participated in national tournaments in 1972 and 1973.

There is nothing particularly new about girls playing softball, but the national organization is new, and growing.

The paramount consideration of the program is the welfare of the individual girl, to help her achieve emotional and physical maturity, and to prepare her for successful living in a competitive society. The program is designed to provide her with opportunities for self-improvement, for commitment to the welfare of a group, for interpersonal relations with her own-peers in situations ranging from relaxed fun and recreation to intense competition, and to provide her with the opportunity of learning by precept and example from dedicated and qualified adult leaders.

This is a great program for girls and Midland is fortunate in having enthusiastic representation in Miss Softball America. Congratulations to all persons involved in the program.

RAY CROMLEY Ivy League Influence In Business And Industry

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Detailed studies of the backgrounds of the men who occupy top positions in American industry and the government reveal what appears to be an astounding "Ivy League" influence. Also, an amazing infiltration of lawyers in government's top ranks.

These studies found that 56 per cent of the nation's corporate leaders, 44 per cent of government leaders are alumni of 12 universities — Harvard, Yale, Chicago, Stanford, Columbia, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cornell, Northwestern, Princeton, Johns Hopkins, Pennsylvania and Dartmouth.

Eleven per cent of the corporate leaders and 6 per cent of the top men in government attended one of the 30 "name" prestigious prep schools.

Fifty-six per cent of the top men in the federal government were recruited from the legal profession and only 17 per cent from American business.

Curiously, while the corporate business world has furnished but a sixth of the federal government elite (and though only a quarter of the top federal men have had some high-level corporate experience) almost 40 per cent of the elite in business and industry have had some high government post at one time or another.

This would seem to give the industrial and financial leaders an edge — with a somewhat better understanding of the federal government than top government officials have of business.

These data come from unpublished studies by Professor Thomas R. Dye, of Florida State University, who concludes that "government leadership is not interlocked with the corporate world."

Dye's studies concentrated on the 4,000 men who occupy what he determined to be the 5,300 top institutional positions in the United States. In the corporate world, these are the individuals who collectively control half the nation's industrial, communications, transportation, utilities and banking assets and two-thirds of all insurance assets. In what Dye calls the public interest sector, the men he studied control almost 40 per cent of all the assets of private foundations, half of all private university endowments, and run the most prestigious civic and cultural organizations — such institutions as Brookings, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Committee on Economic Development, the American Assembly, the Metropolitan Opera, the National Gallery of Art and the Smithsonian.

In the government, Dye's subjects occupy the key federal positions in the executive, legislative and judicial branches and occupy all top command positions in the military.

In his research Dye found that 1,534 presidents and directors control 52 per cent of all manufacturing assets, that 1,200 presidents and directors control 48 per cent of all banking assets and that 362 presidents and directors control two-thirds of the nation's insurance assets. Though there are more than 7,000 foundations with assets of $300,000 or more, the 121 directors of the top 12 control 30

Extensive Road Work In Area Set

AUSTIN — The Texas Highway Commission has approved work to improve roadways on 58.5 miles of highways in the Permian Basin area at an estimated cost of $3.6 million.

The work is part of a statewide effort to improve safety and convenience to motorists and at the same time help prevent possible severe winter damage to roadways.

The work includes additional surfacing on the following highways:

- Interstate Highway 20 in Martin County from the Midland County line northeastward to U.S. Highway 80 east of Stanton.
- IH 20 in Ector County from FM 1936 northeastward to the Midland County line.
- IH 20 in Ward County from 0.5 miles west of Poyte to 3.0 miles east of Monahans.
- IH 10 in Reeves County from the Pecos County line westward 8.4 miles.
- IH 10 in Pecos County from the Reeves County line eastward 13 miles.

This diamond lead will be right up South's alley since it will give him two diamond tricks and his contract.

A West who can count will note that South started with just five spades and will make four spade tricks. Adding three club tricks comes to a total of seven and South will need two diamond tricks for his contract. Hence any diamond tricks available to the defense will keep.

West will simply lead his last trump. South will win and attack clubs. West takes his ace, gets out with a heart or a club and continues to wait for declarer to play diamonds.

South will have to break the diamond suit and barring some really silly play by East or West, will lose two tricks there.

BRUCE BLOSSAT Schlesinger Turns Their Own Words Against Them

WASHINGTON (NEA) — By any fair standard, Defense Secretary James Schlesinger would have to be classed as a man of intellectual attainments. But it doesn't bother him a bit that in his present post, he often finds himself in open contest with the U.S. "intellectual community."

In fact, as he talks to newsmen, he seems to find more than modest pleasure in fingering what he deems either inconsistencies or faltering resolves exhibited by intellectuals in the defense field.

Let's look at a few examples that developed from a recent encounter Schlesinger had with reporters.

Even granting the obvious distractions of Watergate, he indicates puzzlement at the minimum amount of comment from intellectuals on India's explosion of a nuclear device.

The United States today is a signatory to a nuclear non-proliferation treaty whose goal, of course, was to halt the spread of nuclear weaponry to more and more nations. India's action, whether or not it leads to production of a bomb, is a clear violation of the treaty's intent and spirit.

Schlesinger regards the spread to India of this capability as "potentially devastating." And he recalls that, in the long prelude to the non-proliferation treaty, the threat of spread was an issue which "tore at the vital interests of the intellectual community" and consumed much of its energy. His question is simple: Where are they now?

Many U.S. intellectuals stand in support of moves in Congress to cut deeply into our NATO armed forces stationed in West Europe. The argument today is really a double one: Their presence is just symbolic and detente reduces the need.

Detached analysts like those at Brookings Institution (research) long ago persuasively answered the first point, saying our conventional NATO forces have proved a real deterrent to less-than-nuclear incursions into Western Europe by Russia. The actual balance is close.

But Schlesinger would go beyond and confront the intellectuals with their own arguments. In the Eisenhower-Dulles era, their favorite sport was to assail a declared policy of "massive retaliation" by nuclear means as sheer insanity.

Take away the proven effectiveness of our NATO armies, contends Schlesinger, and what is left for the response but the kind of sweeping nuclear strike the intellectuals so long deplored? With this, too, goes his argument that detente was made possible by balance, and it can't be held by unilateral ground force withdrawals which destroy balance.

It also troubles the secretary that, at the very least, intellectuals fully support new congressional moves — especially in the Senate — to cut aid to South Vietnam.

Though this part of his comment will have been well reported in the immediate aftermath of his meeting with newsmen, it is worth mention within the framework of this report.

Schlesinger believes that hand-cutting attempts on aid to South Vietnam reflect a "retroactive" gesture by intellectual and other anti-war elements who felt continuously frustrated during our long, costly participation in the Vietnamese war.

He adds: "South Vietnam deserves better than retroactive punishment. It is unworthy of us to behave in this giggling manner."

He is mindful that the settlement terms permit and, in effect, commit us to sustain

DON OAKLEY Bureaucracy's Flaw Is Human Nature!

NEW YORK (NEA) — One of the positive results of the campus unrest of the 1960s was the establishment of student ombudsmen in many colleges and universities.

Like his namesake in the Swedish government where the idea originated, the ombudsman's job is to act as mediator between students (citizens) and the university administration (the bureaucracy), to hear complaints and try to get the appropriate official to do something about them.

A recent report by the student ombudsman at the University of Chicago probably is typical. During his stint in the spring and summer quarters of 1973, ombudsman Joel Levin handled 65 complaints, ranging from lack of bicycle security on the campus to dwindling library services to the drudgery and inadequacy of student housing to the sanitary squalid situation in women's rest rooms.

Levin's comments on his experience are an interesting microcosm of life itself.

"There is often a correlation," he writes in his report, "between remoteness from direct student contact and a willingness to accommodate an individual student's problem."

Thus the person students first encounter is often as petty and unyielding as his superior, four times removed, is likely to be magnanimous and accommodating.

"Often these superiors are willing to bend or abandon general policy to accommodate individual students."

Example Cited

As an example, one student complained that the registrar's office wouldn't allow her to graduate with honors because a secretary inadvertently had omitted her name from the honors list. An honorless diploma thus had been ordered for the student and she was given the choice of graduation without honors in June or graduating with honors in September.

The ombudsman asked the registrar why a blank diploma couldn't be given in June and the actual one mailed late when it had been printed, permitting the student to graduate with the rest of her class without being penalized for a mistake she hadn't made.

The registrar, showing no concern for the student, replied that this would inconvenience his office and would violate university regulations. It was not until the ombudsman took

Supreme Court Sets July 8 Hearing On Evidence Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has agreed to make an early decision on whether President Nixon may withhold White House evidence sought in the trials of his former top assistants.

The high court scheduled a July 8 hearing on the case, which centers on arguments over the doctrine of executive privilege.

Simply put, the issue is whether Nixon may continue to claim the right to keep secret communications he had with men who were once his closest associates, but who are now charged with crimes.

Leon Jaworski, the special Watergate prosecutor, says his need for tapes and documents in the upcoming Watergate cover-up trial transcends the President's executive privilege.

Meanwhile, on Capitol Hill, Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr. of the House Judiciary Committee ruled out of order a move to call witnesses to testify about the alleged payment of $75,000 in hush money to Watergate conspirator E. Howard Hunt Jr.

Rodino also turned back without a vote suggestions to release all or part of the evidence the committee has heard so far since the committee has met in closed-door sessions. But he directed the staff to begin compiling the material for possible release later.

The New Jersey Democrat also indicated that few of the committee's hearings would be open to the public. He said it was likely that sessions in which evidence is presented will be closed but that committee debates on consideration of evidence already presented will be open.

In the case that the Supreme Court agreed to hear, U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica has ordered Nixon to turn over tapes and documents relating to 64 conversations Nixon had with his aides in the year following the original June 17, 1972, Watergate break-in.

In persuading the Supreme Court to take the case, Jaworski is slipping over the U.S. Court of Appeals. Jaworski had argued that without quick action on the issue of subpoenas sent to the White House, the trial of seven men charged in the Watergate cover-up would be unfairly delayed. It is set to begin Sept. 9.

Among those charged with obstruction of justice in the case are former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, and former White House aides to Nixon, H. R. Haldeman and John D. Ehrlichman.

In another Watergate case Friday, Jaworski found himself an ally of the White House.

Ehrlichman and another ex-

White House assistant Charles W. Colson are seeking notes and records they left behind in the White House.

U.S. District Judge Gerhard Gesell backed Colson and Ehrlichman, but Jaworski said a compromise offered by Nixon's lawyer, James D. St. Clair, "seems adequate at this time."

Jaworski suggested Gesell kill subpoenas delivered to the President.

Ehrlichman, Colson and three others are accused of conspiring to violate the civil rights of Dr. Lewis Fielding, Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist. The charges involve a break-in at Fielding's Beverly Hills, Calif., office designed to obtain material on Ellsberg, who leaked the Pentagon papers to news media.

Gesell has agreed that the defendants, their attorneys and the special prosecutor should have access to the personal papers of the men.

Nixon softened his previous position Thursday, by declaring a willingness to allow Colson's and Ehrlichman's attorneys to review potential evidence.

Cost Of Newsprint Shrinking Size Of Paper, Survey Shows

NEW YORK (AP) — Swelling newsprint costs continue to cause shrinking newspaper sizes, the latest survey by the Associated Press Managing Editors Association shows.

Questionnaires were mailed to 1,260 member newspapers in January, and 248 editors responded.

One hundred-sixty-seven editors said they had not restored all the cuts made at the beginning of the crunch last year, although 53 said they had.

One editor commented, "I don't think we'll ever get back to the size news hole we had before the shortage. Newsprint just costs too much for us to use it the way we used to."

The survey by Ron Martin, managing editor of the Miami Herald and vice chairman of the APME's reader relations committee, found that 158 editors, or 65 per cent of those responding, said the newsprint shortage was affecting them.

According to the survey, 82 papers changed advertising policies by such methods as limiting ad sizes, stacking ads or eliminating promotional ads.

The survey found that 115 papers have made such circulation changes as cutting fringe or uneconomic circulation, restricting returns and tightening the number of copies used internally.

In a similar survey reported last October, 295 of 470 newspapers responding, or 65 per cent, said the then-acute newsprint shortage had forced them to drop some news articles.

These survey results also were reported:

- Sixty-three of 212 editors said they are using fewer comics than before the space squeeze, and readers say they miss them most.
- Eighty-four of 194 editors said they are running fewer syndicated features.
- Sixty-seven papers said they have begun publishing news digests or summaries, many of them furnished by the AP.

In the latest survey, most editors said they had restored cuts in local news, features and photos but continued to eliminate some news agency features, comics, hard wire news, weddings and engagements and stock and television listings.

The shortage has driven the price of newsprint up from $175 a ton a year ago to $213 a ton in the United States. A ton can supply about 7,000 copies of a 24-page paper.

Additional Irregularities Detailed By Ex-Bondsman

DALLAS (AP) — Bondsman transferred collateral affidavits from one name to another even though there were bail bond forfeitures against the affidavits, a former bondsman has told a court of inquiry.

Parsons testified he and Bob Woods, another former bondsman, met with Sheriff Jones. In that meeting Jones agreed to allow transfer of six parcels of property into Woods' name with Woods assuming liabilities for all forfeitures on Parsons' surety, Parsons testified.

Wayne Parsons told the court probe of Dallas County bonding practices that he never wrote bonds but put up affidavits in the Dallas County Sheriff's Office listing land he owned for use as bail bond collateral.

After the hearing recessed, Jones told newsmen he never made such a suggestion.

The sheriff acknowledged discussing the proposed land transfer with Parsons and Woods, but said he had no reason to enter the deal.

Parsons' testimony marked the fourth day of testimony in state Dist. Court Judge Dee Brown Walker's court. Allegations of bonding irregularities prompted the sessions.

Parsons said there was a written contract signed by Woods, Parsons and Chief Civil Deputy Ralph Walters of the sheriff's department. The contract was introduced into evidence Friday but had no space for signatures.

In earlier sessions, Parsons had refused to testify, invoking the Fifth Amendment. However, he testified Friday and part of the testimony concerned Dallas County Sheriff Clarence Jones.

Parsons said a second page contains the signatures.

The transfer agreement "was carried forth with the full acknowledgement of Sheriff Clarence Jones of Dallas County," Parsons said.

The former bondsman testified he wanted out of the bail bond business because two of his associates accumulated a large number of unpaid forfeitures on his surety.

In a related development, Capt. Walters on Friday delivered 245 bond forfeitures executions worth $87,487 to the Hunt County Sheriff's Office.

Green in turn ordered the 30 acres of land put up for surety by Turnbow to be sold at sheriff's auction July 2.

McCamey Woman Wins Judge Runoff

Mrs. Jack (Peggy) Garner, a McCamey housewife, became a shoo-in Saturday to become the second woman county judge in the history of West Texas as she edged fellow townsman Walter Campbell Jr. by three votes, 593-590, in the Democratic runoff election.

She will have no Republican opponent in the November general election.

Midland County Judge Barbara Culver became West Texas' first woman county judge and the state's first woman Republican county judge more than 10 years ago. This year she won the first Republican primary unopposed and will not have a Democratic opponent in the general election.

Upton County had one other runoff race, that for U.S. Representative for the 21st District, Robert Krueger of Braunfels won over Nelson W.

Wolff of San Antonio in Upton County, 625-464.

Crane County voters returned one county commissioner to office and unseated another in fairly close votes but handed the county judgeship to Charles Blue by a large margin.

In the Precinct 2 commissioner contest, incumbent Mrs. Myrtle Tubb's 161 votes weren't enough to prevent challenger Roy Jamar from taking her post, with his 137 ballots.

But Commissioner Howard Tarpley, Precinct 4, won 146 votes, thus stopping his opponent, H. F. Brock, who received 103.

Crane voters also approved Krueger's nomination for U.S. representative by giving him 460 votes, an even 100 more than were cast for Wolff.

Blue was given 603 votes for District, Robert Krueger of Braunfels won over Nelson W.

and Michael H. Ezzell with 539.

Richard Nelson was elected justice of the peace with 779 votes, over the 645 received by John Parchman.

In Reagan County, incumbent Precinct 4 County Commissioner Jim L. Daniel kept his office in a close race with Wayne Dolan. Daniel took 140 votes against Dolan's 112.

Reagan County voters favored Krueger in the U.S. representative race. They gave Krueger 271 votes, compared to Wolff's 101.

The only incumbent in the four runoff races in Ector County won his bid for the Democratic nomination Saturday.

In that contest, Commissioner Salvador Guerrero polled 559 votes against opponent Mack Stewart's 328.

There were runoffs for the Precinct 2 county commissioner nomination on both the Democratic and Republican tickets.

Joe Johnson received the nod of Democratic voters, with 488 votes against 211 for Paul Heifner. Bill Stevic Jr. will be the Republican candidate in November, winning over Bruce E. Frankum's 212-139.

The other race there was for justice of the peace, Precinct 1, where Harold Silgar defeated L. B. Henson, 164-72.

Howard County voters shuttled County Commissioner Bill Bennett out of his Precinct 2 seat by a near 2-1 vote in Saturday's runoff, putting Ike Rupard's name on the November ballot.

The vote was 705 for Rupard and 377 for Bennett.

Ezzell was Howard County's favorite for the state representative post. He received 1,151 votes to Toombs' 669.

Midland College Seeks Housing Aid For Students

MIDLAND COLLEGE is requesting assistance from Midland residents in housing students during the fall semester.

"We will need living quarters for approximately 50 students," Camal Dakil, dean of students, said.

He points out that the lack of an on-campus dormitory makes it necessary for citizens of Midland to help house the out-of-city students.

"IN MOST CASES, one room will be enough," Dakil said. "We especially need help for our scholarship students. Midland College will award its first athletic scholarships in tennis, swimming and golf this fall."

The dean of students requests Midlanders who would like to help to contact the college at 694-1686 as soon as possible.

"WE DO NOT EXPECT anyone to help without remuneration. The students will pay their way, either with money or work. Some have expressed a desire to do yard and house work to help pay for their rooms," Dakil said.

Hank Schreiner Graduates At OU With Highest Honor

Henry F. "Hank" Schreiner Jr. of Midland was graduated magna cum laude from the University of Oklahoma at its recent spring commencement exercises held at Norman.

The honors graduate was awarded a bachelor of science degree in physics. He was a member of Sigma Chi social fraternity and Sigma Pi Sigma, physics honor society.

Schreiner has been accepted in the Graduate School of Physics at The University at Austin this fall to work toward his Ph.D. degree.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Schreiner, 801 Gulf St. He is a graduate, with honors, of Midland's Robert E. Lee High School.

Gulf Cuts Some Gasoline Prices

HOUSTON (AP) — Gulf Oil Co.-U.S. will reduce its wholesale gasoline prices for both regular and premium gasoline by 1.3 cents a gallon and boost the price of no-lead by 0.2 cents a gallon, the company said Saturday.

At the same time, the company announced an increase in the price of home heating oil and diesel fuel by 1.1 cents per gallon.

Gulf also said it will supply service station dealers and wholesale accounts with 94 percent of their adjusted base period gasoline volumes during the month of June.

Agricultural accounts will be supplied with 100 percent of their current needs, the company said.

Shopping Center Derby Due To Get New Entrant

shopping center for Midland, "but I could not say by what margin the council would vote affirmatively."

He also noted that, at present, the council has not given any indication of favoring any particular site.

However, it appears that a compromise will be necessary if shopping center plans are finalized. Mayor Angelo said the city council wants a "binding moral commitment" from the developers, along with letters of intent from retail stores which would be a part of a shopping center, before land is annexed and zoned.

On the other hand, the mayor acknowledged that developers want action from the council on annexation and proper zoning before they proceed further.

Mayor Angelo admitted that he did not know yet how these problems would be resolved.

Martin Allday, representing Midland developer Hahn, said his group was satisfied with the 78.6 acres Hahn has applied to have annexed to the city. Hahn owns an option to buy the land.

Allday noted that if an overall view of Midlanders was obtained, instead of a sectional view of only residents living in the general area, support for a regional shopping center in the proposed Northwest College Addition would be apparent.

Allday said he is heavily in favor of the Hahn development plan because it is near the new Midland College Campus and would be an immediate source of employment for about 900 Midlanders. He noted that the development would be a minimum $12 million investment that would stop much of the current "54.6 per cent" outflow of Midland's shopping dollars.

The Midland attorney said all physical problems of the proposed site have been taken into consideration, and no unsolvable ones have yet been noted, including traffic, airplane glide path, drainage or the loop road.

Allday made it clear that the June 11 annexation vote by the city council was crucial to the Hahn development, but said that even with the annexation, LR zoning was a necessity before

The factory is about mile on two large tanks of ammonia from Flixborough, which is to lessen the fire risk.

The firemen had the situation mostly under control Saturday night, but a spokesman said it might take several days to snuff out the blaze completely. Special security forces patrolled the area to prevent looting.

Most of the dead were believed to be inside an area of glass in the middle of the factory that took the main force of the blast. Rescue workers were unable to get near the area.

"We don't know how many people are inside, although we know there were about 50 or 60 before the explosion," said the designer of the plant, Michael Shaw, one of the first to reach the scene. "We probably got 30 of them out but we are still checking."

Abandoned House Destroyed By Fire

An abandoned house on County Road 115 West was destroyed by fire about 4:30 p.m. Friday.

Firemen said the woodframe structure had been burned before and believed Friday's fire was set.

They were at the scene about an hour and a half.

Insurance Meeting To Honor Midlander

Ross Kemp of Midland, in recognition of outstanding achievements in the insurance field, will be the guest of the member companies of Farmers Insurance Group June 10-13 at the Topper Club convention in Arlington.

A program of business sessions is planned with keynote speakers, including Howard B. Hancock, president of Fire Underwriters Association, and James King, manager of operations for Farmers New World Life Insurance Co.

Wives of club members also will attend the conference.

Topper Club honors are awarded annually by the Farmers Insurance Group to its leading district managers and agents throughout the companies' operating territory.

top of him, and in the end they saved his life. It's a paradox."

The exchange, undertaken as part of the disengagement of forces agreement signed in Geneva Friday, was delayed one hour while International Red Cross officials straightened out a mixup over the number of Israelis to be returned.

"We were expecting 15," said one general.

The prisoners said they were unaware of Kissinger's month-long effort to arrange the agreement, and were informed of their impending repatriation only Saturday morning.

The prisoners were careful not to speak of their experiences in Syrian jails, after Israeli prisoners returned from Egypt last January with stories of torture.

"This is only the first group to return, not the last," one officer told newsmen. Syria still holds 58 Israelis, and Israel has 367 Syrians, 10 Iraqis and five Moroccans.

The remaining prisoners are to be exchanged after the generals conclude their Geneva talks.

Police Doubt SLA Boast About Downing Helicopter

(Related Story, Page 6A)

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police Chief Ed Davis said Saturday the chances were "extremely remote" that a police helicopter was downed by a Soviet-made anti-aircraft missile as claimed in purported letters from the Symbionese Liberation Army.

Davis dismissed as "a boast" a terrorist communique which claimed responsibility for shooting down the five-seat aircraft Wednesday with a missile. It was also employed during last October's Arab-Israeli fighting to bring down helicopters. It was also employed during last October's Arab-Israeli fighting to bring down helicopters.

There have been persistent reports that Arab terrorists have smuggled the missiles, which are small enough to be broken down and carried in a large suitcase, into Europe for use against commercial airliners. However, there have been no such incidents.

The FBI said agents were examining the letters, which bore the SLA's seven-headed cobra insignia and were signed "B Team Leader," but refused comment on their authenticity.

The association has acquired additional property immediately north of the building site for customer parking and future expansion. The property will be landscaped attractively.

Upon completion of the new building, Citizens Savings will vacate its present building located at 1406 W. Wall St. The firm, which opened for business June 10, 1960, occupied its present building, which has 2,500 square feet of space, on June 27, 1960.

"We simply have outgrown our present facilities which were designed for a much smaller operation," Prescott said in announcing plans for the new building. "The attractive and completely modern new building is designed for present and future needs."

"Our officers and directors have complete faith and confidence in Midland, its future growth and economic expansion... and this is the spirit in which our new and much larger building is being erected," Prescott added.

Prescott also said that the state savings and loan commissioner has approved Citizens Savings' proposal to establish a branch office in Oakridge Square Shopping Center at Wadley and Garfield Streets. A building to house the facility now is under construction. Occupancy is scheduled by Oct. 1.

June Hearing Set On Knapp Release

LUBBOCK Tex. (AP) — A federal judge who earlier ordered a new trial for former state Rep. Walter Knapp has set a June 10 hearing on a motion to release Knapp from prison.

Knapp's attorneys, Frank Baughman and Wayne Bagley, filed the motion Friday in Amarillo and then delivered a copy to U.S. District Court Judge Hal Woodward in Lubbock.

Woodward set the June hearing late Friday.

The motion seeks release of Knapp, pending the granting of a new trial, from the state prison at Huntsville where he is serving a four-year term.

Knapp, a former legislator from Amarillo, was convicted in May 1972 on charges of using state-owned postage stamps to purchase a truck.

Woodward ruled May 23 that Knapp must be given a new trial by the state.

Mrs. Holcombe Dies; Rites Pend

STANTON — Mrs. Mary Lee Holcombe, 82, formerly of Stanton, died Saturday morning in a hospital at Newark, Calif., where she resided.

Services are pending at Stanton's Gilbreath Funeral Home.

She was born Feb. 15, 1892, at Marysville and married the late E. W. Holcombe there Dec. 28, 1912.

Survivors include four sons, Kenneth Holcombe of Stanton, Price Holcombe of Clint, Hugh Holcombe of Compton, Calif., and Wayne Holcombe of Tripoli, Libya; two daughters, Mrs. Olive Pearson of Fort Worth and Mrs. Thelma Brake of Newark; two sisters, Mrs. Queenie Bone of Richardson and Mrs. Sibill Butts of Gainesville; a brother, Aubrey Sapp of Scottsdale, Ariz.; 19 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

Dignitaries from 16 countries, including U.S. Ambassador to India Daniel P. Moynihan, will attend the ceremonies.

The rare visitors arrived Saturday in this capital city, tucked in a cloudy, 8,000-foot-high valley in the Himalayan vastness between Tibet and India.

Just a little over a decade ago, they would have had to ride muleback for 5 1/2 days from the plain of India to get into this 18,000 square-mile kingdom where the Middle Ages are still a fresh memory.

But since 1962 there has been a road, cutting the trip to a seven-hour jeep ride. And in 1968 the Dragon Kingdom opened its first airfield in the nearby Paro Valley, making contact with the outside world only 30 minutes away.

But already coronation pomp is forcing the Bhutanese from their isolated ways. A high official said the foreign guest list prompted the king's aides to rule out formal sit-down dinners.

"We found the protocol too difficult," he added. "What if the Russian does not want to sit beside the Chinese?"

California, Seven Other States Hold Primaries Tuesday

By BILL STALL, Associated Press Writer

One of the longest primary campaigns in California history ends Tuesday when Republicans and Democrats choose candidates to succeed Ronald Reagan as governor. Seven other states also hold primaries.

Campaigning by some California candidates began as long as five years ago. But a recent turning point was a perjury indictment by the Watergate grand jury that crippled the campaign of frontrunning Republican Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke.

The latest polls show the strong favorites to be Democrat Edmund G. Brown Jr., 36-year-old secretary of state and son of the former governor, and Republican Houston I. Flournoy, 44, the state controller and a former college professor.

The other states holding primaries Tuesday include:

- Iowa: Two Republicans are contending for the right to face an unopposed Democrat for the Senate seat vacated by Democratic Sen. Harold Hughes, who quit the Senate to become a religious lay leader.

—South Dakota: A former prisoner of war, a businessman and a woman active in Republican politics are contending for the chance to oppose the re-election bid of Sen. George McGovern, the 1972 Democratic presidential nominee. And Democratic Gov. Richard Kneip faces primary opposition from a former ally.

—New Mexico: Six Democrats and four Republicans are seeking nomination for governor.

—Mississippi: There are four contests for nomination in three of the state's congressional districts.

—Montana: The state's two congressmen, a Republican and a Democrat, are unopposed for renomination. But there are contests in each district for the right to oppose them.

—New Jersey: There are 69 candidates running in the 15 congressional districts, a development Democrats believe results from the fact that Watergate makes no Republican safe.

—Alabama: Two candidates are running for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor after failing to get a majority in the first primary.

In California, political reform is a major issue, but the leading gubernatorial candidates still spent more than $1 million each seeking nominations in President Nixon's home state.

Brown's chief challengers among 18 Democrats are state Assembly Speaker Bob Moretti, 37, and Joseph L. Alioto, the flamboyant mayor of San Francisco whose wife Angelina went underground for 18 days to protest her husband's immersion in politics and lack of attention to her.

Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., faced only token opposition for renomination to a second term.

Cranston is an early favorite to win re-election over any of the five lesser-known GOP challengers.

The campaign for governor started unofficially in 1969, when Democratic Rep. Jerome Waldie and Reinecke said they would run.

Waldie's candidacy never caught fire and he was hampered during the critical months of the campaign by what he considered a more important commitment: his role on the House Judiciary Committee in its study of the possible impeachment of President Nixon.

Less than a year ago, Reinecke, 50, was the undisputed frontrunner in the Republican primary and the polls showed Flournoy running last in a field of six prospective candidates.

Then came Reinecke's testimony to the Senate Judiciary Committee about his role in the ITT case and his subsequent indictment. He was charged with lying to the committee about when he first told former attorney general John N. Mitchell about a $400,000 offer from the Sheraton Corp. to underwrite the 1972 Republican National Convention in San Diego.

The indictment said he lied when he told the committee under oath that he did not tell Mitchell of the offer until after a favorable settlement of an antitrust case against International Telephone & Telegraph Corp., parent firm of Sheraton.

Reinecke was indicted on April 3, pleaded "absolutely not guilty," and battled unsuccessfully to have his trial held before the primary. He insisted he still had a chance to win, telling loyal conservatives in Nixon fashion, "I'm a fighter, not a quitter. The people like a fighter."

After Reinecke's indictment, some Reagan supporters defected to Flournoy in spite of his image as a moderate or liberal Republican, but Reagan himself maintained a steadfast neutrality and concentrated on building a potential campaign for the Republican presidential nomination in 1976.

California Democrats have a chance to pick up a vacant GOP congressional seat in a special election held to fill the post relinquished by William Mailliard when he was appointed U.S. ambassador to the Organization of American States.

And former Assembly Speaker Jess Unruh sought a political comeback as one of four Democratic candidates for state treasurer.

Here is the rundown on the other primaries:

In Iowa, Democratic Rep. John Culver is unopposed for the Democratic nomination to succeed Hughes. In the Republican primary, State Sen.

George Milligan faces State Rep. David Stanley, who was defeated six years ago by Hughes.

In South Dakota, retired Air Force Col. Leo K. Thorsness, who spent six years in a North Vietnamese prison camp, is considered the leader in the race to oppose McGovern. His opponents are Al Schock, a Sioux Falls businessman, and Barbara Bates Gunderson, a former member of the U.S. Civil Service Commission. Gov. Kneip, a Democrat, is opposed in his bid for a third term by Lt. Gov. William Dougherty, his running mate the past two campaigns.

In New Mexico, there are 10 candidates seeking to replace Gov. Bruce King. The six Democrats include three state legislators, two former state legislators and a former state attorney general. Two former state senators, Joseph R. Skeen and John P. Easham are the two Republican front-runners.

In Mississippi, Democratic Rep. David Bowen is favored over Harry G. Robinson, mayor of Houston, in the 2nd District.

In the 4th, Republican incumbent Thad Cochran is opposed by Robert Coleman, a brother-in-law of former civil rights activist James Meredith. The winner will face one of five Democrats also running Tuesday. In the 5th District, an insurance man and a teacher are running in the Democratic primary to oppose Republican Rep. Trent Lott.

Staked as an Ellenburger wildcat, it was drilled to 11,725 feet, and has 4 1/2-inch casing seated at total depth. The following tops were picked, elevation unreported: Rustler, 1,650; Yates, 2,888; San Andres, 4,487; Glorieta, 5,810; Clearfork, 5,980; Tubb, 6,614; Mississippian, 8,820; Woodford, 9,236; Devonian, 9,505; Simpson, 11,088 and Ellenburger, 11,610 feet.

Wellsite is 2,120 feet from south and 1,850 feet from west lines of section 21, block A-41, PSL survey, one location east of the former Connell discovery.

Discovery Finaled In Crockett County

Texas Oil & Gas Corp., Midland, has completed No. 1-6 University, as a Pennsylvanian detrital gas discovery, 16 miles southwest of Ozona, in Crockett County.

Calculated, absolute open flow was for 3.5 million cubic feet of dry gas per day.

Completion was through perforations at 8,776-8,810 feet, after the section had been acidized with 1,750 gallons.

Scheduled as a 9,800-foot Ellenburger wildcat, it was drilled to 9,814 feet, with 4 1/2-inch casing set at 9,200 feet, and plugged back to 9,158 feet. Discovery site is 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 6, block 32, ULS.

4,900-Foot Wildcat Staked In Runnels

A 4,900-foot wildcat has been staked in Runnels County by Tri-Star Petroleum Corp., of Dallas. It is the No. 1-A Hoppe-Thormeyer, 1/4-mile northeast of the Goen opener of the Hall field but separated by a failure. Drillsite is 467 feet from northwest and 1,200 feet from northeast lines of F. J. Richards survey 26, 10 miles west of Winters.

Wildcat Set In Edwards County

Pierce & Dehlinger of Midland staked No. 4 Schoolfield as a 3,000-foot wildcat in Edwards County, eight miles east of Rocksprings and about three miles south of the Pan-Gil (Canyon) gas field. Drillsite is 4,246 feet west of the northeast corner, thence 1,928 feet south to location, in CCSD&RGNG survey 3, abstract 434.

Reclass Filed In Winkler County

Perry R. Bass, Midland, No. 12 J. B. Walton is the second Ellenburger gas producer and 1 1/2-mile southeast extension to that pay in the Keystone field of Winkler County, six miles northeast of Kerran. It had a calculated, absolute (Continued on Page 3B)

WASHINGTON OIL—

Next 6 Months To Be Crucial In Solving Crisis

By CLYDE LA MOTTE
Reporter-Telegram Washington Oil Correspondent
WASHINGTON — The next six months will likely tell the tale as to whether the Nixon administration is on the right track in seeking solutions to the nation's short-term and long-range energy problems.

During that time it should become apparent whether or not the newly-authorized Federal Energy Administration is the vehicle needed to get the United States moving toward energy self-sufficiency.

The new agency will replace the Federal Energy Office, created last year by executive action. FEO was hastily put together with most of its staff borrowed from other governmental agencies. Its authority jurisdictional boundaries were fuzzy and its time was spent almost entirely in coping with the day-to-day supply situation stemming from the embargo by Middle East producing nations.

It probably did as well as could have been expected, but what success it achieved came in large part from the personality and drive of William E. Simon, now Secretary of Treasury. It was obvious all along that FEO was not the answer and could serve only as a temporary bridge to a more permanent, clear-cut agency.

When Congress finally got around recently to passing legislation authorizing establishment of the Federal Energy Administration, this set the stage for a fresh start with more specific lines of jurisdiction and responsibilities and with more stature to cope with other departments and with Congress.

The legislation provided for the activation of the new agency 60 days after passage, so it will still be more than six weeks before it will become official. Furthermore, its administrator and other top officials will have to be confirmed by the Senate. Even so, there are already indications that the agency will be shaped up and ready for action when the time comes for it to take over.

The biggest difference between the new FEA and the out-going FEO is that FEA is being structured to do long-range blueprints as well as dealing with immediate problems. Also, much greater emphasis will be given to ways to assist the industry with such problems as shortages of drillpipe, location of refineries and power (Continued on Page 3B)

Two Draw Awards From Gulf Refining

Gulf Refining Co. has announced service anniversaries for two long-time employees, who have been presented awards by the company.

A. P. Riley, recently promoted to district gauger in the Penwell area of the Midland district, has worked for the firm 35 years.

He joined Gulf Refining in the McElroy area, later working in the Keystone area in Winkler County, and in the Hobbs, N.M., area before returning to West Texas at Penwell.

W. T. White, field gauger in the Goldsmith area since 1973, celebrated his 30th anniversary of employment recently.

He joined Gulf Refining at Sour Lake and was transferred to the New Orleans district as a tank farm gauger at New Orleans in 1958, and to field gauger in 1960. He resigned from the company in 1970 and

Drilco Announces More Promotions

Industrial Operations of Drilco Division of Smith International, Inc., completed its final phase of resigning shop management personnel last week.

Ten machine operators and other shop employees were promoted to leadmen to assist shop foremen and department managers.

They are William Miles of the saw shed group, Rodney Wilson of the maintenance group, J. W. Kelley and Lonnie Short of the shock sub department, Buford Hickson of the welding shop.

And Rick Warrick and Eddie Raff of the drillpipe shop, Bob Yeargain and Ken Kinney of the reamer parts fabrication shop, Lonnie Looney of the rubber mold plant, and Glenn Noles in the manufacturing services department.

TEXACO GRANT — George W. Slaughter, left, of Midland, assistant division petroleum engineer for Texaco Inc., presents to C. V. Mooney, chemical and natural gas engineering chairman at Texas A&I University in Kingsville, a check representing part of a $4,000 unrestricted grant by Texaco. With them are two Texaco representatives from Corpus Christi, Carl Hanoch, second from right, and Jim Rowalt.

Shell Executive Predicts Temporary Surplus Of Oil

NEW YORK (AP) — The president of Shell Oil says the world is heading for a petroleum surplus which will be cut short by producing countries who want to keep prices high.

Harry Bridges, in an exclusive interview with The Associated Press, said the surplus is developing because high fuel prices have reduced demand.

"We have got to the stage where continuation will indeed result in a certain amount of surplus for a while," said Bridges.

He said that, with the exception of Saudi Arabia, members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries would not allow a surplus to go on for long.

Among the other points Bridges made during the interview: —Shell is reluctant to build new refineries until it can be sure there will be enough crude oil to fill them.

—New federal regulations to equalize retail prices of fuel may discourage some companies from importing crude oil.

—There are moves among the OPEC countries to limit the profits of the international oil companies and this will hasten the end of oil company control over Middle East oil production.

Bridges, who lives in Houston, became president of Shell Oil Co., a wholly owned American subsidiary of Royal-Dutch Shell, in 1971.

The questions and answers include: Q: You said in a recent speech that world oil production is running at 48 million barrels a day.

A: Yes. Q: That's about the same level as last year, but world demand is down. Does this mean we're in a surplus situation?

A: Yes and no. Demand is down in Europe for two reasons: It's been a mild winter, so the middle distillate—heating oil—demand has been down and also gasoline is down. I think 3 or 4 per cent. This, of course, has been due to price resistance and to a certain amount certain countries have stopped motoring on Sundays.

In this country we've had a similar kind of thing, as you know, the middle distillates, low consumption and relatively mild winter and with gasoline artificially constrained, it's been about 9 per cent down. So altogether then, you are right that there has been an excess of crude supplies ahead of demand in the last month or two, and these have mainly gone to build inventories both in Europe and here, particularly in Europe where over the winter they used some of their strategic stores. We think that storage is pretty full now, and therefore we have got to the stage where continuation of production at its present level and no growth in consumption will indeed result in a certain amount of surplus for awhile.

Q: Where are you going to store the surplus?

A: We're not, obviously. It's not going to be produced. It's not going to be lifted, let's put it that way. It's going to be left back in the ground. But in fact there's a real question of whether demand will not begin to pick up again. Look here, look at the United States. Demand has been off for gasoline not because of price constraint, although it will have had some impact, but not a great deal. Mostly it has been lack of availability which has kept the consumption of gasoline down — particularly lack of availability over from Saturday midday to Monday morning. So a lot of people didn't take trips who would have taken trips. Now a lot of service stations are going to be open over the weekend. I think you'll find that a lot of people will resume their old habits, and I think consumption is going to start moving up again. I only hope it doesn't start moving up too much because we still have a situation if we resume the old trend, we'll be in short supply.

Q: Do you see any softening in the Middle East fuel prices as a result of this surplus situation you spoke of?

A: I hope this will be the case, but I really and sincerely doubt that this will be. I think that with the possible exception of Saudi Arabia, the other governments — the other OPEC (Organization of Petroleum Ex-

H. L. Wedig Retires From Gulf

H. L. Wedig of Odessa retired Thursday from Gulf Refining Co.

He began working for the company in the West Texas area. He has served in the posts of pipeline, timekeeper, senior clerk, line rider warehouseman and field gauger.

He was promoted to district gauger in the Penwell area of the Midland district in July, 1966, the position he held at the time of his retirement.

Mr. and Mrs. Wedig will make their retirement home in Odessa.

Sun To Furnish San Antonio Coal

DALLAS — Sun Oil Co. has signed an agreement to furnish the city of San Antonio's Public Service Board with 53.4-million tons of low-sulfur coal, to be delivered over a 20-year period.

The coal, to be shipped by rail, will be produced in Sun Oil's new mine in its Belle Fourche Coal Lease near Gillette in Campbell County, Wyo. Deliveries are expected to begin in late 1976.

The coal will be used to operate generators which supply electricity to San Antonio residents.

porting Countries) are looking for price increases rather than price decreases. Now to the extent that Saudi Arabia can produce a surplus condition for awhile and hold prices down — we can have a hope that this will happen — I don't think it will result in very much of a decrease because I think the other countries would quickly move to stop this. They'll never let it go back to the situation that existed less than eight months ago when their net income per barrel was on the order of $1.40, $1.50 or something like that.

Q: You think, then, that some OPEC countries may cut back to maintain current high prices?

A: We do believe that is exactly what they will do.

Q: There is some talk of an oil embargo this June. Can you comment on that?

A: Well, this is the usual kind of saber rattling you'll get from time to time. And I think these people mean it. The truth is they have realized in the last year that not only do they have the ability to kick the international oil investors in the pants and say: "We are now going to tell you from here on out how much tax you're going to pay us per barrel. We're also going to tell you how much oil you may produce."

Q: Has Shell taken any steps to guard against another embargo with additional inventories?

A: No, we haven't. The real question is: Should the United States build strategic storage similar to the ones in Europe? And the quarrel with that is: Will the OPEC governments allow enough crude to be sold to the United States so they can fill up the storage? I don't know. The answer is, I think, yes, we ought to try to do this. The point is, three or four years ago our reserve storage was in the oil fields in Louisiana and Texas which were not operating at 100 per cent capacity, so there was no need to build expensive steel storage and fill those with crude oil.

Twenty-four units were making hole in Pecos County, and 20 in Ward.

Basin Rig Count Increases To 246

The number of active drilling rigs in the Permian Basin increased to 246 last week, according to Reed-Drilling Equipment's weekly survey.

The count was up six from the 240 recorded two weeks ago, and it was 47 more than the 199 rotaries drilling in the area in a like week a year ago.

Southeast New Mexico continued to show that most activity, with 35 rigs operating in Eddy, and 27 in Lea.

Gulf Oil Honors Three Employees For Long Service

Gulf Oil Corp. has announced service anniversaries for three employees in the Midland exploration and production districts.

George K. Harding, production superintendent in the Crane area, with 20 years service; M. O. Lisman, Monahans area production geologist, with 20 years, and J. I. Thacker, senior clerk in the Odessa-Goldsmith services department, with 19 years, all have been presented service awards.

Harding, of Odessa, joined the firm at Goldsmith in 1954 as a petroleum engineer. He was promoted to his present assignment in the former Sand Hills area in 1960. He is a member of National Association of Corrosion Engineers.

Lisman, who resides in Monahans, began his Gulf employment as a junior geologist in the former Fort Worth division office. Shortly thereafter he transferred to Amarillo, advancing through assignments in exploration and production geology. He moved to the Midland office in 1967, and to his present assignment in Monahans in 1968.

He is a member of West Texas Geological Society and American Association of Petroleum Geologists.

Thacker, of Odessa, joined Gulf as a clerk in the former Sand Hills area in 1954. He transferred to the Midland office the following year, and to the Odessa area in 1968. He was promoted to his present position in 1967, transferring to the Odessa-Goldsmith services department in 1973.

Friday To Mark 20th Anniversary Of FPC Natural Gas Price Control

By MAX B. SKELTON
 HOUSTON (AP) — Many oilmen have referred to June 7, 1954, as doomsday and as a day of infamy.

Next Friday will be the 20th anniversary of the 5-3 Supreme Court ruling that held the Federal Power Commission should regulate the wellhead price of natural gas sold into interstate commerce.

Frank Ikard, president of the American Petroleum Institute, says the decision quite probably did more to bring about the current energy shortage than any other action by the courts, government or industry.

The ruling followed 16 years of refusal by the FPC to accept such jurisdiction on grounds the Natural Gas Act of 1938 states that provisions of the act shall not apply to producers or gatherers.

The five-member court majority disagreed. Their opinion said Congress had sought to regulate wholesalers of natural gas occurring at both ends of the interstate transmission systems.

Justice William Douglas, a frequent oil industry critic, disagreed. His dissent said the price at which the producer can sell his gas determines the price he is able or willing to pay for it if he buys from other wells.

"The sales price determines his profits," Douglas wrote. "And his profits, and the profits of all the other gatherers whose gas moves into the interstate pipelines, have profound effects on the rate of production, the methods of production, the old wells that are continued in production, the new ones explored, etc."

Ikard and others contend time has proven the Douglas argument to be correct.

Since the court ruling, the number of domestic oil and gas wells drilled annually has dropped from a record 66,000 to 26,400. Demand for natural gas meanwhile has more than doubled. Proved domestic natural gas reserves have declined in five of the last six years.

Ikard says the 1954 ruling amounts to a clear case of legislation by the courts.

"The dismal 20-year record of federal price controls on interstate sales of natural gas has proven the failure of government interference in the marketplace," Ikard says.

"What is needed is an end to all government price controls in all segments of the petroleum industry, plus consistent government policies that will encourage rather than discourage drilling."

Battle lines between consumer and producer states date back to the 1940s in the dispute over wellhead price controls.

The producers, backed by such political powers as the late House Speaker Sam Rayburn and President Lyndon B. Johnson, then a member of the U. S. Senate, successfully maneuvered two decontrol bills through Congress only to see them vetoed by Presidents Harry S. Truman in 1950 and Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952.

Numerous decontrol bills have been introduced since then but have rarely gotten out of committee.

Nine such bills proposing deregulation in some form or other are before Congress now. President Nixon has endorsed proposals to decontrol newly discovered natural gas dedicated to interstate sales and decontrol old gas as current contracts expire.

Consumer interests are backing four other bills that would continue interstate controls. Two of them also would extend such controls to intrastate sales.

The two decontrol bills that were voted passed Congress only after sharp floor debates and close votes.

Rayburn relinquished the gavel twice to make floor speeches in behalf of the bills.

In 1949, the Kerr Bill passed the House 183-131 but a 44-38 Senate vote included an amendment that sent it back to the House. It was then that Rayburn moved to the floor to participate in a bitter consumer-producer debate that preceded a 176-174 vote that sent the bill to the White House.

Truman vetoed the measure on April 15, 1950, saying it did not seem wise public policy to remove FPC's authority to regulate.

In 1956, the Harris Bill survived a close 209-203 House vote with Rayburn's help and then was approved by the Senate 53-38.

Eisenhower said he agreed with the basic provisions of the Harris measure but based his veto on what he termed as "arrogant" lobbying by a small segment of the oil and gas industry.

Midlander Gets Association Post

Hugh N. Frenzel, chief geologist in Midland for Flag-Redfern Oil Co., a Midland-based concern, was elected chairman of the House of Delegates of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists at the organization's recent annual convention at San Antonio.

Frenzel also will serve as a member of the association's 1974-75 executive committee.

John E. Killohony, with Union Oil Co. of California at Los Angeles, was chosen president-elect for a year. He will assume the presidency July 1, 1975.

Merrill W. Hans of Houston, a vice president of Exxon Co. USA, served the last year as president-elect and will take over as president July 1.

Duncan A. McNaughton, a Dallas consulting geologist, was elected to serve a one-year term as vice president.

Elected to a two-year term as treasurer is George C. Grow Jr., a Newark, N.J., consultant.

Another Midlander, Bernard M. Hanson, president of Hanson Exploration Co., is the organization's secretary, having been elected to a two-year term in 1973.

RECEIVES AWARD—Gay Robertson, a recipient of the Shell Companies Foundation Scholarship and May graduate of Lee High School in Midland, is shown with Jack L. Mahaffey, Mid-Continent division production manager for Shell, as she is awarded the scholarship certificate. Gay will attend Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene this fall as a pre-med student.

John R. Ketter James A. O'Neill

Ketter, O'Neill Open Offices Here

John R. Ketter and James A. O'Neill have opened petroleum land offices at Suite 604, Oil and Gas Building.

The firm will perform all forms of petroleum land work and ad valorem tax service.

Ketter, formerly with The Western Co., and Industrial Instrument Corp., worked the last 15 years for the Ralph Lowe Estate. He had experience in general accounting, ad valorem tax services and land accounting. He is a member of Permian Basin Landmen's Association and American Association of Petroleum Landmen.

O'Neill has 28 years of experience in petroleum land work. He joined Continental Oil Co. in 1946. He began working for the Ralph Lowe estate in 1954, continuing there until his recent resignation. He is a member of PBLA and AAPL.

St. John's, Newfoundland, is the closest city in North America to Europe.

Exxon Promotes Ricky W. Frazier

Ricky W. Frazier of Exxon Co. — U.S.A. has been promoted to supervising engineer and transferred from Midland to Oklahoma City. Continuing his assignment in the Mid-Continent Production Division, he replaces Jack E. Coffman who has been named Oklahoma City district engineering manager.

Frazier joined Exxon in Midland in 1967. Two years later, he transferred to Andrews and in September 1973 he was again assigned in the division office at Midland as a senior engineer.

A native of Pampa, Frazier holds a B.S. degree in mechanical engineering from Texas Tech.

Consumers Find Price Declines Are Shortlived

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer
Consumers encouraged by recent price declines found during May that relief was short-lived. An Associated Press marketbasket survey showed the family grocery bill went up again last month.
The AP checked the prices of 15 food and nonfood items in 13 cities on March 1, 1973, and has rechecked at the start of each succeeding month. The figures in the latest survey reflected the April 30 end of price controls and the continuing spiral in commodities prices on the world market.

The latest AP check showed that during May the marketbasket total went up in eight cities, rising an average of 4 per cent, and declined in five. It was the reverse of the situation in April when the bill went down in eight cities and up in five. During March, the marketbasket total went down in nine cities.

The bill at the end of May was higher than on March 1, 1973, in every city. Increases averaged 15 per cent and ranged from 5 per cent in Seattle to 23 per cent in Boston. Eggs were about the only real bargain around. In many cities, the current price was lower than the March 1, 1973, level. The decline has been a steady one, caused by increased supplies of eggs. The average price of a dozen, medium white eggs in the latest survey was 54 cents, down 11 per cent from the figure one month ago and down 13 per cent from the cost on March 1, 1973.

In a less encouraging vein, however, detergent, which re-maintained fairly steady in earlier months, shot up in nine cities during May, rising an average of 8 per cent.

Sugar which started rising last year and has climbed ever since went up again in 10 cities during May and stayed unchanged in three. The average price was $1.38, up 12 per cent from the $1.23 figure at the end of April and up 89 per cent the 73-cent figure on March 1, 1973.

Judy Rankin Hangs On To One-Stroke Lead At Baltimore

Midland's Judy Rankin ... seeks repeat victory.

BALTIMORE (AP) — Defending champion Judy Rankin slumped on the back nine in Saturday's second round of the Baltimore Golf Championship, but maintained her one-stroke lead in the $40,000 tournament.

The 29-year-old Mrs. Rankin led by one stroke after the first round and moved to five strokes under par after touring the front nine of the Pine Ridge course in three-under-par 34.

Although she bogeyed the 13th, 14th and 15th holes, she finished the day at par for a 36-hole total of 144.

In a four-way tie for second place at 145 were Susie Berrington, Marilyn Smith, Kathy Whitworth and local favorite Carol Mann.

Mrs. Berrington fired a 60, Saturday's best round, after switching to a side-saddle putting stance in the second round following difficulty on the greens on Friday.

She had five birdies in the second round while using the side-saddle approach, which helped her win the U.S. Open Championship last year. She said she adopted the stance be-

THOSE FREE CARS— O-State Eyes Woody Aides

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State University's athletic council is expected to take a hard look soon at charges that football Coach Woody Hayes' assistants are driving free cars around town.

The OSU Lantern, student newspaper, reported in a copy-righted story last week that eight of Hayes' nine assistant coaches drive new automobiles that they got free from area car dealers, or for a nominal fee, or for "considerations" such as tickets to home games.

Hayes could not be reached for comment Saturday. The Lantern said Hayes denied any knowledge of the arrangements.

Thomas Williams, athletic council director, said he considered the reports a "very, very serious administrative problem." He said he expected the matter to come up before the council.

Richard Armitage, vice president for Student Services, has ordered an immediate investigation.

EAST-WEST GAME SHIFTED

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The 50th Shrine East-West football game will be played Dec. 28 at Stanford Stadium, Islam Temple and Stanford officials announced Saturday.

The oldest college football's postseason all-star games has been played at several sites, including Candlestick Park in San Francisco the last two years. But the all-time attendance record is 73,000 for the 1969 game at Stanford. Stanford Stadium, one of the largest football facilities in the nation, has a seating capacity of about 90,000.

Talent So Deep Only 3 Of 6 Champs Are Favored

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The 53rd annual NCAA track and field championships are scheduled here Tuesday through Saturday, beginning with the decathlon. But with that exception the finals will be run Friday and Saturday evenings to avoid temperatures which most likely will be in the 90s.

Experts rate Tennessee, defending champion UCLA and Texas-El Paso as the top three teams, maybe no more than a single point apart.

In the second echelon are Oregon State, North Carolina Central, San Diego State, host Texas, Oregon, Brigham Young University, Colorado and Washington State.

It is the first time since 1967 that the NCAA championships have been held in Memorial Stadium, but four stadium records set at the NCAA meet on a cinder track that year are still intact. The stadium now has an artificial track.

Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian College sped the 100 in 9.3 seconds; Lee Calhoun of North Carolina College ran the 120 hurdles in 13.6, Don Bowden of California ran the 800 in 1:47.2; and Ancel Robinson of Fresno State, in an event that has been discontinued, was clocked in 22.2 for the 220 hurdles.

This year, the individual attracting the most attention of the 1,200 entries is miler Tony Waldrop of North Carolina, who has run 3:53.2, a few quick steps off Jim Ryan's world record of 3:51.1.

Waldrop ran second last year to Olympic 800-meter champion Dave Wottle and had run 11 consecutive sub-four minute miles before slowing down in a recent race at Modesto, Calif.

Four other milers who have run under four minutes will test Waldrop, a 6-foot 145-pound senior.

Villanova Coach Jumbo Elliot says Waldrop will "run past 3:50 like it's not there."

UCLA, which has won three straight NCAA team titles, will be seeking a sixth consecutive NCAA victory in the mile race. Its best time this year is 3:07.7, but the Bruins appear capable of running faster.

UCLA also has the most versatile athlete in the meet in Rory Kotinek who, in a single meet this spring, cleared 7-04 in the high jump and 25-5 in the long jump and heaved the javelin 253-8.

Other 1973 defending champions who have qualified this year are Marshall Dill of Michigan State in the 220, Charlie Maguire of Penn State in the six-mile and Jacques Accornbray of Kent State in the hammer throw.

Although Primeaux rates as the Southwest Conference's only expected first-place winner.

Battle Scene By Ted Battles

Gas Shortage . . . Not Quite

It would be nice to say those trips to Austin taken by the Midland High basketball and baseball teams a year ago were abandoned out of patriotism or on ecological grounds, but the reasons were more fundamental than that and dealt with winning and losing, ugly as that may seem.

These things just don't happen every year, although it was getting to the point where folks began to accept such sojourns as a part of the schedule . . . you know, like the old Yankees used to figure in their World Series shares as part of the salary.

By now the Midland and Midland Lee seniors have rubbed the disbelief of the all night party out of their eyes and perhaps haicly recall a streaking commencement exercise . . . always wondered why they called it an exercise, now we know . . . and can look back on a year competitive athletic achievement.

And "competitive" is the key word. The championships and near-championships were elusive, but by normal standards, the rewards outnumbered the disappointments.

In fact, Midland High almost insured that in the first District 5-4A football game of the season when the Bulldogs shook the state with a 21-8 upset of Odessa Permian, the Panthers first loss in 20 games. The Purple Pack survived some early mistakes and there really wasn't much doubt after quarterback Steve Reddell caught the Panther defense flat-footed with his pass to Norris Johnson for a 93-yard touchdown play.

The same night, Midland Lee was struck by a lightning-rod named Allison, who passed for two touchdowns and ran for another as the Bronchos beat the Rebels, 40-17. It had to be the low point of the season, but amazingly the Rebels came back to play San Angelo (16-14) and Odessa Permian (14-6), the two teams that battled down to the wire for the title, to a standstill.

Got Maximum Out Of Talent

The Tall City continued to dominate the basketball scene, although not exactly with an iron-fist, as Midland Lee annexed its first title since 1965 with a very vital assist from Abilene High.

It all boiled down to the two games between Midland and Lee. The Rebels won the first one on Brett Blackwell's steal with 1:11 left and the 70-69 loss cost the Bulldogs a share of the first-half title and perhaps a chance at a playoff.

Lee took control in the second half and reeled off six straight wins, needing only a win over Midland to clinch the second-half title outright and avoid a playoff with Abilene Cooper, with whom the Rebels had tied the first half.

A 24-point performance by Doug Mitchell and a couple of clutch free throws by Brandon Battles with 36 seconds left gave the Bulldogs an upset 63-60, and the gloom among Rebel followers was as thick as a Los Angeles smog until word trickled in that Abilene had beaten Cooper.

There was a district volleyball championship for Lee and regional swimming titles for Midland (boys) and Lee (girls), a year in which Tommy Hart and Mary Dowdle were something extra special.

And in golf, a San Antonio coach warned Midland High golf coach Robert Young after the Bulldogs had won a pre-district tourney in South Texas. "We'll get you at state." Young responded, "Chances are you won't even see us at state. There are four teams in our district as good or better than we are."

It was the kind of year where neither the Rebel or Bulldogs golfers contended seriously, but the kind of competition encountered eased the sting and the MHS girls took 2nd in state.

The looked for baseball title for Ernie Johnson's Rebels escaped. After Lee gained the writers and coaches poll nod with a 16-1 pre-district record, knocking out Austin-bound Monterey twice in the process, it turned out Lee didn't have quite enough pitching to swing it, although the Rebels were in it until the season's final game.

As years go, it wasn't quite vintage in number of successes reaped, but no one expected it to be on the basis of material returning. Still, in receiving maximum effort and results from the athletic talent available, it just might have been better than 1972-73.

Aggie Signs Pact

HOUSTON (AP) — Former Texas A&M wide receiver Tommy Maxwell, who played out his option with Oakland Raiders last year, has signed a contract with the Houston Oilers of the National Football League.

General Manager Coach Sid Gillman announced Saturday.

Maxwell was a second round draft choice of the Baltimore Colts in 1969 and was traded to Oakland in 1971.

Heard Soft-Shoes Past Trevino

By BOB GREEN

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Jerry Heard, an easy-going guy who whistles while he works, birdied four holes in a row, ambled past Lee Trevino with a seven-under-par 65 and moved into a three-stroke lead Saturday in the $250,000 Kemper Open Golf Tournament.

Heard, who finished first, second and third in a string of three tournaments beginning at the Citrus Open earlier this season, put together a three-round total of 200, the best on the tour this year.

That is a whopping 16 under par for three trips over the 7,085-yard Quail Hollow Country Club course — an accommodating layout that has yielded the lowest scores of the year.

Not only was Heard's score the best on the tour this season, so was the over-all scoring. The high man in the field for three rounds had a 215 total, one under par. It was the first time in many years — perhaps ever — that the entire field sported sub-par figures.

Bob Menne, who hasn't made expenses in the last couple of years and has just enough bankroll for gas money to the next stop, tied Trevino for second place in the chase for the $50,000 first prize in this "designated tournament," one of three events on the schedule this year in which leading players are required to compete.

Trevino, who had set the course record with a 64 in Friday's second round, went to a 69 and a 203 total. Menne had a steady 67 in which he didn't make a bogey and didn't miss a green.

Billy Casper, Hubert Green and J.C. Snead were another shot back at 204. Casper had a 67 he said he didn't deserve — "I'm playing just terrible," he said. "I shouldn't even have made the cut." — Green had a 68 and Snead a 69 in the hot, muggy, almost windless weather.

At 205 were Gibby Gilbert,

Ray Floyd and Bert Yancey. Floyd and Yancey matched 68s, Gilbert had a 70.

Young Tom Kite, a tour sophomore and the first man off the tee, matched Trevino's course record at 64 and moved into a large group at 206, 10 under par.

That put 14 players locked within six strokes going into Sunday's last round.

Siderowf Seeks Second British Am Title

By NOEL HUGHES

MUIRFIELD, Scotland (AP) — Defending champion Dick Siderowf of Westport, Conn., is one of 58 Americans who will challenge for the coveted British amateur golf championship this week.

A field of 256 will be aiming for honors over Muirfield's famous 6,894-yard, par-71 links on Scotland's windblown east coast.

Also in contention are golfers from Brazil, France, Australia, Canada, Singapore, South Africa, Pakistan, New Zealand and Ireland, as well as the usual horde of homebred hopefuls. Siderowf, certainly one of the class members of the field, hopes to repeat the feat he accomplished last year at Portcawli links in Wales when he became the 18th American to win the title inaugurated in 1885.

He is one of the eight seeded players in the tournament this time, but history is not on his side.

Victory two years in a row is a rarity and the only American to win back-to-back titles was W. Lawson Little in 1934-35.

Muirfield's layout, dating back to 1744 and established by the Honorable Company of Edinburgh Golfers, is noted for its rough and blustery winds.

South African champion Neville Sandelson, on his first visit to Britain, is the only other foreign player who is seeded.

Mets' Seaver Stumps Astros

NEW YORK (AP) — Tom Seaver broke out of a pitching slump with a five-hitter and 11 strikeouts and Rusty Staub drove in two runs with a single and double, leading the New York Mets to a 3-1 victory over the Houston Astros Saturday.

It was only the third victory in eight decisions for the National League's 1973 Cy Young Award winner, who came into the game with an earned run average of 3.89.

The Mets, who ended their four-game skid and Houston's five-game winning streak, jumped on loser Dave Roberts, VALENZA, Italy (AP) — Ercole Gualazzini of Italy upset Belgium's Eddy Merckx to win the 15th leg of the Tour of Italy cycling race Saturday.

Gualazzini pedaled the 206-kilometer distance from the Italian Riviera resort town of San Remo to here in five hours, 41 minutes, 54 seconds.

Blue 6 Hits Brewers, 4-1

OAKLAND (AP) — Deron Johnson drove in three runs with a homer and double and Vida Blue pitched a six-hitter to lead the Oakland A's to a 4-1 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers Saturday.

Johnson hit his fourth home run of the season, off loser Jim Slaton, 6-6, following a single by Joe Rudi in the second inning. Milwaukee second baseman Pedro Garcia dropped two pop flies in the inning to make all three Oakland runs unearned.

Garcia dropped Johnson's pop foul for an error just before the home run. Then he dropped Angel Mangual's pop for a two-base error and Dick Green singled for the third run.

Johnson doubled Rudi across in the fifth after Reggie Jackson walked and Rudi forced him.

Blue, 4-5, walked two and struck out 10 in his best performance of the season. Milwaukee scored its run in the seventh inning on a two-out single by Rob Ellis, a wild pitch and Garcia's double.

Cubs Sweep Travelers

LITTLE ROCK — Midland's Cubs defeated the Arkansas Travelers 6-3 and 6-1 in a Texas League doubleheader before 3,362 fans here Saturday night.

Big blows for the Cubs were a two-run single to center by Greg Collins in the second which gave Midland a 2-1 lead. Bill Droegge doubled home another run in the third. In the sixth Steve Haug's double and Brock Davis' sacrifice fly got two runs home.

Midland won the first game behind the pitching of Dan Corder, who had a one-hitter until the fifth. Bill Huisman and Ken Szotkiewicz opened the first inning with singles, but a double play and pop-up wiped out the threat. There were two out in the second when Bill Bright doubled to ignite a four-run uprising. Ken Pape walked and Greg Collins singled to load the bases.

Huisman then doubled home two runs and Socko singled for two more to knock out Arkansas starter Ron Selak.

A walk to Wayne Tyronne, a force out and double by Bill Droegge scored another run in the third and an error and hits by Droegge and Bright accounted for the final run in the fifth. Danny Loomer singled home two runs for Arkansas in the fifth and a single by Doug Clark, Mike Potter's double and an infield out left Arkansas still three runs short in the seventh.

Cards Blank Padres, 3-0

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Lynn McGothen pitched a three-hitter and Luis Melendez rapped three hits and scored two runs, pacing the St. Louis Cardinals to a 3-0 victory over the San Diego Padres Saturday night.

McGothen yielded a first-inning double to Bobby Toian and singles to Enzo Hernandez and Fred Kendall in the third and fifth innings enroute to his seventh victory in nine decisions. The 24-year-old Cardinal right-hander didn't allow a runner past second base.

Ken Reitz put the Cardinals on top with a run-scoring single in the second inning. Melendez had singled with two out and stole second before he barely beat left fielder Matty Alou's throw to the plate.

Melendez opened the fifth with a single to center, moved to third on a hit-and-run single to right by Reitz and scored on a sharp single to left by Mike Tyson.

The Cardinals scored another run in the eighth inning on a wild pitch.

San Diego's Randy Jones, 3-0, worked the first seven innings, allowing seven hits, as the Padres lost their eighth straight game.

BOSTON (AP) — Carl Yastrzemski broke out of a slump with a homer and two-run scoring singles Saturday night and the Boston Red Sox breezed to an 8-0 victory over the Chicago White Sox behind the five-hit pitching of Luis Tiant.

Coupled with Milwaukee's 4-1 loss to Oakland, the victory moved Boston back into first place in the American League East.

Yastrzemski singled across a run in the first inning, lined his seventh homer of the baseball season into the centerfield bleachers in the third and singled home another run in the seventh. The homer was his first since April 22.

Tiant, a 20-game winner last season but off to a slow start this year, raised his record to 6-5 with his fourth consecutive complete-game victory.

The Red Sox, who have won 10 of their last 13 games, jumped on Chicago starter Stan Bahnsen for two runs in the first, one in the third and two in the fourth. They also got one in the seventh off reliever Rich Gossage and two in the eighth off Wayne Granger.

Jamaican Upsets Crockett, Williams

Posts 9.4 In 100-Yard Dash Victory

By ERIC PREWITT
BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Jamaican Don Quarrie burst through the tape for an upset victory Saturday over U.S. sprint stars Steve Williams and Ivory Crockett in the 100-yard dash at the Kennedy Games.

It was the first defeat for Crockett since the Philadelphia Pioneers' runner established a world record of 9.0 seconds in the event three weeks ago. Williams shared the old world mark of 9.1.

Quarrie, second-place Williams and third-place Crockett all were timed in 9.4 on the University of California's Edwards Stadium track, a cinder and dirt surface considered one of the slowest on the West Coast. Crockett had defeated Williams in another photo finish, both timed in 9.2, a week earlier at Modesto, Calif.

Crockett led through the first 80 yards of Saturday's race, run with a trailing wind of 3.6 miles per hour. The closely watched Williams of San Diego State edged ahead of Crockett on the right side but the almost-forgotten Quarrie made an even stronger move on Crockett's left side.

The winning time was one-tenth of a second off the meet and stadium record.

Southern California record holder, teenager Mary Decker, set the first meet record of the day when she won the women's 440 in 54.3, and San Jose, Calif., policeman John Powell set another when he captured the discus with a toss of 215 feet.

Powell's mark was almost six feet over the meet and stadium record set by Tim Volter last year. But it was short of the 223-4 he threw at Modesto which stands as the best performance in the world this season.

Shot put world record holder Al Feuerbach, another San Jose resident, won his specialty with 69-11, beating rival George Woods by seven inches. Both had competed at Wichita, Kans., on Friday, with Feuerbach scoring another narrow victory in the U.S. Track and Field Federation meet.

Host University of California scored its first victory in the 440 relay team composed of three football players and hurdles specialist McKinley Moseley in 40.0 seconds.

The Philadelphia Pioneers team, with Crockett leading off, was second in 41.1.

Howard Strickland, a tallback in the football season, made an excellent handoff to wide receiver-anchorman Sammy Burns, who held off the Pioneers' Hasley Crawford.

EARN RETURN TRIP TO STATE—

Eagles Survive Tornado Force

By TERRY WILLIAMSON R-T Sports Writer

LAMESA — The Pecos Eagles completed their two-game Region I AAA playoff sweep over the Lamesa Golden Tornadoes here Friday afternoon at Lobo Park with a 7-5 victory, but winning a state playoff berth in Austin didn't come easy.

The Eagles never trailed in the game while raising their season mark to 25-7, including 17 straight, but they faced disaster at every turn from the pesky Tors, who ended the baseball campaign with a 15-12 record. Kenneth Williams, the Pecos pitching ace who owns a 13-1 mark, got credit for the win in the distance-going performance, but he was touched for five runs and nine hits in the sand-blasted marathon which saw fly balls to right get an extra boost as the two teams combined for four home runs on a miserable windy afternoon.

Donald Walker, who won Tuesday's first game of the series in Pecos, 7-1, turned his back to the Eagles Friday and clouted two tape measure homers which provided the Eagles with the margin of victory.

Walker, a four sport letterman for the last three years, gave an indication of things to come in the very first inning with a leadoff solo shot over the centerfield fence, a 400-foot blast that was wind aided.

Later in the same frame, David Dominguez gave the Eagles a 3-0 advantage with a two-run single off losing pitcher Sam Jefferson, now 6-3 on the year. Dominguez' single to left scored Alan Clayton and Mark Jackson.

Lamesa was determined to keep it close, however, and erupted for two runs in the bottom of the first on Herman Martinez' 340-foot homer to right. Kyle White scored in front of Martinez after reaching base with a leadoff single to center.

Jefferson and Williams then settled into a pitching duel which lasted until the fifth inning when Pecos got two more runs. Walker was again the factor of discouragement for the Tors as he walloped another homer to right field. Donnie Herod's single to left added the other run when Fernando Hernandez scored on the play.

The Eagles jumped to a 6-2 lead in the sixth when Robert Abila scored from third on a single by Hernandez. That lead looked safe for Pecos heading into the bottom of the sixth, but the Tors struck back to make things interesting.

Martinez, a sophomore, hit a one out single to center for his third hit of the day off Williams and Jefferson followed that act with a line drive homer to left field for two runs. Jefferson's blazing liner was hit into the teeth of the wind and landed in a road that circles Lobo Park, some 380 feet away.

Jerry Burleson followed with a double to left-center and scored on Melvin Robinson's single to center to cut the margin to 6-3.

Pecos added an insurance run in the seventh when Mark Jackson scored on a wild pitch by relief pitcher Layne Head. Head had had problems with the wild pitch in the Pecos series. He uncorked five wild tosses in the first game Tuesday.

The Tors threatened in the seventh, but could not come up with a run. Pinch-hitter Valente Garza grounded out to open the innings, but White singled to right for his second hit of the day.

Lamesa Coach Tony Monzingo then elected to allow Billy Welcher to lay down a sacrifice bunt to move White to second, but it also meant two outs. Martinez, who had not been retired all day, ended the game with a grounder to third.

"We elected to go for the sacrifice because Welcher hasn't had a hit in the playoffs," Monzingo related after the game. "Martinez was the next batter and he has really been hitting the ball. With the sacrifice, we eliminated the double play possibility and had Martinez and Jefferson coming up. Both had homers already. It may not be percentage baseball, but I've won a lot of games by relying on instinct. It just didn't work this time."

Unpredictable weather, mechanical breakdowns and hard-to-find fish failed to keep Texas Parks and Wildlife Department inland fisheries personnel from meeting and surpassing their goals for 1974 walleye production and stocking.

A total of 20 million walleye fry were stocked in eight Texas lakes and another two million fingerlings were placed in 15 reservoirs.

Larger fingerlings were released in Garza-Little Elm, Belton, Canyon, Medina, Blundell, Somerville, Twin Buttes, Waco, Stillhouse Hollow, Greenbelt, Texasiana, Bridgeport, Sam Rayburn and Martin Lake.

According to a report by department statewide walleye project leader Larry Campbell of San Angelo, "1974 fry production and stocking... exceeded beyond our optimistic expectations... but a truer measure of what our staff has achieved is only possible when the adverse circumstances and misfortunes that attend our efforts throughout the operations are known."

A mild winter was followed by periods when temperatures soared to record highs only to plunge to below freezing.

All this erratic weather affected walleye spawning in Texas lakes and made ripe fish difficult to find.

A 56-pound yellow catfish caught at Lake J. B. Thomas paced the fishing reports for last week. Carl Williams 806 N. 17th, Lamesa, was the fortunate fisherman.

However, at Lake E. V. Spence, Clyde Hagen and Y. J. Sherrill of Robert Lee, landed a yellow cat weighing 30 pounds and another 28 pounds.

At Spence, black bass catches took a spurt although there were still a number of sizable strings of white bass. Crappie catches eased off, but channel cat were coming stronger.

Some reports from Lake Spence: H. L. Garrett, Midland, 23 white bass to 2 1/2 lb.; J. E. Templeton, Midland, 18 channel cat to 4 lb.; Randy Chambers, Odessa, 5-lb blue cat and three blacks to 2 lb.; Frank and Jack Shouts, Odessa, 18 channel cat to 3 1/2 lb.; Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Armstrong, Midland, 11 channel cat to 4 lb., also 4-lb. stripper; Mr. and Mrs. Crist Gertman and Jack, Sterling City, two blacks to 4 1/2 lb. and a 7-lb. channel.

At Lake Colorado City, Jack Colbert of Colorado City took a 12-bass catch with the largest going three pounds as the crowds flocked to the lake, but few catches reported. An estimated 5,000 to 6,000 showed up last weekend, but mostly boaters, skiers and sun-bathers. Best catches have been bass and catfish.

The public is invited to the Monday night games.

Harrah Leads Rangers, 7-6

Toby Collects Three Hits; Rudi's Belt Beats Brewers

By The Associated Press. Shortstop Toby Harrah, who earlier had tripled and touched off a fourth inning rally with a single as the Rangers fought from 4-0 and 5-1 deficits, singled home the winning run in the seventh inning as the Texas Rangers beat Baltimore, 7-6, before 20,984 fans at Arlington Friday night.

Relief pitcher Steve Foucault, 1.59 ERA, picked up the win after Ferguson Jenkins had been hit hard in the early innings. Lenny Randle had three hits and two RBI while Jeff Burroughs upped his major league-leading RBI total to 49 with a first-inning single.

In other American League games Friday, Kansas City beat Cleveland 4-2 as Amos Otis hit a two-run single and John Mayberry poked his 10th home run.

Joe Rudi's three-run homer boosted Oakland over Milwaukee, 5-2, as Dave Hamilton and Rollie Fingers combined for a seven-hit, eight-run performance in four innings as California beat Detroit, 5-3, and handed Mick Lolich his sixth loss in 11 decisions; Tony Oliva collected four hits as Minnesota beat New York, 5-3; while Dick Allen hit his ninth homer and Bill Melton his fourth to give Wilbur Wood, 8-4, and the White Sox a 3-2 win over Boston, despite two Carlton Fisk homers.

Harrah's bat spree for the Rangers raised his average, which had dipped to .320 at one point, to .364. The Orioles, however, got to Jenkins for five runs early as John Powell plated three runs with a first-inning homer, his fourth.

Cedeno's Splurge Paces Astro Win

By The Associated Press. Cesar Cedeno stroked four hits, including his 10th homer, as Houston defeated New York's Mets, 7-1, in National League action at New York Friday. The win was the fifth straight for the Astros, who still were 9 1/2 back of Los Angeles.

Doug Rader and Tommy Helms each had three hits for Houston.

A couple of home runs by Bob Robertson, who had performed the same feat a few days ago, had Pittsburgh leading 5-3 in the seventh over Cincinnati, but Johnny Bench's bases loaded triple turned it around and gave the Reds a 7-5 win.

In other action, San Francisco dealt Philadelphia its fifth loss in a row, 6-2; Bill Russell, Rick Auerbach and Bill Buckner had three hits each as Los Angeles thrashed Chicago, 8-3, with Mike Marshall notching his eighth save; and Sonny Siebert's five-hit and Reggie Smith's 10th homer gave St. Louis a 5-0 win over San Diego. It was the third shutout for the veteran and ran Siebert's scoreless string to 24 innings.

FOR 'DR. COOK'S GARDEN'

MCT Box Office Opens Monday

The Theatre Centre box office will open Monday morning to accept seat reservations for Midland Community Theatre's production of "Dr. Cook's Garden."

The drama will open at 8:30 p.m. Friday and will play weekends through June 22. It is the fourth production of MCT's current season.

"Dr. Cook's Garden" is from the pen of playwright Ira Levin, best-remembered for his earlier, quite different stage successes, the wildly humorous "Critic's Choice" and "No Time For Sergeants." Levin also wrote "Rosemary's Baby," but "Dr. Cook's Garden" differs from that, too, being described as "a suspense play-with-a-difference."

MCT assistant director Tom Mikotowicz is directing the upcoming production here. His cast includes Marvin Weiss and Helen Weiss as Dr. Cook's David Barlow in the pivotal housekeeper, Patti Lankford as the role of Dr. Cook and Dr. Tennyson as his office nurse and John Chaias custodian of the good doctor's very special garden. The Theatre Centre box office will be open between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily this week. Seat reservations also be made by telephoning the box office at 682-2544.

Musical Pageant Feature Of Annual Fiesta Del Concho

SAN ANGELO — What is now the city of San Angelo once was almost traded off for a wagonload of whiskey.

The trader who had the whiskey backed out of the deal. But that incident, and others full of raucous frontier humor, of pathos, of despair, of grim courage, are memorialized in the musical pageant, "The Land and The River," slated for 15 performances June 7-22 during San Angelo's second annual Fiesta del Concho.

A cast of 30 players will perform on an outdoor stage on the banks of the North Concho River in downtown San Angelo, telling the story of early day Fort Concho, a cavalry post established in 1868, and the town of San Angelo.

Performances are nightly except for June 14, when the main Fiesta del Concho event will be the colorful, spotlighted river parade. All tickets are $2.50 and mail orders are being accepted by the Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 712, San Angelo 76901.

Comedy Deftly Directed

By ROGER SOUTHAL, Reporter-Telegram Staff

ODESSA — Anybody here who remembers wax fruit, the kind that melted a bit and got all stuck together in hot weather?

Well, wax fruit has a part in the goings-on in "Come Blow Your Horn," the Neil Simon play currently onstage at Permian Playhouse, Odessa's community theater. It's the wax fruit factory owned by the patriarch of the family in Simon's comedy that causes much of the anguish — and the hilarity — of the play.

Unfortunately, though, the Permian Playhouse production of the comedy doesn't stick together as well as that ersatz fruit used to do on a warm summer day.

For that matter, wax fruit sort of points up a painful fact about "Come Blow Your Horn" — it's a little dated, a trifle long in the tooth, over the hill, you might say. (Do you suppose anyone, any place, still manufactures wax fruit? Probably the stuff is all made of plastic or acrylic or some other miracle material these days.)

PPH director Enid Holm's production does have many funny moments. I have long thought Mrs. Holm had a deft touch with bright, brittle comedies — her really excellent production of "Cactus Flower" and "Plaza Suite" in seasons past are good examples — but Friday night's opening performance of "Come Blow Your Horn," for all its deft direction, seemed rather futile flogging of a mighty tired horse.

More experienced cast members in certain roles might have helped quicken the pace of the play somewhat. Dale Jenkins as the playboy older brother, Alan Baker, and Ricky Stanley as the younger brother, Buddy, are both new to acting, although both have had stage experience as dancers, and both work hard in their roles.

Stanley's awkwardness, his uncertainties in projection and inflection were not entirely out of character since he plays an inexperienced young man out in the world for the first time. But Jenkins in the part of the older, sophisticated brother simply was not convincing in his playboy characterization of the opening night. One can hope he will grow into the role as the show continues.

Two strong cast members are Nancy Chambers and Keith Brister as the parents of Alan and Buddy.

Brister, as the domineering family patriarch, has some of the funniest lines in the show; unfortunately, there were lapses in his characterization that prevented us from savoring the hilarity of it to the fullest.

An absolute joy and a delight in her role is Nancy Chambers as the long-suffering Jewish mother, Mrs. Baker.

Mrs. Chambers seemingly can do any acting role she puts her Welsh mind to — or perhaps any role that director Holm puts HER mind to. At any rate, her assignments at PPH in recent years range from the aging stripper, Tessie Tura, in the musical "Gypsy" some seasons ago, to a proper Bostonian schoolmarm in "Cheaper By the Dozen," to a crone in "J.B." and the dyspeptic, plaintive and super-tidy (her parlor has been closed to the public for years) mother in the current production. Kudos to Mrs. Chambers for her good timing and keen sense of comedy, not to mention her adroitness at providing a dimensional characterization rather than a mere caricature!

Carol Hart, who can be counted on to turn in a Final performance in any assignment, does very well as the older brother's girlfriend, Connie. Rene Brister is visually a knockout as the lightheaded young thing from the penthouse upstairs. Myri Cable, a longtime backstage worker at PPH, has a curtain closing walkon part as Aunt Gussie.

"Come Blow Your Horn" had its second performance Saturday night, and will have additional presentations Friday and Saturday nights this week. Final performances will be June 14 and 15. Seats for all remaining performances are on sale daily at the Playhouse box office, 362-2329.

Shakespeare Festival Opens June 21

ODESSA—The Globe of the Great Southwest is bustling with activity as it prepares for the sixth annual Summer Shakespeare Festival.

The festival will begin June 21 and continue through Aug. 25, according to announcement by Charles D. McCally, Globe producer-director.

McCally has conducted auditions this spring at Los Angeles, Washington, D.C., and elsewhere to recruit professional actors for his summer repertory company.

Members of the company arrived here late last week to begin rehearsals for the three festival productions. They are Shakespeare's "Macbeth" and "Twelfth Night," plus Moliere's classic comedy, "The Imaginary Invalid."

McCally noted Saturday "we have a very mature cast this year; our oldest actor is 46."

A number of the repertory company members are in West

Texas for the first time, McCally said.

The opening production on June 21 will be "Macbeth," to be followed by the opening of "The Imaginary Invalid" on June 25. The two productions will play alternately until July 5, when "Twelfth Night" enters the repertory.

McCally will stage and direct two of the upcoming festival productions, "Macbeth" and "The Imaginary Invalid." Guest director for "Twelfth Night," one of Shakespeare's most delightful comedies, will be New York actress Clare Luce, who was the guest star of a Globe production about two years ago.

During the fifth annual Summer Shakespeare Festival last year, visitors from 48 of the 50 states (hailing from almost 250 cities and towns across the continent) attended Globe performances, in addition to citizens of 22 foreign countries.

The festival is designed so that tourists may spend three days in the area and see three plays.

Tickets for the festival performances have gone on sale at the Globe box office, 2308 Shakespeare Road. The theater telephone number is 333-4081.

Tryouts Set Today For Melodrama

Tryouts to fill roles in Midland Community Theatre's 26th Summer Mummies production are scheduled at Theatre Centre today and Monday.

This year's melodrama, "Rascality on the Rig," is a revival of one which has been presented in two past Mummies seasons, the most recent one the 1960 season. The current production will be a thoroughly updated version.

"Rascality" calls for a cast of 14, 10 men and four women. In most cases, roles will be double-cast to allow for summer vacations, business trips and other conflicts.

Auditions for singers, dancers and specialty acts for the traditional music hall-style olio which will accompany all melodrama performances also will take place at today's auditions, scheduled to begin at 2 p.m., and at Monday's session, announced for 8 p.m.

"Rascality on the Rig" will be directed by MCT director Art Oola. The melodrama will open July 5, at the American Legion Hall, 206 S. Colorado St., and will play each Friday and Saturday evening during July and August.

Newcomers as well as Mummies "old hands" are invited to attend the auditions.

Velazquez Painting Acquired By SMU Meadows Museum

DALLAS—A painting by the 17th Century Spanish master Velazquez is the newest acquisition of SMU's Meadows Museum.

Museum director William B. Jordan calls the painting the museum's "most important acquisition to date."

The painting, "Sibyl with Tabula Rasa," was executed between 1644 and 1648. It is a gift to the museum from Mr. and Mrs. Algor H. Meadows, Dallas philanthropist and patrons of the arts, and the Meadows Foundation.

The painting joins another Velazquez canvas, a painting of King Philip IV of Spain, in the Meadows Museum's permanent collection. The two works are the only Velazquez paintings owned by a museum in the South or Southwest. Only about 120 paintings by Velazquez are known to exist, most of them in museum collections in Europe and the eastern U.S.

The new acquisition, "Sibyl with Tabula Rasa," was discovered in a private collection in Milan, Italy, in the early years of the 20th Century. It came to the U.S. as part of a collection in Toledo, Ohio. It was acquired shortly after World War II by the late Georges Wildenstein of New York and Paris for his private collection, and was acquired for the Meadows Museum from the Wildenstein Estate.

Carlsbad Caverns Summer Season Starts On June 9

CARLSBAD, N.M. — Park Superintendent Donald Dayton has announced that new hours will go into effect at Carlsbad Caverns National Park for the summer season starting on Sunday, June 9.

Beginning on that date and continuing through Labor Day, the park visitor center will open at 7 a.m. and close at 9 p.m. daily.

Also starting on that date, walk-in trips through the main cavern's natural entrance will be offered on a continuous basis between the hours of 7 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Big Room trips, which enter the Caverns by elevator, will also be offered continuously between the hours of 7 a.m. and 6 p.m. daily.

In addition to trips through the main cavern, the park also offers primitive lantern tours of undeveloped New Cave, located in Slaughter Canyon, west of Rattlesnake Springs. Reservations are required for a primitive lantern trip and may be made by dialing (505) 765-2533.

Other summer activities available to park visitors include guided interpretive walks at Oak Springs, evening bat flight programs at the entrance amphitheater, picnicking at Rattlesnake Springs, museum exhibits, self-guided nature trails, and backcountry hiking. A loop drive over a primitive road into upper Walnut Canyon is also available for visitors with high clearance vehicles.

The entrance fee at the park is $3 per carload for private non-commercial vehicles, or $1 per person for commercial bus passengers. Annual Golden Eagle and Golden Age passports are also honored.

Spelunking is the term which refers to cave exploration.

The Midland Reporter-Telegram AMUSEMENTS

Museum Opens Exhibition Of Striking Color Photos

A timely exhibition from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency will open Monday in the Museum of the Southwest.

"Our Only World," an exhibition of striking color photographs representing the variety of almost 50 of the nation's finest photographers, is brought to Midland under sponsorship of Forest Oil Corp. and Gibson's Discount Center.

The show is being circulated nationally by the Smithsonian Institution through its traveling exhibition service. The show will remain on view here until mid-August.

The 113 full-color, dye-transfer photographs in the exhibit were selected from EPA's "project Documerica," a special program designed to portray, via photography, the nature and scope of America's environmental crisis and the efforts being made to cope with it. The exhibition presents some of the environmental problems that face citizens today — the need for clean air and clean water, solid waste management, insecticide and radiation control and noise abatement. The exhibit shows the effects of technology and the efforts now being made—both by individuals and by organizations—for slowing down and reversing the damages wrought by man to his world.

The work of 47 of the country's finest photographers is represented in the exhibition. Their photographs were selected in 1973 from the 10,000 photographs in the Documerica files. Original color prints identical to those in "Our Only World" may be purchased by the public through order forms available at the museum's Turner Memorial Gallery, 1705 W. Missouri St.

The Museum of the Southwest is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays, and from 2 to 5 p.m. each Sunday. There is never an admission charge.

'Rock Art' Talk Scheduled Tuesday At Society Meeting

"Rock Art" of West Texas will be discussed by Mrs. Evelyn Walters of Iranan at a Tuesday night meeting of the Midland Archeological Society.

The program at 7:30 p.m. in the 1st National Room of the First National Bank will be open to the public.

"Rock Art" is the technique of painting or carving designs on rocks, an art form that has been with man for almost as long as he has walked the earth. Oldest examples of rock painting carrying are in Europe, where they date back more than 25,000 years. In the Southwestern U.S., pictographs by pre-historic and even historic Indians have long been studied by archaeologists seeking clues to the Indians' mode of life through the stories and tribal myths depicted through rock art.

In her program here Tuesday night, Mrs. Walters will present color slides of rock art found in Crockett and Terrell counties of West Texas. She will demonstrate methods of recording these works.

WORTH 75¢ EACH

ON THE LION OF YOUR CHOICE.

A drive through Lion Country Safari is leaving the New World behind, and watching a primitive patch of Darkest Africa happen just the other side of your car window. But Lion Country is a lot more than wild animals, ferocious beasts and scary goings-on: It's fun rides, Junior Jungle petting areas, an acrobatic bird show and a new, hair-raising wild bear act. And this coupon makes the whole incredible safari 75c cheaper. So cut along the dotted lion and take this coupon when you go.

Miss Liscum, David Smith United In Church Rites

Mrs. David Tony Smith

The Midland Lutheran Church was the setting Friday for the 7:30 p.m. ceremony uniting in marriage Rebecca Ann Liscum and David Tony Smith, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. LaDon Liscum, 1405 Princeton St., and Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Smith, 3202 W. Michigan St.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. David Herman. Herman Forsch, organist, and a sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Donald Liscum, soloist, provided the music.

A memory candle complemented by swirl candelabra, fresh jade palms and white cathedral tapers created the bridal setting at the church altar.

Gary Glass of Ruidoso, N.M., and Guy Roberts of Austin ushered. Teresa Lynn Howard of Mexia, niece of the bride, was the acolyte.

Thea Betsy Hoback of Texarkana, former Midlander, was the maid of honor. Miss Hoback was dressed in a floor-length gown of maize dotted Swiss organza with self ruffles and white Venice lace edging the neckline which dipped to a point in the back. The lace trim was repeated on the Empire waist and bishop sleeves. She carried a colonial bouquet of white and yellow daisies, baby's breath and camellia leaves tied with yellow grosgrain ribbon.

Bobby Iron Smith of Lubbock was the best man.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal gown of white silk organza accented by self ruffles and re-embroidered Alencon lace. The gown featured a Victorian neckline and sheer bishop sleeves cuffed in lace and ruffles. Lace bands and self ruffles extended from a bow in the back over the shoulders to create a pinafore effect. Bridal pearls accented a lace design at the waist front. Rows of lace and ruffles edged the gown's hem which dipped to a sweep train. A bow of bridal taffeta with lace flowers and seed pearls held the contoured mantilla of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and daisies accented with baby's breath, Hahn's ivy and white satin streamers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Fellowship Hall. Rice bags were distributed by Alisha Scott, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Kenneth Howard, sister of the bride, was at the guest register.

Mrs. M. D. Scott and Mrs. William Roberts, aunts of the bride; Debra Sterling and Ruth Lenert also were members of the house party.

Mrs. Forrest Ward of Waterloo, Iowa, grandmother of the bride was among guests from out of the city attending the wedding and reception.

After a wedding trip to New Mexico, the couple will live in Denton where she is a speech major at North Texas State University. The bride, member of Phi Rho Pi, is a former student at Odessa College. The bridegroom also attended OC. He has been employed by Bacon Tile Sales, Inc.

Couple To Live At Commerce

COMMERCE — Following a recent marriage ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Tigert will reside at 1300 Moore St.

The bride, the former Rosella R. Alcala, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Y. T. Alcala of Midland. She obtained a bachelor of science degree from East Texas State University and is employed by the ETSU Housing Department.

After serving eight years in the U.S. Navy, Tigert received a bachelor of science degree in 1973 and is working for a master's degree at ETSU. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moore of Omaha.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT—The Rev. and Mrs. John D. Riggs of 1001 Alpine St. announce the engagement of their daughter, Joni Dale, to Don R. Skelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Skelton, 4306 Sentinel St. Vows will be exchanged June 22 in Wilshire Park Baptist Church.

Midland High School Sets Homemaking Classes

The Homemaking Department at Midland High School announces the following June schedule for adults and high school girls. There is no charge and the classes are in charge of the school's homemaking teachers.

Night classes for adults on "Buying and Selling a House" and topics to be covered are scheduled: June 10, buying from owner and tips to sell your own home; June 11, working with a realtor; June 12, types of loans, and June 13, what to expect at closing. Registration for these classes must be completed by June 7. For more information dial 694-9854.

A clothing construction class for adults and high school girls will be conducted from 9 until 11 a.m. June 10-14. Help will be offered on special problems, pant fit and construction, bathing suits, construction, selection of suitable fabrics, patterns and notions. There will be time to sew during class instruction. Register the first day of class.

Instructions on inexpensive decorations for the home will be given adults and high school girls from 9 until 11 a.m. June 17-21.

On these same dates there will be a needlework class on embroidery from 1:30 until 3:30 p.m. for adults and high school girls.

Bynum, Truitt Marry In Baptist Church

The Rev. Kenneth James officiated for the double ring ceremony uniting Mary Denise Bynum and Davey Dolce Truitt of Midland in marriage at 2 p.m. Saturday in Crestview Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy L. Bynum of 3504 Roosevelt St. and Mr. and Mrs. Dubbie L. Truitt of 4508 Roosevelt St. are the parents of the couple.

Janet Hinnicutt of Waco was the maid of honor. Terri Burkey, Paula Bynum, sister of the bride, and Kristi Finley were bridesmaids. Debra Downing of Andrews, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl.

Hal Medley was the best man. The groomsmen and ushers were Steve McLaughlin, Ken Elwheredge and Tim Thomas.

Cathy Moxley of Andrews, cousin of the bride, was the organist, and Sam Patterson of Carthage and Ty Morris Jr. were vocalists.

Mr. Bynum presented his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal gown fashioned of white Chantilly lace and trimming of rose peau d'ange lace.

The Basque bodice was enhanced with a squared neckline trimmed with scallop edges of lace. The sleeves of sheer Chantilly lace were in bishop styling. Her headpiece was a bow accented with pearls and holding an elbow-length veil of illusion edged with rose peau d'ange lace.

The maid of honor wore a lavender full-length dress of dotted Swiss. The fitted bodice had a square neckline with bishop sleeves and tiered skirt, all trimmed with lace.

The bridesmaids had dresses in rainbow colors styled like that of the maid of honor with short puffed sleeves. They carried nosegays of mixed spring flowers accented with streamers to match their dresses.

A rainbow candelabrum decorated with jade foliage formed the background for the ceremony. It was flanked with a pair of cathedral candelabra adorned with jade foliage and white flowers.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall. Jayne Stringer registered the guests. Rachel Wolfe and Nancy Belt served at the bride's table, and Cissy Orr was at the bridegroom's table. Other house party members were Doyleene Hardin, Rita Milton, Mrs. James Burkey, Mrs. Lee Reese, Mrs. S. T. Miller, Mrs. John Griffith and Mrs. Eugene Hasha. Mrs. Bruce Willis of Mesquite, cousin of the bride, was the matron of honor, and Laura Hughes, cousin of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. Laquita Lee was the bridesmaid, and Kerri Jorgensen of Odessa, niece of the bridegroom, was the junior bridesmaid. Mrs. Pete Bryant attended as bridesmatron.

David Layman of Big Spring was best man for his brother. Gary Kelley of Houston, Steve Patterson of Lubbock and Tim Robbins were the groomsmen. Ushering guests were Bob Bowden, Larry Wilkins of Odessa, Lee Hughes of Midkitt and Pete Bryant.

Karen Wine of Aurora, Colo., and Leslie Bowden were the flower girls. Ring bearers were Sean Layman of Odessa, nephew of the bridegroom, and Steven Wine of Aurora.

Decorating the church was a heart-shaped arch flanked with fan candelabra. The arch was decorated in rainbow-colored satin bows, fern, white doves and carnation sprays. There also were a kneeling bench, memory candle on a pedestal, two pair of seven-branched candelabra, kissing balls and baskets of carnations, camellias and fern on pedestals, all in rainbow colors.

Mrs. James Hughes of Odessa was the organist. The vocalists were James Watson of Odessa, step-father of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Gene Jackson of Bristow, aunt of the bridegroom.

The parents of the bride presented her in marriage. She wore a gown of hand-clipped Chantilly lace featuring an illusion neckline, Empire bodice and full bishop sleeves. The bouffant skirt was enhanced with a lace flounce edging. Her chapel-length veil of silk illusion was held by a matching lace Juliet cap. She carried a Sweetheart rose cascade bouquet in her chosen colors of blue, orchid, pink, apricot, light green and white with ivy and baby's breath. Her corsage was white carnations and small blue daisies.

The bride's attendants wore A-line princess dresses of dotted Swiss styled with bell sleeves, scoop necklines and Empire waistlines. The dresses were in

Miss Johnson Wed To Joel D. Turner

Paula Sue Johnson, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Johnson of 2402 Culpepper Drive, and Joel Dee Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Turner of 3219 W. Dengar St., were married at 6 p.m. Saturday in Kellview Heights Baptist Church.

The father of the bride performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Richard Raney was the organist and Frankie Johnson was soloist.

Jennie Johnson, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaid was Phyllis Hartman, cousin of the bride. Carolyn Thomas and Denise Perry registered the guests.

Rice bags were distributed by LeAnna Dixon and Cherylyn Reeves. Kimberly Franklin was the flower girl and Jeffery Franklin was ring bearer.

Gary Turner was his brother's best man. The groomsmen was Jimmy Butler of Tulsa, Okla. David Brown of Slaton, Sgt. Larry Johnson of Ft. Campbell, Ky., brother of the bride, and Mark Jones, Mike McCloud, Danny Spinks and Don Womble were the ushers.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of shell white peau de sole with an overskirt of silk organza. The fitted bodice of sculptured lace featured a portrait neckline edged with scalloped lace. Long streamers flowed from the satin sash, which formed a bow at the back waistline. From a cap of lace, voile flowed to form leg-to-mutton sleeves gathered to wide cuffs of lace. Her mantilla of voile-edged with lace to match the dress fell to form a chapel-length train. A fingertip veil of silk illusion completed her ensemble. She carried a orchid, pale blue, yellow, apricot and mint green, respectively. Their headpieces were of butterfly chenille. They carried voice nosegays of carnations in colors matching their dresses.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall. At the bride's table were Mrs. Larry Stroud, Mrs. Curtis Hollis, Mrs. Jim Dobbins and Mrs. David Fawks. Serving at the bridegroom's table were Mrs. Larry Wilkins and Mrs. Don Burkes, sisters of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Eddie Layman, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, all of Odessa.

After the reception, the couple left on a trip to Ruidoso, N.M. They will be at home in Pauls Valley, Okla. The bride is a senior student at Greenwood High School. The bridegroom is a sophomore at Hillsdale Freewill Baptist College in Moore, Okla.

cascade of pink roses and stephanotis accented with camellia foliage and white satin picot streamers.

Attendants to the bride wore identical gowns of pink organza. The Empire waistlines featured shirred insets of organza and jewel necklines with band collars topped by self ruffles at the wrists. They carried nosegays of pink and white daisies and springer fern.

A rainbow candelabrum formed the background for the ceremony. It was flanked with a pair of spiral candelabra decorated with jade foliage.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall. David Newton, accompanied by Mrs. Raney, sang selections. House party members were Mrs. Patsy Walker, Mrs. Floyd Hurst, Mrs. J. D. Rivas, Mrs. Jerry Dunn, Mrs. James Sporer and Mrs. E. L. Mason.

Following a honeymoon in New Mexico, the couple will reside at 4000 W. Illinois St., Apartment 208. The bride will graduate in August from Lee High School. The bridegroom, who is associated with Kellview Heights Baptist Church, attended Rice University and Angelo State University.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents in Ranchland Hill Country Club.

Betty Jean Bledsoe, Robert Earl Lathan Recite Double Ring Wedding Vows In Methodist Church Ceremony

Betty Jean Bledsoe, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Wilbert Bledsoe, 404 S. Marshall St., became the bride of Robert Earl Lathan in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony Saturday in Hollowell United Methodist Church. Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Lathan, 104 Marshall St., are the parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. H. F. Doyle was the officiant for the double ring rites. Two greenery entwined candelabra and large baskets of yellow and white flowers enhanced the bridal setting at the church.

Mrs. Norma Jean Lewis, organist, and Milton Jones, soloist, presented the bridal music. Terrill Littlejohn, Jeffery Rankin and Wilford Burns escorted the guests.

The bride, presented in marriage by her father, wore a formal-length gown in A-line silhouette, sweeping to a chapel train. The Empire bodice with overlay of Chantilly lace had a high neckline and bishop sleeves cuffed with aquin-studded Chantilly motifs. Scalloped Chantilly edged the full-length mantilla of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and yellow Sweetheart roses, encircling a "going-away" corsage. Erica Titus and Lisa Littlejohn were the bridesmaids. Sisters-in-law of the couple, Mrs. Carl Lathan and Mrs. Earl Bledsoe of Amarillo, were the bridesmaids. Their gowns in similar design to the honor attendant were alternately yellow or green. Nosegays of yellow and white flowers accented by showers of yellow ribbon were carried by each of the attendants.

The groomsmen were Victor Holland, Jerrill Johnson, Michael King and Mike Tynes. Frank Edward Yarbrough was the ring bearer.

Mr. Mrs. Harris On Wedding Trip

Wedding vows were exchanged at 7:30 p.m. Saturday by Deborah Kay Ables, Route 1, and Gordon Don Harris. The Rev. Jesse W. Ferritt of the Community Baptist Church, Big Lake, officiated for the double ring ceremony in the chapel of the First Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Ables, Big Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harris of Throckmorton.

The bride has been employed in Midland the last two years by Lone Star Abstract and Title Co., Inc. She attended Odessa College. The bridegroom, Dawson County extension agent, is a graduate of Texas A&M University. He is a member of the Lamesa Optimist Club. The bride is a member of Alpha Iota Delta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi.

Chapel decorations for the ceremony included an arch of greenery and spring flowers and spiral candelabra with greenery.

Doris Bruce, organist and Mrs. Michael Cristiani, soloist, provided the nuptial music. Fred Chandler, Larry Donop, Billy Shotter and Bobby Shotner, all of Lamesa, seated the guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, chose a gown of organza. A ruffled yoke covered with re-embroidered lace and self-material buttons enhanced the fitted bodice, which had a high sculptured neckline with ruffles, and set-in sleeves gathered to ruffled lace cuffs. A chapel-length train was attached by a bow at the back waistline. The ruffle and lace trim was repeated on the skirt hem and the train. She carried a cascade of Japhette orchids, baby's breath and stephanotis. Jennifer Ables of Big Lake, sister of the bride, was the flower girl. A cousin of the bride, Paul Ray Egston of San Angelo, carried the rings.

Mrs. Alan Copeland, Sunnyside, Calif., was the matron of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Weldon Holland, Comanche and Mrs. Nathan Kirby of Austin.

The bride's attendants were dressed in blue organza print in mixed floral design. Ruffles accented the necklines of the midriff bodices, which featured long sleeves ruffled at the wrists. The ruffle trim was repeated at the hemlines of the full skirts. Sashes encircled the waistlines. Each carried a parasol with mixed spring flowers.

Gary Harris of Alamosa, Colo., was the best man for his brother. The groomsmen were George Harvick of Throckmorton and Floy Ash of Tahoka.

Mrs. Mike Dolan registered the guests for a reception in the church parlor. Other members of the house party were Susan Colgan of Lamesa,

The couple is honeymooning in Ruidoso, N. M. They will live in Lamesa.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesies
Included in pre-nuptial parties was a linen shower in the home of Mrs. Cristiani. Other hostesses were Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. Ray Carpenter, Mrs. D. W. Lea and Misses Kellogg and King.

Theme of the party was "Happy Times." The refreshment table featured a melon basket with fruit cut-outs.

Couple Married In Area Church On Honeymoon

STANTON — Barbara Gail Trimble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Trimble, and Calvin Doyle McKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McKenzie, were married at 7 p.m. Saturday in the First United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Floyd Dunn performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Dennis Ringer, sister of the bridegroom, was the matron of honor. The maid of honor was Debbie Crawford, cousin of the bride. Fawn Briggs and Brenda McKenzie, sister of the bridegroom, were the bridesmaids. Donna Masiburo was the flower girl, and Rex Armstrong of Midland, nephew of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer.

Darrell Pollock of Big Spring served as best man. The groomsmen were Dennis Ringer and Wade McKenzie, brother of the bridegroom, of Stanton and Donald Boyd of Midland.

The bride was presented in marriage by her father. She wore a blue and yellow print dress with full bishop sleeves and scooped neckline enhanced by a ruffle. The ruffle trim was repeated at the skirt hemline. A yellow sash encircled the waistline. Her headpiece was a yellow picture hat. She carried a nosegay of white daisies with yellow streamers.

The bridesmaids were Brenda Bucher of Irving, cousin of the bridegroom; Martha Jennings and Janie Burns. Their dresses were identical to the honor attendant and featured blue accessories. Susan Houghton of El Paso was the flower girl and

Miss Bolton, Tension Married In Church Rites

Victi Susan Bolton and Kenneth Wayne Tension were married at 3 p.m. Saturday in the First United Methodist Church. The Rev. Cecil Tunn officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Mixed white flowers and a 14-branched candelabrum greenery entwined decorated the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Bolton, 203 Brooks St., and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby J. Cross, 1601 Mitchell St., are the parents of the couple.

Musical selections for the wedding were provided by Mrs. Harrison Bickley, organist, and Mrs. Renfro Richman, soloist. Ronnie Tension of Dallas, brother of the bridegroom, and Larry Milligan, cousin of the bride, ushered.

Betty Bolton of Arlington was the maid of honor for her sister. She wore a blue and yellow print dress with full bishop sleeves and scooped neckline enhanced by a ruffle. The ruffle trim was repeated at the skirt hemline. A yellow sash encircled the waistline. Her headpiece was a yellow picture hat. She carried a nosegay of white daisies with yellow streamers.

The bridesmaids were Brenda Bucher of Irving, cousin of the bridegroom; Martha Jennings and Janie Burns. Their dresses were identical to the honor attendant and featured blue accessories. Susan Houghton of El Paso was the flower girl and

Terry Manning, cousin of the bride, was the best man. The groomsmen were Rick Crowell of Divine, Dwayne Hafer of Stamford and Mark Mastawa.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal gown of oriental silk enhanced by Vietnamese lace. The fitted bodice featured a ring neckline and full bishop sleeves with deep cuffs edged in lace. The full skirt, gathered to the waist, also was finished in lace. The lace edged, three-tiered mantilla of illusion extended to chapel length. The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white carnations and yellow roses with yellow and white ribbons.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall. Members of the house party were Mrs. Eldon McGinnis of Brownwood, Mrs. Winfred Parker, Mrs. Michael Scoggin, Mrs. Homer Milligan and Berbi Traeder. Kathy Campbell of Lubbock presided at the guest registry.

The couple departed for a wedding trip to El Paso. Afterwards, they will live at 4816 Greenbriar St., Apartment 74, San Angelo. The bridegroom, student at Angelo State University, is employed by C&W Enterprises. He is a member of Arnold Air Society. The bride, graduate of Lee High School, has been employed by Thomas O. Harrell Jr.

Marriage Is Goal Of Egyptian Working Woman, Survey shows

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — A growing number of Egyptian women are quitting their jobs to get married, a sociological study shows. Women's libbers here are dismayed.

The study by the Social Research Institute said that 15,000 women out of a female working force of half a million left jobs in the last four years in offices and factories once they were certain they were getting married.

"The most serious thing is that the women do this freely despite the long and difficult struggle they have waged to win equality with men in the working force," said Abdel Halim El Kadi, head of the institute.

Some women's libbers said the survey was upsetting. "Perhaps some girls who clamor for equality only do it to make the chase hotter or to improve their chances of hooking a husband," said one advocate of women's rights.

El Kadi, who is married but whose wife doesn't work, said the oriental notion of marriage, which emphasizes submission to the husband in all things, was a factor in women leaving their jobs.

"The importance of marriage is repeatedly stressed as girls grow up in Egypt. Some become obsessed with it and are prepared to sacrifice a job to get termination pay and thereby help a future husband furnish their home," El Kadi said.

The institute suggested one remedy was to have the government establish a fund from which women workers could draw marriage loans to help furnish their homes so they can continue their jobs.

Tell Husband Vacation Should Be Fun For All

—By Abigail van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I can't agree on what constitutes a vacation. Paul and I have four kids, ranging in ages from 10 to 16. Last summer a friend turned over his farm to us and we took the kids and spent three weeks there. Paul is a country boy at heart. He likes to get up at the crack of dawn and run the tractor and spend every evening rocking on the front porch, looking into space and listening to the crickets. Meanwhile, I do all the laundry, cooking and dishes. (This is a vacation?)

Paul wants to go to this farm again, and I say we should leave the kids home and take a real vacation alone somewhere. My mother agreed to stay with our kids. What should I do? Take the credit cards and go to Reno? CITY GIRL

DEAR CITY GIRL: To Reno with credit cards? What for? To gamble or file for a divorce? Why not compromise, and do what Paul wants to do for half the vacation and what you want to do for the other half?

DEAR ABBY: I'm not much of a letter writer, but I need some answers, so here goes:

The other day I got a questionnaire in the mail. It was a form to fill out. There were lots of questions about a friend of mine who apparently had applied for a job with a big company. Here are some of the questions:

Has—ever been in trouble with the law?

Does—drink? Moderately? — Excessively? —

Does—use drugs? —

What do you know about—'s general health? —

Please name some of—'s undesirable qualities. —

Name some of—'s good qualities. —

Abby, my friend must have given my name for a reference or I wouldn't have received this questionnaire right?

I have known this person for about 15 years; but I can't honestly answer some of these questions. In fact, if I could, I wouldn't want to. I'm afraid if I don't fill out this form, my friend won't get the job.

How would you handle this? STUCK

DEAR STUCK: You are under no obligation to answer the questionnaire. I would write a letter telling what I DO know about the applicant and no more.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WHO AM I?" You are a 19-year-old high school dropout who never made a serious effort to stick with anything once the going got rough.

You didn't listen to your father because you thought advice from "a loser" wasn't worth anything.

You didn't graduate from high school because you were too lazy to make your grades, so you told yourself that school was a waste of time, that you had learned all there was to learn there, and you'd better off in the business world.

Determined as you were to do "your own thing," you haven't done anything because you still don't know what "your own thing" is.

Right now you aren't anybody. But if you sincerely want to be somebody, do this: Go back to school. (Adult education night classes are available for those who work days.) First, get your high school diploma, then learn a trade or develop a special skill, and work like a son-of-a-gun. You will then be "somebody," and you won't have to write to Dear Abby to find out who you are.

Laurie Gillihan, Thomas F. Beane Wed In Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Laurie Rose Gillihan, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bates of Midland and granddaughter of Mrs. R. C. Gillihan of Andrews and the late Mr. Gillihan, was married to Thomas F. Beane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clois D. Beane of Little Rock, recently in the Little Rock Air Force Base Chapel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gillihan of Jacksonville. Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk organza designed with a duchess neckline and Empire waistline re-embroidered with Alençon lace. The skirt ended in a chapel train. Her headdress was layers of silk illusion held to a bandeau of matching lace. She carried a bouquet of white camellias. Becky Venable was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Bridgett Gillihan, sister of the bride, and Tonya Beane, sister of the bridegroom. Gary Wayne Orcutt, cousin of the bridegroom, was the best man. The groomsmen were Scott Sinclair and Lt. Ollie Coker. Brad Gillihan, brother of the bride, and Alton Sullivent Jr., cousin of the bridegroom, were the ushers.

A reception was held in the Non-Commissioned Officers Club, before the couple left on a trip to Heber Springs. They will reside at Ft. Riley, where he is a lieutenant in the U.S. Army, to be stationed in Germany after two months. The bride is a graduate of Sylvan Hills High School in North Little Rock and is employed as a secretary by Central Flying Service. The bridegroom has a degree in electrical engineering from the University of Arkansas.

Sharing Has Its Rewards

Sharing may have the work and double the pleasure but it doesn't come naturally. Experts in behavioral science have plenty of evidence to support this. "It's not an inherent characteristic," explains Dr. Helen DeFosis, psychiatrist and editor of the American Journal of Psychoanalysis. "It's something we are taught from a very early age. A child learns that sharing is right because it promotes comfortable feelings. He understands that when he shares his toys or a candy bar with a friend, his mother smiles, relaxes and radiates warmth. She tells him he is good."

James Gregory Garretts Honeymoon

Beverly Dell Laughlin wore a gown fashioned by her mother of satin, organza and Valenciennes lace, when she exchanged marriage vows Saturday with James Gregory Garrett, son of Mrs. Wayne Metz, 808 W. Storey St. and Chester M. Garrett of Algiers, Algeria. Mr. and Mrs. Van D. Laughlin, 4708 Pleasant Drive, are the parents of the bride.

An arch with emerald foliage and white doves flanked by spiral candelabra holding arrangements of yellow gladiolus and white carnations decorated St. Paul's United Methodist Church for the 7 p.m. ceremony. The Rev. Samuel Auslam was the officiant for the double ring service.

Nuptial music was provided by Sandy Hulme, organist, and Dr. Mike Fisher of Stanton, soloist. Guests were seated by Rusty Laughlin, brother of the bride, and David Henderson.

Cindy Laughlin of Lake Charles, La., was the maid of honor for her cousin. The bride's sister, Mrs. Patty Murphy, was the bridesmatron. Their gowns in waltz-length were in light yellow, designed with Empire bodice, low rounded neckline and short, flared sleeves. Each carried a nosegay of yellow feathered carnations with white satin streamers.

The flower girls were Stacie Laughlin and Candy Murphy, nieces of the bride. Jody

Former Resident Receives Master's

Mrs. Michael McCasland, the former Elise McCree, received a master's degree from Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio, in graduation exercises Thursday.

Mrs. McCasland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin W. McCree, 802 Gulf St., is a teacher in the Cincinnati School System.

Claybourne of Aransas Pass, lace over organza was held by a layered bow. She carried a colonial bouquet of white gladiolus, centered with yellow rosebuds and tied with yellow picot satin ribbons.

The reception was held in Fellowship Hall of the church. Members of the house party were Mrs. Bill Cochran, Mrs. Mike Laughlin, Becky Garrett and Becky Truelove.

The couple is honeymooning in Colorado. They will reside at 2928 W. Louisiana St. She over satin had a wide scalloped border of the lace and double Midland and is employed by layers of yellow ruche. BREATHABLE LIQUID—Leland Clark Jr. has produced a liquid he says can be used as artificial blood and also can be breathed in place of normal air, as the laboratory animal in a beaker at top is breathing it. Bottom, Clark a professor at the Children's Research Center of the University of Cincinnati in Ohio, removes the animal from the beaker upside down so the liquid in its lungs will drain. (AP Wirephoto.)

HE BELIEVES— Scientist Develops Artificial Blood, Which Is Breathable

By MARY SCHEIER
CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—A scientist at the University of Cincinnati has produced what he believes is a practical artificial blood. The liquid, an oxygenated fluorocarbon, also may be breathable by a submerged human, leading to several possible medical benefits, he said. Dr. Leland Clark Jr., inventor of the heart-lung machine, disclosed the development, now nearly ready for clinical testing, in an interview with The Associated Press. "We feel over the long run there will be many advantages of artificial blood over natural blood, especially in organ preservation," the 55-year-old medical inventor said. "Many thousands of people die each year because they can't get the proper kidney for transplant. I feel its first use will be in kidneys, because it can keep kidneys alive for several days. That's just one area. It can be stored easily and does not have any blood types, and it can be sterilized, unlike natural blood which carries hepatitis and other blood-borne diseases. Clarke said that in the early 1960s he read about another scientist suspending brain tissue in silicone oil to obtain brain-wave readings. He said that later he realized that silicone oil was capable of carrying as much oxygen as air contains. "I went to the lab, took off my coat, poured the silicone oil into a beaker, bubbled oxygen in it, put a rat into it head first and he just kept on breathing," Clarke said. He also subjected cats and mice to the experiment of breathing the liquid while submerged and they do not gag or choke. He said he began serious work on oxygenated fluorocarbons in 1967 and soon he will try liquid breathing himself. If future human testing bears out his theories, Clarke said his laboratory liquid could be used to treat sickle-cell anemia, eliminate the bends of deep-sea diving, eradicate the problems of transfusing human blood and be of use during space flight.

Panel's Staff Says Milk Price Decision May Have Cost Taxpayers $300 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The staff of the Senate Watergate Committee says President Nixon's order to raise federal milk price supports in 1971 may have cost consumers and taxpayers more than $300 million.

The President's decision was apparently worth anywhere from $300 million to $700 million in extra income to dairy farmers," the committee staff said in a draft report to committee members.

"The cost was shared by the government and American consumers," the committee said. It said the extra cost came both in taxpayer outlays in government milk purchases and in increased prices to consumers as the decision pushed up retail milk prices.

The 359-page draft report, a copy of which was obtained by The Associated Press, also said Nixon's decision appeared to be directly linked to campaign contributions by the dairy-farmer lobby. The report also charged that serious deficiencies exist in Nixon's argument that congressional pressure forced him to raise prices. It said the largest of the dairy cooperatives, Associated Milk Producers Inc., linked campaign donations and requests for government favors even as early as its first, $100,000 cash gift to Nixon in 1969, according to testimony by former Nixon fund-raiser Herbert L. Kalmbach.

The Watergate Committee report said the White House overstated the strength of congressional support for a price increase. The White House conceded that President Nixon was aware that dairy men promised to donate $200,000 to his campaign when he raised prices, but it denies this promise influenced him.

In addition, the White House argued that the retail price of milk rose less than the general rate of inflation after Nixon's price increase. But the committee said the cost of milk to consumers actually would have declined had Nixon not increased the support level.

The committee staff said the price increase ordered by Nixon actually was about one cent per 100 pounds more than would have been granted by those members of Congress who supported bills to boost prices. The report also said a congressional price increase would have been less helpful to the dairy men because it would have come later than Nixon's.

The staff report was written principally by Democratic staff members David Dorsen and Alan Weitz. A second report dealing with apparently illegal political donations by dairy men to Democratic presidential candidates, including Rep. Wilbur D. Mills and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, is being prepared by Republican staff members and should be circulated to the committee soon.

STAY-AT-HOME PARTY A SUCCESS—Lynn S. Hunt, left, chairman of the Permian Basin Chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society, thanks C. J. Kelly, center, president of The First National Bank, and Dean Cope of the bank for helping make the recent MS Stay-At-Home Party a success. Kelly served the society as chairman of the 1974 MS fund raising campaign.

MS Stay-At-Home Party Is Success

Lynn S. Hunt, chairman of the Permian Basin Chapter of the Multiple Sclerosis Society termed last Thursday's Stay-At-Home Party sponsored by the society a huge success.

Merchants who contributed gifts for the party are Grammer Murphy, Skaggs-Albertsons, Seale Appliance, Kruger Jewelry, Gibson's Discount Center and Peyton's Toys.

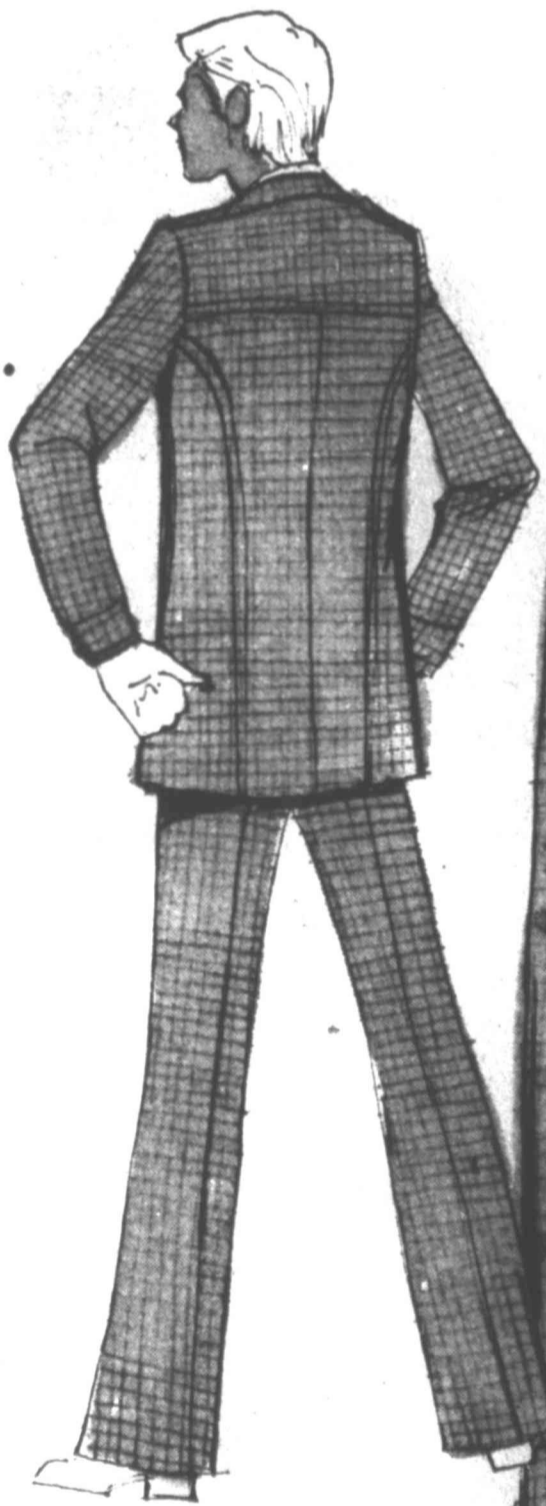

Recipients of the gifts are Mr. and Mrs. Payton Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Trobaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest H. Muires Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Erwin Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chancellor Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gist.

The unusual Stay-At-Home Party fund-raising idea suggested Midlanders make a contribution to MS and then stay home and "do their own thing" in the way of a party.

WATER YOU DRINK HAS A STRONG BEARING ON YOUR HEALTH

Some people—and we consider them misinformed—claim that the body needs the minerals in water. They advise people to avoid distilled water for this reason. They would have us drink water saturated with inorganic and chemical salts from the risk of contracting serious diseases to obtain a few minerals. Water is certainly not the only source of minerals. The mineral content in water varies from area to area. One locality might have water with a high calcium content and be low in phosphorus. Drinking a glass of milk would supply both. So doesn't it make good common sense to clean the water of all bacteria, virus and chemicals, eat a good balanced diet, and if there are doubt as to sufficient minerals, take a good organic mineral supplement?

8th ANNIVERSARY SERVICE SPECIAL

At you know, vacation time is just around the corner and the friendly staff at Sloan-Brothers Buick would like to make your summer vacation as enjoyable as possible. This means eliminating the inconvenience and expense of those on the road repairs.

In order to do this, the service department at Sloan-Brothers Buick is offering a summer vacation special. This service includes inspecting and adjusting all drive belts, checking all cooling system hoses for cracks and leakage, inspecting the air filter element and P.C.V. valve. They will visually inspect the brake linings and exhaust system to be sure your car is in top working order. You will get all this service and peace of mind for the low, low price of only $9.90. And Sloan-Brothers has factory trained technicians to do the job right, using genuine General Motors parts from one of the largest parts inventories in the area. Fleet accounts are welcome. Sloan-Brothers Buick covering the entire North and South blocks at 2623 W. Wall.

Stabilizing Gasoline Prices Predicted

KANSAS CITY (AP) - Top men from two major oil companies predict gasoline prices are stabilizing and may even ease off a little.

"My feeling is that they will not go much higher than the 55 to 60 cents a gallon which now is general, and I believe they will hang in that range unless the foreign oil producing countries increase crude prices," said Z. D. Bonner of the Gulf Oil Co.

J. B. St. Clair, executive vice president of Shell agreed.

"The world supply of crude oil is now just about what it was before the Arab embargo," St. Clair explained. "This is enough to meet the demand because of conservation efforts and the lower consumption because of higher prices. We are getting back into a competitive market."

The oil men made their observations in an energy crisis discussion at the annual convention of The Associated Press Broadcasters Association.

Another participant was Sydney L. Terry, Chrysler's vice president for public responsibility and consumer affairs.

Terry said its goal is to produce cars and trucks which will use 20 per cent less fuel and the target date is 1980.

"But we still have to build cars that people will buy," he said. "We'd build 500-pound cars than on peanut oil if we could get people to buy them."

Terry said it would be a mistake to set fuel economy standards by law.

"People want fuel economy," he said. "We don't need a law. We've gotten the word from the marketplace."

St. Clair said when the energy crisis consisted of closed filling stations, long lines, sales limits and chilly houses it was an easy story to tell.

That crisis has passed, but there still is a long-range energy crisis and that story is complex, he said. It involves consumers, economics, science and politics.

Red Roberts, 70, Dies; Rites Held

ODESSA - Vernon "Red" Roberts, 70, of Odessa, died Thursday afternoon in an Odessa hospital after a 10-day illness.

Funeral services were at 4 p.m. Saturday in the Hubbard-Kelly Funeral Home Chapel with interment in Sunset Memorial Gardens.

Nixon, Kissinger U.N. Leader Talk Mideast

By KENNETH J. FREED
WASHINGTON (AP) — United Nations Secretary General Kurt Waldheim met Saturday with President Nixon and Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger to review the Arab-Israeli situation before leaving for a trip to the Middle East.

Waldheim and Kissinger spent half an hour at the White House with Nixon before adjourning to the State Department for a one-hour, 45-minute working lunch.

The secretary general returned to New York to catch the first leg of his trip to the Middle East.

The secretary general and Kissinger told newsmen after the lunch that the Syrian-Israeli cease-fire agreement was discussed as well as the role to be played by the United Nations in maintaining the peace.

They also discussed resumption of the Middle East peace conference in Geneva later this summer or in the early autumn.

Ulster Factions Form Armies At Rumors Of British Pullout

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — British talk of withdrawing troops from Northern Ireland has stirred recruiting for both Protestant and Roman Catholic private armies, an informed source said Saturday.

But thinking on both sides appears at this moment to be entirely defensive, the informant added. He gave no figures in the recruiting drive.

Britain currently has 16,500 troops in Northern Ireland, and is discussing withdrawing some of them.

Atlantic Hurricane Season Swings Open

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The six-month Atlantic hurricane season began Saturday with weather officials hoping for improved warnings through a special weather satellite launched May 17.

The spacecraft, the Synchronous Meteorological Satellite, already is sending back pictures every half hour from its stationary position 22,000 miles above the Brazilian coast.

Saudi Talks Of Cut In Crude Oil Price

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Saudi Oil Minister Ahmed Zaki Yamani proposed Saturday that the posted price of Arabian light crude be reduced by more than $2 a barrel to $9, the authoritative Middle East Economic Survey reported.

MISSIONARY SLAIN — African Group Seizes Copter, Kidnaps Nurse

HOUSTON (AP) — Tencoco Inc., which has been negotiating with an Ethiopian separatist group over the return of five kidnaped employees, broke off those talks Saturday.

A statement by Tencoco chairman of the board N. W. Freeman said the company was withdrawing its negotiating team from Asmara, Ethiopia, because of the kidnaping of two persons and the killing of a third last Monday.

Former Saigon Official Says Kennedy Coup Overthrew Diem

PARIS (AP) — A former high-level Saigon official says the late President Ngo Dinh Diem was overthrown by a Washington-instigated coup because he refused to allow American troops to be stationed in South Vietnam.

Tran Van Khien, one of Diem's top advisers, claims the late President John F. Kennedy wanted to station 15,000 troops in South Vietnam as a pretext for attacking Chinese nuclear bases.

Ailing Soap Box Derby May Turn International

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The All-American Soap Box Derby, whose spinning wheels almost came to a grinding halt, is rolling again and may be revitalized into an international affair, according to the annual classic's general manager.

ARMFUL OF JOY — An Israeli prisoner of war, who returned Saturday with the first group of exchanged POWs, hugs his little daughter at Tel Hashomer Hospital, near Tel Aviv. He had not seen her since he was captured by the Syrians eight months ago. (AP Wirephoto by cable from Tel Aviv.)

Killed was Miss Anna Sticker, 54. The helicopter pilot, Grant Wyatt, 30, of Calgary, is the kidnaped pilot. The nurse, Deborah Dertzbach, 24, of Freehold, N.J., who was kidnaped, is five months pregnant and in delicate health, her husband Karl said. The Dertzbachs have been working in a mission hospital since June.

Leadership was fearful of a coup and set up an elaborate system to defend itself.

But senior military officers "bought with suitcases full of dollars" trapped military loyalists and staged the coup "which was directed by the CIA," Khien said.
