BUSINESS CHANGES.

In addition to the motion of changes in another column the following changes have taken place in Cisco during the past few days:

Gude and Pass have dissolved partnership in the dry goods and grocery business. E. B. Gude purchased the stock of R. C. Pass and the firm name will be Gude & Pass.

J. S. Stockard has sold his hardware stock to E. J. Wendland. Mrs. Kate Richardson, Mr. Wade was associated with O. C. Bill in the Everybody's Store. This partnership has been dissolved and a part of the goods moved to the Stockard building where Mr. Wendland, Mrs. Richardson will have charge. Mr. Bibby will restock the store and will remain in business in the same building.

W. R. Winston has sold his interest in the grocery store to Geo. and Lloyd Winston and will retire from business.

with Mrs. Chas. Curry in the building in which she has been conducting her millinery business and will have ladies furnishings and millinery. Mrs. Curry will own stock in the business.

Parties of Deming, N. M., have purchased the Cisco Steam Laundry of Henry Benham. A notice is given in another column.

The Quick Service Garage which was owned by Pass & Gude is now owned by Pass & Son, R. C. Pass and his son, Omer, owning it. R. C. Pass is also in the real estate and brokerage business.

Quite a number of other changes have been made, many of them given in last week's issue.

W. R. Winston has sold his interest in the grocery store to Geo. and Lloyd Winston and will retire from business.

BISHOP AINSWORTH TO PREACH IN CISCO.

Bishop W. N. Ainsworth will preach in Cisco, January 19th at 11 A. M. Bishop Ainsworth is the Presiding Bishop of the Texas Methodist Annual Conference. He is a speaker of note, and is one of the great leaders of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The occasion of the Bishop's visit is the Centenary Group Meeting of the Cisco District. The program of the meeting is given elsewhere in this paper. The general public is invited to both the Saturday and Sunday meetings. The Bishop will preach in the City Hall and the other parts of the program will be given in the same place. The Group Meeting is a part of a general educational movement in the church in the interest of the Centenary movement of the two great branches of Methodism. All the Methodist preachers and many laymen of the Cisco District will be present Saturday and Sunday morning.—Umphey Lee.

MATTRESS COMPANY BUILDING.

In conversation with J. A. Cameron Monday he stated to a Round-Up reporter that he was having constructed a new building on East Broadway in which he will manufacture mattresses. Mr. Cameron has a splendid business already, but is now spreading out and will be represented by a traveling salesman, and no doubt within a short time his noted mattress, "The Slumber On" will be known throughout Texas. He will occupy his new building on the first of February.

LEASE BRINGS GOOD PRICE.

H. C. Poe returned Wednesday from Fort Worth where he closed a trade on an 80 acre tract of Eastland county land, leasing it for oil, with Fort Worth and Wichita Falls parties for which he received $31,500. Quite a good profit for Mr. Poe.

WANTED:—Clean cotton rags, at Round-Up Office.

COL. ROOSEVELT DIES.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Jan. 6.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, twenty-sixth President of the United States, who died at his home on Sagamore Hill early today, will be laid to rest without pomp or ceremony in Young's Memorial Cemetery in this village Wednesday afternoon. He will be buried on a knoll overlooking Long Island Sound, a plot which he and Mrs. Roosevelt selected soon after he left the White House.

In the words of the clergyman who will conduct the funeral services, "America's most typical American" known in every corner of the earth, will go to his grave as a "quiet, democratic, Christian country-gentleman beloved by his neighbors."

Colonel Roosevelt's illness dated from last February. It was on the 5th of that month that, following an operation on one of his ears, he was removed from Oyster Bay to the Roosevelt hospital in New York. He remained there until March 3, meanwhile undergoing two more operations.

Two months later he insisted on keeping engagements arranged for him in many cities, and until the fall, continued to give from the platform his views on international affairs.

In November he was forced to return to the hospital for treatment for rheumatism. Today, through an announcement by his physicians concerning the cause of his death, it became known that three weeks before he left Sagamore Hill on Christmas Day, he suffered a pulmonary embolism which nearly proved fatal.

Tonight cable messages and telegrams of sympathy addressed to Mrs. Roosevelt, poured in in such numbers that the local operator was unable to handle them and three more telegraphers were called from New York to assist him.

CHURCH APPEAL.

This appeal to all men who may read it has been suggested by seeing so many men on the streets on Sunday and so few at church. Many who were regular at church in former years are seldom seen there now. Many men attend church when at home but if away from home and in a strange town will sit around hotels all day on the Holy Sabbath and never go to God's house.

If you are a citizen of Cisco remember the church stands for the things that are noblest and best for humanity and they are entitled to your presence and approval. If you are a stranger among strangers, these people worship the God of your fathers and here you can meet the best people and find a warm welcome and your presence will greatly encourage these good ministers.

Service and Courtesy

"A man can have the greatest railroad in the world; the best road bed; the finest cars; the most impressive stations," said Samuel Rea, then president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at a dinner recently, "but he can't make that road pay unless he gives the public two things; Service and courtesy."

Pretty true of any business. You'll find just that here plus 100% efficiency. If you are not already banking with us we invite your account today.

THE BANK OF STEADY SERVICE

But more than this, these churches stand for all that makes life worth living for. These ministers from Sunday to Sunday proclaim those Holy Truths that alone can make this world that solemn ordeal to which we all tend. These ministers teach us how to live the only life that can entitle us to a blessed immortality—a home in Heaven. Come to church next Sunday and then write to wife or mother. "I heard Rev. _____ preach and I enjoyed it so much that I have made up my mind never to miss a Sunday if I can help it. If you are a Christian it will help you to be a better one. If you are not, may it be your happy privilege to accept Christ as your personal Saviour and do all the good you can in this world.—Contributed.

BLOCK AT BRECKENRIDGE BURNS WITH LOSS OF $40,000.

Three two-story rock buildings, owned by J. V. Wiggins, burned at 4 o'clock last Thursday. The post office, the Crescent Hotel, owned by Mr. Wiggins; the Model Cafe and the Masonic hall were included in the loss, and there was no insurance on any of the property. Mr. Wiggins' loss is estimated at from $25,000, the post office loss at from $5,000 to $10,000 and the Model Cafe at about $1,000. The First National Bank lost about $1,000 in Liberty bonds that had been placed in the post office to be mailed out, and the Stephens County Abstract Company lost about $700 in abstracts that also had been mailed. The Crescent Hotel had recently installed furniture and fixtures valued at $5,000.

The fire originated in the Model Cafe. The last building to be reached by the fire housed a general mercantile business owned by Mr. Winkler, but his loss was small, owing to much of the goods being removed before the flames reached the block.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

The services of the church will be held Sunday at 11:00 A. M. and 7:00 P. M. The pastor will preach at both hours. At the evening hour, all members of the church are requested to be present, as the regular service will be preceded by a few minutes Church Conference. Sunday School at 9:30 A. M., G. Fisk, Sup't.

Prof. J. C. Allison of Breckenridge was in the city Saturday and called at this office. He has resigned as superintendent of the Breckenridge schools and will again take his place on the Eastland Chronicle. He states that he will also be interested in a new paper to be established at Breckenridge.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Noel visited relatives in Eastland Friday.

System and Accuracy

The scales used by diamond dealers to weigh the stones are exceedingly delicate. It is necessary that they record accurately the weight of the stone.

Every man should be exact and systematic in his financial affairs. A check count will record accurately and with system your entire business.

IT IS SAFE, SIMPLE AND CONVENIENT TO PAY BY CHECK.

American Folk Music

On the Fourth of July, 1826, near Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, a great American composer was born—a fitting coincidence that the day giving him birth should be also the birthday of our great American nation.

This man's greatness lay in the simplicity of his heart, his emotions, his music, his understanding of human-nature, of the world in which he lived, loved, suffered and died—just as do all his fellow mortals. His melodies are simple, unpretentious as a wild rose—yet they have touched the very heart of a nation. And we, and you know he was the greatest composer of American folk-songs.

His name was Stephen Collins Foster; he wrote "Old Black Joe," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Swanee River," and others well loved, though not as well known.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, the Great and Supreme Ruler of the universe has in his infinite wisdom removed from among us, one of our worthy and esteemed fellow laborers, Comrade T. W. Neel; And whereas, the long and intimate relation held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties in this society makes it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation of him; Wherefore Resolved that the wisdom and ability which he has exercised in aid of our organization by service, contribution and counsel will be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, that the sudden removal of such a life from among our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends of this organization, and will prove a serious loss to the community and the public.

Resolved, that with deep sympathy with the bereaved relatives of the deceased we express our hope whatever so great a loss to us all may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well;

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this organization, a copy printed in our local paper and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.—Mrs. L. W. Jenson, Secy., Martha Stout, U. D. C. Chapter, Cisco, Tex.

WENT HOME

This was the only words uttered by the good wife of Captain Thomas W. Neel, when the silent messenger came last Friday night January 3rd, 1913 at seven o'clock and carried away to that mysterious home all that was mortal of T. W. Neel.

There was never heard a murmur from this good man during his last illness of his condition, or that he felt he would soon leave his earthly home to dwell in mansions above. When his spirit took its flight the bedside was surrounded by his companion, Mrs. T. W. Neel, of over fifty years, his son, John Neel and wife, and granddaughter, Mary Liburn Neel, his pastor, Rev. J. D. Lisle, pastor of the first Presbyterian church of Cisco, Mr. and Mrs. J. Alexander and Mr. Mathews. Peacefully he passed away without a struggle, the going was so beautiful that all dread of such a transition was dispelled from the scene they witnessed.

Captain T. W. Neel with his family came to Cisco thirty three years ago, from South Carolina. Born at the old and historic place, Steels Creek in North Carolina, seventy-three years ago last Aug., his pride for his birth place had never ceased. Often in conversation with him he would refer to the scenes of his home-land and tell of the life he spent in that state. Only a few days before his death he received a letter from a relative telling him of the history that had been written of his father's family, and showing him that part of it with pride where it said in all the history not one black mark had been made by a member of the family, when the writer read it he said with a great deal of pride, that he wanted this letter placed, with others papers that he might in the future have it for a memento, and for his family, but the time was short for this good man to look with pride upon this piece of history.

The beautiful story of the life that Captain Neel had led was told by his pastor Saturday afternoon at three o'clock when the church was filled to the seating capacity to show the great friendship they had for the man that had gone from our midst. His life as a soldier for his country when serving in the war of the sixties, had been his delight to tell, and often he would compare it with the life of the boys who have been "overthere" fighting in foreign lands, and would express himself by saying I want to live until they return and help give them a hearty welcome. God had His plan for a greater welcome and he was called before his favorite boys came back. His life as a soldier of the cross had been far greater than that of his country, for many more had been led to a more beautiful life than that of on the battle field of smoke and guns.

The example he had ever led before the friends that knew him best told that Captain Neel was a lover of all that God planned for human minds to grasp. He has held many prominent places in the church of his choice, born and raised a Presbyterian, his faith was unexcelled.

In business life he has been prominent and popular with those whom he had sought to please. And his election to the office he has held so faithfully to the end, he has been elected without opposition that would even make his election interesting. He ever took a pride in saying that "the people had placed him where he was" and it was the people he served. During the twenty-four years of his life as a city officer, his account has been as forward as his life, free from taint, with this pride his memory went from him.

In all things to which Captain Neel gave his aid to uphold it was a success. His work in and around the church yard will never be the same, no other hands can be as careful in training the shrubs he has tendered, no other minds can have the same anxiety about the regularity of the care of his home as he had, and no other can do as faithfully the work that had been assigned him to do as did Captain Neel.

On Thanksgiving Day just after he had enjoyed a home dinner with his family and friends only a few moments before he was stricken guests had left the home and the sudden stroke came, and all who came saw that it would make its inroad into the life of this good man. For nearly six weeks all that friends and loving hands could do, proved that the end came nearer each day. On the 17th of December his spirits became buoyant as the anniversary of the 50th passing of the milestone in the wedded life of this good couple approached he was happy to know that they were remembered by friends who surprised them with a home dinner, and with his pastor and wife he enjoyed the whole day, up to the time that memory failed him and his voice forsook him he talked of the day. When the New Year dawned he again said I am glad to be here when 1913 comes in, I have wanted to live longer, but he was never questioned about his spiritual welfare, for the life he had lived had told the story too plainly, and he knew that Captain Neel was ready when the Master called. When this life went out many loved ones were waiting to welcome him, one little daughter that for many years had been basking in the Heavenly Father's love, opened her arms and embraced the earthly father as he came.

His good wife, two sons and two grand daughters are left to talk of the life lived by him, and grieve for the vacant place in the old home where all loved to visit. He was ever cordial, and ever ready to extend the open hand to his friends. His manly nature, his genial thoughts, his happy disposition, and his ever being ready to serve both God and man endeared him to all alike.

The beautiful floral offerings that came to cover the mound where he now sleeps speaks of the high esteem in which he was held by his co-workers in the church.

The text used at his burial service was the same as that used when his father died, being a favorite passage of scripture. The songs he loved in life, were sung over his remains, and all that could be done by loving hands and friends had been accomplished and Captain Neel is now at rest.—A friend.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR YOUR HOME TOWN.

I. Thou shalt love thy home town above all other towns. Thou shalt, speak no evil of her; thou shalt be loyal to her people, worthy of the great men and women of her past, confident in her present, and full of hope for her future.

II. Thou shalt guard thy home town from the hosts of evil that would invade her and destroy her soul. The saloon, the gambling den and the houses of iniquity shalt thou crush under thy heel, for they are enemies of both God and man. Thou shalt keep the good name of the home town clean and without stain or blemish.

III. Thou shalt elect as thy public servants in political office, men of strong character, without fear or favor of the boss or the ring, eager to conserve the best interests of thy people. And when thou hast elected such men, thou shalt stand by them and encourage them; for the temptations are many and their burdens are not light.

IV. Thou shalt exalt thy public school and honor it all the days of thy life with the best of teachers, building and equipment, for the school is the cradle of democracy. Thy children are hers, and they shall be the citizens of tomorrow. No training is too good for them and no preparations superfluous.

V. Thou shalt defend the health of thy home town from the death that lurks in marshes, swamps and heaps of filth. Thou shalt exterminate the fly and likewise the mosquito. The tubercle bacillus shalt thou drive before thee with the sun and fresh air as thy allies.

VI. Thou shalt build good roads and keep them good, for by her roads is a village known for good or ill. Thou shalt not be content with sand in thy cup holes, but only with oil and stone and tar. Eternal watchfulness shall be thy motto, that thy roads may not ravel nor thy supervision forget thee.

VII. Thou shalt keep thy home town beautiful. The hills, the trees, the waters, that nature has given her thou shalt preserve in sacred trust. No hovel of man shalt thou permit to disfigure them. Thou shalt keep thy home and thy door yards cheerful. Thou shalt burn the caterpillar in his tent. Thy waters shalt thou purify, that they may bring thee life and strength. The future of thy town shalt thou plan with care and diligence, that thy growth be not hap-hazard, but full of thought and loving care, as the plans of a mother for the growth of her child.

VIII. Thou shalt go to church. Thou shalt not consider thyself too wise nor too busy nor too good to spend an hour or two on Sunday with thy neighbors in the worship of God. Thou shalt not send thy children to church, thou shalt bring them there. Thou shalt offer thyself to the minister and the officers of the church for the services of God and the community.

IX. Thou shalt honor thy home town with a neighborhood house. Thou shalt meet thy neighbors there on equal footing. Thou shalt work with them there for the common welfare. Thou shalt play with them there with all thy heart and strength and mind. Thus shalt thy know thy fellows better and thy friendship shall multiply.

X. Thou shalt not take unto thyself any graven image of a community secretary. When thou findest the man thou desirest, thou shalt obey him. Thou shalt do as thou are bidden. Thou shalt serve on committees where thou art put and not intrude on committees where thou art not put. Thou shalt encourage thy secretary with thy service, thy loyalty and thy friendship. So shall ye win battles together.

MAKE THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS

Get ahead of the other fellow by picking scraps of time from the waste basket.

Abraham Lincoln would split rails all day in the forest and then after his day's work would walk five miles to borrow a book to study and improve himself. It is said that Geo. Washington, in answer to a question of his mother as to why he studied so late at night, replied that he was working out the destiny of his country, and he did.

There are hundreds of young people today who are desirous of gaining a practical education, but, for one reason or another, they cannot leave home to secure it, so they drag along from one year to the next in the same old rut. There are hundreds of others who cannot attend our school in person but who are availing themselves of the opportunity offered by the Correspondence Department of our College, saving their leisure moments and investing them in an education that will mean thousands of dollars to them in coming years.

You may say that you are not able to take a course, but the person who can at least afford it is the one who needs it most, who should get it by all means at a sacrifice; it does not cost much.

Young friend, take advantage of your opportunity to gain a business education, use the moments that would otherwise be wasted. Spend an hour after nightfall in the long winter evenings qualifying yourself with a knowledge of the famous Byrne Shorthand, Practical Book-keeping, Typewriting, Arithmetic, Grammar, Writing, Salesmanship, and business Efficiency, Advertising and Telegraphy, by which you will make the business world readily pay cash for your services.

A SOCIAL MEETING.

Rev. and Mrs. Umphrey Lee entertained the officers and teachers of the Methodist Sunday School on Tuesday evening at the parsonage with an informal social meeting.

Rev. Mr. Lee spoke of the vital importance of a live, progressive Sunday School in the church life and urged the teachers to make greater efforts than ever before to make the work of the school efficient. G. Fisk, the superintendent, then made a short talk thanking the teachers for their cooperation and ready response to requests made by him and assured them that the needs of the classes in the several departments would be looked after. The teachers were called on to make known their wants as to literature and other equipment.

A social while was enjoyed during which Mrs. Lee assisted by Mrs. N. W. Turner served delicious hot chocolate and sandwiches to the large number in attendance.

W. M. SOCIETY.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was held in the Sunday School rooms at the church Tuesday at 2 o'clock, with a large attendance.

The pastor, Rev. Umphrey Lee, conducted the devotional and afterward made a short talk, the retiring president, Mrs. F. E. Harrell, presiding.

All business was concluded, the officers and committees giving excellent reports of the year's work. The chairman of the bazaar committee reported that the sum of $263.65 was the net proceeds of the sale in December and by motion $100.00 of that sum was added to our church building fund and the necessary amount to be used for repapering several rooms at the parsonage.

The meeting was then turned over to the new president, Mrs. G. D. Remer, who made a short talk in which she expressed her appreciation for being chosen leader of the society and gave assurance that her best efforts would be put forth to make the work a success in every way, with the help of the members. Plans for the new year were discussed and committees appointed. By motion it was decided that every member failing to perform program duty was to be fined a sum of twenty-five cents. The corresponding secretary was authorized to order four dozen year books and the committee appointed to arrange the program for the year's study. It was decided that the bazaar would be held again this year, as in the past, and the fourth Tuesday set as the day to be devoted to that work.

Several new members were present at this time and their names added to the roll. Our district secretary, Mrs. Turner, made a talk in regard to the Centenary movement and asked that our pledge this year be doubled. With the increase in membership hoped for, the sum will be raised.

Pledges were then called for and about sixty dollars was pledged at once.

Next Tuesday the Mission Study class will meet at the church at 3 P. M., having the second chapter in "Sons of Italy."

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Quite an enjoyable reception was tendered Mrs. D. E. Jones Wednesday of last week at the residence of Mrs. L. A. Harrison by the Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist Church.

The house decorations suggestive of the Christmas season, were quite attractive, and the spirit of cordiality and good cheer prevailed.

As the guests arrived each one was requested to register in the beautiful book which was later given to the honoree. The book cover done in water colors, picturing the violet in clusters and a wish bone, in gold, for good luck, with ribbons in violet shades, was appropriate and expressive of the sentiments held for Mrs. Jones by her co-workers in the church and Aid Society of which she was president at the time of her departure for Rising Star.

Refreshments of cut cake and hot chocolate was served by the hostess and before good byes were said, Mrs. G. E. Berry presented Mrs. Jones with a cut glass comport, as a parting gift from the Aid Society. Mrs. Jones accepting the gift with many words of appreciation and offering a pretty toast with the request that each one present carry away with them the sentiments thus expressed.

The Merry Wives club meets with Mrs. Chas. H. Fee to-day, after a suspension of meetings since November 8, 1918.

THE BRIDGE CLUB.

One of the most enjoyable events of the holidays took place Tuesday night when the members of the Bridge Club entertained their husbands with a seven course dinner. The elegant home of Mrs. C. A. Gray was the scene for this occasion and seemed like a very wonderland, so beautifully had it been decorated. The holiday colors and New Year bells were used profusely throughout reception hall, solarium and living room.

In the dining room too, the holiday spirit abounded. The table with its snowy fluted cloths had for its center piece a dainty New Year's Wish Bush, and a number of shaded candles added their subdued light to make it all very picturesque.

Small engraved watches marked places for Messers and Mesdames Robt. W. Mancill; Bell S. Huey, C. G. Gray; A. A. Webster; G. C. Lingle; Jno. Neel, Jos. Pearce, Albuquerque, N. M.; Mms. C. A. Gray, and Lucy Gray Fee; Messers Harry Gray; Frank J. Huey, Houston; and Sid Richardson, Athens.

Later while the Oulja was being consulted New Year's Resolutions made and music on the Sonora enjoyed, the crowd watched old 1918 pass away and welcomed in New 1919.

Bidding New Year greetings and farewells to each other and to the hostesses the guests departed resolving to have many more such times in 1919.

Mrs. Neel wore charmeuse dinner frock of midnight blue; Mrs. Pierce's costume was taupe Poulette Jersey faced with rough purple; Mrs. Huey was dressed in black georgette with sequins; Mrs. Lucy Gray Fee was gowned in blue tricolette with trimmings of white satin; Mrs. Mancill's dress was brown satin embroidered in blue and gold; Mrs. C. G. Gray had on an electra blue georgette dress elaborately beaded; Mrs. Webster's dinner gown was overseas blue panned velvet self trimmed; Mrs. Lingle wore a brown crepe meteor and pearls.

An all day meeting of the Bridge Club was held with Mrs. Geo. P. Fee on New Year's day. A turkey dinner was enjoyed between games and plum pudding served in the afternoon completed the happy occasion.

Players were Mmes. A. A. Webster, C. G. Gray, B. S. Huey, R. W. Mancill, John Neel, G. C. Lingle, Joe Pierce and the hostess.

SPEND-THE-DAY PARTY.

On Thursday, January 2, Mrs. B. S. Huey gave a spend-the-day party complimentary to Mrs. Joe Pierce of Albuquerque, N. M. and Mrs. Henry Hill, formerly of San Angelo, inviting members of the Bridge Club as guests. Games were played during the day and in the afternoon, chocolate pie was offered as refreshments.

EVENING PARTY.

On Saturday night of last week, Harry Gray was host for a number of the younger society set, at the home of his mother Mrs. C. A. Gray on Broadway.

Music and games were enjoyed by Misses Marguerite Kelley, Theresa Lee, Sarah Lee, Joyce Langston, Bettie Newcomb, Winnie Mobley, Ruth Williamson, Addie Lee, Hood and Messrs. Kelly, Hurt, Williamson, Bell, Moore, Meyers, Gray.

PRESBYTERIAN AID SOCIETY

Mrs. B. S. Huey was hostess to the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon.

A business session was held, followed by the social and work hour, each guest bringing fancy work. The bazaar committee at this time reported $209.00 as the amount cleared from the December bazaar.

As a pleasing conclusion the genial hostess served plum pudding with hard sauce to the members and invited guests present.

The election of officers will be held at the next meeting.

NEW YEARS DANCE.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Webster entertained with a New Year's dance on last Wednesday night at their home, having as guests about twenty-five couples.

The spacious rooms were made more attractive with the use of red and green decorations suggestive of the Christmastide.

Music and dancing gave diversion and a buffet luncheon consisting of sandwiches, coffee and chocolate was served.

Mrs. Webster was assisted by Mmes. B. S. Huey, R. W. Mancill, G. J. and C. G. Gray and Joe Pierce of Albuquerque, N. M.

"500" PARTY.

Miss Joyce Langston was the charming hostess for a delightful little party on Tuesday afternoon, when guests for three tables of "500" were invited.

A refreshment course of cut cake, cheese wafers, glazed nuts and hot chocolate was served at the tables.

Those playing were Mmes. W. J. Foxworth, Alex Spears, Chas. Fleming, R. W. Mancill, B. T. Quarrels, Gilbert Woods, F. D. Shepard, L. A. Harrison, C. G. Gray, Shillings, Joe Pierce and Miss Langston.

The Bridge Club met with Mrs. C. G. Gray on Wednesday afternoon.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

A pretty compliment was the shower given Mrs. J. T. Gardner, a recent bride, on Wednesday afternoon by Misses Lola Paschall and Grace Lee Rominger at the Paschall home on Britton Hill.

Pink carnations and ferns with potted plants were used to decorate the rooms where the hostesses, Mrs. M. D. Paschall and the honoree received the guests. Punch was served by Miss Juanita St. John and phonograph music gave pleasure during the afternoon. Piano numbers given by Miss Thelma Fairless and voice selections by Miss Joyce Langston formed a pleasing program.

The important feature of the occasion, the shower, was announced when Misses Paschall and Rominger led Mrs. Gardner to a specially arranged seat with green and white decorations and were followed by two fairy children, Eloise Woods and Fern Warren, who carried a large basket filled with gifts. The joy of opening each package and inspecting the many beautiful gifts of lined, lingerie, china, cut glass and notions fell to the happy bride, who beautifully expressed her sincere thanks and appreciation for these expressions of love and friendship. A toast to "The Bride" was offered by Miss Joyce Langston afterward. Miss Maurine Mancill presided over the bride's book in which about sixty guests registered.

A NEW YEAR'S WEDDING.

On January 1st, in this city, Geo. W. Burch and Miss Edythe M. Smithson of Abilene were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. Umphrey Lee officiating.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB.

Twentieth Century Club met at the rest room Friday, January third in the first session for the year 1919. An unusually interesting and instructive program was enjoyed by the members present, with "Russia" as the topic for the day.

In conducting the round table, the director, Mrs. H. L. Winchell used the map of "Russia" in locating the country and giving its physical features. The following excellent papers were given: "Conditions Leading to Last Revolution" Mrs. F. E. Harrell "Peter the Great," Mrs. J. B. Cate; "Tolstoi," Mrs. Geo. Langston.

The usual business meeting was held at this time and considerable business was dispatched.

SIX O'CLOCK DINNER.

On Thursday of last week, at her home on Britton Hill, Miss Lola Paschall entertained with a six o'clock, turkey dinner in honor of Mr. Frank Gaston Jr., of Granbury.

Present on this happy occasion were Misses Frances Sanderson, Vida Walker, Elephane Berry; Messrs. Lloyd Winston, Earl Vanderford, Frank Gaston Jr., M. D. Paschall Jr., Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Paschall, Sr., Mrs. S. A. Peveler, and the hostess.

Germany still keeps her Christmas stocking hanging, and it is still gaping for food.

Among the things which will go on the 1918 scrap-heap is the belief in the divine right of kings.

Tastes in colors differ. Alsace and Lorraine have a special liking for khaki, while Germany abominates it.

It is all right for any nation to seek "a piece in the sun," but no one nation should attempt to corner all the sunlight.

The difference between the Allies and the Germans is that the Allies want a just peace, and the Germans want just peace.

The same laundry may cleanse the blouse of the workman and the silk pajamas of the capitalist. The clothes-line is your only true democracy.

After making a close study of newspaper reports we have arrived at the conclusion that either the Czar of Russia is dead or he is alive.

It is difficult to determine whether a man lives in comfort or luxury. But just now there is an unflinching test which may be applied. You have only to ascertain whether he eats eggs for breakfast.

It is evident the peace of 1918 was not the military machine of Potsdam had been looking for but it might have been worse although it is hard to pound logic thru a hitching post.

Since reaching Europe our president has partaken of Parisian banquets, American chow and "the roast beef of Old England." We do not know what the political result may be, but we should fancy that the physical result might be an attack of indigestion.

The American government does not know what to do with the railroads, and the European governments do not know what to do with the ex-kaiser. Why not put the ex-kaiser on the railroads and run him around America?

One distinguishing peculiarity of the Bersaglieri, Italy's crack troops, is they never walk. They are supposed always to advance at the run, whether in parade, road marching, or in the field. If we could only engage one of these young soldiers as office boy and messenger!

Prince Eitel Fritz, the most respectable of the present Hohenzollerns and the only one who remains in Germany, professes that his only desire is to be "a simple German citizen." It would have been well for the rest of the tribe if they had confined their ambition within such moderate limits.

The man who thinks winter is a time of ease and rest for the Northern farmer ought to have the experience of getting up some morning when the temperature is at zero, and shoveling his way to the barn through two feet of snow. It may be fun, but it is strenuous fun.

A writer in the N. Y. Tribune explains how Germany can pay an indemnity of one hundred billion dollars on the installment plan, with interest. This will mean an annual payment of five billion dollars for thirty-nine and a half years. We trust that this calculation will encourage the Germans.

The problems of the poor weather man are becoming more complicated each year. The mere guessing of whether or not it is going to rain on a certain day or during a certain week has changed to the much more risky bet of whether or not we are going to have winter during December, January and February or during June, July and August.

"By their Fruits ye shall know them!" Not so with California growers it would seem. Of late, that is to say since 1917, complaints have poured over the country by the bucket fulls about the terrible condition fruits have reached their destination in from this domestic-foreign port. Perhaps the complainers forgot that this was a season of war and that in such a season they were lucky to have any fruit at all. Probably now that the argument is over, shipping by rail will come into its own again and the old standard of model transporting facilities will return. Until then, we can eat prunes.

Our sympathies are with the senate. It is like a huge intelligent school without a teacher. Bills are hopping in one window and out the other without the thorough discussion they merit. Some talk has it that the President has been offered a college presidency at $20,000 a year—but it would be wise to see how he is going to unmix this awkward situation facing him upon his return in the greatest school of the land. In the meanwhile, senators, keep your balance; don't be like the men going to be beheaded who said, "If someone don't hurry up with this affair we shall all lose our heads."

KEPT PLEDGE TO SEND BREAD

American Nation Maintained Allied Loaf Through Self-Denial at Home Table.

AVERTED EUROPEAN DESPAIR

With Military Demands Upon Ocean Shipping Relieved, World is Able to Return to Normal White Wheat Bread.

Since the advent of the latest wheat crop the only limitation upon American exports to Europe has been the shortage of shipping. Between July 1 and October 10 we shipped 65,980,305 bushels. If this rate should continue until the end of the fiscal year we will have furnished the Allies with more than 237,500,000 bushels of wheat and flour in terms of wheat.

The result of increased production and conservation efforts in the United States has been that with the cessation of hostilities we are able to return to a normal wheat diet. Supplies that have accumulated in Australia, Argentina and other hitherto inaccessible markets may be tapped by ships released from transport service, and European demand for American wheat probably will not exceed our normal surplus. There is wheat enough available to have a white loaf at the common table.

But last year the tale was different. Only by the greatest possible saving and sacrifice were we able to keep a steady stream of wheat and flour moving across the sea. We found ourselves at the beginning of the harvest year with an unusually short crop. Even the most optimistic statisticians figured that we had a bare surplus of 20,000,000 bushels. And yet Europe was facing the probability of a bread famine—and in Europe bread is by far the most important article in the diet.

All of this surplus had left the country early in the fall. By the first of the year we had managed to ship a little more than 50,000,000 bushels by practicing the utmost economy at home—by wheatless days, wheatless meals, heavy substitution of other cereals and by sacrifice at almost every meal throughout the country.

In January the late Lord Rhonda, then British Food Controller, cabled that only if we sent an additional 75,000,000 bushels before July 1 could he take the responsibility of assuring his people that they would be fed.

The response of the American people was 85,000,000 bushels safely delivered overseas between January 1 and July 1. Out of a harvest which gave us only 20,000,000 bushels surplus we actually shipped 141,000,000 bushels.

Thus did America fulfill her pledge that the Allied bread rations could be maintained, and already the American people are demonstrating that, with an awakened war conscience, last year's figures will be bettered.

Our exports since this country entered the war have justified a statement made by the Food Administration shortly after its conception, outlining the principles and policies that would govern the solution of this country's food problems. "The whole foundation of democracy," declared the Food Administration, "lies in the individual initiative of its people and their willingness to serve the interests of the nation with complete self-effacement in the time of emergency. Democracy can yield to discipline, and we can solve this food problem for our own people and for the Allies in this way. To have done so will have been a greater service than our immediate objective, for we have demonstrated the righteousness of our faith and our ability to defend ourselves without being Prussianized."

Sending to Europe 141,000,000 bushels of wheat from a surplus of apparently nothing was the outstanding exploit of the American food army in the critical year of the war.

GREATEST OPPORTUNITY WOMEN EVER HAD.

It was given to the women of this country to perform the greatest service in the winning of the war vouchsafed to any women in the history of the wars of the world—to feed the warriors and the war sufferers. By the arts of peace, the practice of simple, homely virtues the womanhood of a whole nation served humanity in its profoundest struggle for peace and freedom.

FIRST CALL TO FOOD ARMY.

This co-operation and service I ask of all in full confidence that America will render more for flag and freedom than king or hidden people surrender at compulsion.—Herbert Hoover, August 10, 1917.

A year ago voluntary food control was a daring adventure in democracy; during the year an established proof of democratic efficiency.

SUGAR SHOWED OUR BACKBONE

American Willingness to Give Up Luxury Demonstrated Nation's War Conscience.

STAND WITH THE ALLIES.

By Reducing Consumption People of the United States Averted a Famine at Home in Spite of Low Supplies.

The fact that the people of the United States were able to reduce by more than one-half million tons their July, August, September and October consumption of sugar proves conclusively that their war conscience was thoroughly awakened and that the country as a whole stood ready to follow the injunctions of the Government. Our normal consumption of sugar in the four-month period beginning with July has been 400,000 tons per month, a total of 1,600,000 for the quarter year.

In July, when our sugar stringency began to reach its height, consumption was reduced to 260,000 tons. In August only 325,000 tons went into distribution and in September only 279,000 tons. In October the distribution fell to 230,000 tons.

If the general public had failed to observe the injunctions of the Food Administration this country would have been in the throes of a sugar famine before the end of August. Our visible supplies were so low as to bring great anxiety to those familiar with the sugar situation. They feared that it would be absolutely impossible to reduce consumption to a point where sugar would no longer be a mere luxury in the American diet.

Few accomplishments of the Food Administration will stand forth so predominantly as this reduced consumption of sugar. By it we have been able to bridge over the period of stringency until the new beet and Louisiana cane sugar crops were in sight.

Now the nation is in a position so that if we choose we may return to our normal home use of sugar, and Europe, with the release of ships to go far afield, can maintain its recent restricted rations. If, however, those nations are to increase their use of sugar very considerably it must be by our continued sharing with them through limiting our own consumption.

AMERICAN SPIRIT RELIED ON TO WIN.

In the light of succeeding events it is interesting to recall the confidence with which the United States Food Administrator viewed the gloomy outlook in July of 1917, when this country had been in the war for less than four months and the Germans were steadily sending the western front nearer and nearer to Paris.

"Even though the situation in Europe may be gloomy today," he declared in a public statement, "no American who has knowledge of the results already obtained in every direction need have one atom of fear that democracy will not defend itself in these United States."

LOYALTY IN LITTLE THINGS LAST PROOF OF PATRIOTISM

Americans without murmuring cut their sugar allowance from four pounds a month to three, and then as long as need be to two pounds for loyalty's sake.

Food Will Win the World.

America earned the gratitude of allied nations during war by sharing food. America under peace may win the world's good will by saving to share.

DEMOCRACY VS. AUTOCRACY.

"There is no royal road to food conservation. We can only accomplish this by the voluntary action of our whole people, each element in proportion to its needs. It is a matter of equality of burden."

The truth of this statement, made by the United States Food Administrator soon after we entered the war, has been borne out by the history of our exports. Autocratic food control in the lands of our enemies has broken down, while democratic food sharing has maintained the health and strength of this country and of the Allies.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to return heartfelt thanks to the many generous friends who stood by us with such unwearied kindness during the time our loved one was afflicted before entering upon "the rest prepared for the children of God" and crossed to the beautiful home over there." Seldom have any in need of sympathy and the most devoted friendship, received so full a measure of the best fruits of the human heart. From first to last it was one unceasing routine of kindness and attention and the gloom of death was conquered by the warm radiance of love bestowed upon our dear one who has gone before. More we could not ask for them; more friendship could not give.—Mrs. T. W. Neel and Children.

True Friendship

President Wilson said at Manchester, England, on December 30th, that "friendship is not a mere sentiment. It is based upon a principle, upon the principle that leads a man to give more than he demands. Similarly, friendship is based not merely upon affection, but upon a common service. The man is not your friend unless he is willing to serve you and you are not his friend unless you are willing to serve him. And out of that impulse of common interest and desire of common service arises that noble feeling which we consecrate as friendship."

We want to hold all our old friends and acquire many new ones this year. Let our service be yours.

TO EASTLAND CO. CHAPTER

In the beginning of this, a new year--I wish to express my sincere appreciation of the cordial support and cooperation accorded the Red Cross by the entire Eastland Co. Chapter throughout the past year. Nothing brings men or women so close together as a great cause, and I am sure that in spite of the terrible suffering, heartaches, and sacrifices caused by this war, we shall one day, in looking back realize they were well worth while. Worth while because of the lessons in unselfishness which we as a nation and as individuals have learned worth while because of the great principles of universal brotherhood, and love which have become a part of our religion. And especially worth while is the work that has been, and will continue to be done by the great American Red Cross. Through this organization men and women who have remained at home, have been able to lay the hand of loving compassion and pity on the naked, quivering heart of a stricken world, and felt again the Divine truth, "It is more blessed to give than receive."

Again the past year's work has been more than worth while to our county, our towns, and our rural communities. We have been one in a great cause. May we continue to be as one in kindly interest, unselfish appreciation and a fellowship which rises above the sordid things of life. We have come through an unspeakable tragedy together and can therefore regard each other in a new light of comradeship and affection. To you whose loved ones have made the supreme sacrifice in the greatest cause for which a nation ever fought the Red Cross extends deepest sympathy. May you see the glory that comes to the world through that sacrifice and know in the deepest consciousness of your being it was supremely worth while. A very successful, prosperous and happy new year to the Eastland chapter.--Mrs. Philip Pettit, 751 Main St., Cisco, Tex.

THE RAILROADS.

Just now the question whether the management of American railroads should remain with the government or revert to the owners is discussed far and wide. Cogent reasons are advanced by the advocates of either course.

But in whose hands soever the management stands, many improvements are needed for the sake of the public.

We have all endured willingly and cheerfully the inconveniences, delays and curtailment of service which the war made necessary. But now, realizing that the business development of the country depends upon good railroad facilities, we ask for a return to pre-war conditions.

Better transportation and freighting will assist in the readjustment of business from coast to coast. There should be repairs of many lines, replacement of rolling stock, improved service generally.

The primary object of railroads is to serve the people, and any conditions of ownership or management are secondary matters.

OUR ARMY.

We stand upon the threshold of a new era, and we cannot predict what its opening door will show us.

During the next few months our young men will come home from abroad. They are indeed picked men. Both in physical and mental qualities. They are the best representatives of our nation. From their age and qualifications we know them to be the men who will shape the policies of this country for the next twenty-five years.

Two million in number, they have gone through an experience which was certain to alter them. What changes may have been made in their character and opinions we cannot tell.

Probably their military training will lead them to demand more exactness in all details and business arrangements. But this is entirely subordinate to the great question of how they will react upon America--how they will form her ideas and influence her.

The future must tell us. Just now they are only our boys coming home, and we will receive them with a joyous welcome.

Letters From France.

Errey, France, Dec. 2, 1918. Mrs. S. H. Anlies.

I've just written home and if I have time will write Kerne and Will but I'm afraid it will be dark before I get thru so send this to her in case I don't. I have had several letters from both of you but haven't mailed a scratch since we started "up" the night of Oct. 31 which was the beginning of the end.

We were on the front from Sept. 12 to the day the armistice was signed without relief. We were with the 1st Army Corps and did good work so says Col. Hoffman of that Corps.

We are now at Errey, France and have put in all our time since the cessation of hostilities in hiking back here.

We had some hike but came out of it all right. I didn't know of Carroll's death until last Sunday. I had a letter from Aunt Tabbie.

Well its dark and I'll have to quit. Write soon and lots of news and I'll come back to you all just as soon as the General will let us.

Love to all of you, Private Brooks Bryan, A. P. O. 759 A. E. F.

October 22, 1918.

Sister Mother, Father, Brother and Sisters and all: Will write you all a few lines today. I am well as usual and hope you the same. This is my birthday. I am twenty-eight today as you know. We are still on the front and everything is rushing. The boys are still running the Germans as you can see in the papers.

I am sending you a clipping of the Stars and Stripes, it has something of what the Engineers are doing in building roads and bridges for the troops and supplies to move over. You may have already seen this piece, but I thought I would send it anyway. I sent Dola a little piece I wrote myself of the Argonne forest.

Well mama, I must close for this time, can't write much as paper is scarce, so with love and kisses to all I am as ever your loving boy.

ICE CREAM FACTORY.

Dirt was broken for the new building on the lot just west of the Troxell Produce house Monday morning for a new building 24x100 feet. This building will be of brick and will be occupied by parties coming from Deming, N. M., who will engage in the manufacture of ice cream. John E. Chesley is having the building erected.

NEW GARAGE

A. L. Mayhew and J. R. Skinner were in Thurber the first of the week making arrangements for brick to construct a garage on Avenue D, two blocks south of Broadway. They have also moved the Milling Sanitarium building near this location and same will be used for a rooming house.

PLEASANT HILL CLUB
MAKES GOOD SHOWING.

This time last year the Round-Up gave a report of the shipments of the Pleasant Hill Club, composed of farmers who make a shipment once a month of fat hogs, cattle, goats and sheep, the total amounting to $54,205.06. The shipments were kept up during the last year and the shipments were as follows:

Jan., 3 cars amt. to ...	$ 6,210.15
Feb., 2 cars amt. to ...	4,243.24
Mar., 3 cars amt. to ...	11,725.06
Apr., 3 cars amt. to ...	6,933.09
May, 4 cars amt. to ...	4,442.24
June, 1 car amt. to ...	2,247.47
July, 7 cars amt. to ...	9,765.10
Aug, 4 cars amt. to ...	6,200.17
Sept., 5 cars amt. to ...	8,794.45
Oct., 2 cars amt. to ...	2,214.27
Nov., 2 cars amt. to ...	3,295.07
Dec., 1 car amt. to ...	1,866.20

Total 36 cars ..... $67,744.31

This makes an increase of $12,539.25 over last year. This club has been of great value to the farmers who are patronizing it, or keeping it going. R. L. Poe, who has been one of the most active members says that because he has moved to town does not indicate that he will not continue to do active work in this club. The regular monthly meeting will be held to-morrow afternoon in the Pleasant Hill school house, and the first shipment for the new year will be made on the 21st.

YOUNG BOY PASSES AWAY.

Albert, the six-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rushing, living on West Broadway in this city died Wednesday night at nine o'clock after a lingering illness of more than a month. He had the influenza which developed into other trouble and he grew weaker and weaker until the end came. A trained nurse had been with him during the past two weeks. The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the residence, conducted by Rev. Umphrey Lee, and the interment was made in the Cisco cemetery.

Their Medicine Chest For 20 Years

IT is characteristic of folks after they pass the allotted "three score years and ten," to look back over the days that are gone and thoughtfully live them over. I find myself, at seventy-one, frequently drifting back a quarter of a century, when I see myself in the little drug store I owned at Bolivar, Mo., making and selling a vegetable compound to my friends and customers--what was then known only as Dr. Lewis' Medicine for Stomach, Liver and Bowel Complaints.

For many years while I was perfecting my formula I studied and investigated the laxatives and cathartics on the market and became convinced that their main fault was not that they did not act on the bowels, but that their action was too violent and drastic, and upset the system of the user, which was due to the fact that they were not thorough enough in their action, some simply acting on the upper or small intestine, while others would act only on the lower or large intestines, and that they almost invariably produced a habit requiring augmented doses.

After experimenting with hundreds of different compounds, I at last perfected the formula that is now known as Nature's Remedy, which I truly believe good faster and does more than any laxative on the market today. The thousands of letters from users have convinced me I was right, and that the user of Nature's Remedy as a family medicine, even though he may have used it for twenty-five years, never has to increase the dose.

My knowledge of medicine and the results of its use in my own family and among my friends, before I ever offered it for sale, caused me to have great faith in Nature's Remedy from the very first. And now as I find myself nearing the age when I must bow to the inevitable and go to another life, my greatest pleasure is to sit each day and read the letters that each mail brings from people as old or older than I, who tell of having used Nature's Remedy for ten, fifteen and twenty years, and how they and their children and grandchildren have been benefited by it.

It is a comforting thought, my friends, for a man at my age to feel that aside from his own success, one has done something for his fellow man. My greatest satisfaction, my greatest happiness today, is the knowledge that tonight more than one million people will take a Nature's Remedy (SR Tablet) and will be better, healthier, happier people for it. I hope you will be one of them.

TALK WITH THE SECRETARY.

It takes a tree some years to grow to symmetry. A town is much more attractive if well set in trees to say nothing of the comfort of a long walk in the summer time on a well shaded sidewalk. If each family in Cisco would set out trees in February there would be around 1900 more trees than we now have. The same results would obtain if only half of the families here would set out two trees. Is it unreasonable to suppose less than one half of the families in Cisco have no care as to the appearance of our city or the comfort of themselves or neighbors? What will you do about this important matter? Also, there are several blocks of private parking in our city that needs filling in and either planted in flowers or turfed in Bermuda grass. Who will set the pace in this matter? Spring is coming on and many strangers are looking us over and we have heard a few say "There seems to be a lack of civic pride here." Are you going to stand for this? Those who have trees should keep them trimmed 7 feet above the sidewalk so the low hanging limbs will not be a menace to the millinery and eyes of pedestrians, and speaking of sidewalks reminds us that cement is now available to all those who would build them and it is not hard to find, to the business district without sidewalks. All should gladly comply with this suggestion and not wait for the city dads to take arbitrary action. Do not conclude that all those coming to our doors are natural born kickers, do not think for a moment that we are not being weighed in the balances every day and are frequently found wanting. The demand for homes in our town is greater now than at any previous time, this statement is made as a fact and in all seriousness. It takes people and houses to make a city, we aspire to be a city but are we acting in good faith? We are loosing people by the score every week who want to live in Cisco but have to move on. This is costing our merchants heavily, retarding our growth and helping our neighboring towns to become our rivals. Do not conclude that if you only have one piece of property you must sell it at an enormous price; create activity by taking a fair profit and then get in on the next block and follow the town out over the hills each deal. High prices and rents will surely stagnate our town. Have a care or we may kill the goose that laid the golden egg.

Mr. Jno. Korp of the Eureka Tool Co., Drumright, Okla., was in the city Monday looking for a location for a machine shop.

Mr. J. B. McMahon succeeds Mr. C. S. Dorn as local manager with the Sinclair Gulf Oil Co.

The Cisco Gas and Electric Co. have broken dirt for new buildings to cost around $50,000. This is a much needed improvement and one to benefit the entire community and make this part of town more sightly.

The Continental Supply Co. have leased trackage on the "Katy" for a general warehouse and purchased lots north of the Mobley hotel upon which they will build a two-story brick building which will house their district headquarters. Mr. Sexton says they will occupy larger quarters here than at Houston. We are informed that plans are now in the hands of a local architect and the building will be pushed to the utmost. Cisco is to be congratulated upon the installation of this concern as it will no doubt interest others in this line in coming here. We welcome the Continental and prize their estimate of our town and like the way they do business.

Our population was 5132 last week by actual count, of course its more today as there are a few new ones hanging on every day regardless of whether they find a place to stay or not.

S. E. Johnson will open his restaurant in the Winston Bldg. this week in the space formerly occupied by the Wooten Grocery Co.

Yer sir, the paving on Ave. D. will begin in a few days and in addition to this good news will say that the city dads have voted $50,000 for streets and $50,000 for water improvements for the current year, you can't keep a squirrel on the ground in the woods.

Messrs. Shupe and Shaw, new proprietors of the laundry reached the city by auto from Deming, N. M., Thursday. It is their intention to give Cisco all to be desired in a laundry. For the present they will occupy six rooms in the Bedford building, with their families.

Mr. Powell of the National Supply Co. was in the city yesterday and made arrangements for an up town office and sales room in addition to the trackage already controlled by his company. He makes the prediction that the National will have the first stock of oil well supplies in Cisco regardless of knowledge that the Continental Supply have already diverted stock in transit.

The Oil Well Supply Co. will likely be heard from next. This Co. leased the old Radford building near the depot last fall and this competition will no doubt set them in motion at once.

Some other things are on tap which are of no mean importance to Cisco and which seem sure of consumation, but it seems you will have to wait till next week for this information. Yes, Cisco is growing, but not fast enough, we need 300 homes and twenty business houses at once, this office will guarantee to fill them all in 20 days. Are you pulling or loafing, are you looking exclusively after your immediate prosperity or are you giving a part of your time and effort to the community so that your posterity may say that Dad helped to build Cisco.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND GRIPPE.

Ask any physician or druggist and he will tell you that the best and only effective remedy for a bad cold, sore throat, influenza, or la grippe is what he calls "a brisk calomel purge," which means a big dose of calomel at bed time. But as the old style calomel has some very unpleasant and dangerous qualities physicians and druggists are now recommending the improved nausealess calomel, called "Calotabs" which is purified and refined from the sickening and dangerous effects and whose virtues are vastly improved.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your diet, pleasures or work. Next morning your cold has vanished and your entire system is purified and refreshed.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Your druggist guarantees Calotabs by refunding the price if you are not delighted.—adv.

Do You Know Why?

Because Lubbock has the goods, and even better, the kind of people that produce the goods.

YOU, perhaps, have made money in oil. What are you going to do with it? Why not plant it where it will keep--in land?

Lubbock has the goods when it comes to land that will grow crops that will make you money. Lubbock has the goods when it comes to abundance of pure water everywhere. No dry holes in Lubbock.

Also, for fruit, gardens, poultry, and stock. Better plant some of that money in Lubbock land.

XIMROD NEWS.

Christmas has come and gone, but it was very quiet, owing to the cold weather and so much sickness, but of course we had much to be thankful for and with the approach of the New Year we are planning to set new year resolutions to do things different in 1919.

Miss Lillie Merket has been very low with influenza and pneumonia for the past two weeks, but is improving at present, and we hope she will soon be well.

Roe Rossen has moved to the Dr. Park's residence on the Parks Hill. We regret to lose this good family.

Mr and Mrs. Daniels of Dan Horn visited at Mr. Merket's Thursday night of last week.

Elbert Broyles of Lawton, Okla., spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Broyles, it being his first visit here for 12 years.

A. B. Hall was taken ill with the "flu" at his son's place at Putman about two weeks ago.

All our school teachers came in Sunday to open school Monday, but Prof. Collins is in bed at this writing.

Owing to the rain and sickness in the country Tuesday there was no school.

Mrs. Bullock of Sabano is spending the week with her brother, Marston Erwin. She is nursing the family thru the attack of "flu."

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Townsend were transacting business in Cisco Monday.

Bill Furgeson from Caddo spent the holidays with his grandmother, Mrs. Sara Furgeson.

W. H. Boyd from Cisco spent several days with his son, Walter, visiting the family while they were all in bed.

Miss Effie Broyles is home from Cisco where she has been working in the Red Front Drug Store.

Mr. Bill Simpson and Miss Lola Stanford, and Mr. Alfred Holt and Mr. Sam Headrick ate Xmas dinner with Misses Inez and Julia Compton.

Mrs. Liza Marcham from Cisco is out here this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Baird.

Mr. Jordan Spencer of Abilene was a Sunday visitor at the home of L. D. Stanaford.

G. A. Buchan and Henry Wright marketed some fat hogs at Putman last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Meadows are the proud parents of a fine girl that arrived on December 31st. All doing fine. Carrol is all smiles.

Floyd Merket went back to his school at Pleasant Hill last week, but came back to his father's to have the "flu" but is getting on fine.

Wishing each and every reader of the Round-Up a prosperous New Year.—Correspondent.

PUTMAN NEWS.

Putnam, Texas, Jan. 14th, 1919. To the Cisco Round-Up, Cisco, Texas:

We are having some very cold weather, and lots of rain. Christmas has come and gone, and New Year has ushered in, and I feel like we ought to be the most thankful people on earth, as there is no visible mark of God's Displeasure resting upon us, I wonder how many people will covenant with me, to live more for God this year, than we did in the year 1918. Let's improve upon our lives. I am sure we can do it, Miss Hazel Orr came in from Denton school to spend Christmas with home folks. Clyde Kennedy came home on a furlough from the U. S. Camps at San Antonio to spend Christmas at home. Clyde looked natural and said that he enjoyed the camps very much. Prof. J. H. Surles made a business trip to the hub city of the west, Cisco, Monday, and he said that Grand Old May, M. Fleming, took him in his car, and showed him Cisco and he said he was perfectly surprised to see the new houses going up in every direction and some of them would be a credit to any city in the state. With the banking, hotels, schools, and all interests in and around Cisco, she is bound to make a city on a hill whos light can not be hid. More anon.—Correspondent.

PLEASANT HILL NEWS.

We are still having cold weather.

Mrs. Henry Hagerman, who has a case of the influenza, is rapidly improving.

L. C. Reeves, Roy Fisher, a J. S. A. Carmichael, are serving as jurymen in Eastland this week.

N. S. Kinard is spending a few days in Cisco with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chigates spent Sunday with friends near Ballard.

J. E. Ramsey and M. Boyd of Flat Woods, were the guests at the J. W. Reeves home Monday night.

Jim Carmon has the flu—hope he may speedily recover.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Poe were shopping in Cisco Saturday.

T. L. Lasater and Earl were among the crown in Isco Monday.

Miss Ruby Kinard is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. C. F. Choates, in Cisco.

Mrs. Otto Landlitz is visiting relatives in Carbon this week.

J. W. Reeves made a flying trip to Eastland Sunday afternoon.

Prof. Floyd Merket, who has been sick with the influenza the past two weeks, is able to resume his school duties this week. We are all glad to have him with us again. Prof. Merket is an efficient teacher and has won the love and confidence of his pupils.

F. W. Smith and son, Jim, were Cisco visitors Saturday.

W. E. Lasater of Douglas, Arizona, is here looking for a location, he will probably locate near Eastland where he will work at the carpenters trade.

Pleasant Hill marketing club will meet Saturday at 11 o'clock. All come who are interested.

Jim Linebarer of this community and Miss Winnie Gentry of Cisco were married Sunday, Dec. 30. That the lives of this young couple may be full of happiness is the wish of their many friends.—Rex.

GLEANINGS FROM GUNSIGHT.

We are having some more bad weather. Today it is cold and raining. We are having so much rain that small grain don't seem to be doing any good—the ground is too wet and loose for wheat to grow good.

The general health of the community is good, the "flu" is abating.

Tom Herman, who used to live here died near Nayland yesterday and was buried here today. He was a victim of Pneumonia. Bert England will also be buried here today or tomorrow. Bert died in Wyoming and will be shipped here for burial.

Eddie Dye and Miss Ethel Christie of Collin county are here visiting friends and kin folks.

There has been oil talk here for a year or two and it has become quite common, but of late we have changed the subject to railroad. We feel most sure we are to have a railroad soon as some of the most influential and wealthy men of Cisco are behind the project.

Mr. Homer Louddies and family have moved back in our midst but we are expecting to lose some of our best citizens soon as Mr. S. B. Louder and W. E. Louder will move to Woodson soon.

Mr. A. L. Toll will move to Breckenridge and W. J. McWilliams down near Olden Switch.

By the foregoing removals you see it is Jan. 1st, and moving day.

As news is very scarce and it has been over fifty years since I tried to correspond for a newspaper I will close and try to do better next time.

AMERICA'S MORAL FORCE.

In President Wilson's brief address at Carlisle he said: "It is moral force as much as physical force that has defeated the effort to subdue the world."

Every nation worthy of the name has a firm substratum of moral force. The nation may seem immersed in the affairs of the world; perhaps its attention is devoted to commerce and the developing of science, perhaps to the promotion of luxury.

But beneath these outward signs lies the moral force, only awaiting the nation's finest thought, and the love of money and the love of luxury will in a moment as it were, be subordinated.

In the recent war we have seen America change with rapidity from a peace-loving materialistic country to one swayed by its belief in right—willing to sacrifice money, comfort, pleasure for a principle. America's young manhood believed that in entering the war it was launched in the holiest of all crusades.

Religion is often closely interwoven with this manifestation, but it is not essentially a religious manifestation. Its root is in the principle of liberty, and the willingness to sacrifice all to gain this principle which founded America. This may lie dormant in the hearts of the people for years at a time, but tradition and character keep it alive. When the time comes it springs to life like a re-birth.

President Wilson may be an idealist, but America under all forms of practicality and materialism is a country of ideals. It was indeed the moral force lying back of its physical force which helped to bring about the great result.

A USELESS BRANCH.

When we go to purchase a pound of butter and we feel like we are bargaining for a famous sky-scraper according to the amount of coin we are called upon to part with to secure it, we must not blame the farmer. He is the innocent party in the affair and his, on the whole, is the smallest profit in the transaction. We must not blame the retailer because he is not more guilty than the farmer; he must dispense with his merchandise in a manner to net him some small gain or like any enterprising business man he feels that he will soon have to close doors.

The man whom we do want to account for the great sustenance in prices in food stuffs, triply, before the war, during the war and after the war, is the middle man.

Of what need is the middle man, anyway? What work does he do to earn his living? The farmer raises the produce, the retailer pays his help to sell it to you, you pay for the right to consume it and all the while the man who does no work, who reaps the greatest revenue, is smiling with his hands clasped behind his camouflage desk.

It would be very nearly impossible to find such an individual existing in any progressive firm. He would be useless and an unpayable proposition in any branch of the business world. Men are daily losing their positions because they cannot do the work they are called upon to do, properly. And, yet, there are thousands of these fake business statuettes decorating the country and being paid for it, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill of San Angelo have moved to Cisco to reside and will occupy the Martin cottage now under construction in the northwestern part of the city. Mr. Hill is traveling salesman for the Wooten Grocery Company.

When our soldiers come home they will be able to tell us what a Christmas in France is like, and many of them will be able to tell us what two Christmases are like.

PROVED SPIRIT OF DEMOCRACY

Voluntary Basis of Food Saving Showed Heart of America Beat True for Freedom.

To the voluntary service and sacrifice of the American people must be attributed the continued health, strength and morale of the Allied armies and the civil populace.

Upon this spirit of service and sacrifice will depend Europe's fate in the months to come. In the past year we have carried out an export program, the magnitude of which is almost beyond comprehension. But with the new demands that have come, with the liberation of nations freed from German oppression, our exports must be almost doubled. Instead of 11,820,000 tons, we must ship twenty million tons of food to Europe in the coming year—as much as can be pushed through our ports.

If the Allies had not been fed by America, it would have been impossible for them to maintain their defense against Germany.

Meeting this world need on a purely voluntary basis, the American people have conclusively proved that democracy is a success and that in time of need it will rise to its own defense.

If there were no other accomplishment to its credit the very fact that it has shown the strength of democracy has in itself more than justified the existence of the Food Administration in the eyes of the world.

Less than four months after the United States declared war the United States Food Administrator expressed his determination to meet America's food problem on a basis of voluntary action and reiterated his confidence that awakened democracy would prove irresistible.

"Many thinking Americans," said Mr. Hoover, "and the whole world have been watching anxiously the last four months in the fear that democratic America could not organize to meet autocratic Germany. Germany has been confident that it could not be done. Contrary proof is immediately at our door, and our people have already demonstrated their ability to mobilize, organize, endure and prepare voluntarily and efficiently in many directions and upon the mere word of inspiration aside from the remarkable assemblage of our Army and finances."

The history of the Food Administration has clearly shown that the trust of those who put their faith in democracy has not been misplaced.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . . . It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

All Druggists

The American colors cannot be made up among the allies. There are red-blooded nations and blue-blooded nations, but not a white-blooded nation among them anywhere.

be proud to be a Food Saver

Oh Hoover, dear Hoover, come home to us now! They have taken the food rules away; Get they ask us to save and they don't tell us how, And we need you so badly to-day! May we eat pork and beef, of all dinners the chief, Or must we take lamb, in their stead? And say if you please, may we have bread and cheese, And should it be substitute bread? Shall we eat raisen cake? Apple pies may we bake? We're all of us sadly perplexed The food rules, dear Hoover, seem all to be over;— Oh come home and tell us what
