City Plans Call for Rate of 80c for Coming Year

Would Represent Cut of Five Cents from 1931 Figure; Values Increased

Further reduction in the tax rate of the city of Sonora, in addition to a five-cent cut inaugurated last year, will likely be enjoyed by the tax-payers for 1932. The city commission tentatively decided Monday night to set the rate at 80 cents, a decrease of five cents from last year, and giving Sonora an exceptionally low rate for an incorporated town affording fire protection and sewer service.

With evaluations raised one hundred thousand dollars above last year's total, largely through a unit survey plan inaugurated this year, the commission estimates that the beginning of the next fiscal year,

Completion of Tom Archer Road Work Definitely Certain

Suspension of Operations Will Cause no Loss; Will Not Interfere Permanently

Suspension of work by the contracting firm of Tom Archer & Co., last week on the grading and drainage project on the OST just west of Sonora will in no way affect the ultimate completion of the project; nor will it subject local firms to credit losses. This definite announcement was made this week by E. E. Pitman, resident engineer of the State Highway Department.

Notice has been given Archer that the work must be resumed within ten days, in accordance with the policy of the department. If, at the end of that time, the contractor has not made satisfactory arrangement for continuance of the work, the state department will look to the contractor's bonding company for completion of the project. In case the bonding company does not wish to complete the job, it can pay losses incurred through the contractor, and the state will re-let the job, holding the contractor and his bonding company liable for any increase in cost of the project above the original contract price at the time of the first award.

Local firms are assured of prompt settlement of their claims because money due the contractor, or the bonding company, for work already done, will be diverted by the state to satisfy claims. Appreciation has been expressed by local people of the work done by R. N. O'Hara, construction superintendent for the company, who, on his own time, stayed here the first of the week, and secured a complete list of accounts against the firm, in order to speed up settlement.

While the completion of the work may be delayed temporarily, there is no possibility that the job will not be completed in a reasonable length of time.

Former Resident Visits Here A. J. Burlison, London, and a former citizen of Sonora, is here this week visiting his daughter, Mrs. G. W. Archer, and son, G. C. Burlison. Mr. Burlison reports conditions as good in his country.

He Tried, Though

Deputy, the dog owned by W. S. Derr, night watchman at Godley, Texas, howled plenty when bandits early Friday morning "took the town." While Deputy howled, they kidnapped Derr, and robbed the Godley postoffice and three stores. Deputy's howling was not loud enough, because no other Godley citizens were awakened.

Sutton County Is Seeking Portion of Federal Road Aid

Lions Urge Texas Commission to Build Two Bridges, and Widen No. 30, Help Unemployed

Sutton county, through the Sonora Lions Club, is seeking a portion of the $11,000,000 federal fund allotted Texas for highway construction in a drive to relieve unemployment over the nation.

Three projects, bridges across the creek at Ft. Terrett on Highway 27, and a bridge across Lowrey Draw in Sonora on both Highways 27 and 30, and the widening of No. 30 north from Sonora to the Schleicher county line, are being suggested to the Texas Highway Commission as jobs of major importance to this area.

Building of the two bridges would close gaps in the important international route of the Old Spanish Trail. Widening of No. 30 north would eliminate many motoring hazards, and would complete the improvement of the road entirely through the county.

Letters were written this week by H. V. Stokes, chairman of the Lions traffic committee.

Fire Station and Office for City Manager Are Planned

Would Store Equipm't and Provide More Night Help

A fire station and offices for the city housed in a building of their own is a project likely to be completed in Sonora within the next few weeks.

With fire department, city and county co-operating the building could be erected at slight cost, providing a permanent home for the fire organization and increasing the effectiveness of protection offered.

Plans call for a two-story frame and stucco structure, with room for the two fire trucks, for offices of the city manager, George E. Smith, and a dormitory to accommodate several members of the department, who would sleep there and be ready for a night alarm.

The county, through the commissioners' court, has tentatively approved a plan to use a portion of the courthouse grounds for a building site. The department has a building fund of more than a hundred dollars which would be used to pay labor, and the city will finance building materials through monthly payments, which are now represented in office rent and storage charges on trucks.

Sheep and Cattle Still Going Out

Mules, Horses, Included in 16 Cars Total for Week

Sheep, cattle, mules and horses made up the sixteen-car total of stock shipments from Sonora during the week ending Thursday.

Last week the Texas Livestock Marketing Association shipped two cars of sheep to Renner, one to Romano, two to Krum, and a single-deck car to Fort Worth. Saturday A. R. Du Main shipped a double to Chicago market.

On Monday Burt Richards shipped a car of mules for the Archer construction company to Fort Worth.

Monday and Tuesday Robert Lum shipped a car of mules, horses, and mares, each day to Pinehurst, Ga., and to Fort Worth. This stock was bought through J. A. Kring, who has sent out of this area in the last six months about 500 head of horses, mares, and mules, liberating about $5,000 in the county.

Thursday C. T. Jones shipped a double car of lambs to Fort Worth market. On the same day Alvin Neal shipped five cars of cattle, bought over the county, to McCulloch county.

Pair Charged with Liquor Sale Here

One McCamey Man Out on Bond; Other in Jail Here

Leonard Best and John Lewis Green, McCamey were arrested here Monday charged with selling three pints of corn liquor. Sheriff B. W. Hutcherson made the arrest. The men may also be accused of transporting and possession.

They waived trial when brought before J. E. Grimland, justice of peace, for an examining hearing Monday. Bond was set at $500 for each man, and Green made satisfactory bond. Best had not made bond Wednesday and was being held in the Sutton county jail.

Both men face grandjury action here at the September term of 112th district court.

Lots of Rain for Schweining Alfred Schwiening was in the middle of several rains within the last few weeks. Two weeks ago it rained an inch at his ranch in east-ern Sutton county, and last Thursday a 3-4 inch fall was recorded there. The range is excellent.

SONORA EXCITED BY GOLD NUGGET FIND

Sonora was greatly excited last week by the discovery of a gold nugget, valued at $1,300—but the Sonora involved is in the mountains of California and not in the Edwards Plateau of Texas.

A prospector found the rich ore in an abandoned mine shaft on Jackass Hill, famous as a former home of Mark Twain.

Scattered Rains Great Help to a Part of Country

Sonora Fall Above Two Inches for Week; Some Portions of County Still Dry

Portions of West Texas received splendid rains this week, but other parts are still dry, with virtually no rain since the precipitous falls about 6 weeks ago. Dry range has been greatly benefitted by the rains where substantial falls have been received. General rain is still needed, however, with clouds looking promising Thursday.

Sonora had a total of nearly 2½ inches in the first three days of the week. Monday afternoon and evening .58 inch was received, and Tuesday 1.33 additional fall was recorded. Wednesday evening a local shower covered the town and a small area on each side, totaling more than half-an-inch in town.

Ranges of Paul Turney and Hi Eastland continued to fare badly, the area in northwestern Edwards county and eastern Val Verde having received only a few inches all year. Heaviest fall, about 3 inches, was received at the M. G. Shurley (Continued on page 4)

City Market Is Now Run by J. L. Cook

Concern Leased by Brother Barton Monday of This Week

J. L. Cook Monday became operator of the City Market of Sonora having completed arrangements to lease the business from Brother Barton, who had run it for nearly a year.

Mr. Cook is widely known in this area, having lived in Sonora for many years. He was at one time in the meat business here, back in 1912 to 1914. For the last several years, and until a few months ago, he was deputy sheriff of Sutton county.

Mr. Cook will do the buying for the firm, securing choice Sutton county stock and paying top market prices. W. O. Ray, with the shop for some time, will remain as meat cutter for the present.

WESTBROOKS ESCAPE INJURY IN COLLISION

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Westbrook and their children, Glendon and Katherine, miraculously escaped serious injury when their car was virtually demolished in a crash with another machine on the highway north of Eldorado Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The crash was attributed to the driver of the other car, who, it was reported, was intoxicated, and was asleep, with the car on the wrong side of the road.

Mrs. Westbrook was considerably bruised, and Katherine received a gash above the eye, but a thorough examination in San Angelo failed to reveal serious injury.

Grady Lowrey returned to Del Rio Sunday following a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lowrey.

Slaughter!

"Cruelty!" cry humane societies because the city of Odessa, Texas, has little regard for jack rabbits, and continues to allow them to be roped at local festivals. This photo, taken to publicize Odessa's 46th anniversary celebration, which included a big rabbit roping contest Friday, has drawn new protest. It shows a roper butchering his catch. We want to know where they got the rabbit.

Fall Shearing of Goats Begun This Week by Sid Evans

Will Require About Two Months; Cut in Prices Urged by Schreiner Firm

Fall shearing of goats was started this week with the herd of Sid Evans the first to feel the clippers. Sam McKee also expected to shear this week. Mr. Evans will shear about 1500 head.

The work will be in full blast within another two weeks, and will be completed within two months or less. The Sonora Wool & Mohair Company, which this spring handled about a quarter of a million pounds, anticipates an equal amount of fall fleece.

The Chas. Schreiner Bank of Kerrville, which finances the operations of scores of stockmen throughout the principal goat country, is advising its customers to pay not more than 2½ or 3 cents a head for goat shearing and not over 5 cents for sheep, in case sheep are sheared this fall. Indications are now for an increase over last fall in the number of sheep shorn. Last spring the prices for goat shearing were in most cases 5 and 6 cents, with sheep shearing around 8 cents.

Experienced goat breeders urge that ranchmen all shear this fall. (Continued on page 8)

Substantial Cut in County Rate Is Definitely Sure

If State Finances Road Bonds the Levy Likely to Be 45 cents; Otherwise 36c Off

With tax evaluations for Sutton county remaining about the same, approximately $4,500,000.00, as it was last year, the Sutton county commissioners' court, in session the first three days of the week, is certain of a substantial reduction in taxes for 1932. Definite action on setting the rate will be deferred until after Sept. 13, at which time a special session of the Texas Legislature will meet to act on proposed plans to divert gas tax funds to relieve counties of the state of road bond indebtedness. The delay was requested by Governor R. S. Sterling in a wire to the court Tuesday. Last year 96 cents of the $1.41 total rate was assessed to care for Berkeley Withdraws in Race for State Senate, 29th Dist.

Incumbent Retires to Give Time to Business; Regan Is the Democratic Nominee

Benjamin Franklin Berkeley, Alpine banker and present member of the Senate of the State of Texas, 29th district, has withdrawn as candidate for the Democratic nomination in the run-off August 27.

With the withdrawal of Dr. Berkeley, Ken Regan, Pecos candidate who led the ticket in the Democratic primary, automatically becomes the nominee of the party, eliminating a run-off in that particular race.

Dr. Berkeley has served the western district of Texas for several terms, and has been an active worker in the Senate. In announcing his intention to retire from the campaign, he states, in part: "I have reached a decision to withdraw as a candidate for re-election to the office of State Senator from the 29th Senatorial District in the run-off primary election to be held August 27, 1932. In the present chaotic state, politically and financially, I believe an early adjournment of politics would be welcomed by the majority of our citizens and I am inclined to contribute to this end. Of greater moment than the destinies of any candidate for public office, is the immediate and pressing question of earning a livelihood, which has taxed the ingenuity of so many of our people during these trying times."

Wool House Sells Remnant of Clip

Sumner Willis Pays 10 Cents for 56,000 Pounds

The Sonora Wool & Mohair Company disposed of the last of its accumulation of spring wool in a sale of 56,000 pounds to Sumner Willis, buying for Walter Marston company, a Boston firm. The consideration was ten cents per pound, and the sale was considered good. The final two cars were shipped to Boston Wednesday.

Jap Holman made a business trip to Del Rio Monday.

Texas Leads Entire Nation in Acreage of Park Systems

Cities of State Average Better Than Acre of Ground to Each 100 People

Washington, Aug. 10. — Texas cities lead the nation in providing park and recreational facilities for their inhabitants, results of a survey conducted by the labor department today indicated.

While most American cities fall far short of the standard of one acre of park space for each 100 population, the report showed most of the larger Lone Star cities equal or better the standard.

Dallas is out in front with a total of 6,202 acres of parks, or a ratio of 1 to 43 persons. Among the larger cities of the United States, only Denver has a better record.

"Several of the large Texas cities," the report said, "have made remarkable progress in acquiring parks during the last decade. Much of the new property consists of large areas, many of them outside the city limits, although the importance of providing smaller neighborhood parks and playgrounds has not been overlooked.

"The parks of Houston, comprising 2,700 acres, afford a well-balanced system. Two large state game preserves are within easy reach of the people of the city.

"Dallas ranks next to Denver among the large cities in the ratio of park acreage to population. In addition to its well-distributed neighborhood parks and areas devoted to active recreation use, seven parks totaling some 3,670 acres lie outside the city limits.

"San Antonio and Fort Worth have also made notable progress in the acquisition and improvement of park areas," the report added.

The pre-eminence of Dallas' park system is probably due to the gifts of large tracts of land in the past few years. According to the report, land worth $302,000 was donated to the city between 1926 and 1930.

Hunter High Man in 42 West Texas Cos. in Primary

His Votes Will Likely Prove Strategic in Run-off Between "Ma" and Sterling

There's a prize of 26,437 Hunter votes in 42 West Texas counties for which Mrs. James E. Ferguson and Ross Sterling will vie in the coming days, says the Del Rio Evening News.

A tabulation of nearly complete returns of 42 counties in this section by the Texas Election Bureau shows Ferguson got 25,996 votes, 26,437 went to Hunter and 22,503 went to Sterling. It is generally conceded that Sterling will have to pick up four votes to each one for Mrs. Ferguson in order to climb the hill to the governor's mansion again.

Brady Buyer Sent Out 2 Cars, Buying Other Bunches

Cattle sales featured the livestock trading here the past week with Charlie Bratton of Brady doing most of the buying. Two loads were shipped from here this morning and the rest was driven through to Bratton's McCulloch county ranch to grass. The purchases were made from Waldon

THIS CHART PREDICTS BETTER TIMES

The above is a reproduction of a remarkable chart, found in an old desk in Philadelphia in 1902. The author is unknown. The original graph was very discolored by age and the desk in which it was found was at least 35 or 40 years old, at that time. It is thought that the chart was made during the Civil War, possibly before. Study it, and check against your own experience. It is surprising to note how closely the unknown author hit such major depressions as 1875, 1894 and the 1929 stock market crash. The chart shows a steady upward trend can be expected from 1932 to 1935, and that we can view the immediate future with confidence and optimism. Legend: AA—Years of good times and low prices. Time to sell stocks, real estate and values of all kinds. BB—Years of hard times and high prices. Time to buy. CC—Years in which panics have occurred and will occur again. Suggestion: Dip this chart and save it.

Gardner, however, was credited with 14 strike-outs while Ohlenburg collected only five. After the game the visitors were entertained with a chicken feast.

THE COMMERCIAL USE OF TEXAS HIGHWAYS IS A PRIVILEGE, NOT A RIGHT

● The highways of Texas are the property of its citizens. They constitute a system of nearly 200,000 miles of road of which 20,000 miles are designated as State highways and the remainder are county roads. All types of road are represented in this system, less than 5% have so-called "permanent" surface.

The total cost of these highways is unknown but it amounts to many hundred million dollars. From 1917 to 1930, inclusive, counties and road districts of the State issued $243,592,834 in bonds for the construction and improvement of roads and bridges. In the two-year period ending August 31, 1930, the State Highway Commission expended $89,032,825, of which $22,488,426 was for maintenance of the State highways.

In view of these tremendous costs the preservation of our highways from rapid wear and destruction is a matter of very vital interest to their owners, viz., the public. It is especially important that they be made to outlast the life of the bonds, which run from 20 to 30 years.

The use of the public highways for commercial purposes is not a right but a privilege which may be withheld or granted subject to such restrictions, regulations and charges as the Legislature may see fit to impose. Such regulations are intended to promote safety, preserve the highways and safeguard the interests of the public.

Texas Railroads, which pay the entire cost of construction and maintenance of their own roadbeds and, in addition, make substantial contributions to the cost of Texas highways, are thoroughly regulated with respect to their services, rates, methods and practices. There is no good reason why commercial users of the highways, built and maintained at the expense of the public, should not likewise be regulated to such extent as the public interest requires and pay such charges as will represent proper compensation for the privileges granted them.

● The statutes governing highway transportation as enacted by the Forty-second Legislature represent the wishes of the citizens of this State and express their desire to give equal rights to all and special privileges to none. These statutes should be given a fair trial and their value ascertained. Unless this is done, a chaotic condition in transportation as a whole will surely ensue.

VOTE FOR AMENDMENT ON VOTING

The House Joint Resolution No. 1 proposed by the last Texas legislature as an amendment to the constitution of the State of Texas to be voted on by the voters of Texas in the November election, should carry this state. It clarifies the election laws and clearly limits the qualifications of persons eligible to exercise voter's franchise.

It provides that the following classes of persons shall not be allowed to vote: minors, lunatics, paupers supported by any county, persons convicted of any felony, except in instances in which the legislature has taken special action to restore franchise, and enlisted men and officers of the United States Army, Navy and Marine Corps.

The amendment would give to retired soldiers, sailors, and marines, as private citizens, the right to vote. Neither would the ruling apply to officers or men of the National Guard of Texas, the National Guard Reserve nor the officers of the Officers' Reserve Corps.

Section two of the resolution provides that no person holding a paying position of trust and honor under the state or federal government shall be allowed payment by the treasurer of the state any warrant on the state treasury. This provision would exclude overlapping in office holding on the part of many office holders.

Section three of the resolution would amend section 40 of the constitution to stop the holding of several civil offices by one man. No person would be allowed to hold more than one office, with these exceptions: justice of peace, county commissioner, notary public and postmaster, officer or enlisted man of the National Guard, the National Guard Reserve or the Organized Reserves of the United States, or retired officers or men of the army, navy or marines.

The three sections of the amendment would serve to clarify present vague regulations, giving a clearer and more definite ruling on which to base judgment in these cases.

The amendment should carry.

SMILE, DURN YOU, SMILE

Goat men, sheep men, cattle men, business men—in fact, every resident of West Texas—should be wearing a smile a yard wide this week, as a mild expression of elation over the wonderful gains in commodities in those classes during the last week. And on top of that came a general rain which was the most opportune of the entire year.

With the announcement of sale of the National Wool Marketing Corporation's surplus of mohair to ONE mill, the goat business certainly picked up, for other mills will need stocks, and now that they are going to be unable to step in and get the national's accumulation for next to nothing they will have to go into the market for it, and that means more activity and a greater demand for mohair than has been in existence for many months.

Coupled with the favorable showings made in mohair, the healthy tone of the wool market this week doubles the joy of most residents of this section, for virtually everyone in this area is interested in both kinds of livestock.

Cattle prices are the best in many months, and better, they have held their sensational gains of the last week.

Shortages in wool, substantial decline in the number of sheep and in the number of beef cattle, removal of the mohair surplus, a short cotton crop in prospect—all of these factors are working in the favor of the ranchman and the West Texas business man.

This year a larger part of the spring lamb crop has been absorbed earlier than in a long time. That means fewer feeder lambs this fall, and a consequent greater demand and tendency toward favorable trading.

Fine rains have capped the climax, and will insure plenty of feed for several months to come. There will be "sacrifice" sales of stock in order to conserve feed for winter. The grower is better than ever in position to tell the buyer what he will take, and not accept the first low price offered.

Ranch a few miles southwest of Sonora.

In the eastern part of the county the showers were spotted. The Elliott-Pearson ranch got a good rain, as did others of that area, but south of the Llano, in the Gordon Stewart, Misses' Black ranch country there was no benefit. Northwest of town on the Sol Mayer ranch a good fall was had Tuesday morning. Rocksprings had no rain until Wednesday night, when a light sprinkle fell. Del Rio had a total of 2 inches, and Vinegarone 1 and 3-4. Christoval had an inch up to Wednesday and another half-inch then. Menard had only showers, While Junction has had no rain since the floods several weeks ago. Ft. McKavett had a good shower Wednesday afternoon. Ozona's total was 1 and 3-4.

"Devil's Dream"

(By W. E. James)

EATON VS. NEILL

A civil suit of interest to Sonora Lions, in that it settled an important question as to the payment of fines assessed, was tried before a jury of six men Monday noon at the church basement, in the presence of 27 Lions.

The case grew out of an alleged offense said to have been committed by Jack Neill, about three weeks previous, when he addressed the vice-president of the Sonora Lions Club, H. V. Stokes, as "Mr." Tail Twister John Eaton placed a fine of 10 cents against the offender, who, claiming a legal excuse, refused to pay the fine and appealed to President Bill Gilmore. The president referred the matter to a committee of three who recommended trial by jury.

The plaintiff—the tail twister—and the defendant—a past president of the club—gave out the information that they would handle the case without lawyers, defending themselves in the fight for right and justice.

"Court" was called to order Monday noon, and with the appointment of R. S. Covey as special judge the case went to trial. The defense and prosecution were allowed to select three men each to act as jurors. Only one question required an affirmative to qualify a juror. John Eaton, manager of the waterworks, representing the prosecution, asked: "Have you tried to borrow money from the defendant and been turned down?" Jack Neill, banker, speaking in his own defense, asked: "Are you satisfied with the readings of your water meter, or have you been overcharged?" The judge ruled that "according to the trend of questioning veniemen, it would seem that each of the principals in this case was bent on 'fixing' his part of the jury before allowing the case to proceed to trial."

As the jury stood. H. V. Stokes, B. Hamilton, Sheriff Hutcherson, chosen by the defense. George D. Chalk, A. C. Elliott, George E. Smith, accepted by the plaintiff.

Three witnesses were called: Troy White, J. D. Lowrey and Lige Long. The witnesses were questioned and then cross-examined by the principals in turn. The defense sought to prove that a woman, after having cooked a good meal would get peeved if her husband failed to get home in time to eat it while it was hot.

The line of questioning was objected to by the plaintiff as being erratic and eruclatious. A wordy argument followed, the judge overruling the objection. Proceeding the defendant argued that he was trying to bring out the state of a wife's feeling under such circumstances; that he wished to show to the judge and jury that he was a benefactor instead of a violator of the law, inasmuch as trying to prevent a family row got him into this trouble. He stated that he addressed the chair, on the occasion in question, as "Mr." because he felt sure that such flattery would bring about a quicker response to his plea for an excuse to leave the meeting, on account of wanting to hurry back to the bank in order that a young and newly married man could go to lunch before said lunch got cold. If he didn't get home until the hot lunch became a cold lunch, he wanted to prove by the married witnesses examined the state of a wife's feelings under such circumstances. Above all things, the defendant declared, he wanted to see young married people start off right, with no occasion for the wife to fuss because her husband failed to get to his meals while they were hot.

The plaintiff worked himself into a feverish fit trying to convince his Honor and the jury that if a man never got home to eat a hot meal, that fact would have no bearing on whether the past president paid a fine of 10 cents for law infraction; said fine having been doubled on account of delayed settlement, and also to the fact that the defense had taken the matter to "court." Objection overruled.

Irritated beyond measure because of the frequent adverse rulings of his Honor, the plaintiff's ebullience twinkled in the noonsday sun, his discomfiture apparent to the "courtroom" crowd, when he drew a fine of 20 cents for "contempt of court," having told Judge Covey that he was a h--- of a judge.

Three minutes to each side were allowed by the "court" for argument. No other three minutes in the life of either defendant or plaintiff ever have been so crowded with wit, humor, sarcasm, ridicule; taking each in turn—including the judge, jury and spectators—to the heights of the sublime, then down to the bottomless bottom of the ridiculous; quickly returning to the top of the mountain of monumental gall, to drop as easily into the depths of prehistoric nothingness—and on—and "on rode the six hulled."

The jury, gracefully postured, eyes rolled and mouths wide open, seemed deeply impressed with the salubrity of the sargaree being poured forth by the orators. And the more so, when Attorney G. A. Wynn delivered the charge. The jury filed out. But a minute had slipped away when the foreman returned to announce "a hung jury—3 to 3." The judge sent him back. A second report of "hopelessly deadlocked—3 to 3" was reported. Then the judge delivered his ultimatum: "I am holding this jury until a verdict is rendered in accordance with the evidence and the charge, even unto next Monday." This announcement "got the grapes." At one minute to singing "The Eyes of Texas," the jury brought in a verdict of "Guilty as Charged in the Indictment," and the tail twister collected a fine of 20 cents, which exactly balanced his funds.

Goat Shearing—

In spite of low prices, since the goats would suffer if not shorn, and too, the long fleece could not be readily sold, if left until the spring shearing.

35 YEARS AGO

Mayer Bros. and Hagerlund devoted a half-page ad to prices during their "GREAT CLEARING SALE." Reductions on piece goods averaged about 25 per cent.

Considerable description was devoted to the organization of the G. L. C. Club, a social organization of young people of the community. The meeting of the organization was held at the Geo. H. McDonald store, and following officers were chosen: J. H. Boggs, president; Louis Mayfield, vice president; Walter Mann, general manager; Arthur Mann and Oscar Rountree, traveling committee; Clay Mann and Curtis Allison, house committee; Mark Baugh, reporter; Claud Simpson, treasurer; and Walter McDonald, secretary. The committee announced the purpose of the club, and stated it somewhat as follows: "We take pleasure in introducing any worthy visitor in our town, ladies or gentlemen, and will do our best to make them have a pleasant visit while in Sonora. Young lady visitors will receive our best attention. We will have socials, dances, picnics, croquet parties, cave excursions, ice cream suppers, domino parties, etc., and will be pleased to receive invitations to your house, and promise you in advance that we will conduct ourselves in a gentlemanly manner and appreciate your kindness. J. H. Boggs, Louis Mayfield, Walter McDonald, committee."

The first meeting of the G. L. C. was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mills, where cards, dominoes, music and dancing were enjoyed. The following were present: B. F. Berkeley and Miss Word; Bob Holland and Miss Mann; Claud Simpson and Miss Ida Wilson; John Rice and Miss Stokes; Burt Bellows and Miss Annie Stokes; Walter Mann and Miss Bean; Oscar Rountree and Miss Franklin; Clay Mann and Miss Louella Word; Arthur Mann and Miss Allison; Mat Keeton and Miss Moss; Noah Rose and Miss Mills; Montie Mills and Miss Sterling; J. H. Boggs, Louis Mayfield and Mark Baugh.

Smaller stories in the issue are reproduced here:

J. C. Perry yesterday made the best sale ever made in Crockett county. He sold his stock of cattle, reserving all his steers from yearlings up, to E. B. Baggett, of Belton at the handsome figure of $16 a head, and his well fitted up ranch, consisting of a 40-section pasture, one well and a splendid ranch house and other improvements, for the neat sum of $5,500. The cattle will count out about 1500 head which includes the brands of John C. and George W. Perry. John has until fall to deliver them.—Ozono Courier.

The Star drilling company has been investigating the Cooper well 35 miles south of Sonora and is so thoroughly convinced that there is oil there in paying quantities that they offer the free use of a machine to develop it, with the stipulation that they are to be paid when oil is found.

Yellow Jacket Is Victor in Battle

Kills Tarantula in Death Battle; New Name in Hall of Fame

Mrs. George Elliott, jr., tells of watching a most unique and interesting battle in her front yard the other morning in which a tiny yellow-jacket attacked a huge tarantula and killed it.

The small insect spied the large grey tarantula, ten times his size, as he came out of his hole on the lawn. The yellow-jacket circled swiftly over his huge prey, darting down to strike a lightning blow at the ugly thing, and flying away before the tarantula could reach him with his deadly poison. The 'jacket circled and struck, and the tarantula attempted to strike back, but missed.

This process was repeated innumerable times.

SUMMER MENUS BENEFIT FROM LOW PRICES ON VARIETY OF MEAT CUTS

In these days of reduced budgets, it is often necessary to make the dollars have more cents, but according to the National Live Stock and Meat Board, meat prices have dropped so low that it is an easy matter to keep the meat costs within the food budget. To support this argument the board listed a number of cuts which can be bought for 15 cents a pound or less. Among the low-cost cuts are chuck and rump roasts, plate, neck, flank, ground meat and stew of beef; spareribs, shoulder, sausage, liver, heart, and bacon ends of pork; stew, breast, liver, and heart of lamb; and the shoulder, breast, shanks, and stew of veal. These are economy cuts, yet with a little care in cooking they can be made into dishes that every member of the household will enjoy.

The ways of preparing these economy cuts are many. Here are some:

Braised Lamb Neck Slices

Neck slices of lamb, 1 cup tomato juice, 1 small onion, sliced, 1 tablespoon bacon drippings, 1 tablespoon flour, salt and pepper.

Brown neck slices of lamb in hot bacon drippings after having seasoned them with salt and dredged them with flour. Add the tomatoes, onion and seasoning. Place in a

Mrs. Pittman in Austin
Mrs. E. E. Pittman and children, Doris and Everett, jr., are spending this week in Austin. They were accompanied to Austin Saturday by Mr. Pittman, who returned Sunday.

covered baking dish, cover tightly, and bake slowly until the meat is very tender.

Stuffed Shoulder of Veal

Shoulder of veal, 2 cups soft bread crumbs, salt and pepper, 1/2 cup butter melted in 1/2 cup boiling water, powdered sage or poultry seasoning.

Have the bone removed from the shoulder of veal. Fill the cavity with a dressing, sew up and truss into shape. Rub with salt and pepper and lay strips of bacon across the top. Sear in a hot oven (500 F.) for 15 to 20 minutes and at the end of this time, reduce the temperature rapidly to 260 F. Cover the rooster and continue cooking until the roast is done, allowing 20 minutes per pound.

Parboiled Meat Patties

1 1/2 pounds ground steak, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1/4 cup bread crumbs, 1/4 cup milk, bacon slices, salt and pepper.

Mix all ingredients well and shape into small round cakes, handling as little as possible. Wrap a slice of bacon around each cake, and fasten with a toothpick. Pan-broil the patties in a heavy skillet until the bacon is brown and the meat is cooked through. This takes about ten minutes.

11,000 Acre Ranch in Kerr, Bandera Counties Is Sold

Hildebrand Place Brings $35,512; Elm Pass Land-Cattle Co. New Owner

One of the largest ranch tracts in the southern part of Kerr county, the old Hildebrand Ranch, has changed ownership, according to a deed filed for record early this week. The Commonwealth Bank & Trust Company of San Antonio sold the place to the Elm Pass Land and Cattle Company, 11,159 acres being conveyed for a stated consideration of $35,512.79.

The ranch extends from eight miles south of Center Point southward to the Bandera county line, and part of it lies in Bandera county.

A number of years ago, the ranch took its name from H. E. Hildebrand, who previous to purchasing the tract, was connected with the Hildebrand Transfer Company in San Antonio. Summarized notes from the Kerr county deed records did not name any individuals connected with the Elm Pass Land and Cattle Company, the purchaser, but deed was mailed from Floresville to Kerrville to be recorded.—Kerrville Mountain Sun.

Local and Long Distance Service

Your Electric Power Supply MUST Be Flexible

Electric power, to serve any community adequately, must be flexible. It must meet all requirements, large or small—from a large factory to a small household—at any time and at any place.

Small local plants serving single communities lack this flexibility . . . they lack the variety of volume and demand which enables a larger system, serving a wide area by transmission lines, to operate efficiently.

The transmission line delivers larger amounts of power AT ONCE without the delay of installing additional equipment. Thus it clears the way for a rapid and permanently expanding industrial growth.

The present day industrial progress of small communities is based in a large measure on the ample and economical power supply which resulted when transmission systems replaced inefficient and expensive small local plants throughout the nation.

The West Texas Utilities Company, through its widespread 2,500 mile transmission line network, makes available to 125 progressive West Texas cities and towns over 100,000 horsepower of electric energy—ready at the turn of a switch.

Frank Patterson, Formerly of Sonora, Writes Letter From Kansas

Editor's Note—Frank Patterson, a Sonora resident many years ago, and at present successfully operating a general mercantile business in Blue Mound, Kan., is author of the following letter to The News. It will prove interesting to many of the old-timers here who knew Mr. Patterson. The letter:

Editor, Devil's River News, Sonora, Texas.

Dear Sir—I note the little sticker on the front page of my copy of The News this week, reminding me of the fact that my subscription had expired, citing postal regulations, etc., and stating that you would be willing to send the Devil's River News for another year for $2.00. Now, just to show you that I still want to read The News and keep in touch with the Sonora Folks, and the things they are doing, I am going you one better and am enclosing a check for $4.00.

Seriously, we look forward with pleasure to the arrival of the Sonora paper every week, and while the passing of twenty-five years has changed greatly the personnel of the folks there—sometimes we search in vain its columns for some familiar name, some old friend—still we greatly enjoy reading it. There are many folks still there we knew and liked; friendships formed that have endured throughout the years, many whom we have not and will not forget.

So we are glad to get The News. It helps to keep alive the memory of six pleasant years spent among the people of Sonora. Some day I want to come back again and look it over—renew some old friendships and perchance make some new ones. I want to get hold of Ed Grimland, Felix Vander Stucken, John Lowrey, Steve Murphy, Basil Halbert, Theo Savell, Lige Long, or some other old-timer I know, take them off to one side, sit down on the edge of the sidewalk and have them tell me all about the folks we used to know—where they are and what they are doing, etc. Then I want to take a walk around the brow of the hill to the silent city where rest many of the old friends I knew and loved—old-timers who have passed on to their reward; who blazed the trail into that western country, endured the hardships of pioneer life, stayed on through good and bad times; building for the future advantage, comfort and convenience of those who were to follow. Of them and their good works, let us not forget.

So send us The Devil's River News for another two years. If at the end of that time the depression has lifted and happy days are here again—and I believe they will be—I'll remember you with another check. I enjoyed reading Mason Rountree's stories of early happenings. Ask Geo. Trainer why he doesn't write up the "Trial of Solomon"—prosecuted in his court, charged with swindling, selling eye glasses. The proceedings of that trial, held up over the old Sonora Mer. Company's store, at which Geo. presided as Judge (and he looked the part), Jim Cornell defended the accused and an array of legal talent for and against—would have graced any court room in a creditable manner. No wonder old man Solomon thought he stood a good chance of going to jail. And I can see the old man pounding the desk and giving thanks when the jury announced the verdict of guilty and assessed the fine at $10 (which was later spent down at Jim Barton's) instead of six months in jail.

Old times in Sonora! I could write a whole volume and tell you many stories, but you have probably heard them. If you haven't, ask some old-timer.

I congratulate you on the splendid publication you are getting out. I note the apparent effective work of the Lions Club and other organizations toward making your city a better city in which to live. I note also the progressive spirit of the business men who use your columns; and I am an advocate and a believer in the effectiveness and merit of printer's ink. I have used it liberally over a period of years and am satisfied, much to my advantage.

I hope for The News, your fair city and its citizens continued growth and happiness.

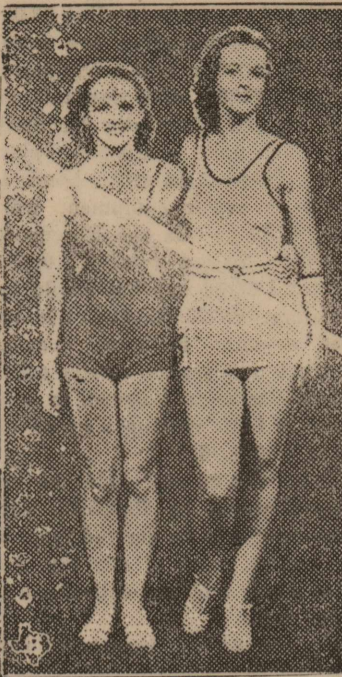

Yours truly,

D. F. PATTERSON.

At a meeting of the State Highway Commission in Austin yesterday, an order was passed calling for plans and specifications for the bridge across the North Llano on Highway No. 27. This will also serve for No. 4 when it is constructed.

The building of a bridge costing approximately $100,000 will mean a great deal to Kimble county now. It is also hoped that work on Highway No. 4 will begin at an early date.—Junction Eagle.

Here's An Unusual Offer . . .

A Sheep for a Subscription

It's a most unusual offer—but these are unusual times. It happens that a lot of News' subscriptions expire about this time of year, and that there are also a few people in Sutton county not now on the list of readers. It happens, also, that a good ewe lamb is worth a bit less than the regular two dollar subscription fee, in an outright sale. However, The News has made arrangements to dispose of sheep received from subscribers and is glad to make the offer. Whether your subscription is a new one, a renewal, or has been due for several weeks, a ewe lamb will square us up. One good ewe lamb or yearling, for one year's subscription. Four lambs for five years' subscription. The special begins Monday, Aug. 22, and we ask that no lambs be brought until that time. We'll tell you more of the plan next week.

The budget shows a fixed expense of $3,068.96, including rents, salaries, street cleaning, water for fire protection and light bills. Bonds and warrants totaling $3,000 will be due, including one sewer bond of $1000, a sewer equipment warrant, $1000, and warrants issued Geo. G. Ehrenborg for instilling the unit evaluation plan, $1000. Interest on sewer bonds is $2310, on sewer equipment warrants, $180 and on the Ehrenborg warrants, $60—a total of $2550. The total fixed expense would be, therefore, $8726.96, and the unfixed expense, including charity, for truck upkeep, and sundry office and maintenance expense, is estimated at $615, making a grand total of $9,341.96.

Under the 80 cent rate the tax revenue would be $8,955.22, with other income to be derived from license sales, sales of dog tax, and other minor fees and collections of sewer rent.

The commission transacted routine business and ordered payment of bills. Plans for a fire station were discussed.

rate, if certain economies are found practicable.

In event the state fails to relieve the county of all, or a part of the bond burden, the rate will be lowered substantially, anyway. No levy will be made on the 1931 series of bonds, totaling $175,000 originally, because the state has taken over the project for which they were voted. The bonds were never sold, and will not have to be sold. A sure saving of 36 cents faces tax-payers.

The court indicated willingness to co-operate with the city of Sonora and with Sonora Fire Department in the building of a fire station.
