REA Energize Line Next Week

Around 68 Rural Homes Expected To Get Electricity

If work on the Dickens County Electric Coop. Inc. (REA) project in the area between Spur and Jayton, proceeds according to schedule, next week rural people in that district will be pushing buttons that will turn on electric lights in their homes, Jack Rector, manager of the local REA, announced.

About 60 miles of line in the Spur-Jayton area, is expected to be energized next week. Approximately 68 homes in that area have been wired and were inspected last week by E. L. Tarver, official house inspector for REA, Lubbock, Rector said. The majority of the houses were wired according to specifications and only a few minor changes had to be made in a few of the houses.

E. M. Jones, Jayton, has the distinction of owning the first house on the line to be energized and J. O. Morris, Spur, has the honor of owning the last house on the line.

The original contract called for 75 miles at a cost of $57,629.38 and was made known last November. Since then, additions in both miles and money have been granted for this area. When the entire project is completed, REA officials say that approximately 600 miles of the lines will be strung in Dickens, Motley, Kent, Stonewall Garza and possibly a few other counties.

Construction on the REA lines began in March. Previous plans were to energize this 60 mile area by August 1, but difficulties in obtaining equipment and supplies prevented the project from going through as scheduled.

Work in all areas is progressing. About 20 miles of poles have been set in the area toward Elton, Rector said. He did not state though when the entire area will be completed.

At present, most rural people on the REA line will only benefit from having electric lights, as very few electrical appliances are available now. With the end of the war, production of electrical apparatus is expected to increase sharply, and rural people soon will share all the electrical conveniences of city residents.

$54,000 Is Granted For Study Toward Building Baskin Dam

The Reclamation Service interested in the district projects north of Possum Kingdom dam, has allotted $54,000 for exploratory work toward construction of the Bob Baskin dam in Stonewall county, Dr. M. H. Brannen, Spur, director of the Brazos River Conservation Reclamation district, stated that it was announced at a recent meeting of the board.

In addition, appropriation was made for investigating the feasibility of the proposed Breckenridge dam on the Clear Fork of the Brazos river, the local dentist said.

When constructed, Baskin dam will provide fishing and other recreational facilities for local citizens, but for Stonewall county citizens, it will mean a good water supply for irrigation and other purposes.

Misses Margaret and Betty Weaver were in Lubbock Monday.

Old Settlers Will Hold 23rd Annual Reunion Aug. 23-24

For the 23rd time old settlers of Dickens and Motley counties will gather at Roaring Springs to hold their annual reunion on Thursday and Friday, August 23-24, C. C. Haile, president for the past 15 years, announced.

Although President Haile did not attend the first meeting of the old settlers association he said he had been told that it met at the Springs, near Roaring Springs and that only about 75 people were present. For a number of years association members met at the old camping grounds,

County To Vote on Tax Re-Allocation, Amendments Aug. 25

On Saturday, August 25, the voters of Dickens county will vote on Constitutional amendments, and the re-allocation of county taxes, County Judge E. H. Boedeker announced Tuesday.

"To vote FOR the re-allocation of county taxes WILL NOT raise county taxes," Judge Boedeker emphasized. "It will leave county taxes at the same rate they have been."

The county judge continued, "If the people of Dickens county, by their vote, vote FOR the re-allocation of county taxes, they will assist the Commissioner's Court in equalizing taxes so that the various funds will be balanced according to the needs. Under the present set up, some funds accumulate surpluses while others barely get by."

You are urged, before you vote, if you are not already informed as to just what is meant by re-allocation of county taxes, to ask your commissioner or any other person that might be informed upon the subject.

"The Commissioner's Court of Dickens county, realizing the necessity for the re-allocation of county taxes, has unanimously entered its order calling for an election," Judge Boedeker stated.

Miss Weaver and Miss Lee Join Spur Junior High Faculty

Two new teachers, Miss Margaret Weaver and Miss Regina Lee, were added to the Spur Junior high school faculty at a board meeting held this week. C. F. Cook, superintendent of Spur schools, announced.

The new faculty members are from Spur. Miss Weaver is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Weaver, and is a graduate of Texas Technological college. Miss Lee is the daughter of Mrs. W. B. Lee, and is a graduate of Texas State College for Women.

Cook said that all vacancies in the schools were filled with the exception of a primary teacher and a band teacher. He requested that he be notified if anyone knows a "good band or primary teacher," who might be interested in joining the local faculty.

then the pavilion on the land, behind the Roaring Springs schools, was built and it has been used since for the reunion.

This year's reunion will follow the same pattern that previous gatherings have followed with the parade of mounted horsemen and old time rigs starting in downtown Roaring Springs at 10 a.m. Thursday and continuing out to the reunion grounds.

All Motley and Dickens county citizens are invited to get a horse or rig and ride in the parade. As customary, prizes will be given for the most typical old settler and the best old time rig, Haile said.

At 11 a.m. Thursday memorial services for county pioneers, who have died since last August, will be held in the pavilion with the Rev. C. Gambell, pastor of the First Baptist church, Roaring Springs, officiating.

At 2 p.m. Thursday memorial services will be held for our boys in the armed forces who gave their lives for their country in the recent conflict. Vernon Doss, Matador, will deliver the main address. This service will be held in the pavilion, too.

At 2:30 p.m. Thursday the rodeo will begin. Traditional rules governing entries will be observed, and the usual prizes will be awarded to winning contestants. The rodeo will continue through Friday.

Haile stated that he expected to have several baseball games on the reunion grounds Thursday and Friday afternoons, but he did not give definite information concerning them.

In addition to the other reunion features, Dudley Carnival also will be on the grounds, and entertainment will be provided for the old settlers throughout both days in the pavilion.

Thursday and Friday nights the old timers will dance to the music of Bush Thornton and his string band of Spur, in the pavilion. Scroggins band of Lubbock will play for the young people's dance to be held on a floor erected on the grounds.

"We are expecting the biggest crowd we've ever had," Haile said. "Now that the war is over, people want to celebrate."

Last year's crowd at the reunion was estimated to be between three and four thousand. Hamburger and lunch stands will be on the grounds, Haile said, so pioneers will not have to bring their lunches as they did in the old days.

Home Canning Sugar May Be Obtained Until August 31

Issuance of sugar for home canning will stop August 31, Chairman L. E. Lee of the local War Price and Rationing Board announced Monday.

Original plans were to continue issuance through October, but the local Board has been advised to issue the entire allotment for by the end of August so that the home canning sugar program can be completed, he stated. "This simply means that issuance will be speeded up and what we have for canning purposes will be issued by the end of this month," Lee said.

Most of the applicants in this county received only five pounds per person after the drastic cut in sugar rations was announced in the early summer. Those persons who only received five pounds of sugar per person can now make a second application. Persons requesting supplementary sugar, must fill out the regular application blanks and make lists of the fruits they canned with the sugar received earlier, the board announced.

Thankful Citizens Express Gratitude Over War Ending

Almost 450 people crowded in the Spur Church of Christ Tuesday night to express their thanks to God that the war with Japan was over and that peace again enveloped the world.

Jack Christian opened the non-sectarian meeting by saying, "This thanksgiving service represents—just as the name implies—the greatest thanksgiving the world has seen. . . . It has been only three months and six days since a similar gathering was held on VE-Day. . . . and it is with grateful hearts indeed that we again meet in the spirit of thanksgiving."

The congregation then stood and sang "America" under the leadership of Bob George. D. J. Dyess read Psalm 46 and the audience again rose and sang "Stand Up for Jesus." Following an interval of silent prayer, the Rev. Howard H. Hollowell, pastor of the First Methodist church, gave an oral prayer.

In giving the main address of the service, the Rev. Charles N. Gilbert, pastor of the First Baptist church, began, "I know all of our hearts are filled with joy on this occasion. . . . joy we can not express."

The speaker then reviewed the war, telling how the aggressive nations had sought "to engulf and enslave mankind by the iron rule of force."

"We now realize that the nations of the world can not live together except in peace. . . . and that man can not live alone. . . . Thanks be unto God that we have won this war. . . ."

Gilbert cited that peace will mean to the military forces, the political, educational and religious realms. In substance, the minister said it means the opportunity for mankind to choose his own form of government, religion and education—and it means a "cease firing order" to the military world.

"Thanks be unto God, who has given us the victory through Jesus Christ," the speaker concluded.

After the congregation sang "Onward Christian Soldiers," Fred Jennings gave the benediction.

Tire and Appliance Company To Open In Spur Next Month

C. V. Allen, owner of Allen Auto Supply, announced Tuesday that he had purchased the building on Burlington avenue formerly occupied by the Duck Creek Soil Conservation and adjacent to his store, for the purpose of opening a tire and appliance company in association with Coy McMahan, who will be manager.

Transaction for the building was made with Roy Stovall, Spur, Allen said.

The new store, which will be known as Spur Tire and Appliance Co., is scheduled to open within the next 30 days. Remodeling and redecorating are now in progress, and fixtures that have been ordered are expected to arrive soon.

Until wartime conditions permit carrying a full line of electrical and household appliances, the store will specialize in tires, batteries, car and home supplies, Allen said.

Recently McMahan resigned from his position as clerk in the local Clover Farm store, where he has been employed for the past four years.

Sneaks of Pearl Harbor Bow to Potsdam Edict Of Unconditional Quits

Peace again reigned the world Tuesday as the Jap warlords accepted the unconditional surrender terms of the Potsdam declaration. The negotiators of the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor were avenged!

The announcement of the surrender was made to the world at 6 p.m. (CWT) Tuesday by President Truman, who said he regarded the surrender as "unconditional," even though the Japanese emperor will be allowed to remain on the throne for the time being. Secretary of State Byrnes stated that the emperor will be under Allied control, and at a later date, the Japanese people will be permitted to decide by ballot what kind of government they want.

Cease firing orders to all military forces were given, and General of the Army Douglas A. McArthur was designated supreme Allied commander to receive the surrender.

V-J day will be officially proclaimed after the surrender has been accepted by General McArthur, it was announced.

Wednesday General McArthur ordered the emperor of Japan to send competent representatives with the power to act for Japan to his headquarters in Manila on Friday to arrange for carrying out the surrender terms.

The representatives were ordered to bring with them advisors representing the Japanese army, navy and air forces. After the Japanese delegation receives the general's requirements, they will return to imperial headquarters.

Following the reception of the Japanese acceptance of the Potsdam declaration which was relayed to the United States through the Swiss charge d'affaires, President Truman stated that Great Britain, Russia and China will be represented by high ranking officers at the formal signing of the surrender. He added that all Allied armies have been ordered to suspend offensive action.

During July and thus far in August, a number of Dickens county men and former residents of Dickens county have received honorable discharges from the armed forces.

A private first class with the 309th Infantry division, he served almost two years overseas, seeing action in Normandy, Northern France and the Rhineland.

George Wendell Grizzle, Spur, was a sergeant in the Quartermaster corps at the time of his discharge July 26, at Fort Bliss, Texas. He was inducted into the service July 12, 1940.

Pfc. J. C. Willmon Is Back in the States After ETO Campaign

WITH THE 30TH INFANTRY DIVISION IN ASSEMBLY AREA COMMAND, FRANCE—Pfc. J. C. Willmon, Afton, en route home from Europe with the "Old Hickory" Division, which broke up Germany's supermen counter-offensive in Normandy, is now being processed at Camp Oklahoma City, an infantry redeployment center operated by the Assembly Area Command.

Landing on the French Coast on D plus four, the 30th commanded by Maj. Gen. L. S. Hobbs, spearheaded the St. Lo breakthrough, poured a cross Northern France, Belgium, and Holland, and then crashed through the Siegfried Line to complete the encirclement of Aachen.

On Dec. 17, 1944, the division wheeled south to help stop Rundstedt's lightning attack in the Ardennes. After some bitter fighting in the Stavelot-Malmédy sector, they sent the Germans reeling back, frustrating Nazi plans to seize Belgium's northern ports. Stunned SS Panzer troops taken prisoner and gasping Nazi radio commentators spoke of having yielded to "Roosevelt's SS" in this battle.

Out for the kill, the 30th led the 9th Army's assault crossing of the Rhine on March 24 and fought its way more than 200 miles to the Elbe at Magdeburg where Russian and Americans clasped hands in an historic union.

Private Willmon is the husband of Marjorie Willmon, Afton. He holds the Good Conduct Medal and the ETO campaign ribbon with one battle star.

GI University in Florence Opens On Full Time Schedule

branch of service in the Mediterranean Theater, and includes WACs and Nurses, officers and enlisted men. Eligibility to attend the University depends upon meeting one of these three qualifications (1) graduation from high school (2) attendance at college, or (3) a grade of 105 or more on the Army General Classification Test.

Students take three courses, classes in each being held five times weekly. In this way, it is possible to do the equivalent of a semester's college work at the University in two four-week sessions. The American Council on Education in the United States has agreed to review all courses offered at the Center and to make recommendations for appropriate college credits in American Universities.

"G. I.'s" attending the University, who represent each of the 48 states and the District of Columbia, have made selections for study from a curriculum which offers 67 courses ranging from Agriculture to Sociology, Shakespeare to Beef Production.

Soldiers can enroll in the University without any fear that it will delay their return home. If a student's outfit is alerted for shipment back to the States, or if he becomes eligible for discharge, he will be immediately released.

The University's faculty was selected from the most qualified personnel in the Mediterranean Theater of Operations, without regard to military rank, based on their academic ability to teach particular subjects.

The new University is located in the historic city of Florence, shrine of Renaissance culture, and home of world famous art treasures. It occupies the building of a former Fascist School of Aeronautics, which has also served as a German military hospital and, on the liberation of Florence, as an American hospital.

Facilities include a theater, chapel, discussion center, library, swimming pool, riding stable and Red Cross and social center. Arrangements have been completed to make available to students some of the rich cultural facilities of the Florence, including the experimental laboratories of the Florence Institute of Agriculture, two of the city's famous libraries, and a modern printing plant.

Pvt. Ernest Kearney Reports for Duty After 30-Day Leave

Pvt. Ernest Kearney reported to Fort Benning, Ga. this week, after spending a 30-day furlough in Spur with his wife, the former Betty Jo Boothe, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kearney.

During his 10-months overseas, Private Kearney served with a unit of the Quartermaster Corps of the Ninth Army, whose job was to supply men at the front lines with food. At one time however, the Spur man's outfit was supplying one-third of the Army in Europe. The main supply dump was at Utah Beach, France, one of the beaches invaded on D-Day.

Usually Private Kearney's unit stayed about 10 miles behind the front lines. Last December, however, members of the supply detail were almost convinced they WERE the front lines. . . . The Germans had started their counter-attack and were making a drive on Leige, Belgium. In the process they dropped paratroopers all around the supply dump, and cut off the men stationed there from other American units.

Although the U. S. soldiers were only cut off for three days, they kept the guard doubled for three weeks. Before the American infantry finally broke through and rescued them, members of the Quartermaster Corps made preparations to burn the food to prevent it falling in Nazi hands. Fortunately it was not necessary to apply the torch to the supply dump.

And next day a lonely soldier Meets a charming little gal; While they chat she looks him over. And decides he needs morale. So they dine and dance and chatter. She adores her handsome pal; Now he's marching pit-a-patter To the altar with the gal.

Private Kearney served in France, Belgium, Holland and Germany. He holds the Good Conduct Medal and the ETO ribbon with three battle stars, representing action in Central Europe, the Ardennes offensive and the Rhine.

MALARIA CHECKED IN 7 DAYS WITH LIQUID FOR MALARIAL SYMPTOMS 666 take only as directed

HIS WATERLOO

The London Daily Mail reports that more than 6,000 English girls have married American soldiers and sailors since our forces started using the "tight little isle" as a jumping off place to continental Europe. Further, says the Mail, other thousands are planning to marry as soon as Americans, now busy in France, get back to England on leave. . . .

G. I. Josey—feeling rosy— Pins a grin across his map And we pin a rose on Josey, Gayest wolf in all the pack; For he's on a short furlough, There's a pretty girl in sight. See that grin and smiles at Joe And they dine in fond delight.

For the soldier's on furlough And he wants to spend his dough; So the artful little dame Sets the soldier heart aflame With a little torrid technique That soon dazzles little Joe.

Joe long later paid the waiter, But his change, he saw it not. And he couldn't truly say, sir, 'Twas his roll the maiden got. 'Twasn't much but Josey needs it, So he starts a battle right, Hoping thereby to retrieve it, But alas, he lost the fight.

For the soldier's on furlough, There's no M. P. watching Joe; So the clever little frail Gets her fingers on his kale With a little touching technique That soon parts him from his dough.

And next day a lonely soldier Meets a charming little gal; While they chat she looks him over. And decides he needs morale. So they dine and dance and chatter. She adores her handsome pal; Now he's marching pit-a-patter To the altar with the gal.

For the soldier's on furlough From the battle's din and woe; So Eve's clever little daughter Has him marching to the altar With a loving ven for Joe. —D. H. Sandidge

Miss Evelyn Lewis Becomes Bride of Dick Failor Aug. 8

Miss Evelyn Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Lewis, Amarillo, formerly of Spur, became the bride of Dick Failor of Bellingham, Wash. at 8 a.m. Wednesday, August 8, in the Little Chapel in the Woods on the TSCW campus, Denton. The Rev. Phillip Walker, pastor of the First Methodist church, Denton, read the single ring ceremony.

The vows were exchanged by candle light before an altar banked with white gladiolas and ferns.

Preceding the ceremony the church organist played "I Love You Truly," and Miss Ann Shands, TSCW student, sang "One Alone" and "Because." The organist also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace street length dress with a white shoulder length veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Melba Lewis, twin sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was costumed in a dusty rose street length dress with white and gold accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

Sgt. O. Failor, brother of the groom, was best man.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Lewis, wore a black sheer dress with a black picture hat and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Failor is a graduate of Spur high school and attended TSCW for the past two years.

Failor recently received an honorable discharge from the Army after serving four years. Three years of his Army life was spent overseas in the Pacific Theater of Operations. Before enlisting in the Army he attended the University of Washington.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the home of Mrs. Eula McElroy, Denton, aunt of the bride.

The wedding cake, shaped in the form of two hearts joined at the top, was topped with a miniature bride and groom. The dining table was laid with a white lace cloth and arrangements of yellow miniature chrysanthemums.

Miss Betty Hester, Denton, poured punch and Miss Elaine Wolvard, Denton, presided at the guest book. Members of the house party wore corsages of white carnations.

For going away the bride chose a lime green gabardine suit with white accessories and white orchid corsage. After spending a few days in Dallas, the couple will go to Bellingham, Wash. to make their home.

Wedding guests from Spur were Miss Betty Weaver and Miss Marie Whitwell.

The bride wore a navy blue sheer dress with white accessories. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harrison of Jayton and a 1944 graduate of Jayton high school.

It won't work...by itself

It takes a lot more than a telephone to give you telephone service. Before a telephone will work, it must be linked by its own pair of wires to complex equipment in a central office.

And central office equipment is "full up," in many cities. The large majority of the 230,000 people waiting for telephone service in the Southwest are waiting because there's no "room" in the equipment in the local central office to connect a telephone for them.

New equipment is complicated and takes a long time to make, especially when telephone factories are still loaded to the guards with war orders.

With the end of the war in Europe, some new equipment is now being made. But it looks as if it will be some time before we shall have enough to take care of all who want telephones. Thanks for your patience.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

People used to say there were only two things certain in this funny old world of ours—death and taxes. We would like to nominate a third. And that is that a dollar buys a lot less today than it did fifteen years ago. That's certain, isn't it? Every time you go to a store to buy anything, you can't help realizing it. But—unlike the other two—there is one exception. It's electricity! Believe it or not, a dollar today buys more electricity than ever before!

You may not have noticed it—because with everything else going up in price, you'd likely assume your electricity costs more too. Actually, however, electricity has been coming down in price for years—and has even been reduced since the war. Of course, you've probably added a lot of electrical conveniences to your home in the last few years, and that's another reason you may not have noticed how much the price of electricity has come down. So much, in fact, that if you're an average user of household electricity, you're getting about twice as much for your money as you did fifteen years ago!

And that's quite a trick! Because the business-managed electric light and power companies that supply over eighty percent of our electric needs, have had enormous tax bills—and a lot of other problems to meet since the war. Nevertheless, it has been accomplished... through efficient business management on the part of the experienced men and women who operate America's electric light and power companies.

Sgt. Pete Willhoit Is With 716th "Wolf Pack" Tank Battalion

Sgt. Pete Willhoit, son of Mrs. Ella Willhoit, Spur, is justly proud of the record of his outfit, the 716th Tank Battalion, has made in the Philippine Liberation.

Supporting the doughboy in assault landing on Luzon, Panay, Negros, Cebu, Jolo, Zamboanga Peninsula and Mindanao, the Tankers met and defeated the best the Japs had. In six months of fighting, the battalion killed more than 3,000 Japs, destroyed over 600 pillboxes and much of the armor that the Japanese used in the defense of the islands.

In a statement to a GI reporter in the Philippines, Sergeant Willhoit related, "Our tanks have fought every kind of warfare in the books. We engaged tanks of the Nip 2nd Armored Division on the roads and on the spreading rice paddies of Luzon, we took part in the street fighting in Manila and as part of Tank-Infantry teams, we cleared the Sons of Heaven from the jungles of Mindanao. We have been continuously in action since the 9th of January and we have moved so fast from operation to operation that often after firing a last shot at the retreating Japs at noon, we would find ourselves loading on LST's that evening . . . off for another Nip held island."

Sergeant Willhoit is the recipient of the Silver Star, awarded him for gallantry in action against the enemy on Luzon.
