NEEDS OF GREECE FAMILIES SHOWN BY LETTER TO LOCAL LADY

Greek Family Writes For Help of American Friends

The extreme need for clothing and other necessities of life in Greece was reflected this week in a letter received by Mrs. Nona Starcher from a lady in the country, asking for help from friends in America. Clothing is the thing most needed, according to the letter, and they are asking that old clothing or clothing of any kind not needed here be sent to clothe their naked bodies.

The letter follows: "Dear American Friends: We would be extremely happy if you would be kind enough to devote some of your time for helping us. The help we need mostly is clothing, clothing of any condition and description suits us alright. Torn bed sheets, old shoes, any spare clothing, bath towels with holes, blankets, army clothing and khaki jackets are most valuable for covering our naked bodies. Any unbelievably useless fabric in America is a first-class luxury garment for us. A badly moth-eaten garment is a heavenly-sent present to our family, while clothing is most greatly needed.

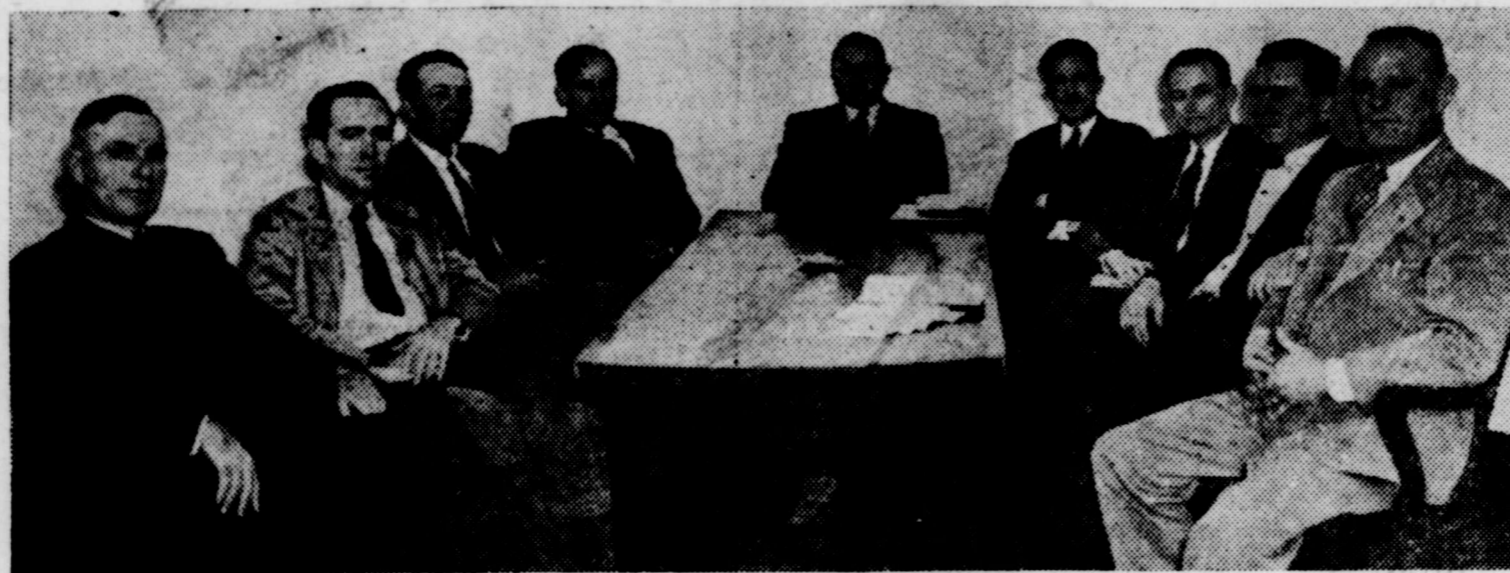

"We Greeks use as underwear not so much knitted garments, but cotton cloth, such as you use for bed sheets. A parcel of the (Continued on Back Page)

MORE SEEN IN DETAIL AND LINE

Longer Jackets and Skirts Are On The Scene

The restrictions having been lifted that until recently curtailed fabrics, and clipped the wings of the designer longing to give his fancy free rein, we will be certain to see more of everything in the designs for Spring, 1947.

Longer skirts and fuller, circular skirts kick pleated front and back; many pleated all around with pressed or stitched pleats are revival news. Soft front ful-ness in skirts also continues, as well as side and front drapery.

The silhouette will be pencil slim to the waist—with the wrapped (literally) skirt giving a very new line, though many skirts in the dressier clothes are accentuated by flounce, tier, drape
and bustle manipulation.

Shoulders will be softer, less like a football player's—more like a Southern belle's, sometimes
"dropped" by detail below the normal line.

As one fashion authority aptly says, "Clothes will bulge everywhere but at the waistline".
However, the success of that moulded look with the accented long torso, throughout 1947, may be expected.

The overdressed, over-embroidered, over-sequined fashion is

JACKETED PRINT, for all spring, all summer. By Milton Saunders, of fine spun rayon, with large tab pockets. Can add blouse or gilet.

SO YOUNG! Sally Victor's "Little Filly" of gold rough straw, trimmed fore and aft with bright pink roses and grey wings. And a cloche by Bet-mar, of white straw with a vivid fuchsia flower plume.

definitely out. Clothes will be less showy and much more dramatic.
The new, unbroken torso line is an American line—watch it!
Drapery will not bunch around the hips but will continue in the diagonal trend that is slimming.

Figure Favors
Little women especially are getting a break, with many houses designing for the missus-and misses five feet four and shorter. Also there are many larger sizes for the season, with all sizes accurately standardized,
and half sizes again available.

Suave is the word for 1947—
in play-clothes, tweeds, town suits, evening clothes, dinner
clothes—and "dressy afternoon" fashions will look important but not "fussy". All in all there will be less frills, furbelows, feathers and folderol in 1947, and a much better dressed America.

In evening gowns, the strapless and off-the-shoulder dresses, and the low décolletage are really the beginning of a fashion, not the close. Short evening dresses are, not leaving us, but will continue with their broken hemlines and long-short length;

because they are smart, sensible and appealing. There will—especially for young figures—be bouffant skirts, but the newest trend is toward slimmer skirts
with subtle movement-interest.

The return of chiffon, ninon
and georgette types will make possible lovely evening gowns designed so skillfully as to be simultaneously revealing, concealing, flattering and completely captivating. Brocades, lames, faillie and satin will continue into
'47.

Coats will be longer; their sleeves will be fuller, and many coats will have very full backs
swinging free from the shoulder, belted and tied. Double breasted short coats worn with dresses to color-contrast sharply, will supply a new note, with collarless
coats well liked.

The longer line—that American line—will be most popular in suit jackets, which will continue to be influenced by soft treatment to keep them feminine.
Even the most casual "casuals"
will have soft details, despite the fact that women will still want men's wear fabrics; with stripes and checks and over-plaids in light worsteds and flannels in greatest demand for tailors; and faillie, sheer wools and brilliant prints best loved for dress-up moods.

Ample Choice
Color and fabric are the very cornerstones of fashion news, and the interest in white and off-white will run the gamut from sharkskin through wool and furs
—for dresses, jackets and coats.
Silk is back but still reserved
for fashions in the upper price brackets! Gingham and cham-bray as well as crease resistant linen will be dress delights for spring-into-summer. Jersey will continue for every hour of the day. Prints are brilliant and clear in color, featuring both pastels and hard, brilliant colors, with light grounds in the lead. And sheer wools are steadily gain-

With emphasis on color, navy
is expected to supercede black, nevertheless black is as good for warmer weather as white! Neutrals show beige gains with gray very strong. And high colors are stronger than pastels; white in the pastels yellow, copper beige, pistachio green, turquoise, green,

highly. Coral, coral-geranium, cabe frequent.

Cotton Drops Slightly On S. W. Markets

Grain prices fell, carrots weakened, and easiness developed at some livestock markets last week. Other southwest farm products held steady to strong, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Grains opened the week with all their recent vigor last Monday, but fell rapidly on succeeding days to net losses of 3 to 15 cents. Wheat and grain sorghums, spearheads of past advances, felt most heavily the weight of new bearish onslaughts. At Fort Worth and Galveston, bulk carlots sales of No. 1 hard ordinary wheat moved Friday at $2.87 per bushel; and No. 2 milo at $2.90 to $2.93 per hundred pounds.

Early-week strength at cotton markets gave way to pressure of larger trade offerings later on. Closing spot quotations last Friday showed net losses of 25 to 50 cents per bale at some markets, to gains of 25 to 60 cents at others.

Egg and poultry prices continued firm. On the round of southwest markets, heavy hens brought 28 to 30 cents per pound; fryers and broilers 30 to 32. Eggs sold on the average of 36 cents per dozen at Topeka, Amarillo, and Wichita Falls; 37 at Denver, Austin, San Antonio, and Waco; 37 1-2 to 38 at Fort Worth and Dallas; 39 at Houston, 40 at Corpus Christi, Baton Rouge, Shreveport, and El Paso; and 41 at New Orleans.

Cattle sold at prices as high or higher than the week before at most southwest markets, but steers and yearlings closed lower at Oklahoma City, as did yearlings at Fort Worth. Beef cows sold up to $17 at Oklahoma City; while medium to good kinds brought $13 to $15 at Fort

Girard G. A. Hold Weekly Meeting At Baptist Church

The Girard G. A. met Sunday evening, March 16 at 2:30 o'clock in the Girard Baptist church.

The meeting was called to order by the president and plans were discussed for the Mother and Daughter banquet for the following Saturday night. Mrs. John Simmons was chosen as the speaker for the occasion. G. A. uniforms were discussed which are to be bought in the near future.

"We've A Story to Tell the Nation" was sung by the group after which Pauline McKinney gave the devotional. A prayer was given by Mrs. R. L. Porter and she also discussed the G. A. Manuel in General. The closing prayer was given by Dorothy June Brooks.

Worth; and $14.50 to $16.75 at Denver. Common and medium cows moved at $12 to $14.50 at Houston and Wichita; and $11.75 to $15 at San Antonio.

Slaughter hogs stayed even with last week at Texas markets, and stocker pigs gained a dollar at Fort Worth. However, most classes dropped about a dollar at Oklahoma City and Wichita. Week's top was $24.50 at San Antonio; and closing top was $26.50 at Oklahoma City; $26.85 at Wichita; and $27.35 at Denver. Fort Worth paid mostly $25.50.

Sheep and lambs lost up to a dollar at Oklahoma City and Wichita, but other southwest markets paid as much or more than a week earlier. Good lambs brought $20 to $21 at San Antonio; while spring lambs turned at $23.50 to $24 at Fort Worth, Oklahoma City, and Wichita. Medium shorn goats went at mostly $6 to $7 at San Antonio.

Homemaking Girls To Be Commended On Work

Chambray, gingham, cotton prints, butcher linen, rayon crepe and pure linen all proclaim that spring is really here. In visiting the Homemaking department, one day this week, why the Homemaking department looked just like a fabric mart.

During the morning the No. 2 homemaking classes were in session. The 30 girls were making all occasion dresses of rayon crepe, butcher linen, and pure linen. Things were commencing to take shape and one could actually tell that they were making dresses.

The afternoon was spent with the Homemaking No. 1 girls who are making school dresses of cotton materials. These classes are composed mostly of freshman girls just learning to sew. The last few weeks have been spent on the fundamentals of sewing. Some work was done in class on their projects for the semester. Such gorgeous materials and pretty patterns you've never seen. Several of the patterns have been designed by the homemaking girls.

There is to be a showing of these dresses during the latter part of April. It will be a treat that everyone should see. You won't want to miss this showing. The public is to be invited, so make your plans now to attend.

These homemaking girls are to be commended for the wonderful work they are doing.

Natchez Pilgrimage Enjoyed This Year By Spur Ladies

Mrs. A. C. Hull and Mrs. E. D. Engleman, accompanied by Mrs. Spec Lunsford of Olney and Mrs. Curtis Richardson of Throckmorton returned recently from Natchez, Mississippi where they enjoyed the Natchez Pilgrimage.

The 1947 Pilgrimage which was sponsored this year by the two Garden Clubs of Natchez is open throughout the month of March. They visited 33 of the historic houses of the old South which still treasured the relics and furnishings of a vanished era. In the colorful legends of these gracious time-mellowed dwellings is enshrined the history of the Natchez Country.

Some of the historical houses visited were, The Elms, which was built during the Spanish era and contained many interesting architectural features, mellowed by age and set in the midst of an old-fashioned garden. Londwood, under construction at the beginning of the Civil War, was never completed. Gloucester, was built prior to 1803 and was the first Natchez mansion. Connelly's Tavern on Ellicott's Hill has been restored as a historic project by the Natchez Garden Club and is deemed the architectural gem of Natchez.

Stanton Hall, most palatial house in Natchez was built by Frederick Stanton during the great cotton era, 1851. An entire ship was chartered to bring the materials and furnishings from Europe.

Others visited were The Briers, Richmond, Glenfield, The Parsonage, Cherokee, and many others.

They also attended the Confederate Ball Tableaux, which is a pageant depicting scenes of

Preview of next week's disaster

Maybe it won't be a tornado killing and maiming men and women—and children.

Maybe it will be the devastation of a flood. Or the destruction of a hurricane, or a fire. Or the sweeping scourge of an epidemic.

But one thing can be foreseen in the disaster that will strike every week of the year somewhere in our nation—

Your Red Cross will be on the job!

In this year of peace, as in war, your American Red Cross stands ready to supply those in need with emergency hospital care, food, shelter, clothing, and rehabilitation. All this and more to stricken human beings—regardless of race, creed or color.

It's what you're giving for—when you give to your Red Cross.

GIVE—so your RED CROSS can carry on!

YOUNG TORSO LOOK

Photos courtesy New York Dress Institute
Plaid pink cotton with pink eyelet peplum for Juniors.

THE long, moulded line talked about for Spring is modified in New York Junior styles. As in the dress pictured today, the bodice is elongated only moderately, and scarcely at all in back. At the same time, the waistline is definitely fitted. The result is a becoming new silhouette for the smaller figure.

Another exciting fashion point illustrated in the dress shown is the increasing use of cottons for dress-up purposes. Pale, pink-plaided gingham, in this case, is given a ruffled peplum and bustle bow, making it a perfect summer afternoon or date dress. Long cotton evening dresses in several collections are fashioned of striped chambray with strapless bodices.

HEPBURN AND ROBT. TAYLOR SUPERB IN "UNDERCURRENT" SUSPENSE-PACKED PICTURE

Katharine Hepburn and Robert Taylor, the latter returned to the screen after three years in the Navy, are the stars of "Undercurrent," showing Prevue Sunday and Monday at the Palace Theatre, and they prove a brilliant choice for the pivotal roles of this emotionally taut story of the strange jealousy which undermines a promising marriage.

Miss Hepburn plays Ann Hamilton, small-town daughter of a college professor who is swept off her feet by the whirlwind courtship of Alan Garroway, millionaire industrialist. It is not until after they are married that Ann learns of her husband's almost fanatic hatred of his brother, Michael, whom he describes as a scoundrel. Despite the fact that Ann has never met the mysterious Michael, the shadow of his presence throws a constant barrier of suspicion and distrust between husband and wife. When Michael finally does make his appearance, Alan's hatred for the man whom he conceives to be his rival rises to a tormented climax of hatred and vengeance which results in what is undoubtedly the most suspense-packed situation ever devised for a photoplay. It would curtail the interest of the spectator to give away the story's ending, but it can be stated that is comes as a complete surprise.

Miss Hepburn uses all her famous finesse and acting dexterity for the emotionally taxing role of the wife haunted by the unknown in her husband's past and it is probably the most powerful characterization of her brilliant career. Taylor, as the neurotic Alan Garroway, is excellent in a part completely different from any he has ever attempted before, and the role of the shadowy Michael is superbly handled by Robert Mitchum. Also giving a good account of themselves are Edmund Gwenn as Miss Hepburn's father, Marjorie Main as a spintish cook, Jayne Meadows as a woman in Taylor's past, and Clinton Sundberg.

"Undercurrent" moves to its tense climax with unflagging interest, much of which is due to the knowing direction of Vincente Minelli who help make this M-G-M picture one of constant and absorbing interest.

JUST about the newest trend in coats, and not merely of this season but for several to come, is back fullness from the shoulders. Pink stars in the collections of New York designers of junior fashions, all the way from playclothes to evening. An adorable pea jacket comes in pink fleecy wool, for instance, and an off-shoulder sun dress is made of candy pink gingham with white eyelet ruffling. From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Apple Tree Versus Wheat Field

If you ever visit Jeb Crowell's farm, he'll take you right out on that back porch of his and show you his apple tree.

"There," says Jeb, "is nature's noblest creation—fifty years, and bearing still the finest cider apples in the county!"

But last fall, when a group of us was there, Lud Denny points across the river to his grain fields and says: "There's an even finer sight! Acres and acres of golden grain you can make dozens of appetizing things with—including wholesome, sparkling beer."

Both of them got so eloquent on the subject, that the rest of us worked up quite a thirst; so Jeb goes to the icebox for beer and cider. And when the refreshments come, Lud chooses cider, and Jeb takes the beer!

From where I sit, that's the answer to most disputes. You can talk all you want, but when it comes to tastes and preferences, there's just no argument.

KEEP PET ON LEASH, AVOID RABIES SCARE

For want of a leash a "rabies epidemic" is born.

Thus the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City, sums up what is probably the least-comprehended fact about rabies. It explains it as follows:

If every dog-owner kept his pet on a leash at all times, there would be no possibility of his straying away. If he did not stray away, there would be no opportunity for him to get into trouble by fighting with other dogs or snapping at strangers who might attempt to pet or tease him. If he did not snap at strangers, the cry of "Mad Dog!" would not likely be raised, there would be no excitement or hysteria culminating in a "rabies epidemic" and the summary execution of many animals.

According to the Center, true rabies is a relatively uncommon disease. In a typical year, in the entire United States, only 7,000 dogs are affected. Rabies is no more prevalent in summer than in winter but you hear more about rabies in summer because men and animals mingle more freely outdoors in hot weather. A really rabid dog flies forward aimlessly but does not attack unless provoked or annoyed. Preventive rabies vaccines are available at veterinarians, though their effectiveness is still a matter of debate.

Grow Perennial Flowers From Seed

You can save considerable garden money and add new zest to your gardening by growing your own perennial flowers from seed. The best quality seeds cost only a few cents a packet and with simple care will produce scores of plants to bring color and beauty to the garden for years to come. Most perennials grown from seed bloom the second year after sowing.

Seed should be started at about the same time as that of the annuals, such as zinnias and marigolds. The secret of success is to get the seedlings to transplanting size early enough so that when set in their permanent places in garden or border, they will get a good root-hold before cold weather comes on.

A specially prepared seed bed or seed box is best for starting perennial seeds. A seed bed can be easily prepared by knocking the bottom out of a good-sized shallow wooden box and sinking the sides into the ground. The top should be about two or three inches above the surface. Use finely prepared, crumbly garden loam containing plenty of humus. It is important to locate the seed bed where it will be sheltered from strong winds and from sunlight during the hottest part of the day. A seed box or flat may also be used, with holes bored in the bottom for drainage. This has the advantage of being movable to sheltered locations when necessary.

Some perennial seeds are very small. Mix them with sand so that they will not be sown too quickly in the row and merely press them into the soil instead of covering them. Larger seeds need a shallow covering of soil. Firm the soil down on them so that they will make immediate contact with the moisture and plant food. Keep the soil moist but not wet until the seeds sprout. Some gardeners spread damp burlap over the surface to furnish needed moisture, removing it at the first sign of sprouting.

Here are a number of perennials that beginners can start from seed with almost sure success: Columbine, gaillardia, coreopsis, hollyhock, painted daisy, sweet william, hardy pinks, hardy alyssum, and the violas.

Perennial seeds usually take somewhat longer to germinate than those of annual flowers. Don't be discouraged if the tiny sprouts do not show themselves for two or three weeks after the seed is sown.

Mrs. Floyd Adams recently returned from Iowa where she was guest in the home of her sister for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Anderson and Mrs. Addie Joe, accompanied by Mrs. Lawson Morgan of Amarillo stopped in Spur a while one day last week en route to their home in Dallas. The three ladies are daughters of Mrs. Bud Morrison and had planned an overnight visit with their mother before returning to Dallas, but due to muddy roads to the Morrison ranch, they were unable to reach the ranch, therefore drove on into Dallas.

After which Mrs. Edith Durham, guest speaker for the afternoon, gave in her most charming manner, a paper on East Ward's Pleasures and Problems, which was most interesting and informative. A delicious refreshment plate of sandwiches, potato chips olives, individual angel squares and hot spiced tea were served.

Guests attending were Mesdames Ray Dickson, Jr., Lacy Armstrong, Lynn Buzbee, E. B. Henshaw, Bynum Britton, Spencer Campbell, Paul Marion, R. A. Conner, Ferrel Albin, Hobert Lewis, Edith Durham.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Dan Pritchett on April 3.

School Census Underway In Dickens County

An intensive drive is being conducted to get every child who will be six years of age before September first, or who has not reached his or her eighteenth birthday before that date enumerated on the school census.

Superintendent C. F. Cook has asked that all parents who are not contacted, to please get in touch with him or any of the teachers, or blank forms for this purpose are available at the Horce Gibson Insurance office. It is very important that all children be enumerated who will be six and under 18 years of age on September 1st. Any married person under the age of 18 should also be added to the census report. Most often missed are children who have neither brothers nor sisters in school.

It is hoped that all parents will cooperate in the enumeration, since there is a possibility that the state legislature will raise the per capita apportionment to $55. Mr. Cook urges all parents to give their children's correct ages.

the Old South. The Confederate Ball Pageant portrays that romantic era that has become as famous as the old Natchez houses. On their return trip the group spent a few days in New Orleans, La., where they toured the old and the new part, as well as the French Quarters, taking in several tours by day and the night life in the evening.

above described would stir our souls and prompt us to carry on our life with the belief of better days in the future. The whole of our family is a human wreckage. In the winter of 1941 in the midst of famine, thousands of us were forced to abandon our homes and go elsewhere owing to military needs of the enemy. Thus we were chased out of our homes without being able to take with us even the everyday necessities of life. Our homes were looted and we became refugees, wandering from one place to another.

"At present our family is without a job. But, even if we had a job the pay is so very low that a day's pay would bring us only 35 cigarettes. It takes ten days pay to buy an ordinary shirt.

"Barefoot and naked, living in huts with leaking roofs, cracked walls and broken doors, we plead for your help. Send us anything you can in the way of clothing. We are naked; please make a parcel of anything you may not need and send it to us."

There are two families asking for help in the letter to Mrs. Starcher. One consists of the lady writing who is 50-years of age; her husband, 60; a niece 35, a niece 30 and a grandmother 70. The second family consists of seven persons, four children and two old women.

Those having clothing that they would contribute to these families in Greece are asked to leave such clothing at the Texas Spur office. Clothing must be cleaned and ready for shipment, and only good used garments should be shipped in one or two packages.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden and children of Abernathy spent the past week-end here as guest in the home of Mrs. Pierce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Abernathy.

52 years, was preceded in death by her husband November 20, 1940.

She is survived by one daughter, Eddie Lynn Yandell, and one son, A. H. Cherry both of Spur. Three grandchildren also survive.

Construction Of Tech Stadium Started

Construction of the new 16,000-seat concrete and steel stadium at Texas Tech has been started and officials of the building, Old - Midwestern Construction company, say work will be completed in time for all home Tech games to be played on the new field this fall.

Ground for the new structure was officially broken March 17, with Lubbock and Tech officials and members of the stadium committee taking part in ceremonies. Turning dirt were President W. M. Whyburn of Tech and Mrs. Clifford B. Jones, wife of the president emeritus of the College. The stadium will be called the Clifford and Audrey Jones Stadium, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Jones. The playing field will be completed first.

Nylon Yarns Being Cut Ten Per Cent On April 1

Dupont is cutting the quotas of nylon yarns to hosiery mills of the nation, according to Carl Proctor, owner of Proctor's store in Spur and representative of the Berkshire Hosiery Mills. The nylon yarn is being cut ten per cent to the hosiery manufacturers effective April 1, but the extent of the effect is not yet known, Mr. Proctor stated.

Mr. Proctor represents the Berkshire Hosiery company in three states. The firm is the largest hosiery manufacturer in the world.
