CHANGES IN COTTON LOAN RULES MADE

Two important changes in the regulations for loan cotton should be of great benefit to farmers of the Spur area, according to an announcement made by Congressman George Mahon in Lubbock Tuesday.

Farm storage of cotton, not allowed in recent years on loan cotton, will be permitted under the loan, Mahon said, and warehousemen may accept cotton for immediate re-concentration at port centers if storage is not available in this area. The loan will be made effective on issuance of bill of lading.

Information on changes were given Congressman Mahon by Frank P. Biggs, regional director of the Commodity Credit Corporation at New Orleans. Details of full regulations have not been formulated but will be announced later.

No cotton will be eligible for the loan if stored on the ground by warehousemen, Mahon said, hence the ruling that warehousemen may accept the cotton for immediate re-concentration, at centers.

With prospects for a bulk of the cotton crop going into the loan, the changes were almost mandatory if the crop was to move freely, the congressman pointed out.

He said the government had also promised expediting of classing of cotton so that grants of the loan to area farmers may be facilitated.

"It will be a real test of the efficiency of the Commodity Credit program," the congressman said. "I have been informed that the box car situation this year is somewhat improved, so we can expect cotton to move faster by rail than in the last several years."

Here's an "Angel's Eye" view of the most luxurious thing a-ving, the new Clipper America of Pan American World Airways' ever-green fleet. A double-deck plane of movement, which has never been available before. With lounge, bar, berths and chef-cooked meals, there is a stability about it in the air that completely relaxes the passenger. Its first flight will be between San Francisco and Honolulu, and then between New York and London. Eventually the Boeing-Clipper will also be used extensively on Pan American's proposed domestic routes.

Boyce House 'Gives You Texas'

When I was on the staff of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, there was a dog show and I was assigned to write it up. For three days, I was out there in the big barn-like exhibit hall where there were 200 dogs and they barked and barked all day long. After three days of that, I was back in the newspaper office writing the closing account of the show when I heard, or thought I heard, a bark. I assumed it was imagination and kept on writing. In a moment, I heard another bark.

Had listening to all that barking for those three days so worked on my nerves that I was "hearing things." I looked guardedly around the office to see if anyone else had noticed such a sound but all were busy and I was just lowering my head to the typewriter when my glance caught the eye of Mark Burrows, the "suburban edition" editor—and he tried to keep from grinning but couldn't.

He had been doing the barking. I grinned, too. It's quite a relief to know that your imagination is not playing tricks on you. A boy showed such marked indifference to his duties that his employer said, "I regret to do so but I must discharge you." The youth pleaded, "Mr. Brown, please don't do that. This is my first job and if I am fired from my first job, it will handicap me all through life." So at last the employer said, "All right; go back to work." The boy said, "You mean I'm not fired?" "That's right" was the reply. "Then" said the youth, "I resign."

A noted criminal lawyer of New York City declared that he had saved over 50 persons from the electric chair, yet not one had ever sent him a Christmas card.

Wheat farmers will profit more by planting the varieties of wheat that have good baking qualities as well as high yields.

It's almost time again for planting small grain crops. Before you start planting, be sure you have cleaned the seed out and treated the seeds chemically for protection against grain smuts, seedling blights and seed rots.

If you get an electric shock from a metal lamp stand, a washing machine or a food mixer or if you have lots of static on your radio, try reversing the plug in the wall outlet.

Ascorbic and citric acid can be used by homemakers to prevent the darkening of fruit surfaces during freezing of peaches, pears, and light colored cherries.

Old Judge Early

FAMILY COURT

ANDY vs. JIM

DOCKET—Shall Jim take his kid brother to the movies?
ANDY—My brother Jim always fusses when I try to go to the movies with him, and says I'm too young. Mom doesn't care if I go, and gives me ticket money. It's just Jim, Judge Early. He's 14 and I'm 10.

JIM—I like Andy, but why does he try to tag along every time I go to a movie or any place? I'm nearly grown now, and it doesn't look good. A fellow needs some privacy.

FINDINGS AND VERDICT

OF JUDGE EARLY

Well folks, looks like Jim's really got a terrific problem on his hands, doesn't it? He wants to be a big wheel with the gang perhaps, and little brother Andy looking over his shoulder makes him feel just a trifle self-conscious about the whole business.

The court has a great deal of sympathy for a 14-year-old (Jim's age) in this predicament. Chances are though, Jim, your uneasiness about Andy's presence is needless. For to little Andy, you are already more than like a big brother worship, they call it.

It's a split jury case, folks. The old judge just asks Jim to always remember the above and he'll usually make a "right decision" in Andy's requests.

Bluebonnets Hardy Winter Flowers

The best time to plant Texas bluebonnets is when the seeds ripen, but they can't be planted after September for next spring's bloom, says Mrs. Jewel P. Robinson, county home demonstration agent.

Bluebonnets have tough little seeds, so it's a good idea to soak them in water around 24 hours before planting. This helps sprout them out. Then after soaking, rake them into the soil at once and give them a good watering. It's during the cold months that the little plants grow, says Mrs. Robinson, and they are injured by only the worst freezes. Only a few are killed by the coldest weather.

The state flower of Texas grows in many kinds of soil, but the best is the light, sandy soil. One of the beauty spots of the state during bluebonnet time is Old Indianola, down on Matagorda Bay, says Mrs. Robinson. Here the soil is coarse, white sand mixed with shell, which means it's rich in lime.

In rich, well fertilized soil, the bluebonnets grow tall stalks, lots of leaves, but few blooms. Bluebonnets need plenty of sunshine and good drainage at all times. They can be transplanted, but will do better if they are left where planted. Up in the Panhandle area of Texas, it gets a mile too cold for bluebonnets the year round, so they can be grown in frame gardens or pots during the winter and set out in the open in the early spring.

Peanut and peanut butter can be used in many ways in cooking everything from soup to desserts. Peanuts go well with such vegetables as cabbage, celery, eggplant, onions and potatoes.

Trumanite

Howard Dailey heads a Dallas delegation loyal to Truman and the party, which will contest seating at the Democratic state convention in Fort Worth of a Dixiecrat group, which was officially seated at the Dallas county convention. Dailey, one of the state's most able lawyers, believes, he said, that the Truman-Barkley ticket will win in November.

Uncle Sam's Selective Service

(Editor's note: Below is second installment of a series of questions and answers on the second peacetime military training program. It has been prepared under the direction of the Texas Director of Selective Service, Maj. Gen. K. L. Berry.)

CLASSIFICATION PROCEDURE

Q—How will classification of registrants take place?

A—Registrants will be given detailed questionnaires by their local boards which will provide basis for classification.

Q—How long will a registrant have to fill out this questionnaire?

A—It must be returned completed to the local board within five days.

Q—If they need it, who can help the registrants in completing the questionnaire?

A—In each local board area an Advisory Board for Registrants, composed of one or more registrants serving without pay, will assist registrants in answering the questionnaire.

Q—What will the questionnaire include?

A—It will consist chiefly of questions which will divulge information on which the registrant's desirability for military training will be determined. It will call for detailed information on a registrant's family, economic, physical, and occupational conditions.

Q—Will this information be kept confidential?

A—All information of a personal nature given in the questionnaire will be kept confidential.

Q—What is the importance of the questionnaire?

A—On the basis of the answers given to these questions, the local boards will determine whether the registrant should be classified as available for immediate induction into training or should be temporarily or permanently deferred from the training program.

Q—Must claims for a deferred status be made at the time the questionnaire is filed?

A—Yes. Unless the registrant demonstrates in his questionnaire by specific request a desire for a status, he will be classed as immediately available for the training program.

Q—How many is it anticipated will be disqualified under the standards expected to be fixed for service?

A—The National Director of Selective Service expresses the possibility that 40 per cent will be disqualified.

VETERANS NEWS

Dependents of deceased World War II veterans who get death compensation checks from the Veterans Administration will receive individual reminders of their possible entitlement to income tax refunds, and of the necessity for applying for them before the end of the year, VA reports.

The refunds, authorized by public law 367 of the 80th Congress, apply to certain income taxes of members of the armed forces who died while in active service between December 7, 1941 and December 31, 1947. Application must be made by December 31, 1948.

Subject to refund under the law are all Federal income taxes paid by or on behalf of such members of the armed forces for the taxable year in which they died, and for prior tax years dating back to December 7, 1941, during any part of which they served.

Most members of the armed forces—particularly enlisted men—were exempt from income tax under special wartime law. Consequently, the number entitled to rebates is not expected to be large and the VA notice advises dependents first to make sure taxes actually were paid before seeking refunds.

Forms for applying may be obtained from the office of any collector of internal revenue (Form 843). Applications for refunds and any correspondence on the subject also should be directed to the Collector of Internal Revenue where the tax was paid, and not to VA or the Bureau

The number of veterans of all wars reached 18,744,000 on May 1, 1948, the VA reports. Of these 14,887,000 served in World War II. The remainder were veterans of World War I and other wars.

In 1955, VA predicts, the number of veterans of all wars will be 17,200,000 and the number of persons in their families, 42,900,000.

Treated Wheat Gives Best Winter Yield

Two things that small grain farmers should remember before planting winter grain crops are pointed out by extension agronomists of Texas A. & M. College.

One is to be sure that all weed seeds have been cleaned out of the grain supply. Weeds won't do a grain any good, and the time to get the weeds out is before planting time. Weeds take up moisture and plant food that could otherwise be used by the small grains.

The second reminder is the idea of planting chemically treated seed. For small grain crops the best seed should be planted in order to expect the best crop.

Chemical treatments will protect seed from grain smuts, seed rots and seedling blights. Stinking smut struck hard in the 1948 wheat crop, so it is doubly important to plant treated seed this time.

Whether or not smut is present in your wheat crop is by the foul odor and the slightly darker green heads of wheat. During the combining operations the smut balls break open and scatter millions of the black spores over the healthy seed. And that's about the end of a good wheat crop.

Loose smut of wheat leaves the grain heads empty and black. If this was your trouble last season, get this season's seed from growers who did not have loose smut in their fields.

Wheat, totalling $48,367,000, was the greatest source of farm income in July; cotton, second, registered $43,716,000; and cattle sales totaled $24,874,000.

Northern High Plains turned in the highest farm cash income in July—$41,267,000, reflecting larger wheat sales from a month earlier, advanced greatly by the new cotton crop. Lower Rio Grande Valley income totaled $32,593,000 in July, for second place, and Southern Texas Prairies, $24,689,000.

June-to-July gains occurred in Lower Rio Grande Valley, South Texas Plains, Northern High Plains, and Southern Texas Prairies, while other districts showed declines from 13 per cent in Southern High Plains to 47 per cent in Red Bed Plains.

All districts except Southern Texas Prairies and South Texas Plains reported income below July 1947. Farm income in Northern High Plains dropped 37 per cent; Red Bed Plains, 43 per cent; and Western Cross Timbers and Black and Grand Prairies, 26 per cent.

From January through July, farm cash income totaled $695,105,000, falling 12 per cent below a like period in 1947.

Lubbock, Sept. 7—Classes will begin Sept. 20 at Texas Technological college with an estimated 6,800 students.

Early registration has reached the 4,000 mark through replies to pre-registration forms mailed by the Registrar's office.

Elks Will Award 200 College Scholarships in $60,000 Competition

New York—Two hundred college scholarships totalling $60,000 will be awarded in the seventh annual Most Valuable Student Competition conducted by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, John F. Malley, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Elks National Foundation, announced today.

Elks scholarships are a part of our Order's program of positive Americanism to develop young men and women better equipped for citizenship in a democracy," Mr. Malley stated.

Competitions will be conducted in every state and the possessions of the United States. The awards are financed by income from the Foundation's $2,000,000 trust fund supplemented by funds from state associations and subordinate lodges, Mr. Malley said.

Safety Campaign To Reduce Child Accidents Urged

A state-wide effort to reduce Texas' child accident toll of about 900 lives yearly through participation in the national child safety campaign in September was set forth by Dr. George Cox, State Health Officer, as an immediate public health objective calling for concerted cooperation by all public health and medical organizations within the state.

The needless loss of a single life, or the crippling of even one child, is an exorbitant price to pay for any neglect of this problem," said Dr. Cox.

The importance of such a campaign is evidenced by the fact that accidents are now the leading cause of death among children more than one year old. Among children 5 to 9 years old, the death rate from accidents was 25.7 per 100,000, as compared with a rate of 4.6 for rheumatic fever and organic heart diseases, the next cause, and among children from 9 to 14, the accident death rate was 29.8 and that for rheumatic fever and organic diseases 7.2.

The outstanding improvement in the death rates from all non-accident causes during recent years is the result of the advance in medical science and concentrated efforts in the field of child health. The premise of the child safety campaign is that efforts now must be intensified to bring about a somewhat comparable reduction in the number of child accidents.

OUR PLEDGE TO THE PUBLIC DELIVERIES—We will deliver all new Oldsmobiles at the earliest possible date consistent with production. TRADE-INS—We will take your order and deliver your car without requiring a trade-in. However, we have many valued used car customers we would like to supply, and we will give you a fair and reasonable allowance on your present car. FINANCING—You may pay cash for your new Oldsmobile or finance it wherever you wish. We will be glad to furnish low cost finance and insurance terms if you so desire. ACCESSORIES—All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered, and prices are figured to cover these. We pledge ourselves to add no "extras" except those each customer orders.

This is Our Policy... on DELIVERIES, TRADE-INS FINANCING, ACCESSORIES When an automobile manufacturer produces a car so obviously ahead of the times as the Futuramic Oldsmobile, it's only natural that demand for that product should reach record-breaking proportions. Add to this today's pent-up need for automotive transportation—plus continuing shortages of steel and other critical materials—and you'll see why we, as Oldsmobile dealers, have a real problem on our hands. We value the good will of all our customers. We would like to provide all our customers with new Oldsmobile cars. But unfortunately, this can't be done overnight. That is why we are taking this opportunity to reaffirm publicly our POLICIES ON NEW CAR DELIVERIES, as listed in the box at right. We believe that under present circumstances these policies constitute a sound basis for "fair play" to everybody. And we hope that, on this basis, we may continue to serve you and merit your patronage for Oldsmobile and for ourselves. YOUR OLDSMOBILE DEALER SPUR IMPLEMENT CO. PHONE 53 SPUR, TEXAS

ATTN FOR TOUGH HARVESTING

The All-Crop harvester has low-cost attachments to meet the toughest kind of harvesting... to keep moving under unfavorable conditions... to save precious seed, flax and beans... to pick up weather-beaten crops.

Perhaps you've never realized how much extra grain or seed you can save under difficult harvesting conditions with the right kind of attachment. Let's talk it over before this season gets under way.

FLAX ROLLER ATTACHMENT—Flattening feed action relieves flax harvesting headaches. Saves more seed.

SCOURLINE—Removes trash and weed seed in the field. Deposits weed seed in separate bag.

RADDLE TYPE PICKUP—On or off in 15 minutes. For harvesting small grain and seed crops where windrowing is necessary.
