Spur Rotary Hears Review

Mrs. Oscar McGinty reviewed the book "Garner Of Texas" at the Spur Rotary Luncheon, on Thursday, October 21.

In a most interesting manner Garner's life was outlined from his early boyhood, spent with his parents near Jefferson, Texas, to his association with a Clarksville, Texas law firm, his first public office—that of county judge—his election to the State Legislature, his sixteen consecutive terms in the House of Representatives in Washington, D. C. and finally, his crowning culmination of public life as Vice President of the United States.

This richly informative review was well received by a large group of Rotarians and one visitor, Riley Wooten of McAdoo.

Four Charged In Theft Of Cattle

A wave of cattle theft that has plagued Dickens county cattle raisers for some time was believed to have been brought to an end Tuesday when Dickens county officers arrested and charged three men with the theft of five head of cattle from the Guitlar ranch in Dickens county on May 5. A fourth man was charged at the time of the arrest and was apprehended Wednesday in Merkel, Texas.

The four men named in the complaints sworn to by Sheriff C. C. Kimmel before District Attorney John B. Stapleton were Delbert Bailey, foreman of the Guitlar ranch, former hand at the L. D. Bond, former hand at the Guitlar ranch, Raleigh Garcia, Latin-American, hand at the Guitlar ranch. The fourth man named was Billy Bond, who was arrested in Merkel, Texas, Wednesday and returned to Dickens by Sheriff Kimmel.

Examining trial was held in Spur before Justice of the Peace, W. M. Malone, and bond in each case was set at $1500. Bailey was released on bond Wednesday and the others remained in the custody of Sheriff Kimmel, when they were unable to post the surety.

Bailey, L. D. Bond and Garcia had all signed statements, county officers said. The arrests were made after a few day's investigation on the part of Sheriff Kimmel, Deputy Sheriff Horace Cage, J. E. Russell, Matador, and Dub Grace, Lubbock, inspectors for the Texas Southwestern Cattle Raisers association, and District Attorney Stapleton.

Louis Davis is a patient in the Veterans Hospital at Amarillo.

New Relief Unit Is Organized In Dickens County

Plans were formulated in Dickens County last week for organization of a county-wide unit of CROP—Christian Rural Overseas Program—an organization through which rural and town people may contribute of their products for relief of needy people throughout the world.

George S. Link, Jr. was made chairman of the committee and Oscar McGinty, co-chairman.

The organization is sponsored by Church World Services, the Lutheran World relief, and Catholic Rural Life, and is responsible to them. This program is set up in the south by a committee made up of church and agricultural leaders and other public spirited citizens who make a canvass of the area. Each donor is urged to designate his gift to the church of his choice.

Products in this area most suitable for shipment are cotton, milo and wheat. Our government pays the shipping expenses overseas. They send this raw material in order that the mills and factories may get back into production, give people employment, and a chance to help themselves by making the raw material into food and clothing. Dickens county hopes to send ten bales of cotton and one carload of grain.

These gifts are made up of small gifts. A person may give any number of seed cotton that he wishes by leaving it at the gin. When there are enough of these gifts, the gin will make the bales. The procedure will be the same at the elevators.

If anyone wishes to give any other product of the farm, either livestock or agricultural products that are not suitable for overseas shipment, they will be sold and the money will be distributed by the Church World Service.

The U. S. Senate had a committee investigate CROP and they reported that it was the best means to get material to the needy overseas. It is the opinion of those in a position to know that there will be a great lack of food and clothing in 1948 and 1949. In CROP you are putting clothing on naked bodies of men, women and children, food into their hungry mouths, and helping to build back the emaciated bodies of our brethren of this war stricken world. We are CROP, giving the hope, faith, brotherly love, and evidence that a new day is coming.

Forms for donations will be available at all gins and elevators in Dickens county.

Mr. L. M. McCarty received a message that his sister, Mrs. Leanda Hilbrey of Parker Dam, California passed away October 28. She was the daughter of W. F. McCarty, former resident of Spur.

NEW STREET MARKERS—One of the "pet peeves" of newcomers to Spur, that of not being able to identify the streets, will soon be a thing of the past. . . . Pictured above, top left, is the type of new street marker that is being erected thruout the city. Top right, Mayor Martin Pope, Street Commissioner Spencer Campbell give the final touches to the first marker to go up. . . . kibitzers are Fred Kinney, Lion Club President, Lewis Lee, Lion Club Finance Officer, and Lion Director, Larry Boothe. Tax Collections Total Over $40,000

Tax collections in Dickens county for 1948 had reached $40,616.38, at the close of business on Tuesday, according to Assessor-Collector C. C. Kimmel.

Sheriff Kimmel stated that the Dickens County assessment was the largest in the history of the county. The total valuation of the county reached an all-time high of $3,890,000 this year with the state rate at 42c and the county 1.22, collections for the year are expected to go past 1947.

Payments made in October receive 3 per cent discount; November 2 per cent discount, and December 1 per cent discount. The taxes must be paid before February 1949. After a Feb. 2 penalty of 1 1/2 per cent goes on, and increases each month.

Collections for 1948 are about the same as collections for the same period in 1947.

Bulldogs Trim Crosbyton For 3rd District Win

The Spur Bulldogs hit No. 3 in conference play last Friday night when they defeated the powerful Crosbyton Chiefs by the score of 13 to 8.

Both Bulldog touchdowns came on long pass set-ups with hard drives for Neal victory. They "gave" the Chiefs their 8 points on fumbles.

Spur scored first in the opening of the second quarter from their own five yard line. Blair took a long pass for 38 yards to put the ball on Crosbyton's 25 yard line. Five plunges put the ball on the five and at the beginning of the second period, Blair on a reverse left-end sweep crossed the Chief's goal line standing up. Lindsey's kick for extra point was good.

Crosbyton received the kick-off after touchdown and Simmons, ace back, set the Bulldogs back with a quick kick to the Spur five yard line. The punt was good for 58 yards. Spur carried out to the 15 yard line, but a fumble gave Crosbyton the ball on Spur's 45. Two plunges by Simmons failed and on the third try he went over for the score. Kick for extra point failed.

A second Spur fumble gave Crosbyton an additional two points. The Bulldogs received the kick-off and were downed on the 26. A 15 yard penalty set them back to the 11, and then a fumble caused Spur to be down behind their goal line for a safety. Crosbyton led at half time 8 to 7.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter the Bulldogs had possession of the ball at midfield. A long pass from Simpson to Reynolds was good for about 45 yards with Simmons pulling Reynolds down on the 3 yard line. Back Joe Simpson drove across on the second try for the touchdown and victory for the Bulldogs. Lindsey's kick for extra point failed. Score, Spur 13, Crosbyton 8.

The Bulldogs have a rest this week, but will resume conference play on November 5, when they meet Abernathy at Jones Memorial Stadium. Game time is set for 8 p. m.

Dean Allen Will Review "Catalina" Here Nov. 2

Since the announcement last week that James G. Allen, Dean of Men at Texas Technological College, will present a book review on behalf of the Dickens County Library, Mrs. O. M. McGinty has learned that Dean Allen will review W. Somerset Maugham's novel "Catalina". The City Federation is sponsoring the review, which will be held at the Spur Inn on November 2 at 8:00 P. M.

Dean Allen has been a West Texas since 1927 when he joined the faculty at Texas Tech as an instructor in the English Department. He did his undergraduate work at Southern Methodist University where he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts; and then spent three years at Harvard doing graduate work in the field of English literature and psychology. Professor Allen became Dean of Men at the college in 1937.

In choosing Somerset Maugham's "Catalina" as the subject for his review, Dean Allen is reflecting his interest in contemporary literature. It is his belief that the teacher of literature should keep informed of the trends in writing in his period, when literary history is being made just as much as it was during Chaucer's or Shakespeare's time. He feels that Maugham deserves our critical attention because of his splendid contributions to contemporary fiction. Dean Allen considers Maugham's "Of Human Bondage" one of the dozen greatest novels written during the twentieth century. Dean Allen is active in his community being a steward in the Methodist Church, a Rotarian and a Mason. He is also a member of the State and National Associations of Deans and Advisors of Men, and a national officer of Alpha Phi Omega, national men's collegiate service fraternity. His social fraternity is Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Livestock And Corn Take Drop

Corn and some livestock continued downward at southwest firm markets during the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Sheep markets registered scattered weakness, although no major changes occurred. Feeder lambs changed hands at $13 to $18 Monday at San Antonio, $15 to $18 at Fort Worth, and $20 to $21 at Denver. Goats sold firm at San Antonio. Weathers moved mainly from $7 to $7.50, nannies $6 to $6.75, and kids $3 to $4.35. Demand improved for Montana Texas wools at $1.30 to $1.35 per clean pound. Mohair trading slowed, but prices held steady at 38 cents for adult and 38 for kid.

Hogs closed this week about unchanged at Texas markets but recorded losses of around 50 cents to $1 at other terminals. Bulk of good and choice medium weight butchers cashed Monday around $26 at San Antonio and Denver, $26.25 to $26.50 at Fort Worth, and $25.50 to $26 at Oklahoma City, Wichita and Kansas City.

Cattle prices fell mostly 50 cents to $1.50 for the week at Texas and Oklahoma markets, although Kansas City and Denver showed little change. Slaughter steers and yearlings were scarce at most terminals. Common and medium cows sold from $16 to $18 Monday at Houston and Wichita, and $15.50 to $17 at San Antonio. Common to good cows ranged from $15 to $20 at Fort Worth, and cutter to medium grades $14 to $17 at Oklahoma City. Canners and cutters brought $14 to $16.50 at Kansas City.

Sorghums advanced 11 cents a hundred for the week to reach $2.57 to $2.62 Monday at Texas common points. Wheat gained two cents a bushel to bring $2.43 1/4, and oats rose two to 95 to 96 cents at Galveston. Both white and yellow corn dropped 10 to 12 cents. White corn sold Monday at $1.75 to $2, and yellow corn $1.55 to $1.58.

Rice markets strengthened during the past week, as a large part of the crop was stored for the government loan. Steady to firm trends prevailed on southwest feed markets. Hay values turned firmer as frosty weather came to the southwest. Peanuts sold at support levels as harvesting reached a peak in many areas.

Egg markets continued seasonally firm for the week, with farm prices of fresh eggs especially strong. Prices ranged mostly from 40 to 55 cents a dozen for the different qualities and locations. Turkeys and chicken hens remained firm. Spring chickens headed at recent declines. Arkansas growers received mostly 30 cents.

Many southwest fruits and vegetables sold in firmer markets during the week. Increasing shipments of citrus fruits and fall vegetables found their way to consuming centers. Carrots of green beans, cucumbers, oranges, sweet potatoes and mixed vegetables rolled out of Louisiana. Texas shipped grapefruit, oranges, lemons, carrots, lettuce, peppers, cucumbers, egg plant, and mixed vegetables. Colorado moved carloads of apples, pears, potatoes, onions, carrots, cauliflower, celery and mixed lots. Carrots rolled from New Mexico and Kansas loaded a few onions and pears.

Cotton Trading Continues Brisk

Cotton trading in Oklahoma and Texas markets last week even topped the previous week's brisk business, reports the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Dallas, Houston and Galveston sold more cotton last week than in any preceding week in the last few years. Sales reached 188,546 bales. Similar heavy sales were recorded at the other seven spot markets of the country, making a grand total of 403,200 bales for the week, about 19 per cent more than for the previous week, but less than a year ago.

Prices remained firm as demand continued good for current ginnings. Buyers from both domestic mills and exporters were in the market. Qualities most in demand included Strict Low Middling bright and better, ranging in staple lengths from 15/16 inch through 1-1/32 inch. Also demand for Low Middling in the shorter staple lengths was good.

Qualities most in demand in the country embraced Low Middling through Strict Middling White cotton, ranging in staple lengths from 13/16 inch through 15/16 inch.

USDA reports that 1,390,460 bales of cotton have been classed through October 22 in the two states. Of this amount, 999,747 bales were for farmers in Smith-Doxey groups and 183,842 for adequate funds. Cottonseed prices went up about $1.00 per ton in Texas. Prices paid to farmers averaged $66.29 for the state. Oklahoma average price remained unchanged at $66.60 per ton.

Cotton Farmers To Get Emergency Aid

WASHINGTON—The Agricultural Department announced Thursday an emergency program of financial aid for cotton farmers who have been unable to get government price-supporting loans on their crops.

It will advance $50 a bale to the farmers on cotton stored in insured warehouses. A similar program for farm-stored cotton will be adopted later, if needed.

The Department said a shortage of government cotton classifiers has greatly delayed the work of making loans to growers on this year's big crop. This shortage was said to be due largely to in-

When the cotton is classified as to grade, the grower will be paid the balance on the loan—that is, the difference between the $50 advance and the full amount of the loan, which is 92.5 per cent of parity, or averaging roughly $155 a bale.

The advances will be made through the county Agricultural Conservation committee offices. Officials said these offices will be prepared to make the advances within a few days.

Mrs. George Barnes reported a very interesting trip to Mexico City when she returned early this week. Mrs. Barnes flew from Dallas to Mexico City for a two week visit with her son, Dr. Charles M. Barnes, who is connected with Joint American Commission for Eradication of Afosa.

Building Permits Rise 9 Per Cent

AUSTIN, Oct. 27.—Texas building permits rose 9 per cent from August to September, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

Building permits for 49 Texas cities totaled $32,806,483 or 1 per cent under September 1947.

After adjustment for seasonal variation, the Bureau's index of building permits climbed 31 per cent to stand at 683 per cent of the prewar base (1935-39) period.

Building permits more than doubled August levels in Texas City, Marshall, Jacksonville, Brownsville, Lubbock and El Paso.

Counter to the upward trend, sharp declines from August occurred in Lockhart, 87 per cent; Denton, 74 per cent; Edinburg, 66 per cent; Nacogdoches, 64 per cent; and New Braunfels, 54 per cent.

Cities doubling buildings permits from September 1947 were Snyder, Lockhart, Childress, Lubbock, and Tyler. On the other hand, substantial decreases were turned in by Midland, 75 per cent; Palestine, 71 per cent; Brownwood, 65 per cent; Bryan, 62 per cent; Nacogdoches, 61 per cent; and Gainesville, 55 per cent.

Leading the State for three consecutive months, Houston's building permits totaled $7,842,058. Dallas was second, with Fort Worth and Lubbock followed in that order.

Hogs On The Air

NASHVILLE, TENN.—Ernest Tubbs, star of the "Grand Ole Opry," and Blake Pullen, southern livestock manager of the Ralston Purina company, discuss "Mike," one of the two pigs being featured in a pig-growing demonstration on the "Grand Ole Opry" over WSM here. The two pigs "Mike and Ike" are litter-mates, but "Mike" is being fed a balanced Purina Hog ration while "Ike" gets corn and shorts. This feature on the air is part of a series of "Mike and Ike" demonstrations being conducted all over the country to show the importance of good feeding in raising hogs.

Girl Scout Week To Be Observed By Spur Girl Scouts

Nations and communities are realizing more than ever before that the education of young people in one country can effect the entire world. It is of real importance, therefore, that each of us assume responsibility for seeing that boys and girls in our community get the kind of citizenship training that will make a better world for all youth.

The Girl Scout movement has always been recognized as a way of developing good citizens. The original troop in Savannah, Georgia, was started in 1912 by Juliette Low. Ever since this early beginning, Girl Scouts have always been planned as small democratic working groups in which girls elect their own officers, delegate authority, make their own arrangements, and accept responsibility for carrying them out.

The fundamental aim of Girl Scouting is the development of each girl into a well rounded individual and an intelligently participating member of her own group and her community now and in the future. The ideals are embodied in the Girl Scout Promise and Laws.

Girl Scout week is celebrated every year during the week of Juliette Low's birthday, October 31. The days are cal-ed the seven service days, and on them Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts make a special effort to show the community what they are doing. It begins with Girl Scout and Brownie Scout Sunday, followed by home making day, Monday, Citizenship day, Tuesday, Health and Safety day, Wednesday, International day, Thursday Arts and Crafts day, Friday, Out of Doors day, Saturday.

Hallowe'en Motif Is Dinner Feature

A colorful Hallowe'en motif was carried out when Mrs. W. O.

A Mexican style dinner was served at six brightly decorated tables to the following guests: Dollie Hagins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott, Dempsey Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Condron, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Harris of Kalgary, Mr. and Mrs. Dub Ruffield, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ross of Detroit, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Yeakley, Melvin Rape of Plainview, Curtis Kimmel of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hagins, Margaret Davenport and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Davenport.

Mrs. Ella Miller and Miss Jenny Shields went to Abilene Friday in response to the death message of Mrs. W. H. Miller. They returned to Spur Monday.

Mrs. Joe McDaniel
H. D. Club Hostess

A very interesting discussion, "History in the Making", was given by Mrs. W. T. Williams and Mrs. Ollie Hindman when the Soldier Mound H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. Joe McDaniel on October 21.

After roll call was answered with a current event, Mrs. McDaniel read a poem entitled, "Just For Today". Mrs. Floyd Barnett was the game prize winner.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served to Meses: W. H. Condon, Jack Aston, Floyd Barnett, W. T. Williams, T. B. Watson, Dee McArthur, Tom Condon, Ollie Hindman, and the hostess, Mrs. McDaniel.

ACA Program Is Important, Local Chairman States

Main Street as well as the farmer depends on rich fertile land for health and prosperity, says Joe M. Rose, Chairman of the Dickens County Agricultural Conservation Committee.

"All people, whether in town or on the farm, depend on the land for food and clothing. Poor land doesn't produce enough to feed the farmer and his family and an additional amount to be sold in the grocery stores in town. And poor land produces poor food.

Poor land and resulting poor crops mean less money for the things that the farmer needs. Poor crops mean less money to be spent on Main Street, less for clothing, machinery, homes and home furnishings.

These are some of the reasons the Chairman points out, why the assistance given farmers under the Agricultural Conservation Program means as much to the business men in town as they do to the farmer. This assistance makes it possible and supplies the incentive for farmers to carry out conservation practices which not only keep soil from washing and blowing away but build it up for continuing production.

The 12 years of conservation work under the AC Program helped make possible the record-breaking crop this year, says the chairman. Bigger crops mean more food for health and energy.

"Through the Agricultural Conservation Program the Nation is investing in better living for the people in town as well as the farmer."

Scout Meeting

In the Girl Scout, Troop 2, meeting on October 20, we had the fly-up ceremonies of the former Brownie Scouts. Mrs. Miller assisted with the ceremonies.

Refreshments were served to Sue King, Gwendolyn Ford, Billie Sue Gregory, Dean Regan, Carol Carpenter, Margaret Pierce, Marilyn Miller, Jane Ann Albini, Kathleen Kelly, Sandra Watson, Gail Love, Helen Dean Busham, Patricia Pugh, Yvonne Adams and Merla Bee Foreman. The Scouts who "flew-up", Dixie Carol Young, Nannette Alexander, Lenora Wilson, Gail Buzbee, and Marion Carlyle. Reporter—Carol Carpenter

Milk production in Texas ranges from a high of 143 per cent of average in early summer to a low of 62 per cent by early winter. These extremes are costing the producers as well as the manufacturer.

He Helped to Feed the World

EDGAR S. McFADDEN
TEXAS AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION
COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
(PART OF THE TEXAS A. & M. COLLEGE SYSTEM)

DEVELOPED NEW RUST-RESISTANT WHEAT NOW GROWN ON MILLIONS OF TEXAS ACRES.

Edgar S. McFadden, agronomist for the United States Department of Agriculture, stationed at the A. and M. College of Texas since 1935, is credited with having done more than any other living man to feed this hungry world. Breeder of the first rust-resistant bread wheat, named "Hope," he has made it possible to grow wheat on millions of acres throughout the world where it could not be successfully grown before. His discovery is authoritatively credited with having saved American farmers $400,000,000 a year during the past war and with having furnished bread for 25,000,000 people who would have died of starvation. His "Austin" wheat now grows on more than a million Texas acres and his new "Seabreeze" variety is spreading throughout the Gulf Coast area rapidly.

Conservation Is Important Says
Agri. Secretary

Some of our most important soil-conservation gains cannot be measured in statistics, Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan pointed out recently.

Commenting that the Agricultural Conservation Program represents a real progress but we must not become over-optimistic, the Secretary said, "We have finally recognized that economic conditions have a definite influence on the use and misuse of the soil. We have recognized that all of us share responsibility for building up and conserving the land. We have recognized not only that conservation payments are right in our democracy but also that they are a tremendously effective aid in getting the job done."

"We have built a great system of administration in which farmers not only carry out a program but also study the needs of the local farms and help develop program improvements." These three principals were listed by Secretary Brannan as essential to the success of any national conservation program and as a defined and specific measure for the security of the United States.

(1) Any program should be administered by locally-elected farmer committees.

(2) We should assist and encourage farmers in establishing soil and water conservation practices by means of payment for practices performed.

(3) We should provide the technical assistance necessary in making complete conservation plans and carrying out complicated practices on farms.

Ice crystals in ice cream can be reduced by fast freezing or stirring adding air by beating or by adding whipped egg whites, whipping cream or gelatin.

Dickens Soldier On Duty In Japan

1948 Champions of the Highway

Chester W. Smith, left, of Santa Ana, Calif., 1948 champion, truck and full trailer class, the biggest over-the-highway vehicles, who won his title in Denver, Colo., Sept. 26th, congratulates Thomas E. Benname of Detroit, Mich., who has just become champion of the straight truck class in Washington. Both champions drove Reos.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Before a cheering crowd in the National Guard Armory here, Thomas E. Benname, 43, of Detroit, Mich., defeated 27 other state title-holders to become the 1948 National Truck Roadshow champion in the straight truck competition. Benname, a driver for Trucking, Inc. of Detroit, drove a Reo truck around the difficult Roadshow course to score 385.62 points out of a possible 400, a new record. Second to Benname, with 362.88, was J. T. Munro, only 17, of Biloxi, Miss., and Lester Wyatt of Galesburg, Ill., who scored 353 in a Reo, was third. Drivers are given free choice of new equipment for the contest. Scores are determined from written and appearance tests as well as the spectacular driving ordeal. In the tractor semi-trailer class, Grayson Thomas of Burlington, N. C., won with 338.50. Second was Vernon Hancock of Kansas City, Mo., who drove a Reo, and third was Lloyd Baker of Norwalk, Ohio. The Truck Roadshow, designed to promote highway safety among professional truck drivers, was held as a feature of the 15th annual convention of the American Trucking Association.

AGRICULTURE'S POSITION

Organized agriculture still trails industry and labor. It's up to those interested in agriculture to identify themselves unambiguously with the farm organization. Indifference on the part of farmers and those depending directly on their welfare no longer gets the job done. Now is the time to help by uniting with the national and state farm bureau organizations.

Nailing Down A "Special Privilege"

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of elections. When a man can "elect" to do this or that he is a free man. A man has a sense of dignity, of worth, of self-respect—a state of well being that money cannot buy—when he can elect to speak out, or to vote, for or against someone or something.

This freedom of "election" has been banished from the public policy of nation after nation. Everywhere today, man, the individual, is submitting to various degrees of enslavement through regimentation. Minority's voice is silent, free discussion gone, one's own life is directed in its most intimate details, the right to elect, to choose these inalienable rights are denied millions upon millions of men and women today.

"Election" by the individual has always had to fight for its life. The real issue is not out in the open. No ambitious ruler ever announces that he is taking something away from the individual. He promises much. He presents a bargain. He does not disclose his hand. He never shows the price tag. No dictator ever described himself as a dictator, as bent upon destroying man's freedom of choice. He has a Plan, a five-year plan or a ten-year plan. He does not tell the people a simple truth, which they should know for themselves, that every economic plan to be successful means they must be moulded into it.

Discipline and compulsion—the antithesis of freedom—is written large upon the back of every blueprint of political planners. Such plans are full of "musts." "Must" is the first word in the vocabulary of a dictator; it is repugnant to a free American.

November is at hand. The highest attribute of a free man is that freedom to exercise his choice at the ballot box. That right to elect cause the American to walk with a swing such as seen on not many other highways of the world, makes him grovel before no one, stand in awe of no man. The ballot box makes him a peer, in fact a free man. As a free man, he can ever so often choose his political servant, can elect the agent to represent him and his views. He can change his system of government by exercising this freedom of choice. He can repudiate and renounce his representative democracy and can set up instead a monarchy, communism, or indeed, a dictatorship. He can abolish courts, and institute a Star Chamber. He can vote away every vestige of law and order and duty and restraint. He can vote himself out as master and make his political servant his divine ruler. He thus whittles away his freedom of choice. By the same token he can, through his intelligence and vigilance, preserve it for himself and his children.

Voting, like other rights, carries with it a duty, a duty to exercise the option. By the way, have you a date with your responsibility on November the Second?

Gov. Stevenson and Party Loyalty

The Following Editorial Appeared in the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram, October 19:

An editorial one day last week we made the statement that Lyndon Johnson won the Democratic nomination for United States Senator and the legal right to have his name on the November election ballot just as his opponent, former Governor Coke Stevenson, had on several previous occasions.

Our deemed contemporary, The Dallas Morning News, has challenged that statement with the assertion that "Mr. Johnson did exactly no such thing."

Let's see. Mr. Stevenson made his first statewide race in 1938 when he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the lieutenant governorship. In 1940 he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for re-election to that office. In 1942 and again in 1944 he was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor.

In each of these instances primary elections were held, after which the judges of each voting precinct in the state made a report on the number of ballots cast for each candidate, as required by law. Then the county executive committees met in each county, canvassed the returns and certified the results to the State Democratic Executive Committee.

In due time the state committee met, canvassed the returns from the several counties and certified the results to the State Democratic Convention. On the basis of these certificates the state conventions declared the candidate who had received a majority of the votes the party's official nominee for the office sought, and so notified the Secretary of State. This official notice was the secretary of state's authority for placing the nominee's name on the ballot to be used in the general election.

The routine followed in certifying the results of the primaries and in officially declaring the nominee is the routine prescribed by state law. It is precisely the routine used after the recent primary in which Lyndon Johnson and Mr. Stevenson were candidates for the United States Senate. In the 1938, 1940, 1942 and 1944 races in which Mr. Stevenson was engaged the vote canvassing and certifying routine showed that he had received a majority of all votes cast, and the State Democratic Convention accordingly formally declared Mr. Stevenson its nominee for the office he sought.

In the senatorial race this year the vote canvassing and certifying showed that Lyndon Johnson had received a majority of all the votes cast. It was a slim majority, it is true, only 87 votes. But it is immaterial whether it was 87, 870 or 8,700. Having determined that Mr. Johnson had received a majority, the State Democratic Convention formally declared him its nominee for United States senator.

So, we reiterate our statement that Mr. Johnson won the nomination, and the legal right to have his name on the November ballot just as Mr. Stevenson had done on several previous occasions.

Mr. Johnson was put to some inconvenience and expense by the fact that Mr. Stevenson proved to be a hard loser. It was the first time, so far as we know, that Mr. Stevenson had ever lost out in a political race, and he just couldn't take it. He and his supporters tried to get the State Democratic Executive Committee to change the rules of the game after the game was over, but the committee followed the established rules—and the law—and its course was overwhelmingly ratified by the State Democratic Convention the next

Joe Naylor of San Antonio has made an outstanding success as a publisher. Some of the books bearing the Naylor imprint have achieved great sales and have received praise from such far-away journals as the New York Herald-Tribune, to name one. But not from the Dallas News. Lon Tinkle, the college professor who edits the News' book page, seems to have a policy of ignoring Naylor books or "damning with faint praise."

Which leads up to an incident this summer at the Writers Conference in Corpus Christi where Tinkle told of a visit to New York, where he was introduced to Harold Ross, editor of that clever and sophisticated magazine, The New Yorker. Ross acknowledged the introduction (said Tinkle) with:

"If you are from Texas, where is your manuscript?" Then Ross said in substance, "Texas is writing and producing perhaps more good books than any other part of the country."

Tinkle having completed his story, then presented different materials to the Writers' Conference. When he presented Naylor, the publisher responded with a verbal punch that, in prize-ring parlance, he "brought up from the floor." In a tone that sizzled with sarcasm, Naylor said:

"It should not have been necessary for you, Mr. Tinkle, a book page editor, to have to go all the way to New York to find out that good books are being written and published in Texas." The audience gasped, then laughed and applauded. Tinkle staggered back as though the words had been a blow. (That round, at any rate, was

Carl R. Gray, Jr., Administrator of Veterans Affairs, will visit Southwestern installations of the Veterans Administration next month. It will be Gray's first official visit to Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi since he was appointed head of the VA by President Truman to succeed General Omar Bradley, now Army Chief of Staff.

Gray left the position of Vice President of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway System to come to Texas. He has had an active railroad career since his youth in Kansas.

During World War II, Gray served overseas 34 months as Director General, Military Railway service in North Africa, Italy and Southern France. Later, he became Director General of Military Railway Service in the European Theatre of Operations.

Gray, a Major General, commanded approximately 25,000 officers and men and supervised military railroad traffic over a system embracing more than 46,000 miles of lines.

'The Babe Ruth Story' Is Set For Local Screening

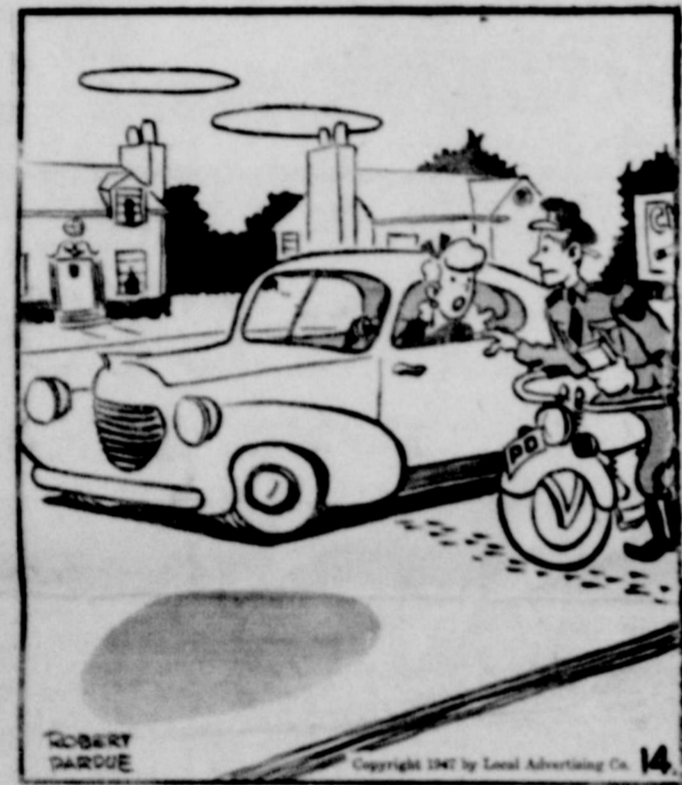

WILLIAM BENDIX as "THE BABE" autographs a baseball for youngsters in this scene from Allied Artists' "THE BABE RUTH STORY."

Acclaimed by critics as one of the most dramatic and entertaining film stories ever to reach the screen, Roy Del Ruth's Allied Artists production, "The Babe Ruth Story," has been eagerly awaited by local theatre audiences. The picture opens an engagement at the Palace theatre on Sunday, with William Bendix, Claire Trevor and Charles Brockford in the starring roles.

This screen story covers the entire career of the fabulous "Sultan of Swat," with particular emphasis on the baseball prowess which made him the most spectacular player in the history of the game.

"The Babe Ruth Story" comes to bat with scenes of the Babe's early life in Baltimore, Maryland, where his father ran a stars in "The Babe Ruth Story" includes Sam Levene, who portrays a sports-writing newspaperman; Matt Briggs, William Frawley and Gertrude Niesen, whose singing provides highlights in the film. Also featured in songs are The King's Men and the Mitchell Boychoir.

Scenes were filmed at the Yankee Stadium in New York, at major league ball parks throughout the country, at Baseball's Hall of Fame in Coppers-town, N. Y., and in a specially constructed Yankee Stadium on a Hollywood sound stage. A second production unit filmed ball-playing scenes under the direction of D. Ross Lederman, Phil Tannura was the photographer, and the musical score was prepared by Eddie Ward.

The screen play is by Bob Considine, who wrote the book of the same title, and George Callahan, who spent nearly a year working with producer-director Del Ruth.
