Rites Conducted For Puckett Twins

One of the most unusual stories of World War II closed its final chapter here Wednesday when reburial services were held for twin brothers, Clifton and Clifford Puckett, who lost their lives defending and recapturing Corregi-

Services were conducted at the First Methodist Church with Rev. L. L. Hill, officiating, at 10 a. m. Wednesday. Military graveside services were conducted at Post, Texas, at 12:30 p. m. under the direction of the Williams-Puckett Post No. 161 of the American Interment was in Post cemetery under the direction of Campbell's Funeral Chapel.

The story began in May of 1942 with the fall of the tiny island T off the tip of Bataan peninsula in the Phllippines. Clifford D. Puckett of Spur. who had been serving with the U. S. Air Force T near Manila at the outbreak of war, was among those Americans Advance who had withdrawn to Corregi- church to dor for a last-ditch defense, and who were taken prisoners by the L. Japanese when Gen. Jonathan Me. Wainwright surrendered.

Puckett had contracted malaria during those final weeks of resistance on Bataan and Corregidor, and about two weeks after his capture died of the disease a prison camp on the island ford's death, his twin, Clifton L., was killed as American forces recaptured Corregidor. Clifton, a paratrooper was wounded by enemy rifle fire Feb. 24, 1945, and died the next day aboard a hospital ship enroute to Manila. Returning because of the thusiastic reception given them by Stock Show visitors a year ago, the irrepressible "mad men of mirth" will present the all-new "Laffacade of 1949" each night and at five matinees Jan. through Feb. 6.

The show, loaded to the brim with new acts, new gags and sketches, new comedy ideas and giveaway gimmicks, plus a dancing line of 24 girls, singing chor-us of 24 and a large orchestra, will be staged in Will Rogers Memorial Auditorium on the Stock Show grounds.

Olen Olsen and Chic Johnson, tars of the original "Hellzapoppin' " show which ran for 1,125 performances on Broadway, will come to Fort Worth from en-gagements in Kansas City and Miami Beach, Fla. They recently played to 322,000 persons in 14 lights at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto, Canada-14.000 more than regular seating

The giveaway portion of the 1948 show, during which an as-sortment of prizes were handed ut to delighted spectators, will be epeated in an all-new fun form. In addition to the night performances, matinees are set for Jan. 29 and 30 and Feb. 2, 5 and 6.
