Belden's Texas Poll Featured In Texas Spur

Beginning in this issue, the Texas Spur brings to its readers the weekly reports of the Texas Poll showing what the statewide public thinks about major questions of the day.

This week's report deals with what people think about government rent control. In coming weeks, the poll will tell you how the public rates the men who are expected to run for governor, how the public stands on the question of allowing women to serve on juries, and other interesting issues.

The Texas Poll is an independent institution devoted to measuring public opinion. It was started by Joe Belden in 1940 as the first state opinion survey in the United States. For rights to publish the results, Texas newspapers share the costs of conducting the poll.

The poll operates under the principle that the collective opinion of a relatively small but accurate cross section of adults is the same as that of the entire adult population.

In order to measure statewide opinion, the poll has trained interviewers to work in cities, towns, villages and farm areas all over Texas. These interviewers question a cross section of people made up of the correct proportions of men and women of various ages and walks of life. The interviewers receive their instructions from the headquarters of the Poll in Austin, Texas.

POLL REVEALS TEXANS OPPOSED TO IDEA OF RENT CONTROL

By Joe Belden
Director, The Texas Poll

AUSTIN, Texas, April 21—Now that Congress has passed the bill to the states, government rent control in Texas is on shaky ground.

A majority of adults questioned in a recent statewide survey indicate they are opposed to the idea of rent control. Opposition comes mainly from home owners. Renters tend to favor control, but even among this group four out of every ten say they don't believe the government should tell a landlord how much he can charge.

Interviewers for The Texas Poll in all parts of the state put this question to a cross section of the adult population.

"In your opinion, should a person who owns a house have the right to charge as much rent as he wants to, or do you think the government should tell him how much he can charge?"

Renters		Owners		All
Let landlord set the rent	44%	62%	55%
Let government set the rent	50%	32%	39%
No opinion	6%	6%	6%

Of all those questioned, 59 per cent said they lived in their own homes and 41 per cent said they rented. The 1940 U. S. Census showed only 43 per cent of the homes to be owner-occupied. The survey, therefore, indicates a considerable increase in home-owners during the last nine years.

Congress recently voted to allow a state legislature or a city council to lift government rent control in its area with the approval of the governor. Such action may be taken when it is determined that rental housing shortage no longer exists in the area.

In February, 1948, when Congress was considering an extension of the rent control law, The Texas Poll found three out of every four adults in favor of the law. The question put to a cross section of voters at that time was: "If you were a member of Congress, would you vote for or against a bill continuing rent control?"

New Well Boost Water Supply

Shown at left is Water Commissioner Edgar C. McGee standing by the new water well that was completed last fall and recently turned into the supply system. Lack of pipe had delayed this well from being put into use. The new well has a capacity of 300-gallons a minute and will be pumped at 200 gallons a minute with continuous pumping as the shallow wells weaken. With all five wells pumping the capacity is expected to be 750 gallons a minute, and additional wells planned for the summer will bring the capacity to 1,000 gallons a minute. Water from the well is 30 per cent softer than from the wells that have been pumped during the winter months. With this well, and the addition of others planned, water supply will be adequate for the swimming pool to open and continue thru the summer months.

1.35 Rainfall Is Recorded In Area

Heavy rains that started Monday night about 10:30 blanketed the entire area, and a total of 1.35 inches had been recorded at the Experiment Station at noon on Wednesday.

Damage over the plains area was caused by high wind and hailstones, but no damage was reported in Dickens county. Fields and ranges already in good condition after record January moisture, were greatly benefitted by the precipitation. A good yield is expected as results of the beneficial rains.

The 1.35 inches received this week brought the total rainfall for the county for 1949 to 6.66 inches as recorded at the experiment station. This is nearly three inches more moisture than for the same period a year ago. Rainfall in 1948, same period, totaled 3.18 inches.

According to officials at the Experiment station we are entering the period when desirable rainfalls may be expected. Over a period of 30 years, the total rainfall during the first 20-days of April has been 22.5 inches, and during the last 10 days of April the rainfall has been 29.10. Good rains have usually occurred during May and up until about the 10 of June, when the summer dry period sets in. Officials at the station told the TEXAS SPUR that this was not a prediction of weather for this year, but a statement as to the average conditions that have been recorded and studied at the station.

ATOMIC PROCESS SURPRISING

Upon the solid basis of scientific and industrial achievements during the war, the United States is making great headway in atomic development and the possibility of the peacetime use of atomic energy is nearer than many of the experts dared to hope for years ago.

During the past four years, there has been a substantial gain, with improved knowledge and improved techniques enabling 4,500 workers to produce more and better fissionable material in the same period of time as was produced by 35,000 workers a few years ago. As a result, scientists and engineers look forward to the practical use of atomic energy as a source of power in the foreseeable future and present prospects indicate that the time limit may be appreciably reduced.

In addition, military officials who are informed of atomic production, both in quality and in quantity, are more than satisfied and greatly encouraged by the progress made.

The probability is that the United States is in possession of more powerful atomic weapons and a constantly growing stockpile. The progress made also tends to put this country that much ahead of other nations. Despite present production of atomic bombs in Russia, or elsewhere, the chances are that the United States will maintain its lead for some years to come.

BIG MILL PROTECTS ITS NEIGHBORS

In Colorado Springs, Colorado, the housewives are beginning to feel that they have found a big mill that is willing to spend thousands of dollars in order to be a "good neighbor."

It seems that the Golden Cycle Corporation, which grinds gold ores in its mill, accumulated a fair-sized hill of flour-fine dust, estimated at 13,000,000 tons. When the wind blew right, the dust blew off the top of the pile and into the windows of the homes of the community.

In order to prevent this inconvenience to the people around the mill, the Company laid a high-pressure water line around the rim of the pile, pierced at intervals, and when the dust start to blow, somebody turns on the water and the resulting geysers catch the moving dust and precipitate it to the ground.

We think that this illustration of a corporation's concern over the inconvenience caused the people of a community by its processes should be circulated. Too often in this country the men who operate business think of themselves as beneficent patrons of the community in which their plants are located, entitled to the homage and obeisance of the "natives" around the plants.

LIVING COSTS TO DROP TEN PER CENT

American consumers may expect a drop of about ten per cent in the cost of living during the present year, according to Dr. Ewan Clague, U. S. Commissioner of Labor, who says that statistics do not lead to the expectation of a greater increase.

A ten per cent decrease in the cost of living would be welcome, of course, but there are many Americans who look for a more substantial reduction. However, the welfare of the national economy as a whole must be considered and it is probable that more than a ten per cent reduction in the course of this year might cause severe dislocations in the economic machinery upon which all of us depend for our income.

TWELVE YEARS IN COURT

It is interesting to note that the Government's twelve-year-old anti-trust suit against the Aluminum Company of America has about entered what the lawyers think is its "final phase."

Readers will find it difficult to understand why the complaint, filed in 1937, has been pending in the courts so long. It should be noted, of course, that after a two-year trial which ended in 1940, a Federal judge dismissed the complaint. Five years later, a Court of Appeals reversed the judge's decision in part.

While every American interested in freedom desires to see the rights of individuals protected, it is obviously a farce when the government of the United States, or any other litigant for that matter, cannot get a final adjudication within the space of twelve years.

Mexican Officers Enroute to Kashmir for U.N.

Parents Day At Tech Planned May 1

Parent's Day at Texas Technological college is planned for May 1. Highlight of the special day will be a recognition service for all students who have attained scholastic achievement during the last two college semesters. Also holders and winners of scholarships and organizations with outstanding academic records will be recognized. Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of Texas Tech, will be principal speaker.

A reception for visiting parents is to be held in the reception hall at 4 p. m., following the recognition service at 2:30 p. m.

Student Council President, Clint Formby, has appointed Ted Forsythe, a council member from Lubbock, general chairman of arrangements.

Several thousand guests are expected.

HEALTH NOTES

AUSTIN, April 21 — Countless thousands of lives are lost annually throughout the nation from diseases that are transmitted by the common housefly. Dysentery, diarrhea, typhoid fever, tuberculosis and many other disabling and even fatal diseases are spread by flies, and the control of houseflies becomes of great importance when considered in the light of public health.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Officer, says that in order to protect our families we should make sure our homes are fly-proof through proper screening, and then concentrate on eliminating filth, garbage and other breeding places for flies.

"See that your window doors, and porches are screened so that the stray fly from some careless neighbor cannot molest your family," Dr. Cox said, "and make sure that your grocer observes proper sanitation standards and keeps your meat, food and vegetable supplies screened from flies."

"Then direct your efforts to eliminating all fly breeding places such as open garbage pails, open privies and other filth that offers the fly proper warmth, moisture and food. Flies thrive on filth, and inasmuch as one female housefly will lay from 500 to 1,000 eggs per season, it can easily be seen that one breeding place left available in a community, can be responsible for a tremendous horde of flies."

Dr. Cox recommended organized community efforts as being effective in ridding a community of flies, and emphasized that no matter how clean one family's home and premise are, they are still not safe if another home down the street leaves exposed filth where flies can breed.

Retail Sales Gain 21% Over February

Texas retail sales for March climbed 21 per cent above February to an estimated $434 million, preliminary tabulations made by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research showed.

Shoe stores, increasing 39 per cent, and lumber and building material dealers, 35 per cent, headed the list for largest advances over the previous month. Gaining impetus from the approaching Easter, March sales of women's specialty shops went to 38 per cent over the preceding month. General merchandise sales followed with a 27-per-cent rise for the same period. Other monthly increases over February were men's and boys' clothing stores, 23 per cent; department stores, 20 per cent; and filling stations, 20 per cent.

Rising 24 per cent over February, March sales of durable goods stores outranked nondurable stores which registered an 18-per-cent increase.

Retail sales throughout Texas fell 2 per cent in March below March 1943. Durable goods store

BOY AND GIRL VISITORS WIN WASHINGTON'S HEART

By EDWARD R. SIMS
Texas Spur's Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 21 — Washington, new center of the political and financial world, is expecting another tourist boom this summer. There are more automobiles, prices are somewhat down, and rooms are easier to find in the national capital. This should pack 'em in.

Tourists come here by the thousands every year, possibly by the million, or more. The best sight to see is the school groups which come here and spend a day or two. You see the school buses quite often, with Ohio or North Carolina written on the side. The bus may contain an entire class, or only those who have excelled and won the trip.

They are the eager-eyed, the awe-inspired visitors in Washington. They are the future great men of the country. They take it all in as if they were never coming back. And they look down upon the House and Senate as if it were something tremendously absorbing, and intellectual—which it sometimes is, but often isn't.

Groups from the Eastern metropolitan centers, obviously of foreign extraction, are led through the Capitol. They view the statues of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, Lee and Will Rogers. They see them all. For them it is especially good. But the groups which usually win the hearts of Washingtonians are the rural groups. These farm boys and girls are, after all, the backbone of the country.

They are the people who built and made this country great. And for them, a trip to Washington is really something. You can't help but feel it. From far out on a distant farm, they come to the national capital, the city where the laws are passed, the city which is the recognized center of western politics. Back on that farm, in long summer afternoons and on short and cold winter afternoons, as these boys and girls do their chores, they will remember that trip back to Washington.

And, you know, some of them make up their minds while in Washington as school kids to come back some day as a Congressman. Look in the Congressional Directory and you'll find that lots of 'em make that goal come true.

sales presented a healthier business picture, with a 7-per-cent advance over the 12-month period, than nondurable goods store sales, which slid 10 per cent in March below a year ago.

Motor vehicle and farm implement dealers turned in increases of 21 and 10 per cent, respectively, over March a year ago, while sales of other durable goods stores decreased. Jewelry store and lumber and building material dealers' sales dropped 15 per cent; hardware stores, 8 per cent; and furniture stores, 7 per cent.

March sales were from 1 to 25 per cent under a year earlier in all types of nondurable goods stores. Florists' sales declined 25 per cent; family clothing stores, 22 per cent; shoe stores and men's and boys' clothing stores, 19 per cent; and department stores, 14 per cent.

BABY SITTING CAMPAIGN PLANNED BY GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scout, Troop II met Thursday, April 14th in the Girl Scout Little House, with all but one member present. We discussed badges and played games.

The troop decided to begin a baby sitting campaign to earn money for summer camp. A Scene from "BELLE STARR'S DAUGHTER," starring GEORGE MONTGOMERY, ROD CAMERON, RUTH ROMAN. 20th Century-Fox release.

"BELLE STARR'S DAUGHTER"
BOLD ACTION DRAMA OF WEST
DURING MOST EXCITING ERA

With the presentation starting Sunday at the Palace Theatre of "Belle Starr's Daughters," written by W. R. Burnett, author of "High Sierra," Alton Productions brings to local moviegoers what is being acclaimed as one of the greatest stories ever told about the lawless territory of the Southwest which, for generations, was the stronghold of men—and women—who lived by the gun. A top cast of strong action players starring George Montgomery, Rod Cameron and Ruth Roman appears in the picture which is being released by Twentieth Century-Fox.

Burnett, one of film's top craftsmen, who set the pace for pictures of the gang wars of the '20's with his "Little Caesar" and "Scarface," has turned his eagle-eye attention in "Belle Starr's Daughter" to the fascinating saga of the Cimarron country and the colorful characters who inhabited it in the days when the law was just something to be broken.

Filled with strong excitement and thrilling action, the film unfolds the fast-moving story of Rose, the high-spirited daughter of the fabulous Bandit Queen of the Cimarron, who set out to more than live up to her bold heritage, and found herself involved between a desperado and a frontier marshal, both of whom wanted her love.

For beautiful Ruth Roman, the role of sultry and tempestuous Rose, is the best of her career, one that is likely to reemphasize the star-making reputation of W. R. Burnett films. The part of the U. S. Marshal in Cimarron territory is made to order for handsome George Montgomery, whose acting ability has catapulted him to the top of Hollywood's younger stars within a few years.

Another of the film's top performers, Rod Cameron, plays the role of the bandit chief who spells danger for everyone with whom he comes in contact, including the beautiful Rose.

Weekly Swings
SOUTHWEST FARM MARKET

Southwest farmers received to lower prices for most products during the past week the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Lamb prices dropped $3 to $5 from last Monday's record high prices at Fort Worth and $2 to $3 from last week's all-time high's at San Antonio. Oklahoma City and Denver also recorded losses of around $2 to $3 on lambs. Best spring lambs ranged from $26 to $28 Monday this week. Ewes lost 50 cents. Goats changed little.

There was little or no trading in wool or mohair last week. Dressed lamb prices fell $8 to $10 a hundred for the week at New York. Beef and mutton sold steady, veal $1 to $4 lower, and pork $1 lower to $1 higher. Sheep numbers rose sharply at all markets last week but failed to equal a year ago. Monday this week found sheep receipts down to about half those of a week earlier. Last week's receipts of cattle, calves and hogs held somewhat in line with the week before or a year ago at southwest and midwest markets.

Checking on the Palestine Truce

Hog prices continued downward by 50 cents to $1 for the week. Top hogs fell to $18 at Fort Worth Monday, the lowest since October, 1946. Best butchers moved at $18.50 at San Antonio and Oklahoma City, and $19.75 at Denver.

Cattle prices showed little change for the week. Good yearlings sold up to $27 at Houston Monday and $26.50 at San Antonio. Fort Worth took good and choice steers and yearlings at $24 to $28. Oklahoma City paid $20.25 for choice mixed yearlings.

Increasing supplies of spring vegetables brought generally lower prices last week. Demand slowed for south Texas products. Small sizes made up a large share of new potatoes, and prices fell. Onions, beans and squash became more plentiful. At other markets, lettuce, cabbage, green onions and strawberries weakened.

Sorghums gained 3 cents a hundred, as most other grains lost 1-2 to 3 cents a bushel. No. 1 wheat closed Monday at $2.38 to $2.45 at Texas common points. No. 2 white corn sold at $1.71 to $1.74, yellow $1.63 to $1.66, and milo $2.70 to $2.75.

Scattered lots of rough rice went to market last week, with short grades bringing slightly higher prices. Wheat millfeed prices continued to rise, although most other feeds sold unchanged or lower. Limited offerings of hay sold about steady under slow demand. Peanuts showed little change, as rains delayed planting.

Egg and poultry prices about steady for the Easter season. Current egg receipts brought mostly 39 to 41 cents a dozen at Dallas and Fort Worth, 39 at Denver, and 40 to 44 at New Orleans. Heavy hens sold from 32 to 34 cents a pound in north Texas, 39 to 41 at New Orleans, and 35 to 38 for heavy types at Denver.

Cotton advanced 25 cents to $1 a bale. Spot middling 15-16 inch closed Monday at 32.75 cents a pound at Houston, 32.60 at Dallas, and 32.95 at New Orleans.

Toxaphene New

Insect Killer

In Texas and twelve other cotton-producing states, a potent insect pest killer called toxaphene has been recommended this year for killing bugs which otherwise could do millions of dollars damage.

The other states are Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, and Tennessee. Texas, now undertaking an intensive early dusting program, recommended toxaphene for this as well as regular season dusting.

The 1949 Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects in Texas advises a mixture containing 20 per cent toxaphene and 40 cent sulphur for killing boll weevils, aphids, thrips, and fleahoppers in the early dusting drive. According to the Guide, two or three applications, seven to ten pounds to the acre, should be made at approximately seven-day intervals between first cultivation and first bloom.

For regular season dusting, the state's extension entomologists suggest the 20 per cent toxaphene, 40 per cent sulphur mixture for controlling aphids, bollworms, leafworms, and boll weevils; and a 10 per cent toxaphene dust for killing thrips, tarnished plant bugs, and similar insects.

Last year when toxaphene was sold commercially for the first time, more than 30,000,000 pounds were used in the war on insect pests.

Housewife Aid Sought In Farm Program of Gov't

WASHINGTON—The administration put in a bid Wednesday for housewife support of its new farm program, promising cheaper food.

But on Capitol Hill Rep. Pace (D-Ga.), a top farm leader, declared the program gives no assurance that food prices will come down. Instead, he said, it might mean merely bigger profits for the middlemen who handle, process and sell the things people eat.

Look at wheat, Pace suggested. A big drop in the price paid the farmers hasn't lessened the price the housewife pays for bread.

A battle shaped up between backers of: (1) The present principle whereby the government takes over surpluses so farmers can get fair prices in the market places, and (2) the new proposal that would let many foods sell as low as the markets offer, with the government paying the difference between what the farmers sell for and what the government considers a fair price.

The support by government loans on surplus production is program will not take over until 1950.

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan made the play for housewife backing of the new farm policy proposal in a speech before the economic action conference of the Cooperative League of the United States. He said:

1. He expects the government will be buying pork within 60 days to hold prices up, and he does not know where it can be stored.

2. About $5,000,000 a week is being spent to take potatoes out of the market "so the price stays high," and it doesn't make sense to him — "the American people don't have to write their laws so that this kind of system is perpetuated."

3. It's becoming difficult to find a market in the armed services or in Europe for food stuffs bought under the present price support program.

"We will have spent $60,000,000 by the end of this year," he told the consumer group, "in maintaining a price (for eggs) of 35 cents a dozen to the farmer. If we don't get rid of these frozen or dried eggs in two years, we will take a big loss."

"Under the new program, we would let the price of eggs to consumers go down and use the $50,000,000 to pay the farmer to go on producing and keep that price of 35 cents a dozen."

"That's all there is to the recommendations we have made to Congress."

The new program, if adopted would support storage crops, such as wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco, ice and peanuts, through the present loan program. This work on the principle of holding surpluses out of the market and keeping prices at a level deemed fair to farmers.

But perishable crops — such as eggs and potatoes — would be allowed to sell in the market at what price they will bring. Then the farmers would be paid by the government the difference between what the crops sold for and the price the government determines to be fair income to the producers.

Nice And New

A MAJOR CHANGE in the design of hair brushes applying modern, scientific principles to personal care of the hair and scalp, has been announced by Fay's Professional Brush Company, New York City, which has introduced a new professional brush minus the old-fashioned long handle.

The new brush has two conformable finger grooves with a "magic button" grip, and a grouping of long bristles. Its package is constructed to hold the brush and protect it from dust when not in use. Convenient in size, the brush fits easily into a woman's hand bag or a man's overnight kit.

In addition to the new finger-grip feature, the bristles in the brush are curved two ways, from end to end, and side to side, thereby giving the user complete use of the bristles in any direction. This assures healthier hair and cleaner scalp.

Texas Farm Co-ops Have Good Business

Last year farm business was good as far as the farm cooperatives were concerned. So good, in fact, that 53 Texas farm cooperatives paid back their loans in full to the Houston Bank for Cooperatives.

Many others made pretty good-sized payments to reduce their debts to the bank, says M. C. Jaynes, extension specialist in organization and marketing of Texas A. & M. College.

During 1948, the Houston Bank for Cooperatives lent more than 25 million dollars to 173 farmers cooperatives serving 114 thousand farm and ranch families. These associations are set up to perform a variety of off-the-farm services which only a few farmers can provide for themselves.

For example, says Jaynes, farmers use their cooperatives to gin their cotton, handle and market grain, rice, fruit, vegetables, livestock, poultry and dairy products, to crush and market cottonseed, manufacture feed and buy supplies needed on the modern mechanized farm.

Eighty-nine new cooperatives were chartered last year. More than 95 percent of the 1,100 active cooperatives in the state serve local groups of around 200 farmers each.

STARVING AMID PLENTY
 PAOLA, Kan.—A local undertaker, who was called to a farmhouse and then was refused admittance, notified police. An investigation revealed the body of Albert P. Stachling, 70, who had been dead about ten days—a victim of malnutrition—and his two sisters, Miss Mandy Stachling, 65, and Miss Mattie Stachling, 63, in bed under a huge pile of bedclothing. Both were in starving condition, although the house was cluttered with mountainous piles of food, bedclothing, dress material and shoes.

EWELRY HAS 6 LAMBS.
 CHANUTE, Kan. — Kenneth George was recently kept busy counting sheep. One of his 5-year-old ewes gave birth to six lambs, said to be a most unusual occurrence.

Slimness is accentuated in silhouette in newest designs.
