

SMU Announce Homecoming Date

Three Spur residents, active members of the SMU Alumni Association, have been extended personal invitations to attend Southern Methodist University's annual Homecoming celebration Oct. 28-30.

George E. Bushong, executive secretary of the SMU alumni, says that a record attendance is expected this year at reunion festivities. Active membership in the association totals more than 10,000, Bushong said. He predicts that some three thousand eyes will be on the SMU campus for the three-day program.

Evening will begin with a special SMU reunion Friday afternoon, Oct. 28, with traditional campus activities including student contests, registration and open house at the SMU Student Union Building, and an evening bonfire and pap rally.

E. H. BOULTER

Highlight of the celebration will be the annual Homecoming football game between the Mustangs and Texas University. Selection of the SMU Homecoming Queen, chosen from 15 beauties representing student organizations, will be announced at the game Saturday afternoon. The queen will be crowned during halftime activities.

Saturday the alumni will view a pre-game parade of floats and student marchers in downtown Dallas, witness the Mustang-Steer game at the Cotton Bowl, and attend a Homecoming Dance, in the huge Automobile Building at Dallas' Fair Park.

The three-day program will close Sunday morning with a special non-denominational Homecoming service in McFarlin Memorial Auditorium on the SMU campus. Dr. Unkrey Lee, president of SMU, will deliver the sermon. The services will include a musical program by the SMU Choral Union, 200 voices under direction of Dr. Orville J. Borchers, dean of the SMU

School of Music. SMU Alumni Association members from Spur are: Joel I. Grimland, Paige E. Gollihar and the Rev. L. L. Hill.

TO THE VOTERS OF DICKENS COUNTY:

I take this opportunity of announcing to you my candidacy for the office of member of the Texas State Board of Education for the 19th Congressional District. The Gilmer-Aiken School bill provides that there be twenty-one members of the State Board of Education one member to represent each Congressional District to be elected on November 8, 1949.

I feel that I need no introduction to the people of West Texas as I have worked continuously for the past eight years with the school people of this area. My chief concern has been, as I worked with parents, boards of trustees, laymen, and teachers, for equal and progressive educational opportunities for the youth of West Texas.

As a result of my close association with the educational problems of this section, I was solicited to run for this important educational post by a nominating committee appointed by the President of the West Texas Teachers' Association. Letters were mailed to all the school administrators of this congressional district asking them to indicate their choice of a man to run for State Board member. On July 30th, 1949, the information was tabulated and I was honored by being chosen to represent this district as a candidate for this important office.

I feel that I am well qualified to fill the office of State Board Member from the standpoint of both training and experience. I am a native Texan, born and reared in Texas schools, and hold both a B. A. and Master's Degree. I have been connected directly with the public schools of this state for some thirty years. As a parent, a class room teacher, a school administrator, and a deputy school superintendent, I have become familiar with the school problems of West Texas. I am chairman of the legislative committee of the 14th District of Texas (Congressional District).

As a business man, I am a veteran of World War I, and am a member of the American Legion.

If I am elected, I will support ALL phases of the Gilmer-Aiken School Program which I think is one of the best forward movements of public education in Texas.

If I am elected, I pledge myself to a fair, impartial educational program for the boys and girls of West Texas.

SMU HOMECOMING QUEEN NOMINEES 1949

FOURTEEN BEAUTIES, favorites of student organizations at SMU, will vie for the crown of Homecoming Queen for the three-day Homecoming at SMU students set this year for October 28-30. The Queen will be selected from this array of nominees by an alumni committee and will be crowned at halftime activities in the Cotton Bowl Homecoming game between SMU and Texas University on October 29. The beauty candidates are, left to right, first row: Ruth Ann Virtanen, Dallas; Jeanne Hall, Carrollton; Dorothy May Oglesby, Dallas; and Margaret Miller, Dallas. Second row: Alice Harris, Longview; Jayne Hodge, Ruston, La.; Sadyean Strawbridge, Dallas; Jo Jones, Dallas; and Ann Kerr, San Antonio. Third row: Marilyn Myers, Dallas; Virginia Ward, Dallas; Jinx Lee, Gladewater; Barbara West, Dallas; and Gene Watkins, San Angelo.

RICARDO MONTALBAN and ESTHER WILLIAMS in a scene in MGM's "NEPTUNE'S DAUGHTER," with Red Skelton. Color by Technicolor.

Bathing Beauties, Songs And Spectacle In Technicolor Treat, "Neptune's Daughter"

There's a laugh a minute, a song every other minute, and plenty of romantic hi-jinks in between in M. G. M.'s latest Technicolor musical, "Neptune's Daughter," which brings a star-studded cast to the Palace screen Sun-Mon.

Esther Williams, in the kind of costumes which made her famous (swim suits, to you!) and Red Skelton impersonating a South American polo star, aided and abetted by such laugh-getters as Betty Garrett and Keenan Wynn, the romantic Ricardo Montalban and the rhythmic Xavier Cugat and his orchestra, set the pace for a howling comedy of mistaken identities set against a lush background of bathing beauties, melodic interludes, and polo thrills.

Esther Williams plays the owner of the Neptune Swim Suit Company, with Betty Garrett playing her man-crazy younger sister. When Esther's advertising manager, Keenan Wynn, gets the idea of putting on a swim suit fashion show as a finale to an international polo match, Betty makes use of the opportunity to meet the polo team and captures the heart of its captain. At last, she thinks Red Skelton is the team's captain, whereas he is actually only a girly-masseur. The real captain, of course, is the dashing Ricardo Montalban and it is he who comes in for Esther's wrath when she accuses him of trying to undermine her innocent sister. The varnish complications that ensue before who finds out who's who, the by-play of romantic attachments and the final slap-happy climax in which Skelton proves himself a hero on the polo field make for a story which will have you laughing all the way that is, when you are not eyeing Esther and some of her girl friends in what is probably the most alluring array of bathing costumes yet assembled for the screen.

Miss Williams and the ever-funny Skelton, who paired once perfect folk, with Betty Garrett in top comedy and singing form, as the man-chasing sister, Montalban fits his part of the polo-playing Latin lover like a glove, and the ever-reliable Keenan Wynn is also cast to perfection as the pug-nacious promoter.

There are lots of Hit Parade contenders in the musical score

Nancy Holmes SUGGESTS

TAKE a screaming black cat with a back arched defying mortal man, add to it a flaming orange pumpkin with flickering features against the dark of night, add to those a couple of earthy ghosts, a witch or two and what have you got? Halloween!

Children usually get the biggest bang out of this spooky night, but we'll wager that a Halloween reminder, such as this delicious candy suggested by Best Foods' Nancy Holmes, will be very well received by any age group. Here's how:

Peanut Butter Fudge
 4 cups granulated sugar
 1 cup milk
 1/2 cup salt
 1/2 cup peanut butter
 1/2 cup margarine over low heat. Add milk, mix well. Gradually stir in sugar and salt. Blend peanut butter with fudge mixture, stirring until smooth and glossy. Press into a waxed-paper-lined square or oblong pan. When cool, cut in squares. Yield: 1 1/2 pounds fudge.

Orange Jack O' Lanterns Hold Gelatine Dessert for Child's Party

HOLLOWED out for Halloween molds, these Orange Jack O' Lanterns hold a dessert of chopped prunes, nuts and orange juice combined in unflavored gelatine. Serve the Jack O' Lanterns at a party for youngsters — they'll love the grinning orange faces and the sweet treat they offer. A make-ahead gelatine dessert like this leaves the afternoon free for other party details... and you'll count the cost in pennies. Here's the recipe for:

Orange Jack O' Lanterns
 6 oranges
 1 envelope unflavored gelatine
 1/2 cup cold orange juice
 1 cup hot orange juice
 1/2 cup sugar
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 1 cup cooked chopped prunes
 1/2 cup chopped nuts

Slice top from orange; cut around pulp with paring knife; lift out pulp.

then scrape out remaining pulp being careful not to cut through inside of orange. Soften gelatine in cold orange juice. Add hot orange juice and sugar; stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice. Chill until the mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Fold in chopped prunes and nuts. Fill orange shells; with mixture and chill until firm. If desired, serve with sweetened whipped cream. Yield: 6

Furniture Van Doubles As Ambulance

WASHINGTON—This standard Fruehauf furniture van was recently pressed into service as an errand of mercy when it was used to transport a radio patient in an iron lung from Washington to Baltimore for treatment. The patient was Mrs. Morris G. Duchin, 30-year-old wife of Daniel Eddie Duchin's first cousin. Transportation of an iron lung in the furniture van presented some serious problems, but the 30-mile trip was accomplished without difficulty. The photo shows the patient being lifted into the van under the supervision of two nurses. This is the first time such a journey was accomplished without the use of a specially fitted ambulance.

El Paso To Host Baptist Convention

For the first time in its 101 years, the Baptist Convention of Texas, meeting in El Paso November 1-3, will bear a recommendation that half of a five-million-dollar budget be designated for worldwide causes.

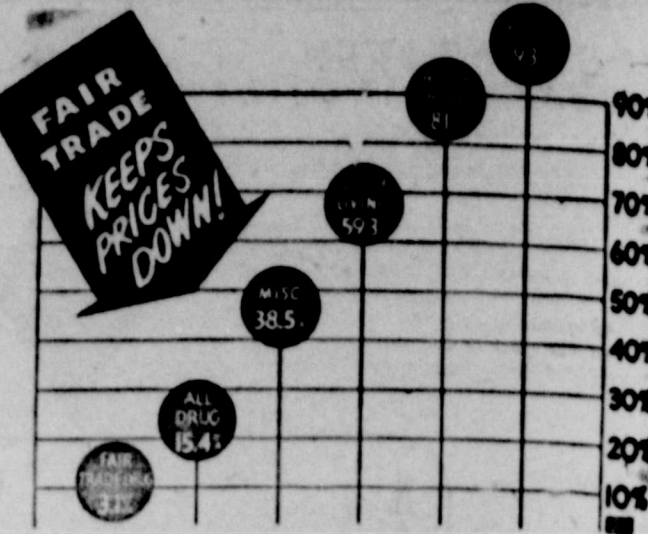

Local financial causes within the state, which would receive the other two-and-one-half-million-dollar, have generally been allowed more than fifty per cent of the receipts. Besides the regular budget, the convention is expected to accept another five-million-dollar goal for individual gifts to Baptist institutions. This would be the second consecutive year for the ten-million dollar project.

Annual pre-convention meetings of the Woman's Missionary Union and the Men's Brotherhood are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, October 31 and November 1, in El Paso. The general convention will begin Tuesday evening. Approximately 3,000 Baptists are expected for the general meeting.

Well-known denominational leaders from Texas, Tennessee, Oklahoma and Louisiana will speak during the three-day convention. Among these are Dr. Duke McCall, executive secretary of the Southern Baptist convention, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. Forrest Fezer, pastor of the First Baptist church, Waco; Dr. J. Howard Williams, state executive secretary, Dallas; and Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor, First Baptist church, Dallas.

President of the convention is Dr. Wallace Bassett, for thirty-one years pastor of the Cliff Temple Baptist church, Dallas. Dr. J. H. Landes, Wichita Falls, is to preach the annual convention sermon. Both Bassett and Landes were elected at the continental meeting in Houston last year.

The convention will hear financial and service reports from the twenty departments of denominational work, and from the nine Baptist colleges and the six Baptist hospitals in the state.

Fair Trade prices of 1,234 drug products rose only 3.1 per cent between 1939 and 1947 while food, cost-of-living and other prices sky rocketed.

YOU MEET SUCH INTERESTING PEOPLE

by Robt. K. Christenberry
President of the famous Hotel Astor

When my friend Clyde Lewis was elected commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Miami recently he set a precedent. Clyde's the first veteran of World War II ever to become head of a major veterans organization.

An unusual story goes with his election, because if it had not been for a strange quirk of war, the V.F.W. would be doing without Clyde's services, and the entire pattern of his life would be changed.

It happened in 1945, when, after two years of overseas duty, he returned from Europe. There he was a B-17 pilot, Flight Commander, Squadron Leader, and finally Wing Air Commander. He had won, among other honors, the French Croix de Guerre, the Distinguished Flying Cross with two oak leaf clusters, the Air Medal with four clusters, and the Distinguished Unit Citation with one cluster.

Upon his return, he volunteered immediately for a tour of duty with the 8th Air Force in Okinawa, but regulations would not permit approval, so rather than become a flight instructor, he was mustered out in 48 hours.

After his honorable discharge, Clyde returned to his civilian job as member of the Plattsburg law firm of Feinberg and Jerry. He had graduated from Harvard Law School in 1939, and now he was boosted to a full-fledged member of the Plattsburg firm.

Like many another veteran, Clyde had re-entered civilian life ready to forget the war, to forget that he was ever a soldier. He was ready to put it all behind him, and to pretend that it had never happened.

But here again chance stepped in, as it had when his Okinawa request was cordially set aside. He was busy. His restlessness kept him moving around, unsatisfied with anything only with a law firm. One afternoon I saw him and he seemed exuberant.

"What's happened?" I asked him.

"Something great," he said. "I've had my eyes opened. I realize, for the first time since I was mustered out, that veterans are important, that we can't forget them, that veterans organizations need to be made stronger, so that the boys who fought the war won't have the memory of what they did wiped out."

What had happened was this. Clyde had met Col. Colin D. MacRae, deputy director of the executive department of the New York division of Veterans Affairs. Col. MacRae asked Clyde to become a State Veterans Counsellor. He accepted. And when he saw the plight of veterans he decided to jump in with both feet. Soon he was active in the V.F.W., and in 1948 was elevated to Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief, a job that found him averaging 25,000 miles a month to help veterans—to study their problems and help them find solutions.

"I believe," he told me, "that veterans must be united to protect their status as veterans, to care for those who have borne the brunt of battle, their widows and orphans, to promote Americanism, to work for national security.

"By proper coordination of their peacetime activities and the prevention of World War III."

Prevention of war is close to Clyde's heart, because he's felt it painfully. His brother Jesse was killed aboard the U.S.S. Houston in the battle of Java Sea. He doesn't want that to happen to either of his two young sons—or to anybody else's sons.

Choose The Best!
Lesson for October 30, 1949

IF HURT Isaiah's patriotism, and his religion too, is see how fast his country was going down Hill. Most of the troubles Isaiah saw are with us today. Wealthy women are spending more and more on themselves; leaders who are irresponsible, self-seeking and in-competent, poverty unrepresented and un-uncared for; drunkenness high and low; Isaiah, and other prophets as well, saw in the sin and decadence of the times the sign and symbol of national decay. To the exalted, the selfish and the wild, to those who were "leaders" but were leading in the wrong direction, Isaiah kept saying, in many different ways, Choose the best!

The Prophets' Successors
THERE WAS A TIME when the church put most of her preaching emphasis on individual religion. Get right with God was the cry. The church of today has not by any means given up her emphasis on personal religion, but we are learning from the prophets what social righteousness means. The church in our time is the logical and actual successor to the prophet's work.

The church is doing more than ever to awaken the conscience of society, in fact the church itself has a duty to be the conscience of society. One of the problems about which our nation needs to be waked up is one that Isaiah and Jeremiah faced, only we have it in a more desperate form. We call it alcoholism; they called it by an uglier, more suitable word: drunkenness. Even in those days drinking was a problem; it cut down the national health, wealth and wisdom. Nowadays it is worse because of two factors. One is the higher percentage of alcohol in beverages such as whiskey, unknown in those days. The other factor is advertising.

Where Drunkards Start

AGAINST ALL THIS the church must keep saying and persuading: Choose The Best! But it does comparatively little good to say this to the confirmed alcoholic. It makes more sense to say it to young people. For the sad feature of alcoholism is that it begins in the high schools.

The Yale School of Alcohol Studies has collected evidence indicating that two-thirds of all alcoholics begin drinking habits in the early high school years.

A recent Gallup poll shows the greatest percentage of drinkers to be the age group 21 to 35. Today, it is estimated, there are four million alcohol addicts or excessive drinkers who are in more or less constant trouble with their families and employers.

Drunkenness costs industry in America no less than one billion dollars a year, and has a lot to do with the break-up of homes and with crime generally.

Allied Youth

SOMETHING is being done to stop this, which you should know about. There is a movement known as Allied Youth, a national educational organization working in high schools all over the country. Its work is positive, not negative. It is not trying to pass laws or to bring back prohibition. What it does try to do—and it is succeeding remarkably well in many places—is to give young people a way of life that will enable them to meet social pressure for drinking without loss of "face." Every Allied Youth post in a school has three aims: 1. To meet the social and recreational needs of young people.

Every New Year's Eve, for instance, when millions of Americans are getting sickly drunk, more than 6,000 young people gather in Detroit for the biggest dry party in America, sponsored by Allied Youth.

2. To establish within the school a fellowship of young people who do not think it is necessary to drink to be smart. Such a group can change the attitude of an entire school.

3. To build a solid foundation of education for total abstinence. Essentially, Allied Youth is saying to young people everywhere, "Choose The Best!"

Information about Allied Youth can be had by writing Allied Youth, 1200 N. Street N.W., Washington, D. C.

sum not exceeding Two-hundred ($200.00) Dollars, and each and every day of such violation shall be deemed a separate offense.

Industrial Regions of Texas Expected To Grow With Water Conservation

If Texas wants to grow up and become one of the great industrial regions of the world, it will have to control and increase its water supply.

This is what water conservation leaders would like to get over to the public. Unless the public realizes the problem, they point out, it cannot be expected to support the measures necessary to build up our water supply.

The water problem, however, is something that doesn't have to be explained to about one-fourth of the public. Nearly that many Texas adults are conscious of a current water shortage in their own communities. It affects them most often when they have to stop watering their lawns and gardens.
And sometimes, believe it or not,
some families cut down on washing and bathing because there isn't enough water.

A statewide survey by The Texas Poll indicates that people in West Texas, the Panhandle-South Plains area, and the Southwest Texas and valley region are most concerned about the water shortage.

The survey recently put these questions to a representative
cross section of adults:

"Is the supply of water around here always enough to meet the needs of this community?"

By districts:	Yes	No	Don't know
All Texans	72%	23%	5%
Panhandle-South	63	35	2
Plains	73	24	3
North Texas	73	24	3
East Texas	78	18	4
South Texas	93	5	2
Central Texas	76	24	-
Southwest & Valley	53	37	10
West Texas	51	40	9

All who said there was sometimes a shortage of water in their community were asked:

"When there is a shortage of water, what do people around here do? That is, in what ways do they cut down on their use of water?"

Stop watering lawns and gardens	46%
Use less for household purposes, washing, bathing, etc.	13
Just cut down on con- sumption gener- ally	17
Stop washing cars	2
Miscellaneous other answers	5
Don't know	17

Three out of every four who are conscious of a current water shortage realize that steps are being taken to build up their community's supply. They point out new dams are under construction, new wells are being dug, storage tanks and reservoirs are being enlarged, larger water mains are being laid, and more pumps are being installed.

It is these water-conscious Texans who may provide the backbone of support for a systematic statewide program for which conservation leaders are aiming.

Old Timers Magazine Gets New Name

An old Texas institution and farmer's standby FARM and RANCH magazine, has completed an expansion program which gives it 300,000 circulation in Texas, according to an announcement this week by Frank A. Briggs, longtime Editor of the publication.

Published since 1881, FARM and RANCH, beginning with the January 1939 issue, will unite with
SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST,
a farm publication printed in Nashville, Tennessee since 1869.
The combination of subscribers to
SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST
with those of FARM and RANCH
will give this new publication more circulation than any magazine going to Texas readers, and almost as much as any two magazines.

Editorial offices will be maintained in Dallas as usual, Editor Briggs reported. The new name of the publication will be FARM and RANCH with SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST. A special Western Edition will be published each month for Texas and Oklahoma readers. Over 75,000 readers in Oklahoma will receive the magazine and 900,000 in the other Southern States, Mr. Briggs said.
The new united publication will go to 15 Southern States all told and to over one and one-quarter million subscribers.

In the past FARM and RANCH
went only to the Southern states,
Briggs pointed out.
The Editors of FARM and RANCH are Briggs, A. B. Kennedy, H. L. Gantz and Mary L.
Smith. Other native Texans who will now help edit the magazine are Malcolm Orchard and Charles E. Ball.

Mr. Alfred Olson spent the weekend in Carlsbad, New Mexico. While in New Mexico he also went through Carlsbad Caverns.

THE AMERICAN WAY

HEALTH NOTES

Austin, Texas, Oct. 27, 1949 Emphasizing the urgent need for parental supervision of all phases of child health, Dr. Geo. W. Cox,
State Health Officer said today,
"Much of the impaired eyesight of advanced years could be prevented if sufficient interest in early life were applied and a correction by means of temporary glasses made when required."

Parents, Dr. Cox asserted, should be watchful for danger signals in the child such as frowning, squinting, persistent headache, eyeache, and watery eyes. If the youngster reads too closely or too far away from the face, that situation may also be significant of trouble.

"No child likes wearing glasses,
nevertheless, it is the obligation of those responsible for the future of young folks to have their eyes examined by a reputable specialist if there is a suspicion that normal vision does not exist. It is much better for a child to wear glasses for a few years during early school life than to have permanently defective vision in later life," he declared.

Dr. Cox said that neglect of the eyes is by no means limited to children. Many older persons, some through vanity, indifference,
or carelessness, fail to give proper attention to the care of their eyes. Penalties, he warned are bound to occur for such inexcussible negligence.

"The eyes of any person, whether young, middle-aged, or older represent one of the most priceless of bodily possessions," the State Health Officer asserted. "To take care of them promptly and properly is a responsibility which never should be sidestepped."

Social Security Board Caution Workers

Social security benefits to workers age 65 and to the families of workers who die are not paid automatically, John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock social security office, cautioned.

In every case where payments are due, a claim must be filed with the social security office to start the ball rolling. The law places a limit on the number of back payments that can be made when a claim is not filed promptly and no more than three months, back benefits can be paid.

When a person aged 65 stops work, he should get in touch with the Social Security Administration without delay. When a worker dies, someone in the family should make it a point to inquire about possible benefits to the survivors soon after death. In either case, if action is delayed more than three months after death or retirement, one or more monthly payments might be lost.

Inquiries should be addressed to the Social Security Administration Field Office, Post Office Box 1401, Lubbock, Texas.

Prepare The Home For Coming Winter

The next few weeks are the time to do those maintenance and repair jobs around the home and farmstead. Old man winter will soon be here. W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer-buildings, Texas A. & M. College, suggests a few for starters, here they are.

Check the floor furnace burners, controls and plumbing before you light it, says Allen, to make sure there is no escaping gas to cause explosions. Do the same thing on other gas heaters and it is a good idea to vent them. Vents will eliminate the problem of moisture condensing on the walls.
Check the fireplace and chimney for loose mortar or cracks and if repairs are needed, make them before the first fire is started.

If you plan to add insulation to make the house warmer this winter, now is the time. Insulation, properly installed, will cut your fuel bills come winter, says Allen.
Check the gutters and down spouts to make sure that leaves, trash and dirt don't have them stopped up. If they are clogged, spilling over and seepage can cause damage outside and inside.
Better give the roof the once over and if repairs are needed, make them before the winter rains set in. Allen says that nails in metal roofs will become loose in hot weather and may even come out and he suggests that you check the nails. A coat of asphalt roofing cement will usually take care of the leaks in the roof that have resulted from cracks or small holes.

Be sure that rain water drains away from the buildings instead of under them. Freezing can cause the foundation to heave or crack and this means a big repair job later.

Periodic checks and proper maintenance will help keep down building costs and will save needless repairs besides saving valuable time, says Allen. Check up and see what is needed and you'll be ready for winter — if you do the jobs now.

Highest Merit Is Awarded To West Texas Utilities

Citation of "Highest Merit Award for distinguished achievement in Annual Reporting" has been awarded the West Texas Utilities Company by the FINANCIAL WORLD, investment and business publication, in recognition of the quality of Utilities Company's 1948

Annual Report to its stockholders.
In announcing the award, Weston Smith, Vice President of FI-NANCIAL WORLD, pointed out that more than 4,000 annual reports were submitted for the annual survey. Of the annual reports submitted 2,250 were actually surveyed.

The "Highest Merit Award,"
Smith said, "qualifies the West Texas Utilities Company as a candidate for the final judging for
"Oscar of Industry" trophies."
Final judging and Oscar award for Best 1948 Annual Reports in several classifications will be made at the Award Banquet at the Hotel Statler in New York.

"The object of the annual survey and judging is to broaden the readership and the understanding of yearly annual reports and thus to achieve a more wholesome appreciation of each corporation, of industry as a whole, and of free enterprise system in general," Smith added.

The West Texas Utilities Annual Report of 1948, which was distributed to stockholders in April, 1949, was prepared in Abilene by the WTU's general office staff.

Maybe there's a bulbsnatcher behind it all. A child who has trouble seeing his homework may be heading for trouble—not just with Teacher —but with his eyes, too. Empty lamp sockets usually start people robbing one socket to fill another. That's why it's so important that every lamp socket be filled with the right-sized bulb.

A sure cure for bulbsnatching is to have plenty of spare lamp bulbs on hand, so see your nearest lamp dealer right away! Get the right size bulbs for each seeing job in your home.

Lubbock Symphony To Open Season with Famed Opera Star

Leonard Warren, an opera star who is as thoroughly American as apple pie and Texas cowboys, was born in New York, began his working career with a degree in accounting from Columbia University and later switched to music. He won the Metropolitan Auditions of the Air in 1938, and with a contract with the Met under his arm, departed for Italy and a backbreaking grind of learning four whole operatic roles in six months. Installed in Milan, Italy, with a good coach and modest hotel, he was indulging in some extra-curricular singing of "Home on the Range" when a young American soprano who had just arrived in Italy heard him while inquiring about a room. This was the first introduction that Agatha Leiffen of New York, had to her future husband.

Mr. Warren will appear as guest artist with the Lubbock Symphony Orchestra on October 24 (for season ticket subscribers) and individual ticket purchasers) and October 25 (all individual tickets). This will be the opening concert of the 1949-1950 subscription season of five concerts. Other guest artists will be Robert Pipkin, Violinist, and Mary Lou Colvin, Pianist, December 5; Nina Luckie, Soprano, February 7; Bill and Pat Medley, duo-pianists, March 14; and Gordin Gaines and Grace Goodwin and chorus on April 27.

Mr. Warren's program will include three well known arias from operas, "Eri Tu" from the Masked Ball; "Prologue" from Pagliacci; and the well known "Largo el Factotum" from the gay known songs in English. The orchestra will present the Second Hungarian Rhapsody, the Andante Movement from Tchaikovsky's Fifth Symphony and among other selections the original overture of "South Pacific" that signals the dimming of the lights and the raising of the curtain on that famous Broadway hit and including portions of the three most pop-

PORT WORTH'S NEW SUPER THOROUGHFARE

Opening of this super thoroughfare in September marked the first step in the completion of Fort Worth's $50,000,000 double expressway program which will criss-cross the city with two of the finest arterial thoroughfares in America. Aimed at relieving one of its severest growing pains, traffic congestion, the superhighways will extend east and west and north and south across the city, intersecting near the downtown business district. The opening unit, two miles in length, is at the south end of the north-south expressway. It underpasses the railway bridge above and three street crossings, one of which is visible in the background. Structural steel for the four bridges was supplied by U. S. Steel's Virginia Bridge Co. General contractors for the initial section were Austin Road Co., Dallas, and Worth Construction Co., Fort Worth. Sub-contractor for the steel structures was F. M. Reeves & Sons, Austin. A second 3.4-mile unit under construction on the western leg of the east-west expressway is scheduled for opening early in 1951. Five major overpasses in this strip will be of steel, furnished by American Bridge Co., another U. S. Steel subsidiary. General contractors are Markham & Brown, Kearney Crum & Co., Dallas; Austin Bridge Co., Dallas; Austin Road Co.; and F. M. Reeves & Sons. Reeves is handling construction of the five steel bridges.

Among the many fans of Spur to see McMurry and ACC tangle were, Mr. E. S. Lee, Annette Lee, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Benson, Mrs. John Reed, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Kelley, Carolyn and Kathleen, Miss Dorothy Marie Taylor, Miss Jerelece Womack, Mrs. Horace Woods, Clyde Blair, William North, Margaret Woods, Charles Lee, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henry, Mrs. James Sharp, Beverly Woods, Mr. and Mrs. David McAleer.

Glenn Williams formerly with the United States Navy has returned to Spur for the time being. Mr. Williams will be at home with his parents Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Williams.

Spur Site Of Soil Conservation Meeting To Be Held Nov. 18

Audiences at the six soil conservation meetings at centrally located West Texas and Panhandle points along the lines of Fort Worth and Denver City and Wichita Valley Railroads, sponsored by Burlington Lines in cooperation with the Second National Bank of Houston, the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, and the Texas A & M Extension Service, will have an opportunity to see this sound and color movie, which will be shown and commented on by O. Dooley Dawson, vice president and manager of the Bank's agricultural department.

U.N. Assembly Elects New Officers

These are the seven key men in the debates of the United Nations General Assembly now holding its Fourth Regular Session at U.N. Headquarters. Standing behind Assembly President Gen. Carlos P. Romulo (Philippines) are the chairmen of the main committees in which most of the Assembly's work is done. They are from left to right: Canada's Lester Pearson; Chile's Hernan Santa Cruz; Venezuela's Carlos Stolk; Denmark's Hermod Lauritzen; Greece's Alexis Kyriakou; and Poland's Manfred Lachs.

"You are what you eat", according to the book Soil, Food and Health, published by Friends of the Land, Columbia, Ohio; and the though provoking statement that "food is fabricated soil fertility" is made by O. E. Fink, M. A., in his article therein, based on the teachings of Williams A. Albrecht as illustrated by the film "On the Other Side of the Fence", produced by Phillips Chemical Company of Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

As manager of the Bank's agricultural department he has traveled many thousands of miles over the State during the past four and one half years, carrying the message of soil conservation directly to more than 60,000 persons in scheduled meetings.

Each program also will include talks and demonstrations by M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist, and A. H. Walker, extension range specialist, both of Texas A & M College System, College Station, and the Cooke County range management team comprised of B. T. Haws, county agent, Gainesville, coach Douglas Robinson, and Billy Whitte.

A group of Burlington Lines Officers, and representatives of the Second National Bank of Houston, the Soil Conservation Service, and the A & M Extension Service will tour the towns and surrounding territory to attend these meetings and inspect important conservation projects now underway.

The first of this series of important meetings, to which the public is being invited and urged to attend, will be at 1:00 P.M. in the Community Building in Shamrock on Monday, November 14th.

Following the Shamrock meeting, the group will travel via special railroad cars to Childress for the second meeting in the High School Auditorium there at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, November 15th.

The third meeting of the series will be at 2:30 P. M. in the Texas Theater in Quanah on Wednesday, November 16th. The special railroad cars then will move to Henrietta for the fourth stop and meeting in the Dorothy Theater at 2:00 P.M. on Thursday, November 17th.

An overnight railroad trip from Henrietta to Spur and Stamford will put the official party in those towns on Friday, November 18th, for the final programs. The fifth meeting of the series will be in Spur at 1:30 P.M. in the Spur Theater, and the sixth and final session will be in Stamford at 7:30 P.M. in the Round-up Hall on Texas Cowboy Reunion Grounds, following which the official party will return to Fort Worth, College Station, and Houston.

Local arrangements committee are under the chairmanship of R. H. Forrester, Wheeler attorney, for Shamrock; V. E. Hafner, county agent, Childress; L. M. Boring, creameryman, Quanah; Ernest Lamb, president, Chamber of Commerce, Henrietta; Chas. A. Taylor, county agent, Spur; and Co-chairman Cecil Eger and A. J. Mills, Stamford.
