(Editor's note: This is the fourth of a series of articles on candidates for city offices.)

C. P. "Johnnie" Scudder

C. P. "Johnnie" Scudder, 46, came to Spur in May of 1919 with a varied and impressive record as a servant of the people.

When he left Mesquite, Texas, to come to Spur he had just been elected alderman, was chairman of the board of deacons in the Baptist Church, was volunteer fire chief, and vice-president of the Lions club.

Previous to that time he had served for over seven years as city councilman in Mineral Wells, Texas.

Scudder is a 32nd degree mason, a shriner, a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge, a volunteer fireman, a deacon in the Baptist Church, a member of the Spur Chamber of Commerce and other civic groups.

Ex-Prexy Praises Chamber Workers

George Gabriel, outgoing president of the Spur Chamber of Commerce, contributed the address made by the organization and the city during the last banquet.

Homer Hindman

Year to three major sources—the Chamber of Commerce manager, the board of directors and the working membership of the organization.

Gabriel states that he has obtained excellent cooperation and satisfaction from Manager Homer Hindman since he came on the field six months ago. "Hindman has worked hard for the progress of the city since he came back and has indicated through his hard work and sincere devotion to his job that Spur is more than just a job—it's really part of him. Spur is very fortunate in having a man like Hindman as chamber manager."

To D. J. Dyess and the other new officers and directors, Gabriel expressed the opinion that they also will find Hindman ready and willing to find their every bidding.

Gabriel also expresses thanks and gratitude to the board of directors which elected him president and then worked so hard with him in the chamber's work. The active committeemen among the membership of the organization also play an important part in the success of our chamber of commerce and our city, according to Gabriel. Often remaining in the back ground while others receive credit and recognition, the committeemen do the all-important detail and routine work that is so vital in making a chamber of commerce a success.

"These three, the manager, the board and the membership, are the backbone of our chamber of commerce, and advancement and progress can only come through the continued harmony of the three," concludes Gabriel.

New Arrival

Mrs. Ann Ennis of Graham spent the week end with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Hughes, and her daughter.

Dyess Challenges CC In Official Statement

"As president of the Spur Chamber of Commerce for the coming year, I would like first of all to thank everyone who has any part to play in making our banquet what a big success. I have heard lots of favorable comments on it.

"I think if we will all get behind our hard working manager we will see some good results in the next twelve months.

"I would like, on behalf of the entire board to ask each and everyone who may have a thought as to what would help Spur and this territory to feel free to call and counsel with us.

"We think we have one of the most natural lay-outs in West Texas for a park, and of course you know there was a start made last year to equip it and we sure want to see this project continued.

"We would like very much to have the public give their ideas regarding the park. "Remember, this is your town and your chamber of commerce, so let's all work together for the good of both."

"Thanks a million," D. J. Dyess, pres., Spur Chamber of Commerce

Duck Creek Soil Conservation District News Notes

C. P. Witt, Chairman Giles McCrary, Sec. E. F. Shugart, Vice-Ch. Joe Hunnicutt Clark Forbis

Richard Varnell, district co-operator who lives near Afton, has been successful with his grass seeding that he started in 1931.

Varnell seeded 30 acres to a blue mixture and 7 acres to Na-Panic in 1931 with 11 acres Blue Panic and a half acre Buffle grass in 1932. Light grazing has been had the last few weeks from these plantings. With these grasses now well established heavier grazing can be expected when spring growth gets under way. From the trial planting of Buffle grass last year, Varnell harvested 30 pounds of seed that he plans to plant this spring. He plans call for the seeding of an additional 27 acres this spring.

Stock water pond construction has speeded up recently with district co-operators. Those building dams are Elmer Cross, Jack Gipsorn, Rex Robinson, A. M. Karr and Fred Arrington. S. C. S. technicians assisted in the lay out and design of these structures.

Observing enough water that ran off his fields the last few years to make a crop was pointed out to S. C. S. technicians John F. Moore, by C. L. Lindsey, district co-operator, north of Spur. Lindsey recently completed construction of 4 miles of terraces that will aid in holding up the water that has been running off his land.

Getting water into our soil, especially those low in organic matter with hard pan conditions, presents one of the most important problems to farmers in the district. Studies and tests made by soil conservation service technicians show that water penetrates normal tilled light land at a rate of 3 inch per hour. This same land that had been chiseled 8 inches showed water penetration to be 76 inches per hour whereas the penetration was 3.2 inches per hour on this same soil where deep rooted leumenes had been grown the previous year. This points up the more permanent value of leumenes in our cropping system. Goar, a summer growing leumene, is superior to the most of our best plants for this purpose in the district.

Conservation plans approved by the district superintendent in section last Thursday include those of John A. Scott, A. M. Karr, Carson A. Turner and R. L. Benson.

Representatives were present from Abilene, Jayton, Matador, Floydada, Dickens, Afton, McAdoo, Glenn and Lubbock.

A special guest was Marshall Formby, newly appointed Texas Highway Commissioner, and his wife.

Four new directors of the Spur chamber were recognized. They are Spencer Campbell, H. J. Burt, Buck Denton and Buddy Hoover.

Tribute was paid by Hindman to the various committees and committeemen who served last year. They were: J. C. Godfrey, Lloyd Hindman, M. H. Brannen, O. L. Kelley, Johnnie Scudder.

The banquet was served by high school home economics girls.

These Trees Will Grow Farm Telephones

IF YOU JOINED ALL THE TELEPHONE POLES we've used to extend telephone service to rural Texas in the past seven years into one big pole it would tower 1,350 miles into the clouds. That gives you an idea of how we've been breaking records in our efforts to meet the demand for farm telephones. Already there are six times as many Southwestern Bell rural telephones in Texas as there were just seven years ago. This year we hope to be able to spend more than $4 million to push still more telephone lines out to the farms around the communities we serve. SOUTHWESTERN BELL... A TEAM OF 35,000 TEXAS TELEPHONE PEOPLE... AT YOUR SERVICE.

THE GREATEST BUICK IN 60 GREAT YEARS

MAYBE you didn't know just how easy it is to own a new Buick. So in the showroom we display our prices—and proudly. Proudly—because the price of any new Buick buys a lot more automobile, a lot more comfort, a lot more room and power and thrill than the same money buys elsewhere. SCIENCE and your Health
 GERMANS FIGHT BACK
 BY Science Features
 It is common knowledge that once you contract certain diseases you are not likely to get them again. Chicken pox and scarlet fever are examples of diseases which seldom strike the same person twice. The reason for this is that your body's defenses usually make you resistant to these particular diseases after the first attack.

In recent years, scientists have become aware of a similar type of resistance which some microbes can develop against the chemical weapons devised to combat them. Thus a microbe originally known to be affected by a sulfa drug or antibiotic may after a time develop strains resistant to the drug.

Development of such resistant strains is the microbe's way of fighting back. An example of this is the staphylococcus family of bacteria, some strains of which have become resistant to penicillin and other antibiotics. Under a microscope, these germs, which cause such infections as boils and abscesses, look like clusters of tiny grapes.

Fortunately this problem of bacterial resistance is far from hopeless. Not long ago, scientists of Chas. Pfizer & Co. Inc., announced the discovery of a new antibiotic—one of the miraculous earth-mold drugs—which is particularly effective against resistant bacteria. Named magnamycin, it has recently been made available to doctors around the world.

A report in the medical journal Antibiotics and Chemotherapy chronicled the success of this new antibiotic in laboratory tests. These tests indicate that magnamycin is effective against germs that have developed resistance to the antibiotics now in general use, including the resistant strains which cause a rare staphylococcal enteritis—a disease not unlike acute food poisoning.

A separate report by a physician of the University of California School of Medicine also records the successful use of magnamycin against tonsillitis, pneumonia, amoebic dysentery and local infections such as boils and abscesses. However, the scientists believe that magnamycin's major importance lies in its success against resistant germs.

Science Says: Fried Foods Easy to Digest

Properly fried foods are easy to digest. This has been proved in findings in leading research laboratories throughout the country, exploding the fallacy that fried foods are hard to digest. Scientists studying the problem now state that most fats are digestible and quick mix shortenings containing lard tend to digest. Scientists studying the problem now state that most fats are digestible and quick mix shortenings containing lard tend to digest. America's New Railroad

What's this surveyor doing? He's sighting on tomorrow... clipping off an old curve... clipping off the past...

It goes on day after day on the Santa Fe. Building new.

Till there's nothing left that's old today of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe but the country and the song and the pride of its people!

IN THE PAST 5 YEARS... Whole fleets of streamlined trains replaced with finer streamlined trains... Enough new track laid to more than reach from Chicago to Los Angeles... Great new "hump" yards built to speed switching... New roadbed, new rail and new ballast methods—for smoother, safer rides for goods and people.

IN THE PAST YEAR... New freight stations, with new towveyors, at Chicago and San Francisco... Great new construction started to raise Santa Fe rails in Kansas and Missouri above the highest flood stage of recorded history.

IN THIS YEAR... New micro-wave communication system put in service between Galveston and Beaumont, Texas... New freight classification yard will be opened at Belen, New Mexico.

AND IN THE NEXT YEAR... More curves will be clipped, more grades reduced... 119 new diesel units will go to work... New modern diesel shops will be completed... 3900 new freight cars will be placed in service... New electronic communication and control equipment will be installed... and El Capitan will be re-equipped with all new chair cars!

AND IN THE NEXT 5 YEARS... New cars and whole new trains will be rolling on an ever newer, greater Santa Fe.

It costs Santa Fe millions (not one penny from the taxes you pay) to keep America's New Railroad growing newer every day.

Cary Grant, Ginger Rogers, Marilyn Monroe and Charles Coburn from the gilded comedy quartet to be seen Sunday at the Palace Theatre in one of the happiest prospects of the new film season, Twentieth Century-Fox's "Monkey Business." Producer Sol C. Siegel and Director Howard Hawks have combined again to give their star, Cary Grant, a laugh exercise on a par with their memorable "I was a Male War Bride," and advanced word has it they have succeeded with some to spare.

"Monkey Business" revolves around a research chemist's discovery of a reversion-to-youth formula. Though he begins by experimenting on a par with their picture's title, the scientist soon gives way to the temptation of trying the magic potion himself. It's then that Cary Grant begins to slip back into sequence pegged on childhood and adolescent stage of development. At the same time his love life adds a complication, for as the sober and slightly absent-minded scientist he's happily married to Ginger Rogers, but as a teenager he's smitten with his boss' blonde secretary, Marilyn Monroe. Charles Coburn adds to the merriment as his employer.

Rarely has a screen gentleman had two such blondes to prefer in one picture as Ginger Rogers and Marilyn Monroe. It's a delicious prospect for the male sex bolstered for the ladies by the presence of perennially popular Cary Grant, the authentic master of light, droll comedy.

M. Sgt. Sidney D. Madden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin M. Madden of Spur, was recently awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for excellent performance of duty under enemy fire in Korea.

Poor Little Hill!

You're looking at a very discouraged hill! Ever since that ribbon of paving outlined it, it has been a challenge to motor cars.

For miles and miles it winds up the side of a mountain; and it has sharp curves, and steep grades that spring out of the curves so a driver can't get a start.

Half-way up, there's a watering place—put there so drivers can stop and refill their radiators.

Yes—it has been quite a hill. But not any more! The driver of the car in the picture above took off at the base and sailed right up to the top—and never gave it a thought.

You see, he's driving a 1953 Cadillac—with its great high compression 210-horsepower engine—and its vastly improved Hydra-Matic Drive.

We heard recently of two men who drove from Florida to Detroit—in a 1953 Cadillac.

The driver had made this trip before—and as they left Knoxville he said to his passenger: "Man, are we going to find a hill between here and Lexington!"

After an hour or so, the passenger said: "Where is the hill?"

And the driver said: "Just wait!"

So they waited—and presently they saw a sign which read: "Lexington."

The driver was dumbfounded.

"I can't understand it!" he said. "There used to be a hill there—a big one! I know from experience."

Naturally, this great car gives you more than the ability to master hills.

When you float along with a tremendous reserve like this, you have the easiest ride imaginable.

It gives you confidence, too—and helps you to relax—for you know you have the power for any emergency that may arise.

It makes the whole car a symphony in motion. In fact, the ride is so smooth and soothing that, not infrequently, passengers sleep as they ride.

Come in and try it for yourself. The car is waiting—and it's an experience you ought not to forego.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

A few million pounds of beef raised in New Zealand, sold cheaply in a few cities of the nation, raised a much greater beef in Washington.

Sales of this beef for less than half prevailing U. S. prices, came as the drive to repeal all U. S. tariff laws was started.

Butchers bought the beef from Swift & Co. for only 17 cents a pound, or less than half current U. S. price for live beef. The steaks not only raised widespread public interest, but also three interesting questions.

Question ONE: New Zealand beef was permitted into U. S. because of an embargo on Canadian beef due to cattle disease. So Canadian beef was shipped to England; New Zealand beef, normally shipped to Britain, was taken into the U. S.

Question TWO: It developed the beef was in the U. S. for several months. But the expiration of Price Stabilization prevented its sale while able.

Question THREE: Out in San Francisco, Milton Maxwell, butchers union head, prohibited sale of the meat in all except two markets, which had contracted for the beef before he made his ruling. He claimed the beef was butchered under grim conditions. But when informed it was killed by the New Zealand union, he still flatly refused National Federation of Laboring Butchers.

The question: By what authority could OPS withhold cheap food from the market?

But new Agriculture announces resumption of butter price support. In all probabilities, U. S. taxpayers will once again pay many millions of dollars to buy up surplus U. S. butter.

Yet, despite tariff, and war conditions, so far it has been impossible for U. S. to handle surplus production without spending huge tax sums.

Many feel one of tax money to keep U. S. agriculture healthy is sound policy under existing conditions.

But it will take a lot in convince taxpayers they should be assessed in take care of foreign farmers, too, which will be the result of tariff repeals.

Here's a molded salad you've been waiting for—made the fast-frost way from start to finish in about one hour! Called a Souffle Salad, here's how: Dissolve 1 package lime or lemon flavored gelatin in 1 cup hot water; add 1/2 cup cold water, 1/2 cup real mayonnaise, 1/4 tsp. salt and 1 to 2 tablespoons lemon juice or vinegar. Blend with rotary beater. Pour into refrigerator ice cube tray and place in freezing unit for 15 to 20 minutes. Mixture will be slightly set around the edges, still soft in center.

Step II: Turn mixture back into bowl and beat till frothy. Add 1 to 2 1/2 cups of any salad combination—lettuce, fruit or vegetables—pour into food and set in refrigerator to refrigerate for 20 to 45 minutes. Creamy and delicious!

Fashion experts predict beige will be a leading color this spring and summer—a light beige becoming to all of us.

On a Sunday morning soon, serve these Country Scrambled Eggs. To the number of eggs you generally scramble, add finely diced cheddar cheese and minced chives. Cook eggs slowly in vitaminized margarine and serve on toast points spread with margarine. Broiled tomato slices and crisp bacon make this something to get up for.

Two fairly new cleaning products every household should have are the preparation that takes off oven stains so easily and the dip that makes silver polishing a snap.

COTTON ACCOUNTS FOR MORE THAN ONE-HALF OF THE APPAREL FIBERS USED IN THE UNITED STATES!

"The wages of sin is death." We are always expectant of the wages we earn, but the kind of wages referred to in this instant is the one kind we hope never to have to collect. This was the subject of the Lord's Day lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lea Stanley made a trip to Dublin over the week end visiting her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hugh.

Mrs. Edna Hemphill and son, J. E., visited in Montana Thursday and Friday with her daughter and family, Mrs. Jack Smith.

The Paces were in Hobbs thru the week with their daughter and family, caring for the children. Loyd Rinehart underwent a tonsillectomy Thursday. The youngest granddaughter, Lorita, returned home with the Paces for an extended visit.

Maynard and Wooding Dagley drove over to Lockney Sunday afternoon to visit their mother, Mrs. Jim Dagley.

Darrel Thomason and family and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith of Hereford were visiting relatives in the community over the week end.

Mrs. Forrest Martin is in Floydada this week caring for her father, W. C. Garrett.

People in the community are beginning to fish. M. E. Tree and Forrest Martin fished near Veranda Wednesday of last week. They tried out their luck with Donnie Pace in the tanks near home Tuesday with no luck.

Setting shrubs, plants and trees has been the order of the day at the Pace farm. They have set nearly 200 plants in all along with planting an early garden, rebuilding corals and cleaning the premises.

Mrs. Ina and Joan Thomason visited Highway Thursday. They visited with the Putmans, Thomasons, and Smiths.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hahn have the boys from Brownfield visiting them.

Earl Thomason was home last week, but he returned to his job Monday.

Mrs. Jim Hahn has returned home after spending several days at the Crosbyton Hospital. We hope she will continue to improve.
