Chamber of Commerce Doings . . . Merchants Consider Early Closing Time For Out-Of-Town Football Dates

We have been asked to approach the business houses on the subject of closing their doors at 5 p. m. on the days that the Spur Bulldogs play out of town. We have talked with some 30 of you and everyone is very much interested in it. It seems that everyone is waiting for his competitor to start the ball rolling.

If you want to close, let the chamber office know and we will print signs that you can put in your windows in order that people can make arrangements to buy before 5 p. m. on the remaining four Fridays that the Bulldogs will be on the road. Some of the businesses are working students who would surely like to get off at five on game nights. Such a plan will give us all an extra thirty minutes to get there, and could very possibly prevent a serious accident. What do you think? Let the chamber office know, please.

The chamber manager and Horace Wood attended the progress meeting on Highway 70 last Saturday in Pampa. A report was given by each county represented on what progress had been made on the highway in their county. The progress is really going a long in the counties above Turkey. There has been two gaps in 70 that they have been working on the past two or three years. These gaps are from Turkey to Clarendon and from Pampa to Perryton. These two gaps will be finished in 1954.

The bridge across the Canadian River will be completed in the very near future. Palmer Massey, highway engineer for this district, reported that they had the money and the contract would be let some time in December to finish the gap from Turkey to Clarendon. This will open the road up from the Oklahoma line to Blackwell, Texas. It is hoped that it will be opened up on to Monterey, Mexico.

A committee headed by E. O. Wedgeworth of the Pampa C. of C. was appointed to work on getting this road designated.

Those of you who missed the six-man football game between Girard and McCauley last Thursday night really missed a good game even though Girard did lose. They were in there fighting at the last.

A. J. Harvey, Calvin Simmons and Joe Bell did a good job of announcing the game over the chamber's PA system.

On Oct. 13 the Spur Lions club and a number of other Spur people will be guests of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce.

The Abilene chamber has arranged for a luncheon at the Dyess hall and will bring a program with them from Abilene. This is one of the many "get acquainted" trips sponsored by the Abilene chamber. The group will arrive in Spur about 11 a. m. and will visit with the different merchants of Spur prior to the 12:05 luncheon.

The following merchants of Spur donated either cash or merchandise for the first sale of cotton to be ginned in a Spur gin. Spur Barber Shop, Spur Motor Co., Simmons Welding Shop, Grubens Jewelry, Wilson and Young Lbr. Co., Chandler Funeral Home, West Texas Utilities, Spur Mattress Co., Dickens Co.

Holy Land Pictures To Be Shown

Perry B. Cotham, who is currently conducting revival services at the Church of Christ in Spur, will show colored slides of his recent tour in Bible Lands at the educational building on Friday and Saturday nights of this week and on Sunday, and Monday nights of next week. Tuesday evening the moving pictures will be shown immediately following the worship service.

Mr. Cotham conducted a gospel meeting for the Spur church in the spring of '52, and while here made many friends, both in and out of the local congregation. Large crowds are now attending this revival.

The first of June Mr. Cotham, in company with seven other workers, made a six-week tour to the lands of the Bible and Europe, and while on the trip took colored slides and 16 m. movies. The countries visited were: England, France, Egypt, Palestine (both the kingdom of Jordan and Israel), Syria, Lebanon, Greece, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Luxembourg, Holland, Scotland, Iceland and Canada.

The local church extends a most cordial welcome to all citizens of the city and county to attend the meeting and see the pictures. The evening services begin at 7:30. Fred Gibson, minister of the Church of Christ, in Dickens, is directing the singing for the meeting which will close next Wednesday night, the sermon topic announced by Mr. Cotham being: "The Unpardonable Sin."

City Marks Streets For New 30 Degree Parking Angle Here

The City of Spur is inaugurating a new parking angle for the business district. This week Burlington Avenue has been marked off for 30 degree parking. The new angle provides a wider thoroughfare along with more visibility to drivers backing out away from the curb. Also, states Homer Hindman, the new spacing enables those entering or leaving an automobile to open the doors without bumping the adjacent automobile.

Hindman asks the cooperation of drivers in observing the new parking system and reminds that it is illegal to straddle the low stripes. He assures that stripes will be kept visible.

Another city ordinance brought to the attention of citizens states that it is unlawful to turn left across Burlington in the middle of the block. He points out that this ordinance covers the Post Office block and that left turns into the Post Office parking area are to be eliminated.

The parking spaces at the Post Office and at grocery stores with parking areas on Burlington have been clearly marked and are to be observed, he states.

Harris, Fifth and Third streets will be marked for proper parking soon, adds Hindman.

Hindman and Norton Barrett, chamber of commerce manager, recently went to Dickens to talk with John Cunniff, State Highway Engineer, in regard to traffic hazards on Highway 70 through Spur. Hospital signs are to be installed and the 30 mile zone will be moved out to include the hospital area. Hill Street will also be re-striped in the No Passing Zone.

To both eliminate blind corners and to beautify the city, all city property has recently been mowed. Hindman states that the mower is available to individuals at an $8 per hour rate. The average lot requires about 30 minutes to mow, he adds.

Student, teacher and parent cooperation has indicated a good interest in the schools, adds the superintendent.

Cook points out that the work in the various organizations and departments is progressing well and the students are showing a fine school spirit.

Following minor changes in their school bus routes, the permanent routes are now established. The bus drivers report that the children on each of the buses are conducting themselves well.

Godfrey Motor Company is going to furnish the vocational agriculture department another pickup this year. "We appreciate this service very much, and want to thank the Godfrey Motor Company," states Cook.

The last few days the children of the Spur schools have taken home with them applications for accident insurance while at school and to and from school. Cook explains that the school is not sponsoring the insurance nor is the school or anyone connected with the school receiving any favors or money from it. He adds that the policy available, having investigated it to the extent that school officials think it is alright.

Antique Cisterns May Water Modern Crops

Reservoirs or cisterns to store rainwater, like the one shown, were made by the ancient inhabitants of the Southern Negev in Israel. They were uncovered by soil scientists of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO), who report that the 2000 year old cisterns can be copied and even restored in some cases to furnish irrigation to today's desert dwellers. FAO's help was sought by the government in its effort to solve the desperate water shortage in dry areas where wells are impractical.

Every 3 days a new diesel joins the Santa Fe fleet!

A 10-year record of "building new" on the Santa Fe

Christmas with California champagne Santa Fe's first multiple-unit diesel motive rolled out of Chicago on Tuesday, May 12, 1950.

It powered the first Santa Fe 20% hours later it rolled into the new age of diesel.

There were 3600 "hours" in that year. Five years later, the first multiple-unit freight diesel rolled on Santa Fe rails.

Today, there is more than 2,500,000 diesel horsepower on the Santa Fe—25% of the nation's.

By 1962, a total of 1000 diesels are placed in service every 3 days for a 10-year record!

Added, every mile of new tracks makes America's New Railroad a little more completely new. Why, enough new rail has been laid on the Santa Fe in the last seven years alone to reach from Chicago to Los Angeles!

All new—but always the old price that all this building now costs you, the taxpayer, not one cent penny.

Waste of Asia's 'Most Precious Resources'

This little girl works in an Indian rice paddy. She is typical of thousands of Asian children who suffer from bad employment practices, according to a report by the International Labor Organization (ILO). Although there is some legislation to protect and educate the children whom ILO calls Asia's "most precious resources," there is still much to be done. The agency's findings will be studied by an Asian regional conference which will be held this month in Tokyo.

"Small Town Girl" Coming To Palace

"Small Town Girl" with a big town cast makes its bid as a Number 1 candidate for M-G-M's hit Technicolor musical of the season. Co-starring Jane Powell and Farley Granger (together for the first time) the cast also features dancing Ann Miller, funnyman S. Z. Sakall, Robert Keith, Nat King Cole, Billie Burke and Metro's talented young newcomer, Bobby Van.

The new musical marks Jane Powell's first screen appearance in more than a year and offers her another song-filled role to compare with her hit in "Royal Wedding" and "Rich Young and Pretty." Farley Granger comes to the picture direct from his stellar performance in "Hans Christian Andersen." Prior to this he appears with Leslie Caron in a romantic interlude of "The Story of Three Loves."

Ann Miller, following the successful "Lovely to Look At," has another mare-to-order role as a Broadway dancing star. S. Z. Sakall, of the many chins and the infectious grin, adds laughs in the role of a small town storekeeper forced to play Cupid for his bashful son. Billie Burke is seen as Granger's aristocratic mother.

"Small Town Girl" gives his first big opportunity to the young newcomer, Bobby Van, who appeared previously in two minor roles—as guest star with Debbie Reynolds in "Skirts Ahoy" and as one of Mario Lanza's soldier buddies in "Because You're Mine." The current film enables him to blossom forth as a full-fledged star with dancing, singing and impersonations entrusted to his many-faceted talents.

The action of the story takes place largely in a small upstate New York town, which was constructed in its entirety on M-G-M's Lot II and includes such locales as courthouse, church, business district and typical American small town homes. However, the plot also includes a sojourn into New York City and its night life and it is in these scenes that Nat King Cole is introduced, singing "My Flaming Heart." Other songs in the picture's score include "Take Me to Broadway," "Fine, Fine, Fine," "The Fellow I'd Follow," "Small Towns Are Smile Towns," "I've Gotta Hear That Beat."

Water will get top billing in the 1938 agriculture exhibits of the State Fair of Texas. Each of the 12 Extension Service Districts will feature a different phase of how water is used in present day agriculture.

SCIENCE and your Health

HOW DEEP IS "SKIN DEEP"? by Science Features

Our everyday conversation is studded with references that link the skin with the emotions. People turn "purple with rage." We "sweat-out" an unpleasant situation. Trouble is only "skin-deep." We may occasionally "itch for revenge" or "get cold feet."

Scientists know that such expressions have a basis in fact. Emotions may affect the health of the skin. Recently, Denver skin specialist, Dr. Gerald M. Frumess, stated that "the skin may reveal emotional states as eloquently as do the muscles of facial expression."

Emotional factors, the doctor said, affect two skin diseases known to have an organic cause. These are warts and the well-known "fever blister" or "cold sore." They may also lead to such common skin disturbances as rosacea, which causes discoloration and thickening of the skin, and eczema, or outbreaks of pimples and blackheads. The specialist cited cases in which ten people suffering from recurring "fever blisters" were successfully treated with brief psychiatric care. He added that the value of suggestion in curing warts, used by such fictional heroes as Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn, is today a recognized scientific fact.

RECENT BORGER RITES UNITE DUFFY AUSTIN - ARNOLD RATHEAL

Dr. Clifton Tennyson of Borger officiated at the double ring ceremony Sunday evening, August 23, which united Miss Duffy Jean Austin of Spur and William Arnold Ratheal of Crosbyton in marriage. The services were read at 8:30 p. m. in the home of Dr. Tennyson, friend of the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Austin of Spur and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ratheal of Crosbyton are the parents of the bridegroom.

The couple stood before a foliage decked arch and lighted fan-shaped candelabra. Floor baskets on either side of the candelabra held white gladioli and greenery tied with large white satin bows.

Carroll T. Ayl, Jr. offered pre-nuptial selections consisting of "Because", "I Love You Truly" and the traditional wedding march.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a full-skirted street length dress of white tulle, trimmed with silver metallic. The diamond-cut neckline was off set with a single string of pearls.

The bride's tiara was of white tulle and silver metallic. The shoulder length veil of white net was scattered with rhinestones. For something borrowed the bride wore tiny spread pearl ear studs, belonging to Mrs. O. M. McInty. A white lace handkerchief later given to the maid of honor, was carried for something new.

A heavy gold wedding band set belonging to Mrs. Jim Ratheal formerly of Spur, was worn by something old, and the traditional blue garter was worn. The bride also had a penny in her shoe for luck. Her bridal bouquet of pink carnations and net was centered with a large white orchid.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Wanda Cunningham, was attired in a dress of black quilted taffeta with white accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

For Good Winter Pastures, Plant Now

Soil moisture conditions over much of the state are now favorable for the planting of winter pastures. This coupled with the fact that grazing crops are needed to supply forage in the drought areas, and as cheap source of livestock feed in all areas, should be all of the stimulus required to get record acreage of pasture crops planted, says Extension Pasture Specialist E. M. Trew.

To get the greatest total production, forage with the highest content of protein and minerals and longest grazing season, Trew recommends the planting of a combination of a grass and a legume.

For the east Texas area, Trew recommends oats, barley, eye and Italian ryegrass in combination with either vetch or crimson clover. For the Gulf Coast area, barley and Italian ryegrass with Hubam sweetclover; for the Blacklands and Grand Prairie areas, oats, barley, wheat and Italian ryegrass with Hubam or Madrid sweetclover or vetch; in the West Cross Timbers region, oats, wheat and barley with Hubam or Madrid sweetclover or eye and vetch; for the Central Basin, Rio Grande Plain and Edwards Plateau areas, oats, wheat or barley with Hubam or Madrid sweetclover if desired, and for the Rolling and High Plains, he recommends wheat, barley or eye with Madrid sweetclover if for grazing only.

Trew says research done at the Beeville Experiment Station shows that the practice of planting the small grain in 38-40 inch rows with a row of Hubam, berseem clover or alfalfa seeded in the middle—which gives alternate rows of the small grain and legume—is especially adapted to pasture seeded in the Rio Grande Plain area when moisture is limited. Both crops are seeded at the same time.

In the section of the state south of a line run east and west through Temple, Trew says, the small grain and sweetclover can be seeded at the same time but north of this line, it is better to overseed the sweetclover in the spring.

Trew offers this suggestion on seeding rates. He says from two to three bushels of oats should be seeded per acre if the crop is to be used strictly for grazing. If the seeding is done in combination with a legume, then this rate for oats should be cut in half as should the normal seeding rate for the legume.

Trew points out that fertilizer should be used in all sections of the state where it is needed. A soil test will help determine the type and amount needed and is described by the specialist as the best fertilizer dollar that can be spent. The use of fertilizer will pay big dividends when needed in extra production of high quality forage.

Finally, Trew suggests that the local county agent be contacted for the latest information on the best adapted varieties, seed treat-

Putting your pressure canner away for the season? Home management specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service say protect threads of an iron pressure cooker with a thin film of petroleum jelly or salt-free cooking oil. Crumple newspaper inside the kettle to absorb moisture and odors. Wrap the cover in paper and invert it in the kettle. Be sure the canner is dry and clean.

Vegetables that will stand light frost are English peas, turnips, lettuce, cabbage, beets and Swiss chard. John Hutchinson, horticulturist for the Texas Agriculture Extension Service, says those that stand heavy frost in the garden are collards, onions, spinach and carrots.

To get the greatest total production of forages containing the highest percentage of protein and minerals and the longest grazing season, the planting of a combination of a grass and a legume is recommended for the winter pasture.

Flank steak is generally cheaper than round steak. It is one of the toughest cuts of meat and moist heat is necessary to cook it tender.

You're "sitting pretty" behind the wheel. Take this Bel Air model. First thing you'll notice is the quality of the interior. Rich-looking appointments. Roomy seats with foam rubber cushions. Turn the key to start the engine and you're ready to go.

You can see all around. You look out and down through a wide, curved, one-piece windshield. The panoramic rear window and big side windows provide a clear view in all directions.

You get more power on less gas. That's because Chevrolet's two great valve-in-head engines are high-compression engines. In Powerglide models, you get the most powerful engine in rolet. One reason is that, model for model, Chevrolet will weigh up to 200 pounds more than the other low-priced cars.

You get greater getaway with the new Powerglide. A lot finer performance on a lot less gas. That's what you get with the new Powerglide automatic transmission. There's no more advanced automatic transmission at any price.

And it's the lowest-priced line. A demonstration will show you that Chevrolet offers just about everything you could want. Yet it's the lowest-priced line in the low-price field.

Select Nation's Outstanding 4-H'ers as Honored Delegates to Club Congress

(Above) Discussion periods are a feature of the Club Congress. All delegates are divided into "buddies" of six, these units reaching an opinion on various "pro-con" questions. Then the groups reassemble for final deliberation. Most questions at the 1953 Club Congress likely will concern the theme—'Working Together for World Understanding'.

CHICAGO—Special—More than 1,200 outstanding rural youth—mostly farm boys and girls—from the 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, will be honored delegates to the 32nd National 4-H Congress in Chicago, November 29-December 3. They are the "cream of the crop" selected by the Extension Service as state, sectional and national winners in the 1953 4-H award programs of projects of agriculture and homemaking.

The youthful delegates will represent more than 2 million active fellow members throughout the United States.

Expenditures of the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, a citizens' group, total approximately $900,000 in grants annually to assist the Co-operative Extension Service in furthering the program, membership and influence of 4-H. The major portion of the grants, which are provided by some 40 industrial organizations, foundations and prominent public-spirited men and women, are used for 4-H merit awards, including medals, savings bonds, trips, college scholarships and leader training.

Among the corporations and foundations providing grants are: Allis-Chalmers, American Forest Products Industries, Carnation Co., Firestone Tire, Ford Motor Co. and Ford Tractor Division, General Motors, Hercules Powder, International Harvester, Kellogg Co., Kerr Glass, Mathieson Chemical, Montgomery Ward, Nash-Kelvinator, Sears-Roebuck Foundation, Simplicity Pattern, Spool Cotton, Standard Brands, United States Rubber, and Westinghouse Educational Foundation.

Cooperation is also provided by the Illinois Central, North Western, Rock Island and Milwaukee Railroads, Fretter Electric Co., Spinnerin Yarn, Toni Co., and Wm. Wrigley, Jr. Co. and Gene Autry.

Oil companies collaborating include American Oil, General Petroleum, Pan-Am Southern, Pure Oil, Standard Oil Foundation, Inc. (Chicago), Standard Oil Co. (Kentucky), The Standard Oil Co. (Ohio), Stanolind Oil and Gas, and Utah Oil Refining.

Individual donors include The President of the United States, Mrs. Charles R. Waigren, Thomas E. Wilson, Edward Foss Wilson and Conrad Hilton.

"So fundamental and significant are the accomplishments of the 4-H Clubs that their principles have been accepted and initiated in more than 30 countries around the world," said G. L. Noble, director of the National Committee. "This is a splendid record," he continued, "considering that at the same time there has been consistent growth and a stronger foundation of sturdy citizenship laid at home. In part this accounts for the growing support of 4-H by our agricultural and industrial leaders."

Is he in business "to stay?"

When you buy a used car from a Ford Dealer, you're dealing with an established businessman who has a large investment and his good name at stake. We're here today, and we'll be here tomorrow!

Check the used car, sure! But check the dealer too!

Does he really know cars?

Ford Dealers are in the service business, too; work with cars day in and day out. We know how to spot trouble fast. And our expert mechanics have the equipment and "know-how" to handle any service job.

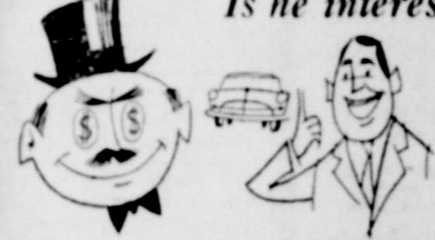

Are his prices really fair?

Ford Dealers handle used cars and trucks as a service to customers who trade them for new ones. We get a lot of trade-ins. And we keep them moving to free our working capital. That's a good reason why we offer our used cars and trucks at rock-bottom prices.

Is he interested in you?

Remember—we Ford Dealers want to keep your good will because we want to take care of all your automotive needs. Someday we hope to sell you a new car, or another used car, and in the meantime, we want your service business.

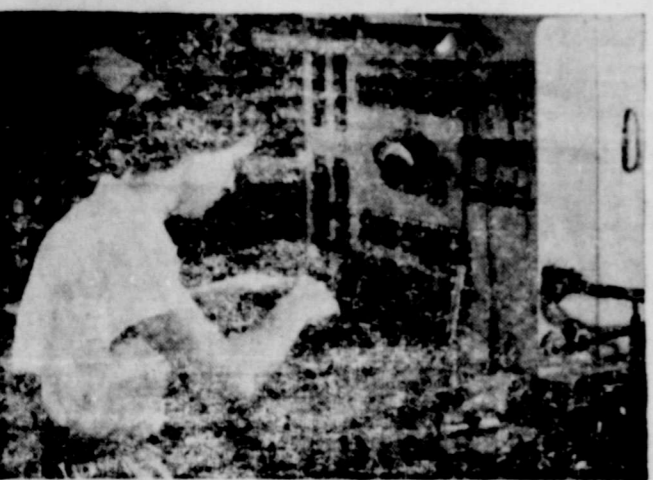

Do his cars meet A-1 standards?

When you go to a Ford Dealer's and see the A-1 label on a car, you know it has met with the dealer's A-1 standards. And because you can trust the man you bought it from, you can trust the car.

New Telephones From Old

NOTHING IS WASTED in the telephone business. No stone is left unturned in our efforts to hold down the price of good telephone service. Telephone instruments, for example, are used and re-used. When a telephone is removed from a home or office it is checked. If anything is wrong, it is repaired, cleaned, refinished before it is re-issued, every bit as good as new. Economies like this help us keep your telephone service high in value—low in cost. SOUTHWESTERN BELL... A TEAM OF 27,600 TEXAS TELEPHONE PEOPLE... AT YOUR SERVICE.

New word for GETAWAY } "TT" DYNAFLOW!

The 1953 Buick Super Riviera. Wire wheel covers, illustrated, optional at extra cost.

We'll get right to the point. The comments we've been getting from many new Buick owners about the new Twin-Turbine Dynaflow are terrific. And the reason is—this fully automatic transmission is, in itself, terrific. It has a new, firm, solid "take-hold"—gives you instant getaway response. It has new quiet—you can barely hear the acceleration build-up. It has unique and utter simplicity of operation. You just move your Selector into Drive range, press the pedal, and go. That's all. But the sweetest thing of all about TT Dynaflow is its smoothness.

You move from standstill to your legal speed in one progressive build-up of power delivery. You feel a constant "carry" of forward motion, unbroken in any way—because here no gearshifting takes place, either manually or automatically. Even your deceleration is infinitely smooth and gradual, with the cushioned control of flowing oil slowing down. Wouldn't you like to sample this wonderful new getaway and pleasant quiet and immaculate smoothness? We'll be glad to seat you at the wheel of a new 1953 Buick with Twin-Turbine Dynaflow—and let the thrills come where they may. Drop in soon, won't you?

RAVES!

Special Merit Award
from PARENTS MAGAZINE to SALOME

READ WHAT THEY SAY

SALOME—There are effulgent moments of spiritual power rarely captured on the screen in this sensitively directed Biblical film. The backgrounds were photographed in Israel in softest Technicolor. Scenes of John's preaching in the wilderness and of the healings of Jesus convey with great reverence a picture of a religious people with a drawing sense of Divinity among them. The film ends with a beautiful presentation of the Sermon on the Mount, with the white clad figure of the Christ atop the hill, silhouetted against the blue sky, and the green slopes crowded with hungrily listening multitude. Charles Laughton and Judy Anderson are tremendously effective as the pagan Herod and his wicked consort, while Rita Hayworth as Salome and Stewart Granger as a Roman commander provide a fictional love interest.
