The Farm Corner

Here's a modern farmer Who cuts and chops His handling of hay Would be rated tops

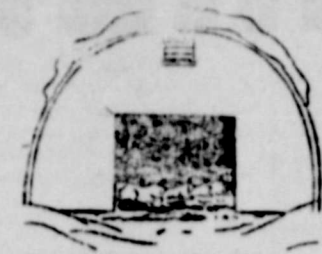

No pitchforks for him But a blower high When the tunnel's covered His fan will dry

If cows could vote They'd choose this way Of storing and drying This high-protein hay

They push the mangers While getting their feed And increase the shelter They're going to need

And after they eat There's space to rest They think this Quonset System's the best

The farmer's convinced His cows are right When he sees profits Coming to light

The "Farm Corner" is a regular monthly feature of the Champion Farm Journal News, published semi-monthly and supplied free to farmers upon request by the Johnson-Heise Corporation, El Paso, Tex.

New Safety Door

CHICAGO — This exclusive inside door release is the solution to the problem of children getting trapped in refrigerators. Michael Brent is showing Susan Holland, the new life-guard release developed by Admiral research engineers which gives in the dark and opens at the slightest touch. Should a child enter the refrigerator while his mother is checking it, all he has to do is touch the circular button to get out.
 Over 119 children have been hospitalized from abandoned refrigerators as well as 18 children in 1955 alone during the past 10 years. In 1955, the problem has long concerned the refrigerator industry, reaching acute proportions in August 1955, when 12 children lost their lives in refrigerator accidents in a single month.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

CHECK YOUR INSURANCE
 One of the most familiar types of contracts is the insurance policy, as nearly everyone carries some sort of insurance protection. Yet few people take the trouble to read their policies and lawyers, have to answer many questions regarding insurance generally.

Here is a problem frequently presented: "I have a hospitalization insurance policy. Will the company pay all of my hospital bills if I become ill?"
 It may or may not. Insurance is a contract between the insurance company and the policy holder. In the usual contract the policy holder agrees to pay a certain sum of money for the policy of insurance, and the insurance company agrees that should the policy holder incur hospital expense, that the insurance company will make payment to the policy holder of stated sums, as set out in the policy of insurance.
 The insurance policy itself must state the complete contract between the parties. The oral statements of agents, not in harmony with the policy are not binding on the company. The company is bound to pay only such sums as are specifically set forth in the policy of insurance.
 Practically all policies have a section called exceptions and exclusions. The policy holder should partially read this section before purchasing a policy of any kind of insurance. It would be possible for a policy of insurance to have so many exceptions and exclusions as to practically nullify any benefits under the policy.
 Another question often asked is: "Can I sue the insurance company which issued a liability policy covering the car of someone who runs into and damages my car?"
 For all practical purposes, you may not sue the insurance company which carries insurance on the other fellow's car to protect him from suits in case of his negligence. You must look to the owner or driver of the other vehicle for your damages.

 If the case goes to trial before the jury, even though you may know that the other party carries insurance, if there arises any discussion of the fact that insurance is carried by the other party, then the courts have held that it is the duty of the trial judge to declare a mistrial.
 This means that you will have to start all over again and try your case from the beginning before the jury, at a later date. Your case is not dismissed, and you do not lose your rights, to be heard on your case because of the word "insurance" coming into the case, but it does mean that the trial then in progress must be dismissed and you must start all over again before a new and different jury.

The theory of the appellate courts is that the mere introduction of any evidence or any testimony to the effect that there is an insurance company involved in any way in the case, is highly prejudicial to the Defendant and his cause of action.
 The appellate courts further say that is reversible error, that is, such error as will set aside the findings of the jury, if the jury in retiring to consider their verdict discuss whether or not either or both of the parties might or might not have insurance to back them up or protect them.

But the four highest-yielding improved permanent pastures included in a study of pasture-improvement practices, provided 170 days of grazing per acre. The study was conducted on 36 farms in 8 East Texas counties.

Washing Small Boy's Hair Needn't Be Dreaded Ordeal For Father Or Child

The problem of how to lure the small boy to the bathroom for the weekly hair-washing session has long been a frustrating one. Part of this is because Junior can always think of so many other things he wants to do, but even more it is because hair washing to him means the very real discomfort of stinging soap in his eyes.

Young fathers who have come to dread washing a resentful and squirming child's hair will be glad to know that now there is a new baby shampoo that can make things much easier. Because this gentle shampoo does not burn or irritate the eyes, Junior will submit a lot more pleasantly to removing his Robin Hood hat and having the dirt and grime removed from his hair, even though he may still be convinced that it is an unnecessary ordeal that Robin Hood certainly never had to undergo.

Once the bugaboo of stinging soap in the eyes has been banished, real progress can be made in teaching a child to wash his own hair. That means one less thing for busy parents to do. Give Junior his own bottle of baby shampoo, and his own brush and comb. Soon he will be using them without help or persuasion, and calling Dad to admire the splendid job he has done.

Not a lot of news pertaining to local politics thus far. 'Spouse' candidates, are waiting for warmer weather.

S. S. Representative Here March 14

A representative of the Lubbock social security office will be in Spur on March 14th at 9:00 a. m. in the Post Office. He will be glad to discuss any matters pertaining to social security.
 John G. Hutton, district manager of the Lubbock Texas social security office has some news of importance for people who have worked at least five years under social security and who, because of a disability, have not been able to work for six months or more, according to an announcement he made today.

"The Social Security Act now permits us to keep the benefit rights intact of a person who is unable to work because of his disability," Mr. Hutton explained. "To qualify for this so-called 'disability freeze,' a person must have worked under social security for at least five years out of the ten years before he became disabled and one and a half years out of the three years before he became disabled. The disability must have existed for more than six months and a person must be disabled at the time he files his application for the 'disability freeze'."

"Anyone now receiving a social security payment on his own earnings record may have his benefit refigured to exclude a period of disability if he is now disabled and the disability was in existence for more than six months before he reached age 65," Mr. Hutton continued. "Of course, he must meet the work requirement of five years out of ten years and one and a half years out of the three years, as set out above."

"People who are now disabled and unable to work or anyone who becomes disabled in the future should contact his nearest social security office in order to learn how the 'disability freeze' may protect him," Mr. Hutton said. "If you are unable to contact us yourself, a friend or relative may do it for you. A period of disability cannot be established unless an application is filed with the social security office."

Farmers can't afford to gamble with planting seed of questionable quality. The cost-price squeeze makes necessary both efficient and high yields from all crops. Certified seed may cost slightly more but their use is good insurance.

The ration of capital investment to value of production in egg producing poultry flocks influences the earnings of poultrymen, says Ben Wormell, extension poultry husbandman.

Coastal Bermudagrass, offers a real opportunity for forage production where adapted and properly managed. It is adapted to the area of Texas east of the 30-inch rain-fall belt but under irrigation can be grown westward until the 1,000 foot elevation is reached. It has exceptional ability to respond to fertilizer.

SOIL-WATER LOANS TOTAL $19,000,000 DURING FISCAL YEAR

More than $19,000,000 has been borrowed by farmers for soil and water conservation since this type of credit was made available a little more than a year ago, Walter T. McKay, Farmers Home Administration State Director for Texas said today.

Farmers used the loans to improve their farms and increase the efficiency of their operations. A report recently made by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson shows that about 79 percent of the funds were used for irrigation, including the purchase of pumps and piping, the drilling of wells and the construction and repair of irrigation ditches and laterals. Irrigation systems were developed or improved for about 282,000 acres.

In Texas, through December 31, 1955, 85 percent of the $2,280,000 loaned was used for irrigation. Irrigation systems were developed or improved for more than 34,663 acres. The remainder of the funds was used for such soil conservation measures, as terracing and pasture improvement, and developing water systems for household use and farm livestock.

"We expect that during the coming months, and particularly in the Great Plains Area, farmers will use a larger portion of the funds, they borrow to finance soil conservation measures," McKay said. "We have held a number of meetings in cooperation with Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service and other agricultural agencies to make certain that all farmers know that funds are available for soil and water conservation loans."

"Increased yields from this type loan are already apparent, but not, of course, to the extent they will be after the changed system of farming is in full operation," McKay said. For example, in Dawson County, a $11,200 loan for irrigation was made in May of 1955. This was too late for the farmer to pre-irrigate much of his cotton land. He irrigated 62 acres and harvested 63 bales of cotton without using any fertilizer this year. Dryland cotton in this area on similar land made about one-third of a bale per acre. He pre-watered approximately 60 acres of land planted to milo and applied water one time after planting. It yielded 2500 lbs., whereas his dry land milo yielded only 500 lbs. per acre. In addition to watering his row crops, he seeded a 2 acre plot to alfalfa which provided a good hog and cow pasture. He seeded an 8 acre plot to vetch and oats and now has a good pasture. At the time the loan was made, the farmers had 10 head of livestock and 2 brood sows. He now has 30 head of livestock and 21 hogs and has sufficient pasture and feed to take care of them. He has a good poultry program. By having the winter pasture and vetch, this farmer is utilizing his irrigation system year-round, and is successful in his farming operations where other farmers in the area, hard hit by drought, are going deeper into debt to continue their operations."

Model Hears Through Any Glasses

A miniature hearing marvel that combines fashion with function now lets mildly literally "hear what she is seeing." A new, tiny, all-but-invisible hearing instrument has been perfected by Telex, Inc., of St. Paul, Minnesota, that enables the fashion-minded woman to hear through her be-diamonded, mink-rimmed, plaid-templed, or everyday spectacle frames.

Weighting less than one ounce, the tiny Telex actually replaces the behind-the-ear tip of any spectacle frames. In spite of its size, it completely houses a 4-transistor fidelity hearing instrument.

Powered by a long-lived "power pill" that is smaller than an aspirin tablet, the new Telex completely eliminates cords and hearing buttons usually associated with hearing instruments.

Directional hearing is made possible with the new Telex, also. Because both the amplifier and microphone are located right at the ear, the wearer can perceive the direction of sounds exactly as a person with normal hearing.

Private lenders provide most of the funds from which these loans are made. The Farmers Home Administration makes and services the loans and insures repayment of the funds advanced. Farmers pay 4 and one-half percent in interest or in interest and insurance charges for the loans. The loans are scheduled for repayment within the shortest period of time consistent with the ability of the borrower to repay. The maximum repayment period on loans to individuals is 20 years. To be eligible for a soil and water conservation loan, a farmer must have reasonable prospects of conducting successful farming operations. He must also be unable to obtain the necessary credit on reasonable terms from private lending sources. Application for soil and water conservation loans may be made at the county offices of the Farmers Home Administration. The local County Farmers Home Administration committee determines the possibility for these loans.

CAN YOU IDENTIFY THIS MYSTERY FARM?

This aerial photo is another in a series taken of farms in the Spur area for Rickels Chevrolet Co.

Nobody knows whose farm the aerial photographer snapped... so it's up to the readers of this paper to identify the "Mystery Farm".

If you can identify the "Mystery Farm" (whether it's yours or not) please write, phone or come by Rickels Chevrolet Co. The first one to correctly identify the farm will receive, with our compliments, two passes to the Palace Theatre and a one year's subscription to the Texas Spur.

The owner of each week's "Mystery Farm" will receive absolutely free a beautiful mounted photo of his farm by calling at the Rickels Chevrolet Co.

We invite you to watch for our "Mystery Farm" each week. The operators of the "Mystery Farms" will be announced in the following edition of The Texas Spur.

World's Largest Shovel For Coal Mine

Ninety tons of earth in one tremendous bite is the capacity of the largest shovel in the world. Built by the Marion Power Shovel Company at a cost of more than two and a half million dollars, the Goliath of earthmovers is equipped with Tinken tapered roller bearings in all its hoist sheaves that lift the loaded dipper and its swinging machinery which revolves the machine. Tinken bearings are also used extensively in the shovel's maintenance crane. It will be used in a strip mine operation in southern Ohio by the Hanna Coal Company to lift ninety feet of earth or overburden from atop a five-foot coal vein. Builders of the gigantic machine say that it comes through shortly after to transport the operator and maintenance crew to the mine's shaft. The big Tinken bearings in the machine will carry loads the tremendous loads imposed upon them.

SELF-EMPLOYMENT TAX

A large number of farmers are concerned about the self-employment tax law, according to Mr. John R. Robinson, Administrative Officer in Charge of the Lubbock Office. Amendments to the Social Security Law made farmers subject to self-employment tax during 1955 for the first time. Mr. Robinson has set out the five most common questions asked by farmers and their answers for the information of farmers in the Dickens County area.

1. Is self-employment optional or mandatory for farmers? No. If the farmer had net earnings from self-employment of $400 or more last year and did not receive any wages subject to the social security taxes on employees, or if such wages were less than $4,200, he must pay self-employment tax for last year.

2. What form does the farmer need to fill out in order to pay his self-employment tax? He will use Schedule F listing all farm income and deductions to determine net farm profit or loss. Page 4 of this form is used to figure your self-employment tax. This form needs to be filed along with his income tax return, Form 1040.

3. Can a farmer owe self-employment tax and not owe any income tax? Yes. His net income from farm operations is $400 or more and the total amount of his exemption is more than his net income. Then he would be required to pay self-employment tax but would owe no income tax.

4. What is the self-employment tax rate for farmers? If, in the taxable year, he receives no wages subject to social security taxes and his self-employment net earnings from farming for the year are at least $400 and no more than $4,200, the entire amount is subject to the 3 per cent rate.

5. Are farm rents, as such, subject to self-employment tax? No. If the landowner rents his land receiving a crop share or the proceeds thereof, under the ordinary crop sharing arrangement, he is considered to be receiving rentals from real estate, and such rentals are excluded from net earnings for self-employment.

The soil testing laboratory, operated by the Agricultural Extension Service at College Station, has proved its value to the state's agricultural industry, say M. K. Thornton, extension ag. chemist. Last year 10,111 soil samples from every section of Texas were tested by the lab's personnel.

Plan $146 Flights To Paris

Blonde Jean Cielke, North American Airlines stewardess of Miami, contemplates the route she hopes soon to be flying to Europe. Here she points out to James Fischgrund of Burbank, California, a co-owner of the airline, low fares North American wants to start next April if the Civil Aeronautics Board approves. The airline seeks to introduce history's lowest fares, 42 to 53 per cent less than those now charged transatlantic air tourists.

CERTIFIED PLANTING SEED ARE A SOUND INVESTMENT

Guaranteed purity, higher germination and top crop yields are all on the credit side of certified planting seed. While germination and final yields are dependent upon available moisture, Ben Spears, extension agronomist, says farmers can't afford to gamble with planting seed of questionable quality.

Certified seed usually are the best seed of a particular variety available. Seed with a "blue tag" comes from fields that were inspected during the growing season, properly handled at harvest time, cleaned and tested for purity and germination.

Certified seed may cost slightly more, but the added cost is good insurance, says Spears. He advises farmers to buy now the seed needed for planting this year's crops. Seed supplies are generally adequate but last minute shoppers find local stocks depleted.

If the planting seed has not been chemically treated for seedborne and seedling diseases, Spears recommends treatment. He points out that farmers, have found this practice profitable and insurance against poor stands and plant losses during early growth.

Local county agent, can supply additional information on seed treating and also on adapted varieties, says Spears.

REPORT ON WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON EDUCATION

Some weeks ago the White House Conference on Education was held to explore the need and possibility for Federal Government aid to education. The conference raised many questions, but answered few of them.

The official report of the Conference states that a proposal for federal aid for school building construction was authorized by a 2 to 1 majority; the participants and Texas.

The report attempts to answer a number of heretofore puzzling questions. Among these are: To what extent is farm mechanization related to the migration of people from farms? Does mechanization tend to increase or decrease farm tenancy? Does it increase or retard the farmer's levels of living? Are the operators of highly mechanized farm, more likely to be employed in off-farm jobs than the operators of the lesser mechanized farms?

A total of 58 economic sub-regions were studied in the five states. Texas had the three areas of highest mechanization. These were the High Plain cotton area, panhandle wheat area and the rolling plains in the order named.

were divided almost evenly on the question of federal funds for local school operation; a small minority, the Texas delegation, opposed federal aid for education in any form; federal aid should not be permitted to deter state and local initiative in education; the delegates almost unanimously opposed any federal control over educational use of funds in local school districts (accounting by the states to the national government was not interpreted as federal control); and that no federal funds should be granted to private schools by about a 4 to 1 majority.

The Conference made no recommendation as to how much aid should be granted, how to avoid discouraging local initiative in the face of possible unlimited federal aid for construction, or how to prevent the demand of non-public school supporters for aid.

He was accompanied by County Agent Bob Berry to Matador where he met a Motley boy who was to attend the school also. The two boys and the Motley County Agriculture Agent attended the school on Wednesday and Thursday.

There will be a tractor maintenance school held in Dickens County during the summer for 4-H boys. This school will be led by Billie.

Nation's Growth Linked to Expanded Sanitation Facilities

Many of the changes in the American way of life within the last decade have been related to the industrial expansion of the country and the growth of the American Community.

As a result of this industrial progress and community growth, Americans will live better in 1965 than they did in 1955, the Sanitary Engineering Committee of the National Clay Pipe Association reports.

However, full modernization of the Nation's existing sewage and water facilities is necessary in the next ten years if this country is to continue its growth and progress.

The combination of industrial growth and rapid population increase has placed a burden on present sewage and water facilities. Thousands of miles of underground clay pipe lines are needed to carry wastes to disposal plants. Vitrified clay pipe is recognized as the one material that provides all the qualities necessary to satisfy the exacting demands of sanitary structures. Clay pipe resists all the effects of acids and other caustic substances that are found in sewer systems.

Modern sanitary systems constructed of clay pipe play an everyday role as guardian of the health of the people. They are one of the city's lifelines, carrying away deadly wastes.

AGRICULTURE IN SOUTH-WEST EXPANDS MACHINE USE

Southwestern farmers have greatly expanded the use of machinery on their farms during the past two decades. The effects of this rapid adoption of mechanical equipment is the subject of study by a group of rural social scientists in the region.

"Factors Associated with Agricultural Mechanization" is the title of a publication issued jointly by the agricultural experiment stations in the five states in which the study was conducted, Arkansas, Louisiana, Miss., Oklahoma ber of buzzards he eliminated reduced their population by some 100 this year, as they will not be raising any young.

Millington reports that the Munson trap was constructed as a result of another Brazoria county demonstration.

BOYS RANCH

Marvin Menden of Spur will be among the thirty FFA boys from America's First Boys' Ranch, Amarillo, Texas, who will be guests of their friends in Houston for the Fat Stock Show and they will also get a chance to visit with Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, who are appearing at the show.

Fifteen year old, dark-headed Marvin is an all around cowhand at Boys Ranch, participating in the different sports and activities. He is very interested in the stock, the barn and the FFA program, which is in operation for the first time this year at the Ranch and he is very enthused over the trip to Houston.

Included in the itinerary on February 24-26 will be a tour of the city with the people who are making the trip possible, a chance to see the stock at the Show and a dinner is being planned for the boys where they will be able to visit with Roy and Dale before their scheduled evening performance at the Rodeo. The boys will go deep sea fishing in Freeport, Texas, as guests of Mr. Gilbert Darland, who is furnishing the boat and equipment.

BUZZARDS CAUGHT IN THE ACT

Buzzards settling on Bascom Munson's place near Arlington, Texas, returned to their usual tree roosts one evening to find a meal of chicken and armadillo spread beneath.

Quick to take advantage of a good thing, 132 buzzards joined in a feast. Having eaten their fill, the big birds found, to their consternation, they had entered a large wire coop to which there seemed to be no exit.

And this is the sight that confronted Munson and Brazoria County Agent W. S. Millington when they returned to see the results of their strategy — 132 buzzards, walking disdainfully around and around the trap trying to find where the door to the thing was. Munson says buzzards, pointer drinking water and grass, and have pecked the eyes of calves, sometimes killing and eating them. They have even killed and eaten a cow too weak to protect herself during calving time, he added. Munson estimates that the sum-

Cadillac

At Home... Among Strangers!

You're going to get a wonderful thrill when you take the wheel of your first Cadillac and head out into the country—a long, long way from home.

We're not just talking about the car's wonderful performance and its extraordinary riding and handling ease—satisfying and inspiring though these are bound to be.

No, we're talking about something more.

We're talking about the friendliness you're going to encounter—how you'll be driving among people who seem to know something about you, and who are ready to trust and respect you as if they had known you for a long, long time.

This is true, of course, because Cadillac quality and goodness have made it the overwhelming preference of people of judgment and discrimination—and the whole world has come to know and understand this and to appreciate what it means.

Yes, your best foot is forward when it rests on the throttle of a 1956 Cadillac.

This great personal benefit is strictly a plus value when you take the title of the "car of cars." It comes in addition to the long-known Cadillac virtues: matchless beauty and luxury and comfort, and safety and long life.

Why not consider a Cadillac for your next car? It is a logical choice—not only for quality and goodness and prestige—but for economy of ownership and operation as well.

We suggest that you come in soon and see for yourself. We'll be happy to give you a personal demonstration at the wheel... and to explain why this is such a wonderful time to make the move from every standpoint.
