Whoa, Now!

By Grady Lackey

It's difficult in our fair city to offer any suggestions or criticisms to our City Council without immediately being associated with "the other party."

We believe that there are still outstanding citizens of Spur who are definitely interested in the welfare of Spur who do not believe in a cut and dried "party" system in Spur and who resent being lined up as a follower or supporter of any small group or individual.

We believe that there are still citizens of Spur who are very capable of doing their own thinking and reaching their own conclusions without first checking with the "political bosses". We believe that there are still citizens of Spur who can consider current issues at their face value without being influenced or blinded by old prejudices or old personality conflicts of 30 or more years ago.

We believe that the destiny of Spur, both internally and in relation to our trade territory and neighboring cities, hinges on the citizens of Spur who will rally to a new policy in city government in Spur. The present administration and the organized opposition can both take part in such a movement by adopting a spirit of cooperation and mutual understanding in recent political issues.

An area lady recently told us that what the citizens of Spur need most is to learn to disagree without being disagreeable.

We believe that such is not too idealistic to be applicable right here and right now.

We now face a mayor's election without a name on the ballot.

Why?

It is very easy for even the casual observer to see why. And it is not because the city is in financial difficulties. If such were the case, it would only present a challenge to a civic-minded individual to apply his business knowledge toward the service of our city.

It is not because of the time such a job would require. There are several capable men with ample time to give in the service of their community.

It is not the light plant, the hospital, the water works the gas system, or any other specific or separate project or condition.

But it is that we, through our hickering, lying, tale-bearing, falsifying, slandering, cussing, and general attitude of dissatisfaction and animosity, that we have destroyed any honor or respectability that was ever connected with being Mayor of Spur. We have made the office of mayor, and to a lesser degree, the office of alderman, only a target for the evil darts of the tongues of rabble-rousers and faultfinders. We have lowered the office to the extent that no decent citizen would expose himself to it for the June 12 election. We have made a joke out of what should be the most honorable and important position in the city.

We blame the condition that exists not on either the present administration or on the opposition, but on those of both groups who have contributed to the condition that now exists. We would point to the administration and mention the dangers of an uninformed public. The release of official statements, such as the one appearing as a paid advertisement last week, and the recent statement approved by the council and signed by the mayor, were not directed and baldly lies, but we feel that they did fail to represent a true picture of the condition of the light plant and the hospital.

We would further remind the council of their prevailing (though not always unanimous) attitude of animosity toward any suggestion from the so-called "opposition". We believe that several constructive and highly plausible projects have been completely ignored because they were suggested by someone identified with the other party.

Throughout the proceeding weeks a more detailed report will be given each and every project the chamber of commerce will undertake for a Greater Spur.

In regard to the possible bypass of Spur by the Highway Department there is still no further news. Mr. Masey of the Childress office of the Texas Highway Department has promised the City of Spur that he will work with us in every way to keep the highway in the city.

The City Council and the Chamber board of directors met this week with two representatives of the Pioneer Natural Gas Co. of Lubbock to check the possibilities of obtaining natural gas for Spur.

A negative reply was given by the two gentlemen and they indicated that a new source of supply near Spur having at least a 25-year reserve would have to be obtained before this town could get natural gas.

By a previous survey of the retail stores of Spur, it was agreed that Memorial Day will be one of seven holidays observed here.

As a result, next Wednesday, May 24, the stores of Spur will be closed to observe Memorial Day.

These participating on the show will be Patsy Wamack, Anna Bob Williams, Barney Mack Benson and Don Williams.

PETITIONS STARTED TO FORM WHITE RIVER WATER DISTRICT

Petitions asking that the State Board of Water Engineers create a four-city White River water district were passed out to representatives of the cities of Spur, Post, Crosbyton and Ralls at the May meeting of the White River Municipal Authority committee held Saturday afternoon in Post.

The petitions were taken home by the representatives for early circulation. Each city's petition will require 50 signatures before being submitted to the state board.

The committee announced that it would contact the Fort Worth engineering firm of Freese and Nichols for maps and data to be presented to the State Board of Water Engineers along with the petitions.

In other action, the committee officially accepted Ralls as a member city, designated the areas within the city limits of four towns as comprising the proposed water district, and elected a secretary.

S. J. Freese, a member of the engineering firm, was present and reported on the project up to the present time. His report included the information that last month's core drilling tests at the site of the proposed dam were favorable.

The engineer also presented a tentative map of the proposed pipe line system which would deliver water to the four cities.

M. A. McLaughlin of Ralls was elected secretary of the committee to fill a vacancy created several weeks ago by the resignation of Robert Lewis of Spur.

Chairman Tom Bouchier of Post presided at Saturday's meeting. Other committee members attending were Lynn Buzbee and George Gabriel of Spur; Jack Robertson, Jim Cox and McLaughlin of Ralls; Robert Work and Perry Bell of Crosbyton, and R. J. Jennings and Dr. A. C. Surman of Post. Also in attendance were John N. Hopkins, Ted R. Hibbs, George Samson, R. H. Tate and Mrs. Fritz Greenfield, all of Post, and three bonding company representatives.

The committee's next meeting will be held in Ralls on June 16, following a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock.

James coached the junior high school girls basketball team two years. Tuesday of this week he received a five-year service pin from the school.

He is a member of the Masonic Lodge, Lions Club and Methodist Church. It has been said "You name it and Jay has done it" in connection with the Spur schools.

The administration and teachers all agree that the annual staff made a wise selection in their dedication which reads:

"We the La Espuela staff of 1956 dedicate these pages to James W. Jay whose interest and devotion as a teacher and friend has endeared him to the hearts of Spur High School students."

Miss Dean Reagan of Hardin-Simmons University visited with her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Reagan and Ann, Mother's Day. Ted Hardy also of HSU, whose home is Brownfield, visited in the Reagan home.

There will be a meeting of the Ground Observer Corps on Thursday, today, May 24, announces Everett Martin.

The meeting will be held at the American Legion hut at 8 p. m. All members of the corps who have already volunteered, and anyone else interested, are urged to be present.

As a result of the Community Clinic held in Spur on May 8, the Spur Chamber of Commerce now has a wide range of practical projects from which they will select a constructive program of work.

Topping all other suggestions from the clinic, Civic Improvement heads the list. That will include such things as Street Improvement, Sanitation, Paving Repairs, City-Wide Beautification, and a well-rounded Recreational Program.

The remainder of the program of work will include equally important projects, such as Agriculture and Livestock, Retail Trade Development, Industrial Development, and Public Relations.

Work has already begun on the Agriculture Program and soon it is the desire of the chamber to form an Agriculture Service Council made up of all professional agriculture workers to coordinate specially designed periodic programs to aid the farmers of this area.

Throughout the proceeding weeks a more detailed report will be given each and every project the chamber of commerce will undertake for a Greater Spur.

In regard to the possible bypass of Spur by the Highway Department there is still no further news. Mr. Masey of the Childress office of the Texas Highway Department has promised the City of Spur that he will work with us in every way to keep the highway in the city.

Copeland Pitches No-Hitter; Next Games Scheduled for Saturday

By Billy Bigham

Play in the Spur Baseball league is now in full swing going into the second full week of the season. The Little League boys are polishing off the rough spots and learning how the game should be played. By next week they should be putting on some pretty good exhibitions.

The Pony Leaguers are boys with a year's experience and a lot of good coaching by very competent managers and are now playing like Big Leaguers.

Come over each Tuesday and Thursday nights to watch them. They will really put on a show for you.

Copeland Pitches No-Hitter Last Thursday night Spur baseball fans were treated to the rare thrill of a perfect ball game, when East Side pitcher Joe Copeland pitched a no-hit, no-run, no-walk ball game and his team committed no errors. Time called the game in the fifth with Copeland having faced 15 batters and fanned 13 of them. One popped out to the pitcher and one grounded out, pitcher to first base.

Ryan, pitching with a sore finger, did a good job for the West Side, allowing only three hits and three runs until the fourth when the East got to him for two more runs on two hits, and he was replaced by Howell who put out the fire. Only one error was made in the ball game. Final score: East 5, West 0.

In the twilight game the Lions defeated Rickels 13-7. Clay was the winning pitcher with five hits. Peak was the loser with 10.

Monday Games This week, due to school activities, Tuesday night's scheduled games were played Monday. In the first game the Edwards-Kelley team went on a rampage to score 31 runs in four innings and defeat the Rotary boys who seemed to have more than their share of hard luck and just couldn't get going.

In the second game the East Side team came through for their third win by beating K. P. Lodge 13-4. Bigham started on the mound for the winners but got into trouble with one out in the See SPORTS, page 5

Fire insurance rates went up to a 35c basis effective May 15, 1956, following the discontinuation by the City of Spur of the night watchman service.

The new rate came as a shock to most Spur property owners who had been led to believe that no rate increase would be caused by the recent change in the city police system. The nightwatchman, who worked on foot and punched a time clock at certain intervals was replaced by a patrolman in an automobile with no exact schedule.

Spur fire insurance rates were at an all-time low April 1, 1955 at 29c. They increased to 31c on August 15, 1955, to 33c on October 15, 1955, and to 35c on May 15, 1956.

However, at the 35c rate with a 10 per cent good fire record credit, Spur's rates are still considerably lower than neighboring cities of similar size.

A group of four boys and girls from Spur will appear on the Family Bible Quiz program on KCBD-TV, channel 11, at 1:30 p. m. this coming Sunday, May 27.

Those participating on the show will be Patsy Wamack, Anna Bob Williams, Barney Mack Benson and Don Williams.

By ROBERT W. BERRY
DICKENS COUNTY AGENT

FARM TOPICS

Many Dickens County farmers are asking about the use of Spot Oiling in Johnson Grass control. This is a new method of control and is much better, more economical than hoeing.

The oil used is common naphtha which is widely used as a cleaning fluid or a 50-50 mixture of naphtha and diesel oil. These oils are available through wholesale petroleum dealers.

Briefly, the method is to apply about one-third teaspoon of oil to each stem, near the ground. A pressure type sprayer may be used but the amount of oil used is difficult to apply and, under pressure, the oil is more likely to get on cotton or other crops. A gravity flow sprayer has been designed to oil Johnson Grass. They may be built by any tin-smith or they are for sale by a ship in Bryan, Texas. I have the plans for the sprayer and I also have the address of the tin shop.

Oil should be applied to Johnson Grass before it becomes 6 inches high. The oiling should be repeated in 7-10 days. Four applications have reduced stands by 95 percent on experimental plots and the cost of control was much cheaper than hoeing. For further information about this subject, call, write, or come by my office for your copy of bulletin number B-808, "Spot Oiling of Johnson Grass."

Cemetery Assn. To Have Annual Meet.

Those who have not paid their dues are urged to do so at once.

A lunch will be spread at the noon hour so everyone is to bring a basket lunch.

To the opposition, represented mostly by long-time citizens of Spur and including several city officials, we point out a few coals that have been heaped on the heads of the council and have added to and contributed to the internal strife in Spur. With all respect to your past experience in public office and the years you have faithfully served the City of Spur, it should not be beyond your comprehension and understanding that the present city council was duly and fairly elected by the majority of the voters of Spur to represent them in the official capacity they now fill. It must be realized that they hold important and honorable positions, supported by the voters of Spur. They are entitled to the respect of every citizen of Spur until they violate their oath of office. They are, in reality, "the people's choice."

Requests to the council, to receive due consideration, could be submitted respectfully and in the form of suggestions—in contrast to making demands and threats. Just because we disagree with them on one issue does not make every thing they ever do or attempt to do all wrong. And contrary to the opinion of some, they have done some very commendable things for our city.

And now to the problem at hand—that of electing a mayor. Undoubtedly there will be write-in candidates representing both groups, and possibly an independent or two.

We hereby challenge both sides and any individuals who may have write-in candidates, to let them be known far enough in advance to give the voters an opportunity to make a choice.

We further hereby offer to any candidate up to 30 column inches of advertising space in this newspaper to make his intentions and platform known.

We don't want a mayor hand-picked by a few—we want one elected on an open platform by a representative majority of the voters.

HONOR THE DEAD BY HELPING THE LIVING

by Anna Mae Randall

Historian, Ladies Auxiliary to Spur VFW Post 7212 While we were sitting safe at home, Without a worry at all on our mind, Just think of the soldiers on foreign soil In foxholes where bombs and shells whined. Some of them returned safely home: All thankful and happy are they. The Disabled Veterans in hospitals, though, Made these poppies we are selling today. Many of them will never return. They are resting in foreign soil. They gave all anyone can give. For them there is no more toll. If a Buddy Poppy you are asked to buy, Just step right up with a smile in your eye. When you think of all they did for you, It's the very least anyone can do.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: The annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has been officially recognized and endorsed by the President of the United States and Veterans Administration; and WHEREAS: VFW Buddy Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans, and the proceeds of this worthy fund-raising campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of phans of deceased veterans; and WHEREAS: The basic purpose of this annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars is eloquently reflected in the desire to "Honor the Dead by Helping the Living"; therefore, I, C. P. Scudder, Jr., Mayor Pro Tem of the City of Spur, do hereby urge the citizens of this community to recognize the merits of this cause by contributing generously to its support through the purchase of Buddy Poppies, on Saturday, May 26, the day set aside for the distribution of these symbols of loyalty. I urge all patriotic citizens to wear a Buddy Poppy as mute evidence of our gratitude to the men of this country who have risked their lives in defense of the freedoms which we continue to enjoy as American citizens.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

Agent's Acts Bind Principal Suppose that you hire your neighbor's teen age son, Jimmy, to cut your grass, and he runs your new mower into another neighbor's hedge. The hedge is ruined. Are you responsible for the damages? Quite likely you are.

Or let us suppose that you find you need a loaf of bread for the evening meal. You ask a friend to take your car and run to the store for it. On the way, he runs down old Mr. Peabody, seriously injuring him. Can you be held responsible? It is possible that you can.

In both instances, an "agent" was acting for you. His acts while performing those duties are, in the eyes of the law, your acts. In legal terms, you are the "principal."

You may be liable despite the fact that you may have cautioned him to be extremely careful.

The average individual expects to answer for his own actions. He does not usually consider that he may be responsible for the actions of other persons. That, however, is frequently the case.

Suppose you ask another person to do something for you, that is, to act as your agent. You may pay him, or he may be doing it without compensation.

You may ask him to buy or sell property for you. Or, his responsibility may be to negotiate an agreement for you with a third person.

If representations or warranties are made by your agent in performing the task which you assigned to him, you are responsible.

In like manner, you are responsible for the contract made by him while he was acting for you.

You may be held responsible for the acts of a person who customarily represents you even though he entered into a contract for you without your consent or approval.

For example, you may have a partner in a business, and you and he have agreed that certain contracts shall be made only upon the signature of both of you. Unknown to you and without your consent, your partner signs such a contract with a third person involving partnership business. If the person with whom this contract is made has no knowledge of the terms of your partnership agreement, you are responsible for the contract which your partner has made.

You may have agreed between you that neither of you would buy, without the other's consent, any items of merchandise costing more than $50. You did not give this information to salesmen who called on you. In your absence on a Thursday afternoon, your partner ordered merchandise for your store costing more than the $50 limit.

When the merchandise is delivered, you can not refuse to accept it because you can not be bound by the contract of your partner. This is true in many situations, and the salesman is not bound by your partnership agreement because you did not advise him of the $50 limitation.

As the actions of your agent are considered to be your actions, you assume the responsibility of his doing them correctly.

Patton Springs Jr. Reports Convention

BY LINDA TARRANT

(Junior-Patton Springs High) The convention was called to order to executive chairman Oscar L. Kelley from Spur. The registration was made as the delegates came into the court room. Roll call was made by Elouise Crockett.

Temporary chairman nominees were: Fred Arrington, Oscar Kelley, and Fike Godfrey. Oscar Kelley was elected and then there was a recall and Fike Godfrey was elected by acclamation.

Elouise Crockett was nominated secretary of the convention and was elected by acclamation.

A nominating committee suggesting delegates for the state convention on May 22, 1956, in Dallas, Texas, was appointed by Mr. Kelley. They were, Byron Haney, Chairman; Raymond Powell, and Edgar Robinson.

A larger question and discussion was brought up on the subject as to whether or not executive committee could serve in the convention offices. Mr. Fike Godfrey called the county attorney Alfred Walker, and he advised that the executives neither serve as officers in the convention or as delegates to the state convention.

After their problem was solved the nominating committee went back into retirement and suggested the following men for delegates, Fike Godfrey, Moynis L. Kelley, and Clyde Crausby, alternates were Coy Powers, Arner Watson, Joe Rose, Mr. Powers announced that it would be almost impossible for him to attend the state convention so Mr. C. W. Nichols was nominated from the floor. The delegates voted and the nominees were approved.

A resolution committee was also appointed by the chairman. They were: Joe Rose, chairman; and Jay Austin. They read the following resolution:

1. Lyndon B. Johnson be named favorite son of Texas to run for President of the United States.
2. Lyndon B. Johnson be named State Convention Chairman.
3. Dickens County Delegates vote as a unit on the above resolutions.

These three resolutions were passed by a majority vote of the delegates.

A credentials committee was made up of Clyde Crausby, chairman; Harley Ragland; and E. J. Nichols.

Mr. Kelley called for a motion toward adjournment and the move was made.

As a whole the convention was quite a success. It was carried on in a very democratic manner and I, for one, didn't know that such activities were held in our county. Before the past two election years these county and precinct conventions were regarded as a mere passing event, but our citizens are beginning to take a greater interest in their government. Just such conventions as were held today in Dickens are the beginning of the election of the president of the U. S. every four years. These delegates representing the different precincts of the county carried on the meeting today with very little trouble and with the knowledge that this gathering was just as important as the big national convention in a way.

We, as citizens of the United States, should take a greater interest in our country's government and officers elected to the places in our government. We should feel more obligated to vote at each election that we have a chance to attend, pay our poll tax year after year so that we can vote. The government would be better run and the people would be better satisfied with the turnouts of the major elections, and they would have a deeper knowledge and understanding of the people they put into the offices of the government.

If we take a greater interest in the way our government operates, our country would be better off all the way around, and the time and place to start is here and now, in the youth of our country, where America's future lies. This future has a slow but definite goal to reach. Our government is called a democracy, the wheels that keep this operation moving turn very slowly, but the people's will is done. We create our laws, we enforce them, and we abide by them, for this reason this government set up

 Relatives received word that Will Darden, a former Kent county resident, underwent serious surgery in a Denver, Colorado hospital last week.
 Vacation time is here for Girard school students and teachers as Friday of last week was the final school day until next September. However, the buses ran Monday in order for students to get final report cards.

The dry cow, according to R. E. Burleson, extension dairy husbandman, is the most neglected animal on the dairy farm. The dairyman who neglects to see that his cows get an adequate vacation is losing money. They need the rest.
 Mowing is an important practice in the management of cultivated pastures. It helps eliminate weeds, sprouts, bushes, briar and vines and makes conditions more favorable for grass. Also, says E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist, mowing cultivated grasses tends to keep them in a growing condition and more palatable and nutritious.

Trial plantings of 255 varieties or selections of grasses are being made by county agents in 66 counties. The grasses were selected by teams from the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station who visited states of the southwest and Mexico in their search for drought resistant plants.
 L-255, Guide for Controlling Insects on Vegetable Crops in Texas-1956, is now available at the offices of local county agents or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

The stepped-up tempo of farming activities over the state will mean more farm accidents unless farm families make it their business to prevent them, says the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council.
