Whoa, Now!

By Grody Locky

Looks like we should have limited our political predictions to County Attorney Alfred Walker and State Rep. Moyné Kelly—they are both unopposed. We tried to make it clear last week that our guesses were only guesses and did not constitute an endorsement of any kind—still we've been criticised for even guessing! The criticism has been to two extremes. Some say we mustered votes for those whom we guessed will win, just because folks like to get on the band wagon. Other critics claim that we mustered votes for the ones we guessed will lose because some folks want to support the underdog, and some folks would just like to see the editor be wrong! We don't place much stock in either school, but maybe the two will cancel each other out at the polls.

Other comments on last week's Whoa. Now came from Prof. G. W. Kerr, commending our stand on the integration and interposition referendums, and from Mrs. Berry calling our attention to the correct spelling of "integration". These, we appreciate.

Anyway, maybe we did stir up a little talk about the election.

We sincerely apologize to any candidate who got his feelings hurt. We intended or implied nothing personal at all. But we'll also stick with our guesses and to our right to make guesses.

It never ceases to amaze and amuse editors that such a vast gap exists between the significance of the printed word and the spoken word!

Looks like going to the mountains is the style now-days for beating the heat. The Alfred Walkers returned just yesterday from a week at Red River. He took a long fly rod but hasn't yet reported the results.

Fike Godfrey and family got back Tuesday from a few days at the family cabin at Questa. Fike told us about the trout that son David caught in one of the beaver ponds.

Nimrod's J. H. Taylor, Jack Reor and Red Moore are now up in Colorado living in a tent and hunting chucks. J. H. took along his fly rod and plans to supplement a pork-and-bean menu with a few rainbows.

Resting up this week at Ruidoso, N. M. are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lee and daughter Helen.

Committees Named To Nominate ASC Community Members

Community nominating committees were appointed this week at a meeting of the local farm organization and department heads. Composing the County Election Board which made the appointments were George L. Stanford of the SCS, John Quattlebaum of the FHA, and G. B. Morris, president of the Dickens County Farm Bureau. County Agent Bob Berry was out of town at the time of the meeting and the District Agent was not available, states W. W. Gunn, local ASC office manager.

The appointment of the community nominating committees is the first step toward the selection of the County ASC Committee.

Nominating committees appointed are:

"A" Community—Raymond Eldredge, Robert McAleer, C. B. Roberts.

"B" Community—John Sharp, Jim Barrow, Larry Boothe.

"C" Community—Martin Pope, Walter Driggers, Willard Williams.

These committees will meet tomorrow, July 20, and nominate 10 men from each community to be voted on by all farmers on Aug. 30.

Golfers Urge "Pay Dues—Then Play"

According to a report this week from the Spur Golf Club, the organization is sadly lacking in funds to operate for the current season.

The report states that the local course needs a lot of work done and only a few players have paid their dues. The present members are not realizing the full benefit of their memberships in the club at its present condition and in order for everyone to enjoy their golf, all delinquent members and new players are urged to pay their dues.

"A lot of relaxation, fun and fellowship still remain to be had this year," states a club spokesman, "so be a sport and Pay Your Dues—Then Play Golf."

Wheat Farmers Vote Friday On Marketing Quota

Wheat farmers in Dickens County and across the nation will vote tomorrow, July 20, on Marketing Quotas for the 1957 wheat crop.

Polls in Dickens County for the referendum election will open in the morning at 8 a. m. and will close at 7 p. m. The balloting boxes and chairmen are as follows:

Croton Store, Jim Tom Haney
Afton Gin, Frank Ferbis
Dickens County Agent's Office, George Pierce

Spur, ASC Office, Chap Reese. According to W. W. Gunn, county ASC office manager, everyone interested either as an owner or operator of 15 acres or more wheat in 1956 is eligible to vote—both husband and wife.

The results of the referendum will affect both support prices and Soil Bank acreage reserve payments in 1957.

According to G. C. Carothers further explains, "If more than one-third of the growers disapprove marketing quotas... the 1957 support rate will be 50 percent of parity, or approximately $1.20 per bushel national average to those who comply with their wheat allotments, and the unit rate for determining payments under the 1957 wheat acreage reserve of the Soil Bank will be 80 percent of the support rate, or approximately 72 cent per bushel..."

Nuptial Vows Uniting Jo Ann Bailey, Wallace Young Read Here Thursday

Wedding vows uniting Miss Jo Ann Bailey and Wallace Young were read in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bailey, on Thursday evening, July 12, at 8 o'clock. Dell Young performed the double ring ceremony as they stood among two large baskets of gladioli tied with pink bows.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Garner Young of Spur. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a street-length dotted swiss cotton dress fashioned of princess style with a low rolled neckline. She wore white nylon wrist-length gloves and her accessories were white. Her headband was of pink roses. She carried a white Bible topped with pink rosebuds with pink streamers cascading.

The bride's traditional "something old, new, borrowed and blue" respectively were a lucky piece in her shoe, a blue garter given her by Mrs. Clifford Hightower, a borrowed Bible belonging to Mrs. Charles Sonnemaker and her complete wedding ensemble.

"NEVER REST . . ." from p. 1 children and because of his accurate technical training he knows HOW and WHEN the child learns! He also knows what causes children NOT to learn! He is interested first in the child. He knows that if the school is children and the school is taught for the child that all other problems will work out.

I can recommend without reservations this unusual yearbook committee and I feel sure that the forthcoming programs will be the best possible for this school year.

Mrs. Horace Wood a district officer and life member, is an ex-officio member of all committees and she is ready and willing to counsel with any committee at its request. Mrs. Wood has had experience as a teacher, mother, wife and has had several responsible positions in P.T.A. She attended McMurry College and Texas Tech and we are pleased to have her in our local unit.

Frederick Moffitt of the N. Y. Board of Education says, "Thus a child learns, by wiggling skills through his fingers and toes into himself; by soaking up habits and attitudes of those around him by pushing and pulling his own world through affection, through love, through patience, through understanding, through belonging, through doing, through being."

Isn't it a glorious opportunity to be a parent and a teacher of this living dynamo—the child!

Mrs. Ida Lea has returned home after her hospitalization for two weeks in Spur Memorial Hospital, where she has been receiving medical treatment. She will be recuperating for about the next 6 months.

Mrs. George Nalley and children, George, Jr. and Mrs. Jack Maxwell returned Saturday, July 7th from a two weeks visit in California. While there they attended a family reunion of the C. F. Applegates, old timers of Spur and Dickens County, in the home of T. W. Cooper of Corona, California.

Visiting this week in the home of C. E. Hagins was his cousin, J. Bunyon Grissom, of Comilla, Georgia. He spent Monday night in the Carl McGalliard home. He is enroute to California, where he will visit with other relatives.

Gulf Coast Prairie soils, especially those east of the Brazos River, those in much of East Texas could profitably utilize applications of agricultural limestone, says M. K. Thornton, extension agricultural chemist.

Thanks to Mrs. Eric Foster for five copies of Reader's Digest condensed books of 1955 and 1956. Patrons wishing to read any novel of recent date will find a condensed edition of it in these books. They will be added to a shelf of sixteen other copies of Reader's Digest books, going back to novels printed in 1950.

ily"; Marriott, "Indians of the Four Corners"; Baleh, "Winter Horse"; Stone, "Sagebrush Filly"; Hinkle, "Dapple Gray"; Lovelace, "The Tune in the Tree" (bird book); and seven of Grace Livingston Hill's books.

STILL KING OF THE MOUNTAIN!

Chevy beats own Pikes Peak record . . . and tops all rivals including cars in every price range!

Chevrolet takes first, second and four of the top six places! Beats its own stock car record by a full minute and 16 seconds!

Running against the hottest competition in the land, Chevrolet won the Pikes Peak climb.

This is unquestionable proof of Chevrolet's supreme roadability—the accuracy of Ball-Race steering, the solidity of outrigger rear springs, the traction of balanced weight distribution.

There is no greater test of a car's road safety qualities than the Pikes Peak climb. Try it yourself, in the car that's won the "crown" twice in a row!

Only franchised Chevrolet dealers display this famous trademark

Rickels Chevrolet Co.

Ever see an electric day bed?

You will soon. The first one is already on the market. One minute it's a sofa. Then press a button and it unfolds into a bed—automatically. Press the button again and it folds back into a sofa.

This is just one of many new ways that electricity will be working for you in the years to come. Electricity will heat your home in winter, cool it in summer . . . cook your food in seconds instead of hours . . . open your garage doors at the approach of your car.

You'll need plenty of power for this new electric age—and it will be waiting when you want it. Independent electric companies like this one build ahead of your needs so you will have plenty of electricity always!

On Sunday, July 22 at the Palace Theatre, time will roll back 3,000 years to a day when a reckless prince of Troy first lays covetous eyes on the beautiful wife of Menelaus, King of Sparta. There have been other sparks that plunged the world into flame but perhaps none stirred up more tumultuous events than this love of handsome Paris and Helen, the "face that launched a thousand ships."

History called it the Age of Titans, climaxed when vengeful Sparta hurled itself at mighty Troy. Now the motion picture screen brings it alive, after three years of production, and a cost of six million dollars.

Never has any entertainment medium attempted to encompass so vast and turbulent a story—never has it succeeded with more beauty, sweep and dramatic excitement.

Mrs. Mary Wilcher of Dallas visited here recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Irwin.

Mrs. L. E. Cooper looked after business in Lubbock Thursday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Johnny Moss of Floydada.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Amel Long were her sister, Mrs. Dora Boyd of Pontiac, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Richeson of Eldorado, Oklahoma and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Scott of Dickens.

Miss Kay Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carpenter, local residents, and Jimmy Legg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Legg of Afton were united in marriage Saturday, July 7, at 5 p. m. Rev. Jack Gillespie performed the ceremony. The couple will make their home in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mrs. Hazel Bridges is in Lubbock this week attending the school lunchroom work shop at Texas Tech.

Mrs. Bateman Middlebrooks looked after business in Quanah Monday.

CARD OF THANKS

I take this method of expressing my profound gratitude to the many friends for the generous deeds done me during the long illness and passing of my husband, Terry King. I am especially grateful to Doctor Bob Alexander for his faithful professional service; Mr. Joe E. Long and the City Drug Company for medicine and financial assistance; Chandler Funeral Home for sympathetic service. The personnel of the Spur Security Bank for generous donations; the many other friends, white and colored, who never ceased to offer words and deeds of comfort.

I shall pray God's choicest blessings upon each of them. Mrs. Nora L. King, wife.
