Wheat Farmers To Receive Rates For '57 Soil Bank Payments Soon

In the next few days the Dickens County ASC office will mail to all county wheat farmers information showing the rate per acre the farm has been set up for participation in the 1957 Soil Bank acreage reserve program, states W. W. Gunn, office manager.

The county average has been approved at 7.6 bushels per acre and Soil Bank payments will be at 1.20 per bushel.

Sept. 21 is the deadline for county farmers to place wheat acreage in the acreage reserve. Each farm will be allowed to place either 50% of the wheat allotment, or 50 acres, whichever ever is the larger, in acreage reserve.

At present the ASC personnel is measuring cotton acreage under the 1956 program. Gunn reports that notices will not be sent to farmers of the results of the measuring, but that farmers may inquire at the ASC office for this information.

The 1957 wheat acreage reserve program is very similar to the 1956 cotton program, states the local ASC manager, in that the land must be kept free of noxious weeds, may not be grazed, and may not be harvested.

Complete information will be available soon on the future Soil Bank acreage reserve and conservation reserve programs.

Gunn states that extra ballots will be available at the ASC office for anyone who fails to receive one by mail.

Mrs. K. Buchanan Buried Here Wed.

Mrs. Kate C. Buchanan, a Dickens County pioneer passed away Tuesday September 4 at her home in Spur, following a brief illness.

She was born February 10, 1866 in Arkadelphia, Ark. and married to Charles M. Buchanan on November 24, 1882 in Waxahatcha, Texas. The couple came to this territory before the country was organized, driving a covered wagon from Jack County in 1889. Six weeks were required for the trip and often Mrs. Buchanan drove the ox team, and she remarked recently that "the critters would run over gulleys and rocks when they smelled water". They lived in a dugout in Blanco Canyon 12 miles from the nearest settlement on land which they pre-empted. Later lumber was hauled via freight wagon from Childress to build their first house which was the seventh house built in Dickens County in 1889 the family moved to a farm near Dickens in order to send the children to school.

Reminiscing about her pioneering here with her grandson L. Commander Sammy Buchanan, she noted that she and her family had traveled from ox wagon to jet planes.

Mrs. Buchanan moved to her present home in Spur in 1921. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

Her survivors include five children, Mrs. Buelah Roddy, Post, Mrs. Emma Russell, Spur, Albert Buchanan, Roswell, N. M., Douglas Buchanan, Post and Royal Buchanan. There are 11 grandchildren, 33 great grandchildren and nine great-great grandchildren.

Services were conducted Wednesday, Sept. 5 at 4 p. m. in the Methodist Church and interment in the Spur Cemetery with Rev. Cal C. Wright officiating and the Chandler Funeral Chapel in charge of arrangements.

Fire Marshall Warns Of Fall Fire Dangers

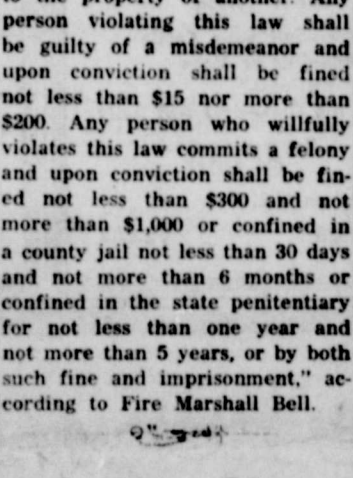

City Fire Marshall Joe Bell has issued a warning this week to the Spur area people of the increased danger of fires originating from dry grass, rubbish and brush as the fall season nears. "This particular type of fire creates a problem in our community and in our rural area," he states.

He points out that grass, rubbish and brush are definite fire hazards. "Cleanliness and good housekeeping are essential outdoors. Rubbish and waste, for example, should not be allowed to accumulate out of doors where they can serve to aid in the spread of fire," the fire marshal points out.

"We would like to remind you that it is unlawful for any person to negligently set on fire, or cause to be set on fire any woods, forest, cut cover, brush, range, or grass land belonging to another, or set on fire any woods, forest, cut cover, brush, range or grassland belonging to himself and allowing such fire to spread to the property of another. Any person violating this law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $15 nor more than $200. Any person who willfully violates this law commits a felony and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $300 and not more than $1,000 or confined in a county jail not less than 30 days and not more than 6 months or confined in the state penitentiary for not less than one year and not more than 5 years, or by both such fine and imprisonment," according to Fire Marshall Bell.

'Swenson Field' Dedicated; Locals Beat Jacksboro 14-6 Saturday Nite

"Swenson Field" is the name given the new palmetto polo field at the dedication ceremony last Saturday night.

The field is the new home of the polo team of the Dickens County Sheriff's Posse, located in Swenson Park.

To climax the dedication of the field, the local team soundly drubbed the Jacksboro team 14-6 to take an eight-point lead in the two-game bi-district playoff of the Western States Palmetto Polo league.

The local team will go to Jacksboro for the second game on Sunday, Sept. 16.

The name "Swenson Field" was submitted by Mrs. J. W. Waggoner, who received a season pass for two to the field.

Rev. Cal Wright conducted the dedication ceremony Saturday night before a large crowd estimated at 800. Everett McArthur, president of the posse, said that it was by far the largest crowd to ever witness a palmetto polo game in Spur. Spectators came from Lubbock Crosby County, Fisher County, San Angelo, El Dorado and other areas of West Texas.

The saddle was won by Wayne Christopher of Lubbock. He is the son of Jim Christopher of Spur and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Ab Smith.

In discussing the polo game, McArthur reports that the Dickens County riders played "like the lean, hungry squad of three years ago." All 20 of the team members saw action.

C. of C. Doings:

The month of August has been an active period for the Spur Chamber of Commerce. Two major projects of the Chamber have been accomplished during the past month and many hours of preparation spent toward future projects to be completed soon.

The Chamber, in conjunction with six girls of this area, raised the largest premium for the first bale of cotton in many years. Money is still coming in to the Chamber office on the premium and the check will be presented to Floyd Faubus this week.

The Agriculture Service Council held its first Farmers Meeting with over fifty present. Watermelon was served to all attending and a very informative program was presented by Jim Baron, A. C. Alexander, and Earl Burnett, all local men. Jim Barron illustrated what he has been able to accomplish with an extensive silage program; A. C. Alexander presented to the group the progress he has made with caplayers; and Earl Burnett obtained a film from the National Cotton Council depicting the future of the cotton industry in America.

This coming Saturday the Annual West Texas Short Course will be held in Big Springs. D. L. Knight, Chamber director, and the Chamber manager will attend. A full day of activity has been planned and both men hope to return many projects for future progress.

At the last Directors meeting the Board was given a full report of the progress toward the construction of a dam on White River. Lynn Busbee, local committeeman, informed the Board that this coming Monday a hearing will be held in Austin to form the White River District. He encouraged all that could attend the hearing. Busbee pointed out further that if everything went according to schedule dam would be built next Fall. The Chamber is in complete support of the project work in any way possible toward an early completion of the lake. It is worth to this area will be precious in every sense.

SPUR GINNING TOPS 300

The three gins in Spur reported a total of 270 bales early yesterday afternoon, and the total was expected to top 300 by quitting time yesterday.

Boll pullers are beginning to show up in the area in noticeable number and are reported as being ample at this time to keep up with demands. The first Mexican Nationalists of the year are expected in the county Saturday.

BUT JUST A SPRINKLE . . .

A blustery cool front moved across the area last night, bringing heavy-looking clouds and some electrical activity. The norther continued to blow all night but netted only a very light sprinkle as far as precipitation is concerned.

MATADORS EXPECTED TO BE TOUGH FOR ANNUAL FIRST-GAME CLASH

The Spur Bulldogs will open the 1956 football season here in Jones Stadium Friday night against the Matador Matadors. Game time is 8 p. m.

There is some speculation as to whether or not we have the goods to take the Matadors. We are here to say that we have the goods and we'll deliver.

If you'd seen the enthusiasm Tuesday afternoon, there would not be a doubt in your mind. Ray Don Powell was rapping the offense mightily smoothly. Even at that, it is this reporter's opinion that with a couple of games under their belts, they'll really be hard to stop.

Here's the way it stacks up as we see it. Ray Don Powell and James Gordon at quarterback, Eddie Hagins playing fullback, Hairgrove, Gabriel, Green and Beeson at the halfback slots. In the line it will be Bilberry, Gilcrease, Kidd, Holder, Morgan, Claude and Wilson. It is our guess that Jennings Long will be playing quite a bit at defensive end.

All of the above named men are possible starters according to our unbiased opinion. The mainstays at linebacker will be Hagins and Gabriel, with Green and Powell in the safety position on defense, leaving Hairgrove and Beeson to fill in the middle.

We have seen a lot of work in the past several days and it will pay off Friday night—so let's go get a Matador!

The head cheerleaders for this year are as follows:

The pep squad will be getting new sweaters this year, and in order to pay for them, they will be selling miniature Bulldogs.

Reports have it that there will be about 75 cheering girls suited out this fall—and they'll be yelling, you can count on that.

The majorettes this year will be Ann Reagan, Barbara Foreman, Roselle Marcy, Aneta Kidd and Sue Bigham. They will be heading up an array of talent that can't be beat. Ben Abercrombie, band director, has informed us that the band numbers approximately 65. They have been working all week on the first football program of the season which will be entitled "Salute to the 1956 Football Season."

They also have a standard formation which they will use at the end of each half-time program. The band will form a huge Spur and march off the field playing the Bulldog Fight Song. Sounds alright doesn't it?

Let's go out in great numbers Friday and support the Spur Bulldogs!

"WOMEN, CAN WE ELECT A WOMAN PRESIDENT?" ASKS NONA STARCHER

When will a woman be elected President of the United States? "Never," chorus many men. "As soon as possible," cry many women. "Males have botched things just long enough."

No one knows the answer, of course. But in all the arguments over this political question it generally is forgotten that two women already have made spectacular dashes for the White House. Both failed by large margins to attain their goal but they set precedents.

The two almost forgotten candidates were Mrs. Victoria Claflin Woodhull, who campaigned in 1872, and Mrs. Belva Ann Lockwood, who sought the presidency in 1884. They were exact opposites in temperament—Mrs. Woodhull young, impulsive, a suffragette who chose sensationalism to gain her ends, and Mrs. Lockwood a shrewd, conservative fighter who constantly preached that women talked too much about their rights instead of working for them. Both were alike in their zeal to elevate the position of women and to give them the ballot.

For Mrs. Woodhull, the race for the highest office in the land was the high point in a tempestuous career as suffragette, stockbroker, publisher, lecturer and, late in life, mistress of an English estate. Her bold actions and eloquent tongue shocked and delighted the Staid Seventies and several times got her thrown into jail. In fact, it was the first appearance of a woman before a Congressional committee and Mrs. Woodhull's first public address. But her impassioned plea won her national acclaim.

Mrs. Woodhull's fiery speeches made her the outstanding delegate when the National Women's Suffrage Association met in New York City in 1870. She outmaneuvered the society's leaders and formed the representatives from 25 states into a political party, the Equal Rights Party. Not surprisingly, she was nominated as candidate for the Presidency.

Confident Mrs. Woodhull already had designed the clothes she would wear in office—long pants reaching to the knees where they buckled over light blue stockings, a knee-length blouse with collar and cravat.

But the political spotlight faded. The party became split by dissensions. There was little money to finance a campaign. Mrs. Woodhull became ill; her business ventures required more of her time; vicious rumors were circulated about her.

On election day Mrs. Woodhull was in jail awaiting bail on a charge of using the mails for circulating questionable material. When the ballots were counted, she had failed to win a vote in such states as New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Indiana. One ballot was cast for her by her brother-in-law in New York City but was disqualified because he failed to mark electors.

The smashing defeat spelled the temporary eclipse of the Equal Rights Party. It was not until 1884 that a second woman, Mrs. Lockwood, was chosen as its presidential standard-bearer.

Mrs. Lockwood had started her personal fight for women's rights as a school teacher of 23 when she had discovered that male teachers were being paid double for teaching the same subjects as she. She took her complaint to the wife of her minister who told her, "I can't help you nor can you help yourself. It's the way of the world."

"Then let's change the way of the world," snapped Mrs. Lockwood.

She quit her teaching job and opened a seminary. She retired in five years and moved to Washington, D. C., where she studied law and was the first woman to be admitted to practice before the Supreme Court.

When suffrage groups were meeting many rebuffs, Mrs. Lockwood wrote in the Women's Herald of Industry:

"Why not nominate women for important positions? Is not Victoria empress of India? Have we not among our countrywomen persons of as much talent and ability? If women are not permitted to vote, there is no law against their being voted for and, if elected, filling the highest office in the gift of the people."

The article led to her nomination. She stamped the country, unable to fill the demand for her speeches.

"Fight, fight, fight everlastingly not with claws and fists but with your wits," she told her predominately women audiences. "I am not cross at men, I like them. The great wave for equal rights is not for the purpose of creating a war of the sexes, an antagonism between men and women, a disruption of the rules of society and the breaking up of the home. We have nothing against men. We want equal rights with them."

Although Grover Cleveland won the election, Mrs. Lockwood polled 379 votes in New Hampshire, 1,366 in New York, 374 in Michigan, 1,008 in Illinois, 318 in Maryland and 734 in California—a satisfactory performance considering that members of her sex were not able to cast a ballot until 35 years later.

"THE MAN WHO KNEW TOO MUCH" NEWEST THRILLER

Alfred Hitchcock's famed technique for creating the ultimate in movie tension, by building the most ingenious plot situations in the most unusual settings, will be given their most dramatic presentation in "The Man Who Knew Too Much," which opens at the Palace Theatre, Sunday September 9, with James Stewart and Doris Day starred.

Revolving around a political assassination, the VistaVision, Technicolor production's story opens in the sinister alleys of French Morocco's Marrakech and reaches its climax in London's Albert Conrath Hall, with death hanging on the crest of Cymbals and the roll of the London Symphony drums.

Stewart and Miss Day portray a doctor and his singer wife, who vacation in Marrakech and inadvertently stumble on the planned gasps out sketchy details of the murder plot.

Tourist Stewart wants nothing to do with it, but it's too late. He has become a menace to the plotters, and therefore a marked man. From that moment on, neither he nor anyone belonging to him are safe. When measures are taken against his family to stop him from going to the police, he plunges into a series of perilous adventures that bring him to Albert Hall, where conscience struggling with self-preservation creates one of Hitchcock's most suspense-loaded situations.

Teamed for the first time, Stewart and Miss Day head a large international cast that includes some of Hollywood's and the Continent's foremost players.

Every man who goes to the 2:00 p. m. session and registers and stays for the inspiring speech by Mrs. Robert Cross will win for his child or the child he votes for, 10 votes to be applied on the child's room count.

Help some child and his teacher to win a $5.00 bill to be used as the teacher and the child desire!

Each set of parents registering for a child and his room will give to the said child 10 votes.

"Built-In Antenna"

Each child has a special "built-in antenna" which is in tune with the unspoken attitudes of parents, teachers and others closely associated with him.

Mrs. W. R. Weaver, Past President of Fourteenth District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Legionnaires Invited

Strong interest and participation on the part of the citizens is mandatory for a good school system. In the final analysis school systems are only as good as their graduates.

It is a pleasure and a privilege for the Williams-Puckett Post of the American Legion to join in this urging of all citizens to participate in this P.T.A. Workshop.

Mrs. Oscar Kelley, mothers, officers and members of the P.T.A. have devoted a large amount of time and effort to bring this program to our school district.

We should avail ourselves of this splendid program.

J. Pike Godfrey, Commander

Wake the town and tell the people—Tuesday, September 11 is parents day at P.T.A.

"NEVER REST 'TILL SPUR SCHOOLS ARE BEST"

"A healthy personality for every child in Spur Public Schools"

By Mrs. Marie Kelley, P.T.A. Pres.

The effects of war are still being felt in life over these United States! The most local thing that the writer can see effected by World War II is that stalemate of an organization called P.T.A.

Our onetime Congress of Parents (mother and father spells parents) and Teachers has settled to be nothing more than a mother's club, tolerated by a courteous principal and several passive teachers.

The responsibility of this lifeless condition is credited to no person, group or faction. The present school administration has inherited a situation that grew out of war, and the situation is one very common across the length and breadth of our land.

Parents allow the door of the school house to close between them and their child 6 hours a day for 9 months (1820 hours a year) with little thought or care as to what goes on in the mind of that child, and much less does he even think to be interested in what the teacher thinks.

We preach loud and long that, "our nation of tomorrow will be directed by the boys and girls of today". "No nation is stronger than its weakest link, the boy and girl of the atomic age."

We want our children to be courteous, kind, and friendly. We want our children to be able to perform skills necessary for life.

We want them to be good leaders as well as well-informed followers.

We want them to be physically strong, mentally alert, and spiritually sound.

But what are we doing about it? I say the men in Spur, Texas, as a consecrated group of intelligent citizens, accurately informed and dedicated to the course of children and childhood are doing nothing about it.

I believe it is time to show our year-old school superintendent and his administration just where we stand and what we think about Spur Public Schools.

Would we be willing to have our child go from the 1st grade through the 12th and never make one solitary change physically or academically? School men usually

Kin Folks Count

Grandparents and aunts and uncles are at the top of the list. Make the children happy by coming to school next Tuesday.

The teachers and the children will be ready to receive you and your child will be disappointed if you do not come.

Grandparents count 5 votes each for the child's room. Aunts and uncles 3 votes each.

Help your grandchild's room to win by registering for him and his teacher and staying for the 2:00 to 3:30 session.

Ministers Invited

The homes, churches and schools are the leading institutions in the community which offer guidance and assist in the development of persons. They are essential in building better communities, more righteous nations and a better world.

The P.T.A. is the one organization that can bring together the people of a community to understand and work together in the interests, purposes and tasks that are supplementary, similar and common to the three great better-community-building institutions.

Therefore the following ministers are urged to attend the district meeting of the P. T. A.

Mrs. Robert Cross, Vice-President of Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers

Mrs. Cross is currently serving as Vice-President of Region VIII and is a nominee for Second Vice-President of the Texas Congress.

She is a member of the Legislative committee, the Program Committee and chairman of the committee on "Criteria for Selecting State Chairmen" of the Texas Congress. She has both a Texas Life Membership and a National Life Membership, presented by the Anson P.T.A. She is Life Membership Chairman.

She has two daughters, one a college student and the other a sophomore in high school. Her husband is a real estate and oil broker.

WHAT IS MY RESPONSIBILITY TO OUR SCHOOL?

1. To belong to the P.T.A. and other related organizations which promote the welfare of our children. To give encouragement and moral support.

2. To work and act as if the Spur Schools belonged to me.

3. To share honors as if the Schools belonged to you.

4. To be generous and regard my dues as an investment, not an expense.

Robert Williams

Jr. Hi. Need P-TA

We in Junior High School feel there is a great need for P.T.A. in our School. Because of this need, we would like to extend to you an invitation to attend this P.T.A. Workshop.

A P.T.A. Workshop is valuable for parents as it draws the teachers, pupil and parents together along modern trends of thinking. Parents should be interested in any movement to better his school. Parents receive the most benefit by attending and doing things—therefore, we again urge you to attend the P.T.A. Workshop.

Lester Ball

And the Doctors

"As an ex-school board member and pioneer doctor and long-time resident of Spur, I should like to encourage the young doctors and the new doctors (and all doctors) to support actively the programs of the Spur Public Schools. The school will be only as progressive as its interested and thinking citizens are.

Dr. P. C. Nichols

School Board

As president of the Board of Education of the Spur Independent School District, I heartily endorse and encourage a wider participation—especially by fathers—in the Parent-Teacher organization.

Before us is a wonderful opportunity for the men to get acquainted with the P-TA program without the danger of possible embarrassment in being the only man present. There will be a fine group of Spur district fathers at Tuesday's afternoon meeting, and we invite and urge you to be among them.

Lloyd Hindman, President

Would you spend an hour this year at the school house? Would you help to revive the one time solidarity of the Spur Public Schools?

Would you invest an hour's interest in your child or your grandchild or a nephew or a niece or a neighbor's child?

If you would like to back Spur Public Schools and your child's education, come to the East Primary Congress of Parents and Teachers September 11, 1956 and attend one of the daily activities.

The building will be air conditioned and it'll be a nice place to sit awhile and talk school.

The Congress of Parents (parents means 2—a man and woman. There can't be parents without a man present) and Teachers challenges you to invest in the education of children by lending and giving first yourself and then your efforts.

It is high time that the men of the town began to court the school teachers (both men and women). The presence of a man in a school room showing a keen interest in the teacher and the child is almost a thing of the past.

The time was when more men went to school than did women. There is a P.T.A. not far from here which has a man and his wife as co-chairmen and the unit boasts of a 500 paid membership with a larger percentage of men attending than women. Can't Spur do as well?

When fathers play with their children or go camping or swimming, the child is so thrilled he just smiles and stares. If you do not come to your child's school next Tuesday, there will be some lumps in some throats and some tears in some eyes—Show your child and his teacher that you are still "young enough in heart and spirit" to be able to see stars twinkling and fairies flying.

Tell your child's teacher that you love her or him and that you know that she or he is the authority in the school room. Take the teacher some flowers or a card of appreciation.

Civic responsibility is the privilege of American citizenship which demands an acceptance of its responsibility!

Do you accept your responsibility as a citizen, taxpayer, patron of Spur Public Schools?

Do you get your money's worth out of your school tax money if you never darken the door of the school house?

None of us may ever agree on politics (city, county, state or national) or we may never agree on religion or on whether a man is smarter than a woman, but there is one thing we can all agree upon and that is—We all know what makes a good school and what sort of education our children need.

Let's meet each other without pretense or faultfinding in the classroom of the public school! I'll meet you there next Tuesday.

Let's show our young school board members and our new school administration that we want Spur Schools to be Better than the Best and that we are backing them with interest, effort and activity.

This invitation to Come to School Tuesday is not for just East Ward patrons, but to every father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, aunt, uncle and friend residing and living in Spur Independent School District.

Let's show a solid front to the boys and girls who will be the men and women of tomorrow.

The school will be no better than the weakest parent. The teacher will be what the parents and children make her! The teacher will be just as interested in your child as you are, and no more or less.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This page is edited by Mrs. O. L. Kelley, president of the Spur P.T.A., through the cooperation of the various civic leaders whose articles appear hereon. The space is made available by the Texas Spur as a public service.

Mrs. R. W. Herren of Haskell is 18th District President.

She will be director of the School of Instruction to begin Tuesday morning at 9:30 at East Primary Auditorium.

"Worthwhile" Says Mrs. Horace Wood

To the Citizens of Spur and to all patrons of the Spur Schools: You will attend a very interesting and informative meeting if you accept the invitation extended to you by the Parent-Teacher Ass'n for September 11.

Mrs. R. W. Herren, president of 18th District of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, who will speak on the morning program, is a very capable person. She is subscribed to the objects of our organization, and to have her is a rare privilege. Mrs. Robert Cross, a state vice-president and former president of 14th District, is a well-known speaker who will inspire you with a most challenging message.

To hear these two speakers will be truly worthwhile and I wish to join the officers of the local unit in extending to you a most cordial invitation to these meetings.

Remember—the school children of today will be the citizens of tomorrow and they are looking to the adult citizens of today for guidance and inspiration.

Mrs. Horace Wood, Vice President of 18th District

"Please" Says Supt.

Our schools are operating today in the face of much interest on both state and national levels. People everywhere are realizing more each day the importance of a sound educational system. Most parents are willing to help in any way if they know just what they could do. I would like to invite all parents to attend the P.T.A. Workshop on Tuesday and find some of the things they can do. Let us resolve now that we can and will provide the best educational program to our children that is possible. Please make every effort to attend the workshop.

B. G. Nunley

From Prin. Berry

Now more than any other time it is important that P.T.A. and other school organizations prepare for the proper schooling of their children. Education is playing one of the biggest rolls in the history of our world. The future of our country depends on the youth of the land.

The P.T.A. extends to each of you as a parent the right and responsibility to talk over with other parents and your child's teachers the things best for him or her. Please attend the workshop Tuesday.

C. L. Berry

VFW Interested

I sincerely urge all VFW and Auxiliary members to get behind our P.T.A.

With a closer association and cooperation of our parents and teachers, there will come about a better understanding of each child and an easier solution to each individual problem.

Albert Spahrberry, Post Commander, Spur VFW Post 7218

Cadillac

To the Man Who is Hesitating...

There are many motorists here in this community who have given serious consideration to the purchase of a new Cadillac car this year—and yet, for one reason or another, have not made the move. If you are among them, we hope that you will pause to read the little message that follows. For we are sure you will find it interesting.

Ordinarily, when a man hesitates to make the move to Cadillac, it is because he is not familiar with the practical aspects of Cadillac ownership. Insofar as original cost is concerned, a Cadillac is eminently practical. Several models, in fact, are actually priced competitively with the so-called "medium-priced" makes. Operating and maintenance costs are also remarkably low. We have heard it said by new owners that Cadillac is the most economical automobile they have ever owned. And as for resale value—well, Cadillac traditionally retains a greater share of its worth through the years than any other motor car in the land. In short, the great Cadillac car represents one of the wisest and soundest automotive investments on the highway today.

The moral of our message is this: It is still not too late to set things right in a 1956 Cadillac of your own! We have a selection of new Cadillacs on hand—and we can promise you both prompt delivery and a generous trade-in allowance. Why not come in today?

A VAST NEW HOLIDAY LAND in the heart of Texas will be created under the Brazos River Authority's master plan for development of the river. The map shows how the Authority's Six-Dam Program will provide a chain of lakes 250 miles long stretching between Whitney Dam at Waco and Possum Kingdom above Mineral Wells. This continuous body of water, convenient to virtually all Texas sportsmen, will become a center of a great new recreation industry. This Land of Lakes of Texas will provide boating, fishing and camping facilities on a scale never before known in the Southwest. They also will assure the Brazos Valley of an ample water supply for irrigation, industry and municipal use far into the future. A by-product will be hydro-electricity. Besides the Six Dam Program, the Authority plans various other reservoirs for local water supply and for special purposes, such as Alamo Creek and South Bend, shown on the map.

Push-button housekeeping?

Plenty of electricity can make your home of the future a house of marvels! From a central control panel, you may be able to wash your dishes, raise and lower windows, control the lighting in every room—even make your beds!

To really live electrically, you'll need much more power—and it will be there waiting. America's more than 400 independent electric light and power companies are planning and building now for years ahead.

Unlike federal government electric systems, these companies don't depend on tax money to build for your future. Carrying their full share of the tax-burden, and operating with private capital, the West Texas Utilities Company and other investor-owned electric companies will provide the dependable, low-cost electricity to help you Live Better Electrically.

In the future—as always—you will benefit most when you are served by independent electric companies like this one.
