SPUR, DICKENS COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1934

WHOLE NUMBER 456.

Schools Receive Federal Grant

The financial condition of the schools of the county was practically assured recently when we secured a grant of $9875.12 from the Federal Government for the purpose of extending school terms. One of the schools has not yet had a report on its application. The McAdoo, Whichita, Croton, Afton, Red Mud, Spring Creek, Peaceful Hill, and Wilson Draw schools received this aid according to their various needs.

An attempt was made to get Federal Aid for every school in the county, but after telephone calls letters, and after the county superintendent and county administrator had both made trips to Austin we became convinced that some of the schools were ineligible to receive aid because they can take care of themselves. Federal Aid was given out on the same basis that we have been receiving State Aid. Three of our other schools could have received this aid had it not been that the governor used 1930-31 (the last year before the depression) as the year by which they gauged an average school term. These schools in that year ran from six to seven months.

By means of personal contact and persistent effort Mr. Sam Z. Hall and Mr. A. C. Hull were able to secure an allotment of $5,195 for Spur schools. With the aid of Mr. Groner and Mr. Porter of Croton there was an additional allotment of $612 approved for the Croton school.

We understand that Dickens County is one of the first counties in this section to receive Federal Aid. Texas schools were not allowed to put in this application until up in February.

There is a bill pending in Congress now which, if passed, will give the schools of the U. S. A. five hundred million dollars of Federal Aid for another year.

Madge D. Twaddell,
County School Superintendent.

MADE GOOD STATEMENTS ABOUT OUR TOWN

S. W. Dedman, of Brownwood representative of the International Travelers Assurance Company, was in our city this week looking after business for his company. He writes an accident and health policy or will divide them, writing whichever a person wants.

As he was leaving out Tuesday, he stated that he had heard that Spur is the best town of its size in Texas, but had never realized what the statement meant until he made visits here. In speaking of the business houses he stated that there are stores in Spur that would be a credit to any town of 10,000 to 15,000 population.

When he was told of what the country had endured the past five years, he stated that it takes great people to endure what Spur country has endured and still smile and be happy. He stated, "I know Spur is a great town under those conditions."

T. C. Cooner For Commissioner Pre. 2

TO THE VOTERS OF DICKENS COUNTY, TEXAS

I take this method of announcing to you, my candidacy for the office of County Commissioner of Precinct No. 3, Dickens County. In making this announcement, I am fully aware of the responsibility of the work of a county commissioner, and am aware that the commissioners court of the respective counties of our great State, has all the financial problems of their respective counties to deal with.

I was born and reared in the State of Texas, have been in Dickens County, since 1922. I have been engaged in business since coming to Dickens County, and have come in contact with the citizens of every walk of life, have had an opportunity to study the needs of county government, both from the standpoint of the people and the standpoint of the officers, which qualifies me for the office I am now asking for your hands.

As your County Commissioner, I will use all powers I possess, both in my official capacity and personally to curtail the public expenses as much as is possible for a county commissioner to do, in his official capacity.

I am making this race for the office of County Commissioner of Precinct No. 3, Dickens County, upon my own merits, and not on the demerits of either of my opponents. I am asking your support in the Democratic Primary on July 28th, because having had business experience and knowing the needs of the people and also the needs of our county sufficiently to enable me to serve you as your commissioner, in an efficient manner, and to make you an honest officer.

I have no glittering promises to make before the election that cannot be fulfilled after the election. The only promise I have to make to the voters of Precinct No. 3, is that I will at all times try to make you an honest and efficient officer; always working to the interest as much as it is possible for me to do, always keeping in mind the duties I owe to the welfare of Dickens County.

I believe in conducting the affairs of the county on an economical basis as much as possible, and not jeopardize the interest of either the people or the county, as much as is possible to do.

I am opposed to unnecessary or extravagant expense in the administration of the county's business. I am also opposed to unnecessary high taxes for any purpose other than is absolutely necessary to carry on the business of our County in an efficient manner. I believe in equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

And if elected, I will always be doing willing and ready to discuss with you all matters pertaining to the duties of my office. It is my desire to meet each voter personally if it is possible for me to do so before the election, but it is quite a task to do so, and if I fail to see you it will be my misfortune and not my fault, and I wish in this announcement to assure you that no one will appreciate more than myself any support given me at the Democratic Primary on July 28th, and if elected will serve you in the best manner I know. I am in the best of health and I thank you in advance for your support. I am respectfully subject to the will of the people by their ballots on July 28th, 1934.

Respectfully,
T. C. COONER.

Stephens County Men Visit Spur Experiment Farm

O. Minatra and O. C. Snelling, of Breckenridge, called at the Times office Wednesday morning extending a few encouraging words. However, they were two of about 30 citizens of Stephens County who were in our city for the day visiting the Spur Experiment Station. Mr. Minatra is a former newspaper man and was interested in the local newspapers. All newspaper men have a certain amount of sympathy for one another.

The chief object of the visit of these citizens was to learn of the wonderful agricultural facts and feeding information as established by the Spur Station. Also, they wanted to learn of water and soil conservation and see the results of terracing and other features of taking care of the farms of the West.

Carl Arthur Receives $70.00 Palace Award

Helpy-Selfy Laundry Opens For Business

A new laundry is open and ready for business in Spur this week. This new business is located in the Crouse building two doors north of the Times office. This building has been the home of the Helpy-Selfy grocery, which Mr. Jackson recently moved to Olton.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Gossett have charge of the new laundry. It is more of a workshop fully equipped where the ladies in this community may take their family laundry and do it at very little cost. The name of the new laundry—Helpy-Selfy—suggests the plan. The laundry furnishes new electric washers, wringers, tubs, hot and cold water, and a good cool building in winter and a warm building in summer and the washing may be done. Just a small charge per hour is made, and all of this week the service is free.

Instead of a housewife spending an hour heating water, washing tubs, cleaning the washing machine and a dozen other things before the family wash is begun; she simply collects the laundry, asserts it into bundles as she wants to run it through the machine, puts it into her car and goes to the Helpy-Selfy laundry where she has access to an electric washer, a battery of tubs, a wringer and plenty of hot and cold water ready for her.

The laundry requires that the patron furnish their own soap, starch and bluing.

One lady did a big wash in one and one-half hours which she stated would have taken her all day had she done it at home. She was very much opposed to trying out the new experiment, but since it is free to go this week, she took the chance. After she had finished she said, "I like the idea fine, and it sure saves one lots of extra work."

Other ladies have about the same idea about the new plan. After the wash has been finished, the clothes are taken home and placed on the line to dry which requires just a few minutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Gossett invite you to try out the laundry free this week.

A meeting of cattle feeders will be held at the Benjamin League Ranch, two miles east of town, Friday, April 20. About 100 head of cattle were divided into six lots and have been fed and supervised by an experienced feeder since in November.

The feeding test will be completed Friday, April 20, and data and valuable information has been kept systematically. Some lots have been fed bundle cane, some fed ground cane, some fed ground milo maize heads. The chief object of the project is to determine relative to the value of whole feeds and ground feeds.

Woman's Day At Palace April 26

The local women's club representatives working in conjunction with the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in celebrating "Woman's Day" in the Palace Theatre here on April 26th are looking forward to great success of their enterprise by which a liberal portion of the receipts of the Palace Theatre will be turned over to the Federation representatives.

In a statement today, Mrs. Luther Jones lauded the plans of Manager Everts of the Palace Theatre and his organization.

The plan whereby we are to receive a share of the day's receipts of the theatre is a splendid one," said Mrs. Jones.

"As nearly everyone knows, the clubhouse of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs—an imposing structure in which are centered the activities of 30,000 Texas club women—bears a mortgaged indebtedness and the funds realized from theatrical activities in our behalf throughout the State will materially reduce this debt, thanks to the efforts of Mr. Karl Hobbeltzelle of Dallas, who besides contributing a share of the receipts from his theatres, interested theatre owners throughout the entire state.

"Here locally we are being given every consideration by Manager Everts of the Palace Theatre, who is working as hard as we are to make the day a success. He is interesting business men and workers of the city in the project and I look for a banner day at the Palace Theatre."

Sells Eggs To Help Cripple Children

The students of the Croton school held an egg sale Tuesday and gave the proceeds to the Cripple Children Fund. The Parent-Teachers Association of Croton are holding a forty-two party tonight, each player paying a small fee. The proceeds of this party will be given to the Cripple Children Fund. The Croton school has no goal set to reach but are giving all that can be raised to the fund. There are children who need help and the students and patrons of Croton school are making an effort to do their part.

There are other schools in the county who are assisting with the cripple children fund. Some are giving plays, and some are doing other things to help with the work.

Cowboy Bunkhouse To Be Erected At Stamford

Stamford, Texas, April 9.—Cattle brands of the Southwest, representing ranches of the past as well as ranches now in operation, will be engraved upon the stones which will form the walls of a headquarters building and bunk-house for the pioneer cowboys to be erected on the Texas Cowboy Reunion grounds here.

Completion of the first unit of the building at a cost of approximately $6,000 before the 1934 session of the Texas Cowboy Reunion to be held here July 2, 3 and 4, was decided upon by the directors. Stamford has already raised $2,200 and plans to increase its quota to $2,500 to apply on the building. The remainder will be raised by cattlemen and their friends in Texas and adjoining states.

Cattlemen and old-time cowboys who contributed $15.00 or more will be entitled to have their brands, or a brand they select, engraved on a stone in the building. Large contributors may have brands of their friends or relatives placed on the stone, and those who wish to do so, may select their own stone, carve the brand on it, and then bring forward the stone to A. J. Swenson, Stamford, Texas, treasurer of the Texas Cowboy Reunion Association. Contributions toward the building are being paid to Mr. Swenson, who is manager of the Swenson Land and Cattle Company and the S. M. S. ranches.

A building committee was named to secure plans from an architect to be submitted to the directors of the association for final approval. Features of the building as discussed in the meeting here will likely be a large living room with a big fireplace, a mess hall and a kitchen, and broad porches on all sides of the building. As nearly as possible it is planned to follow the general scheme of a pioneer ranch home. The porches would provide space for the pioneer cowboys to spread their "hot rolls" and the living room serve as a hall for cowboy dances during the annual meeting of the cowhands.

Directors and officers of the association attending the meeting were John Gist, Odessa, president; Clyde Burnett, Benjamin, 1st vice-president; John Davis, Throckmorton, second vice president; Chas. E. Coombs, Stamford, secretary; A. J. Swenson, Stamford, treasurer; Claude Jeffers, Matador, range boss; Crouch Marr, Aspermont, wagon cook; Doc Ellis, Spur, wagon boss; Ed Russell, Matador; Frank Rhoades, past president, Throckmorton, and Joe Matthews, Albany.

Directors of the Texas Cowboy Reunion, Incorporated, the organization of Stamford business men sponsoring the annual Cowboy Reunion, also met with the directors of the association. This board is composed of W. G. Swenson, president; A. C. Cooper, vice-president; Chas. E. Coombs, L. M. Hardy, W. G. Owsley, W. B. Tayman and Rudolph Swenson. Other Stamford men attending the meeting were R. V. Colbert, prominent West Texas cattle man, and Cleburne Houston, news director of the Reunion.

ORANGES not so many years ago were a luxury to be enjoyed only at Christmas time. Today they are almost a necessity the year around. Their only serious rival in health giving properties are tomatoes either fresh or canned and at this season oranges are far cheaper than fresh tomatoes. They are plentiful, juicy and sweet. Use them not only for juice but for fruit cup, salads and desserts.

Both new and old potatoes are very reasonable at present and of fine quality. Use new potatoes boiled or baked and old potatoes mashed, fried or baked.

Green beans are again an outstanding green vegetable but they are one of many including asparagus, spinach, cabbage and broccoli. Use and enjoy them all.

TOM HUNTER TO OPEN CAMPAIGN SATURDAY

Tom Hunter will open his campaign for governor at Clifton, Bosque county, on Saturday, April 21, he announced at Wichita Falls headquarters recently. Hunter's decision to open his campaign in Bosque county came as a result of numerous invitations by citizens of Clifton and other communities in that section of the state. Arrangements for a real old-fashioned political gathering are being pushed to completion by a committee of Bosque county citizens, assisted by Hunter leaders in a number of Central Texas counties. Hunter supporters in every section of the state have already notified the state campaign headquarters at Wichita Falls that they will bring delegations to the Clifton opening.

In his address at Clifton, Hunter will outline the basic principles of his "Texas Recovery Program" and will enlarge upon the planks of the platform which he recently made public as the basis of his campaign. Among the subjects Hunter will discuss will be consolidation of state agencies in the interest of reducing governmental costs, revision of the tax system to protect small property owners, assessment of a tax upon excess incomes, strict regulation of public utilities, rigid supervision of the removal of natural resources from the state to insure an adequate return to the state from this removed wealth, drastic punishment for bribe takers and for office holders who take fees from private interests, elimination of stock holders who take fees from private interests, elimination of stock manipulations by holding company operations, as well as other items that compose steps in his Texas recovery program.

Already conceded a certainty for one of the places in the run-off primary, Hunter plans an active campaign to follow upon the heels of his opening address at Clifton.

AN EDITORIAL

That industrial codes of fair competition afford the means for conserving the Nation's natural resources was a hope held out by President Roosevelt when he signed the National Industrial Recovery Act, which has been realized. As child labor in cotton mills "went out like a flash" with the President's signature of the code for the cotton textile industry, so, after four months of concentrated effort, the purpose of the 30-year campaign to preserve the forests on 400,000,000 acres of privately owned lands was accomplished with his approval of amendments to the code for the lumber and timber products industry. Publicly owned timber is confined to about 150,000,000 acres, most of it lying within the national forests.

Conservationists assert that the program embodied in the lumber code amendments accomplishes what they have fostered since the turn of the century. It is effective June 1, 1934, and provides rigid rules for private operators in protection against fires and other destructive agencies and preservation of young growth during and following logging, which shall be selective; cooperation of forest-owning groups with public authorities in extending systematic protection methods of restocking after cutting and sustained-yield forest management. The hearings on the amendments revealed that, despite widespread sentiment within the industry in favor of forest conservation, divergent interests were never able to agree upon details. "June 1," read a statement issued by the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association, "will be a red-letter day in American industrial history, because it will mark the beginning of sustained treatment of 400,000,000 acres of land."

Indeciding that "the oil industry was the first to show the benefit of operation under a NRA code," the T. S. Hose review of petroleum conditions say: "Under Government control the industry has been able to achieve results that even the largest companies could not bring about. The big units were unable to prevent the 'racketeer' from wrecking the price structure. Now it is generally recognized that placing production under control has not only maintained a better price structure and renewed employment but also has prevented the sapping of the fields. Without the strong hand of regulation, the oil fields of Europe have continued to flow and have exhausted their potentialities to the point where they are no longer a serious competitive factor with those of the United States."

Thus the very interests which have been depleting the country's natural resources are enabled to conserve them under the governmental control provided for in the lumber and petroleum codes.

Match the Performance of the FORD V8 for 1934 against any Car at any Price

THE car that flashed down a Florida beach to the world's land speed record was powered by the V-type engine. The V-type engine knifed an Italian plane through the air at the record-smashing speed of more than 420 miles per hour. On the St. Clair River, the V-type engine swept a speed-boat to the world's record of 124.8 miles per hour. And that's the type of engine that powers the Ford V-8 for 1934. It's the only V-8 engine in a car selling for less than $2,395.

That's why the Ford V-8 will streak down a highway at 80 or better. That's why it will purr along at 50 or 60 without the slightest effort. And why it is unsurpassed in acceleration by any American car! Despite its power, the new Ford V-8 is the most economical car that Ford has ever built. "All of Me" and "Roman Scandals" on Pallace Week End Bill

Rose Albert Porter's play "Chrysalis" furnishes the story substance for Paramount's dramatic romance, "All of Me," which will make its Spur debut at the Palace Theatre next Saturday midnite.

Fredric March, Miriam Hopkins, George Raft and Helen Mack are featured in this frank story of a young Park Avenue society debutante who wants love, dares experiment with it, yet fears it. And how she finally learns the difference between her kind of romance and real love brings the picture to an interesting, entertaining finish.

March, a college professor-engineer, in love with Miriam Hopkins, society girl, wants her to go west with him on a dam project. She rebels at the thought of life in a small town, and lies to him about why she can't marry him.

In the meantime, they become interested in a pair of lovers, George Raft and Helen Mack, whom they meet in a speakeasy. These law-crushed kids are railroaded into prison and Miss Hopkins, through reasons which she can't explain, tries to help them.

Acting as a go-between for the pair, she learns what true, fine, uncompromising love really means.

In helping Raft escape, a guard is shot. The police trail him to an apartment where Miriam has hidden Helen Mack.

And then, when the police close in on them, a dramatic climax is unfolded which, after exciting complications are cleared up sends Miriam hurrying to March's arms and heart. James Flood directed the picture.

CANTOR ROLE IS AN EXCITING ONE

Eddie Cantor in "Roman Scandals," a classic fable by George S. Kaufman and Robert Sherwood comes to the Palace Theatre Monday with Ruth Etting, Gloria Stuart and David Manners, Edward Arnold and Verne Teasdale involved in his adventures among the ancients.

A whimsical lad, always day-dreaming of life in the days of the

Bryant-Link Co.

Caesars, Eddie suddenly finds himself a spokesman for the poor and oppressed before the cruel and mighty Emperor Valerius. The affairs of state and the course of true love both get a helping hand from Eddie, but it isn't until he attempts an escape from Rome to the sea, with the Emperor's charioteers thundering through the dust in pursuit, that the classic take on the form of real flesh and blood to him.

As a screenplay, "Roman Scandals" demands more of Cantor than anything he has yet attempted in talking picture. His role is a human believable one; the story alternates between the simplest human comedy and the wildest nightmare of fantasy.

A hundred of the world's most beautiful girls, this year's crop of Hollywood beauties, keep time with their dancing feet to Eddie's new ditties. Busby Berkeley staged the dances. Frank Tuttle directed the picture, which was released by United Artists.

"THE WORLD CHANGES" STARS PAUL MUNI AS AN AMERICAN PIONEER

After a brilliant season on Broadway and in the principal eastern cities as the star of "Counselor-At-Law," Paul Muni returns to the screen in the stellar role of the Warner-First National production, "The World Changes," which will be shown for the first time at the Ritz Theatre next Saturday night, Sunday matinee and Monday matinee and night.

In his initial production for Warner Bros., "I Am a Fugitive From A Chain Gang," Paul Muni electrified theatre goers of the world with one of the most powerful characterizations ever shown in motion picture. Metropolitan critics have already agreed that in "The World Changes," Muni surpasses even his remarkable performance as the hapless hero of the Georgia prison camp.

Set against a background of what may be considered the most significant years in the history of the United States, Muni is seen as the restless, ambitious son of the prairies who rises from a daring catdredover to be the dominating figure in American industry. The rise and dissolution of an American pioneer constitutes an epic drama that embraces four generations. Through it all Paul Muni as Orin Nordholm is the dominating figure.

STATE DIRECTORS FIND IMPROVEMENT UNDER NRA

Reports of business activity and statistics on wages and employment for the first quarter of 1934 are bearing striking evidence of the effectiveness of N. R. A., according to H. P. Drought, State Director for Texas. "Despite isolated critics who apparently regard the parts as more important than the plan as a whole, irrefutable evidence continues to pour in, all tending to verify the real and lasting benefits of planned economy as represented by N. R. A.," Mr. Drought said.

"The very news items which have been distributing, such as the threatened strike of workers in automobile manufacture, are themselves harbingers of improved conditions," Drought stated. "Seldom do such conditions come about save during periods of improvement."

"It is interesting to note, too, that employers are becoming as interested in code compliance as employees have been in the past. Many business men have reported to my offices that the improvement in business and business methods since June 16, 1933, has been so great and so generally beneficial as to make a return to pre-NRA conditions unthinkable. This, of course bears out the feeling of President Roosevelt that the majority of men in any undertaking prefer to conduct business upon an ethical plane and in accord with high ideals, were they not at times restrained by an unscrupulous few. NRA then becomes the guarantee to the good citizen that he may operate upon a better basis than before, just as our police laws guarantee the rights and liberties of our people by restraining the lawless and selfish few."

United States and Canada together produced 2,048,000 passenger cars and trucks in 1933.

CLUB NEWS

Clara Pratt, H. D. A.
DEMONSTRATORS ARE FITTING PATTERNS

"I have enjoyed cutting the new sleeves since our demonstration with Mrs. Barnes," said Mrs. Clark Forbis, wardrobe demonstrator II, for the Chandler home demonstration club. "Several of our members have used them since our club demonstration too. We are expecting our club to be 100 per cent in exhibiting dresses and slips in the county clothing contest." Every demonstrator in wardrobe work is reporting having helped fit foundation patterns. When the final reports are in there should be more foundation patterns made this year than when 170 were made.

EVERY HOME NEEDS A FIRST AID KIT

"The First Aid Kit for the home should contain Scissors, Tweezers, Absorbent Cotton, Adhesive Tape, Mercurchrome, Iodine, and bandages made of old muslin and old sheets which have been laundered and pressed with hot irons and cut into different widths and rolled and put into small jars and sealed," said Miss Pratt in a meeting of the Home Demonstration Club at the home of Beulah Waters, Tuesday afternoon, April 3, 1934. The program was on First Aid in the Home. The roll call was answered by each one giving her remedy. Miss Pratt gave first aid treatment

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, acid taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned. It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resist a substitute. Buy at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

for all types of wounds and injuries including stopping bleeding and giving artificial respiration.

Our next meeting will be with Mrs. Tom Gilmore Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., April 17. Lesson will be home to make a comfortable bed. New members and visitors appreciated. Those present were Mesdames L. B. McMeans, C. C. McCombs, E. W. Yakely, Orville Pentecost, J. H. Hooper, Polly Williams, Tom Gilmore, Miss Minnie Fae McMeans, Miss Pratt, and Mrs. Waters. Mrs. J. H. Hooper, reporter.

CLUB HAS HEALTH PROGRAM

"Calcium and Iron are the minerals most necessary for the health of the individual" said Miss Pratt in regular meeting of the Prairie Chapel club Wednesday. Milk is our best source of Calcium and lean beef is the best source of Iron.

The number of Calories required each day is dependent upon the activities of the individual, but the table listed in the leaflet gives the average for the normal person. One girl's food was listed and the Calories estimated.

Those present were: Hazel Benham, Vera Livingston, Lyndell Gienn, Paula Johnson, Iva Robertson, Merle Bennett, Ruth Goodwin, Alma Hale, Alice Gipson and Evva Lee Nance. Merle Bennett, reporter.

CALCIUM IN DIET

"Calcium is necessary in the diet to provide material for building bones and teeth," said Mrs. W. F. Bradley, sponsor of the Groton 4-H Club Wednesday morning in their regular meeting with the sponsor meeting with the club.

The health rules were studied and each girl given a copy to keep along with calcium and iron.

Those present were: Alene Jackson, Oritha Harison, Joyce Hemphill, Dorine Lee, Bernice Mayo, Alvertie Butler, Juanita Bradley, and Mrs. W. F. Bradley. Joyce Hemphill, reporter.

CLUB MEMBERS HAVE FULL WEEK

The Duck Creek Home Demonstration Club women have had a busy week with three meetings.

We met with Mrs. McLauren, our bedroom demonstrator on Tuesday for our regular meeting. There were 6 members and 2 visitors present. An interesting lesson was had on "Making a Comfortable Bed." Mrs. McLauren gave a demonstration on making the bed correctly.

On Friday afternoon we met with Mrs. Jesse L. Hagin for the tiling demonstration given by Mrs. Paula Thach. There were besides the Duck Creek 4-H girls, Katherine Thach was overjoyed when her first tile came out of the mold a perfect success.

There is no need now of West Texas people not having a garden, when one can sub-irrigate with hollow tiling that cost less than one dollar per hundred feet, and is so simple to make that a child can do the work.

Friday night we entertained our husbands and a few invited guests at the home of Mrs. R. J. Griffin. After enjoying several hours of music, singing and 42 refreshments of coffee, hot chocolate and cake were served.

There were 19 present to enjoy the occasion. "I hope you ladies entertain your husbands quite often," said Mrs. O. R. Bennett.

Our next meeting will be with Mrs. O. L. Driggers, April 17. All members are urged to come, visitors are always welcome. Reporter.

MATRESS IMPROVED WITH SLATS

"I learned what was the matter with my mattress last week when one of the girls club reporter quoted the home demonstration agent saying there should be a slat for each coil of springs as the first requirement for a comfortable bed. My mattresses had begun to sag at the ends and in the middle. I counted my slats and found that one bed needed four more. We put them in and now the mattress does not sag and the bed is so much more comfortable," reports a non-club woman.

Too much emphasis can not be given to this first requirement for a comfortable bed. It is one that everyone may achieve, too.

DEMONSTRATOR SHOWS HOW TO MAKE A BED

"Anyone could rest on such an inviting-looking bed as that," said Mrs. Jim Wyatt at the close of the demonstration given by Mrs. C. T. Martin of Peaceful Mill Club. "Sheets should be long enough and wide enough to cover entire bed and tuck well under the mattress, and corners should be mitered to insure smoothness. There should be three sheets to insure comfort and give protection to your covers. Covers should be light and fluffy, and warm. Blankets are usually preferred because they are light. Bedspreads, if you are thrifty, must be of sufficient weight and weave to stand hard wear on most of our beds. A good sample of spreads are the all-cotton spread woven in any design and color to harmonize, with that of your bed room."

We will meet again at the home of Mrs. C. F. Martin for a lesson on First Aid in The Home. All members be present and we invite any visitor who wishes to come.

ESPUELA CLUB

The H. D. Club met at the home of Mrs. W. F. Foreman Thursday afternoon, April 5. The Health Nurse was expected to talk on First Aid, but was unable to attend. Mrs. F. B. Crockett took charge of the program and many useful and practical first aid hints were discussed. Only six members were present, and we wish to urge all members and those who wish to become members to meet with us the 3 Thursday of this month at the home of Mrs. Tom Martin. Refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames W. E. Ball, E. L.

Spivey, Tom Martin, F. B. Crockett, Miss Ruth Spivey and the hostess. Reporter.

LAND USE

Notwithstanding the price of the commodity whether it be cotton, corn, or hogs, the economies in production of these commodities, like economies in producing the articles of commerce, largely determine the profit to the grower or to the operator. Some definite observations from records furnished by the Texas agricultural Experiment Station show that remarkable economies in production can be effected in the western cotton belt in the cost of producing cotton; and likewise other figures show that an extraordinary degree of efficiency in producing meat and milk can be accomplished in the more humid regions of the south as compared with what is known as the western cattle region.

In the production of cotton for instance, the usual practice in the "cotton patch" sections of eastern and central Texas ranges from the one-horse plow to the two-horse cultivator adapted to single-row culture, and one man is perhaps above the average when he produces and harvest 10 to 20 bales of cotton in a season. Such a farmer can plant or cultivate from 6 to 7 1-2 acres per day at best and needs 50 to 100 days to pick 10 to 20 bales. In the Corpus Christi area and in other sections of western Texas where large fields and suitable weather conditions enable the use of tractor-drawn four-row planters and cultivators, one man plants an average of 35 acres per day and cultivates an average of 43 acres per day according to records published in Bulletin 362 of the Texas Experiment Station; and in Bulletin No. 452 of the Texas Station it is shown that one man with a one-row stripper can harvest 5 bales in 12 hours. This means that it is entirely practical for one man with a half section in farm to prepare the land in some two weeks by listing with a four-row lister, plant with a four-row planter of single seed cell type in less than 10 days, and cultivate every 10 days if necessary with a four-row cultivator and finally harvest in 25 to 50 days a crop of 100 to 150 bales. No steps in efficiency seem possible to enable the "cotton-patch" system of production to compete with the expansion system which can be widely adopted and is to a considerable extent actually in practice in certain parts of western Texas. There the soil is reasonably fertile and the rainfall while less than in eastern Texas is nevertheless usually sufficient for cotton production, because it falls largely during the growing season. The comparatively level surface of the West Texas lands also enables easy control of water runoff so that the crop may have the fullest benefit of whatever rain falls. In this area weeds are not usually difficult to control and the single seed type of planter enables a stand that does not require chopping and hoe work generally is very light.

In the matter of livestock production through grazing occurs another striking instance of adaption of the area as related to economies in production. The western uncultivated land yields rich grasses and have been long known for their value as grazing lands but due to sparse moisture some 10 to 15 acres is required per grazing unit of one average sized adult cow. The "cotton patch" lands of eastern Texas due to abundant moisture produce heavy growths of grazing and when the better plants are substituted abundant grazing is available at the rate of from 1 to 4 adult cows per acre, as shown in a recent bulletin of the Texas Extension Service which gives instructions for planting and developing improved pastures. This means that the East Texas cattle raiser can pasture more than ten times as many cattle per section as can be grazed in the west and offers a much better utilization of the land through grazing than through the production of cotton. The best interests of the farmers themselves as well as of the government are served in accepting the obviously better land use of each region.

A loss in producing effort is like a fire loss and ultimately falls upon the public, while a gain in producing effort should ultimately contribute to the general welfare.

In addition to sirens, Kansas City police cars are equipped with red lights midway between the headlamps.

BUSINESSBOOMING UP, SAYS CEVROLET

Chevrolet dealers during the month of March delivered at retail prices a total of 97,149 units, according to William E. Holler, general sales manager of Chevrolet Motor Company. This compares with retail deliveries in March, a year ago of 41,093 units, or more than 236 per cent of the 1933 March figures. This is the largest March retail sales reported since March in 1930, Mr. Holler said. Sales during the month just past bring the total for the first quarter of this year up to 177,271 units, as compared to 124,674 units in the first three months of 1933, making the period 142 per cent of the 1933 quarter.

Deliveries by dealers in March were more than three times those of March a year ago, amounting to 25,974 commercial cars and trucks and bringing the total for the first quarter of this year up to 59,312. First quarter sales in the commercial field were more than double those of the same period in 1933, Mr. Holler pointed out, and established a record first-quarter figure unequalled in five years.
