Spur Trades Day Slated for First Monday in April

Sunrise Easter Services Sunday at 6:30 A. M.

Mass Services At The Jones Memorial Stadium

It is hoped that not less than one thousand will assemble at the Easter Sunrise service on next Sunday at 6:30 at the Jones open air stadium. Every congregation of Dickens, Kent and Motley counties of whatever denomination are invited. This service marks the second annual interdenominational event to be held on Easter.

This service is planned with a view to staging this feature of community religion as a fitting climax to the religious survey held under the leadership of Tom Ellzey in February and the simultaneous Pre-Easter revivals from March 10-24, held in the many churches of this area. No church should suffer in attendance at any service on Easter, but on the contrary they should be crowded to capacity. While it is very true that Protestantism stresses the fact that every Sunday is the day memorialized as the resurrection of our Lord and is therefore a sacred day for worship so much in modern times has been done to call special attention to one Sunday in the Spring as Easter to especially commemorate our Master's supernatural rising from the dead. In the large centers of America's population this period of the year all Christian churches have adopted the plan to capture this psychological time for the stressing of evangelism. Every church in the United States expects its membership to come to church certainly on this day if on no other.

In Enid, Okla. and in the Rose Bowl in California and in many other localities a special physical advantage lend a happy setting to a religious service of this nature, when many thousands attend a sunrise service just at the dawning of the resurrection day. The Jones Stadium, one of the finest in the country, is a most excellent place to stage this service for miles in all directions.

The following program has been arranged under the auspices of the Ministers' Alliance of Spur cooperated and encouraged by the efficient professional assistance of Superintendent O. C. Thomas and his assistants:

- Prelude Spur High school band, L. B. King, director, playing "Morning Prayer" by Tschaiowsky.

A fine program of highly musical selections was rendered and people were so pleased that applause after applause were given to the musicians. Under the leadership of Mr. King some of the most classical numbers in band music were rendered. In fact every selection was of the highest type and the rendition was marvelous.

The concert was at the auditorium of the East Ward school and lasted about one hour. A large number of people heard the fine selections, and those who were not present certainly missed a great treat.

After the concert the band parents association held a meeting to discuss means of taking care of the band members during the State Band Contest at Plainview which will be April 4-6. This meeting is very important to the farmers of this country as an increase of acreage has occurred but no increase in cotton acreage. After attending the meeting at College Station the committee will go to Temple where they will attend a meeting concerning the Soil Conservation proposed district.

Sheriff Department Robbed Early Thurs. Morning

Thursday morning of last week the Sheriff Department at Dickens was robbed of less than thirty dollars. The robbers gained entrance through the east door prying it open with possibly a small crow bar at least the marks left that impression. After gaining entrance they went to the big vault in the sheriff department and knocked the knob of the safe off and drilled out a pin that released the combination lock. The electric clock in the office stopped at 1:40 a. m. and from all indications it was disconnected and the plug used to operate an electric drill used in drilling out the pin.

The prowlers overlooked approximately $60.00 of school money that was in an envelope but had handled it for it had been moved from its original place.

Sheriff Johnnie Koonsman stated that no clues to really work on was left. The only thing left on the floor was a end of the bit that was broken off during drilling. No fingerprints were left on the safe or the door through which they gained entrance.

Mr. Milam stated he wants everyone in all the adjoining counties to come to Spur and feel the hearty welcome which is extended by all business firms of our city.

Book Off Press; Copies Coming Soon

The Dickens County Times has received a special press copy of the book, "My Pilot," which is just being released by the Pegasus Publishing Company of New York. It will be remembered by many people here that Mrs. Elle Kellam Bennett is the author of this book, and that it is the Life of Christ written in blank verse. It is poetry in prose form and has all scripture references to every story in it.

The book is very interesting to those who enjoy good literature. Many people have ordered copies of this volume, taking the book upon the reputation of friends who knew about the manuscript before it went to the publisher. The book has the commendation of many great Bible scholars, and every minister in the country should have it in his library. It is non-sectarian in the treatment of the subject relative to the life of Christ. It is historical and a real true story as recorded in the New Testament. Mrs. Bennett has spent years on the manuscript, it was criticized by good Bible scholars who are considered authority, and any one reads "My Pilot" may rest assured of the correctness of the stories as published.

If you want a copy of the book, see Mrs. Bennett, or write her, or you may get a copy by sending $2.00 to the publishing company named above.

"THANKS FOR A LOVELY EVENING..."

A new kind of beer retailing is bringing wholesome recreation to millions of Americans!

America's new kind of beer retailer wants to sell good beer, of course... but he is also keenly aware of his social responsibility to the community. He makes sure that his place is clean and inviting—and scrupulously free of anti-social influences of any kind.

The Brewing Industry wants all of beer's retailers to be of this type. We do not want any other kind. And we are taking action to eliminate any abuses in beer retailing that may occur.

We have instituted a new plan... now in effect in a few states and being extended as rapidly as possible... to protect your right to drink good beer in decent surroundings. Sunrise Easter Services

CHARLES A. JONES STADIUM
6:30 Sunday Morning

A sunrise Easter Service, of tremendous importance to this section of West Texas, is to be held next Sunday Morning at 6:30 in our beautiful Stadium. Just as the sun comes up beautiful hymns will be sung, lead by Will M. Culwell, of Floydada.

John Lee Smith of Throckmorton, ex-County Judge of that County, former District Supervisor of Public Schools, a candidate for Leut.-Governor two years ago, and a man of distinction and renown in our State, will deliver the Easter Message.

Little do we realize that we have a place so near our doors that furnishes an ideal setting for a most impressive Easter Sunrise Service. This Stadium arranged in the cove where the early sun rays penetrate furnishes an ideal setting for such a service.

Come early and get a good seat near the singers and the speaker. This promises to be the most impressive Easter Sun-Rise Service you have attended. Come praying, come singing, and come smiling. Surely you'll be glad you did.

Our work has just begun

YOU think electric service is a wonderful thing—and it is. It lights our homes. It makes our streets safe at night. Turns wheels in factories. Lifts the burden of housework. Helps make the good things of life rest less.

Really, there doesn't seem much left for electricity to do, does there?

Yet we employees of your electric company believe that every service and comfort electricity now gives you is but a beginning of what's to come.

Why, today we don't even know what electricity is. We simply know and enjoy some of the things it is capable of doing every moment of the day and night. But we also know that there are still a great many undiscovered tasks for electric service.

Who will perform these miracles-to-come?

The men who serve you now—the same great army of skilled technicians, capable managers and loyal employees whose tireless efforts in your behalf have already vastly improved the service your electric company gives you, already drastically reduced its cost.

No, it isn't an accident that electricity has reached its greatest present development in the United States. The reason is that these thousands of men and women in the electrical industry have the American spirit of initiative—the good old-fashioned kind.

Their work, and theirs alone, makes your electric service the best in the world. It's an amazing service. It gets better and better, costs less and less.

Your electric company doesn't often think about the work it has done because it is too busy planning the work that lies ahead.

MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

In the last 10 to 15 years, the engineering improvements and operating economies of your electric company have made it possible to cut the average price of household electricity just about in half. Many customers now using more household appliances, lots of light, a radio, and refrigerator pay very little more to operate all of these than they used to pay for light alone.

Dr. Lowdermilk To Discuss Soil Erosion At Abilene On Monday, March 25, at 8 p. m.

A fascinating picture story of man's battle against soil erosion thru the centuries — a story of interest to the general public and agricultural workers alike — will be presented by Dr. W. C. Lowdermilk, assistant chief of the Soil Conservation Service, Washington, D. C., at the Abilene High school auditorium, Mon. March 25, at 8 p. m., under the sponsorship of the Taylor County Agricultural Association and the Abilene Chamber of Commerce.

"Soil Erosion and Civilization" will be the subject of this illustrated discussion during which 100 colored slides will be shown. These pictures were taken by Dr. Lowdermilk during a 15 months' survey just completed in Europe, North Africa and the Near East.

The discussion is open to the public.

Dr. Lowdermilk, who was chosen by the Department of Agriculture to begin a survey of the experience of older countries in the use of land as it relates to soil erosion, soil and water conservation, and torrential flood control, traveled more than 30,000 miles by train, airplane, automobile and afoot in 17 countries of the Old World. He visited 124 areas of special interest.

His studies took him into Egypt, Algeria, Tunisia, Lybia, Trans-Jordan, Palestine, Lebanon, Syria, Iraq, as well as several European countries. As a background to this survey he previously had made five agricultural explorations into northwest China.

Born in Liberty, North Carolina in 1888, Dr. Lowdermilk studied at Park College, Missouri, and later at the University of Arizona, at Oxford University in England, and at the University of California.

Following completion of his studies at the University of Arizona, Dr. Lowdermilk received a Rhodes Scholarship. When he had completed three years of study at Oxford, with field studies in Germany, he received, in 1915, degrees in the School of Forestry and Geology. From December 1914 to January 1915, he served on the Commission for Relief in Belgium.

Returning to the United States Forest Service, as a forest ranger in Arizona and New Mexico. When war was declared, he joined the 10th Engineers, A. E. F., and became timber acquisition officer for the Northeastern district in France. Then he served for a time on the special commission in Paris to assist the American Peace Commission in determining damages to forests and farm lands in battle field regions of France.

In 1927, Dr. Lowdermilk returned to the United States and entered the University of California where he did graduate work leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, which he received in 1928. Then he accepted a position in the Forest Service as project leader of studies in erosion and stream flow in the California region.

Dr. Lowdermilk was a delegate to Congresses of the Pacific Science Association at Tokyo, Japan, in 1926 and in Canada in 1933. He is chairman of the standing committee of land classification and utilization of this association. He was an official delegate to the Third International Congress of Soil Science in England in 1935.

In October 1933, Dr. Lowdermilk was named vice-director of the Soil Erosion Service of the U. S. Department of Interior, and when that organization was renamed the Soil Conservation Service and became part of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, in 1935, he remained as an associate chief, later to be appointed head of the research division.

Mrs. Cecil Scott and Miss Margaret Maloney attended a church wedding at Slaton Saturday night of Miss Beatrice Payne.

S. M. Newberry former employee of the Spur Tailors accepted a position at the Clover Farm Store this week.

Rep. C. L. Harris left for Austin the first of the week to attend to business.

Mrs. J. C. McNeil returned this week from an extended visit in South and East Texas.

Wind Break Planting At John P. Sharp Farm

"We want some trees to help stop some of this dust from blowing right into the house" declared the John Sharp's early in the spring, and the result of this resolution is a two row windbreak around the north, west, and south of the house and yard.

About three hundred Chinese elms were planted last week in two rows; future plantings will consist of a row of desert willows to complete the south windbreak, and a row of red cedars on the north and west. These windbreaks not only help prevent so much wind and sand from blowing around the homestead, but also add to the attractiveness and livability of a place.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp are also leveling and sodding the lawn and adding shade trees—green ash, black walnut, and Chinese elm.

Windbreaks that have been planted prior to this year and are proving their value are to be found at Mr. and Mrs. Murry A. Lea's home near Dickens; at the Riley Wooten's in McAloo; at the Joe Ross's (hon.) west of Glenn, and at the Watt Holly place west of Dickens.

Afton Demonstration Club Meets March 13

The demonstration club of Afton met March 13, with Mrs. Clark Forbis. After the business session was over, we worked a crossword puzzle by the Texas Food Standard to go by as our recreation period.

Miss Day gave us a talk on animal organs and tissues prepared and vitamins they give us if prepared the right way. The organs that have the most vitamins are liver, heart, tongue, and brains and also sweetbread.

Miss Day gave us several recipes for the cooking of these organs such as liver and egg noodles, brains and eggs, tongue served with pickles and relish.

The demonstration was liver baked in a tomato sauce, heart stuffed with bread stuffing and tongue baked with a sour cherry sauce. They were very good and gave us new ideas on cooking of liver besides frying and pickling of tongue.

The ones refreshments were served to were: Miss Day, Mesdames Tab Williams, E. G. McInroe, Allie Barton, V. S. Ford, Claud Flippin, Bryon Haney, M. L. Kelly, Gus Martin, Avery, Forbis G. W. Bennett Kissing, Clark Forbis, B. D. Clifton, one visitor Mrs. Stafford Forbis and five children.

Club adjourned to meet with Mrs. M. L. Kelly March 27.

Pictures Made From Materials At Home

Dickens County 4-H club girls have shown their ingenuity and resourcefulness in equipping their bedrooms with attractive pictures by making them from materials found at home.

"I have a picture in my room which I cut from a magazine, and then mounted it on a background of mat or bleached feed sacks," Wanda Lou Dennis of McAdoo told her club members at a recent meeting. Other materials suggested in the demonstration for mats were plain wall-paper, white construction paper, and monk's cloth.

Bobby Nell Joplin, also of McAdoo told the club members of a picture in her bedroom made from a discarded clock. "The glass and metal frame of the clock were used to frame and cover the picture," said Bobby Nelly, "and the picture is a flower print cut from a magazine."

Other 4-H girls are using flower prints cut from cretonne and mounted on white backgrounds for pictures to make their bedrooms more pleasing.

Patton Springs Easter Home Coming

Annual Affair Planned

For several months the ex-students and ex-graduates of Patton Springs High school have been planning the first annual home-coming. Letters and cards have been sent to individuals from Missouri to California and favorable reports received from many directions. It is hoped that this ex-students association can be made a permanent organization and that it will function as other similar organizations.

Class Volley Ball Tournament

The opening event of the Home-Coming will be the big class volleyball tournament on Friday night, March 22 at the Patton Springs High school gymnasium. Each of the graduating classes from 1935 to 1939 inclusive and the post-graduates will have teams entered in the tournament. The games will be played and scores ranked on a round robin basis. Six teams will be involved and each team will play every other team and the team having the highest percentage will win the victory trophy offered by the Patton Spring school. In order to help take care for the expenses of the Home-Coming, the ex-students voted to charge all team players and spectators 5c each to play and see the volleyball tournament. A large crowd is expected to see the volleyball tournament of the season. Be sure to come!

Ex-Teachers and Ex-Students Social

Saturday night, March 23rd, has been set for the special in-gathering of ex-teachers and ex-students. This informal social will be held in the Patton Springs High school auditorium for the sole purpose of entertaining the teachers and classes of former years. Committee have been working and planning the games and events of the evening. All individuals of the several classes are urged to see that your class members do not miss this friendly, old-time class gathering. Memories! Cherished Memories!

Business Luncheon

Following the social in the gymnasium, the classes will retire to the Home-Making department to partake of a luncheon and attend to the business of the occasion. Permanent plans will be in order for the future work of the Patton Springs Ex-Students association. Officers for the 1940-41 session will be elected. The following officers of 1939-40 will be honored: D. W. Hughes, Jr., president; Randolph Robertson, vice-president; Ruth Hext and Jean McInroe, secretaries; Lizzie Lou Clements, treasurer; Loise Ragland, reporter. Ex-Teachers will also be honored as well as the students who have come farthest to attend the Home-Coming.

Early Sunday Schools in District

The ex-students have written to all pastors and leaders of the several churches in the district asking them to urge their congregations to turn out their services early Easter Sunday, March 24th, and join in a co-operative union Easter Church service at the Patton Springs High school auditorium at 11:15 a. m. All people living in the district are asked to participate in the Sunday program. Make plans to attend.

Union Easter Service

The ex-students will be in charge of the Union Easter Service at 11:15 a. m. in the Patton Springs High school auditorium. This student, Bruce Slayden, is at present preparing for the ministry at Wayland College, Plainview, Texas. The whole program will be in charge of the ex-students, with D. W. Hughes, Jr. acting as leader. The officers and committees who are planning the program are asking all ex-students to be in their places and to cooperate fully in carrying out the program. If the weather is fair, the ex-students are hoping that everyone in the whole Patton Springs school district will attend this special Easter service.

Dinner On The Ground

All families of the district are asked to bring a basket lunch to help serve dinner on the ground following the Easter Service. Plans are being made to have the dinner outside, if the weather is fair; also to have it inside the school building, should the weather be blustery or bad. The ex-students are especially urging that all people of the several parts of the School District be present. They are hoping to have from 500 to 1000 people present.

Big Easter Egg Hunt

The school campus and the surrounding acres will be changed into Bunny Rabbit Land following the dinner on the ground. Easter eggs will be hidden in several different places for the several sizes of children and older folk. Big, little, old and young are asked to participate in the big Easter egg hunt. Small prizes will be given to the children finding the most number of eggs.

Regular Sunday Singing

The Afton singing class is inviting everyone who will to remain after the egg hunt to help them carry on their regular singing. There should be a large number of good singers and good listeners present and a real Gospel Song Service is planned.

PATTON SPRINGS
4-H CLUB NEWS

The 4-H club of Patton Springs met March 14 in the Home Economics cottage for a demonstration on dressing up the windows in the bedroom.

"Shades should be used in the bedroom if some of the light needs to be cut out, but if the room has only one window and is insufficiently lighted, then use glass curtains," was part of the talk Miss Jean Day, home agent, made to the 4-H girls about providing curtains for the bedroom. "Curtains for the bedroom are best if made of thin cotton materials that let in light, and are washable and colorfast. Natural color wall canvas is a good curtain material if several widths are stitched together to give it heavy folds."

Miss Day showed us how to hang

JOE BELL CELEBRATES HIS FIFTH BIRTHDAY

On Monday March 18, Joe Bell celebrated his fifth birthday. Joe with his many little friends spent an enjoyable afternoon playing games.

Later in the afternoon ice cream and cake were served to Arlene Wilson, Shirley Bell, Lovan Dean Reagan, Patsy and Nell Hopkins, Annette Lee, Mable Whitener, Betty Sue Dyce, Kathleen and Caroline Kelley, Margaret Lane, Beverly Wood, Franklin Gabriel, Mark Engleman, Elbert Hurst, Douglas McArthur, Brooks Chapman, Bruce Long, Robert and Ronald Ensey, Donald George Snodgrass, and Pat Applegate.

Virgil V. Parr Goes To Washington, D. C.

Virgil V. Parr left for Washington, D. C., upon receiving an invitation to assist in coordination of the activities of the AAA, the Soil Conservation service and the Forest service on various phases of the range program. It is known by the many that much of the range program is based on research work done by Mr. Parr while in departmental services previous to his coming into this community. That these principles will work advantageously is being demonstrated by progressive ranchmen through the west by their wide acceptance and work at applying them. The high risks incurred from over grazing, lack of water and slip shod methods of management will continue to take the toll in failures and lack of stability, in livestock prices if not corrected by ranchmen yearly.
