Questionnaires To Be Sent Registrants

Announcing the distribution of occupational questionnaires (Form 311) to men who registered on February 16, General J. Watt Page, State Selective Service Director, urged that they give careful thought to their skills, experience and aptitude when filling out these forms so that the best possible use of their services may be made in the Nation's war effort.

The questionnaire, which is being distributed to February 16 registrants by their local boards, later will be sent to registrants of the First and Second Registration and those of future registrations, General Page said. Its purpose is an inventory of the present employment activities of registrants and of their skills and abilities. It has no connection with, and is not to be confused with the regular Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40) which is sent to all registrants to obtain data on which Selective Service classification is based, General Page emphasized.

The data obtained through the occupational questionnaire, General Page said, will be forwarded through State Headquarters to the National Roster of Scientific and Specialized Personnel and to the United States Employment Service. It will be used by those federal agencies, respectively, to locate persons with certain professional and scientific qualifications and those who have skills or aptitudes in critical or essential occupations for the ultimate purpose of achieving a more complete and efficient utilization of the Nation's manpower in the war production program.

New officers will be installed Saturday at two o'clock and Louise Ince will take part in the installation service. All will return home Saturday evening.

Billy Joe Starks Injured By Horse

Billy Joe Starks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Starks of Afton, was painfully injured Sunday afternoon. He was riding a horse which became excited while crossing a bridge. The horse pitched, throwing Billy off and landing him on the edge of the bridge. He hit a bridge timber over the diaphragm section of his abdomen which rendered him unconscious. He then turned over and fell off the bridge down about eight feet and landed on his back.

He was rushed to the Matador Hospital where he was given medical aid. He remained in very bad condition even Monday, and mucus was collecting in his lungs and it was feared pneumonia might develop.

Reports given out later stated that pneumonia had developed, but Billy Joe's condition was not considered very serious at that time.

FFA Project Program Started For Next Year

The FFA members are now planning their project program for the coming school year. Eleven Hereford calves have already been selected and some more of these will be selected in the near future. They will be grazed on rye pasture and sudan during the summer and will be put on feed about September 1st weighing about 750 pounds. Seven of these calves were contracted from Tom Murdock of Jayton for May 1st delivery at 12 cents per pound.

A number of boys are buying small registered gilts at this time in preparing for next year's hog program, and the larger gilts are being shaped up for breeding in May for pigs to be put on feed next fall.

Several boys have bought ewes at this time and intend to breed them in May so that they will have October lambs to be sold as milk fed lambs on the Easter market. Bob Farrell has purchased a Southdown ram to be used in breeding part of the ewes and the remainder will be bred to a Hampshire ram. The Hampshire ram was purchased by J. C. Dopson from Texas Technological College last Saturday while attending a sheep and wool growers meeting with Cecil Ayers, local vocational agricultural teacher.

O. T. Ryan, vocational agricultural supervisor of Area I, made his yearly check on the Spur department last Friday and stated that Spur had one of the largest, if not the largest, project programs and supervised practice programs in the area. Plans are being made for a much larger number next year.

O. C. Thomas, as president of the West Texas Teachers Association, will bring greetings from that organization and will serve as delegate for the High School unit.

See The Big Fight Tonight

Among their many feature attractions of their program tonight the Palace Theatre is exhibiting the big fight feature of Joe Louis and Abe Simon. People of Spur country who saw this picture last night say it is a fine exhibition. The great question about the fight is: "was Abe Simon knocked out or did the referee stop the fight." See the picture tonight blow by blow and round by round both in slow and fast action, and judge for yourselves whether or not Abe was out.

It is remembered that Joe Louis gave every dime of his part of the gate to the Army Relief Fund, and in addition he purchased tickets for his war buddies who did not have the money to attend the fight, spending $2,500 for this purpose. Also, Joe placed his heavy weight title at the disposal of Abe Simon, showing the good sport he is.

Abe Simon gave a big per cent of his earnings in the fight to the War Relief Fund. So, you want to see these really true American citizens in action at the Palace tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Shugart returned from Temple Friday where Mrs. Shugart underwent an operation, and Mr. Shugart had a clinical examination.

Spur Girl Marries In El Paso
 Sgt. James E. Hagood, of the 62nd Field Artillery at Fort Bliss, and Miss Jeffy C. Thomas, of Aspermont, were married in El Paso March 28 at 9:30 o'clock, P. M. The simple, but beautiful double ring ceremony took place in the home of Rev. Edwin F. Bohnfolk, pastor of the North Methodist Church in El Paso.
 The bride wore a powder blue dress with white accessories and carried white roses. Mrs. Ferle B. Thomas, sister-in-law to the bride, was the bridesmaid. The groom in full dress uniform, was attended by Harry C. Carter, also of the 62nd Field Artillery, Fort Bliss.
 The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ela Thomas, of Aspermont and formerly of Spur. Mrs. Hagood has lived in Spur all of her life until in July, 1941, when she moved with her mother to Aspermont.

 Sgt. Hagood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hagood of Abilene, and has been in the Army and stationed at Fort Bliss.
 After the ceremony a wedding supper was served to a few close friends at the home of the bride's brother, Ferle B. Thomas. The happy couple will be at home at 1500 Montana Street at El Paso, until Sgt. Hagood is sent to do his bit to preserve the freedom of our nation.—Contributed.

State Leaders Team Up For U. S. Navy Relief Campaign

Governor Coke Stevenson has proclaimed the week of Sunday, April 19th, as Navy Appreciation Week for Texas. The week will be devoted to an intensive drive in every county in the state to raise funds for the Navy Relief Society to care for the dependents of men serving on the firing line with the U. S. Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard. Texas is asked to give $210,000 as its share of the $5,000,000 national quota. Attorney General Gerald C. Mann (center) is state chairman for the campaign. Seated beside the governor as he signs the proclamation is Capt. H. W. Underwood, commandant Naval R.O.T.C. at the University of Texas. Navy men standing with Chairman Gerald C. Mann are (left) Petty Officer Lloyd Bahr and Chief Petty Officer E. H. Grill of Austin.

Southern Hospitality For the Men in Service

W. G. Johnson Hears From Nephew

W. G. Johnson, for many years a West Texas Railroader, had a letter from his sister, Mrs. E. O. White, of Shawnee, Okla., stating that her youngest son, Sam White, at Pearl Harbor is all right. He was one of the Americans which participated in the attacks on the Japanese-held Marshall and Gilbert Islands.

The following letter written by White to his home may be of interest to our readers:

Pearl Harbor, February 5, 1942.

Dear Folks:
I am still O. K. I got so many letters today that I had to read all day to read them all. I guess you read about what happened at Marshall and Gilbert Islands. Well, we were in the big middle of it all, doing our share. It was real exciting. I saw the today, but we did not go along of her, so I guess Van is O. K.

I got a Christmas card from Mizo in Oklahoma City. Say, do you know I haven't got a picture of any one. So, how about some??? I am sending you a news sheet about the attack, also, a paper that has a story about it. The commanding officer of the attack force sent his message to us: "You have made history in Marshall and Gilbert's Islands. I am proud to be in command of such a group of men. God bless you all."

I am glad that John is getting a defense job. Tell Edward I said good luck and hope to see him out here. Warren, we will give them hell for you until you get to be 17 so you can join. Write soon.

Lots of love to all.
Sam.

Mrs. White has three sons in the service of our country at this time. Edward, the one mentioned in this letter, left Oklahoma City Tuesday for service, leaving a wife and child to join up with the forces of the United States.

4-H And H. D. Clubs Make Victory Pledge

"As a Victory Demonstration doing my best to help win the war, I will produce food, feed and fiber to assure good health for myself, my family and others. I will take good care of everything I use—food, clothes, furnishings, equipment, machinery, buildings, livestock and the soil as well as scarce articles such as rubber and metals.

"I will buy carefully anything I must have and I will buy U. S. Defense stamps or bonds with all the money I can.

"I will work hard with my family and neighbors and help people to be cheerful to have courage and to take part in all war activities."

This is the pledge that seventy-three Dickens County people have already signed believing that "Victory First" is our most important job at the present time, according to Fae Bass, County Home Demonstration Agent. Frances Murphree, a Dickens 4-H Club member was the first Dickens County Victory Demonstrator;

The goal is, "Every Dickens County Resident a Victory Demonstrator." Every Home Demonstration Club member who enrolls five Victory Demonstrators and every 4-H Club member who enrolls three, will be placed on the Victory Honor Roll, which will appear weekly in this paper. Mrs. Lester English of the Highway Club has the distinction of being the first person to achieve this honor.

The Victory Honor Roll:
Mrs. Lester English, Highway.
Mrs. Dan Prichett, Soldier Mound.
Mrs. Allie Barton, Afton.
Mrs. Audie Condron, Soldier Mound.
Merlene Adams, Wichita, 4-H.
Joyce Adams, Wichita, 4-H.

Home demonstration and girls' 4-H Club members in extension district 3 spent more than $60,000 on house repairs, including improvement of kitchens and other rooms in 1941. This picture is a typical example of kitchen improvement with especial attention to storage space. Notable are the labeled food containers in the cabinet at the right which were made of oatmeal containers and painted. Shown, too, are the silver drawer with compartments, a cabinet for dishes used frequently, tea towel rack and a drawer for aprons and spare towels. It is an L-shaped kitchen with more storage space at the right.

Public Welfare Dept. Explains

The real name is "Old Age Assistance." The word "pension" is not mentioned in the law at all. Pensions are paid to those who have earned them in the nation's armed forces, or under a retirement system where the recipients contributed out of earnings over a long period of years. If the government has a "pension" system, it is what is known as Old Age and Survivors Insurance. This is administered entirely by the federal government and is paid to citizens who have contributed to the Old Age Insurance fund out of their earnings.

Old Age Assistance is primarily intended to guarantee that no aged person shall suffer from lack of necessities. The law declares that it "shall not be construed as a vested right in the recipient of such assistance." It is "not transferable or assignable" nor "subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment or other legal process." It is, in a sense, a government philanthropy. A person, otherwise eligible, may claim it by showing need for it, but if he fails to receive it for any reason it does not constitute a debt or collectible claim. The law is designed to supplement on a current basis only carrying degrees of need so that all recipients may have the necessities equally. Its basic purpose is to provide regular cash support for those aged persons who do not have enough to live on. One-half of all money paid out for Old Age assistance comes from the federal government which will not match state funds unless need is made the basic test of eligibility.

To qualify for this assistance the law requires that certain conditions must be met. An eligible person must be at least 65 years of age. He must be a citizen. He must have lived in Texas for at least 5 years during the last nine, including one year just before making application. He must not be an habitual criminal or habitual drunkard, and he must be in need as defined by the law.

It is important to keep in mind that need is defined by the law as insufficient income or resources for maintaining living conditions in keeping with health and decency. Certain exemptions, such as a resident homestead, are ruled out of consideration as expendable resources. This is done on the theory that it would defeat the purpose of the law—that of providing minimum security—to deprive an aged person of these minimum possessions. Also, it is good business for the state to make such exemptions. For example, if a recipient does not own his home, he must secure shelter by renting, and this expense adds to the amount of money which must be provided by the state. When the layman compares the grants made to a completely destitute person on one hand, and to a person who has some exempted resources on the other hand, he sometimes feels that the situation is unequal and charges discrimination. It must be remembered that the law's definition of need ranges from the man who has nothing to the man who has modest possessions but lacks sufficient income for securing necessities. A full understanding of the law, by which both situations are measured, will usually cause criticism to disappear.

And her exemption of the law which sometimes confuses the public, is that which deals with contributions from children. The law draws a line between the ability of a child to contribute and the continuing voluntary contributions of a child which actually reduce an applicant's needs. The ability of children to contribute is not considered, but actual contributions are considered under the law. In actual practice this means that if a child, even though able, is not contributing or withdraws contributions, thereby rendering his parent in need, the parent, if otherwise eligible, may receive assistance. But if a child is contributing, these contributions must be considered to the extent that they reduce need. At least one-third of all recipients of Old Age Assistance in Texas were once supported by their children or by friends.

"The Light of the World is Jesus". Living in this darkened world of war; which was created by hate and jealousies, greed, selfishness. Man's pathway has been darkened. How can he see his way? When the sun goes down in the evening it gets dark. God's Love is the Light for the soul of man. The Church stands in the war torn world as a beacon of light. It will shine as people will let it. If you do not have a church home, you are always welcome at the Little White Church by the side of Road. It is the closest to main street than any church in town. We want to help you. Judge E. L. Pitts Seeks Office of Chief Justice

E. L. PITTS

District Judge E. L. Pitts of the 99th District Court at Lubbock, has announced for the office of Chief Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, 7th District to succeed Chief Justice M. J. R. Jackson, who retires voluntarily next January 1.

Judge Pitts is 53 years old, a native Texan, born in Fannin County. His parents moved to West Texas when he was a child; and he grew to manhood in Palo Pinto County, where he resided until he moved to Northwest Texas some years ago. Judge Pitts' education was received in the public schools, East Texas Normal College, Commerce, Texas, and the University of Texas. Subsequently he taught school; and then he entered the law profession. Before his election as District Judge, he served as County Judge of Lubbock County.

Friends of Judge Pitts are convinced that his education, training, natural ability and twenty years experience as a trial judge qualify him exceptionally well for the position he now seeks. They point out that in his judicial career he has had come before him almost every conceivable type of case; and that he has conducted his courts to achieve prompt, impartial, courteous and satisfactory settlements of the issues involved. Attention is also called to the much study he has given to the new rules of procedure for the Texas Judiciary, and his conviction that the proper application of them will expedite trials to the end that justice will be better served.

Judge Pitts has a record for having participated wholeheartedly in varied civic affairs; and if he has a hobby, it has been working and counseling with young people, particularly boys and girls. Based strictly upon his record, Judge Pitts solicits the support of all voters in the forty-six counties comprising the 7th District, Court of Civil Appeals of Texas, subject to the Democratic Primaries.

What Should You Save To Help?

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The following table issued by the Treasury Department is intended as a savings yardstick for the average income-earner. It suggests how everyone of the 48,000,000 employed persons in the United States may participate in the war effort through the systematic purchase of Defense Savings Bonds.

"The job ahead of us is far bigger than most of us realize," Secretary Morgenthau declared in making the table public. "I know that the American people are ready to do their part to win the war. One of the ways we can do much more is by intensifying our effort in the purchase of Defense Bonds."

While persons without dependents may be able to set aside more than the suggested figures, persons with several dependents, or with other heavy family obligations, may be unable to save at the suggested rate, the Treasury Department pointed out.

MEN OF WAR

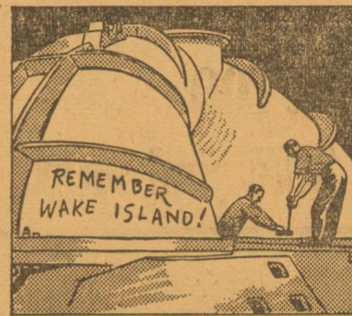

General Electric men and women—thousands of them! Four typical scenes show the spirit with which they are tackling the grim job of producing for war!

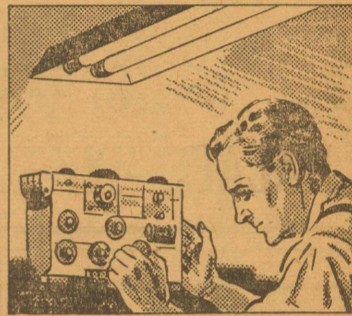

1. Thousands of employees, only ten days after war declaration, gathered in mass meetings in most major G-E plants to pledge all-out war effort!

2. Almost 85 per cent of all General Electric employees signed up to buy U. S. Defense Savings Bonds totalling more than $20,000,000 a year!

3. A sign chalked by a G-E workman on a big machine being built for war. The sign carried this challenge to fellow workers: "Remember Wake Island!"

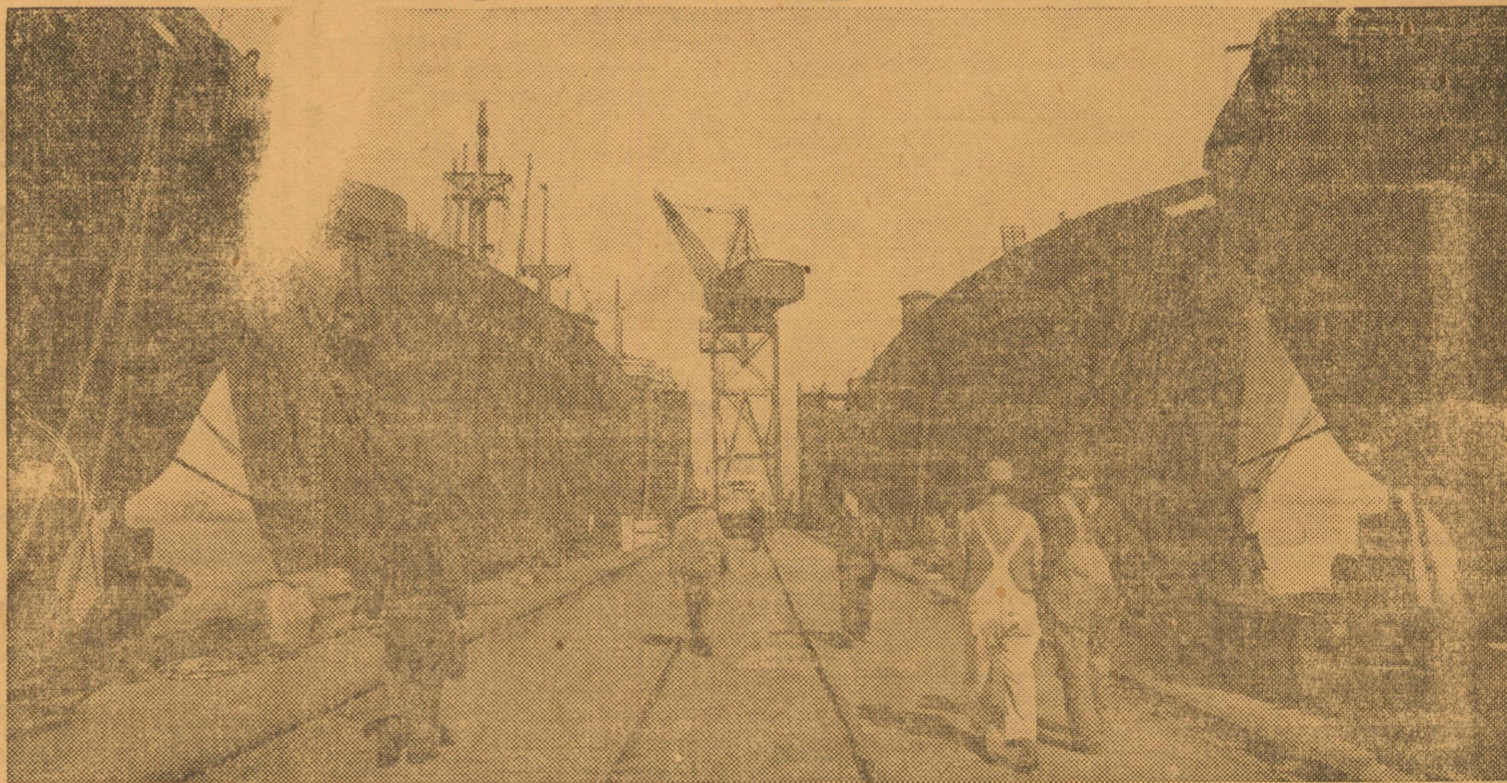

4. And day and night—around the clock—G-E workmen keep steadily at the most important job of building weapons and supplies for U.S. fighting men!

New High in Ship Production

LIBERTY SHIPS BEING FITTED OUT AT A BETHLEHEM YARD PREPARATORY TO SEA SERVICE. THE YARD IS PRODUCING A CONTINUOUS STREAM OF VESSELS OF THIS TYPE.

Bethlehem ship production this year will represent the greatest all-round shipbuilding output by any company in the history of the country.

Speed, speed and more speed is the constant objective; and always speed with quality, for a jerry-built ship is virtually useless in the grim tasks of maritime war.

The first Liberty ship which recently discharged supplies at a Red Sea port was built in a yard that was virtually nonexistent a year ago. A tanker was delivered in 100 days from laying of keel. A battleship will be delivered 14 months ahead of schedule.

Cargo ships are being built in less than one-half the time required in the first World War. Comparable speeding up has been achieved on other types of ships and the schedule is being constantly stepped-up.

Expanding old yards, building new ones, tripling employment in a year's time, training thousands of new men, putting every effective facility to use, adopting pre-assembly and mass production methods—all these spell tonnage and more tonnage, a steadily-mounting output of ships from Bethlehem yards.

All hands are doing their utmost for Victory, working to achieve the maximum for the U. S. Navy and the U. S. Maritime Commission, so that the "bridge of ships" shall be maintained and steadily enlarged.

4-H Club Work Has Long and Glorious History

National 4-H Club Week has a special significance for Texans. The great organization had its official beginning in this state.

The seventy-five thousand Texas 4-H Club boys and girls, the one and a half million members in the United States, and the 4-H members in the democracies of the world might well have the cotton boll weevil as their emblem instead of the four-leaf clover.

It was the boll weevil that brought Dr. Seaman A Knapp to Texas and led him to develop the demonstration idea, upon which the Extension Service operates, and thus brought 4-H Club work into being on its present scale.

The boll weevil was first found in the United States near Brownsville, Texas. That was in 1892.

By 1904 it had extended its range to the more important cotton producing sections of the state and to parts of Louisiana.

As the weevil advanced, ruin and panic followed, and it seemed that the whole cotton industry of Texas and the South would be destroyed. Appeals for aid were sent to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Knapp was sent to Texas to study the situation. His idea was to beat the weevil by crop rotation and diversification; and to teach these measured by the demonstration method—by doing rather than telling.

The first demonstration was set up near Terrell on the farm of W. C. Porter, who planted and cultivated 40 acres of cotton under Dr. Knapp's supervision. When the picking season was over Mr. Porter found he had made a profit of more than $700. More than that, his demonstration had proven that cotton could be grown profitably in spite of boll weevil infestations.

That was in 1903. In a short while Dr. Knapp employed field agents who traveled by rail and in buggies establishing demonstrations. By 1907 a number of county agents had been appointed, and there were thousands of demonstrations in Texas and other southern states.

Meanwhile, in 1889, a county school superintendent named William B. Otwell began distributing seed corn to farm boys in Macoupin County, Illinois. This "corn club" idea soon spread to other midwestern states.

Dr. Knapp saw that if farm boys were to grow other crops besides corn, and take into consideration efficiency in production, it would hasten his better farming program.

The first boys' club to be organized by a county agent was formed by T. M. Marks in Jack County, Texas, in 1908.

In 1910 the first girls' club—a tomato canning group—was organized in Aiken County, South Carolina.

In 1911 O. H. Benson, a county superintendent in Iowa, was called to Washington to assist in club work. He is given credit for the "Head, hand, and heart" part of the 4-H Club slogan. Later O. B. Martin, also a national club leader, added a fourth H, for health, and designed the four-leaf clover emblem.

Martin served as director of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service until his death in 1933.

The present director, H. H. Williamson, served as state club agent from 1912 to 1920. Under his guidance, Texas 4-H Club members began to include livestock, gardening, food preservation, and other projects in their demonstrations.

Throughout the years 4-H Club work has expanded in Texas. Many Texas agricultural practices—for instance—the beef and lamb feeding industry, quality cotton production, and so on, came into general usage because 4-H members proved to their elders that they would pay.

1933 STUDY CLUB

Mrs. Dee McArthur was hostess to the 1933 Study Club which met in the home of Mrs. Thurmond Moore, on April 7, at 3:30 p. m.

After a brief business session, Mrs. C. S. Thompson led the program on "Museums." She was assisted by Mrs. Payne who gave an interesting paper on "The American Museum of Natural History." Mrs. Rose Elkins, a visiting speaker, gave a talk on "Metropolitan Museum of Art" and told many interesting things about her visits to this museum. Mrs. W. C. Starcher then gave a report of the District Convention at Lubbock, which she attended as delegate. This report was both interesting and inspiring.

A delicious salad piece was served to the group, and a social period was enjoyed by all.

SNAKES ALIVE!

Business really picked up for a few minutes last Wednesday at L. A. Pearce caliche pit west of Gail, when a drag line shovel full of caliche—containing 13 live rattlesnakes—was dumped into the bed of a dump truck.

The shovel, of course, happened to bite into a den of the "belly sliders," and had them in the dump truck before a person could say Jack Robinson. Two or three road hands reportedly "took to the brush," while the truck driver, fortunately, was not aware for several minutes of what had happened.

All the rattlers were yellowish-green, indicating that they had not left their winter quarters until the shovel brought them to the light. Road hands stopped long enough to indulge in a good old snake slaying spree.—Scurry Co. Times.

JUST HIS FRANK OPINION

W. J. Elliot, of Spring Creek community, was in Spur the last of the week and stated that he had heard that Bill Hyatt had said that 1942 is to be a dry year. Mr. Elliot remarked that he knew Bill Hyatt was one of the old timers in the country, and had been here many years longer than he had been here. Also, that he thought a great deal of him as a man, but that his opinion of him as a weather prophet was not worth much.

It appears that this fine rain is proof that this year is not starting off so dry.
