POLITICAL AFFAIRS START WARMING UP; CALENDAR TELLS STORY OF EVENTS

Time Has Passed For State And District Candidates To Get Names On Ballot.

Politics as well as the weather is beginning to warm up over Bailey county and with the date for the first primary only a few weeks off, candidates are making their appeals to the voters through the distribution of cards, literature and speeches. Heretofore, there has been very little discussion of the political nature as to the coming election in this immediate territory. In fact, the interest in county offices up to this time has not attracted near the interest that it did two years ago.

Last Monday was the final day for state and district candidates to file requests to have their names put on the ballot. The following political calendar will give practically all information as to dates:

June 9: Meeting of State Executive Committee.

June 14: Last day for county and precinct candidates and district candidates, in districts composed of only one county, to file for places on the ballots.

June 16: County Executive Committee convenes to determine the order of names as placed on ballot, and to estimate expense of election.

June 23: Last day for candidates to pay assessments for their share of expenses incident to holding election.

June 26 to July 1: Candidates must file first report of campaign expenses not more than 30 days nor less than 25 days prior to the date of the primary election.

July 14: The primary committee meets to prepare ballots.

July 16: Time for the voters who are out of the county to make requests for ballots by mail.

July 15 to 22: Time for voters who will be absent from county on date of election to appear before county clerk and vote an absentee ticket.

July 21: Four days prior to date of election, all voters living in a city of 10,000 inhabitants or more, who have moved their residence within of from without the city to the city, must report to the tax collector.

July 24: Day upon which county clerk shall send absentee votes to the presiding judges of the respective voting precincts in the county.

KUSSMEN BEY, RECENT CONTRIBUTOR, DRAWS FIRE

On page four of this issue of The Journal will be found an article, "Cooling the Arden," written under the name of Non Kussem Bey, which has been turned in as an answer to "Consolation" by Kussem Bey of last week. In an interview with a Journal staff reporter Thursday in which Old Kussem was shown a proof of the answer, the Arabian sage merely stroked his chin in a manner that betokened his tribe and said nothing other than indicate that he may be heard from again at a later date.

These items are of interest to some of our local readers only and The Journal is glad to publish such contributions, provided they are of a nature that will not offend, and as space permits. Writers must also be known to this office.

American Legion To Meet Two Days In Slaton, June 14

Slaton, Texas, June 5.—The 184 Texas District of the American Legion will hold a two-day convention in Slaton on June 14 and 15, at which probable attendance of 800 or more Legionnaires and Auxiliary members has been predicted by local Legion officials.

There are 49 Posts in the district, having a combined membership of over 3,400 war veterans. According to reports from the meeting here, including business and entertainment features on both days for the co-service men and their ladies. State Commander "Ozro" Coy and Site Adjutant Bob Whiteaker are expected to be in attendance.

Miniature Golf Course Will Be Operated Here

Muleshoe people will soon have the opportunity to engage in another form of sport. Mrs. R. L. Attkin is this week installing a miniature golf course near the swimming pool at her home. The course will be ready for use the latter part of the week. This new pastime is taking the drizzle in all parts of the country and Mr. Faulkner is sparing no expense to make the local course one of the best.

FIRE MENACES MULESHOES' EIGHTY-THOUSAND-DOLLAR HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

Sudan Firemen Make Record Run To Help Local Boys In Controlling Flames.

Fire, which is thought to have been started by defective wiring, threatened complete destruction of Muleshoe's $80,000 High School building Monday night. Excellent work by the local fire department brought the blaze under control. Immediately after the alarm was turned in at the local station, a call for the Sudan department was made and thirty minutes later they were in Muleshoe. The distance is about 23 miles, and considering the fact that their truck was loaded with equipment and firemen, this was an excellent run. However, the situation was well in hand by the time Sudan arrived.

It was at first thought that the damage would only amount to $3,000, but estimates by building contractors late Tuesday afternoon placed the loss at well above $6,000.

The alarm was turned in at about 10:00 p. m., and within two or three minutes firemen were throwing water on the blaze with two strings of hoses. It is understood that about $1,500 worth of laboratory equipment was lost, besides the damage to walls, floors and other equipment. Firemen were kept on the job all night as it had been difficult to fight out the fire in the walls, and at 1:00 a. m. hose were brought into play again to extinguish another small blaze. Work of repair will start just as soon as possible, according to school officials.

H. L. Kearns Buys Arnold's Interest In Grain Elevator

A deal was consummated the latter part last week whereby H. L. Kearns of Amarillo became owner of the entire stock of the Muleshoe Elevator Company, purchasing the interest of T. E. Arnold.

Mr. Arnold announced last Tuesday that he had not completed his plans for the future. T. E. has been manager of the Muleshoe Elevator here for several years and is well known over this section of the Plains. It is hoped that he decides to remain as a citizen of Muleshoe. Mr. Arnold stated that L. Sikes would take his place here as manager of the Muleshoe and Lariat elevators.

FORMER LAMB COUNTY BANKER CONVICTED OF CHARGE

Post, June 4.—A jury after deliberating ten minutes, returned a verdict of guilty in the case of J. M. Pope, former owner of the Bank of Southland and assessed a penalty of six years in the State penitentiary. The banker was convicted of accepting deposits in a bank he was alleged to have known was insolvent.

Pope's conviction was on one count only, and he will go on trial on six other charges of similar nature. The others will be taken up next October when court convenes.

Seven witnesses for the State were heard in the trial which opened Monday while the defense waived testimony and did not call a single witness.

Next Drawing Will Be Held Saturday, 14th

Considerable interest was shown in the drawing held here last Saturday afternoon in which $75 in cash was given away to people in the territory holding trades day tickets issued by local merchants here.

The next drawing will be held on Saturday, June 14th, in which about $100 in merchandise will be given away. The people over the territory who do not live in Muleshoe are urged to ask for and preserve trades day tickets given by Muleshoe merchants with cash purchases, as valuable prizes are given away here from time to time.

Gauge Records .49 Inch Rainfall Here Monday

The Government gauge here measured .49 inches of rain last Monday afternoon. The rain covered only a small territory extending almost to YL on the north and about four miles south of town. A large per cent of the row crops have not been planted as yet but the next week is likely to see a great part of this work finished, according to information.

Wheat will be considerably shorter in yield here than last season, but in many places the crop will be above the average.

W. T. Elrod Dies Last Week After A Short Illness

The entire community was shocked to hear of the death of one of the county's oldest citizens last Friday. William Traudale Elrod was born in Smith county, Tennessee, November 24, 1862, and departed this life May 30, 1930, at the age of 68 years, 6 months and 5 days. He was married to Miss Cardella Holland October 6, 1887, at Bonham, Texas. To this union were born eight children, five of which survive him. These are Jess and Tom Elrod of San Angelo, Texas; Miss Helen Elrod, Stiles, Texas; Mrs. Cooper Woodburn, Amarillo, Texas, and Bill Elrod of Muleshoe. He is also survived by his wife.

Services were conducted at the Methodist church in charge of Rev. W. B. Hicks and burial was made at Clovis, N. M., Saturday afternoon. The Journal joins with the many friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

Clint Small On Speaking Tour
In West Texas

Leaving Fort Worth Monday morning by airplane, Senator Clint Small will put the week through West Texas in the interest of his campaign for governor emphasizing the issues brought out and adopted in resolutions by the convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which closed at Abilene Saturday.

During this week Small intends to lay great stress upon protection and development of the natural resources of Texas, especially pointing out the necessity of averting adverse legislation.

"The section of West Texas that I will visit this week," the Senator said, "is Texas' richest section in natural resources, and, of course, citizens out there are and should be greatly tapped and some of them are in an undeveloped stage, although in enormous quantities, especially the potash interested. These resources are hardly and sulphur deposits, which, if developed would return untold millions of dollars to Texas and make the present census figures look small.

"I am in favor of a fair tax all around, but not to the extent of keeping the state in the background. We need more payrolls and more jobs. West Texas is accord with a program of development, and all of us should join together for this. It means economical progress and should not be made a political football.

COMBINATION OF CATTLE AND SHEEP ON RANGE PROFITABLE

That some ranchmen of the Edwards Plateau grazing area of Texas have an opportunity to more than double their net income per section by a full utilization of the carrying capacity of their ranches, through the use of cattle, sheep and goats properly combined, is shown in a study of physical and economic factors affecting the organization and management of ranches in the Edwards Plateau grazing area comprising approximately 25,000,000 acres of land. This study was made by the Texas Experiment Station in cooperation with the Bureau of Agricultural Economics and Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture and consisted of a detailed study of 31 ranches over a period of four years.

Physical factors, such as soil, climate and vegetation, set fairly definite limits within which changes in proportions of cattle, sheep and goats can be made without injury to the range. Within these limits prices likely to prevail for different classes of animals should determine the proportions of each class from year to year.

Dallas Lady Eagerly Endorses New Medicine—Found Relief After Other Medicines Failed.

MRS. F. L. BETHEL

"For four years my system was in a rundown condition and for the past eight months stomach and kidney disorders have caused me much suffering," said Mrs. F. L. Bethel, 406 Avondale Street, Liberty Heights, Dallas. "Gas formed after each meal and I had a burning sensation from my throat to the pit of my stomach. My kidneys were sore and did not function properly. I had pains across my back, and I was steadily losing in weight and strength."

"I finally decided to try Konjola and this medicine has put me back on the road to health. I am no longer troubled with the stomach condition. My vitality and general health have improved immensely, and I am free from those terrible pains in my back. I sleep soundly at night and my whole system has taken on new life."

When taken for six to eight weeks, Konjola, the new and different medicine, will work wonders that will astonish those who suffer from the ills of stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and of rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness.

Konjola is sold in Muleshoe at McCarty drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR
By JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.

SELF-DRUGGING

It grows on people—the habit of "taking something" for every little discomfort they happen to feel. Self-doing is never the wise thing to do; you would not employ a physician to treat you who made no pretense to any knowledge of treating the sick or indisposed; now, would you? Then why do it yourself?

A diagnosis of any indisposition is necessary before any sort of intelligent treatment can be instituted. Even the intelligent physician may be puzzled over the actual cause of a given complaint, often a comparatively trivial, yet a very annoying thing. Not long ago I met a lady who had spent over $500 on a peculiar neuralgic headache without more than temporary relief; she had taken every variety of headache tablets that she heard of—seriously impairing her blood and weakening her heart very perceptibly; I suggested examining her nasal passages and sinuses; "O, there's nothing wrong and cause; "O, there's nothing wrong there—I have no catarrh," she insisted.

Nevertheless a few treatments to reduce the swollen turbinates cured the headache.

Many elderly men in the western section of our country are sure they have "prostate trouble." They hear their symptoms accurately described daily over the radio, by the advertising miracle worker; they hear the promise of absolute cure by a simple operation—they make their own diagnosis, and drug themselves frantically without benefit; they accept the fakir's 'simple operation,' paying for it in advance with all the money they can scrape together; they reason that, if the quack were not honest, the government would not permit him to broadcast his balley-oo! A nasty mess, isn't it? They do broadcast just the same; we are so busy trying to avoid foreign entanglements that we haven't time to protect our people from fraud!

Several men have recently lost lives because of their own gullibility, according to newspaper reports, in one of our western states.

IN PRAISE OF EARTHWORMS

If the earthworms were to publish a magazine, some dramatic success would be recorded.

It would tell, for example, of the remarkable career of John G. Worm. Born of humble parents, in dark surroundings, he managed by his own effort to push himself up to the surface. There he was spied by Fortune in the form of a robin, which snatched him high into the clouds. His moment of elevation was brief, but while it lasted the vision was splendid.

It would tell of Frederick L. Worm, who was working along quietly one day when an upheaval tossed him to fame and glory. Success was attained by pain, as is often the case. He was impaled upon a fishhook and carried away to be immersed in a strange element. There his life ended, but not before he had done the biggest job ever achieved by any member of his family. The fortune he landed devoured him, but it was a big fortune.

To the other worms these stories might be discouraging. "Fame is for the few," they would say. "Nothing ever happens to us. We just stir around awhile and die."

It would surprise them to know that a book was written about worms by the great scientist Darwin. Their surprise would be intensified if they were to learn that this book makes no mention of the exceptional members of their tribe. The few worms that are carried into the clouds, or succeed in landing big fish, are dismissed by him as of small importance.

But the great mass of unknown worms, who spend their whole lives beneath the surface of observation, he calls as the most important creatures in the world.

If for one year they should cease their industrious digestion of the leaf mold and their incessant stirring of the ground, no crops would grow, and animals and men would die.

I think that Darwin's book on earthworms should be a part of all education, along with the inspiring biographies of the great. It would tend to teach us humility. We human beings who walk so proudly as monarchs of the world—what are we, anyway? Beneficiaries of the worms, without whose life we could not live a year.

As for fame, it is stimulating, and lifts the spirit of the crowd. But shall we despair because to most of us it is denied?

Beneath the surface life is carried forward by the sustained loyalty of the mass. And who shall doubt that there are purposes as far beyond our reckoning as our lives—which they make possible—are beyond the vision of worms.

The Very Latest

By MARY MARSHALL

The actual money spent on clothes is of less significance with children than it is with grown women—so much depends on color and contour of the clothes selected and on their spic and span spotlessness and neatness.

Some mothers don't care whether their small daughters appear well dressed or not. Some mothers would rather not have their young daughters well dressed for fear their tender young minds might become preoccupied with thoughts of clothes. But most sensible mothers take a real pleasure in having their children well turned out and feel that they owe it to them to provide clothes in which they may appear to the best advantage.

The older ones grows the more one stands in need of costly fabrics and fine workmanship to achieve distinction. The plainest of serge or flannel, of gingham or calico answers the purpose for younger girls, and the rules for achieving distinction are comparatively simple.

There should be a definite and simple color scheme. The hat and other accessories should always be related in color to the wrap or dress. Everything should be as neat as possible, and free from wrinkles. Skirt hems should be carefully adjusted so that they are neither too long nor too short.

The little girl's ensemble, shown here, consists of a navy blue coat with red and blue printed silk dress, and a red straw hat with blue and red feathers. With it are worn navy blue oxfords.

TEXAS DEER FALLING PREY TO COUGAR, TRAPPER SAYS

Texas has been guarding deer from human hunters only to find that predatory animals are killing more deer than hunters could hope to slay.

C. R. Landon, director of predatory animal control for the federal government in Texas, reports finding 100 carcasses on one ranch, unmistakably killed by cougars.

Robert Snow of Raymondville has a pack of dogs hunting the cougars in Webb and LaSalle counties, and a trapper is at work in Willacy county.

Trappers are also trying to reduce the number of coyotes in Hudspeth county as they are held responsible for the failure of antelope to increase in that territory.

"I hear they're starting a new campaign against malaria." "Good heavens! What have the Malarials done now?"—Exchange.

THANKS, SUDAN

About the best thing we know of is a friend or friends who are ready and willing to assist in time of need. Friends of this kind are worth while and should be appreciated above all things.

Monday night, when the fire alarm sounded and it was learned that our High School was threatened with destruction, an urgent call was sent to Sudan for help. Those Sudan boys hung up a record in answering that call making the long run to Muleshoe in thirty minutes. Although the fire was under control when they arrived, it showed that their hearts were on the "right side." Muleshoe people want the citizens of Sudan to know that in case of a like emergency they are at your command.

And it wouldn't be fair not to speak a good word for the local fire boys. They were certainly on the job Monday night, as they are at all times, and as usual, did some work that would be a credit to a city department. Within three minutes from the time the alarm started, they were throwing water on the flames. The fact that not a single fire has gotten beyond control in over two years is something. The largest percent of the fires have been stopped with only slight damage done to the buildings. There are a few items of equipment that the boys need in order to give better protection to the property owners, it is understood, and these property owners should see that this equipment is furnished. The cost would be small and there are plenty of ways in which the money could be raised so that it would not work a hardship on anyone. Let us suggest that something be done about it.

Texas is among the ten leading salt producing states of the Union. Nearly all the production comes from Grand Saline and Palestine.

Cooling the Ardor

BY NON CUSSEUM BEY

In a late issue of The Journal we read an article by Kussman Bey on "Consolation," in regard to a night's outing, strip poker and marriage. The author is evidently well versed on the ways of the world, and no doubt he has traveled over the entire area of Bailey county, being familiar with the game of strip poker. According to his version he has been victim at some strip poker party, and was in great need of a barrel. He being so well informed that another incident easily brought this to his mind.

Dismissing strip poker for the present, let us get to our subject. The writer has been informed by high authority that the cooling of ardor has prevented many a case in the divorce court, making other love sick swains ask themselves another question well to be considered, namely: "Am I physically able to, and sport enough to allow my friends to help me make merry at the occasion?" If he is not, he will forsake the weaker sex and return to the ways of the world. As far as the method used, that is of no concern at this time. In the recent event it happened a barrel, swimming pool and other accessories were close at hand, hence their use in the procedure.

We notice also his article commences with a jug of wine. It seems as though he is unable to dismiss alcohol from his mind and remember that the Eighteenth amendment has been in effect for a number of years. It is reasonable that wine and strip poker go hand in hand down the road of destruction. Needless to comment further on their use in this article.

He proceeds further with the assertion that other matrimonial ventures are close at hand, this being the specified month of June. No doubt his nuptials were performed in the month of June. The writer would be thrilled to get married in any other month with no thought of the frigid state of the water, namely December or January.

But let us return to this article as a whole. It has come to our ears that this is not the whole, but only a part of the criticism of the night above mentioned. Those howling such comment, strange to say, are individuals who are in no way interested. The parties most concerned are physically able, and sports enough to share the joy and leave the censure of the affair to non-interested parties. For this they do not need consolation, but deserve the highest praise. They are to be congratulated on their principles and foresight. We beg that this practice be not stopped, but continued with vim, vigor and vitality. Hurrah for the hoodlums! May their spirit never die.

ALONG MAIN STREET

A conversation took place Monday afternoon on the Main drag that was overheard by "Old Baldy" himself and as it struck me as very funny, I thought it well worth a wad of paper and some ink.

The parties interested were a couple of popular young ladies and a popular young man—the conversation ran like this:

P. Y. L. Oh, we have a holiday again tomorrow.

P. Y. M. Yeah, what's the big racket this time?

P. Y. L. Jefferson's birthday.

P. Y. M.—Yeah?

One P. Y. L.—Who was Jeff Davis?

Other P. Y. L.—President of the United States.

P. Y. M.—Lots of laughter and doubtful A.H.

One P. Y. L.—Well, he was too. He wrote the Declaration of Independence.

Other P. Y. L.—Why! He did not, dummy, Abraham Lincoln wrote it.

Doctors think the young man will recover.

R. L. Brown and Miss Helen Bearden were in Plainview Thursday afternoon in regard to the census checkup for this county. As yet no report has been made in Bailey except for Muleshoe. Re-checking is now being made.

New Service Policy

wins nationwide approval

On January 1st of this year, the Chevrolet Motor Company announced a new service policy—the most liberal ever offered in connection with a low-priced automobile.

Immediately it was greeted with enthusiasm by Chevrolet buyers everywhere—because its many unusual features materially add to the economy and lasting satisfaction of Chevrolet ownership. Briefly, it provides——for free inspection and adjustment at the 500-mile mark, and free inspections every 1000 miles thereafter.

—for free replacement of any material—including both parts and labor—that may prove defective, within the terms of the standard warranty.

—that this replacement will be carried out by any Chevrolet dealer in the United States—regardless of where the owner may have traveled during the warranty period.

Backing this policy is one of the largest service organizations in the automotive industry—consisting of over 10,000 authorized Chevrolet dealer service stations in the United States alone. Come in! Learn all the other reasons why it's wise to choose a Chevrolet Six!

POISONED ARROWS

The American Indian seldom used a shield in battle. But when he knew his adversaries were using poisoned arrows he took precautions against their deadly missiles.

The American citizen is daily exposed to attacks more deadly than the venom that tipped any arrow-head of frontier days. The fly that comes from the barn lot and alights upon your sugar bowl, bringing filth with him; and the mosquito from the swamp that may carry germs of dreaded fevers—these are the poisoned arrows against which you should shield your family with good screening.

We supply good screens for your protection.

International Sunday School Lesson

For June 6
JESUS IN THE SHADOW OF THE CROSS

Matthew 26:31-46
Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

Three things are to be in mind in preparing the lesson study for this week. Two days are being observed. One is Children's Day and the lesson will probably be omitted in the Schools but will be followed as usual by the members of the Home Department, and to them special greetings are extended. Second, the entire series of incidents covering all day Thursday should be followed. Begin with the journey from Bethany for the last time. The Passover was observed in the upper room in Jerusalem, and there are numerous incidents there for meditation. The room used probably belonged to Mary, and her son John Mark was the man bearing the pitcher of water who became the guide of those who went in advance to prepare the feast. Note how the disciples avoided the washing of feet and this was attended to by Jesus. Judas was given a last opportunity of repenting but he left before the Lord's supper was instituted. Then there is the wondrous table talk as recorded in John 14:15-18, and followed by the truly called Lord's Prayer in chapter 17.

Thirdly, this very day marks the 1900th anniversary of the Descent of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost, and the whole Christian Church has been teaching and preaching with reference to this day for months past. Every experience of the Holy Spirit can be repeated and renewed. The statement is as true as ever, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts," Zechariah 4:6. The disciples waited in prayer for ten days in that upper room in Jerusalem. Then Peter preached with spiritual power and the record of 3,000 conversions is found in Acts 2.

On the way from the Upper Room in Jerusalem, on that moonlight night, Jesus sought to tell the disciples that awful times for all were close at hand. The crucifixion was again declared but they were likewise advised of the resurrection. We always have abundant promises in advance of great calamity so that we can be strengthened meanwhile by the assurance of hope. Peter was over bold in declaring that nothing could check his loyalty, but he failed, repeatedly, before the day dawned. First was the experience in the Garden of Gethsemane, where Jesus went for a special season of personal prayer. He invited Peter, James and John to be near in friendly companionship, all three fell asleep three times while Jesus was in the midst of His agony in a deeper part of the Garden. The real crisis was met by our Saviour in His lonely vigil rather than when He was helpless in the hands of the soldiers on the way to or on the cross. Our greatest victories are also wrought out when we are alone and fight our way through to a conclusion of "I will" or "I will not," as the case may be.

Jesus was not trying to avoid the cross, but rather was concerned lest He fail physically before the work of Atonement could be completed. Jesus' attitude in prayer must be ours also if we make our petitions safe ones for our own good. In boldness of faith and with full confidence in His Heavenly Father, He said "Not my will, but Thine be done." One of the most impressive paintings in the whole realm of Christian art is "Christ in Gethsemane," by Hoffman. This should be part of the wall adornment in every Sunday School. Copies can be purchased from a few cents up to as many dollars.

In calmness of perfect faith Jesus came for the third time to the sleeping trio and said "Arise, let us be going; behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me." He is indeed taken man's low place and voluntarily was advancing to pay the penalty for the sins of the world.

Work To Begin Soon On New Hotel At Clovis

Clovis, N. M.—With all legal steps necessary to clear the title to the property completed before schedule time, June 1, it is expected that preliminary work on the new Clovis-Southwest Hotel, Inc. property will be started right away.

Location for the new hostelry will be at Sixth and Main, on a site next to the First Methodist church. The lots will be 100 to 140 feet, fronting on Main Street.

Frank Campbell, of Chickasha, Okla., will be the hotel builder. The plans call for a 100 room structure, seven stories high, with the lobby, a coffee shop, sample rooms and several stores on the first floor. Offices and reception rooms will be on the second floor. There will be two dining rooms, the main one on the first floor with a private dining room seating 200 on the second floor.—Ex.

TOM BLANTON AGAIN IN BIG FIGHT AT WASHINGTON

Press reports Tuesday tell of Firey Tom Blanton, veteran of many congressional disputes as he came back to his seat in the House to find new troubles awaiting him. The Texas Democrat took the oath after a week's delay to receive his election credentials, but immediately after his induction, a resolution was offered calling for investigation of charges he had made in political advertising in his campaign. The Texan charged, it is said, that "bad bills every kind pass without reading."

TECH ENROLLMENT WILL BE LARGEST IN HISTORY

Virtually assured by press of registration exigencies that this summer's enrollment would exceed that of any previous year, Texas Technological college authorities announced Tuesday that registration figures would not be available before the latter part of the week.

Classes opened Tuesday morning, following registration Monday. Corridors of the administration building were crowded throughout the day and college officials express belief that a gratifying enrollment will be revealed.

DICKENS COUNTY MAN MAKES GOOD WITH POULTRY FLOCK

Spur—There's money in eggs if you know how to get them out of the hens. Take the case of Jessie Higgins, as reported by E. L. Tanner, county agent.

Jessie had 180 hens and he fed them 750 pounds of mash during April. The eggs he got netted him 24 cents per hen above feed costs, or $43.50.

Cost per dozen was 61 cents and Higgins received 20 cents per dozen. Feed costs amounted to $20.17 for the month.

County Agent Tanner reports the day's schedule as follows: feeds the hens some grain after arising at 6 a. m., fills feed hoppers and gives fresh water in five 5-gallon buckets; lets hens out of house at 9 o'clock. At noon he refills the feed hoppers and puts out fresh water. An hour before sundown he repeats the operation. During April he averaged 21.8 eggs per hen per month.

TELEVISION SETS WILL BE IN VOGUE THIS YEAR

Atlantic City, N. J.—Little receivers, not much more than knee high, some of them even smaller will greet radio fans this year. Vying with the first trade show display of television apparatus by two manufacturers, an apparent trend toward a decrease in the size of the receiver console was apparent at the opening of the annual pre-season exhibition and convention of radio manufacturers association.

Three feet is the average height of the new set, with the design intended to fit into the small apartment.

Television for the experimenter as well as early models of commercial sound and sight receivers mark the initial presentation of such apparatus to the trade. The display ranged from kits which could be assembled to reproduce pictures from the air when connected by a receiver to an elaborate outfit that contained loudspeaker, broadcast set, picture reproducer and its accompanying short wave receiver.

PATHFINDER

THE QUALITY TIRE

within the reach of all

"Buy it," says your own good judgment

"Buy it again," says your speedometer

Your first look at a Pathfinder tells you it's a tire to command respect on any car.

You see strength and toughness and traction written all over its husky tread—you see comfort and cushion in the generous fatness of its sidewalls.

You don't have to read the greatest name in rubber on those sidewalls, to know it's a real tire by every standard. It probably doesn't surprise you a bit to learn that the body of this tire is built of the famous cord material, Supertwist.

But you will be surprised to learn the price—because it is so low that few tires of any kind can beat it. Alert Goodyear dealers feature Pathfinder prices—they know that's a great way to win customers and friends.
