PROSPECTS WERE NEVER BRIGHTER

FOR A BUMPER CROP IN THE LUBBOCK COUNTRY, BOTH FRUIT AND FARM CROPS ARE PROMISING AND

DEVELOPMENT ALONG ALL LINES CONTINUES UNABATED

Evidences Of Early Spring Gives Hope For A Successful Year And Recent Heavy Rainfalls Have Placed the Ground in Fine Condition For Farming Operations.

The Plains country is starting out with a very flattering prospect for a successful fruit, garden and farm crop.

Within the past week this section has had an abundance of rain and the grass is growing at a lively clip. It will not be long until range cattle will be picking up and the fruit crop will be one of the best ever raised, provided it escapes a late frost.

Easter comes early this spring and we are all hopeful that the fruit and early garden truck will not be hurt.

One of the best features connected with farming in this part of the country is found in the fact that one good season insures a crop and we have the season. The many new farms that have been put in cultivation during this season, will fully repay the farmers for all work necessary to their cultivation.

It is reasonably expected that this will be the banner crop year of the south Plains and thereby prove to the world beyond dispute that the plains is a success as a farming investment.

In the fullness of time the plains will be developed into the garden spot of the state. All that is essential to accomplish this is a little time on the part of the people who are engaged in the undertaking.

The Lubbock territory is in the development van. Everybody is awake to the needs of the hour and all are pulling toward the goal.

The great spirit of unity that is apparent to all who come this way is one of the greatest inducements that could possibly be offered to settlers.

Mankind loves the spirit of brotherhood and it finds its fullest deepest meaning in the Lubbock land. Keep up the fight for a bigger, better, broader Lubbock. Crop conditions are ideal. Stock wintered well and everybody is happy and prosperous. Tell it to the outside world. Invite them to come to the feast of good things this country reverts in. Help Lubbock grow.

W. C. T. U.

Mrs. S. P. STUBBS, Editor

Mrs. Farris who was sent as a delegate to the State Convention at Lubbock, reports a very interesting time. One of the most interesting features of the convention was the forbidding of the White Ribboners who spoke of having an enthusiastic union in Austin. Mrs. Farris is herself a White Ribboner, one of our very own.

Christian women of America, all things are yours; not an isolated passage from God's word; not the things of Paul or of Apollas or of Cephas, only; but all the light; all the opportunity; all the breath and all the accumulated wisdom of by-gone ages all the inspiring examples of past and present generations, as well as all the responsibilities resultant therefrom. All these are yours by divine right, to appropriate, and by which to profit. All these are yours to use for your own advancement in thought and purpose, as well as for your enlarged sphere of action and usefulness. Heed the voice of none who cry "thus far, and no farther."

The day is not distant, said an eminent Baptist clergyman, "when that person will be looked upon as a curious fossil, who shall ask what sex one is, when there is any work to be done in either church or state."

NON-ALCOHOLIC MEDICATION
The question is frequently asked "what shall I take instead of wine, beer, brandy, or other alcoholic liquors when I am advised to use some one of these as a remedy in illness?" The question implies that liquor is a valuable aid in combating disease, but principle forbids its use if any other agency will as well meet the case.

This query and its implication show lack of knowledge of the teachings of non-alcoholic physicians who have repeatedly stated that in most ailments alcohol is not only useless, but positively harmful. Its reputation as a curative agency resting solely upon its narcotic nature. It is the power of alcohol to deaden sensation which has led to all the popular delusions regarding it, both as food and medicine. The patient does not feel the same uneasy sensations after taking it as before, hence he thinks he is better. He does not know that the cessation of uneasiness results from the benumbing of his capacity for feeling.

Physicians as well as laity, have been deluded by this deceptive drug, because until recently its nerve deadening nature was not recognized, and instead of being classed as a narcotic it was spoken of almost universally as a stimulant. But modern investigators in medical science have by careful experiments learned that the operation of this drug in the human body is really the exact opposite of the common supposition regarding it.

It is said to warm, yet it has been thoroughly demonstrated that it reduces the temperature. It is said to strengthen, yet its action on muscle is known to be enfeebling, its seeming strength giving, being only a dulling of the sense of fatigue. It is said to stimulate the heart to action, yet it only creates a flutter, while decreasing power. Being a nerve deadener it is by its very nature a deceiver. By quieting a patient both physician and friends may be led to think the condition of the sick one is improved, when great danger is really present, because the symptoms of disease are hidden that should be revealed.

Those medical men and women who have abandoned the use of alcohol in their practice have not been led to such action because of any "temperance fanaticism," but because they are satisfied that disease is more readily subdued when there is no alcohol in the blood.

It is true however, that the doctor who is a total abstainer, is more likely to abjure liquor in treating his patients than is the drinking doctor, for his faculties being free from the benumbing influence of the drug are clearer to note its effects. As independence of thought and action are necessary to stepping out from a beaten path, even total abstinence doctors are not all ready as yet, to lay aside a drug commonly craved and popularly believed in.

A sufficient number have asserted their independence in this matter, to fully demonstrate that the disuse of alcohol in sickness results in a much smaller mortality and that a person is in more danger of dying who takes this drug than if he lets it entirely alone.

Members of the W. C. T. U. and other temperance workers need have no fear that their own lives or the lives of their dear ones will be jeopardized by a refusal to take liquor.

W. H. M. ENTERTAINS

The Woman's Home Mission Society gave a reception to the members of the Methodist Church and their friends last Friday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Sanders. The color scheme of purple and gold, the society, was carried out in the reception hall, parlor and dining room. Mrs. Sanders' home as well adopted for entertaining lends itself easily to decoration.

Owing to the inclement weather the well arranged program could not be carried out, but those fortunate enough to be present, enjoyed the music and solos furnished by Mesdames Claxton, Robert, Pierce and Patterson.

Mrs. Judge Beatty, in her usual graceful manner, gave a splendid reading which was very much enjoyed.

Altogether it was one of the most enjoyable events of recent date and we regret that many were kept from attending.

Special credit is due Mrs. Slaton and her efficient committee for the success of the occasion, and the society returns thanks to Mrs. Sanders for the use of her pleasant home and her untiring efforts as a hostess on this occasion.

We hope this is only one of many such receptions to be given by this society this year.

The Millinery World

Last Saturday and Monday the millinery establishments of Lubbock held their formal spring millinery openings and enjoyed a splendid trade both days. The different stores were thronged with visitors who purchased as well as "saw."

The fashion editor of this paper is not well versed in millinery phrases and is not very good authority on hattry, but we believe the hats this season are prettier than last and yet they are not what we would have them if our opinion had been asked in time to have changed the design. The milliners of Lubbock are certainly on to their job however and many Lubbock ladies went home Saturday night and Monday night with a smile of genuine happiness after having selected one of the prettiest and most expensive headgears that the tasteful milliner could produce.

Everything in Lubbock must succeed and the millinery openings this year are no exception to the rule.

Old Settlers' Meeting

The old settlers of the Lubbock section of the Plains are requested to meet at the court house Saturday afternoon, April 2, at 2 o'clock. It is urged that all be present as it is the intention of the meeting to form an old settlers' association. Every person who has been on the Plains for a period of fifteen years or more will be eligible to membership.

This is a good move on the part of the old settlers as it will have a tendency to cement ties of friendship and harmony among our citizenship and prove a great lever in the march of advancement to bigger and better things in the Lubbock section.

Remember the date and be sure to make a good showing.

J. B. Stokes a prosperous business man of Gail, spent Monday in Lubbock visiting relatives and seeing the city. This was his first visit to Lubbock and he expressed himself as being very much surprised at the substantial and city like appearance and believes there is a very bright future for Lubbock.

LUBBOCK'S FIRST IMMIGRANT TRAIN

CAME IN LAST WEEK AND BROUGHT A CROWD OF VERY ENTHUSIASTIC PROSPECTORS TO LUBBOCK.

MANY LARGE DEALS ARE NOW PENDING HERE

The Special Train Was Met With A Sufficient Number of Autos To Take The Crowd Over The Country and Every Attention Was Shown for Their Comfort.

The enterprising citizens of Lubbock had the pleasure of handling their first train load of home seekers last week.

There was nearly a hundred people in the party and it was a pleasant sight to see them coming down the streets in auto's furnished by the citizens for the occasion.

This party was a representative lot of farmers from the north, many of them being from the far north, some being from Michigan, and they were very enthusiastic over the reception accorded them at this place. Every courtesy was extended to make their stay pleasant and they had an opportunity to see the town and also a large part of the farming country.

There was no deals closed with them while here but a number of negotiations were entered into and it is expected that many deals will be closed in the future.

K. P. Newton Dies

J. C. Newton of this county received the sad intelligence of the death of his father, K. P. Newton, which occurred last Friday afternoon. He did not receive the message in time to catch the Saturday morning train, so did not get to attend the funeral of his deceased parent.

Mr. Newton died at the home of one of his married daughters in Robertson County, Texas, where he had been visiting for several weeks, and while there became seriously ill with typhoid fever, from which he died within a few days.

Mr. Newton was a former resident of this county, having moved there from Tennessee several years ago, afterwards returning to Taylor county where he purchased land near Trent and had made that his home about two years. Deceased was 70 years of age. He was an ex-Confederate soldier and a lifelong member of the Methodist Church, and lived a life that was a shining light to others to follow in his footsteps. He was a man who was loved and highly respected by those who knew him. He is survived by the following children: J. C. Newton of Lubbock, Mesdames E. D. Massey and C. R. Elkins and Miss Lucy Newton of Trent, Mrs. E. E. Caskey of Beck Prairie and Mrs. G. H. Faulk of Covert.

The remains were shipped to Trent and buried beside that of his wife who preceded him to the Better World less than a year ago.

The Avalanche offers the bereaved ones its sympathy.

Singing Convention

We want every singing class in the great south Plains country to meet and elect their delegates to meet with the great South Plains Singing Convention which meets with the Prairieview class in DeSoto county, at Prairie View school house, on the Floydada and Dickens City road about 6 miles southeast of Wake and just up on the Plains.

Singers get busy to pick your own convention on the last day of April at 2 o'clock and on the first day of May.

The excursionists were very much taken with the climatic conditions and were surprised to see the grass growing and trees budding out everywhere. It was a very different spectacle from what they knew existed in the north at this time and the contrast made a lasting impression.

Much good will accrue from their knowledge of this section, gotten at first hand, and the more of this class of men we can secure for the Lubbock country the better. They are live wires, every one of them, and they left here feeling that the Lubbock people are a fine lot.

Many train loads of homeseekers will be brought into the plains country this year and with proper regard for their welfare being exercised it is a safe guess to say that many of them will be induced to settle. Let the good work continue. They are needed.

Western Windmill Building

The Western Windmill Co. have purchased two lots on South Cedar street, occupied by the Orpheum Theater and the Enterprise office and will begin the erection of a one story brick building of fifty by one hundred feet.

It is the intention of this company to begin the erection as soon as preliminary arrangements can be completed and in connection with the main building they will also erect a warehouse of fifty by one hundred and fifteen feet, to the rear of the main building.

The Western Windmill Company have a number of stores in the Plains country and they are a very progressive bunch of business men. They never fall behind in any move looking to the advancement of the territory as well as the business interests in putting in the present structures here they are keeping up their well established custom along these lines.

From information at hand it seems that many other substantial business houses will be built in Lubbock within this year. Let's have them. They are needed and every one of them will prove a paying investment.

Brownfield News

From the Herald:

Since the death of Mr. C. W. Dickinson, four cases of pneumonia have developed in that bereaved home. The eldest son, Berlin, having taken at his father's burial at Lubbock and has been in the Sanitarium there ever since. Three of the children at home have the same dread disease, the second boy, Don, still being very low.

Messrs Tisdale and Taylor left one day this week for Lubbock, where they will purchase lumber for Mr. Taylor's new residence.

Mrs. Geo. DeShazo went to Lubbock Wednesday to visit friends and relatives.

J. W. DeShazo of Lubbock, a member of the firm of J. W. DeShazo & Company, of Brownfield and Lubbock, came down with a party of Plainview drummers this week to take a look at Brownfield. Mr. DeShazo said we had a nice little city surrounded by a fine country and believed there were great things in store for it.

MAY TRADE ISLAND FOR LAND

Reported State Department Is Negotiating Settlement of Chamizal Question.

El Paso, Tex., March 15.—No decision has been made in Chamizal territory. San Antonio street divides El Paso in the center from north to south. On the south of San Antonio street, toward the river, running parallel with the river like San Antonio street, lie Overland street and then First to Eleventh streets, the latter being on the river bank. The only territory claimed by Mexico is from Seventh street south to Eleventh street and the river, the Chamizal strip being only four blocks wide.

There are no houses of importance on any of it, most of them being adobe shacks, occupied by Mexicans.

News from Washington says the state department may trade San Elizario Island for a settlement of this strip. The island is not in dispute. It lies on the Mexican side of the river thirty miles below El Paso, but the boundary is marked with monuments by the international commission showing it to be Texas property.

If the government should surrender the island it would be merely trading a piece of land not in dispute to settle the title to the land in dispute. About 300 farmers live on the island.

Objects to so Much 'Dixie'

Denver Col., March 15. Denouncing American bands and other musical organizations for their practice of giving "Dixie" the preference over "The Star Spangled Banner" when playing in public places, John W. Wingate, department commander of the G. A. R. of Colorado and Wyoming, declared that "vigilance is the price of liberty and we and our sons must never let that song wriggle in as the national air."

This opinion of Commander Wingate was delivered at a reception given him this week by the members of Byron L. Carr post in their hall.

The commander is making a tour of the state and there were about 300 members of the post with their wives and members of the ladies' auxiliaries.

Mr. Wingate will find that old "Dixie" is just about as popular and inspiring to the people in general as most any other song and as a rule it is with pleasure that it is listened to wherever played.

The Key to Success

Andrew Carnegie is right in saying that the first goal of a wage-earner in saving should be to acquire $1000. Virtually all rich men who have given their testimony on the subject agree on this point.

Another point which Mr. Carnegie makes, and upon which there is a consensus of opinion among men of his class, is that money grows surprisingly fast after the first $1,000 is acquired. Money grows while a man sleeps, while all the man gets who has not capital and does manual or clerical labor is what he earns while he is awake. One of America's richest men declared that he owed his fortune to the possession of a cow. A man who worked for himself, he said, was merely a laborer, but a man plus a cow was a capitalist. As this fact developed into his inner-consciousness it aroused the desire for ownership of other productive properties, and in a surprisingly short time he grew rich. Even the small capital of $1,000, used with care and good judgment, has rendered many a man independent of work with his hands, besides growing steadily in the capital to be invested.

The great trouble, however, with most persons is an overweening desire to live in a social way beyond their means. They will wear expensive clothes, when cheaper ones would answer every purpose of their condition just as well, and they persist in giving social entertainments whose only return is that their so-called friends criticize and despise them for living beyond their means. All human philosophy assents to this, and yet people continue in the social extravagance which brings down upon them envy and contempt of their guests and inevitably keeps their own noses to the grindstone, often ending in substantial degradation and ruin. The surest way to command the respect and regard of others is to live in a manner that will earn it, and besides, this is the shortest and truest road to prosperity. The person who lives within his means, pays his debts and widens the circle of his influence by his personal worth of character is surest in the end to enjoy more and more abiding friendships founded on true respect and to become a leader in a higher class of acquaintances. In brief this has been the story of most great men's lives, whether their goal was the accumulation of wealth or of political power and rank. The only difference is, some have been denied the fellowship of friends in their youth, while others have enjoyed this inestimable boon from the beginning; all have commanded it in its fullest sweetness in the end. And, after all, in most cases the friendships of youth are flimsy and fleeting in their character, becoming as dreams half forgotten before life has reached its maturity, for the reason that they have no foundation in solid character, while the respect and regard of one's fellows won in the ripeness of time and based upon thoughtful appreciation are sure and lasting. Like the birds of the air, whose matings are often for life, the springtime of youth is best spent in building the nest which shall afford a lasting home for the enjoyment of the solid happiness which comes later to all who have been prudent and provident.

To the man who saves his first $1,000 while he is young and his productive capacity is at its greatest, the rest, as Mr. Carnegie justly observes, will come easy later on. No young man should become discouraged by disappointments and failures. Failure is but the spur which tests character and ultimately confers greater speed in accomplishment. Amarillo Daily News.

High Living; Plain Thinking

The Christian Register: The days of plain living and high thinking are in the past. It is now high living and plain thinking. The transposition of this sentence changes the meaning of the word "plain." Much of the thinking of the present day is not plain, but confused, some of it debased; but the mark we are aiming at is the fact that high living—that is, expensive living, living that is needlessly so—is one cause of the high prices of which such bitter complaint is made. It is a fact well known to those who are versed in culinary science that the food that is thrown away every day in a city like New York would feed, and feed well, all classes in the city of Paris for the same length of time. The reason that the choice cuts, as they are called, of animals bring such high prices is that the other parts, which are equally nutritious, cannot be sold for their full value here as they are, for instance, in England. The meaning of that fact is that we do not know how to cook anything, but steaks, chops and roasted pieces, and in many parts of the country these are spoiled by frying and over-cooking.

MANY LINES TO BE BUILT

Santa Fe Active And Many Roads are Building—Large Scope of Country Will be Opened

More railroad building is now in progress in Texas than at any time before in the history of the state. Most of the new lines now under construction and in the prospective stage, are in Western and Southwestern Texas. In this railroad building work, the Santa Fe is far in the lead of the other older systems, its new extensions, now under contract, and partly finished, aggregating about 700 miles. Its most important new line is the Coleman-Texico cut-off, to run between Coleman and Texico 310 miles, whereby a new and direct connection will be made between existing trans-continental division in New Mexico, and the Gulf division. It is stated that this cut-off will shorten the distance between Galveston and San Francisco 200 miles under the Southern Pacific, which is now the shortest route. The Santa Fe is literally girdironing many parts of Western Texas, with its several branch lines. It is penetrating remote parts of that broad scope of territory where farming development is now in progress.

SANTA FE SETS THE PACE

The activity of the Santa Fe in invading the virgin region where railroad transportation facilities are so badly needed is causing other of the older systems of railway to become aroused to the fact that they must do extensive railroad building on their own account in order to protect their territory and traffic interests.

One of the most important of the recent announcements is that the Rock Island will use a big part of the proceeds from its recent $11,000,000 bond sale to build an extension of its Graham branch across the lower Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico to Roswell, about 325 miles. The survey for the proposed extension is said to have been made, and as no serious construction difficulties are to be encountered, it is expected that the building work will be carried on rapidly.

The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient expects to have the construction of its main line extension, southwest from San Angelo to the proposed crossing of the Rio Grande near Presidio Del Norte, well advanced before the end of the year. It is reported that the branch line that is to be built south from San Angelo to a connection with the National Railways of Mexico at Allende, by way of Del Rio, will also soon be started.

The Quanah, Acme & Pacific is another ambitious project that is said to have ample financial backing to carry it to fulfillment. This road is now finished and in operation from Quanah to Paducah. Mr. Lazarus owns a big ranch in the territory to be penetrated by the Quanah, Acme & Pacific. It is stated that arrangements have been made for extending this line from Paducah to El Paso about 375 miles. A southwesterly route will be followed crossing the Panhandle diagonally and cutting through a corner of New Mexico. The survey for this proposed extension has been made and was recently sent to the fiscal agents in St. Louis for approval. R. D. Yoakum, brother of B. F. Yoakum, interested in the new line that connects with the Frisco system at Quanah.

It is learned that the Wichita Falls and Wellington railroad that was recently granted a charter by the secretary of state, principle office at Wichita Falls, is to really be an extension of the Wichita Falls & Northwestern, and will run from Frederick, Ok. to Wellington, Texas, in the upper Panhandle, about 100 miles.

The Texas North & South Railway Company is getting its plans in shape to build about 360 miles of road.

The Pecos Valley Southern is a fifty-mile line that is to run from Pecos, on the Texas & Pacific, to the Davis mountains, with either Marfa or Alpine, on the Southern Pacific, as its ultimate southern terminus. The route of this proposed road is up the valley of Toyah creek which is the scene of extensive irrigation and agricultural development.

The people of Weatherford subscribed a bonus of $60,000 to aid the construction of the Chicago, Weatherford & Brazos Valley railroad.

The route of the Brownwood Southwestern railroad, that was recently chartered, runs from Brownwood southwest to a point on the Colorado river, about forty miles. It is planned, however to ultimately extend the line to San Antonio.

The Texas Central railroad, which is one of the most conservative and profitable of the older lines, is keeping up its record of extension building. It expects to finish its new branch line now under construction from De Leon Comanche county, west to Cross Plains, Callahan county, fifty-six miles, by Sept. 1. It will also complete the extension of its main line from Rotan to Gail, Borden county, about sixty miles during the present year.

The Stamford & Northwestern expects to have its extension finished to Dickens, about sixty miles northwest of Aspermont, some time this year.

The completion of the Wichita Falls & Southern's extension from New Castle to Cisco, seventy miles, will be accomplished during the present year.

The Roscoe Snyder & Pacific recently finished building an extension of its line to Fluvanna from Snyder, Scurry county, and is said to have an additional extension in contemplation. Grading is in progress on the branch line of the Frisco that is to run from Brady to Menardville, about thirty miles.

The Frisco will soon begin the construction of the proposed extension of the Harlington branch of its St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico from Sam Fordyce to Roma, forty-three miles.

B. F. Yeakum is now a part owner of the San Antonio & Rio Grande railroad that runs from San Juan, on the Harlington branch of the St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico, to Chaplin, twenty miles.

The Rock Island has practically finished its cut-off line running between Amarillo and Tucumcari N. M., 110 miles.

The Enid, Ochiltree & Western will have a total length of about 260 miles. It will run from Dalhart, Texas, to Enid, Okla., crossing the upper Panhandle.

Grading is in progress on the San Antonio, Rio Grande & Tampico which is projected to run between San Antonio and Tampico, Mexico, a distance of about 525 miles.

The Bartlett-Florence railway, running between Bartlett and Florence, twenty-three miles, is nearly finished. Its route is through a rich farming country.

The Abilene & Southern, that now runs between Abilene and Ballinger, is to be extended from the latter place to San Angelo, about thirty-five miles.

Arrangements are said to have been made for the building of the Coleman, Llano & Southern railroad, that is projected to run from Coleman south to Brady, forty-five miles.

The contract for the construction of the Temple & Northwestern railway was recently let. This road is to run between Temple and Hamilton, by way of Gatesville, ninety miles.

A terminal system of railway will be built at Aransas Pass by the Aransas Pass Terminal Railroad Company.

An extension of the Artesian Belt railroad is being built from its present southern terminus toward the Rio Grande. This road connects with the Southern Pacific at Madona, near San Antonio.

The Quanah & Gulf railroad of which, L. E. Walker is president, is projected to run from Quanah southeast to Cleburne, a distance of about 175 miles.

Financial arrangements are said to have been made for the building of the Fort Worth, Mineral Wells & Western railroad. This line is projected to run between Fort Worth and Roswell, N. M., about 500 miles.

Bonuses are being raised in a number of towns in the Panhandle in aid of the proposed Denver & Gulf that is being built between Denver, Colo., and Dallas. It is stated that this road will be as near an air line as possible. It will traverse a big stretch of territory in Texas.

All of these projected roads have for their territory the western half of the state. A number of railroad enterprises are one foot in the eastern half of Texas, but it is on what was formerly an exclusively ranch region where most of the construction operations are now in progress.

KEEP OUT FACTIONS

There should be no "faction" in any city. The property of one individual and every improvement made enhances the value of all property in the corporation. Our city is simply one big family. When this is discarded there is little progress. When there is a united pull for anything, its accomplishment is made easy. Envy, jealousy and hatred are things to be despised. Envy is a canker that gnaws at the heart and makes folks sour, disgruntled and unhappy; jealousy warps the intellect and makes us unfair in passing judgment. Hatred does not pay even from a sordid point of view. - Pampa News.

Dies at Home of His Parents Northeast of Lubbock - Buried Monday

Joseph B. Buchanan, who lived with his parents in their country home a few miles northeast of Lubbock died Sunday evening at five o'clock from heart failure. He suffered with a slight attack of the heart Tuesday but had rallied and seemingly was getting along nicely when death came from a renewed attack of the same trouble.

Mr. Buchanan was born in Sharp County, Ark., March 4, 1872 in which state he had resided till last December two years ago when he moved with his parents to Lubbock county. He had been almost an invalid from childhood. He had never married and had lived continuously with his parents.

He is survived by an aged father and mother, six brothers and two sisters. Three brothers in Arkansas, one at Plainview, one sister at Childress and the balance of the family reside in this county. Only those living here were present at the funeral which was conducted at the Lubbock cemetery Monday evening. Rev. Jos. P. Callaway of the Methodist church conducting the services.

Canyon Clippings

Mar. 21. - It is with a sorrowful heart that we record the death of our much loved and highly respected neighbor and friend, Mr. Joseph B. Buchanan, who passed from the turmoils, trials and temptations of this world into that place of rest prepared for those who are faithful to the end, on last Sunday evening, 20th. Mr. Buchanan was taken suddenly ill last Tuesday. A physician was summoned who pronounced it heart disease. He was thought to be resting very well during the week, except slight troubled breathing at intervals, until Sunday afternoon, when the end came. The only consolation we can offer the bereaved ones is that if they will only live true to Him who shares our burdens, they will some day be reunited beyond the dark river where parting comes no more. Mr. Buchanan was born in Sharpe county, Ark., near the little town of Sydney, March 4, 1872, where he was reared and lived until 2 years ago when he moved to our community with his aged parents and his sister, Miss Mollie, with whom he was living at the time of his death. He is survived by two sisters, six brothers and his parents.

LYNN COUNTY OPPORTUNITIES

Ten years ago Lynn County had ten voters and three women in it, and was attached to another county for judicial purposes. One could buy land here then for 50 cents to $1.00 per acre. We were eighty miles from a railroad and one post office in the county supplied mail to the people for a hundred miles around. Today Lynn County has a population of Two Thousand Five Hundred, twelve organized schools, three post offices and cotton gins, Four Hundred voters, Four Hundred Fifty school children, and thousands of acres of fine farming lands which produce a bale of cotton per acre with one hoeing and two plowings. Don't shake your head, for I can show you men right here who have done it. Our land will grow sixty bushels of corn or oats per acre, sixty five bushels of Kaffir corn or maize, abundance of millet and alfalfa, big crops of sweet potatoes, two good crops of Irish potatoes per year, eighty pound watermelons, two pound tomatoes, twelve to fifteen pound cabbages and not half try. Lynn County soil grows fine grapes, several kinds of berries, squashes, pumpkins, canteloupes and all vine products. Apples, Peaches, Plums and Apricots do well here and are freer from pests and diseases than East Texas fruit. Lynn County cannot be excelled as a corn and feed producing country, and it is well that such is the case, for the Great State of Texas spends twenty five million dollars annually for imported corn, and several million for imported meat. The Plains country is destined to become the future bread basket of not only Texas but of a large part of the United States. She will also be expected to furnish a big per cent of the beef and pork for the hungry millions. What country under the shining sun is better adapted to pork and beef production than this? There is none. It is easy to raise abundance of feed, and our water is as pure as God ever made. Our air is cool and bracing the year round, so that mister hog and miss cow grow to maturity under the most favorable conditions possible.

Our Land is Cheap, Fertile and Plenty

And it is rising rapidly in value. It has doubled in value every three or four years without a railroad. Now, who can tell what it will do with a railroad, and may be two or three? Young man, do you suppose this land will long remain at the present prices? Do you think it will ever be cheaper? Certainly it will not. Then why not buy now? Don't wait until you can pay for a whole section, but pay one-third down on a half or quarter section. Whether you have little money or much, invest it in good real estate, either city or country.

TAHOKA is the County Seat of Lynn County, and is the only town in the county. It is 28 miles from any other town, and has a territory 75 miles across to supply. It has a Thousand population, 250 school children and a good school employing four teachers, and a proposition on foot to issue bonds and erect a Fifteen Thousand Dollar brick school building just as soon as the railroad is completed to our town. We have three nice churches, two drug stores, two barber shops, a National Bank, hotel, livery stable, confectionery, hardware, telephone exchange with long distance connection to all important points, a number of dry goods and grocery stores, a cotton gin, grist mill, wagon yards, feed stores, blacksmith shops, tin shops, and in fact every thing that goes to make a town. The Santa Fe Railroad has its grade completed and will be running trains into our town within sixty days. We have offered the Texas Central, at their request, a bonus and right-of-way through Lynn County, and their surveyors are now running the preliminary survey from Rotan through our county. The Rock Island Railway is planning to build a line through our county to Roswell or El Paso, and the material is already ordered, and their charter is granted.

I have lived in this country twenty five years, and have seen our country change from a buffalo range to the greatest farming country west of the Mississippi. The change has been rapid, but I predict that our progress the next five years will be far greater than the last twenty five. And why not? Then, it was the ox team age. Now, it is the steam and electric age.

Let me sell you a beautiful building lot in North Tahoka, where the title is simple and clear as the blue sky, where water is pure and plenty, where the sand, dust and trash from the city never comes. I can sell you a lot NOW from $100.00 to $401.00 and guarantee abundance of good water. Think it over. Do it now.

BIG TOWN LOT SALE IN TAHOKA

Judge T. M. Bartley Sells His Addition And Business Lots For $150,000

On last Thursday a real estate deal of considerable magnitude was consummated in Tahoka, when Judge T. M. Bartley sold his property known as the Bartley Addition and consisting of fifteen hundred and eight residence and business lots, to a company composed principally of local people, for a total consideration of $150,000. Jack Alley is one of the new owners and will have charge of the property, which will be immediately put on the market to individual purchasers. The new company announces that it will at once begin very extensive improvements such as installing a system of water works, grading the streets and putting down sidewalks. The Bartley Addition is an unusually fine piece of property, and this is one of the the big deals that has been pulled of in Plains town property. Judge Bartley will remain a citizen and retains considerable interest in Tahoka and Lynn county.

A Trip to Abernathy

Last Friday a reporter of the Avalanche boarded the 11:10 train and arrived in the prosperous little city of Abernathy at noon. A desire and a strong public sentiment has gotten hold of the people of Abernathy, and they are bringing about prosperity. Improvements are going on, a nice Baptist church under construction, two business houses just completed and one under way, and other improvements in the way of building a fence around the square is a late addition and shade trees are being set out on all sides of the square. It is the purpose of the citizens to have a beautiful park, which can easily be had with little effort. The business men of Abernathy are enterprising and are pulling side by side together and the farmers are inviting the prosperous producer to join them for a higher plane of living. We received several nice orders for job work which we duly appreciate. About 3:30 J. A. Wilson invited us to ride with him to Lubbock in his new Ford car, which we accepted and were soon at home.

Growth of Panhandle towns and development of the Panhandle country is little short of marvelous, a condition directly attributable to the unrivaled opportunities which this section holds out to the thrifty and industrious, and to the liberal and judicious use of printer's ink. — Daily Panhandle.

In this issue of the Avalanche you will find the announcement of W. R. Standifer for the office of District and County Surveyor. Mr. Standifer is one of the well known men of this section, having been here a number of years. His work has always measured up to the highest standard of efficiency and in the coming election it would be well for the people to consider his claims to the place.

STATE LINE RE-SURVEY

Commonwealth Officials Engaged In Inspection of Old-Time Land Marks,

State Surveyor W. D. Twitchell, and assistant, J. W. Pritchett, have returned from a tour of inspection which covered the entire Texas-Oklahoma state line. Their mission was for the purpose of locating the original land marks, the first of which were determined by Henry S. Pritchett in 1885. The latter succeeded in locating the 100th meridian. He is now connected with the Carnegie Foundation fund, an educational movement which is well known throughout the country. Pritchett located the 100th meridian at Childress, astronomically, and his survey has since been confirmed.

Messrs Twitchell and Pritchett will shortly undertake an inspection of the line separating Texas on the north from Oklahoma. At present they are engaged in preparing their report for the state. —Amarillo Daily News.

A DANDY PROPOSITION

Lubbock to Have a Good Road Across Canyon—A Splendid Move—Means Business

A subscription list was circulated in Lubbock this week and liberally subscribed to, for the purpose of raising funds for road improvement across the canyon, east of town, and any other part of the road that is in need of work. The road question was recently put up to the County Commissioners and it was agreed by the Court that a proposition like this would be a good proposition, viz: That the county would spend two dollars on the road where the people of the town would spend one. In this way quite a neat little sum of money will be raised for this much needed work. This work should be placed in careful hands and get full benefit of the money expended.

There is nothing that will draw trade to a place quicker and hold the business after it is obtained than good roads, and the business firm that refuses to help in this line of work does not fully appreciate the benefits that are derived from it, or else does not wish to do his part toward helping to encourage the trade to the town. We should all be wide awake to the interests of the town where there are such direct benefits to be received as from this. On with the good roads movement.

If you can get 20 regular customers for chickens, eggs, butter, milk, feed, meat and vegetables you would be selling 20 times $371.00, which amounts to $6,220.00. JAIL BOND ELECTION

People of Lubbock County Will be Called on to say Whether or Not to Issue Bonds

Notices have been posted in the several voting precincts of Lubbock and attached counties calling an election to determine whether or not bonds to the amount of $17,000 shall be issued for the purpose of building a jail house here. Bonds to mature in 40 years. The election will be the 4th day of April. It is an important issue and the people should voice their sentiments in the matter. As for the Avalanche we are strictly in line with the proposition. We believe that Lubbock county should have a better prison house, not that we use it so much, but it is in harmony with the advancement and growth of our town.

town has been built almost entirely by her people. Unlike many towns the people of Lubbock do things and do not wait for the development of the most minute affairs before they plant their investments. They build with a strong faith in the future. Every person in Lubbock that has been here a sufficient length of time to become familiar with the conditions that surround the town are firm believers in the future of the entire South Plains country and especially the Lubbock section. They are not afraid to place their dollars in Lubbock, because it is a town with a future.

As a natural result of these conditions the town has grown and has grown steadily until it has reached the size of something near 3,500 souls and still grow-town is improving faster than Lubbock along every line of trade and while outside capital is always encouraged and solicited, our people do not wait for outsiders to do the work, but take to every undertaking with all confidence, and put it through to the satisfaction and glory of the town.

It is hardly reasonable to those who are not on the scene of action to think that there has been so much accomplished for Lubbock as has been during the past two years. People who visit our town after having been away a year or so are greatly surprised at its almost marvelous growth and the wonderful improvements brought about in so short time. This is simply the Lubbock way. Hundreds of magnificent residences have

Lubbock is ideally located, this gives her advantage over other towns less fortunate. She is surrounded by an exceedingly rich and fertile country. This is another great advantage over many other towns. Lubbock people are progressive, they are wide awake. They are alive to the best interests of the town, and never stand back on a proposition that is for the mutual benefit of city and country. For this reason Lubbock and Lubbock county is a mighty fine place to live and for this reason the town is growing, and growing rapidly; not a boom, but just an even, steady growth all the time.

Here Prospecting
 Among the many prospectors to Lubbock last week were E. M. Aderholt accompanied by his wife Mr. Aderholt bought a half section of land three miles east of Lubbock. He expects to return sometime in May and begin improving, he will build two houses and as he expects to move here sometime this year he will have to have more land. In conversation with a reporter just before leaving he said he and his wife were very much pleased with Lubbock and that he believed the land was rich and fertile. Mr. Aderholt expects to dispose of his holdings in Williamson county and move to Lubbock as soon as he can make improvements here. He is a prosperous wide awake farmer and Lubbock county will profit by his coming.

THE LIFE OF A TOWN

When All Bell Together Much can be Accomplished—Factions and Discords—Determental

Where men put their shoulders together and push for the attainment of the same end, there is no such thing as defeat, the word failure is without meaning. Too often is the truth demonstrated before our eyes today for denial, without extraordinary natural advantages towns have sprung into existence like magic and entered upon a growth little less state of healthy commercial rivalry akin to that of a modern city. The advance is often hindered by those who prefer the old days when they had things their way.

Factions are also a curse to any town or city and they who are instrumental in keeping them alive are dangerous to the town's welfare. In this connection we reproduce the following from the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram:

When you see a small town in Texas which is not growing rapidly, you will usually find that it is partly due to the town faction. This harmful division of interest than marvelous while others, sharing more abundantly the riches of nature's gifts have stood as if confronted by irremovable barriers. Why this vigorous life and why this dwarfed existence? Look at the people and read the answer. In one of the case seldom appears publicly but its constant menace to the growth of the town, citizens working against the interest of the town because of petty personal differences.

Usually the formation of these factions can be traced to competagainst Alston Brothers. Plaintiffs have long held a valuable range east of Carlsbad in Eddy county, extending to the Texas line, and have spent $40,000 building cattle drift fences and boring wells, building tanks and wind mills. Christmas & Wil-

Gold Teeth Will Be Popular Logansport, Ind., March 15.—Mrs. Omer Snoko of Columbia, Ind., in a letter sent to the police here, asking that they arrest her husband on the charge of wife desertion, says that she would never have married him, rich enough to have gold teeth would be a good husband for her. The youth who needs assistance in winning a wife will no doubt turn the job over to the dentist hereafter especially if the much desired lady is inclined towards wealth.

there is town pride and in the other there is interest only in selfish gain; in the one there is anxiety to see one's own town outrival others, in the other there is perfect contentment with present conditions; in one there is a bigness of manhood that can spend hard earned dollars, even though neighbors will thereby be benefitted, in the other a littleness of principle that puts the measure of individual interest to every proposed action.

After all, the people make towns. The fact cannot be hidden. Towns are but the reflection of the industrial characteristics of their inhabitants.

The dangerous period of a town's existence is during its transition from pioneer days, when competition in business was a matter of no concern, to a itive business interests, banks or railroads. One set of business men line up with the state bank and thereafter each factor works against the other. If a move is started for the upbuilding of the town, the national bank crowd will desert it because it is championed by some of the state bank crowd.

Several towns in Texas are afflicted with this deadly mania and outsiders, not understanding the cause, wonder at the lack of growth. Texas developments is too big to be hampered by such petty differences. Many towns will continue to grow and the town with the internal grouch will be left behind.

Where these conditions exist, it is evident that the great saying 'in union there is strength,' has not had the proper influence.

liams, cattle raisers, came on the same range and built watering places, but were enjoined from letting their cattle graze there because their stock were infected and had not been dipped according to Federal laws. Christmas & Williams leased their watering places to Alston Brothers, sheep breeders, and Judge Pope's decision permits the sheep to occupy the range, provided they are not allowed to roam within a half mile of Merchant's wells. The Merchants have given notice of appeal and state that they will carry the case to the Supreme Court of the United States if necessary. C. W. Merchant is a wealthy citizen of Abilene, Tex. $500,000 LIVESTOCK DEAL

Swenson & Sons Sell 18,000 Head off Spur Ranch—Loses Big Ranch.

In one of the largest deals that has been consummated among the cattlemen of Texas for many months was closed in Ft. Worth Wednesday when S. M. Swenson & Sons of New York city sold to W. J. Lewis of Clarendon, Texas all of the cattle on the Spur ranch.

There are 18,000 head of cattle in the bunch and while the terms of the sale are private it is learned that the figures are around the $500,000 mark. The deal was made through F. S. Hastings of Stamford and Charles A. Jones of Spur, the Texas representatives of the Swenson family. In the transfers the Swensons leased to Mr. Lewis the Spur ranch, aggregating 438,000 acres, and through the terms of the contract Mr. Lewis will perpetuate the well known Spur brand.

In the lease contract, however the Swensons reserve the option of selling the Spur farm lands out to actual settlers in small tracts, there being no limit to the amount of land which may be disposed of in this manner. By this deal Mr. Lewis secures a lease upon the property that was originally owned by the Espeula Land & Cattle company of England and he will at an early date take active charge with headquarters at Spur. The sale of the land to actual settlers is taken to mean that the Swensons intend to push the movement to bring farmers into the Spur country and great development is looked for there, as a result.

The Swensons are still in the cattle business, however, they retaining 25,000 head on their different ranch properties in the neighborhood of Stamford. And after the sale of the Spur ranch they will own 350,000 acres of land in Texas.

It is announced that still other big ranchmen in that section of the state intend following the example of the Swensons in selling off their big ranch properties to small farmers, a movement that is calculated to further the development of Middle West Texas, and incidentally of Fort Worth, which is the logical trade center for the towns of that portion of Texas. —Fort Worth Record.

Work of Rating Board

It was to be expected that the efforts of the State to readjust the basis of fire insurance rate-making would occasion a good deal of protest more or less vehement. The fact is, though, there have been fewer complaints than the News expected; and it is to be noted that the two cities which made formal protest against the action of the State Rating Board have withdrawn those protests.

The News expressed the opinion long before this law became operative that its animating principle was both morally just and scientifically sound. That opinion has been strengthened by recent events, nor will it be weakened if mistakes are made in the first efforts to give it application.

Fire insurance is a tax, and as necessary a tax as any other that is levied. It is right that that tax should be proportioned among communities and among individuals in accordance with the dangers which they tolerate. It is a method of penalizing negligence, municipal and individual.

If Fort Worth provides better fire protection than Houston does for example, there would be a manifest and inexcusable injustice if Fort Worth did not enjoy a lower "key rate" than Houston. If one citizen has taken more precaution against fire than his neighbor it would be equally unjust if the two were charged the same rate. The principle of the law is impeccable and unassailable.

It is not a "new-fangled idea." It is a principle that has been recognized as long as there have been fire insurance companies. But they have not been able to give it a high degree of application. The result is that, intent chiefly on getting enough and something more, to pay their losses, the insurance companies have not been greatly concerned as to whether the contributions have been made equitably or not. If the negligence of one man was visited on another they had no great reason to care so long as the sum of their contributions was enough.

The principle which the State is trying to enforce, and which we have no doubt it will enforce, gives an incentive to every town and to every individual to minimize the fire hazard.

Every community will derive a profit from its own efforts, and so will every man. The result will be a reduction of the fire waste, which means a reduction in the fire insurance tax. This law is rich in beneficial possibilities, and we have no doubt they will be full developed, even though some mistakes should attend the effort to develop them. —Dallas News.

THE STATE OF TEXAS: To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon, by making publication of this citation and notice once in each week for eight consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof in some newspaper published in Lubbock County, Texas, M. M. Burtis, whose residence is unknown, the unknown heirs of said M. M. Burtis, whose names and residences are unknown, and all other unknown persons to whom the hereinafter described property belongs, whose names and residences are unknown, to be and appear before a sitting of the undersigned Special Commissioners, duly and legally appointed and qualified, to be held at the court room in the Court House of Lubbock County, Texas, in the town of Lubbock, the County Seat of said Lubbock County, Texas, on the 2nd day of April, A. D. 1910, at two o'clock p. m., then and there to answer the Statement and Petition for Condemnation of The Pecos and Northern Texas Railway Company filed with the County Judge of Lubbock County, Texas, on the 1st day of February, A. Burtis, and all other unknown persons to whom the hereinafter described property belongs, whose names and residences are unknown are defendants.

The nature of Plaintiff's suit is as follows, to-wit: Plaintiff alleges: That plaintiff, The Pecos and Northern Texas Railway Company, is a corporation duly incorporated, organized and existing under and by virtue of the Laws of the State of Texas for the purpose of locating, constructing, owning, maintaining and operating a railroad through the County of Lubbock, in the State of Texas, and through certain other Counties in Texas, and that by the terms of its charter it is duly authorized to locate, construct, own, maintain and operate its railroad through said County of Lubbock and through certain other counties in the State of Texas, and that it has its principal office and place of business in the County of Potter, in the State of Texas.

Burtis, whose names and residences are unknown to plaintiff, and all other unknown persons whose names and residences are unknown to plaintiff, are the owners in fee simple of the following described parcel or lot of land, to-wit: Lot Numbered Nine (9) in Block Number Ninety-one (91) in the town of Lubbock, in Lubbock County Texas. That plaintiff, The Pecos and Northern Texas Railway Company has located and constructed its railroad upon, over and across said above described lot, and that for the purposes of its incorporation and the transaction of its business, and for the purposes of locating, constructing, owning, maintaining and operating its said railroad, it is necessary that petitioner have said above described parcel or lot of land and each and every the rights and appurtenances thereto in anywise belonging, for the use of itself and its successors in perpetuity, for its right of way for its main line track, sidings, switches, spur tracks, passing tracks, depot and station buildings, water and fuel tanks and for each and every purpose necessary or convenient to its uses as a common carrier, and that petitioner hereby seeks to condemn said parcel or lot of land for each and all of said purposes. That petitioner is unable to agree with defendant for the purchase of said above described property, or upon the damages caused by the condemnation of the same for the purposes aforesaid and by the construction of said railroad. That petitioner and defendants have not agreed upon any Special Commissioners.

Wherefore, petitioner presents and files this Statement and Petition for Condemnation, and prays that your Honor will appoint three disinterested freeholders of said Lubbock County Texas, as Special Commissioners to assess said damages occasioned by the condemnation of the aforesaid property and prays that said property be condemned for said purposes aforesaid in accordance with the Statutes of the State of Texas in such cases made and provided; and petitioner prays for all such other and further relief, general and special, to which petitioner may be entitled.

TO THE CANYON

Last Friday afternoon to the great delight of all the school children Prof. Haynes announced that there would be no school work that afternoon and that they were going to the canyon for a little outing.

At one o'clock in company with all the teachers, except Miss McLarry who was sick, they left their books and hurried off for the canyon.

After the long walk they were turned loose for an evening of fun, which they had.

The boys played a very interesting game of base-ball and the girls enjoyed watching the game. Other games and many jokes were played. They stayed until four o'clock and the entire school feels very grateful to their teachers for the very pleasant day.

A HOUSE PARTY

Friday morning March 11, Misses Dezzie Johnson, Gracie Brown and Elva Glover left for Hale Center, where they were joined by Misses Lillie Barclay and Myrtle Patterson, who had been visiting for a few days in Plainview. At Hale Center they were highly entertained, at luncheon, by Mr. Mabrey. In the afternoon about three o'clock they left for the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown, ten miles west of Hale Center, where they were to attend the house party given by Mr. and Mrs. Brown in honor of their daughter Grace's, sixteenth birthday. The girls arrived at their destination about sundown, and then spent the remainder of the afternoon in looking around the place, at the many beautiful sights, and then were taken in to a delicious supper prepared for them by the loving hands of Mrs. Brown.

The next morning they were up bright and early, after a good night's rest, and were again ready to see more of the farm. It was not long before their prying eyes had seen everything there was to see around the place, so they started off to the sand hills, two miles away. After returning and eating everything in sight they made a call to one of the neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Craig, where they spent a few hours very pleasantly. That night Mrs. Brown entertained the five young ladies by giving them a party. A good crowd was present and a fine time was reported by all. Many jolly games were played, among which were "Jake grinned," flinch, forty-two, dominoes etc. Delicious refreshments were served, consisting of fruit salad, cocoa, whipped cream, chocolate, gelatine and several varieties of cake. Sunday morning one and all of the girls bade Mrs. Brown good-bye and returned to Hale Center. They were brought to Hale Center by Mr. Brown where they took the train for home. At Abernathy they were met by Mr. Add Clark, Misses Maggie Patterson and Eva Wheelock. At the depot here there was quite a crowd to meet them and welcome them back to Lubbock. They all report to have had the time of their lives and are in hopes that Mr. and Mrs. Brown will very soon invite them back. They all pronounce Mrs. Brown a delightful and charming hostess, and Mr. Brown's home the "place to enjoy yourself."

A. H. Elliston, wife and son, and R. L. Elliston of Hereford, passed through Lubbock Wednesday on their way to the coast. The parties expect to make the trip by way of automobile and will be gone sometime.

FLLOYDADA HAS TRAIN SERVICE

Another Plains Town Made Happy And Placed on Railroad Map by Advent of Santa Fe

It will be interesting reading to many of our readers to learn that the Santa Fe road has made another town happy on the plains and that Floydada can be reached by rail. The Hesperian, published in Floydada has the following to say with regard to the advent of the road and beginning train service to that town:

"The real event of interest to the people of Floydada and her territory, and to the non-resident land owner took place Tuesday morning, March 15, 1910, when the Santa Fe people began regular train service on their Floydada branch from Floydada to Plainview. The schedule will be:

"Leave Floydada, 8:00 a. m.
 "Arrive Plainview, 9:40 a. m.
 "Leave Plainview, 2:00 p. m.
 "Arrive Floydada, 4:00 p. m.

"Train service will be so arranged as to make the best connection with the Amarillo and Lubbock branches at Plainview. In other words the train will leave Plainview for Floydada at 2 p. m. and lay over night at Floydada, making the return trip next morning at 8 a. m., so as to make connection at Plainview. As soon as the government makes arrangements with the railroad people for carrying the mail Floydada people will receive their mail one day sooner than heretofore. And out going mail will reach its destination one day ahead of the time it now takes for the journey."

Hamilton Rustler: Those who are fond of working out puzzles can tackle the following: A certain family in Lincoln consists of one grand-father, two grand-mothers, one father-in-law, three mothers, two fathers, two daughters, one son, one daughter-in-law, one son-in-law, one grand-daughter, and there are only six persons in the family.

Why should outsiders busy themselves in other people's family matters? Leave the Lincoln household to its own devices. The man of the house, if he knows which one of the boys he is, can probably be depended upon to straighten out his kinnery difficulties. The fact that he seems to have no mother-in-law doubtless makes up for his complicated relationships.—State Press.

It is a failing a great many people have to attend to someone else's business before their own and State Press drops a wise thought when it wrote the above little verse. Lets all look after our own household and let the others do the same and life's ship will sail smoothly on.

Grayson County Dry

Denison, Tex., March 19.—Grayson County went dry in the local option election today. There were twelve more country boxes to hear from at midnight, all conceded to be strongly for prohibition. The antis concede that they are beaten by a large majority. The campaign has been a hard fought one, the pros having many speakers in the field. The work of the antis was not through debate of the question from their viewpoint. Women and children paraded the streets this forenoon in a beating rain.

This is the fourth election in Grayson County in which local option has been carried, each time with a growing majority. The present majority will exceed another yet won by the pros.

Some boys do not earn $20 a year, yet they can afford to smoke cigarettes and to use tobacco in other forms. Little boys should think it over seriously before commencing to use tobacco. It's A

What a feeling of genuine satisfaction there is in wearing a comfortable oxford, and having its attractiveness raise the question that can be answered so conclusively!

To the man who has worn the Nettleton Make before, it is merely a continuation of that enjoyment which accompanied the first pair—plus the knowledge that he has the best obtainable footwear, at a smaller annual cost than would be expended in wearing cheaper shoes.

This is the store that gives a full measure of quality for every penny of purchase price.

We Want Colleges

Lubbock, we believe, is sleeping on one proposition that would be of great benefit to the development of the town, and that is the question of colleges. It is true that we have a fine public school, at present, and a handsome new brick school building well under way, but we are of the opinion that we should have some other colleges, denominational schools, etc. We are satisfied that we can get several, if the proper steps are taken in the matter. Let's get busy on this line of work. Lubbock Avalanche.

Our hustling neighbor to the south is usually wide-awake to every opportunity, and seldom overlooks any opportunity for improvement. The Herald trusts that their desire for greater and better educational facilities may be gratified. There can not be too many schools in any section of country, and strong churches, together with well-conducted schools, aside from their material value, are great inducements to prospective settlers.—Plainview Herald.

HEAVY STEEL IS USED

Work is Being Pushed With all Haste Possible from Coleman End of the Road.

Coleman, Tex., March 13.—Work on the Santa Fe cut-off from Coleman to Texico is being pushed to completion as fast as possible. The grading is practically completed from Coleman to Sweetwater, eighty-five miles out of Coleman to Jim Ned creek where there is being built a steel bridge 375 feet in length and a 115 feet in height. This will delay track laying about sixty days. Then the track laying will proceed at the rate of two miles per day to Sweetwater, and it is expected that both freight and passenger service will be put on by early fall to Lubbock. Part of the rolling stock is already on the ground.

A large material yard is maintained at Coleman, employing about 350 men. Ninety pound steel rails are being used, all bridges are being constructed of steel and concrete, and the roadway of rock ballast. The station buildings are to be built of concrete and will be erected in the near future. Several new towns are being developed along the line, among them being Silver Valley, Novice, Goldsboro and Buffalo Gap.—Coleman News.

With this information at hand from the Coleman end of the road and the assembling of hundreds of car loads of material in the supply yards at this place to be used in the construction work on the Texico end of the road, the situation is beginning to look very interesting and only reminds us that Lubbock will soon be on a trans-continental line and will be one of the important points along the route. Its looking good to Lubbock people and the old town is getting down to business in great shape.
