THE LUBBOCK SCHOOL REGULATIONS

RULES BY WHICH THE LUBBOCK HIGH SCHOOL IS TO BE GOVERNED FOR 1912-13 TERM

READ THEM AND GOVERN YOURSELVES ACCORDINGLY

It Will Help You to Know Just What is Expected of You and Your Child as Well as What You Should Expect of the Teachers and Superintendent.

It is only a few days till the opening day of the Lubbock school. It is important that every thing be in readiness for the first day. In order that the best preparations be made you should know what is expected of you and your children. For this reason we are publishing below that portion of the catalogue relative to the government of the school. Read it and learn your duty and then perform it, and the school will be better than ever. The Board is doing all they can to build up a school in Lubbock second to none in the state and with the co-operation of the patrons and by the aid of a good faculty this can be done.

The Public Free Schools of the city of Lubbock shall be a system of graded schools, comprising twelve grades. The first, second, third and fourth shall constitute the primary department; the fifth, sixth and seventh grades the grammar school department; the eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades the High School. The High School Department is divided into the following departments: Mathematics, Science and English.

The department of Mathematics is composed of the following branches, viz: Arithmetic—Mental, Practical and Higher. Algebra—Wentworth's "First Steps," "New School" and Complete. Geometry—Plane and Solid. Trigonometry—Plane and Spherical.

Science—Physiology, Physiology, Physics, Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, and Elements of Agriculture. English—English Grammar, Rhetoric and Composition, English and American Literature. Language—Foreign—Latin, German and Spanish. History—U. S. History, Ancient History, Mediaeval and Modern History, Mythology, English History, American History and Civics.

The School Year shall consist of nine scholastic months, or thirty-six weeks, exclusive of the Christmas holidays and shall begin on the first Monday in September of each year. The school shall be closed on such state and national holidays as the School Board may designate. The daily sessions of the schools shall be from 8:50 a. m. to 4 p. m. (except the first and second grades which shall be dismissed at 3:30 p. m.) with recess of fifteen minutes each in the fore and afternoon and one hour for lunch at noon. At the discretion of the Superintendent other hours for the dismissal of the High school and the lower primary may be fixed.

PROMOTIONS

Promotion from grade to grade shall be based on the teacher's estimate of the work of the pupil during the term, his general conduct and his ability to do the work of the next grade, together with the record of such oral and written tests of examinations as may be given by the superintendent, or under his direction. Special promotions may be made at any time during the year, at the discretion of the Superintendent.

The following percentages shall be taken as the class standard for promotions to higher grades: The fourth and lower grades average upon all studies, 75; fifth and sixth grades, not lower than 60 with an average not lower than 75; the seventh and eighth grades, not lower than 65 with an average not less than 80; the ninth, tenth and eleventh grades not less than 70 with an average not less than 85.

Certificates of graduation shall be presented to such pupils as shall merit the same upon completion of the full course, prescribed by the Grammar Department, and diplomas of graduation to those completing the High School course.

SUPERINTENDENT

The Superintendent is the executive officer of the Board of Education and shall act under its advice and direction.

He shall devote himself to the study of our school system and the condition of the schools, and shall keep himself acquainted with the progress of instruction and organization in other places in order to assist the Board in legislating wisely for the advancement of the school interests in this city.

He shall exercise a constant personal supervision over all the schools, and shall see that the rules and regulations are understood and that they are uniformly and faithfully observed and executed in all the schools.

He shall observe the teaching and discipline of the teachers employed in the schools, and shall report to the Board whenever he shall find a teacher deficient or incompetent in the discharge of his or her duties.

He shall direct the attention of the teachers to the best methods of instruction and school government, giving special attention to those having little experience in the profession of teaching. He shall in every way practicable aid and advise and encourage the teachers in the performance of their duties.

He shall have the power to call and hold general meetings of teachers whenever in his judgment it is advisable and shall arrange such program of exercise for the same as the interests of the school may require.

He shall report in writing at the end of each month or whenever required by the Board, giving detailed statement of the condition of the schools; and shall make special report at the end of every three months of the session giving his estimate of teachers as to their fitness and efficiency their observance of the rules of the Board and the spirit they manifest in all matters relating to their work and advancement in their profession. He shall also make an annual report.

In the employment of teachers he shall advise with the Board giving them all the aid in his power in the selection of the same. He shall assign teachers to their work in the schools unless otherwise provided by the board.

He shall have the power to suspend or expel any pupil for persistent violation of school regulations, or whenever the example of such pupil is injurious to the school. In such cases he shall notify the parents or guardians, and also, the school board, to whom an appeal may be taken. All grievances or complaints of parents or guardians must be made to the superintendent.

PRINCIPALS

Principals are required to be at their respective schools by 8:25 in the morning and see that during the cold season the fires are made at the proper time and in the proper manner, and that one room be open for the reception of pupils who come before the regular school hours, maintain good order upon the school premises, and in the neighborhood thereof, and strict cleanliness in the school buildings and outhouses belonging thereto; have charge of and distribute all supplies and account for all injury, broken or lost articles, belonging to the schools; co-operate in every way with the superintendent in the enforcement of the rules and regulations for the government of the schools and in the discharge of their duties. They shall be entitled to the respect and difference of their assistants.

They shall so arrange that there shall be two teachers on the grounds continually during recesses and at such other times as the pupils are congregated thereon, and they may establish special rules, subject to the approval of the superintendent, for securing good order in the buildings under their charge and on the grounds.

They shall give special attention to the movements of pupils into and out of the buildings that it may be done quickly and with as little confusion as possible.

Principals shall have the power to suspend pupils for cause and the cause of suspension shall be transmitted within 24 hours to the superintendent, who shall take action thereon as he may deem proper. The superintendent may let the suspension of the pupils continue for a time until the case can be investigated.

The principal of the high school shall be assistant superintendent when the superintendent may be sick or absent from the city and whenever required by the board for other reasons.

TEACHERS

Teachers are required to be in their respective rooms twenty minutes before school begins and see that the pupils under their charge distinctly understand and faithfully observe all rules relating to pupils.

They shall exercise a vigilant care over the general conduct and morals of their pupils in the school rooms, on the play grounds and as far as possible, on their going to and returning from school. And all teachers are required to maintain strict order and discipline in their classes at all times.

They shall endeavor upon all proper occasions, to impress upon the minds of their pupils the principles of morality and virtue, a sacred regard for truth, love to God, love to man, politeness, neatness, industry and frugality. But no teacher shall exercise any sectarian influence in the school.

They shall make preparations for teaching and hearing recitations, in order that they may present subjects in a forcible, attractive and practical manner. They shall seek to learn the character, disposition, capacity and quality of mind of their pupils and to govern them by the moral influence of kindness and by appeal to the nobler principles of their natures.

The teacher shall be careful that no part of the school building furniture or apparatus be defaced or injured, reporting all cases of the same to the superintendent. They shall keep their rooms in neat order, well ventilated and lighted, and at a uniform temperature. The teachers shall require their pupils to be in their respective rooms at the appointed hour and all the pupils not in shall be marked tardy, or absent, as the case may be, and in all cases of unexplained absence or tardiness the teacher shall immediately ascertain, in person or by written note, the cause of same.

The utmost neatness and order of things shall be preserved by the teachers in their rooms. Pieces of paper or other rubbish shall not be allowed on the floor, in pupil's desk, or thrown out in the yard. Each teacher shall pay attention to his own desk, that it may be a model of neatness, and that everything thereon is arranged with reference to taste. In fact the teacher is expected to be an example of neatness, virtue, honesty, truthfulness, amiability and everything else that pupils should imitate.

Teachers are expected to keep in close communication with the parents and guardians of their pupils, visiting and consulting with them whenever practicable, and especially in cases where department or scholarship is unsatisfactory.

Each teacher is required to keep all registers in the manner prescribed and to make all reports required promptly and correctly.

They shall attend regularly and promptly all teachers meetings called by the superintendent, and faithfully perform all duties assigned them. A failure to do so, as well as all absence and tardiness shall be reported monthly to the Board by the Superintendent.

No teacher shall be connected with any organization, or engaged in any business, which in the opinion of the Board may interfere with the proper discharge of duties prescribed by these regulations.

The tenure of office of all teachers shall be at the pleasure of the Board, and superior qualifications as to moral character, literary attainments, industry and practical skill in teaching shall be especially regarded as their employment and continuance. They shall have the right to resign only when two weeks notice of such intention is given, and the Board reserves the right to dismiss any teacher for violation of rules, incompetency, or for any other cause considered sufficient by the board at any time.

Teachers shall co-operate in every way with their principal and superintendent in the performance of their duties as shall best promote the interests of the public schools.

It shall be considered an act of bad faith for any teacher or employe in the schools to apply for a position in the schools or to enter upon it with the intention of resigning before the expiration of the year, unless such fact is plainly stated at the time the application is made. Corporal punishment should be avoided in all cases where good discipline can be secured by milder methods. Where inflicted, it must be with a flexible instrument. No teacher shall in any case, punish children by striking or slapping them on or about the head with a rule or stick, nor shall excessive or unusual punishment be inflicted.

All teachers must bring their lunches and remain in their rooms or on the play grounds during the noon recess and see that the children act in an orderly manner. Teachers are requested to attend the Literary Society, take part in same and use their influence in every way to build up an educational sentiment among pupils.

No teacher shall compel, encourage or permit a pupil to copy or average the marks of another pupil or to grade another pupil's work, as this is the business of the teacher and not the pupil.

INSTITUTES

Institutes shall be under the management of the superintendent and shall be subject to the rules as the board may prescribe. These meetings shall be held as often as deemed necessary, on such day and such hour as may be designated by the superintendent, the first annual meeting being on Saturday preceding the opening of the schools.

All teachers shall be required to attend the institutes regularly and punctually and to prepare and discuss such exercises as shall be prescribed. The exercises shall be conducted with special reference to the practical work of teaching and the teachers are required to prepare themselves thoroughly and with a view of their daily duties.

EXERCISES

The morning exercises of each of the several rooms shall be such as are approved by the superintendent, and may consist of music, short selections from good authors, and quotations of maxims inculcating good manners and morals. These exercises shall follow roll call and the time occupied shall not exceed ten minutes.

TO THE PARENTS

Parents and guardians are respectfully requested to have their children enrolled at the beginning of the session as it enables them to be properly classified, when a few days delay may cause them the loss of an entire grade. They are requested after the children are enrolled, to see that they attend regularly as the teacher can do nothing for the child when he is absent. They should (continued on last page)

A NEW SANITARIUM FOR LUBBOCK

NICOLET HOTEL BUILDING WILL BE CONVERTED INTO HOSPITAL—REMODELING TO BEGIN AT ONCE

WILL BE MODERNLY EQUIPPED THROUGHOUT

Dr. M. C. Overton, of Lubbock, Forms Partnership With Dr. Chas. F. Clayton of Louisville, Ky., and Will Conduct An Up-To-Date Sanitarium in Connection With General Practice

Arrangements have been perfected by which Lubbock will within the next thirty days have a new sanitarium. The Nicolet hotel property has been leased and will be converted into a modern sanitarium. The building will be thoroughly overhauled. It will be remodeled inside and every room thoroughly renovated. All the rooms up stairs will be plastered and made thoroughly sanitary. The operating room will have a concrete floor and the corners will be rounded so as to make it easily kept absolutely clean and free from any contagion. The building will be painted and the exterior made to look much better than as it now stands. The work of remodeling to begin at once.

The building will be equipped throughout with the latest improved apparatus and fixtures making it strictly up-to-the-minute in every respect and will be ready for occupancy by the middle of September.

The new hospital will be owned and operated by Dr. M. C. Overton of this city and Dr. Chas. F. Clayton, now of Louisville, Ky. These two gentlemen have formed a partnership both in general practice of medicine and in the operation of the hospital. Dr. Overton is known throughout the entire western part of the state as one of the most successful physicians and surgeons and has a large, and possibly a larger general practice than any physician on the plains.

Dr. Clayton is well known in Lubbock and surrounding country. He has spent five years in Louisville during which time he has diligently applied himself to the study of his chosen profession and has made wonderful progress and his ability as a physician and surgeon has been recognized very appropriately by the management of the institution in which he has had his training in as much as they made him resident physician in the Louisville City Hospital, which position he has held for the past twelve months and has been successful to a great degree. He will be in Lubbock by September, first, and will begin making preparations to enter upon his work in Lubbock.

The Avalanche believes that this city should have an institution of this kind. Our city is the center of a large territory that needs the protection offered in a first class hospital and we believe these gentlemen are the proper ones to have charge of it.

WOODROW WILSON

Some Snap Shots of His Career—Now Democratic Presidential Nominee.

Born in Staunton, Va., December 28, 1856.

His father was Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, a Presbyterian minister; his mother was Miss Woodrow.

Attended public schools at Augusta, Ga., and Columbus, N. C.

When eighteen years old he entered Davidson College, North Carolina, but one year later matriculated at Princeton, graduating in 1879.

The next two years were spent at the University of Virginia, studying law. He won the Thomas Jefferson medal for oratory.

One year later, at Atlanta, Ga., practicing law, satisfied him with the business and he turned again to the study of law and government at Johns Hopkins.

Drafted as one of the original faculty of Byrn Mawr college, and helped to organize a course of study there, remaining two years.

Next went to Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., as head of department of history and political economy.

Back to his alma mater to occupy the chair of jurisprudence and political economy was his next move.

In 1902 he was elected president of Princeton, the first layman to fill that post.

Began his fight on the quadrangle system and to put all students on a man-to-man footing of democracy.

Again locked horns with Princeton leaders about graduate schools. This struggle continued up to the time of his resignation, in 1910, to run for Governor of New Jersey, being elected.

While at Hopkins he wrote, as his thesis, his work on "Congressional Government." He produced "The State," his biography of George Washington, his "History of the United States," and "Division and Reunion."

Under Governor Wilson who frankly informed the Democrats that if elected they would at the same time elect him leader of the party, the "boss" system was wiped out in the Democratic party in the State of New Jersey; a Public Service Commission was created; a modern workmen's compensation act was passed; primary election laws were extended; the Corrupt Practices act was strengthened, and an act was placed on the statute book giving municipalities the privilege to adopt the commission form of government.

He was nominated by the Democratic party for the presidency of the United States in June, 1912—August National Monthly.

To Resume Work

San Angelo, Aug. 19.—More than 400 men will start to work the latter part of this week on the Orient extension from Girvin to Alpine. Advertisements have been run in many publications which circulate among Mexicans to the effect that they can secure work on the Orient at good wages. Mexicans are flocking to this city now. Some of them come from the war zone of Mexico. The work on the extension will last for nearly a year.

RABBIT BOUNTY

The Gaines County Commissioners have appropriated $500 as bounty money for rabbit scalps to be paid out at the rate of four cents per pair of ears. If the Gaines county people get after the rabbits like the boys around Lubbock did when a similar inducement was held out, the court might as well make additional appropriation to begin with if they expect to pay for all that come in. The first appropriation was almost all taken up by the first sitting of the court and an additional amount was appropriated and that too was exhausted, but Lubbock County Commissioners believe in finishing a job when they begin and the offer is held out for scalps during the month of August. Probably $1800 or $2000 will have been expended for the extermination of the rabbits but we believe it is money well spent. We believe every county in the South Plains should do likewise. The rabbits do an immense amount of damage to crops and fruit trees and one farmer killing them around his place could not have much effect in ridding the entire county. One county cannot do as complete a job as a combination of counties. Let all the counties do likewise for two or three months and get the legislature to make a state appropriation and the rabbit pest can be eliminated in Texas, at least to a very great extent. Lubbock county alone during June and July paid 4 cents for scalps for over 30000 scalps and that's killing rabbits some too, and they are not as plentiful in Lubbock county as some of the neighboring counties, hence the necessity of getting the country rid of them.

The only difference in buying goods from the home merchants and from the mail order houses and that is you get good goods cheap at home and get cheap goods cheap from the mail order house. Which do you prefer?

Our merchants have been dividing profits with the people of this section of country all summer. There is no need to send your money away in order to get bargains.

Trade with Lubbock merchants.

Lubbock is to have a new sanitarium right soon.

Are Lubbock's gins ready for the 'first bale'?

Write your friends about Lubbock. Tell the truth and you will interest them.

New crop maize and Kaffir corn will soon appear on the local market, and will likely open at a good price.

Lubbock should have a nice premium raised for the first bale of cotton. Don't wait till the bale is in town. Do it now!

Help the Avalanche to keep Lubbock and the South Plains before the people of other states and thereby help to develop the country. Send the paper to friends or acquaintances. They will like the Avalanche.

A letter to the Avalanche which we take the liberty to reproduce shows how the people appreciate the Avalanche and look upon the Lubbock country as the banner section of the Plains. It is to a great extent true, that the people composing the population of Lubbock are the kind that cause things to come to pass. It is through the determined effort of her people that our city is today among the foremost of the South Plains. It is through the progressiveness of our merchants and business men that the Avalanche has been able to reach the high standard that our friends claim for it. That is the reason that it is in position today to herald to the world the greatness of the South Plains and as it reaches people in nearly every state in the Union the good cheer that it carries and the valuable information that each issue contains is bound to sooner or later have a great influence for the upbuilding of Lubbock and the development of the South Plains country. If you are not satisfied with your surroundings we advise you to come and see the Lubbock country. A look will convince you that there is all here that the Avalanche claims and you will soon decide to come to Lubbock.

CAN'T PLEASE 'EM.

The Hesperian is in receipt quite often of complimentary remarks concerning the way we handle the news of this section, but quite often we get "sorter" between the devil and the deep blue sea. As an instance we had two weeks ago an article headed "a good rain." This article stated the rain was general over the greater part of the country. And in truth it was a fair to middling good rain in over half of the county. Some three or four subscribers and good friends, gouged us in the third or fifth rib, which ever it is, though, about such newspaper fabrications, etc. So far so good. But last week the rain clouds put on about the same stunts and we began a short article about it with "rain not general." It wasn't general even if it did reach most all, but still it was more general than it wasn't general. We have heard from two or three on this article said we are knocking. And, now, we are going to punish the whole bunch if they don't stop it. We are not going to let a one of them know anything more about the weather. If it comes a flood and washes the whole bunch off, let 'em go—not a line do they get. If it comes a dry spell for six months and they all decamp for greener fields not a line to indicate the abnormal condition. They'll be sorry that they ever said anything because the information bureau switch will done be cut off, and they won't know when it rains or when its dry. If we don't do that we'll make 'em all subscribe for five papers apiece to send out of the county. There's more money in the latter, and we may need some money before the year is over. —Floydada Hesperian.

It is no use—dear Hesperian. You cannot please 'em. Fact of the business we would not have much respect for you if you did. The newspaper editor who pushes right along and prints the news as best he can get hold of it, is the one that succeeds. The only way we have of gathering news is through reports from the various communities and it is a well known fact that no two men report a thing the same. Two men standing together not three feet apart might report a "shower" and a down pour respectively. Put them on the stand and swear them with their hands raised to Heaven and one might swear it was an inch rain and the other five inches. Do not get discouraged. Keep on reporting the rain, make conservative statements and regard the "cussin'" of the people as a part of the game.

We do not believe its a good policy to let the Commercial Club sleep all the time. Wake it up!

Lubbock county needs a new court-house and needs it badly.

THE BROWN STUDIO

Honoring Mrs. R. A. McWhorter On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. L. Harrington gave a reception in honor of her sister, Mrs. R. A. McWhorter, who left Thursday for Dalhart, where she goes to make her home. In the receiving line were Mesdames Harrington, McWhorter, Keck, R. E. Burch, F. W. Clinkscales, and J. A. Knight. Miss Florence Harrington presided at the punch bowl, which was beautifully decorated with sweet peas, asters, nasturtiums and pansies.

The honoree was presented a Past Matron jewel by Mrs. Robert W. Brahan, on behalf of the Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. McWhorter responded in a very gracious manner, evidencing deep feeling for the friends she must leave.

Beautiful piano music was rendered by Mrs. Scott Cochran and Miss Vera Newton. Mrs. L. T. Mayhugh and Miss Rosa Fowle favored the company with solos that were greatly enjoyed.

Grapes were served by Mrs. Harrington and her daughters, Mrs. Scott Cochran and Mrs. Dudley Stovall.

Among the visiting guests were: Mesdames Williams, of West, Texas; Mrs. Wm. Cook, of El Paso; A. L. Porter, of Fort Worth; R. R. White, of Temple; and Dudley Stovall, of Waxahachie. —Plainview Herald.

The Imperial Barber Shop now under new management. None except first class barbers are employed. Baths, shaving, shampooing, massage and haircutting. Every thing in the barber line in the latest style of the art. E. M. TAYLOR, Manager. 7 1t

Reports received by the Federal Department of Agriculture indicate that Texas will soon harvest one of the largest apple crops in her history. The condition of the crop of that state on July 1st, was 76 per cent of normal as compared with 50 per cent on the same date last year. The condition in continental United States is given as 67 per cent of normal.

E. M. Taylor now has full charge of the Imperial Barber Shop on the west side of the square, Mr. Cline having moved to the country. He left the shop in competent hands and artistic hair cutting and smooth shaving reigns supreme at the same old stand.

Misses Wylie Wilson and Mattie Clark are helping W. L. Harrington in the big sale.

Why Boys Leave the Farm

With very few exceptions our farmers are kind and indulgent to their children. It might be well for the few exceptions to this rule to read the following dispatch recently sent out from Ashtabula, Ohio. It reads as follows:

"Mother, I shot myself so I can have rest. Pa cannot lick me any more for hoeing more corn. I was doing my best and could not do any more. I had a headache and felt miserable. Good bye.

Your son,
(Signed.) FRED MILLER.
P. S. It was 10:30 a. m., when I had a collision with the bullet."

This note written by Fred Miller, aged twelve, before he killed himself with a shot gun was found with the body by the neighbors in the home of Peter Miller, a farmer near Saybrook. Miller and his wife were in town trading when advised of the suicide of their only child. The boy had been left at home alone to hoe corn while the parents drove to Ashtabula.

The new $10,000 statue of Stephen F. Austin, which was authorized by the latest Legislature, is now underway by Pompeo Coppini, the sculptor. The model has been completed and has received the approval of the Governor. The statue will be placed over the grave of Austin in the cemetery at Austin. It represents the hero as he appeared shortly after his release from a Mexican dungeon when he was sent by the young Republic to enlist the sympathy and financial aid of the citizens of the United States. It is said by those who have seen it to be a masterpiece.

Judge O'Neal and family left today for a visit with relatives and friends at Lubbock and other points. The trip is primarily for the benefit of Mrs. O'Neal's health. We sincerely hope that she will be greatly benefitted. —Clarendon News.

TERRY COUNTY

Terry County Herald:
George Snodgrass and family, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. R. A. Snodgrass, passed through here last week on their way to Floydada, to visit their sister and daughter, Mrs. Sur-gener.

Eastin Wolfarth, of Lubbock, and Charley Epps, of Plainview, spent Wednesday night at the hotel. Eastin has been out to the ranch branding his black mule calves. They will probably go on to the T4 to look after buying some cattle.

George Tierman came in this week from Dundee, where he went to carry his niece, Miss Eula Whisenant home. While down there he attended the Sheriff's Convention at Fort Worth and went on to Sherman to see the two negroes hung.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Almon returned this week from Lockney where they attended their mother's funeral. They report good crops in the Lockney country.

The Methodist revival closed last Sunday night with good interest. While there was no visible results, all agreed that a world of good was done. Everybody is praising Bro. Terry's sermons.

Four car loads of Throckmorton county people spent Wednesday night at the hotel on their way to Roswell. They seemed to be pleased with this part of the country.

MRS. ALMON'S MOTHER DEAD. Lee Almon was notified last Friday afternoon by wire that his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. F. Cropp, of Lockney had died suddenly of heart trouble last Thursday some time during the night at the home of her son, R. L. Cropp, of Flomont, 30 miles east of Lockney. She was well and hearty when she retired Thursday night, and they didn't discover her death till next morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Almon left Friday afternoon for that point, arriving at 11 a. m. Saturday. She was buried about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Lockney. Mrs. Cropp was a member of the Christian church and leaves five children living. She was to have visited her daughter, Mrs. Lee Almon during this summer.

CROSBY COUNTY

Crosbyton Review:
Chas. Bolinger, of the Cone community, was in Crosbyton Tuesday and tells us that he has some of the best cotton to be found on the South Plains.

Contractor Grimes who has under construction the addition to the Crosbyton Inn, is pushing the work as fast as possible and is making no small amount of showing.

Dr. J. W. Howell, formerly of Cisco, Texas, arrived in Crosbyton, this week and will make this his future home. His family has not arrived but he expects them to arrive as soon as arrangements can be made for house-keeping.

The special train that will arrive from Chicago next Thursday will mark the event of much land selling and many new settlers. The Crosbyton-South Plains Railroad is promoting this project and in connection with the Live Stock Company much land will be sold to actual settlers.

John Swor, the concrete contractor, has the contract with the county to erect a bridge across the creek known as the Hank Smith crossing north of town. Mr. Swor states that he will begin work on the bridge in about ten days—says that he will erect one that the people will be proud of. The bridge will be built of concrete and will be substantial.

DAWSON COUNTY

Dawson County News:
Saturday night before the first Sunday in September, Rev. E. L. Springer will begin a united meeting of Mullins, Crosssett and Key communities. A large altar will be erected near Cass Lyon's home.

A storm which swept over this section last Saturday night was perhaps the worst in the history of this country. Barns, sheds, outhouses, etc., were wrecked, but so far as we know, no dwellings were destroyed, nor was any one hurt. The electrical display was grand and awe-inspiring. The sand was blown in clouds and then some. It was something fierce. Standing room in storm cellars was at a premium. But, forget it! The rain that has fallen in different sections of the country more than offsets all the unpleasant features.

At a depth of 85 feet, of which 30 feet was made by drilling, it was decided to put the pump to work on the test well Thursday. But there was some difficulty about getting the pump started, and there is nothing to report as yet regarding the capacity of the well at its present depth.

GARZA COUNTY.

Post City Post:
The little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Everett was operated upon last Monday by Dr. Ponton and all indications point to the little fellow's early recovery of the full use of the effected leg. The first operation resulted in much improvement, but it was thought best to have the bone treated further.

Chief Deputy F. R. Anderson, of the Brotherhood of American Yeoman, is in this city to organize a lodge of that order. This popular order, though only 15 years old, has paid claims of over seven million dollars and has a reserve fund of nearly ten million dollars deposited with the state of Iowa. They insure both men and women at the same rate.

Major W. W. Watts, of Richmond, Ky., died at his home last Sunday. Several months ago Major Watts was stricken with paralysis and has been in feeble health since that time. He was the owner of heavy land interests in Garza and Crosby counties.

GAINES COUNTY

Seminole Sentinel:
GOOD RAIN IN GAINES
A heavy rain fell over the south and southwest part of the county Tuesday after noon. Reports state that the rain was of the flood variety and has put a splendid season in the ground in that part of the county.

So far as we have been able to learn a splendid season is in the ground in all parts of the county with the exception of the extreme west and northwest parts. Good feed crops and plenty of grass are now assured and the farmers and cowmen are feeling fine and dandy.

HAIL DOES DAMAGE

The Sentinel received a phone message this week from B. E. Hays of the Blythe community stating that a severe hail and rain storm visited that part of the country last Saturday evening. The cloud gathered about six o'clock and Mr. Hays says that the bottom almost fell out. It is estimated that over eight inches of rain fell in less than three hours.

Crops which were looking fine, Mr. Hays states, are greatly damaged, but it is thought they are not entirely ruined. Mr.

Hays has about 20 acres in peanuts which he says are as fine as he ever saw, and the hail hurt this crop less than any other.

It seems that the territory visited by hail was a strip of country about five miles wide by eight miles long, but splendid rain fell over the entire north, northeast and east portion of the county.

Andy Williams states that the hail was so heavy at his ranch that the roof of the house was badly damaged and hundreds of rabbits and birds were killed.

BIG RANCH DEAL

Millard Eidson returned Tuesday from Plano, where he closed a deal with Mrs. T. A. Robertson, in which Scharbaub & Eidson purchased 600 head of two and three year old steers and 40 head of saddle horses from Mrs. Robertson, and also leased the Robertson ranch, consisting of 21 sections of land, for a period of five years. Messrs. Scharbaub and Eidson will take charge of their newly acquired property on September 1st.

YOAKUM COUNTY

Yoakum County News:
Messrs. Hol'oway and Poole will ship next week from Lamesa 1500 steers to Portland, Oregon. The shipment will be in charge of Leroy McCravey who expects to be absent a month.

Leroy McCravey moved his family to Lubbock this week, where they will remain until after school closes next spring.

Rain fell some where in the county every day this week. A fine rain fell here this afternoon, accompanied by considerable wind, which, over turned several out buildings, sheds, etc. A good season is in the ground in most places in the county. Not only will good feed crops be raised, but the stockmen will have fine fall and winter range.

Some of the friends of Sam Weaver are asking about his continued absence from home. The last Plains people heard from Sam he was on his way to Galveston, and it is presumed that after taking a few good baths in the gulf waters he will return to enjoy the fresh atmosphere of the Plains country.

Rev. T. M. Cornelias, of Terry county, passed through town Monday on his return home from Murphy's Chapel, in new Mexico, where he conducted a ten day's meeting, and stated that there were 22 conversions at the meeting. He will commence a meeting at Blythe school house, Gaines county, today which will probably continue more than a week.

G. E. Lockhart, District Attorney elect, came in yesterday afternoon and is looking after legal business here today. Mr. Lockhart stated that he will not likely get his commission in time to assume the duties of the office before the coming term of our district court, and that the first court in which he will appear as district attorney will be at the fall term of the Lubbock court. In Mr. Lockhart's election the people of the district have chosen a lawyer who is admirably equipped in every way to make a splendid prosecuting attorney, and we are firm in the opinion that those who supported him for that important office will never have reason to regret it, and we further believe that before his term expires nearly all the people of the district will feel a just pride in him both as a man and official.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank those of the Lubbock people who so kindly helped us during the recent illness of our daughter and sister and for the many kind words of sympathy after the death of our loved one. We cannot repay you, but ask the richest blessings of our Heavenly Father upon you.

MRS. V. H. STRINGER AND FAMILY.

Read the Flour ad of Spikes & Son in this issue of the Avalanche. The Pride of the Plains and the Cream of the Plains are grades of flour made from plains wheat and milled by plains mills. Plains people like plains raised products.

Canyon School

We desire to call the attention of the patrons of Canyon school to the date set for beginning the session of 1912-13. The date set for opening is September 2nd, and we hope that every patron and friend will lend us the encouragement of their presence.

We especially wish to solicit the co-operation and assistance of every one interested and hope to accomplish all the good possible for the young people of the community. Our prospects are flattering for a successful year's work. We are gratified especially to note the enthusiasm manifested by the people for the betterment of their school and social conditions.

We have good reasons to believe that before many weeks we will secure recognition as a rural high school, and it is our ambition to assist the school in reaching the requirements of the Department of Education of Texas.

Mrs. J. F. CLINE, Principal.

Mr. Kirby, the barber on the front chair in the Sanitary Barber Shop is visiting relatives in Weatherford and Fort Worth and will be absent about thirty days.

The Lubbock School Regulations

see that their children have regular hours at home for study and that those hours are after supper. The afternoon is the best time for little children to prepare their lessons, but the boy or girl in the high school who claims to be doing his or her work thoroughly and yet studies none in the evening is deceiving himself, or his parents or both.

Lessons should be learned at home and reviewed in the school room. Parents should require the children to report at home within a reasonable time after school is dismissed, and in case they fail to do so an investigation should be made, as this course would greatly lessen misconduct on the streets.

Parents are invited and earnestly requested to confer freely with the superintendent and teachers regarding the interests of their children. We are always ready to hear suggestions made in kindness and good faith, as we are working for the good of the child and the schools and not for our own pleasure.

PUPILS

Every pupil is required to conform to all the rules and regulations of the school, to obey promptly all directions of the teacher, to observe good order and propriety or deportment, to be diligent in study, kind to schoolmates, to refrain from hasty or improper language, to be clean and neat in personal attire, and to quit the neighborhood of the school in a quiet and orderly manner, immediately upon being dismissed.

For the purpose of enforcing proper discipline and maintaining good order among the pupils attending school, and that they may receive the full benefit of the instruction, the school authorities and teachers shall be deemed to have jurisdiction over them from the hour they leave home Monday morning until Friday evening, and during which time pupils will not be permitted to attend balls or parties, visit or receive company, visit the town or be seen upon the streets after dark, without special permission. In our opinion, pupils who are permitted to indulge in these amusements are unfitted to pursue their studies as they should, and are often detrimental to the entire student body. Hence, parents and guardians are earnestly requested to co-operate with the board and faculty in maintaining this prohibition and to urge upon their children studious habits at home. Quiet, orderly conduct, such as should characterize young ladies and gentlemen, will be required. Pupils who shall deface or injure any of the school property shall pay in full for all damages. Failure to do this within one week shall subject the offender to suspension until payment is made.

Lessons assigned for night study must be prepared, and we hope parents will assist us in having this done. Excuses for absence or tardiness, and requests for dismissal before the close of school, must be made in writing to the teacher of the pupil by the parent or guardian.

Such application for dismissal before the close of school, must be referred by the teacher to the superintendent or principal for approval. The application must not be granted except for urgent necessity, and should be discouraged in all schools.

Pupils shall not assemble on the school grounds earlier than 8:30 a. m., nor shall they loiter about them after school is dismissed. Quarreling, fighting, rude and discourteous conduct and profane talk, about the buildings or on the way to and from school, will be deemed a sufficient cause for severe punishment.

No pupil known to be afflicted with a contagious or infectious disease, or coming from a family where such disease prevails, shall be received or continued in school.

All pupils must take the regular examinations.

Pupils shall not go into or upon the play grounds allotted to the opposite sex.

Each pupil shall be assigned a seat, and it shall be his duty to keep everything pertaining to his desk in perfect order. He shall permit no litter on the floor near his desk.

Pupils remaining at noon may be permitted to stay in their respective rooms in a quiet, orderly manner, if the weather is inclement, provided the teacher for that room remains, and only in case of sickness shall the teacher be permitted to leave the children in her room unsupervised during any recess.

Pupils are forbidden to throw anything upon the floor of the rooms and halls of, or upon the school grounds.

The telephone is put in the school building for school purposes only, hence it shall not be permitted to call teachers or pupils to the telephone during school hours, except by permission of the superintendent or principal, however, important messages may be delivered to teachers, provided the privilege is not abused.

No pupil shall be allowed to communicate with other pupils during school hours, by speaking, writing or signs.

Pupils under seven years of age on the first day of September will be permitted to attend school provided the primary department is not overcrowded, on the payment of tuition, $1.50 per month in advance, provided they enter not later than the first Monday in October and will be permitted to enter again in January.

Pupils over seven years of age will be admitted to the school upon the payment of $3.00 per month, provided they enter with the intention of applying themselves and complying with the school regulations. Pupils over age will not be allowed to remain in school unless they comply strictly with all regulations.

Non-resident pupils, not transferred will be admitted on payment of $2.00 per month in grammar grades and $3.00 per month for those attending the High school. No deduction shall be made for pupil's absence for less than a week.

Pupils may be suspended for:

- (a) Use of tobacco or possession of same during school hours.
- (b) Truancy, continued ab### sence or tardiness, without an excuse.

- (c) Persistent and wilful disobedience.
- (d) Using profane or unchaste language.
- (e) Carrying dangerous instruments.
- (f) Disrespect to teachers in or out of school or on any day of the week or at any time of the day.
- (g) Fighting, quarreling or disturbing the peace on the school premises, or while going to and from school.
- (h) Continued idleness or lack of application.
- (i) Writing on, marking or defacing school property, sidewalks, fences or buildings.
- (j) Resistance to discipline.
- (k) Leaving school without permission.
- (l) Other causes which may arise, not herein mentioned.

Any pupil suspended under any of the foregoing rules may be reinstated only on such conditions as the superintendent and board shall determine.

JANITORS

It shall be the duty of the janitors to keep the school buildings and grounds in good order, to sweep the rooms, stairways and cloak rooms daily, and with cloth or feather brush to remove all dust every morning from the desks, tables, chairs, seats, etc.; to wash floors and windows whenever directed by the principal or superintendent; to make fires.

They shall have supervision of the closets and shall render the superintendent and principal such assistance in matters of discipline therein and thereabouts as they may request.

They shall notice carefully the conditions of repairs on the buildings and shall promptly report to the superintendent any actual or threatened damage, and to perform such other duties as may be directed by the proper authority.

LITERARY SOCIETY

This will be a part of the work of the pupil, and is under the supervision of the superintendent. It constitutes a large part of the student's preparation for life; is made practical as well as disciplinary. All pupils of the High school are requested to attend and take part in the proceedings. The pupils from other departments are not barred. This will not interfere with the pupils' daily work, as the time of meeting will be Friday evening, (night.)

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear, or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; since cases of deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

SECURE CHEAP MONEY

Texas Bankers Will Furnish Sufficient Funds at Rate of Six Per Cent to Protect Cotton.

Six per cent money sufficient for the successful handling of the "distress" cotton of Texas has been assured through Texas bankers to Peter Radford, president of the Farmers' Union. The plan will make it unnecessary for farmers to place their cotton on the market for pressing needs.

This statement was authorized in Dallas yesterday by Mr. Radford, who, with Ben B. Cain of Dallas, has just been to San Antonio, and while there arranged for money at 6 per cent per annum to take care of all distress cotton in the San Antonio territory. This territory includes a country within 150 miles on all sides of San Antonio. Similar arrangements had already been made for all that had indicated a desire to use this 6 per cent money through the local warehouses of North Texas, and with this South Texas money the state is practically covered, but a small territory in East and Central Texas not having been arranged for. Arrangements are to be made to supply this territory at once.

MORE WAREHOUSES NEEDED
More warehouses are needed, Mr. Radford says, to make the cotton plans for this season a complete success.

"The manner in which the bankers have approved our plans," said Mr. Radford, "is very gratifying to us, and as other bankers become better acquainted with the Farmers' Union plan we will have practically the unanimous support of the banking interests of this State."

Speaking of the practical completion of these important plans, Ben B. Cain, who has been working in connection with Mr. Radford for the past sixty days, says:

"The entire citizenship of the State is vitally interested in the success of this plan. In the first place, it can not but result in bringing the farmers and the business men into closer relationship, and to eliminate any possible suspicion or distrust of each other.

"These great business interests are mutually dependent upon each other for the greatest measure of success. When the farmer fails other failures naturally follow in his wake. When the farmer succeeds, all interests and classes are proportionately prosperous."

POSSIBLE SAVING OF $20,000,000.
It is figured that aside from the gain to the growers of Texas by reason of the increased price to be realized from the crop there will be a saving of from $5,000,000 to $20,000,000 through the proper and business-like housing and care of the cotton and its protection from weather.

The vital feature of this plan, it is stated, is that it leaves the farmer in control of a sufficient part of the crop to prevent glutting the market, and through the backing of the banking and business interests the cotton will be fed to the market in such a way as to make manipulation impossible. — Dallas News.

A dispatch from San Antonio says; "As a result from the failure to pay the soldiers for a period of two months there is a condition prevailing in army service which has not been known since 1877. The latest batch of money distributed for the Fort Sam Houston and other army posts was in June. The delay has been caused by the failure of Congress to pass the necessary appropriations. The pay roll of the enlisted men for Fort Sam Houston is $175,200 a month, making over $800,000 now due the soldiers. The soldiers are badly broke and there is much dissatisfaction in the ranks. The single men, who are quartered and fed in the barracks, have been deprived only of their spending money, but where the soldier has a family depending upon him, conditions have become rather serious. The San Antonio merchants are beginning to feel the effects of the withdrawal of the $175,000 monthly from the cash trade of the city. It is not known how much longer the soldiers will be without their money."

Says a father of a small family to us, "My boys and girls do not leave the door yard after seven o'clock unless especially detained." We know of others that adopted that same rule years ago and their sons and daughters are today a credit to the town and community. There is nothing elevating in street education.

Mrs. Grady L. Webster, of Byers, Texas, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Erwin in this city for some weeks, returned to her home Friday of last week.

Mrs. J. S. Hufstедler, who has been visiting in the city the past two weeks returned to her home in Hood county, Monday.

Mrs. Scott Wolfarth and children are visiting relatives in New Mexico this week.

THE BUSY MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The class had a very profitable lesson last Sunday. Growing out of the lesson was the question of the mediation of Christ, and in the class discussion a number of excellent thoughts were advanced, upon the subject. This is a most entrancingly interesting subject for study.
A mediator is one who stands between differing parties and has the power of reconciling each to the other. The office of the Christ as the mediator between God and man was one of securing the performance of the duty of man toward God, and the favor of God toward man, and thus securing the glory of God and the happiness of man.

"This became necessary by reason of the fall of man through sin. And immediately after Adam had transgressed the law of God, came the promise of such Mediator or Redeemer, in that there should be born of the posterity of Eve, one, who through suffering, should make satisfaction for the sins of men, reconcile them to God, obtain his mercy, and thereby bruise the head of the Serpent who had beguiled into sin."
The Epistle to the Hebrews is freighted with the doctrine that the legal sacrifices for sin of the Old Testament, were allusions to this great atonement to be made by the Christ in the shedding of His blood, and not that such atonement was an allusion to those sacrifices. Heb. 10:4-14.
"Lo, I come to do thy will O God." "By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all." "But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sin forever sat down on the right hand of God." Heb. 10.

Whatever we ask the Father in His name shall be given unto us. This is not to be taken to mean that we can secure these by the mere words in a prayer that it is in the name of the Christ that we ask, but it has the deeper meaning that we shall be so possessed of the thought of His unspeakable love, and unparalleled sacrifice for us, that we shall come to God in prayer with an overpowering consciousness of our debt of gratitude to Christ, and thus form our petitions in the name of Him, who for our sakes, "humbled himself and became obedient to death, even the death of the cross."
"Jesus was qualified to act as Mediator by the union between the divine and human natures," and "His divine nature gave an infinite value to all He did, rendering it effectual for the purpose of reconciling us to God, while the condescension by which he approached to man, in taking part of flesh and blood, fulfilled the gracious intentions for which a Mediator was appointed." That He now intercedes for us is a gracious, comforting thought. He is an Advocate who knows our case.
We are having interesting lessons. Come, be with us in our private room near the Methodist church each Sunday at 10 a. m. ONE OF THE CLASS.

W. M. Lundav, of the Grovesville community, was in the city the first of the week and paid this office a pleasant call. He says he is in a dry streak this year. His crop is not good and grass is very short. He says the dry streak is not large as about two or three miles from him the crops are fine and grass is good.
Lee Wright, who is looking after a part of the affairs of Henry M. Half, during the latter absence, reports that a carload of cows are shipped to the Fort Worth market every Monday. C. W. Hilton reports his wife getting along nicely since undergoing an operation at Abilene two weeks since. He expects that she will be able to return home soon.
John Gordon was in from the ranch the first of the week and sent out a quantity of building material for improvement on the ranch.
Dr. O. F. Peebler has brightened up his home by giving his residence and yard fence, etc., a coat of snowy white.

Chris Harwell made a business trip to Crosbyton Monday.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 19.—President Taft late today sent to Congress a special message, urging an amendment to the Panama Canal bill, which had both houses, asking the adoption of a joint resolution designed to allow foreign nations to test the validity of the free tolls provisions of the bill under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

President Taft indicated a desire to sign the present bill, but declared that it was of the utmost importance that further legislation be passed so that the good faith of the United States could be understood by foreign countries.

He was a member of the 1911-12 graduating class of the Lubbock high school, and he expects to attend the State University this year. The Santa Fe Railway Company is doing the gentlemanly act of connecting their depot platform with the city cement walk by laying a splendid cement walk six feet wide, making an unbroken line of good walking from the depot around the square on the north, west and south to the corner at the Nicolet hotel. It is a great convenience in muddy weather and a genuine pleasure when the sun shines.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—The Federal Crop Reporting Board has given out its estimate on the condition of the cotton crop and announces that the plant is in eight per cent lower condition in the United States as a whole, than it was at this time last year.

Texas is the only State in the Union in which cotton is reported in better condition than last year and we show the highest percentage in condition of any State in the Union.
The Texas acreage is estimated at 10,927,000 against 34,097,000 in continental United States. The condition of the Texas crop is shown at 89 per cent of normal against 80.4 in the United States.
Reducing the estimate to bales, it means that Texas will produce this year 4,263,000 bales and the United States 13,600,000 bales. We will produce 32.7 per cent of the cotton crop of the United States in 1912.

Mrs. E. D. Massey and children, of Trent, Taylor County, Texas, arrived here Monday and are visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Newton.
Dr. I. E. Smith, of Big Springs, was here Sunday.

NEW GOODS ARRIVING

Our Special Sale which was in some respects the most pleasant and satisfactory we have conducted, was designed partly to make room for Fall goods now already coming in.
Our selections for this season are, as a whole, we think, superior to any we have before shown. There will be new lines of known merit.
Our ready-to-wear will be represented by the popular "FABIAN" brand. Our footwear, whose merits have been attested by materially increased sales over any previous year, will be strengthened by the addition of the famous John Foster make which we are assured has No Superior anywhere. They are introduced to supply a limited, but particular trade who demand the best that money can procure. We shall be in position soon to offer this class of our patrons the World's Best at the same or lower prices than those in the largest cities. Our object is not so much one of profit, as an ambition to keep our shoe stock in line with the best stores everywhere. By proper encouragement and patronage you can make your home market just what you want it. Ladies think this over.

AGAINST INTERVENTION

Senior Texas Senator Does Not Believe That Present Conditions Warrant Action By the U. S.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 19.—"I do not believe that the situation in Mexico justifies intervention by the United States. It would be an act of war."

The statement by Senator Culberson reflects the views and attitude of all the Texas members of the house, as well as Senator Bailey. Senator Fall secured the floor on a question of personal privilege and vigorously denied charges by President Madero that the New Mexico senator through his close relationship with Orozco, had been responsible for the failure of the negotiations for peace in that republic.

Miss Lorena Stringer the 16 year old daughter of Mrs. V. H. Stringer of this city died at the family residence in north Lubbock last Monday morning about 10:00 o'clock.

For five weeks this young lady lay sick of typhoid fever. A few days before her death she seemed to get better and it was reported that she was fast recovering, but she suffered a relapse from which she could not rally.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. M. Lane, pastor of the Methodist church, at the residence at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday and concluded at the cemetery where the remains were laid tenderly to rest by the side of that of her father, buried there only a few months since.

Construction work has begun on Dallas-Hall, the first building to be erected for the Southern Methodist University in Dallas. This building will cost $300,000 and is the gift of the people of Dallas.

Save money by patronizing the W. V. Shoe Shop, next door east of the Bicycle shop.

W. H. McDonald, of San Augustine, is spending a few days in our city. He is one of the leading attorneys of his town, and seems well pleased with the general appearance of Lubbock.

J. M. Bloyd was here the first of the week from his farm east of town and loaded his wagons with lumber with which to build in addition to his residence.

THE PROTRACTED MEETING

Still Continues at the Tabernacle Revs. Lane and Overton are Doing Splendid Preaching

The protracted services at the tabernacle continue. The meeting is now beginning on the last half of the second week. Two services each day have been kept up since the first sermon of the series was delivered and though the attendance has not been what was hoped for in the beginning, still the services have been good.

The Sunday night services will likely close the meeting at this time. Rev. Hicks, the presiding elder of the Plainview District will preach at that hour. We are requested to announce through this medium that there will be no services Saturday neither morning or evening.

Local business men and farmers of Snyder are interested in the methods of securing irrigation used in the Pecos and Midland countries and will visit those localities in the near future to investigate the system employed. Tests have been made here and the result justifies the belief that water can be secured at little cost by the use of centrifugal force pumps of the sub-irrigation title-pipe method.

Mrs. Wm. Guthrie and two children arrived in Lubbock from Clovis, N. M., the first of the week and joined the balance of the family who have been in our town several weeks. Mr. Guthrie is a painter and will make Lubbock his home in the future. See his ad in this issue of the Avalanche. He wants your painting.

John McClung and family, of Jones county, who have been visiting relatives here and in Hale county, left Tuesday for home near Hamlin. Mr. McClung, we understand is very favorably impressed with the South Plains and may become a citizen of our splendid country some time in the near future.

John Shaw was in the city Wednesday. He presented the Avalanche with a lot of Plains raised water melons. He stated that his crop needed a rain, but he still wore a smile becoming to his countenance, which indicated that he has a pretty good crop on his farm.

Rev. Word in company with Dr. Chapin, started out to the Grovesville community Sunday where Rev. Word was to preach. They encountered quite a heavy rainfall a few miles out and for a short time it was impossible for them to travel. The rain covered quite a good strip of country, so we understand.

Rev. Arthur W. Jones, who has been holding a revival meeting near Abernathy the passed week, passed through Lubbock on the south bound passenger Monday enroute to his home in Dallas.

Mrs. Phillips, sister of Mrs. Abernathy (and mother of Mrs. C. A. Rush) is visiting here this week.

Two Residences Burned

Last Saturday about 11 o'clock the alarm of fire was turned in from the south part of the town and it was discovered that the building occupied by Bob Stoker and family was burning. People rushed to the scene with all possible haste and everything within the power of a willing set of men and an active bucket brigade was done to save the building but the fire had gotten too much the start, hence uncontrollable. The building was owned by a Mr. Harris and was valued at possibly $1000; no insurance. Mr. Stoker lost all of his household goods on which he had $200 insurance.

A hard fight was made to save the next house north which was owned by Mr. Stoker but the wind was blowing a stiff breeze from the south which made it impossible to save the building and it too was soon reduced to ashes. The building was valued at $1500 with $1000 insurance.

This building was occupied by J. M. Hughes and family and the greater part of the household goods were saved but still Mr. Hughes is looser some several hundred dollars.

Mr. Stoker informed the Avalanche that he expected to rebuild soon. He and family are at present living with J. M. Wright near Ripley.

Rain

Lubbock had another fine rain Wednesday afternoon. We have been unable to learn the extent of it, but we are inclined to believe that it covered the greater part of the east half of the county.

Jno. P. Lewis & Company sent up another balloon Saturday to which was attached a ticket good for merchandise. The boys gave chase and the ticket was finally captured by one of the Rutherford boys about two miles north of town.

J. W. Peeler, Meadow's leading merchant, spent Wednesday here looking after business matters.

J. F. Cline and S. P. Robbins are assisting County Assessor Porter to make up his rolls this week.

Coy Patton and wife left Wednesday morning for Lubbock, looking for a location. -Rotan Advance.

Mr. Spurlock and family left Tuesday for Greenville, Ky., where they expect to reside in the future.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 17.—Gov. Colquitt announced today the names of the nine teachers who are to compose the State Text-Book Board, with the Executive and State Superintendent of Public Instruction, a total of eleven members.

Advertisements have been inserted calling attention for bids to be submitted in this city, September 24. Several hundred books will be offered the board on that date for adoption in this state, to be used in the public schools during the five years commencing Sept. 13, 1913. The adoption must be made by Nov. 1, next.

Under the law, the Governor selected the nine teachers from a list of thirty submitted to him by Dr. S. E. Mezes, president of the State University; Prof. F. M. Bralley, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and President Binell of the College of Industrial Arts at Denton. The Governor's selections were restricted to the list of thirty. Who the other twenty-one teachers named by the committee of three were is not known, as their names were not announced.

NINE APPOINTEES.

The nine selected today are as follows: W. F. Doughty, superintendent of schools, Marlin, Tex.; L. Z. Timmons, superintendent of schools, Jacksboro; L. T. Cunningham, county superintendent of schools, Jones County, Anson, Tex.; John T. O'Shea, superintendent of schools, Taylor, Tex.; Gus F. Urbanke, professor at Blinn Memorial College, Brenham, C. E. Evans, president State Normal College, San Marcos; F. V.

Garrison, superintendent of schools, Sulphur Springs; Frank Kadanka, county superintendent of schools, Burleson County, Caldwell, Tex.; Mrs. Ella F. Little, primary teacher in public schools, Temple.

It will be noticed that the five branches of teaching or school supervision are included in the work in which the nine teachers selected are engaged. One comes from the State Normals, President Evans, of San Marcos; one, Mrs. Little, is a primary teacher; one, president of Urbanke, hails from college work, while the others represent city and county superintendency.

Your neighbor knows his Majestic Range uses little fuel—bakes perfect—heats abundance of water good and hot and costs practically nothing for repairs. Let us show you why. Call during our demonstration week September 2 to September 7. Western Windmill Company, 711

The Avalanche is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Rogers, of Clinton, Ill., in which he says many nice things about the paper and says he would like to pay Lubbock a visit this fall. He is owner of a section of land in the northwest part of the county and is interested in the development of the country. We would be glad for Mr. Rogers to come and see conditions as they really exist and we believe he will be willing to improve his property. Every foot of land that is improved helps to develop the country and increases the value of the property much more than the cost of the improvements.

NEW BOUNTY LAW

The State Appropriation of $100,000 Available First of September

Austin, Tex., Aug. 12.—That the people generally, and especially the sheep and stock raisers, in the Western section of Texas are deeply interested in the act passed by the regular session of the 32nd legislature providing for the destruction of wolves and other wild animals which becomes effective on September 1, 1912 is evidenced by the number of inquiries regarding the measure that are daily being received by the game, fish and oyster department here. Chief game warden Jeff D. Cox, says that hardly a day passes without an inquiry or two being received, despite the fact that this department has nothing whatever to do with the enforcement of the law.

This law carries an appropriation of $100,000 which shall become available on the first of next month. The purpose of this law is to protect the stock raisers, farmers and horticulturists from such wild animals as the coyote, bobcat or other wolf, panther, Mexican lion, tiger, leopard and wildcat, and a bounty is paid for each of these wild animals killed. The bounty is $5 each for the above animals, with the exception of the wildcat, for which a bounty of only $1 is paid.

There are thousands of wild animals in the western section of Texas and the loss to stock raisers through the depredations of these animals runs considerably over $1,000,000 a year. State Senator, Claude Hudspeth, of El Paso, was one of the strongest advocates of this measure when it came up for consideration in the legislature, and the governor would have vetoed the act had not an agreement been reached that it would not become effective until the first of September, 1912.

PENITENTIARY SYSTEM PLANS

Indebtedness of Institutions Will Be Substantially Lowered By Revenues This Year

Austin, Texas, August 17.—Chairman B. E. Cabell and R. W. Brahan of the State Prison Commission called on the Governor on their way to Huntsville from San Antonio convention.

Mr. Cabell expressed the opinion that the penitentiary system's indebtedness, which is still in the vicinity of $600,000, will be substantially reduced by the returns from the crops of the system. Industries and shops output of the current season. He said all crops are in splendid condition, excepting the cane, which fields were so seriously damaged by the freeze last winter.

The income from crops and products of the system, he said, will be approximately $1,000,000. While giving no definite plan for improvement

One of our exchanges says: "Lemon did not set up one standard for the girls, and another for the boys; he says—'train up a child.' One child in the dear old nest is as lovely to us as another, and yet there but a few miles where the boys are as tenderly shielded as the girls. We are not quite as careful to watch their daily formation of habits and their conversation as we are of the 'girlies.' They are more exuberant in spirit, and we hold them out of the house for the sake of quiet—after that the girls may practice their music."

The state of Texas,
To the sheriff or any constable of Lubbock county—greeting:

Sues for Custody of Children

A case which is causing considerable local interest is that of Mrs. Ruth Ellerd vs. Reuben M. Ellerd, in which the plaintiff is suing for the custody of their two small children. "Several years ago, when a divorce was granted, the children were given into the custody of the parents of R. M. Ellerd, with the provision that Mrs. Ruth Ellerd could visit them so often.

Last spring Mrs. Ellerd sued for custody of the children, and the case was set for the August term of district court, and it was ordered that the children be produced in court on the first day of said term of court. The children were not in court, and it is reported that they were taken to New Mexico with their grandparents. A charge of contempt of court was filed against Reuben Ellerd, alleging that he was responsible for the children being out of the jurisdiction of the court, and the trial of the contempt case was held Friday and Saturday, and resulted in the defendant being fined $250 for contempt of court, and the case set again for trial September 2. Mr. Ellerd gave notice of appeal. Quite a number of ladies were in attendance at the trial Saturday. Plainview News.

A Comparison

The Fort Worth Record says: Mr. Kern of Illinois, told the teachers of Texas who gathered at the State university in July to study for a week the problems of rural education about a neighborhood in his section of the country that became interested in procuring a better grade of horses. After much consultation, all the farmers of a district clubbed together and bought for $3,500 a splendid pedigree animal to improve the local strain. Next, they feared to entrust such a valuable investment to ignorant hands, and a groom was employed at a salary of $75 a month to have the horse in his sole charge. It then becoming time to elect the teacher for the district school, it was thought best to vote a monthly salary of $35. And they got what they paid for—a $35 grade of teaching. Also they paid willingly for the thing they wanted—a first-class grade of horse.

Building his argument up farther, that people do what seems to them really important, pay the price for what seems to them really worth while—Mr. Kern showed in another of his talks a photograph taken in his own county of a country road intersected by a lane. At the junction stood two milk cans waiting for the wagons that passed each morning, Saturdays and Sundays included, along the pike collecting the milk of a large section of country, and carrying it to the local creamery—a consolidated community enterprise, fitted with the best and most improved equipment. A half an hour later the same photographer snapped a group of children coming out of the same lane walking down the same road not, however, to a consolidated community schoolhouse furnished with the latest and best equipment. They were on their way to a little forelorn one-room house, where one teacher tried to do the work of several. The people of the neighborhood had decided that they couldn't afford the expense of sending their children the greater distance to a consolidated school. But it paid to send the milk.

A gentleman hands us the following scrap, and we presume that he knows better than we do as to the statement being a truthful one. From the bit of confusion we have noticed in approaching these masculine groups, we rather suspect the words are not wide of the mark. "It is certainly amusing, when one has a little leisure to approach a group of men on the sidewalk, and listen to the conversation just to hear how carelessly profanity mixes in. This man tears off an oath and that one tips off a dozen bad words in no time. All of a sudden the loud laugh ceases and the most refined language the 'group' is capable of using takes its place. Goodness what a change—and what caused it—O, nothing, only a lady has approached them, and they have a little more respect for her than themselves. Well, well a lady is a missionary wherever she may be."—Memphis Democrat.

HOMES—CAMPING PLACES.
 A citizen of Jacksboro was rather riled up at what the News said about Jacksboro in last week's issue of the News. He acknowledged that it was the truth, but was offended. The News makes no statement with intent of offending or hurting any ones feelings, and if there was no chance of doing any good we would never make these statements, but they do bring results. This citizen, instead of becoming offended should get busy and rectify the matter so that what the News said will not be true any longer and he could rectify it. The editor in his talk on the Rural Home at various places in county has made the statement that many of our Jack county homes are not homes at all but merely camping places. This statement has offended some, and they have taken a great deal of time and trouble to go about talking about us, and abusing us. If they had spent that time in fixing up their homes they would not look so much like camping places.—Jacksboro News.

Circumstances often alter cases. However there is not much excuse, if any at all for ones abode to look like a camping place. Be it ever so humble, the premises might be kept in a tidy condition. Be the home ever so small, it might have the appearance of a home, in as much as the windows might be kept clean. The yard can be kept free from the many different articles of rubbish that will accumulate by neglecting to keep it cleared away. The weeds can be kept cut down, raked together and burned. Home should be made as pleasant as the surroundings will permit. One should not take poverty for an excuse to be dirty. It takes but little to keep a household clean with a supply of soap and water. It takes only a short time each day to keep the premises in a presentable condition. We know of homes that are not furnished as exquisitely as they might be under other circumstances, but the premises are models of cleanliness. Everything is in order around the building, and shows that there is a pride behind the whole thing, and that the occupants of the humble home are not lazy. We know of other places—nice houses almost covered up in weeds, save a narrow walk to the front door. The yard is a confusion of rubbish of various kinds, this back alley is full of tin cans, weeds and every imaginable class of junk. It is a disgrace to the people who reside there and call it "home" and very likely there is a motto hanging in that home some where which reads "GOD BLESS OUR HOME." We doubt whether God would be willing to manifest his love to any great extent in a place like that. Clean up!

STAY-AT-HOMES.

Paris Daily Advocate: If the Old Man is lonely because his wife has gone to the summer resort, he does not necessarily need to give a party in honor of his stenographer. Better have the deacons of the church up to talk over plans for the prayer meeting.

The trouble is the neighbors. They would write his wife that he was having a bunch of men there every night to play poker. The average wife, with all the innocence on earth, always tells the neighbors to sorter look after her husband while she's away. This they do, and thereby make him unhappy. He feels as though he were a toy lamb, and likely to be led astray. They afford him no practical benefit usually, other than their questions as to whether or not he's lonesome, and similar entertaining questions. They remind him that the canary has to have a bath a week, and sometimes needs seed. All sorts of things that they feel represent a solemn duty to a woman not present to look after her interests. If he gets in late at night, some one next door is watching for him. He sees heads in curl papers watching him as he leaves the house in the morning, and resolves that hereafter he'll go out into the woods to stay until his wife gets home.—State Press.

Of course there are none of this kind of neighbors in Lubbock, neither are there any men here that need watching, and we are afraid there are not many who want to call in the deacons of the church to talk over plans for the prayer meeting. Judging from the number who attend the midweek prayer service, there are few who have any plans regarding the prayer meeting. Most of their plans are for aircastles or possibly working out a scheme to gobble up some more real estate or grooming himself for a race for mammon. Lubbock is a hustling, bustling town, her women are too busy playing Forty-two for them to pay any attention to Mr. Stay-out-late or Come-in-early, while wife is away on a visit to Ma.

Farm Notes

From The Farm Co-Operator

WHEN THE CROP IS LAID BY

Just as soon as the crop is laid by many farmers think that their work is over until the gathering season comes on. And numbers go off a visiting, and others go a fishing, and the entire farm is neglected for the time being to the great detriment of the farmer himself. The summer time, of all times, is the important time for the farmer to stay at home and take care of his business. His whole interest is now at stake in his growing crop. And any loss of his crops affects his interest. This is the time to gather the beans and peas. Can the fruit, put away the onions and kraut up the cabbage—in fact save the next year's supplies. As a rule the majority of the farmers let these little things go to waste and live hard the next year by reason of their neglect and improvidence. Here is the secret of success. In these little things lie the comfort of the family and the success of the farmer. And if they don't take care of these in their season they are lost beyond recovery.

Too many neglect to make repairs around their homes, and consequently there is but little conveniences around many homes. This could be remedied by a little effort upon the part of the farmer at this time of the year. Many even neglect to repair their yard fences and to replace the old broken gate when a few hours time would add hundreds to the looks of the premises and would prove a great convenience to the family.

Crops are all almost laid by and this is a leisure time with the farmers. The work in the crop is done for the time being and the farmer can now turn his hand to something else and make many needed repairs around the farm that has been badly needed for a long time.

The fences around the Co-Operator farm received a general over-hauling and was put in a condition to withstand the onslaught of the breechy old cows that are continually trying to get through the fence. First all weeds and grass was cut out of the reach of the stock and the old posts that were broken were replaced with new ones. The wire was all tightened up and re-stapled. This is a good time for all our farmers to do this kind of work. Any neglect of the fence will certainly lead to great loss. It will not only result in loss and great damage to the crop but will be the means of ruining the stock and making out of them confirmed fence-breakers, and, in the end, a nuisance on the farm. The old adage, "A stitch in time saves nine."

WHY NOT A FALL GARDEN?

Abundant rains that have fallen this month in many parts of Texas make the opportunity for a fall garden one which our Live-at-Home League need not be deprived the privilege of fresh vegetables until frost comes on that account.

Of course nearly everyone will have a patch of turnips and next to the turnip in popularity is the Irish potato for a fall crop. But these are only two crops which it is not too late to plant yet and make a yield.

Others are bush beans, late cabbage, lettuce, parsley, peas, radish, spinach and other greens. As late as October kale may be planted and those who have eaten this somewhat sturdy member of the cabbage family, know that on a cold winter's day-kale soup is not to be despised. Celery may be planted as late as September if one wants to take the trouble that celery entails. Nor is it too late yet for a fall crop of cantaloupe which will seem like a fine fresh fruit to be had. A dollar spent in seeds and a few hours' work in garden may save dollars that grocery will exact this fall down the cost of living and better living too. Why not it?

City Building Notes
Shade trees will enable a town to boast of the delightful cool evenings encountered in its locality. Trees create breeze, and a breeze brings relief from the heat.

A modern sewer system will increase the population by giving disease and pestilence a serious set-back.

Put not your money in a dead town—quoth experience.

A Commercial Club would be a failure without the aid of the local newspapers, for the success of any community depends largely on the quality and quantity of publicity received.

With prospects of bumper crops on ever hand, the city building movement should receive a great impetus. Join the Commercial Club.

Advertising in a consistent way is absolutely necessary to the progress of any line of business.

A stranger can usually distinguish between the store that advertises and the one that does not. One is crowded with both local and out-of-town buyers while the other carries a woe-begone look of dissolution and decay.

Some cities like the very things that would add materially to their growth, health and prosperity, such as down town parks, shade trees, sidewalks and attractive public buildings. The aim of the citizens seems to be to develop the commercial side and skip the very things that build. Health as well as wealth should receive attention.

Some boosters make a lot of noise but attract but very little attention for the reason that they cannot go into detail and exploit the resources of the adjacent country as well as the home town. A general knowledge or the whole section is necessary to systematic promotion. Capital demands definite details. You may have been a city knocker all your life, but remember, its never too late to boost.

CALOMEL MUST HURT YOUR LIVER

Every Time You Take This Powerful Drug You Are in Danger—Take Dodson's Liver-Tone

Instead Calomel is made from mercury, and while mercury has many uses, it is a dangerous thing to swallow. If calomel stays in the system very long it salivates. Even when it works naturally its after-effects are often bad.

The Cross Drug and Jewelry Store has a liver medicine called Dodson's Liver-Tone which is positively guaranteed to take the place of calomel. It stimulates the liver just enough to start it working, and does not make you sicker than ever—as calomel often does. Dodson's Liver-Tone won't force you to stop eating or working after taking it. It is as beneficial for children as for adults.

Try a bottle today under guarantee. You know this store is reliable.—Red Cross Drug and Jewelry Store.

J. F. Vance, one of the Avalanche's good friends in the Grovesville community was a pleasant caller at our office Thursday afternoon and favored the editor with a bucket full of choice grapes grown in his vineyard. He stated that the grape crop was good this year and although his vines are very young they yielded quite a heavy quantity of fruit and the quality, we can attest is excellent.

The condition of the crop is 2 per cent better than last year and the farm price, per bushel is given at $1.28 as compared with $1.20 on the same date last year.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

On the morning of August 7th Frances Adams entertained a number of little girl friends in honor of her fourth birthday. The guests were received at the door by Frances and ushered into the bedroom where Marseil Turner took their hats. They were then refreshed with punch gracefully served by Edith Edwards. After enjoying games, stories, etc., for awhile the little girls were called into the dining room where quite a pretty sight was awaiting them. The room was darkened, four candles shedding a soft light from the birthday cake in the center of the table. The decorations were pink and white, pink ribbons running from the cake to each little girl's place. Quite a little fun was created in finding the names on the place cards, which were decorated with pictures of dainty little girls like themselves. The refreshments were ice cream and cake. In cutting the birthday cake Eunice Florence proved to be the lucky one. Mrs. Adams was assisted in entertaining by Miss Willie Ver-million. Those present were Marseil Turner, Allene Loomis, Christine Mabry, Ruth Smith, Edna Wadsworth, Edith Edwards, Luther May Bellomy, Gladys Denham, Bessie Conway and Eunice Florence. Each little guest presented a little gift which was very graciously received. With many expressions of pleasure the little girls departed leaving Frances very much in love with such a beautiful world. A GUEST. Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Mann returned last Friday from an eastern trip, purchasing fall goods for the Hampton store, and visiting in Ohio. Slim Wilson stuck a pick into his right foot Tuesday morning while working on the pit for W. P. Florence's irrigation well, and cut piece out of his big toe. Dr. S. H. Adams dressed the foot. Monday night a migrating cloud of grasshoppers passed over Slaton, coming from the west. The business section of the city was besieged by the hoppers about nine o'clock and the merchants who were holding open late abandoned their seats on the sidewalks where they were enjoying the cool breeze of the evening to take refuge from the oncoming winged pests behind closed doors. There was evidence of the grasshoppers Tuesday morning.

Which Shall It Be?

Do you intend to continue laboring, burning valuable fuel and destroying high priced food with that old worn-out cook stove?

You know that old stove eats up a lot of fuel each year.

You know you have trouble in getting it to bake just right, in fact, spoil a batch of bread every once in a while—you know it costs considerable for yearly repairs.

Stop and think and figure. Wouldn't it pay you to buy a good range—a range with a reputation

The Great Majestic Malleable and Charcoal Iron Range?

You make no mistake in buying the GREAT MAJESTIC—it's the range with THE REPUTATION—ask your neighbors. Then, too, it's made just right and of the right kind of material—MALEABLE AND CHARCOAL IRON—riveted together practically air tight—lined with pure asbestos board—parts being malleable can't break—has a movable reservoir and an oven that don't warp—that's why the MAJESTIC uses so little fuel, bakes just right every day in the year (browns bread just right all over without turning), heats 15 gallons of water while breakfast is cooking—properly handled lasts a lifetime, and costs practically nothing for repairs.

Don't buy the range you expect to last a lifetime "unsight unseen," you'll be sure to be disappointed. Come to our store during demonstration week, see the GREAT MAJESTIC—have its many exclusive features explained—find out why the MAJESTIC is 300 per cent stronger than other ranges where most ranges are weakest.

BANKERS CLOSE MEETING

Amarillo Was Selected as the Place For Holding the Next Convention

Plainview, Tex., Aug. 15.—The Panhandle Bankers' Association has just closed a two days' convention with more than one hundred members and visiting bankers in attendance. Amarillo was chosen as the next meeting place, and the following officers were elected:

O. L. Slaton, president, Lubbock; Joe E. Lancaster, first vice president, Plainview; R. M. Collier, second vice president, McLean; Ira Smith, secretary, Estelline, and G. A. F. Parker, treasurer, Hereford.

Among the prominent visitors present were Messrs. Jarbee and Godell of the Drovers' National Bank, Kansas City; Mr. Walton, cashier of the New England National Bank, Kansas City; T. P. Martin of the Stockyards National Bank, Oklahoma City; Col. Henry Exall, of Dallas, president of the Texas Industrial Congress.

The following program was carried out:

Tuesday, August 13, afternoon session the association convened at the Schick opera house at 3:30 p. m. and Dr. I. E. Gates, president of Wayland Baptist College, delivered the invocation, followed by an address of welcome by Mayor J. L. Dorsett, responded by R. A. Underwood; then followed the annual report of officers: "How Trust Companies Can Add to the Development of West Texas," by R. L. McCauley; "The Good of the Order," by R. H. Collier; adjournment.

On Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock about 500 bankers and local guests assembled on the Wayland lawn, where music was furnished by the Plainview brass band and an orchestra;iced cantaloupe, cigars and punch were served followed by a dance at 10 o'clock.

The Wednesday morning session convened at 9 o'clock; invocation by Dr. W. M. Pearce, president of Seth Ward College; address by Col. Henry Exall; "Pioneer Days," R. D. Gage; "Results of Past Year: Outlook for Future," J. C. Paul; "A Kansas Blue Sky Law," B. L. Gill; general discussion; adjournment for dinner.

At the afternoon session, election of officers and selection of next meeting place were the principal business considered. At 3:30 o'clock some forty automobiles were placed at the disposal of the visitors, and an expedition was made to the Graham, Smith and Slaton irrigation wells. Truck patches and alfalfa fields were inspected, as well as the 320 acre tract planted to Mexican beans, with which F. H. Perry is experimenting.

Grapes, cantaloupes, peaches, plums, etc., were gathered from several irrigated farms en route. At 6 o'clock the party and some two hundred citizens of Plainview foregathered at the E. Dowden home, six miles southwest of Plainview, where barbecued mutton and beef, coffee, fruit punch, and various other refreshments were served al fresco. Addresses were made by Col. Exall and various other visitors, and a vote of thanks and three cheers were awarded Mr. and Mrs. Dowden for their entertainment.

Col. Henry Exall was the chief guest of honor at the convention and his address on "Better Cultural Methods" was said to have been the best oratorical effort and of the most worth of any speech ever made on the Plains. A crowd of from 750 to 1,000 was present, and it was the first time a Plainview audience ever listened to an agricultural address with high-keyed interest throughout.

The speaker plead for the planting of cowpeas and turning under the same while green to supply humus in the soil; for better seed selection; soil mulch, and other methods for conserving moisture and the life of the soil.

It was Col. Exall's first trip to the Plains, and he stated that while he had been in every state in the Union he had never seen a new section that offered the possibilities of the South Plains.

He clapped his hands when he saw his first irrigation well flowing 1,500 gallons per minute, and said that it was "worth traveling a thousand miles to see and that irrigated land on the Plains should be worth $500 per acre in a very few years."

The convention passed a resolution indorsing the work of the Texas Industrial Congress and thanking Col. Exall for his presence.

Does the word "reputation" mean anything to you? Stop and think and figure and you will know why the Majestic Range has the reputation of being not only the best but the least expensive. Let the man from the factory show you. See our big ad in this paper. Western Windmill Company. 7 tf

Texas Ostrich Industry

El Paso, Texas, Aug. 14.—Having hatched the first ostriches in Texas at its El Paso farm in March, the Southwestern Ostrich Farm, of which T. W. Kemp is manager, now has fifty young birds from which it is expected plumes will be secured by November. Mr. Kemp says the importance of the ostrich industry in Texas is far greater than most people realize, and it will be but a short time before he begins to develop the scheme he had in mind when he was persuaded to come to El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McCrummen, of Paris, was here last week looking after business matters and visiting relatives. They returned to Paris Friday.

Was Intoxicated and Threatening Life of Boy's Mother With a Razor.

Plainview, Tex., Aug. 14.—An authentic report has been received here of the killing of A. A. Lomaz by his 13-year-old son Monday night.

Lomaz had returned from Floydada intoxicated and was threatening the life of his wife with a razor. His son stood in the door with an ax saying: "If you come another step, I'll kill you." The father advanced and the son made good his threat. Every bone in Lomaz's head was broken according to physicians' report and death was instantaneous.

The family has lived eight miles southeast of Floydada for fifteen years and Lomaz raised the first bale of cotton ever raised in Floyd county.
