THE COMMISSIONERS IN SESSION

REGULAR QUARTERLY TERM HELD THIS WEEK AND CONSIDERABLE BUSINESS TRANSACTED

WILL NOT PAY RABBIT BOUNTY AFTER SEPTEMBER 6

Some Road Business Looked After—Tax Levies Made and Reports of County Officials, Butchers, Etc. Received—Action of Re-Surveying County Lines Postponed Till Later Date

The County Commissioners have been in session this week ever since Monday morning, and finished business Wednesday afternoon.

Accounts of various kinds were allowed.

Reports of the butchers and hide and animal inspector were duly approved.

Returns of the special election in School District No. 6, to determine whether a tax for school purposes of .50c on the $100 valuation of property be levied was canvassed, and resulted in five votes, being cast for the tax and none against. A like election was held in School District No. 10, and it was found that 2 votes were cast and both were for the tax levy. In School District No. 17, an election of the same nature was held and seven votes were cast all for the tax.

W. L. Elwood having agreed to give the county sufficient land through his pasture on the road leading northwest toward Lamb county for the opening of a county road, the Court instructed the County Judge to prepare dedication papers for same.

Upon proper petition Voting Precinct No. 6 was discontinued and added to Pre. No. 2 which is the voting box in the southeast corner of the court house, and precinct six was the Burgess voting box.

School District No. 5 in a recent election to vote bonds for school improvement resulted in 16 votes being cast, 11 for the bonds and 5 against them.

The report of J. J. Patterson, et al., composing jury of view for the road south from Slaton to the north line of Lynn county was received.

J. I. Powell, et al., jury of view for road made a report which was examined and approved and the clerk ordered to issue warrants to those who claimed damage by reason of opening the road, at the rate of $15.00 per acre.

Ward Crim, overseer of the Lubbock and Abernathy road was ordered by the court to open three miles of the road that had recently been changed, near Abert.

E. Brooks was appointed overseer for the road from Slaton south to the Lynn county line.

It was ordered by the Court that a bounty of 5c each for rabbit scalps be discontinued and that no scalps will be paid for that are brought in later than September 6th.

TAXES FOR 1913

An ad valorem tax of 25c on the $100 valuation of property was levied for general revenue purposes for Lubbock county during 1913 and 10c on the one hundred dollars valuation of property to pay interest on bonded indebtedness and create a sinking fund and for general court house purposes, and 15c for road and bridge purposes.

In Hockley county a levy of 22 1-2c on the one hundred dollars valuation of property was made for general purposes and the same amount was levied for Cochran county for the same purpose.

An occupation tax was authorized for Lubbock, Hockley and Cochran counties of one-half the amount allowed by law to the state on all occupations now taxed under the laws of the state.

In common school districts 1, 3, 4, and 25, Lubbock county, a school tax of 55c for the purpose of supplementing the school funds appropriated respectively in each district. District 17 and 12, 25c, District 10, 10c for general purposes and 10c for interest, and a sinking fund to pay principle on bonds issued. District 5, 6, 11, 16, 19, 22 and 24, Lubbock county, 50c. District 7 and 20, 45c. District 2, 20c for general purposes and 20c for interest and sinking fund. District 8, in Hockley county, 10c, and district 13, 12c.

Court adjourned. Although nothing went on the minutes regarding the matter, the question of re-surveying the county lines and establishing them from a point at the southwest corner of Childress county, was discussed and the matter will be taken up with adjoining counties to determine what shall be done regarding it at an early date. It is the contention of some surveyors that the lines are not correctly located and the county commissioners are seeking to correct any error that may have been made. No definite steps have been taken at this time but the matter will be thoroughly sifted out at a near future date.

5,307 Bales of Cotton

Austin, Texas, Aug. 12.—A report just issued by the Commissioner of Agriculture, Ed. R. Kone, shows that during the month of July there were 5,307 bales of cotton ginned in this state. This is 4,120 bales more than were ginned during the same month of 1912, while the receipts show a ginning of 17,258 bales of cotton for the corresponding month in 1911. Round bales are counted as half bales.

Roy Dalton and wife were pretty badly shaken up, and bruised by being thrown from their buggy while on their way from their home near Lorenzo to Lubbock, Monday evening. The breast strap broke letting the buggy pole drop down, frightening the team causing them to run away and throw the occupants from the buggy. Neither were seriously injured however and will soon be entirely recovered.

W. D. Benson and son, W. D. Jr., left Saturday for Amarillo, and will visit Wichita Falls before returning home.

TO RECLAIM PANHANDLE TRACT

Capitol Land Company Said to Own 750,000 Acres in Excess of Grant—Survey Planned

Austin, Aug. 9.—The state of Texas is preparing to reclaim a tract of land valued at $18,000,000. As nearly every Texan knows, many years ago the state granted to John V. Farwell of Chicago and his associates a solid tract of land in the Panhandle, consisting of 3,000,000 acres in exchange for the state capitol.

The land, twenty-five years ago, was worth 50 cents an acre and was regarded as worthless for agricultural or even for grazing purposes. Only in the last few years has the man with the hoe invaded that region, demonstrated that crops can be raised there and increased values to $25 per acre.

Several months ago when engineers were making a resurvey of the boundary line between New Mexico and Texas they made the discovery that the land embraced in the capitol land grant, as it is called, is much in excess of 3,000,000 acres. In a report to the state legislature it is charged the syndicate holds about 1,000,000 more acres than it is entitled to.

When this fact became known recently, a representative of the company declared that while it occupied more land than called for, the excess was only 30,000 acres and that the company merely took what was offered and that it was the fault of the state. But investigators now assert that the excess is 750,000 acres or more.

In order to determine the exact boundaries of the big tract the state will again survey and will take back the excess land. If the amount is 750,000 acres, it will bring to the state $18,000,000 in revenue. All of the land is good. Farming already is actively engaged in in many parts of the tract. A sea of pure water underlies the tract and it can be tapped at a shallow depth and used for irrigation at slight expense. Many such wells are already in operation.

Sunday School Convention

Canyon, Tex., Aug. 12.—The Panhandle Sunday School Convention will be held at Canyon, September 3rd to 5th.

W. N. Wiggins, State Secretary, and his efficient corps of workers will be here, and a good convention is expected.

Each Sunday School in the district is expected to send delegates; the program will be interesting and instructive.

H. J. Robbins, who for some weeks has had charge of the Commercial Barber Shop left Monday for Plainview where he will reside in the future. Mr. E. M. Taylor, formerly with the Imperial Barber Shop, has taken the management of the Commercial, and is now in charge.

Mrs. P. J. Boyles, of Dallas, sister of Mrs. Ed Robinson, arrived Wednesday morning and will remain several weeks the guest of her sister. She spent several weeks here last summer and many will remember her and be glad to meet her again.

W. T. Jennings is nursing a very sore hand this week. He stated that some kind of poisonous insect stung him though he did not know when, but his hand is badly swollen and the bitten place is badly inflamed.

G. D. Allen and wife who had been visiting his son W. P. Allen and other relatives out at Midway, the past month or more came in Tuesday and left Wednesday morning for their home in Hale county.

WYLIE KILLED BY SILO

High Wind Blew Silo Under Construction Down and Results in Death of Owner.

A feeling of deep regret fell over the city of Lubbock last Saturday afternoon when information was telephoned to town that S. A. Wylie was dead as a result of a silo, which was being erected on his place, falling on him.

About five o'clock a heavy cloud came up and was preceded by a rather strong wind, and the silo that Mr. Wylie was having erected on his stock farm, not being securely braced, collapsed and Mr. Wylie was crushed beneath the wreckage. He was dead when the rescuing party cleared enough of the debris away to get to the body.

He was severely bruised in different places on the body, especially about the head and chest. A physician was called as soon as the accident happened, but could do nothing after arriving in the way of bringing back life to the crushed and bruised man.

Mr. Wylie was one of our most prominent and highly respected citizens and his death is greatly lamented by the people of this community. His remains were embalmed so that burial might be postponed awaiting the arrival of relatives from a distance. Interment was had in the Lubbock Cemetery at 5:00 o'clock Monday, Rev. J. L. Elliott conducting the services. Mr. Wylie was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. He leaves a family and also a number of near relatives, who have the deepest sympathy of the Lubbock people and all who had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Wylie.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 11.—Gov. Colquitt's message to the Legislature today submitting nine additional subjects is as follows:

PROSPECTORS APPRECIATE LUBBOCK

THEY COME, SEE, AND ARE ANXIOUS TO GET OUT TO THIS BALMY CLIMATE

LUBBOCK FARMERS WILL HARVEST HEAVY CROPS

Some Parts of Country Has Been Dry and Crop Will Be Short, But as a Whole Big Yield is Reported.

During the past week a number of prospectors have been in Lubbock and have bought land in the county. They came, saw and believed and were willing to invest their money in some of Lubbock county's rich soil. They are anxious to get possession of the property too so that they can come right on to the finest county and the most pleasant climate in the world. One man said he could hardly wait till fall to get out here but had to stay where his crop was and gather it before moving to Lubbock. He went back home a convert however and is at this very time telling of the greatness of old Lubbock and the beautiful South Plains. As a whole the Lubbock farmer will harvest heavy crops. There are a few farmer's in the county that have not had as good season as ordinarily and the crop will be light but the biggest feed crop of the history of the country is already made and with another rain within a few days, the yield will be immense. Cotton is not in the least hurt the fact is, its ideal cotton weather and the plant is well fruited. Harvest has begun and farmers are going to be the busiest set in the country from now on till the big crop is in the silo, the barn or in the rick. Farm hands are going to be in demand soon. Harvesting machinery is being hauled out to the big farms and the fact that fast machinery will be used and the latest improved methods adopted is the only way that our farmers can possibly get their crops gathered. It is a good time to be getting that exhibit for the fair and the farmer should co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce in providing stuff for the exhibit. Lets all pull together. Prospectors can readily see what a magnificent country we have. Why not get in the collar and pull for a bigger Lubbock and the better development of the South Plains. Come to Lubbock.

KILLING AT SLATON

E. M. Riley Stabbed J. W. Smith of Big Springs to Death Sunday Morning

Last Sunday morning just as the north bound passenger train stopped at Slaton one of the greatest tragedies occurred that has ever been witnessed by human eyes in the county.

J. W. Smith, who we understand was a druggist at Big Springs was a passenger on the train, so was Riley. Smith boarded the train at Sweetwater and Riley at Post.

As the passengers were alighting from the train Riley stated in his preliminary hearing that he recognized Smith as the man he had vowed he would kill the first time he placed eyes upon him. Smith got off the train and stepped into a nearby wagonette and was followed by Riley, who stabbed him in the neck and several other places about the body in the region of the heart and shoulders, from which Smith died in a few minutes.

Riley was taken in charge by the constable at Slaton and brought here on the same train that the two men came up to Slaton on. He has placed in jail and remained there till Monday afternoon, when he made a statement to the court and his bond was placed at $10,000 which he readily gave and was released awaiting the action of the next grand jury.

It was stated by Riley that some time ago Smith insulted Riley's wife, and he had vowed that he would kill him if he ever saw him, and he claims this was the first time they had met since the occurrence.

It is a deplorable affair and our people are sorry indeed for such a thing to happen within the county borders.

THE BAPTIST MEETING

Protracted Meeting Began Last Sunday at the Tabernacle and Has Continued all Week.

According to announcement in the last issue of the Avalanche the Baptist people began their series of revival services at the tabernacle with the Sunday morning service.

They were some what disappointed when it was announced that Rev. Finney could not arrive till the middle of the week, but the pastor began the meeting anyway and Rev. Smith of Plainview, came down and bombarded the fort till Wednesday at the 10:00 o'clock hour. Rev. Finney arrived at 11:30 and began preaching with the Wednesday night service, and will continue to the end of the meeting, which time has not been definitely announced. Other denominations are co-operating nicely and good congregations are greeting the speakers at each service.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lynch, of Lovington, New Mexico, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Medlin and daughter were here Monday. Mrs. Medlin and daughter left on the afternoon train for Oklahoma their home. They had been visiting at the Lynch home at Lovington for several months.

Charlie Ward arrived in our city Tuesday. He has been gone several months and has been employed on the Uvalde paper ever since he left Lubbock, and he tells us that he is a full fledged typo now.

Foy E. Wallace, of Georgetown, son of our Mr. Wallace arrived in our city Tuesday and is visiting his parents. He is a preacher and will be heard at the East Side Christian church Friday night.

PROPOSITION THAT SHOULD APPEAL TO ALL

The suggestion that the state of Texas provide for the payment of its treasury warrants at their face value is one that should appeal to every fair minded person.

As a business proposition it cannot well be opposed. It is a plain statement that the state should do just as other creditors do daily in business affairs, pay the interest on the money necessary to meet its honest obligations.

There is no fairness in compelling the state creditors and employes to discount the warrants for the money due them. The state did not agree to pay its employes four per cent less than the salaries at which they were employed, and it did not contract to pay the men who have supplied it four per cent less than the specified price.

Being without funds it should do as the individual would have to do, obtain the fund and pay the interest upon it until the time treasury is in condition to take up the obligations.

It is not flattering to the prestige of the state to have its U. S. hawked about at discount. No fair minded citizen will contend that the employes who have given their part of contracts with the state should be the ones to bear the burden of the state's financial embarrassment. It is the state's load, and the state should carry it.

State purchasing is done on a system of competitive bidding.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed, it swells and obstructs the ear-drum, which is then forced out and its vibrating surface partially destroyed. Deafness is not cured until this membrane is restored to its normal position. Hearing will be restored if the membrane is restored to its normal position. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness cured by our method. Write for particulars to Dr. J. C. GARDNER, 1001 Broadway, N. Y. City.

such work mounts into figures that can scarcely be computed.

Work of this sort is practical work. It is investment of the sort advocated by those who are striving to arouse public sentiment to the importance of developing Texas resources.

A number of such propositions have been before the house and it is a good sign that they have met with uniform success. One of these is the appropriation, just authorized, for the investigation of marketing of crops and the supplying of marketing information. Fifteen thousand dollars for this purpose is set aside in the fund given the state department of agriculture.

Wednesday $12,500 also was set aside to assist in the development of the mineral wealth of the state by providing for the completion of information as to what is under the surface.

Expenditures such as these come back many times over to the state and are a wise exercise of the powers of the legislature. —Fort Worth Star Telegram.

"THERE ARE OTHERS"

When you go to a boarding house to eat you select what you like and don't kick because another man likes everything on the table and pays the same you do. Still, you make a roar if something in the newspapers doesn't suit you. It always pleases somebody. Don't be a philosopher about your stomach and a fool about your head. Lubbock Avalanche.

Repeat it, oh sage! Shout it in Gath, whoop it up in Askelon, megaphone it in Plainview and thunder it in Slaton. Apt is the simile, forceful the adjuration. The man who gets mad at something in the paper is full brother to the boarder who gets mad at squash on the dinner table. Of course, few of us have any patience with squash, but some people like it—or say they do—therefore we have no right to leave the dining room in a huff when the landlady includes squash in an occasional bill of fare. So the subscriber to a newspaper who becomes indignant at the baseball or the divorce or the Panama Canal news has no right in reason to fly into a rage because there isn't more poetry or fiction or scientific miscellany in the sheet. Eat what you like at the table; read

HUSBAND RESCUED

DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Patron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

what you like in the paper. But don't forget that what you appreciate may be despised by others, and that what you despise may be appreciated by others. The editor and the landlady are in the same boat, so to speak, (with a chaperon, of course,) and it certainly does make them tired to have to cater after a customer who thinks the whole establishment should be razed and rebuilt to conform to his more or less important taste. There never was in all the realm of articulation a truer saying than that "there are others." —State Press.

The Deering Ideal Corn Binder

I am now selling this binder and I would be pleased to show you the many preferable features to this binder of any on the market. I have sold a number of these machines already and others are going to buy. If you are in the market read further about this splendid binder:

The Deering Ideal corn binder has the same relation to corn that the grain binder has to wheat and oats. The standing corn like the grain, is cut, bound and discharged as fast as horses walk. Like the grain binder, it makes a big saving possible, not only in manual labor, but also in the number of hands required and wages and board for extra men. At the same time, the corn binder does from five to eight times as much work per day under average conditions as a man would do. Tall and short corn is handled with equal ease.

It can easily be figured out how the corn binder can pay for itself in a short time under such favorable conditions. When a corn grower becomes acquainted with the merits of the Deering corn binder, he would not be without one, as its great superiority over the old hand methods becomes quite apparent under actual observation in the field.

The corn binder will be found of special advantage when the green corn is to be cut for immediate feeding to stock, or put through the silo filler, as a large area can be cut quickly to conserve the plant juices when the corn is in just the right condition to cut for these purposes.

ROLLER AND BALL BEARINGS

Roller bearings are used on both sides of the main and grain wheels, at the upper end of the crank shaft, and on the drive shaft for the inner gatherer. Ball bearings are used at the top of the crank shaft driving pinion. The Deering corn binder runs much lighter than is generally supposed for a machine of this kind.

CUTTING DEVICE

The cutting mechanism on the Deering corn binder consists of a reciprocating and two stationary knives. The stationary knives are placed at an angle so that the majority of the stalks are cut before reaching the oscillating section. The large reciprocating section cuts the stalks that are not completely cut by the stationary knives, and also cuts all tough weeds, vines, or green undergrowth between the hills.

BUNDLE CARRIER

The bundle carrier is of a large capacity, strongly and substantially built, and correctly located. It is tripped by means of a small foot lever convenient to the operator. The bundles are deposited at the right side and rear of the binder, parallel to the row. Two discharge rods are furnished on order when the bundle carrier is omitted.

POWER DISTRIBUTION

The power is distributed direct from the main enclosed gear of the main wheel to the knife, to the gatherer chain, and to the binding mechanism. This eliminates undue strain, lightens the draft and makes practically a positive drive. The entire mechanism is set in motion the instant the main wheel starts.

SELF-ALIGNING BOXES

All boxes on the Deering corn binder are self-aligning. Brackets which support the boxes in their proper position prevent the shafts from being sprung or bent.

OTHER FEATURES

The interference by stalks or weeds is eliminated by the use of several adjusting bell knuckles instead of rings, pins, cotters or ordinary knuckles.

The driver's seat is so located that he can see and control the entire machine and also give the proper attention to the team.

The conveyor chains carry the stalks in an upright position to the binding attachment immediately after the corn is cut, without any unnecessary handling. These chains can be adjusted to meet varying conditions of corn.

The Deering corn binder leaves a clean, even stubble.

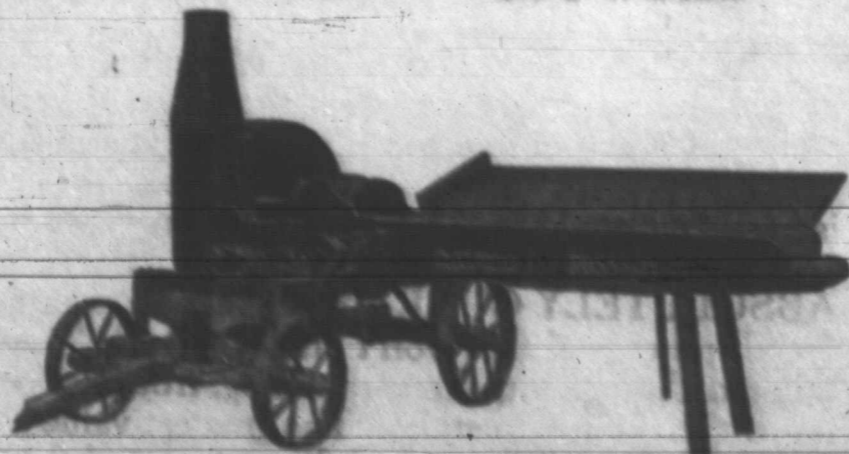

The binder is of proper width so that neither the main wheel nor the grain wheel run on the rows of stubble.

The binding attachment can be adjusted forward or backward the same as on the grain binder.

A 3-horse evener is regularly furnished with each machine.

STATE WIDERS ARE AT WORK

Submission of State Wide Anti-Liquor Question Will be Asked For Says Gambrell.

State Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League J. H. Gambrell has given out the following statement:

"Inquiries are being received from all sections as to whether or not the submission of a prohibition constitutional amendment will be asked for in next year's primary election. These inquiries show that there is a general demand on the part of prohibitionists that submission be asked for next year. Time and again word has been given out from this office that there has been no other thought among prohibitionists, but that the Democratic State Executive Committee will be petitioned to submit the question to the voters in next year's primary election. There appears to be no question more thoroughly settled among the enemies of saloons than this. At the proper time petitions will be sent out all over the State for signatures, and when the executive committee meets to arrange for the primaries these petitions will be presented, signed by such overwhelming numbers that they cannot be ignored. This statement is made with the hope of avoiding a vast amount of correspondence.

"Papers from almost every state show that the operations of the Webb interstate liquor law are most satisfactory. A good deal has been said about the Webb law having no teeth, meaning that it has no penalties. The law fixed it that way on purpose, and its practical operations show that it has uncapped the teeth of State laws so that they will bite with telling effect. No law short of prohibition has even been more denounced by the liquor press than the Webb law. The adjustments are not complete in every State, but so far the law has accomplished what its originators hoped for and intended. The Allison interstate liquor law is not the perfect complement of the Webb law that it might be, and doubtless will be made in the near future.

RULINGS FROM ATTORNEY GENERAL

"It will save much correspondence and delay, if prohibitionists will understand once for all that the first session of the Thirty-Third Legislature passed a law prohibiting the Attorney General rendering opinions, except to certain specified officers. For this reason the Anti-Saloon League can not secure for its friends rulings from the Attorney General. Those charged with the enforcement of law in the various counties can secure opinions from the Attorney General in due time by making application thereof. It is important that such officials, who are in doubt concerning the proper interpretations of anti-liquor laws, shall write the Attorney General, in order that they may know definitely how to proceed. Certainly the people of every county in Texas are entitled to all the protection against the liquor evil that the Legislature has provided. In this connection it may be said that one of the surest ways to secure the proper enforcement of laws is for the people to keep alive and active, a law enforcement sentiment.

It developed some three or four months ago that a brewers' association, incorporated under the laws of the State, had inaugurated a scheme to establish 'soft drink' joints in a number of prohibition cities. Such establishments were opened in two places and arrangements were being perfected to open in other places when the two operators were arrested, placed in jail and their establishments enjoined. The procedure seems to have put a quietus on the whole movement. An old law was discovered which made the brewers' scheme a complete man-trap for themselves. News from Austin is to the effect that a proposition has been submitted to the Legislature to return to the Brewers' Association the $8,000 occupation tax paid for the two establishments. Just what has become of the proposition, or may, is not known.

FOR NATIONAL PROHIBITION

"In the city of Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 10 to 13, the National Anti-Saloon League will hold a convention, at which time a campaign for National prohibition will be launched. The leagues of the various States are co-operating in this movement, of course. It is expected that there will be at least 20,000 delegates in attendance at the National convention. A number of the most noted men in America will deliver addresses on the occasion. Each church and each society connected therewith, and each local Woman's Christian Temperance Union is entitled to one delegate. This will be the greatest gathering of Christian and moral forces ever assembled on this continent. All Texas organizations entitled to a delegate, are urged to see to it that they are represented. Following the convention will be held a conference of Anti-Saloon League workers of every State in the Union, to devise the wisest plan for the final attack on the organized liquor traffic of the country.

"It appears to be understood that friends of the liquor interest have practically settled on their candidate for the Governorship in next year's election. It is freely predicted by the friends of the liquor interest that prohibitionists will divide between two or three men. Recent inquiries have elicited the information from all over the State that it is the purpose of the anti-saloon forces to go into the next election united on one candidate for each state office. Anti-saloon forces do not assume to say who shall and who shall not run for office, but they do propose to say what candidates they will support. They do not propose to dig ditches for their own cause to fall into. It is well understood that the friends of saloons are exceedingly anxious to multiply candidates among anti-saloon forces. This program seems to be thoroughly understood throughout the State, and it will come to naught. Whoever has the support of the united prohibitionists will stand, not alone for delivering Texas from the strangle grasp of the liquor interest, but for every vital constructive interest of the State. Prohibitionists will support neither one-ideaed prohibitionists nor bung-hole statesmen. They stand for every noble interest in the State, whether moral, educational or financial.

"Within recent weeks, quite a number of precinct and county local option elections have been held in various sections. Out of these have come decided gains, and no losses to prohibitionists. We have now 177 entirely dry counties and multiplied scores of dry precincts. Within the last two years the dry column has been increased by five counties, and a large number of precincts and has lost nothing. It is estimated that seven-eighths of the territory of Texas is under prohibition, and that more than three-fourths of its population are living under prohibition. The liquor interest is now barricaded mainly in the larger towns and cities, and in those places where the foreign and negro elements are strong. From the standpoint of the Anti-Saloon League everything looks well."

THE EFFECT OF GOOD ROADS

The direct effect that changing bad roads into good roads has upon land value and the general economic welfare of a community is shown in several concrete illustrations gathered by the United States department of agriculture. The department has just issued a statement on the subject, based upon a mass of information gathered by the office of public roads, which is making a special study of the economic effect of road improvement in the country. According to data gathered, where good roads replaced bad ones, the values of farm lands bordering on the roads increase to such an extent that the cost of road improvement is equalized, if not exceeded. The general land values, as well as farm values, showed marked advances, following the improvement of roads.

Among the illustrations cited by the department are the following:

In Lee county, Virginia, a farmer owned 100 acres between Ben Hur and Jonesville, which he offered to sell for $1,800. In 1908 this road was improved, and, although the farmer fought the improvement, he has since refused $3,000 for his farm. Along this same road a tract of 188 acres was supposed to have been sold for $6,000. The purchaser refused the contract, however, and the owner threatened to sue him. After the road improvement, and without any improvement upon the land, the same farm was sold to the original purchaser for $9,000. In Jackson county, Alabama, the people voted a bond issue of $250,000 for road improvement and improved 24 per cent of the roads. The census of 1900 gives the value of all farm lands in Jackson county at $4.90 per acre. The selling value at that time was $6 to $15 per acre. The census of 1910 places the value of all farm lands in Jackson county at $9.79 per acre, and the selling price is now from $15 to $25 per acre. Actual figures of increased value following road improvement are shown.

As the roads in no way effect soil fertility or quality of the farm, advances are due essentially to the decrease in the cost of hauling produce to market or shipping point. Farms are now regarded as plants for the business of farming, and any reduction in their profits through unnecessarily heavy costs for hauling on bad roads naturally reduces their capitalization in value. With reduced costs for hauling, profits are increased; with the result that the farm plant shows satisfactory earnings on a higher capital value.

The automobile also has begun to be an important factor in increasing rural values where good roads are introduced. Immigration is particularly marked where road conditions are favorable; in fact, the figures of the department seem to indicate that good roads indirectly increase the demand for rural property; and the price of farm land, like that of any commodity, is ruled by the relations between demand and supply. Lubbock county could spend some money very prudently on her roads. True enough the roads in Lubbock county as a rule are good, but after being traveled over for several years they become worn and washed out just like any other roads. A sand bed occasionally should be graded and a surface lake graded and made passable. Good roads are trade getters and the town that has the good roads, whether a few miles further will get the business.

BUILD ROADS AND BE HAPPY

Homer D. Wade, Secretary of Texas Good Roads Association, of Texas says: A good road turneth away wrath and a permanent highway is a joy forever. There is no influence so uplifting as a good road and no other construction will give as complete satisfaction as that of a well built public highway.

Everybody loves a good road and a good road makes us love everybody. In moral influence it ranks next to the church and it is a great educator in citizenship. It helps to keep the community in a good humor. The improvement of public highways will add more happiness, prosperity and morality to a community than any other form of investment.

THE SOUTH PLAINS

Geo. W. Simpson has returned from a trip to various points in Southern Texas. Mr. Simpson covered considerable territory while away and studied conditions pretty closely, and he comes back thoroughly satisfied that the South Plains country is the best country he has seen. Dawson County News.

It is a pretty good idea for South Plains people to stir about some. They cannot properly appreciate the excellent condition of things in this section till they have seen other parts of the state then they come back satisfied. Great is the South Plains of Texas.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Matador News, the newspaper at Matador. It is the old Matador Messenger, but under a new name. It is quite an improvement over the former papers and Matador should rally to its support.

No one will help you unless you help yourself. This is also true in town building. The town that does not help its self will likely not become much of a town.

Good intentions are bulwarks over which failure seldom climbs. Good intentions are alright, but your town will suffer long and hard if you do not put them into practice.

Truthfulness in exploitation is always the strongest argument. Tell the truth about Lubbock always and you will have boosted her.

Courtesy is the foundation of character. The child that is taught to be courteous is along way down the road to success.

Chamber of Commerce Column

WHY THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE?

A number of people ask, "why the Chamber of Commerce, and what is your work as secretary?" Let me quote from the By-laws of the organization. Art. 2. "The object of this association is the development of Lubbock and Lubbock County." Art. 3. "All citizens interested in the upbuilding and development of Lubbock and Lubbock County and will contribute to the expenses of this association are entitled to membership."

These two articles are self-explanatory. According to article two, the work of the Chamber of Commerce, and its secretary is anything which is for the development of this city and county. What are we attempting to do? To advertise Lubbock, to bring Lubbock and its resources before the attention of the world, and attract people to Lubbock. Therefore we use newspaper publicity, in every form possible, articles and pictures of Lubbock interests, crops are published wherever they can be. Literature is gotten out, and sent to those that might be interested. Circular letters are mailed for the same purpose. Letters asking for information are answered. Advertising is run in papers, whenever there is enough money to pay for them. The reason for this exhibit, which we are hoping to send to Amarillo and Dallas, is for advertising purposes. In fact, anything that will "boost," not "boom" Lubbock is attempted.

Thus we are not limited. We stand for good roads, we are behind the movement to establish these automobile roads. We are ready to work for anything which will be for the advantage of Lubbock county and its citizens.

Let us look at Article three. "All citizens who are interested in the development of Lubbock and Lubbock County and will contribute to the expenses of this association are entitled to membership." We have a membership of less than one hundred citizens. Certainly there are more than that number who are interested in the development of this county. Certainly there are more than those who believe in Lubbock and its future. Why not join this crowd and help?

We could do far more had we the money to work with. But limited as we are, our work must necessarily be limited. Another suggestion, this work takes time. It is cumulative, in other words, it develops slowly, and with increasing strength. We may not get big returns at first, but the returns will come, if we plug away, keep at it. I know a town smaller than this which, because time has proven the benefit of it, is now raising $600.00 a month for this work. They didn't do that the first year, or the second, but they stuck to it, and when they began to see the results of several years' work they went still deeper into their pockets. The same success can be made here, if the citizens of Lubbock will go after it. A few members of the Chamber of Commerce can't do it. The secretary can't do it, but its "One for all and all for one." My friend, be a live-one, and remember it isn't the buildings that make the town, its the men who live in them. Every boost for Lubbock is a boost for you, so help pay for the glim in the Lubbock lighthouse. The town booster is a good man to have as a friend. He's the guy that puts tune in opportunity. But some one says "waste no time on the Pessimist. He's the guy who dots the 'I' in failure." Come on brother, brace up and help your neighbors build this town. I hate to look in the face of a dead one.

Secretary.

The people of Seminole and Gaines county are in the big middle of another bonus raising campaign. The raising and securing of a railroad bonus is no small undertaking. It requires the united effort of all citizens concerned, and unless there is unity on the part of all the people, the task cannot be completed without a sacrifice on the part of a few men. To the land owners of Gaines county, both resident and non-resident, these words are addressed:
On Saturday, July 26th a contract was signed between J. J. Fry, representing the Denver Construction Company and the Seminole Commercial Club, in which said Denver Construction Company agrees to build or cause to be built a standard gauge railroad from Tucumcari, N. M., to San Antonio, Texas, by the way of Seminole, a distance of about 600 miles. Surveying work on this proposed route is to begin by October 1st, and actual construction is to start not later than March 1st, 1914. The entire line of road is to be completed and in operation within thirty-six months from date. Seminole agrees to raise a bonus of $50,000 within ninety days from date, one-half of which amount is to

Market Letter
To the Avalanche:
Kansas City Stock Yards, Aug. 11.—The early loss on cattle last week was almost completely restored before the end of the week. Receipts dropped off to a point below normal after Tuesday, and hundreds of buyers came here from the corn states for stock cattle and feeders, attracted by reports of the heavy receipts Monday, a combination of circumstances that elevated prices promptly. Receipts today amount to 15,000 cattle, a fine exhibition of self restraint on the part of stockmen in the dry belt. More country buyers are here today than were ever seen in Kansas City at one time before. Not half enough cattle are here to go around. The phenomenal demand from the country makes for the good of the whole market, of course. Commission men are receiving hundreds of letters from stockmen anxious to secure cattle, and the events of the last ten days have uncovered a buying power in the corn states beyond expectations. Missouri bought 11,000 cattle here last week, Iowa 8,000, Illinois 6,000, Kansas 4,000, scattering 3,000, total 32,000 head. At that nearly half of the buyers went home without any cattle. Killing are 10 to 25 higher today, stock cattle and feeders 25 higher, or 50 cents to a dollar above last Monday, calves 25 to 50 higher. Prime steers sold today at $8.85, almost up to the high time, Greenwoods at $6.50 to $8.25, half a dollar above last Monday, and as high as any time this season, westerns from the Brookville district at $7.00 to $6.75, quarantine grass steers $5.00 to $7.00, veal calves, $6.50 to $9.00, stock steers $5.50 to $7.25, feeders $6.00 to $8.00. Packers made a strong fight on hog prices last week, but without much net success. Most days their top was $8.65, while order buyers and speculators paid up to $8.80 various days. Receipts are 6,500 today, market steady to 5 higher, packers resuming their tactics of last week, and buying their droves at a range of $8.30 to $8.75, outside buyers paying up to $8.80. Dry weather signs increase, but no cholera indications have developed. Sheep sell without much change in price, but fat lambs fluctuate violently. Best lambs last week brought $7.30, but tops stopped at $6.85 today. Some 53 pound Utah feeding lambs sold at $6.10 here last week and Arizona feeding lambs at $6.00. Fat ewes sell around at $4.00 to $4.50, wethers $5.50 to $5.00.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug.—Scores of people were today turned away from offices of the commission appointed to redeem rebate coupons issued by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad while the constitutionality of the 2c passenger fare law was being tested in the courts. It was announced the coupons would be received, audited and a report made to the court before the money was paid.

Many instances of speculation came to light. A negro newsboy presented $3,000 worth of coupons and a waitress from a railroad restaurant $2,000 worth. It is estimated that coupons to the value of $2,000,000 are outstanding.

THE CUMBERLAND MEETING
The Cumberland Presbyterian meeting should have begun Friday night of this week, but owing to the fact that the Baptist meeting is in progress, arrangements have been made to postpone the beginning of the Cumberland meeting until Sunday afternoon a 3 o'clock.

Rev. A. M. Buchanan and wife, of Moberly, Mo., will be expected to begin their revival work at the Cumberland church at that time. Rev. Buchanan has the reputation of being a very strong man. He has a number of friends in this section some of whom have been with him in a number of revival meetings, and they are strong in his praise and urged strongly that he should be gotten to this place.

We earnestly solicit the hearty co-operation of all christian people in this meeting.

MISSIONARY AUXILIARY NOTES
At the business session of our Auxiliary it was decided to send a box to our school at Laredo, Mex., in response to the recent call for a "Linen Shower."

Each one present was asked to contribute and a committee was appointed to notify the members who were not present that all might have an opportunity to help in this good work.

The articles are to be sent to the home of Mrs. H. T. Himbro on or before Aug. 18, as we want them to reach Laredo by Sept. 1.

We were very glad to welcome Mrs. Summers into our ranks and are sure she is a real worker. Let each member consider herself a committee of one to bring someone with her to the Devotional meeting next Monday.

If you have guests in your home bring them, they may have a message of cheer for us and may get suggestions that will be helpful to their home Aux.

Mohammedanism reports twenty-four organizations, with twelve hundred and eighty adherents, in this country, taught by trained leaders. There is also a revival of Parseism, with headquarters in Chicago. The old worship of Isis, so long neglected in Egypt, is finding a home in America.

THE DENDO-DAN

The Dendo-Dan is an independent organization of Christian Japanese on the Pacific Coast. The Dendo-Dan believe that in a few years, say ten, the Japanese Christians will be able to carry on all the evangelistic work on this coast among their countrymen, without the aid of the Boards. provided the Boards now engaged in Japanese work will assist them at the present time. They contemplate the organization of a Japanese Christian Church in which all Christian Japanese will unite.

STATE-WIDE ELECTION IN 1915

Atticus-Webb Speaks Here And Says Election Will be Asked For in 1915

Rev. Atticus Webb of Fort Worth, state field worker for the Anti-Saloon League, delivered a temperance lecture at the Methodist church Sunday night to a very large audience, nearly all the churches of the town combine in the service.

He said the fight against the liquor traffic had really become nation-wide, as congress had already enacted some anti-liquor legislation. A national meeting will be held at Columbus, Ohio, in November to launch a non-partizan nation-wide campaign.

Mr. Webb said the pros in Texas had fully decided to ask for another state-wide election in 1914, and that the proposition of submission will be on the democrat primary ballot next year.

Neighboring County News From Our Exchanges

CROSBY COUNTY

Mrs. John L. Wortham, wife of the ex-Secretary of State, and daughter, together with Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Gehde, spent Monday in Crosbyton and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burton at the Crosbyton Inn for dinner, at which were also guests Mr. and Mrs. L. Gough, Mrs. J. W. Smith Jr., and daughter, and Mr. Julian Bassett.

John L. Wortham is developing, 12,000 acres just over the Crosby county line in Lubbock as an irrigation proposition. He has one big well running now, which is one of the best on the Plains.

J. L. Suits, who has been foreman of The Review for the past ten months, has purchased a new plant and will install it in Roaring Springs next week and begin publication of a newspaper at that point. Mr. Suits is a good printer and we predict for Roaring Springs an up-to-date newspaper. J. A. Suits, father of J. L. will be associated in this venture, and his long business experience assures the success of the same.

FERRY COUNTY

In the death of Mr. J. D. Earnest, at Plains, last Saturday one of the oldest and most hospitable citizens of the Plains country was removed. Mr. Earnest had a vivid recollection of all the stirring events of early pioneering and told them with much favor. Only recently he wrote a series of articles for the Yoakum County News, covering the early days on the Plains that were at the same time instructive and interesting.

MARRIED

Mr. Edwin Holt and Miss Grace Kinard, two of Terry's most popular young people of the Pleasant Valley neighborhood, drove in Sunday afternoon, and were quietly married at the residence of Judge Geo. W. Neil. In as much as Mr. Holt secured his papers in Lubbock, they took the whole country by surprise.

The groom is the son of C. F. Holt, one of our prominent stock farmers, and is a favorite among his many friends. The bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. M. E. Kinard, one of the pioneer settlers of Terry, and of course Miss Grace was reared and educated in and around Brownfield, and every one is her friend.

GAINES COUNTY

YOAKUM COUNTY

Not only are our prospects good to get the Denver & Gulf railroad through Plains, but we have good prospects of getting another road through Yoakum county. Information has reached us through a high official of the M. K. & T. system that money has been appropriated to build the Texas Central, a part of the M. K. & T. system, out of Rotan a distance of 190 miles; that the road would come by way of the OBR ranch in Terry county, through the Adams settlement in that county, and on through Yoakum county. This information came not by circuitous route, but was a part of a letter written to a reliable citizen of Terry county, who was in Plains last Saturday, and was stated in such a way as to entitle it to credit and inspire the hopes of our people in getting this road at no distant day.

R. D. and J. W. Marshall have bought the mercantile business of L. N. Clawater and will take charge of it the first of next week. R. D. Marshall is no stranger to the people of Yoakum county, as he has been engaged in the mercantile business in Plains heretofore, and is known as a fine business man.

Mr. J. P. Long received a telegram Thursday afternoon from Roy Beal, at Magdalena, New Mexico, stating that Joe Beal was dead. It was known that he was in a critical condition, but his relatives did not expect the end to come so soon, and his many friends in this part of the country will regret to learn of his death.

Band Concerts Appreciated

The past few weeks the Thursday evening band concerts by the Lubbock Cowboy Band have been attended by a large number of the town people. There is quite an increasing interest in these weekly affairs and it is a foregone conclusion that the people are beginning to properly appreciate the band.

The boys are making splendid music now, and with the co-operation of the people, and the proper encouragement along the line of these entertainments the band boys will be able to maintain one of the best musical organizations of the Plains.

This band has played more engagements out of town this summer than any other band on the Plains. It is popular among outsiders as well as the home people.

WRIGHT FAVORS GOOD ROADS

One of Our Commissioners is Highly in Favor of Better Highways in County

In my opinion, the time has come that Lubbock county should begin to make good roads. No county of our wealth is to the front in development without good roads. The law contemplates that each citizen shall pay and equal and just tax according to his means for this purpose. The citizens of Lubbock county pay this tax, both in the country and towns. I am speaking from the standpoint of a citizen.

It is a notorious fact that Lubbock county is far behind her neighboring counties in the way of good roads. The adjoining county of Hale is far advanced in the way of roads. Recently, the writer had the pleasure of visiting that county. The main thoroughfares are graded across the county. We were a little humiliated. We said to our companion that it was a shame that Lubbock county was so far behind in the development of roads. The reason that this is true is because the various commissioners' courts have neglected this part of the work.

The writers' plan is as follows, to-wit: The present court should purchase eight or ten mules and good road machinery sufficient in amount to carry on the work. Then hire or appoint a road superintendent with one or two men to assist him. Authorize this superintendent to warn out the hands on their respective roads and work out their time. If the road is not then in good condition have the superintendent and his aids to continue until it is finished. Have the work to begin on the worst roads. Continue in this way until all roads are in first class condition. The superintendent to be put under bond for a faithful performance of duty and a proper care of the teams and machinery.

The system above outlined complies with the law and is just to each citizen, rich or poor and will within three or four years at most, guarantee good roads for Lubbock county.

This is a question in which each citizen in the county should be interested. This being true, we invite a discussion of same through the columns of the Slatonite and Avalanche. Let us get together and give the wheel a turn toward success in this matter.

Yours for good roads,
J. M. Wright,
Commissioner, Prec. No. 4.

Do You Want a McCormick Row Binder?

We have just received a full car of these machines and you can see them any day by calling at our store. Farmers of experience want row binder satisfaction and the McCormick is built for just such farmers. If you own a McCormick binder you are fortified against the danger of the loss of a part of your crop. You do not need to worry about securing extra help or paying high wages. You are sure of having your corn safely harvested within the limited time in which the work must be done to get the full value from it.

The McCormick corn binder is extremely simple in construction, light in weight and compact. Two horses will handle the machine in all conditions of corn. This machine straddles only one row, which is a decided advantage in opening up a field, as there is only one bent row to cut.

The McCormick binder is so constructed that the bundles are bound while in a vertical position. The corn is cut and moved along in a position upright to the binding attachment. Not only is it easier to bind the corn in this position, but it requires less power, and insures evenly butted bundles which are easier to handle.

Another feature that adds greatly to the satisfactory work of the McCormick binder and assures positive elevation of all the stalks, is the spring-rod feature. This spring-rod is so connected that it holds the stalks against the chain until the corn gets to a point where the packers are sure to get hold of the stalks, thus insuring positive elevation of all the corn.

MCCORMICK CORN BINDER HAS A WIDE RANGE OF ADJUSTMENT.

—WILL HANDLE CORN UNDER ALL CONDITIONS

The McCormick corn binder has an extremely wide range of adjustment. As a result, it will cut short as well as tall corn, and corn that is down, tangled and lodged. This adjustment for different lengths of corn can be made from the driver's seat. It is not necessary for the driver to stop the machine and dismount to make the adjustment. This is a decided advantage, because frequently the operator finds both tall and short corn in the same field, and with the McCormick binder he can make immediate adjustment to meet the varied field conditions.

CUTTING APPARATUS

It is a well known fact that corn is exceedingly difficult to cut by a direct stroke of the sickle, owing to the extreme toughness of the exterior portion of the stalk. The cutting mechanism on the McCormick corn binder consists of a reciprocating and two stationary knives. The position and form of the stationary knives, being curved outwardly from the rear, cause them to cut the stalks with a gradual drawing stroke as the machine is drawn forward. The reciprocating knife completes the operation and also cuts all weeds, vines, and green undergrowth between the hills in the row. This precludes all possibility of the machine choking, and at the same time the field presents a clean, neat appearance. Don't fail to see this machine before making your purchase.

Paid Fine for Speeder Odd Fellows of Plainview paid Otto Bhend's fine of $16 Saturday, when it turned out that the young man did not have money to pay it. Bhend is an Odd Fellow.

Bhend came through Lubbock on an Indian motorcycle. It seems that he frightened a team there, and the Lubbock authorities had advised Sheriff Hooper that the tourist had a charge of $16 against him for this offense.

The first man to cross the great Western Desert on a motorcycle, is the way Bhend speaks of himself. He came by the way of San Bernadino, Yuma, Ariz., and Roswell, crossing the Imperial Desert, the Mohave Desert and hot sands of Arizona, where motorcycles have never toured.

He states that for some 260 miles there is not a living thing—animals, grass or vegetation—of any kind. He carries a large desert water bag, complete camping outfit, and with the Indian three gallon gasoline tank he covered 300 miles between stops.

He left for Dodge City, Kan., St. Louis, Akron, Ohio, the Goodyear Tire Factory, and to New York, then to Springfield, Mass., the home of the Indian motorcycle, the make of machine he is making this tour on. Mr. Bhend is representing the Y. M.

The young man threw his speed to the highest pitch and left our town like a "Katy Flier." He violated the speed limit and deserved to pay the penalty. Just because a fellow is traveling from coast to coast is no reason that he should violate local or state laws and get away with it.

Visitors to Austin

The T. J. Bennett home was the destination of about fifty guests last night when Dr. and Mrs. Bennett opened their spacious suburban home in honor of Mrs. Bennett's sister, Mrs. Duering of Lubbock.

The lawn was beautifully lighted with electric lights and stationed at one end of the large gallery was a Mexican band which furnished a good program of music during the entire evening.

The affair was most informal, the guests being allowed to do exactly as they pleased. Some danced and others congregated in little groups and spent the evening visiting.

There was a Dutch supper spread at a long table which was placed at one side of the lawn, and the guests helped themselves. The guests were limited to friends of the honoree.

Mrs. Bennett is a charming hostess and the informality of the entire affair made in one of the most enjoyable social affairs of the season.—Austin Daily Tribune.

THE MYSTERY OF SOULS

THE PLOT.—Frank Alberti is the guardian of Lydia, and according to his brother's will in the event of her death will be enriched by her fortune. As we watch him thinking deeply in his study, it is clear that evil thoughts are working in his brain. The demon of greed takes possession of him, and he plots the destruction of Lydia in order to enjoy her fortune. He chooses as an instrument for his purpose one Bernard, an unscrupulous scoundrel. It is agreed that Lydia is to be murdered; but Bernard intends to keep her alive so that he may use his power to exert money from Alberti.

THE CRIME.—In pursuance to the plot, Alberti takes Lydia to the seaside, and while there proposes a pleasure jaunt in a boat. Bernard, disguised as a boatman, puts the little party into his craft and rows them out to sea. When the boat is well away from the shore Bernard pulls the plug out of the bottom, the boat fills with water and rapidly sinks. Alberti, who is prepared for this, dives into the water, and with a friend of his swims to the shore. Then follows one of the most astonishing pictures ever seen, viz., a rescue under water. Lydia is seen sinking down, still deeper down, in the green water. With a frantic effort she rises, but again sinks. Sheathing through the filmy depths comes Bernard on rescue bent. He seizes the by-now-exhausted heroine, and rises to the surface. Swimming with his burden to the rocks, he clammers to a spot where a boat has been waiting for him. An unpleasant duty has yet to be performed, the payment of Bernard. In handing over the money Alberti makes it clear that he does not wish either to see or hear any more of his rascally confederate. Bernard is possessed of remarkable hypnotic power, and on reaching the house where Lydia is held prisoner he subjects her to his influence. Bernard is accompanied by his accomplices, Fritz, and the pair meeting an Englishman, Vernon, invites him to the gambling tables, hoping to enrich themselves. Acting under his suggestion, Lydia decoys Vernon away and induces him to drink some drugged wine. It is enthralling to witness the clever acting which simulates so well a hypnotized person's movements.

LYDIA RESCUED.—In the gambling saloon below Bernard quarrels with another at the table and receives a blow, which stuns him. Rendered unconscious, his influence over Lydia is gone, and with a start she recovers her faculties. In frantic anxiety the success in arousing the stupified Vernon to a sense of the dangers of his situation. A rope of curtains is hastily improvised, and Vernon escapes by way of a window. Lydia is about to follow, but at this moment Bernard in the saloon below recovers consciousness. His influence is at once re-established. His shadowy form is seen again, and after a brief, but pathetic struggle, Lydia's brain is again made captive. Vernon, dazed and horrified, staggers along the street and succeeds in getting assistance to raid the place where Lydia is confined. Bernard and Fritz, however, escaped by a secret passage.

HUMILIATION.—Bernard telegraphs for Alberti to come at once to Vienna. It is humiliating to know that he is at the mercy of villains, but he must go. Anticipating that money is the object, he takes a liberal supply of notes with him. Bernard meets him at the station, but fate has decreed that Vernon, who intends leaving Vienna, should see them both. He follows them to an inn, and calls the police.

DEATH.—Just as he is on the point of handing the money over, the police break into the room. There is a short fierce encounter, in which shots are fired. Bernard is killed, Fritz escapes, Alberti is conducted to the police station. With the death of Bernard, Lydia is once more released from his influence. She makes her way to the room where Alberti is being interrogated by the officer-in-charge. The guilty man believes her to be the ghost of his ward. The street is more than he can bear; in an agony of terror he repulses her affectionate advances, and expires.
