IN EFFORT TO GET INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC IN CONTROL

Many Cases in Town, but so far the Fatalities Have Been Kept Very Low, and by Special Precautions Lubbock People May Pass Through the Siege With But Very Few Deaths

The following proclamation was issued Tuesday by Mayor C. E. Parks, which proclamation was issued after consultation with the health officers and other people who were in position to know the existing conditions, and it was done with a hope to stamp out the prevailing epidemic of influenza. Lubbock has quite a number of cases and some of them have been rather severe, but fortunately up to this time the fatalities are very light and we hope by the special precautions that our health officers and others are endeavoring to enforce we may be able to get through this siege without as many deaths as we might otherwise expect.

Proclamation.

Whereas, an epidemic called "Influenza" is prevalent over the greater part of this country, and is proving to be a menace to the health and life of our citizens, and is now of such proportions that it is necessary to establish regulations for the prevention thereof, and

Whereas, the City Commission of the City of Lubbock has passed a resolution directing that all public places be closed from this date until the 26th day of October 1918, unless otherwise ordered, and in my judgment such action is necessary and proper.

Now Therefore, I, C. E. Parks, Mayor of the City of Lubbock, Texas, acting in my official capacity, and under the authority vested in me under the laws of this state and the charter of said city, upon recommendation of the City and County Health Officer and President of the Lubbock County Medical Association, President of the Board of Trustees of the Lubbock Independent School District, and in accordance with the proclamations of the Federal and State Health Departments relative to this disease, do hereby issue this as my proclamation to the effect that all public and private schools, music classes and other places of instruction, churches, societies, clubs, club-meetings, picture shows, lodges, club rooms, and pool and billiard halls be closed, and business and social entertainments, public gatherings and people gathering and congregating on the streets, in business houses, hotels and restaurants, except for the transaction of such business as shall be absolutely necessary, be and the same are hereby prohibited.

That all owners, proprietors, principals, managers, agents and employees of each and all of such places shall take immediate notice of this proclamation and these regulations. That all soda and drinking fountains shall be made and kept absolutely sanitary, that all glasses, cups, mugs, dishes and other articles shall be sterilized or boiled after using and before serving another person therewith. That all such articles shall be kept and protected from the touch of flies. That all confectioners, grocers, fruit dealers, vegetable dealers and vendors shall remove rotten and decayed fruit, vegetables and other products and not permit the same to be mixed with such as is offered for sale and shall prevent and protect such fruit and other merchandise from the touch of flies. That all hotels, restaurants, and eating houses must be kept sanitary and clean, that they must observe all state, federal and municipal regulations with reference to their proper conduct, and all provision and foods must be kept screened and free from flies and dirt. That no child or children shall be permitted to play, loiter or congregate, or visit upon any of the streets or alleys or other public places within this city or upon the premises of another. That all barber shops shall observe all sanitary precautions to prevent the communication of said disease, and shall observe all state, federal and municipal regulations for their proper conduct. The officers of this city are hereby commanded and directed to enforce this proclamation in all things, and in the event of any violation hereof, or of the sanitary regulations of the Federal Government, the State of Texas or the City of Lubbock, looking to the suppression and control of said disease arrests will be made, places shall be closed and prosecutions had under the terms of the law. This proclamation shall be in effect from 4 o'clock p. m., October 15th, 1918, until annulled by the proper officers of this city and publication thereof made. The co-operation of all patriotic and law-abiding citizens is asked for the observance and enforcement of this proclamation for the best interest of the citizens of our city and country.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Will Humble were out from Lubbock visiting relatives here.

Liberty day was observed at the schoolhouse Saturday night. An appropriate program was rendered. Mr. Briggs and Mr. Schenk of Lubbock were here and more than a thousand dollars worth of liberty bonds Shallowater has never failed to exceed its quota.

Owing to the serious shortage of all kinds of labor, work on Shallowater's new school building has been much hindered lately. It is hoped that additional help will soon be secured. In the mean time two lady patriots loaned the professional overalls and assisted in speeding up the job a week.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS OF THE AVALANCHE

The Avalanche will during the coming week discontinue sending the paper to every person who is not paid up to an advanced date. There are a number of reasons for this. One is that we have mailed notices to most subscribers whose subscription is not paid in advance and you have not responded, hence we take it for granted that you do not want the paper any longer. Another reason is that the Government requires this, and still another is that the price of paper is almost prohibitive, and in order to remain in business we must cut out all free copies and all who are not paid for. If you want the paper let us know and if you have paid for it and we have taken your name off through mistake you will confer a favor on us by calling our attention to it. If you fail to get your paper next week, in all probability if you will look up the date on your paper you will find you are behind. The date indicates the time when your subscription is out. Turn now to the label and see how it reads. If it reads any date prior to this you should give the matter your attention at once as we will not print any extra copies to supply those whose time has expired and have not renewed before the first of next week.

Mrs. S. A. Richmond died in Dallas this morning. The remains will arrive here Sat. morning for burial.

LABOR PROGRAM AS IT ACTUALLY EXISTS, TODAY

The subject under consideration is one of the most vital importance that the people of the United States have had to confront them in the history of their lives.

It will be nothing short of miraculous if we meet the emergency confronting us as regards the labor question of today. As you know, the United States Government has planned an immense war program, and adequate measures are being taken to place an army of 4,000,000 of our soldiers in France by June 1919, and also the recruiting and training of a reserve army of about 1,200,000 men in the United States. If we are to furnish these 6,000,000 soldiers with the necessary prerequisites of war, it is absolutely necessary that an industrial army of from six to eight times this number be recruited and sent to the different government plants to produce all of the necessities for our men.

This gigantic war program must be carried through successfully for the President has made the solemn promise to the nations allied with us, in this "war for Democracy," that it would be done. We have thus far given unlimited assistance to the allies. We have been, so to speak, their backbone. We have given invaluable assistance toward the gaining of this mighty conflict; toward the conquering of the murderous Hun; thereby fully assuring the guarantee of the perpetuation of Democracy and Christianity. We cannot, we dare not, we shall not halt at this serious moment, but at this moment this program is seriously retarded for lack of man power in the various war industries.

There are many men in this section of the country who are not contributing as they could to the prosecution of the war. It is highly necessary that we appeal to them to show their true patriotism in this time of the present crisis. Men who do not regard their government and cannot assume some of the discomforts in order to give their assistance should be treated as any other slacker. The government has a priority over all men. They are needed. They must volunteer for this work. They should shoulder the responsibilities of this war the same as other men who have given up high salaried positions to undergo the privations and tribulations of a soldier. Are these at home any better than those at the front? This is a question every man must ask himself. There is no place for men of ease in this strenuous time. Every man must work and, if necessary, do menial work in order that this country shall break the German yoke and not subject ourselves to Prussian oppression.

This is no time for profiteering, for personal ambition, for excuses, no time for future promises. Every man who is indeed a man, must come forward and place his services at his country's command and bear the hardships and sacrifice in the same spirit that predominates the mind and hearts of the thousands of our brave young men who are sacrificing their lives "over there" that we might live and enjoy ourselves in pursuit of happiness over here. No business firm of any nature corporation or individual can be given, or should expect, precedence over the pressing needs of the nation.

If we do not furnish the bullets for our men the Prussians will. Proportionate to the shortage of labor in our war industries will be the increase of death of our boys at the front. These truths should be spread broadcast throughout the country by every patriotic citizen so that no man will be branded as a slacker through ignorance of his country's needs. We must have shells enough in France next year to blast a path to Berlin. To the extent that we fall behind in supply of material, we will have to make up the deficit from the living bodies of our young men. This is no rhetorical phrase. It is cold, precise, military calculation.

The great question before us is how shall we meet these conditions as loyal patriots of the United States? It means nothing less than this—women of the United States, like in Great Britain, France, and other nations of Europe, must take the places of men in all instances wherever they can handle the work that men are doing—wherever they can handle such work—taking the men's places and letting them go to these government plants so that the "Man Power" of that the "Man Power" of our country can be given to the government. There are thousands of men throughout the United States who are holding positions that could just as easily be filled by girls and women. There are today many of them leaving these positions. Women are filling their places while the men are going to the several different government points where they are sorely needed. They are doing this for various reasons, but principally from a patriotic standpoint. Are the people of this section of the country any the less patriotic? Will they have the finger of scorn pointed at them? Will the title of "Slackers" be hissed at them? Are they not enjoying the same free right, the same privileges and the same benefits under the Stars and Stripes that all others in this glorious country are enjoying? Indeed they are. Therefore, it behooves every man and every woman to consider seriously and honestly the changes that are necessary for them to make in order to do their bit in filling the lines of the great industrial army of 36,000,000 workers that must be recruited to carry on the immense program that we have spoken of. The great motive force relied upon to bring about this change is the pressure of public opinion. Attention will be focussed on men who are working at jobs which women should be doing. During the war few men will want to continue at women's jobs. Those who do so will be branded as industrial slackers.

NO CHURCH SERVICES HELD NEXT SUNDAY

In accordance with the proclamation which will be found in another part of this paper, issued by Mayor Parks, there will be no Sunday school at the various churches and no church services of any kind next Sunday. The proclamation covers the period of time between Tuesday the 15th and Saturday the 26th unless annulled by order of the mayor before that time. The picture shows and the pool hall and all club rooms and lodges are to remain closed during that time.

In order for a man to determine whether he is following an essential line of work, let him ask himself these questions: 1st, Is my work absolutely essential? 2nd, Could a girl or woman do my work practically as well as I am doing it? 3rd, Could my strength and my services do more good for my country if I were employed at some of the government plants? If every man will seriously consider these questions, he will soon arrive at the proper answer.

Lists of non-essential positions have been prepared and the leading ones are as follows: Clerks and floor walkers in every sort of mercantile establishment, clerical, cashier and office staffs in mercantile, manufacturing, and financial houses and in the offices of transportation companies and other public utilities; table waiters, soda fountain dispensers and many other occupations.

The introduction of women into various industries has been a matter of fact for quite a period of time, but the larger introduction of women in-

LUBBOCK LIBERTY QUOTA NOT UP

LUBBOCK COUNTY IS STILL BEHIND ABOUT $12,000 OF QUOTA ASKED AND ONLY TWO MORE DAYS TO CAMPAIGN

SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE FAR BEHIND OVER THE NATION

Lubbock Cannot Afford to Fall Down and if all who have Subscribed and have not Completed the Deal by Signing application and Paying First Installment We Will "Go Over the Top."

Lubbock Liberty Loan quota is still behind about twelve thousand dollars. $150,800 is the quota Lubbock county was expected to raise. Of this amount at this writing Thursday afternoon, $138,350, was the amount that had been tabulated. Slaton district had raised $52,750 of this amount. Only two days remain for the committee to close up the quota within time set by the Treasury department, and those who have signed cards expressing willingness to buy should call at one of the banks immediately where a list can be found and amount promised, and sign their application, pay for the bond or ten per cent of the subscription may be counted in on the amount raised. It will not be counted until this is done. Lubbock cannot afford not to raise the amount asked, and we believe she will, but co-operation is needed to bring it up. Everybody do their duty and we will land far beyond the mark set by the department.

Subscriptions Lagging

Washington, Oct. 15.—Only $154,000,000 of the new Liberty Loan subscriptions trickled in today, according to reports from the whole Nation, as gathered by the treasury department and raised the total for the loan so far to $2,958,870,650, still short of three billions, the "half way figure."

In view of the expectation that the rita of Liberty Day celebrations last Saturday would be fully reflected in to industries is made necessary by two outstanding facts. The first of these is the expanded program of the War Department looking forward to a great offensive coming on next spring and second military decision forced upon Germany by the might of mobilized America.

The employer who retains men of physical ability in the above proscribed occupations and the employees who delay leaving such positions for essential work will be marked in an unenviable degree as industrial slackers. The pressure of public opinion will cause every true American not to let such conditions exist in regard to himself and will prevent any able-bodied men from keeping a position officially noted as woman's work. Practically 15,000,000 women will be needed to supply the deficiency caused by the shortage of man power, to take the places of men who are released so that they may accept war work.

The administrative offices in Washington have placed the responsibilities upon the Community Labor Boards to supply the deficiency and no board can afford to shirk the responsibilities or betray the confidence placed in them. These boards shall determine within their own respective districts which of the non-war industries are included in their list of business firms. The different industries which do not appear on their lists as war industries are those from which men should be drawn to work in war industries. The Community Labor Boards shall take prompt action in declaring what industries in their district should replace men with women and so notify the United States Employment Officers, the Enrollment Officers and Registrant Officers and give to it all the publicity possible.

This article has been prepared for the information and instruction to all the publicity possible.

This article has been prepared for the information and instruction to all the people of Lubbock City and County and especially to all employers and employees of the different business firms.

Respectfully,
Community Labor Board,

today's reports, treasury officials declared the outlook grave. "Those in charge of the Liberty Loan campaign made no concealment of the fact that the situation was very disappointing," said the official review of the loan's progress. "With only four days of the loan period remaining, the country now faces the task of raising in excess of three billion dollars, or more than $700,000,000 a day."

Early morning messages to headquarters stimulated hope not borne out by tonight's figures, that President Wilson's rejection of the German proposal for an immediate armistice would create a wave of enthusiasm which would sweep a multitude of subscriptions on its crest. Tomorrow's figures will be watched carefully for evidence of this situation reported in scores of telegrams from field workers.

Considering the chance that subscribers are delaying payment of the first ten per cent installment and therefore their pledges do not show in the official figures, campaign managers today urged that bond buyers pay down their ten per cent installment immediately. This will have the effect of relieving banks of the tremendous task of tabulating these payments in the rush of the last hours this week, and will show the nation on Saturday, the final day precisely how big a job is cut out for it that day.

SOME BENEFITS AND BLESSINGS OF CHURCH ATTENDANCE

The following short sermon prepared for the Avalanche by Rev. J. B. Cole, pastor of the First Baptist church, Lubbock.

Text: Hebrews 10:25.

"This pastor feels that at least some of the good folks of Lubbock will be a little lost next Sunday since we are shut in from our regular religious gatherings. To compensate in a measure for this condition the following is written for the Avalanche:

The matter of going to church is an old custom and has met with many changes and difficulties by the way of its development and usage. From our text we gather that the preachers of old time had some hindrances growing out of non attendance by at least some of the brethren. But for the encouragement of all of us it might be suggested that no other meeting of the people has held such power over men as has the religious gathering together of peoples of all nations. Politicians, civil orators and public lecturers please and interest the folks for a short while, but soon their crowds fall and they must resort to long delays and new conditions to secure a hearing. But the preacher with the selfsame Story of Salvation goes on forever. True, some drop out and go astray but always there remains the faithful who never tire of the message ever new and inspiring. It is matter of worth while thought that the more constant and attentive the hearer of the blessed message, the higher his appreciation of the sermon.

The Bible says that it pleased God to save the world by preaching. Then it is clear that the preacher has some thing to talk about and that has much to do in interesting and holding the listener. Man must get the message that most concerns and affects his higher and nobler self. Men may assail and even malign the ministry of Holy things, but the messenger of the Covenant of Grace holds on his heaven appointed way and will until the world grows old and God calls men to judgment.

Why do we attend church?

We attend the house of God to learn lessons about our souls or perhaps more correctly to discover our souls or even to learn that we have a soul. There is no other school to teach men that they have a soul and it is only possible for us to gain this knowledge by attending church.

For all other teachings we must attend such a school as will instruct us

PEOPLE'S FORUM

"To buy Liberty Bonds is a good business proposition, for the people and Government."

To the Avalanche:
"Had I a dozen sons—each in my love alike—I had rather have eleven die nobly for their country, than one with a club hawling patriotism." The Government don't approve of this mode. The Government's power to tax the people is unlimited, but the tax must be legally laid by Congress. Money cannot be taken from the people, except, and only, by legal taxation.

No attempt, during the present war, has been made by the Government to take money from the people by demand accompanied by threats. That a heavy war tax had to be paid, there was no issue, the only issue was, as to how the tax should be laid, so as to be as little burden upon the people as possible. The revenue needed would make the tax too heavy for the people and general business, so it was planned by law to lay a tax for a certain amount of revenue needed, and raise the balance by bonds, that is by loans to the Government.

The plan adopted for selling the bonds is new, a system unknown in history, practical experience of Government people is the main cause for this new system.

Now for history as an explanation for the new system, during the war between the states, the Federal Government sold a vast amount of bonds as a rule only the extreme rich purchased the bonds, and they soon had the power to dictate the terms upon future issues to be sold. So great was their power before the war ended, that they virtually controlled the financial system of Government and people. It has been said that this power was composed of less than a hundred men. They controlled the volume of money in or to be put in circulation, at will. They could expand or contract the volume of money as they wished, for nearly fifty years they held this power with an iron grasp. Mr. Lincoln, a few days before he was murdered, said, "We have put down the rebellion, but I fear we have created a money power, that in course of time will prove a greater curse to the country than the rebellion." Mainly it was to avoid this great evil, that the present system for selling bonds was adopted. Another good point is that the present system is practical Democracy, and the bonds a good investment. More bonds can be sold by good business methods, than by threats.

What is the Liberty Loan?
It's forts and it's ships and it's shining guns.
It's squadrons that sweep the sea.
It's all of the circling band of steel That shall keep all the home shores free.
It's grub and it's warmth for the sailor lad
Far out on the wintry foam.
For the brave jack tar, as he fights afar,
It's the good old "Money From Home."
What is the Liberty Loan?
It's rifle and helm and it's bayonet,
It's shovel and shard and shell
For the soldier boy in the olive drab,

It's the soaring wings of the whirling planes
That battle on high alone.
For the lad who is daring "Over There."
It's the good old "Money from Home."

CAMP PASTORS WILL BE CONTINUED AT BOWIE

Work being done at Camp Bowie by pastors will not have to be discontinued.

About two months ago orders from the War Department were received by camp pastors stating that work within the camps would have to be discontinued.

However, leaders in camp work here have interpreted the rules to mean that the pastors can continue their activities in co-operation with Army chaplains and also can conduct whatever services they desire in their tabernacles, most of which are located outside of the military reservation.

And now they tell us that Spanish Influenza, despite its name, comes straight from the Orient. A name has not much significance. For instance, we have always known that German Kultur, despite its name, came direct from the devil.

LONDON SAYS "NO ARMISTICE FOR GERMANY"

London, Oct. 14.—No temporary armistice, nor any armistice at all, unless accompanied by Germany's unconditional surrender, is the dominating note of comment in London on Germany's peace note. The allies will take nothing less than unconditional surrender in the field and there must be no armistice until defeat in the field is acknowledged by the enemy.

London, Oct. 14.—Commenting on the German peace note, the London Mail says: "German reply is not acceptance of Wilson's terms. The statement that they have been accepted is not the only untruth in the German reply. The present German government was formed by the same powers and minions as those, which directed every foul act that has disgraced the name of Germany, from tearing up scraps of paper to the sinking of the Lusitania."

New War Food Program Effective Oct. 21

Announcement of the new "War Program for the Public Eating Places of America," which becomes enforceable Oct. 21, has been made by the United States Food Administration

UGH! CALUMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop using dangerous drug before it salivates you!
It's horrible!

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

simultaneously throughout the Nation today. The initial issue of the pamphlet, consisting of twelve pages, has been struck off in 250,000 booklets and shipments were made from Washington Oct. 8 to the forty-eight cities where the respective Federal Food Administrators have their headquarters.

The new rules embody twelve general orders, and a failure to comply with any of them will be regarded as a wasteful practice forbidden by Sec. 4 of the food control act of Aug. 10, 1917. In the past, the Food Administration announced, there was a lack of uniformity in the observation of food conservation, due largely to variance in interpretation. The administration estimates that nearly 9,000,000 people at the public eating places of America—hotels, restaurants, boarding houses, clubs, dining cars, etc.—the food consumption in these places being larger than in the average homes, and therefore a clearly defined program is essential.

In many respects the new program is more strict than last year. It does not embody rationing, the plan being simply to appeal to the intelligence in public eating places to work out the means and manner of saving. The twelve general orders which will govern all public eating places after Oct. 21 are as follows:

Must Contain Substitutes.

General Order No. 1.—No public eating place shall serve or permit to be served any bread or other bakery product which does not contain at least 20 per cent of wheat flour substitutes, nor shall it serve or permit to be served to any one person at any one time more than two ounces of this bread, known as Victory bread, or if no Victory bread is served, more than four ounces of other breads (such as corn breads, muffins, Boston Brown bread, etc.) Bread served at boarding camps, rye bread containing 50 per cent or more of pure rye flour and sandwiches are excepted.

General Order No. 2.—No public eating place shall serve or permit to be served bread or toast as a garniture of under meat.

General Order No. 3.—No public eating place shall allow any bread to be brought to the table until after the first course is served.

General Order No. 4.—No public eating place shall serve or permit to be served to one patron at any one meal more than one kind of meat. For the purpose of this rule meat shall be considered as including beef, mutton, pork, poultry and any by-product thereof.

General Order No. 6.—No public eating place shall serve or permit to be served to any one person at any one time more than one-half ounce of butter.

General Order No. 7.—No public

General Order No. 8.—No public eating place shall serve or permit to be served to any one person at any one meal more than one-half ounce of Cheddar, commonly called American cheese.

General Order No. 9.—No public eating place shall use or permit the use of an amount of sugar in excess two pounds for every ninety meals served, including uses of sugar on the table and in cooking, excepting such sugar as may be allotted by the Federal Food Administrators to hotels holding a bakery license. No sugar allotted for this special purpose shall be used for any other purpose.

General Order No. 10.—No public eating place shall burn any food or permit any food to be burned and all waste shall be saved to feed animals or reduced to obtain fats.

General Order No. 11.—No public eating place shall display or permit to be displayed food on its premises in any such manner as may cause its deterioration so that it can not be used for human consumption.

General Order No. 12.—No public eating place shall serve or permit to be served what is known as double cream or cream de luxe, and in any event no cream containing over 20 per cent of butter fat shall be served.

The general plan includes among others the following interpretations.

Sparing use of cereals.

Service of as new fried dishes as possible, to save fats.

One teaspoonful of sugar to a patron at one meal.

No candies after meals.

No icing made with cane or beet sugar on cakes.

Wide use of vegetables and vegetarian meals.

Because of shipping space to carry coffee; economize in its use.

Discontinuance of service of Cheddar cheese as garniture.

Ice to be served sparingly.

Elimination of fourth meal.

Elimination of meats at suppers and use of substitutes.

Simple fare for lunches and banquets.

Reduction in service plate and ware in public eating places and use of one plate instead of side dishes.

Their Medicine Chest For 20 Years

IT is characteristic of folks at or they pass the allotted "three score years and ten" to look back over the days that are gone and thoughtfully live them over.

I find myself, at seventy-one, frequently drifting back a quarter of a century, when I see myself in the little drug store owned at Bolivar, Mo., making and selling a vegetable compound to my friends and customers—what was then known only as Dr. Lewis' Medicine for Coughs, Liver and Bowel Complaints.

For many years while I was perfecting my formula I studied and investigated the laxatives and cathartics on the market and became convinced that their main fault was not that they did not act on the bowels, but that their action was too violent and drastic, and upset the system of the user; which was due to the fact that they were not thorough enough in their action, some simply acting on the upper or small intestine, while others would act only on the lower or large intestine, and that they almost invariably produced a habit requiring augmented doses.

I believed that a preparation to produce the best effect should first tone the liver, then act on the stomach and entire alimentary system. If this was accomplished, the medicine would produce a mild, but thorough elimination of the waste without the usual sickening sensations, and make the user feel better at once.

After experimenting with hundreds of different compounds, at last perfected the formula that is now known as Nature's Remedy, which I truly believe goes further and does more than any laxative on the market today. The thousands of letters from users have convinced me I was right, and that the user of Nature's Remedy as a family medicine, even though he may have used it for twenty-five years, never has to increase the dose.

My knowledge of medicine and the results of its use in my own family and among my friends, before I ever offered it for sale, caused me to have great faith in Nature's Remedy from the very first.

And now as I find myself nearing the age when I know how to be invulnerable and go to another life, my greatest pleasure is to sit and read and read the letters that each mail brings from people as old or older than I, who tell of having used Nature's Remedy for ten, fifteen and twenty years, and how they and their children and grandchildren have been benefited by it.

It is a compelling thought, my friends, for a man of my age to feel that aside from his own success, he has done something for his fellow man. My greatest satisfaction, my greatest pleasure today, is the thought that tonight some one million people will take a Nature's Remedy (not Tablet) and will be better, healthier, happier people for it. I hope you will be one of them.

GERMANS OVERJOYED AT PEACE PROSPECTS

Geneva, Oct. 15.—Travelers from Berlin arriving at Basel say the German people are overjoyed at the prospects of peace. It is asserted that while President Wilson and Chancellor Maximilian are being utilized the name of Emperor is not mentioned. The south German newspapers, the travelers say, are very sober in their comment on the situation, saying President Wilson in accord with the London and Paris governments, may demand conditions which the central powers will be unable to accept.

Mrs. W. C. Edwards and little daughter, left Tuesday morning for Dallas where they will reside in the future. Mrs. Edwards has for some time been employed with the local telephone company, and will continue with the same company in Dallas. Her many friends here wish her much success, good health and a safe return to Lubbock in the near future.

TEXT OF WILSON'S REPLY TO GERMAN NOTE

Washington, Oct. 14.—The text of the president's answer follows: "Sir: In reply to the communication of the German government dated the 12th instant which you handed me today I have the honor to request you to transmit the following answer:

"The unqualified acceptance by the present German government and by a large majority of the reichstag of the terms laid down by the president of the United States of America in his address to the congress of the United States on the eighth of January, 1918, and in his subsequent addresses justifies the president in making a frank and direct statement of his decision with regard to the communication of the German government of the 8th and 12th of October, 1918.

"It must be clearly understood that the process of evacuation and the conditions of an armistice are matters which must be left to the judgment and advice of the military advisors of the government of the United States and the allied governments, and the president feels it his duty to say that no arrangement can be accepted by the government of the United States which does not provide absolutely satisfactory safeguards and guarantees of the maintenance of the present military supremacy of the armies of the United States and the allies in the field.

"He feels confident that he can safely assume that this will also be the judgment and the decision of the allied governments.

Germans Must Reform to Get An Armistice.

"The president feels that it is also his duty to add that neither the government of the United States nor, he is quite sure, the governments with which the government of the United States is associated as a belligerent, will consent to consider an armistice so long as the armed forces of Germany continue the illegal and inhumane practices which they still persist in.

"At the very time that the German government approaches the government of the United States with proposals of peace, its submarines are engaged in sinking passenger ships at sea and not the ships alone, but the very boats in which their passengers and crews seek to make their way to safety; and in their present enforced withdrawal from Flanders and France the German armies are pursuing a course of wanton destruction which has always been regarded as in direct violation of the rules and practices of civilized warfare. Cities and villages, if not destroyed are being stripped of all they contain not only, but often of their very inhabitants. The nations associated against Germany cannot be expected to agree to a cessation of arms while acts of inhumanity, spoliation and desolation are being continued which they justly look upon with horror and with burning hearts.

"It is necessary, also, in order that there may be no possibility of misunderstanding that the president should very solemnly call the attention of the government of Germany to the language and plain intent of one of the terms of the peace which the German government has now accepted. It is contained in the address of the president delivered at Mount Vernon on the Fourth of July last.

MANHATTAN PARLOR

O. R. PHILLIPS, Proprietor

Contained in Mount Vernon Address. "It is as follows: 'The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separately, secretly and of its single choice disturb the peace of the world, or, if it can not be presently destroyed, at least its reduction to virtual impotency. The power which has hitherto controlled the German nation is of the sort here described. It is within the choice of the German nation to alter it. The president's words just quoted naturally constitute a condition precedent to peace, if peace is to come by the action of the German people themselves. The president feels bound to say that the whole process of peace will, in his judgment, depend upon the definiteness and the satisfactory character of this fundamental matter. It is indispensable that the government associate the guarantees which can be given in aid against Germany should know beyond a peradventure with whom they are dealing.'

"The president will make a separate reply to the royal and imperial government of Austria-Hungary.

Mr. Brown enlisted in the service of Uncle Sam, May the 27th and went from here with others of Terry county to Camp Cody, N. M., where he went into training, and was afterwards transferred to Camp Dix, N. J. and was a member of 109 Field Signal Bn. 34th Division, about the middle of August. WITHOUT BLOODSHED.

During the American operations against Metz a German regiment underwent an almost unique experience. It was flanked right and left simultaneously and though it might have continued to fight it did just as practical a thing in surrendering. The Americans could have massacred it or starved it without losing a man.

Its colonel called the roll and every man answered. He then suggested to his captors that as his command was so distressing complete it might as well preserve its organization, and with its officers and non-coms it marched, disarmed and under escort, to the detention camp. The only thing lacking was a brass band.

The coup was accomplished by Yankee quickness. The quickness was made possible by flawless transportation facilities and equipment. These things make for bloodless victory. And they cost money.

The amount called for in the new loan appeal is stupendous. It is not a case of "Have you bought a bond?" but "How many have you bought?"

But money means superior equipment and bloodless triumphs. Fighting with safety—so far as it is possible—improves with organization. Death and casualty rates have shrunk considerably at the front. We have seen 8 per cent go to 3 per cent.

Money buys gas masks, life saving appliances and hospital equipment. It's our money or the lives of our boys. Don't weaken, men and women of Lubbock, buy bonds.

BEEF AND BRAWN.

In the month of June, 1918, we exported to France, Great Britain, Italy and Belgium ninety times as much beef as we sent them in any month during the three years preceding the war.

Operations near Metz and elsewhere have given all nations a salutary proof of the weight of Uncle Sam's fist. So he now incurs no danger by giving them, through the above statistics, an impression of the capacity of his larder.

R. L. Settle, of Pauls Valley, Oklahoma, is visiting at the home of his brother, J. D. Settle. Mr. Settle is an oil operator and visited the Ranger field before coming to Lubbock.

Robert O. Weston, of Lubbock was reported as killed in action in France. We have since learned that this was Robert O. Wester, son of Prof. J. K. Wester. He was not well known in Lubbock, but the acquaintance of the parents assures us that he was a true loyal American, and died a brave soldier in the defense of his country. He paid the supreme sacrifice. Will you help to shorten this awful war by purchasing more Liberty Bonds?

Dr. J. W. Carter, was over from Crosbyton Sunday.

There was never a time when the aid and help of women were more appreciated than at the present time. Women should learn war-nursing and nursing at home. There is no better way than to study the new edition of the "Common Sense Medical Adviser," with chapters on First Aid, Bandaging, Sanitation, Hygiene, care of the Sick, Diseases of Women, Mother and Babe, the Marriage Relation—to be had at some drug stores or send 50c to Publisher, 604 Washington Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

If a woman suffers from weak back, nervousness or dizziness—if pain afflicts her, the best tonic and corrective is one made up of native herbs and made without alcohol, which makes weak women strong and sick women well. It is the prescription of Dr. Pierce, used by him in active practice many years and now sold by almost every druggist in the land, in liquid or in tablets. Send Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 10c for trial pkg. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are also best for liver and bowel trouble.

Waco, Tex.—"I was very bad health and took Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Prescription and in a few days I felt better than I had in a long time. I took it for woman's troubles and nervousness and it did me a world of good. I can recommend the 'Prescription' to anybody, as being good medicine."

RED CROSS ITEMS

An Unpatriotic Fad. You have probably noticed this summer, the absurd and unpatriotic fad of the sleeveless woolen sweater adopted by so many young women.

Absurd from the standpoint of season—a woolen sweater over sheerest midsummer dresses.

Unpatriotic from the only standpoint to be considered today—the war.

The production of wool is insufficient for the needs of the army; and the time taken to knit these unnecessary articles is time stolen from the Red Cross, where they are pleading for knitted necessities for our army and navy.

Let us not be guilty of using one ounce of wool that is needed by our sailors on the frozen deck of a battle ship, or by our soldiers who stand in ice, snow, water and mud through a dreary trench winter.

Above all let us see that a member from each family gives liberally of her time to the work of the Red Cross.

Further information in regard to sending Christmas packages overseas has been received. It specifies that every soldier over-seas can receive one Christmas package, but only one, and it must not weigh more than two pounds and fifteen ounces.

Labels are now being distributed throughout the army. These labels will be sent back to the United States to be placed on packages. No package without a label will be accepted by the postal authorities. Those receiving labels should take them to the nearest Red Cross Chapter, where they will be given card board boxes 3x4x9 inches. These boxes are furnished without cost by the Red Cross Chapter. No message or written material of any kind must be put in the box, which when packed must not be over two pounds and fifteen ounces in weight. Perishable foods, soft candies or liquids cannot be sent.

It is expected that two millions of these boxes will be sent abroad, and the shipping space provided for them will not permit any deviation of these rules.

The rooms of the local chapter both in the court house and Woodmen hall are closed for the present, and will remain closed during the Influenza epidemic.

Box serial 74 has been shipped. It contained 2 bed packets, 2 suits of pajamas, 14 summer bed shirts, 13 helpless case shirts, 38 comfort bags, 120 girls chemise. Box serial 75 contained linens for French hospitals. It contained 25 sheets, 60 bath towels, 100 small towels, 260 men's handkerchiefs and 50 table napkins.

Junior Red Cross. Case No. 76 which was shipped this week, contained the following articles made by the Junior Red Cross: 28 swaddling cloths, 126 aprons for women, 13 infant's capes, 57 chemise, 45 dresses size 5, 10 infant's jackets, 16 petticoats, 10 shirts, 24 diapers, 21 comfort bags for infants, 15 knitted caps, 10 knitted hoods, 40 pairs infant's bontee, and 1 afghan, made of knitted squares.

By the time school starts again the Junior work room at the George M. Junt school will be open for workers. The high school girls will do their work in the domestic science department, as all their time in the sewing department will be given to the Red Cross work.

The officers and supervisors of the Junior work are, at present:

LET'S SPRINKLE THE STREETS EVERY DAY

The City Wednesday morning sprinkled the square and leading streets and the difference in the appearance of the city and the feeling of the people could be very readily noticed. The Avalanche suggests that this be made a practice by the city. It can be done at a very light cost to the city. The business men and property owners adjacent to the ground that would be affected by the sprinkling the most all among the heavy tax payers of the city and the expense naturally fall upon them, and they would be glad to see part of their tax money used in that way. We believe that the city can do this work much cheaper and better than by a privately operated street sprinkler, and we hope the city authorities will take the question under advisement and let us have the streets sprinkled.

KIPLING'S HOME HOUSES GIRLS' PATRIOTIC LEAGUE

Rattleboro, Vermont.—Rudyard Kipling's old home here is now used by the Girls' Patriotic League and Miss Grace Holbrook who occupies it, is caring for the girls and women employed in the stores and factories of the city. Miss Holbrook's official title is Secretary of the League, an organization devised for girls by the War Work Council of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Some three hundred girls have enthusiastically undertaken patriotic work under the shadow of the home of England's most virile writer. They put the Junior Red Cross over the top early in the campaign, surpassing all expectations. They have also aided in the clerical work of the War Chest Campaign, as well as carrying their full share of the other work assigned to them.

"It may seem strange to some men," said the secretary, "that it was in Kipling's home that plans were devised to make the city dry. Yet such was the case, and the League rendered valuable but unseen service in that work."

WOMEN MUNITION WORKERS ARE CHEERED BY Y. W. C. A.

"I can't sleep of nights for fear I have overlooked a defective or inaccurate part," exclaimed a girl inspector of torpedo parts, to the secretary of the Young Women's Christian Association, who sought to improve her living conditions. The conversation was at a dormitory near an American munitions plant.

"In this plant are made many, many torpedoes. I can't remember how many pass, in part, through my hands for examination and rejection if they are not perfect. I shudder to think how many American lives might be lost through my ignorance or carelessness."

Cheered by the secretary, and brought back to normal, she returned to her exacting work, no longer a victim of "nerves."

And the Allies have captured Belin;
When we bring forth a treaty of peace,
We will take Kaiser Bill and his kin.

When the Kaiser will have ceased to reign;
Yes, that day will soon come,
And the Germans will give up Lor-raine.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels are causing at once. When cough, gross flatus, dozing sleep, or an unnatural or feverish stomach, your baby has a weak liver, full of bile, give a teaspoonful "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the food, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile really moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well-played child again. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains 17 directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

The Kaiser's hair has grown gray since the war began. Probably in the same proportion in which his prospects have grown dark.

These Days Finer Shoes are the Exception

Nettleton shoes are not built down to meet a retail price.

They are built up to meet an established standardized Nettleton quality and that standard is the highest degree of shoe worth that our forty years of shoe making has taught us.

Unusual wear, comfort, grace and beauty of finish are our first consideration. That the maximum of these qualities cannot be produced at a minimum of expense must be apparent to any reasoning man. The price of is cost plus a fair return on the investment in plant, materials and highly trained men and women. Two score years of giving highest satisfaction has perpetuated the Nettleton phrase—"Economy Through Quality."

When Mother Goes Away.
By Geo. M. Hunt, Lubbock, Texas

Upon the silent stream of life,
She's drifting on each day;
And there'll be many falling tears,
When mother goes away.

We will be lonely in our homes,
Where she was won't to stay;
For we shall see a vacant chair,
When mother goes away.

We'll think about the pleasant things,
That we have heard her say;
And they will linger in our hearts
When mother goes away.

Altho, she now is growing old,
Her heart seems young and gay;
And we'll recall those cheerful smiles,
When mother goes away.

To her, while in declining years,
Our homage we will pay,
And pleasant memories will remain,
When mother goes away.

Amid life's evanescent scenes,
Whose beauties round us play;
We'll catch sweet echoes of her songs
When mother goes away.

While she remains to cheer our hearts,
Her precepts we'll obey;

And thus will lead a faithful life,
When mother goes away.

We'll strive to reach that happy land
Where all are free from care;
To keep the faith when mother's gone
And meet her over there.
—GEO. M. HUNT.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

Tells how to loosen a tender corn or callus so it lifts out without pain.

You restless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by the Cincinnati authority to use a drug called Freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callus the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts off with the fingers.

Freezone dries the moment it is applied, and simply dries the corn or callus without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Small bottles of Freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but will positively rid you of every hard or soft corn or hardened callus. -If your druggist hasn't any Freezone he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you.

GIRLS' LEMON JUICE IS A SKIN WHITENER

How to make a creamy beauty lotion for a few cents.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands.

If you want for heavy hair that glitters with beauty and is coolant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Dandruff. Just one application dissolves the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive dandruff robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots jamish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. CENTENARY PROGRAM OF M. E. CHURCH, LUBBOCK IS GIVEN

One of the most interesting features of Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, which convenes November 6 at Lubbock, Texas, will be observed Nov. 7. Bishop James Cannon of Virginia will preside.

Among the speakers, who will present the centenary program, will be Dr. W. W. Pinson, Dr. J. L. Neill, Mrs. J. W. Downs of Nashville, Tenn. Rev. F. S. Onderdonk, of San Antonio and E. O. Watson, representing the War Work Commission.

The subjects to be discussed on "Centenary day" will be "World Reconstruction After the War," "God's Call to the Church in a World's Crisis," "The Church's Opportunity to Get Out of Littleness into Bigness." Bishop Cannon will be one of the principal speakers. A leading layman will discuss "Can We Put It Over?" and a stereopticon lecture will show the needs of the mission fields.

This year's annual conference session promises to be one of the most interesting and important in the history of the organization and while the centenary movement is already well known to the members of the conference, great interest will be aroused by the coming of these specialists who are highly trained in missionary activities.

The centenary movement includes a world program based on a careful survey of need and opportunity, and a vigorous campaign will be made to release the prayer power of the church by enrolling tens of thousands in the "Fellowship of Intercession" and training them as prayer helpers. The program also includes a "stewardship drive" to secure enrollment of millions of Methodists who will acknowledge their stewardship by the payment of the tithe.

During the next five years of the centenary celebration there will be an earnest appeal made for life service and strenuous efforts will be made to recruit a large number of new workers for the ministry, home and foreign missions, and for service in the local church.

In the next five years' the Southern Methodists expect to raise $35,000,000 to be applied to war work, home and foreign missions, and church extension.

BOY SCOUTS TO COLLECT FRUIT STONES AND PITS

Information has been received from the National Council of Boy Scouts in New York City, that the Boy Scouts of the United States have been called upon by Benedict Crowell, Acting Secretary of the War Department, to assist in the gathering of peach stones and fruit pits, in conjunction with the work being done by the Red Cross.

All scoutmasters have been advised to instruct the boys to call upon everyone whom they know or can get in touch with and ask them to save all the following stones and pits: Peach stones or pits, plum pits, olive pits, date seeds, cherry pits, Brazil nut shells, the shells of hickory nuts, walnuts and butternuts.

In order to create enthusiasm in the work the following prizes are offered: To the troop turning in the largest amount by Dec. 1, $5 worth of scout supplies; to troop getting second largest amount $3 in scout supplies; to troop getting third largest amount $2 in scout supplies. The boys will turn in what they collect at headquarters in their district at each meeting of the troops, and receive credit for the number of pints or quarts he may bring in. After an accumulation of stones has been received it will be turned over to Red Cross authorities.

The success of this work depends upon the thorough covering of all territory and not allowing a single pit to go to waste. We are going to try and prove that our organization can do a job of this kind more thoroughly than any other agency in the country.

This work need not interfere with the W. S. S. campaign work. The boys have been instructed to carry their red cards with them and make sales of war saving stamps as they go.

NEW DAM IS BEING BUILT WEST OF FORT

San Angelo, Texas, Oct. 12.—A concrete dam across a lead into the Pecos River under construction on the border between Reeves and Pecos counties, Texas, and about forty miles west of Fort San Angelo, Texas, will be completed in about 18 months. When completed it will cost about $150,000, and it is estimated that it will impound water for irrigation of 40,000 to 50,000 acres of land. Good progress is being made on the dam, according to San Angelo people who have recently visited it.

METHODISTS POSTPONE WEST TEXAS CONFERENCE

Austin, Texas, Oct. 12.—Bishop Ainsworth of the Methodist Church has sent notices to presiding elders that the annual West Texas Methodist Conference, which was to have been held in Austin next Wednesday, has been postponed to a date yet undecided. Postponement was made necessary by the influenza epidemic.

By this time you have probably decided that you never did like sugar in your coffee anyhow.

No Worms in Healthy Child
All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is much gastric disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a general strengthening tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or digest the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 50c per bottle.

It does the work, use SANOL ECZEMA REMEDY to get rid of those Black Heads, Pimples or Rough Bumpy Skin. Leave skin smooth. Cures the case of Eczema. Is pleasant to use. A trial will convince you. 50c and $1.00 at the drug store. 8-52

Under the Tents at Camp Travis

Camp Travis, Oct., 15—Because epidemic influenza has appeared in Camp Travis, the "folks back home" need not worry for fear that their boys in this camp are needlessly exposed to dangers or can lack for care. Every precaution is taken to isolate influenza cases the instant they develop—and those who have been taken ill are receiving even better care than they could get at home for they are in care of the best specialists that the government can secure.

To forestall a repetition of the enemy propaganda which last winter was aimed at the discouragement of Red Cross workers who supply soldiers with knitted sweaters and other cold weather comforts, Brig. Gen. Geo. T. Estes commanding officer at Camp Travis, has issued orders that wearing apparel sent to Camp Travis by the Red Cross and other charitable institutions should be distributed through government clothing. Last winter reports were spread that the soldiers were selling for almost nothing the sweaters and comforts knitted for them by loving hands but an investigation proved all these stories to be absolutely untrue but were put out by German agents to discourage those who were toiling to keep the boys warm, comfortable and healthy.

Growth of interest in the work of the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Travis is strikingly illustrated by the report of the secretary for the month of September. While only two hundred and sixty three meetings were held as compared to three hundred and five for the month of August, the attendance was sixty-two thousand compared to thirty-seven thousand for the classes were formed with an average membership of thirty. A corps of ninety teachers is employed in bible class work in the canteen. Bibles to the number of 4,598 and 7,981 other pieces of literature on religion were distributed. Visits to the sick numbered 15,099. More than one hundred speakers addressed soldier gatherings, including six from a distance and twenty-five from the city of San Antonio.

Some of the citizens of Deaf Smith county last week became tired of the way one of their citizens was acting toward the Government demands and the purchasing of Liberty Bonds and such like, and proceeded to paint him yellow and took what paint they had left and sold it during the county fair for $113, which was at the rate of about $250 per gallon, and donated the proceeds to the Red Cross.

in the particular branch of study that we wish to pursue. At church we meet other souls and together we study the existence of the soul, its nature, capacities, duty and destiny. Man is a triune being having body, mind and soul. Changing the figure, man is a house of three stories—basement, middle storey and third storey. His body is the basement, his mind the middle storey and his soul the upper and superior storey. In the basement are the grosser and less enduring things of life. There we attend to what we shall eat and how we shall meet our bodily needs. In this part of our house we are very close to the animal world. Our higher nature teaches us all our refinements of care for our bodies but our sensual natures often exert more influence upon us than our wiser and better nature even if we are so trained as to know how to treat our bodies. Paul declared that he beat and kept his body in holy subjection.

Our minds should have much and varied culture and learn the value of this vast power given us above the brute. Now noble is the mental sphere of our lives! How vast our possibilities of mental activity and how past even our wildest guess is the scope of mental endeavor. Unlike the body, confined to the earth as it is, the mind can rise to heaven and measure the distances to the stars and weigh them. How great the power of the mind to serve or enslave the lower storey of life—our bodies. Long ago men have discovered that the very life of our bodies is in the possession of our minds. But wonderful are these two stories of our lives they are helpless except as we possess a soul. This great top storey of our lives nearest to the sun and nearest to God ought to be lord over all and will if needed in its call to duty, lead both mind and body to immortality. We sometimes speak of soulless corporations and even of soulless men. To be without the knowledge of our possession of a soul is to be enslaved in the most painful and degrading way. To be blinded to the high and glorious privileges of an enlightened soul is the most pitiable condition to which a mortal man can be reduced. How sad the plight of a broken and diseased body, how we pity and deplore the condition of the mentally deranged person; but what of the wrecked soul? With the neglect of the soul all is darkness, confusion and eternal defeat. With the eyes of the soul put out and sun and sky, and life and hope and love and joy departed and immortality made shipwreck of; is the supreme tragedy of existence—the suicide of eternity.

Then we attend church to worship God. Happy the man and woman who have learned the privilege and blessing of worship. In this holy atmosphere we seek after God and climb out of our sinful debased selves toward Him in whose image we were originally created. We stand on the earth and reach up to heaven. There is nothing in all the exercises of our manifold powers of being comparable to devout Christian worship. There is nothing so elevating and refining and so richly beneficial to our entire nature as is the simple, humble, intelligent worship of our Heavenly Father. Men have sought to find an answer to the hunger and cry of their souls in many ways, but all have failed except as they have come to God in the way of prayer, praise and the preaching of the Gospel. Nothing earthly in body or mind in material or mental satisfactions can supply the bliss for which we sigh. Our deep of soul calls loudly for high and holy fellowship with the infinite and good God and his immortality. The tides of reasoning and thought rise at the touch of devotion. The sacred song, the holy hush and tender plea of prayer and the fervent simple story of life and salvation lift us as nothing else into highest heavens of rapturous joy. The miserable lowlands of unbelief and indifference afford but temporary and rapidly passing satisfaction. But we are told that field and forest, river and ocean, starry heavens and sunlit sky preach enough and that man needs no more. Alas! Alas but where are the devout worshippers of God's great out of doors? Where are the results of their devout worship? In vain we look for the character made noble and useful by such nature worship. Like beasts and birds we can live amid the glory of nature's treasures, but remain blind as they that learn not worship. We are all too ready to frame an excuse to avoid the real face to face meeting with God in his earthly sanctuary.

One has said: "The Lord is in His Holy Tabernacle, let all the earth keep silent before him;" and again "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord;" and still, "I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of the Lord than to dwell in the tents of wickedness." Our bodies, our minds our souls find no place on earth where they experience such heights of holy inspiration and delight as in the multitudes that throng the places of devout worship. Nothing so impoverishes a human life as a prodigal neglect of attendance upon public worship. The tender and deep fellowships of life and the holy inspirations of our higher selves is only possible when we attend well the soul school of public worship.

The services of the sanctuary afford the greatest means of growing a really good character. If this is doubted you need only turn to the pages of current information in the world at this time. Do you know of a single greatly useful, happy and successful man, who is a blessing to the world, in a large way, who is not an attendant upon public worship when it is possible? Who are the outstanding men of affairs that you would trust with your highest interests? Are they not good men and true, whose lives give every encouragement to praise, prayer and preaching? If it appears that in at least a large measure men of character are friends of Jesus and attend upon and commend public worship is not our proposition made out? Oh yes, from age to age the good and true have worshipped at God's altars and gathered humbly before Him who has clothed them with fame and honor, that even on earth is among the richest and the best. The very business of our lives is the growing of good character and missing that, we fail all ingloriously.

It would be better not to have lived than to have failed of character. Indeed, that is just the word of Jesus. He said that the man who would betray Him had better not have been born. How shallow, how poor, is a life bereft of the sacred possession of character. Just to live and pass out of the world like blades of grass, to drift like aimless broken vessels, on the tides of time and know not nor seek a haven of rest and righteousness is a travesty on existence.

But our souls like our bodies and minds call for food and are best fed and feasted in the places of public worship. The things that make for peace, rest, satisfaction and joy for our souls are found richest and best in public worship. Human language is poor indeed when it seeks to tell of the rich menu of the soul. The poor Prodigal at his fathers home and seated at the great feast could tell the difference between famishing in a far off swine pen and feasting in the smiling presence of his father's house. Ah me! Footsore and wearied, worn in our battle with men and demons, pursued by our own inner temptations to sin and harried and torn by wild beasts and wicked associations or exposed to the devouring beasts and poisonous serpents of the jungles of sin, how good it is to find sweet rest in the blessed sanctuary of God and worship Him on His holy day among His best and most loving children. David talks about worshipping the lord in the presence of all his people. Just to dwell among men who seek for purity, peace and blessing is a glad privilege. How we do rob our souls of food by neglecting attendance upon public worship!

I might say that not alone for the reasons already mentioned should we attend church but we ought to set a wholesome example for our fellows in life. And if we are willing to lose ourselves; the rich blessings of worship we ought to show our regard at least for our families and society in general. A great man has said that if it were his to build a great city he would begin it by laying the corner stone of a temple of worship. Abraham never pitched his camp in his wondrously nomadic life without first erecting his altar for offering and devout worship for himself and his fellow travelers. Nowhere in all history do we find a good, happy and prosperous community where there is no public worship. Cold, cold indeed, is the winter and woe of that land and that people who worship not and bring no offering before their Lord. Hide from us the awful hour when the sanctuary of God is deserted and all the altar fires put out, and no one sings or preaches or prays. Who could live amid such desolations and be truly happy. It would be lonely, dark, drear, weird, horrible, ah yes! hell itself to hear no more the hallowed notes of heavenly song, devout prayer and impassioned, enlightening loving, prophet-voiced preaching. It would be to the soul redeemed and facing heaven even worse than any conceivable picture of punishment. Surely crime than that of Cain? Surely our reasons give our weight of influence to our family and society that they come not into our place of trouble and despair.

To come to the last reason let us contemplate the brotherhood of public worship. It is the will of God and all good men that men love each other and live in this life like brothers. Indeed the doctrine central and distinguished in the teaching of the Bible is the brotherhood of men. But the doctrine of sin and non-church attendance is the doctrine of Cain and is expressed by Cain's cold murderous reply to God: "Am I my brother's keeper?"

Who can imagine the loneliness and misery of Cain after the murder of his brother! In all the annals of time has there been a more unbrotherly crime than that of Cain. Surely God set down this tragic story at the very door of human history that men might take warning against unbrotherliness. What depths of sin yawn here! The prostrate bleeding writing struggling dying brother; the fiendish faced, wild, reckless, revenging, merciless and devil inspired murderer, who can help but draw back from such a scene and wish that its like should never again appear on the earth. But, alas, all too often we hear the cry of unbrotherliness and the earth again is called upon to drink up the blood of brother slain by brother. In this awful hour of this world's moral eclipse and cataclysm the world groans with awful hate and is drenched with brother blood. Here we behold the harvest of disobedience to our text: "Neglect not the assembling of yourselves together." We went away heedless of the heavenly exhortation and sowed the seed of discord and lo before we had thought of it, suddenly the world was rocking with earthquakes of hate, murder and ruin. If men were brothers good and true think you that they would behave thus? A nation whittled its Bible to shavings and sat amid the ruin until it froze to death the spirit of brotherhood and then rose up to do the deeds of Cain. Poor mortals we are to put out the only fire that will warm us and to extinguish the only light that will guide us to glory.

Will there come a better day among us when we shall gather upon the holy ground of faith and hope and love and worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness and reap the blessed and peaceable fruits of righteousness. Let us heed his exhortation, "Observe my Sabbaths and reverence my sanctuaries for I am God and beside me there is none other." Again hear his promise: "Blessed is that people whose God is the Lord." Then let us say: "I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of wickedness."

How we neglect the greatest things of life and waste and worry over the smaller! Christian character is the throne of righteousness and the crown of glory and every one who will may inherit them. Let us devoutly pray for the glad day when all shall gather in peace and blessed fellowship in the "Little Brown Church in the Vale and in the Great Temples of our cities and worship the Lord our God—when we shall sing and experience "The Old Time Religion." The largest blessing Heaven has bestowed on men is the privilege of public worship. The highest good for body, mind and soul is the humble, sincere, devout worship of our Heavenly Father.
